Monarch Manufacturing Co., 200 State St., CHICAGO, ILL.
jel2-7teow

July 24 3teow

HARTER'S THE ONLY TRUE IRON TONIC
Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE NERVE and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new power. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST.
Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK." Full of strange and useful information, free.
may8-1y

AYER'S Ague Cure
contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and, consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.
WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.
Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.
may1-4m

PATENTS
MUNN & CO., of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, for the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany, etc. Hand Book about Patents sent free. Thirty-seven years' experience. Patents obtained through MUNN & CO. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, the most widely circulated scientific paper in the world. Splendid engravings, and interesting information. Specimen copy of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN sent free. Address MUNN & CO., Publishers SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN Office, 261 Broadway, New York.
dec6-tf

AGENTS Wanted for our new book BURIED CITIES RECOVERED. Buried Nations exhumed; obliterated history rewritten. The doings of Patriarchs, Prophets and Kings unfolded. Great discoveries. Latest researches. Testimony from Pyramids, Temples and Tombs. Plain to a child; absorbing to all. Richly illustrated. New maps. Low price. Sells greatly. Subscribers dailies and. Wm. GARRETSON & Co., 4th & Chestnut Sts., St. Louis, Mo.
mar13-1y

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.

DIAMOND DYES
Are the Best Dyes Ever Made.
DRESSES, COATS, SHAWLS, YARN, STOCKINGS, FEATHERS, BONES, etc. of any fabrics or materials easily and perfectly colored to any shade.
32 FAST AND DURABLE COLORS.
EACH PACKAGE WILL COLOR ONE TO FOUR LBS.
Ask for the DIAMOND DYES, and take no other. None can compare with them for Brilliancy, Simplicity and Economy. Every lady, miss and merchant should send for sample card, sent post-paid. 10 cents. Name this paper. Address Home Dye Co.
Gold Paint. Silver Paint.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

QUARTER, LESSON VIII Aug 24.
STAYED. (2 Sam xxiv, 15-24.)

the death of Absalom, who rebelled against David ecame ashamed of their wicked-n, and came and escorted their ng back to Jerusalem. Every ing was again settled and quiet the kingdom. But Satan is er content, and he tempted vid to number the people, or the census. We can not tell this was so displeasing to the
It is probable that he d to go to war for his own
, and wished to see if he d have soldiers enough.
he had been going at the com d of God, he need not have so concerned, for God can by many or few. After all experience, David ought to known how vain is the help without the blessing of the upon what we undertake.
although a bad man, saw the king was going to act very ly, and told him so, but he no attention to his advice.
the numbering was over, sent Gad, a prophet or preach-to give David the choice of kinds of punishment for his war, famine, or pestilence. He the last. The cholera, when die with it in a short time, is a pestilence. Seventy thous people died in three days in country of Palestine. can hardly imagine how dread-must have been. When the by whom this plague had sent, came to Jerusalem, the said, "It is enough; stay thine hand." So he stood by threshing place of Araunah, a sign both of God's and mercy. We can almost same angel to-day, with drawn out over our ties to destroy them.
the command of God went out to where stood, that he might after and make an offer-
Lord, so that his anger turned away. He sought and the animals and for the fire. Araunah them to him, but willing to give to the not cost him any offering of David was and the plague ceased.
been afraid to go
Gad, and Western.

16, by Rev. M.
Miss Anna De-

the brides, by Rev.
Lawrence and Miss Hen-and Marcellus
by H. T. J. Cook and Mildred C. Priestly and
August 13.

died July 10, in 35 years. He several children.
Chapel

OBOCKETT.

a faithful Chris-of Asbury M.
the
the
On Henry and Sar-brief illness of

, August, 1884.
who served the said:
by Pres-
Pitts-
Gen-
Gen-
Gen

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 35. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, AUGUST 28, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 774.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

23 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriages Notices	25 "
Special Notices	6 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

If a man does good work it will be sure of recognition in the long run.

We are under obligations to Rev. L. M. Hagood for valuable documents.

The Central has a strong claim upon us for kind notices and helpful gleanings.

The Gulf Coast Signal doesn't seem to be troubled with brain fat. Rowboat is in a literary fat.

Christ conquered by dying, and gave us of the fruit of his victory by rising from the dead.

The work of no man can be estemed of real value until age and experience has tempered enthusiasm.

We acknowledge our obligations to the Western. Many items of interest are gleaned from its well filled pages.

"The recent action of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Philadelphia, and its steady advance on the line have not gone unnoticed by me."—Prof. Gretener.

The SOUTHWESTERN is not a political newspaper, but its readers are citizens interested in the political economy of the country, and hence require political information without distortion. For this they can always depend upon us.

[illegible] thing to secure the Scriptures, for in them we think we have eternal life, and they testify of Christ. But the chief thing is the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. For as many as are led, not driven, by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

[illegible] Israel went out of [illegible] saw it and fled, [illegible] back; the mountains [illegible] and the [illegible] be," so, when [illegible] Lord in these times [illegible] out many spiritual [illegible] determined op[illegible] of nature teaching [illegible] opposite in [illegible] in the movement in [illegible] per week for 1885, [illegible] with Dr. Vincent [illegible] if any equal, in [illegible] work. He has [illegible] departure, and [illegible] if [illegible] by appointment [illegible] guaranteed [illegible] subscription.

[illegible] over the [illegible] with the votes of the Democratic Congressmen on the Morrison bill, and the ambiguous phrases of the Chicago platform, would take some independent political action. But in their convention, which assembled in New Orleans, August 20, beyond the passage of a resolution favoring a protective tariff, and thanking Senators Jonas and Gibson, and Congressmen Kellogg and Hunt, for their course in Congress, nothing of significance transpired. The blandishments of the Cleveland political managers were too much for them, and the convention adjourned without fixing upon a definite policy. Subsequenly a call was issued by H. C. Minor, chairman of a provisional committee, for a meeting in New Orleans, August 30, of all rice and sugar planters favorable to the election of Blaine and Logan, to take into consideration the best means of organizing the Blaine and Logan strength throughout the State.

Our readers will read with great interest the telegraphic summary of the proceedings in the Francois miscegenation case. Those who have forgotten the frequent reference to the points submitted to the courts in that case, will be refreshed in memory. We are pleased to note that Francois preferred to decline the Governor's pardon, conditioned to deprive him of citizenship, as if he had committed a crime, and to prevent a final decision in a test case believed to be going adversely to the State, than to accept liberty at the sacrifice of the principles involved. His unlawful incarceration, a disgrace to Texas and to the United States, will soon expire under the terms of the unjust sentence. The Governor of Texas and all his associates who have violated the laws of the land, deprived a fellow citizen of his liberty, and submitted him to five years of bondage for the crime of marriage, should be prosecuted with vigor. If there is any lack of means to prosecute, let the counsel for Francois issue his appeal, and means will be forthcoming from every section of the land.

At the last session of the New Orleans Preacher's Meeting, a committee was appointed to investigate the alleged interference by the city police, with worship in the churches, a pastor having reported that his church was visited by an officer, who instructed him to close his services at 9.30 p. m., and the city press contained reports of the arrest and fine of an African Methodist minister, on the charge of disturbing the peace by boisterous noises in his church. There will be a calm and impartial inquiry made concerning the acts complained of. There is no intention to allow any city or State official to dictate the hours, or interfere otherwise without authority of law with the conduct of public worship in our churches. We are pleased to see that our African brethren have employed counsel, and carried the matter directly to the courts for decision. In the petition of the Union Bethel African Methodist Church, for a writ of injunction to restrain the mayor and police from interfering with their congregation and religious services, it is alleged that for some time they have been under constant police surveillance, a police patrol is kept around the church, exercising a religious censorship in the premises.

New Orleans District

A soul-saving minister must be a man who has been born of the Spirit. He is to preach repentance, faith, salvation; what he has felt and still feels, and therefore knows how to explain and enforce. Nothing of the Gospel is a dead letter to him. His discourse is not a mere disquisition or essay, but a message breathing with life, animated with the Spirit of God, that inhabits, possesses and controls the preacher's heart. With an unfaltering and ever increasing faith he goes about his Master's business. Perhaps there are some foolish virgins who are influential members in his church. He tells them that church membership saves no man; unless they are born again they will not find admittance into heaven. A soul-saving minister preaches joyously. The joy of the Lord is his strength. He feels that he can "run through a troop, or leap over a wall." The Holy Spirit is constantly animating, invigorating and blessing him. His heart is full, his lips are glad, and his preaching is the music of salvation. His words, coming as they do from a full and rejoicing soul, flow out to act with power and energy upon the heart of the hearer.

La Harpe Street Methodist Episcopal Church is in the midst of a strong Roman Catholic community. Its ups and downs have been many. When their pastor has made himself an example in conversation, in charity, in spirit; gentle, not violent; patient, not fretful; meek, not proud and haughty, but harmless, undefiled, a man of God without rebuke; he has been welcomed to the homes of the people, and the Church has put on strength. Thus far this conference year has been one of continued peace and prosperity. The Sunday-school has 97 enrolled with an average attendance of 68. The congregation more than doubled. The finances are in a healthy condition. Class collections as follows: No. 1, $6.30; No. 2, $6.10; No. 3, $5 55; No. 4, $6; No 5, $6.50. With a membership of 61, including those on probation, the class collection was $30 45, or fifty cents per member. At the same time there is a blessed religious influence prevailing among the people, and young men and women are consecrating themselves to God. Brother Qualls is deservedly popular among all denominations, and has a wonderful hold upon our people, and is doing a grand work for the Church.

In going over the district I find that what is needed to make a great success in all our church work is men and money—more efficient men to do the work, and more money to sustain them when they are doing the work. Not much will be gathered from having a good farm if it is not properly worked. So it is with our churches and church work. There is a great supply of a certain class of preachers, but there is no demand for them. There is, however, an increasing demand for those who will make our church work a success. Just here I confess to a sort of bewilderment as to where the preachers needed to do the work of the church to come from; I do not know. Money is needed almost as much as the men; money for poor and weak churches; money for church erection; money for so many things. How are we to get the money? Where are the needed men to come from? Meantime we can not stand still; we must make the best use of the men and money we have, and push on. At the same time we know if a man and a team can only take care of twenty acres it is no use to give him forty.

When Bro. Gayden went to Thomson's Chapel he found a divided and scattered people, and a debt of $375 upon the church. The people were nearly discouraged. In the midst of sorrow and affliction it is sometimes difficult for the heralds of Jesus to be joyous. Bro. Gayden however, entered upon his work and has been gathering the people, and is doing the best he can to bring the church up and out of the wilderness. He is now making a vigorous effort to raise $100 towards the payment of the debt upon the church. In doing farm work good plows, harrows and other agricultural implements are needed, and men that love work and know how to use the tools; so in doing our church work, prayer, class and preaching meetings are needed. Our brethren at Thomson's Chapel need to look after their class meetings, they are the life of the church. Cowards and idlers pass into oblivion, while bold and cheerful workers never die.

L. P. CUSHMAN.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

History of Clark Chapel—No. 5

BY L. M. HAGOOD.

The successor of Bro. Hays, having learned this, aimed to strike a happy mean between these supposed extremes, and how well he succeeded eternity will tell. But few insurrections have occured, but many things that could be better have suggested themselves to him. 1. It does seem possible for the members of the church to love their own church more and attend better. The 11 o'clock service is now attended as well as any church in the city. But some of the members got into the habit, some years ago, of staying at home all the morning and coming out to church at night; another part coming out in the morning and going elsewhere at night, or staying at home; either of which is damaging to the church, as well as reflecting upon our holy religion. 2. The congregation could sing much better than it does if the people only believed it a duty to sing in church. 3. A system of finance, where every member of the church is only asked to give twenty-five cents per month for the support of the Gospel is an indulgence intolerable in the church of God. No man or woman in health or strength should refuse to give twenty-five cents per week for the support of the Church of God. As it now is there is no proper way arranged for raising the benevolences of the church. Committees are appointed, but they seldom or never carry out any effectual way of raising said funds. The blame can be laid at the feet of no one with certainty. The presiding elders, pastors and officers, collectively, are to be blamed for not taking a stand on this question. Back behind and above all this is the fact that the general Church, as such, does not pretend to make men give. Besides all this, it is wholly impossible to do so; but not impossible to declare the failure to give of our "earthly substance" a breach of faith and a backsliding from vows made to God and man. If this matter of finance was only conducted according to our plans in every circuit and station, by every preacher and congregation, the world would be astonished.

For three years he has labored to keep the cause moving. The first year's work is summed up as follows:

Pastor's salary, including house rent and water tax	$ 819 00
Cupola, 40 feet high, 9x16, etc.	538 45
Current expenses for gas, fuel, etc	396 62
Expenses of Sunday-school	264 64
Janitor	168 00
Education	5 00
Benevolences, except missions	19 10
Poor	26 05
Missions	116 50
Presiding elder	60 00
Grand total money raised	$2,413 36

NUMERICAL.

Dropped, withdrawn or unkown probationers	6
Deaths, probationers	1
Received into full connection	43
Received by certificate	65
Removed by letter	10
Removed without letter	17
Expelled and unknown	16
Deaths	6
Members received from all sources	108

REPORT FOR SECOND YEAR.

Pastor's salary, house rent and water	$ 618 00
Presiding elder's salary	60 00
New cedar roof and iron stays	278 00
Frescoeing walls and ceiling	250 00
Scaffolding for same	35 00
New window frames	77 30
Repairing chimneys	20 00
Cleaning paper from walls	5 75
Repairing plastering	3 50
Legal documents, making	5 00
Rostrum for lecture room	1 25
Excavating rear alley way	2 00
Recording legal documents	3 75
Bible and hymnal	9 85
Tin work on roof	4 00
Stain glass for windows	111 00
Hog chains for building	15 00
Insurance	66 00
Carpet for church	160 00
Painting inside church	100 00
Chairs for choir	28 00
Benevolences, except missions	20 35
Current expenses	333 25
Missions	100 00
Total, second year	$2 628 00

The work done for which this money was used was tearing off the old paper that was put on by Rev. C. S. Smith from ceiling and walls, repainting all the inside wood work and beautifully graining and veneering same; the new cocoa matting put on the floors the first year was sent down to the lecture room, and a fine all wool four-ply, beautifully figured, scarlet colored carpet put on the floor and rostrum in the auditorium; frescoing the walls and ceiling; the ceiling laid off into circles, squares, etc., and beautifully decorated, and the walls laid off in panels and large sized parts resting on square bases; the recess of pulpit laid out as a long hall, bordered on the sides with columns seeming to lead one directly over the square marble floor; in the background, overhead, appears a luminous cloud out of which bursts forth the beautiful rays of the sun, and might be mistaken for the oft seen picture of the descent of the Holy Ghost on Saul of Tarsus on his way to Damascus, or on Christ at the Jordan, save the appearance of the dove. By those who are capable of judging, it is considered one, if not the finest design for the pulpit of the most tasteful designers in this city of churches. The old window sashes, with thirty-six lights, was exchanged for new frames, properly hung, and glaized with fine stained glass, eighteen lights, with white in center, blue, amber, and ruby borders; each window having but two different colors, making very beautiful designs. The painting was done by our friend, Isaiah Smith. One of his employees is worthy of special mention, for the oak and walnut veneering done by him is superb. The vestibule was re-covered with heavy cocoa matting. On the whole a more beautiful church, inside, is not in the city, white or colored. It is indeed the representative church of the conference. It has seemed that instead of the conference, as a whole, being proud of this church, in the capital of the State, they have, in some instances, shown a desire to oppose it in nearly every every way possible; while other have done all in their power to help it on. The church was closed during these extensive repairs. At the re opening we very much desired to secure the services of one or more of our beloved Bishops, but they were all busy filling previous engagements, but each one requested us to accept his kindest wishes for our prosperity, and they would gladly respond to its demands at any time possible. Dr. J. Braden was not present owing to the fact of the disappointment in date, and only found the date of reopening changed after having accepted an invitation elsewhere. Although a standing invitation to every preacher of the Tennessee Conference and former pastors was printed in the SOUTHWESTERN, not one came, for some reason unknown to us. Dr. C. O. Fisher, of Atlanta, Ga., came. He indeed surpassed our most sanguine hopes.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Washington District—Washington Conference.

MR. EDITOR: The Washington District extends from the Sugar Loaf Mountains down to Point Lookout, including Washington City. The Bay Potomac and Patuxent are advantageous to us. I closed my first quarterly visitation the 9th of June.

Our district is in a prosperous condition. All of our ministers are at their posts, and are doing well, except A. B. Wilson, of Newburg circuit. He has left his work. The presiding elder supplied his place by the Rev. A. N. Kennedy. The new church on the Calvert circuit, costing $2,500, will soon be ready for dedication. The new Mount Zion M. E. Church, West Washington, D. C., was dedicated July 6, by Rev. Bishop E. G. Andrews, D. D., L. L. D., assisted by the presiding elder of the district, Rev. B. Brown. The Bishop preached a very impressive sermon from St. John, 4th Chapter, 24th verse; "God is a spirit;" after which the collection was taken up. The trustees then presented the edifice for dedication. The audience knelt while the Bishop read the dedicatory prayer. The church is tasteful in point of architecture, and was recently completed at a cost of $18,000. Under the careful management of Rev. A. Dennis, the present pastor, and his presiding elder, only $1,800 indebtedness remains on the church. At the dedication we realized $1,138. At 3 o'clock p. m., Rev. R. A. Read, of Asbury, Washington, preached an excellent sermon from the 137th Psalm: "If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning, etc." At 8 p. m., Rev. B. Brown, the presiding elder of the district, preached from St. John, 14th Chapter, 16th and 17th verses; subject: "The personality of the Holy Ghost." This church was founded in 1816. The corner-stone of the present structure was laid in the summer of 1876. The church is 50x80 feet, with modern improvements. Our Children's Day was quite a success.

Our ministers are working hard to raise $10,000 this year, for the endowment of the Centenary Biblical Institute at Baltimore.

The New York Independent, which has heretofore supported Governor Cleveland, in a double-leaded editorial last week bitterly assails the Democratic candidate for President, assigning as a reason its belief in the truth of the Buffalo scandal.

OUR SOUTHERN WORK.

LOUISIANA.

We are advised that many members of Mount Zion M. E. Church, Clarence, La., Rev. Wm. Davis, pastor, contributed to pay off the entire indebtedness of the church. G. C. Washington, recording steward, sent us the list of names. He reports that Elder Albert was present, but because of illness could not preside at the second quarterly conference. Rev. Allen Lastie presided. The pastor has met with opposition from other denominations, but pleases his own people. Raised during the quarter $250, and $6.40 on hand for missions.

MISSISSIPPI.

J. M. Nevils, Durant: "Children's Day, June 8, was a grand day with us. The old people and children enjoyed it, looking as bright as flowers in the month of May. There were part of two schools from the country in town that day, and we all enjoyed ourselves together. It was said by all present, 'it is good for us here.' Our collections were as follows: Durant $5.40, lead by [illegible] Weatherby; Mount Pleasant $2.00, lead by J. Fullilove; Huckabuckatoy $2.00, lead by J. Cook, and Bethel $3.15, lead by H. W. Scott; $11.40. Medals sold, 1; making a grand total of $18.40. The pastor lead the way, and we think we did very well; for we never heard so much about the old church before. Thank God for [illegible] the M. E. Church. Pray for us."

TENNESSEE.

E. J. Kerrin, Petersburg: "Third quarterly conference held July 12-13. Preaching on Saturday night by the presiding elder, then on Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, there was a large congregation to listen to the sermon by Rev. H. W. Key. His subject was the best to suit the occasion. He preached to them things right, made big collections, well pleased; also the elder's wife, was not with us on Sunday, though she seemed to be well pleased with her visit to this place. Collections on this quarter: Missionary, $2.00; Church extension, $4.25; [illegible] As we were due to [illegible] fare to G. E. N. E., $4.75; pastor, $19.85; [illegible] $19.85. Now we have a church here, and have to worship in the school house. We are making an effort; $34 in treasury."

[illegible] Matthews, Capleville: "We held our third quarterly conference. Collection $11.75. Preached a good sermon to a large congregation. The people were glad to meet him."

[illegible] Westwater circuit: "On this circuit, the first time the brethren traveled it, [illegible] a third time during this year. It was not a center circuit, but was appropriated, but [illegible] the very best I have. I have three appointments. I have had 59 additions, 25 in the [illegible] 2 good [illegible] preaching [illegible] liked by all [illegible] Some of [illegible] apart. I [illegible] year. I [illegible] nearly up. [illegible] $120. [illegible] the mis- [illegible] to raise [illegible] My [illegible] for me." [illegible] Butler quarterly con- [illegible] most pleasant [illegible] added to [illegible] left us [illegible] Rev. [illegible] with [illegible] of which [illegible] for the [illegible] power. We [illegible] paid pastor [illegible] with us, and held our quarterly conference June 29 and 30. The reports showed St. Paul to be in excellent condition, both temporally and spiritually. The classes which contain from 15 to 30 members, reported collections as follows: No. 1, G. Adams leader, $5.55; No. 2, S. Clark, $5.80; No. 3, W. Smith, $4.25; No. 4, H. Johnson, $4.45; No. 5, L. Shepard, $3.45; No. 6, A. Morris, $4.90; No. 7, W. Perry, $4.45; No. 8, W. Peters, $6.40; No. 9, R. M. Smith, $5.60; No. 10, J. Anderson, $9.75; No. 11, J. Jackson, $7.25; No. 12, T. Franklin, $5.05; No. 13, F. Smizer, $2.50. We had ten class meetings during the quarter, and collected a total of $68.90. Had the classes known I intended to publish this, I am sure their reports would have been much better. On Sunday night 165 received the sacrament. It seemed that God opened the very gates of Heaven to our waiting souls. We had indeed an old time quarterly meeting. One that tended to revive and strengthen the Church. The first of the kind I have witnessed for many a day. I reported our Children's Day collection; we went through with the programme sent us by Dr. Kidder. The little folks acquitted themselves quite creditably. Collection $10. Our new church building is completed. Competent judges say it is a beauty. In a short while I shall announce the time of opening. This is the pleasure season in Galveston, and we are struggling hard to keep the church alive. The Lord is our helper, and he is still with us."

KENTUCKY.

George Leach, Frankfort: "The M. E. Church, South Frankfort, will soon be rebuilt, and will be of stone from top to bottom, covered with tin. We ask the aid of all the pastors and churches to assist us by raising a collection. Forward to the pastor by money order."

ARKANSAS.

G. W. Baber, Saratoga: "This place is about 250 miles from my work. I went there, a low, flat country, but never could raise money enough to move my family. The elder wished me to stay anyhow, but I could not do so. The people paid me $3.10. I was forced to come to my wife and four children, who demanded my care."

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

To be Ambitious is Not to be Ungrateful.

BY W. B. HARRIS, OF BALTIMORE.

Having had represented to us so many ambitious characters that have inhumanly treated the relations of social brotherhood, and that have annullified the sense of any obligation to respect the most mutual entreaties of their fellow man, it has become partially natural to conclude that ingratitude is necessarily an accompaniment to ambition, and that the personage in such a character would be ungrateful in most all cases, by virtue of this seemingly insatiable aspiration. To show the inconsistency of this, let us first observe that to be ambitious is to manifest an eager desire for honor, preferment or power. Considering now probably the strongest purport of this eager desire for honor, it is not at variance with a moral sentiment. For it is said in the book of Proverbs: "Riches and honor are with me." True, honor is with God; such is acceptable to him; and as it is acceptable to God, it is perfectly and advantageously suited to the possession of man. To be attained, as are the many bounteous gifts of God, it will be readily bestowed upon the petitioner, when he seeks it in a proper manner.

The reason that the same personage is in utterly such a depraved condition, is that he employs the most abominable and degrading means to acquire what is wholly just, what is right. Thus, in pursuit of honor he will voluntarily forget the friendly relations between his brother, self and others, practicing deception, treachery, or in fact any vice upon their implicit confidence. He will not hesitate to subject himself to the malicious promptings of a violated conscience to ratify his acts, or clinch the fetters of guilt upon an innocent accused. Here is sown the seed of ingratitude so deep, so successfully, that it speedily brings a frown, disgust and contempt upon the countenance of Justice.

This is the improper manner. Now, how can he satisfy ambition without partaking of this practical ingratitude in the way of desire for honor, and yet sustain a grateful, a Christian principle? He must cultivate such an even disposition and generousness of heart, that he will abhor the appearance of such treachery and selfishness. If he sees the threatening flames of injustice, persecution or adversity conquering the earnest endeavors of his brother, let him labor to suppress them, rather than apply the oil or other combustible of pernicious tendency to augment their severity. Or if his brother, well wrapped in the mantel of poverty, or encumbered with any embarrassment of his menial circumstances, let him share his abundance with others, then such will be the constancy of their conciliated love, that they will not shrink from the bestowal of an ultimated degree of honor upon him. Thus, he satisfies his ambition in desire for honor, and has still a grateful spirit, for he merits it.

Now, ambition is regarded as an eager desire for preferment.

It will take but little effort, however, to verify the propositions from this purport, as such is an essential to temporal advancement; for, desire for preferment is the most important constituent in competition, and when competition is absent, both social and civil conditions soon become diseased. It incites the mercantile dealer to invest in the most handsome invoice, and at the lowest price. It sets in perpetual motion the pendulum of human industry, impelling man to expand his intellectual force to the greatest extent. Thus, seeing the prevalence of this eager desire for preferment even in literary advancement, seeing also, that it is not friendly to a feeling of gratitude, it only remains for this personage, if as the mercantile dealer to make use of strictly honest means in the embellishment of his stock, rather than undervalue that of his coworker.

If a scientist, he must gain preferment by displaying real superiority in a cultured mind, rather than by seeking to condemn or depreciate the weighty investigations of others. Then he acts upon the Christian principle of brotherly love, into which gratitude is completely woven. Thus, he satisfies his ambition, and cannot be ungrateful. The last purport, that of eager desire for power, is not an obstruction to the predominance of religious qualities. "For," saith God, "I have strength," and as he is all powerful, it is meet that we should have power. But for this personage to obtain this power, rather by contriving to inveigle the populace of city or State, being defenseless to his intrusion by ignorance or rather depressed surroundings, or by shedding of blood, is an improper use of power. Let him prove his loyalty to them, and self-devotion to their needs by zealously laboring for their interests, by removing the burden of oppression, or diffusing Christian principles; and they will rear him to such a position as will enable him to represent their greatest power, to defend and declare their civil immunities. So he merits the satisfaction of his ambition, and yet maintains a grateful spirit; grateful, because a Christian spirit. Now, we find such promptings by which the ambitious in most cases have been polluted, do not enter into the composition in the incarnation of man, they are simply the maturity of base passions, or the result of leniency to his degenerate proneness. Consequently to acquire what is cleansed by God, one attempts but in vain, and to his own sad calamity by crowning the head of his brother with obstacles, grief, depression or martyrdom, in order to crown his own with honor, preferment, power or social happiness.

Extracts from the Speech of Wm. Pitt, Delivered before the Parliament of England, in 1790, on the Abolition of the Slave Trade.

"Having now detained the House so long, all that I will further add shall be on that important subject, the civilization of Africa, which I have already shown that I consider as the leading feature in this question."

"Grieved am I to think that there should be a single person in this country, much more that there should be a single member in this British Parliament, who could look on the dark, uncultivated and uncivilized state of that continent as a ground for continuing the slave trade; as a ground not only for refusing to attempt the improvement of Africa, but even for hindering and intercepting every ray of light, which might otherwise break in upon her, as a ground for refusing to her the common chance and the common mercy with which other nations have been blessed—of emerging from their native barbarism."

"Are we justified in supposing that even the practice of offering up human sacrifices proves a total incapacity for civilization? I believe it will be found, and perhaps much more generally than is supposed, that both the trade in slaves, and the still more savage custom of offering human sacrifices, obtained in former periods throughout many of those nations, which now, by the blessings of Providence, and by a long progression of improvements are advanced the furthest in civilization. I believe, sir, that if we will reflect an instant, we shall find that their observation comes directly home to ourselves; and that on the same ground on which we are now disposed to proscribe Africa forever from all possibility of improvement, we ourselves might, in like manner, have been proscribed and forever shut out from all the blessings we enjoy."

"There was a time, sir, which it may be fit sometimes to revive in the remembrance of our countrymen, when even human sacrifices are said to have been offered in this island. But I would especially observe on this day, for it refers to a case precisely in point, that the very practice of the slave trade once prevailed among us. Slaves, as we may read in Henry's history of Great Britain, were formerly an established article of our exports. 'Great numbers,' he says 'were imported like cattle from the British coast, and were to be seen exposed for sale in the Roman market.' It does not distinctly appear by what means they were procured, but they was unquestionably no small resemblance in this particular point between the case of our ancestors, and that of the present wretched natives of Africa; for the historian tells you that 'adultery, witchcraft and debt were probably some of the chief sources of supplying the Roman market with British slaves; that prisoners taken in war were added to the number; and that there might be among them some unfortunate gamesters, who, after having lost all their goods, at length staked themselves, their wives and their children.'"

"Every one of these sources of slavery have been stated, and almost precisely in the same terms, to be at this hour a source of slavery in Africa. And these circumstances, sir, with a solitary instance or two of human sacrifices, furnish the alleged proofs that Africa labors under a natural incapacity for civilization; that it is enthusiasm and fanaticism to think that she can ever enjoy the knowledge and the morals of Europe; that Providence never intended her to rise above a state of barbarism; that Providence has irrevocably doomed her to be only a nursery for slaves for us free and civilized Europeans. Allow of this principle as applied to Africa, and I should be glad to know why it might not also have been applied to ancient and uncivilized Britain."

"Why might not some Roman senator, reasoning on the principles of some honorable gentlemen, and pointing to British barbarisms, have predicted with equal boldness, 'there is a people that will never rise to civilization; there is a people destined never to be free; a people without the understanding necessary for the attainment of useful arts; depressed by the hand of nature below the level of the human species, and created to form a supply of slaves for the rest of the world;' might not this have been said according to the principles which we now hear stated in all respects as fairly and as truly of Britain herself at that period of her history, as it can now be said by us of the inhabitants of Africa?"

"We, sir, have long since emerged from barbarism. We have almost forgotten that we were once barbarians. We are now raised to a situation which exhibits a striking contrast to every circumstance by which a Roman might have characterized us, and by which we now characterize Africa. There is indeed one thing wanting to complete the contrast, and to clear us altogether from the imputation of acting even to this hour as barbarians—for we continue to this hour—a barbarous traffic in slavery. We continue it even yet, in spite of all our great and undeniable pretensions to civilization. We were once as obscure among the nations of the earth, as savage in our manner, as debased in our morals, as degraded in our understandings, as those unhappy Africans are at present. But in the lapse of a long scene of glory, by a progression slow, and for a time almost imperceptible, we have become rich in a variety of acquirements, favored above measure in the gifts of Providence, unrivaled in commerce, pre-eminent in arts, foremost in the pursuits of philosophy and science, and established in all the blessings of civil society. We are in the possession of peace, of happiness, and of liberty. We are under the guidance of a mild and beneficent religion, and we are protected by impartial laws and the purest administration of justice. We are living under a system of government which our own happy experience leads us to pronounce the best and wisest which has ever yet been framed; a system which has become the admiration of the world. From all these blessings we must forever have been shut out, had there been any truth in those principles which some gentlemen have not hesitated to lay down as applicable to Africa. Had those principles been true, we ourselves had languished to this hour in that miserable state of ignorance, brutality and degradation, in which history proves our ancestry to have been immersed. Had other nations adopted these principles in their conduct toward us, had other nations applied to Great Britain the reasoning which some of the senators of this very island now apply to Africa, ages might have passed without our emerging from barbarism, and we who are enjoying the blessings of civilization, of British law and British liberty might at this hour have been little superior either in morals, in knowledge or refinement, to the rude inhabitants of the coast of Guinea."

"If we listen to the voice of reason and duty and pursue the right line of conduct which they prescribe, some of us may live to see the reverse of that picture from which we now turn our eye with shame and regret. We may live to behold the natives of Africa engaged in the calm occupation of industry, in the pursuit of a just and legitimate commerce. We may behold the beams of science and philosophy breaking in upon their land, which at some happy period in still later times may blaze in full luster, and joining their influence to that of pure religion, may illuminate and invigorate the most distant extremities of that immense continent. Then may we hope that even Africa, though last of all the quarters of the globe, shall enjoy at length in the evening of her days, those blessings which have descended so plentifully upon us in a much earlier period of the world."

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Are the Official Services of Women Beneficial to the M. E. Church.

An Address by Rev. J. M. Nevils before the District Conference in Yazoo City, Miss., June 29th.

The Holy Scriptures contain all things necessary to salvation, and since the M. E Church is built on the doctrines of Christ and his Apostles, we may freely say that the official services of women are beneficial to the Church. Since Christ has established a church in the world by means of which revealed truth is to be maintained and the Gospel preached to every creature, the Church of Christ, in its largest sense, consists of all who have been baptized in the name of Christ and have thereby made a public profession of faith in His divine mission and in all the doctrines of the Gospel. The women are members of his body, and as such have a work to do in the M. E. Church. Let us ask has there ever been any service as such in the history of God's Church, and God's word for it?

Woman's sphere in the Church is not limited to the duties of the family or household, since she is often by nature and grace pre-eminently adapted for a wider service. Hence women were employed as prophets, that is, in the sense of public religious teachers, including the higher ministerial duties, as appears from the rank next after the Apostles. And God hath set some in the Church, first prophets, second prophets. As compared in another place, "and it shall come to pass in the last days, saith the God, I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy; and on my servants and handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my spirit, and they shall prophesy. And the same man had four daughters which did prophesy." "I commend unto you," saith Paul, "Phebe, our sister, who is a servant of the Church, and you must receive her in the Lord as becometh saints, and assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you for she hath been a succorer of many, and of myself also. Greet Priscilla, my helper in Christ Jesus, who hath for my life laid down her neck for the Church. Greet Mary, also, who bestowed much labor on us." These women held official services in the church and their labors were beneficial to it. And Miriam, the sister of Aaron, prophesied, and all the women went after her, and taught the people. And Deborah, a prophetess, and she judged Israel in her day, and was she not acting as an official in the church? And Moses said, "I would God that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them." And the Lord gave the word; great was the company of those that published it, and among them were women. Where the true rendering is, of the women preachers there was a great host, which accords with the wish of Moses. Some have understood Paul as speaking against women teaching. Where he said "Let your women keep silence in the churches, for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. If they would learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is a shame for women to speak in the church." But he evidently refers to such only as prayed and prophesied unveiled, as appears from the following, "But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoreth her head. For if the woman be not covered let her be shorn." But if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn, let her be covered. Neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord, for they are workers together in the church. Paul in this had respect simply to the usage of society, as was his custom in matters of indifference. To say that Paul's prohibition applies alike to all times and conditions of society is to say that the prudential regulations of a degraded heathen people eighteen hundred years ago are universally binding, and Christianity in this respect has wrought no change in the world it came to reform. Paul surely had a different estimate of woman's service. Paul's first public discourse in Europe was at a meeting of women, and his first convert and host was a woman. There is indisputable scriptural and historical proof that subordinate official position was accorded to women in the Apostolic Church. Phœbe was a deacon of the church, as such she not only ministered to the sick and needy, but presided and discharged other spiritual functions under the elders or bishops. We learn that women were employed as teachers in the direct personal application of Christian truth. The history of the early Christian Church confirms this statement and adds also that women baptized. Signal honors are recorded of woman's devotion to Christ and His cause. Now, when Jesus was in Bethany, there came a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, and Jesus said, "why trouble the woman, for she hath wrought a good work upon me. Truly I say unto you wheresoever this Gospel shall be preached in the whole world, that which this woman hath done shall be told for a memorial of her." She was first to preach the risen Savior to his doubting Apostles. So we see that woman has been of official service in the church ever since the Lord had a church in the world. We see Mrs. Susana Wesley, the [illegible] of Revs. John and Charles Wesley, a widow as she was, how [illegible] training her boys in [illegible] who, in after days, became [illegible] of the M. E. [illegible] about one hundred [illegible] we saw the [illegible] Bible in hand, but [illegible] mother, [illegible] Wesley, was [illegible] Church in its early [illegible] we saw a handful, [illegible] than 1,100,000, [illegible] Methodist Churches [illegible] branched off from us [illegible] about 1,400,000, making a [illegible] total of over 3,000,000 members, [illegible] are women, [illegible] hundred [illegible] done her best in the [illegible] shall we say more? [illegible] weeks fail me to tell of the [illegible] instruments. All over the [illegible] where the M. E. Church is, [illegible] are traveling as ministers and preachers, and assisting in building [illegible] and school houses, teaching [illegible] and lifting up the [illegible] woman's foreign mission [illegible] in home missions all are living and working together for [illegible] again, as stewards and [illegible] leaders in the church [illegible] the best. They are [illegible] in the things of God. [illegible] the liberality, the gifts, as well [illegible] for the work; love [illegible] of the Lord [illegible] to God, and believers [illegible] by such official service [illegible] is touching, the [illegible] the sweet grace [illegible] I am, send me, [illegible] to meet or leave. [illegible] Mr. John [illegible] of Dakota, [illegible] to [illegible]

Speech of Rev A. L. Richardson, of Conway, Ark.

Delivered on Children's Day, June 8, 1884, and requested to be published in the Southwestern.

Mr. Superintendent, Sunday School Ladies and Gentlemen—I thank you for these expressions of gratitude and respect you have thus shown in leaving your homes behind you and coming to this place to celebrate children's day, and the first centennial of our beloved Methodism in this country. While I look over this vast concourse that have assembled here it is easy for me to imagine that the hearts and minds of the entire Methodist Church are here to day. Allow me to say, ladies and gentlemen, that our coming together here to day means something, something more than merely showing our appreciation of the call to celebrate this occasion; something more than our love of pleasure and enjoyment. But it means our reverence to Almighty God for the gifts of this glorious organization, these benign institutions, and for the perpetuity of the same. I can but pause as my mind flashes back over the past one hundred years down to the time when Dr. Coke and Mr. Asbury called the first conference of American Methodism in this country that exercised in any respect the functions of an authoritative or legislative body in Baltimore, Dec. 24, 1784. Sixty preachers being present the name Methodist Episcopal Church was adopted, two Bishops were elected, these were Dr. Coke who had been ordained in England, and Francis Asbury, who was the first Bishop ordained in America. At this time commenced the regular work of Episcopal Methodism, a hymn book and discipline were adopted, a college was projected. At its organization we had 18,000 members and 104 traveling preachers. Perhaps all of you would like to listen to just a few facts contrasting the condition of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the period of its organization with that of its present organized existence. Not supposing you can easily remember the exact figures as given in the general minutes and the Centennial Year Book, I will, therefore, attempt only to give you round numbers. Then our Church had two Bishops, she now has ten, having lost by death three. Then we had our annual conference, now we have more than one hundred, including our missionary conferences. Then we had one hundred and four traveling preachers, now we have twelve thousand. Then we had eighteen thousand members, now we have more than 1,700,090, while she has given birth to other Methodist Churches that have at least 1,400,000, making a grand total of over 3,000,000 of communicants in Methodist churches in the United States. These numbers do not refer to the uncounted thousands that have fallen during the successive years of our churches on earth and gone to join the church of the Redeemer in heaven. From the first till now she has been an apostolic church, sending her ministers to preach the Gospel to the settlers of the frontiers, to the poor of both city and country and to the heathen at home and abroad, she has also been a rival church, seeking and promoting the immediate conversion of both high and low, rich and poor, bond and free. Great and glorious has been the fruits of her work in extending the Kingdom of Christ. No mortal can determine the number of souls that have been saved through her agency or measure the power of her influence in quickening and planting other churches, her best fruits are mainly gathered in heaven through the happy death of unnumbered thousands who have passed into the ranks of the Church triumphant, and her fruits of to day are not represented merely by our one million of church communicants and [illegible] of church attendants, but by [illegible] great departments of church work such as Sunday-schools, educational enterprises, church building and missions. At her organization in 1784 we had one literary institution projected, but with neither building nor funds great difficulties were encountered in educational work at that early period. Our first institution or college was twice burned to the ground, but our church fathers continued to rally, and now we have 144, with buildings, grounds and endowments worth over $3,000,000, with over thirteen hundred teachers, and twenty six thousand students, with room for many more. They have already given instruction to more than 4,000 students. Two years after its organization Bishop Asbury, in 1786, founded the first Sunday-school in the United States, of which there is authentic record, and this grand department of church work has steadily increased until to-day she has 21,400 Sunday-schools with an enrollment of one million seven hundred and ninety-six thousand scholars, and two hundred and twenty-nine thousand five hundred officers and teachers, making a grand total of two millions twenty-five thousand and five hundred; and it should be remembered that these Sunday-schools are not only spreading scripture knowledge, but are doing a grand work in awakening and bringing souls to Christ. There were in these Sunday schools during the last year more than eight thousand conversions, and a great many of her Sunday-school scholars have become ministers, teachers and professional men; and those whose parents are too poor to help them in school. The Church, through her liberality, has a plan for helping them when they wish to study in her higher institutions of learning by creating an educational fund, the proceeds of which should be used in aiding meritorious Sunday-school scholars in obtaining a more advanced education, and about $60,000 was raised for that purpose. But as it was readily seen that the claims on the fund would increase from the growing demands of the Church, this sum would be too inadequate, a plan was adopted for the constant increase of the fund or its proceeds. The General Conference of 1872 appointed the second Sunday in June to be everywhere observed as Children's Day, and collections should be taken in aid of the Sunday-school fund of the Board of Education. And just think for a moment what she has done to in helping the poor in many ways! More than one thousand in eighty different institutions of learning have been aided by this fund of the Board of Education.

At the beginning of the century our fathers had but a very few churches in which to preach the Gospel, and those were very small, and cheap. Our people, a great many of them, were not content with this state of things though they were poor, and they everywhere began building churches as fast as they were able, and through the help of the Church Extension Society helping the people everywhere to help themselves, and by these joint efforts, we had at the end of 1883 more than eighteen thousand churches, worth over sixty-five millions of dollars, and church building is still going on. We are now building two a day, and hope to be able soon to build three a day.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Rest.

"O where shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul."

This is the cry of many hearts who find little satisfaction in life, and who are looking forward to the grave to lay their burdens down, and to heaven as a resting place.

What is rest? Is it cessation from work and from care and responsibility? Are not those who seek to do as little as they can the most careworn and the most dissatisfied with life? I have heard that there are no people more restless and unhappy than those who have so much of this world's goods as to be able to retire from business. Experience has taught us that the hardest thing to do is to do nothing. Why is it that so many of us are so tired? Tired of suffering and disappointment, tired of hungering after something beyond our reach, tired of waiting, tired of everything. Has the Lord created this beautiful world so full of evidences of His goodness and His love, and ourselves so capable of development and enjoyment, for naught? He gave us the instinct of physical hunger, and He gave us bread to satisfy it; has he provided nothing for the hungering of the soul? Must we wait until we get to heaven for any good? We read in the Bible that "there remaineth a rest to the people of God." But we see many of His children suffering unrest, and there are those who lack spiritual energy, and who do not grow. They say that in answer to prayer God has forgiven their sins, and they are trying to do right, but in spite of all they can do they will do wrong. They overcome one sin and another gets the supremacy, and they talk of self-denial and crosses, and do not make their lives useful or attractive. There are too many who think if they could only manage to put on a fair exterior they would feel all right.

In this, our day, there is much interest felt in that great blessing from God that we call sanctification or holiness, in the experience of which we may lay ourselves and our burdens, all, at the feet of the Savior and there find rest. There are, no doubt many who enjoy it in a degree, who cannot define it, and all do not see it in the same way. But is not the Bible explicit upon that point. "He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." He will forgive our sins, and He will do still more for us. He will root the sins all out, and heal the disease of the soul, which is the result of sin, and which so pollutes the life. If the fountain is made pure will not the streams be pure also? If there is no disease there can be no symptoms of disease. Is it a harder matter to go to God and ask for heart cleansing than it is to ask for forgiveness? The one is as much promised to us as the other, and He is omnipotent. It matters not what we ask of God, the obligation to ask still rests upon us. Really, is there any limit to what we may ask for? Our loving father is always saying to us "And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer believing, ye shall receive." There is much implied in that promise. Surely the dreadful curse of sin may be removed and we be made clean. God wills it, and He requires it. He knows we need it. Jesus died to grant us the privilege.

Does not rest mean purification and cessation from sin? It means to the hungering after righteousness all satisfied. The Bible plainly teaches that it is for us this side of the grave. If we do not find it here, is it certain that we shall ever find it?

MRS. L. O. BRADEN.

"CANNOT SPEAK TOO HIGHLY IN ITS PRAISE."

Dr. Turner, of our New York Depository, sends us the following important letter:

"BROOKLYN, 341 Hoyt St., Dec. 4, 1882
DR. JOHN TURNER, 862 Broadway, N. Y.

"Dear Doctor:—I had been subject to terrible influenza colds when I commenced using the Compound Oxygen, two years ago. On leaving my head they invariably seated themselves on my lungs, rendering them very sore, and would sometimes leave me a cough for months. I dreaded these colds more than my worst enemy. Since using the Oxygen I have not had one on my lungs, and I have frequently had one in this house drive away the cold so completely, that the next day I could scarce realize that I had had one at all. Other members of my family have used the Oxygen for the same purpose; also for rheumatism, dyspepsia and Catarrh, with equally good results, especially in Catarrh."

"Very truly yours, FRANK W. DOUGHTY."

Our "Treatise on Compound Oxygen," containg a history of the discovery and mode of action of this remarkable curative agent, and a large record of surprising cures in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., and a wide range of chronic diseases, will be sent free. Address DRS. STARKEY & PALEN, 1109 and 1111 Girard St., Philadelphia.

Virginia Republicans will be united and harmonious in the Presidential campaign.

Vermont's Great Chemist.

"I find, on analysis, that the Royal Baking Powder advertised as 'absolutely pure,' contains 'Ammonia.' Ammonia is a DRUG which should never be administered to a well person. This, with the fact that bread baked with such powder retains the ammonia, indicates that the less medicated bread we have, the better for public health."

"Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain AMMONIA, but is a scientific combination of wholesome materials."

CHARLES S. BOYNTON, M. D.,
Analytical and Consulting Chemist.
Brandon, Vermont, June 2, 1884.

The Royal Baking Powder Co. cannot evade this issue, "Ammonia," by any of their tricks, crying Lime. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Lime. The public demand that the "Royal Co." defend the use of the disgusting drug, Ammonia.

DO NOT TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT.

Every housekeeper can prove the truth of our statements by placing a can of the "Royal," top down, on a hot stove until heated, then remove the cover and smell "AMMONIA." The test will show that "Royal" contains AMMONIA; that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Ammonia. The strength of our powder can be proven by the consumers' reliable test.

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say, or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr. C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to '72, each	10
Same Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	50
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
The Complete Youth's Speller	20
Gems of Praise	30
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers. By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
Waddington's Church History	2 50
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
38-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. THE words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other books, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

24 a Year; 6 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures, Lessons, Poetry, etc., are printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and [illegible] for the people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 15 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separately.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884, at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,
The Great Pictorial Magazine,
$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, most entertaining, the most beautiful illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND,
The Only Magazine in the World for Babies,
Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby rhymes, baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women,
For Younger Readers at Home and in School.
Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this magazine full of charming stories and pictures. It is the aim of the editor to give only such stories, or stories based on such facts [illegible]

THE PANSY,
An Eight-page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.
Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is eagerly asked for every Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 1884.

Let every pastor send in a dollar a week on accounts, and we will slide over the dull season comfortably. Every little sum is of great assistance now. This is intended as an admonition to YOU, and not to a brother pastor. Will you heed it?

Plurality of Persons in the Godhead.

Before God created man he said, "Let us make man in our own image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowls of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth." These expressions US and OUR distinctly imply a plurality of persons in the Godhead.

Use It, or Drop It.

The St. John's M. E. Sabbath-school picnics at Boston next Tuesday. The cars will leave the Valley Depot, opposite N. Y., P. & O. depot, South Water street, at 7:40 a. m.—Cleveland Gazette.

The St. John's is an African Methodist Episcopal Sunday-school. It meets in the Erie Street proper, Cleveland, Ohio, which the African Methodist bought from the German Methodist Episcopal Church. There is no colored people of the Methodist Episcopal [illegible] Cleveland, outside of the [illegible] except of Bishop H. Payne in passing. We believe that our friends [illegible] their distinguishing little [illegible] so, drop it. It would [illegible] to use it, as [illegible] places such as [illegible] do not use it [illegible] and unjust to [illegible] Difficulties vs. God's Promises.

[illegible] the earth's scientific [illegible] to the thousand, and [illegible] Deity of the [illegible] and fifteen, since [illegible] that they are of a different [illegible] of material! Who can [illegible] these [illegible] which appear only in the moon but all [illegible] heavens? Would [illegible] for science to clearly [illegible] that which is nearest be- [illegible] grapples with that which is [illegible] The problem of the [illegible] of the dead is a diffi- [illegible] it has the eternal [illegible] promise that it [illegible] will bring [illegible] Let science apply itself [illegible] work of harmonizing difficulties [illegible] by its own theories [illegible] abstracts the passage [illegible] to the completion of [illegible] and [illegible] developments.

Dead.

[illegible] of intense interest [illegible] seen [illegible] quarterly ex- [illegible] to [illegible] of the [illegible] at that [illegible] in her reply: [illegible] my [illegible] who [illegible] to [illegible] you [illegible] other [illegible] our [illegible] is the [illegible] you [illegible]

"Come Now, and Let Us Reason Together."

We gladly accord to Rev. Kitchens an opportunity of stating his side of the matter we referred to in our [illegible] under the [illegible] Impudent and [illegible]

We [illegible] to say, in connection with the appended statement of that occurrence. The difficulties on both sides of the case is now before our readers, and they are fully able to decide as to its propriety, modesty and moral qualities. Bro. Kitchens admits: First, that he did run an excursion. Second, that it was the original intent to run it about the 16th of June, to attend an agricultural fair at Brownsburg, Georgia, on that date. Third, that he changed his original plan, and ran it on the 20th of June. Fourth, that "Rube Peyton" was sentenced to be hanged on the latter date. Fifth, that a large circle of Peyton's relatives and friends requested him to change from the first to the last date, in order that they might visit the hanging. And sixth, that he did so. Now, if Mr. Peyton was not hanged, that does not change the intent. So that whatever would have been true if he had been hung, is no less true in the present posture of the case, so far as we are concerned. We are certainly glad to hear, for the sake of Bro. Kitchens and the Methodist Episcopal Church everywhere, which he no doubt loves and serves as faithfully as we do, that an investigation has taken place. The thing was public. It came to us through the press. Its truth, so far as the intent of going to the hanging, is not denied. Bro. Kitchen shows that those whom he alleges are opposers of our Church took it up, and made capital against our cause and against our friends out of it. Nothing therefore but an investigation could enable us to sustain him if innocent, and the Church at all events. We admit no wrong to him, neither in act nor intent, by calling attention to the matter. We have performed a service such as it was intended we should perform when placed in our position as an official Editor. We speak for the Methodist Episcopal Church, and she will sustain every word we have uttered in this case. An investigation never does a good man, or causes any harm, but it is of course impolite to take up every trifling thing that may be said about a public man. We are perfectly insensible to fear when conscious that we are right. Bro. Kitchens wrote us his version of the case, and it would have been published with the other, only it reached our office too late.

We now give it to the same readers who read our own, and close the case.

"Scorn the world, abandon folly,
Purchase faith, that glorious treasure.
Faith is wisdom; wisdom, virtue;
Virtue truth, and truth is pleasure."

The occasion serves us to observe that not more in one than in another, but in all sections of our great and ever expanding Church, the methods of administration should be alike in their freedom from misleading moral tendencies. In both the colored and white work they should approximate upon a right model, rapidly toward a common ideal. They should begin at once, and move up to each other and to a higher plane of action as rapidly as their differing circumstances will permit.

We have ever maintained that there were circumstancial differences which prevented exact unity of procedure for the time being, between the two classes of our work, and have therefore looked with a degree of leniency upon some things in the line of excursions, camp meetings and societies, that numbers of good brethren could not sanction. But we now submit the question to candid, godly colored ministers. If the time has not come for a radical revolution in our methods of raising Church revenue.

We know that money must be had, or our Church affairs must languish. But is it impossible or undesirable to improve the methods of getting it? We speak it in all sincerity.

The methods of raising Church funds in vogue in many places, and not always among the colored people either, is positively depreciating to the moral power and influence of those churches and ministers who use them. If other churches and ministers persist in doing such things, and we fear that some of them do, or if malice makes opponents conceal these faults in others, and publish lesser ones committed by us, which may be sometimes the case, no matter, "Thrice armed is he who hath his quarrel just." Let us do right. If others do wrong, so much more is the reason why we should do right.

The more intense the darkness is around us, the more conspicuous should be our light. The Methodist Episcopal Church fattens and grows on opposition. By it we have been hurried to the conquest of half a million souls in the South. Only let the stories of our opponents always be untrue, and they will be powerless to harm us.

Is the White Race Retrograding?

In this number of the SOUTHWESTERN will be found an extract from the speech of Wm. Pitt, before the Parliament of England, on the abolition of the slave trade. The circumstances which led to its publication here are interesting. After reading our remarks in the General Conference, on the subject of a Bishop for "Africa, Mr. John D. McKenzie, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has been a pronounced foe to all forms of oppression, took occasion to write to his friend, Mr. Cheeny, of Philadelphia, inclosing it with some very complimentary expressions concerning us. We are moved to print the "extract" mentioned, because of its prophetic character. The white race has risen to a sublime and wonderful height in all that pertains to greatness; it may not be now, but like all other races, it must reach its highest attainments at last. We hope the ultimate height for it may prove to be very many removes beyond its present elevation. But, should this prove true, still it must at last reach a height beyond which it cannot climb. The signs of decay will sometime be seen. Some think they are now visible. Vast wealth tends to luxury and ease, and these always enfeeble those who possess them. The white race has a superfluity of wealth, and they are subject to the conditions which govern it.

The wide-spread and continuous use of intoxicants are well calculated to prepare the way for premature decay in races, as well as in individuals. Among the white people this wide-spread and continuous use of intoxicants prevails, and may we not expect to see in them the effect of which it is an unfailing cause? They are not capacitated in the highest degree for physical endurance, nor are they capable of the greatest physical exertion under all climates. The want of these qualifications will prove very much to their detriment when they shall have become as prevalent in numbers as the colored races now are. The white race is a valiant and a conquering one. It has put the impress of its ideas and language upon all the races. It has a prestige and an influence such as no other race has. No other can successfully resist it long. But in spite of all this, the question arises: What is the promise of the future for the white race? Is the prospect before it as favorable to continued growth and advancing prosperity in the coming as in the passing decade of centuries?

Is the portent favorable to a much higher Christian civilization than it now enjoys? Does it tend to future progression, or retrogression? It is a vast empire, combining the Head of Gold with the body of silver, brass and iron. But is there not an element of weakness, a mixture of potter's clay in the toes? The Negro has conditions peculiarly his own, which are very favorable to development. He can endure and has endured every climate on the globe. He is capable of and adapted to the most exacting physical exertion. His mode of existence tends to develop strength; he is naturally religious and faithful. May not the state of things which has kept the Negro distinct from the other races in a very large degree, be a blessing to him after all?

The dusky African may yet have occasion to administer upon the post-mortem affairs of his fair and [illegible] superior European brother.

You Are Mistaken.

COLORED BAPTISTS.—The National Baptist gives the following statistics, comparing the colored Baptists with the the colored of other denominations in this country:

Episcopalians,	less than	2,000
Congregationalists	"	6,00
Presbyterians	"	12,000
Meth. Epis.	"	75,000
Zion	"	90,000
African	"	20,000
Meth. Epis. Church	"	24,000
Total		800,000

Colored Baptists, over 800,000, with 12 training schools, and 2,500 pupils in them.

The figures used by the National must have been secured by rummaging among old books in some second hand book store. If we could reverse the course of time about two decades, some of them would probably be accurate. The very foolish notion that Church statistics should not tell the color as well as the number of members, renders it a difficult task to submit an exhibit which shall be entirely correct, with reference to any given denominations. We should be grateful to our Episcopalian, Presbyterian and Congregational exchanges, or any of our readers, for correct statistics as to the colored members and ministers in each, all or any of the foregoing Churches.

As to the Methodists of all denominations, we are able to speak authoritatively, and the authorities are adverse to the correctness of the statement of the Baptist.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has 200,000; the African Methodist Episcopal Church, 391,044; the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, 300,000; the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, 155,000; equal to 1,046,044 members, which is 246,044 more of Methodists than Baptists in the United States, among the colored people.

This does not include the ministry. The Sunday-schools and pupils are in proportion to the Church members. Against the "less than" twelve Baptist Theological Schools, we are able to show twenty training schools in the Methodist Episcopal Church, where colored students especially attend; besides three law and two medical schools, model homes, model schools and professors' houses. The African Methodist Episcopal Church has two, the Zion one, and the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church one; total twenty-seven for the Methodists. The Presbyterians have two, the Episcopalians two, and the Congregationalists nine; total thirteen. One more school for the "less than" twenty thousand members which the National figures out for them, than it claims for its own 800,000 colored members. It is to be hoped, and we do hope that the proportionate difference in intellect is not as the difference in educational facilities between the twenty thousand colored Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, and the 800,000 Baptists. Taking the National's statement as to the colored members in the first three denominations named for the want of others which are modern, and our own for the Methodist, we have colored Christians, not Baptists, 1,046,044; Baptist, 800,000; difference in favor of the not Baptists, 246,044. The not Baptists have an aggregate of forty schools; the Baptists have eleven. Difference in favor of the not Baptists twenty-nine.

In the Methodist Episcopal schools alone are 3,500 pupils difference in favor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, over the combined Baptist denominations in college students 1,000.

The National must revise its figures. The Methodists are ahead as usual, in all good works.

In a competitive examination recently held for admission to the State Normal, the youngest of the the 7 or 8 candidates was the winner, passing so far beyond the others as to receive favorable comment upon the school she had attended. Mattie Taylor has been a student in Houston Seminary for two years.

The Kentucky Republican is steadily gaining in matter and manner.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. Mary McDonald, of Savannah, Ga., is now residing in Portsmouth, Ohio.

—"Bishop Gilbert Haven was the Sumner of your Church."—Prof. Greener to the editor.

—Bishop Fowler says it is the religious duty of our colored members to take the SOUTHWESTERN.

—Prof. Richard T. Greener is a Christian of Baptist antecedents without, at present, any church affiliations, for reason satisfactory to himself.

—Rev. L. M. Hagood writes vigorously, and doesn't mind occasionally to run the probe into Southern prejudice and African Methodist Episcopal asinine qualities.

—Rev. W. W. Locke, of the Louisville District, has been out on his work and returns in good health and full of Christian courage for the further prosecution of his duties.

—Rev. J. H. Payne, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal congregation of colored people in Cleveland, has been elected President of the Ministerial Association of which all the members are white but himself.

—Captain James Augustus and Mr. A. J. Riggs rank among Cincinnati's first caterers. Both attend, and the first is chairman of the Board of Trustees in Union Methodist Episcopal Church.

—The Rev. W. C. Webb received D. D. from the Iowa Wesleyan University at the late commencement. Dr. Webb is closing his three year's pastorate at Grace Church, Philadelphia, with great success.

—Rev. Joseph Courtney, of Ohio District, Lexington Conference, has placed us under fresh obligations for another list of subscribers, making the second from him. He is going through his work and things are looking prosperous, so he writes us.

—Zion's Banner, a monthly paper edited by the Rev. E. H. Curry, after a brief suspension, returns with renewed vigor to the journalistic arena again. It is the official paper of the fifth episcopal district of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

—The Rev. J. L. H. Sweres, presiding elder of the Louisville District, Kentucky Conference, African Methodist Episcopal Church, complains that he is compelled to undergo severe toils and pinching want, because the pastors do not raise the presiding elder's allowance.

—The Rev. George W. Hatton, of Louisville, and John W. Asbury of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the latter a United States Government storekeeper at Frankfort, Ky., are advertised to hold a camp-meeting at Piketon, near Portsmouth, in the latter part of August.

—Mr. Robert Henson, the popular well-known caterer and restauranter at the Ohio & Mississippi Railway depot in Louisville, owns the lunch stand there and does a good business. He has been a batchelor, but rumor has it that he is destined to soon become a benedict.

—Register B. K. Bruce, who has charge of the colored department in the New Orleans Exposition, has appointed Rev. W. J. Simmons, editor of the American Baptist, pastor of Seminary Chapel, and President of the Kentucky State Colored University, as commissioner to gather the exhibits of the colored people of Kentucky for representation there.

—No class of men are entitled to higher esteem and greater reverence by the colored people than that class represented by Rev. Jno. Braden, O. O. Wright, Dr. Seay and others, who have assiduously toiled and patiently waited under persecutions until their sure vindications should be borne to them on the wings of time. Their reward is sure.

—Rev. H. W. Key has been surprised by a liberal donation of good things, and he deserves it. Nothing is too good for a man who, by his faith, efforts and work can make such a showing of his love in substantial labor for the church as he has: Fifteen new churches in four years, and two of them worth twenty thousand dollars in the aggregate, is a good result, one of which presiding elder, pastors in charge and people may be proud.

—We were pleased to receive a visit from Rev. Henry Green, one of the beloved fathers of Methodism in Louisiana. He told us how he had been present at the birth of the SOUTHWESTERN, how satisfied he was with the good it had accomplished, and was doing every week for the people; and he hoped they would stand firm in its support. Father Green is a little troubled in eyesight, but his heart and soul are as true to the church as ever.

—At the quarterly conference held at Mount Convenient on Shady Grove circuit, by L. P. Cushman, presiding elder of the New Orleans district, Aug. 16th, Rev. Alexander Conerly of the Louisiana annual conference of the A. M. E. Church, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church and was stationed at Franklinton circuit, Washington parish. We extend to Bro. Conerly a cordial welcome to the old church and wish him the greatest measure of prosperity in the field of labor to which he has been appointed.

—Presiding elders W. McDonald, of Gulf district, Mississippi; A. E. P. Albert, La Teche district; and S. Duncan, of Shreveport district, Louisiana Conference, called during the week. Bro. McDonald goes to hopeful labor at a district meeting on the Gulf coast; Bro. Duncan to a district conference at Robeleue, and Bro. Albert is recruiting from a severe malarial attack, preparatory to continuing his district work. All are earnest and hopeful and brought us cheerful messages, and promises of loyalty to the church paper.

—Mrs. Dr. J. C. Hartzell sailed from New York, in the steamer "State of Indiana," Aug. 14, for Scotland. She will spend a few weeks at her mother's childhood home. For nearly three years Mrs. Hartzell has been a great sufferer from nervous prostration, resulting from her residence and labors in the South. For twelve years she was a most faithful and efficient helper to her husband in his great and arduous labors in Louisiana and other Southern States. We are glad to learn that she has of late much improved in health, and that her physicians feel confident that this ocean trip will hasten her full recovery. Many thousands of our people in the South, with whom her name and work have become familiar, will unite in praying for her safe return and perfect health.

OUR SOUTHERN WORK.

LOUISIANA.

N. Kyle, Helmville: "The work in St. Charles has been revived. In protracted meeting our pastor, G. A. Payne was blessed with 25 converts, 4 backsliders reclaimed, and 2 received by letter. Some of the whites, the Gagenheim family, lawyer Duplone, and Mr. Louis Ory have encouraged us by their presence at services. We have never had such times since the church was built here."

S. Green, Cottonport: "The water has gone back, and we are about to organize a good Methodist society. I remained at my post during the overflow, and you know that when the "ducks run the chickens have to run also." July 19th I visited M. Mathews & Son's plantation on Bayou Choupique. One of the sisters asked me to attend a love feast. I found Mr. Mathews to be a nice Methodist family. He is raising fruit and honey prosperously, and is hospitable to Methodist preachers. God bless him. Cotton picking will begin next month."

T. J. Johnson, Camp Parapet: "The corner-stone of the M. E. Church at Kenner will be laid, assisted by the Young Men's Protective League Union Association, their chaplain and different pastors of New Orleans. I have made arrangements to take the people up on the beautiful steamer Queen City, which will take all who desire to go. Remember the day, Sunday, Aug. 31. Fare for the round trip 50 cents. Come all true friends of the Master's work. Consecration sermons will be preached by Elder Cushman and Rev. S. Priestley. The following brethren will also be present. Revs. T. P. Jackson, Henry Green, A. J. Ford, M. C. Mason, P. Burrell, Z. T. Gayden, Moses Fairfax and M. J. Dyer."

MISSISSIPPI.

J. B. Smith, Handsboro: "Our camp meeting will commence on the 27th and continue eight days. Rev. M. Dale and others are expected to be present. Elder McDonald will hold the quarterly conference on the 30-31st. We desire the stoppages of the trains near the grounds but visitors will have to get off at Bellefontaine, a regular station. Rev. Pressley, come over and try some of our spring water. It will do you good; it has already benefited Bro. Montgomery, and will help you both. Come out on the [illegible]"

Rust University.

The fall term of the Rust University will open on Thursday, September 18, 1884. With the exception of the Model Department, the [illegible] of teachers will remain in their respective positions in the school for the coming year. A few vacancies will be secured to take charge of the Model School, as Miss Wood has declined the position. At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees, held in June, I tendered my position as President of the University, desiring to take the position of a regular teacher in the school, that I might have more time for reading and study, which the additional duties of the presidency render impossible. But it has seemed impracticable to make such arrangements, and upon the earnest solicitation of Dr. Rust and others members of the Board, together with that of many students and friends of the school, I have consented to retain the presidency [illegible] year at least.

[illegible] being made for [illegible] the commencement seen before, and the [illegible] of letters and postal cards are being received, in which the public is becoming more and more fully [illegible] all who read these lines that the prosperity depends upon their [illegible] will use their influence to [illegible] to the approximate [illegible] of this institution.

W. H. HOOPER.

[illegible] pastor.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mississippi Conference.

Pursuant to the call of the Chairman, Rev. W. W. Hooper, of the Centennial Committee of the Mississippi Conference, the committee met in Rust Hall, Holly Springs, Mississippi, August 19, 1884. Rev. W. W. Hooper was by consent of the committee made Chairman, and Rev. Samuel A. Cowan was elected Secretary of the meeting. It was moved and carried that we hold our Grand Centennial Jubilee in the city of Grenada, Mississippi, October 7, 8 and 9, 1884.

The following programme was made and adopted:

Tuesday, October 7, at 8 o'clock p. m.—The Methodist Episcopal Church—1. Its origin, growth in England, and origin in America, by Rev. J. M. Shumpert, presiding elder of the Jackson District; alternate, Rev. L. J. S. Bell, of Philadelphia, and volunteers. 2. From Asbury to Simpson—By Rev. J. Campbell, presiding elder of Meridan District; alternate, Rev. P. Bine, of Enterprise, and volunteers.

Wednesday, October 8, from 10 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.—3. From Simpson to the present—By Rev. I. B. Griffin, of Starkville; alternate, DeWitt Calvert, of Okolona, and volunteers. 4. The second Centenary of the Church—By S. A. Cowan, of Holly Springs; alternate, Rev. J. C. Houston, of Winona, and volunteers. From 2:30 to 5:30 p. m.—2. The Missionary Society—By Rev. D. A. Williams, presiding elder of the Okolona District; alternate, Rev. J. H. Cook, of Crystal Springs, and volunteers. 3. The Church Extension Society—By Rev. [illegible] presiding elder [illegible] District; alternate, Rev. G. Brooks, of Corinth, and volunteers. From 8 o'clock p. m. to 10:30—4. Rust University—By Dr. H. R. Revels, presiding elder of the Greenwood District; alternate, Rev. D. D. Goodwin, of Benton, and volunteers. 5. Educational work of the Church—By Rev. W. W. Hooper, President of Rust University; alternate, Rev. N. D. Clifford, professor of Rust University, and volunteers.

Thursday, October 9, from 10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.—6. Freedmen's Aid Society—By Rev. A. D. Payne, of Abbeville; alternate, Rev. J. I. Garrett, of Forest, and volunteers. 7. The relation of the Sunday-schools to the benevolences of the Church—By Rev. L. O. Crowder; alternate, Rev. Henry Henderson, of Fayette, and volunteers. From 2:30 to 5:30 p. m.—8. The ministers of the Church—By Rev. J. C. Eckles, presiding elder of Holly Springs District; alternate, Rev. A. Davis, of Vicksburg, and volunteers. 9. The laymen of the Church—By Rev. E. L. Gilliam, of Jackson; alternate, B. S. Humphries, of Oxford. From 8 to 10:30 p. m.—10. The Mississippi Conference—By Rev. J. W. Dunn, of Greenwood; alternate, Rev. J. D. Walden, of Meridian.

Dr. M. W. Taylor, Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, is invited to be present, and speak at this hour on any subject he may see fit, and other persons of distinction will be invited to take part in these exercises.

It is hoped that if any who are assigned to duty cannot be present, they will inform their alternates that they may be prepared to present their subjects intelligently. We hope that all the alternates and many others of the conference will be present, and join us in our Grand Centennial Jubilee. Each pastor is requested to read this programme to his congregation, and invite them to attend the meeting.

The good people of Grenada sent us invitations, and we are certain they will do all in their power to make us happy while in their midst. It is hoped that the pastors will preserve this programme, and bring it to Grenada with them.

W. W. HOOPER, Chairman.

[illegible] Harrison [illegible] have come out [illegible] and are making speeches for prohibition.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Ohio District—Lexington Conference.

The work in this district is principally new. It has twenty-five circuits and stations, several of which are self-supporting, and the others are aided by missionary appropriations. This is the second district in the conference in membership, benevolent collections, and has in value nearly half the church property of the entire conference. It embraces in territory the State of Ohio and part of Kentucky. For the presiding elder to make four rounds a year, necessitates him to travel over four thousand miles; but the traveling facilities are excellent. The brethren, notwithstanding the general suspension of business, are progressing in their charges, and are doing permanent work. Several camp meetings have been held, with good results, both spiritually and financially. New church property is being purchased, and old church debts are being canceled at a rapid rate. Some of the brethren have raised their entire benevolent apportionment; they are among the more earnest workers. The others have promised to do likewise. Good; fulfill it.

We are talking up the interest of the SOUTHWESTERN in this district pretty generally, but we happened to miss Rev. J. D. Walsh, of whom the Editor made special reference in a recent issue of his paper. Mr. Editor, since your [illegible] no doubt but that you have passed and even rubbed against numbers of persons who would have taken your paper if you had asked them.

Our district conference will meet at Troy, Ohio, September 25, and the district stewards will meet at the same place, at 3 p. m., on the 24th. A full attendance of all the members of the conference is earnestly desired.

JOSEPH COURTNEY, P. E.

August 8, 1884.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Women's Home Anniversary.

DEAR EDITOR: Please announce through the columns of your valuable paper, that the Women's Home Mission societies of the Baton Rouge District Anniversary Meeting, will be held in Plaquemine, La., September 20, 1884. Hoping that each society will send delegates. By order of

HESTER WILLIAMS,
District Manager.

Baton Rouge, August 19, 1884.

A Warrant Issued for the Arrest of Gov Ireland.

GALVESTON, Aug. 15.—A warrant was issued to-day by United States Commissioner Sparr for the arrest of John Ireland, Governor of Texas, for violation of Section 5510 of the Revised Statutes of the United States. The warrant is made returnable on Aug. 27. The affidavit upon which the commissioner issued the warrant reads as follows:

"Before James T. Spann, United States Commissioner within and for the Eastern District of Texas, personally appeared Emile Francois, who being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 1st day of May, 1883, in the county of Walker, in said district, John Ireland, as Governor of Texas, and Thos. J. Goree, as superintendent of the Texas Penitentiary, and one Capt. Jim Smithers, as an employe of said State, having charge of convicts, said Ireland, Goree and Smithers, acting together as principals, under color of the anti-miscegenation statute of Texas, passed Feb. 12, 1858, did unlawfully subject and cause to be subjected one Emile Francois, an inhabitant and citizen of the United States and State of Texas, to the deprivation of the right, privilege and immunity secured and protected by the Constitution and laws of the United States of being free from being discriminated against by said State [illegible] under said State [illegible] matter of punishment of his race or color, contrary to the form of the statutes in such cases made and provided, and against the peace, dignity and government of the United States of America.

"And deponent aforesaid on his oath aforesaid does further depose and say that at the time and place aforesaid the said John Ireland, Thos. J. Goree and Jim Smithers, as the State officers and agents aforesaid, did unlawfully conspire and confederate together for the purpose of depriving, directly and indirectly, said Emile Francois of the equal protection of the laws and equal privileges and immunities under the laws, contrary to the form of the statutes in such cases made and provided and against the peace, dignity and government of the United States of America. Signed and sworn to before Commissioner Spann, Aug. 15, by Emile Francois."

Emile Francois, upon whose deposition the warrant was issued, was convicted in 1879 under the anti-miscegenation statute of Texas, and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. On the 11th instant Judge Sabine, of the United States Court, granted a hearing to Francois on a writ of hebeas corpus. When the case was called for hearing, the State announced that the Governor had granted full pardon to Francois, whereupon the writ was dismissed, and an order of court entered discharging Francois. The next day Francois refused to accept the Governor's pardon, alleging that it did not restore him to citizenship, and he preferred rather to rely upon a judgment rendered in dismissal of the writ, and discharge from custody by the court as the best evidence of his liberty and citizenship.

Francois is pure white, and he married a colored woman whose complexion is fairer than his own. The State statute under which he was convicted provided only for the punishment of white persons in case of miscegenation; hence his claim of being discriminated against.

A great deal of political significance is connected with the issue of the warrant for the arrest of Gov. Ireland. Little doubt is felt here that the action in the premises has been dictated by Republican managers in the East, who think to enjoy political capital by making it appear that Ireland as Governor is in conflict with the Federal authorities. Governor Ireland's proclamation of pardon undoubtedly aggravated the Federal authorities. In his pardon proclamation Gov. Ireland assumes to prejudge the action of the United States court by declaring, "The Federal judiciary have determined to release Francois, unlawfully, and as there is no way to prevent it, etc.," he grants the release from imprisonment only.—Special to Times-Democrat.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

The Texas Democratic State Convention nominated Governor John Ireland for re-election by acclamation.

Ignatius Donnelly was nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Third Minnesota District.

The Hon. Frank H. Hurd was nominated for re-election to Congress from the Tenth Ohio District by the Democrats.

Rev. Dr. Smart has sold out the Lamp of Life to a company, and Rev. J. R. Berry has been elected to the editorship.

The French fleet began the bombardment of the Chinese fleet and works at Foo Chow, and in seven minutes destroyed the fleet and turned the attack into a massacre.

Forest fires near East Tawas, Mich., are destroying a great amount of property, and the wind is driving the flames rapidly toward Tawas City.

A party of seven young men left Albion, N. Y., in a sail-boat, since which time no tidings have been heard from them, and it is feared all are lost, as the lake was quite rough on that night.

MONUMENTAL EVIDENCE.

The Royal Baking Powder Is "Absolutely Pure."

The following certificates from well known chemists and scientists form as strong an array of evidence as was ever given in behalf of any article of human food:

GOVERNMENT CHEMIST'S REPORTS.

Prof. Edward G. Love, the Government chemist, says:

"I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates or other injurious substances. "E. G. LOVE, Ph. D."

Prof. H. A. Mott, Government chemist, says:

"It is a scientific fact, that Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure.

"H. A. MOTT, Ph. D."

W. M. McMurtrie, Prof. of Chemistry, Illinois Industrial University, late Government chemist, Dep't of Agriculture, says:

"The Royal Baking Powder has been used in my family for many years, and this practical test, as well as the chemical tests to which I have submitted it, prove it perfectly healthful, of uniform excellent quality, and free from any deleterious substance. WM. McMURTRIE, E. M., Ph. D."

Rush Medical College, Chicago.

Dr. Walter S. Haines, Professor of Chemistry, Rush Medical College, Chicago, says:

"I have recently examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the open market, and have found it entirely free from adulteration and injurious substances of all kinds. I have several times before tested the Royal Powder, and have always found it, just as in my present examination, skillfully compounded and composed of the purest materials. WALTER S. HAINES, M. D."

Dr. H. D. Garrison, Professor of Materia Medica and Toxicology, Chicago College of Pharmacy, says:

"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder obtained from my grocer and find it to be composed of pure and wholesome materials in correct proportion. It contains no alum or other injurious substance. The purity of the cream of tartar employed in this powder is worthy of special mention, since it does not contain the tartrate of lime usually present in baking powders in which cream of tartar of inferior quality is used. H. D. GARRISON, M. D."

College of Physicians and Surgeons, Chicago.

Prof. C. B. Gibson, Chemist, College Physicians and Surgeons, Chicago, says:

"I recently procured a sample of your (Royal) baking powder from the kitchen of a private family in this city, and subjected it to an examination. I found it so different from many of the baking powders advertised as 'strictly' and 'absolutely pure,' and 'so far superior,' that I thought you would be pleased to know it, and might find use for the certificate.

"In view of the vast difference and stupendous claims that are offered to the most 'gullible' people on the face of the earth, it pleases me occasionally to strike an honest article.' C. B. GIBSON."

Kentucky State College.

Dr. A. E. Menke, Professor of Chemistry, Kentucky State College, says:

"I have very carefully examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, and find it to be a cream of tartar powder of high strength, not containing any terra alba, alum, or other deleterious ingredient, everything being pure and wholesome. "ALBERT E. MENKE."

Prof. Henry Morton, president of Stevens Institute of Technology, says:

"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, terra alba, or other injurious substance. "HENRY MORTON."

Dr. J. H. Wright and Dr. Albert Merrell, analytical chemists, late the firm of Wright & Merrell, St. Louis, each says:

"I have made a careful analytical test of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the open market here, and in the original package. I find it to be a cream of tartar powder of the highest grade of strength, containing nothing but pure, wholesome, and useful ingredients. JUAN H. WRIGHT, M. D.
"ALBERT MERRELL, M. D."

The late Republican convention was an honor to the party in Kansas; composed as it was of chosen men, it performed its work well. The ticket nominated is claimed to be a good one. By a decided vote, (62 for and 296 against a contitutional convention to reconsider the prohibition question) it settled the vexed question. The platform is sound and loyal.—Kansas Herald.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Our Little Men and Women for September (Boston: D. Lothrop & Co.) is on hand, a welcome budget of pictures and stories.

The Rev. Newman Smyth will contribute an article to the forthcoming Century on "The Late Dr. Dorner and the 'New Theology.'" It will give a sketch of his life and of his theological method, and will contain some personal reminiscences by the writer.

Harper's Magazine for September is a brilliant and varied Number, beautifully illustrated. George H. Boughton continues his "Artist Strolls in Holland." "A Ran Ashore at Queenstown," by W. R. H. Rideing, will recall pleasant memories to those who have crossed the Atlantic and lingered about Cork. In the field of History we have the Second Part of Mr. Treadwell Walden's series on "The great Half of William Rufus." Robert Buchanan's article on Charles [illegible] a personal sketch, full of new matter, with portrait of the novelist. The Reservoir System on the Upper Mississippi is the subject of an interesting article by J. G. Pyle, illustrated by diagrams. The Editor's Easy Chair contains this month some very interesting chats of a purely literary character. The other Editorial Departments are full of timely and interesting matter.

Among the articles in the North American Review for September three in particular merit the serious consideration of every one who studies the tendencies of our government. The leading one is by Bishop J. Lancaster Spalding, who insists that the only sure "[illegible] of Popular Government" is morality, not culture of the intellect, not universal suffrage, nor the development of material resources; that if the country is to be saved from ruin, there must be a return to the uncompromising morality of the founders of New England. The policy of "The Exclusion of the Chinese" is advocated by Col. H. Durst, who presents a striking array of forcible and original arguments against Mongolian immigration. Four distinguished writers on political economy, namely, David A. Wells, Thomas G. Shearman, J. B. Sargent, and Professor W. G. Sumner, set forth, from [illegible] every conceivable point of view, the "Evils of the Tariff System," and it is announced that in the North American Review for October several writers of no less distinction will exhibit the "Benefits of the Tariff System." Two other articles in the September number are "The Demand of Industrial Spirit," by Charles Dudley Warner; "Inspiration and Infallibility," by the Rev. [illegible] Ryland Dyke; "The need of Labor Laws," by Elizabeth Cady Stanton; and "Our Remote Ancestry," by Prof. Alexander Winchell.

The Housekeeper.

In Valois, Switzerland, a man's [illegible] are estimated according to the number of cheeses he owns. [illegible] "cheese rich" man is meant [illegible] as wealthy as Crœsus. Said one Valois boy to a companion, "My father is a 'cheese rich' man." "How many cheeses has he?" said the other. "Oh, at least so many, [illegible] we have just made a lot." "Ours," said the other, smilingly, "my father [illegible] that number the year round, and some of ours are a hundred old." When a child is born, [illegible] the custom to make a cheese, [illegible] it untouched during its [illegible], cutting it first at its funeral feast.

WORDS THAT STAIN.—A small [illegible] of camel's hair had been [illegible] into a fluid in which was [illegible] nitrate of silver, or caustic," [illegible] sometimes called. The [illegible] was wiped upon a white [illegible]. Pretty soon there appeared [illegible] black stain upon the white surface. It did not look very dark at [illegible], but the action of the light [illegible] to deepen the color until [illegible] an ugly spot that could not [illegible] rubbed out nor bleached out in the summer. A bright lad [illegible] a vile word and an impure [illegible]. He thought them over, they [illegible] fixed in his memory, and [illegible] a stain which could not [illegible] put by all the waters of [illegible] round earth. Do not al[illegible] to listen to vile stories [illegible] words. There are some [illegible] to do an evil [illegible] such things, [illegible] listen to [illegible] their [illegible] ear is filthy [illegible] shows their [illegible]. Be [illegible] quickly.

[illegible] Dissolve one [illegible] of soda into one quart [illegible], add two tablespoonfuls [illegible], four tablespoonfuls [illegible], half a pint two eggs [illegible] in the last thing [illegible] to make a [illegible]

[illegible] Cook.—To four [illegible] and two tea[illegible] sugar and one and [illegible] of soda and four [illegible], one quart of [illegible], four eggs, thor[illegible] Bake in rings [illegible]

[illegible] Dissolve one [illegible] of soda into one quart [illegible], add two tablespoonfuls [illegible], four tablespoonfuls [illegible], half a pint two eggs [illegible] in the last thing [illegible] to make a [illegible] quickly.

MUFFINS.—One pint of [illegible] flour, a piece of [illegible] as an egg, add two [illegible] of soda and four [illegible], one quart of [illegible], four eggs, thor[illegible] Bake in rings [illegible]

THE VENERABLE FOUNDER.

A righteous Wesley shall a muse essay,
From thy bright track, to catch a living ray?
So wide, so swift, so useful thy career,
Truth cannot paint without suspicion here.
But still his mind a wider circle drew,
For with his usefulness, his ardor grew,
The public good, he grasped with such a zeal,
As prophets felt, and dying martyrs feel;
And like his own beloved, redeeming plan,
He sought the bliss of universal man,
Yet cruel envy, base ingratitude,
His works aspersed, his spotless life pursued;
Each college clown, each academic bean,
Was Wesley's staunch, sworn, everlasting foe;
Hence, if the prelate's shaft its victim miss'd
A troop of rectors quickly crowd the list;
Who, when the Bishop's opposition failed,
Renewed the warfare, bit their lips and railed.
But not alone the sacerdotal class;
Each drunkard's song, and witling's jest he was;
The light buffoon, and silly novelist join
His name to nonsense, plays and pantomime.
Gay men would laugh at him, and sages tried,
To lessen excellence that touch their pride;
His piety was titled madman's rant,
His hope a lie, his converse pious cant;
His deadness to the world was deemed disgust,
His faith was fable, and his love was lust.
His pious ardori—Ouxidions hate!—
To church was schism treason 'gainst the State;
His wide benevolence, had malice tried.
Could she with more malignity have lied?
His wide benevolence, that gaily shed
A brilliant halo round his hoary head,
Was hence a hook to grapple power and fame,
And gain the lustre of a deathless name.
He fixed as fate, on truth's immortal base,
Rose like a pyramid amid disgrace;
Serenely shone, and when he brightly set,
Left Europe and the moral world in debt.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Life.

Life is too short to waste, too short to spend in grief and fears, should it last a thousand years; 'tis too short to waste; too short to give it up to pleasures, or sow one hour in discord or sin. Many have become weary of waiting, many of hoping for one kind word of sympathy, one drop of love; many are still toiling on uncomplainingly, trusting that the dawning of a better day will dawn calmly upon their dark path. Too many lives have been one long, tedious, bitter night, stormy throughout not a ray of light to gladden their hearts, battling alone in the world. But many hearts do not despair, for "'Tis not all of life to live." If we are destitute of earthly friends, let us remember we have a Friend above on whom we may safely lean. "Peace, be still," will quiet the angry strife. Life's burden may seem heavy, but trust Him. He sympathizes with us and loves us. By trusting Him the despondent sadness will leave our hearts, and although our worldly prospects may not be changed, we will find the green oasis along the desert path of life, at which we may enjoy serene happiness as we stop to linger and gaze upon them. It does not better our condition to look sad and forlorn; let us be thankful for the many undeserved mercies, then we shall have a cheerful spirit, and our faces will be radiant with smiles; smiles for the young and old, rich and poor. To live is a privilege which few can estimate; "life is indeed a problem." Even the most learned, and those who have tried to search out its mystic connections, cannot comprehend its profound significance. To live for a purpose, making others happy, improving our own opportunities by cultivating our good desires, refining and strengthening the intellect is noble. Can one's life be too well employed with the view of [illegible] and [illegible] immortal spirits which have an inheritance of eternal [illegible]

JENNIE E. BROWN.

Meanest Sneak in Town.

Malaria gases sneaked up through the poorly constructed drains and made baby very sick with malaria fever. Baby would have died but for timely use of Brown's Iron Bitters. There is nothing [illegible] way of cheap, but worse in the whole, than this malaria from the [illegible] regions. Use Brown's Iron Bitters, [illegible] Hazel, [illegible]

Before the short to try half a dozen different kinds of "Sure Cures," when one suffers with a cough or cold. Stick to the best and use Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup; it will cure your cough and never disappoint you. All druggists sell it at twenty-five cents a bottle.

Officers left London for Egypt [illegible] with troops and plant of the route of the expedition to Khar[illegible]

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for a friend of mine named George Lewis. He left here five or six years ago and went to the State prison. His mother's name is Lucy Holman, step-father Geo. Holman; sisters, Mary Carter, Winny Tanner and Pinkey Louis; half-sister Harriet Carter. Please address me at Moss Point, Miss.

JOHN C. CARTER.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my sister, Nora Lacy. She was born in Virginia, Chesterfield county, Bermuda Hundreds. She belonged to John Archy. Her mother was named Luvinia Lacey, her father Willis Lacey, her brother John Lacey. Address Edgar Woodly, St. Martinsville, La.

Work of the Late General Conference.

REV. W. S. LANKFORD.

The wise and prudent legislation of the General Conference of 1884, to my mind, forms a grand, if not the grandest, epoch in the history of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Of the thousands who constitute her membership, none have greater cause for rejoicing than the colored people. The bold stand taken on the broad platform of Christian and educational equality, looks like the dawn of the millennium. This is but speaking forth what has been in the heart of the Church since the days of its founders. This expression of the Church, through the highest tribunal, reaches the superlative: "That this General Conference declares the policy of the Methodist Episcopal Church to be, that no member of any society within the Church shall be excluded from public worship in any and every edifice of the denomination, and no student shall be excluded from instruction in any and every school under the supervision of the Church, because of race color, or previous condition of servitude." The recognition of the right of certain colored congregations in the territory of the Delaware Conference to become a part of said conference, and the right of all others similarly situated throughout the North-west, is an unmistakable sign of progress.

The election of the great evangelist, Dr. Wm. Taylor, as missionary bishop for Africa should send a thrill of joy and hope to the heart of every member and lover of the race. Dr. Marshall W. Taylor did credit to himself and his race in respectfully declining the nomination. The policy of the Church is the true policy. Ordain and send out the God made man—the man best qualified to bless the race—regardless of race, color, or previous condition. The election of M. W. Taylor, D. D., to a position only second in point of importance in the gift of the Church is a death-blow to the piteous howl of certain characters about the "color line." True merit, moral worth, capacity, and ability will lift the true man to the highest round of the ladder, no matter what his complexion may be. The Church has done, and is doing, much for the elevation and salvation of the race. The last serious obstruction has been removed, and it now remains for the colored people, under God, to complete the work of their moral, religious, and intellectual elevation, by availing themselves of all the offered benefits of the Church, by industry and frugality acquiring both knowledge and wealth, by giving freely of their means to carry on the work of our great Church in all her various departments.

—Western.

A SURE THING.

Baldness is only incurable when the hair roots are dead and absorbed, which is a rare condition. In nearly all cases they are simply torpid, and can be stimulated to put forth a new growth of hair by the use of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, the only preparation that cures baldness and restores youthful color to gray hair.

Baldness Cured and Age Rejuvenated.

J. W. HAMMOND, Lake Preston, D.T., when he was but 40 years old found his hair growing gray. At 50, his hair and whiskers were entirely white. So they continued until he reached 60 years of age, when he began using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, three bottles of which sufficed to restore their original rich, dark brown color.

MRS. AUGUST VALENTINE, of Buffalo, N. Y., had become nearly bald, and though she made use of many of the so-called hair restorers, none had any effect. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR did what nothing else could do, and now the lady again has a fine head of hair, thanks entirely to it.

GEO. MAYER, Flatonia, Texas, presented an apparently hopeless case. Baldness was hereditary in his family. By the time he was 23 years old he had scarcely any hair left. One bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR started a soft, downy growth all over his scalp, and in a few months his head was covered with soft, dark and abundant hair.

Medicinal Virtues.

The rare medicinal powers, emollient, stimulative and tonic, possessed by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR enable it to cure speedily Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Tetter-sores, Dandruff, Humors of various kinds, and other diseases of the scalp liable to cause baldness. It is not a dye, contains no coloring matter, and effects its rejuvenation of faded or gray hair simply by bringing back the vigor of youth to the roots and color glands of the hair.

The wife of DR. V. S. LOVELACE, Lovelace, Ky., had very bad Tetter Sores on her head. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR cured them.

The son of JAMES N. CARTER, Occoquan, Va., was cured of Scald-Head by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR.

HERBERT BOYD, Minneapolis, Minn., was cured by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR of intolerable Itching of the Scalp.

MRS. O. DAVENPORT, Williamstown, Vt., became entirely bald at the age of 20 and remained so 38 years, during which time she tried many hair "restorers" without success. Eventually she used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, four bottles of which covered her head with a fine growth of silky brown hair, twelve inches long.

MRS. O. O. PRESCOTT, Charlestown, Mass., had lost two-thirds of her hair, by its falling out, when she applied AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and one bottle of it caused her hair to grow out even more handsome than before it began to fall.

MRS. D. N. PARKS, Clio, Michigan, is 57 years of age, and her hair was quite gray, but one bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR restored the color it bore in youth, and she now has "as fine a head of hair as when she was but 16."

VINCENT JONES, Richmond, Ind., lost all his hair in consequence of a severe attack of brain fever. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR brought out a new growth in a few weeks, and it speedily grew long and thick.

A Toilet Luxury.

Where the hair is brittle, dry, harsh, weak, or thin, the use of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR speedily renders it pliant, soft, glossy, and stimulates it to a rich and luxurious growth: it also keeps the scalp free from dandruff, and affords a perfect assurance against the hair falling out or turning gray. No other dressing is so clean or has such a delicate and delightful perfume. Without it the toilet cannot be complete.

Ladies who have once made trial of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR never after prefer any other hair-dressing, and many of them voluntarily offer such testimonials as the following, from MISS KATE ROSE, Ingersoll, Ont., who writes:

"While keeping my head clear of Dandruff, and preventing Scald Head, it has also caused my hair to grow luxuriantly, resulting in my now possessing hair forty-two inches long, and as thick as any one could wish it."

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

Sold by all Druggists.

Our Books for Sale,

—AT—

Southwestern Office,

32 Natchez Street.

Wakefield's Theology	$2 50
Methodism In The Field	1 00
Class Leaders' Work and How to Do It	1 25
History of the M. E. Church, 4 volumes	6 00
Wesley's Sermons, 2 volumes	5 00
Whedon's Commentary on the New Testament	7 50
Life of John Wesley	1 00
Smith's Sacred Bible Geography	2 50
Bible Stories	1 00
Hints to Self Educated Ministers	1 25
Christianity Demonstrated by Experience	1 50
Pulpit Eloquence	3 00
Haney's Theological Compend	75
Pope's Theology, 3 volumes	7 50
Outlines of Bible History	50
Outlines of Church History	50
Catechisms—
No. 1, Per Dozen	35
No. 2 Per Dozen	45
No. 3, Per Dozen	60
American Primers, per dozen	50
Spelling and Reading Book, per dozen	1 50
Sunday-School Minute Book	40
Sunday-School Register and Receiving Book	40
Sunday-School Class Book	10
Church Record	2 50
Church Class Book	20
Hymnal 24 mo.	50
" 16 mo, with Ritual	75
" 16 mo, "	1 00
" 12 mo, "	1 50
" 16 mo, with Tunes	1 00

Plantation Melodies

—AND—

REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION

By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

A remarkable and unique collection of religious songs, with their accompanying weird, pathetic, ever varied and charming melodies, as sung for generations by the colored people of America. A few of the songs will be familiar, but the great majority have never before been printed and are now given for the first time, the original words and music. The music has been carefully written, and is well adapted for quartet, chorus, and congregational singing, and is especially excellent for social evenings at home. All singers should have it. First edition was exhausted in sixty days. Send for a copy.

"These songs ought to be saved and they ought to be sung."—Bishop I. W. Wiley. "Should think that the book would sell by thousands, and that it would do good."—Dr. J. M. Buckley. "It is grand. I like it."—Dr. R. S. Rust. "Just the thing—the gold saved from the dross."—Dr. John Reid. "Am perfectly delighted with it; it will sell by the thousands."—Rev. A. E. P. Albert. "There should be a copy in every household."—Rev. H. W. Tate. "Having carefully read your hymn-book, and being acquainted with many of the soul-stirring anthems spread upon its pages—especially one that was the cause of my conversion—I can and will commend the book, in the name of God, to all the world."—Rev. C. H. Collins.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1.25
Cloth..... 1 75

The New England Journal of Education, speaking of the National Education Assembly, for 1883, says: "It was the most remarkable gathering ever held in our country in matters connected with the schooling of the people. The volume of addresses is the most interesting collection of popular educational document ever given to our people, and should be in the hands of every educator, legislator and intelligent citizen in the land."

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

A special feature of the book is a series of ten tables, compiled by the Hon. H. R. Waite, Special Statistician U. S. Census, and the Hon. John Eaton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, giving complete data upon the illiterate and educational status of the United States, each State and also of the South as a section.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt,

32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

MILLERS and FARMERS Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro., Atlanta, Ga. Mention this paper.

may22-1y

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.

mar20-52t

Furnished Rooms to Rent

By the Month, Week or Day,

At No. 227 Customhouse Street

Corner Treme street, New Orleans, La.

Mrs. C. ROBERTSON, Proprietor

8 28t

WANTED Agents for the GOLDEN DAWN, Or the LIGHT on the GREAT FUTURE.

School Teachers, Students, Young Men and Ladies acting as agents for this book, are making over $100 a month. Sells fast. One agent sold 71 first 15 days; another 46 in 8 days; another 11 in one day; another 15 and 5 Bibles in 5 days. Secure territory quick. Also agents wanted for the best Illustrated Family Bible ever sold by agents. Send for circulars. Address TEXAS BOOK & BIBLE CO., 715 Elm St., Dallas, Texas. Feb. 28-24t.

"THE BEST IS CHEAPEST."

ENGINES, Horse Powers THRESHERS SAW MILLS, Clover Hullers

Circular free. Address Geiser Manufacturing Co., Waynesboro, Pa.

Send 1y

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address True & Co., Augusta, Maine.

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME.

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave
New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:35 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:50 p m
Grenada	4:05 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	5:55 a m
Oxford	6:42 a m
Holly Springs	7:52 a m
Grand Junction	8:50 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:15 p m
Martin " " "	1:27 p m
Fulton " " "	1:55 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale " "	6:56 p m
DuQuoin " "	7:45 p m
Ashley " "	8:28 p m
Centralia " "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:30 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	2:25 p m
" Louisville, "	6:20 a m
" Cincinnati "	6:30 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. j 31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2, 9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m.
Mail No. 4....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3....4:00 p. m.
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a. m.	Sunday Excur'n 6:30 p. m.

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and DIRECT CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT [illegible], Ticket Agent.

Louisville and Nashville R.R.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leave.	Arrive.
Express	6:30 a. m.	9:30 p. m.
Coast Accommodation	3:30 p. m.	7:30 a. m.
Fast Mail	6:25 p. m.	9:45 a. m.

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. O. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilbey, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; G. B. Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division.

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE

TO

Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn., and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close connection. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping cars and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City for emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri. Time and money is saved by this short route to [illegible] various routes via St. Louis, [illegible] the only outlet. Special low rates made for this class of [illegible] carried through to Kansas City in [illegible] cars on first class [illegible] trip. Land Explorers' tickets [illegible] low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City,
or H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.

[illegible],
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

For the Cheapest and Choicest

Family & Fancy Groceries,

SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE, Hams, Bacon, &c. &c.,

—GO TO—

N. E. Sullivan's

GROCERY,

Corner of

Washington and Hampden Streets

CARROLLTON, LA.

nov28-6y

General News Items.

It is denied that prisoners have been shot, who were arrested for conspiracy against the President and President-elect of Mexico.

It is reported at Foo Chow that an edict has been issued ordering the Viceroy of Yunnan to join his forces to those of Lin Yung, and invade Tonquin.

Orders have been sent to Patenotre, French minister to China, and Admiral Courbet, directing them to occupy the arsenal at Foo Chow if the French demands are refused.

Advices from West Africa state that Dr. Machtigal, the German commissioner, appeared in a gunboat on the rivers Camerons and Biddia, Upper Guinea, and hoisted the German flag.

The Louisiana militia at New Iberia took possession of the court-house, but the Fontelieu officials who were holding on pending a contest, concealed the parish records. The sheriff, clerk of court and other friends of Judge Fontelieu, were arrested.

M. Herve Mangon presented a report to the Academy of Sciences concerning the recent balloon ascension at Mendon. The balloon was under the direction of Capt. Renards, and although it moved against the wind, it easily followed a course along which it was steered. It was then veered around and brought back to the point from which it started. M. Mangon considers it a memorable event in the history of aerostatic science.

The Republican and Independent electoral ticket of Mississippi is composed as follows: For State at large, Judge H. F. Simrall, of Wilkinson, and Gen. Reuben Davis, of Hinds; alternates, Jason Niles, of Attala, and W. A. Montgomery, of Hinds; First Congressional District, Dr. J. M. Bynum, of Panola, alternate, B. F. Nabers, of Hinds; second district, Tobe Watkins, colored, of Lafayette; alternate, Watt Lamar, of Panola; third district, Gov. J. L. Alcorn, of Coahoma; alternate, Josiah T. Montgomery, colored, of Warren; fourth, Thomas W. Jones, colored, of Grenada; alternate, J. H. Henderson, of Yalobusha; fifth, Dr. J. R. Spotts, of Lauderdale; alternate, W. A. Drennan, of Holmes; sixth, Joseph N. Carpenter, of Adams; alternate, Dr. Thos. J. Jackson, of Amite; seventh, C. S. McMillan, of Lincoln; alternate, J. G. Spellman, of Hinds.

On the 7th of August, 1854, a Republican convention was held at Augusta, Maine, which was organized in the name of the Republican party, nominated a full county ticket and adopted a Republican platform. It is claimed by the citizens of Franklin county that Augusta gave birth to the Republican party of the United States. The claim has been disputed, but surviving members of the convention assert it was the first to formally adopt the name Republican and a distinctively Republican platform. The thirtieth anniversary, on account of the rain, was postponed from the 7th to the 19th. The streets were crowded with people, and the display and streamers were fine. Logan fired 40 guns, and seven Grand Army guns fired seven Grand Army salutes. Dingley presided. Congressman Hamlin and Congressman Milliken were present, and by Mr. Blaine's request a letter was read from him. The great enthusiasm

Our Liberia Correspondence.

Rev. Father Blanchet, Superior of the Sierra Leone Mission, and Father Lorber arrived at Monrovia February 29, and promptly called on President Johnson and Mayo King to pay their respects and to state the object of their mission. They seem well pleased with the prospects for Roman Catholic church work in Liberia. Admiral Salmon landed at Monrovia February 18th, to pay a complimentary visit to the new executive of Liberia. He was cordially received and welcomed by President Johnson and Cabinet, Mayo King and many of the leading citizens. The last immigrants have moved into their new houses. No deaths have occurred among them. They are working on their lands, and seem satisfied. The preceding company of immigrants are well and hearty. The Legislature, after a harmonious session, adjourned January 19th. The Senate passed a resolution authorizing the President to accept the northwest boundary of the Republic fixed by Great Britain. The members of the Cabinet are, Hon. William M. Davis, Secretary of State; Hon. M. T. Worrell, Secretary of the Treasury; Hon. S. N. Williams, Secretary of the Interior; and Hon. J. T. Wiles, Postmaster General. Messrs. Worrell and Wiles have already held the same positions, and Mr. Davis has long served as Attorney General, ranking favorably as a jurist and diplomatist. The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of Liberia College took place January 1. President Blyden delivered his annual report, which was approved and ordered to be printed.—African Repository.

Methodist Peculiarities.

The arrangements for the Centennial Conference are well in hand, and the Church is looking forward with pleasure to its meeting. Let the pastors study our history and polity, and bring the result before the people. We have a position of strength, which has only to be made known to command interest and attention. Tell the facts of organization and progress. Let these be widely known, and the Church will surely profit. We have good reasons for being what we are, and for maintaining our peculiarities. We can gain nothing by taking color from our surroundings. Prejudice—the prejudice of ignorance—survives. Nothing can break it down so thoroughly as the kindly declaration of our call and mission.

And how peculiar is the position of Methodism. We are Catholic, yet not Roman. We have Bishops under various names, but no hierarchy. We have diocesan superintendence, but no dioceses. We have sacraments, but reject the doctrine of sacramental grace. We have ordinations, without indelibility and Divine right. We are Presbyterian, but not Calvinistic. We give our ministry a place of command, and protect the the churches against tyrrany. We maintain the independence of the local churches, and yet are not Congregationalists. Each church is an independent unit, and is still connected effectually with all. We permit immersion, and are not Baptists. We baptize children, but deny baptismal regeneration. We have a noble liturgy, and yet encourage the spontaneous expression of prayer and praise. We claim to follow the Spirit, and yet are not Quakers. We hold that all may be saved, and yet are not Universalists. We are Low-Church men in giving the hand of fellowship to all who trust a Divine CHRIST for salvation; Broad Church men in allowing liberty as to non-essentials, in our sympathy with the progress of science, in our desire to educate fully and broadly, and in our humanitarian and reform tendencies. But, first and last, we are evangelical, holding to depravity, the atonement, to everlasting misery for the righteous, and everlasting punishment for the impenitent. Such a Church [illegible] be reckoned for the Bourbon in theology or polity. The Epicurean, who wishes neither restraint or laborious activity, but does wish a pious and social veneer, will always abhor it. The intellectual and sectarian bigot will never be comfortable in it. The aristocrat in heart and culture, in taste and intellect, will despise it. But it has yet strength enough to keep the highest and sweep in the lowest."—Christian Advocate.

The World's Exposition.

In another column will be found what seems to be a rather extravagant announcement. That of the holding of a World's Industrial and Cotton Centennial Exposition, to open at New Orleans, December 1st of the present year, and continuing for the period of six months. The world is known to be a very fair sized body, having a good many countries and a good many people. An Exposition covering it would be a huge undertaking. Yet from what we have learned of the World's Exposition, it will come nearer justifying its designation than even its projectors could have anticipated.

The reports of its progress, of its development, of the popular, almost universal interest it is exciting, of the movements of the people, States, even all the Territories, and the Foreign Countries, in their preparations for representation in it, are simply wonderful. No other enterprise of the kind ever launched, has been received with the same favor and enthusiasm. Even the great Centennial Exposition of 1876, is already overshadowed by it in the magnitude it has already obtained, and the character and range of exhibits already secured.

This Exposition is held by virtue of an act of Congress, under the auspices of the general government, (which has appropriated $1,3000,000 for its purposes), the National Cotton Planters' Association and the City of New Orleans. Appropriations for its benefit have been made by the principal States of the Union, by numerous counties and cities and by several foreign countries.

The main building, now about finished, is the largest structure ever erected, covering 33 acres of space under one roof. The Horticultural Hall, also nearly completed, is the largest building ever erected for the purpose, being 600 feet long by 194 in width. In the center tower it is arranged to show 20,000 plates of fruit. The government building will of itself be much larger than the majority of what are termed great exposition buildings, it being 885 feet long by 565 feet in width. This building will contain the Government and State exhibits. Many other structures will be erected. This Exposition gives every promise of being the greatest and grandest ever held.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

Trade Mark

On Every Bottle

BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

AUTOMATIC

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

EDUCATIONAL.

For A Business Education Attend the

Commercial College

Of Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky. Students can begin any week-day in the year. No vacation. Time to complete the Full Diploma Business Course about 10 weeks. Average Total Cost, including Tuition, Set of Books and Board in a family, $90. Telegraphy a specialty. Literary Course free. Ladies received. 5,000 successful graduates. Over 500 pupils last year from 15 to 45 years of age, from 32 States. Instruction is practically and individually imparted by 10 teachers. Special courses for Teachers and Business Men. University Diploma presented to its graduates. This beautiful city is noted for its healthfulness and society, and is on leading Railroads. Fall Session begins Sept. 8th. For circulars and full particulars, address its President, WILBUR R. SMITH, Lexington, Ky.

BRUCE W. june5-3m nr

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants, and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for postage. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. Mention this journal jy17 1y.

WASHINGTON & LEE UNIVERSITY,

LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA.

Instructions in the usual academic studies, and in the professional schools of Law and Engineering. Location healthful. Expenses moderate. Session opens Sept. 18. For catalogue, address Clerk of the Faculty. G. W. C. LEE, President.

july17 8t

LAW SCHOOL

OF WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.

GEN. G. W. C. LEE, President.

Instruction by text-books and printed lectures, with courses of lectures on special subjects by eminent jurists. Tuition and fees, $90 for session of nine months; beginning Sept. 18. For catalogue and full information, address CHAS. A. GRAVES, Prof. of Law, Lexington, Va.

july17-8t

RUST UNIVERSITY,

HOLLY SPRINGS, MISS.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28 3m Holly Springs, Miss.

THE WORLD'S COTTON CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION

New Orleans.

Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.

—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—

United States Government.

$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.

$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.

$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.

$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.

$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.

From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.

Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.

The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.

The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.
For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. I. & C. C. E.,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

FOR DAY SCHOOLS.

THE International

DAY SCHOOL

SINGER

For Public and Day Schools, Juvenile Classes, Institutes, Conventions, Seminaries, etc.
By JAS. R. MURRAY and W. H. PONTIUS.
The names of the authors are in themselves sufficient guarantee for the real merit of the work; which the publishers believe to be the best of its kind now before the public. The book contains four distinct departments as follows:

PART 1. Rote Songs for Beginners.
2. A Complete Course of Practical Lessons.
3. Songs in 2, 3 and 4 Parts.
4. Reviewal and other Music.

Together with the latest and best music and methods. 218 pp. Price 50 cts. each by mail, post-paid; $5 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen pages free.

Published by
JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.
dec7-1y

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For

And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS. Can be taken at home. Incurable when cases are properly reported for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. C. P. CHILDS, [illegible]

feb7-1y

Central Tennessee College,

Nashville, Tennessee.

This College begins its nineteenth year on

Monday, September 8, 1884.

Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.

Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.

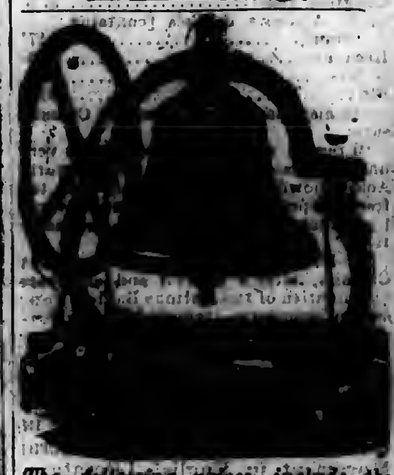
The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.

For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia.

Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.



A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty.
A Large and Well Selected Library.
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean.
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oc16-3m

KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE.

At Farmdale P. O., Franklin Co., Ky., six miles from Frankfort. Has the most healthful and beautiful location in the State. Lit by gas as well as heated by steam. A full and able College Faculty. Expenses as moderate as any first-class college. For circulars address as above. The next year begins September 1st. For catalogues, etc., address as above.
COL. R. D. ALLEN, Supt.
july3-6teow

BELLS.

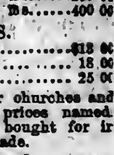
The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches	175 lbs	325 lbs	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	85 00
36 "	550 lbs	800 lbs	135 00
40 "	750 lbs	1050 lbs	180 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	260 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1800 lbs	360 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$13 00
20 inches	130 lbs	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00



We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

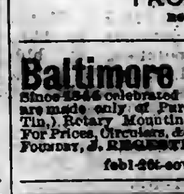
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture those celebrated Chimes and Bells for CHURCHES, ACADEMIES, &c. Price-list and circulars sent free.
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
sept8-1y Baltimore, Md.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar20-1y



MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

Baltimore Church Bells

Since 1845 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
feb1-26t eow

BLYMYER M'F'G CO. BELLS.

Church, School, Fire-alarm, Plantation and other Bells. Illustrated Catalogue with 1500 testimonials, prices, etc., sent free. Blymyer Manufacturing Co., Cincinnati, O.
July3 26teow

Local Agents Wanted SELL and tell us what about yours. Put your name on paper and sign it you [illegible] STANDARD
$60.5 TON WAGON SCALES.
Iron Beam, Tare Beam, Platform, Iron Frame, Steel Bearings, Brass Bushings, Steel Plates, Low Price, Full Count. Address HOWE SCALE CO., BINGHAMTON, N. Y.
Binghamton, N. Y.
May 22 1t 8teow

PAYSONS

is their NEXT. No preparation. Used with any steel pen for marking any fabric. Popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial MEDAL & Diploma. 25 cents. Sold by all Druggists, Stationers & News Agts.
may22-11t eow

PATENTS

MUNN & CO., of the Scientific American, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, Caveats, Copyrights, for the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany, etc. Hand Book about Patents sent free. Thirteen years' practice. Patents obtained through MUNN & CO. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, the largest and most widely circulated scientific paper. Weekly, $3.20 a year. Splendid engravings and interesting information. Specimen copy of the Scientific American sent free. Address MUNN & CO., Publishers, 261 Broadway, New York.

dec6-tf

AGENTS Wanted for our new book, CITIES REVISITED. Nations exhumed, philosophically rewritten. The doings of Prophets and Kings unfolded. Great discoveries. Startling researches. Testimony confirming Scripture. Temples and Tombs. Plain to a child; absorbing to all. Fully illustrated. 100 maps. Low price. Sells rapidly. Subscribers wanted. Send for circulars. Territory now ready. Address WM. GARRETSON & CO., 4th & Chestnut Sts., St. Louis, Mo.

mar13-1y

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.

The Ministers' and Teachers'

ONLY $2

This Bible is [illegible] London and [illegible] leading [illegible] Old and New [illegible] contains [illegible] one of [illegible] all, see [illegible] Contents [illegible] Concordance, [illegible] colored Maps, etc. Pictures of Animals, and of the Bible, superior to all [illegible] Pens. Large [illegible] bound in gilt edges, [illegible] mark, and [illegible] reference, [illegible] deduce [illegible] on we will, for a limited time only, send one, by mail, postage paid, to any address on receipt of [illegible] Agents Wanted for [illegible] Other Bibles with less matter, at [illegible] Circulars free. Address [illegible] & CO., Chicago.

jan31-26teow

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent, Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.

may1-4m

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

THIRD QUARTER, LESSON IX. Aug. 31. LIFE AND WORD. [Psa. xix, 1-14.]

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward. Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

When we speak of heaven, we mean the home that God has prepared for those who die accepted of him through Jesus Christ. But when heavens are what we call the firmament means the same David, as he looks upward summer morning at the ris or at the bright stars Winter night, feels that "day and night, him of the glory, power the God who made picture de- of the fine

Life in Movement in English Literature, National Review; The Life of St. Margaret, Scottish Review; Newspapers, Fortnightly; Wren's Work and its Lessons, and Contemporary Life and Thoughts in France, Contemporary; Easter Week in Amorgos, Macmillan; Among the Teutons, Temple Bar; A Pleasant Home in Breton, Time; "The Boy Jones," All the Year Round; The Inner Circle Railway Completion, Globe; with instalments of "Beauty and the Beast," "Mitchelhurst Place," and "The Baby's Grandmother," and poetry. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE,
August 25, 1884.

Readers will remember that the quotations are for round lots, and higher rates must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ½ lb—Ordinary, 8¾; Middling, 10 1-16; Good Middling, 10 13-16; Strict Good Middling, 11 1-16.

SUGAR, ½ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5¾; White clarified, 6@—; Common 4@5¼.

MOLASSES, in bbls, ½ gallon—Common, 18@19; fair, 18@25; choice, 40@—.

RICE, Louisiana, ½ lb—Common, 4@4¼; fair, 5@5¾; choice, 5¼@5¾.

MOSS, ½ lb—Mixed, 1@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

PROCERIES.

BUTTER, ½ lb—Western, 20@21.

CHEESE, ½ lb—Dutchery, 9; prime, 11.

CURRANTS, ½ lb—Western factory 9.

CORN MEAL, ½ bbl—Choice, $2.90@3.

FLOUR, ½ bbl—Fancy, $4.60; Choice, $4.40; Family, $4.20.

LARD, ½ lb—Choice, 7¾.

SALT, ½ sack—Coarse, 82½; Fine, $1.02½.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ½ bbl., $1.85@1.85; sweet potatoes, ½ bbl. $1.50@1.75; cabbages, $1.50@1.00 per hundred; sour kraut, $5.00@7.00 per barrel.

OILS, ½ gallon—Coal, in casks, 18@—; coal, in bbl. 20@—; linseed, raw, 62@63; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

PORK, ½ bbl—Choice, $19.00.

BACON, ½ lb—Clear rib sides, 12¼; shoulders, 11½@12; sides, long cases, 11½@11¾; hams, sugar-cured, 15c.

DRY SALT MEAT, ½ lb—Clear rib sides, 8¼; clear sides, 8¼; shoulders, 7¼@7¾.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens [illegible]; young [illegible]; Turkeys [illegible]; Eggs [illegible].

GRAIN AND FEED.

CORN, ½ bushel—Yellow, —; [illegible]

[illegible] June 20. She [illegible] child.

[illegible] is, by New [illegible] city. Also [illegible]

[illegible] Life in [illegible] the soul; that is, [illegible] that accepts the truths [illegible] as divine, and takes [illegible] rule and law, will be [illegible] sin to righteousness, [illegible] the heart, by its [illegible] who obey it, and [illegible] that obedience it [illegible] condemning only [illegible] praising only the [illegible] closes with a prayer [illegible] We hope all those [illegible] class that can, will [illegible] and when they

PAT

[illegible] above and about [illegible] time, and gives thanks [illegible] them. The psalmist [illegible] of the law of God, the [illegible] that it is perfect. Men are [illegible] changing and trying to [illegible] shows [illegible] themselves that they [illegible] Art [illegible] and Word. [Psa. xix, 1-14.]

[illegible] we speak of heaven, we [illegible] the home that God has pre- [illegible] for those who die accepted of [illegible] through Jesus Christ. But [illegible] heavens are what we call the [illegible] firmament means the same [illegible] David, as he looks upward [illegible] summer morning at the ris- [illegible] or at the bright stars [illegible] Winter night, feels that [illegible] day and night, [illegible] him of the glory, power [illegible] the God who made [illegible] picture de- [illegible] of the [illegible] fine

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
[illegible] ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

NEW BOOKS.

THE COMPLETE ANGLER, or The Contemplative Man's Recreation, of Isaak Walton and Charles Cotton. Edited by John Major. New York: Thomas Y Crowell & Co., No. 13 Astor Place. Price $2

This delightful old English book, which has been a source of comfort and joy to mankind since its first appearance in the world of letters, has been prepared in nice shape, by the present publishers. It is full of quaint expressions, and notes for fishermen, and even those who are fishing for souls may profit from its pages.

BEST BAKING POWDER.

Interesting Tests Made by the Government Chemist.

Dr Edward G. Love, the present Analytical Chemist for the Government, has recently made some interesting experiments as to the comparative value of baking powders. Dr. Love's tests were made to determine what brands are the most economical to use, and as their capacity lies in their leavening power, tests were directed solely to ascertain the available gas of each powder. Dr. Love's report gives the following:

Name of the Baking Powders.	Cubic Inches Gas per each ounce of Powder.
Royal (cream tartar powder)	127 4
Patapsco (alum powder)	125.2*
Ramford's (phosphate) fresh	122.5*
Ramford's (phosphate) old	32 7*
Hanford's None Such, fresh	121.6
Hanford's None Such, old	84.35
Hubbard's	117.0
Charm (alum powder)	116.2*
Amazon (alum powder)	111.8*
Cleveland's [short weight 4 oz.]	110 8
Sea Foam	107 9
Cent	106 8
Dr. Price's	102 6
Snow Flake [Groff's St. Paul]	101.88
Lewis's, Condensed	98 2
Congress yeast	97 5
C. E. Andrews & Co's [contains alum]	17*
Hooker's	[illegible]
Gillets	[illegible]
Bulk	[illegible]

"In his report the Government Chemist says:

"I [illegible] powders [illegible] very [illegible] and Tartaric [illegible] free [illegible] powders [illegible] in [illegible] Royal [illegible] Cleveland's [illegible] Dr. Price's [illegible] Snow Flake [illegible] Congress [illegible] Hooker's [illegible] Gillet's [illegible] Bulk [illegible] Charm [illegible] Hanford's [illegible] Ramford's [illegible] Patapsco [illegible] Cent [illegible] Sea Foam [illegible] Hubbard's [illegible] Amazon [illegible] Lewis's [illegible] Andrews

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 36. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, SEPTEMBER 4, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 775.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

32 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

When the wicked speak, shall God hold his peace?

Glance at the past for a lesson, but look to the future for a living.

The relations of a Christian should be cordial toward all other Christians.

Other things may change, but the praise of the Lord is immutable and eternal.

Practical exhortation is most fruitful in the production of desirable results.

Do your duty without fear, there will always be seed for the sower, and bread for the eater.

You may be wrong when you think you are right. It is human to err, but divine to correct the errors.

A conquest implies a conflict and a victory. The feeblest saint fighting shall win the day though death and hell obstruct his way.

True men form conclusions deliberately and conscientiously, which they follow out regardless of personal gains or losses in fame or money.

Save the thoughts as they are passing, save them as they come, and by and by you can win now them; then the good you can use and the useless set aside.

When compassed about with words of hatred, and withstood by malice without a cause, when his love was recompensed by hate and evil was rewarded him for his good, David "gave himself unto prayer."

Elder Richard Meredeth says his church, the "Baptist" "don't commune with the Methodist because they have no wine to spare." The reason is conclusive and unanswerable.

Rev. J. W. Hamilton, of Boston, has our thanks for a printed copy of his sermon, published with the memorial exercises of Charles Russell Lowell Post 7, G. A. R., and a patriotic gem.

Bishop Boman now seems to be enjoying perfect health, but it is easily to be seen that he is preaching too much. He should be careful, and the Church should be careful about too frequently calling upon him, thus saving him the care. It is very pleasant to have his kind words for the SOUTHWESTERN. Indeed we think a great deal of the Bishops, as they have come and gone since our conference; we have always found it hard to decide which of our last conference all are so good [illegible] for choice.

We learn that the colored members of our church near Cleveland, Tennessee, generally take the Methodist Advocate of Chattanooga, and that Dr. Carter gets around freely among them. We always knew the Dr. was a mixer at bottom.

A man riding backward in a railway coach sees nothing till he has passed it. How many there are who in a figure ride backward through life seeing only that which is behind them. Wheel yon chair about, look to the front, everything of importance is ahead.

A Godly profession requires for its support, hearty service, proper association and public loyalty to all the interests of the cause of the Lord. He must be praised in the select circle of the upright, and the great mixed congregation of people. It must be distinguished in all places by evidences of heartiness.

Rev. W. S. Rollins had quite a success in his camp meeting at Amelia, Ohio. More than four thousand people were present on the last day. The meetings were spiritual, and the singing, as led by Miss Josephine Robinson, of Maysville, was sublime. The receipts will enable the circuit to free itself from an old indebtedness and recover losses from last winter's flood.

All over the South colored women seem to be in motion, keeping step to the advancing march of Christian, moral and literary progress within our race, all races, and the age. Miss Fannie Key, Mrs. T. A. Phillips, Mrs. Hester Williams, Mrs. Sarah Foster, Charlotte Davis, Sallie McDaniel, Clarisa Baker and Letsie Davidson are presented in our number for July 31st, for public exercises at conferences or conventions. If these Christian ladies would cultivate the acquaintance of each other, and organize themselves for systematic effort, they could accomplish a work which can be done as well by no other agency.

W. S. Hurly, Ingrams Mill, Miss., sends to the ADVOCATE an interesting description of the Republican Congressional convention for the second district. He says one delegate walked 70 miles to attend it, and the announcement was received with applause, and a purse of $5.70 was made up by the convention to pay his expenses back. The body was so disorderly that the presiding officer called on the sheriff to preserve order. Then Mr. Johnson colored, and his friends of Panola county went to the chancery clerk's office and nominated him, and representatives of the other counties endorsed Gen. James R. Chalmers for Congress.

Select Proverbs.

A crowd is not company.

Advice to all, security for none.

All truths must not be told at all times.

A guilty conscience needs no accuser.

A thousand probabilities do not make one truth.

Accusing is proving, where malice and power sit judges.

A blow from a frying pan, though it does not hurt it sullies.

A cut purse is a sure trade, for he has ready money when his work is done.

Calumny, though known to be such generally leaves a stain on the reputation.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

New Orleans District.

Give a God-sent minister an opportunity, and he will make his mark and his way. He may be where many things are against him; where those who had gone before him had seriously failed; where all the omens are disheartening; but if God has sent him, he will gather a congregation, and have a pulpit and church to protect the people from the wind and rain. With the Bible in his hand, the love of God in his heart, and the Holy Spirit abiding with him, his success is sure.

At Pearl River we have an excellent people, and a good opportunity for God and the Church. Bro. Hardy is respected by the people, and in some respects is having a successful year. There is harmony in the church. The finances are in a healthy condition. A bell for the church, costing $32, has been bought and paid for. But there seems to be little interest in the Sunday-school. Children's Day was not observed, and the spiritual condition of the church is at a low ebb. This is not precisely as it should be; merely playing at religion will not save sinners. Let the word preached be accompanied with the Holy Ghost, and there will be wonderful displays of God's converting power. I had a Christian home with sister Jane E. Porter, and Monday morning a pleasant ride with Miss Lizzie Clowd to Slidell's Station, and found riding out much more agreeable than the walking in on Saturday.

It is said of the sainted Fletcher, when he went to Madeley that he refused a far better place, because he wanted more work, and less pay. His imitators or successors are few. Still it is true that he who would bless the world most fully, must cultivate its waste places, and cause its deserts to blossom as the rose.

On Spring Chapel circuit Bro. Nelson has all the work one man can do; and pay sufficiently small to satisfy Fletcher. Since conference he has organized 4 Sunday-schools, with 87 scholars enrolled, taken 23 on probation in the church, and has received from all sources $6.65. August 11th he met me at Derby, on the Northeastern railroad, when I exchanged the cars for a horse. A ride of seven miles brought us to Hobolochitto, where I preached to a small congregation, and administered the sacrament of baptism. The next day we went to Piney Grove Chapel, where we held quarterly conference, preached twice, administered the sacrament of the Lord's supper and baptism, and held a love-feast. Bro. Clark, who has charge of Shady Grove circuit, was with us, to help on in the work of the day. Next morning we started for Mount Convenient, where we were to hold a four days' meeting, and were led by a way that no man knoweth, and we earnestly hope never to travel again. At last Pearl River was reached. On the other side, away in the distance, was Shady Grove, and still further on Mount Convenient. The only means of crossing over was a dugout, into which we stepped, and were soon safe on the other side. A further walk of two miles brought us to the home of Bro. Frank Peters, where we had dinner. The brethren at Mount Convenient, anticipating our condition, had sent along a horse for each of us to ride. Five miles further on we arrived at the home of Bro. Brown, which stands upon the side of a gentle descent, facing an extended view of an immense pine forest. The house is a double cabin of logs, with porch and hall, and is counted one of the best residences in the community. Few things could be more cheering to the weary itinerant than the hearty welcome that was extended to me by this "household of faith." Here I found a frankness, a simplicity, confidence and hospitality that goes far toward compensating for all the toils incident to the itinerancy. Bro. Clark was my companion. We found this "a good home for Methodist preachers." Our meeting began Wednesday, and continued till Sabbath night, or Monday morning. Saturday and Sabbath were the great days. Our congregations, walking and mounted, but always in "Indian file," came from all quarters. The women generally on horseback, with a large child behind, and a smaller one before. The greeting of these neighbors was most cordial and refreshing to my heart. Our sanctuary was an immense pine forest; the benches were logs, properly arranged. Never was the writer more concious of the presence of Him who said: "So I am with you always," than when preaching to the people assembled in this piney forest for the worship of God. It is hardly possible to count up the results of such a meeting. Sabbath night over 40 were at the mourner's bench; 16 were received on probation. After we closed all passed away to their homes, feeling that the Lord had been with them. The writer, wearied in body, had for his portion "the peace of God, that passeth all understanding."

The out look for our Church on this circuit is full of promise. The people are generally poor, but many of them are getting homes for themselves, and this year will have good crops. When Bro. Clark entered upon his work here, there was not a single Sunday-school; now they have five, with 198 scholars enrolled.

Children's Day was properly observed, and $13.60 raised. He is loved and respected by all of the people, and is doing real pioneer work.

At the quarterly conference, held August 16th, Rev. Alexander Conerly, a member of the Louisiana Annual Conference of the A. M. E. Church, was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church, and stationed at Franklinton circuit, Washington parish. May he have abundant success in preaching the Word, and gathering souls into the kingdom. L. P. CUSHMAN.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Austin and What We Saw and Thought.

BY I. B. SCOTT.

DEAR DOCTOR.—It was my good fortune a few days since to be able to visit the city of Austin, my old home. It is two hundred and fifteen miles from Galveston my present field of labor, and is within the bounds of our West Texas Conference. When I first went to Austin, seventeen years ago, I went on a freight wagon as there was no railroad running there. But now I can start from either quarter of the great State of Texas and go in by rail. The city is situated on little hillocks in a mountain rimmed basin. On the Southwestern side, the rim has seemingly been torn away to allow the beautiful though treacherous little stream—the Colorado river—to flow on quietly to the gulf, and at the same time drain the city and surrounding country which incline toward the broken rim.

As you enter the city your attention is attracted by such buildings as Tillotson Institute, the new stone building of Wesley Chapel M. E. Church, the Land office, State University and Graded School building (both exclusively for whites) the Governor's mansion and various churches. All of these buildings, many of which are stone structures, look as though they have sprung voluntarily from the rocky hill tops on which they have been erected. Looking across the river to the South you see towering from among the shady oaks the Deaf and Dumb Asylum; now turn and look to the Northeast and you see the Blind Asylum, which if you visit, you will be delighted with the sweet music, both vocal and instrumental; you will be astonished to see with what proficiency the blind pupils recite geography, arithmetic, etc., and also how readily they read the Bible, the poets and other books. And I am sure it will, to say the least, cause you to wonder to learn, that they teach instrumental music as successfully as those who have sight. Austin has a population of about twenty thousand and is a picturesque and healthful little city.

I arrived Saturday morning, had breakfast with my brother, D. G. Scott, and though tired out from the night's ride, there were two places I felt I must go. Yes. I must go and see mother. My young Tennessee friend, Mr. W. H. McKinley, gave me a pleasant drive behind a lively span to where she was stopping. Thank God we met her once more in life. She is quite gray, has passed through "three score years and ten," but still she is the same spirited, positive loving mother—the motive power of the family. After passing some time to ask and answer questions we drove next to the city of the dead. I wanted to see the grave of our little boy Evans Braden. Having once arrived on the ground we soon found it. It is marked by a beautifully inscribed marble slab placed there by one who loved him once and loves him still. For the golden chain that binds loved ones together here is seldom broken by the lapse of time or even weakened by the withering breath of death. Though it has been some time since we placed him there, I hear my Savior say he "is not dead, but sleepeth." He and my loving young sister sleep side by side. We shall meet again, whence we part no more.

The Sabbath came in upon us bright and warm. In company with Bro. J. W. Alexander, the veteran Methodist, the preacher's friend, we climbed over the hills to Sunday-school, where, in the basement of the new stone church, Bro. W. G. Wilson, the superintendent, was working away, surrounded by a large gathering of little folks. He is striving to make this in every respect the first school of the State. Possibly it would be now, were it not for the one at Trinity, Houston.

I doubt very much, however, whether any school in the State has a library to equal Bro. Wilson's. Wesley chapel is a grand old charge, and has accomplished some grand old things. If she finishes up in good style the magnificent stone building so nearly completed, she will add one more to the list. As one stands and gazes at the spot where the old church stood, he cannot help but feel himself in the presence of the old heroes—fathers Wright, Boyd, Hardwell and Williams. Two have crossed over, and two are waiting in their tents. They, with many old veterans, some of whom have crossed and others waiting their summons, did a grand work for the church. While it may be true that the young men of to-day are doing a work that they could not do, it is no less true that they did a work that the young men could not have done. We often hear their names called in the older charges, where many of them are loved and honored yet. They have built a monument more lasting than marble. When I enter the large charges where they are so often spoken of, I feel like saying to the young men: "Boys, pull off your shoes, for the ground on which you stand is holy ground." I am satisfied no one can rightly appreciate this, unless he knows what the old pioneers went through to build up this work.

On Sunday night I preached at Wesley Chapel to a large and attentive congregation. The stewards took at both services for their pastor, Rev. H. Swan, who was absent from the city, $50 65. The incoming week was one of feasting and pleasure for me, having been invited to dine somewhere every day while there.

Rev. C. L. Madison, of Austin district, and the old war horse, Rev. S. Gates, of Waco district, both presiding elders of West Texas Conference, happened to be at home spending the week with their families. The excellent dinners I ate at their houses respectively would make it appear that sisters Madison and Gates had consulted Mrs. Scott to know just what I liked best and then taken special pains to prepare it. On Wednesday we were all invited to Bro. M. Wright's five miles in the country. He is quite an industrious and prosperous farmer. He and his two young sons (read young ladies) together own about 700 acres of land, stock according; good orchard and all the conveniences of a well regulated farm. His is a model Methodist family. Two of the young ladies have married Methodist preachers, and Bro. W. says he has two more he is raising for preacher's wives. Elder Madison is one of the fortunate preachers who married into this family. After dinner he and his wife presented their first born, a little two months old girl whom Elder Gates baptized, thus giving her to the Lord. Rev. Maze, of Columbus, the other son-in law, was also present with his wife.

Drs. J. F. McKinley and Q. B. Neale, both graduates of our Meharry Medical College, Nashville, are practicing medicine at Austin. They have formed a copartnership, and are doing well. Both enjoy the reputation of being excellent physicians.

All over the city there seems to be a general waking up to the fact that every man should have his own home. Not a few have them. Many are getting tired of their old quarters and are building real good houses.

Our old friend, Prof. E. H. Anderson, of the State Normal School, is, on account of failing health, resting a few months at his Austin home. I close by saying, thank God for the ties of friendship both here and in the world to come.

OUR SOUTHERN WORK.

MISSISSIPPI.

R. Hays, Shubuta: "Quarterly conference was held at St. Paul Church. Reports were good; 15 received in full membership; 7 Sunday-schools on the circuit, with 228 average attendance. The elder preached in our new church. We gave him $6.65. The second Sunday in June was observed as children's day; collection $2."

A. W. Wright, Crawford: "Children's day was a success here. It was the second observance, and the preparation required hard labor. The church was decorated, and two nice banners were prepared, by Miss Maggie Webb, with silver letters. The whole day was spent with the children, and all were pleased. Collection $3.15."

John Mayo, Central Grove: Elder Williams preached a dedication sermon at Union Grove, and held our quarterly conference. Collection $20.20. Sacrament was administered to 100 members."

P. Bine, Enterprise: "Children's day was observed here, greatly to the admiration and satisfaction of the large crowd that thronged the church at each service during the day. The programme was strictly carried out. Singing admirable. A prize was competed for by classes and a nice banner with "Excelsior" inscribed upon it, awarded to class No. 2. Collection $8.35."

T. R. Wilson, Central Grove: "On Children's Day several Sunday-schools were invited and met with us. There were addresses by A. C. Abram, T. R. Wilson and Prof. Victory, and a beautiful sermon by the pastor, W. Jones. Collection $2.15. The school is prospering."

TENNESSEE.

D. Collier, Waynesboro: "I held a five days' meeting on one of my circuits, had three converts and quite a number of mourners. I was compelled to break up to go to my other appointments. Pray that the Lord may crown my work with success."

J. H. Ware, Ooltewah: "Last Sunday Rev. L. M. Moore proved to the people that he was a man of broad views. He invited all Sunday schools to turn out with him, and nearly 500 colored and many white people joined in the celebration. They came from all points. We were compelled to leave the church and go to the large city hall. Bro. Moore explained the object of the meeting, and all felt they were in the right place. He preached a grand sermon on the duty of children, and 151 persons came forward for prayer. The house shook with praises to the Lord. Rev. Moore was invited to come here again."

LOUISIANA.

D. Shelby, Coushatta: "With a heart full of sorrow I have to announce the death of a good man. On July 11 Bro. James Williams, a leader of the church, was killed by a tree. He leaves a wife and three children."

S. E. Mason, Allen Circuit: "We are now collecting money to build a church at Marthaville; $75 have been subscribed, and will commence soon. The one mentioned above is a church near 12 miles from Marthaville."

W. L. Amos, Booneville: "On Children's day the church was crowded, and all were happy. Collection $11.30. Bro. Sparks did the part of a good pastor. B. Drew delivered an excellent address. A number of the children spoke and were delighted with the proceedings."

ARKANSAS.

Rev. G. W. Sams, presiding elder of the Argenta district, has been in the city during the week. Rev. Sams was formerly in charge of the M. E. Church in this city, and finds many friends who are glad to meet him. He has been, for some time, in ill health; and we are glad to see him on in the good work in the pulpit when he is able.—Pine Bluff Republican.

Bell will tax telephone in-

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notice.

A meeting is called of the colored citizens of Holly Springs and vicinity, to be held in Asbury M. E. Church, Wednesday night, August 6, 1884, to defend themselves in a quiet and Christian manner against an attack made by one Rev. J. T. Hargrave, and published by a Northern press, and copied by one of our city papers (Reporter), against their moral, social and intellectual condition.

It being the earnest wish of the colored citizens of this country to so improve their condition in all respects that they may be peaceable, quiet and valuable citizens, and contribute to the support of the Government, we would feel that we did ourselves great and serious injustice were we to suffer this misrepresentation of our race to pass unnoticed.

We respectfully invite our white citizens to be present, and especially the Rev. J. T. Hargrave.

In response to the above call, our church, which seats near five hundred persons, was well filled, and many of our best white citizens were present.

Dr. H. R. Revels, presiding elder of the Greenwood district, was elected Chairman, and Rev. Samuel A. Cowan, Secretary of the meeting.

A committee of three was appointed to make a statement respecting the attack of Rev. J. T. Hargrave, rector of the Episcopal church in Holly Springs, against the colored people of the South.

While the committee was out, the Chairman, Dr. Revels, made an able and eloquent speech in defense of his race. The verdict of all, and especially our white friends, were that Rev. Hargrave's charges were well picked to pieces.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

REPORT.

We, your committee, appointed to make a brief statement respecting the recent attack of Rev. J. T. Hargrave, rector of the Episcopal church in Holly Springs, Miss., against the colored race, which was published in the North, and then in one of our city papers, the Reporter, find that the said attack does the colored race a serious injustice, and if suffered to pass unnoticed might lead friends who have aided and are still disposed to aid them in educating their children, to the conclusion that it is even their duty to withhold from them all assistance in the future, as they are not susceptible of intellectual, social and moral improvement. The Rev. gentleman's representation of the colored people living in the Southern State, is at war with the facts known to be true of them. If what he says is true, and he affirms it to be so over his own signature, the Negroes of the South, without one exception, are the most vitiated in morals, the most lazy and dishonest creatures that bear the human form. According to his showing, they are insensible to virtue, and as a mass are debauched, dishonest, idle, lazy; constituting among the white people of the South a fearful mass of depravity, notwithstanding what has been done by the State and religious denominations for the amelioration of their social, intellectual and moral condition. This dismal picture justifies the conclusion that all further efforts and expenditure of money for the benefit of the Negroes should be abandoned as a useless outlay. But is it possible that our Rev. friend forgets the law of kindness, and the command to love his neighbor as himself. He must either admit that a man's color does not release him (Rev. Hargrave) from the law of kindness and love, or assume the position that the Negro race or the South is no part of Adam's progeny, but beasts in human form; or that if they are a part of mankind, they must either be returned to the condition of abject slavery, so that under its restraints they may be controlled and improved in their habits, or be pests to society, and live and die as incorrigible scamps, thieves and debauchees. That you may see that we do the gentleman no injustice, hear what he says:

"About the Negro, there is no question but he has degenerated greatly since his emancipation. Left to himself, he lapses rapidly and perceptibly toward the barbarism of his ancestors. It is a sad fact, and wholesome for social reformers, but, alas! it is true. Without the restraints which slavery imposed upon the black, he has since he was freed sunken into a fearful state of social degradation.

There is not the slighest political prejudice about this statement. It is simply a fact which all intelligent observers in the South are compelled to admit. The Negro race to day in this section are lazy, shiftless, insensible to virtue, dishonest; and exist among us as a fearful mass of depravity, which we know not how to heal.

Truly yours,

J. T. HARGRAVE."

You observe that the gentleman seeks to sink the colored people of the South into the most crushing degradation and infamy, and leaves them there, for he in effect tells the world in his wonderful philippic, that from under the restraints of slavery they cannot be controlled, managed or improved, but live and move in social degradation. But one of the worst features in his arraignment of the colored people, is the fact that he makes his charge sweeping and general. His affirmation is that every husband and wife, every son and daughter, every brother and sister of the race in the South are lazy, shiftless, insensible to virtue, dishonest, and taken together, form a mass of social depravity. Oh how will these words, coming from the lips of a professing minister of the Gospel, pain the hearts of those hundreds of colored families, and especially mothers, in the State of Mississippi, who have by State and church aid educated their daughters, and witness the result of the same in the sparkling virtues of their modest, lady-like daughters.

Mr. Hargraves is more cruel toward the colored people of the South than his brother, Dr. Tucker, for the latter said that his disparing remarks concerning them were intended for their good, but Rev. M. Hargrave declares them to be a fearful mass of depravity, debauched, insensible to virtue, and leaves them without any hope of deliverance from this miserable condition unless it be by the means of the restoration of the restraints of slavery. We now wish briefly to show that the reverend gentleman has most grossly misrepresented the colored people. As to his charge that they are lazy, we reply that with few exceptions it is difficult to find in any of the towns or cities of Mississippi an idle colored man during the week. Travelling through this State you may see fields of cotton and corn on either side of the road, dotted with colored men, women and children whose aim is to make money and get a start in life. The land owners will tell you that these colored laborers are yearly becoming more intelligent and industrious. Many scores of colored men own the land which they work, with all the improvements, together with a considerable amount of valuable stock. Colored men own thousands of dollars worth of valuable property in the different towns and cities in Mississippi, and as tax-payers they largely contribute to the support of government. No people were ever more desirous of acquiring homes of value and comfort by honest than the colored people of the South. The white citizens of the State are authority for this. During the years since the war they have made great improvement in point of education. The county superintendents of education may be referred to, who will say that the hundreds of applicants for employment as teachers are native colored Mississippians of both sexes, who have been educated in the State, and that they, as a general thing, sustain their scholarship well on examination, and are faithful and successful as teachers. Of the thousands of colored youths who have attended school in the various Southern States since the war many have graduated from colleges of high rank, while others continued in school only long enough to acquire a good business education. Some of these educated colored youths are engaged in school teaching; others in the ministry; some in the practice of law and medicine; others in merchandise and mechanics; others are farmers and laborers. It would give us pleasure to introduce Rev. Mr. Hargrave to some colored professors who are teaching in colleges in which they studied and graduated. And we aver, fearless of successful contradiction, that the colored people of Mississippi are, socially and morally, steadily improving. They are endeavoring to imitate their white neighbors in cleanliness and taste in their homes and domestic affairs. If any doubt this, all that we ask is that they go with us through a few of the many counties of Mississippi, and they will confess, that even what we say fails to do full justice to the colored families of the State. We further aver and can prove that the marriage relation among them is coming to be most sacredly regarded and treated, and they are, as a general thing, taking great pride in the proper training of their children. We ask our white friends especially to listen to Dr. C. K. Marshall, one of the ablest divines that Methodism can claim, and one of Mississippi's most learned, talented and eloquent sons; a man who owned slaves, knew them before and since emancipation, and who, as their friend, is ever ready to point out to them their faults and censure them for their wrongs. Mr. Hargrave, who seeks to render himself popular by abusing and slandering colored people but knows but little about them, for he has been in the South only a few months, is now turned over to Dr. Marshall, who knows all about them. In his reply to Dr. Tucker's slanderous attack upon the poor, unfortunate colored race, Dr. Marshall says: "For if the white people are so wicked, and yet have not worn out the patience of God, although they have in mass perverted five talents, surely if one or two talents have been entrusted to the dark race, which they desire faithfully to use, they may hopefully rely upon the same divine benignity and forbearance. If the depraved whites have been, and still are elevated from the lowest degradation by Christian motives and by mental improvement, then since both are alike, 'without God, and without hope in the world,' the Negro should not allow hasty and ill-judged estimates of his character or capacities to dishearten him or divert him from an earnest endeavor after the pure, the true and the good. The condition of the colored people and Negroes in our midst is not an enviable one. But it has hopefulness and heaven to help." Again, Dr. Marshall says, "But the Negro is neither a beggar, a panper nor a tramp, and if honestly dealt with can make his own way. Where they are idle and profligate, execute the law vigorously against them and they will approve and aid in the work. We can lift them up or cast them down. For me, I think we owe them a debt of gratitude and impartial justice for their faithful conduct during the war." Again, Dr. Marshall, speaking of the Negroes of the South, says: "The second thing I find is, that many Negroes in every State have purchased and own their farms; they invested millions, they are tending upwards, the Ten Commandments and deterioation is not theirs. The rewards of honesty are on the door-sill. He tries to prove himself worthy of respect, and he is respected. He makes a more reliable witness, safer juryman, and enjoys a credit in the bank and with the merchant which many of his white neighbors ask in vain. Similar encouragements would produce like results everywhere. Still, it must be confessed that in some districts morals have not improved with freedom, nor have the white laborers done any better." We make one more quotation; it is the repetition of Dr. Marshall's quotation of Rev. Dr. Calloway. Dr. Calloway was lately professor in the University at Athens, Ga., and is now President of the Paine Institute, Augusta, Ga., a native of that State, and to the manner born. In the late address he said, "We have spoken of the Negro as related to the conduct of the war, but it remains to be said that in his relation to us as a friend during that period, and to our wives and children as guardian, that the testimony of his fidelity is on the lips of every surviving soldier. It is easy to conjecture how, with a race less loyal to home and patron the testimony in the case might have been a narrative of lawlessness and license. What he refrained from, therefore, is to his credit. But in four years of darkness and demoralization, when besides those of military age every boy whose muscles were equal to the support of the musket, and every old man with vigor enough to mark time was called to the front, the Negro, commanding as a patriarch reverent is a priest, kept sacred vigil at our home. Besides this, with a foresight not developed for himself or his family, but evoked by virtue of his office, and the piteous destitution of our loved ones, he provided for their wants. "They were a hungered and he fed them." What he did is to his honor. What we refrain from in our place of power as the superior race shall be to our credit. What we do in return shall be proof of our appreciation. The conduct of the Negro during the war proves him kind, temperate, and trustworthy; his conduct since the war reveals in him considerateness, purpose, capacity, an order of growing good qualities. During the war his inferior courage it may be assumed inured to his superior serviceableness, his fears giving counsel to his courtesy and care, so set it down it you will, though the logic is as lame as the charge is ungrateful."

Your committee recommend the adoption, together with this report, of the following resolutions:

1. That the Secretary be and is hereby instructed to forward a copy of the proceedings of this meeting to the Editor of the New Paltz Times, a weekly paper published at New Paltz, in Ulster county, New York, with the request that he publish them in said paper.

2 That he respectfully ask the Editors of the Holly Springs South, Reporter, and Marshall county Register to publish the same in their papers.

3. That he forward a copy of these proceedings to the Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, at New Orleans, for publication.

Respectfully,

SAM'L A. COWAN,
JACK OGLESBY,
GEO. HILL, Committee.

Presiding Elder's Address

BY REV. W. W. LOCKE, P. E. LEXINGTON CONFERENCE.

Brethren of the Louisville District—The Discipline clearly points out your duty. Study and perform it well; especially attend and bring your benevolent collections up to the district conference. Our second session for the year will meet in Simpsonville, at 9 a. m., Oct. 1. In order that we may all get to work in earnest, a full attendance is required. The plan as laid down in the district circular will remain in force unless change is announced from our office. It takes several things to make a completely equipped Methodist preacher. Such a preacher will do right and not wrong. But when he is not the full Methodist stuff, he accomplishes very little as a preacher. Right and wrong do not mix; the preacher who tries to mix them them will prove to be a failure. Don't undertake to change any appointment of the presiding elder, but prepare for and work up to them. One disappointment throws the whole district into confusion. It causes the elder to lose valuable time, and causes embarrassment to you when you try to explain it, when you and the elder meet. Let us have things promptly on time at every place for the third quarter. We are busy, and we are in earnest. Brethren, help us to make this the best district in the Conference. This will take faith, prayer and work. Let us keep the Discipline and heave before the people. Put the children and young people to work. Try pastoral visiting until you see what the people need. Nulli vestegia retrorsum.

1944 Shelby st., Louisville, Ky.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Letter From Bro. Shumpert.

MR. EDITOR—I beg a small space in the columns of your most excellent paper, to express my thanks to the many brethren and friends who have written me kind words in commendation of the resolution offered against caste in the Methodist Episcopal Church, on the sixth day's sesion of our late General Conference held in Philadelphia, which furnished the basis for the majority report of the committee on the state of the Church, and which was adopted by an overwhelming majority by the General Conference, and settled for another century to come the caste question which had gained considerable notoriety in the Church. It is a source of profound pleasure and gratitude to God to know that this action of the General Conference had given exceedingly great satisfaction to the Church, although there were some opposed to the Church taking action on the subject, as also in the action of the General Conference that reaffirmed the doctrine that the Church had no third order. But the Church could take no back steps or depart from the fundamental principles as presented by Wesley, when she was called upon to take action. It was one of the strongest, most industrious and most faithful of all the General Conferences ever held in the Church. Every subject submitted to it by resolution and memorial was considered in regular order or special committees, and upon every subject these committees reported to the General Conference, and on every report the conference took action. The Conference was controlled from beginning to end by a fraternal spirit. While the delegates from the Southwest, and many others, were disappointed in not getting their first choice as editor, yet it is a source of profound pleasure to know that we have a man who is in every way worthy and well qualified, and is making a live paper. The SOUTHWESTERN will live.

Fraternally yours,

J. M. SHUMPERT.

Jackson, Miss., Aug 25, 1884.

Dio Lewis Imposed Upon.

Dr. Dio Lewis has just been made the victim of an exasperating swindle, by which not only his money was taken, but his reputation was endangered. In August, 1883, he started a monthly medical journal and engaged a young man, Frank Seaman, from Rochester, to do the publishing. Dr. Lewis a few months later, sold him an interest, taking a mortgage on the magazine for the faithful performance of all duties. Everything went well for a time, a large number of subscribers were daily added to the list. Dr. Lewis had no suspicion that anything was wrong. Sometime ago, however, his suspicions were aroused, and on watching Seaman carefully he found that he was appropriating letters and saying nothing about them. He foreclosed the mortgage at once, and the magazine returned into Dr. Lewis's hands. After this Seaman surreptitiously opened an office at No. 842 Broadway and continued to receive subscriptions for the magazine, which he appropriated. After the foreclosure he received over 3,000 letters, and the extent of his robberies before that time cannot be estimated. For the last six weeks complaints involving from $1 to $60 per day have been coming in. Dr. Lewis has had the following card printed for circulation:

I have at length gained possession of my magazine—Dio Lewis's Monthly. Hereafter all communications to its editor or publisher, and all business about my books, must be addressed Dio Lewis, Bible House, New-York. Those who have sent money to others for Dio Lewis's Monthly, or for his books, and received nothing in return, will please communicate with me at once.

There are papers out for Seaman's arrest, but as yet he cannot be found.—New-York Tribune.

The Religious Conscience of the Country Calls on Mr. Cleveland to withdraw as a Candidate for President.

We have hitherto paid no attention to the attitude of the religious journals of different denominations toward the so-called Buffalo scandals, but their declarations are important and constitute a most noteworthy featnre in this unprecedented canvass. The most striking utterance is perhaps that of the Independent of this city, hitherto a paper of Republican proclivities, but devoted since the nomination of Mr. Blaine and the Republican revolt to the success of Mr. Cleveland. Now the Independent finds that it can not support Cleveland any longer. We quote its article:

"We published last week, in our correspondence columns, a communication from Mr. Kinsley Twining, one of our editorial staff, giving the results of his investigation in regard to the Cleveland scandal. The grave and serious part of this scandal, which he declares that he found to be true, is that which imputes personal impurity to Mr. Cleveland in the specific instance that has come to the knowledge of the public. We can not, in view of all the facts, resist the conclusion that this part of the scandal is true; and this is quite enough to determine our course.

"This damaging charge came upon us wholly unexpected, and with the sudden, stunning force of a thunderbolt out of a clear sky. None were more surprised and overwhelmed by it than the Governor's friends and intimates among the Independents of Buffalo, and it was a case that called for thorough and fearless investigation.

"That we felt this in every fibre, and that we intended to impress this feeling on our readers, and to hold ourselves absolutely free to act as circumstances required, is the simple truth; and our silence as to the Cleveland nomination from that day was intended.

"We utterly refuse to accept two two standards of character. We repudiate with contempt the doctrine that a public man's private life is not to be inquired into. Dr. Twining's investigation went on the recognition of this principle.

"On this subject, as it now stands, we will not be slow to give advice. The conditions have wholly changed since the Independent Conference. Then we were ready with a real enthusiasm to support the tried and, as we then believed, honest reformer, Grover Cleveland. Now, without one word in derogation of his record as Governor of this state, our enthusiasm is wiped out by the discovery of the acknowledged and awful facts.

"We hence desire to have all our readers plainly understand, once for all, that whatever has been said in the editorial columns of the Independent favorable to the election of Gov. Cleveland was said prior to the recent sickening disclosures in regard to his private character, which have justly shocked the moral sense of all pure and right-minded people. The attempt now to force such a candidate upon the people would, in our opinion, disgrace the party which nominated him, and the whole nation, if he should be elected. We will have no hand or voice in helping on this matter, let the consequences be what they may, and we will not advise the readers of the Independent to smother their conscience and disgrace themselves by engaging directly or indirectly in any such movement.

"We are now in serious difficulty as a nation in regard to the unchecked progress of Mormonism; and shall we now, in the face of threatening evils and perils, plunge into a deeper gulf by any [illegible] as to the [illegible] of one who has [illegible] to all the highest [illegible] the people? We [illegible] decline [illegible] withdraw immediately from the canvass, and be compelled to do so if it is necessary. The party which nominated him through its chosen representatives should then reconvene and select a new ticket that will command the hearty support of the people of all parties. There is time enough to do this, and there is no hope or safety in any other course. To stand still now, or attempt to go blindly forward with the present ticket, would, in our judgment, be an insult to the Ruler of Nations, sure death to the Democratic party, including also its leaders, and an everlasting disgrace to the Republic."

The Congregationalist, the leading religious newspaper in New England of the denomination from which it takes its name, reviews to-day the several so-called refutations of the charge that Mr. Cleveland's private life has been licentious. We quote its conclusions:

"If it were true that Gov. Cleveland could be shown to have abandoned evil courses seven or eight years ago, and to have lived since, and to be living at present, an upright life, very many people, while not failing to condemn that past sin and to regret that any candidate who has such a dark fact in history should have been nominated for the presidency, would refuse to bring it up against him now. The question of whether he is a man of correct life at present, therefore, has the utmost importance. Upon this point testimony differs, but the weight of it certainly is adverse to Gov. Cleveland.

"The authors of the various refutations declare that he is not corrupt, and, of course, believe so. But their testimony is neither more sincere nor more weighty than that—even leaving out of account the Buffalo Evening Telegraph and the Rev. Dr. Ball, whose evidence has not been discredited—of numerous other gentlemen, ministers and laymen in Buffalo and elsewhere, who contradict them squarley. We should be more than glad if we could see our way to believe the reintations, but we are constantly receiving new evidence on the matter, and the better opportunities our informants seem to have had of knowing the actual facts, the more emphatic is their testimony against Gov. Cleveland."

In a recent issue, discussing the evidence against Mr. Cleveland as it understood the facts then and as it understands them now, the Congregationalist said:

"Common decency, the morals of the young regard for the sacredness of home life, and the very maintenance of our national existence require that the President of these United States—our foremost representative official before the world—should be a man of pure private morals as well as of public integrity. If these charges be untrue it ought to be easy to show the fact. They are definite and personally indorsed. If they be not disproved, then the indignant public sentiment of the nation should be given voice, and the party that nominated Gov. Cleveland should demand that he withdraw from the ticket which his name now leads."

The St. Mary's Institute Journal, a Roman Catholic newspaper published at Amsterdam, New York, calls for the withdrawal of Mr. Cleveland's name from the Democratic ticket and the substitution of that of some statesman "with a clean heart and clean hands:"

"No man with Cleveland's bad record in private life can hope for election at the hands of the American people. The religious and moral elements in our life are too powerful to admit of such a result. The chief reason that Aaron Burr's memory is held in execration is the record of his lecherous life. The people cannot be brought to favor any candidate for public honors whose licentious habits preclude the possibility of his representing the best estate of American manhood in the Presidential chair. The American people will not take kindly to another Burr.

"The only chance of success for the Democracy in the coming election lies in the withdrawal of Cleveland and the substitution of a statesman with a clean heart and clean hands. The Democratic party is rich in great men who would honor the Presidential office, and who would be well nigh certain of election."

The Morning Star, a Free Baptist newspaper printed in New Hampshire, remarks that if Mr. Cleveland is licentious, "the mere mention of his name in connection with the White House is a gross sacrilege." The Methodist organ, Zion's Herald, says: "Here is what one of the most respected clergymen in Buffalo writes to us: 'The Cleveland scandal you may believe without one jot or title of abatement. I don't think there is an intelligent citizen of Buffalo, who knows Cleveland, but believes the story of his immorality, as published by the Telegraph. The religious papers ought to look after him faithfully.'" The Christian Union remarks: "Neither Mr. Cleveland's reputation nor the cause which he represents is helped by the defenses which have been attempted in certain quarters. If the charges against Gov. Cleveland are true, his friends should counsel him to take himself off the ticket; and if they do not, the lovers of domestic purity and the respecters of womanhood should sweep him off." Some time before the admission by Cleveland's friends of the main facts charged against him, the Chicago Advance said:

"The intimation in some quarters that citizens have nothing to do with the private character of a nominee for the Presidency is a disgraceful intimation. We should sincerely rejoice if Mr. Cleveland should clear his record. It is high time to do it. Every citizen who respects himself will join the demand that he shall either do it promptly and thoroughly or withdraw from this canvass."

Passing over a number of expressions of similar purport, we shall quote only one more opinion, that of Bishop Spaulding's newspaper, the Catholic Universe, printed in Cleveland, Ohio:

"The imperative conditions must be understood and consummated; Cleveland's withdrawal from the ticket or his vindication before the country.

"That a candidate's personal character is not to be questioned, if not the argument of the mercenary or of a blind partisan, can only mean that moral character is not to be weighed in trusting and honoring a public official. To such as have degenerated into that contention we have no reply to make; no party could discipline us to such a tenet.

The virture of our women is the basis of the family, and the family is the corner stone of State, We dare not present an inebriate in wine and lust as the mould of American reform, the exemplar to our youth, and the candidate for the most exalted post within the gift of our galaxy of proud Commonwealths.

"Is the habitual enemy of woman's virtue—so charged, so uncontradicted—to be enthroned above all the virile purity of this land, and installed with executive mastery over all this broad confederation? Our manful American boast of respectful homage to our women could never be repeated during his administration.

"What an insult to a party that contains the pure and statesmanly Seymours, Thurmans and Bayards!—exalted in private as in public life.

"Some sapless Democrats remonstrate that even Republican newspapers are reluctant to ventilate this Cleveland story.

"We wish to unveil no man's private vices. The best of us are frail. But for God's right arm extended to all who seek it, our scorching passions would wither every virture inclination as the midsummer sun dries up the drop of dew. Neither would we constitute ourselves a public tribunal to pass sentences on strictly private guilt; but a candidate, by that fact, flaunts his personal record in the public face, and then the right and duty of the elector are as clear as that of the father of a family, who protects his fireside from all evil contamination."

We are well aware that a considerable class of politicians think that it does not weaken a candidate for the Presidency to be known as a gross and licentious man; but Mr. Cleveland occupies a position very different from that of ordinary candidates. He is running on the supposed purity and elevation of his personal character, and what might be of comparatively little effect when alleged by influential Christian journals against an irreligious man of the world, is probably fatal when alleged against him. And in this case, it must be remembered, the main facts are admitted and fully established.

The final truth is that the only chance of Democratic success in the present campaign lies in the course indicated by the Independent. The withdrawal of Cleveland and the substitution of Allen G. Thurman's name on the Democratic ticket would make sure a victory that otherwise is hopelessly thrown away.—New York Sun.

A Colored Leader Bolts.

WILLIAM STILL, OF THE UNDER GROUND RAILWAY, TELLS WHY HE WILL VOTE FOR CLEVELAND.

Editor of the Daily Evening Telegraph.—Sir:—In taking up the Telegraph of this evening I was surprised not a little to find the above caption to an article, in which I am represented as having been interviewed on political issues.

Suffice it now, however, to recall only two or three sentences from among many, which will sufficiently indicate the character of the so-called interview as to make it unnecessary for me to give any further notice to the matter—the following, for instance:—"Mr. Still was seen by a representative of the Post," the new Democratic paper in this city, "and was asked if it was true, if he intended to vote for Cleveland and Hendricks." "Such is my determination."

I need only say I was not asked "If it was true that I intended to vote for Cleveland and Hendricks;" and, of course, I did not answer "Such is my determination." The truth is, no such interview as is reported by the representative of the Post occurred, and the whole story is no more nor less than a gross fabrication from beginning to end. WILLIAM STILL.

Philadelphia, Aug. 8, 1884.

Small-pox and Vaccination.

The recent outbreak of small-pox in London reminds us that we have not yet succeeded in stamping out this loathsome disease, although the practice of vaccination has checked it to a wonderful extent. Anti-vaccination agitators are very fond of pointing to the circumstance that many persons who have been apparently successfully vaccinated in childhood are in after years attacked with small-pox. This is perfectly true, and statistics are available which show that in the years between 1871 and 1881 nearly eighteen thonsand such cases were treated in the London hospitals. But the popular agitator abstains from pointing out that in 90 per cent. of these cases the sufferers were above ten years of age. These figures prove in fact, what has been long ago acknowledged, that vaccination does not afford permanent protection. When a child reaches adult age, vaccination should take place. In our small-pox hospitals the nurses and attendants enjoy complete immunity from infection by taking care to adopt this precantion, and all persons, for the general good of the community at large, would do well to submit to the trifling inconvenience which the operation entails.—Chamber's Journal,

ATHOL, MASS., May 23, 1883

"One bottle of HUNTS [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY helped, and two completely cured me of kidney disease and severe pains in back and sides."—James Cheney, with J. W. Goodman, Billiard Table Manufacturer.

A Witness Who Cannot be Impeached.

I have made a chemical examination and analysis of samples of baking powder taken from unbroken original packages of "Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder" and of the "Royal Baking Powder," with the following results:

I find that "Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder" consists of the purest and best materials; that these materials are so proportioned as to produce the best results; and that the strength of this preparation, as determined both practically by use and as based upon the amount of carbonic acid gas produced by it, is such as to give it the very highest efficiency. It is free from alum, ammonia, or any substance of an objectionable character.

I find that the "Royal Baking Powder," while yielding a large amount of carbonic acid gas (though slightly less than Dr. Price's), contains a preparation of ammonia, which I regard as a disgusting and objectional constituent in a baking powder—a drug which ought never to be introduced into the composition of any article intended for food.

My experiments do not confirm the extravagant claims made in the published advertisements of the "Royal Baking Powder" as to its alleged superiority and greater strength, as shown by the amount of carbonic acid gas which it is capable of yielding when in use. I have found, by experiment, that the volume of gas yielded by equal weights of the two powders was greater with "Dr. Price's" than the "Royal."

In view of these facts, I regard "Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder" as superior to the "Royal Baking Powder," because,

1. It is scientifically proportioned from the purest and best materials known, and is free from anything in the slightest degree objectionable.

2. Its capacity for raising bread (or gas producing power) is greater than the "Royal," both by practical test in baking and by the determination of the carbonic acid gas. Respectfully,

JAMES F. BABCOCK, ANALYTICAL AND CONSULTING CHEMIST, (State Assayer; late Professor of Chemistry in Boston University and Massachusetts College of Pharmacy), 4 State Street.

BOSTON, June 2, 1884.

Mr. Babcock is one of the best known and most reliable chemists in the East. How much he thinks of his own name, and how particular he is about its use, is shown by the document, a copy of which is given below. This agreement will afford satisfaction to the general public, as there was not any hesitation on the part of the Price Baking Powder Company in making it:

CHICAGO, June 2, 1884.—Whereas, James F. Babcock, of Boston, has made for us an analysis of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, and given us his certificate of the same, and permission to use the said certificate as an advertisement, we hereby agree that any goods to which we may attach any copy of the said certificate, and so long as we may continue to use the said certificates, shall be of as good quality and as free from adulteration as the sample analyzed.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.

(Signed) V. C. PRICE, President.

HOUSEKEEPER'S TEST.

Every housekeeper can test baking powders containing that disgusting drug ammonia, by placing a can of "Royal" or "Andrews' Pearl," top down, on a hot stove until heated, then remove the cover and smell. Ammonia—Hartshorn.

Dr. Price's does not contain ammonia, lime, alum, potash or phosphates. It is made with special regard to cleanliness and healthfulness.

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to '72, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
Waddington's Church History	2 50
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
38-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best helo for teachers and older scholars The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

24 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884, at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women,

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D D., Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 4, 1884.

Something Wanting.

Mrs. Mary Cross, who has been in Covington jail for more than a year for shooting at Mr. Hemingray, was remanded to prison the other day upon a peace warrant, her time having expired. Mrs. Cross is a colored lady. She has displayed either great courage or insanity. If she is sane she has a greviance which ought to be fairly examined. If she is insane she ought to be taken to the asylum. To abuse and make fun of her and then swear out a peace warrant against her is neither brave or humane. The colored people have shown themselves wanting in sympathy, as not a single effort from any source has been made to mitigate the hard lot of this probably irresponsible woman.

The Negro Woman Growing.

"Mrs. Frances E. W. Harper of Philadelphia, is probably the most gifted and cultured woman of her race in the United States."—Mrs. Frances E. Willard, in Union Signal, June 5th, 1884.

Of the six million of blacks in this country, no woman has earned a greater reputation on the platform than Mrs. Sarah Gibson Jones, of Cincinnati."—Springfield Republican, April 4th, 1984.

Our acquaintance with these ladies enables us to say that both of them have eminent ability, rare gifts and many valuable intellectual endowments. But they are not both best; one of them is more proficient in the use of her talents than the other. The quotations prove the friendly but uniformed interest of the writers in the growth of the race. It is an illustration of the fact that the true story of the Negro must be told by Negroes, because they alone know it, and knowledge of it is essential to telling it fully, truly, and effectively.

Guard Your Public Utterances.

After stating his text the preacher said and frequently repeated it, "There is encouched in my text a great eel," and said, "To whomsoever will listen this is a joyful sound." There is an excuse that could be made by older ministers who were prevented by slavery from learning the common forms of correct speech. But this was a young man who has books and opportunity to read them. Let us say that which is to the praise of the old ministers who were deprived of learning; that they are, so far as we have observed, more careful in their way of speaking in public than the others. The care of these is occasioned by a sense of inferiority, while that of the other is produced by over confidence in their attainments. It would be well to remember that an awkward and careless utterance sometimes spoils the effect of a well prepared sermon.

Prof. W. J. Goode of Collinsville, Ala., is pleased with our election, with the work done on, and waiting for the SOUTHWESTERN and also pleased with him. He is made stronger by the confidence of our brethren. We shall work, and expect in answer to prayer an increased subscription from Collinsville.

The Sabbath of France is a man made institution. It is not a day of rest, a gala-day, upon which those who can afford it leave off work for pleasure, increasing thereby the toil of those who cannot rest. But the Sabbath of the Lord is a day of rest for man, and one which He blessed and hallowed.

...possess basal properties. ...ive our resurrection body ... qualities which our ... contains. It is also ... our typal identity ... in its most per-

...ing by the elder is do... at Finchville, Ky.

The Negroes in Methodist History.

In 1784 Reverend Freeborn Garrettson, while traveling in Nova Scotia, met with a society of colored Methodists, refugee slaves from the United States, who without white pastors, had organized themselves into a Church, with whom he was much comforted. He endeavored to bring them into Gospel order by forming sixty of them into a class, administering baptism to nineteen, and the Lord's supper to about forty of them, most of whom he trusted loved God and one another.

FOUNDER OF METHODISM IN SIERRA LEONE.

In 1792 about twelve hundred of these refugees were transported to Sierra Leone, West Africa. The Methodists among them formed classes; two white local preachers by the names of David or, Jessie Brown and Gordon conducted their religious services; a chapel was erected, and after some time Mingo Jordan, a colored man, began to labor among them.

In 1806 Mr. Brown, from Sierra Leone, wrote to Dr. Coke, imploring ministerial assistance.

In 1808 Mingo Jordan wrote to Dr. A. Clarke, sketching his labors among the Maroons, in which he mentions Messrs. Brown and Gordon. The letter covered the period from 1805 to 1808. Jordan reported that the converts and the number of the society in and about Sierra Leone amounted to one hundred. He baptized twenty Maroons in one day, and they had begun to subscribe two cents each per week for the further promotion of the Gospel of Christ. In 1811, when Mr. George Warren (white), the first Wesleyan missionary arrived, he found two Methodist chapels, three local preachers, six class leaders and one hundred and ten members. In 1812 Mr. Warren died, having been in Sierra Leone but one year. Both the Wesleyan and the American missionaries have ever shown a willingness to brave the fatality of the African climate, for the sake of souls. During about forty years one hundred and twenty-three missionaries and their wives have been sent to this field, about half of whom have died by the climate, and many of the remainder were compelled to return with broken constitutions.

In 1813 William Davis and Samuel Brown went out, and under them the mission was greatly extended eastward from Freetown to Wellington, Hastings, Waterloo and Murraytown, and southward to York and Plantain's Island. Some of the most extraordinary instances of conversions with which the Wesleyan missions have been blessed, have taken place within its limits. Schools have been erected, in which thirty-six hundred children are receiving Christian education. An institute for the training of a native ministry has been begun. Thus was Mr. Garrettson's colored society in Nova Scotia the beginning of the Methodist missions in Africa.

Methodist evangelization in Africa forms one of the most heroic chapters of modern Christian history.

It introduced the elementary arts of civilization, printing presses, schools, chapels, a considerable native ministry, and institutions for their training; about three hundred and twenty local preachers, more than one hundred missionaries, at as many stations; besides scores of others, and hundreds of unpaid agents, and more than sixty thousand members. While white Methodism has thus labored heroically, and braved the ravages of the African climate to save the African people. What has colored Methodism in its separate and organized form done for the Africans in Africa? It has appointed bishop after bishop to its African Mission, so-called, not one of whom has ever gone there. It has borrowed thousands of dollars to send its representatives to the great ecumenical conference to pair with white men, and show their learning, but what thousands has it spent in Africa?

It has darkened counsel between the Methodist Episcopal Church and its African Conference in Liberia by words without knowledge, but sent no missionary; gave no life or dollar to Christianize these people. And the strong pleas of Dr. Blyden for talented young American Africans to go and labor in Africa for the Africans, found certainly a cold support, if not a positive opponent, in the official paper of African Methodism everywhere except Africa. Nowhere on earth is the colored race in such large numbers being elevated by Christian civilization as in the United States. And no agency is more potential in the production of this result than the organized effort and general influence of the Methodist Episcopal Church. There are other powerful Christian agencies at work also, but they do less, because they have less to do with the Negroes than our Church, which was born with a mission in their interest. There is a civilization and wide-spread literary culture in Africa, but it is Moham medan or heathen.

Christian civilization must be born to that land by the agency of the American Negro.

Rev. Dr. Earl Cranston.

Dr. Cranston, the newly elected principal agent of the Western Methodist Book concern is now visiting in Denver, and will remain a while there, preparatory to his return East and permanent settlement in Cincinnati. Dr. Cranston, was transfered to the Colorado conference a few years since, where as presiding elder, he gave himself wholly to the work, doing in these days when men seek ease and self work as truly heroic, and pioneer as any done in the early days of Methodism. Things in that Western outlay of our church took new life and all the interests were quickened. Other men of Dr. Cranston type followed him, among whom be may mentioned Dr. David H. Moore, of Cincinnati Wesleyan Female College. The presidency of Denver University was given him, and in harmony with the prevailing order of things it like the rest moved forward. Now upon his return to Dever the citizens have testified to both their satisfaction in the action of the General Conference by which he was brought into his present distinguished position, and of their esteem for himself as a man and a Christian gentleman, by tendering Dr. Cranston a grand reception on the evening of Thursday, July 31st. We learn by the Denver Tribune that it was an elegant, chaste and beautiful affair, entirely within the limits of propriety; a cordial, Christian greeting and a social recognition of an honored minister and citizen.

Three of the Bishops now on the bench were taken from 190 West 4th street, Cincinnati. Dr. Cranston will need to have a care or he might be forced to go as they have gone before him. We wish him success, and with a long and highly prized knowledge of him we predict it. When he goes out and up should he do so success will still go with him; he is a man of large capacity and cannot easily fail.

Fifty-two Sunday-School Library Books for Sixteen Dollars.

The question of more, better, and yet cheaper literature for our Church and Sunday-schools has been growing upon us for several years. It engrossed much of the time and attention of the late General Conference. One of the first fruits gathered from it is presented in the following circular from our Book Agents. We ask all of our presiding elders and pastors to cut it out, or, if they have received it in any other form, to save and present it in the quarterly conferences and at the meeting of the Sunday-school Board. Consider carefully questions one and two at the bottom, and answer as directed in the blank form which, for convenience to you, we also insert. By entering into this movement your school, at a low price, can gradually increase its library, and at the same time get the best and most suitable class of literature for the purpose.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBRARIES.—ONE NEW BOOK A WEEK.

There has been for some time past a demand from very respectable sources for a greater number of Sunday-school books from our Church publishing house.

The attention paid during these later years to lesson helps for teachers and scholars, and the necessity that each person be supplied with some special leaf or magazine, have led to the appropriation of moneys for lesson aids, which, in former years, were expended for library books.

However valuable lesson helps may be, they ought not to prevent the circulation and use of Sunday-school books.

At the late General Conference, action was taken authorizing the Book Conbern to issue a larger number of library books; and, in pursuance of this action, the Agents and the Editor of the Sunday-school Department send out this advance messenger to the pastors and superintendents of the Church, to test the demand for books and to secure their co-operation in a new and practical movement.

If we have sufficient encouragement from the preachers and superintendents to whom this circular is sent, we shall begin with January, 1885, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the publication of a library book every week, each book containing from 150 to 300 pages, covering a wide field of useful and entertaining reading: religious and general biography; church and general history; stories of the imagination in the interest of historical illustration, and the enforcement of moral and religious teaching. These books will be selected and edited with the greatest care, and published at the lowest possible figure. They will be published as a series in paper covers; and also as a library in stiff binding; the price varying according to style of binding and cost of delivery.

This arrangement, if carried into effect, will enable us to place in your Sunday school library for the year 1885, fifty-two new books, containing a total of from 10,000 to 12,600 pages; and at a probable cost in paper covers of from twelve to sixteen dollars.

Without announcing further details, the Agents and Editor submit to you the following questions.

1. Do you think that your Sunday school Board will authorize you to order this library for 1885?

2. Do you think that you would prefer the books in paper covers, or in regular binding, the difference of price being from 20 to 25 per cent?

If you are disposed to enter this new movement, and thus place your Sunday-school in association with our library department, please fill out and return at an early date the enclosed card.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
J. H. VINCENT.

805 Broadway, New York, July 1, 1884.

FORM OF APPLICATION.

Rev. Dr. Vincent—

I am assured by our Sunday-school that it will join in the movement for cheap libraries by subscribing for one volume a week, in ——— binding, ——— ——— Conference.

——— ——— Charge.

———— ———, 1884.

"Consider of it, take advice and speak your mind." The sons of Belial are yet abroad bent on mischief. But our Israel seems to be engrossed with the work of denominational glory while souls are being debauched at many a door. Some such startling occurrence as the act of the young Levite who, by the quivering flesh of his wife, plead for justice, may yet bring us, as it did Israel, into closer union and more courageous efforts to save the souls and bodies of men.

PERSONAL.

—"Many pleasant lines of my life lead into your church"—Greener.

—Rev. T. J. Smith of Bedford, Ky., is going to work for the SOUTHWESTERN.

—Bishop Gilbert Haven was once the Sunday-school teacher of Prof. R. T. Greener.

—Rev. Paris Fisher, of LaGrange, Ky., is vigorously pressing the interest of our church on Bedford circuit.

—The U. B. F. Delegates, have returned from Galveston, looking well and with many pleasant memories of the trip and sojourn in the lone star state.

—Rev. Joshua Masden's Poems on Methodism, now out of print, are beautiful and instructive. We have an old copy and shall favor our readers with occasional selections from it.

—W. R. A Palmer, of Howard University, Washington, D. C., takes, likes and reads the SOUTHWESTERN through and through each weak. He is a coming young man none the less but the more so, because he is a Christian.

—Rev. W. H. Brown, of Portsmouth, Ohio, has been earnestly struggling with prospects of success, to build a new church in that city. His wife Mrs. Dora Brown, is developing quite a taste for literature, and considerable ability as a writer.

OUR SOUTHERN WORK.

LOUISIANA.

G. J. Rogers, Clinton: "We have formed an educational society. We have done this because we clearly see if we depend entirely upon others to educate our children they shall certainly go without having obtained what they should. The members belonging to the above named society number about 72, all of whom are now very much enthused in the work now undertaken. Our people are non intelligent, and have not had that attention given them that they should have had. We, in order to disperse this encumbrance of illiteracy, and to light up our paths with intelligence, have organized this Educational Society. Each member is to pay 50 cents per month. It is only the heads of families from whom this fee is expected, but we have several young men who pay their monthly fees regularly. Our people have wandered in ignorance, I think, long enough. To depend entirely upon those two or three months schooling we get from the government is not a safe way to expect the youths to be educated. Indeed, the ministers of the Gospel would have more success ministerially if the people were more intelligent. More money would be circulated throughout the country."

MISSISSIPPI.

H. Cawthorn, Greenwood: "Children's day was a grand occasion and passed off nicely. The young people decorated the church with cedars and flowers and letters of the alphabet reading thus: "God bless our school," placed on the wall by Prof. W. M. Strickland. Preached at 11 o'clock, and was followed by Rev. J. W. Dunn, and at 3 p. m. the centennial celebration was opened. Rev. J. C. Thompson led in prayer, Prof. W. M. Strickland led in the centennial service; beautiful pieces were sung and a number of dialognes and essays recited. The infant class was led by Willie Batchelor. That day will long be remembered." Collection $9."

TENNESSEE.

D. Collier, Waynesboro: "Children's day was observed by St. Paul Sunday-school. Revs. Bridges and J. B. Bradford were present; and the afternoon sermon of Bro. Bradford was well adapted to the occasion. Collection $2.10."

Barbara Phillips, Capleville: "St. John Sunday-school is doing nicely. I have a catechism class, and from fifteen to seventeen come and wait for me every Sunday morning, and we march into church together. Bro. S. B. Danley has been our superintendent the past ten years, and his instruction of old and young has caused our hearts to grow stronger in the work of the Lord. The Sunday-school prays that God may continue his blessing upon Bro. Danley and his little family in their pleasant home. Our superintendent now is G. I. Wilcox, and Miss Ella J. Wilcox is a teacher. They are both kind and efficient."

J. J. Barr, Spain: "Elder Price held our third quarter. Rev. J. F. Summerhill accompanied him. Both preached good sermons. Collection for elder $6."

TEXAS.

S. Smith, Simpson Tabernacle, Austin: "The work is in very good condition. A parsonage built is worth $200, and other improvements made. Elder's collection $12."

M. Smith: "It affords me much pleasure to say a word for the people of Cunningham circuit, and more especially of their industry. They are getting homesteads, as they find they cannot be of benefit to themselves, friends and the church they ought to be, the conclusion is that good homes paid for, will help us to meet the demands. They are buying at every opportunity. At Salem and Mount Olive, two of my preaching points, nearly two-thirds of the members have their own land, and some of them are giving others employment on their land. A good many have land that will make from ¾ of a bale of cotton to one bale per acre. They can raise on this land most anything that will grow in Texas. Some of it is in the creek bottoms, and the other in the river bottoms. Homes are what we want, and homes are what we must have in Texas. If our people will open their eyes to this home question, the Methodist preachers will have a better chance to help them to understand the rules and benefit of the Church, and the men who preach the Gospel can live and do better. Do not think that the people here are paying me more than I can use, for they are not. But I say this because they are trying to do all they can. My stewards do not put down $1 and take 95c. back, nor wait till some one puts down 25c., and then take theirs; they will not do that, but it is down; others come with your nickels. This is all true. Mr. Dick Moore, a friend to our church, owns a very large farm about two miles from Winchester. His wife and one of his daughters are members of our church. He has given us two acres of land for a church site. We will soon be able to move in our new church; also we are building one at Wiley Chapel."

KENTUCKY.

T. P. Fielding, Washington circuit, Bullitt county: "We had a basket meeting on the second Sunday in July. Preaching at 11 a. m. by the Revs. T. H. Lampkins and G. E. Lee; at 3 p. m. the funeral of Bishop Simpson by the pastor; at 7 p. m. by Rev. G. W. Smith. Raised $10.50. Paid pastor $5.50. The Sunday-school is good, and the outlook favorable. Received three this quarter."

ARKANSAS.

T. B. Ford, Siloam Springs: "Please call the attention of the presiding elders in your patronizing territory, within tenth district, to the fact that I am anxious to get their names and postoffice addresses; but one responded to my special notice several weeks ago. I have been nominated by the Republicans of the State for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction."

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Rev. Sampsan Yates.

MR EDITOR—I am very proud I have taken the SOUTHWESTERN, and think all our people ought to take it. I think we shall have a good list of subscribers here soon. We are coming up at Harrodsburg, Ky. The darkness is passing and the true light is shining especially in the heart. We have just closed protracted meeting with one convert; I closed on account of sickness. We are coming out of the wilderness with joy and praises and songs unto God and the Lamb forever. Pray for us.

Harrodsburg, Ky.

The Rev. George W. Gray. D. D., President of Little Rock (Arkansas) University, has received the appointment of Financial Agent of the Freedmen's Aid Society for the West. He has resigned the presidency of the college, and expects to reside at Chicago.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

History of Clark Chapel—No. 6

BY L. M. HAGOOD.

Dr. Fisher, by his eloquence and words of truth and soberness, filled our pulpit twice dnring the Sabbath. We shall never forget his visit. When all the services of re-opening were completed we had a debt of only six hnndred and twelve dollars, having ample time, with only 6 per cen.. interest to pay. At the session of onr conference at Mnrfreesboro, last November, I was returned for the third time. As far as we have gone this year to date we report as to finance: For presiding elder and pastor's salary, $387.60; janitor, $104.50; paid on debt and incidental expenses, $178 65; building new rostrum for choir, $7; Missions and edncation, $53.32; poor and Snnday-school collection, $50; total $781.07 Members received, 5; members expelled, unknown, died, dropped and withdrawn, 23. My third year is now closing under what I consider favorable circnmstances. We have not yet completed the tower, for the brick work is only 40 feet high, and the plans for it call for 96 feet The wooden part of the tower will cost six hundred dollars. The third year seems passing so swiftly, and as it is considered a grevious burden for a new preacher to have to shonlder an old debt, we have decided not to begin it unless we can pay cash for it when done and leave no debt. We are arranging to met all our obligations as they matnre, and leave no room for the display of genius in our snccessor in completing the cupola. The faithful one's names are inscribed in the great ledger above and will be printed, for they are now recorded here below, and the several amounts contributed by each will be opposite the name. We are still laboring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace. We have not had many "ronsing protracted meetings," but several sound conversions, not mnch street talk Christianity, but much of the "let not your right hand know what your left hand doeth" earnest work. We have striven to increase the quality at the expense of quantity, and await the decision of "the great and notable day of the Lord." As we look back over the past three years' labor we find the following as the recapitulation: Total finanoial receipts, $5,822.43; total numerical, received 169; expelled, etc., 137; gain, 32; Deaths, 21; baptisms, 54; marriages, 24.

If faithful until next Oct 13th we shall go up to the Annual Conference with the spirit that actuated Richard Baxter, but unable to say "every member of my church is bound for heaven." I shall simply have, if nothing more, the redeeming fact I tried to do all I could for the Master's cause. I am not sorry, by any means, that I have not pleased everybody, for that would have been enmity to Christ; nor that I could not see my way clear to accept and act upon every advice given me. While I have tried in my humble way to preach Jesus and him crucified, I may have failed to get general applause below, but if I was deeply in earnest I shall not fail of my reward above. I am aware of the fact that much more money could have been raised if we had resorted to such questionable means as "grab bags," prizes, and the selling of beer and wines; but we are glad to say no means have been used to accomplish what has been done except such as we could ask God to aid us in. This may account for our having a debt of $400 remaining. We have only to say whoever is over snccessor, "if yon find the young man Absalom deal gently with him." I spoke of some of the representative men above, but will not mention them by name. Some of the most intelligent citizens, white and colored, attend our church, and when the legislature is pending our representatives find their way to our church. As an intelligent, it is what it should have in a church. As a people we look to God for [illegible] that we may be saved."

For the OUTHWESTERN.

Bowling Green District, Lexington Conference.

Cave City Circuit—The church at Cave City, a beautiful frame structure, is completed, and will be dedisated the 5th Sunday in August. C. H. Heston is the pastor.

Bowling Green—Rev. W. M. E. Wilson is the pastor. Bro. Wilson is an acceptable pastor and is much beloved by his people. He has raised $80 on the Church Extension debt, and expects soon to pay off the entire indebtedness.

Auburn Circuit; Rev. A. Jones pastor—Bro. Jones is moving on nicely in this charge, which will soon be free from indebtedness.

Franklin Charge; Rev. B.C. Ward pastor—The church is neatly seated under the pastorate of Bro. Ward, who is an acceptable pastor. We are aiming to pay off the old indebtedness of the Church Extension, sell the old church property and purchase one in the principal part of the town now owned by the Church South, which will give new life and vigor to the Methodist cause here.

Eddyville, Ky.; Rev. Peter Dent pastor—The Simpson Tabernacle, our new church named in honor of our much lamented and beloved Bishop Simpson, will be completed and ready for dedication in September.

Rier Bend Circnit; Rev. J. E. Richardson, pastor—Since Bro. Richardson's appointment to this circnit he has purchased two acres of ground and has all of the building material on the ground, and we are now building, and will have it completed in October.

Greenville Circnit; Rev. Henry Dupee, pastor—At Greenville we have renewed the old log structure and are now erecting a frame house. This church will also be completed in October.

Lewisport, Ky., Rev. R. W. Crumbaker, pastor—Haven's Chapel, at this point, that was recently damaged by the high water, has been neatly refitted up by its members and pastor.

Cloverport, Ky.; Rev. C. T. Jones pastor—The new church at Cloverport will be completed by the first of October. At this point, our people for 19 years, have been very desirous for a new church. Under the pastorate of Bro. Jones we will be successful. This is the first and only brick structure on the Bowling Green district. It will be called Foss's Chapel in honor of our beloved B shop C. D. Foss.

Pools Circnit; Rev. Wm. Pool, pastor—At this point we have purchased a half acre of ground, with part of the building materials on the ground. Here we will have a new church by the first of November next; which will be a frame structure. Bro. Pool is doing a good work at this point.

Germantown Circnit; Rev. W. B. Harris, pastor—At this point we have also purchased a half acre of ground, and will soon begin to build at this point. Bro. Harris is doing a good work.

Hardinsburgh, Ky.; Rev. Z. Winchester, pastor—We have in hand $40 at this point to repair the church. Bro. Felix. Hamilton, our able superintendent, has raised $9.16 in his Sunday-school for missionary purposes.

Morgantown Circuit; Rev. I. W. Heston, pastor—He is laboring earnestly to get his church completed by winter, and we hope he will be successful. He has part of the building material on the ground.

WHAT WE NEED.

Owensboro, Henderson, Princeton and Padncah.—These are all unoccupied fields by the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Methodist Episcopal Church has been for a number of years feeding the African Zions and Baptist churches in these places. This ought to be prevented, and can and will be if the members of our beloved Methodism will encourage the Missionary and Church Extension Societies to aid us at these points, and in less than six months we could be able to unfurl the banner of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

A. BOOKER, P. E.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.

A Young Girl's Dementia—How it was Occasioned—Some New and Startling Truths

The St. Louis express, on the New York Central road, was crowded one evening recently, when at one of the way stations, an elderly gentleman, accompanied by a young lady, entered the cars and finally secured a seat. As the conductor approached the pair, the young lady arose, and in a pleading voice said:

"Please, sir, don't let him carry me to the asylnm. I am not crazy; I am a little tired, but not mad. Oh! no indeed. Won't yon please have papa take me back home?"

The conductor, accustomed though he was to all the phases of humanity, looked with astonishment at the pair as did the other passengers in their vicinity. A few words from the father, however, sufficed, and the conductor passed on, while the young lady turned her face to the window. The writer chanced to be seated just behind the old gentleman, and could not forego the desire to speak to him. With a sad face and a trembling voice the father said:

"My daughter has been attending the seminary in a distant town and was succeeding remarkably. Her natural qualities, together with a great ambition, placed her in the front ranks of the school, but she studied too closely, was not careful of her health, and her poor brain has been turned. I am taking her to a private asylum where we hope she will soon be better."

At the next station the old man and his daughter left the cars, but the incident, so suggestive of Shakspeare's Ophelia, awakened strange thoughts in the mind of the writer. It is an absolute fact that while the population of America increased thirty per cent. dnring the decade between 1870 and 1880 the insanity was one hundred and thirty-five per cent for the same period. Travelers by rail, by boat, or carriages in any part of the land see large and elaborate buildings, and inqnire what they are?

Insane asylnms!

Who builds them?

Each state; every county; hundreds of private individuals, and in all cases their capacity is taxed to the utmost.

Why?

Because men, in business and the professions, women at home or in society, and children at school overtax their mental and nervons forces by work, worry and care. This brings about nervons disorders, indigestion and eventually mania.

It is not always trouble with the head that causes insanity. It far oftener arises from evils in other parts of the body. The nervous system determines the status of the brain. Any one who has periodic headaches; occasional dizziness; a dimness of vision; a ringing in the ears; a feverish head; frequent nausea or a sinking at the pit of the stomach, should take warning at once. The stomach and head are in direct sympathy and if one be impaired the other can never be in order. Acute dyspepsia causes more insane suicides than any other known agency and the man, woman or child whose stomach is deranged is not and cannot be safe from the coming on at any moment of mania in some one of its many terrible forms.

The value of moderation and the imperative necessity of care in keeping the stomach right must therefore be clear to all. The least appearance of indigestion, or malassimilation of food should be watched as carefully as the first approach of an invading army. Many means have been advocated for meeting such attacks, bnt all have heretofore been more or less defective. There can be little doubt, however, that for the purpose of regulating the stomach, toning it up to proper action, keeping its nerves in a normal condition, and purifying the blood, Warner's Tippecanoe The Best, excels all ancient or recent discoveries. It is absolntely pure and vegatable; it is certain to add vigor to adults, while it cannot by any possibility injure even a child. The fact that it was used in the days of the famous Harrison family is proof positive of its merit, as it has so thoroughly withstood the test of time. As a tonic and revivifier it is simply wonderful. It has relieved the agony of the stomach in thousands of cases; soothed the tired nerves; produced peaceful sleep, and averted the coming on of a mania more to be dreaded than death itself.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Our Little Ones (Boston: Russell Publishing Co.), for September has a Sea Song, a Runaway Ride, An Unlucky Sail, How the Pigs Were Raised, and other novelties. Price 15 cents.

We have just received from the Publishers a copy of a little book entitled: Seven Hundred Album Verses, containing 128 pages of choice selections of prose and poetry, suitable for writing in autograph albnms. Paper cover 15 cents; cloth 30 cents. J. S. Ogilvie & Co., nnblishers, 31 Rose Street, New York.

The Pulpit Treasury for Srptember is on our table. All its sermons and articles are masterpieces of thonght, snggestive to all Christian workers and always timely in appearance. The illustrations are a portrait of Dr. Thomas and views of the interior and exterior of his church. Price, $2 50 Clergymen, $2 00. Single copies. 25 cents. E. B. Treat, Publisher, 757 Broadway, New York.

The September Wide Awake, opening with a good frontispiece, goes on to give a seasonable story by Mrs, F. A. Humphrey, entitled "How Dolly Attended the Convention;" it is a good picture of old taverns and old times and customs, and Daniel Webster appears among the characters of the story. Wide Awake has a goodly repnt tion for reconing the fading traditions of the past, and many a valuable remiiscence has been printed in its pages; of this sort are the serial papers now rnnning in its nnmbers, "Old School Days," by Miss Harris of New Hampshire—annals of qnaint New Eng and folk-life. Another excellent illustrated paper is entitled "About Dwarfs"—its true stories, and fine pictnres by Garrett, are as entertaining as a "show." There are many charming poems, and the Chantanqna Readings for the month are excellent, especially the "Little Biography," which is of Rev. Dr. J. H. Vincent—a name dear to all Chantanquans Only $3 00 a year D. Lothrop & Co., Boston, Publishers.

The fiction of the September Century will include a romantic tale of Mexican life by Thomas A. Janvier, entitled "Panoha: a Story of Monterey," with three illnstrations, one of them the frontispiece to the numbrr, by Mary Hallock Foote; a Southern dialect story, "The Brief Embarrassment of Mr Iverson Blonnt," by Richard M. Johnston, author of the "Dukesborough Tales"; besides the conclnsion of "A New England Winter," by Henry James, the middle part of "A Probematic Character," by H. H. Boyesen, and further chapters of "Dr. Sevier," by George W. Cable."

An examination and perusal of the Septembe. number of The Southern Cultivator which has been received ahead of date, has proved most interesting. A few years ago it was limited in size. Now, it is enlarged to mammoth proportions, while each number contains appropriate and attractive illustrations and a great variety of useful and entertaining matter.

The September number of Harper's Magazine promises to be in itself quite a tour of Europe. Mr. Riding will describe "A Run Ashore at Queenstown," including Blarney Castle and Killarney, with many illustrations; passing on to London, there will be more of Rev. Treadwell Walden's account of "The Great Hall of William Rufus" with its portraits of the early kings and queens; crossing to France, Miss Humphrey's pen and Mr. Reinhart's pencil will describe the life at the French seasi e resort, Tronville; and finally, the artist Boughton will stroll farther in Holland. At home, Mr. Ernest Ingersoll will describe the "Wheat-fields of the Columbia," with illustrations by Redwood; and a paper by J. G. Pyle, with illustrative diagrams, will explain "The Reservoir System" now under construction to equalize the snpply of water in the Mississippi. There will be sketches, with fine portraits, of George Fuller by Frank D. Millet, and of Charles Reade, by Robert Buchanan, the frontispiece of the number being a reproduction of one of Fuller's paintings. Further installments of Roe's "Nature's Serial Story," with Gibson's and Dielman's illustrations; of Black's "Judith Shakespeare," of William Sharp's "Transcripts from Natnre," with Alfred Parson's illustrations; short stories by "A Working Girl" and Rose Terry Cooke; a one-act comedy. "A Cloud on the Honey-moon," by Julian Magnus; and a number of poems by Will Carleton and others, will fill ont, with the editorial departments, a brilliant number.

"Emile Littre," the celebrated French lexicographer, witl be the snbject of a biographical sketch in the September Century A full-page portrait accompanies the article.

Frank R. Stockton will contribute a quaint and fanciful story, entitled "The Queen's Museum," to the September St. Nicholas. It will be appropriately illustrated.

A paper descriptive of a cooking school for young girls in New York City has been prepared by Charles Barnard for the September St. Nicholas. It is written in the form of a story and is fully illustrated from designs by Mrs. Jessie Curtis Shepherd.

The frontispiece of the September Popular Science Monthly is a fine portrait of Professor J. P. Lesley, chief geologist for Pennsylvania, and President of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, of whom a biographical sketch is given. The leading article is by Professor J. P. Cooke, of Harvard University, on "Scientific Culture: its Spirit, its Aim, and its Methods." "The Upper Missouri River System," by Lester F. Ward, is an illnstrated article describing the action of the Missouri and Yellowstone Rivers in continually cutting away one side of their valleys and building up the other. In "Where and how we Remember," also illustrated, M Allen Starr, M. D., presents the evidence supporting the view that various functions of the brain have each their definite location. "The Astronomy of Primitive People's" and "Chinese Coroner's Inquests" are interesting as showing the vagaries of minds untutored in science. In "National Health and Work," Sir James Paget presents an additional reason for sanitary activity in the loss which results to the nation from the sickness and early death of its workers. Other articles are "Aims of the Study of Anthropology," by W. H. Flower, F. R. S.; "Sorghum as a Source of Sugar," by Henry B. Parsons; "Hygiene for Smokers," by Dr. Felix Bremont; "The Problem of Population," by Charles Morris, and "Protection against Lightning." The editor discusses a recent article by Bonamy Price, under the heading, "The College Fetich once more." New York: D. Appleton & Company. Fifty cents a number, $5 a year.

The September issue of Outing concludes the fourth volume of this popular and rapidly growing out door magazine. It is a number of substantial excellence, both in literary matter and illustration. Price, 20 cents; $2 a year. The Wheelman Co., Boston, Mass.

To correct a very wide-spread misapprehension the authorities of Boston University desire to state, that the private school known as the "Boston School of Oratory" has no connection whatever with the University, and that persons desiring to pursue oratorical and related studies in the latter should address some officer of the University.

BEST BAKING POWDER.

INTERESTING TESTS MADE BY THE GOVERNMENT CHEMIST.

Dr. Edward G. Love, the present Analytical Chemist for the Government, has recently made some interesting experiments as to the comparative value of baking powders. Dr. Love's tests were made to determine what brands are the most economical to use, and as their capacity lies in their leavening power, tests were directed solely to ascertain the available gas of each powder. Dr. Love's report gives the following:

Name of Baking Powders.	Strength Cubic Inches Gas per each ounce of Powder.
"Royal" (absolutely pure)	127.4
"Patapsco" (alum powder)	125.2*
"Rumford's" (phosphate) fresh	122.5*
"Rumford's" (phosphate) old	32.7*
"Hanford's None Such," fresh	121.6
"Hanford's None Such," old	84.35
"Redhead's"	117.0
"Charm" (alum powder)	116.9*
"Amazon" (alum powder)	111.9*
"Cleveland's" (short weight ¾ oz.)	110.8
"Sea Foam"	107.9
"Czar"	106.8
"Dr. Price's"	102.6
"Snow Flake" (Groff's, St. Paul)	101.88
"Lewis'" Condensed	98.2
"Congress" yeast	97.5
"Pearl"	93.2
"C. E. Andrews & Co.'s" (contains alum)	78.17*
"Hecker's"	92.5
"Gillet's"	84.2
"Bulk"	80.5

*In his report, the Government Chemist says:

"I regard all alum powders as very unwholesome. Phosphate and Tartaric Acid powders liberate their gas too freely in process of baking, or under varying climatic changes suffer deterioration."

Dr. H. A. Mott, the former Government Chemist, after a careful and elaborate examination of the various Baking Powders of commerce, reported to the Government in favor of the Royal brand.

The Housekeeper.

HAVE SUNSHINE AT HOME.—Don't be afraid of a little fun at home, good people. Don't shut up your houses lest the sun should fade out your carpets; and your hearts, lest a hearty laugh should shake down some of the musty cobwebs there! If you want to ruin your sons let them think that all mirth and enjoyment must be left on the threshold when they come home at night. When once a home is regarded as only a place in which to eat, drink, and sleep, the work is begun that ends in gambling houses and reckless degradation. Young people must have fun and relaxation some where. If they have it not at their own hearthstones it will be sough in other and less profitable places. Therefore, let the fire burn brightly at night, and make the home ever delightful with all those little arts that parents so perfectly understand. Don't repress the buoyant spirits of your children; half an hour of merriment round the lamp and fire-light of home blots out the remembrance of many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safegnard they can take with them into the world is the unseen influence of a bright domestic sanctum.—Selected.

PRESSING BEEF.—Any cheap part of beef will answer. I usually select a piece weighing abont ten pounds. Free it from fat, but let the bones remain in it. Cut into three or four pieces. Just cover with water. Let come to a boil, skim, set on the back of the range, season with salt, pepper and half a dozen whole cloves, and let simmer six or eight hours, or until the meat will fall from the bones. Then remove meat, trim off any fat or skin, take out all pieces of bone, and slightly chop. Let the liquor cool, take off every particle of grease, and, if necessary, boil it down. When I think the liquor will not jelly, I dissolve two spoonfuls of gelatine in a little cold water and add to it. Put the meat into a deep earthern dish or pan, pour over the hot liquor, cover, and put weights on top. Set in a cool place over night. The meat may then be cut into slices and will be found very nice. I frequently prepare chicken in the same way.

STRAWBERRY JELLY.—Crush the fruit and strain through a flannel bag. To each pound of juice allow one pound of white sugar. Boil ten minutes; skim and strain into glass jelly glasses; stand in the sun, protected from insects, the sunny days of two days, then paste paper over the tops.

HOME-MADE BREAD—SLOW PROCESS.—For two loaves of medium size use three and a half pounds of flour, reserving half a pound for kneading; put three pounds of flour in a broad pan or wooden bowl, make a hollow in the centre, with-out disturbing the bottom of the pan put in this hollow a pint of lukewarm water, a heaping teaspoonful of salt and a gill of good yeast; mix with the water and yeast enough of flour to make a thick, smooth batter; gradually mix in the rest of the flour, working the dough with both hands until it is light and smooth; then gather it from the pan, dust flour under and over it, cover it with a thick towel and fold several times, and place the dough where no cold draughts can strike it. The temperature of the dough, regulating the quantity of the yeast, the process of raising the dough is hastened, but care should be taken to avoid using yeast enough to make it bitter.

"Acted Like a Charm."

This is what Mrs. Mayer, of Baronne street, New Orleans, says of Brown's Iron Bitters. A "charm" works quietly, promptly, thoroughly and with a magical effect. That is just the way this wonderful family medicine works on those who have been suffering the woes of dyspepsia complaint, dyspepsia and impoverished blood. Those who know its virtues say it is a complete cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, malaria, neuralgia, etc.

The Queen of Borneo for [illegible] Army to hold [illegible] its territory, on the ground that the meetings are [illegible]

A SERMON IN RHYME.

If you have a friend worth loving,
Love him. Yes, and let him know
That you love him, ere life's evening
Tinge his brow with sunset glow.
Why should good words ne'er be said
Of a friend till he is dead?

If you hear a song that thrills you
Sung by any child of song,
Praise it. Do not let the singer
Wait deserved praises long.
Why should one who thrills your heart
Lack the joy you may impart?

If you hear a prayer that moves you
By its humble pleading tone,
Join it. Do not let the seeker
Bow before his God alone.
Why should not your brother share
The strength of "two or three" in prayer?

If you see the hot tears falling
From a brother's eyes,
Share them. And by sharing,
Own your kinship with the skies.
Why should any one be glad
When a brother's heart is sad?

If a silvery laugh is rippling
Through the sunshine on his face
Share it. 'Tis the wise man's saying—
For both grief and joy a place.
There's health and goodness in the mirth
In which an honest laugh has birth.

If your work is made more easy
By a friendly, helping hand,
Say so. Speak out brave and truly
Ere the darkness veil the land.
Should a brother workman dear
Falter for a word of cheer?

Scatter thus your seeds of kindness
All enriching as you go—
Leave them Trust the Harvest Giver.
He will make each seed to grow:
So, until its happy end,
Your life shall never lack a friend.

Dress.

BY DORA L. MORTON.

Some people, especially young ladies, have a strange idea about dress. When a person makes his appearance before a crowd, the first thing they inspect is his dress, color, hair and clothes. The character is not once thonght of. He may be very low indeed bnt if he can dress, he is the man. What I call being a young man, is for him to be upright, religions in all things.

Some young men think that it is a disgrace for them to get a little dirt on their hands. They must remember that our noblest men are those who commenced at the bottom. There are a great many positions where a young man is required to go neat and clean.

Some are called to be merchants, lawyers, carpenters and to many other places. But if a young man is so placed in a position where his hands and clothes are to be soiled he should not be ashamed. Every man has to commence at the first round of the ladder in order to reach the top. The same may also be applied to young men who are looking forward to fill some high office. Garfield, and others were great men. Where did they commence?

Some young men stay ont of school to take pleasure, then because they are not placed in some high office, they grumble and say: "People wont give us a chance." No young man has a right to be placed where he is not wanted or, in other words, where he can do nothing. Perhaps some think it is too hard to stay in school eight or nine years; may be they think that they will be too old to do much in life when they are through. What if they are old? There will be little perhaps for them to do: but can they not do it better? I anticipate a glorious future for the young men, but it will only be by studying hard and preparing themselves for it.

I do not mean, when I say dress does not make a man, to say that one should go ragged. I do not mean that people should not dress if they wish, but they should look more at the principles of a person. They should put aside such foolish ideas concerning dress. There is no harm to dress, but there is harm in thinking of it alone, or scorning one because he does not dress. I have known people to go ragged because they thought that it would interfere with their religion to dress. That is a great mistake. One can love his religion just as well in broad-cloth, as he can in the cheapest of goods. I truly hope that it may not be long before all such ideas will be put aside.—Elevator.

What You Say.

"There are so many frauds advertised for the hair," you say. So there are, but Parker's Hair Balsam is not one of them. It will not work miracles, but it will do better service for your hair than anything else you can find. Restores original color, cures dandruff, gives new growth. Elegantly perfumed. Not a dye.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my aunt, Eliza Jones. She left Sunflower landing, Miss., in 1878, and went to near Memphis, Tenn., and I have not heard from her since. She has two children, a boy and a girl. The boy was Gust and the girl Mattie. Address me at Meridian, Miss. M. BROWN.

MR. EDITOR—Any information as to the whereabonts of Jack Harrison Hogan, Curtis Hogan, Frank Hawkins Hogan, Martin Willis Hogan, Levi Smith Hogan, Felix Dixon Hogan, will be thankfully received and duly appreciated by their old father, Curtis Hogan. They were slaves of John Hogan, who lived five miles from Tuscumbia, Ala., and their mother was named Anarchy. Address Curtis Hogan, Forest, Miss.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my relatives, father and mother, five brothers and two sisters. Father's name was Armsted Hopkins; mother Fannie Vinson; brothers, oldest Abraham, Jim, Armstead, Sam and Daniel Vinson; sisters, Mary and Ann Vinson. Mother and all the children belonged to Andrew Vinson, and were sold in Columbus, S. C., to a Mr. Logan, who brought us to Mobile; then mother, sister Ann and myself were bronght to Mississippi by Charlie Miller, in Lauderdale county. Mother is dead. Sister Ann is living near me; she is married to Dick Bir. s. Father died in South Carolina; he belonged to R. Hopkins. We went by the name of Vinson. My last owner was Miller, so I go by that name. I have not heard from any of my people in 15 or 20 years. If any of your many readers know of the whereabouts of the above named they will do a kind favor by addressing William Miller, Lauderdale Station, Miss.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my people. Mother was named Charity; she had three sons besides me; the oldest of the boys was Dennis, next Charles, next myself, Henry, and Tom, the youngest, at that time. We belonged to Dr. Harris, and lived in Abbeville district, S. C., near a little town called Monnt Campbell. My mother was sold to a speculator about the year 1855, and left us with Dr. Harris. In a few years my brothers were sold from me. In 1859 John Harris, a son of the Doctor, brought me to Alabama, and sold me to Tom Nelms in 1860. The next year he brought me to Texas, where I am now. The last I heard from my mother she was sold on Red River. Address me at Pennington, Trinity county, Texas.

HENRY HARRIS.

The Mayor of Philadelphia has set about the task of having photographs made of the principal public buildings as well as places of historical interest in and about the city of Brotherly Love. When the pictures are finished they will be sent to the World's Exposition to be added to the fine art gallery of American and European photographs.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle. Trade Mark

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by Brown Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

GOLDEN PRAISE

VOLUNTARILY ACCORDED TO

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

By People who Have Proven its Benign Effects.

WARREN LELAND, New York: "There is no medicine in the world equal to AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Rheumatism.]

REV. W. E. PENNINGTON, Central South Hampton, N. B.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has made a new man of me." [Cured by it of General Debility.]

JOHN J. RYAN, Athletic B. B. C., Philadelphia, Pa.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cured me." [Cured by it of Rheumatism.]

ORLANDO SNELL, Lowell, Mass.: "I enjoy better health than ever before, due solely to the use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Carbuncles and Debility.]

NATHAN S. CLEAVELAND, Boston, Mass.: "A most valuable remedy for the lassitude and debility incident to the spring season." [His daughter cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Headaches, Dizziness, Indigestion, and General Debility.]

MILTON FOX, Dracut, Mass.: "The one I would recommend above all others as a blood purifier." [Cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Scrofulous Humor and Dyspepsia.]

SELBY CARTER, Nashville, Tenn.: "My system seemed saturated with Scrofula, but AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cured me."

HON. FRANCIS JEWETT, Lowell, Mass.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the only preparation that seems to do me any real, lasting good." [Cured by it of Blood Impurities.]

MRS. E. B. TOMPKINS, Brooklyn, N. Y.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has done me untold good. Nothing else has been so efficacious." [Cured by it of Feminine Ailments.]

FRANK M. GRIFFIN, Long Point, Texas: "Has worked like a charm; no medicine could have accomplished more." [His child cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Scrofulous Sores.]

MRS. H. MCKAY, Lowell, Mass.: "I can recommend AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to all afflicted." [Her son cured by it of Scrofulous Swellings, Dizziness, and Internal Fever.]

GEO. ANDREWS, Lowell, Mass.: "No doubt whatever that I owe my recovery to AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Salt Rheum.]

HENRY J. CHAPMAN, Nashua, N. H.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a perfect blood purifier." [Cured by it of long standing and severe Scrofulous Humors.]

MRS. LORENZO S. RUGGLES, Auburn, Me.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has proved its superiority to all others." [Cured by it of Feminine Weaknesses.]

Almost "all the ills that flesh is heir to" spring from, or are intensified by, impurities in the blood, the result of hereditary taint or of a wrong manner of living. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA thoroughly purifies the blood, gives tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and imparts new vitality to the nervous system. The only preparation of this class for which these claims can be truthfully made, and the only one that does "real, lasting good," is

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

Sold by all druggists; price $1; six bottles for $5.

Our Books for Sale,

—AT—

Southwestern Office,

32 Natchez Street.

Wakefield's Theology	$2 50
Methodism In The Field	1 00
Class Leaders Work and How to Do It	1 25
History of the M. E. Church, 4 volumes	6 00
Wesley's Sermons, 2 volumes	5 00
Whedon's Commentary on the New Testament	7 50
Life of John Wesley	1 00
Hand Book of Bible Geography	2 50
Bible Stories	1 00
Hints to Self Educated Ministers	1 25
Christianity Demonstrated by Experience	1 50
Baker on the Discipline	1 00
Binney's Theological Compend	75
Pope's Theology, 3 volumes	7 50
Outlines of Bible History	50
Outlines of Church History	50
CATECHISMS—
No. 1, Per Dozen	35
No. 2 Per Dozen	45
No. 3, Per Dozen	60
American Primers, per dozen	50
Spelling and Reading Book, per dozen	1 50
Sunday-School Minute Book	40
Sunday-School Register and Receiving Book	40
Sunday-School Class Book	10
Church Record	2 50
Church Class Book	20
Hymnal 24 mo.	50
" 16 mo, with Ritual	75
" 16 mo, "	1 00
" 12 mo, "	1 50
" 16 mo, with Tunes	1 00

Plantation Melodies

—AND—

REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION

By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

A remarkable and unique collection of religious songs, with their accompanying weird, pathetic, ever varied and charming melodies, as sung for generations by the colored people of America. A few of the songs will be familiar, but the great majority have never before been printed and are now given for the first time with the original words and music. The music has been carefully written, and is well adapted for quartet, chorus, and congregational singing, and is especially excellent for social evenings at home. All singers should have it. First edition was exhausted in sixty days. Send for a copy.

"These songs ought to be saved and they ought to be sung.." -Bishop I. W. Wiley. "Should think that the book would sell by thousands, and that it would do good."—Dr. J. M. Buckley. "It is grand. I like it."—Dr. R. S. Rust. "Just the thing—the gold saved from the dross."—Dr. Jacob Krehbiel. "Am perfectly delighted with it; it will sell by the thousands."—Rev. A. E. P. Albert. "There should be a copy in every household."—Rev. H. W. Tate. "Having carefully read your hymn-book, and being acquainted with many of the soul-stirring anthems spread upon its pages—especially one that was the cause of my conversion—I can and will commend the book, in the name of God, to all the world."—Rev. C. H. Collins.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

Good Pay for Agents. $100 to $200 per mo., made selling our fine Books and Bibles. Write to J. C. McCURDY & CO.
sept18-1y St. Louis, Mo.

PILES "Anakesis" gives instant relief, and is an infallible cure for Piles. Price $1, at druggists, or sent prepaid by mail. Sample free. Ad. "ANAKESIS," Makers, Box 2416 New York
oct4-1y

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The New England Journal of Education speaking of the National Education Assembly, for 1883, says: "It was the most remarkable gathering ever held in our country in matters connected with the schooling of the people. The volume of addresses is the most interesting collection of popular educational document ever given to our people, and should be in the hands of every educator, legislator and intelligent citizen in the land."

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

A special feature of the book is a series of ten tables, compiled by the Hon. H. R. Waite, Special Statistician U. S. Census and the Hon. John Eaton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, giving complete data upon the illiterate and educational status of the United States, each State and also of the South as a section.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.

32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

MILLERS and FARMERS Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro. ☞ Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.
may22-1y

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.
mar20-52t

Furnished Rooms to Rent

By the Month, Week or Day,

At No. 227 Customhouse Street

Corner Treme street, New Orleans, La.

Mrs. C. ROBERTSON, Proprietor

8 52t

WANTED Agents for the GOLDEN DAWN, "or the LIGHT on the GREAT FUTURE.

School Teachers, Students, Young Men and Ladies acting as agents for this book, are making over $100 a month. Sells fast. One agent sold 71 first 15 days; another 46 in 8 days; another 11 in one day; a other 15 and 5 Bibles in 5 days. Secure territory quick. Also agents wanted for the best Illustrated Family Bibles ever sold by agents. Send for circulars. Address TEXAS BOOK & BIBLE CO., 755 Elm st., Dallas, Texas. Feb. 28-24t.

"THE BEST IS CHEAPEST."

ENGINES, Horse Powers THRESHERS SAW-MILLS, Clover Hullers

(Suited to all sections.) Write for NEW Illus. Pamphlet and Prices to The Aultman & Taylor Co., Mansfield, Ohio.
oct4-1y

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address Taue & Co., Augusta, Me.
jan1

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME.

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave
New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:35 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:50 p m
Grenada	4:48 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	5:55 a m
Oxford	6:42 a m
Holly Springs	7:52 a m
Grand Junction	8:50 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:15 p m
Martin " " "	1:27 p m
Fulton " " "	1:55 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:20 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:29 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:26 p m
" Louisville, "	6:20 a m
" Cincinnati "	6:23 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. j3 31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3. 10:45 a m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a.m	Sunday Excur'n 6:30 p m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leave.	Arrive.
Express	8:30 a. m.	9:50 p. m.
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p. m.	9:05 a. m
Fast Mail	6:25 p. m.	9:45 a.m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Merahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M. Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division.
a25-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE

TO

Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn., and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City, for emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or
H. D. EXLEY,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNE,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

For the Cheapest and Choicest

Family & Fancy Groceries,

SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE

Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,

—GO TO—

N. E. Sullivan's

GROCERY,

Corner of

Washington and Hampson Streets

CARROLLTON, LA.

nov23-1y

General News Items.

Next March the terms of 14 Democratic and 11 Republican Senators will expire.

Gen. Wolesley will proceed to Egypt at once to assume the chief military command of the forces there.

The President has appointed Willard P. Tisdel, of Painesville, Ohio, agent of the United States to the Congo Association.

General Leroy Pope Walker, the first Secretary of War in Jefferson Davis' Confederate Cabinet, and who gave the order for firing on Fort Sumter, died at his home in Huntsville, Ala., after a brief illness.

Advices from Foo Chow to the 24th, confirm the reports of the destruction of the whole Chinese fleet. The French lost five men, including an American pilot. The pilot was killed on board the heavily armored French warship Volta. The French fleet was not damaged.

The King of Congo has made a formal protest against the treaties entered into by the Palla-Balla Princes without the consent of the African International Association. They had, he claims, not the right to cede the territory to the association, and are bound to recognize the sovereignty of Portugal.

The United States naval steamer Tallapoosa collided with a schooner off Martha's Vineyard, Mass., Thursday night, and sunk in two fathoms of water. Surgeon Clarence E. Black and George A. Foster, landsmen, are reported lost. She was on her way to Newport to take on board Secretary Chandler and party.

The Paris papers indignantly repel the charges by London Times that cruelty was exercised by Admiral Courbet at Foo Chow, and indulge in violent abuse of England. The Voltaire and Temps say France has no need to exculpate itself to a country which set fire to Alexandria. Admiral Courbet destroyed the Chinese gunboats because he could not weaken his crews by occupying them.

The Haven Memorial Church Sunday-school, Sperry Street, New Haven, Connecticut, held its first Lesson anniversary on Sunday, July 13th. The school is growing, and the children sang, recited and read splendidly. The sermon by the pastor, Thomas H. Johnson, was a powerful one. The school superintendent will bring his charge to a high state of efficacy soon.

In Baltimore, Aug. 26th, the conference of the Colored Methodist Church deposed Rev. W. W. Wilson from the presidency, and elected Rev. Thos. Wells. Wilson then withdrew from all connection with the conferences and church. Rev. Wm. Anderson, a friend of Wilson demanded and was granted a certificate of dismissal. In the case of Rev. O. Brown, charged with drunkenness and voting against prohibition, the proof was not sufficient, but the committee declared he had ceased to be useful, and he was placed on the station list. Adjourned sine die.

Rev. Marshall Taylor, the newly elected "General Editor" of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, at New Orleans, has begun his work as if he enjoyed the office, and intended to win success. We expect him to fill the office and be promoted, and make himself a bishop,—not in Africa. The SOUTHWESTERN has certainly taken on new life, and promises progress. — Minnesota Methodist.

"Gems from the Texas Quarry, is the title of a book now being written by Texas authors for the Centennial Exposition. It will be composed of a large number of contributions of prose pieces and poems by ladies and gentlemen and will show how rich the lone Star State is in literary talent.

[illegible] Witnesses, 36 pp pamphlet, sent free on receipt of address. Send stamp. Dr. Lewis, St. Louis, Mo. (old number) 1935 Olive street.
sept20.26teow

Temperance.

The Pennsylvania State Woman's Christian Temperance Union has added 138 new unions this year.

The London Drinking Fountain Association has erected 557 fountains, and 566 cattle-troughs in that city.

The Prohibitionist is the name of a temperance paper just started at Indianapolis, by the Prohibitory Amendment Association.

The population of Belgium, now about 5,500,000 souls, consumes alcoholic liquors to the value of 480,000,000 francs, which is 66 per cent more than thirty years ago.

The Scott Law was sustained by the decision of a Lucas county court, and most of the saloon keepers of that place will pay under protest, and let the Cincinnati saloonkeepers fight the law in the courts.

The thirtieth annual temperance meeting of the White Water Valley was held at Liberty, Ind., August 9th, with a large attendance. Addresses were made by Hon. E. B. Reynolds, of Indiana, and others. The meeting was one of the best ever held in the valley.

The National Prohibition party was organized about fifteen years ago. In the presidential contest of 1872 candidates were nominated, the nominees receiving close to 6,000 votes. At the next national election the party polled about 6,000 votes; at the last, 10,000.

The Iowa Methodist say: "The prohibitory law is enforced in every part of Iowa, except in the towns and cities where the foreign population has social, financial, and political control. In many cases saloonkeepers have been arrested, convicted, and fined and resolved to abandon the business. In Dubuque the whisky party, sustained by the secular papers, defy the law and threaten informers with violence."

The fourteenth annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America was held August 6th and 7th in Chicago. The report of the committee on resolutions characterizes those who who sell intoxicating liquors as criminals. It declares that moral suasion alone cannot prevail against intemperance, that the law must be invoked, and it is a dire calamity to trust the management of public affairs to those who hold office at the good will of liquor dealers, and adds, "We emphasize the fact that we cannot countenance or in any way encourage the liquor interest, much less vote for it." The next meeting will be held in New Haven, Conn.

The pictorial announcement with a world at its head that will be seen in another column presents some interesting figures, in the way of simple facts. An exposition lasting through winter to summer is indeed, a stupendous novelty, and New Orleans, famous already for her annual carnival pageants which attract thousands of visitors, will undoubtedly become still more so from this colossal exhibition.

Though steam and electricity have brought its ends nearer together than of yore, the world is still a vast affair, and to group its specimen products and specimen of its people in one city and in one park is no light and easy enterprise. Yet reports are current and increasing from day to day that amply substantiate the claims of this announcement.

Not only will the stranger get an opportunity of learning more in one week about the peculiar products of Mexican and Central American countries than he could learn by months of reading or even of travel in those lands, but he will see, side by side with the work of our own factories, the most gorgeous fabrics of Persian looms, the silks of China and India, the lacquer ware of Japan, the curiosities of Siam, and all that can serve to illustrate the habits, customs, arts and religions of that wondrous East, which has been aptly called the mother of mysteries.

It is hardly exaggeration to say of New Orleans next winter that the world will be there. The World's Exposition began by promising enormous attractions and is now undoubtly on the high road to performance. No former enterprise has received such favor or created so widespread an interest. Its rapid progress in publicity is almost as wonderful as the progress of its work. Its main building now receiving the finishing touches is the largest ever erected—thirty-three acres under one roof, a quarter of a mile long and a sixth of a mile wide.

The Horticultural Hall, also close on to completion, is the largest for that object ever built, 600x194 feet, and designed to display in one pyramid 20,000 plates of fruit, twice as many as were ever grouped before. A government building 885x565 will be erected. Mexico having appropriated $200,000, has decided to spend half of it in the construction of an Iron Building, and many other nations, States, Territories and cities are demanding space for appropriate structures.

Held under the auspices of the General Government, which has appropriated $1,300,000 towards it, and held in a city where the entertainment of visitors has for years been a special glory, a city too, by the bye, which is the natural portal of Mexico and Central America to the commercial world, this exposition shows every guarantee of opening in accordance with its claim, as the largest and most attractive ever yet proposed.

The French consul at Khartoum has been ordered to remain there, even in the event Gen. Gordon consents to return with the relief expedition.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an old East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this receipt, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y. jun10 10tsow

EDUCATIONAL.

For a Business Education Attend the

Commercial College

Of Kentucky University, Lexington, Ky.

Students can begin any week-day in the year. No vacation. Time to complete the Full Diploma Business Course about 16 weeks. Average Total Cost, including Tuition, Set of Books and Board to a family, $90. Telegraphy a specialty. Literary Course free. Ladies received. 5,000 successful graduates. Over 500 pupils last year from 15 to 60 years of age, from 23 States. Instruction is practically and individually imparted by 10 teachers. Special courses for Teachers and Business Men. University Diploma presented to its graduates. This beautiful city is noted for its healthfulness and society, and is on leading Railroads. Fall Session begins Sept. 8th. For circulars and full particulars address its President, WILBUR R. SMITH, Lexington, Ky.

june5 3m nr

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants, and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for stamp. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. Mention this journal j17 1m

WASHINGTON & LEE UNIVERSITY,

LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA.

Instructions in the usual academic studies, and in the professional schools of Law and Engineering. Location healthful. Expenses moderate. Session opens Sept. 18. For catalogue, address Clerk of the Faculty. G. W. C. LEE, President.

july17 8t

LAW · SCHOOL

OF WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY.

GEN. G. W. C. LEE, President.

Instruction by text-books and printed lectures, with courses of lectures on special subjects by eminent jurists. Tuition and fees, $90 for session of nine months; beginning Sept. 18. For catalogue and full information, address CHAS. A. GRAVES, Prof. of Law, Lexington, Va.

jul17-8t

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition 1 one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3.) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference;
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology: Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 5.
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV. Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson	6 60
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History, Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introdnction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Bible to self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition.—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introdnction to the Gospel Records.—Hurst	1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Flaher	2 0
Protests of Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT.
32 Natchez St New Orleans

Fast Potato Digging

THE MONARCH POTATO DIGGER

Saves its cost yearly. FIVE TIMES OVER, to every farmer. Guaranteed to Dig Six Hundred Bushels a Day.

Write postal card for FREE elegantly illustrated Catalogue, in Six Brilliant Colors, that cost us $5000 to publish.

Monarch Manufacturing Co., 206 State St., CHICAGO, ILL.

je12-7teow

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER." FOR PRESERVING, RESTORING AND Beautifying the Complexion

FOR REMOVING SUNBURN, TAN, FRECKLES, PIMPLES, BLACKHEADS, ECZEMA, &c.

OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES.

LOTTA—It is the best preparation for the face that I ever used. I now use no other.

CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG—It gives me pleasure to add my name to the list of those who recommend your "Liquid Pearl," and express its satisfaction. It adorned me.

The LIQUID PEARL has been received by the ladies of all countries with the highest marks of appreciation. Only 50 cents a bottle, sold by all Druggists & Perfumers.

CHAMPLIN & CO., Cleveland, O.

dec23-26tsow

STEAM ENGINES Portable and Agricultural. Send for circulars. Wood, Taber & Morse, Eaton, N. Y.

may8-6t 1tam

$68 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For

And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS. Can be taken at home. Incurable when our questions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio.

feb7-1y

Central Tennessee College,

Nashville, Tennessee.

This College begins its nineteenth year on

Monday, September 8, 1884.

Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.

Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.

The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.

For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY,
Atlanta, Georgia,

Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.

A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.

VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.

For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oc18-tf

The Great Church LIGHT.

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, N. Y.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches	175 lbs	325 lbs	$450 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	550 lbs	800 lbs	120 00
40 "	750 lbs	1050 lbs	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1800 lbs	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$13 00
20 inches	130 lbs	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture those celebrated Chimes and Bells for CHURCHES, ACADEMIES, &c. Price-list and circulars sent free.

HENRY McSHANE & CO.
sept8-1y Baltimore, Md.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY,

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free

VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O

mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.

The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

FOR DAY SCHOOLS.

THE

International DAY SCHOOL SINGER

For Public and Day Schools, Juvenile Classes, Institutes, Conventions, Seminaries, etc.

By JAS. R. MURRAY and W. H. PONTIUS.

The names of the authors are to themselves sufficient guarantee for the real merit of the work, which the publishers believe to be the best of its kind now before the public. The book contains four distinct departments as follows:

PART 1. Note Songs for Beginners.
2. A Complete Course of Practical Lessons.
3. Songs in 2, 3 and 4 Parts.
4. Devotional and other Music.

Together with the latest and best music and methods.

176 pp. Price 60 cts. each by mail, post-paid; $5 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen pages free.

Published by
JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Address

sail-1y

HARTER'S IRON TONIC

THE ONLY TRUE

Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Sufferers from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST.

Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo., for our "DEAF MUTE" Full of strange and useful information, free.

may8-1y

LADIES

THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL AND COTTON CENTENNIAL

EXPOSITION

New Orleans.

Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.

—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—

United States Government.

$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.

Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.

The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.

The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.

For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. L. & C. C. E.
NEW ORLEANS, La.

AGENTS Wanted for our new book BURIED CITIES RECOVERED. Sacred Nations exhumed; obliterated history rewritten. The doings of Prophets Kings unfolded. Great discoveries. Latest researches. Testimony from Pyramids, Temples and Rocks. Plain to a child; absorbing to all. Richly Illustrated. New maps. Low price. Sells greatly. Subscribers delighted. WM. GARRETSON & CO., 4th & Chestnut Sts., St. Louis, Mo.

mar13-1y

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

aug28-1y

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

THIRD QUARTER, LESSON X. Sept. 7. CONFIDENCE IN GOD. Psalm xxvii, 1-4.

David, speaks of the three things that the Lord is to him: his light, his salvation, and the strength of his life. He asks the questions, "Whom shall I fear?" and "Of whom shall I be afraid?" The light of the sun can not help us by night, nor the moon and stars when clouds cover the earth, but this light never goes out.

If the Lord is the light of our souls, we have only to follow it, and we will never go astray. It is always bright, so he who depends upon it will never be destroyed by enemies foes, and with omnipotence as his strength of his life, he had no need to fear the most powerful enemy. David could speak from experience as well as by faith; for he had been delivered from Goliath, from Saul, and from Absalom, and the armies that they controlled. That is why older Christians often speak with so much confidence; they know from experience who is the true Light and the mighty Savior. The servant of the Lord of such strong faith loves the house of the Lord, where he may learn of his will and praise him for his goodness. The Lord's children love his house as the faithful children of a kind earthly father love their home. In the seventh Psalm changes into a prayer to the God of his salvation. He will not leave nor forsake him; no one can touch him, and God will deliver him into their hands [illegible]. Many children are in danger from those [illegible] their senses, and pray this prayer of David. Rely on the Lord, as we are told in this verse, means the same thing as waiting for [illegible] we asked, [illegible] time continuing to [illegible] courage," "have [illegible] your duty as well as [illegible] Lord will make your [illegible]. A strong heart is a great thing in all the world.

MARRIAGES.

W. Robinson, of Georgetown, to Miss Mary Barry, formerly of Texas, at the M. E. Church July 3, 1884, the writer officiating. The church was crowded to its capacity, to hail the new married couple, and the bride and groom and company with Bro Easly, to Gatesville. After a very [illegible] journey of thirty-five miles arrived at Gatesville at 8 p. m., were met a large crowd awaiting our arrival with baskets full of refreshments of all kinds; the fatted pig had been killed, and the table was made ready, and what was really enjoyable. Bro. [illegible] is pastor of Lampasas and [illegible], and his people seem to do all in their power to encourage him, and to show their appreciation to him as pastor. May bless the new married couple, and the good people his circuit.

H. SWANN.

[illegible], Texas, July 22, 1884.

Rheumatism.

[illegible] completely disabled from [illegible] I used Parker's Tonic for [illegible], when to my astonishment, [illegible] completely relieved. [illegible] Bogart, M. D., [illegible], N. Y. Rheumatism [illegible] failure of the kidneys [illegible] acid from the blood.

Better than Gold.

So easily is a cold taken that not infrequently one is at a loss to tell when or how it has originated, and is prone to expect it will go HEALTH as lightly as it came. Perhaps it may go easily, if helped a little; but every cold that comes is liable to stay. It may happen just at a IS time when, from other causes, the normal strength of resistance in the system has been lowered. A little inattention or delay may give it a dangerous BETTER hold. Let it once become firmly seated, and the work of dislodgment will be very difficult. The simple Coryza, or cold in the head, may THAN develop into a Catarrh, and is indeed exceedingly likely so to do. That such is the case is evidenced by the fact that seven persons out of every GOLD. nine, in the Atlantic and Mid- dle States, have catarrh in a severe form. Or, if it does not take that turn, the little cough that is at first but an annoyance, is almost certain to become dry, hard, racking and constantly recurrent, worrying in waking hours, banishing sleep, and momentarily weakening the patient. The larynx, vocal cords, and tonsils, become inflamed. The inflammation extends into the bronchial tubes. "Laryn- AYER'S gitis" and "Bronchitis" are the easiest words that the doctor, called in about that time, will use. The trouble goes on working down the CHERRY bronchial tubes to the lungs, ultimately threatening Pulmonary Consumption. Or, perhaps, the malady assumes the quickly PECTORAL fatal phase of Pneumo- nia. Just about as unwise a thing as an ordinarily sensible person can do, is to neglect a "little" PRESERVES cold or cough and give it a chance to develop in any of these ways. And when it comes to the treatment of children, neglect is criminality. All HEALTH. the dangers to be feared from colds and coughs may be averted, in the very outset, by the administration of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a medicine ineffably beneficent, which allays the coughing, soothes to refreshing rest, and brings back health.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

Is the only medicine that can be relied upon to break up a cold and cure a cough, and is invaluable in the treatment of all affections of the throat and lungs.

The following are samples of what people say who know it:

"Medical science has produced no other anodyne expectorant so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."—PROF. F. SWEETZER, (Maine Medical School) Brunswick, Me.

"AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL affords more relief in cases of Whooping Cough than any other medicine."—DR. ARTHUR Y. COX, St. Louis, Mo.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for 20 years. It is a wonderful remedy for Throat and Lung Diseases."—L. GARRETT, Texana, Tex.

"My children have taken AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for Coughs and Croup, and have found it give immediate relief, followed by cure."—MRS. J. GREGG, Lowell, Mass.

"I find nothing else so efficacious as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in the treatment of Colds and Coughs, and have used it in Croup, Asthma, and incipient Consumption, with great success."—DR. J. H. WILSON, Centerville, Iowa.

"My wife, troubled with violent coughing, hard and dry, for 30 years, got so low I thought it would kill her. She took AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and is entirely cured.—G. M. CARR, French Camp, Miss.

"Several members of my family suffered severely with Influenza. All were cured by AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in a few days."—HENRY RUSSELL, Somerset, N. J.

"The best remedy that can be had for Coughs and Colds is AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."—E. M. SARGENT, Lowell, Mass.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

For sale by all Druggists.

DEATHS.

Sister Isabella Adams died May 19th, aged 19 years. She was very happy, and shouting "Glory, glory, to the Lamb of God that died to take away the sin of the world." She was a young lady of great force of character and standing in the community. She was, at the time of her death, an assistant teacher in our day school, also a teacher in the Sabbath-school, and an instructor of the baptized children in the Church. Her loss is great to the church and Sunday-school at this place, but we are sure it is Heaven's gain. She leaves a father, mother, brothers and sisters, with a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. P. BLUM.

Enterprise, Miss.

In New Orleans, Aug. 24th, Sister Celestine Smith, one of the oldest and most faithful members of Union Chapel. She leaves a son and husband to mourn her loss.

Sister Betty Regus, a member of the church, after a long period of suffering died July 7. She often spoke of her willingness to go, and died, as she had lived, faithful. O GILLESPIE.

Sbuhuta, Miss

Sister Ida Hutch departed this life May 22, 1884. She was born October 2. 1866 She joined Spring Hill Church, Fayette county, Texas, in 1879, and was a faithful member till death. During her illness of five months, no murmur escaped her lips. Her whole trust was in the Savior. She was the daughter of George and Harriet Hutch. She was a loving child to her parents, kind to her brothers and sisters, six of whom she leaves to mourn her loss. JANE R. NABORS.

Sister America Martin, aged 66 years, and a faithful church member for 14 years, died July 24. She leaves a husband four children. J. L. MASSEY.

Marion, Tenn.

If Your Cough is Growing More Troublesome,

If you are losing flesh and strength, and are beginning to have night sweats or any of the well-known and alarming symptoms that indicate pulmonary trouble, write to Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1109 Girard street Philadelphia, stating your case clearly, and ask their opinion as to your condition, and whether they have treated similar cases with their new Vitiating Remedy. It will cost you nothing, as they make no charge for consultations. They will, at the same time that they reply to your enquiries, furnish you with such documents and reports of cases as will enable you to determine whether in your own case a cure is possible.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

Have been reared upon it. Keep the children in health. If your child is any symptom of dysentery, or any irregularity of the bowels, commence Dodge's Food as directed without delay. Unless the trouble has become chronic requiring medical aid, it will correct the difficulty; and as a diet in sickness, it is invaluable. Thousands of children All druggists sell it, and grocers. Put up in four sizes—45c., 65c., $1.25 and $1.75. Send to Woolrich & Co., Palmer Mass., for pamphlets on the subject.

Conference Notices.

District Conference Notice.

The District Conference for the Houston District, Texas Conference will meet in St. Paul's Church, Galveston, Oct. 8, 1884, at 1 o'clock, p. m. The following is a partial programme:

Church Finances—P. Morgan.
Woman's Work in the Church—R R. Roberts.
Class-leaders and their Work—W. H Logan.
Sunday-schools, their Members, Officers, Teachers and Work—I B Scott.
Home Mission Work—P. Morgan and W. H. Logan.

Local preachers to have written essays on subjects of their own. Local preachers required to pass an examination in Wakefield's Theology, commencing at Book 4. The district stewards are requested to meet with us

F. C. MOORE, P. E.

LEXINGTON CONFERENCE.

The third and fourth rounds for the Lexington District are as follows:

Third Visit.

Moorfield	Sept.	9
Sharpsburg	"	10-11
Sherburn	"	12
Flemingsburg	"	13-14
Pleasantville	"	15
Mt. Carmel	"	17
Tollsboro	"	19
Orangeburg	"	20 21
Dover	"	23
Germantown	"	24
Mt. Olive	"	26
Washington	"	27-28
Georgetown	Sept. 30, Oct.	1
Oxford	"	2 3
New Zion	"	4 5
Harrodsburg	"	6
Versailles	"	11 12
Len's Chapel	"	14 15
Winchester	"	16 17
Falmouth	"	18 10
Boyds	"	29
Lairs	"	21
Green's Chapel	"	25-26
North Middletown	Nov.	8- 9
Cadentown	"	11
Corinth	"	12
Asbury Chapel	"	15 16
New Providence	"	17-18
College Hill	"	19 20
Paris	"	22-23
Monterey	"	24
Warrentown	"	25

Fourth Visit.

Moorfield	Dec.	9
Sharpsburg	"	10
Sherburn	"	12
Flemingsburg	"	13-14
Pleasantville	"	15
Mt Carmel	"	16
Tollsboro	"	18
Orangeburg	"	19
Dover and Germantown	"	20-21
Mt. Olivet	"	22
Washington	"	23
Georgetown	"	27-28
New Zion	Jan.	5- 6
Oxford	"	3 4
Harrisburg	"	8
Versailles	"	10-11
Len's Chapel	"	13-14
Winchester	"	17 18
Falmouth	"	24-25
Boyds	"	21
Green's Chapel	Jan 31, Feb.	1
North Middletown	"	7- 8
Cadentown	"	10
Corinth	"	12
Asbury Chapel	"	14-15
New Providence	"	21-22
College Hill	"	23
Paris	Feb 28, Mar.	1
Monterey	"	2
Warrentown	"	3

H. W. WHITE, P. E.

ARGENTA DISTRICT—LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE.

Third Round.

Conway and Morrilton	Sept.	27-28
Russellville	Oct.	1- 2
Fort Smith	"	4- 5
Van Buren	"	5- 6
Fayetteville Circuit	"	11-12
Fayetteville	"	12-13
Alma	"	18-19
Sweet Home	"	25-26
Jacksonport	Nov.	1- 2
Batesville	"	8- 9
Argenta	"	15-16
Little Rock Circuit	"	16-17

G. W. ADAMS, P. E.

SAN ANTONIO DISTRICT—WEST TEXAS CONFERENCE.

Fourth Round

Hondo and Fredericksburg	Sept.	27 28
San Antonio	Oct.	4 5
Floresville Circuit	"	11-12
Seguin	"	18 19
Mt. Veroon	"	25 26
Belmont	"	28
Gonzales	Nov.	1- 2
Cuero	"	5
Goliad	"	8- 9
Mission Valley	"	15-16
Victoria	"	16-17
Edna	"	22-23
Hallettsville	"	25-
San Marcos	"	29 30

G. W. RICHARDSON, P. E.

LA TECHE DISTRICT—LOUISIANA CONFERENCE.

Third Round.

Alexandria	Sept.	21-24-25
Pineville	"	21-26
Avoca	"	22
Cheneyville	"	28 30
Booneville	"	28 29
Stewart Chapel	Oct.	2
Eola	"	4- 5
Cotton Port	"	6
Marksville	"	7
Waxia	"	7
Flat Town	"	9
Washington	"	11-12
Opelousas	"	12-13
Vermilionville	"	14
St. Martinsville	"	16
Avery	"	18
New Iberia	"	17-19
Jeannerette	"	19 20
Cote Blanche	"	23
Glencoe	"	24 25 26
St. Peter	"	26 27

A. E. P. ALBERT, P. E.

NOTICE.

There will be the usual excursion rates to Provencal and return, 5 cents per mile one way from the stations named to Provencal and return. The fare from Provencal to Natchitoches, 12 miles by Hack, will be 75 cents each way.

Yours, H. J. WRIGHT, Pastor.
Natchitoches, La., Aug. 16, 1884.

PROGRAMME

Of Chattanooga District Conference, to meet at Cleveland, Tenn., Sept. 23, 1884.

Opening Sermon—James Yarnell.
Origin of the Methodist Episcopal Church—L M Moores.
A Sketch of Bishop Mathew Simpson—J T Henry.
The Relation of Class-meeting to the Progress of Methodism—P P Brooks Methodist Literature and how to circulate it—A J Fletcher.
Influence of Singing upon the growth of Methodism—A Roach.
Rules for the regulation of a preacher's conduct—J. Mann.
Does the highest success of Methodism demand the continuation of Camp-meetings—J Crawford.
Perfect Love—J W Bennett
The Status of Methodism in the South—James Yarnell.
How to promote attendance upon the prayer meeting—R Masoner.
Methodistic methods of raising money for the support of the Gospel—M Cox.
How churches may have a revival all the year round—W Binford.
Woman's work in the Methodist Episcopal Church—G P Barnes.
Essential Elements of a live Sunday-school—Wm C Wilson.
A talk on the importance of a stricter observance of sanitary laws—Dr. J P Andrews.
Advancement needed in the work of the Freedmen's Aid Society—D W Hays.
Building Churches and Parsonages—E Provine
Discussion: Ought steps be taken to erect a Home for Superannuated and Disabled Preachers?

NOTICE

The Chattanooga District Conference has been changed from the 21 day of September to the 23rd of September. 1884.

E. PROVINE, P. E.
Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 9, 1884.

NEW ORLEANS DISTRICT—LOUISIANA CONFERENCE.

A Centennial district Conference for the New Orleans District will be held at Clinton Street Church, beginning Wednesday Sept mber 10 at 8 o'clock p. m., opening sermon by J. Qualls.

PROGRAMME:

The relation of the Sunday-school to the Church, and how to increase its efficiency—R. C. Barrow and Moses Fairfax.
The origin of Methodism and its influence upon the churches of England—M. Dale and J. Qualls.
The organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church—Emperor Williams.
The influence of the Methodist Episcopal Church in securing the overthrow of the system of American slavery—S. P Jestley.
Our schools in Louisiana, and what can we do for them?—J W. Hudson and W. P. Harris.
The educational work of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South and our relation to it—J. G. Vaughan and T. J. Montgomery.
The SOUTHWESTERN and its relation to our church work in the South—M. W. Tayler, D. D.
The organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Louisiana—H. Green.
A brief sketch of the original members of the Louisiana Conference—S. Osborne.
The propriety of appointing women as class leaders—A. J. Ford.
The relation of the Church to the Temperance cause—M. C. B. Mason and M. J. Dyer.
The Woman's Home Missionary Work—Mrs M Dale.
Christian love manifest in giving.

In connection with the above the regular work of the District Conference will begin Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, and he attended to at each morning session of the Conference. The several pastors will see that the members of the conference have due notice so they can be in attendance. Let each pastor set the example of presenting a written report of his work.

L. P. CUSHMAN, P. E.

Says the Union Signal: "In the window of a Cincinnati saloon is a stuffed rattlesnake coiled upon a whisky jug and wreathed in flowers. The proprietor evidently has a correct view of the fitness of things."

10,000 MEN WANTED to sell The Great Temperance Controversy. A work of thrilling power and interest. Send for Circulars. GEO. FULLWELL & Co., COURIER-JOURNAL Building, LOUISVILLE, KY.

aug21 4teow

TO THE PUBLIC.

Let the Royal Baking Powder Co. defend the use of the DISGUSTING and POISONOUS drug AMMONIA in their Powder, or FOREVER hold their peace.

Price Baking Powder Co.

$500 CASH, FREE!

We offer the above amount of money and THIRTY-FIVE GOLD WATCHES, Free to the first 148 persons answering the following Bible question: Where is the word Grandmother found in the Bible? Mention the Book, Chapter and Verse.

The first person answering this question correctly, on or before October 15th, will receive $75 cash. If we receive more than one correct answer, the second will receive $70; the third, $60; the fourth, $55; the fifth, $50; the sixth, $25; the seventh, $20; eighth, $15; ninth, $10; tenth, $8; eleventh, $6; twelfth, $4; thirteenth, $2; thirty-five GOLD WATCHES to the next thirty-five correct answers, and one dollar each to the next one hundred people answering it correctly. If you are not first, remember that you may be second or third, so you stand a good chance for a large prize. Each competitor must, in every case, send 50 cents for Sample package ROYAL TEA with their answers.

THE PURE, UNADULTERATED UNCOLORED ROYAL TEA

Is such as the crowned heads of Europe use. Imported direct. The first time the Royal Tea has ever been introduced in America. A revolution to American tea drinkers. Only Nature's Coloring is used in the Royal Tea. The fresh leaves are dried and prepared in such a way as to retain all their delicate aroma and flavor, together with strength and body. One trial of Royal Tea and you will forever do away with all impure, high colored and poisonous articles. SPECIAL OFFER! To introduce this Tea in America we will, for a limited time, (until October 15th,) send (sample box) one half-pound Royal Tea, prepaid, to any address on receipt of only 50 cents, one pound-box, prepaid, $1. 50 cents is cheap for sample box Royal Tea so you pay nothing for competing for one of the above prizes. In addition to the other prizes, we offer $500 more to be divided equally; ($5 each) to the first one hundred persons sending us the correct answer to the above question and sending $1 for one-pound sample Royal Tea. The money will be promptly sent to the successful ones. Send one dollar in P. O. order, postal note, or registered letter. Don't wait, but send your answer at once. Postage stamps taken. Full instructions to agents how to make $10 a day introducing the Royal Tea given with each sample box. Address MAYO & CO., 166 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE, August 25, 1884.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8⅞; Middling 10 9 16; Good Middling, 10 13-16: Middling fair, 11 1-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5⅝; White clarified, 6@—; Common 4@5¼.

MOLASSES, in hhls, ℔ gallon—Common, 11@13; fair, 18@25; choice, 40@—c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4@4¼ fair, 5¼@5⅝; choice, 5¾@5⅞.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4¼.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western. 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 9; prime, 11.

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory 9.

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice. $2.90@5.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4 60; Choice, 4.50; Family, 4 00.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 7¾

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 82½; Fine, $1,02½.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $1 65@1 85; sweet potatoes, ℔ bbl onions, ℔ bbl $—@1.75; apples, ℔ bbl. $2 75@$3.00; cabbages, $1.25@1.50 per crate; sour krout, $5.00@7 00 per barrel

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 62@63; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $19.00

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 12½; shoulders, 7½@8; sides, short rib, 11⅞@12; sides, long clear, 11⅞@11¾; hams, sugar-cured, 15c

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 8½; clear sides, 8½; shoulders, 7½@7¾.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.25@3.50; young $1.50@$2.00; ducks, $2.50@3.00; geese $4.00@; turkeys $9.00@12.00.

Western Eggs 15@18c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 18@20c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 50@75c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Western Poultry—Grown chickens $4.00@$4.50 ℔ dozen; young dn. $1.50@3.25; ducks $3.50@4.00—; geese $4.00@4.50; turkeys $12.00@15.00.

GRAIN AND FEED.

CORN, in sacks, ℔ bushel—Yellow, —; white, 75; mixed, —.

OATS, ℔ bushel—Western, 38

BRAN, ℔ 100 lbs—Choice, 72½

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts,

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. T. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, La.

sept 4

AGENTS wanted for the History of Christianity, by Abbott. A grand chance. A $4 book at the popular price of $1.75. Liberal terms. The religious papers mention it as one of the few great religious works of the world. Greater success never known by agents Terms free. STINSON & Co., Publishers, Portland, Maine.

Mar27-eom

"See What Cuticura Does for Me"

INFANTILE and Birth Humors, Milk Crust, Scalled Head, Eczemas, and every form of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous and Inherited Diseases of the Blood, Skin and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Absolutely pure and safe. Cuticura the great Skin Cure, 50 cts; Cuticura an soap exquisite Skin Beautifier and only Medicinal Baby Soap, 25 cts., and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, $1, are sold by druggists. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."

April-1y

"THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST."

SAW MILLS ENGINES THE BEST, Horse Powers.

(For all sawing and purposes.) Write for Free Pamphlets and Prices of The Ilsman & Taylor Co., Manfrd., Ohio. [ocd-1y

HEADQUARTERS

—FOR—

Sunday-school Supplies

Consisting of

GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.

Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.

Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a largest assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock

W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent

94..... Camp Street, ...94

25tf NEW ORLEANS.

AUTOMATIC

OR "NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.

BEST AND STRONGEST SEAMS. UNEQUALLED LIGHTNESS OF RUNNING. AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.

Full investigation afforded to all.

Wilcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N.Y.

nov15 1titeow

PATENTS

MUNN & CO., of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, for the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany, etc. Hand Book about Patents sent free. Thirty-seven years' experience. Patents obtained through MUNN & CO. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, the largest, best, and most widely circulated scientific paper. $3.20 a year. Weekly. Splendid engravings and interesting information. Specimen copy of the Scientific American sent free. Address MUNN & CO., SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN Office, 261 Broadway, New York.

dec6-tf

ASTHMA GERMAN ASTHMA CURE never fails to instantly relieve the most violent attack, and insure comfortable sleep. Used by inhalation, thus reaching the disease direct, relaxes the spasm, facilitates free expectoration and effects CURES where all other remedies fail. A trial will convince the most skeptical of its immediate, direct and never failing effect. Price: 50c. and $1.00. Trial package free. Of druggists or by mail for stamp. Cut this out. DR. E. SCHIFFMANN, St. Paul, Minn.

a g2-4 ow

WANTED A WOMAN

of sense, energy and respectability for our business in her locality, middle-aged preferred. Salary $35 to $50. References exchanged. GAY BROS., 14 Barclay St., N.Y.

aug28 3t

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19—NO 37. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, SEPTEMBER 11, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 776.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

22 Natchez Street New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	5 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Fight the good fight of not about faith.

The State Grand Lodge of United Brothers of Friendship meets this year in Maysville, Kentucky.

Nothing succeeds like success. We can have the good appointments if we retain their character for goodness.

We suppose that the United Brothers of Friendship will also undertake a sort of semi banking and insurance business.

Things look neat and prosperous in the office and pages of the Western. They have either cleaned the old or laid a very handsome new carpet on the office floor.

A man with his hands full of moral life must let go or he will not be able to lay hold of eternal life. He must use the one as a means to gain the other.

We had taken one glass of iced milk at pastor McDade's and were getting another when little Johnny, 4 years old said, "How doing to drink all the milk up and you?"

In what paper do you gain as much intelligence concerning our colored church work and the general affairs of the colored people as in the Southwestern.

To make a fair estimation of yourself draw a line midway between the praise of your friends and the blame of your foes. Hence the value of friends to admonish or enemies to warn us.

The New York Globe will fail, unless some religious paper interests Methodist Rois. The colored people [illegible] In his own [illegible] ought [illegible] looked at any [illegible] dress of [illegible] that his [illegible] will surely [illegible] warrant a [illegible] before the [illegible] Psalms 125: 6.

Frazier, one of the lady teachers will also retire. Mr. Gibson is the son of William H. Gibson, Sr., who was our first male teacher. The schools for colored children in Jeffersonville are a standing menace to the health and life of those who are compelled to use them or go without an education, and they are a disgrace to that otherwise liberal and thrifty little city.

The Negro race is increasing at a more rapid rate than any other class of Americans. They are destined to take an increasingly important part in the affairs of the country. Assimilation would not only prevent this but would prove the incapacity of the race in an unmixed state to secure the best results.

A living dog is better than a dead lion, but it is the part of wisdom to be sure that a case of merely temporarily suspended animation has not taken place before you handle the carcass of the lion with too much familiarity. He might not be dead, and his resuscitation possibly put you on the defensive.

Rev. T. M. Hubbard, writes from Cold Spring, N. J., that he returned to his field of labor from conference, greatly encouraged, and determined to do a better year's work for the Master. On a recent Sunday the trustees collection was $33 30, which was doing well for a stormy day. The Rev. G. M. Landih and C. H. Farret were with him. He congratulates the editor and promises a list of cash subscribers.

Rev. A. Booker after several weeks absence with Sister Booker has returned home in good health.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Home Missions in Terrebone.

Sister Charlotte Williams, (usually Mother Williams) having attended the last session of the Louisiana conference, was greatly aroused to the work of Home Missions, by the various lectures given upon the subject, and there joined. Upon her return home she at once put to work, though at first it appeared as the dropping of water upon the rock; yet, she continued to talk it in public and private and finally the object began to gain favor. Sister Louisiana Lang, her daughter, soon joined heart and hand in the work with her mother. They would work it up at home and then make their way to the adjoining plantation, often when their horses were not at their command they would walk to one or the other places miles away and spend a part of Sunday there and return to their duty at church in town the same day. The Lord has blessed their labors in that they have organized a Woman's Home Missionary Society in town and Sunday-school at Bayou Dularg, Barges and South Town with an average number of 118 scholars and Elias Richards, Adam Cain and George Norrells superintendents respectively. These schools are duly connected with our church and are doing well. They are now arranging to supply themselves with books. Mother Williams is one of these old Virginia and Maryland Methodists and knows just how to take hold. May God spare her to this part of his vineyard and when she is gone her place will not be easily filled.

A. N. JACKSON.

Houma, La., July 29th, 1884.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notes by the Way.

Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, is delightfully situated between lakes Monono and Mendota. These are beautiful sheets of water with shores generally low, though sometimes rising to considerable height, and abruptly, everywhere, however, covered with rich foliage of tree or grass. The city is on a ridge between the lakes, the splendid capitol building being situated on the most elevated part. The city is beautiful, and will long be remembered for its generous hospitality, and as the scene of the largest gathering of teachers ever held. From the 9th to the 18th of July it is estimated that six thousand teachers were present at the session of the National Teachers Association. There were representatives from all the States and Territories. The striking feature of the meeting was the deep interest manifest in the moral and religious training of the children and youth of the country. This was manifest in the speeches and in the recognizing of the divine presence by prayer and song. We can leave the education of the future citizens of this Republic in the hands of such teachers and feel that the moral education of the children will not be at variance with the precepts of the Bible, as far as these teachers may be able to teach them in the public schools.

A few hours ride and we are west of the Mississippi river. Iowa has a prohibitory law. We glide for hours along the rail, frequently stopping at flourishing villages, and are rejoiced at every stop as we looked in vain for the two most prominent features of most railroad stations, saloons and their results, loafers. Jubilate Deo comes bubbling up as we realize that in this practical way prohibition does prohibit. All hail to this deliverer from the thralldom of intoxicating drink! Hail to the Pittsburg convention, and to the thousands who, breaking away from the slavery to mere party organizations, stand as the skirmishers in the battle which in a few years will be won by prohibitionists throughout the land. At Clear Lake a temperance camp meeting is going on under the auspicies of the W. C. T. U., and the power of the temperance cause is seen as the president presents her report of the work already done, the opposition of the liquor interests, the indifference of professed friends of temperance, and the ease with which some judges and juries can find excuses for letting violators of law escape. The report represented the law prohibiting the sale of liquors as effective in most of the State. In some of the larger cities where the saloonists are strong, and the executors of the law feeble, the traffic of death still goes on. Politicians are afraid of the voters. In Republican Iowa as in Democratic(?) Lonisiana the politician often sells out all principle simply to hold on a little longer to his tenure of office. The temperance folks in Iowa are bound to win. They have tasted the good effects of prohibition; and are bound to press the temperance issue on this line to a final and complete victory. My heart said amen as I gazed on the rolling prairie, covered with waving harvests, beautiful homes scattered over these broad acres, with the groves of forest trees, in their dark green dress, contrasting so finely with the lighter shades of the ripening harvests. Iowa without the saloon will be as near an earthly paradise as an agricultural people can desire.

J. BRADEN.

August 29, 1884.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Irrepressible.

EDITOR SOUTHWESTERN: Dear Sir—Allow me to speak, through the columns of your valuable paper, upon a subject of some importance to the Methodist cause.

There is a disposition on the part of many ministers in charge of churches—at least it is true of those in this city—to carelessly resign, and seemingly regardless of the consequences, the very important duty of instructing the people of their congregation, by inviting every pretended preacher, such as are now swarming around the country, to preach from their pulpits. I have actually heard people in the congregation, upon seeing one of this class of men ascend the pulpit, exclaim: "Why is that man allowed to preach here; his coudnot as a preacher is disreputable." But you ask is the assertion true? It is true. Ministers may plead ignorance, with respect to the character or reputation sustained by these persons. Can they with propriety intrust this work, so very important in its nature, to men whose general standing in the community they are unacquainted with; a work for the faithful performance of which they are held personally responsible by Almighty God and the Methodist Church? But this is not the only bad feature arising from the practice of this carless habit on the part of ministers. Men whose knowledge of the Bible is so imperfect as to render them entirely incompetent to preach, are allowed to occupy the pulpit.

That many among our people are illiterate is no reason why they should thus be imposed upon. The Methodist pulpit is sacred. It is thence that people are to be taught those truths so important to every soul, viz.: The doctrines of the Christian religion, as understood by our Church. I have been actuated to write this article from a circumstance which occurred in my presence, in one of our churches in this city. In justice to the pastor of this church, I would state he was absent from the city when this occurrence took place; I have no intention, however that this should be an excuse for him. A few Sunday nights ago a preacher rose before a congregation of 300 souls, hardness. He stated his text as follows: "There is no difference." Now, this is the latter clause in the 22nd verse of the 3rd Chapter of Romans. It is Scripture, true enough, but does it constitute a text? We expect to hear a preacher tell us something that will tend to our spiritual welfare, and not to hear the minister mourn as the heathens do at the death of a relative. This is not preaching. But this is not the worst. The preacher told us that his religion was not a Bible religion, but a religion of the heart. Why? Our only means of religious knowledge is God's revealed word, found in the Bible. But it may be said he meant something else, and not what it would seem to mean. Preachers should say just what they do mean.

To tell you all that we could say, propounded by this person, would lay us open to charges of personality; such, however, is not our intention, I assure you. It is the principle we condemn, and not this case only.

We do not question these people's call to the ministry, nor do we pretend to make ourselves judges of their religious qualifications, but we certainly doubt their ability to preach.

I have no desire to speak ill of any one's qualifications, for I know not but what they may have a reasonable excuse for not having a better knowledge of the Scriptures.

But, until a man has some understanding of the Bible, in order that he may not run into such ridiculous blunders, why the Methodist pulpit is no place for them, and to those in whose care the pulpit is intrusted, the blame is chargeable! Why not let the local preachers of your churches who are known to you, and who, as a general thing, attend Sunday-school, and have some understanding of the Bible, and also of Methodism, preach if no one else can be had.

ANATOLE PANALLE.

New Orleans, August 30, 1884

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

New Orleans District.

The Church of this day needs thorough going men as much as ever—men whose trust is in the Lord, and can work with energy and full hearted zeal. It is no serious matter if a good worker is wrongfully sent for a season to the lowest room, the Master has his eye upon him, and he cannot be kept in a corner; but if a man does not work, the poorest corner is too good for him. No matter if he enters the army of the Lord as a private, if he does good work, promotion will come. So, if he enters as a captain, colonel or general, and does no work or bad work, he must retire. Now and then it happens that ecclesiastical positions are unworthily obtained by outward help, but all advancement that is not obtained in harmony with the commission of the King of kings is short lived. The only way to go up and stay up is to do good work.

At Algiers and Asbury Bro. Barrow is doing a good work. The flood has been a great drawback, still the work of the Lord has been attended to. Saint Mathew's church at Algiers has been nicely ceiled overhead and all paid for, and the brethren expect soon to have the church completely finished. At the quarterly conference everything indicated a marked degree of prosperity. The reports were all in order; those of the classes were as follows: No. 1, $11.25; No. 2, $7.35; No. 3, $4.65; No. 4, $3.75; No. 5, $2; two of these classes have been formed during the quarter. A good religious interest prevails among the people; 19 have been received into the Church since conference. Few men are more deservedly popular among their people than Bro. Barrow. The Methodist Episcopal Church at Kenner shows itself aggressive as well as progressive. It is evidently there to stay. The last Sabbath in August, the laying of the corner-stone of the Methodist church, brought a larger crowd of people together than Kenner seldom witnesses. Over 300 went up on the Queen City from New Orleans to attend the services. Addresses were delivered by the following brethren: S. Priestly, T. P. Jackson, A. J. Ford, J. Brown, M. C. B. Mason, M. J. Dyer and the writer. The collections for the day were nearly $40. Seldom have we seen a more orderly or happy company. The corner-stone was put in its place by the presiding elder, assisted by S. Priestly and J. Brown. The doxology was sung and the benediction prononnced by T. J. Johnson, and the brethren returned to the city in season to attend their evening services.

Rev. Alexander Conerly, received into the Methodist Episcopal Church, and stationed at Franklinton circuit, Washington parish, is having just what we expected—opposition and success. He has already received 16 on probation, and more are to follow. Opposition sometimes tells hard on the Christian minister, but in the end not half so hard as on him who is the cause of it. We have no fear for the Methodist preacher who preaches Christ, and lives as he preaches. The greater the opposition, the more certain and glorious will be his triumph. Hold fast, my brother, whereunto you have attained, and see that no man takes your crown.

L. P. CUSHMAN.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

To the Preachers and Members of the Tennessee Conference.

The bishops have arranged the meeting of the conference more than a month earlier than usual. This will give less time to make collections, to visit the people, to hold protracted meetings, to preach the Gospel, to win men to Christ, but do not let it prevent any preacher from doing his best. The people expect the preachers to do their duty, present the different benevolent causes just as if you expected the people to give, liberally and cheerfully. Seek out the more able in the church, and ask them for enlarged gifts. That brother who has been giving his five or ten cents, to the missionary, Freedman and Church Extension causes should be urged to increase his contribution a hundred fold, he is able. Do not be more anxious about your own salary than you are to fill the Lord's treasury. I once heard of a brother who had a church debt to pay and a judgement had been given against the trustees, by the court. The preacher had suppers and festivals and made some money, the church members thought to pay the debt, but the preacher paid himself. He was over anxious for his salary. This shortening of the conference will give the members less time to get the money or pay the preachers, but a little more effort on the part of the members, and a little more self denial, and there need be no falling off in the collections or salaries of the preachers. The stewards should make this matter known to the church and urge the people to meet their obligations fully. If preachers, stewards and other officers and members of the church will do their duty, there will not be failure. God will bless those who work for His glory. The usual arrangements will be made for excursion rates over the railroads to Memphis, which will be announced in this ADVOCATE. Do not forget the Centennial collections, and the endowment fund of the Central Tennessee College.

J. BRADEN, Sec.

Aug. 30th, 1884.

Bishop Brondel, of Montana, has excommunicated John Magensie, a theatrical manager, from the Roman Catholic Church for the sin of bringing Robert G. Ingersoll into Montana to lecture.

OUR SOUTHERN WORK.

LOUISIANA.

Philip Johnson, Natchitoches: "I met an old man in the road without a shirt on, and who said he had had nothing to eat for two days. I assisted him as well as I could. I wish our young men would stop drinking and gaming and give some of the old people better care."

W. H. Hardy, Pearl River: "This quarter we baptized 1 convert, received 3 members, and bought a bell which is up and ringing. The Lord is smiling on this circuit."

Henry Richardson, Trinity: "I opened a missionary society, and Bro. Green Jones and I had a good time. Six were added to the church; 14 to the mission school."

Elijah Clark, Shady Grove: "Children's Day was a grand occasion. Young people decorated the church. The pine woods resounded with vocal music. Mount Convenient Sabbath-school marched three miles to the church singing; Jones Creek school three and a half miles; Live Oak school received the two others. There were readings and speeches. Collection $12.00; for medal $1."

Geo. W. Wells, Rosedale: "Our work is moving along calmly. We are putting in solid work. We have been down with chills and fever some time. We are out. I have news from home that is delighting. A fine daughter July 18. I am added to the list of happy fathers. I am doing all I can for the SOUTHWESTERN."

TENNESSEE.

A. E. Randall, Britt's Landing: "Children's day was observed, and we had a very good congregation. The circuit is thinly settled. Lectures were given by A. F. Lane, pastor, Bro. Tap Craig and the writer. Collected for Church Extension $1.05; Freedmen's Aid 75 cents; pastor, $1.55. Church is improving."

G. A. Sanford, Dover: "Elder Pickett held our quarterly conference and addressed the Sunday-school. He preached to a large congregation at day and night services. Collection: elder $12.50; pastor $16.75."

A. Swift, Yorkville: "My work is in a good and growing condition. I have not missed an appointment and membership is increasing. We are trying to build a new church at Coal Springs. Have added 12 members since conference, paid elder $13.20, pastor $34.40. Sunday-schools are improving. The one at Coal Springs has 42 scholars, the one at Sharon 64. We are collecting for all causes. The elder has just passed quarterly conference. Rev. J. L. Massey preached for us, and at night we had a fine time. Church collection $2. I have been preaching point, between Eaton river, Eaton Grove."

Thos. Sam Patton, Chattanooga: "Our fourth conference was held at Pleasant Grove by Elder Patrick. We paid him our assessment, $60. He preached with spiritual sermons. There were 4 conversions. Collection $12.35. The Lord manifested His spirit in our midst. We have had a time trying to build our new church. We have no organization, and with a little assistance, will get it up."

A. Spain: "The people have injured much cotton raising by reason of drought, and are very poor. I have visited Bro. M. F. Berry in a mountainous country. The people all love him, and are very religious. Bro. Lane and wife are doing good work. May God bless them."

C. T. Berry, Kingston: "Notwithstanding the fact that our charge in this charge have labored under severe difficulties and trials for the last 16 or 18 months, we have many things to be glad and thankful for. About March 1st the meeting began at Rockwood, and continued five weeks. This school was of great benefit to the church in every way. It took an active part in the Sabbath-school, and rendered valuable service on Children's Day. Near the close of the school, the church and school united in giving an entertainment for the benefit of the church, the proceeds of which were $43.75. This enabled us to pay Rev. G. W. Cowan a debt of $25, which has been on the church for some time. Though our way has seemed a little gloomy, still we have raised on this charge since last conference $60 or $70 on old indebtedness and toward improving our church buildings. We have also done something for each of our benevolent causes. Our people here are preparing and looking forward with much interest to the convening of the Annual Conference, October 23d. Before closing, I wish to express my sincere thanks to Bishop Bowman for a present of three valuable books belonging to my present studies, and also to our presiding elder, Rev. E. Provine, for care taken in conveying them to me. We are now at work in them with enthused interest."

MISSISSIPPI.

J. W. Davis, Trenton: "Elder Shumpert held our second quarter. Collection $12.10; paid elder $7. The elder preached a soul-searching sermon, and the brethren were greatly encouraged."

J. J. Garrett, Forest. "Elder Shumpert held quarterly conference. During the past quarter 22 members were received, 5 backsliders reclaimed, two converts. Churches, with 230 members, are in fair condition. Stewards paid pastor $79.95; elder $8. Visited Silvertown with the Elder, who preached, and 2 converts were received."

A. J. Cooper, Holly Springs: "The circuit is progressing finely. Bro. N. H. Williams is getting it in order. There are three points, and good Sunday-schools at each. When Bro. Williams enters the pulpit he leaves self behind, and his labors are appreciated."

TEXAS.

W. H. Jackson, Brenham: "On the evening of July 26th, while I was 12 miles from town conducting a protracted meeting, a thief entered the parsonage, secured $15 of educational funds, a silver watch valued at $16, belonging to Bro. Noah Williams, some jewelry and under-clothing, broke a fine trunk to pieces, and ruined other household furniture. During the present times the loss is very severe."

W. Duncan, Liberty Circuit: "Very little has been done this year. We are in a mountainous plain, where there are few people, and all in need of instruction. I found no Sunday-schools and no books, but it is a little better now. To lead this people a pastor must be intelligent, piety must be the first qualification, and aptitude to teach the next. A man must be learned before he can be fit to teach."

J. R. Carnes, Waco: "Our third quarterly conference was held July 26th, Rev. S. Gates, P. E., in the chair. All the brethren but two or three were present. Class leaders reports showed an increase in the number who observe the rule on temperance as found in the Discipline. On Sunday, at 3 p. m., we had preaching, by Rev. A. Brack. We had a good time. At 8 p. m. Rev. S. Gates preached a very interesting sermon. The Holy Ghost prevailed. After the sermon the sacrament was administered to 115 souls. Our love feast was well attended. Many testified that the Lord had been and was then with them. The writer has never witnessed such a time since his appointment to the work. Our Sunday-school here is not doing as well as it ought to, owing to the need of books, which we are now purchasing. We have a Sunday-school outside of the corporation of the city, composed of 66 scholars, which we have named the St. James Mission Sunday-school. They are well fitted out with books, etc. We have commenced our protracted meeting and present indications speak well for success. Pray for us."

James Morton, Gibeon: "Lamar county is wide awake. We have a good day school, and our children are learning rapidly under D. B. Wilson, of Marshall, their teacher."

Mrs. Isabella Howells, Brenham circuit: "Your readers I doubt not will rejoice with us when they know how the Lord is working in our midst. Our preacher, Rev. W. H. Jackson, who is an energetic young man and believes in getting sinners brought out of nature's darkness into God's marvelous light, carried on a protracted meeting at Big Springs, a comparatively new point on the circuit, and a fine field for labor, there are quite a number of nice young people who were very earnest in serving Satan, but now thank God some of them have changed masters and we trust will serve God with more zeal and vigor than ever they could display in serving the devil. If they read the Bible prayerfully, we believe they will become pillars in the house of the Lord to go out no more forever. The interest was kept up to the last, and the second Sabbath was better than the first. Elder Neely was with us both Sabbaths and baptised three adults and three children. Brethren and sisters from other points visited and helped as best they could, we pray God's blessing to rest on all the workers and ask your readers to pray for our converts that they may be the means of leading others to Christ their Savior and God."

ALABAMA.

G. Winn, Mobile: "I wish to inform the Church at large of the condition of the work here. In Dec., 1883, I found 50 names on the church record, but could only meet 20. The church was in debt to the Church Extension Society $500, and the building was very uncomfortable for either winter or summer. It should be completed before we can expect to increase the membership, but our few members are so poor they are unable to give me a support. Family and I work for our support and for the church. The members are willing and do all they can. I hope the Church Extension Board will give them a living chance. If there are any whose hearts are moved towards us we shall be grateful for their contributions."

Letter From Rev. Dr. Blyden.

I left Monrovia on the 25th of January for recreation and rest. On the way up the steamer stopped at Mannah, the northwest boundary of the Republic as fixed by the British Government. An English trading company has been recently formed called "The Sulymah Trading Company." They have established themselves at Mannah, Sulymah, and a new station called Lavannah. We stopped at Sulymah and Lavannah in search of a cargo. The captain of the steamer gave me these distances: Mannah is fourteen miles northwest from Cape Mount; Sulyman is eight miles from Mannah; Lavannah is eighteen miles from Sulymah; Shebar is fifty-two miles from Lavannah; Freetown is one hundred and thirty miles from Shebar. If Liberia claimed to Shebar then we have lost seventy-eight miles of territory. If we claimed to Gallinas we have lost only twelve miles. The opportunities at Sierra Leone for hearing from the interior are far greater than in Liberia. Since I have been here I have had opportunity of conversing with natives, not only from Timbuotoo, Sego, etc., but from Musardu and Medina, large Mandingo cities in the rear of Liberia, from which the trade should flow into Monrovia and Bassa and Cape Palmas. The Mohammedans of the interior of Liberia are much respected here for their intelligence, learning and military powers. A Musardu leader in command of some fifty thousand soldiers and three thousand horsemen is now about three hunded miles east of Sierra Leone, compelling the Pagans to keep the roads open for trade and bringing them over to Mohammedanism. Before his military energy the most powerful pagan States seem to be helpless. Liberia's day must come. She has the possibilities even more than Sierra Leone, which is controlled by men at a distance, for absorbing the interior tribes into one large Negro nationality.

Sierra Leone, March 13, 1884.

—African Repository.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

A New Haven Letter.

Seventeen months without a church home or pastoral supervision, the Sperry Street Bethel Church experienced difficulties which attracted much attention in New Haven and elsewhere. This congregation for over six years was unjustly treated by the preachers and Bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal denominations, of which they were claimed as members, with grievances too numerous to mention. Hence, a growing dissatisfaction prevailed from the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Gooseley, until they finally withdrew from the denomination, in 1883. After their trouble with Mr. Gooseley ended, the Rev. A. J. Chambers took charge, and his administration was so injudicious and unsound, that Bishop Brown was compelled to remove him in August 1882, leaving the congregation without a pastoral supervision, or a place to worship in. The Bishop was acquainted with these facts, which he refused or neglected. However, the members waited patiently a reasonable time. The trustees and the society called a meeting, in which a plan was devised to complete the basement, which was done. After this was accomplished the society called another meeting, and the trustees were authorized to engage a minister. It was also decided to withdraw from the African Methodist Episcopal denomination, and organize an independent church. Under this idea, Rev. Thomas H. Johnson, a member of the Newark Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was called. Finally he resigned the pastoral charge of St. John M. E. Church in Orange, N. J., and accepted the call of this independent society, much to the regret of his presiding elder, Dr. Knowles, and the community generally. The work in Orange, N. J., under his supervision was in a thrifty and healthy condition, having just dedicated the new church at this place. However, he took charge of that independent church, and on the 26th of December, 1883, Rev. Mr. Stansbury appeared in the city, stating that he had been sent by Bishop Brown to take charge. A meeting was at once held, and Mr. Stansbury was informed that the church had a minister already, consequently his services were not needed.

The trustees consulted Judge Sheldon, and he informed them that they could exclude Mr. Stansbury from the pulpit, and that gentleman was informed that he would not be allowed to preach in the church, or to enter it for that purpose.

Then began what was known as the Bethel Church war, which attracted the attention of the whole community of New Haven. Rev. Mr. Stansbury brought six law suits, in which the independent organization was sustained as against the Rev. gentleman.

Ex-Judge Sheldon and C. S. Hamilton were the counsel for the seven trustees. In their reply to the mandamus they asserted that the Bethel church property was never conveyed to the African Methodist Episcopal denomination, making a distinction between church and denomination. In other words they said that the Bethel church was not under the control or government of the conference organization formed from the single African Methodist churches. The trustees "waited more than a reasonable time" for the bishop to fill the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of the Rev. Mr. Chambers, and when the bishop neglected to act they tried the Rev. Thomas H. Johnson. He was now acting, and they were responsible for the payment of his salary. Furthermore and finally, even if the Bethel church did belong to the African Methodist Episcopal denomination as claimed, the only penalty for violation of the rules was a dismissal from the body. This dismissal or severance from the main body the trustees had brought about by their independent action in hiring a pastor themselves, and were not liable for any appointments or contracts made by the bishop.

Following the reading of the papers, the hearing was proceeded with before Judge Stoddard. Complainant applied to Judge Stoddard for a writ of mandamus, compelling the refractory trustees of Bethel church to permit the appointed but rejected minister to preach there thereafter. His Honor denied the application. The reasons assigned were that Mr. Stansbury's title was not clear, and it was of no public importance which of the two ministers, the one appointed by the bishop, or the one selected by the people, should preside.

Judge Park said, in his charge to the jury, that Rev. Mr. Stansbury was the lawful pastor of the church, and should have been recognized as such by the trustees. Still, the trustees were the legal custodians of the church property, and therefore had a right to control it. Mr. Stansbury should have been admitted to the pulpit. If he obtained admission by false pretences or against the will of the trustees, the latter were justified in ejecting him, provided they did not use unnecessary force in the operation. At 4 o'clock the jury reported a continued disagreement, and were discharged. They stood 11 to 1 for acquittal.

This cloud of trouble overspread the Sperry Street church from December 26, 1883, until June 1, 1884, when they joined the M. E. Church denomination, under the Rev. Dr. Marshall Taylor, Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN ADVOCATE, keeping up, however, this independent organization all the time. A meeting was held May 12th, when it was decided to join the Methodist Episcopal denomination, the people acting entirely of their own accord. They having experienced that to continue the independent was unwise, they were united in their desire to enter the Methodist denomination. The church has now entered upon a prosperous career.

According to a careful estimate, there are over 3,500 colored people in New Haven. There are six distinct church organizations seeking to save this rapidly increasing population, viz.: The Colored A. M. E. Zion, the A. M. U. P. Church, the Baptist, the Congregational, the Colored Presbyterian and the Methodist Episcopal. The total membership of these six denominations is about 656. The seating capacity in their united places of worship is 2,115 not sufficient to accomodate them. These people are at our very door. Ought we not to assist them? Can we withhold that Gospel which has done so much for us? Emigration from the South is constantly augmenting their members. The necessity of caring for their moral and spiritual welfare must be apparent to all. In an important sense, the future of our republican institutions is to be largely determined by the colored race, now numbering over ten millions. Each community like our own has its share of responsibility. If we are blinded by prejudice, or live indifferent to the needs of the ignorant and weak, we must bear our share of consequences, which will certainly come in the future. An enlightened patriotism, to say nothing of the higher considerations of eternity, will prompt us to offer the helping hand. Impressed with our responsibility, can we be indifferent to this imperative demand. The desire of so many colored people of New Haven to have a Methodist Episcopal Church is well known. They urge their preference on conscientious and reasonable grounds. They desire to enjoy the benefits of a well trained and pure colored ministry; of a supervision such as the Methodist Episcopal Church affords; of a Christian literature for the home and Sunday-school, such as that Church can furnish. That desire, expressed by the most intelligent and reliable of the colored people, is a call of God. The pastors and presiding elders of New Haven district, moved by a true Christian spirit, have urged the Methodist Episcopal Church to enter this field. Last April Bishop Hurst appointed Rev. Thomas H. Johnson, the present pastor. Encouraged by a sentiment so widely prevalent, it is now proposed to aid the colored people in paying indebtedness, which is $2,500, and in building a suitable church edifice, which is partly completed. The property will be held by a Board of Trustees, elected by the congregation exclusively for religious purposes. The church will be subject to quarterly supervision by the presiding elder, and the pastor will be a member of the New York East Conference. We ask for a favorable consideration. Rev. Mr. T. H. Johnson is a man of practical common sense. "Hope and keep busy" is his motto. He preached to a large congregation of white and colored people August 24th, at 2 p. m., in the M. E. Church, Collinsville, Conn., to the entire satisfaction of all present, taking for his text the well-known words of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians, "Abound ye in the works of the Lord." He said:

"It is, above all things, essential that the Christian should be firm in his conviction of doctrinal faith. There are those who say that the preaching of to day is not what it was forty or fifty years ago. They assure you that the limits of doctrinal belief are being changed. A greater misstatement could not be uttered. This is not a time of theological ferment. There has never been within the history of the Church a period when the preaching of the Gospel was more truly evangelical. Our method of formulating the Gospel may have undergone some modifications, but the preaching has not undergone change in any other respect.

"The Christian should be a devout believer. He should believe in Christ's redemption of souls, in regeneration, in justification, in sanctification. The Christian should be uniform in the current of his religious and spiritual affection. It should be ever full and abounding. There should be an even flow. The Christian should be consistent in his outward behavior. The world of unconverted and unbelieving is looking at him, is keenly scrutinizing his habits and conduct with a view to discovering whether there be any truth in the claim, that there is a supernatural element in Christian experience. By our behavior will the world be led to judge of the truth or error of that claim, and therefore we must be consistent in our actions, so that we may convince them that it is so. Let them come to believe that it is true that the Gospel of Jesus Christ does and will do for man that which it is impossible for him to do for himself. The men who are thus consistent and full of the spirit are the men who do in emergencies. Their faith is founded upon a rock. Neither the wind nor the water can shake it.

"This is the age of unresting activity. Indolence in these feverish times, is detested as a vice. And yet I urge upon you a reasonable moderation. But abound you always in the work of the Lord. This applies to the commonest pursuits of life. They thus receive a lustre from the motives that ennoble them. This work, in which St. Paul besought the Corinthians to abound, consists in promoting the interests of Christ's Church on earth. How few are doing so. They can be almost counted in every community. I appeal to Christians everywhere to forget their selfish interests, and to turn their attention to the work of the Lord. What we need most is a Divine quickening of our spiritual impulses and sympathies. In the law of the Church we are taught that it is not sufficient to do good only when we feel like so doing. On the contrary, it must be done gladly and sympathetically, with a whole heart, not half-heartedly. We must bring our hearts into closer contact with Christ. We need a more vivid conception of the world's spiritual needs. We must feel and appreciate the wicked condition of the world, and not merely realize it as a fact. Each one should feel as though the salvation of the world rests upon his shoulders."

He has shown himself to be a thoughtful Biblical scholar; he is drawing around him many friends white and colored. Just the man to extend our work in the East

"In all the troubles of the First African Methodist Episcopal Bethel Church of New Haven, it never has been claimed or charged to my knowledge, that the conduct of Rev. Thos Johnson was other wise than what was becoming in a modest, faithful Christian minister. He was solicted by the unnani mous voice of the Board of Trustees, approved by the very nearly unanimous voice of the members of the church, to enter into a contract to supply their pulpit for three months; this he did faithfully and well, and amid all the lawsuits and contention which after his engagement, arose between Mr Stansbury and the Board of Trustees, Mr. Johnson has been in no respects a party; he has kept on preaching and working, and when the term of his engagement was finished he was urged to continue as pastor of the society, and this he has done to the entire acceptance of the Board of Trustees and those who shared their views and feelings. The attacks made by Mr. Stansbury resulted in numerous lawsuits in all of which Mr. Stansbury failed and the trustees have been sustained as against him.

The church, I am told voluntarily sought to become members of the Methonist Episcopal Conference, The members certainly have seemed to be worthy Christian members of the church. They have never appeared as plaintiffs in any one of the six cases in which they have been involved; they now need some help and Mr. Johnson, I believe, has the confidence and moral support of the Methodist ministers (white) in this city, and any statements he may make will, I think be worthy of the entire confidence of any one who may be called upon to act in the matters he may present. JOSEPH STEELDEN.

Counsel for the trustees of the (late) First African Methodist Episcopal Bethel Church, of New Haven.

New Haven, July 22d, 1824.

African Caste.

BY REV. ALEXANDER CRUMMELL, D. D., WASHINGTON, D. C.

In a private letter to the editor, from which we are permitted to quote, the following matter of general importance finds its way for the first time to our patrons, we believe. With reference to treatment of the natives by Liberian Africans the Doctor says:

MR. EDITOR—I have just been shown an editorial article, in your issue of 31st July, which contains a reference to myself, and I must express my surprise that you should carelessly make such a misleading and unjust statement concerning me. You are pleased to say: "This (caste feeling) has also been the great hindrance to prosperity in the Republic of Liberia. In the latter century these factions were represented from a political standpoint by the Rev. H. J. Ray and J. L. Payne, who were competitors for the Presidency about 1868. At one time it is said that Drs. Blyden and Crummell held very stringent, almost fanatical theories on the colored question." Now, so far as I am concerned, this is all fiction. 1. I lived in the Republic of Liberia very nigh 20 years. During this period I never joined a political party; I never took part in a political canvass. I rarely voted; I never, even once, attended a political meeting; I never held a political office, albeit solicited again and again to take high positions in the government. I left Liberia in 1853, and [illegible] certain class, not [illegible] attempt for the [illegible] pt no wise [illegible] hatred in [illegible] native man, [illegible] contemned, [illegible] contemptuous names, well known in America, applied to him. One or two facts among a multitude will illustrate this ignoble feeling. The Hon. Mr. Leys, at that time American Minister, invited a Sierra Leone merchant (a wealthy and educated native) on a visit to Monrovia to dine with him. Mr. Leys told me a few days after of the indignation expressed, in "society," at his receiving a native as a gentleman and having him dine with him. Against this feeling, whether wisely or unwisely, I set myself with all the energy of my soul. I joined in with any and every man I could find to batter it down, and to-day I believe it is a dead thing. The contemptible blood-proud and purse-proud upstarts who then used to sneer at a native as a "nigger" are all dead and gone. It was a fierce fight, and suffering was the penalty. But I say, again, that I am proud of the fanaticism! The people of Liberia now have all a right mind, and you can see the results of this effort.

1. The Hon. J. H. Smythe, Liberian Minister, now in Washington, tells me that the full incorporation of the native into the citizenship of Liberia is to day the leading policy of both the people and the Legislature of Liberia. The Hon. H. W. Johnson, the present President of Liberia, a man of both learning and ability, has set this as a main principle and policy of his administration. I trust he will have the noble rashness to persevere in this policy.

2. Minister Smythe tells me that there is a likelihood of a former pupil of my own, the Rev. Mr. Letor, (a native man and as wise and learned as any man in Liberia,) soon entering the Legislature.

3. Already native kings and headmen sit and advise with the Legislature. I believe that I myself was the first man to vindicate this right for the native man. I send you a copy of the oration delivered in Monrovia, where I suggested this policy.

4. Not only are native schools established by the government, but Liberia College stands with wide open doors for any native youth prepared to enter it. Such a thing, when I went to Liberia, would have been derided.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 8, 1884.

THE OTHER SIDE.

By Rev. Franklin Miller, Finchville, Kentucky,

MR. EDITOR—Noticing in your notes on the question of "Caste in Africa," that Dr. Crummell is reported to have held very "stringent and almost fanatical ideas on the subject." Does the Doctor deny this? (Yes—ED.) If so, I would ask him:

1. Which of the two factions did he support in Liberia about 1868?

2. Did he vote at either of the elections, Roy vs Payne being the nominees?

We would also ask him:

3. If he remembers his remarks to the Rev. Thomas H. Amos, in his (Crummell's) study, as follows; "This is a Black man's Republic, and should be governed by Black men."

Mr. Editor, you shall hear from me soon, and more particularly if necessary. Dr. Crummell ought to deny explicitly or state his position. (The burden of proof is with the affirmative—ED.) Not simply state, as he does, what he did not do. The question at issue is that he lent his aid and influence, in conjunction with Blyden, Roy, Erskins and others to elect a ticket of the pure Negro blood so that foreigners "might see and know of the existence of one Black Republic, and not a Black Republic governed by mixed Negroes." (As in Hayti—ED.) Mr. Editor, these are substantially the words used by Dr. Crummell.

From the Corporal.

From the Marine Barracks, Pensacola, Florida, Corporal Ben. Barger writes of the benefits of Brown's Iron Bitters in that malarious region. He says: "I have used several bottles and must say I am greatly benefited by using it. Several of my comrades use Brown's Iron Bitters and you may rest assured it is the greatest thing on earth." This kind of testimony comes from all quarters concerning Brown's Bitters—the best tonic.

New Orleans University.—A. F. Hoyt, President.

The following is a synopsis of the normal scientific course of two years, showing the number of recitation hours weekly for each study:

NORMAL SCIENTIFIC COURSE—SUB-JUNIOR YEAR.

First Term—Arithmetic, 4 hours; Wentworth's Algebra, 4 hours; Barnes' U. S. History, 5 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Second Term—Arithmetic, 4 hours; Algebra, 4 hours; Human Physiology, 5 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour; Practice Teaching, 1 hour,

Third Term—Practice Teaching, 1 hour; Algebra, 4 hours; Bookkeeping, 3 hours; Physical Geography, 2 hours, Botany, 5 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

JUNIOR YEAR.

First Term—Wentworth's Algebra, 3 hours; Hill's Geometry, 4 hours; English History, 2 hours; Pedagogics, 3 hours; Pope's Catechism of Theology, 1 hour; English Composition, 1 hour, Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Second Term—Hill's Geometry, 4 hours; Civil Government, 2 hours; Geology, 4 hours; Zoology, 3 hours; Pope's Catechism of Theology, 1 hour; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Third Term—Astronomy 4 hours; Pedagogics, 3 hours; Practice Teaching, 4 hours; Pope's Catechism of Theology, 1 hour; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

The following is a synopsis of the Normal Language Course of four years, showing the number of recitation hours weekly for each study:

NORMAL LANGUAGE COURSE—SUB-JUNIOR YEAR.

The same as sub junior year of Normal Scientific Course.

JUNIOR YEAR.

The same as junior year of Normal Scientific Course.

SUB SENIOR YEAR.

First Term—Latin Grammar with Letlow's Lessons, 4 hours, or German, 3 hours; English Literature, 3 hours; Chemistry, 4 hours; Ancient History, 2 hours; Practice Teaching, 3 hours.

Second Term—Latin Grammar with Letlow's Lessons, 4 hours; or German, 3 hours; Constitutional History of England, 4 hours; Wentworth's Algebra, 3 hours; Physics, 4 hours; Practice Teaching, 1 hour.

Third Term—Latin Grammar with Letlow's Lessons, 4 hours, or German, 2 hours; Algebra, 2 hours; Wentworth's Geometry, 4 hours; Physics, 3 hours; Practice Teaching, 1 hour.

SENIOR YEAR.

First Term—Goodwin's Greek Grammar with White's Lessons, 4 hours; or French, 3 hours; Wentworth's Trigonometry, 4 hours; Biology, 3 hours; Constitutional History of U. S., 3 hours; Practice Teaching, 1 hour.

Second Term—Greek, 4 hours; or French, 3 hours; Evidences of Christianity, 4 hours; Studies in American Literature, 3 hours; Payne's Educational Theories, 4 hours.

Third Term—Greek, 3 hours; or French, 2 hours; Political Economy, 4 hours, Payne's Educational Theories, 3 hours; Practice Teaching, 1 hour.

To enter upon either of the above courses a student must be at least 16 years old, present written testimonials of good moral character, and pass a satisfactory examination in the following studies: Arithmetic, through the decimal system; General Descriptive Geography, English Grammar, Reading and Writing, with special attention given to Spelling. To those completing either course the corresponding diploma will be given. Students who have already gone over a part of the studies will be allowed credit for what they have done, and will not be asked to go over the ground again.

Womans' work will loom up at the World's Fair next winter. Everything that a woman's nimble fingers can make will be made in the best possible way and exhibited. Drawing, pictorial painting, sculpture, carving, needlework, plain and ornamental, and every article of use or beauty found in our homes, plain or luxurious, and possible for the hand of woman to create, will be reprodnced in hundreds of beautiful or convenient forms. Southern ladies have been industrious workers in this enterprise and they mean to see how grand they can make it.

The British Company of Revisers of the Old Testament have finished their work, and prepared a preface thereto. Four editions will be published, as was done with the New Testament, and printing and binding so many volumes will delay publication probably until February next. The American Company will present the emendations which they suggested, but which were not adopted in Great Britain, in an appendix.

The president of the Transvaal republic has paid a visit to the seminary of the Berlin Mission, during his stay in Germany. He was full of praise of the work of the Berlin missionaries in South Africa, and delivered a warm speech to students. Great things have been accomplished in that benighted country during fifty years. The Gospel is preached at 172 places, 45 native preachers assist the white pastors, 3,000 children are in the schools of the mission, and the adult members contribute yearly over $12,000 to the work of the mission synod.

The stated meeting of the board of managers of the American Bible Society was held at the Bible House on 7th of August. Numerous grants of books were made for benevolent distribution in the United States and in foreign lands, the aggregate value of which was about $12,200. Funds were also granted to the amount of $3,817.20. One auxilary society was recognized in each of the four States of Kansas, Mississippi, Nebraska, and West Virginia. The total receipts for July were $33,741.22. The issues of the Scriptures from the Bible House were 92,591 volumes.

We have a strong Methodist ministerial force in Cleveland. Three presiding elders live in the city, namely: Rev. W. W. Case, D.D., of East Ohio; Rev. F. M. Searles, of North Ohio; and Rev. W. H. Seejey, of Youngstown District. On the East Ohio side we have ten efficient pastors, and on the West side seven. In addition, we have several superannuated and local elders who often assist the pastors. The oldest man in the pastoral work is Rev. Dillon Prosser, in labors abundant. Then our people are favored with the presence of the venerable Cyrus Prindle, D.D., Rev. Wm. Runnells, and Rev. Oliver Burgess, and Rev. L. D. Mix. The last named entered the ministry in 1834, and was ten years effective. For some years past he has been a successful business man, and is of great worth to the First Church in his support and counsels.

The centennial year of Episcopal Methodism brings to remembrance many historical facts, connected with the Church, which were in danger of being forgotten. Several of our historical societies have made new efforts to collect for preservation documents and publications illustrating its establishment, progress, and condition; and these efforts have recalled public attention to Methodist usages and Methodist doctrines. The Indiana Methodist Historical Society held its anniversary for this year, in Meharry Hall, Greencastle, June 15th. The address was delivered by F. C. Holliday, D.D. It gives a rapid sketch of the Church in Indiana, with particular reference to its educational work. From it we learn that Methodist preaching in the State began in 1807, when Thomas Hellums and Sela Payne traveled on what was then named White River. In 1808 Moses Ashworth was on Silver Creek Circuit, and Joseph Williams on White Water. The work from that time continued to spread, until there was one Methodist for every 15 of the population (in 1870); while now there is one in every 16.

Concerning Red Hair.

Many people admire red hair, but if you do not, Parker's Hair Balsam will impart to it a darker hue. It will also thicken thin hair, eradicate dandruff, and impart softness, glossiness and life to hair which has become dry and harsh. Not a dye, does not soil the linen. Gives a delicious perfume. An elegant dressing.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol 1) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	55
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church—Blackburn	2 5
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homilectics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry	3 00
History of Rationalism—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition.—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00 1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution—Seebohm.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT.
32 Natchez St New Orleans.

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr. C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to 72, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
38-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884, at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women,

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 11, 1884.

Wilberforce.

Professor Samuel T. Mitchell, of Springfield, Ohio, has been elected to succeed his brother, John G. Mitchell, who succeeded Reverend Benjamin F. Lee as President of Wilberforce University, the latter being elected to succeed Dr. Tanner as editor of the Christian Recorder.

All them are prime, first class men; we do not understand the necessity for such rapid changing as occurred between the Brothers Mitchell, and we do not accept the reasons assigned as sufficient. What says the Recorder?

Do As You Say.

It is positively dishonest to take a collection for one purpose and then use it for another. Church officials have no authority to use money collected for the missionary cause in payment of their assessments for the Church Extension, Freedmen's Aid or any other cause or vice versa. It is the pastor's duty to faithfully present each cause separately and apply what is collected in the way it is intended to go. As for paying a brass band out of money raised by a Sunday-school on Children's Day, that is a mistake equaled only by that of taking the Sunday-school Missionary Society collections for the purpose of paying the running expenses of the Sunday-school.

True Manliness.

J. M. Belton, Esq., agent at Ca[illegible] Station, K. O. railway, when [illegible] to take a glass of water on the train [illegible] a young colored girl waiting to drink, when he promptly passed the cup to her, waited until she had drank, and then drew water in the same cup for himself. Looking around upon the large crowd who were eying him, he seemed to be a little dazed about the action. We promptly stepped forward and said to him, "Sir, do you realize that under all the circumstances you have done a remarkable thing, one which is likely to be long and happily remembered?" He seemed at once to regain his composure, and said, "Oh, I was early taught politeness to ladies." The girl was quite as remarkable in her action. This is a sign of the times coming. The girl was a modest faced little lady, and gave just such a return as the politeness of the gentleman demanded. Politeness, preseverance, and prudence will in due time heal every wound. Let us hope and wait.

Methodist Polity.

Will you be kind enough to answer this question for the SOUTHWESTERN: Can a presiding elder change a preacher from a charge to which he was appointed by the bishop, and appoint him to another place? A. "It is the duty of the presiding elder to change preachers in his district during the session of the conference in the absence of the bishop, as the Discipline provides, however, that a presiding elder shall not remove a preacher in his district, to which he has been appointed by the bishop, and appoint him to another to which he can not be legally appointed by the Discipline. See Discipline page [illegible] 166, section 3d of [illegible]

"A presiding elder cannot remove a preacher on his district to a station, district or conference without the concurrence of the other presiding elders and bishops [illegible]

"He cannot make an appointment to a district which it would require a bishop to make. He cannot change a preacher when the bishop is legally present. With these exceptions the presiding elder can do [illegible]

[illegible] services are marked [illegible]

Some Sleepy People.

"Plow deep while sluggards sleep,
And you will have corn to sell and to keep."

Success depends on work, and the first essential to work of every kind is activity. We have more than once met with the picture of a Negro sitting on a dry goods box, fast asleep, with a newspaper in his hand. He had brain, brawn and a newspaper. His brain was as susceptible of culture, his hand as able to work, and his newspaper as newsy as any. But he was resting, not working. He had the paper, and therefore the same facilities for obtaining information that others have. But since he slept when he should have read, he of course was not so learned as they who read when they could have slept. We once had a companion in the army who was a great reader, but he had this peculiarity, that he always read with his eyes shut We had another friend who would always call for a book when he could not go promptly to sleep, and the book always proved the most useful opiate on such occasions.

We have seen a number of ministers who could converse seemingly without intermission or tiring in a whole day, but if a book or paper was introduced, they would speedily fall to sleep. We have seen others who could sleep in the pulpit while another would be preaching. We had once to awaken the pastor of a church where we were laboring in a revival, to get his advice about closing the meeting. All of these people were wakeful enough at some things, and some of them are quite active, and generally industrious, but they had no taste for letters. Our observation leads us to the conclusion that inability to study is not a proof of mental deficiency.

Force these parties to read, and they are fairly entertaining, but because of the gratification of their propensity to sleep, to the neglect of their duty to work, they lose their power over the people, forfeit their influence, and cease to be, or fail to become positive representatives of Christianity. Their thoughts are dull, except when borrowed from another. Their sermons come from some old book of sermons, which we have seen some of them take into the pulpit and lay open upon the Bible.

Very often no preparation is made for the pulpit before they enter it. They are quick to lose their temper, and scold the people coarsely for faults which belong to themselves. These sleepy people must awake and study, or they must leave the ministry, or the people will leave them. Such ministers actually repel the more useful element of society from the church.

There is a class of people who esteem their pastors, and look to them for counsel and guidance. This is also a class which is generally able and willing to render ample and cheerful aid to the pastor, in the performance of his duties. But these sleepy, unstudious preachers can never attract or hold them. It is not others, but ourselves who fix the appointments.

New Orleans University.

Dr. Hartzell writes us that the New Orleans University will open October 1, in the buildings on the new University grounds, on St. Charles Avenue. Rev. A. F. Hoyt, A. M., has been elected Vice-President, and will have charge as acting President. He is a gradnate of Michigan University, and also of the School of Theology, in the Boston University. It is expected that in the future his special work will be in the School of Theology. Prof. Hoyt is a member of the Detroit Annual Conference.

Prof. Simpson, who for two years has been a very successful teacher in Central Tennesse College, has been added to the faculty. Miss Kilgrove will remain, and Miss O'Neal, of New Orleans, will also be one of the faculty. Other announcements will be made in due time.

Please say that our titles to the new property are secure, and that it is the purpose of the Freedmen's Aid Society to make the University better and better each year.

The plans for the new building are now complete, and the foundation will soon be laid. Let our Louisiana Conference push on the raising of its centennial $10,000, and let our preachers and people see to it that our young men and women attend the University.

The Question of the Races.

1. The Negro of Caucasian blood has the better intellect.

2. If, with equal facilities, two Negroes, one of pure and the other of Caucasion blood, are brought together which in your experience or judgment, has or will excell?

The above questions, the first in the precise words of an eminent Negro, were sent to a number, in order that with certainty we might know the sentiment of the great, confessedly representative Negroes on the subject. Some of them have answered us and some are yet to be heard from. The substance of their replies is this: Mr. Douglass believes that all blood is one and quotes Burns, "That a man 's a man for a that." He then says: "All men are improbable whether they be black or white or mixed."

Peter H. Clark, has not seen a pure blood in forty years, but believes that "God hath made of one blood all the nations of the earth to dwell together in unity."

R. T. Greener concludes that education will tend to so increase race pride that the pure blood will find himself the representative of all Negroes. Dr. Crummell would have to think longer before answering.

Some gentleman are out of the country but our readers shall in time know where they stand.

We will not print a long letter, nor more than one from the same person on this subject at present. But any man can tell what he believes about it in a ten line note, and we would be glad to print what is said with reference to these questions by any one in such a note.

United Brothers of Friendship

The fourth bi annual session of the National Grand Lodge of United Brothers of Friendship met in the beautiful city of Galveston, Texas, July 27th, and adjourned Augnst 2d. U. G. M. Frederick Morton, of Evansville, Ind., presiding. The Grand Master's address was instructive and well received. The Order has been prosperous, and sets out on its next bi-annual tour with encouraging portents of a continued useful career. The session was lively, but harmonious in the end. This is a year of conservative victories. The Grand Lodge partook of the character of the period, and will be remembered as the most conservative session of the four. There were revolutionary measures and men to present, but not enough to pass them, consequently very few changes were made, and most of these were of small importance. It ordained the creation of a committee on constitution and law with discretionary power to act in the interval of its sessions. This is a very important measure. The committee has a great opportunity to give trouble, and its appointment, in the way it is, may be wise or otherwise. It certainly is a high tribute of confidence conferred upon them, which it is to be hoped they will so carefully guard as in no case to cause regret that it was so unguardedly reposed in them. The names of the brothers appointed is a fair assurance that prudence will distinguish their actions. The Ohio Falls Express was discontinued as the official paper. An unsuccessful effort was made to change the charter of the Mutual Aid from a national to a State Association, but this measure failed, as it deserved to do. What is a State, any how? A grand council was formed which acts as a court of appeals. The supreme interest of the session was manifest in the election of a successor to Grand Master Morton. The administration earnestly favored that noble old Roman, Past National Grand Master, William H. Gibson, of Louisville, Ky., but his election was impossible from the first; not by reason of any incompetency or other qualities inimical to the good of the order, but because the boys believe in rotation in office, provided the standard of efficiency be not lowered thereby. We named the successful man last summer. William H. Lawson was backed by an element that wins everywhere in this country. He represented the early times and heroic period of the Order's history; besides, he is brainy and magnetic, as they call it. He got the nomination as the States were called, and was elected National Grand Master by acclamation. The contest was short and sharp. The result was overwhelming. We have known him long and well. It was during our Presidency he entered the Order. Below is a biographical sketch of him.

THE NEW NATIONAL GRAND MASTER.

William Henry Lawson, the fourth National Grand Master of the United Brothers of Friendship of the United States, was born in Maysville, Mason county, Kentucky, March 12, 1840. He is 44 years of age, of medium size, nervous action, brown complexion, a ready speaker, quick thinker, and graceful writer. He has a comfortable home in Louisville, Ky., a handsome wife and one child. He is a painter, artist, and manufactures supplies for the Order. His photographing rooms are well patronized. He learned the painting business with Peter Lewis, Esq. Wm. N. Hazelton was employed by Mr. Lewis at the same time, and he soon had Mr. Lawson's name for membership in the United Brothers of Friendship, which at that time consisted of eight members, Mr. Lawson being the ninth. The lodge was a spare room in the house of the mother of the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN. The building was situated on the corner of the alley between Market and Jefferson on Second street, in Louisville, Ky. Front part of the building was used as an office by the late Dr. David Comins. In the front upstairs lived Edmund Thorn and his family; in the rear was the home of Nancy Ann Taylor, and here Mr. Lawson signed the constitution, by-laws and rules of the Order and was admitted to membership in the United Brothers of Friendship The eight members who preceeded and received him were: Marshall W. Taylor, Charles B. Morgan, Wm. N. Hazelton, founders; John F. Page, Chas. Coates, Louis Lightfoot, Benj. Batts, Robert Mason, Wm. H. Lawson. He has steadily adhered to the Order ever since, and has rendered faithful service, having filled every position in the Order. He served one year as Deputy and three years as Grand Master of Kentucky. He has compiled a Ritual, which is now in general use in the Order; he has, in every capacity, given satisfaction, and now worthily takes the helm to guide the greatest Negro institution on earth. It is a vast interest but it has an able captain, and the voyage will be a safe one. Mr. Lawson's standing in Lovisville will appear when it is known that in 1874 he ran for Marshal of the City Court against Mr. James Cornell, who was the iron-clad candidate of the Democrats in this Gibraltar of their strength, and yet so close was the vote that many believed Mr. Lawson was elected. That he will make an efficient administration and cause a grand advance of U. B. F. interests may be expected. We congratulate both him and the Order on this auspicious consummation of the labors of the Grand Lodge.

The next session will be held in Memphis, Tenn., 1866. Galveston will be enshrined in the heart of the more than four hundred delegates who by the generosity of her citizens spent a most enjoyable week in Texas. As many of the delegates and most of the members of the order in the South read the SOUTHWESTERN, and no other paper will or can give these facts as we have them, we add also a complete list of the officers elected and appointed.

OFFICERS ELECT:

William Henry Lawson, N. G. M., 1325 Magazine st., Louisville, Ky.
C. H. Tandy, N. G. D. M., St. Louis, Mo.
G. T. Turner, A. N. G. S., Memphis, Tenn.
Wm. Porter, N. G. T., Memphis, Tenn.
M. T. White, Special N. D. G. M., Austin, Texas.

N. G. COUNCIL.

R. M. Hammond—Arkansas.
Archie Roberts—Alabama.
L. Lytle—Indiana.
J. E. Bish—Illinois
J. W. Woolfolk—Kentucky.
W. T. Payton—Kentucky.
W. L. Johnson—Kentucky.
F. S. Legardy—Louisiana.
Wm. Smith—Cincinnati.
A. W. Williams—Tennessee.
W. H. Perine—Texas.
T. H. Phillips—Missouri.
Irvine Brown—Mississippi.
John Holliday—Pennsylvania.

OTHER APPOINTED OFFICERS.

T. S. Baxter, N. G. L.—Kentucky.
E. W. Mesley, N. G. C.—Tennessee.

N. TRUSTEES.

E. W. Marshall—Kentucky.
A. L. Whiledge—Indiana.
Isham Harris—Louisiana.
J. H. Kennedy—Kentucky.
Daniel Whiley—Texas.
J. T. Amos, N. G. Marshal—Kentucky.
P. T. Dennis, A. N. G. Marshal—Texas.
G. D. Pembleton, N. G. R. S.—Kentucky.
Joseph Hall, N. G. L. S,—Texas.
L. Fox, N. G. I. S.—Kentucky.
O. B. Swetman, N. G. O. S.—Missouri.
J. D. Fitzhugh, N. G. S. B.—Ohio.

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND LAW.

W. H. Lawson, W. H. Gibson, W. T. Peyton.

OFFICERS NATIONAL MUTUAL AID ASSOCIATION.

W. H. Gibson, President.
W. T. Peyton, Secretary.
C. H. Tandy, Treasurer.

U. B. F. NOTES.

Fred could not hold it.

Well done William, come up higher.

W. H. Lawson reached forth and gathered it.

W. H. Gibson could not get it. Once is enough until it goes around Give us a rest on States rights. It is as it should be—The National Mutual Endowment Association.

Lawson belongs to the old guard, and the old guard is yet on duty. He was one of the first nine members to join the Order.

The United Brothers of Friendship is the most powerful institution in the world exclusively controlled and founded by colored men. The editor congratulates himself on being one of the first three and the oldest U. B. F. now living.

Dr. Crummell.

Rev. Dr. Crummell writes that our statement with reference to his position on the pure and mixed blood question does not represent him.

We had our information from the Rev. J. Franklin Miller, a gentleman who claims to have spent some time on the coast of Africa, and whom we supposed to be good authority. But as the Dr. disclaims the views attributed to him, we retract the statement. It is far from our purpose to misrepresent any one, certainly not Dr. Crummell he is one of the few colored men in leading positions, whom we have regarded as both useful and ornamental to the race. We have never been content with that sort of journalism which has its good in a few personal and society notices, passing in silence the great and fundamental questions, which, whether desirable or not, confront and demand recognition and settlement among the Negroes themselves, as a prime condition to their settlement among other races. Dr. Crummell's letter which we produce, shows the failure of the Liberian Government to attain such success as was under the circumstances attainable, to have been caused by cast prejudice against black color, for that was the color of the natives of whom he writes. It shows him to have been the champion of the rights of these black colored people, and that is what we tried to say. It was probably not the color, but the people he cared for. It may be he would have worked as hard for their right recognition had they been mulattoes or whites. But we were aiming to deal with cold facts, and not possibilities. We understand him to be opposed to caste prejudice against the mere blacks, and he says he was opposed to it against the natives. And the natives referred to were blacks. Our difference seems to be one of terms more than sense. Our statement is to be interpreted by his.

Editorial Perambulations.

We are beginning at this place four days which will be memorable in the future history of Paris Methodism. Here we have a fine brick structure of colossal dimensions, elaborately finished and furnished up-stairs and down. It has crowded houses as a rule, but they are having a jam now. Paris is overflowing, and the district conference, followed by the centennial meeting will bring the greatest throng of people that have ever been collected here. Elder White has the absolute confidence of all his ministerial brethren. We are sure of a subscriber every time he tells any one that they ought to take the SOUTHWESTERN. He has told a great many this, and they are now receiving the paper. He is, without doubt, the greatest leader of men, the best financier, and the most fertile of reasoners of any elder now in the Lexington Conference cabinet.

Elder Daniel Jones, the pastor of St. Paul's, came rolling into his ample grounds behind a thoroughbred, Bourbon county, high kicker, seated in a neat rig that his heavy pastoral duties make a necessity. His stable burdened with its load of blue grass. Good things awaited us, and to them we turned our attention. Sister Jones, with her great, frank face, and generous, warm heart, made us feel as if we were sitting down to our own boards, and we acted as if it was really so.

Rev. W. H. Evans preached a strong sermon at night, after a mighty prayer by Rev. C. J. Nichols. About twenty-five members of the district conference are present, and they are all well cared for. Parisian hospitality is proven and needs no commendation from our pen.

Rev. Felix Ross and N. L. Cass have begun to whiten about the head and face, but they are yet strong men, ably leading on the army of the Lord. Bros. Turner, Cotterell, Southgate and Daniels are energetic floor workers, and where they are there will be life and action. The thing which first catches the eye is a long line of crepe gracefully swinging across the church, and neatly folding itself about the central chandelier, seeming to symbolize the light of Methodism which has been recently overshadowed by the departure of the glorified Simpson. The center of a group of loving friends in the parsonage is the picture of Bishop Simpson. Oh, how they loved him! Few men have ever swept the souls of men into the realm of glory as he did here in Paris in 1880.

There is a constant tendency of the white and colored people of Paris towards a better understanding of each other. There is a very large colored population here, and their society is largely modeled by our Church. There is also a Christian and a Baptist Church. Each are good brick houses, Rev. Elisha Green, a most honorable man of the older but the purest type, is pastor of the Baptist, and Rev. C. Graves, a man of fair attainments, is pastor of the other church.

The Conference organized with usual religious services, and elected Bros. G. W. Sissel and Jesse Henry as secretaries. The report of the presiding elder, H. W. White, evinced earnest work and gratifying prosperity. He paid a high tribute of respect to the memory of Bishop Simpson, which was received by the conference in profound silence; after which, suitable expressions of reverent esteem for the beloved departed were made. The pastors reports were all carefully prepared, and gave proof of effective and successful work. Over $300 of benevolent money has been collected; $400 will be raised and devoted to the purchase of one scholarship for the district in Central Tennessee College. The elder's careful and courteous manners endear him to all. He absolutely rules them by love. Expressions in view of the work of the last General Conference, with particular reference to the SOUTHWESTERN, were given by the conference. The literary exercises evinced steady progress, and were quite interesting. The Sunday-school interests are well developed, and the conference determined not to renew the license of local preachers who fail to attend it. They propose also to require a rigid examination in the prescribed course of study. There is quite a good number of local preachers on this district, and it remains to be seen whether this action will reduce it. One difficulty presenting itself is the want of uniformity in reports. The remedy lies in the prescription of one. The question as to where a local preacher in charge should date his report was decided in favor of the place of his appointment rather than that of his residence. The elder keeps close to the laws, and keeps the brethren so. He said at one point, "In every district there is some smart Aleck who wants to strike at every little thing, but we don't propose to allow it." Elder Carr said, "Mr. President, you need not have any fears, you will be supported; we would sustain the head of the district in the right if it was a boy twelve years old." This grew out of some spicy remarks by Elder Cottrell. Spice is a good seasoning, however, when judiciously interspersed with the proceedings of a conference. It appears that not a few pastors failed to submit a report in legal form as per Discipline, page 66, paragraph 92, section 2, ed. 1880, viz: "Each pastor (shall report)

First—The religious condition of his charge.

Second—His pastoral labors.

Third—The benevolent collections taken in his charge to meet assessments of the current year.

Fourth—The circulation of our Church periodicals and books in his charge."

One report showed that a member of the church was a barber, which caused him to work on Sundays. The conference declined to approve the report, but firmly stated its disapproval of all Sunday works, and the case was referred to a committee for further consideration.

Good Samaritan Lodge, 36, of United Brothers of Friendship, by their Secretary, W. H. Green, Esq., invited the conference to unite with them in a moonlight, outdoor banquet, which was accepted.

The face of Central Tennessee College students appears among the preachers and congregations here now and then. It is quite easy to tell them, as they have an air of intelligence, an easy, graceful movement, and a simple beauty of attire, which is a distinction possessed in this region only by themselves. The Superintendent of one of the Sunday-schools opposed the effort to raise the endowment of a scholarship by the conference, but he came round to the right side. Twenty-four exhorters were licensed to preach. Rev. T. Ross preached a thrilling sermon at the conference. After which the conference adjourned to meet at Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, Lexington. Fifty-three subscribers to the SOUTHWESTERN were received, making in all for the district eighty-eight.

The Centennial meeting was a grand affair. More than one hundred preachers, with laymen and visitors besides, formed into line and marched from the church to the grounds. On the grounds [illegible] were conducted, [illegible] reading a paper on the [illegible] of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Bishop W. H. [illegible] a sermon of great [illegible] Rev. [illegible] of the African Methodist Church, preached to a good audience. Sunday about seven hundred people gathered on the ground, and services began with a Centennial love feast at 9 a. m., led by Bros. Carr, Ross, Cotterell and Evans. Hundreds of blessed testimonies were given in a few moments. At 11 a. m. the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN preached, and the memory of the hour will not be soon effaced from his mind. Rev. Geo Sissel preached at 2 p. m., on pure gold. He was followed by Rev. W. H. Evans, at 4 p. m., and by Rev. S. R. Cotterell at night, and finally closed by an address by the writer. The centennial meeting was worthy of the great event it was projected to commemorate. It demonstrated the influence and power of our Church in the Blue grass regions. Twenty-four car loads of people, besides vehicles of all descriptions, brought the people of twenty towns and cities together. The social features touched the sublime, and the order was never excelled. Whites and blacks vied with each other for pre-eminence in all good qualities on the occasion. Two white gentlemen joined in subscribing for the SOUTHWESTERN for the colored family on their place. We suspect they will read it more than the family in whose name it goes. They read our article on the relation of the Negro to the white race with great care, and then subscribed as stated above. The centennial meeting was a great success, no matter how considered.

Children's Work.

We solicit answers in the SOUTHWESTERN to six questions each week, under the above head, by members of families who are our patrons, and not over 15 years of age.

These replies will be published in this paper.

The child who shall correctly answer two of the six questions weekly, for four weeks in succession, beginning with the first list printed, will receive one of our centennial Methodist medals, provided, when more than one person shall furnish the required answers, then the medal will be given to that person whose answers are first received at our office.

BIBLE MOUNTAINS.

1. What is the first mountain mentioned in the Bible?
2. For what is it remarkable?
3. What description is given of it in modern times?
4. What is its height?
5. What significant sign was be held from its summit?
6. Of what was it a token?

PERSONAL.

Correspondence and other matters for Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D. D., should be addressed to 32 Natchez Street, New Orleans, La.

—Miss S. M. Warner is recuperating at her home in Chebanse, Ill., and hopes to return to Mexico in November fully restored to health. —Heathen Woman's Friend.

—We are thankful to Bros. Courtney McDade, and Tate for new lists of subscribers. Go on brethren, it is good work well done, and to the glory our Methodism.

—The meeting of the 9th Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Covington, Ky., held in Hunt's Grove, July 19th, was a success. Bro. McDade is working faithfully and succeeding fairly with his great enterprise.

—Dr. Braden graced our sanctum with his presence, en route home from a somewhat extended and health inspiring trip to the West. He looks well and is calculating for a grand campaign against sin and ignorance this fall and winter. May his shadow never grow less.

—An accomplished colored lady, born in Tennessee, educated in Indiana and qualified for teaching, governess in a family, sales-woman, secretary, or anything of that nature, wants to make an honest living, is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and can come well recommended; will work in any suitable place. Write to our office.

—Rev. W. S. Rollins writes from New Richmond, Ohio, that his camp meeting at Amelia, besides quickening the church, netted him $300 above expenses, which has been applied to the payment of church indebtedness on his circuit, enabling him to dedicate his church at New Richmond early in September.

—Col. James Lewis, of New Orleans, U. S. Surveyor, of Knights Templar, Cleveland, will be North a few weeks, and then promptly return homeward. Mrs. Lewis is also in company with him. Mr. Lewis reports that the status of the race was not hurt by the repeal of the civil rights bill, as provision for such a contingency had been made in the constitution of Louisiana.

—Mrs. Eliza J. Yanoy, of Maysville, Ky., a member of the Methodist Woman's Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Association, died at her home, in the latter part of March past, and a number of women who are members of the Association are anxious to know if any assessment has been authorized for the benefit of her heirs, as they wish to pay whatever is required of them.

—Rev. A. F. Hoyt, a graduate in arts of the Michigan University, and in theology of Boston University, has just been elected president of the New Orleans University. Bro. Hoyt is a member of the Detroit Annual Conference. He has supplied the following charges in New England: Ballardvale, South Framingham, Bryantville and Silver Lake, Allston, and Marshfield. —Zion's Herald.

—Prof. C. T. Simpson, who graduated from the Boston University in 1882, and has been teaching at Nashville, Tenn., for two years past, has just been appointed to the chair of languages in New Orleans University. This institution is under the management of the Freedmen's Aid Society. Prof. Simpson's home is in Malden, Mass.—Zion's Herald.

—Having lost their church by fire and being unprepared to immediately adjust their affairs to the unforeseen emergency, being determined to rebuild their church immediately, our brethren in Paris, Texas, merit and we hope will recieve substantial aid from all who read of their sad misfortune. Contributions can be sent to Rev. H. Webb, presiding elder Marshall district, or Rev. V. M. Cole, presiding elder of Paris charge, Texas conference.

—Rev. Thomas Jones, father of Revs. Chas. T. and Aaron Jones of Lexington conference, has invented and patented, a hemp and flax, breaking and cleaning machine, which he expects to place on exhibition at the Louisville Exhibition. It is about 9 feet square, and is said to do the work perfectly. He has labored upon it for many years and it is to be hoped will have such success with it as will make it possible for him to live at ease the remainder of his days.

—Rev. B. W. Keeler, D. D., of the Upper Iowa conference has been engaged to take charge of the Theological Department in the Central Tennessee College, and it is expected he will enter on his duties immediately after the session of his conference in October. Dr. Keeler has filled some of the most prominent places in his conference, has had charge of districts and was for a time president of our university at Mt. Vernon, Iowa. He is not a novice in educational work.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Marion District—Central Alabama Conference.

The district conference of the Marion district met at Marion, Ala., July 17, under favorable auspices. At roll call a large number of members answered to their names, and engaged in the work readily. The conference was called to order promptly at 9 o'clock a. m. by the presiding elder, Rev. E. B. McCauley, but owing to the death of one of Marion's best members, which happened the day before the conference met, its session, after being organized, adjourned till evening. The conference met in the afternoon, and proceeded to the appointment of its regular committees. The committees went to work actively, and prepared their reports in good style, and these reports being carried out in the district by the several members, will speak great things at the end of the present year. The licensing of local preachers came up, and after the conference well considered the matter, it decided not to grant any license to those present, nor to any to come up, who are not prepared intellectually, as well as religiously. All candidates were rather recommended to enter some school most convenient, and be prepared to take up the grave duties of the ministry. The Marion district has need of a good class of local preachers, but it will not make any more who will not reflect credit on the district, and live in the present and future demands of the Christian ministry. The question for admission into the traveling connection came up, and four or five were presented, but owing to inferiority in their knowledge of the common English branches, the conference rejected them all; meanwhile advised them as young men, not to think of entering into the sacred Christian ministry and its grave duties without a more extensive preparation for them. Those for orders were treated likewise; so, none for admission, none for orders, and none for licenses were received with favor. The conference proceeded to the renewal of licenses. It refused to renew the licenses of local preachers and exhorters who did not give an account of their labors during the year, and who do not attend the Sabbath-school as teachers, officers or members.

The conference, during its three days at Marion and on the Sabbath, did much substantial work for the district, and some very important steps were made with reference to the benevolent enterprises of the Church. The people at Marion are engaged at present in building a very fine church at that place, and the conference members responded to their treasury quite liberally while there. Brethren, do so again, for "blessed is he that considereth the poor." Several able sermons were preached during the conference, but prominent among them is the introductory delivered by Rev. Wm. Perry, on Thursday evening. On the Sabbath three were preached, which cannot soon be forgotten. At 11, Rev. A. Nichols, of Tuscaloosa; at 3, Rev. A. W. McKinney, and at 8 o'clock preaching by the presiding elder. The conference also had anniversaries of the Church Extension, Missionary, Freedmen's Aid, Education and Sunday-school Union societies. Speakers for the occasion were: Revs. B. D. Lonis, A. Nichols, S. W. Jackson, A. W. McKinney and W. H. Nelson. Surely, after such speeches as were made, the above societies and other benevolences of the church will not suffer financially on the Marion district.

Saturday night, after all the services of the conference session were over, there was held a memorial service of Bishop M. Simpson, which service was well attended, and held in the same church where that sainted hero sat not long since to hold one of his Southern conferences.

His visit so impressed every one, that ever since his name has been a household word, and his memory sacred. Therefore, when this service was held, no small interest was manifested by all. The speakers on the occasion were A. W. McKinney and W. H. Nelson. We cannot well close our few words without making a few commendatory remarks of our presiding elder, Rev. E. B. McCauly. He is young in the office of presiding elder, but not young in the knowledge of the duties of that office. He presides with ease and ability in both his quarterly and district conferences. This being his first year on this district, he has thus far been comparatively a stranger to nearly every one, notwithstanding he has endeared himself in the hearts of all, and his visits to the homes are made pleasant as well; also his visits to the several appointments. His quickness in decision of most any point of law amply prepares him for a presiding officer. The conference passed several resolutions, but desired and instructed the Secretary to forward the following, with reference to railroad excursions, to this paper.

RESOLUTIONS ON EXCURSIONS.

Whereas, The running of excursions on railroads has become quite common with our people, and

Whereas, They are more productive of evil than good, in that, first, they are gotten up without any consideration of the time when the masses of people can go, without detriment to their business. Secondly, any and all persons, without respect to character, are admitted on these trains with our Sunday-school children, wives and daughters. Thirdly, these excursions are often run in the interest of private parties, and without public good. Fourthly, they are often run on the Sabbath, and besides thus violating the sanctity of this holy day, they encourage prodigality, idleness, and almost every vice, and instead of carrying people to church, as they claim, they carry them from their own places of worship to spend the holy Sabbath in profligacy. Therefore,

Resolved, That we are more than ever opposed to the running of excursions.

Resolved, That we will instruct our people on this subject, show them the evil thereof, and as far as lies in our power, seek to save our people from this evil.

There was never a more pleasant and profitable session of a district conference on this district than the last. W. H. NELSON, Sec'y.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Light Has Come.

DEAR EDITOR:—May I make further statement through the SOUTHWESTERN in regard to the Methodist Preachers Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Society?

In the SOUTHWESTERN of June 26th under the signature of "A Methodist" we kindly ask the founders of the above society to give us light on the constitution of the woman's department, knowing that a satisfactory answer in that department would remove the doubt and darkness from the men's department as the constitutions were run on the same plan. We firmly believed then, and are still of the opinion that there was a plank in the constitution that would in ten years sink the ship in which the Methodist women were sailing, and the same plank would in fifteen years leave the men in a state of bankruptcy.

We made a supposition in regard to the liability in which members might be assessed which our friend, Rev. L. N. Taylor, took occasion to criticise, and said "as I know the brother I can't believe his heart to be as far wrong as his figures are." Let us examine the the agreement in the women's department, and then consider the supposition which I made?

ARTICLE VI,

THE AGREEMENT.

"Each member agrees that when a sister dies, they will pay into the treasury 40 cents within 30 days after receiving due notice. Each member further agrees that when a sister's time (ten years) has expired that they will pay into the treasury 40 cents."

We will freely give our supposition again, that our brother may point out our mistake and give us a chance to acknowledge to the many readers of the SOUTHWESTERN that we did not understand the above agreement. We said: "Suppose that ten agents be employed to fill a division, and each agent by hard labor be able to average 60 members per month, then in five months these ten agents have succeeded in filling a division of 3,000 members. Suppose that 300 of this division die before the ten years expire, then those who survive must pay within ten years $120 each. We have just reached the dark and most difficult point, behold! here are 2,700 women who are to receive $500 each, and the entire sum $1,350,000 is to be paid in five months, and each member is to pay $216 per month to meet this demand." This is according to the agreement above if we understand the meaning of words.

Many passengers waiting to embark in this ship, and many already on board waiting to embark, discovered that the life plank would sink the ship, called the captain's attention to the great danger into which he was likely to carry our Methodist people. He stops his ship, removes the life plank, and reduces the benefit in the men's division from $2,000 to $800, and the women's from $1,000 to $600, and says to those waiting all is well, come; and now turns and says to his old members we have changed your policies and hope you will accept, and then says to the many readers of the SOUTHWESTERN that "this will give our young pastor all the light he wants in regard to the Methodist women's department of our society."

A strange way the "old heads with their eyes open" have of shedding light upon their constitution, and setting aside their former contract without consulting their members, and also publishing hearsay testimony to convict a man for seeking for information for his flock. Fraternally,

SAMUEL A. COWAN.

Holly Springs, Miss., July 26th, 1884.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Central Alabama Conference—Ashville District.

The Ashville District Conference convened Thursday, July 24, 1884, in Birmingham, Ala., in the St. Paul M. E. Church, on Second Avenue, Rev. O. Nelson, P. E., in the chair. On motion, J. S. Todd was again chosen Secretary for the conference. The devotional services were conducted by the presiding elder reading the 40th Chapter of Isaiah and the 13th Chapter of the 1st Corinthians, and announcing hymn 504 in the Methodist hymnal. The roll was called; 52 answered to their names. The first day's session of the conference consisted of appointing the various committees that belong to the district, and fixing for business. The second day's session consisted of examining candidates for licenses, for the renewal of licenses; and the third consisted of hearing reports from pastors, local preachers, exhorters, Sunday-school superintendents, district class leaders and district stewards. During the session there were several visitors—Revs. W. W. Cox and Pierce, of the Alabama conference, Rev. Welch, of the A. M. E., and Rev. Headen, of the Congregational Church. This is the first year of Elder Nelson's mission on this district. He is much beloved by the entire district, and has done and is doing grand work on the district, in the way of spreading the camp of the old Methodist Episcopal Church. The elder understands his business, and his report was grand and acceptable. It showed that there had been much work and good accomplished on this district during the year from January up until July 24th. Several new churches were in course of erection, and some to commence building. There are 13 appointments on this district. All were well represented with the presence of the pastors to the conference, and all of the district members but three, namely, the Centre circuit, the Talladega circuit and the Wedowee circuit. Of course this made some difference in the conference. For three years it seems impossible for those three pastors who are now on those three circuits to meet the district conference. Whatever circuit they are appointed to by the bishop, they always fail to get to it. The report of the presiding elder and of all the preachers that were present shows that the Ashville district is making rapid progress. Report of the district stewards for the entire district: For presiding elder, $320; for benevolences, $173.55; for bishops, $26; total on the district for these above named purposes for 1884, $719.55. Also the seat of the Central Alabama Conference is moved from Eutaw, Ala., to Gadsden, Ala. J. S. TODD, Secretary.

Admiral Courbet will probably occupy the island of Formosa.

The Housekeeper.

New-potato pie is a novelty. [illegible] a teacupful of potato; to this [illegible] allow one quart of sweet [illegible]; let the milk come to a boil, then stir in the grated potato; when cool add three well beaten eggs, sugar, and flavoring to suit the taste; nutmeg or cinnamon is most suitable. Bake with under crust only, and eat while fresh.

A recipe for tomatoe pie is contributed by a Southern reader: Peel and slice enough green tomatoes to fill one pie; to this add [illegible] tablespoonfuls of vinegar, one of butter, and three and a half of sugar, flavor with nutmeg, bake with two crusts very slowly. If you choose you may stew the tomatoes first, and then there is no danger of the pie being too juicy.

[illegible] may live without poetry, music and [illegible] may live without conscience, and [illegible] without heart; [illegible] we may have friends, we may live [illegible] that books; [illegible] cannot live without [illegible]

FROM CANNED GOODS. [illegible] danger arising from canned fruits and vegetables is that which proceeds from the contents themselves. If a can is sound the head is sunk in. If the contents have commenced to decompose the head is bulged out. Discolored contents betray these "swells" [illegible] can is pulled, punch a hole in both heads and put the cans in boiling water to drive out the gases, then solder up the hole. If, as they say, they repeat the operation of canning. But [illegible] will have no solder [illegible] of the. Each [illegible] should be [illegible] of Health, [illegible] the contents and the [illegible] who sold them. [illegible] should [illegible] every can which does not [illegible] all goods which [illegible] bear the name of the [illegible] also the name of some [illegible] firm on the label, and [illegible] test the soundness of the [illegible] of a can by pressing in [illegible]. If the pressure is fol[illegible] caused by the [illegible] gas, it is not [illegible] A round can has a [illegible] If there is any rust [illegible] cap on the inside of the [illegible] can the contents are [illegible]

[illegible] With Glass. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

General News Items.

The Republicans elected the State ticket by over 20,000 majority in Vermont, and two Congressmen.

On the 2d the reports showed 150 new cases of cholera, and forty-four deaths in Italy the past twenty-four hours.

A second Republican convention in the fourth Mississippi district nominated M. K. Nester, postmaster of Grenada, for Congress.

New Hampshire Republicans nominated Moody Currier for Governor; Connecticut Democrats renominated Gov. Waller.

Letters from Tien-Tsin state that Li Hung Chang, Viceroy of Pee Chi Li, has been degraded from his high position and deprived of his title.

It is reported that the rebels at Berber are selling the population of the city into slavery. The women are subject to terrible atrocities.

Emperor Francis Joseph, replying to an address presented him by a delegation of Jews, said: "Every loyal and patriotic citizen, of whatever religion, may always rely upon my favor and the protection of my government."

The mother of Gen. John A. Logan, Republican candidate for the Vice-presidency, was a Southern Methodist in Illinois. We state this fact with no purpose either to harm or help him. If it cuts at all, it will cut both ways.—Nashville Advocate.

Secretary Chandler is making a determined stand against the toleration of intemperance in the Navy. He has just addressed a severe letter of rebuke to each one of the members of a court martial which failed to recommend the dismissal of an officer proved to have been an habitual drunkard, and he has written a strong letter to the chairman of the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs, in opposition to the action of Congress in restoring to the service officers who have been dismissed for drunkenness.—Independent.

United States Senator Henry B. Anthony, of Rhode Island, died at his home in Providence, Sept. 2. The deceased was born in Coventry, R. I., April 1, 1815, and was therefore in his seventieth year. He was educated at Brown University, and became in 1838 editor of the Providence Journal. He was elected Governor of Rhode Island in 1848 and in 1850, and declined a reelection in 1851. In 1859 he was elected United States Senator as a Republican, and took his seat the same year, succeeding Hon. Philip Allen, a Democrat, who re-elected 1854, was again reelected in [illegible] in 1875 and 1883. He was elected President of the Senate pro tempore March 23, 1869, and was reelected to the same position March 18, 1871. His term of office would have expired March 3, 1885. The deceased was the oldest Senator in Congress, having served continuous service [illegible]. Mr. Anthony had been in failing health for several years, and had thought at one time he would be able to take his seat in the Senate last winter, but the infirmities of nervous prostration and general debility.

The Centennial Methodist Conference.

The Executive Committee of the Centennial Methodist Conference, to be held in Baltimore Dec. 9 17, 1884, met in Philadelphia at the Methodist Book Rooms, Thursday, June 26, and organized as follows: President, Bishop E. G. Andrews; Vice-President, Samuel Rodgers, D. D.; Secretary, H. K. Carroll; Treasurer, T. J. Magruder.

The Committee spent four hours in a pleasant, harmonious session, and adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

Following is the list of topics for the various sessions of the Conference, and the time allotted each:

FIRST DAY.

1. Work of the Christmas Conference.....1 hour
2. Personnel of the Christmas Conference.....1 "

SECOND DAY

3. The Superintendency of Asbury, and What it Did for Methodism..... ½ "
4. The Relations of John Wesley to American Methodism... ½ "
   General discussion.. ½ "
5. Statistical Results—Membership, etc..... ½ "
6. Statistical Results—Educational and Financial..... ½ "
   General discussion..1 "

THIRD DAY

7. Methodism in 1784, and its Outlook..... ½ "
8. Methodism in 1884, and its Outlook..... ½ "
   General discussion.. ½ "
9. Causes of the Success of Methodism..... ½ "
10. Possible Dangers to Future Methodism..... ½ "
    General discussion..1 "

FOURTH DAY

11. Rise and Progress of Methodism in Canada..... ½ "
12. Methodist Pioneers and Their Work..... ½ "
    General discussion.. ½ "
13. Is Methodism Losing its Power over the Masses?..... ½ "
    General discussion..1 "

FIFTH DAY.

14. The Aim and Character of Methodist Preaching..... ½ "
15. Methodist Means of Grace.. ½ "
    General discussion.. ½ "
16. The Doctrinal Unity of Methodism..... ½ "
17. Guards to the Purity of our Doctrinal Teaching..... ½ "
    General discussion.. ½ "

SIXTH DAY.

18. The Four Points of Methodism—Heart Conversion, Assurance, Christian Experience and Sanctification ½ "
19. The Influence of Methodism on Other Denominations.. ½ "
    General discussion.. ½ "
20. Value of the Press to Methodism..... ½ "
21. Value of the Periodical Press to Methodism..... ½ "
    General discussion.. ½ "

SEVENTH DAY.

22. Place and Power of the Lay Element in Methodism.... ½ "
23. What Methodism Owes to Women..... ½ "
    General discussion.. ½ "

Public meetings will be held in the evening, as follows: Wednesday evening, topic, Missions. Thursday evening, Session of the Conference for Reception of Fraternal Delegates. Friday evening, topic, the Educational Work and Spirit of Methodism. Monday evening, topic, The Sunday-school. Tuesday evening, topic, The Mission of Methodism to the Extremes of Society.

It is expected that several churches will be open each evening except Thursday, and the various topics will be treated by invited speakers.

"IT HAS MADE A NEW MAN OF HIM."

So writes the wife of the Rev. Dr. Staples, of New Canaan, Conn., in a communication to the Methodist Protestant, Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Staples says:

"My husband has for the last year and a half been afflicted with that trouble-some disease Malaria, attended also with Dyspepsia, which was rapidly growing upon him. He was so feeble at the session of our last 'Conference' that he thought a week or two previous he would not be able to attend. He commenced inhaling Compound Oxygen, and put himself fully under the Treatment, at my earnest request, the week before 'Conference,' and it is astonishing to see its vitalizing effects. It was almost immediately manifest in an increase of appetite, which had been scarce sufficient to sustain him. He is gradually increasing in strength and vitality. In fact it has made a new man of him.

Our "Treatise on Compound Oxygen," containing a history of the discovery and mode of action of this remarkable curative agent, and a large record of surprising cures in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., and a wide range of chronic diseases, will be sent free. Address, Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1109 and 1111 Girard street, Philadelphia.

Democrats elected their State ticket in Arkansas by about 30,000 majority. The official vote must decide the election of county officers in Pulaski. The amendment repudiating a portion of the State debt was also adopted by a large majority.

BAFFLED!

One of the Most Unaccountable and Dangerous of Recent Deceits Discovered and Exposed.

There is some mysterious trouble that is attacking nearly everyone in the land with more or less violence. It seems to steal into the body like a thief in the night. Doctors cannot diagnose it. Scientists are puzzled by its symptoms. It is, indeed, a modern mystery. Like those severe and vague maladies that attack horses and prostrate nearly all animals in the land, this subtle trouble seems to menace mankind. Many of its victims have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A strange sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load upon the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation is felt at the pit of the stomach, which food does not satisfy. The eyes grow sunken, the hands and feet feel clammy at one time and burn intensely at others. After a while a cough sets in, at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greyish colored expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. He becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a peculiar whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive, and then, again, outflux intensely; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood grows thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow; the urine is scanty and high colored, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is often attended with palpitation of the heart. The vison becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of prostration and great weakness. Most of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population have this disorder in some of its varied forms, while medical men have almost wholly mistaken its nature. Some have treated it for one complaint; some for another, but nearly all have failed to reach the seat of the disorder. Indeed, many physicians are afflicted with it themselves. The experience of Dr. A. G. Richards, residing at No. 468 Tremont street, Boston, is thus described by himself.

"I had all those peculiar and painful symptoms which I have found afflicting so many of my patients, and which had so often baffled me. I knew all the commonly established remedies would be unavailing for I had tried them often in the past. I therefore determined to strike out in a new path. To my intense satisfaction I found that I was improving. The dull, stupid feeling departed and I began to enjoy life once more. My appetite returned. My sleep was refreshing. The color of my face which had been a sickly yellow gradually assumed the pink tinge of health. In the course of three weeks I felt like a new man and know that it was wholly owing to the wonderful efficiency of Warner's Tippecanoe The Best, which was all the medicine I took."

Doctors and scientists often exhaust their skill and the patient dies. They try everything that has been used by, or is known to, the profession, and then fail. Even if they save the life it is often after great and prolonged agony. Where all this can be avoided by precaution and care, how insane a thing it is to endure such suffering! With a pure palatable preparation within reach, to neglect its use is simply inexcusable.

The police of Warsaw have orders to advise the public to close their doors and windows during the passage of the Czar through the streets of the city. Police agents will take the place of tramway conductors during the Czar's visit.

Women in Politics.

In Washington Territory, where the women have been made lawful voters, the political problem of the century is being modestly and diffidently worked out. It is only in the experimental stage yet, and there is nothing in the practical results attained to put any gentleman to the blush for his past blindness or make Mrs. Stanton or Miss Anthony simper with delight. The experiment is simply in the inaugural stage, and the big-hatted men of Washington Territory, still handicapped with fine chivalry for the gentle sex, are standing around letting the ladies "run things." The candidates are in a great peck of trouble over it. Any good ward-fixer knows how to walk into a saloon and call "the boys" up for beer and cigars, but the new element in suffrages out there has put all this out of the question. The candidates, we are told, spend their time going to church fairs, patronizing grab-bags, buying chances for rings in pound cakes and going to prayer-meetings, where they raise the loudest kind of amens to the most modest prayers. They have quit painting the ward red and galloping with the gang.

If the introduction of women as voters will accomplish all this permanently, there is no question that it would, to a certain extent, be a consummation devoutly to be wished. But there are more counties to be heard from. When the corruption of women comes to be as necessary as the corruption of men at the polls; when the gentle sex are fairly plunged into the filth of politics, and no woman's good name is safe if she wields influence, it will be a very sad day for the world. Yet that day will be reached sooner or later if women are made voters. They might better raise Presidents than make them.—Louisville Commercial.

EDUCATIONAL.

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts.

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. L. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, La.
sept4

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants, and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for postage. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. Mention this journal. jy17 1y.

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

$60.5 TON WAGON SCALES.
ja y31 8t eow

The GREAT CHURCH LIGHT
Established 1857.
FRINK'S Patent Reflectors for Gas or Oil, give the most powerful, softest and best light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Banks, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room, for circular and estimate. A Liberal discount to churches and the trade. Don't be deceived by cheap imitations.
I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl St., N. Y.
aug28-20t eow

$5 to $20 per day at home ... Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.
mar11-1y

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & L[illegible]
Can be taken at home. [illegible] incurable when our [illegible] are properly answered. [illegible] for circulars, testimonials, [illegible]
REV. T. F. CHILDS, Troy, [illegible]
feb7-1y

KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE.

At Farmdale P. O., Franklin Co., Ky., six miles from Frankfort. Has the most healthful and beautiful location in the State. Lit by gas as well as heated by steam. A full and able College Faculty. Expenses as moderate as any first-class college. Fortieth year begins September 1st. For catalogues, etc., address as above.
COL. R. D. ALLEN, Supt.
july3-6teow

Central Tennessee College,

Nashville, Tennessee.

This College begins its nineteenth year on

Monday, September 8, 1884.

Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.

Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.

The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.

For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,
Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.
A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library.
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oc18-1y

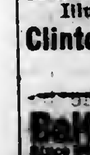
BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
24 inches	175 lbs.	325 lbs.	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs.	375 lbs.	55 00
32 "	350 lbs.	540 lbs.	80 00
36 "	550 lbs.	800 lbs.	120 00
40 "	750 lbs.	1050 lbs.	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs.	1350 lbs.	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs.	1800 lbs.	300 00
54 "	2100 lbs.	2000 lbs.	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.



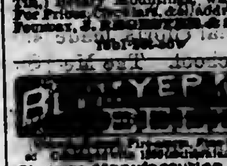
18 inches	100 lbs.	$13 00
20 inches	130 lbs.	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs.	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

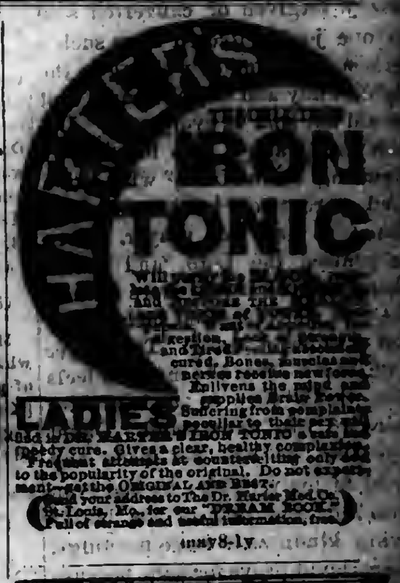
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 33 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.



BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar26-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov16-1yr

Baltimore Church Bells
[illegible] Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Etc., Address Baltimore Bell Foundry, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
Mch1-26teow



[illegible] BELLS
[illegible] Manufacturing Co.
july3 26teow

The Ministers' and Teachers' Bible.

[illegible] Parker Bible is imported from [illegible] is indorsed by [illegible] Bishops of Boston. It is standard to the Old and New Testaments is accurate in [illegible] Words; Grammar with Concise An Encyclopedia of Sacred Science, with Pronunciation. 10 full page colored Maps and Pictures. Music, Rhetoric, Plants, Animals, and Jewish people of the Bible, etc. "Superior to all others."—N. Y. Times. "A complete Biblical Encyclopedia."—London Times. This Bible is bound in French morocco, gilt edge, with silk bookmark, and has copious references. A Special offer: To rapidly introduce this Bible in America we will, for a limited time only, send, post-paid, to any address on receipt of $2.50 and one copy of [illegible] for $2.50. Other Bibles with [illegible] at equally low prices. AGENTS WANTED for our elegant illustrated [illegible] circulars in two colors, with terms to agents. G. S. MAYO & CO., 160 LaSalle St., Chicago.
jan31-26teow

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

IN THE NEW WORLD'S CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION
New Orleans.
Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.
—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—
United States Government.
$1,300,000.
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000.
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000.
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000.
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000.
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.
Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.
The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.
APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.
The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.
For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. L. & C. C. E.
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

AGENTS Wanted for our new book, [illegible] CITIES RECOVERED. Nations exhumed; obliterated rewritten. The doings of Prophets and Kings unfolded. Great discoveries. Researches. Testimony from Pyramids, Temples and Plain to a child: absorbing to all. Richly illustrated maps. Low price. Sells greatly. Subscribers WM. GARRETSON & CO., 4th & Chestnut Sts., St. Louis.
mar13-1y

ROYAL
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
never varies. A marvel of purity, and wholesomeness. More economical ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in with the multitude of low test, short or phosphate powders. Sold only
ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co.
106 Wall Street, N. Y

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

QUARTER, LESSON XI. Sept. 14. WAITING FOR THE LORD. Psalm xl, 1-17.

...times, in the country ... Bible was written, the ... deep, dark ... in the ground, into which the ... down, his ... into the wet clay at ... bottom. If he was pardoned ... king, he was lifted up to ... light and air again, and his ... placed on firm ground. You ... how happy he would be. ... Psalmist compares the feel... of a sinner or backslider who ... for his sin to a man in one ... "horrible pits," and of a ... given or converted soul ... such a ... the ... ...

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 38. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, SEPTEMBER 18, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 777.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

20 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Business Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Tell to every man his own faults, as he of all men is most concerned and can best correct them.

Be willing to acknowledge a wrong or correct an error in yourself as soon as it is discovered.

We like the SOUTHWESTERN very much and will do more for it. —E. B. McCauley.

The eyes of the Lord are upon the faithful of the land. Let them therefore have faith and work on.

The only reason why I do not pronounce for Christ is, I have not made up my mind to renounce the world.

There is no limit to the possibilities of a man who has the Almighty God back of him in what he undertakes.

A thing said of you in your absence which would be unsaid if you were present bears its own [illegible]

Christian union and confidence must suffer great losses, unless the Lord's ministers deal candidly and frankly with each other.

The cholera is steadily advancing and slaying its victims, but the most of our cities are still without [illegible] preparation to meet it.

Young men, fully ready and willing to enter the ministry in Africa, may find it to their interest to write to the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, with well known endorsers.

It will be impossible to behave in a perfect way unless the Lord walks with us. He will walk with us if we abstain from private slander, [illegible] and all wickedness, [illegible] the sword.

It is reported that the Anti-Masonic representation to the National Prohibition convention in Pittsburg was hissed from the platform. There is very little dignity [illegible]

Our readers are to be favored with articles on Domestic [illegible] by Dr. Geo. L. Curtis, minister of the South [illegible] conference, and doc- [illegible], D. D., in the [illegible] with reference to "That he expects to [illegible] in some regions [illegible] Mohammedan- [illegible] and whiskey [illegible] We will at- [illegible] self-supporting [illegible], of whom [illegible] converted [illegible] him "The [illegible]

Both of the prohibition candidates for President are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of anti-slavery and Republican antecedents. General Logan is also a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We cannot understand what enjoyment it is for one or two men to belong to a lodge where all the rest of the members are women, and we are certain that the ultimate tendency is not to the moral betterment of either class.

Some pastors, we are sorry to say, have made a yearly practice of ordering papers, which they fail to pay for. We feel that we have supported this class long enough, and will gradually eliminate them from our subscription books. A word to the wise is sufficient.

A man who is born with his rent paid, and houses to rent, has the advantage of one who is born paying the rent of another's house in which himself can not live, afterwards has to pay the rent for that in which he does live, and finally has to buy his own home in old age.

"The SOUTHWESTERN is the only paper I have ever taken that my wife would read. She reads it right straight along, anxiously waits for, and generally gets it before I do."—Rev. Jas. L. Perrine.

Thomas McIntyre, advertising agent, has removed from No. 14 to No. 11 Union Street. The SOUTHWESTERN is on file at his office, and business men desiring to use our columns may find rates and leave orders with them.

It is not the outward appearance which recommends a man to Masons. But it would seem to be so if we consider what hard cases are in possession of the "token." Such rough ashlers renders our temple neither strong or beautiful, and there is no wisdom in their reception.

It does not necessarily follow that man is either perverse or insane because that in any or all things he may have an opinion different from some other man. The insanity and perversity may be on the other side. The fault is sometimes with the finder. Then again there may be insanity and sincerity on both sides. We would better, therefore make our opinions stand on their merits in the light of unbiased reason or abandon them as obsolete.

The Rev. J. L. H. Sweres, presiding elder of the Louisville district, Kentucky conference, African Methodist Episcopal Church, complains that he is compelled to undergo severe toils and pinching want, because the pastors do not raise the presiding elder's allowance. — SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The S. W. CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is slightly mistaken, we think. The Louisville District in the African M. E. Church is not in the Kentucky Conference. We have strong reason to believe that the Rev. J. L. H. Sweres was much more recently of the M. E. Church than of the A. M. E. Church. The Rev. T. B. Caldwell, we believe, is presiding elder in the district of our church in which Louisville is included.—Christian Recorder.

We beg your pardon; we knew that Rev. J. L. H. Sweres was presiding elder of the Louisville district Kentucky conference, African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. But as it sometimes happens the Zion was inadvertently left out. Forgive us this time. We acknowledge all.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

A Home For Our Preachers.

Not long since I attempted, through another medium, to point out the expediency of an effort being put forth by the members of the Savannah, Central Alabama, Tennessee and East Tennessee Conferences, with the view of establishing a home for our superannuated preachers. The importance of the subject demands that the widest possible range be given to its discussion, hence we would respectfully ask space in the columns of the SOUTHWESTERN for calling attention to it at, what seems to me, a most opportune moment. Possibly there may exist good reasons why other conferences ought to be included in the above group, if so the fact will hardly escape the notice of those whom it may concern. I favor limitation no farther than it may be necessary in order to make the attainment of the end feasible. There can be no question but that a home is needed. Most of the preachers, within the bounds of the conference mentioned, are so poorly paid for their services that the whole year is passed in actual want. Some of them with their families, do not receive as much as fifty dollars, while the majority receive less than three hundred dollars per annum. On such meagre salary no one can be expected, even with the strictest economy, to lay by means, upon which to subsist when old age or permanent constitutional weakness has compelled retirement from the itinerancy. There are scores of faithful men in our ranks to-day who are filled with gloomy forebodings whenever they look forward to the future because of the calamity which threatens them, in case their lives should be prolonged beyond their ability to render acceptable labor to the church. This ought not to be so. The early days of Methodism were peculiar and required peculiar sacrifices. The times have changed now. The church has grown in numbers, in wealth and social position to an extent which supplies her with ample resources for lightening the burdens carried daily by so many of her heroic ministers. I do not claim that we have reached the end of our hardships and sufferings, but I do claim that we should distinguish between those that the conditions of our struggle require and those which are self-imposed and therefore gratuitous. But if the church will continue to keep those who abound in labors for her on such a slender allowance for their support, will she not, as a matter of simple justice, offer them something better than downright starvation when they are physically disqualified to respond to her calls for work? I believe that if the proper steps are taken the church will hasten with the remedy. A home will be established toward which our brethren who have given their all to the ministry, can look for shelter when the shadows of evening are closing around them. Let an organization be effected at once. Let each obligate himself to pay from one to five dollars annually. Let the whole church be called upon to aid in the undertaking and when a sufficient amount is in the treasury, let a judicious committee expend it in the purchase of a hundred or more acres of land, eligibly situated, and erect upon it buildings as required to meet the demand. Part of the tract might be put under cultivation and be made to yield profible crops. What think you of the project?

D. W. HAYS.

For the SOUTHWESTERN

Items from the La Teche District Conference.

DEAR EDITOR: Once more I am Secretary of the La Teche District Conference, and now that conference business is through with, the elders, deacons, local preachers, exhorters, stewards, class leaders and Sunday-school superintendents have all returned to their appointments, I feel at leisure to write, and therefore thought it not amiss to drop you a few words concerning our doings.

Our first effort of preparation to entertain the conference, on the dol plan of finding entertainment among families failed, owing, I believe, to the fact that times are hard, money scarce, politics booming, and great want of room. Under these circumstances things looked gloomy for us and the conference, and besides this, it had taken us exactly 60 days or more to find it all out. So here we are in what is called a bad fix, with about eight or ten days remaining, and then the conference would be pouring in upon us. It was too late to say that the conference could not be entertained, and yet there was no time to lose. We prayed for help, and it came forthwith, for the Lord opened our minds to more light, wherein we saw but one course to pursue in the matter, which we adopted and followed at once. In the first place, we resolved the official board into a committee; elected its Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, etc., and they divided themselves into the following sub committees:

1. Committee on Procuring Places to Sleep. They rented a large hall, and provided extra room in the parsonage.

2. Committee on Beds and Beddings. They secured quite a number of bedsteads, mattresses and bedclothes, etc., and arranged them in the rented hall and extra room in parsonage.

3. Committee on House Utensils. They borrowed and rented lamps, plates, cups and saucers, dishes, knives, forks, spoons, etc.

4. Committee on Stores and Supplies. They scoured the country around in a radius of ten miles, and brought in enough sheep, pigs, geese, chickens, eggs, pumpkins, potatoes, corn meal, etc., to feed the conference five days, with three meals each day.

5 Committee on Cooking. They provided the cooks for each day.

6. Committee on Refreshments. They provided the eating or dining table; also the waiters or attendants.

7. Committee on Attendants. They provided for cleaning hall, beds, etc, arranging light, water, dish washers, pot slingers and bone polishers in general; and in less time than it takes a man to walk 100 miles, we were prepared to entertain the conference, and were waiting for it.

Brethren, whenever you are in trouble or surrounded with difficulties, remember to—

Ask the Savior to help you,
Strengthen, comfort and keep you.
He is willing to aid you.
He will carry you through.

Too much praise cannot be given to the Lord, and the sub-committees as instruments in his hands, for the successful entertainment given the La Teche District Conference. However, we had our little misgivings until after the first and second days' eating, which grew out of the fact that Methodist preachers are very large eaters; some from natural abilities, and others on account of poor circuits. When the first two days' rush was over, we inspected our stores and provisions, and found enough to serve the balance of time until conference adjourned. Now, then, there were two things we could do—First, take care of the conference; second, go in for a good time; and we did so. It is conceded by all the members present at this session, that it is the best one on record for the district. Its deliberations, grasp and handling of questions that came before it were far-reaching, and tending to establish a healthy influence throughout the district.

There was but one thing that seemed to cast a gloom over the entire conference, and that was the continued illness of our dear presiding elder. One day he was up and apparently well, and the next down on his bed, looking as if about to die. Poor, dear Brother, his has been a trying time. He battled manfully to keep upon his feet, but at every effort the fever would come the John Sullivan over him, and knock him out every time. His sufferings were from malaria, which seems to have taken deep root in his system.

Brethren of the La Teche District, let us assemble at a throne of grace, and pray God to restore our brother's health to him.

Among the things discussed on the conference floor with deep interest, was the question concerning the influence of societies on our churches. Much talk and debate, pro and con, followed its introduction. The conclusions drawn out were, that the best thing we can do as Methodists, is to stand by the Discipline of our Church.

The temperance cause received its share of notice, and due consideration; so did the Woman's Home Missionary Society, of the district. Sister Susan Barksdale was re-elected District Superintendent. Sisters C. L. Armstead and M. A. E. Thomas were nominated for Corresponding Secretary. Sister Thomas declined the nomination, and Sister Armstead was unanimously elected District Corresponding Secretary.

The biggest item of the conference was the presiding elder's report, concerning the work throughout the district. It was elaborate and full, going over the work in detail of each department. It was interesting in all points, and by the unanimous vote of the conference was ordered spread upon its minutes.

Every day of the session was attended by many visitors, who watched the proceedings with absorbing interest. Rev. Charles Shallowhorne and Rev. J. F. Marshall were the two lions of the conference. It came of their masterly efforts in preaching—Bro. Shallowhorne the annual sermon, and Bro. Marshall the centennial sermon. Both efforts elicited the most commendable remarks on all sides.

The literary exercises and camp meeting was a success. The closing hours of the session were occupied in offering and adopting resolutions. The following were adopted:

1. Setting apart a day for holding memorial services to the memory of our late Bishop M. Simpson.

2. Welcoming Bishop Mallalieu to his home in New Orleans.

3. Rev. M. W. Taylor, to his post of labor, as Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

4. Endorsing the course pursued by Rev. A. E. P. Albert, B. D., our delegate to last General Conference, held in Philadelphia.

5. Complimentary to L. P. Cushman, for past services, as Editor of the SOUTWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE; also to Rev. A. E. P. Albert, B. D., his assistant.

6. Of thanks to pastor, officers and members of St. Mark's M. E. Church, and the good citizens of Washington, La., for their kind treatment.

7. Morgan's Railroad Company, for reduced rates, and the Washington Argus, for its kindly notice, etc.

Elder Burrell, the pastor of the Baptist Church at Opelousas, on invitation of Rev. Albert, spoke words of cheer and fraternity to us. We felt, under his voice and words, that we had in our midst a Christian and a brother. Conference adjourned sine die. Presiding Elder Albert lead in singing the parting hymn, 'and let our bodies part," etc. Sunday we missed our elder again, the fever had knocked him out.

Sunday night Rev. Chas. Shallowhorne preached the farewell sermon, and Rev. J. F. Marshall presided. The appointments of local preachers and exhorters were read out, the final hymn sung, and we parted, some of us never to meet again this side of heaven.

M.

Washington, La., August 19, 1884.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Neither "Improper, Immodest or Immoral."

BY REV. JAMES G. KITCHEN.

MR. EDITOR:—I will now say to you, just what I have said to several others in the past. We did intend to run an excursion from Darien to Brownsburg, to an agricultural fair on June 16th; but just before our programme came out, Rube Peyton was sentenced to be hanged on June 20th. His many friends and relatives came to us and asked that we would put the excursion off until that time, and we agreed to do so, and did. We were also requested to state on our programme the precise date of the excursion and we did so.

Why did we call it a wonder? Because Glyn county, Ga., is today full of men who have shot down colored men like so many rabbits, and not so much as an investigation has ever been had. We said a wonder that had not taken place in twenty years, but have learned since that there has not been one in forty years. At this word wonder, the Darien Timber Gazette became alarmed, not because we were going to see one of our own race hung, but at that word wonder. Now to show you that its trained at a goat and swallowed a camel, the Gazette said: "Rube Peyton the Negro murderer, who killed his best friend while gambling for one dollar and twenty-five cents, is to be hanged June 20th, and such an occurrence would benefit Darien."

As for music there was none. In fact the whole matter is false. The man did not hang and has not been hanged yet. To show you that the Gazette only intended to slander us because of our church relation, other churches have and are now having excursions from this place, with music and dancing before they leave the wharf, and not a word did ever the Gazette utter about it; but as soon as we said excursion, though we did not have so much as a flag on our mast to denote it, much less a musical instrument, the Gazette professed religion. But we should not be alarmed at this sudden outcry of the Gazette. Prejudgment has been, and is to-day, its theme. The Gazette and its many associates are ready to cry out fire when there is no danger. But in spite of their slander and slang, the Methodist Episcopal Church is going to conquer the world for Christ.

Darien, Ga., Aug. 10, 1884.

OUR SOUTHERN WORK.

LOUISIANA.

M. C. B. Mason, Haven Chapel: "Our church is moving on grandly—gradually increasing both in membership and influence. On Sunday, Aug. 23rd, the Carrollton Avenue Mission Sabbath-school was organized with thirty-three members. The following are the teachers: Rev. James Brisco, Mrs. Morse and Mrs. Jefferson. These, together with Bro. Richard Morse, have been annexed to the Sabbath-school Board of our home school, a meeting of which was held last Tuesday night with good results. Rev. James Brisco has entered heartily in the work, and is ably assisted by Mrs. Jefferson and Mrs. M. Morse. The organization of this school is mainly due to the energy of Bro. I. H. Norwood, our faithful superintendent. We believe this mission school is destined to do a good work. Our people are to erect a building in the near future, in which we pray the Spirit of God may dwell."

J. W. Hilton, Franklin: "We are now having a great revival in the church. We had 14 profess their hope, and 22 at the altar asking for prayers. May the Church join us."

V. Chapman, Monroe: "We failed to celebrate Children's Day on the 8th of June, because our church was closed for several weeks by the city authorities on account of a disease which resembled the small-pox, largely prevalent among the colored people. However we have had our celebration. The church was neatly decorated with flowers, wreaths and gilt letters. We had promised to send a part of the collection to the Educational Fund; $46.50 was collected, $5 of which was sent to the Educational Fund, and the balance, $41.50 was paid to the Board of Trustees to help repair our church. Our second quarterly conference was held by Elder S. Duncan on the 2d inst. The officers all submitted their reports in due form. During the quarter $360 have been collected, $95 of which have been paid to the trustees on repair of the church. On the 3d inst. we had a "basket meeting," several sermons were preached, one soul saved and joined the church; at night the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to about 50 souls. Our collections during the entire service was $51. Eleven have joined the church this quarter. Our people are very anxious to [illegible] but now and then we have [illegible] in our midst whose main object seems to be to create an excitement; if they fail in so doing they think they have made a failure. Accordingly we are advancing in every department of our church work. We are doing what we can for the SOUTHWESTERN. Pray for us."

[illegible] Gray writes that he is assisting Rev. H. T. O. [illegible] at Musson, and abounds in [illegible] a well ordered Methodism."

J. B. D. Powell, Musson, "Our pastor, Bro. Abbott, is a hard worker, and always trying to lift [illegible] We have bought a lot and are trying to build a church; we [illegible] time of it, with no [illegible] to hold our meetings. [illegible] night we held service [illegible] road, the moon being [illegible] our carpet, the [illegible] floor, and a ditch our [illegible] for us."

TEXAS.

[illegible], Town Bluff: "I found [illegible] here, and there are [illegible] we have now a house 30x40. The land is [illegible] we have the deed for. There is a Sunday-[illegible] in attendance, sadly [illegible] of literature, but we can [illegible] until fall. I have [illegible] this year; not much [illegible] made in this county."

[illegible], La Grange: "My [illegible] closed with 18 conversions. Third [illegible] was held during [illegible] by Elder O. L. [illegible] a good service [illegible] to be prayed [illegible] was $14.15. Reports of leaders and steward were good. I have received one acre of land for a church from Sister Posey, a member who lives about three miles from town. Farmers believe their crops will be short."

T. Ward, Jasper circuit: "Bro. A J. Neeley was assigned to this county, by Elder Lee, in June, and is doing good work. July 27 eleven joined the church. There is a Sunday-school of forty scholars. There is no money to live on and no house to preach in."

J. H. Holden, Alleyton: "The way to build up a church is to give the members credit for what they do, and to encourage them to do more, not only for the church, but for the educational fund, that we may become an intelligent people."

J. L. Smith, Millican: "Our third quarterly conference was held by Elder W. B. Pullam, who administered sacrament to 113. His sermons aroused all and brought a large number of mourners to the mercy seat. During the quarter paid pastor $49.08; on church debts $16.09; elder $12.91; sexton $3.33. Success is promised to the faithful, and this place needs a blessing."

R. Weaver, Jacksonville: "My third quarterly conference met at Pine Grove church. The brethren were glad to meet their presiding elder. In protracted meeting I had 19 conversions, among them some from the C. M. E. Church, and we have added to the church this year 43."

A. Alexander, Plantersville: "The quarterly conference was a successful one. Sacrament was administered to 70 people, and three were received as members. The steward took up for the elder $13.35."

A. Culbreath, Huntsville: "Elder Lee held second quarter. Reports were favorable; received in full 2, on probation 22, conversions 7, ADVOCATES taken 17, Sunday-schools 3, children 150. The school at Pleasant Grove bought an organ for $55.80; at Mt. Prince there is $30.85 on hand to buy; and at Galilee $14. On Children's day we had a grand time and raised $13. Centennial medals distributed $12. Total amount raised during the quarter for pastor $60, the church and school $70; and something collected on benevolent causes."

MISSISSIPPI.

David F. Dudley, Augusta: "I desire to return thanks to the Pearlington Sunday-school for a nice hymn book given by it to our Hattiesburg Sunday-school. We ask God's blessings upon them for their kindness. I preached there on the 20th and had a good time. Bro. N. Cannon allowed me to occupy his pulpit. The people gave me a wife, plenty of clothes and plenty of money to carry me back to Hattiesburg."

J. C. Thompson, Greenwood: "The centenary services were held June 8th, and we raised $10. The programme was compiled from the one furnished by the Board of Education, and the church was nicely decorated with flowers. Prof. W. H. Strickland, of Rust University, conducted the exercises, and we were addressed at 3 o'clock by Rev. J. W. Dunn."

R. Anderson, Jackson: "Elder J. M. Shumpert held our second quarterly conference. He preached a glorious sermon. Sunday-schools on the work are looking up. Elder's collection $13.40; pastor $45.90; bishop 30 cents."

ARKANSAS.

A. J. Phillips, Fayetteville: "The last annual conference made this a station. There are about 55 members able to contribute to the pastor's support. Some are not able to do much of anything toward the church. Those who can help are willing. We have completed our church building, and on the third Sunday in July raised $25, and the last on our church debt. Elder Sams was present on the fourth Sunday and held our quarterly conference. He was feeble but preached a grand sermon, administered sacrament to 75, and baptized 2. Collection $15.25. Tuesday night we held centennial services and raised by subscription $25 as a scholarship fund in Philander Smith College; also the Bishop's collection. Children's Day collection was $5 50. The elder is struggling hard to hold up under feeble health. May God's blessing attend him."

S. J. Brown, Marvel: "I am heartily glad of your election to the editorship. I pray that you may have great progress in circulating the SOUTWESTERN, until all of our people are brought to manhood. I never read it before this year but I love it more and more every day."

KENTUCKY.

Rev. Geo. W. Leach announced a centennial camp meeting in Brown's Woods, Sept. 6, to continue ten days. It is hoped they were successful in laying the foundation of the church.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Bible.

Picture to yourselves a forest abounding in trees, thickets, brambles and wild animals of every description; if you should become entangled in this place, find it impossible to get out, and after trying every device in vain, you sit down in despair, when suddenly a guide comes up, shows you a path, which if followed would lead you into safety, would you not be thankful to him, would you not feel that you owe him a debt of gratitude, would you not always remember him, and do all in your power to requite the kindness of him who was the means of extricating you from the jaws of the hungry beasts of prey? Then remember that the Bible is the guide which leads us from the forest of sin to the garden of God; from the way of vice to the path of virtue; from worldly learning to spiritual knowledge; from sorrow to joy; from unbelief to belief; from destruction to preservation; from earth to heaven.

There is no other book in the world which has such a skillful combination of poetry, prose, history, geography and science in various forms. Authors and historians are partial, but there is no partiality shown in the Bible; in it we are told that Jacob the servant of God, falsified; David, the king, committed adultery; Peter, the disciple, denied his Lord and Master, and Paul (when Saul) yet breathing out slaughter and threatenings against the Disciples of the Lord.

The Bible is the great fountain of literature; in reading it we are forced to exclaim, "truth is stronger than fiction." The history of Joseph and Mordecai, the unflinching spirit of fortitude characteristic of the prophets, the miraculous delivery of the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage, the miracles, suffering, death and resurrection of Christ Jesus, challenge our admiration and excite our wonder. From this book disputants are furnished with fruitful subjects for discussion, the orator a subject for an oration, the poet a theme for verse, the dramatist a play for the stage, and the scientist a problem which very often he is unable to solve; and when he finds it impossible for his intellect to penetrate the divine mysteries, he ridicules the sacred oracles and tries to prove the book unholy, illogical, uninspired.

Milton is indebted to it for Paradise Lost, etc., Dante for his Visions, Shakspeare for his keen insight into human nature, Bunyan for his Pilgrim's Progress, and I verily believe Greek and Roman literature, flowed freely from this great reservoir of thought. Even the infidel lawer seeks refuge in it, arousing the sympathy of the jury, causing them to bring in a verdict of "not guilty" for his client.

If the Bible was read by some people to-day as much as trashy literature, intemperance would be decreased, crime diminished, industry, honesty and virtue would take the place of idleness, dishonesty and vice; then a golden time would be enjoyed by mankind, characterized by a reign of peace and quietness, a proper observance of the Sabbath, a universal fear of God, and a steady triumph of the church; the sword would be preserved as a souvenir of what was, the pen would exalt virtue, the Golden Rule would be the law, and earth would be a beginning of heaven.

We read the Bible at our firesides, we hear it read from the pulpit, quoted by men in all vocations, and we study it in our Sunday-schools. It seems to have a peculiar charm. We become tired of other books, but the Bible always enlivens and refreshes; the more we read it the more we admire it. If any man has not found the Bible an interesting and instructive book, let him read it over again during the week. Sabbath after Sabbath we tell the old, old story of the cross, or hear it read, yet we never grow weary, never become satiated. Verily, verily enchantment lives in this book.

The Bible cannot be monopolized; the poor can have it as well as the rich, the Gentile as well as the Jew, the small as well as the great, the foolish as well as wise, the young as well as old, the bad as well as good; it is the cherished book of huts as well as palaces, it effects kings as well as peasants, and points the whole world to the "Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world." Ignorance with simple faith believes it; intelligence often doubts, but finally bows in humble submission, saying it must be truth, it can be nothing else.

Far away in the woods, apart from the culture and refinement of the city, stands a log cabin, in it a soul that knows not Christ to the pardoning of his sins, is dying; the man of God, though unlearned, wrestles in prayer, and expounds the words of this book to the best of his ability; he tells the sick of the dying thief, though burning with fever and racked with pain; he gives heed, since he is assured "While there is life there is hope," and at last "Comfort came down the trembling wretch to raise,

And his last faltering accents whispered praise."

The word of God is sharper than a two edged sword; it cuts in the hand of a soldier, in the hand of a citizen, right and left, behind and before, up and down.

Every misfortune is consoled in the Bible. The doomed man needs it from imprisonment to death. It gives hope to the backslider, encouragement to the worldly, the water of life freely to the thirsty, and rest for those who labor and are heavy laden. It teaches that God is no respecter of persons, that of one he created all nations for to dwell on the face of the earth, and proves conclusively the duty of the human race.

The Bible has withstood, and will always withstand the attacks of infidels; new arguments are constantly advancing that the Bible is uninspired, but like the many headed hydra which Hercules fought, for every one that was beaten in pieces two sprang up, cities may be destroyed, kingdoms may perish, but the word of God will stand. When the famous argument of Hume against miracles shall have passed away, when Tom Paine's Age of Reason shall have slept its last sleep, when the works of Voltaire shall have sunk into oblivion, the Bible will still live. No arguments crush it, it is indestructible. "The gates of hell shall not prevail against it;" it is truth; and Magna veritas est, et prevalebit. The Savior said: "I am the truth." "If God be for it who can be against it" "For we can say nothing against the truth, but for the truth." Let truth wrestle with error, she shall be victorious; she can safely say, like Greatheart, if I fall I shall rise again.

"Truth crush'd to earth shall rise again,
Th' eternal years of God are her's;
But error wounded writhes in pain,
And dies among her worshippers."

Socrates and Plato saw God in nature; to-day we live in better times, for we not only see Him in nature, but also study Him in revelation; what would we do without this Book of books. As chaos and confusion existed before the formation of the earth, so, without this Book morals would be in a chaotic and confused state, we would go along like the classic philosophers, with no clearly defined ideas of the Godhead, there would be no religious standard, every one would have his own peculiar interpretation of character, and the world would be as a ship without a rudder. What would we know of men and past events were there no history? Were it not for the Bible to-day we would be groping in darkness, idolaters, and probably, like the intellectual Athenians, with an altar erected "To the Unknown God," ignorant of the One whom we unawaringly worship. In order now a-days to get a situation, one must be recommended by men of influence; in order to procure quick sales for books, some one who is regarded as authority must examine them and give a favorable press notice; but the Bible needs not the recommendation of man, it stands per se, it recommends itself as a work of reality, not fiction; it is God's book, hence its superiority over all other books. Why do we believe in it? because it is the Book given by God, though written by holy men of old, the ideas came from heaven. As water needs no recommendation to the end that it can quench thirst, and food that it can appease hunger, so the Bible needs no endorsement as to its power to quench the thirst of the sin-sick soul, and appease those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they are blessed and shall be filled.

The morals of the Bible are unsurpassed; it recognizes moral excellency as the epitome of life. Confucius' code of ethics, beyond the shadow of a doubt, reflects great credit upon him, but that of the Bible reaches far above any penned or spoken by mortals. When the son of the Vicar of Wakefield was about to leave home for college his father presented him a Bible, saying, "Take this; I have been young, but now I am old, yet never have I seen the righteous man forsaken nor his seed begging bread." The presentation of any ordinary book may not have a peculiar significance, but that of the Bible means a great deal. You are expected to read it, study it, imbibe its holy precepts, assimilate the truths therein, live by it and defend it always.

This subject, the Bible, is inexhaustible; man is not good and wise enough to do it justice; life is too short to drain it; it is the book of love, and love is the virtue of virtues. It says God is love. They who take away the Bible from the universe shut out the sunlight of truth, and they who take away love from the world sever the golden tie which binds man to God. "Love is the fulfilling of the law." And now wealth, faith, hope and love, but the greatest of these is love. The Bible has been translated into more different languages than any other book in the world; what it is to us it is to the heathen. "Go ye into all the world and herald the glad tidings to all creation," etc. This is the injunction of the Bible. It tells of the great need of missionary workers; women and men are to engage in the work. We hear of Paul as well as Dorcas. It is right and proper for all Christians to act accordingly; and like the Savior go about doing good. Give freely, give nobly; giving is a Christian duty. The Bible does not say that preachers must beg for money, nor recommend fairs, raffles, and excursions to procure money to advance the cause of Christ. It says every man shall give as he is able. Let all exercise this missionary spirit, and enter vigorously into the work. Send missionaries to make the wilderness as the rose, and pray for the conversion of the nations. At home rescue the perishing, etc. "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few." This is the noblest work in which one can be engaged. The lawyer's boast is that he has saved the criminal from the gallows; the teacher's that she has reformed a community; the doctor's that he has cured some chronic disease; the preacher's that he has checked the growing evils of the day, but the missionary's that he has opened the eyes of the blind and turned them from darkness to light, from the power of Satan unto God.

The Bible is the Christian's volume; it will never fail to accomplish its end; it consoles in affliction, soothes in troubles, aids in distress and strengthens in temptations. When time shall be no more, when the great author of life's drama shall gather us together to examine our thoughts and judge our deeds, only those who have obeyed the commands and lived the life marked out by the Bible will hear those words of approbation, "Well done good and faithful servants, enter ye into the joys of your Lord." There they will dwell forever—

We are the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Savior and brethren transported to greet,
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

What glory gilds the sacred page
Majestic like the sun!
It gives a light to every age,
It gives but borrows none
The power that gave it still supplies
The gracious light and heat
Its truths upon the nations rise,
They rise but never set.

WRAP.

Washington, D. C.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Austin Sunday School Convention.

DEAR EDITOR: Please allow me space in your valuable columns to give you a gist of the proceedings of our Sunday-school convention, held in Austin, August 7, 8 and 9, in which all of the Sabbath schools of the different denominations were invited to take an active part.

The convention assembled according to appointment, at Wesley chapel, M. E. Church, and was called to order at 10 o'clock a. m. by Rev. G. O. Richardson. Rev. H Swan read a scripture lesson from the XVIII chapter of Mathew, which was followed by singing and prayer by Elder G. W. Richardson. Dr. J. F. McKinley was elected temporary Chairman, and Monroe A. Majors temporary Secretary. The following members were enrolled as members of the convention:

Wesley Chapel, M. E. Church—Rev. H. Swan, W. G. Wilson, R. W. Burnett, J. D. Penn, J. C. Johns, W. H. McKinley, W. R. McKinley, A. A. Clarke, J. H. Hickman, M. W. Alexander, Elder G. W. Richardson, Mr. Woolfork, of Kentucky, Walter Duncan, Prof. G. O Richardson, T. Lashwah, Miss Lizzie E. Moore, Miss Lizzie Thomas, Miss Georgia Banton, Miss Celia Perkins, Mrs. Swan, Miss Ida V. Norris, Mrs. G. W. Richardson, Miss Lucy Bean, Mrs. Maurice Givens, Miss Jennie Morgan, Miss Hattie Green, Miss Lucinda Penn, Miss Maria Clements, Miss Dolly Hardeman, Miss Josephine Rose, Miss Fannie Campbell, Miss Carrie Blain, M. A. Majors.

A. M. E. Church—Mr. Hancock, Elder A. Grant, Miss Eliza H. James.

Third Baptist Church—Mr. John Spence, Mrs. J. H. Haraford, Mrs. J. W. Madison, Miss Mary Franklin.

Giddings Baptist Church—Miss Lizzie Pope.

Second Baptist Church—Mr. Grant, Miss Eliza Barton, Miss Eliza Hopkins, Miss Lucy Lomax, Miss Cornelia Lomax, Miss Catherine Coleman.

Simpson Mission, M. E Church—Elder Smith, Louis Hamilton, Mr. Deloney, Willie Hamilton.

The following officers were elected for permanent organization:

President, J. F. McKinley, M. D.; Vice Presidents, Rev. A. Grant, A. M. E. Church; G. H. Grant, Second Baptist Church; John Spence, Third Baptist Church; W. G. Wilson, Wesley Chapel, M. E. Church; Elder Smith, Simpson Mission, M. E. Church; Secretary, M. A. Majors; Assistant Secretaries, W. R. McKinley, A. A. Clarke; Treasurer, Miss Lizzie E. Thomas; Organist, Miss Ida V. Norris.

The following committees were elected:

First, Committee on Temperance. Second, Committee on Sunday-school Missionary Societies. Third, Committee on Sunday-school Union. Fourth, Committee on Finance.

The Committees made favorable reports.

The teachers met each day at 6:30 p. m., to discuss the principal topics assigned, as laid down in the Teacher's Sunday-school Journal, which adjourned at 7:30 p. m., followed by mass meetings.

Thursday evening, August 7, programme as follows: Subject—Temperance. The speakers of the evening were Rev. M. A. Dongherty, of the Central M. E. Church, Mr. Woolfork, of Louisville, Ky., and the writer.

At 9:30 a. m., Friday, August 8, the teachers, superintendents and scholars met at Wesley Chapel for drill as a model Sabbath school, conducted by Rev. G. O. Richardson, assisted by Mrs. O. A. Richardson. Number of scholars present, 100; teachers, 16. At 10:45 a. m. the Sabbath-school was dismissed, and the convention proceeded to business, Vice-President John Spence in the chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The Question Drawer was disposed of; different topics were discussed. Questions were sent in to be answered. Meeting adjourned at 12 m.

At 8 p. m., Friday evening, August 8, 1884, the mass meeting met at the A. M. E. Church, and opened by singing. Prayer by Elder A. Grant. Song: "Tell it to Jesus," after which the elder expressed to us what a source of pleasure it afforded him to welcome us, the members of the convention, including the visitors, in his new church.

The speakers of the evening were: Mrs. C. A. Richardson, Rev. B. B. Wright, of the Presbyterian Church, Dr. Q. B. Neal, Elder A. Grant and the writer. Subjects: Home a Divine Institution, and Civilized Influences of Home. Justice was rendered to the subjects by the different speakers. Song, and benediction by Elder Grant.

The mass meeting of Saturday night was one of considerable interest. The speakers of the evening were: W. G. Wilson, Rev. G. O. Richardson and Rev. Johnson, of the M. E. Church South. Subject: Foreign Missions. We claim that this convention was of great value to the Sabbath-schools and churches of this city, and much benefit was derived thereby. Our Sabbath-school increased from 180 to 220 scholars. The teachers and officers are better prepared to do a more thorough work.

May God bless Bro. G. O. Richardson in his continued work in the interest of the Sabbath schools.

Yours in the work,

H. SWAN.

Austin, Texas, August 18, 1884.

Indiana Conference.

The fifty-third session of the Indiana Conference has just concluded its meeting in Greencastle, Indiana. Bishop Foster presided, and Bishop Bowman attended the session. The various interests of the churches under the presiding eldership were represented by them. A decided purpose was exhibited to make DePauw University in the most commanding situation, for the [illegible] of its mission. The Church Aid Society shows a prosperous year, and the affairs of the [illegible] as represented by this church, generally are advancing.

APPOINTMENTS.

Indianapolis District—W. R. Halding, Presiding Elder.

Terre Haute.)

R. Miller.

[illegible] be supplied by [illegible] Woodruff.

[illegible] Moore.

[illegible] D. Wood.

[illegible] Wilson.

[illegible] St., W. M. [illegible]

[illegible] Asbury.

[illegible] be supplied.

[illegible] J. R. Wood.

[illegible] John Alabaster.

[illegible] Allen.

[illegible] Burns.

[illegible] D. Collins.

[illegible] A. Biller.

[illegible] Morris.

[illegible] be supplied

[illegible] Daniel.

[illegible] John Kiger.

J. J. Hight, assistant editor Western Christian Advocate.

Alexander Martin, President, and Edwin Post, professor, DePauw University.

Bloomington District—McK. Hester, Presiding Elder.
(P. O. New Albany.)

Bedford, Wm. Telfer.
Bloomfield, J. W. Culmer.
Bloomington, J. E. Brant.
Bloomington circuit, to be supplied.
Dover Hill to be supplied by M. W. Stetson.
Elettaville, B Carter.
Freedom, to be supplied by G. W. Asbury.
Gosport, J. D. Crane.
Harrodsburg, E. P. F. Wells.
Heltonville, J. L Sims.
Linton and Newberry, W. V. Russell.
Mitchell, R. A. Kemp.
Patricksburg, H. J. Barr.
Pleasantville, Dayton Harvey.
Spencer, John Spears.
Springdale, W. D. Morgan.
Tunnelton, F. A. Hutcherson.
Worthington, S. O. Dorsey.

H. B. Hibben, chaplain in United States Navy.

Vincennes District—M. M. Hobbs, Presiding Elder.

Alfordsville to be supplied by C. H. Sherburne.
Bruceville, H. N. King.
Carlisle, J. M. Watson.
Farmersburg to be supplied.
Graysville, E. Hawes.
Hymera, W. McK. Johnson.
Loogootee, J. F. McGregor.
New Lebanon, J. L. Cooper.
Odon, G. F. Culmer.
Prairieton, W. T. Davis.
Shoals, J. M. Baxter.
Sullivan, M. S. Heavenridge.
Vincennes, W. H. Grim.
Washington, T. C. Danks.
Washington circuit, E. Gaskins.
Wheatland, M. Woods.

J. A. Scamahorn, missionary to Northwest Nebraska Mission.

Evansville District—J. L. Woods, Presiding Elder.

Blue Grass, John Tansy.
Evansville—
Ingle Street, John Wallis.
Kingsley, J. W. Payne.
Pennsylvania Street and Ridge, G. E Platt, superintendent.
Trinity, J. L. Pitner.
Fort Branch, J. Rawlins.
Mt. Vernon, J. W. Asbury.
Mt. Vernon circuit, J. T. Woods.
Newburg, S. W. McNaughten.
New Harmony, J. B. Hamilton.
Oakland City, J Telfer.
Owensville, H. C. Clippinger.
Patoka, John Bruner.
Princeton, T. H. Willis.
Stewartsville, W. H. Jack.

Rockport District—H. J. Talbot, Presiding Elder.

Booneville, W. W. Puett.
Cannelton, A. A. Godby.
Center, W. F. F. Smith.
Centryville, W. W. Rundell.
Grandview, A. Hurlstone.
Huntingburg, S. F. Anderson.
Lynnville, B. T. Vancleve.
Newtonville, G. Reid.
Otwell, G. D. Wolfe.
Petersburg, D. T. Davis.
Rockport, I. N. Thompson.
Rockport circuit, F. A. Lester.
Rome and Oil Creek, to be supplied by J. D. Kiper.
Selvin, J. Clulow.
Union, J M Hillyard.
Wickliffe, to be supplied by J T Bean.
Winslow to be supplied by T W Winkler.
Yankeetown, C E Hargrave.

New Albany District—J. H. Ketcham, Presiding Elder

Campbellsburg, J T Edwards.
Corydon, C W Woods.
Elizabeth, G Heavenridge.
Fredericksburg, W P Burnhill.
French Lick, M S Woods.
Greenville, W H Davidson.
Hardinsburg, G C Cooper.
Lanesville, S L Culmer.
Leavenworth, J Godby.
McKendree and Embury, S W Troyer.
Marengo to be supplied by W McMikel.
Mauckport, W A Fox.
New Albany—
Centenary, J Poucher.
John Street, R G Easley.
Kingsley, to be supplied.
Main Street, G W Fansler.
Wesley Chapel, A R Julian.
New Philadelphia, to be supplied by Mr Montgomery.
New Providence, M C McKown.
Orangeville, A N Elrod.
Paoli, N E Boring.
Salem, T D Welker.

F A Friedley, President of DePauw College for Young Women; L J Cain, moral instructor in State Prison South.

Transferred—G W Stafford, to the South Kansas Conference; J F St Clair, to the Des Moines Conference; Marion Rose, to the Illinois Conference.

Died—Levi Johnson, N J Bell, William Maginnis, W W Webb, Hayden Hayes, G W Walker.

Superannuated—W V Daniel, New Albany; W C Smith, Peru; Charles Cross, Herman, Neb.; R E Spencer, Selvin; John Talbott, Orleans; H S Dane, Mooresville; W F Mason, Pacific Coast; E W Cadwell, Canton; Asa Beck, Greencastle; A W Shively, Sweet Water, Neb; J S Collins, Leavenworth; L D Jay, Troy; Lawrence Jones, Huntingburg; J S Wall, Indianapolis; D M Smith, Shoals; O A Barnett, Rockport; J F Fish, Monrovia; Lealdes Forbes, Mineral City; J M Harbin, Merom; David Swartz, Bone Gap, Ill.; B F Julian, Selvin; H O Chapman, Tunnelton; J W Julian, Sullivan; O H Tansy, Freedom; John Laverty, Longpine, Neb.

Supernumerary—Francis Walker, New Albany; Calvin Lee, Terre Haute; J F Palmer, South Kansas; L S Knotts, Lisbon, Dakota; B P Rawlins, Shoals; J W Haupt.

PILGRIM'S WAY SONG.

BY MRS. H. F GOULD.

I'm bound to the house of my Father;
O draw not my feet from the way;
Nor stop me these wild flowers to gather
They droop at my feet and decay!
I think of the flowers that are blooming
In beauty unfading above;
The wings of kind angels perfuming
Who fly down on errands of love.

Of earth's shallow waters the drinking
Is powerless my thirst to allay;
Their taste is of tears, while we're sinking
Beside them where quicksands betray.
I long from that fount ever living,
That flows from my Father's own door,
With waters so sweet and life-giving,
To drink and to thirst never more.

The gold of his bright happy dwelling,
Makes all lower gold to look dim;
Its treasures all treasure excelling,
Shine forth and allure me to Him.
The gems of this world I am treading
In dust, where as pebbles they lie;
To win the rich pearl that is shedding
Its lustre so pure from on high.

For pains a torn spirit is feeling,
No balsam from earth it receives!
I go to the tree that hath healing,
To drop in my wounds from its leaves;
A child that is weary with roaming,
Returning in gladness to see
Its home, and its parent, I'm coming—
My Father, I hasten to thee!

Tidings from Bishop Hurst.

A note from Bishop Hurst to the Assistant Editor, dated at Stockholm, Sweden, July 16, brings pleasant tidings of his European trip. Although personal in its character, we ventured to reprodnce such portions as are of general interest: "I am having a pleasant time, so far as plenty of work and a most cordial welcome are concerned. My family, with the exception of Carl—who is with me all the time—are in Berlin, every member hard at work at the German. They will remain there until my return from the Scandinavian Conferences. I have arranged a series of services during August in the Germany and Switzerland Conference, which I hope to carry ont should the cholera not prevail seriously in Baden and Wurtemberg. At the Sweden Conference I had the great pleasure of meeting the Rev. Dr. C. C. M'Cabe and my dear Baltimore friend, Dr. D. H. Carroll. They, with their families, made the Swedes very happy. We had the Chaplain, and the people too, singing, shouting, and crying, in ten minutes. He taught the preachers and the whole congregation in old Upsala to sing, 'I'm the Child of a King,' and it will ring out here and far up in Norway long after he shall have returned to America. Friends by the score have helped him with special gifts to found here in Stockholm our Theological Seminary for Scandinavia."—Christian Advocate.

The bishops, in pursuance of the action of the last General Conference, ordering the appointment of a commission to be known as "The commission of General Conference entertainment of the Methodist Episcopal Church," have agreed upon the following commission. Morris D'C. Crawford, Newburg, N. Y.; Homer Eaton, Glens Falls, N. Y.; William Swindells, Philadelphia, Pa.; John M. Phillips, Agent of the Book Concern, 805 Broadway, N. Y.; Clinton B. Fisk, Seabright, N. J.; John B Cornell, New York City; Edward H. Dunn, Boston, Mass.

If Your Cough is Growing More Troublesome.

If you are losing flesh and strength, and are beginning to have night-sweats or any of the well-known and alarming symptoms that indicate pulmonary trouble, write to Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1109 Girard street, Philadelphia, stating your case clearly, and ask their opinion as to your condition, and whether they have treated similar cases with their new Vitalizing Remedy. It will cost you nothing, as they will make no charge for consultations. They will, at the same time that they reply to your inquiries, furnish you with such documents and reports of cases as will enable you to determine whether in your own case a cure is possible.

A Pity, Not a Shame.

The disinterment of Lieut. Keslingbury's remains seems to have furnished proof positive that starvation drove the surviving members of the Greely expedition to the dreadful necessity of feeding on the bodies of their dead comrades. It is difficult to conceive, however, what satisfaction the relatives of those who died can find in establishing this fact, or what gratification to any feeling but morbid curiosity can result from further investigation and discussion of the subject. To be reduced to straits that compelled feeding on dead men's bodies was punishment enough for the offense, if it was any offense. The world's records, however, furnish many instances of similar occurrences, and the narratives of ship-wreck tell of numerous cases in which the lot was cast to determine which one of a starving company should die for food for the remainder. Men isolated from the world and the world's conventions, have in extremity the right to set up for themselves rules of propriety, and their conduct should be judged by them.

Greely and his party went to discharge a certain task, confided to them because of their special fitness. If they had all died, all their labor would have been lost. It was obligatory on them as good soldiers to endure all suffering and resort to the most extreme measures to keep themselves alive, in order that their task might be fulfilled. We have no doubt that those who died would, if they had been asked, have expressed their entire willingness that the little remainder of flesh on their bodies should go to sustain the strength of the friends who outlived them. We have no donbt, either, that the party would have been justified in deciding among themselves in any way agreed upon which should die as food for the others. It seems to us that the relatives of those who were eaten, instead of raising a senseless disturbance about it, should rather be proud of the fact that even after they were dead they secured the success of the expedition for which they suffered and died. It is not given to many men to effect so much after death. There is no evidence so far to show that the Greely party resorted or thought of resorting to the expedient of casting lots to see which should die. The justification for shooting Henry on the facts as stated was complete. The intimation that others were unfairly and violently done away with is, we believe, a shameful calumny. There is one fact that marks it so, and that is the fact that one of the men found alive and carefully attended to was the Esquiman, with both feet frozen, who died on the rescuing ship. He was for some time before the rescue a helpless burden. He was a friendless stranger, about whose fate no influential friends or inquisitive newspapers would have made a disturbance, and yet he, who could have been knocked on the head without the slightest trouble and eaten without inquiry, was cared for by the others and carried alive to the ship. If killing in order to eat had been practiced he would have gone into the larder as soon as the freezing of his feet made him a burden and marked him for certain and early death.

We hope, for the credit of American common sense and for the sake of common decency, that there will be no more opening of graves and no more printing of forecastle yarns. Lieut. Greely has asked for a court of inquiry about the killing of Henry. If his request is granted all the essential facts about the last struggles for life will come out. In the meantime no feeling is proper but pity for the poor fellows who had to live on the bodies of their comrades, and as for those who were eaten they could not have been turned to better uses or had nobler graves. Thousands of men as brave have been eaten by vultures and carrion crows and the foulest beasts of prey.—Commercial.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY.

Trade Mark. On Every Bottle.

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol 1) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged.—Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition.—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition)	40
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II: Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884, at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Exprssly for Babies,

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women.

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 18, 1884.

Papers are promptly stopped when the time of subscription expires. Order a renewal a week previous, and send on the subscription money.

The printed minutes of the Colorado conference have been received. They are neatly gotten up and reflect credit upon the secretary and his efficient corps of assistants.

The way to solve the problem of the Negro race is to neither kill, intimidate or discriminate in favor of or against them. Neither ostracize or humor, but let them alone, and they, under God, will work out their own salvation.

Hon. John R. Lynch, the Republican candidate for Congress in the Fifth district of Mississippi, is making an energetic canvass, and is receiving those courtesies which are due to a man possessing, in addition to the necessary qualifications for the office, a private and public record for integrity.

Edward J. Gay, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Third Louisiana district, is a wealthy sugar planter of Iberville parish, and well known in business circles of New Orleans. A few months ago we published a correspondence between Mr. Gay and the pastor and trustees of our church at Rosedale, of a pleasant nature. It referred to the donation of a lot by Mr. Gay to our brethren who were sadly in need of a good church location, and were too poor to acquire it soon by their own efforts.

The New Orleans Picayune, commenting upon the Democratic dissensions in the Fifth district Congressional convention says: "As we stated a short time since these frauds at the ballot box are very severe doses for a Democratic nominee to take when a representation in a Democratic convention is based upon them." It refers to the alleged vote of Tensas parish, at the last election: McEnery, Democratic, 3820; Brevenson, Republican, 2. In that parish the proportion of whites to blacks is about as 1 to 10. The Picayune asserts the return of the votes was a put up job to give that parish overwhelming weight in convention, and that the "ring faction" now plead their privilege in defense.

Fifth Street colored Baptist [illegible], Louisville Ky., was re[illegible] Sunday, July 20th, after being thoroughly repainted and cleaned inside and out. Rev. A. Heath, the pastor, has been successfully conducting the affairs of this church since the death of Rev. [illegible] Adams several years ago. [illegible] powerful and useful organization [illegible] the only Baptist church [illegible] which has not been [illegible] by schism since the war. [illegible]. Heath was recently presented with a suit of clothes and a pair of eye glasses. This was [illegible] intended to signify their [illegible] a continuation of the same [illegible] sight on spiritual and moral [illegible] which he has ever evinced [illegible] ministerial and personal life [illegible] midst.

[illegible] Witness notices the [illegible] converts to Roman Catholicism in India, as such, are not [illegible] factor in social and [illegible] that Protestant nations are. The Parias[illegible] the fishermen and [illegible] of the Bombay coast, [illegible] Roman Catholics, [illegible] distinguishable from the [illegible] them, and do not [illegible] less trouble. The [illegible] of native Christians [illegible] official and public [illegible] every grade, and is entirely [illegible]. The fact that the [illegible] in India is considered [illegible] cause for this [illegible] enmity. The small [illegible] Catholicism be[illegible] Protestantism [illegible] "the Don't Shut Out the Sunlight.

When Alexander, the conqueror, met Diogenes, of Sinope, at Corinth, he was surprised to see him so reduced in poverty, and was desirous of rendering the famous philosopher such relief as he might require. So, after saluting him in the kindest manner, he asked Diogenes if he wanted anything. To which the philosopher curtly replied: "Yes, that you would stand a little out of my sunshine." Nothing is more conducive to good and cheerful manners than plenty of sunshine. Let in the sunlight. Early in the morning throw up the windows, push back the blinds, open the doors, unstop the chimneys, and let in the sunlight. Life is heat and light. Death is cold and dark.

Homes which have no sunshine, physical, moral or divine, are the abodes of death, not life, literal or spiritual.

Let in the heavenly sunshine to your heart; cold, shady hearts indicate dead and misanthropic sentiments. Let in the sunlight of happy songs to your lips. Let in the sunlight of charity to your thoughts. Let in the sunlight of sympathy to your nature. Let in the sunlight of purity to your character. Let in the sunlight of peace to your life. Let in the sunlight of innocence to your conscience.

Unbar the doors, and let in the gracious beams of Gospel sunlight to the inner chambers of your soul. Let in the sunlight.

The Maine Elections.

The elections which took place in the State of Maine, on the 8th inst., were looked forward to with considerable interest by political leaders. A Governor, four Congressmen, a Legislature, and county officers were to be chosen, and an amendment to the State constitution, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors was to be voted upon. Maine is a Republican State in presidential elections, but in 1880 a combination of Democrats and Greenbackers succeeded in electing a Governor by a plurality of less than 200 votes, and this fact has led to many unverified expectations since. Mr. Blaine, the Republican candidate for the Presidency, is a resident of Maine, and there was some curiosity manifested previous to the last election to learn what effect his nomination had made upon his fellow citizens. The latest returns show that the Republicans carried every county in the State, elected every member of the State Senate, have an overwhelming majority in the House, elected all Congressmen, and the Governor by a majority of about 20,000 votes. The prohibition amendment received a majority of near 40,000. The magnitude of the vote, and the general results are a great surprise to both parties. Mr. Blaine is certainly strong at his own home, and the Republican ticket received a large number of Democratic votes.

The Recorder's Agony.

Some of the ministers in the African Methodist Episcopal Church keep up the practice of reporting it about where it serves them best, that the church property of the Methodist Episcopal colored people is deeded to the bishops. They know that the reports they are circulating are untrue. A kind of ecclesiastical campaign lying as it were.—SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Alas for human depravity! Does not every minister in the A. M. E. Church know that there is very little church property of the above description—"church property of the Methodist Episcopal Church colored people!" Alas for the charge! Does not the SOUTHWESTERN ADVOCATE know the danger of calling his brother a liar! As for these shameful rivalries that depend upon unfairness in every form for church progress. Sometimes we hear of A. M. E. members being told by prominent ministers in the M. E. Church that the A. M. E. Church is after their money only. We should hate to say that they "keep up the practice," though we have no doubt that such assertion in this connection would stand as severe analysis as in the connection made for it by the SOUTHWESTERN ADVOCATE. We are inclined to suspicion a little lack of weighing words on the part of our good brother ADVOCATE.—Christian Recorder.

No, we have given full weight to our words in this case. It is a miserable practice, the existence of which we most sincerely regret. Perhaps the Recorder and the SOUTHWESTERN may together laboring for its abatement have an unexpected degree of success therein. We are ready to give the name of the African Methodist Episcopal preacher who has been keeping up this practice. He lives not far from Wilberforce. Can you tell us the Methodist Episcopal preacher who has said that the African Methodist Episcopal Church is after the money of its members only? As to the amount of the church property owned by the Methodist Episcopal colored members, there is not so much of it, that is true; but it does right well for the time they have been acquiring it, mostly since the war. Here are the figures for 1883, viz.:

Parsonages, 324; value	$ 45,360 00
Churches, 2072; value	2,418,000 78
Paid for building and improving churches and parsonages	146,477 00
Paid on old indebtedness	104,875 00
Total paid	$251,352 78

This does not show the entire work done by our colored members as some of them are in mixed Conferences and the figures are difficult to obtain. We did not call our brother a liar. Mr. Conkling, once in debate with the late Senator Benj. Hill, used some strong speeches and when his attention was called to it he said that it was only a characterization of language. That is what we did, we characterized a brother's language. What is the danger of doing this? Well you must call the SOUTHWESTERN father not brother, as it is a part of your mother, do you mind that now? Honestly don't you think it is high time the great African Methodist Church was putting the seal of its unequivocal condemnation, through its great journal the Recorder, upon the numerous misrepresentations its ministers in many places, at divers and sundry times, have been making against the colored ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church? Do you demand a bill of particulars, this is not our busy season, so we can oblige you. "Alas for depravity," etc.

To Correspondents.

We cannot print articles which are not signed by those who write them, especially when such articles are intended to be a criticism on the private or public conduct of a person in private or public life.

The SOUTHWESTERN is responsible for what its correspondents write after publication, unless it promptly gives their names when it is desired that it shall do so, except as stated, when there are complaints, in which case we are bound to relieve ourselves by citing the author. For this reason we have been compelled to leave unpublished a number of valuable papers. We trust that our correspondents will feel the necessity of stating facts in such language as will give the least offense, and for which they will be entirely willing to take the full responsibility, upon complaint of affected parties.

The propriety of this course of proceeding we are sure will be conceded at once by all who think over the matter for a moment.

Rev. John Henry Brooks.

The following is a biographical sketch of Rev. John Henry Brooks, founder of the 5th Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., by Rev. T. S. Robinson of the Mt. Jezreel Baptist Church: "The Rev. John Henry Brooks was born in Hanover county Va., in the year of 1830. At the age of thirteen he joined the church, came to this city in 1862, and organized the 5th Baptist church in 1866, which to-day numbers 1400 members. For 35 years he had been a preacher.

He leaves four children, one son and three daughters to mourn his loss, his wife having preceded him by one year and 7 months and 29 days."

The New Orleans District Conference is in session. About 43 members are present, and a fair representation of visiting members and friends; also Elder Cushman, the presiding elder, presided with courtesy and dignity. He is a man of very commanding presence, graceful and slightly humorous in manner. Prof. A. H. Hoyt, of New Orleans University, and the editor were present, each for the first time in any ministerial assemblage in this city. The impression made upon us was certainly very pleasing. The personnel of the conference is above the average. Three white and three slightly gray heads appear. Rev. A. E. P. Albert, presiding elder North New Orleans district, was present lending eclat to the occasion. Prof. Hoyt briefly addressed the conference with reference to the University. There will appear full reports at the close of the conference, and the indications are that this will be a most agreeable and harmonious meeting. Resolutions introducing and welcoming Revs. Drs. A. F. Hoyt, acting President of the New Orleans University, and Marshall W. Taylor, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, were adopted.

Ex-Gov. Pinchback, of Louisiana, and Representative O'Hara, North Carolina, have been making a quiet tour through the South to encourage voters of their race and party, and are now in New York. Both report that there is more than a fighting chance for Republican victory in West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, and Florida. There is probably no better posted man on the subject of Southern politics than the Louisiana ex-governor, and his statements are well worthy of belief, and his advice of earnest consideration. Mr. O'Hara knows whereof he speaks on matters in the "Old North State."—National Republican.

Yes, but a quiet campaign is not the thing the exigency of Republican necessities in the South at present require. They have no great margin to speculate upon. Agressiveness is their best, hope and in a canvass under the leadership of Mr. Blaine such a course was to be expected. The colored voters are Republicans. It requires no great amount of political acumen to tell that. But like other people they need the inspiration which comes alone in politics from influential backing.

We have been furnished with the programme of the second convocation of the colored clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, to be held in New York City, Sept., 10-11-12, 1884. We are pleased to note the fact that New Orleans is to be represented by the Rev. Dr. C. A. Thompson, rector of St. Philip's church, who is to preach the opening sermon.—Louisana Standard.

It may please this convocation to consider some very strong speeches of the Rev. Dr. Tucker and Rev. J. T. Hargrave, ministers of the same church. In the speeches referred to these ministers have been at the pains to publish sweeping and most unjust, because untrue charges of indolence, immorality and duplicity against the Negro population of the South, not excepting the colored clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church. These gentlemen are bound to at least deny the truth of said charges so far as they and their congregations are concerned.

Quite a stir was made recently in Calcutta by the Mohammedans parading several so called European converts to the faith of Islam. The triumph was short lived. We learn that nearly all of the converts have disappeared, and the Moulvi who was the chief recruiter, now speaks against Mahommedanism, and has made a formal avowal of his faith in Christianity. Another Moulvi has been baptized. The Indian Witness comments: "The attempt to make capital out of worthless loafers deserved the discomforture which has overtaken it, and we now hope that all our Christian friends will resist the temptation to win a cheap triumph by being in too great haste to receive spurious Mahommedans."

Death of Bishop Pierce.

The sad intelligence of the death of Bishop George F. Pierce, the senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at his residence in Sparta, Georgia, is before us.

He has not been in strong health for several years, and of late his condition has been such as to warrant the sad culmination which has taken place at any time. He died at 9:15 a. m., Wednesday, Sept. 3, and retained his consciousness to the last. The news of his death will be received with sorrow by a wide circle of friends, to whom the Bishop was naturally very dear. He was a representative man in many respects. With respect to the Negroes his views were peculiar, and the writer thought too narrow for a man of his sphere and gifts. But he seemed to be conscientious, and he certainly was manly. We regret his death, and join with his great and greatly bereaved church in this hour of their bereavement.

Dr. Haygood, in a letter to Bishop McTyeire, says of him:

"SUNSHINE," SPARTA, GA., Sept. 1, 1884.—My Dear Bishop: I came here last night, driving across the country from "Walker's" Church, Greene county, where our dear Bishop yesterday was to have preached. There at his grandfather's, Col. Foster's, he was born; there he preached his first sermon; there, as it now seems, he had his last appointment, which I tried to fill for him yesterday morning. He is, to use his words to me last night, "far spent." He is fearfully emaciated and helpless. His pulse is weak and at times irregular. Besides his throat trouble and weakness, he is in a typhoid condition. As far as our own eyes can see there is no hope of his recovery. This is, I understand his physician's judgment. His mind is perfectly clear and his peace perfect. He talks of matters as if sometimes he expects to get up. This, I think, is force of habit. He apprehends his condition when he thinks of it.

This morning he got his consent to lay down for a time "the care of the churches." When I offered to write to you, asking you to arrange for his "year's work," he was gratified and wanted me to do so at once. The transfer of the responsibility rests him. He made a characteristic deliverance this morning. Some one dropped a remark about his having overdone himself. He replied: "I have not overdone it; I have only gone on in the regular drift of duty; I went as far as I could and stopped." I shall stay with him a couple of days if he should linger so long.

He is "a good man and full of the Holy Ghost." Your friend,

A. G. HAYGOOD.

Bishop McTyeire, Nashville, Tenn.

Later in the day Bishop McTyeire received the following dispatch announcing the Bishop's death:

SPARTA, GA., Sept. 3.—To Bishop McTyeire, Nashville, Tenn.: Bishop Pierce died this morning at 9:15, conscious to the last moment. Burial Friday morning.

A. G. HAYGOOD

Bishop George F. Pierce was born in Greene county, Georgia, Feb. 3, 1811. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church in 1826. He embraced the ministry and entered the Georgia Conference in 1831, and soon showed unmistakably that he was one of the truly called. He was the first President of the Wesleyan Female College, the oldest chartered female college in the world. He also filled the Presidency of Emory College, Oxford, Ga., from 1848 to 1854, when he was ordained Bishop by the General Conference, at Columbus, Ga. In 1834, Bishop Pierce married Miss Ann M. Waldron, of Savannah, Ga., who survives him. The American contained an account of the golden wedding of the venerable pair, which was celebrated on Monday, Feb. 11, this year.

Rev. Dr. Harrison, of Nashville, who furnished the American reporter with some of the facts relative to the history of the deceased Bishop, says that Bishop Pierce was the first man he ever heard preach. He was a great pulpit orator. Until of late years, he was afflicted with a disorder of the throat. He was without doubt one of the most powerful preachers of the times. A man of fine education and imperial imagination and fine presence, he preached with the most wonderful effect, and his converts may be found from California to South Carolina.

Unlike many other ministers and public speakers, Bishop Pierce shone with equal brilliancy in the social circle. He was a fine conversationalist, sympathetic and kind, and his personal friends are nearly as numerous as those who admired him for his talents.

Bishop Pierce leaves a widow and four living children to mourn their great loss. The latter are: Mrs. Ella Caroline Turner, Mrs. Claudia Snider Middlebrooks, Mr. Lovick Pierce, his only son, who married Miss Sarah C. Turrey, and Mrs Anne Toombs Harley.

Personal.

—Bishop Foss had a public reception at Oakland, California, September 5th.

—Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, of Boston University, is at present in New Orleans visiting his home and relatives.

—Bro. Cushman is writing up his district, and his letters will bear close reading to the profit of the reader.

—Miss Alice Young, late of Louisville, formerly of Aberdeen, Ohio, has recently returned to reside in that village.

—Rev. Tennessee Jackson has begun a protracted meeting in Simpson Chapel, New Orleans, with fair prospects.

—Mrs. Lucy A., wife of Rev. Alex. Ford, of Clinton street, New Orleans, is confined to her room with an attack of billious fever.

—Bro. I. B. Scott, of Galveston, does well in writing to mention kindly the heroic labors of the pioneer Methodist fathers.

—Bishop Warren is still at Santa Cruz; Bishop Fowler is at Salem, Arizona. Bishop Foss is expected back from Yosemite in a day or two.

—Mr. Robert Henson has been married to Miss Roxey Hundley, daughter of the Rev. M. Hundley, of the colored Methodist Episcopal Church, Louisville, Ky.

—Register Bruce was in the city recently, looking after colored exhibits in the Exposition. He was received at Geddes Hall and dined with the principal colored politicians of the city.

—Rev. Madison Charles B. Mason, pastor of Haven Methodist Episcopal Church, gave us a call and a cordial welcome at the office last Thursday. He reports progress in his work.

—Rev. A. E. P. Albert, B. D., late assistant editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, is now presiding elder of La Teche district, Louisiana conference, and his residence is 1956 St. Charles street, New Orleans.

—Mrs. Alice, wife of Rev. Tobias Bibbs, of Pewee Valley, Ky., died August 31st. Her life and death was consistent with her profession of Christianity. She was a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a great sufferer.

—Rev. Samuel Osborn, superannate of the Louisiana conference, one of the veterans of this Southern work, was in our office recently. He is living quietly at his home in New Orleans, and is waiting for orders for his transfer to the church beyond the clouds.

—Rev. Alex J. Ford, present elder of Clinton street, Methodist Episcopal Church, made his bow to the SOUTHWESTERN last week. He is in good health, has a congregation of 400 or 500. They began the year somewhat roughly there, but matters have been growing steadily better and the prospect is very encouraging.

—Bro. Hagood makes a good historian and when he is through with Clarke Chapel, he should turn a hand on the history of his conference. We know far too little of the brave ministers and their wives, and the laymen and women who have bravely wrought and suffered in the first work of the conferences.

—Rev. Joseph Gould, who was formerly a member of the Louisiana conference, and located two years ago on account of failing health, is now so far restored that he contemplates returning to the itinerancy at the aproaching session of his conference. He was succeeded on the Baton Rouge district, by Rev. Pierre Landry, and was himself successor to the Rev. Dr. W. C. Daily of the same district.

—Bro. J. M. Shumpert is being deservedly complimented for his earnest efforts to do good in the late General Conference. He is quite worthy of the esteem of his Conference. As a delegate he served it faithfully. He speaks a kind word for the editor, and says that which we prize above all, that the SOUTHWESTERN is a live paper and will live. We say he is a live presiding elder and will be successful.

—Mrs. Corina L. Thomas, of St. Louis, Missouri, late of Georgia, is a lady who was converted in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and afterward united with the African Methodist Episcopal Church in Newark. She has been canvassing Mississippi in the interest of a work published by Messrs. Hill & Harvey, Baltimore, Maryland. She lately united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Ocean Springs, Mississippi, and has been employed as a home missionary on the Gulf district of the Mississippi conference as she informs us, by the presiding elder, Rev. W. McDonald. She is a lady of good address, seems to be in earnest and reports a good beginning with encouraging prospects. She thinks there is a great deal of work to be done in the homes of the people, and feels herself called by the Lord to undertake it. Her method of working is to visit the ministers, and with their co-operation lecture the people in the churches, organize Sabbath-schools and supply such literature as may be required. We do not know enough to speak decisively of either the lady or her work, but we are sure that her ideas of work in the rural districts are correct, and that she or some one or a number of persons ought to be busy gathering and sowing the Lord's outlying harvest. The lady is the grass widow of a minister whose name she now bears, being legally divorced. Not more in this than in others, but in all cases, a good deal of deliberation should be exercised in matters of this kind. The Woman's Home Missionary Society should in some way certify its agents.

Church Polity.

When may a Methodist Episcopal preacher properly divorce his wife according to the Scriptures?

Scriptures of Divorcement.—In the Scriptures we find two words which are commonly translated—divorcement; and the passages which contain them are supposed to contain also the laws of divorcement.

The first is in Deut. xxiv, 1-4: "When a man has taken a wife, and married her, and it comes to pass that she find no favor in his eyes, because he has found some uncleanness in her, then let him write her a bill of divorcement (Hebrew, Kerithuth) and give it in her hand and send her out of his house."

And "and when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife."

And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand and sendeth her out of his house, or if the latter husband die which took her to be his wife,"

The former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife. After that she is defiled; for that is abomination before the Lord, and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance."

commit adultery; and whosoever shall mary her that is divorced committeth adultery."

There are similar passages in Matt. xix, 7 and Mark x, 4. Plenty of other Scriptures may be found in which the laws of marriage are set forth, but the laws of divorcement as given by Moses and modified by Christ are those herein cited. If, under Moses' law it embraced numerous causes, under Christ it was restricted to one cause only.

The words Kerithuth, from the Hebrew, and Apostasion, from the Greek, are used in the Old and New Testaments respectively to express the legal instrument of separation.

Definition—Let us look a little into modern English definitions of divorcement.

1st. Divorce (n) To turn different ways, to separate from, to turn.

2d. Law. A legal dissolution of the marriage contract by a court or other body having competent authority. This is properly a divorce and called technically (a) A Vinculo Matrimonii from the bands of matrimony. (b) The separation of a married woman from the bed and board of her husband, and is called a mensa et toro, from board and bed.

3rd. Divorcement is the sentence or writing by which marriage is dissolved; the dissolution of the marriage tie.

With these definitions before us, and admitted as apropos with the law of Moses as modified by Jesus in view, the question arises: When is a Methodist Episcopal preacher divorceable according to the Scriptures? We reply: The law of Christ is the only standard by which a Methodist preacher can regulate his life. If this conflicts with any human creed or statute, he is bound to follow obediently the injunctions of Christ's law, though he becomes thereby an offender, and is caused to suffer the extreme penalty of man's law. We ought to obey God rather than man. The statute of the States in this country grants divorce for several causes, viz: 1st, desertion; 2d, cruelty; 3d, insanity; 4th, incompatibility of temper; 5th, impotency; 6th, venality; 7th, improvidence, and 8th fornication.

Divorce (v. t.) To dissolve wholly or particularly the marriage contract, to separate by divorce, to take away, to put away. But only under the last would it be justifiable by the law of Christ as expressed in Matt. v, 31, xix, 7; Mark x, 4.

Fornication Defined.—1st. The criminal conversation of a married man with an unmarried woman.

2nd. Also the sexual commerce of a married man with an unmarried woman.

Synonymous with Fornication is Adultery defined as violation of the marriage, the unfaithfulness of any married person to the marriage bed; the voluntary sexual intercourse of a married person with one of the opposite sex. It may be committed between two married persons or when only one of them is married; in the latter case it would be single adultery, in the former double.

Incest—1st. The crime of cohabitation or sexual commerce between persons related within the degree wherein marriage is prohibited.

2nd. Spiritual Incest—The crime of cohabitation committed between persons who have a spiritual alliance by means of baptism or confirmation.

1st. Fornication; 2nd, adultery; 3rd, Incest, as defined above, constitute a valid ground for divorce, according to the scriptures. Whenever a Methodist preacher or his wife is clearly proven to be guilty of this offense, and there is no extenuating or mitigating circumstances, then they are divorceable, and not till then. What are extenuating or mitigating circumstances? Anything short of a willful commission of the offense, viz: Want of moral sense, insanity or violence. When a divorce takes place upon New Testament authority, the innocent party is at liberty to marry again just as if the offending or guilty one was dead. But the guilty is in no wise at liberty to marry, any more than a person physically dead would be so. But should a man put away his wife or the wife her husband for any other cause than fornication, it is adultery until they come together again. If the divorcee, that is, the person, divorced, should marry any one else, when the cause of separation was not fornication, it is adultery, and the divorce was the cause of it. The person that marries the divorcee is also guilty of adultery. Matt. v, 31, xix, 9; Mark x, 10-11. Since adultery is sin, and whosoever puts away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, is an adulterer, it follows that a Methodist preacher, who must not be a sinner, can only put away his wife when she is a willful fornicator; therefore, if a Methodist preacher divorces his wife for any cause save fornication, he can not remain a valid preacher. By this act he becomes an adulterer, and as a practical sinner he can not consistently direct others in the path of righteousness. Hence, when a Methodist preacher divorces his wife for a less cause than willful fornication, he ceases to be such preacher de facto if not dejure.

A female subscriber inquires:

"Is it in the Scriptures that children will not be held accountable for their sins until they are 12 years old?"

No, that is not in the Scriptures. But since your sister was not so old as that, since she did all she knew now to do for herself, and did all that you told her to do, we have no doubt of her acceptance with the Savior, and that her death was the end of her sorrows. We are greatly pleased with your Christian simplicity, faith and trust in God and His ministers. Salvation can only be obtained by repentance, and being spiritually born, it is the duty of every one to attend to this as well and as soon as they know how, whether that be at 5 or 25 years old. The following Scriptures teach this: Gen. 6; Psalms 119, 32; Prov. 27, 1; Eccl. 9, 10; John, 9, 4; Eccl. 12, 1; Isa. 55, 6, Jno. 12, 35; 2 Cor. 6, 2; Phil. 2, 12; Heb. 3, 7-11. Timothy was taught the Holy Scriptures by his mother and grand-mother when a child, 2 Tim. 3, 15. Mothers should look after that. It is said that "when we come into the world we are sinless," but whenever we are able to distinguish between right and wrong and choose the latter knowing it to be wrong, we are responsible and liable to punishment. This does not depend upon our age but upon our knowledge of right and wrong. Children are not punished for the sins of their parents, nor for the sins of Adam their first parent. For the sake and merits of our Lord Jesus Christ every son and daughter of Adam is born into the world in a condition to be justified, regenerated, adopted and made an heir of eternal life, and those dying in infancy come into possession of all these blessings. They are born into the world sustaining such relations that they may, by the grace of God, be prepared for and admitted to the kingdom of heaven. Christ said to the disciples at Perea, "Suffer little children and forbid them not to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of God." This shows that they are now members of Christ's Kingdom. Our Discipline says: "It shall be the duty of our preachers to enforce upon parents and Sunday-school teachers the great importance of instructing children in the doctrine and duties of our holy religion, to see that our catechism be used as extensively as possible in our Sunday-schools and families, to preach to the children, and publicly catechise them in the Sunday-schools, and at public meetings appointed for that purpose." "It shall be the duty of every preacher in his pastoral visits to pay especial attention to the children, to speak to them personally and kindly on the subject of experimental and practical godliness, according to their capacity; to pray earnestly for them, and diligently instruct and exhort all parents to dedicate their children to the Lord as early as convenient." Discipline 1880, p. 166, par. 260 261. It is the duty of parents to give their children moral and religious training. Should any die before they are able to receive this they will be saved. If able to receive and they reject, it is wilful and they cannot, no matter at what age, escape punishment if still unrepentant at death.

Schools and Colleges.

Central Tennessee College Singers.

This troupe, organized for the purpose of aiding in the enlargement of the college buildings, and of securing an endowment to one or more of its chairs, will soon leave Nashville for a trip North and East, passing and giving entertainments at Franklin, Bowling Green, Louisville and other cities in Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio if opportunity is presented. Any pastor who desires to aid the college, or would like the troupe give a concert in his church, can arrange the matter by addressing, Rev. John Braden, Central Tennesse College, Nashville, Tenn.

They recently gave a concert, and rendered the following programme to delighted audiences in Nashville, where they are now called upon to give another concert in a larger hall soon:

PROGRAMME.

March di Concert....Pickett's Orchestra Quartette.
Miss Vara L. Moore.....Organ
Mr A. W. Wood.....Violono
Mr. Wm. F. Lewis.....Coroet
L. N D. Pickett.....Violin
Greeting Glee.....Entire Company
Cheerfully now we take our places,
Gayety beams on all our faces.
Jubilee Select. { a. Save me from my Sin. b. Hear your lov'ly Faith'r
Among the Lilies. Tenor Song. L. Pugsley
Bye, bye, my Chilna—Jubilee.....
.....Led by A W. Wood
Whippoorwill's Song — Waltz — Secular Chorus.....Entire Company
Joshua and His Battles—Jubilee.....
.....Led by J. M. Peters

INTERMISSION.

During the intermission refreshments were served.

King and His Chariot—Jubilee..Company
Violin solo with orchestra accompaniment "Sweet Bye-and-Bye," with variations .....L. N D. Pickett
Female Quartette, with orchestra accompaniment:
Miss A. B. House.....1st Soprano
Miss M. C. Overton.....2nd Soprano
Mrs. Wm. F. Lewis.....1st Alto
Miss F. A. Key .....2nd Alto
Cornet Solo. { a. Andante Grazioso. b. Allegro di Bravura, et Fine
.....L. F. D. Pickett
Hebrew Daniel—Jubilee.....
.....Led by Lewis Pugsley
Happy Farmer—High Comic—Vocal and Instrumental trio.....The Big Three
Mr. A. W Wood...1st Tenor and Violinolo
Mr. Wm. F. Lewis..2nd Tenor and Cornet
L. N D. Pickett.....Baritone and Violin
Miss Sarah Jane—High Comic—A "little" love ditty. by "little" Andy Hughes
..... The "little" Fellow
Closing Medley—Introducing popular airs, Farewells and Good-byes, concluding with "Home Sweet Home."

Resolutions of Colored Teachers.

In view of the fact that for four weeks the Summer Normal School for the colored teachers of the third Congressional district has been taught in Wiley University, Marshall, Texas, and that the same was tendered by the trustees free of charge to us for the above purpose, be it

Resolved, That the teachers do now tender them a vote of thanks for its use.

Resolved further, That we cannot fail to express ourselves thankful to the principal, Prof. I. M. Terrell, for his labors among us, to better fit us for our profession; for while here he has greatly improved our methods of teaching, and imparted new life to us.

Resolved, That we owe a high tribute of thanks to the assistant teacher, Prof. R. H. Harbert, who, with the fruit of years of experience, has not failed to mete it to us in the form of many new and practical ideas and methods of interesting the children.

Resolved further, That we are thankful to the pastors—Revs. L. M. Luke, of the Baptist Church, and Rev. R. H. Harbet, of the M. E. Church, for the use of their churches for our public exercises.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Fort Worth Gazette, the Marshall Herald and the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE at New Orleans.

New Orleans University, A. F. Hoyt, Acting President.

The following is a synopsis of the Belles Letters Course of two years, for young ladies only, showing the number of recitation hours weekly for each study:

BELLES LETTERS COURSE—JUNIOR YEAR.

First Term—Wentworth's Algebra, 4 hours; Barnes' U. S. History, 5 hours; French, 3 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Instrumental Music, 2 hours; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Second Term—Algebra, 4 hours; Human Physiology, 5 hours; French, 3 hours; English Composition 1 hour; Instrumental Music, 2 hours; Vocal, 1 hour;

Third Term—Algebra, 4 hours; French, 3 hours; Physical Geography, two hours; Book-keeping, 3 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Instrumental Music, 2 hours;

SESSION YEAR.

First Term—Hill's Geometry, 4 hours; German, 3 hours; English History 2 hours; English Literature, 2 hours; Pope's Catechism of Theology, 1 hour; Instrumental Music, 2 hours; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Second Term—Hill's Geometry, 4 hours; German, 3 hours; Zoology, 3 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Pope's Catechism of Theology, 1 hour; Instrumental Music, 2 hours; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Third Term—German, 2 hours Botany, 5 hours; Aesthetics, 2 hours; English Literature, 3 hours; Pope's Catechism of Theology 2 hour; Instrumental Music, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Young ladies to enter upon the Belles Letters Course should be at least seventeen years of age, and have completed English, German, arithmetic, general descriptive geography, reading, spelling and writing. This course is intended for those who for any reason do not wish to take four years for the usual collegiate studies. Students coming from other preparatory schools should always bring testimonials from their teachers and others as to their intellectual attainments and moral character. Examinations will be held at the close of each term or when a given study is completed. The student's standing will depend upon the daily record made in the recitation room, and such a record showing that honest work has been done by the student, will decide whether one passes in a given study rather than a brilliant examination which may be the result of special cramming. We trust that the above course will meet a felt want and prove satisfactory to many who wished to pursue a course for a couple of years in a practical line of studies.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Letter from San Antonio.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: Having been so busily engaged, I have but little time to write, though knowing it would greatly encourage those faithful women and men who are engaged in the work. I must now ask some indulgence. The church is in a fair spiritual condition, leaving those who are unrighteous to be unrighteous still, as the Lord will make those who are of the synagogues of satan, to come and worship before his feet, and to make them to know that he has and do love his true followers.

Financially, we are somewhat embarrassed, but not to despairing. It has been told the readers of the dear old SOUTHWESTERN of our Sunday school convention here on July 10th; it was substantially true as stated—a success. The Sunday-school and the church were much encouraged by the manner in which it was conducted by Rev. G. O. Richardson, of the Northwestern University, at Evanston, Illinois. There was a good revival spirit begun, and resulted in six conversions. Our Band of Hope, organized previous to the convention, was greatly encouraged by the temperance lectures delivered by Mrs. C. A. Richardson and Miss M. M. Vaughan, a faithful and useful young woman, who devotes all of her time to elevate her race. She is now teaching a public free school at Riddlesville, Karnes county.

As we expect in a few weeks to write up the expenditures of this charge, we only rejoice to note the fact that on July 9th the trustees paid Mr. R. Stumpf, sub-contractor, $100 of the closing $308 88, due for work done on our church edifice last year. To the shame and utter disgrace of these men who did this work, the walls and arch of the chancel are beginning to break apart, and there are serious fears that it will crumble and drop to pieces before we get it paid for. I know not where to locate the blame, but we find on close examination that we have no way to keep back one cent of what is due. O! that our preachers and trustees would conduct all our business according to our specified plans.

Without a dollar to begin with since June 14th, we have paid $250; balance due $58.88, which was ordered last night in our trustees' meeting to be paid to-day. August 24th we collected on a subscription list $70. As we will give the names and amounts paid during the year by each subscriber, we hope our friends will be satisfied with the statements here made.

July 15th we paid Mr. William Beatty, architect, $10, because he was employed. We are not near through yet, therefore we press on. The class leaders have agreed to give class festivals alternately every fortnight. The man who contracts debts may feel like an honored prince receiving the plaudits of the waiting multitudes, but the man who has to pay the bills, without anything to begin with, stands often at his wits' end, finds it all vanity and vexation of spirit. His soul groans, and he stands between two straits. We have in view and are planning to give a grand centennary three days' feast. Our soul runs out in more than one direction. It may not be known generally that the Alamo city leads all the rest of the cities of the "Lone Star" State in scholastic population, having 6,649. The colored must be not less than one-sixth. Notwithstanding this is a city of wonderful pretensions, yet it cannot boast of a single school house for the accommodation of the colored youth. The two story stone building now in use, which has only four rooms, was built by the Freedmen's Bureau over 16 years ago, under the direction of Gen. O. O. Howard, U. S. A. These facts we have laid before the Hon. Board of Education, with a petition asking for an increase of school facilities for this rapidly increasing youth.

On Monday night, August 4th, pursuant to a call issued by the writer, the mothers and fathers, and a host of women and men met en masse at the Recorder's Court room, and organized by electing your correspondent Chairman, and Mr. W. W. Grimes Secretary. A healthy discussion ensued, and the following named were appointed a committee to express the sense of the meeting to the Hon. Board of Education: Messrs. Wm. Lockwood, J. B. Davis, W. H. Riley, H. O'Neal and M. Henson. Due action was taken by the board, the proceedings of which were published with the petition. We here submit a copy as published here in the Daily Express. The amount apportioned to free schools in this State is $5 per capita. This gives Bexar county $12,615, and to this city $32,245, or a total of $44,860.

Space will not allow me to express in detail; however, there are many reasons why colored children will not, under present arrangements, be benefited by the above amount.

August 7th to 10th a camp meeting began at Spring Creek, six miles northeast from Boerne, Kendall county, conducted by Rev. E. Garrison, a faithful local preacher. Myself, family and others from San Antonio assisted. The long drouth left the people without means to continue the meeting longer than Sunday night. The results were four conversions, four import baptisms, four adults and five accessions. We closed with 25 earnest seekers at the alter, which we regretted to do, but force of circumstances compelled us. Revs. S. Evans, D. W. Tucker, S. Gibbs, local preachers, and A. Wilker, exhorter, rendered valuable assistance all the way through. We preached and lectured on temperance and education until we had no voice. Many of the best white families from Boerne and the neighborhood attended, and seemed to be much pleased with what they saw and heard. Politics, politics; there is no end to politics, and Blaine and Logan men are on the increase every day, and are on the alert. Pray for us, the end of the year is in full view.

Yours fraternally,
MACK HENSON.

We are gratified to hear of the safe arrival of Dr. Vernon in Rome, August the 22d. By taking a Northern route he avoided the usual seven days detention in quarantine, waiting only a few hours in London and Vienna.

Domestic Hygiene.

...Is Our Duty to be Healthy.

BY GEORGE L. CURTIS.

Such a statement suggests several important questions, such as: ...a person keep from being sick? ...sickness a necessary condition ...our being? Are there any plain, ...mon sense rules to be observed ...preserving health and preventing sickness? Is it designed that ...men and women should expose ...selves to all manner of disease ...ducing things, and not become ...ck?

While not willing to say as some ...e has, "health is a duty, and ...ness is a crime," it may be ... that health is a condition of ...g that it is our duty to maintain. ...man has a right to seek to be ... All sickness is the result of violation of some law of our ...g. If we are sick, it is a sure ... that we have done something ... and broken some of the ... of nature. Sickness will not ... if we live perfectly. We either ...ingly or ignorantly violate ... rule of health established by ... Creator, and sickness follows. ... pot of boiling water is overturned, and a child is scalded. ... follows; the skin is removed; ... sore is formed. The child ... not have received the scald ... hot water had not fallen up...

The overturning of the hot water ... child was purely accidental, ... for all that, the pain is just as ... as if done intentionally.

"Disease is as unnatural as in..., or idiocy, or intoxication." ... delicately made body of man ... with care, to run for seventy ... and in many cases even ... and only cease to act as a ... of old age. Instead of that, ... diseased, sick and distressed ... everywhere. Trace up ... of sickness, and it will ... that they have all come ... violation of some of na... laws. A preacher has a sore ... and is hoarse in voice. It ... is that he has been preach... loud and too long when suf... from a cold. There is a pain ... stomach, and knowing ones ... eating something that ... healthful. A man is suf... with chills and fever. The ... inquires if he has not ... exposed to malaria in the ... air. One has a severe tooth... it is proof of a bad tooth. ... that every disease has a ... No one is sick, unless some ... broken. ... ...

General News Items.

The cholera is ravaging Southern Italy.

The relations of the Vatican and the Republic of Costa Rica are ruptured.

England orders neutrality to be observed between the French and Chinese.

Admiral Courbet insists upon a declaration of war by France against China.

Lieut. Gabriel Felix has been appointed French minister resident at Ogowe, West coast of Africa.

The Republican Convention for Washington Territory, nominated K. W. Armstrong, delegate for Congress.

The oil tanks in the Pennsylvania region are uniformly twenty-eight feet high, ninety feet in diameter, and cost $8,000 each.

There were serious riots in Brussels between the Clericals and Liberals on the 7th. A Clerical procession dispersed because its progress through the streets was checked by crowds, and 185 arrests made.

The Vatican has forwarded a note to the French government declaring that the recent legislation upon the subject of divorce is at war with the doctrines of the Catholic Church. An encyclical will be issued on the subject.

The Republicans elected their candidate for Governor of Maine by 19,000 majority; a majority of the Legislature; all Congressmen, and carried the prohibition amendment by 20,000 majority.

The latest Labrador news is appalling. The codfish catch is short 500,000 quintals, and on the northeast coast of Newfoundland a famine is imminent. Abont 800 families are reported starving and are sustaining life at present on squids.

The Chinese Government has made a declaration of war in the form of a manifesto from the Emperor to the people. The Emperor declares he regards the French action as constituting a state of war, and he calls upon his subjects to aid in repelling the foe.

About nine miles West of Crawford, Miss., last July two colored boys, charged with poisoning children about two years ago, were tried before a magistrate and sentenced to jail. At night while on their way in custody to Starkville, they were hung to a tree, after confessing their guilt.

Select Proverbs.

After wit is every body's wit.

A friend as far as conscience allows.

A drowning man will catch at a straw.

[illegible] solitude [illegible] vide [illegible]

A good servant makes a good [illegible]

A good tale ill told is marred in the telling.

[illegible] is a good thing, but [illegible]

[illegible] court is worth a pen[illegible]

[illegible] is long enough [illegible]

[illegible] [illegible] alms for God's [illegible]

[illegible] anything [illegible] does them do. I

To the People.

STATUE OF LIBERTY.

Joint Resolution authorizing the President to designate and set apart a site for the colossal statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World," and to provide for the permanent maintenance and preservation thereof.

"Whereas, The President has communicated to Congress the information that citizens of the French Republic propose to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of our independence by erecting, at their own cost, a colossal bronze statue of 'Liberty Enlightening the World,' upon a pedestal of suitable proportions, to be built by private subscription, upon one of the islands belonging to the United States in the harbor of New York; and

"Whereas, It is proper to provide for the care and preservation of this grand monument of art, and of the abiding friendship of our ancient ally; therefore, be it Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the President of the United States be and he is thereby authorized and directed to accept the colossal statue of 'Liberty Enlightening the World' when presented by citizens of the French Republic, and to designate and set apart for the erection thereof a suitable site upon either Governor's or Bedloe's Island, in the harbor of New York; and upon the completion thereof shall cause the same to be inaugurated with such ceremonies as will serve to testify the gratitude of our people for this expressive and felicitous memorial of the sympathy of the citizens of our sister Republic; and he is thereby authorized to cause suitable regulations to be made for its future maintenance as a beacon, and for the permanent care and preservation thereof as a monument of art, and of the continued good-will of the great nation which aided us in our struggle for freedom."

The foregoing Resolution of Congress setting apart Fort Wood and Bedloe's Island, in the Harbor of New York, for the Statue of Liberty, and covenanting to provide for its permanent preservation and maintenance as a beacon and memorial of the ancient and continued good will of the great nation which so materially aided us in our struggle for freedom, is an equivalent on the part of our Government to a donation (including the maintenance of a powerful electric light in the hand of the Statue) of more than $1,500,000; leaving it to the people of the United States to provide about one-fifth of that sum for the foundation and pedestal.

The whole structure when completed will exceed a height of 300 feet, and become a fitting monument to the grandeur of free government.

The cost of the Statue—more than $250,090—was contributed by one hundred and eighty-one cities, towns and precincts in the Republic of France, in appreciation of the blessings of a Government—"by the people, for the people"—such as exists in the United States of America, with a liberty that enlightens the world!—gracefully reminding us of the sympathy and help of their ancestors in our struggle to obtain it.

The American Committee having in charge the raising of funds for the completion of the pedestal are unable, from the very nature of the case, to organize sub-committees throughout the country for that purpose; therefore, they confidently appeal to influential and patriotic citizens of every locality, to Chambers of Commerce, Boards of Trade Exchanges and Societies, to aid them in this National Monument by forming sub-committees for the purpose of gathering the remainder of the needed funds.

The Statue is finished, and has recently been formally presented to Mr. Morton, our minister to France, and will be ready for transportation to our shores in a French national vessel as soon as the pedestal shall be ready to receive it. More than half of the sum required for its completion has been contributed—chiefly by New York and its immediate vicinity. The work is well under way, and ought not to be stopped by the indifference or apathy of the people. The committee feel confident that it will not be, when the object of this international sentiment of friendship and love of liberty is fully comprehended.

Hitherto it has been misrepresented and misunderstood. It is in no way a private enterprise for personal or sectional glorification; it is the gift of the people of France to the people of the United States!—the grandest monument ever dreamed of as a recognition of the blessings of Liberty. It is fitting that the pedestal should be constructed by the contributions of many and not of few. No North, no South, no East, no West; but throughout this glorious land More than $125,000 will be required to complete the pedestal of the Statue preparatory to its inauguration, as set forth in the Resolution of Congress.

The funds of the Committee are nearly exhausted; the work must stop within thirty days unless public spirit and patriotism is widely aroused to finish it. Indifference to it is tantamount to national ingratitude and humiliation.

All checks should be drawn to the order of H. F. Spaulding, treasurer. Your fellow-countrymen:

WM. M. EVARTS, Pres't.
RICH'D BUTLER, Sec'y.
H. F. SPAULDING, Treas'r.

Executive Committee—Jos. W. DREXEL, PARKE GODWIN, J. W. PINCHOT, V. M. MOORE, FRED'K A. POTTS.

55 Liberty St., New York, Aug. 14 h '84

Calendar of Dates in Methodist History—September.

1. Richard Whatcoat and Thomas Vasey ordained deacons by Mr. Wesley 1794.

2. Whatcoat and Vasey ordained 1784. Bishop Morris died 1874.

3. Rev. R. A. Alyworth, of East Ohio Conference, died 1880, aged 88.

4. Date of the earliest existing "Love feast" tickets 1739.

5. General Conference of Methodist Church met 1882.

6. William Black, "Apostle of Methodism," died in Halifax 1834

7. Ecumenical Conference met in London 1881.

8. Bishop J. W. Roberts born 1812. Bishop Bascom died 1850.

9. First number of the Christian Advocate issued 1826.

10. Bishop G. Haven born 1821. Bishop Harris held first Italian Mission Meeting 1874.

11. Canadian Methodist Union Committee met in Hamilton 1882.

12. Jessee Lee died 1816, aged 58. Dr. R. S. Rust born 1815.

13. Anthony Bewley, of Arkansas Methodist Episcopal Conference, hanged by a mob 1860.

14. Thomas Cooper, first class leader and steward in Pittsburg, Pa., died 1850.

15. Rev. Jacob Young died 1859. First sermon in Bath, Maine, 1793.

16. Bishop Merrill born 1825. Hon. J. Black born 1823.

17. Bishop Hargrave born 1829.

18. Bishop Janes died in New York 1876, aged 69.

19 Ordination of John Wesley 1725. First session of New England Conference 1797.

20. Corner-stone of Seney Methodist Episcopal Hospital laid in Brooklyn 1882.

21. Bishop Wayman born 1821.

23. Dr. J. M. Trimble celebrated his golden wedding 1883.

23. Date of Wesley's famous words, "Who can say the time for field preaching is over?" 1759.

24. Charles Wesley's first visit to Boston 1736.

25. Dr. Peter Cartwright died 1872.

26. Robert Williams, one of the first Methodist preachers, died 1775.

27. Westminister Training College established in England 1849.

28. Henry Boehm preached in German. John Wesley preached a sacramental sermon at Philadelphia 1785.

29. Mrs. Malinda Hamline, wife of Bishop Hamline, born 1806.

30. First session of New York Conference 1788. George Whitfield died 1770.

HUNT'S KIDNEY & LIVER REMEDY NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

IT IS A SPECIFIC FOR Kidney & Liver Troubles, Bladder, Urinary and Liver Diseases, Dropsy, Gravel and Diabetes.

IT IS RELIABLE in curing Bright's Disease, Pains in the Back, Loins or Sides, Retention or Non-Retention of Urine.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

It cures Biliousness, Headache, Jaundice, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles.

IT WORKS PROMPTLY

and cures Intemperance, Nervous Diseases, General Debility, Excesses and Female Weakness.

USE IT AT ONCE.

It restores the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, to a healthy action and CURES when all other medicines fail. Hundreds have been saved who have been given up to die by friends and physicians.

Price $1.25. Send for Illustrated Pamphlet to HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

5 SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

sept4 1y

EDUCATIONAL.

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts.

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. L. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue, sept4 New Orleans, La.

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants, and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for postage. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. Mention this journal. jy17 1y

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

10,000 MEN WANTED to sell The Great Temperance Controversy. A work of thrilling power and interest. Send for Circulars GEO. FULLWELL & CO., COURIER JOURNAL Building, LOUISVILLE, KY. aug21 4teow

AGENTS wanted for the History of Christianity, by Abbott. A grand chance. A $4 book at the popular price of $1.75. Liberal terms. The religious papers mention it as one of the few great religious works of the world. Greater success never known by agents. Terms free. STINSON & Co., Publishers, Portland, Maine. Mar27-eow

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired.

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to 72, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	20
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
38-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For CATARRH And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS Can be taken at home. Incurable when our directions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, O.
feb7-1y

Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Georgia.

The Forty-seventh Annual Session begins Oct. 1st. Most elegant buildings in the South. All modern conveniences. Best advantages in Literature, Music and Art. Special attention to health and comfort of pupils. Moderate charges. Apply early to W. G. BASS.

p618-26

Central Tennessee College,

Nashville, Tennessee.

This College begins its nineteenth year on

Monday, September 8, 1884.

Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.

Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.

The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.

For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia.

Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.

A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.

VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.

For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. 1oct18-1y

The Great Church LIGHT.

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, N. Y.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches	175 lbs	325 lbs	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	85 00
36 "	550 lbs	800 lbs	125 00
40 "	750 lbs	1050 lbs	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1900 lbs	280 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$13 00
20 inches	130 lbs	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov28-1yr

AUTOMATIC
OR "NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.
BEST AND STRAIGHT STITCH.
UNEQUALLED LIGHTNESS OF RUNNING.
AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.
Full investigation afforded to all.
Wilcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.

ASTHMA GERMAN ASTHMA CURE never fails to instantly relieve the most violent attack and insure comfortable sleep Used by inhalation, thus reaching the disease direct, relaxes the spasm, facilitates free expectoration and effects CURES where all other remedies fail. A trial will convince the most skeptical of its immediate, direct and never failing effect. Price: 50c. and $1.00. Trial package free. Of druggists or by mail for stamp. Cut this out. DR. R. SCHIFFMANN, St. Paul, Minn.

g2 4 w

AGENTS Wanted for our new book BURIED CITIES RECOVERED. Buried Nations exhumed; obliterated history rewritten. The doings of Patriarchs, Prophets and Kings unfolded. Great discoveries. Latest researches. Testimony from Pyramids, Temples and Ruins. Plain to a child; absorbing to all. Richly Illustrated. New maps. Low price. Sells grandly. Subscribers delighted. WM. GARRETSON & CO., 4th & Chestnut Sts., St. Louis, Mo

mar13-1y

"THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST."
SAW MILLS ENGINES THRASHERS, Horse Powers
(For all sections and purposes.) Write for Free Pamphlet and Prices. The Aultman & Taylor Co., Mansfield, Ohio. [oct4-1y

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

HARTER'S THE ONLY TRUE IRON TONIC

Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST. Send your address to the Dr. Harter Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK," full of strange and useful information, free.

LADIES

may8-1y

THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL & COTTON CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION
New Orleans.
Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.
UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE
United States Government.

$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.

Every State and Territory in the Union represented; and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.

The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.

The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.

For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. L. & C. C. E.
New Orleans, La.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. For sale by all grocers.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday School and Children.

THIRD QUARTER, LESSON XII. Sept. 21.
A SONG OF PRAISE Psalm ciii. 1-22

Sometimes in good Methodist meetings we hear a "Bless the Lord!" that makes a warm, glad thrill go through the heart. We feel that the souls of those who speak these words of praise are full of joy and thankfulness, so full that the lips can not keep silent. That seems to have been the way with David when he wrote this Psalm, called by those who arranged the lessons, "A song of praise." He calls on his whole nature, his voice, his thoughts, and his feelings, to unite in praising the Lord, and gives the reason when he says, "Forget not all his benefits." If we remember all the goodness of the Lord to us, we cannot help being thankful. Our happy homes in this Christian land, where we are fed and warmed and clothed, and so kindly cared for in sickness as well as health; our schools, where it is made a pleasure to learn; our Churches, where kind friends teach us the way to heaven—surely no child should forget these benefits.

When we read history, or look around and see what is happening in the world now, we can see proofs of the righteous judgments of God, which made us want to say, "Bless the Lord, O my soul," the ruler of the earth and the God of all men. In spite of his mercies to men, our sins would always keep us unhappy if they could not be forgiven, but as we confess and forsake their sins

[illegible] reminds us of our duty and privilege to pray for the perishing [illegible] Savior's

[illegible] Heritage."

[illegible] old," writes Mr. [illegible] Pa., "and had suffered [illegible] fifteen years. The [illegible] me no good. Listening [illegible] I gave Parker's [illegible] Tonic and it gave the result in [illegible] Riverside, Cal [illegible] past four. [illegible] 27 28tcow

Marriages.

Mrs. Selena Green, a deserving and affable widow, under the watch care of Pride of Jefferson Lodge, No. 1679, G. U. O of Odd Fellows, was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Spencer L. White, of St. Bernard parish. The felicitous event occurred at the bride's residence, 22 Aqueduct street, Carrollton, Rev. Jos. C. Gould officiating, and a select number of invited guests present. May they live a life of bliss.

In New Orleans, Sept. 5, Calvin Wells and Miss Ellen Tonissant. Mr. John Robinson and Miss Alice Merry; Rev. T. G. Montgomery officiating.

Obituary.

Bro. Alfred McCarty, a local preacher, died in October, 1883, while on his way to an appointment. His funeral was preached Aug. 3, 1884, by Revs. T. Moore, W. Pollard and S. H. Grant. Bro. McCarty, aged 63 years, had been a faithful member for 40 years. J. MORTON.

Gibson, Texas.

One of our true workers for Christ, Bro Henry Bullock, was born in Shelby county, Ky., April 19, 1854, and died July 8, 1884. He professed faith while attending Wilberforce University, in 1873 or 1874, and has ever since been an exemplary Christian. The Lord has called him from labor to reward. He leaves a wife and child. H. W. SIMMONS.

Gallatin, Tenn.

MR. EDITOR—I was called to Hot Springs, July 28, to attend the funeral of Sister Susan Johnson, wife of Rev. S Johnson, pastor of our church there. She was patient in her sickness and her last words were satisfactory. She was a thorough Methodist after the old fashion, and the church has lost one of her most faithful members, liberal in her gifts and sacrifices for its aid. The church at Hot Springs show great respect to their pastor, and sympathy in his bereavement. There was a large concourse in attendance on the funeral. W. O. EMORY.

Sister Hannah Farr, an acceptable member of the M. E. Church over 20 years, left this world July 1st, in full triumph of faith. A husband and 5 children mourn her loss. J. W. DAVIS.

Houston, Miss.

Sister Harriet Esbe departed this life July 8, in full triumph of faith in Christ, aged 65 years. She has been a faithful member of the church for more than 45 years. She leaves a son and many friends to mourn their loss. A. W. WRIGHT.

Crawford, Miss.

Sister Caroline Dangerfield, a faithful member, aged 37 years, died July 14, and will be greatly missed by the church. D. FELSON.

Anderson, Texas.

Bro. John Brown, a class leader, died in full triumph of faith. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss. W. H. MOSBY.

La Grange, Texas.

Sister Millie Bracy died July 9, aged 35 years. She joined the church at the age of 16 years, and lived a faithful Christian. She leaves two children. Sister Henry Stephen died July 28, 1884, aged 80 years; a consistent member of the church. She leaves a son and a daughter in-law to mourn her loss. R. ANDERSON.

Jackson, Miss.

Nancy Taylor, born in Africa, died July 31, 1884, in Natchitoches, La., 110 years of age, and mother of 21 children, 120 grand children, and a host of other children, the greatest number of whom are Methodists. There are numerous family connections springing from this old lady She was not a member of the church. We have nothing to go on record as to her fidelity. When sick she failed to talk to us. Bro. John Goins, her next youngest son, is 83 years old; he is a faithful member of our church, but now of Couchatta, La. She has several grand-sons at Shreveport, and other places, doing good serving for God, useful men and pretty fair local preachers. Peace to her remains.

A. J. WRIGHT.

[illegible] and C. B. [illegible] in medicine [illegible] Medical College, have found professional employment in Austin, Texas.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an old East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this receipt, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y. jan10-19teow

Books and Current Literature.

"The Negro, His Origin and Prophetic Destiny," by J. T. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga. This work is unique in matter, bold in statement, and has for its especial purpose a legitimate defense of the States which held the Negro in bondage. He thinks the love of freedom is peculiar to the sons of Japheth, and that it is not equally inherent in the Negro, because his natural place is that of a servant. Hence, that his emancipation was a mistake, the non-compensation of his master for his loss in property an injustice, and his final destiny that of servility. He believes the Negro to be a descendant of Noah through Ham, and, therefore, brother to Shem and Japheth, but leans to Noah's curse as a differentiation of the condition of the progeny of Ham and his brethren, by which the former was degraded into subjection to the latter. The ideas are expressed in dignified terms, boldly setting out at times in unbeaten paths. It is altogether a work that will be widely read and variously commented upon. We like his honesty of expression, but regard his conclusions as the result of wrong premises. It contains 64 pages, clear type, is neatly put together in paper covers, published and for sale at 50 cents per copy, by James P. Harrison & Co., State Printers, Atlanta, Ga.

Christina, by Dillon.—The sight of human beings declining peace and human comforts, prefering rather to suffer for the truth, is the sublimest spectacle upon which the eyes of man can gaze. There is no grander view on earth. This, in the providence of God, has been the blessed means of strengthening and spreading the very principles which it was sought to extinguish with the life of the martyrs. The history of the Church is an almost unbroken record of martyrdoms But by them her grandest victories and most enduring trimmphs have been won. Of these stirring and thrilling scenes the valley of the Mediterranean to the top of the Alps has been a silent and constant witness. Of these martyrdoms and sufferings we have here an interesting narrative in fiction. Christina, or the persecuted family, is a tale of sorrow and suffering, founded on a chapter in the history of the Vaudois, by the Rev. J. Dillon. The book is a 16 mo. cloth, and gilt crushed strawberry color with stamp and flowering vine on cover, toned paper, 15 chapters, 219 pages, 3 illustrations, the frontispiece being a view of Vandois Refugees crossing the Alps. A very handsome book, price $1. Published and for sale by Phillips & Hunt, 805 Broadway, New York; Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Our Sabbath Home Praise Book By John R Sweeney and Wm. J. Kirkpatrick Published by John J. Hood, 1018 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa. 192 pp., 30 cents; $30 per 100.

The book is just brimming with good pieces. While no book can be allowed to succeed the Hymnal and other books of song authorized and published by the church, we heartily recommend this book to all who are interested in Sunday-school music as a worthy companion to them, and bespeak for it a large sale.

"Self Raised;" or From the Depths. By Mrs. Emma D. E. N Southworth, author of "Ishmael," "Fair Play," "The Missing Bride," etc., with a view of Prospect Cottage, the home of Mrs. Southworth, with its surrondings, on the Potomac. One volume, 12 mo., 658 pages; price 75 cents. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, publishers.

The Christian Nation, a journal of enlightened statesmanship, sound public morals, choice literature and genuine information in its first number, published in the Tribune building, New York, at $2 per year, is before us. It is neat in its make up, high in its aims and claims. We wish it success.

No. 49 of the Chatauqua Text-Books on Palestine and the Holy Land, by Rev. S. J. M. Eaton, D. D. The author has travelled much in the Holy Land, where his work was chiefly written. The history of that land is an abiding one to the human race. 32-mo., paper cover colored, 10 cents. Publishers: Phillips & Hunt, 805 Broadway New York; Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Romanism and our Public Schools, is a tract by Rev. Daniel Wise, D. D. The subject is one of commanding importance, and is handled equal to its demands. What Dr. Wise does is always well done and this is no exception to the rule. Published by Phillips & Hunt, 805 Broadway, New York; Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The next number of the North American Review is to contain an elaborate defense of the Tariff system, prepared by leading advocates of protection.

The numbers of The Living Age for 23d and 30th August, contain the three Poems "In Memoriam," Quarterly; Italian University Life in the Middle Ages, British Quarterly; A Legend of Vanished Waters, Scottish; Untrodden Italy—The Sila Forest, Contemporary; The English Church on the Continent, Fortnightly; Venice, Blackwood; Three Days among the Dutchmen, Tinsley's; Madame de Drudener, Gentleman's; William the Silent, Times; "John Bull et son ile" in the Seventeenth Century, and the Business of Pleasure, Spectator; Slips of the Tongue and Pen, and Manx Smuggling All the Year Round; with the conclusion of "The Baby's Grandmother," installments of Mitchelhurst Place," "Peter Makey's Three Sweethearts," "Beauty and the Beast," and Tziggo, and Poetry.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conference.	Place.	Time	Bishop.
N.W. Iowa	Spirit Lake, Ia	Sept 24	Andrews
Ohio	Circleville, O	Sept 24	Merrill
Rock River	Rockford, Ill	Sept 24	Warren
Pittsburg	Washington, Pa	Sept 24	Harris
N. China Mis	Peking, China	Sept 24	Wiley
Central Illinois	Galesburg, Ill	Sept 24	Bowman
Chicago German	Beaver Dam, Wis	Sept 25	Ninde
Montana Mis'n	Helena, Montana	Sept 25	Fowler
W. Wisconsin	Eau Claire, Wis	Sept 25	Mallalieu
N.W. Norwegian	Forest City, Ia	Sept 26	Foster
West Virginia	Buckhan'n W Va	Oct 1	Walden
Wisconsin	Oshkosh, Wis	Oct 1	Mallalieu
Upper Iowa	Mason City Ia	Oct. 1	Bowman
East Ohio	Youngstown, O	Oct 1	Warren
Dakota Mission	Mitchell, Dak	Oct 1	Andrews
Bulgaria Mis'n	Sistof, Bulgaria	Oct 1	Hurst
N Dakota Mis	Fargo, Dakota	Oct 2	Fowler
N.W. German	Charles City, Ia	Oct 2	Ninde
Cent Tenn	Dickson, Tenn	Oct 6	Bowman
Blk Hills Mis'n	Sturgis City, Dak	Oct 8	Andrews
Cent. N. York	Elmira, N. Y.	Oct 8	Harris
Erie	Erie, Pa	Oct 8	Warren
Genesee	Medina, N. Y.	Oct 8	Merrill
Minnesota	Duluth, Minn	Oct 8	Fowler
Georgia	Mount Zion, Ga	Oct 9	Walden
Arizona Mis'n	Phoenix, Arizona	Oct 9	Foss
New Mex Mis	Socoro, New Mex	Oct 15	Foss
Tennessee	Memphis, Tenn	Oct 16	Bowman
Holston	Greenville, Tenn	Oct 16	Warren
Alabama	Birmingham, Ala	Oct 16	Walden
Cent China Mis	Kin Klang, China	Oct 16	Wiley
East Tenn see	Kingston, Tenn	Oct 23	Warren
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	Wiley
South India	Hyderabad, In ia	Nov 20	Hurst
Texas	Navasota, Texas	Nov 20	Harris
Cent'l Alabama	Eutaw, Ala	Nov 26	Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov 27	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec 3	Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec 4	Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La	Dec 24	Harris

Notice.

The Augusta circuit camp meeting will begin Oct. 30 and end Nov 3. All who will are invited to attend I hope all the preachers on the Gulf district who are near me will not fail to attend.

G. W. SMITH, Pastor.
W. MCDONALD, P. E.

Meridian District—Mississippi Conference.

Fourth Round.

Enterprise	Sept.	13 14
Waynesboro and State Line	"	16
Shubuta Circuit	"	28
Shubuta	"	20 21
Quitman and DeSoto	"	27-28
Enterprise Circuit	"	28-29
Lauderdale	Oct.	2
Meridian	"	4- 5
Meridian Circuit	"	11-12
Shuqualak	"	18 19
Macon	"	25-26
Ex Prairie	Nov.	1- 2
Brooksville	"	4
Louisville	"	6
Heidelburg	"	8- 9
Paulding	"	15 26
Scarlandsville	"	22-23
DeKalb	"	29-30
Philadelphia	Dec	2
Daleville	"	27 28

Brethren, the centennial meeting for the Meridian district will be held in Meridian, Sept. 24th. See programme, and try to be present.

J. CAMPBELL, P. E.

Programme.

For the Meridian Centennial Meeting, to meet at Meridian, Sept. 24, 1884:
Opening services—James J. Triman
Mississippi Conference—M. Adams.
The Discipline of the M. E Church, and how we shall be governed by it—P. Bue and J. D. Walden.
The Missionary Society and its object—N. Tood.
The Freedmen's Aid Society—L. J. S B ll.
The Church Extension Society—C. W. Ivy.
Our conference school and our relation to it—P. R. Crum.
How an accused member should be tried, and by who—T. A. Cotton
Our duties as pastors to the Sunday-schools—A. M. Saunders.
Why should pastors visit from house to house—W. H. H Gallion.
How should we treat persons when they leave our church under charges—L. P. Brown.
We pray for the Lord to bless us, but will not try to have a revival until warm weather. Is this right?—L Clayton and R. H. Patton.
How long should excluded members be kept out of the Church—R. Hays.
Can local preachers receive members—M White.

Dr. M. W. Taylor will please accept an invitation to be present and represent the SOUTHWESTERN.

Brethren, let us earnestly pray that the Lord will be with us, "For without me ye can do nothing."

J. CAMPBELL, P. E.

Notice.

The brethren of the Mississippi Conference will please notify me at once of all who intend to come to the Centenary Celebration in October, so that we may make special preparations for them. We will only provide for those who notify us.

A. M. TROTTER.

Grenada, Miss.

Programme

Of the District Conference, Little Rock District, Little Rock Conference, to be held at Forest City, Sept. 18, 19, 20 and 21, 1884:

Thursday, 18th, 7:30 p. m., opening sermon—H C Dunlap.

Friday, 19th, the following topics will be discussed. Each brother is requested to prepare as thoroughly as possible with written essay:

The relation of the Sunday-school to the Church, and how to increase its efficiency—S. Neal.

Our benevolent collections, and how to take them—C. C. Riley.

The origin and progress of Methodism in England—B J. Donnell.

Methodism in the United States; its beginning and growth—W. H. Morris.

Class meetings—S J. Brown.

The Methodist Episcopal Church and other Methodisms—H. H McAllister.

Our Educational work in the South, and our duty to it in this centennial year—G. N. Johnson.

The Church and Temperance—John H. McAllister.

General discussions: Preachers' salaries, How to raise them—opened by Wm. Reed and J W. Jackson.

Friday, 7.30 p. m., sermon by Albert Tate.

Saturday, 19th, regular business of the district conference. 7.30 p. m., sermon by A. Hardeman

Sunday, 20th, 9 a. m., Love feast; 11 a. m., sermon by presiding elder; 3 p. m., sermon by Thomas Mason; 8 P. M., President of Philander Smith College; 7:30 p. m., centennial educational meeting Addresses by O. H. Smith, Thomas Mason, B. J. Donnell, G. N. Johnson and others.

The preachers will see that their official members are notified of the meeting.

O. H. SMITH, P. E.

GULF DISTRICT—MISSISSIPPI CONFERENCE.

Fourth Round.

Crystal Springs	Oct.	4- 5
New Hope	"	6
Union Church	"	11-12
Fayette	"	14 15
Fayette circuit	"	16-17
Hamburg and Meadville	"	18 19
Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian	"	25 26
Augusta	"	23
Handsboro and Ocean Springs	"	27-28
Pascagoula	Nov.	1- 2
Brookhaven and Hazlehurst	"	8- 9
Columbia	"	15 16
China Grove	"	17
Liberty	"	22-23
Summit and Magnolia	Dec.	6- 7
Georgetown	"	13-14

Brethren of the Gulf district, this is the fourth and last round this conference year. Don't come to conference with excuses. Take collections for every cause of our Church. Bring it to conference with you. W. MCDONALD, P. E.

Brookhaven, Miss, September 4. 1884.

NOTICE.

The Gulf District, Mississippi, Conference, second session, will convene at Crystal Springs, November 27 30, 1884, at 9 o'clock a. m. I hope that all the local preachers and exhorters, and one class leader from each charge, and our Sunday-school superintendents, and all the ministers in charge will be present. I hope that the local preachers and exhorters will be present particularly, as their character will be passed or rejected, and license to be renewed. Also those who expect to be admitted into the conference must be present at this session. Come prepared to stand examination. Now, brethren of the Gulf District, you have been thoroughly notified about the various collections, so bring good reports to the district conference, and I hope that you will carry the full amounts to the annual conference that it assesses to each charge. The programme for the conference will be published by the committee in time.

W. MCDONALD, P. E.

Brookhaven, Miss., September 4, 1884.

School teachers will be interested in the illustrated announcement of Children's Glee Book in another column of this paper.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE,
August 25, 1884.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8¼; Middling 10 9 16; Good Middling, 10 13-16; Middling fair, 11 1-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5⅝; White clarified, 6@—; Common 4@5¼.

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 11@13; fair, 18@25; choice, 40@—c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4@4¼; fair, 5¼@5⅝; choice, 5¼@5¾.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western. 20@21.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 9; prime, 11.

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory 9.

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $2.90@5.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4 60; Choice, 4.50; Family, 4.00.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 7¾

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 82½; Fine, $1,02½.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $1.65@1.85; sweet potatoes, ℔ bbl; onions, ℔ bbl $—@1.75; apples, ℔ bbl. $2 75@$3.00; cabbages. $1.25@1.50 per crate; sour kront, $5.00@7 00 per barrel.

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 62@63; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50

PROVISIONS.

Mess PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $19.00.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 12½; shoulders, 7¼@8; sides, short rib, 11¼@12; sides, long clear. 11¼@11¾. hams, sugar-cured, 15@—; DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides 8½; clear sides, 8½; shoulders, 7¼@7½.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.25@3.50; young $1.50@2.00; ducks, $2.50@3.00; geese $4.00@—; turkeys $9.00@12.00

Western Eggs 15@18c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 18@20c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 50@75c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Western Poultry—Grown chickens $4.00@$4.50 ℔ dozen; young do. $1.50@3.25; ducks $3.50@4.00—; geese $4.00@4.50; turkeys $12.00@15.00.

GRAIN AND FEED.

CORN, in sacks, ℔ bushel—Yellow, —; white, 75; mixed, —.

OATS, ℔ bushel—Western, 38

BRAN, ℔ 100 lbs—Choice, 72½.

Vegetable destroys few things are superior to Ridge's Food Recipes accompany each can for Puddings, Custards Blanc Mange, etc. and, unlike many preparations, the little ones' need not be denied when the desert comes, but may eat their fill. It is safe and nourishing, being a concentrated preparation of wheat thoroughly steam-cooked in its manufacture Sold by druggists In cans, four sizes—$3 c., 85c., $1.35 and $1.75. No. 4 the cheapest for families. WOOLRICH & CO. on label.

The Rev. John Butler, accompanied by Mrs. Butler and Miss Loyd of the W. F. M. S. left for Mexico City, on Thursday the 11th of September.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6 50 Circulars free sel8 13t

"I owe my Restoration to Health and Beauty to the CUTICURA REMEDIES."

Testimonial of a Boston Lady.

DISFIGURING Humors, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching Tortures, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and Infantile Humors cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the cause.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair.

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite, prepared from CUTICURA is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure, and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

Sold everywhere Price, Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 25 cents; Resolvent, $1. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON, MASS.

CHILDREN'S GLEE BOOK

Is a collection of new and original Songs by the authors, Palmer Hertsough, J. H. Fillmore, and contributors, and is the most unique little book for children ever published. It is a book of songs arranged in a musically-progressive order, thus being equally adapted to the school-room or singing-class as well as the concert-room, or home. Teachers, examine it! Children, send for a copy! Price, 30c. per copy; $3.00 per doz. Address FILLMORE BROS., 185 Race St., Cincinnati, O.

sept18-4t

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of

GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with music.

Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.

Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 25 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock

W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA
nov23-1y

4% LONG LOANS.
PRINCIPAL need never be so long as interest is kept up. Prompt security only for interest. Honest people of moderate means can send 6 cents for pamphlet, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

sept12 2 t

PATENTS

MUNN & CO., of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, for the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany, etc. Hand Book about Patents sent free. Thirty years' experience. Patents obtained through MUNN & Co. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, the largest, best, and most widely circulated scientific paper. $3.20 a year. Weekly. Splendid engravings and interesting information. Specimen copy of the Scientific American sent free. Address MUNN & CO., SOLICITORS, AMERICAN Office, 261 Broadway, New York.

dec6-1y

OUR SONG WORLD

A New Book for Singing Classes, Institutes and Conventions.

By GEO. F. ROOT & C. C. CASE.

CONTAINS

The finest Elementary Lessons, both in quality and grading, that have ever appeared in any book.

The Best of simple Part Songs, Tunes and Anthems with beautiful Glees and Secular Choruses, covered by the brilliant "Italia."

Effective Music for Class and Concert Work, from that which "sings itself," up to Gounod's "Bid Ye Portals."

Take the book all in all and it is one that will make class teaching a pleasure, and delight to Teachers and Pupils.

Price, 60cts. each by mail, postpaid; $5.00 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen Pages Free.

PUBLISHED BY
JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

WANTED A WOMAN

of sense, energy and respectability for each address in her locality, middle-aged preferred. Salary $2.25 to $5.00. References exchanged. GAY BROS., 14 Barclay St., N. Y.

aug.28.

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 39. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, SEPTEMBER 25, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 778.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

39 Natchez Street New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D D., Editor

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

American Methodism.

"Sons of great Wesley, in the blooming land
O'ershadowed by the eagle's spreading wings!
Indulge the minstrel, whose untutored hand
Ventures too boldly o'er the trembling strings;
Your past renown, your present woes he sings;
Nor ever seeks your future weal the less
When truths unwelcome to your ear he brings,
Than when invoking Heaven all good to bless,
And crown in holy war, your armies with success."

"Vote as you pray, and pray as you vote."

About one-tenth of all the people in the South are Methodists.

As minnows become great fish, so do small indulgences at last resolve themselves into great moral obtusities.

Satan is powerless to captivate God's people or surprise the tents of the righteous, because He who guardeth them "will not slumber."

The Psalmist's Prayer for freedom may now be repeated by the Freedmen. Turn again our captivity, O Lord, as the streams in the South.

If we hate vain thoughts and love the law of God, then we can say of the Lord, "Thou art my hiding place and my shield, I hope in thy word."

Don't be afraid to do whatever comes to you to do in the name of the Lord; for "He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep."

King [illegible], of Italy, has endeared himself to his subjects by visiting the cholera infected districts, and granting liberal amounts of money for the relief of sufferers.

Children are an heritage of the Lord, and the fruit of the womb is his reward." But marriage is a [illegible] the production of the fruit.

On [illegible] the corner stone [illegible] Kenner, more than three hundred people were in company, [illegible] who was with them heard not a single lewd act or word observed by him during [illegible] his chances to hear good.

[illegible], Acting [illegible], was [illegible] 1842.

Some people seem to rise up early and sit up late, for the purpose of fomenting strife and propagating disorder, but in the end they are sure to eat the bread of sorrow.

It is a beautiful sight to behold a young man just married caressing his first baby in the evening after a day of honest, manly toil. "As arrows are in the hands of a mighty man, so are children of the youth."

Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it, whether in the matter of churches, schools, social relations or what not, our foundation must be laid in the Lord, or they are laid in vanity.

The Emperors of Germany and Austria, and the Czar of Russia, have recently held a personal conference, which is supposed to have reference to an alliance on European questions, affecting the great empires which they represent.

In this great, free country the cry of free trade has a familiar, attractive sound. But when it is explained that it means a reduction of wages to some, and the loss of employment to other Americans, it ceases to be welcome.

Pretty soon the tribes of the Lord will go up unto the testimony of Zion to give reports and thanks unto the name of the Lord. If the reports are good and are true there will be occasion for thanksgiving for such Christian integrity in the workers.

Whether we are able to say "I am thy son or daughter" or not, we can always say to the Lord "I am thy servant," if we esteem all his precepts concerning all things to be right and hate every false way. Every way is a false way which is not taught in the Scriptures.

The Knights of the White Camelias, and the ancient Knights of Pharaoh were both committed to the work of reversing God's plans by preventing the increase of a people under his special care, and the success of one indicates that of the other. Why do the heathen rage and the people imagine a vain thing?

The beatitude of a Christian family can never be better described than as follows: "Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the side of thy house, thy children like olive plants round about thy table.... yea, thou shalt see thy children's children." Behold that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord.

Though surrounded by the relics of barbarism and crumbling monuments of oppression, we feel a consciousness of freedom and a presentment that after all and in spite of all, this South, sunny, prosperous and peaceful, is to be the future home of the Negroes. We must have Negro leaders able to comprehend this, and to plan, and wait for it.

Passage has been secured in the Austral Anchor Line, sailing from New York Sept. 20th for the following persons bound for India: Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Johnson, Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Parker, Mrs. [illegible] and two children, Mrs. [illegible] and possibly Mrs. Craven and four children, all of the Parent [illegible] Society. Of the W. F. M. S. the following ladies are in the party: Misses Reed, English, De Lano, Hervey, Hendrick, Mansell and Miss Christiancy, M. A.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Statistical Growth of the Methodist Episcopal Church

BY HENRY W. TATE.

By statistical growth I desire to show our increase in figures, from all available sources.

From true statistics we arrive at facts, and ascertain the real strength of a church.

In examining our progress, I find ours the mother of Methodism in America, on a gradual increase from the days of small things to the living present of plenty and fat things. She has gone from cottage service to the log church, on to the magnificent sanctuary. Pioneer circuits have changed into annual conferences. What used to be mission charges have become self-sustaining work. The needy are transformed into the helper.

We date back to 1773, when it was plainly seen that the plant of Methodism had begun to take root in American soil, when the first annual conference was held in Philadelphia, which consisted of ten preachers and 1,160 members. In 1784, 11 years after, our first General Conference convened in Baltimore City, for the purpose of organizing the Methodist Episcopal Church in America, which was done.

In 1800 our strength amounted to eight annual conferences, three bishops, 287 traveling preachers, nearly 65,000 members, and more than 13,000 were colored. In 1825 our membership was 350,000, and 1,300 preachers.

In 1844, when the separation occurred on account of the slavery question, by the secession of the Southern faction of the Church, there were more than 1,170,000 members, 4,600 traveling preachers; while in 1850 there were 690,000 members, and 4,129 traveling preachers, 5,420 local preachers, which was the only decade that we experienced a decrease, caused by the division of the Church six years previous.

In 1860 we numbered in membership 994 447, in the traveling ministry 6,987, and in the local 8,188. The two bodies, North and South, enrolled 1,743,515 members, 9,771 traveling and 13,541 local preachers.

In 1866, we learn from "Simpson's Cyclopædia of Methodism," there were as the product of a century's toil, nine bishops, 64 annual conferences, 7,576 itinerants, and 8,602 local preachers; total members, 1,032,184; church edifices, 10,462, valued at $29,594,004; parsonages, 3,314, valued at $4,420,958; Sunday schools, 14,045; scholars, 980,622. Foreign missions, 222; members in foreign missions, 7,478. Domestic missions 303, having a membership of 26,075; two theological seminaries; 23 colleges; 77 seminaries and female colleges; 77 instructors, 22,305 students. Educational property valued at $7,898 239; two Book Concerns, in New York City and Cincinnati, with seven depositories in as many different cities. Capital stock of the Book Concerns, $1,213,327; official Church papers, 20; unofficial, 42. Bound volumes issued by the book concerns, 2,548; tracts, 1,037.

In 1877 there were 947 traveling and 2,378 local colored preachers in our Church, with 2,022 Sunday-schools, 96,474 scholars, 1,751 churches, 162 parsonages, valued at $1,868,593; 14 conferences, and 190,803 members.

METHODIST STATISTICS—1884.

Annual conferences, 98; mission districts, 14; conferences and mission districts, 113; bishops, 14; presiding elders, 477; itinerant preachers who located during the year, 119; itinerant preachers died, 172; itinerant preachers "withdrawn," 35; itinerant preachers "expelled," 5; itinerant preachers Jan. 1, 1884, 12,546; local preachers, 12,026; itinerant and local preachers, 24,572; lay members in full connection, 1,601,072; members on probation, 168,462; deaths in membership, 22,668; lay members and probationers, 1,769,534; lay membership and ministry, 1,782,090; children baptized, 55,876; adults baptized, 61,862; total baptisms, 117,738. Churches, 18,741; parsonages, 6,607, value of churches, $69,422,276; value of parsonages, $9,815,809; total value of churches and parsonages, $79,238,085. Sunday schools, 22,903; officers and teachers, 241,861; Sunday-school scholars, 1,691,065; officers, teachers and scholars, 1,932,926.

We have grown from hundreds to thousands, and from thousands to millions. The "heir of Providence" is truly an instrument in God's hands, for great conflicts against satan, sin and wickedness, in high places. What will the end of the new centennial bring?

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Distinction between Truth and Falsehood.

A Sermon by Rev. T. G. Montgomery.

"Come, and let us reason, saith the Lord."—Text Isa 1-18.

By reason, we understand in general that faculty of the mind by which we distinguish between truth and falsehood, and good from evil. The light of nature as thus understood, includes a degree of right reason. From Creation, Providence and the dictates of our moral nature, it is that reason emanates. But it is insufficient to conduct man to a knowledge of God. It leaves him perplexing doubts in regard to many important questions. It cannot therefore afford them all the assistance which they need for religious instruction.

The use of reason in matters of religion is to investigate the evidence on which its claims to truth are founded. "Come now, and let us reason." O that word, "come;" how sweet it sounds to our ears. Read verse 2 to 5, and you will see that we have need to "come." Our natural state is a great distance from God. The Almighty says, "come." Our sins are of an aggravated nature. They "are as scarlet and red like crimson." But Grace can effect a change. This change is wonderful in its nature, and most extensive in its latitude. It is visible in its effect.

Religion has reason on its side. The believer can give a good reason for his attachment to God. This whole passage of Scripture clearly shows it. "Come now, and let us reason." Adam and Eve were driven from the Garden of Eden, Cherubim and Flaming Sword, which turned every way to keep the way of the tree of life. But oh, listen: "Come, and let us reason." Let us talk the matter over. We see him reason with Noah in that age of the world, that they might repent of their sins. He reasoned with Moses, Exodus, 3, 2: "Behold him in a flame of fire." See Christ reasoning in the temple, and at Bethesda. He tells the lame man to take up his bed, and the blind man to wash and see. He reasoned with Mary and Martha about their brother's death, and declared the resurrection. He is himself the resurrection and the life. Look at Christ at the Passover supper. He reasons there, and says: "One of you shall betray me." Look at him in the garden with Peter, James and John. Look at him at Pilate's bar. Hear him reasoning on the cross, first with them, and then with the Father. Behold his tender mercy, conveyed abroad in the exclamation: "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." So he dies like a man, but rises like a God, and tells his disciples all power is given unto him in heaven and on earth. "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel."

Forty days after this, look at him as he moves toward the mount at Bethany. There he blessed the disciples, reasoning with them, and said. "Tarry in Jerusalem until I endow you with power from on high." They obeyed this order, and on the day of Pentecost he reasons with them by power. The multitude were all amazed, and thought that the disciples were filled with new wine, but instead, they had been reasoning with the Lord. O come now, and let us reason with him.

New Orleans.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Temperance Work.

BY S. P. BELL.

It is not enough that ourselves be saved from the bottle, the slums of degradation, and drunkenness. The Master calls us to be actively engaged in saving others. As soldiers of the cross we must not be calmly sitting with folded arms rejoicing in our own salvation. Instead we must be in aggressive motion, moving and swaying an influence with those of our community. We contemplate and call for a movement all along the line. A grand advance upon the camp of the enemy; this we cannot have in an unorganized form. What we want is organization. Organize Temperance Societies in every place where there can be five or ten gathered together. Stick to the pledge and hold the regular meetings weekly and monthly. Stand by the principles and we can report intelligently. What our people need is information on the subject. This can be had at 805 Broadway, New York. A great many seem to think that to drink whisky is one of the privileges brough to them by emancipation, and that therefore, when they indulge themselves this way, they are only enjoying their dearly bought liberty. When they thus throw their money, and their health away, they think this is freedom. We must disabuse their minds of this delusion, by holding up to them the incalculable destruction wrought by intemperance, the great moral, financial and physical losses which come upon them by following out this mistaken idea of liberty. When we speak of intemperance, we mean the use of spirituous liquors in every form as a beverage, including tobacco. One brother told me not long since, that he used on an average five cents per day for tobacco, and that he had been using it for 18 years, spending each year the sum of $18.25, which would run up in 18 years to the sum of $328.50. A sum sufficient to have purchased him and his family a real comfortable home. This brother is not a rare case. Are there not thousands in your communities who are spending five times, yes ten times as much for whiskey and tobacco, who are to day suffering from not having any homes? Paying high rents, and contracting habits of slothfulness, and dirt from these same causes? These are the ones you want to save. These are the ones you want to bring into the cause of temperance. We are into a hand to hand fight. You want to make your attack upon individuals and not wait for the masses. Your lectures, speeches, and papers are very good, when there is a crowd, but the efficient worker succeeds with persons, with the father, mother and children in their home. Learn to concentrate forces. Do not attempt to make a raid upon the saloons, until you have succeeded in winning at least some of its patrons. Secure the influence of the mother and daughter to save the father and son.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Nation's Guide.

BY J. J. W. BOWMAN, D.D.

MR. EDITOR:—My father Rev. Alfred Bowman, was a member of the Tennessee Methodist Episcopal conference. He was several years a member of Clarke Chapel, and was also a subscriber to that old Nation's Guide, our moral and religions instructor, better known as the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. He fell in Gospel harness Sunday evening, September 2d, 1883, and for years before his death he was a regular subscriber to the SOUTHWESTERN. Rather than fail to have your white winged messenger, whose wings are always heavy laden with golden words from the store house of God, to visit weekly the home of the Bowman family, I have continued the subscription; and expect to carry it forth as long as there is a dollar to be found. I heartily congratulate you, Dr. Taylor, upon your election; this is among the greatest and grandest honors which have, this centennial year fallen upon our race. It has fallen upon the brow of one of our noblest sons. I am sure that no one could be selected who would more honorably fill such a position than yourself.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Support of Ministers.

A great many people think that a minister ought to live by his own hands and preach to them. This is a mistake in them; God never intended such a thing from the beginning of the world. Ministers are to live by the Gospel, and by living by the Gospel is meant the money from the purse of those he preaches to. It is no part of justice for a member to sit under the sound of a minister and hear him preach the Word all the year, and pay him nothing. And any man or woman who is guilty of such a trick as that, ought not to have a place in the church, for they are robbing the cause of the Lord. God made the gold and silver, and he made it as much for that purpose as for any other cause.

I hope to see the day when all the ministers of the Gospel can get a support while they labor among the people. Ministers cannot pay their honest debts when they get nothing from the people to whom they preach. May the Lord help them to think. WM. PERRY.

Old Town, Ky.

"My motto is a clean pulpit and debts paid, especially on the SOUTHWESTERN."—Emperor Williams.

Our Southern Work.

TEXAS.

R. K. Whiting, Crockett: "This circuit is alive. We are going on to perfection."

S. Coleman, Waelder: "The children are taking great interest in coming out. There are 54 enrolled. Miss R. Williams has been a faithful teacher for over a year. Elder Carmichael visited us, and is doing good work."

H. Johns, Clarksville: "The protracted meetings at both of my appointments have been successful. Mrs. M. V. Cole and Mr. V. M. Cole, Jr., came and organized a Home Missionary Society for us, officered as follows: Mrs. Prof. J. B. McCulloch, President; Mrs. Martha Porter, Mrs. Susie Bowers, and Mrs. Martha Hobbs, Vice-Presidents; J. Smelser, Corresponding Secretary; H. C. Reeves, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Sallie Reeves, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Sallie Reeves, treasurer. The Society numbers 48, with $7.55 in the treasury."

E. Henderson, LaGrange: "Elder C. L. Madison held our third quarterly conference Aug. 9. Brethren were nearly all present, and the session was a pleasant one. Reports show the work to be on the upward march. Camp meeting closed with 30 accessions, and 42 have been added to date. The elder gave us a grand lecture on the workings of the church. Elder's collection $15.10; pastor $46."

M. Smith, Winchester: "Elder Richardson held the third quarterly conference. The brethren were present with their reports in their minds. There was a large congregation on Sunday."

LOUISIANA.

J. S. Patterson, Cotile: "We are moving along slowly; have about completed the parsonage; and the church that was blown down has been re-erected, and is nearly finished. Friends and members have helped us liberally."

R. Barrow, Algiers: "A pound party was given by the officers and members of St. Mathew M. E. Church, on the night of August 15th, to show their sympathy for their pastor. It was an agreeable occasion."

TENNESSEE.

A. P. Blakemore, Springfield: "Our quarterly conference convened at Bank's Chapel, and was a small one. No reports from local preachers or class leaders. Elder Pickett preached to a crowded house Sunday night. Collection for elder [illegible] pastor $58.25; benevolences, [illegible] Received and paid out [illegible] Received from Church [illegible] Society $50. Present debt $20. We solicit the [illegible] of all the churches."

[illegible] Harden, Lawrenceburg: "Price held my third quarterly conference, and was well pleased with our labor. Paid elder [illegible] pastor $[illegible].25; bishops, $1.65; [illegible] $2.20; conference claim [illegible] and something for all [illegible] There is some chance for [illegible] growth."

[illegible] Easley, Martin: "Children's day was observed, and we [illegible] with us. The congregation was awakened the [illegible] Baptist brethren were [illegible] and took part with us. [illegible] gave a grand talk on [illegible] and its growth. We [illegible] our new church, and [illegible] it will be the best [illegible] people in this [illegible]ry. We want to [illegible] and have promised [illegible] of debt. I think it [illegible] by the first of Octo[illegible]."

[illegible]ville, Union Church: "[illegible] prayer I observe [illegible] among many of [illegible] up in the benches. [illegible] is a humble conviction, or a good ex[illegible]. Brethren, be [illegible] obedient."

[illegible] West Point: "On [illegible] Sunday school [illegible] an exhibition was given in the church and it was crowded. We raised $7.50."

J. Fullilove, Durant: "The second quarterly conference for the circuit convened at Mt. Pleasant, Rev. J. M. Nevils presided. The reports were good; paid pastor $1.40. A protracted meeting in twelve days resulted in 16 converts and 11 on probation."

O. W. Ivy, Marshalaville: "My third quarter convened at Center Ridge Church, Elder Campbell presiding, R. Cutts, Secretary. We had a pleasant session. Total collected for the quarter, $119.50; for pastor $90.55; for elder, $15; for Sunday-school Union, $8.05; missions, $2; bishops, $1; Church Extension, 75c. Trustees reported a house for the circuit, in the hands of the pastor, and nearly paid for. The elder preached to between 400 and 500 people. The like was never witnessed here before. Baptists were present, and did all they could to help us."

B. Stewart, Hickory: "Elder Shumpert held my second quarter. The reports were fair. We have started two churches, and hope to complete them in a few days. We have not had our children's day yet, because our church was burned down. The elder preached to a large congregation, and we gave him $14.15."

B. L. Crump, Oxford: "Our third quarterly conference was held by Elder Echols. He preached two able sermons. The church is moving forward; 16 added during the quarter. We have a music class of 20, under Mr. E. S. Spriggs, and on Sunday night the congregation was delighted with some fine music. Sabbath-school numbers 155. Our church is very large, and yet too small to hold the congregation. I wish to have music in it all the time. Pray for us."

ARKANSAS.

M. Lockman, Lockesburg: "I have just closed a two weeks meeting, with 13 converts and 4 backsliders reclaimed."

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Gulf District Conference.

MR. EDITOR: The Gulf District, Mississippi, Conference met in Summit, July 10, 1884.

The session was opened with religious services by the presiding elder, Rev. W. McDonald. Most of the pastors were present. The presiding elder reported the district as being in a prosperous condition. He spoke of a good deal of unoccupied territory in the district, especially out on the new railroads, where the M. E. Church has not been represented. His report showed that he had given the work his attention.

The presiding elder brought the subject of the Episcopal funds before the conference, and told the brethren that there had been five new bishops elected, and that the Episcopal funds had been increased. He also instructed the brethren to have the amounts raised by the time he made his third round in the district.

The pastors represented their charges, and their reports showed that there had been a good many persons converted.

The district conference proved to be a great blessing to our people in this place. The Church was fairly represented. There were a great many visitors.

Saturday night, July 13th, the centennial services were held, and will not be forgotten soon.

Sunday morning, the 14th, we held the district conference love feast. It was conducted by Rev. J. B. Smith. At 11 o'clock Rev. N. Cannon preached an interesting sermon. At 3 o'clock Rev. W. M. McDonald, the presiding elder, preached another interesting sermon, and the Lord's supper was administered to a great many. At night Rev. P. E. Bardwell preached for us, and mourners were invited to come to the altar for prayer.

Four joined the Church. After the conference adjourned Sunday night, we carried the meeting on a week longer, and it resulted in 25 converts and reclaimed to the Church.

A committee was appointed on the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. The committee made its report, which was adopted.

Whereas, The SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is our Church paper, and it always defends the right and opposes the wrong,

Resolved, That we, the members of the Gulf District, Mississippi Conference, pledge ourselves to give it our hearty support, by getting as many cash subscribers to take the paper as we can, and send the money to the office as soon as collected.

Resolved, That the District Conference will not renew any local preacher's or exhorter's license who fail to take the paper.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Gulf District Conference, extend our heartfelt thanks to Bros. Hartzell, Cushman and Albert, for their able management and faithful continuance of the paper in our homes for the past 12 years.

Also, we extend our hearty appreciation to the General Conference for the election of Rev. Dr. M. W. Taylor as Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. We welcome him to the editorship, and do extend our congratulations to him as Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHLISTIAN ADVOCATE

The following amounts are raised in the different charges for benevolent purposes:

Augusta, $10; Brookhaven, $20; China Grove, $10; Columbia, $20; Crystal Springs, $50; Fayette, $20; Fayette circuit, $10; Georgetown, $10; Hamburg, $20; Handsboro, $50; Liberty, $20; New Hope, $50; Pascagoula, $50; Pass Christian, $50; Summit, $18; Union Church, $50; total $458.

H. L. KENNEDY, Secretary.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Pray.

Prayer is the foundation of all real good. First ask, and then, we are assured in the Bible, that any thing of any worth to us, comes in its train. "Ask and ye shall receive," are our Savior's own words, a command and a promise to make it doubly sure. Ask for what? "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." What things? "They that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing." "God shall supply all your need." It seems we may have all we need. First of all we need God and His righteousness. Our sins must be forgiven, and our hearts made pure. If it is not so, of what use are good things? This world can never fill the void, that there is always in the heart where God is not. When He is our heavenly Father "He knoweth," we have need of other things. We suffer hunger and we need food; our Savior taught us to pray: "Give us this day our daily bread." We need clothing. "If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field and to-morrow is cast into the oven, how much more will He clothe you." We need homes. "We may abide under the shadow of the Almighty." We need friends. "There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." We need occupation. "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do with thy might." Are we afflicted? "Call upon Me in the day of trouble, I will deliver you." "Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray." Are we sick? "The prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up."

The Bible assures us quite clearly that in answer to prayer, all things are ours, to make comfortable and happy; but is there not danger that in the abundance of good things, we may become puffed up, and selfish. God has provided an antidote to selfishness. "Pray one for another," and that opens the way for obedience to the injunction of our Savior. "Love one another." If we love one another, we will wish to "do good," and that is being like Christ, who, when He was upon the earth went about doing good to His friends and His enemies, because He loved them. Then if we really wish to do good it is easy to be "kindly affectioned one to another in brotherly love, in honor preferring one another." It seems then, so as not to become spoiled children we are to pray one for another and do all the good we can, forgetting ourselves, in our great love for God and those around us.

We who belong to that great prayer league, the church of God, organized by God Himself, are pledged to pray one for another, and in every way help and encourage each other, and together work for the salvation of the world. We bear a near relationship to each other, and God is our Father. The weaker members have strong claims upon the stronger ones. None of us are so strong as not to need the prayers of others. We cannot go through life unassisted by those around us. One law of the Christian life is to give and receive. We help others, and they in turn help us. Who knows whose prayers may most prevail in our behalf? It may be those of the weak ones, for whom we have done acts of kindness, who have little wherewith to repay, but their prayers. Who can estimate their efficacy?

Many of us make our lives a continual struggle, trying to live right and then, often failing. We do not consider that in our own strength we can do nothing.

We must in humanity and childlike trust ask God for everything, even good desires. Every step in the right direction, must be the result of prayer and trust.

But sometimes our faith is weak. We know that "without faith we cannot please God." We read of one, who, in great trouble cried unto the Savior, "Help thou mine unbelief." The Savior rebuked him not, and he got the desire of his heart. No doubt, strong faith is included in the "all things" that God is able and willing to give us.

O, great are the provisions, that God has made for a fallen world! Let us not forget to pray.

MRS. L. C. BRADEN.

Nashville, Tennessee.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Springfield Letter.

This city is located 80 miles northeast of Cincinnati, Ohio, and is noted for manufacturing machinery. Methodism is well represented with other Christian denominations. We have five Methodist Episcopal congregations, three pastored by ministers of the Cincinnati Conference; one German, of the Central German Conference, and one colored congregation, of the Lexington Conference.

The A. M. E. has one strong church and a mission. Our city Pastor's Conference is composed of ministers of the Evangelical churches. We are holding union services of Sabbath nights at three different churches a night, which are well attended.

The fourth Baptist's 16 days' meeting in the grove closed yesterday, with a sermon in the afternoon on the "Return of the Prodigal Son," with the killing of the "Fatted Calf," and passing of the cooked meat around to the attendants to eat. This could not be endorsed by Methodists, according to the reading of the XI Article of Religion in our Discipline.

N. R. Bradford, formerly a member of the Central Congregational Church, and a teacher in the Wesleyan Sunday-school, joined our Church recently, and is rendering good service in our school as teacher. He has also married one of our best young ladies. The second quarterly meeting of the Wiley M. E. church was held the second Sunday, by Rev. Jos. Courtney, the presiding elder, who preached in the morning and at night. Rev. T. H. Jackson, D. D., of the A. M. E. Church, preached at the communion service. Eighty-five received the sacrament. This charge is in a prosperous condition. Rev. H. W. Tate is the pastor, and is serving this people his second year acceptably.

The next session of the Lexington Annual Conference will convene here in the Spring, and is looked forward to with much interest.

The SOUTHWESTERN is a welcome visitor to our city. Our church is highly pleased with the election of the scholarly and successful divine, the Rev. Marshal Taylor, D. D., to the editorship of the SOUTHWESTERN. All feel satisfied that the paper will be made better and receive a larger circulation than in any former quadrennial. The right man is at the helm.

H. W. T.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Jackson District,—Mississippi Conference.

DEAR EDITOR:—It is with profound pleasure and gratitude to God that I am able to report the cause of Christ and Methodism on the Jackson district. This being my first year as presiding elder, up on this district. I find the people at each place visited generous and kind, and the ministers, generally very zealous and popular with their people. At Brandon, Rev. A Handy, the faithful pastor, is doing a grand work. The quarterly conference was well attended and the report was favorable.

Rev. P. H. Davis, the earnest and acceptable pastor is in charge at Bolton, where he has not only been very instrumental in winning souls to Christ, but has built one of the neatest churches in the district, and has purchased an organ for the Sabbath school.

At Clinton the cause of Christ and Methodism is closely looked after by Bro. R. McAlpin, who has won the hearts of the people, by doing the work of a pastor faithfully and successfully.

Bro. A. K. Davis, at Canton, owing to his health, has not been able to do the work of a pastor as he most earnestly desired. It is earnestly hoped that he may soon recover. We have a splendid church at Canton, a good membership, the first or the best class of the people belonging to our church and congregation. A kind spirit among the white and colored people prevails here. About one half of the county and city officers are held by colored men. Bro. B. F. Garrett, one of our stewards is circuit clerk, Bro. Conway another steward, is county assessor, and the Hon. S. W. Lewis, one of our trustees and a lay delegate to our General Conference and one of the best educated men in the State, is a member of the State Legislature. But Bro. Lewis says, that the honor of being a member of the State Legislature is not to be compared with that of our late General Conference.

Rev. A. McBeth, is in charge at Edwards, and is doing a good work. Souls are being converted to God, Sabbath-school and congregation is increasing, old debts are being paid off, and everything is looking hopeful.

At Forest, Bro. J. I. Garrett, is one of our most faithful pastors, and is greatly beloved by the people, has one of the best Sabbath-schools in the district, has repaired the passonage and several souls have been converted to God, and added to the church.

Rev. B. Steward, is holding the fort at Hickory, and the people are well pleased with him as pastor, on account of his faithful work. Two churches have been burned down upon this circuit but it will not be long before they will be rebuilt again, as the foundation of one has been laid and the lumber is on the ground, and the preacher and the people are very anxious to get in the new church.

Bro. S. Doby, has charge at Lake, and is doing what he can to advance the cause of Christ and Methodism, and is meeting with some success.

Bro. O. Toleson, at Madison, and Bro. R. Anderson, at Mt. Salem, are doing a good work. Bro. E. Graves, at Pelahatchie, has done a good work, and is loved by his people. Rolling Fork, Bro. C. Steward has charge, the overflow has greatly retarded his progress this year. Bro. W. W. Wallace on the Simpson circuit, had his reports and those of the leaders and stewards all nicely made out. We look for much good to be accomplished this year upon this circuit.

Rev. J. W. Parks, is finishing up his third year at Jackson, grandly, he is one of the most successful pastors of the conference, and has succeeded in building up our church both spiritually and temperately. At a recent revival several precious souls was converted and added to the church. We have a fine Sabbath-school and a large congregation. Bro. Parks has been spending several weeks with his people in Virginia, the home of his youth.

Bro. Davis, at Trenton, says he has had a hard time, but is very much encouraged and it is hoped that he may have a prosperous and successful year's work for the blessed Master.

Bro A. Davis, at Vicksburg, has been greatly afflicted, but is now zealously at work, although the membership is somewhat small, but they are as earnest and as faithful as any that I have ever seen any where. Could the new church be finished we would have one of the finest and best congregations in the State.

Rev. Simpson Jessell, on the Vicksburg circuit, has won the hearts of the people and is doing a good work. We look for a grand report at the annual conference from him. May the great Head of the church give prosperity to all the works.

J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Central Africa—Bishop Taylor's Plans.

BY W. R. SUMMERS, M. D.

Few people think that in Central Africa a region exists, with an area of two million square miles, and seventy five millions of people without a single missionary, yet such is the case. This region is bounded on the north by the Livingstone, or Congo River; on the south by the Zambesi, on the east by the great lakes, and on the west by the Congo River and the Atlantic Ocean. It has recently been crossed by the Pogge-Wissmann expedition, and many new nations, having remarkable characteristics, have been discovered, living in a well-watered and peculiarly fertile region. This is the field that Bishop Taylor has decided to occupy. His plans are already matured, and are about as follow:

1. That a chain of from 15 to 20 stations be established from Loanda, on the west coast, to Tanganyike Lake, in the east.

2. That to this end two parties enter the continent, one from Loanda and the west, and the other from the Zambesi, on the east coast; the western one being under the direct personal supervision of Bishop Taylor, and the eastern one under Dr. W. R. Summers.

3. That each party consist of from 15 to 20 missionaries, and leaving two missionaries in each station, the parties traveling until the pioneers meet each other at a certain central district, having completed the chain.

4. The work, though in harmony with, will be entirely independent of the M. E. Mission Board, the missionaries being purely self supporting, heart-consecrated men, depending upon God, supplying their needs from the indigenous resources of the country, or not receiving a cent from the Missionary Society.

5. That the western party start during the present Fall, and the eastern one during the Spring of 1885.

A New Departure.

Owing to the unprecedented success attending the sale of Dr. Scott's renowned $3 corset, and very general inquiry for Electric Corsets of less price but possessing the same therapeutic quality and elegance of shape, the Doctor has decided to place upon the market a full line of these beautiful and invaluable articles, which will now retail at $1, $1.50, $2 and $3; thus bringing them within the reach of all. These corsets, we are assured, possess real merit, and apart from their electric quality are well worth the prices asked. A great feature about them is that they prevent as well as cure diseases; therefore all ladies, even those enjoying good health, should wear them. The Doctor's record is good, and you may be sure of getting good value for your money. We invite you to read his large corset advertisement in this issue, and address him at 842 Broadway, New York.

The M. E. Church.

Centennial Jubilee of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Southern States.

To the Ministers, Members, and Friends of the M. E. Church in the Southern States: — One hundred years ago, in 1784, in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized. The present year of 1884 is therefore the centennial, or one hundredth year since that important event. It has been a hundred years of wonderful growth in numbers and influence in the Church. The whole church is to celebrate that important event.

GENERAL CONFERENCE ACTION.

The last General Conference passed the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That in grateful acknowledgement of the good hand of God upon us during the first century of our history as a church, we hereby call upon all our preachers and people throughout the world to hold in every charge in connection with Chrismas week, the present year, especial religious services, commemorative of the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and we recommend that this be done in the spirit of the declaration of our bishops, that these religious services ought to be the chief feature of the celebration.'

"Resolved, That a Centennial thank-offering ..... is an eminently appropriate and useful mode of expressing our gratitude to Almighty God for the signal blessings with which he has crowned the closing century.

"Resolved, That we are in full accord with our chief pastors when in their recently published general directions they affirm that 'the chief object of this connectional offering should be the cause of education.'"

These resolutions plainly indicate the spirit and purpose of the Centennial Celebration of our world-wide Methodism during 1884.

SPECIAL APPEAL FOR THE SOUTH.

The General Conference being deeply impressed with the vastness and importance of our educational work in the South, made a special appeal to the whole church for half a million dollars for that work. The appeal is stated as follows:

"Resolved, That an appeal be made to the whole church for half a million of dollars, as a Centennial offering for the great work of the Freedmen's Aid Society; and, while through all other portions of the church the usual agencies are employed in raising this amount, the Freedman's Aid Society is hereby authorized and directed to organize and prosecute such financial effort among the conferences of the South."

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE FREEDMAN'S AID SOCIETY.

The "entire educational work in the Southern States" has been placed in charge of the Freedman's Aid Society. This work embraces, "the mental and moral elevation of Freedmen and others in the South who have special claims upon the people of America for help in the work of Christian education." Upon this Society is therefore placed the great responsibility of promoting Christian education among the millions of colored and white people in the South, who, because of slavery and the civilization which that institution developed, have special claims upon the American people.

It will also be seen by the above resolution, appealing for half a million dollars for this great work of the Society, the Church is both authorized and directed to organize and prosecute such financial effort among the conferences of the South.

JUBILEE IN ...

There are ... reasons why ... ought to ... Centennial ... that the South ... should make ... Centennial Jubilee ... not only God's ... would glorify ... be remembered ... Christian ... our ... should be ... in every part of our nation, and is saving people of every race and condition.

As patriots, loving their country, they can praise God that secession and rebellion were failures, and that the nation is now one in territory, and will soon be one in sentiment.

As philanthropists loving their fellow-men, they can rejoice that slavery is destroyed, never again to curse our land.

The one million of colored people in our church and congregations in the South can make this a Jubilee year, in which to praise God for freedom and its blessings.

It will be a proper time for our people in the South to recall what has been done for them by the whole Church, and to plan for yet greater growth and self-helpfulness in the future.

The great need of our Church in the South is a large increase in the number of Christian ministers and teachers competent to instruct and build up the people. This Centennial Jubilee year will give all a chance to make a thank-offering to God for Christian education.

PLANS.

To make this Centennial Jubilee year a great success, the co-operation of all our ministers, members, and friends in the South must be had.

1. Let every Conference or Presiding Elders' district hold a Centennial Jubilee meeting before or during the month of October.

Several Southern Conferences meet during October. At these, Centennial meetings can be held. But in most of the Southern States the work must be begun in Presiding Elder Districts. And these District Centennial meetings should be held not later than during the month of October. At these conferences or district meetings let sermons and addresses be given, especially upon the re-organization and growth of the Church in the South since the war.

2. Let November sixteenth be set apart in all our Churches and Sunday schools as Centennial Offering Day.

If bad weather or other unavoidable circumstances prevent that day being used, the preceding or following Sunday can be used.

The object of this day is two-fold:

First. To have public exercises in which the pastor and congregation and Sunday-school officers, teachers, and scholars shall participate in setting forth the claims of this work.

NOTE.—There will be issued from this office in ample time a Centennial Jubilee program for a Sunday-school exhibition, containing dialogues, speeches, songs, etc, suitable for the occasion.

Second. To secure an offering in money from every member and friend of the Church and Sunday-school for our educational work in the South. The money to be paid at once or before Christmas.

NOTE.—Pastors and Sunday-school officers and teachers will be furnished, free of cost, Centennial subscription books and collection boxes, so that none will be without excuse in giving and helping.

This Centennial Offering Sunday is to be regarded only as the beginning of the Centennial effort, which is to continue until every church and Sunday-school in the South shall have made its contribution.

3. Let Sunday, December twenty-first, be the grand Centennial Jubilee Sunday.

Conference and district meetings, the services and exhibitions of Centennial Offering Sunday, and the use of the subscription books and collection boxes for several weeks, are all only to prepare the way for the Grand Centennial Jubilee Sunday. On that day all offerings not already paid will be handed in, and then with praises to God for the past our people will begin with joyful anticipations the great work of the next century.

NOTE.—For this Sunday also suitable programmes will be prepared.

WHAT WILL BE DONE WITH THE MONEY?

All moneys raised should be forwarded to the Freedmen's Aid Society, as belonging to the Centennial fund of the South.

2. The money raised in each conference will go to one of our schools in that conference. One great object of this celebration is to have the South help itself.

3. Each conference will decide in consultation with the Freedmen's Aid Society how the money shall be used, whether for new buildings, endowing professorships, or for other purposes. Every dollar raised by our people in the South will go to help their own schools in their own conferences.

SUCCESS.

The whole Church will watch this Centennial Jubilee in the South among our people with great interest. The success of our Southern work has been a constant source of astonishment and delight to the Church, and the millions of dollars which have gone into the South out of the benevolent treasuries of the Church have been cheerfully given. While there is no thought of stopping the work of helping the South, our Church is earnestly asking—"Can not our people in the South do more to help themselves?" This is a proper question, and this Centennial Jubilee of 1884 will give our people in the South an opportunity to demonstrate their ability and willingness to help themselves as their improved conditions will allow.

What a marvelous blessing it would be to our educational work, if our Southern Methodism could raise one hundred thousand dollars during 1884. What freedman can not give one dollar at least as a thank-offering to God for freedom? What colored man or woman who never was a slave, or what white member or friend, can not do as much? Many can give more, all should do something.

Will not the presiding elders and pastors who have not already begun, at once inaugurate this important movement?

Let 1884 be a Grand Centennial Jubilee year in all our Churches and Sunday-schools in the South.

On behalf of the Freedmen's Aid Society.

R. S. RUST.
J. C. HARTZELL.

CINCINNATI, September 1, 1884.

Jewish Months.

The Jews had two principal kinds of years, the Ecclesiastical and the Civil.

The Ecclesiastical, or Sacred Year, began on the first day of the month—Nisan, corresponding to about the middle of March, this being the time when the Jews departed out of Egypt.

From this month Nisan, or Abib, the Jews computed their feasts, and the prophets also occasionally dated their oracles and visions.

The Civil Year began on the first day of the month Tizri, from a traditionary supposition that this was the date of the creation of the world.

By this year the Jews computed their jubilees and dated their contracts, the births of their children, and the reigns of their kings.

MONTHS OF THE ECCLESIASTICAL AND CIVIL YEARS, COMPARED WITH OUR MONTHS.

Ecclesiastical Year.		Civil Year.
1. Nisan, or Abib	7.	Part of March and Apr.
2. Jyar, or Zif	8.	" " April and May
3. Sivan	9.	" " May and June
4. Thamuz	10.	" " June and July
5. Ab	11.	" " July and Aug.
6. Elul	12.	" " Aug. and Sept.
7. Tisri	1.	" " Sept. and Oct.
8. Marchesvan	2.	" " Oct. and Nov.
9. Chisleu	3.	" " Nov. and Dec.
10. Thebet	4.	" " Dec. and Jan.
11. Sebat	5.	" " Jan. and Feb.
12. Adar	6.	" " Feb. and March

As the Jewish years were lunar years, and therefore consisted of only 354 days and eight hours, they were accommodated to solar years by the addition of a month at the end of the ecclesiastical year, and this intercalary month which came after the month Adar, was called Ve-Adar, or the second Adar.

In the Dear Old Days.

We differ in creed and politics, but we are a unit all the same on the desirableness of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss of this blessing and ornament, a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balsam will make you look as you did in the dear old days. It is worth trying. The only standard 50c. article for the hair.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

A Note from Bro. Lawton.

MR. EDITOR: In a late issue of your paper, in connection with my appeal in behalf of our colored church in Knoxville, Tenn., it makes me say: "I always held that God made one man the property of another." The word never should precede the word made. A serious mistake. Please insert the correction, also the following:

Mary C. Nina, of Minneapolis, Minn., offers to be one of the 100 to contribute $10 each to help build this much needed colored church in Knoxville, Tenn. This is a herculean job, but I shall accomplish it, "God being my helper." Who will respond? Address the undersigned. D. B. LAWTON.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept 10, 1884.

American Bible Society.

The stated meeting of the Board of Managers was held at the Bible House, on Thursday, August 7th, Vice President Charles Tracy, Esq. in the chair.

The religious exercises were conducted by Secretary Hunt.

The death of Mr. Richard P. Buck, one of the Vice-Presidents of the Society, was announced. He had been for more than twenty years actively identified with the work of the Society, and an appreciative minute was adopted by the Board and ordered to be published.

Among the foreign correspondence, were submitted annual letters from the Eastern and Western Turkey Missions of the American Board, and also one from Dr. Bliss, complaining of annoyance and interruptions due to Mohammedan opposition; from Rev. C. E. B. Reed, secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, whose death by some fatal casuality has since been announced by cable; from George H. Prince, Esq., of St. Petersburg; from Rev. W. L. Whipple, at Tabreez, announcing his safe return after a perilous journey to Hamadan; from Dr. Gulick, now on a tour in Northern China; from Dr. Blodgett, of Peking, respecting some proposed modifications in the Mandarin version; from Mr. Loomis, reporting progress in Japanese translation; from Mr. Hamilton, speaking of increased taxes and business embarrassments in Mexico; from Mr. Diaz, reporting his work in Cuba; and from other agents of the Society. Also letters from correspondents in Bremen and Lucknow, asking for appropriations for printing Scriptures.

Numerous grants of books were made for benevolent distribution in the United States and in foreign lands, the aggregate value of which was about $12,200 Funds were also granted to the amount $3,817.20.

One auxiliary society was recognized in each of the four States of Kansas, Mississippi, Nebraska, and West Virginia.

The total receipts for July were $38,741.22. The issues of the Scriptures from the Bible House were 92,591 volumes.

Bible distribution in Texas, in July, 1884, by 15 colportenrs of the American Bible Society: days of service 290; miles traveled 3491; families visited by them 2877; families found without a Bible 397; families supplied by gift or sale 317; destitute individuals supplied in addition 167; number of books sold 1439, value $504.51; number of books distributed by gift 303, value $66 06; contributions received from churches and individuals $43.66; returns were received from 5 auxiliary societies.

The fourth General Supply is being vigorously carried on. Help is greatly needed. Contributions may be sent to A. L. Taylor, assistant treasurer, Bible House, New York; or to W. B. Rankin, district superintendent, Austin, Texas.

Serious riots are reported in coal mines in Hocking Valley, O.

Hunt's [Kidney and Liver] Remedy is no "hit or miss" compound or old woman's mixture. It is prepared by a scientific pharmacist, with a full knowledge of the powers and virtues of each ingredient in the class of diseases which it cures. It is purely vegetable and can not harm the youngest child or the most feeble invalid.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle. Trade Mark

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3.) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2.25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged. Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 5
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson. (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	2 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition.—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00 1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged, and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Picture Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884, at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND,

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women.

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 25, 1884.

A Special Notice.

James Morton was given work at Gibson, Texas, by the Texas Conference, and acted as an agent for this paper. We wish all who gave their names to him to know that he has never paid us anything of or their papers, and Morton has been discontinued because of the discovery that he had not taken the vows, and held no certificate. If subscribers paid money to him, they will please make immediate demand for the return of their money, and then pay over such amounts and all they owe on subscriptions to Rev. Taylor Moore, of Paris. PHILLIPS & HUNT.

We must be just ourselves before it will be consistent for us to appeal to God for justice and judgment in our favor.

There are in the United States five million working men, the wives and children of whom number eight million more.

Brethren settle it in your minds at once that a pastor is responsible for the payment of all subscriptions sent by him to this office. We do not know and can not reach the people. You know and meet them regularly. Everything connected with the circumstances show that you are, as agent, the only person upon whom we can depend for faithful collections and remittances of orders made by your authority.

The political campaign of the national parties has been pushed with vigor the past few weeks. Gen. Logan is speaking to the Germans of the West on Blaine's record in Congress. Gen. Logan and Thomas Hendricks, the opposing candidates for the vice presidency, are on the stump. Mr. Blaine has been to Augusta, and is going westward, making short speeches, and will probably give evidence for the prosecution of his slanderers in the court at Indianapolis. Gen Butler is addressing very large audiences in the East and West, and it is believed he will receive a large vote, mainly at the expense of the Democratic national ticket.

Donaldsonville, La., Sept. 15, 1884.—To Messrs. Phillips & Hunt: I received a list of the names of the members. I also see a balance. You will find inclosed $5. I will be able to do more the next year, the Lord being my helper. I am working very hard for the centennial collection, and my hen and her chickens when I get the profit of what they bring I will let you know. Yours, MARY SMITH.

Here is what a sister who means business can do for her church and the Lord's cause. God increase this sister's like tribe.

It is due to the first convention to say that we cordially welcome Dr. Bayliss to the editorship of the Western Christian Advocate. He succeeds a dear friend to whom we look for counsel and help. We can never forget or cease to love Dr. Hoyt. But so is the order of things must always be. Long life to Dr. Bayliss, for editor. We have known him a long time, and we have always found him a Christian gentleman, and we will find that he will know what to do when they [illegible]

A Crucial Test.

God is preparing the African-American, for a career of long continued usefulness in this country, but as the street builders drive the stones together with great force in order to secure compactness and durability, so must the race be prepared for future usefulness and endurance by the hard knocks it is receiving all over the country. We do not indorse those who persecute the Negro, neither do we love to be persecuted. But we look for it, and look for the Negro to outlive and be the stronger and better for having encountered and passed through it. Let the Negroes go on in their steady, purpose to buy land, educate their children in useful professions, trades and farming. Get and hold on to God and godliness. Save some money and keep out of debt, or leave the places where they are so poorly paid for labor that they can't make anything to lay by, look well for the home life, and to the social relations among themselves.

That Half a Million.

The centennial plan of raising at least $100,000 of the $500,000 for educational purposes asprese nted by the Freedmen's Aid Society, will commend itself to and should receive the support of our people, the colored people, and all people all over the South. It is a general call, but the arrangement is such that each locality has the benefit of its giving, e. g., New Orleans University is to have the $10,000 pledged by Louisiana Conference, and the Central Tennesse College the $2,000 pledged by Lexington Conference, and so on in every case. There can, under this plan be no good excuse for non-action. Let us make a determined effort to insure $50,000 or one half of the required amount from the colored, leaving the other for our white Southern work to secure. An effort of this sort between the two classes of work will provoke each to the right sort of rivalry, be a decisive test of liberality and ability, and greatly stimulate benevolence on the eastern slope of our Zion.

A Sleeping Cincinnati Enterprise.

The donation of a considerable sum of money and property by Mr. Crawford, of Hamilton county, Ohio, for the purpose of founding a home for the aged and infirm colored men, is an important trust. The execution of his purpose was committed mainly to colored men as trustees. Mr. Robert Gordon, a colored citizen of wealth and business culture being manager of the enterprise. Several years have passed since the death of Mr. Crawford. The matter has been thrown into the courts, Mr. Gordon has died also, and the affair seems to be making little or no progress. This trust being committed to colored men, it involves their integrity in its success or failure. In our present transition state every such act as a failure to fairly administer this trust would be, is considered representative, and therefore hurts not only individuals, but the race as well. This charity was intended to benefit old and infirm colored men, so that not only the integrity, but the humanity of its managers are involved in the final outcome to the extent that it is possible for them to control it. Wake up, gentlemen, something must at once be done.

Our Politics.

A political or any other institution which is controlled and represented by the rip-roaring element of society has in it the elements of hasty dissolution, and the sooner it is dissolved the better it will be for those who are affected by its existence. Especially among the colored people should their political leaders be sober, honest and moral, if not religious men. We care a great deal more for the moral than for the political development of the Negro. Take care of the first and the latter will regulate itself by the force of it.

Be Wise and Supply Your Wants.

If you want to keep the babies quiet, or to get a good family or teacher's Bible cheap, or to secure a full supply of Sabbath school, church or pastor's requisites, or a good wagon, scales, or an automatic sewing machine, or the best indellible ink, or to get a commercial or a medical, or a legal, or a scientific, or a classical, or a military, or a theological education, or a situation as teacher or preacher, or doctor, or lawyer, or any sort of a position for males or females, or to go to the World's Exposition, or to secure cheap and rapid transportation, or to learn which is the most desirable route of travel, or to secure an agency of any kind, or to get a good church bell, or to cure your liver, lungs, or the ague or piles, or to secure a patent, or to purchase a steam power engine of any sort, or to get any kind of farming implement, horse-power, poultry, or any kind of stock for a farm, or any sort of a book and promiscuous literature, or milling machinery, or a cure for dipsomania and opium eating, or a silver sacramental service, or a tonic of any useful sort, or any book in the travelling and local preacher's new course of study, or to know anything in botany or chemistry, or astronomy, or a remedy for bronchitis, cough or colds, or about house-keeping, school-teaching or about your lost friends, or the marriages, births, deaths, or to find a good sanitarinm, or to secure first rate groceries, or to learn how to cook well or make rare dishes and desserts, or to get any kind of music for church or parlor uses, to get information from the churches, conferences, lodges, circuits, districts, connectional enterprises, the preachers, teachers, and members, or from the camp meetings, institutes, conventions, revivals, or assemblies of all kinds, or if you want to know the prominent men, and colored and white, or to get the latest news from every source, or to get political, church and secular news, or to have the most useful book notices, current comment and crispy editorial briefs plainly written, or anything that concerns humanity in plain print; always fresh and local to any section of the country; or if you want a live, free and useful weekly paper, the largest, cheapest and most reliable of any with a colored editor in the country, or if you want anything that you have not and don't know where it can be had, subscribe for, advertise in, and carefully read the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, and you will be likely to find it.

"Gas Mostly."

"The new editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE (M. E. Church, North), at New Orleans, is, as our readers know, a Negro. He was elected at the last General Conference of that Church. He seems to be shrewd, plain-spoken, and has a vein of humor. He does not like the way in which the race question is 'dodged' in some quarters. In an article before us, after quoting from Zion's Herald (Boston), and complaining that its editor turns practically the cold shoulder to the colored brother he professes to love so much, the colored editor of the SOUTHWESTERN relates this incident—which is another illustration of the difference between theory and practice:

Not so subtle was one of the members of the late General Conference, who pleaded eloquently for mixing the races in school. He is principal of a female college in one of the Northern States. During a stormy debate upon this vexed question the champion for co-education of the races took the floor. As he advanced his face reddened, his neck-veins swelled, his eyes grew hazy, his voice rose to a squeaking pitch, his hands pawed the air, his fiery-red hair quivered like a thorn-bush in a hurricane, and his whole being indicated that he was on the very verge of an explosion. After the discussion was over, one of our great officials approached him and said: 'I believe you are principal of a female college!' He answered in the affirmative. 'Then,' said the official, 'I would like to send to your school this year about a half dozen colored girls.' He scratched his red head, and said. 'Our school is full for the year.' 'Well, can you take them next year?' 'No, it is impossible. for every room is engaged for next year.' This last statement led the official to conclude that the engagements run through to the Judgment day, and he subsided. But he went away impressed that the vociferous speech which this champion for mixed schools had delivered was—gas mostly."

Much obliged to you. Having been unsuccessful in diagnosing our own bumptuosity, we thank you for your diagnosis thereof. Like most good farmers, we are careful to kill and cure our meat on a growing moon. We know an old colored brother, who would not begin a revival unless according to his theory the moon hung right. We want a light moon in the right position before we begin our analysis of your case. But you are in for it sure. Now sir, stand up, hold up your hand, look in heaven, think of your grave, say your prayers, and then answer us. When, and in what particular number of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, did you find the article you so kindly credit to us? You mistakenly sent your last "North" in search of our church, you may send your next to New Orleans. Sort o' South, ain't it?

Birmingham, Ala, Echoes.

About one year ago Dr. Rust gave us a passing call. We asked for an exchange, which was granted. Circumstances have since changed our course, but the SOUTHWESTERN is a valued visitant, and we are doing all that we can to get our colored friends to take it, for it is for them and theirs, edited by Dr. Marshall Taylor, one who is eminently fitted for the place he fills with ability, and is fresh, and withal orthodox; not blind sectarian, but animated by the love of Christ, caring for and trying to win souls for the kingdom of God. It will be a power for good. May it have a place by the fireside of every family in the land.—Weekly Review.

Long life and great success to its editor. The children of God are peace makers. Since we claim to be the one, we must be the other. You will find Dr. Rust genial, affable, generous, noble and true. See him whenever he comes your way. We see no use in being straight enough to lean backward, but we are pretty deeply dyed in Methodist ink though. We thank you for every helpful thing, and only wish you to command us, and we will reciprocate in kind. The SOUTHWESTERN is for God and man.—ED.

Not Restricted.

Baldwin Seminary, Louisiana, is so called in honor of the man whose name it bears, and by whose liberality it was first conveyed to our church, restricted in its use to white persons, but upon these conditions the Freedmen's Aid Society refused to receive it, and a new deed without restriction was made and accepted. There is no sort of agreement that it is to be a school exclusively for whites, but it is practically such at present. The Freedmen's Aid Society has no power to prevent the condition of things by which its work is often embarrassed and retarded. We are in the South studying the situation. There are many things to consider and understand about these schools and churches; but the church meanwhile has settled her policy. If time and experience demand revision at any point the Church can be relied upon to see that it is made. What we at present need most is a demonstration that an official paper is competent under colored editorship to succeed better than under white, by securing a larger subscription list. Next we must prove that Negro teachers succeed best with Negro pupils, etc.

Colored Knights of Pythias.

The colored people have got hold of the genuine work of the Knights of Pythias.

There are several lodges in Ohio, Kentucky, and throughout the South. Between Virginia and Mississippi belongs the history of producing the first colored lodge. This honor is claimed by both. There is some nervousness on account of this new breach in the walls of secret society exclusiveness, but it is useless.

That castle of prejudice was built on sand, and garnished with sophistry. It will certainly fall with the coming reign of charity, guided by the swift wind of brotherhood. Guarded by faith, we are working and waiting.

Time and courage, faith and patience, labor and economy, are forces too powerful to be defeated. They are at our command; we have only to employ them

Private Life of the Savior.

Previous to his baptism, extending over a space of about 30 years, including the following circumstances:

First—The preparation of John the Baptist to be his forerunner, of the blessed Virgin Mary to be his mother, and of Joseph to be the guardian of his infancy and pupilage.

Second—His holy nativity in a stable in Bethlehem Ephrata, with the welcome of the choir of angels, the visit of the shepherds, and his circumcision.

Third—His mother's purification, with the open testimony of Simon and Anna in the temple.

Fourth—The visit of the Magi.

Fifth—His flight into Egypt, which was followed by Herod's slaughter of the innocents.

Sixth—His return and settlement with his parents, in Nazareth, in Galilee.

Seventh—His going with them to Jerusalem at the Passover, and questioning with the doctors, whence he again returned to Nazareth, and subjecting himself to his parents, perhaps worked with them at the trade of carpenter.

Personal.

—The many friends of Dr. Hartzell are glad to see him in New Orleans, however brief his visit may be.

—Bishop McTyeire is senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, since the death of Bishop Pierce.

—It is reported that Dr. J. P. Newman is likely to re enter the regular ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

—Dr. A. H. Redford, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, is dangerously ill of typhoid fever at Bowling Green, Ky.

—Dr. Gray leaves behind him a host of friends in Little Rock. We hope in his new field of labor he shall have entire success.

—Bishop Mallalieu will visit Texas, en route to New Orleans, and is not certain whether he will reside here or at Austin.

—Rev. J. G. Vaughan, late of Ames' Methodist Episcopal Church, will transfer to the Cincinnati conference and be stationed at Springboro, Ohio.

—Mr. D. D. Whedon Jr., son of Rev. Dr. Whedon, has recently, while laboring under an aberration of the mind committed suicide so it is reported.

—Dr. Hartzell's trip to New Orleans was most opportune for the interests of the university here. He looks well and his many friends were quite glad to see him.

—The worshipful Master of colored masons at Alexandria, La., is also foreman in the office of the State Central Express, published in that town. The gentleman is Mr. T. H. Osborn, and he is a Republican.

—Bro. Montgomery seems to be popular here. He was in our neighborhood solemnizing matrimony Saturday, September 13. He has a splendid evening congregation and an excellent choir at his church.

—Bishop Walden has appointed Rev. L. P. Cushman to be acting pastor of Ames church in this city, until the next Louisiana conference, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the transfer of Rev. J. G. Vaughan.

—The first Malagasy who ever learned the alphabet died January, 1883, at the age of seventy-two. He had lived to see thousand of his countrymen taught to read, and over seventy thousand profess their faith in Christ.

—Rev. A. E. P. Albert has just ordered and sent to Eola the corner-stone of a new church, to be set October 5th, with Masonic ceremonies, conducted by the Alexandria Lodge, under the direction of District Grand Master J. G. Lewis.

—Rev. M. T. Fairfax, of Gretna circuit, Lonisiana conference is having a prosperous year. In spite of four months high water he has pressed his duties and succeeded, although he had but 12 members upon whom to rely for support.

—There is the family of Rev. Stephen Duncan, presiding elder of the Shreveport district, Louisiana conference, which for system, exemplary kindness and beautiful display of the high class home courtesies is above reproach. Hand this to Rev. J. T. Hargrave, of Mississippi.

—Rev. Alex Connerly, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, walked eighteen miles to attend Elder Cushman's quarterly conference at Mt. Convenient, on Shady Grove circuit He said the conviction has been growing upon him for a year that God did not want a race church in this country.

—Rev. Emperor Williams, of Lafourche district, graced our sanctum with his presence this week. He is in the midst of his third round of visits. He reports the work, with two exceptions, generally increasing. He looks vigorous and says he is in fine health. He is one of the fathers, and is held in high esteem among the brethren.

—Emerson Bentley, Esq., the New Orleans business agent of Phillips & Hunt, is a shrewd business man and has a history which deserves to come before our church. He is an Ohioan by birth, came South October 1863, in the employment of the Freedman's Bureau. He is also a newspaper man of experience, and a practical printer.

—An experience narrated by Dr. Cushman, is that he finds a colored family, father aged 47, mother 43, with thirteen children and fourteen grand children. Yet this family was well regulated, peaceful and harmonious. They live on their own place, have forty acres of cotton, and was one of the few families in that neighborhood who made their bread last year. They are Louisiana Negroes. Carry the news to Hargrave.

—Mother Susan of Winan's Chapel died Saturday, and was buried Sunday, September 14th. She was the oldest member of that church; she has been an earnest Christian for many years. A sister tells us that she has gone home, and gone there all right, that she went home shouting. The church, several societies, and a large concourse of citizens, young and old, followed her to the grave.

—Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, who has been spending a vacation here, now returns to Boston, and enters the University there in his closing year; after that he will be in the hands of the Lord, to be guided by the church into his life work. He preached at Mt. Zion at 11 a. m., Wesley in the afternoon, and at Winan's Chapel in the evening, September 15th, and on the 16th or 17th left for Boston.

—Clinton Street Methodist Episcopal Church, with its most generous pastor, A. J. Ford, leads in new subscriptions to the SOUTHWESTERN and paying on the old account. Bro. Ford paid in $3, and we were able to enroll a list of ten new names in his church. Bro. Mason however, was the first to break the way, last week he gave us two names. A good many gave us promises which they of course intend to fulfill. Methodist preachers always so intend.

—The Rev. E. E. Jenkins, secretary of the Wesleyan Missionary Society of England, is expecting to make an official visit to India and China during the coming year. His former visits to these countries and South Africa have been fruitful of good results. Mr. Jenkins was sent to India in 1845 and remained there for 18 years as a missionary. We hope that this visit will tend to allay any friction that may exist at some points between the Wesleyan Missions and our own.

—Bro. Tickcheff, the converted Bulgarian priest, recently visited his village and was kindly received by his former parishioners. He talked freely and prayed with some of their families. One woman gave good evidence of a change of heart. Whenever any of these villagers come to Rustchuk, they call on him and listen gladly to his spiritual conversation. His influence is not small among them, though he is not permitted by the authorities to reside there. There is an increase of the congregation in Rustchuk, and the booksellers report interesting conversations with inquirers.

—The industry with which Professor and Mrs. Hoyt have set to work getting ready for school, and to enter their elegant quarters on St. Charles street, is really encouraging. He is almost indefatigable, being at three services in three different churches, in widely separated localities, working up the interests of the University. The institution is situated between the St. Charles avenue and Prytania street, horse car lines and it can be reached by the latter line for five cents each way. By the St. Charles street route we understand it will be ten cents.

—Dean Thirkield, of Gammon Theological School, Atlanta, Georgia, has been on an extended visit to the North and East, earnestly working in furtherance of his idea of building cottages on the college ground for the use of married students. The result of his visit and effort in that behalf has been quite successful. He has received $1200 for that purpose from interested friends, of which $244 was from his old conference. The school will open this season with encouraging prospects. The good work heretofore done there will be duplicated hereafter and every effort made to deserve the continued confidence of patrons, friends, and students.

—Rev. D. Matthaei, of the First German M. E. Church, is closing a three years' pastorate here. The people greatly regret that he must retire. There are three German churches here, all out of debt. He would be gladly received in the Second, having already served a pastoral term in the Third. His conference, the Southern German, convenes in this city Dec. 24th, which is two weeks too late to secure the best results. They will ask a change of time, in harmony with the [illegible]. The Sunday-school of this charge is a most flourishing one. There 75 children [illegible] took a missionary collection up of $8, and to this time have raised $48 on a total assessment of $60.

Church Polity.

Mr. Editor—Please answer the following question through the Southwestern: If a trustee of our Church fails to discharge his [illegible] as trustee after all [illegible] have been used to [illegible], and he will not on [illegible] and resign, not being a [illegible] and a quarterly conference [illegible] and fill his place on [illegible] the interval of the [illegible]

[illegible] are amenable to the quarterly conference, and [illegible] such members are [illegible]. And the pastor is not sole judge of the official character of a [illegible]. The presiding elder has [illegible] power in nominating, and should [illegible] be heard in regard to [illegible] for which reasons he [illegible] a committee [illegible]

[illegible] on [illegible] truth [illegible] things [illegible] of [illegible] or [illegible] to [illegible] the year [illegible] Applications should be signed by the pastor and Sunday-school superintendent. Blanks for the purpose of applying for donations can be had by writing to Phillips & Hunt, 805 Broadway, New York, or to Cranston & Stowe, 190 West 4th street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

General Church News.

MORADABAD, INDIA.—From Rev. J. H. Gill we learn that the work in his station and circuit prospers. Sabbath schools, bazar and chapel preaching, and day schools are all in a satisfactory running order. The presence of the Holy Spirit has been especially apparent recently. In the beginning of August every missionary in charge of circuits was at his post, though in the midst of the hot season. Some of the ladies having infants were in the sanitarium in Almora.

AN INCIDENT IN SAXONY.—The pastor of the Methodist Church in Schwartzenback, Saxony, called some friends together to practice singing the hymns for service. Not being able to meet during the week, they met on Sunday. The singers were surprised by a summons before the police and to their dismay were fined twice, once for having met at all on Sunday, and again for once meeting at the hour of service in the State church. They appealed, but the verdict was sustained and they had to pay costs and fines to the amount of 160 marks, for singing spiritual songs on Sunday. The same authority permits masons and carpenters to pursue their avocations on the Sabbath. The work of the Church, however, is prosperous in Saxony.

The African Methodist Episcopal Church, by the action of the late General Conference, makes it imperative on the part of the Bishops to appoint presiding elders in every Conference. Bishop R. H. Cain speaks very highly of the effect of this movement. He writes a very encouraging letter to the Christian Recorder about it.

The several branches of Methodists in the United States are said to be building churches at the rate of four every day.

The churches of Christ (or Campbellite Baptists) in Great Britain and Ireland have a membership of 7,506. In this country the denomination numbers 631,720, ninety times as many as in Great Britain.

There has been a decrease in the number of Baptist churches in England, the number of scholars in Baptist Sunday-schools has increased by about 100,000. Its total number of scholars now is 437,187 and 303,302 church members.—Central Methodist.

The membership of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in this country increased last year nearly 10,000. It has now a total membership of 122,240.

Schools and Colleges.

The Gammon School of Theology.

The Gammon School of Theology, Clark University, Atlanta, Ga., will open for its second year's work on October 1st. During the past year there were 18 ministers and candidates in attendance, and the prospect is for a considerable increase in numbers this session. This school has excellent facilities for doing broad, thorough work in all the departments of theological training. No man with courage, consecration and energy need be deprived of its advantages. Aid will be given to the most worthy. Additional attractions will be a course of lectures on the practical work of the ministry, by distinguished ministers of different denominations. The following have already made positive engagements to lecture before the theological school: Bishop [illegible], President C. H. Payne, LL. D., Dr. Fitzgerald, editor of the Nashville Advocate, R. S. Rust, D. D., C. O. Fisher, D. D., Revs. J. W. Hamilton, Wm. I. Haven and [illegible], of Boston, Rev. A. H. Gillet, R. H. Rust, D. D., Dr. Arnett. Other special lecturers are expected and will be announced. Bishop Walden will deliver a course of six lectures. The following action of the late General Conference (§161) encourages young ministers to enter the School of Theology thus: "A Bishop may leave without appointment a preacher on trial or a member of an annual conference desiring to attend any of our literary or theological seminaries." The rising generation is demanding an educated ministry. Let our young ministers prepare for the work. For further information address the dean, Rev. Wilbur P. Thirkield.

The New Orleans University will open Wednesday, October 1, 1884, at 1428 St. Charles avenue. Entrance examinations on Monday and Tuesday, September 29 and 30. Preparatory College Course, Normal Department, College Courses, and Theological Department. Primary pupils will be taught in the model department. Students can reach the University on the Camp and Prytania street line of cars for a single fare. Teachers: O. T. Simpson, Virginia M. J. Riche, Maria C. Kilgrove, Miss O'Neil. Rev. A. F. Hoyt, Acting President.

In Boston University the number of students in attendance has steadily increased the past four years, the summaries of the four being as follows: 505, 555, 591 and 610. The whole number of instructors is one hundred. A new building will be opened October 1.

The advisory Board of Trustees of New Orleans University met in the office of the SOUTHWESTERN September 15. There are 15 members, 10 white and 5 colored. The colored are Revs. S. Priestley, A. E. P. Albert, J. W. Hudson, P. Landry and J. B. Gaudet, Esq. The white members are, Revs. R. S. Rust, J. C. Hartzell, W. D. Godman, L. P. Cushman, A. F. Hoyt, Hons. C. W. Boothby, J. R. G. Pitkin, E. Bentley, Geo. N. Fenno and John Page. The resignation of Revs. J. A. Dean and J. G. Vaughn were tendered and accepted and A. F. Hoyt and J. W. Hudson elected their successors. The sale of Race and purchase of St. Charles street property was announced. The creation of a department of instrumental music was recommended, and after arranging some other matters of minor importance the Board adjourned.

The Willamette University at Portland will soon commence the erection of a handsome medical college, to cost $25,000. The medical department is at Portland.

Mr. Samuel Noble has given $20,000 to found boys' and girls' high schools in Anniston, Ala.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

Among the galaxy of illustrious names who have become famous by the improvement of their leisure moments, none shine with greater resplendent glory than Benjamin Banneker.—Baltimore Vindicator.

The test and measure of genuine religious character are not happy religious emotions or holy thoughts and feelings, but doing the will of God.—Northwestern.

Evolution represents God as planting in the first living cell, a principle, which enables that cell, under favorable circumstances, to propagate a race of oysters, which is capable of propagating a race of fishes, which in turn is capable of propagating a race of higher animals, the highest of which is capable of propagating human beings.—Christian Observer.

To know the wideness of God's mercy and his love, to know how freely he forgives, and then enriches the soul, one must become as a little child, for it is the little child that knows best the meaning of the word father.—Central.

One of the worst ulcers in society is the man or woman who never does anything only point out the faults of others.—Minnesota Methodist.

Then does any Christian ask: "How can I be loyal to Christ?" The answer is: Be loyal to the branch of the Church, and to the local church of that branch with which you are providentially connected.—The Interior.

We take the position that pastoral visiting is a duty, both implied and enjoined in the Scriptures.—Zion's Watchman.

An eminent minister of our Church, whose name is associated with the most advanced temperance movements, writes: "I may vote for St. John, I cannot tell. I shall not do so if I think it will help to elect Cleveland."—Northern Christian Advocate.

Thoughtful citizens are coming more and more to hold parties at their true value, to see in them only a means to good government, not an entity to be perpetuated for its own sake, at a cost of principle, of personality and of self respect.—The American Reformer.

The free thinkers, who are in fact about the narrowest and most illiberal thinkers in the country, have been holding a convention at Cassadaga, New York.—Pittsburg Advocate.

Among the anti-Blaine men who are not Democrats there are, we repeat, all kinds of views upon other public questions, and upon all such questions they would not vote together.—Harper's Weekly.

We know that our religious foundation is sure.—Christian Recorder.

Speaking of the political duty of the colored people, the Log Hut, a colored paper published by colored men at Hot Springs, Arkansas, says: "We say work, for the man or men who are willing to offer you the crumbs left from his table, or in other words think of you when the victory is won." Who are they?

Bishop Payne doesn't seem to be quite so knowledgous.—ED.

Souls are being born every day at camp meeting, on White Rock.—Colored Methodist.

There are a good many being born here also, white, black and yellow.—ED.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

New Orleans District—Third Round.

On each of our circuits or stations there are from ten to thirty department officials. Some of these, as the superannuated and supernumerary preachers, hold their relation to the Annual Conference, and are accountable to it. But ministers who have located, and all local preachers are amenable to the quarterly or district conference of which they are members. The exhorters, stewards, trustees and class leaders, for any violation of the rules of the Discipline of the Church, are dealt with as the other members of the Church. Of these officials, we regard the class leaders as among the most important. It is his duty to see each member of his class at least once a week, to inquire how his soul prospers, and exhort, comfort or reprove, as occasion may require.

The first requisite to the highest efficiency of the class, is that the leader be a person of solid piety, sound judgment, who both knows and loves the doctrines of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The absence of spiritual power in the class, the smallness of the class collections, so apparent in the reports of certain leaders, is not the result of efficiency and consistency on the part of the leader, nor is it because so many of the members of the class are sick, old and infirm. The leader is defective in his moral character, and they know it.

The person who fails to report all the class collections, or forgets to tell the truth, and never pays his debts, and frequently drinks whiskey, should not hold a class book a single hour. Let the "axe be laid at the root of the tree," remove the pestiferous carbuncle, and let the class move on and do its work. The pastor who allows an unworthy person to remain a leader, to escape the unpleasantness of the administration of Discipline, commits a fatal mistake. God will take care of single-eyed men.

At Union Chapel there is harmony, peace and prosperity. Bro. Priestly never sings—

> We have trials and temptations,
> We have troubles everywhere.

True, he sees in the community some fearful manifestations of depravity. There are many things that do not go just as he would have them. It is his business to work; results are with God. The Sunday-school is increasing in numbers. The average attendance for the quarter was only 100. The report of the stewards showed that $498.95 had been raised during the quarter.

Since conference, in spite of the hard times, $150 has been raised and forwarded to Philadelphia toward paying the debt due the Church Extension Society, and over $200 laid out in repairs, and all the current expenses met, and a good religious interest prevails in the church.

Perhaps there is no Church more thoroughly organized than the Methodist Episcopal. The more we study and look into the various parts of this machinery, the more we wonder and admire it; still we remember that machinery is not power. The power to move it belongs to God. The machinery and men are but little better than mummies without the vital energy and saving power of the Holy Spirit, and this must come from God.

At Wesley Chapel Bro. Dale found all the machinery for a grand church, but it was not in a good working condition, but rather chaotic and unorganized. Like a wise master builder, he began with the Sunday-school, the average attendance of which has more than doubled, and is now the largest we have in the city. The parsonage so many had talked about building, has also been begun upon the principle of pay as you go. The frame of a nice double cottage has been erected, one side to be used as a parsonage, the other to rent, thus giving to the church a constant revenue.

At third quarterly conference all the reports were in order, and as a whole, indicated harmony and prosperity. The collections were as follows: No. 1, $18.25; No. 2, $13.10; No. 3, $13.55; No. 4, $3.50; No. 5, $19.65; No. 6, $2.90; No. 7, $8.60; No. 8, $5.75; No. 9, $25; No. 10, $9; No. 11, $9; No. 12, $8; No. 13, $2.10; No. 14, $6.50; No. 15, $8; No. 16, $15; No. 17, $3.50; No. 18, $3; No. 19, $3. Persons reading these figures will see a great difference in the class collections. In some instances this is doubtless to be attributed to the condition of the class. Leadership has much to do with the real work of the class.

L. P. CUSHMAN.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Shreveport District Conference.

This conference convened and continued its session in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Natchitoches, Louisiana, Aug. 28-30, the Rev. Stephen Duncan, presiding elder, in the chair. Rev. V. Chapman was elected Secretary, B. M. Hubbard and P. B. McDonald assistants.

Reports from the presiding elder and pastors were presented, by which it was made apparent that the work was progressing satisfactorily.

The literary exercises were of a high and interesting order. Papers were presented and read on: The Sunday-school, and its Relation to the Church, Divorce, Temperance, Church Benevolences, Religion and Piety, Qualification of a Minister, Children Raised Methodist, Power of the Pulpit, Receiving Ministers from other Orthodox Churches.

Revs. Joseph Huson and Henry Jones were reported dead, and a memorial service held, and addresses read in memoriam of their life and labors.

The various and usual committees being appointed, did their work well. Woman's work was earnestly considered, and an advanced position taken in reference to it. The reports of the stewards, class leaders, local preachers, Sunday-school superintendents and exhorters were well prepared, and favorably considered. Revs. A. E. P. Albert, C. F. Stivers, Mrs. Maggie Syna and Cora Redmond were present as visitors.

The Sunday service was a great occasion, and 1,000 people were at the services. Resolutions touching ordinations, renewal of license, divorce, prohibition, Freedmen's Aid, missionary, Church Extension, Sunday-school Union, tract, educational, Bible, Women's Home Missionary Societies, the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE; also personal resolutions as follows: To Revs. A. E. P. Albert and S. Duncan, the Secretaries, the railroads, livery stable men, Democratic Review newspaper, were adopted.

The next meeting was set for Mansfield, La. It was a pleasant session, and deep impressions for good were left in the minds of the people. The entertainment was cordial and generous, all colors vieing with each other to make it agreeable. The elder closes his district labors this year with great success.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notes From Marshall District Conference.

The Marshall District Conference, Texas Annual Conference, was held at Clarksville, Sept. 3rd to 7th. The opening sermon was preached by the presiding elder, H. Webb; subject, "Christian perfection." J. B. McCulloch was elected secretary; P. S. Wilkinson, assistant. Twelve pastors were present, and a good number of local preachers, exhorters and other members. It was estimated that 600 people were in attendance on Sabbath. A deep religious spirit prevailed from first to last. Over 200 partook of the Lord's supper on Sabbath morning. The love feast at 3 p. m. surpassed everything ever witnessed in this district. It was estimated that 300 witnessed the power of Jesus to save from sin. On Thursday night W. Rippetoe preached; and several mourners were present to be prayed for. Friday night was the anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid Society. Collections $7. R. F. Boyd, M. D., of Meharry Medical College, delivered a fine lecture on the "Needs of the Negro race." The lecture was scholarly, practical and well delivered, and made a fine impression. Several gentlemen of the medical profession were present. Saturday night L. Woodward preached on "Perfect Love." Sunday morning J. B. McCulloch, with his fine corps of teachers, showed us a model Sunday-school. Addresses were made by Rev. R. H. Harbert, of Marshall, and the presiding elder. R. H. Harbert, on Sunday morning, preached an able sermon on the sufferings of Christ. At night Rev. John Jackson, of Jefferson, preached a powerful sermon from Matt. 25-37. The people were so crowded, and the weather so intensely hot but little could be done for the conversion of sinners, but the influence of this day can never be lost. The conference voted unanimously to discontinue the district conference. Rev. V. M. Cole, of Paris, invited the conference to attend and assist in laying the corner stone of the new church at Paris on Tuesday, the 9th, at 3 p. m. A number responded, and Tuesday finds us at Paris assembled on the ruins of the old church to lay the corner stone of the new. The Lord spread a cloud over the sun, and the ladies spread the tables with good things. Rev. R. H. Harbert presided at the organ, and a large number of ladies and gentlemen formed a chorus and led the singing. Addresses were delivered by R. F. Boyd, M. D., Rev. R. H. Harbert, H. Webb and V. M. Cole. A photograph view was taken of the crowd and stone, by V. M. Cole, Jr. The stone was put in place by the builder, A. J. Deal, and duly laid as the Discipline provides. The building is after plan No. 28 of Church Extension Annual, and at this writing the walls are up and rafters going on. The people are following their pastor to victory.

The people at Clarksville entertained the conference royally, and caused the pastors to hope their lot might fall among this people.

Yours truly, H. WEBB.

Domestic Hygiene.

BEEF TEA.—Remove all the fat from a pound of round steak. Either have the butcher chop it, or lay it on a board and with a sharp knife scrape or cut it into small pieces; then put it into a glass fruit jar put on the cover and set into a kettle of cold water. A piece of old muslin in the bottom of the kettle will prevent the jar breaking. The water must heat slowly, and then boil for three hours, when the juice will be completely extracted, and the meat will be of no further use for anything. Pour off the juice, and set it to cool, so that all particles of fat may be removed. Warm needed for use, heat, and give a spoonful at a time with or without salt, as the patient may prefer.

CHICKEN JELLY.—Select a lean chicken, cut the meat from the bones in small pieces. With a sharp knife remove the skin and fat; then put the meat and bones in a granite iron or porcelain kettle, with cold water enough to partially cover them. When it begins to boil skim it carefully, and, then let it simmer three hours. Strain, and remove any particles of fat that may have escaped your notice. A piece of clean blotting-paper laid on the top will absorb what fat cannot be taken off with a spoon. Return the juice to the kettle and boil it down, till it will jelly when cold. If the patient can take salted food, put a little salt in when the chicken is put on to boil, but sometimes the throat and stomach are so sensitive that the animal salt such a condensed form of meat contains may be all that can be tolerable.

EGG GRUEL.—Boil eggs until hard as hard as possible, mash the yolks smooth, as for salad dressing, and thicken boiling hot milk with them, adding a little salt.

PANADA.—Break in a bowl two large crackers, sprinkle a little salt over them, and pour on boiling water enough to cover. When they look clear they are ready to eat. Some invalids like a little pepper over them, with water enough to be something like soup, others prefer to keep the cracker whole, and slide them out on a saucer, and eat with cream and sugar.

CURRANT JELLY.—Lemon jelly is something almost every one is fond of in all its forms, but it is convenient to know the rules for a small quantity. To two boxes one quarter of a box of gelatine in the same quantity of cold water, letting it stand half an hour. The gelatine can be placed in an earthen dish, on the back part of the stove, or in a pan of hot water. When the gelatine has become sufficiently soft, add a pint of boiling water, one and a half cups of sugar, the juice of a lemon, the juice of a cup of currants, not quite a cup, the whites of two eggs, beaten up light, and pour the whole into a jelly bag, and strain through it into moulds. Mrs. [illegible] Farm.

HOMINY.—Wash a cup of hominy and put it in a quart of boiling water, and boil slowly for an hour. Add a teaspoonful of salt, a tablespoonful of butter, and a cup of milk, and boil half an hour longer. Serve hot for breakfast.

SWEET POTATO FRITTERS.—Wash and peel the sweet potatoes, cut them up to about the length and thickness of salads; soak for half an hour in brandy and a little lemon peel; drain, dip into batter, fry, and when a good color dish up, sprinkled with powdered sugar.

TO THE SOUTH.

BY MAURICE THOMPSON.

O, subtle, murky, slumbrous clime!
O swart, hot land of pine and palm,
Of fig, peach, guava, orange, lime,
And terebinth and tropic balm!
Land where our Washington was born!
When truth in hearts of gold was worn!
Mother of Marion, Moultrie, Lee,
Widow of fallen chivalry!
No longer sadly look behind,
But turn and face the morning wind,
And feel sweet comfort in the thought:
"With each fierce battle's sacrifice
I sold the wrong at awful price,
And bought the good; but knew it not."

Cheer up! Reach out! Breathe in new life!
Brood not on unsuccessful strife
Against the current of the age;
The Highest is thy heritage!
Leave off this death's-head scowl at Fate,
The cruelest hate is satiate,
And into thy true heart sink this:
"God loves to walk where Freedom is!"

There is no sweet in dregs and lees;
There is no fruit on girdled trees.
Plant new vineyards, sow new fields,
For bread and wine the Future yields;
Out of foes soil fresh spathes shall start;
Now is the budding-time of Art!

But hark! Oh! hear! My senses reel!
Some grand presentiment I feel!
A voice of love, bouquet of Truth,
The quick sound of the feet of Youth!

Lo! from the war-cloud, dull and dense
Loyal and chaste, and brave and strong,
Comes forth the South with frankincense,
And vital freshness in her song.
The weight has fallen from her wings;
To find a purer air she springs
Out of the Night into the Morn,
Fair as cotton, sound as corn.

Hold! Shall a Northman, fierce and grim,
With hoary beard and boreal vim,
Thus fling, from some bleak waste of ice,
Frost-crystals of unsought advice
To those who dwell by Cocsa's stream,
Or on dark hummocks plant the cane
Beside the lovely Ponchartrain,
Or in gay sail-boats drift and dream
Where Caribbean breezes stray
On Pensacola's drowsy bay?

Not so! I am a Southerner;
I love the South; I dared for her
To fight from Lookout to the sea,
With her proud banner over me;
But from my lips thanksgiving broke,
As God in battle-thunder spoke,
And that Black Idol, bred during drouth
And drunken of human sympathy
Throughout the sweet and sensuous South,
Was, with its chains and human yoke,
Blown hellward from the cannon's mouth,
While Freedom cheered behind the smoke!

Crawfordsville, Ind.

Nothing Left But Mother's Bible.

Just now a quiet, looking, dark brown lad of nineteen years is attracting a great deal of attention on account of the prospective epaulettes which may decorate his shoulders some day. Robert Shaw Wilkinson, who leaves here month after next for West Point, is a fine-looking mulatto with a large and mixture of Indian blood which is plainly discerned in his features. His dark eyes are very handsome and his nose is fit for a model. His demeanor is very quiet and dignified and his deportment shows good breeding and careful training. The story of his name is a familiar one. His mother, a slave, was one of the many women who in the dark days of the Confederacy looked upon the defenders of the Union as little less than Gods. In 1865 the Fifty-fourth Massachusetts, a gallant band, was quartered in Charleston, and were the admiration of every colored man and woman in the city. The name of Robert Shaw was spoken with quivering lips and dimmed eyes, for his gallant and heroic action at Battery Wagner had made him the idol of the people. When the mother of Shaw gave birth to her boy she showed her patriotism and appreciation of that great man by calling her baby boy Robert Shaw. At an early age the lad was placed at school, attending the Shaw Memorial School here, where he first received the rudiments of an education. He graduated in 1883 at the head of a class of fourteen in one of our local normal schools. Since that time he has been pursuing his studies under State Senator Thomas E. Miller, of Beaufort. I had occasion to pass through Beaufort a few days ago, and stopped in to see him. After talking about military matters in general, I asked him, in view of the peculiar experience of those who had placed him at West Point, how he felt about going there. "O!" said he, with a pleasant smile, "I really don't expect any trouble whatever at West Point. I have been with white boys before to-day, and my experience teaches me that other things being equal, pluck, grit and sound common sense operate about as effectually upon white skinned lads as upon colored. Very often we bring trouble upon ourselves by creating in our minds a state of affairs which does not exist. I don't intend, if I get in, to be at all like the fretful porcupine, bristling on every side and unapproachable, but rather like Mary's little lamb, a perfectly domesticated animal."

"Do you expect to get through without much trouble? That is, are you prepared to pass the examination?"

"I think so, I have taken great pains to ascertain just about what is required, and I have endeavored to prepare myself thoroughly on the points given me. I have seen Whittaker, and intend to profit by his experience. Whittaker thinks there will be no trouble to get in, and I am trying very hard to prove his judgment correct."

"How did you get the appointment?"

"Well, last summer, when I was at school, several colored politicians had a talk with Congressman Mackey, and urged him to appoint a colored lad to fill the vacancy. I got wind of this, and said to myself, here's your chance; as soon as Mackey had promised, a friend of mine gave me the tip, and I asked an interview with the appointer. A little talk with Mr. Mackey fixed me up, and I went to downright hard studying from that day, and I have kept at it ever since. So you see if I don't get in, I'll know considerably more than if I hadn't made the effort."

"How old are you?"

"Nineteen in June, that's what they tell me. I've got nothing left now but mother's Bible. No father, no mother, but I'm going to stick to whatever is between the corners, whether its births, death, marriage, or whatnot. Good-bye.

X. Y. Z.

Charleston, S. C.
—Cleveland Gazette.

Reciprocate.

At no former period has there been so great a pressure of applications for aid to enable pious and needy students to secure the education necessary to qualify them for various forms of Christian work in connection with our Church. This fact appeals strongly to two classes of persons: (1) To those who desire to do good in this important form of benevolence. From all such special donations are solicited for the object stated. (2) The same fact appeals with peculiar force to all who have heretofore received and used the funds of the Board of Education in like circumstances. Now is the time when they should make every effort to repay their loans in whole or in part. Prompt responses to this notice on the part of all concerned will be greatly appreciated by the Board, as well as by struggling students in all parts of the country, whose wants for the present half year cannot be adequately supplied on any other plan. Such responses, moreover, will save the necessity of sending out individual accounts and reminders from this office, a task from which the Board ought to be relieved, and which it will only accept when made necessary by neglect on the part of former borrowers. Address D. P. Kidder, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 805 Broadway, New York, Sept. 1, 1884.

The Trouble Safely Over.

Stomach trouble is serious business while it lasts; but what a blessed relief to have it depart! Mrs. F. G. Wells, of 19 Atlantic street, Hartford, Conn., writes that she tried Brown's Iron Bitters for stomach trouble, and that she experienced such relief that the trouble is now entirely over. She recommends this great iron medicine to all who are afflicted. It offers ever and over duey complaint.

HALL'S
Vegetable Sicilian
HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp.

HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe.

Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause; the entire fulfillment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.

Buckingham's Dye
FOR THE WHISKERS

Will change the beard to a natural brown, or black, as desired. It produces a permanent color that will not wash away. Consisting of a single preparation, it is applied without trouble.

PREPARED BY

R. P. HALL & CO., Nashua, N. H.

Sold by all Dealers in Medicines.

Our Books for Sale,
—AT—
Southwestern Office,
32 Natchez Street.

Wakefield's Theology	$2 50
Methodism In The Field	1 00
Class Leaders Work and How to Do It	1 25
History of the M. E. Church, 4 volumes	6 00
Wesley's Sermons, 2 volumes	5 00
Whedon's Commentary on the New Testament	7 50
Life of John Wesley	1 00
Hand Book of Bible Geography	2 50
Bible Stories	1 00
Hints to Self Educated Ministers	1 25
Christianity Demonstrated by Experience	1 50
Baker on the Discipline	1 00
Binney's Theological Compend	75
Pope's Theology, 3 volumes	7 50
Outlines of Bible History	50
Outlines of Church History	50
CATECHISMS—
No. 1, Per Dozen	30
No. 2 Per Dozen	45
No. 3, Per Dozen	60
American Primers, per dozen	50
Spelling and Reading Book, per dozen	1 50
Sunday-School Minute Book	40
Sunday-School Register and Receiving Book	40
Sunday-School Class Book	10
Church Record	2 50
Church Class Book	20
Hymnal 24 mo	50
" 16 mo, with Ritual	75
" 16 mo, "	1 00
" 12 mo, "	1 50
" 18 mo, with Tunes	1 00

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

A remarkable and unique collection of religious songs, with their accompanying weird, pathetic, ever varied and charming melodies, as sung for generations by the colored people of America. A few of the songs will be familiar, but the great majority have never before been printed and are now given for the first time, the original words and music. The work has been carefully written, and is well adapted for quarter, chorus, and congregational singing, and is especially excellent for social evenings at home. All singers should have it. First edition was exhausted in sixty days. Send for a copy.

"These songs ought to be saved and they ought to be sung."—Bishop J. M. Walley. "Should think that the book would sell by thousands, and that it would do good."—Dr. J. M. Buckley. "It is grand. I like it."—Dr. R. S. Rust. "Just the thing—the gold saved from the dross."—Dr. Jacob Krehbiel. "Am perfectly delighted with it; it will sell by the thousands."—Rev. A. E. P. Albert. "There should be a copy in every household."—Rev. H. W. Tate. "Having carefully read your hymn-book, and being acquainted with many of the soul-stirring anthems spread upon its pages—especially one that was the cause of my conversion—I can and will commend the book, in the name of God, to all the world."—Rev. C. H. Collins.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

Good Pay for Agents. $100 to $200 per mo, made selling our fine Books and Bibles. Write to J. C. McCURDY & CO. sept13-1y St. Louis, Mo.

PILES "Anakesis" gives instant relief, and is an infallible cure for Piles. Price $1, at druggists, or sent prepaid by mail. sample free. Ad. "ANAKESIS" Makers, Box 2416 New York

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators
Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The New England Journal of Education speaking of the National Education Assembly, for 1883, says: "It was the most remarkable gathering ever held in our country in matters connected with the schooling of the people. The volume of addresses is the most interesting collection of popular educational document ever given to our people, and should be in the hands of every educator, legislator and intelligent citizen in the land."

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

A special feature of the book is a series of ten tables, compiled by the Hon. H. R. Waite, Special Statistician U. S. Census and the Hon. John Eaton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, giving complete data upon the illiterate and educational status of the United States, each State and also of the South as a section.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga. mar20-52t

Furnished Rooms to Rent
By the Month, Week or Day.
At No. 227 Customhouse Street
Corner Treme street, New Orleans, La.
Mrs. C. ROBERTSON, Proprietor

Lying Agents can't SELL, and tell the truth about JONES. Put your lies on paper and sign if you dare. U. S. STANDARD
$60.5 TON WAGON SCALES.
Beam Box. Tare Beam. Freight Paid. Free Price List. Every Size. address JONES OF BINGHAMTON, BINGHAMTON, N. Y. ju y31 8t eow

Established 1857.

The GREAT CHURCH LIGHT
FRINK'S Patent Reflectors for Gas or Oil, give the most powerful, softest cheapest & best light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Banks, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A Liberal discount to churches and the trade. Don't be deceived by cheap imitations. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl St., N. Y.
aug28-20t eow

The Ministers' and Teachers' Bible.
This magnificent Parlor Bible is imported from London and is indorsed as the best by the leading Bishops of England. In addition to the Old and New Testaments it contains [illegible] References with Concordance [illegible] Dictionary of Proper Names with Pronunciation [illegible] Maps, Plants, Animals, and Jewish Money, etc. [illegible] Bible in America we will forward to any address on receipt of price. AGENTS WANTED Circulars FREE.

C. S. MAYO & CO., 160 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.
jan31-26t eow

4% LONG LOANS.
PRINCIPAL need never be REPAID
so long as interest is kept up. Personal security only for interest. Honest poor or men of moderate means can send 6 cents for particulars, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.
sept12 2 t

PATENTS

MUNN & CO., of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, for the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany, etc. Hand Book about Patents sent free. Thirty-seven years' experience. Patents obtained through MUNN & CO. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, the largest, best, and most widely circulated scientific paper. $3.20 a year. Weekly. Splendid engravings and interesting information. Specimen copy of the Scientific American sent free. Address MUNN & CO., SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN Office, 37 Broadway, New York.
dec6-tf

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R
In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME.

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
" "	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St L & N O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O. & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio.
jy31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3..10:45 a m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a. m.	Sunday Excur'n 8:20 p m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY.
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT HENKEDR. Ticket Agent

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leave.	Arrive.
Express	8:20 a. m.	2:50 p. m.
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p. m.	9:05 a. m.
Fast Mail	6:25 p. m.	8:45 a m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. O. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M. Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. a25-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE
TO
Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn., and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City, For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or
H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

AGENTS Wanted for our new book RUINED CITIES RECOVERED. Buried Nations exhumed; obliterated history rewritten. The doings of Patriarchs, Prophets and Kings unfolded. Great discoveries. Latest researches. Testimony from Pyramids, Temples and Ruins. Plain as a child's A B C. Sells rapidly. Subscribers delighted. Wm. GARRETSON & CO., 616 Chestnut St., St. Louis, Mo. mar18-1y

"THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST."
SAW MILLS ENGINES THRESHERS, Horse Powers (For any size and purpose.) Will send Free Pamphlet and Prices of The Lane & Bodley Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. dec14-1y

WANTED A WOMAN of means, energy and responsibility for each business in her locality, middle-aged preferred. Salary $33 to $66 per week. References exchanged. Gaw Book, 14 Barclay St., N. Y. aug.28-3t

General News Items.

One case of yellow fever is reported in New York.

War ships are going to Egypt to protect German interests.

Texas is estimated to have 6,000,000 cattle, of a total valuation of $150,000,000.

Maine, it is thought, will pass the prohibition amendment by from 30,000 to 50,000.

The greater portion of the French troops in Tunis have been ordered to France.

Canadian voyageurs sailed from Quebec on the 15th, for service on the rapids of the Nile, in Egypt.

France is determined to settle her differences with China herself, and to reject foreign meddiation.

Gen. Lord Wolseley has ordered the formation of a camel corps to take part in the Soudan expedition.

Gen. Butler addressed between 15,000 and 20,000 people in Union Square, New York, on the night of Sept. 15

Admiral Courbet estimated that the bombardment of the arsenal near Foo Chow and the forts along Min River did damage to the amount of $10,000,000.

According to the latest returns the number of volumes in the British Museum is over 1,300,000 There are 160 miles of shelves, and one ton of literature is daily received.

The seven Negro members of the Vicksburg police force resigned, because of Democratic clamor and the resolution of a club to resist the arrest of any person by them.

The Queen of Madagascar has ordered her subjects to prepare for war. With justice and right on her side, she will not submit to the aggressions of France, dictated by the Roman Catholic hierarchy.

The French complain of adverse English criticism. The Tribune, Times, Herald, Independent and New York Christian Advocate, and nearly all the papers, strongly condemn the French war upon China.

The Ministry of Coltus of Saxony have forbidden the Methodists to call the principal of a Sunday school "superintendent," as that is the title attached to a high church officer.

The future queen of the Netherlands will be the richest woman in Europe, being heiress to the $4,000,000 of her late brother and the vast private possessions of her father, the present king.

The Republican convention of Troup county, Georgia, passed resolutions condemning lynch law, and declared that they would not support any person for office who has ever participated in or advocated lynch[illegible]

A [illegible] meeting at Shanghai represented the desultory plans of hostilities pursued by France as injurious to commerce. The English community urge the home government to make an effort for settlement.

The Chinese have no intention of blocking Woo Sung River, on which [illegible] unless the [illegible] are in position for the approach of the [illegible]

A Washington special says: Sr. John, [illegible] Miss Willard and other prominent Prohibitionists are holding temperance camp meetings in New York State, which are attended by from 8,000 to 10,000 [illegible]

The following are Louisiana Congressional candidates: For Congress—First District, Henry Warmoth; Second, E. B. Benedict; Third, L. F. Osborn; Fourth, R. F. Walton; Sixth, [illegible] Presidential Elector—[illegible], N. S. Lanier, M. E. Brower, D. J. Sadlier, E. [illegible]

[illegible] has been [illegible] a company [illegible] In that [illegible] nation [illegible] between [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Foreign Missions.

WEST CHINA.

From Chunking, West China, Rev. Spencer Lewis writes, under date of July 8: "None of our mission are actually sick at the present time, though we are all feeling the hot weather which has been more severe than at this time last year." (We, at home, must remember that intense heat means more in an utterly undrained, filthy Chinese city than it does even in moderately dirty New York.) "Dr. and Mrs. Lewis and Miss Wheeler intend to go to the mountains in a few days, and I have to send my wife and babe away, but unless actually compelled to go I shall stay here, or at least be here on Sundays. I find the effort to keep order and preach on the Sabbath is no small strain. The congregations, instead of decreasing, as we expected they would when the novelty wore off, have been increasing. A short time ago I had a partition taken away in the chapel, on the woman's side, so as to seat some in an adjoining court, but the following Sunday all the seating and standing room in the chapel was packed and still some could not get in. I estimated that there were not less that 300 people in the congregation, most of them being women. Our hearts are already rejoiced at seeing thus early in our work some evidence that God is blessing our labors. A few weeks ago I had the pleasure of taking the names of seven men on probation. These were immediately formed into a class which meets weekly. Sabbath before last we received two members into the church, and eleven foreigners and whites together partook of the sacrament of the Lord's supper. On the previous Sabbath 8 infants and 2 adults were baptized. All but one of the infants were castaways which individual members of the mission and one or two persons at home had saved and cared for. But there are other less direct results of our labors shown in the large number of interested and frequent, if not regular, attendants on our various services. Not only on the Sabbath services is the attendance increased, but on class, prayer and Bible meetings. Our weekly prayer-meeting has grown from a dozen a few months ago to between 25 and 30, and our Sabbath afternoon Bible meetings for study show about the same number. A few weeks ago Mrs. Lewis began a Sabbath morning class of women for the study of the chief incidents in the life of Christ; beginning with 8 the number is now 18. Our work is great and promising, and we rejoice in it. When I see what God is doing among us I often think surely the good people at home are praying for the West China Mission.

Large, white napkins are invariably used at luncheon, and the smaller ones kept for breakfast and tea. Some ladies like the little fringed napkins for tea, but they do not do up well unless you have a very careful laundress. Never pin your napkin up under your chin; lay it across your lap, convenient to use.

Give Them A Chance

If the thousands and tens of thousands of weak and weary sufferers throughout the land, who, in spite of care and skill, are steadily drifting downwards, could have the benefit of that singularly Vitalising Treatment now so widely dispensed by Drs. Starkey & Palen, of 1109 Girard street, Philadelphia, the help, and ease, and comfort it would bring to wasting bodies and depressed spirits would be blessings beyond price. If, reader, you have an invalid wife, or mother, or daughter, or sister, or any one who is under your care or dependent upon you, and to whom life has become a burden through weakness and pain, consider seriously whether you are not bound, in both love and duty, to give this sufferer a chance of recovery, or, at least, the blessing of ease from pain. You are offered the simplest means of information in regard to this new Treatment. If you can exercise testimony without prejudice, and can weigh evidence with judgment and discrimination, write to Drs. Starkey & Palen for such proofs in documentary and [illegible] as will enable you to fully examine and decide for yourself. They will be promptly supplied.

Ram Chandra Bose, A. M. from North India.

Ram Chandra Bose has the honor of being the first lay delegate from Asia to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He comes for the second time, and is pleasantly remembered by those who met him in Cincinnati four years ago. He was born near Calcutta, India, forty eight year ago, of heathen parents. Like hundreds of other young men, he was educated in Dr. Duff's famous Mission College at Calcutta. At the age of 15, while in school, he decided to become a Christian, a step which delighted his instructors, but which separated him at once from all his relatives. He was forbidden to return home, and has never since crossed the threshold of his father's house, although more than thirty years have passed. God raised up friends for the brave young man, who assisted him in obtaining a thorough education. On leaving school he became a teacher, and labored thus more than twenty years, part of the time in the employment of the Government. All this time he was a nominal Christian; he was converted at Lucknow about fourteen years ago under the ministry of the Rev. Dr. Thoburn. He resigned Government service and accepted a smaller salary as Principal of a Mission School. After a few years of useful work he was licensed to preach, and soon gave up teaching, relinquishing half a salary to become a preacher. He has devoted especial attention to work among his educated countrymen, addressing large audiences in the leading cities of India.

In 1881 B. C. Bose was honored with the degree of "M. A." from Simpson Centenary College, Indianola, Iowa. He has written several books among which are: "The Truth of Christianity," published by the Religious Tract Society, London; "Gossip About America," two new books, a treatise on "Brahmoism" and a larger work on "Hindu Philosophy," have been accepted by a leading firm in New York, and will be published at once. Bro. Bose is well acquainted with the leading workers of the Brahmo Somaj in India, and is well qualified to speak on this subject. He should have a large hearing.

The presence of this converted Hindoo in our General Conference should greatly encourage the Church in its missionary work. What Dr. Duff's College in Calcutta did for him years ago, our Mission Schools in North India are doing for scores of others to-day. With such possibilities before us, we should certainly strengthen our educational institutions in that land and plan to multiply them. —Daily Conference Advocate.

The old spirit is not dead in some parts of the South. A letter, from a perfectly reliable man, tells how one of our preachers recently found fastened to the desk in a school-house where he was to preach, a notice, bad in orthography and worse in adjectives (we have a copy of it), warning him not to preach there. What followed is thus described, and reminds us of Peter Cartwright's days: "When the preacher rose to begin the service, three rough men dressed as 'cow-boys,' came in, and advanced towards the pulpit; but as the preacher did not flinch, they dropped into the front seat. Our young preacher strong and muscular, weighing 190 pounds, said, 'I have never been charged with working miracles, but I have been known to cast out devils. I am here to fight the devil; and if he presents himself in the shape of flesh and blood, he will find me ready to strike from the shoulder with the weight of 190 pounds, in the name of the Lord Jesus.' No disturbance occurred, and our young brother won the day because of his nerve."—Western.

An Iowa lawyer included in his bill: "To waking up in the night and thinking about your case, $5."

HUNT'S KIDNEY & LIVER REMEDY NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

IT CURES WHEN ALL OTHER MEDICINES FAIL, as it acts DIRECTLY and AT ONCE on the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, restoring them to a healthy action. It is a safe, sure and speedy cure and hundreds have been cured by it when physicians and friends had given them up to die.

IT IS BOTH A "SAFE CURE" and a "SPECIFIC."

It CURES all Diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Urinary Organs; Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Nervous Diseases, Excesses, Female Weaknesses, Jaundice, Biliousness, Headache, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Piles, Pains in the Back, Loins, or Side, Retention or Non-Retention of Urine.

$1.25 AT DRUGGISTS.

TAKE NO OTHER.

Send for Illustrated Pamphlet of Solid Testimonials of Absolute Cures.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

6 sept-11 1y

EDUCATIONAL.

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts.

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. T. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, La.
sept 4

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants, and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for postage. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. Mention this journal jy17 1y.

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

AGENTS wanted for the History of Christianity, by Abbott. A grand chance. A $4 book at the popular price of $1.75. Liberal terms. The religious papers mention it as one of the few great religious works of the world. Greater success never known by agents Terms free. STINSON & Co., Publishers, Portland, Maine. Mar27-eow

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to 1872, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	30
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
38-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day, at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine

CHILDS' CATARRH
Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS. Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our questions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio.
feb7-1y

Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Georgia.
The Forty-seventh Annual Session begins Oct. 1st. Most elegant buildings in the South. All modern conveniences. Best advantages in Literature, Music and Art. Special attention to health and comfort of pupils. Moderate charges. Apply early to W. C. BASS.
jy10-2

Central Tennessee College,

Nashville, Tennessee.

This College begins its nineteenth year on

Monday, September 8, 1884.

Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.

Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.

The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.

For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,
Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.

A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty.
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oct18-1y

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price.
26 inches	175 lbs	325 lbs	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	550 lbs	800 lbs	120 00
40 "	750 lbs	1050 lbs	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1800 lbs	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$13 00
20 inches	130 lbs	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
feb1-26t-eow

Church School Fire alarm. Fine toned low priced warranted [illegible] Catalogues [illegible] Price etc. [illegible] Meneely Bell Manufacturing Co. [illegible]
july3 26teow

OUR SONG WORLD

A New Book for Singing Classes, Institutes and Conventions.
By GEO. F. ROOT & C. C. CASE.

CONTAINS

The finest Elementary Lessons, both in quality and grading, that have ever appeared in any book.
The Best of simple Part Songs, Tunes and Anthems with beautiful Glees and Secular Choruses, crowned by the brilliant "Italia."
Effective Music for Class and Concert Work, from that which "sings itself," up to Gounod's "Unfold Ye Portals."
Take the book all in all and it is one that will make class teaching a pleasure and delight to Teachers and Pupils.

Price, 60cts. each by mail, postpaid; $6.00 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen Pages Free.

PUBLISHED BY
JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

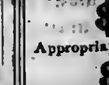
HARTER'S THE ONLY TRUE IRON TONIC

Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST.

LADIES Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK." Full of strange and useful information, free.
may8-1y

THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL & COTTON CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION
New Orleans.
Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.
—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—
United States Government.

$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.



Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.

The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.

The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.

For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. I. & C. C. E.,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

MILLERS and FARMERS Send for new catalogue of Burr Mill Stones and Milling Machinery. Cheapest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. Dalgleish & Son. Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.
may22-1y

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.
1y

Sunday School and Children.

THIRD QUARTER. LESSON XIII. Sept. 28. AN UNHOLY FEAST Daniel v, 1-9, 30.

The feast of Belshazzar, the king of Babylon, will be remembered longer than even its proud master could have believed. Because of strange and terrible things that happened that night, of which the wicked and pleasure-loving king little dreamed when he sent out his invitations. Nebchadnezzar, his father, had brought the vessels of gold and silver used in the service of the temple of the Lord, at Jerusalem, to Babylon, and they were now among the treasures of the heathen king Belshazzar. He had heard of the God of Israel, for Daniel, the prophet, and many other Jews lived in the city, and some of them in the palace, and while he was sober he had too much respect for himself or fear for the Lord to use the sacred vessels in his wicked feast. However, when the wine which he drank began to make him drunk, he lost all respect for everything, and seemed to want to show his drunken companions how little he honored the God of Israel, so he sent and had them brought, and what had been made for the holy service of the house of God was filled with wine for wicked men and women. There is an end even to patience with our Heavenly Father. When Belshazzar added this sacrilege to all other sins, his death was at hand. That was his last feast, and before the night of his life. [illegible] known in the morning he was gone, in the strange [illegible] on the wall, which [illegible] to be reading, [illegible] the king saw [illegible] just a short [illegible] writing [illegible] room something [illegible] on. [illegible] He

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 40. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, OCTOBER 2, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 779.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

Corner Poydras and Carondelet Street New Orleans, Louisiana.

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

"Then, who from infancy to age
Hast been my never-failing Friend,
Support through life's extremest stage,
And bring me to my journey's end;
And then revive, to sing thy praise,
An age of everlasting days."

When they draw nigh that follow after mischief, then the consolation of the innocent is that, "Thou art near, O Lord."

Concerning the testimonies of the Lord, those who trust in him can say: "I have known of old that thou hast founded them forever."

The Texas Advocate knows the man who announced the largest collection on Children's Day, but does not know the church where the collection was raised.

The colored men of San Antonio, Texas, move by a recent manly presentation of their educational necessities, led on by Rev. Mark Hanks and others, secured the desired relief.

Out in the land of workers, and ruled to be ruled by a horde of [illegible] Christian Index, Charleston, S. C. Hold on there! The Negroes are the workers in all the Southern land. Do they rule?

Rev. Hezekiah Mark, local deacon in the M. E. Church, used to be a barber in Mobile, and made [illegible] it, but gave up his business if required him to work on Sunday. Tear it the text

Our confidence in the word of the Lord are to be found by reading the 119th Psalm. [illegible] well to read and read it again, with [illegible] for [illegible] and will [illegible] there [illegible] they who [illegible] shall [illegible] in spite of [illegible] maintain [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] in his [illegible] of God. He [illegible] the [illegible] from the [illegible] of the [illegible] right, no [illegible]

The Central Alabama Conference will be held at Gadsden. Our Church at Eutaw, at which the conference was expected to meet, was destroyed last Spring by a hurricane.

The tone and matter of the SOUTHWESTERN is all that could be either expected or desired. My first choice was the former assistant editor, but I most cordially extend to you my hand, and greetings to the South.—J. F. Marshall.

We are not responsible if any of our correspondents get the dead languages inverted or confused with each other in their quotations. We will not undertake to correct manuscripts whose authors are able to use Greek and Hebrew, except in the matter of condensation.

President Arthur has appointed Postmaster General Gresham to be Secretary of the Treasury, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Charles J. Folger. This selection meets with popular approval. Gen. Gresham possesses an excellent record for ability, patriotism and efficiency in the discharge of official duty.

The statistical growth of American Methodism is something phenomenal, except as regarded from a Methodist standpoint. Then it becomes a simple verification of the promised presence of the captain of the Lord's hosts to his heralds, as they go into all the world preaching the Gospel to all creatures, that he would be with them alway. "They went forth and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following."

Say what you will, a denominational school means to foster the interest of the denomination represented. We cannot make Roman Catholics in a Baptist school, and vice versa. If our Church has not the courage to write, this is a "Methodist Institution," on the wall of every college it owns, then it ought to and will fail to write, "Methodism deserves to live," on the consciences and heart of the young gentlemen and ladies of the period. We want thoroughly Methodist schools, filled at least with the children of Methodist people.

The way to make our centennial rally successful in raising $100,000, one-half of which shall be by the colored people, is to get every one interested, and then to give liberally. 1. Let every one give something. 2. Give according to ability. 3. Give cheerfully. This plan, if carried out all over the Church, would result in a centennial offering of $20,000,000. How shall we appear before God with such calls to give for the relief of His poor; with such opportunities before us to do what is needed, if we neglect to do it. Now for a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether. Thus shall we make success sure.

Referring to J. T. Hargrave's charge against the colored members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the South, the Catholic Examiner says:

"We are not sure that his picture is not a trifle overdrawn, but it is sufficiently truthful to set our Protestant brethren 'athinking.'"

Well, yes; they are "athinking" about the remarkable affection of Catholics for Negroes since the latter have become free. Better late than never. As for Bro. Hargrave, he was probably belated in getting his supper. Hungry men are sometimes cross.

Missions—The War in China.

Letters dated July 18th and 30th have been received from the Rev. F. Ohlinger, of Foochow, in which are given some interesting facts concerning the general feeling in that city. He says, under the first date: "It is feared this may be our last chance for sending letters for some time. Two days more and the French will take measures, if the Chinese do not promise the £10,000,000. They have two gunboats in port and four are seen off Sharp Peak by our people at the seaside. Admiral Courbet is here. The native officials show fear; though the young imperial commissioner is anxious to fire on the French. The old Viceroy alone has thus far restrained violence, for which he reaps a big harvest of both praise and blame. One British gunboat in port. The Shanghai line of the China merchant steamers has stopped running. Rafts, chains, old hulks, etc, are lying ready to blockade the river. The people are somewhat excited, and talk much of the outrages of the French soldiers in Tonquin. They, as well as we, fear the mob most of all. No one seems to think there is anything to be feared from the soldiers of either side. We could wish, however, the French consulate were anywhere but across the road from our premises. One of our preachers overheard a Chinaman say to his friend 'Look at those foreign houses, if there is war there'll be something for us to plunder.' Said the other: 'Think of the mob that would follow our example,' (meaning the army of vagabonds who would rob and kill indiscriminately) 'all the consulates will fly their flags, though some of our friends have moved their valuables. So far there has been no indication of feeling against missionaries or native Christians. The people have never been more polite than at present. We try to keep our people quiet, though they say it would be dangerous for them if we had to leave. The general feeling seems to be, among foreigners, that there will be no war; among natives, that there will. The latter say their government will never pay such an indemnity.' The Lord reigns." July 30—"These have been two anxious weeks. Nearly all our Christians have gone to the country for safety. Business greatly injured. Prejudice quite naturally increasing against us. The French in port have been haughty and abusive. Later—News good, but not credited.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

A Trip to Paris.

BY JOHN BRADEN D. D.

Not to the capital of France, but the county seat of Henry county, Tennessee. Paris, with a population of 2,500, is one of the finished towns that are found scattered over the country. There is an air of dilapidation about the buildings, fences and streets. Nobody seems to be in a hurry, and men are seen sitting about the fronts of stores, hotels and offices, in the classic position of the Yankee, chair tipped back against some good support and with heels well elevated. If this representation of Bro. Jonathan is a sign of the true Yankee, some of our Southern towns can furnish many genuine specimens of this traditional character. It is astonishing how many gentlemen of leisure there are in some of these country towns, and it is equally astonishing how hard they do work to destroy tobacco. The West Tennessee district conference was held in Paris, August 26 31. The conference was quite well attended; the routine business was attended to with care and dispatch. The examining committees reported the results of their inquiries. Some of the local preachers were absent, and their cases were referred to the next district conference, unless they had passed a satisfactory examination before the preacher in charge and presiding elder. The conference was quite particular about licensing and renewing the licenses of local preachers. The conference insisted on the non use of tobacco by all the local preachers and exhorters. Four received license to preach; one was recommended for ordination as deacon, and one for admission into the Annual Conference. The Sunday-school Institute was interesting. The topics were well discussed, and correct views of the duties of the pastor, superintendent, teacher and parent, presented and adopted as the sense of the members present. At the close of the address on each topic, the speaker was questioned on the points he had presented, and sometimes he was compelled to modify his statements, or explain the meaning of his language, which made him realize the value of carefulness in his expressions. It would make preachers very much more careful as to statements in the pulpit, if they were called upon to explain and defend them. Some less positive assertions about the golden slippers and ambrosial fruits of the heavenly state would be made, if the preachers were to be called upon to give chapter and verse in the Bible as authority for his statements. The Sunday-school Institute of this district is a power for good, and Presiding Elder Price and his preachers mean that the disciplinary rules on Sunday-schools, shall be carried out in their several charges. Sunday was a high day. The lesson in the Sunday-school was the 19th Psalm, which was studied by the school as a whole, with E. M. Manson as teacher, and reviewed by the writer. The love-feast was a season of Christian fellowship that will long be remembered. There were many testimonials of the power of grace to save, mingled with tears, songs and shouts of joy. The presiding elder preached at the close of the love-feast and the writer exhorted; penitents were invited forward and the altar was soon crowded with seekers and brethren. Two young men were soon praising God for His pardoning love, one of them a school teacher. The time for the afternoon service arrived, and Bro. Burdette preached and the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered and the congregation was dismissed, after continued services for about eight hours. The church was crowded again at 8 o'clock and after some items of business transacted by the conference, Bro. E. M. Manson preached and the altar work was resumed, which lasted till a late hour, and five seekers rejoiced in the new life. Bro. Palmer, the pastor at Paris, deserves great credit for his earnest work during the year. With his own hands he has built a church that will seat about 500 people, has it so it can be used, and it is out of debt. This is the first year for our church in this town and God has blessed our labors. The conference adopted resolutions on various topics, and endorsed the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN and secured several subscribers, and many others will subscribe if the preachers do their duty. Local preachers and exhorters who do not take a church paper in the future, will not have their license renewed.

Paris, Tenn, Sept 1s, '84

For the SOUTHWESTERN

Progress of the Negro to the Higher Attainments

REV. J. J. HOLLAND.

The recent census places the Negro population of the States at nearly 7,000,000 or 6,557,151, of whom about twelve-thirteenths or 6 038,183, are in the South, and nine tenths of these are still in the bonds of illiteracy. There is submitted a race problem in the solution of which, the race must bear an important part. In this commonwealth, to the citizen of color, is presented a two fold destiny—he must perform his part as a citizen—a part and parcel of the nation; and he must be faithful to the best interest and highest aspirations of the race.

Society, morally and religiously a just pro rata must be contributed towards the general advancement; towards rendering the principles of the government permanent and glorious, and making boasted American civilization all which under God it should be. The dense illiteracy amongst us is a menace to these ends—that must be overcome. Greater development in all the spheres of civilization is demanded, and must result from the concentrated efforts of the race. The disadvantages so apparent in many sections of this country must be overcome. The dreary pall that overhangs so many homes North, South, East and West, must be lifted, by our own best endeavors in part, or whole, in order that we might more advantageously contribute towards lifting the pall of superstition and moral degradation from over the millions of our kindred in the dark continent and the isles among the sea.

A study of the educational statistics reveals the startling fact that fifty per cent of the children of color, in our Southern land, are not enrolled in schools where facilities, no matter how meager or imperfect, are offered for education. Personal effort can do much to remedy this state of affairs. The desire to secure instruction should be cultivated among us. Education, the brightest star in the constellation of human development is to be possessed. Every possible advantage is to be seized and every opportunity to this end utilized. Aside from this, whatever helps to this end are offered by local means, we would direct the attention of our readers to the herculean efforts of the Methodist Episcopal Church in assisting in the effort for race development. The season for the opening of the educational institutions of the church approaches, and these and all similar schools should be crowded to their utmost capacity by young men and women of color. Because of the fact that one ninth of the entire population of this country is to-day unlettered and equally unskilled in the discharge of many duties incumbent upon freemen, seems to demand this. The achievements by the race, though marvelous and unequaled by any other in the same space of time, should not be a delusion, for great impediments are yet to be overcome; dangerous banishments environ the march of the Canaan desired. The Red sea has been crossed, but the Pharoah of the race has not been drowned.

Steubenville, Ohio.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

A Day at Aberdeen Ohio.

BY REV. J. ALLEN ROSS.

Sunday, June 20th, will be long remembered by the citizens of Aberdeen. The church determined to make an effort to free itself from debt, and fully secure another church to Methodism. It was a lovely day, and people came in crowds. Moore, Lee, Jackson, and others from Washington; Cloyde, Sprewell, Williams, and a host of others from Ripley, Ohio; generous Allen Jones and wife from Vanceburg, Kentucky; from Maysville, a large congregation; then those master work-men, Rev. C. J. Nicholas, and Marshall W. Taylor, D. D., editor of the SOUTHWESTER, were present, with dear Sister Nicholas, a host within herself. Bro. Nicholas, preached a characteristic sermon, at 11 o'clock a. m. to a large audience in Bowman Methodist Episcopal Church, a sermon that came bubbling up from the depths of his own warm, earnest heart, full of love and fire. The congregation, at times seemed wrought by the preacher's power, and many were moved to speak aloud as witnesses of the loving power of God. We went down from the place happy. Dinner for all and to spare. At 3 o'clock p. m., in White Baptist Church, the eloquent editor of the SOUTHWESTERN came to the work. He had spoken twice in the morning at Maysville, Kentucky; he "was weary," he said, but the people were there, the preacher was there, the Master concluded to come and be present in their midst, "As the subject grew upon the Doctor, he looked across the wasting years of care and toil, and saw the redeemed and resurrected hosts of the Lord standing before Him, he saw, or seemed to see, the consummation of all things, and in a setting of pure gold laid before us the precious pearls of truth. The Doctor's sermon was not merely luminous, it was a flood of golden sunshine thrown upon the subject in hand. It grew under his masterly statement, it was life radiant, spiritual health exuberant, vigor made self conscious, hope triumphant. Every-one who heard it felt inspired by it. I will not mar the flowing cadence of this sermon by presenting extracts; no extract can be made from a deep clear billowing current of thought, which, in continuity is like a river, and in breadth and placidity is like the sea at rest. Stars glisten in its depths. Its vigorous pulse exalts us with a sense of kinship to the great round world of human hearts, and brings us into closer communion with Him who love us all, and saves us for His mercy's sake. Nature has endowed the Doctor with a heart commensurate in magnitude with the vastness of his natural surroundings, the Christian graces have done the rest; he never acts a part, the emotions that find eloquent expression in his sermons and addresses, and fitting voice in the vernacular of actions, spring irresistibly from his character.

Democrats in Louisiana are practicing outrageous frauds within the party.—Christian Neighbor (Columbia, S. C.)

Our Southern Work.

LOUISIANA.

J. H. Pierre, Avery's Island: "The Lord has blessed us with three converts. We are hard at work to meet the conference claims."

H. J. Wright, Natchitoches: "Our church and parsonage looks splendid after painting and whitewashing. We are finishing the church at New Town, and it will be the best for 25 miles around."

C. W. Kershaw, Clinton: "My work is progressing. The first of the year I had quite a backset, everything moving along very slow, but now, I thank the Lord, we are doing finely. I held a protracted meeting two weeks, and the Lord blessed us with 13 converts and three backsliders reclaimed, and the meeting is still going on. The Sunday-school is doing very well, considering the hard times. Pray for us."

Rev. J. W. Hilton, of the M. E. Church North, has just closed a very successful revival meeting. He has done good work. He received into his church 48 new members; 37 converts and 21 probationists.—St. Mary Herald.

D. Shelby, Coushatta: "In protracted meetings there were 10 converts, four reclaimed, and 16 on probation. Baptists came and joined a home with us."

MISSISSIPPI.

W. A. Dorsey, Liberty, has had some trouble with members, but has hopes all has been adjusted.

George W. Baker, Batesville: "Elder Eckles held our second quarterly conference, and most of the brethren had good reports. On Sunday the elder preached three times, and 35 communed. On Children's Day the exercises were joyful. Our pastor, M. York, presented a collection for children. There were addresses by Superintendent Jack. Prof. S. H. Johnson, and Hon. W. M. Young, circuit clerk of Panola county."

TEXAS.

J. Brawley, San Marcos: "I have organized a church seven miles below here with eleven members, who, with a local preacher and his wife, came to us from the Methodist church. I expect to build a house."

J. Oulbreath, Huntsville: "I am happy to report the progress of the work. A protracted meeting is now in progress. The Lord has been with us. Added to the church, 48; by letter, 26; baptisms, infants and adults 33; total 56; backsliders reclaimed, 6. Times seem very hard spiritually and temporally. The weather has been very dry for two months; have not had a good rain since June 20th; crops are cut off very much indeed, but we are not uneasy. The Lord is our shepherd, we shall not want."

Thomas, Caldwell: "Work on this circuit is in a growing condition. I have purchased a piece of land in town and erected a nice house on it; though our membership is small, only 12, we have a determination to build up. Lumber was high, and I did the work. We have the Church Extension Society to thank for it, and a church was never needed worse than here; we have no place of worship, where one should have been erected ten years ago. On the circuit there were 25 conversions, 60 additions this year. Children's day was observed, and Collection $4.80."

Allen, Cotton Gin: "In protracted meetings 25 were happily converted and backsliders reclaimed. We contemplate building a new church two miles west of this place. Since 1882 I found 60 members on the work, now there are 100. There was only one church, now there are two and a parsonage. Conference of the third by Nov. 1. Revival is still going on."

Clarksville: "It is [illegible] that our church [illegible] in this district. It [illegible] year at a cost of [illegible] worth $3,000. [illegible] hundred [illegible] parsonage [illegible] day we [illegible] he is a good man and is doing a noble work here. Perfect peace and harmony has prevailed every since he came among us; he will not let it be otherwise. He has just closed a protracted meeting which resulted in an accession of twenty-five to the church. Children's Day was observed with much interest, and a collection of $5 20 was taken for educational purposes. We think that we have the best presiding elder in the Texas conference, he does not only preach when he is among us, but talks and lectures on everything pertaining to our interest. L. Woodward held his (H. Webb's) third quarter here last Saturday, August 10; it was very interesting; he preached very acceptably and baptized many in fants. A collection of $10.30 was taken for the presiding elder."

S. Coleman, Waelder: "The camp meeting at West Chapel resulted in 15 converts, but only one joined our church. Revs. A. M. Mason, E. Coggswell, E. Henderson, E. E. Cooper and M. Henson assisted us. Bro. Henson gave us enjoyment by describing the work and his experience at the General Conference."

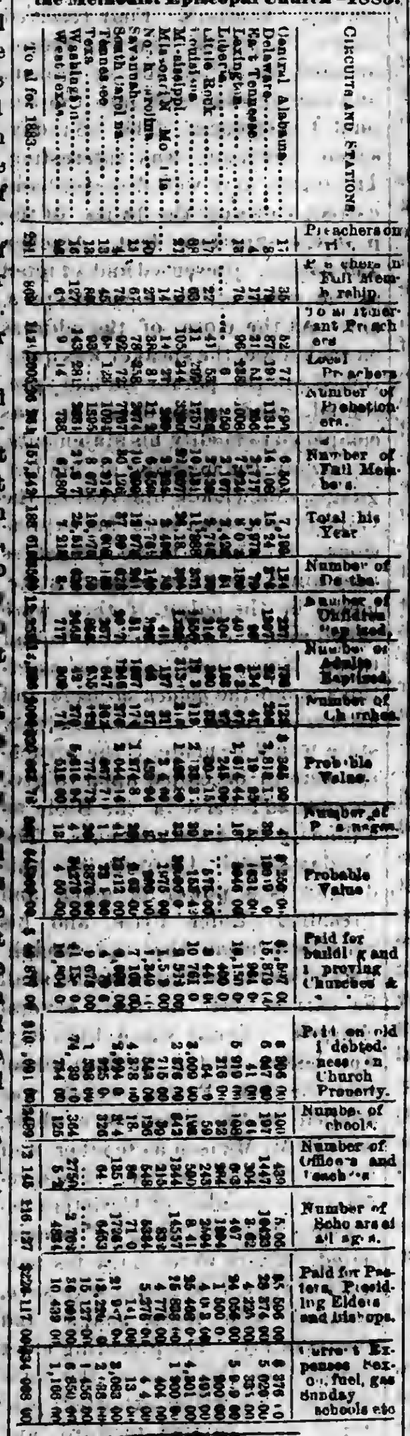
D. B. Wilson, Gibson: "Allow me to speak of the good works of Rev. Taylor Moore, in Lamar county, Marshall district, Texas conference, Paris circuit. He is very diligent in seeing after the people's interest, both spiritual and intellectual; he has in all the churches on his work a public school. He is on time always and I pray that he may get to heaven in time. He has supplied the schools with the students mostly of Wiley University. If other preachers would look after the welfare of the schools and churches together it would give plenty for all to do. We are having quite a time in our protracted meetings."

Ed Duncan, Belmont: "The Lord has blessed my work. I was appointed as a supply on the Belmont circuit, in San Antonio district about two months ago. I was in the very midst of my farm work, and it was very difficult for me to do as much for the circuit as they needed, but they seemed glad to have me do what I could. The last Sunday in June I pitched a protracted meeting and continued it eight days. The local preachers on the circuit helped all they could, also some of the local preachers from Luling came and assisted me, but the best of all was the Lord helped me and we had a glorious time. It seemed as though all the sinners in the Curtis settlement wanted religion, and we had more mourners than we had room for in the little school house where we held the meeting. Twenty-eight were soundly converted to God, and there were more than twenty serious mourners when we closed the meeting. I hope the churches will all pray with us, that these twenty and as many more may be converted this year."

TENNESSEE.

S. B. Danley, Purdy: "Third quarter was held. The people were sorry the elder could not stay longer. Protracted meeting was a success; five converts, four additions."

MARYLAND.



J. H. Johnson, Church Hill: "We are getting along nicely. Our new church has been dedicated. Revs. W. C. Dickerson and A. W. Hamilton were present. The former preached the dedicatory sermon. Collection during the day amounted to $202 30. The church when completed will cost $1,100. Our indebtedness we expect to clear before spring. We are doing all we can to make the Sabbath-school what it ought to be. At camp meeting there were four converts, and realized $146. Quarterly conference was held by Elder Cox, who is advancing the work of the district."

KENTUCKY.

At Litchfield, in Lexington Conference, the third quarterly meeting was held on the 6th and 7th inst. The presiding elder, Rev. A. Booker, remained one week, preaching of evenings. The results were fourteen conversions, nine received on probation, and eight received from other churches. The most striking feature of this meeting was that a man who had been a member of the Roman Catholic Church for forty-three years professed faith in Christ, and united with the Methodist Church. The pastor, Rev. Ezra Miller, reports also the purchase of a new bell for the church.—Western.

Bro. Pyle, the presiding elder of Porter's Run circuit; Theodore Wilson, assistant presiding elder, and Bros. Staten, Broadus, Clay, Martin and Sister Buston were such a host in valuable and ready sources. One discouraging feature was the continuous running of trains, but this seems to be irremediable, as it has been a constant vexation to such great assemblies as Loveland and Acton. If the great influence and wealth of those who are in control of these latter meetings, cannot prevent Sunday trains, the outlook is not very promising for colored people to do so. The truth is, that vast numbers of people who want and ought to attend these meetings are servants so situated that they can only do so on the Sabbath. We dare not violate the Sabbath, and we would not keep this class of people away.

Statistics of the Colored Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church—1883.

For the Southwestern.

Huntsville District — Texas Conference.

Mr. Editor: We are having great success in gaining souls at various points on the district—Huntsville circuit, Montgomery, Willis, Cold Springs, Beaumont and Lovelady. At most of the other places of the district they are building churches, paying debts, etc. We are making some progress in establishing our church in the five vacant counties, namely, Trinity, Jasper, Newton, Harden and Tyler.

We have made arrangements to buy church property in three of the above named counties. These counties have been in Huntsville District, Texas Annual Conference, for many years, and have received but very little attention, if any at all. There are thousands of colored and white people that need the Gospel, and know the working of our Church. Now the six local preachers that I have sent to take charge of the work in the counties just named have not a cent from the Missionary Society; sometimes only $1 per month to live on. We are raising money in earnest for the different causes this year, and we hope the Missionary and Church Extension will add a little more money for the next year.

L. Lee, P. E.
Huntsville District.

For the Southwestern.

From South Berlin.

Mr. Editor: Dear Sir—In compliance to your request at the last session of the Delaware Annual Conference, which convened in Easton, Maryland, June 11th, 1884, we wish to inform you of our circuit as follows: We arrived at this our new home and field of labor on the 21st of June, '84 and took charge on the 22d. We were kindly received by many warm-hearted friends, and conveyed to our destination; where we immediately emerged into business. Such as preparing to meet our first quarterly conference and meeting, which came off on the 28 29th of June. Our new and much esteemed presiding elder, W. H. Coffey, was with us and presided in a most graceful and eloqnent style of management. His address of advice and encouragement to the conference was both eloquent and impressive, the effects of which are yet discoverable, and by which much good is being realized. He has gained the love of all. The stewards receipts, $38.96, presiding elder paid up. Mr. Editor we have a good circuit and a loving congregation who are willing to receive instruction. The spiritual part of our work is excellent. Class meetings are powerful, being supplied with good leaders. The people turn out well to public preaching on local days. Prayer meetings every Sunday afternoon and at one church every evening. Many penitents frequently crowd around the altar; and several have professed religion. We have received into full connection twenty-ty four, and on probation six. The dear friends have nicely carpeted the parsonage of four rooms and bought necessary furniture for the same. We have four Sunday-schools in the charge, three of which have recently been reorganized and supplied with necessary books. Also Berean Leaf, Sunday-school Journal and the Leaf Cluster. Good superintendents and teachers are in active employment. Berlin Sunday-school has an urgent and good superintendent, a young man who both loves and delights in the work, Mr. E. L. Briddell. We are moving along nicely and feel contented at home. Mr. Editor as our journal is so small, we no room to numerate the chickens, sugar, tea and etc., of which there is no scarcity, nor lack of benevolence and charity among the many friends. More anon.

T. B. H. Coleman.

South Berlin, Md., August 4, 1884.

For the Southwestern.

Letter From Austin.

Mr. Editor:—In my last letter I spoke of my presiding elder, C. L. Madison, Bro. J. W. Alexander and myself intending to raise $1,000, the third Sunday in June, in the way of completing our new church. I am pleased to say on that day Revs. J. R. Carnes of Waco, and B. F. Smith, of Calvert, were present and preached sermons adapted to the occasion, which will not soon be forgotten. The music also furnished by the choir was delightful. The organists Miss Ida V. Norris and Prof. W. T. Phillips. The collection was $700.40 in cash and a balance by subscription amounting to over $300, and $100 from a festival given by the Ladies Broom Brigade, the following Monday and Tuesday nights; so we are pleased to say that our labor was not in vain. Spiritually our church is doing fine. Our third quarterly meeting of last Saturday is just over and it will not be soon forgotten. In the love-feast meeting there was an outpouring of the Holy Ghost that seemed to be felt throughout the entire church and a large number of souls testified of the love of Christ. On Sunday at 3 p. m. Elder Madison preached one of his soul stiring sermons and the very presence of God seemed to be felt over the entire congregation, 193 persons communed at the Lord's table at 8:30 p. m. Bro. J. C. Mayo, of Victoria, preached a sermon that will long be remembered. The collection for the elder was $35. Our Sunday-school under the superintendency of Bro. W. G. Wilson, is growing; Children's Day collection was over $20; we have a new library worth $250 or more; thus you see we are at work. We are now engaged in a protracted meeting which we hope will result in the conversion of many souls. Pray for our success. Yours in Christ.

H. Swann.

Austin, Texas, July 22d, 1884.

For the Southwestern.

The Old Plan.

BY B. P. TOLEY, ESQ.

In making calculation upon the merits of the Methodist Women's Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Society, it is necessary to take into consideration the fact:

1. That as often as a sister dies the division being full and the assessments collected $1,200 will be received into the treasury, $500 of which will pay the legatees of the deceased.

2. There will then be a surplus of $700 in the treasury.

3. With $200, of this we will meet the contingent expenses of the society.

4. With the remaining $500, we will meet our obligation upon the superannuation of a sister.

These facts together with assessments leased at the expiration of ten years will make the society a success.

1703 Linden street, St. Louis, Mo.

THE METHODIST M. E. ASSOCIATION.

The clerk of the Methodist Ministers Relief Association, Rev. Joseph H. Mansfield, of Malden, Mass., has paid to the widow of the late Damas Brought, of Troy conference, $10,000. He has also paid to the widow of the late Rev. E. H. McKenny, of the Maine conference $1,950. The Association is received with marked favor by our leading ministers all through the conferences.

For the Southwestern.

Letter from Jackson.

Mr. Editor: Not having written to you for some time, I drop you a line or two, to advise you of the condition of our church at this place.

The church is prospering, both spiritually and temporally. During the months of July and August they granted me a leave of absence to visit my relatives in Virginia, whom I had not seen for more than twenty-five years, and who were of course overjoyed to see me, and I spent a very pleasant time. Did not find Methodists so plentiful as I would like, and feel satisfied that Virginia is a good field for the "old Church" to work in.

After my return to my charge, we have had splendid success in our meetings. Our third quarterly conference was held by our elder, Bro. Shumpert, and was well attended, more than 150 partaking of the sacrament.

This is Elder Shumpert's first year on this district, but by his Christian-like manner of conducting his conferences and the able, eloquent and earnest sermons he preaches, he has already endeared himself to his people.

Before closing, permit me to add my congratulations on your successful management of the Southwestern, and I venture the prediction that with your able pen it will, ere long, stand second to none of our Church papers.

In justice to my church here, I desire to say they have paid the elder $43, and pastor $317.

Fraternally yours,

James W. Parks.

Jackson, Miss.,

A coquette is a woman 'thont any heart, that makes a fool of a man that ain't got any head.

Conference Appointments.

Northwest Indiana.

Crawfordsville District—J. W. Green, P. E.

Clermont.....W B. Warren
Coat-ville.....E M Mason
Covington.....J L Boyd
Crawfordsville.....S B Town
Crawfordsville circuit.....E W Lawhon
Danville.....J H Hull
Hillsboro.....to be supplied
Jamestown.....J L Smith
Ladoga.....J M Stafford
Mace.....J B Combs
Newtown.....W F Clark
Perrysville.....W P Hargrave
Plainfield.....H H Dunlavy
Pleasant Hill.....J A Maxwell
Romney.....L S Smith, one to be supplied
Shawnee Mound.....G W Switzer
State Line.....W Hall
West Lebanon and Marshfield.....M L Green
Yountsville.....A Wood

Frankfort District—Thomas Meredith, P. E.

Bringhurst.....J S White
Burlington.....T F Drake
Burnettsville.....to be supplied
Camden.....D A Rogers
Clark's Hill.....Henry Vestoll
Colfax.....A W Wood
Dayton and Mulbury.....D K Tindall
Delphi.....D M Wood
Frankfort.....J W Beard
Kewanna.....J C Martin
Kirklin.....John S Wright
Lebanon.....A Lewis
Lebanon circuit.....O Wilson
Logansport circuit.....L H Brindle
Michigantown.....J H Harmon
Pittsburg.....to be supplied
Reseville.....J W Shell
Stockwell.....F Mikels
Thorntown.....J W Harris
Whitestown.....to be supplied
Widamac.....Francis Cox
Zionsville.....J F M Daniels

Greencastle District—L. C. Buckles P. E.

Annapolis and Montezuma.....B F Ivy
Bainbridge.....J E Wright
Bellmore.....J Hill
Brazil.....M M Middleton
Carbon.....J E Steele, supply
Clinton.....D P McClain
Greencastle, College Ave.....J H Cissell
Harmony.....J M Montgomery, supply
Harveysburg.....R H Calvert
Morton.....J J Claypool
Newport.....John Harrison
Rockville and Mt. Olivet.....L S Buckles
Russellville.....W Pershyman
Stanford.....W A Smith
Summit Grove.....E R Johnson
Terre Haute, Asbury.....S B Beck
" Centenary.....A Kummer
Terre Haute circuit.....O C Haskell
Waveland.....J H Hollingsworth

Lafayette District—J. H. Claypool, P. E.

Ambia.....W H Bromfield
Attica.....S P Colvin
Battle Ground.....W E Blunt
Boswell.....W H Mehaffe
Brook circuit.....to be supplied
Brookston.....N M Jenkins
Fowler and Earl Park.....J E Newhouse
Goodland.....H N Ogden
Kentland.....J M Siddall
Lafayette, Ninth Street.....W R Mikels
" Trinity.....H A Buchtel
" Cooper Street and Chauncy W Gresham
Lafayette Circuit.....J I McCoy
Lowell.....W Crapp
Mederyville.....to be supplied
Monon.....to be supplied
Monticello.....W P McKinney
Montmorenoy.....D Handley
Morocco.....James T Abbett
Oxford.....E E Woodson
Pine Village.....J J Thompson
Remington.....W H Vance
Rensselaer.....T C Webster
Rose Lawn.....to be supplied
Wea.....R S Martin
Williamsport.....J A Cullen

S L Brengle was permitted to attend Boston Theological School.

Laporte District—F. M. Perry, P. E.

Argos.....L Hurst
Chesterton.....supplied by Z Lambert
Crown Point.....C E Strocker
Door Village.....A S Drake
Hammond.....supplied by E A Schell
Hebron.....M F Wright
LaPorte.....to be supplied
LaPorte circuit.....R H Sanders
Marmont.....supplied by W R Mees
Michigan City.....J A Clearwaters
New Carlisle.....C R Babcock
North Judson.....supplied by N E Trautman
North Liberty.....D S Morrison
Plymouth.....A A Lee
Rochester.....J C Reed
Rolling Prairie.....J B Smith
South Bend, First Church.....W H Hiestand
" Michigan Street.....G W Hoover
" Milburn.....J H Wilson
Valparaiso.....C A Brooks
Walkertown.....A J Clifton
Westville.....G M Boyd
Wheeler.....J W Lower
South Bend circuit.....S S Grimes

Agent for the endowment fund for De Pauw University R. D. Utter.

Missionaries to Japan—W. C. Davisson, K. Kasaka, and Hiramura Sakaya.

To South America—T. B Wood, J. R. Wood.

To West Nebraska Mission—W. G. Veatch.

To South India—Findley D Newhouse.

H. A. Gobin, professor in DePauw University.

Samuel L. Brengle recommended for the Boston Theological School.

Morals of Candidates.

We do not intend to enter the contest for or against any candidate for President. The New York Independent, which at first was enthusiastic for Mr. Cleveland, withdraws its support, because it has thoroughly investigated the charges against Mr. Cleveland and finds them to be substantially true. The admitted facts are that Gover Cleveland had a mistress some years ago, and that a child was born during the adulterous connection, and that it bears his name. These facts disconnected from all detail, seem to be beyond dispute. The Independent is very candid and not sensational about the matter, but concludes, from the acknowledged state of things, not to advocate Mr. Cleveland's election.—California Advocate.

Hon. John Lynch is making a strong canvass of his district in Mississippi for Congress.

"Making Haste To Be Rich."—The Mack-Morris Mine.

The Weekly Witness of the 14th inst. published the following editorial:

MAKING HASTE TO BE RICH.

A painful shock has been given to the public belief in the goodness of good men by the legal revelations concerning a certain mine called the Mack-Morris mine in Colorado. It seems this mine was bought for $200,000 by parties who immediately put it into the form of a chartered company with ten millions (10,000,000) of stock. It is evident that as fast as this stock was sold the sellers would become suddenly and enormously rich. And this is just a specimen of many mining and railroad companies. The following decision of Judge Cullen, of Brooklyn, will be apt to put an end to such schemes in the future:

JUDGE CULLEN'S DECISION.

"Judge Cullen finds that Fisk, Navarro and Stout were entitled to receive stock only to the amount of what was paid for the property—namely, $200,000—and that they committed a breach of trust as to the rest of the stock in excess of the cost of the property, and that Fowler knew all about it and was jointly liable with them. The complaint against Ford H. Rogers is dismissed. Clinton B. Fisk, Jose F. Navarro, Charles H. Fowler, and the representatives of Andrew V. Stout, must account, it is decided, for the stock in excess of the amount. George B. Abbott is appointed a referee to take and state the account and report to the Court. A special receiver of the trust fund of the company is to be appointed."

LETTER FROM GENERAL FISK.

To the Editor of the Witness:

I cannot think it possible that the editor of the Witness would knowingly commit a wrong against me—I and the other gentlemen named in what you published as Judge Cullen's decision, but you do, substantially, to the tune of [illegible] of readers of the Wit[illegible] Mr. Navarro, Mr. Stout, [illegible] Fowler, and myself have been [illegible] suddenly and enormously [illegible] by the sale of Mack-Morris [illegible] Stock, and that by our so[illegible] a painful shock has been given to popular belief in the goodness of good men."

Will the Witness kindly give me space enough to state the facts in the case, not only on my own account, but especially for the sake of the memory of one of the truest of men, Mr. Andrew V. Stout, now in Congress, and in behalf of Bishop Fowler, at this time on duty on the Pacific Coast, and my neighbor, Mr. Navarro? It does not seem right that these injurious charges against our personal integrity should have been uttered without [illegible] as what we had to say about the matter.

If we had been guilty of selling a worthless property to the public for ten millions of dollars and thereby made ourselves suddenly and enormously rich, then you could not be too severe in your denunciation of such rascality; and even [illegible] to be Christian men [illegible] ought to be held up to the scorn and indignation of the world. What I complain of is, that you take a garbled extract of Judge Cullen's decision, prepared and set afloat by an enemy, as evidence of wrong on our part without [illegible] our side of the case.

[illegible] briefly as possible [illegible] history of the case. [illegible] there came [illegible] Arizona, a gentleman [illegible] Mack-Morris [illegible] man came [illegible] or leading [illegible] the Pacific [illegible] Martin L. [illegible] man wor[illegible] and of this [illegible] as mem[illegible] ber. [illegible] Maj. M. [illegible] him [illegible] and my[illegible] Baldwin ex[illegible] showing [illegible] the mine to be an immense deposit of exceedingly rich ore, a true fissure vein, etc., etc. At that time the country was wild with mining excitement. I had never had any interest in any mine or mining shares. Mr. Stout had been fortunate in mining investments, and was pleased with the showing of the Mack-Morris. Maj Baldwin who held the contract or bond from the original owners, offered to sell one half the mine for $200,000, a portion of which was to go into the treasury as working capital—the other half of the property he would not sell at any price, so great was his confidence in its immense value. It was finally agreed that Mr. Stout, Mr. Navarro, and myself would invest in the property provided that an examination of the mine by our own mining experts should confirm the statements made by Major Baldwin, and our examiners more than confirmed them. We had no doubt of the exceeding great value of the mine. It was agreed that a company should be organized on the basis that hundreds of other companies were established, to wit: 100,000 shares of $100 each, making a nominal capital of $10,000,000, and we verily believed that in due time our regular monthly dividends would be a dollar on each share, or at the rate of at least ten per cent. per annum on this large capital. Of this 100,000 shares, Mr. Stout, Mr. Navarro, and myself received 50,100 for $200,000; the remaining 49,000 shares were retained by Maj. Baldwin and his associates. We opened the mine extensively, went down 800 feet, run thousands of feet of tunnels, bought one of the finest mills on the Pacific Coast, and expended on the property nearly $1,000,000, all of which, excepting the $200,000, was provided for by the bullion from the mine itself. Like a thousand other such enterprises, it failed to meet expectations, and no profits have been realized. Meantime the stock of the company was never placed in the market—never offered to the public; no prospectus was ever issued; no one was ever asked to buy a share from us who put in the $200,000. Mr. Navarro has all his original stock. Mr. Stout's family hold all that he received, and I have all of mine. It was with the greatest difficulty that the plaintiff in this suit could purchase any stock. He finally did find 100 shares, for which he paid less than $100. He bought it for no other purpose than to bring the suit. This he unblushingly admits, and that he was but the simple tool of briefless barristers, who entered into that business on a large scale, two years since. There are any number of such suits against other companies now in the courts, this same man a plaintiff in many of them, and about three hundred men who happened to be trustees are harassed with suits unless they will pay a few hundred dollars to be relieved from the trouble, vexation, and scandal incident to a mining law suit. We would not and will not pay one dollar of black mail. We declined to sell a share of our stock. If it was as valuable as estimated we wanted to keep it. If it turned out to be poor, then no one should suffer but ourselves. No man has lost one dollar in this enterprise by my action but myself. I challenge the whole world to controvert this statement. We put in our money and lost it. The trustees never received one dollar of profits, nor has any officer of the company ever been paid a dollar for services. Rev. Dr. Fowler was selected by Maj. Baldwin and his associates to represent their half of the stock in the Board of Trustees. Twenty-five hundred shares of the stock was placed in his name by Maj. Baldwin, and Bishop Fowler has not sold a share of it. Surely not very sudden or enormous riches have come to him from this source.

At the trial of the case before Judge Cullen, so weak was the showing of the plaintiff's lawyers the plaintiff himself did not appear, nor could he be found; the attorneys for the defence did not call a witness but submitted the case without argument. Plaintiff's lawyers did show by their own witness that the mine was a very valuable one, and worth much more money than was paid for it. Judge Cullen for some reason desired that the case should go before the General Term, and made such decision as would take it there, in the meantime by his own order staying all further proceeding in the case.

In other precisely similar cases brought by the same shysters other judges have pronounced against the iniquity of such litigation in emphatic terms.

Ought not the Witness to be a true witness when it testifies respecting the character of men? Very truly yours.

CLINTON B. FISK.

SEABRIGHT, N. J., August 15th, 1884.

RETRACTION OF THE WITNESS.

Our remarks last week on the legal decision in the Mack-Morris mine case was founded on a misapprehension of the facts, as we are glad to learn from the prompt and complete elucidation of the whole matter by General Clinton B. Fisk which we publish in another column. As a newspaper we were bound to give the judicial decision; and it was with sorrow, in the fulfilment of a painful duty, that we made the comments which seemed called for by the terms of the report. It is therefore with corresponding pleasure that we now give General Fisk's explanation showing as it does that the report of the decision in no way represented properly the circumstances of the case.

Select Proverbs.

A glass of water is sometimes worth a ton of wine, and a penny a pound.

Alexander was below a man when he affected to be a god.

A man is a man, though he have but a hose upon his head.

A good shape is in the shear's mouth.

A good key is necessary to enter into Paradise.

All are not thieves that dogs bark at.

All blood is alike ancient.

A handful of common sense is worth a bushel of learning.

A mad bull is not to be tied up with a pack-thread.

A little wit will serve a fortunate man.

In the Groves.

Our old neighbors and acquaintances of Clermont and the upper edge of Hamilton counties came together and gave an unmistakable demonstration of esteem at the Cedar Point camp meeting, on August 18th. One of the objects of that meeting was the removal of Porter's Run church, which occupies a most inconvenient situation three miles out to a more desirable site in the town of Milford. In this object the meeting will be an entire success. For the good order and excellent affect upon the moral tone of the community and vicinity of Mt. Washington, we give thanks unto the Lord, whose direct agency in making it a great blessing to the people, was most clearly revealed. One of the novel features about the services, was the leadership of Mrs. Ann Thornton, of Milford. She had charge of the social meetings besides the entire business management of the camp. Her efficiency and entire competency to discharge these duties, will be readily admitted by all who attended the meetings. Miss Mary Boston, likewise deserves mention in this convention, with Sister Hettie Clay, Bros. Wilson, and Pyles. Rev. W. S. Lankford, of Union Methodist Episcopal Church, preached most acceptably on each of the two Sabbath mornings of the meeting.

Done in Six Months.

That coil of hair on the back of your head, dear lady. It is better than nothing and deceives nobody. In six months or less from to-day you may dispense with it if you are inclined, to give Parker's Hair Balsam a fair trial. Cleanses the scalp, restores color, and luxurious dressing. Not a dye, not oily, elegantly perfumed.

Calendar of Dates in Methodist History—October.

1. Dr. J. W. Waugh opens M. E. mission in Shahjehaupore, India, 1859.

2. First Canada Conference organized 1786. Bishop Andrews in Bulgaria 1876.

3. Bishop Clinton, of African M. E. Church, born 1823.

4. Rev. Richard Boardman, sent by Mr. Wesley to America, died 1782.

5. Bishop D. Witschmann, of Moravian Church, fellow-passenger with the Wesleys to Georgia, died 1772.

6. First Wesleyan Missionary Meeting held in Leeds 1813.

7. Wesley's last sermon outdoors 1790. Asbury and Wright arrive in America 1771.

8. Bishop Beverly Waugh born 1789.

9. Dr. T. H. Stockton, of Methodist Protestant Church, died 1868.

10. First Provisional Conference in Novia Scotia opened 1786.

11. Dr. T. O. Summers born 1812. Dr. Luckey died 1868. Chaplain M'Cabe born 1836.

12. Bishop Edward Thompson born 1813.

13. First Methodist sermon in Hallowell, Maine, by Jessie Lee 1793.

14. John and Charles Wesley embarked for Georgia 1735.

15. John Wesley's first visit to Wales 1739. Dr. Aaron Wood born 1802.

16. Rev. James O'Kelly died 1826. Dedicated first M. E. Church, Wilmington, Delaware, 1789.

17. First donation to Philip Embury 1769. Dr. J. V. Watson died 1856.

18. Dr. Durbin died 1876. Dr. W. Hunter, poet editor, died 1877.

19. Rev. Wm. Case died 1876. S. K. Jennings, M. D., prominent in M. P. Church, died 1854.

20. Bishop Paine died 1882. Dr. Jacoby sailed for Germany 1849.

21. Dr. Ludwig S. Jacoby born in Germany in 1813.

22. Dr. Schuyler Seager, distinguished teacher, died 1875.

23. Revs. Davis and Pilcher spend their first night in Peking 1870.

24. Joseph Pilmoor and Richard Boardman arrive in Philadelphia 1769.

26. Thomas Cuthbertson, eminent local preacher and associate of Samuel Dunn, died 1875.

27. Date of Dr. Coke's letter (1796), pledging entire service as assistant to Asbury.

28. Dr. Isaac Dillon, eight years editor of Pacific Christian Advocate, born 1823.

29. Hon. and Rev. J. F. Drake, U. S. Collector at Pittsburg, born 1819.

30. Old John Street Church dedicated; sermon by Philip Embury, 1768.

31. Rev. J. T. Gracey organized Mission Society in Serampore, India, 1861.

Charles James Folger, secretary of the treasury of the United States, died, on Thursday afternoon, September 4th, at his home in Geneva, New York. Mr. Folger was a native of the island of Nantucket, and was born April 16th, 1818. As a boy he was apt at learning, and diligent in his studies, and made rapid advancement. He graduated from Hobart College at the remarkably early age of eighteen years, with high class honors, and at once began the study and practice of the law. He occupied many positions of trust in the judiciary and other fields. Secretary Folger was a man of solid rather than brilliant qualities, and the administration of his office, accordingly, was characterized by a judicious conservatism which made him one of the safest of the President's advisers. He was a clear headed jurist, and a man of unquestioned integrity, with a fine sense of honor. And none can say that he failed to discharge the duties devolving upon him in the various positions to which he had been called.—New York Independent.

See advertisement of "Old One Hundred," for board and lodging.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY NOT QUANTITY — On Every Bottle — Trade Mark

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

—THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches

History of the U. S.—Ridpath $3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition 1 one volume.) Net 60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net 5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.) 3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884 ..... 1 50
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter 1 50

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) nett 5 00

Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography 2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs 2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters I-XXX—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) nett 7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley 30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net 1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net 1 00
Written Sermons.

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.) 1 50
Christian Purity—Foster 1 75
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast
Methodism—Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris 3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid 3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope 1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net 40

To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher 5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged). Stevens 3 00
Defence of our Fathers—Emory 85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III. 7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley 1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn 2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter 3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder 1 50
Written sermon.

To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst 3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson 6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler 1 50
Written Exegesis.

To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition) 1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry.
History of Rationalism.—Hurst 3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst ..... $ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) 05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield 2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884) 1 25
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker 1 25

To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter 1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson 1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher 75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines.
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield 2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill 1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst 50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer.

To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath 3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible Sacraments 2 50
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield 2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley 30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill.. 1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven 90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 60

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast 5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm. 1 25
75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield 2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.). 45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter.. 3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years.

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher 5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher 2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb... 1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St. New Orleans.

$5 to $20 ... Address STINSON & CO., Portland, Me. ... ...ailli-ly

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Picture Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884, at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women.

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight-page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1884.

The Southeast Indiana conference has met and adjourned after a most pleasant and agreable session. Rev. Geo. L. Curtiss, for nineteen years the secretary, was appointed presiding elder of the Jeffersonville district. This was both expected and desired. He is also one of the representative of the conference to the Centenuial Celebration of American Methodism at Baltimore, Maryland.

At the semi-annual convention of the Mass. W. C. T. U., held in Holyoke, Mass., April 23d and 24th, 1884, the following resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolved, That the Mass. W. C. T. U. endorse the Hygienic Physiology, by Joel Dorman Steele, Ph. D., published by A. S. Barnes & Co., New York, and edited by Mrs Mary H. Hunt, Superintendent of Scientific Instruction of the National W. C. T. U., as a standard work on the action of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics, and recommend it to the School Board of the State as a text book.

Make a New Excuse.

We have bright Sabbaths and abundant crops. Pastors ought either to take the collections now, or sit down and prepare an elaborate excuse for not doing so.

The old excuse about floods and hard times have become tame. Besides, it is six months before the floods come and they might miscarry this year. Let us either have a better financial and spiritual result of the year's work, or have a [illegible]. The presiding elder is equally responsible for a failure to execute the Discipline as the pastor, because it is the elder's duty to see that every point in the Discipline is enforced.

Two Mistakes Corrected.

The Pittsburg Christian Advocate, a paper for which we have the highest respect, makes the following statements:

Bishop H. M. Turner, of the M. E. Church, South, is said to be the first colored man who ever received the degrees of D. D. and LL. D. He educated himself at night among the cotton fields of South Carolina, and was the first colored chaplain in the United States Army, commissioned by President Lincoln.

We call Dr. Smith's attention to the fact that there is no colored bishop in the M. E. Church, South. Bishop Turner is one of the bishops of the colored M. E. Church in America. The question of having the colored people into this organization is just now attracting attention in one or more Southern Methodist papers. — Methodist Advocate, (Chattanooga.)

Now, we must call Dr. Carter's attention to the fact that Bishop Turner is a bishop in the African Methodist Episcopal Church and not in the Colored Methodist Church in America. Your colored readers will have to consult our paper for news from Negro circles or you will have to read more on that line. Next time write to us before you undertake to write about the Negro.

Letters From the Pastors.

C. C. O. Abbett, Musson, La., writes: "I am here hard at work determined to take this part of the country for christ and the old Methodist Church; although on the night of Aug. 6th, some parties drove a spike nine inches long and three inches wide on my gate, with the following note in it:

C. C. O. Abbett, July, '84.

This has reached us about midnight and day and night all our labor, and thus far to our interest we have used it any longer. We give you 24 hours to leave this country or fail to leave you know what.

CAPT. BULLDOZER."

He says, "We, as the leading Methodists of this place are our enemies, are encouraging and forward building our church will soon be started, and the Lord will bless our labors and add to the number on the roll."

Zinzendorf's Error.

Mr. Wesley's summary of Zinzendorf's views of justification are as follows:

First—Justification is the forgiveness of sins.

Second—The moment a man flies to God he is justified.

Third—And has peace with God, but not always joy.

Fourth—Nor, perhaps, may he know he is justified until long after.

Fifth—For the assurance of it is distinct from justification.

Sixth—But others may know he is justified, by his power over sin, by his seriousness, by his love of the brethren, and his hunger and thirst after righteousness, which alone proves the spiritual life to be begun.

Seventh—To be justified is the same thing as to be born of God.

Eighth—When a man is awakened he is begotten of God, and his fear and sorrow and sense of the wrath of God are the pangs of the new birth.

But Mr. Wesley objects that the seventh is "not so."

Current Politics.

The platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties are so similar in what they do and do not profess, that it has been obvious from the first that the campaign would avance on issues implied, rather than stated. This fishing for a taking war cry was better adapted to the flexible condition of the Democratic than to the fixed policy of the other party. So, for a time, the Democrats seemed to have the choice of the battle ground, but as usual, they blundered and lost the day, when their ranks were being rapidly augmented by forces who were conscientiously unable to support the Republican candidate for President, except as a "dernier resort."

The first blunder was the nomination of a man so little in public life, that of the correctness of his morals or the fitness of his qualification to fulfill the high functions of the position to which he aspires, nothing adequate was known. The second blunder was to nominate Mr. Hendricks, whose personal life, though unexceptionable, is coupled to such a political career as could not fail to provoke discussion as to the attitude of the Democracy during, before and since the war, the discussion of which questions will always imperil the prosperity of the Democratic party in the North. Then, too, his selection for Vice-Presidential honors opened the question of fraud in 1876, while it put the Democracy on the defensive in the issue, because Mr. Tilden, the only living man who could have used that as a rallying cry to advantage, was reclining unmolested in the serenity of his Greystone retreat, free from the mutations of active party leadership.

But the worst blunder of all made by the Democratic party in this campaign, was that of raising the personal character issue. For it now seems that Mr. Blaine is anxious to have a thorough passage upon his moral status by the courts, and his political career it is certain has been so freely examined that there can be very little unknown to condemn him, nor has that which is known been able to do so, his political opponents being judges.

If we were white, we would most assuredly, as matters now stand, vote for Mr. Blaine; but as a Negro, with nothing greater or less than the political betterment of the condition of the Negroes before our political eyes, we propose to make the very best possible deal for them. To that end we shall hasten deliberately toward anchorage in a standard bearer. If Mr. Blaine has been through the furnace without the smell of fire upon him, who shall say that the same is true of Mr. Cleveland? Some of the more prominent and powerful religious newspapers do not say so; on the contrary, they admit his moral unfitness to be set up before the young men of this nation as an example of the sort of man it takes to make a President.

After rushing to his support, chiefly because of his supposed elevated personal life and pure political intention, they rush away because of an alleged discovery of their mistake.

General Butler was available, and we recommended him to the Chicago Democratic Convention, but they did not seem willing to accept our kind offices. Now they must repent at leisure of their hasty decision. It is true the General is no Democrat, but then neither was Mr. Greeley. The General has a mission, and he has a way of executing it so thoroughly, that it is hard to tell just what is his place in this campaign.

Governor St. John is also at work, with the thousands of wives and mothers and sisters and widows of those whose curse and bane is and has been the liquor traffic beside him. Between elections the sympathies of Christian people are with these women and their cause, but we are told that it is impolitic to co operate with them at election times like the present. The logical result of just such doctrine prolonged the life of and would have perpetuated African slavery in the United States.

For our part, we are greatly in sympathy with these women and with their cause, because it is preeminently the cause of the Negroes. They must be emancipated from the use and abuse of liquor, and none of the other parties can do this. They use liquor as an effectual campaign document, and the debauchery caused thereby continues its work of death when the campaign is over.

The white people may be morally, physically and intellectually able to stand this everlasting drinking business, but we do not hesitate to say it, the Negroes are not. Of course it is now clear enough that with the break of the Independents away from Mr. Cleveland to chaos, or back to Mr. Blaine, the steady uncertainty of Mr. Kelly and the Irish voters generally, the warming up of the Negroes to political action in New York, Ohio, Indiana, and the hostility of American industry to free trade, makes it easy to now prognosticate and anticipate accurately the coming result. But if not now, sooner or later, labor and temperance will unite, organize and win.

The Mound Builders.

As you sweep along the Cincinnati Baltimore and Washington railway westward from Chillicothe, Ohio, to the end of the Scioto Valley, you meet, at brief intervals and in close proximity to each other, a succession of little hills or mounds. They are very much alike in exterior appearance. There is a great number of them about Marietta, and another group in the vicinity of Milford, Ohio. Exploration has proven them to be the tombs of an extinct, if not, a pre-historic race of American people. They, probably were at one time very numerous. They must have been an older people than the Aztec or any other aboriginal American tribe. The contents of these graves prove their occupants to have been of a religious character. But the evidences are more favorable to a sensual and materialistic, than a spiritual and intelligent worship. It is also fairly inferential that they were polytheists; they may have been civilized in a degree, but the highest civilization they did not have. This is inseparable from the true religion. It is clear that these mounds were intended to be lasting and monumental testimonials to the world of those who built them. They were doubtless well pleased with their own attainments, and wished to perpetuate the memory of their deeds for the pleasure of coming generations. But their names are forgotten and their identity is lost. We know them to-day by the work they did alone. How really in this case is that saying of the Savior verified: "Ye shall know them by their fruits." The fruits as we have seen declare them to have been a heathen and an idolatrous generation, which is probably the last thing they would have been anxious to prove, and perpetuate as true of themselves. They are extinct but the evidences of their life, civilization, and character remain. In the same way, with the same certain final result, though not in precisely the same manner, we too are building for ourselves monuments. What shall they say of us in the ages to come and to generations yet unborn? Shall they tell of pride and bigotry, or self-denial and catholicity in our lives? Will they mark an era of strife and division, or peace and unity in our counsels? Shall they proclaim selfishness in our offerings and decadence in our enterprise, or will they declare us abundant in sacrifices and lively in the prosecution of all Christian interests. Shall they publish us as a nation pendant in morals, incoherent in religion, superficial in literature, and perfunctory in duty, or shall we by them be approved for our basal virtue, our compactness in theology, for the depths of our learning, and our sufficiency in labors? Shall avarice in business, and corruption in politics, or fair dealing in trade and national purity, distinguish the age and country in which we have lived, moved, and had our being? Shall the relics we leave behind us, make known our faith in one God, or shall they bear testimony to an era of practical polygamy, intemperance and atheism? Shall they tell of a great cosmopolitan state, with its aggregation of nationalities, multiform in peculiarities but blended and united in interest and destiny, or shall the lessons be of colossal lust, lechery, and monumental debauchery? Shall these mounds of grace and nature, which we are building, tell of the Godhead and manhood, perpetually joined in a common bond of loving brotherhood, or of unnatural and degrading distinctions? We are modern mound builders. Not more or less so as a nation or as a church, than as individuals. Do we find in those things which remind us of the departed greatness of the shades, who inhabit them, bits of scorched grain, rude implements, of formative art and broken and crumbling altars? So in these of which we are builders, are reminders of the sure and certain march of time, the wreck, crush and ruin of sublunary things and the final end of earthly estates. The ideal worship leads to the ideal civilization; and those who so build will be held in everlasting remembrance, and the Lord, when He writeth up the people, will say of this man and that, he was born in Zion, if our monuments attest solidity of Christian character and staunchness of theistic faith.

Reckless Journalism.

We give in another place the statement of the New York Witness, involving General Fisk, Bishop Fowler, Andrew V. Stout, Esq., deceased, and Jose F. Navarro, Esq., in a fraudulent mining speculation. We give also the complete and sweeping vindication of General Fisk and his friends, as well as the retraction of the Witness. To make an apology for putting the brand of dishonesty on good men, and crushing the heart of their loved ones, is generally all the restitution that those who do such things are found able to make.

The attack of the Witness upon the honor and Christian fidelity of these gentlemen is unexcusable, since it was entirely within its possibility to have their version of the matter before its publication was put in type.

This was so plainly its duty, that it will prove as difficult for the Witness to give a satisfactory explanation of its action in the case, as it will for just and fair minded people to accept what it has given as a revelation of the "true inwardness" of its purpose in making the sweeping arraignment it does of these gentlemen, under cover of the decision of a court, improperly interpreted or carelessly read.

The statement of General Fisk is long, but it will repay the reader for his pains. The Witness was shocked, but the faith of the people in the goodness of good men comes forth unhurt. It was a harmless shock, if the intention of the makers of the report was so.

Vote for Clean Men.

The Republican convention of the Third Congressional district of Louisiana met on the 23d inst., and renominated Hon. W. P. Kellogg for Congress. This is the only district, under the present state of affairs, which the Republicans can feel reasonably sure of carrying. It is to be regretted, therefore, that the respectable elements of the party are compelled to make choice between an endorsement of the indefensible star route record of Mr. Kellogg, or a vote for a Democratic candidate, though he be personally pure.

We cannot advise our readers to vote for Mr. Kellogg, even though supported by a party whose principles they are in full sympathy with. The colored voters of Louisiana did all in their power to confer political honors upon Mr. Kellogg, in tribute to his great abilities as a leader and a statesman But Mr. Kellogg involved himself in a disreputable scheme to defraud the treasury of the United States; a scheme which can only be classed alongside those of Wm. M. Tweed and the gang who attained national notoriety by plundering the city of New York. And if they nominate and elect such men to office, they will suffer immeasurably at the bar of public opinion all over the land. The enemies of the Negro, always ready to combine for the denial of his citizen rights, and the State restriction of his suffrage, will point to it with satisfaction as a convincing evidence of the correctness of their assertions, that Negro majorities are dangerous to the morals and debasing to society. The friends of the Negro will be deprived of effective argument for his defense, and view it with sorrow and disappointment.

Vote for clean men, or not at all. Give a deaf ear to the special pleadings that expediency or a "regular" nomination entitle a candidate to your votes, if other qualifications are disregarded. Show to the world that Negro majorities are as manly, independent and God fearing as any in the country, and do it by giving the entire weight of your influence, before and after the nomination, against improper candidates. It were better by far that all Louisiana Congressmen should be Democrats, than to struggle for the election of one who evaded the issue, and received a technical acquittal only, of a very grave charge, generally accepted as proven by the testimony, and under which no honest man could rest until vindicated after a most thorough investigation.

Look at Their Papers.

On the 18th of July we met the Rev. W. R. Wilson in the parsonage of Ninth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Covington, Ky. His aim was to get a collection for the purpose of securing an artificial leg for the right side. He is 28 years of age, and claims to have been born in Gallia county, Morgan township, Ohio. At 21 he went to Buffalo, West Virginia.

In 1883, on the 15th of January, he lost his leg on the Campbell Creek Coal Company's railway, and is now abroad seeking money on this account. He is a licentiate in the Baptist church, Mount Olive Association, of West Virginia.

If the case is as represented, it is a meritorious one. Pastors and others, before taking action, ought to satisfy themselves at this point.

Speaking of the statement of Mr. Joseph Sheldon, counsel for the trustees of Sperry Street Church, New Haven, the Delaware Conference Standard says:

"Perhaps Dr. Marshall W. Taylor, who acted as god-father at the christening, can tell us what the Sperry Street Church really is."

What we saw of it was a roundescript. Rev. T. H. Johnson was wet nurse, and Dr. Goodsell, surgeon. Dr. I. H. White has also been called in later. We suggest that these eminent ecclesiastical doctors overhaul that infant, and make a thorough diagnosis of its case. It had some resemblance to a Methodist Episcopal church while we were connected with it.

Personal.

—Rev. J. J. Holland, of Steubenville, feels happy in consequence of a most agreeable surprise given him lately.

—Rev. Abraham Hilton, of Central, Louisiana, called, settled his accounts, and enrolled five new subscribers. Thanks.

—Thaddeus A. Walker, of New Orleans, will take the medical course at Central Tennessee College, beginning this fall.

—Mrs. Jennie V. Holland (nee Cook) is passionately fond of the SOUTHWESTERN, reads it eagerly, and will contribute to it occasionally.

—Rev. M. J. Dyer, of Sixth Street Church, has been succeeding nicely since his return from the East. He paid us a very pleasant visit the last week.

—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, of Camp Parapet circuit called, spoke kindly, and pledged us his support, invited us, and says he is having a pleasant year on his work.

—Rev. Harry C. Foster, late of the Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis, united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in that place, has now placed his letter in Simpson Church of this city.

—Rev. W. H. Hardy, of Pearl River charge, called and reported his work in an excellent condition. We were quite glad to see him, as he always brings good cheer to this office.

—Rev. W. H. Treager has been transferred from the Third German M. E. Church of this city, to the St. Louis German conference and stationed at Peoria, Illinois, by Bishop Ninde.

—Rev. Stephen Duncan, presiding elder of the Shreveport district, being in New Orleans, visiting his family gave the SOUTHWESTERN a call. He reports his district in an excellent condition, and a spirit of revival in many of the churches.

—Rev. Stephen Priestley from Union Chapel gives 12 new subscribers. "All hail." He has a fine church, large evening congregations, and is an energetic, well-beloved workman. He promises to do more for us.

—Rev. E. S. Burton, a local preacher, brother to Rev. Nicholas Burton of the Louisiana Conference, came to see us last week, subscribed for the SOUTHWESTERN, and made us to understand that the colored people of Louisiana were determined to keep the SOUTHWESTERN on foot.

—The Rev. L. P. Cushman has received an intimation that a large and influential charge would be gratified if they could have his service in the East as pastor. It is not likely that he will accept, as he is devoted to his work of aiding in the right development of the people of the South.

—The Rev. Henry C. Armston, of Morgan City charge, visiting New Orleans, gave the SOUTHWESTERN a call last week. He reports the drouth and high water as having impeded the progress of his work to a considerable degree; the Sunday-school is in a flourishing condition.

—Mrs. L. C. Braden gave us a most encouraging letter last week. She speaks in complimentary terms of the SOUTHWESTERN, especially our number for September 18. Her very graceful and helpful letters will be continued as a very important adjunct to the usefulness of the paper.

—We learn with deep regret of the death of Mr. Martin, the young Scotchman whom Rev. M. Craven took out with him to help in the printing press in Lucknow. Recent letters say that his death was sudden, he having been attacked by cholera. Bro. Craven also has had a slight attack but is now convalescent.

—Anatole Panall Esq., found time to drop in, salute and extend to ascertain civilities and courtesies for which we consider ourself debtor to him. He is an earnest, active friend of the SOUTHWESTERN. With stock in one or two more publishing enterprises, he has also a position in the United States service, and what is above all he is a Christian gentleman.

—Rev. Marcus Dale is a pastor who puts his stamp upon his people. He has a neat church, large and quite high grade membership. Bro. Dale was favorably spoken of for the Bishopric in 1880. Mrs. Dale is manager of this district of the Home Missionary Society work. The SOUTHWESTERN has friends in Wesley Chapel, and will enroll many more shortly.

—Bishop Harris has revised the last proof-sheet of the new edition of the Discipline. Most of the printing is already done, and in a few days the completed book will make its appearance on the shelves of the Book Rooms, ready for sale. It is a very handsome volume, very much more attractive, typographically, than any preceding edition. The careful work of the editor is every where apparent. It is completed a full month earlier than the Discipline of 1880.—Church Advocate.

—On one face of the white marble monument to Isaac Rich in Mt. Auburn cemetery his executors, after conference with the trustees of Boston University, placed these words: "That take, and give, for Me and for thee. Matt. xvii, 27." As the passage refers to the tribute money which Peter was told he would find in the mouth of the fish, it most happily suggests the source of Mr. Rich's wealth: The Lord to whom he consecrated it as a holy tribute, and the fact that Christ ever associates with himself in honor and benefaction each one who devotes his gains to Him.

—Rev. D. H. Payne, the senior bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and the St. John of the Christian Church in modern times, shall soon give to the publishers a volume on the Christian home. He has invited our mutual friend, Rev. Dr. R. S. Rust, to write the introduction, and he has consented to do so. Dr. Rust and Bishop Payne were associated together twenty-five years ago at Wilberforce University, and have ever since been intimates. It will be a pleasant service for the Doctor to reproduce the ripe thoughts of his venerable friend upon the greatest of all themes but one, Christian culture in the homes of the people.

—Rev. Ansel Bunton, of New Orleans, has a history full of interest. He was a favorite slave before the war; went with his young master to school as a body servant; the master was dull and the servant quick to apprehend; so the lessons given to the master and neglected by him were always learned by the servant. After a while the master determined that the servant should first learn the lessons and then instruct him; so he did, and in this way brought his young master through school. Bro. Bunton is a local deacon in the Louisiana Conference, a man of fine sense and commanding influence. He is a friend to the SOUTHWESTERN, on which his son at present holds a position.

—The Rev. Pierre Landry, presiding elder, reports his district [illegible] persons, excepting some financial perplexities at Baton Rouge, where they have begun an excellent church but cannot finish for want of [illegible] funds. They are looking hopefully toward Philadelphia, having done all that could be reasonably expected of them. The Rev. F. T. Chinn, the pastor there, has been conducting a series of [illegible] meetings [illegible] with success. We hope it shall [illegible] the fifty-year [illegible] pastorate [illegible] pastor and people [illegible] in high [illegible] for his good [illegible] SOUTHWEST[illegible] life and trials, and for his constancy to our interest at the present time. We have not only his cordial welcome to the South, but his actual help. There is plenty of room higher up.

Church Polity.

How the Presiding Elder Should Do His Work.

The policy of the colored presiding elder, or any presiding elder in our Church should be very simple. He is to take care that every part of our Discipline be enforced in his district. Travelling through it with Episcopal functions in the absence of a Bishop for that purpose, he should so prosecute his mission as,

First. To train the people in all the charges to look up to, esteem and regard him as the immediate, visible and supervisory head of the district, to whom all matters should be freely and fully made known.

Second. To train the preachers to find in him many things worthy of imitation, and to regard him as always their friend and laboring in their interest.

Third. To the adjustment of the wants of preachers and churches to each other.

Fourth. To bring our white and colored membership to feel and realize the relationship subsisting between them.

Fifth. To urge the insurance and prompt cancellation of outstanding indebtedness against our church property, build better churches, encourage and urge the erection or purchase of parsonages, and discourage the selection of obscure and improper locations for our churches.

Sixth. To discourage color prejudice and inspire our ministers to be the leaders and moulders of public sentiment in communities where they labor.

Seventh. To lift our people up to see and appreciate their new relation to the Church and society, and to fully cancel their obligations to both.

Eighth. To increase the membership first and disciplinize it afterwards.

Ninth. To suggest plans to pay debts by practicable methods, without splitting hairs as to fine, but to us, impracticable theories.

Tenth. To boldly state and if necessary defend our doctrine, polity and relationship to the whites, and to see that pastors have a comfortable estimate and use his utmost influence to have it paid.

General Church News.

The number of Buddhists in the island of Ceylon is 1,700,000; of Hindoos, 600,000; of Mohammedans, 200,000; of Roman Catholics, 220,000; of Protestants, 50,000.

There is a fine opening for missionary work among the colored people of Visalia, California. Their religious opinions are so diversified, however, that it would be difficult for any one denomination to accomplish much among them. There are more Methodists among them than any other denomination.

Dr. Hall's church, New York, has a membership of 1,999, which contributed last year $30,529 to home missions, $24,115 to foreign missions, 14,051 to church-erection, $31,564 to congregational, and $30,747 to miscellaneous expenses, besides liberally contributing to the different boards of the church not here mentioned.

Ebenezer M. E. Church was well attended on last Sunday evening, Rev. Benjamin Brown, of the P. E. Church, delivered a fine sermon. —People's Advocate. The presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal district in which Ebenezer is situated, is named Benjamin Brown; he is quite scholarly and is a first rate preacher. Do you refer to him? If so turn your "P" to an M.

Rev. Camillus P. Maes, secretary to the Roman Catholic bishop of Detroit, has been appointed bishop of the Covington, (Ky.) diocese, to succeed Bishop A. M. Toebbe, deceased.

The Pacific Acvocate last year received $4,881, and expenses $5,279, leaving a balance of $502. It had 1,869 paying subscribers. The past year was one of prosperity throughout the conference.

Kentucky has 1,297 Baptist churches. In these the baptisms during the past year numbered 6,023, and the net gain in members was 3,053. The contributions for State, home and foreign missions reached 19,444, of which a little more than one-half was contributed for work within the State.

Los Angeles has made the following investments during the past two years. Methodist, $30,000; M. E. Church, South, $25,000; Baptists, $25,000; Protestant Episcopal Church, $24,000; Congregationalists, $20,000; Presbyterians $40,000. Total, $158,000.

Schools and Colleges.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Houston Seminary.

BY REV. C. W. CAMPBELL.

A circular, from the authorities of the Freedmen's Aid Society, referring to the Centennial Jubilee of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Southern States, lies before me. It is to be hoped that if any pastor, or brother has failed to receive a copy, he will at once write to Dr. Rust for it, study it, and act upon its suggestions.

Acting as they are, under the direction of the General Conference, this centennial appeal from Dr. Rust and Harlzell is neither to be ignored nor slighted. The church should every-where heed the call. No pastor should fail to show himself in full sympathy with the plan.

The brethren of the Texas conference plead poverty, and it is true there are more charges to be supplied where hard work and self denial are necessary, than those where riches are abundant. The shortness of the cotton crop this year and a like failure last year would seem to give just cause for a little letting up on the collections. But, brethren remember that you will never see another centennial in this life. Now is the time to let your example encourage those around you.

Two classes of charges will be prompted by your action to do either better, or worse, i. e., those stronger than yourself and those weaker.

Since I lauded in Texas, two years ago, two charges have raised for the conference and school one hundred dollars each. Bro. Bookman, on the Prairie Plains work, and Bro. Whitaker, at Hempstead, each went to work to present the matter to the congregations, and each made up his amount subscribed. Since that time Bro. Bookman has remembered the school by collection, and Bro. Whitaker would have done the same had he remained in the work. Are there not others this year who can with their congregations be added to the list?

Our seminary can never accomplish its work till other buildings are erected, and this depends upon you, brethren. More than three fourths of the colored people of Texas, over ten years of age, could not write their names in 1880. Slaveholders may be responsible for the existence of this state of things, but the pastors are responsible if it continues. Support the seminary and it will send teachers into the schools. The money may be hard to get, but it will bear more fruit than if invested in any other way.

Collections have been taken by the Navasota district conference, during the year to the amount of $29 25, as follows: J. L. Smith, Millican, $3; A Alexander, Planterville, $3 50; W. H. Jackson, Brenham circuit, $2; B. M. Taylor, Bryan, $3; W. B. Pullam, presiding elder, $3; Thomas Cole, Franklin, $3; T. D. Bookman, Iola, $3; L. Felder, Bryan circuit, $1.75; J. E. Shackelford, Navasota, $6; John Bobo, $1. These were taken for the purpose of paying for the insurance. The remaining $20.75 promised ought to come in soon. At Richmond, Bro. Davis raised and turned over $2.35, and Bro. Hughes, of Pittsville, collected $1.50, on our recent visit to that place.

Bro. Hughes is what our church everywhere needs, a man upon whom preacher and people can always depend.

Bro. Logan, of Trinity, has collected $13.75, and district conference at Hearne paid $3. During the summer we visited Richmond, Rose Hill, Galveston, Pittsville, Hearne and Harrisburg, and at each place received a warm welcome, and enjoyed the visit. We have tried to give a better understanding of the enterprises of the church and especially of the work of the Freedmen's Aid Society, and feel sure that our visits will not be without fruit. In none of the places have we failed to find those whose minds were being turned to the importance of a higher culture. In most cases the seminary is the only possible chance for this.

We found the Navasota district conference at Hearne, running smoothly and without doubt profitably to all present. This is the second session we have attended, and we feel at home with the brethren there. The feeling of brotherhood is stronger with each visit. May the blessing of almighty God rest upon that little army of Christian soldiers! Under the generalship of Bro. Pullam, no tears need be felt for the work of the church in Navasota district.

Houston Seminary has begun its third year's work under circumstances no less favorable than before. With the building we need so badly, we could do much better work.

No idea can be given of the expedients to which we have had to resort to supply the needed room and prevent embarrassment of the work for want of space. Dr. Rust gives us encouragement to expect a new building if the conference will do a liberal part by the school this year. What do you say, brethren? Shall it go on record that the centennial year passed unnoticed, and the collections were no larger than before? I hope not. No other school in the South is needed so badly as this one. Then let us make a rally in the month that remains between this and conference and show what can be done. Let the pastors send us the name of every person making contribution.

Columbus Normal School.

FRANK WEBB, JR.

The first few days were occupied in getting every one in working trim, when all settled down to regular business, which consisted of the different methods of teaching. The "How and What to Teach" on subjects pertaining to schools and teachers, in which every one participated. The Principal, Prof. C. J. Waring, of Galveston, was assisted by H. A. Christian, of Colorado county. On the 30th of July examination commenced; some fifty odd entering. Out of five who went up for first class certificates only one succeeded, viz: S. H. Burford; eighteen obtained second class and thirteen were contented with third grades. Prof. R. A. Scull, of Galveston, was the principal's assistant, and right well did he perform his duties. The closing exercises took place in the Methodist Episcopal Church, on the 1st of Aug. at 8 p. m., with A. J. Johnson, assistant superintendent of Sunday-school, officiating. The performance was opened with music by the choir, and a touching prayer by the Rev. W. H. Davis, pastor in charge of M. E. Church here. He was closely followed by Prof. H. W. Christian, of Colorado county, in an opening address which was exceedingly creditable. Next came Mrs. T. J. Webb, in a written address, thanking the citizens of Columbus for their good will, and hearty co-operation with the students in attendance, the teachers themselves, and last, but not least, our honored principal, Prof. Waring. Prof. R. A. Scull, of Galveston, and Miss L. N. Norman, of Colorado county, then delivered on behalf of the teachers, in two brilliant speeches, full of pathos and eloquence, some very valuable books, a set of Chamber's Encyclopedia, 15 volumes; Gibbon's Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire, 6 volumes. Prof. Waring then made his reply of thanks.

Had I room I would give to the public a synopsis of the exceedingly beneficial remarks which he made. Suffice to say they were appropriate and brilliant. The exercises closed with music by the trained choir, led by R. A. Scull. It assisted materially by discoursing sweet dulcet strains at intervals throughout the entire performance. The students and their friends next began to satisfy the "inner man" with apparently good results. Every one continued feasting and merry-making till a late hour, when all dispersed.

Columbus, Texas.

New Orleans University—Prof. A. F. Hoyt.

The following is a synopsis of the three years' course, which will be known as the College Preparatory Course, showing the number of recitation hours weekly for each study:

JUNIOR YEAR.

First Term.—Latin Grammar, with Tetlow's Latin Lessons, 4 hours; Wentworth's Algebra, 4 hours; Barnes' United States History, 5 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Second Term.—Latin Grammar, with Tetlow's Latin Lessons, 4 hours; Algebra, 4 hours; Human Physiology, 5 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Third Term.—Latin Grammar, with Tetlow's Latin Lessons, 4 hours; Algebra, 4 hours; Physical Geography, 2 hours; Book-keeping, 3 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

MIDDLE YEAR.

First Term.—Latin, Cæsar's Commentaries, 4 hours; Goodwin's Greek Grammar, with White's Greek Lessons, 4 hours; Wentworth's Algebra, 3 hours; English History, 2 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Second Term.—Latin; Cæsar's Commentaries, 3 hours; Greek Grammar and Lessons, 4 hours; Algebra, 3 hours; Civil Government, 2 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Third Term.—Latin; Cicero's Orations, 3 hours; Greek Grammar and Lessons, 3 hours; Algebra, 2 hours; Botany, 5 hours; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

SENIOR YEAR.

First Term.—Latin; Virgil's Aeneid, 4 hours; Goodwin's Greek Reader, 4 hours; Wentworth's Geometry, 4 hours; Ancient History, 2 hours; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Second Term.—Latin; Virgil's Aeneid, 4 hours; Goodwin's Greek Reader, 4 hours; Geometry, 4 hours; Grecian History, 1 hour; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Third Term.—Latin; Virgil's Aeneid, 4 hours; Goodwin's Greek Reader, 4 hours; Geometry, 4 hours; Roman History, 1 hour; English Composition, 1 hour; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

Students, to enter upon the above course, should have completed arithmetic, English grammar, descriptive geography, reading, spelling and penmanship. Those completing this course will receive a proper diploma, and will be admitted to the College of Liberal Arts upon this diploma, without passing any further examinations. Those who have already completed a part of this course will be given credit for the work they have done.

We acknowledge the receipt of catalogues for Wiley University, at Marshall and New Hope Academy at Alto, Texas. Also of Little Rock University, including the Art School at Little Rock, Ark. These schools are all under the auspices of the Freedmen's Aid Society, and present ample opportunity for securing a good education, of which our young people should especially avail themselves.

The Manual for July is an excellent number, containing a fine Church Extension map, which shows what a great work has been done in the aiding and planting of churches. Our laymen should send fifty cents to 805 Broadway, New York, and get this quarterly. It will give valuable information concerning all our benevolent societies.—Iowa Methodist. Just so.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

The best white people of the South will stand as a shield over the Negroes against the murderous intent of bull-dozers, and the wiles of the wretches who incite them to murder and crimes which they are too cowardly to commit themselves.—Louisiana Standard.

This campaign will soon blow over, and the question of conversion of sinners and the sanctification of believers will become the all important interest.—Michigan Christian Advocate.

Building, not iconoclasm, will be the steady aim of the man of God and of the man of virtue.—The Watchman.

For the first time, a colored candidate is running for Congress from Virginia, with a large following—Hon. J. P. Evans by name, with a view to his own election.—People's Advocate.

There are aged ones and those who are gradually sinking under the remorseless ravages of disease, who will soon see the King in his beauty, and know for themselves what Heaven is.—Lamp of Life.

An honest man—honest in the Christian sense, not from fear, but from love of good, may still be said to be "the noblest work of God," and of such the country has many.—Christian Advocate.

But let no pastor or other Christian worker imagine that he can gain influence over the young for good by descending occasionally to frivolity and folly in their presence.—Zion's Herald.

The realm of heaven is the glory of God manifested to his beloved. —Northern Christian Advocate. That is a very funny, not to say a confused or misleading statement. It is doubtful if the writer knows what it means, and we certainly do not.

STANDARD Biographies, Just Ready.
BLAINE and LOGAN. Ready.
712 Royal octavo pages, 87 full-page Illustrations.
Tilden, Cleveland & Hendricks.
774 Royal octavo pages, 35 full-page Illustrations.
Best Terms ever offered to Agents.
OUTFIT FREE, and ALL FREIGHT PAID.
Address, H. S. GOODSPEED, oct2 3m New York or Chicago.

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Bibeler, Manager.)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20.....Toulouse Street,.....20
P. O. Box 3246. NEW ORLEANS, La.
Persons intrusting to my care, sale of produce, will receive prompt returns and orders for same will receive prompt attention at lowest market rates for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
Refer to Merchants' Exchange, New Orleans. sept18-tf

AGENTS WANTED
—To Sell the only authentic Life of—
Gen. JOHN A. LOGAN.
The most vividly interesting book of the year, selling by thousands, wherever introduced. Nearly 500 large pages, steel portrait, pictures of LOGAN HOMESTEAD, facsimile in colors of Fifteen Thirty-Dollar Bank Notes, sent by mail on receipt of One Dollar. Address
THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE,
sept25-2t Washington, D. C.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with and without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 25 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

BOARDING HOUSES.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
sept2 6m

Furnished Rooms to Rent
By the Month, Week or Day,
At No. 237 Customhouse Street
Corner Treme street, New Orleans, La.
Mrs. C. ROBERTSON, Proprietor.
8 mw

CATARRH
And Diseases of the Throat, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Cough, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured, by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the bones of the nose have become affected. No douches, snuffs, washes, fumigators, or atomizers. The medicines are so pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Brockington has had fifteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and Fifty (50) cents (postage paid), for a trial package (by mail), to last fifteen days, with full instructions for treatment.
Address, DR. C. W. BROCKINGTON, 339 Fourth Avenue, Louisville.
oct2 1yr

Domestic Hygiene.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

"Cleanliness is Next to Godliness."

BY GEO. L. CURTIS.

It is a mystery how much some people enjoy dirt. Occasionally a person is met with who appears to believe that an increase of dirt is an evidence of an increase of piety. According to such, the more dirt the more religion. But no. Where is it demonstrated that great religious experience is consonant with much want of cleanliness? The reader may ask: "What should be clean?" "When should one be clean?" "What advantage is there in being clean?" "What are we to do to be clean?"

The "what should be clean" now refers to the cleanliness of ourselves and those things surrounding us. These must be clean, in order that we may reach the highest state of health, and have the greatest real comfort.

We need to be clean in our persons. While the majority of people admit that they out to be clean, the majority of people are not clean. Travel over the civilized world and make a careful examination, and it will be found that but a small minority of people are physically clean.

When a man or woman is uncleanly in body, there will be an accumulation of dirt from the atmosphere mingling with the sweat and the oils from the pores of the body and the scurf skin; until the circulation itself may be changed, and foul waste matter becomes [illegible]. More or less chills will follow a body under such conditions. These odors are generally [illegible] of want of cleanliness. The skin of the entire body [illegible] or months, exhibit [illegible] by [illegible] the [illegible] through these little pores [illegible] to these little pores, [illegible] to the surface, where [illegible] drops of [illegible] more [illegible] the [illegible] perspiration [illegible] any time be [illegible] dirt or a draft or [illegible] there follows an [illegible] part of the body. [illegible] meantime per[illegible] suspended, that if a [illegible] bed all over it [illegible] were to [illegible] of his body ran[illegible] so prevent this [illegible] cause quest de[illegible] liver and kid[illegible] generally be[illegible] cause the in[illegible] blood could [illegible] the system by the [illegible] kidney and [illegible] be compelled to do extra [illegible] to free the [illegible] Being whipped [illegible] poison, they will [illegible] as to soon grow [

General News Items.

Hon. A. G. Peace, colored, is the Republican nominee for Congress in the Mississippi Shoe String district.

It will require $500,000,000, or $600,000,000, to complete the Panama canal. The appearance at present is that it will not be finished soon.

A Mississippi man whose time was getting heavy on his hands, counted the number of grains in a bushel. He found 72,120 of corn, 132,000 of wheat, 128,000 of peas, and 164,000 of seed.

Hon. J. C. Upton, late Assistant Secretary of the United States Treasury, has prepared a brief treatise on "Money in Politics," which is now in the press of D. Lothrop & Co.

The latest estimates of the wheat crop of the United States give a total of 553,488,000 bushels. The yield of 1883, was 424,590,000 bushels. And that of 1882, 505,320,000 bushels.

What is wanted along the west coast of Africa are piers, wharves, harbors, and railways. Along the whole stretch of the coast there is not even an apology for these elementary appliances of civilization.

It is stated that the caving of the banks of the Atchafalaya, on both sides, is unprecedented. In some places it is caving in by acres, taking the levee in many instances and threatening the buildings along the banks.

The United States steamship Monocacy to arrive to-morrow [illegible] to all Europeans arranged, an English captain in command. Excitement [illegible] Chinese increasing, trouble [illegible] country.

The following is stated to be the [illegible] since the commencement of the century in the number of persons speaking the different languages: English, from 55,000,000 to 90,000,000; Russia, from 30,000,000 to 63,000,000; German, from 33,000,000 to 66,000,000; Spanish, from 22,000,000 to 44,000,000; Italian, from 13,000,000 to 30,000,000; and Portuguese, from 3,000,000 to 12,000,000.

Women of the South have never been so much interested in any Exposition as in that to be held in New Orleans from December 1884 to May 1885. Fifty thousand dollars [illegible] the part of the authorities has stimulated the formation of exposition associations composed entirely of ladies, who will see to it that their counties and states are represented. In Texas alone there are eighteen such associations. The Christian Women's Exchange, of New Orleans, has this department in charge. Women of the Century [illegible] years [illegible] last year of $25,000 for their services in settling an estate worth $52,000. Judge Thomas Drummond, who [illegible] the bench, recently disposed of them. He said to [illegible], you consider [illegible] lawyer. How much [illegible] your services worth to [illegible] than mine to the people? You [illegible] discharged $25,000 for sixty days' service. Could you not be content, each of you, to take my pre rents for the same time? These charges are infamous. There is not much to only man who [illegible] and these accident would make. This charge of $15,000 is cut down to $1,500; those of $5,000 each to $500. Repeat such a piece of rapine in this court, and I will disbar every one of you."

A Monroe Street man was married the other evening, and when the minister asked: "Will you take this woman," etc., he made no reply. The question was asked again. Still no answer, from which the minister was concluded he must be deaf or bashful, so raising his voice to seven and a half, he repeated: "Will thou take this woman?" at which the man gave him a vacant stare and asked: "Say parson, do you suppose I'm [illegible]?"

Why a Centennial Jubilee in the South?

There are special reasons why our people in the South ought to heartily enter into this Centennial Celebration. In fact the South should make 1884 a Centennial Jubilee year, when not only God's blessings upon our world wide Methodism should be remembered, but when his marvelous dealings with our people in every part in the South, during and since the war, should be devoutly and thankfully recounted.

As Methodists, they should rejoice that the old Mother Church of [illegible] in America, is now firmly planted in every part of our nation, and is saving people of every race and condition.

As patriots, loving their county, they can praise God that secession and rebellion were failures, and that the nation is now one in territory, and will soon be one in sentiment.

As philanthropists loving their fellow men, they can rejoice that slavery is destroyed, never again to curse our land.

The one million of colored people in our Church and congregations in the South can make this a Jubilee year, in which to praise God for freedom and its blessings.

It will be a proper time for our people in the South to recall what has been done for them by the whole Church, and to plan for yet greater growth and self-helpfulness in future.

The great need of our Church in the South is a large increase in the number of Christian ministers and teachers competent to instruct and build up the people. This Centennial Jubilee year will give all a chance to make a thank-offering to God for Christian education.

tf

Mr. Douglass's Letter.

Mr. Frederick Douglass's letter urging Prohibitionists to vote for Blaine will hardly produce much effect. The Prohibitionists never undertake to support a ticket of their own without being earnestly told that they are taking a very mistaken course. Mr. Douglass says that to vote for St. John is to help the cause of Cleveland, and that surely it will do the cause of prohibition no good to elect a Democrat. This is what the Prohibitionists are always told. They are urged to vote either for one or the other of the older parties, on the ground that if they do not so vote they will be aiding to elect men who are not Prohibitionists. Perhaps by this time the Prohibitionists have grown tired of this sort of counsel.

Mr. Douglass, of course, does not venture — especially before the Ohio election — to claim that the Republican party is in favor of prohibition, but he does promise that just as soon as it is clear that the majority of the people want prohibition the Republican party will try to carry out their wishes. It will rather astonish some of the older members of the party to learn from Mr. Douglass that the Republican party cares nothing for the right or wrong of any proposed measure, but only asks if it is popular. If this be true the way for the Prohibitionists to convert the Republican party is to make a great display of strength, and how can they do this except by polling a large vote for St. John? They know perfectly well that while the Republican and Democratic politicians are glad to get Prohibitionist votes, neither of those parties has the least idea of advocating prohibition. They now learn from Mr. Douglass that if they can only show that a sufficient number of voters want prohibition the Republican party will advocate prohibition. It is therefore clearly the policy of the Prohibitionists to stand up and be counted by voting for St. John. Only in that way can they possibly convince Mr. Douglass and the Republicans that they are numerous enough to deserve that their demands should receive attention.—New York Times.

A correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean, writing from Roanoke City, Virginia, September 12th, says: "Monday last at Martinsville, the county seat of Henry county, the Hon. I. C. Fowler, Republican, and W. Rison, of Danville, Bourbon, met for a joint discussion. Democrats insisted that Mr. Barbour's letter, known here now as 'General Order No. 2,' must be obeyed, and no joint discussion could be had. Rison thereupon took the stand, spoke for an hour and left the hall, calling on all true men opposed to Negro rule, to follow him. Some followed, but at least two-thirds of the crowd remained to hear Fowler. At once the roughs resolved to prevent Fowler from speaking, and some Danville men, two of whom had figured conspicuously in the massacre in that city, procured from a Bourbon druggist a quantity of sulphurated hydrogen gas and let it off in the densely packed hall, holding the doors closed. The effects of this poisonous preparation is well known, and a physician who was present detecting it, at once called to the audience to go into the open air. The effect was to disperse the crowd, also to compel the adjournment of the Criminal Court, which was in session up stairs in the same building. The Danville 'gang' who perpetrated this dastardly outrage came back to Danville the same night, and were received with much eclat by the Negro-butchering element of that town, to whom they had in the evening telegraphed the success of their scheme. Several persons in the hall were so much overcome by the effects of the poisonous gas, which was used in very large quantities, that they had to be dragged from the building. The men who did this thing belonged to the higher order of civilization in the State, and claim to be members of the party possessing all the wealth, virtue, good morals and intelligence.

The Emperor of Germany, in a letter conferring the Order of Merit upon Bismarck, says: "During two wars you stood by your Emperor as the most careful adviser, in your military capacity. I know your heart and soul are so much those of the soldier I hope to give you pleasure by conferring upon you this order, which your predecessors held with pride. I give myself consolation in allowing the man whom God has given me for support, who does such great things for the Fatherland, to receive also as a soldier that recognition of his services which he has so well earned."

Politeness comes from within, from the heart; but if the forms of politeness are dispensed with, the spirit and the thing itself soon die away.—Dr. John Hall.

Thirty Years Record. Endorsed by Physicians.

HUNT'S KIDNEY & LIVER REMEDY NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS LIVER BLADDER AND URINARY ORGANS DROPSY GRAVEL DIABETES BRIGHT'S DISEASE PAINS IN THE BACK LOINS OR SIDE NERVOUS DISEASES RETENTION OR NON-RETENTION OF URINE.

By the use of this REMEDY, the Stomach and Bowels speedily regain their strength, and the blood is purified.

It is pronounced by hundreds of the best doctors to be the ONLY CURE for all kinds of Kidney Diseases.

It is purely vegetable, and cures when other medicines fail.

It is prepared expressly for these diseases, and has never been known to fail. One trial will convince you. For sale by all druggists.

PRICE $1.25.

Send for Pamphlet of Testimonials.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

sept-11-1y

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez street.

New Orleans University A. F. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St. Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

EDUCATIONAL.

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course, Normal School, College of Liberal Arts, and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts.

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. T. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, La.

sept 4

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants, and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for postage. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. Mention this journal. jy17 1y.

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION: Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS: Large and well furnished.

FACULTY: Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens Thursday, September 18, 1884. For further information address

W. W. HOOPER, Holly Springs, Miss.

a28-3m

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. Address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine.

[illegible] Agriculturist. The Journal for Farmers. [illegible] Tiffany & Hill, Albany, N. Y.

may8-52 1tam

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Atheism to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tunker by Rev. Dr. C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to 1872, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	20
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Vagabond," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

32-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

ASTHMA CURED. GERMAN ASTHMA CURE. Cures by inhalation. Goes reaching the disease direct. Cures when all other remedies fail. CURES where all other remedies fail. Trial package free. Of druggists or by mail, 50 cents. Cut this out. Dr. E. SCHEFFELIN'S, St. Paul, Minn.

aug21-4m

CHAMPION LIQUID PEARL. LOTTA—It is the best preparation for the face that I ever used, and would not be without CHARLOTTE RUSSE.—It gives me pleasure to add my name to the list of those who recommend your "Liquid Pearl," and assure the satisfaction it affords me. The LIQUID PEARL has been used by the ladies of all countries with the highest marks of appreciation. Only 50 cents a bottle. By all Druggists & Perfumers, or by mail. Pamphlet free. Address, Richmond, Me.

dec28-26teo m

PATENTS

MUNN & CO., of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, for the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany, etc. Hand Book about Patents sent free. Thirty-seven years' experience. Patents obtained through MUNN & CO. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, the largest, best, and most widely circulated scientific paper. $3.20 a year. Weekly. Splendid engravings and interesting information. Specimen copy of the Scientific American sent free. Address MUNN & CO., SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN Office, 261 Broadway, New York.

dec6-tf

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

CHILDS' CATARRH

Treatment For

And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS! Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our questions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. F. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio.

feb7-1y

The Great Church LIGHT.

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, N. Y.

Central Tennessee College,

Nashville, Tennessee.

This College begins its nineteenth year on

Monday, September 8, 1884.

Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.

Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.

The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.

For catalogues or further information address the President,

REV. J. BRADEN, Nashville, Tenn.

jy31-3m

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,

THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF

CLARK UNIVERSITY.

Atlanta, Georgia,

Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.

A New and Elegant Building.

Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.

All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,

A Large and Well Selected Library,

A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.

VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.

For full Information Address,

Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean, or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President.

oct18-tf

BELLS.

The fewness of words sounds the Meanings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price.
26 inches	175 lbs	225 lbs	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs	275 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	85 00
36 "	550 lbs	900 lbs	125 00
40 "	750 lbs	1250 lbs	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1800 lbs	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$18 00
20 inches	130 lbs	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.

VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.

mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.

The Finest Grade of Church Bells

Greatest Experience. Largest Trade

Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.

Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,

TROY, N. Y.

nov29-1yr

OUR SONG WORLD

A New Book for Singing Classes, Institutes and Conventions.

By GEO. F. ROOT & C. C. CASE.

CONTAINS

The finest Elementary Lessons, both in quality and grading, that have ever appeared in any book.

The Best of simple Part Songs, Tunes and Anthems with beautiful Glees and Secular Choruses, crowned by the brilliant "Italia."

Effective Music for Class and Concert Work, from that which "sings itself," up to Gounod's "Unfold Ye Portals."

Take the book all in all and it is one that will make class teaching a pleasure and delight to Teachers and Pupils.

Price, 60cts, each by mail, postpaid; $6.00 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen Pages Free.

PUBLISHED BY

JOHN CHURCH & CO., CINCINNATI, OHIO.

AUTOMATIC

OR "NO TENSION" [illegible]

BEST AND STRONGEST SEAMS.

UNEQUALLED LIGHTNESS OF RUNNING.

AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.

Full investigation allowed to all.

Wilcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.

"THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST."

SAW MILLS ENGINES THRESHERS, Horse Powers

(For all sections and purposes.) Write for Free Pamphlet and Prices to The Aultman & Taylor Co., Mansfield, Ohio. [oc:4-1y

HARTER'S THE ONLY TRUE IRON TONIC

Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of Appetite, Digestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Sufferers from complaints peculiar to females will find it invaluable. Ask your druggist for it, and take no other. Be sure you get the genuine. Harter Medicine Co. Dr. HARTER'S BOOK, full of [illegible] and useful information, free.

may8-1y

THE WORLD'S EXPOSITION New Orleans.

Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.

—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—

United States Government.

$1,300,000,

Appropriated by the General Government.

$500,000,

Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.

$200,000,

Appropriated by Mexico.

$100,000,

Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.

$100,000,

Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.

From $5000 to $25,000,

Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.

Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World,

The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.

The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.

For information, address

E. A. BURKE, Director General, W. I. & C. C. E., New Orleans, La.

PAYSONS INDELIBLE INK

Is the BEST. No preparation. Used with any clean pen for marking any fabric. Popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial MEDAL & Diploma. Established 50 years. Sold by all Druggists, Stationers & News Agts.

may22-11t eow

ROYAL

BAKING

POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER. LESSON I. Oct. 5. COMMON SUCCEEDING DAVID. 1 Kings 1, 28 35.

The return to the study of King David, and find him "old and stricken in years." David's son, Adonijah, the brother of Absalom, was like him, not only in being a handsome man, but also in being ambitious and deceitful. He took advantage of his father's age and weakness to try and get possession of his throne. David had promised Solomon's mother that her son should be king after his death. Whether Adonijah knew this or not, he conclu[illegible] to take the kingdom himself, if he could get it. This itself proved that he was unfit to be ruler over a great people. When one tries to get [illegible] people [illegible] Lord, [illegible] people [illegible] it. [illegible] he [illegible] of the plan of [illegible] son, went with the [illegible] of Solomon to Bath[illegible] Adonijah [illegible] king. [illegible] king of the [illegible] to [illegible] mind of the [illegible] old man was still clear and strong, as he seemed to see just what was the best thing [illegible] the soul [illegible] the body, a[illegible] be [illegible] Taber!

1. What was its peculiarity?
2. Was [illegible] mountains did the [illegible]ist say would rejoice in the [illegible]
3. [illegible] times were there have [illegible]
4. Tried [illegible] the Psalmist com[illegible] the days of Enoch?
5. Or what mountain was a king [illegible] a whole na[illegible]

By Master Wm. H. Crawford, [illegible] Ark., aged 13.

1. The [illegible]sion seen on the Mount [illegible] transfiguration. 2. It [illegible] the Disciples. (The [illegible]ver is faulty. It does not [illegible] what Disciples saw Him).

Members of the Tennessee Conference

BRETHREN.—There will be [illegible] Sunday-school Insti[illegible] in connection with the ap[illegible] session of the Tennessee [illegible] at Memphis. The first [illegible] be held Tuesday, Oct. [illegible] 7.30 p. m., and sessions [illegible] on Wednesday, [illegible] and Thursday [illegible] day-school Society will be held. Let as many members of the conference as can do so be present at the first session. Bring your Sunday-school superintendent and teachers if you can. Hoping that we may have a rich meeting,

A. H. GILLET,
Agent S. S. Union.

Marriages.

Mr. Henry Dury to Miss Josephine, at Berwick City, St. Mary's, La., at the residence of Mr. Daniel Lum, Sept. 16, 1884, by Rev. H. O. Armston.

Mr. Samuel Henderson to Miss Irma Williams, at Morgan City, La., at home, Sept. 20, by Rev. H. O. Armston.

In Asbury Chapel, Natchitoches, La., Sept. 20, 1884, at 11 a. m., Mr. Nora Roberts to Miss Henrietta Pye, of Campte, La; Rev. H. J. Wright officiating. No cards.

In New Orleans, on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the bride's residence, on Lafayette street, George Wilson and Miss Sarah Richardson; Rev. M. Dale officiating.

Obituary.

Sister Polly Given died Sept. 4 in full triumph. She joined the church last year. She leaves relatives and friends to mourn her loss. A daughter of Bro. Geo. Green died Sept. 9. NELSON GRAY.

Mason Station, La.

Sister Louisa Harvy died Sept. 1. She was a church member 19 years, and was the wife of Bro. W. Harvy, one of our local preachers. She is at rest from her labors. ELIJAH CLARK

Shady Grove, La.

Walter Grigsby, a faithful member, died Sept. 7. A large number of relatives and friends mourn his loss. W. H. GALLION.

Macon, Miss.

Esther Williams, daughter of Sam and Sally Williams, aged 7 years, died after a short illness, Sept. 1. Pray that God's blessing may rest on the bereaved family.

W. H. HIGGINS.

Jacksonport, Ark.

Bro. Major Kent died in May, in full triumph. He was a faithful member of the [illegible] and a kind husband, father and neighbor. He leaves a wife, [illegible] sons and [illegible] daughters to mourn their loss. Sister Jenkins died [illegible] She died with full faith in her Savior. A mother, father, [illegible] were [illegible] remains [illegible] was erected, afterwards became a member of First Street Church, and continued her relation until death. She was the mother of [illegible] beloved by all, and leaves a son, grand-daughter and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Sister Ann Whitlock, a faithful member of First Street Church for the last 20 years, died in New Orleans Sept. 16.

T. C. MONTGOMERY

Mollie Owens, colored, who lived near Paris, Ky., died Friday night at the age of 114 years. She was born in Culpeper county, Va., in 1771, and was brought to Kentucky by Mr. Wilkerson, her Master, in 1809.—Louisville (Ky.) Bulletin.

Mrs. Georgiana Daniels died at her residence, 332 N. Prieur street in this city on Monday, Sept. 15, at 6 p. m., aged 39 years. She was the wife of Mr. Casimer Daniel, and leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss, the youngest of whom is only 18 months old. Though a Roman Catholic, her abiding faith ever rested upon the infinite love and goodness of God. She was a loving mother, a devoted wife and a faithful friend. Her last request was that her friends should continue to pray for her. A large concourse of sympathizing friends and mourning relatives attended the funeral. The [illegible] was assisted [illegible] our sympathy to the [illegible]

[illegible] Medical Journal, Chicago, says: "Parker's Tonic is the [illegible] of all this, it is that literary flesh are heir to. I have used it for digestive disorders, and for coughs, colds and pains generally. Workers on the Press, in the Law, the School and the Pulpit will find it the right thing.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

[illegible] of Brooklyn, [illegible] Electric [illegible] is worth con[illegible] any kind of goods, and we would advise those of our readers who are troubled with any of the diseases set forth in their advertisement in this issue, to which we refer you, to send for the Belt and test its merits.

SANITARIUM, Riverside, Cal. The dry climate cures. Nose, Throat, Lungs, full idea. Map, route cost free.

Mar. 27 26teow

Books and Current Literature.

Centenary Thoughts, for the pew and pulpit. The first hundred years of Episcopal Methodism, by Bishop Randolph S. Foster. The grouping of facts, illustrated by figures, the concise and philosophic statement, the purity and beauty of style and maunner, the exceeding interest of the matter, the great erudition of the writer, and his superior opportunity to know the exact truth of his affirmations, make this to the extent of its size, a work that may be relied upon as authoritative. New York: Phillips & Hunt. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe. Price $1 50.

One Little Rebel—Smith. There are a great many books now in the market, and the number is constantly increasing. Verily, of making many books there is no end. But numerous as are the books now in print, there is not only room, but a positive demand for more of a character suitable for the use of children and youth of Christian families. We must avoid trifling, sensational, and literature of a doubtful moral and religious tone on one hand, as on the other we must, if we would secure the best results for those under our care, avoid with equal energy, books of a morose, insipid and prosy nature. It is at this point we meet the demand for a more varied and extensive list of works which strike the desirable mean between these extremes. For meeting this want to a great extent, we have to thank the author of One Little Rebel, by Julia B Smith, which is a readable, spicy little book, just of the kind needed. Safe, lively, and in every line breathing a spirit of motherly gentleness which can not fail to arrest the attention, call out the thought, display the dangerous in adolescent fancy, and tone up the ideas of the class of readers intended to be benefited. In its mechanical features the book is a companion to Christinia, which we have already described, only there is more of this one. There are 17 chapters, numerous illustrations, 305 pages. Price $1. Published and for sale by Phillips & Hunt, 805 Broadway, New York. Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Outing for October is at hand looking as fresh and as useful as ever to those who are fond of the outdoor sports. The Wheelman Company, 175 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

The October Wide Awake opens with a delig[illegible] Mary E. Bradley Cheney, and [illegible] drawings of this month's issue are fine. The illustrated papers of the number are very interesting and [illegible] ing for both young and old. The new Course of the C. Y. F. R. U. starts off as the strongest series yet provided. There is also an art series, "The Making of Pictures," by Mrs. Whitman, and "The Temperance Teachings of Science," with an initial paper by Mrs. Mary A. Livermore. Only $3 a year. D. Lothrop & Co., Publishers. Boston, Mass.

Greek in English. College Greek Course in English. By William Clever Wilkinson. Seventh Thousand.

It is the object of this volume to furnish readers not versed in any language but the English with the means of obtaining at their leisure and without change of residence on their part, approximately the same knowledge of Greek letters as is imparted to students in the average American college. Not an equivalent, but a substitute in the nature of the case practicable, for college culture in Greek is what is here undertaken to be supplied. This book is the third in a series of four volumes from the same author. The five previous volumes were devoted to those parts of Greek literature and Latin respect[illegible] [illegible] candidates for [illegible] lege. Each volume of the series is so arranged as to be perfect [illegible] complete in itself, but all the volumes stand in such mutual relation, that each will be read with [illegible] in connection with its fellows in the series. The writer has realized an ideal of Dr. Vincent in his publications, and supplies a place in this kind of literature which was unoccupied until he entered it. There are great numbers of our readers who, being without the means of securing a classical course in college, will regard this as a kind of providence which has placed such a substitute within their reach. It is in a 12 mo cloth, gilt, highly illustrated, 295 pages, copious index, and a glossary of Greek proper names in the back. It is highly commended by the press, and is published and for sale by Phillips & Hunt, 805 Broadway, New York. Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, O. Price $1 25.

The October issue of The Chautauquan contains the first of a series of articles on "Good English," from Richard Grant White. The article's promise to be of unusual interest. The many admirers of Mr. White's vigorous thinking and clear expression, will be glad to hear from him again on this subject on which he is so able to write.

The Social Emancipation of the Gypsies, by James Simson, editor of Sims'n's History of the Gypsies, etc. New York: Thomas R. Knox & Co., 1884.

Our Little Men and Women for October tells of the white elephant, Queen Victoria at home, and all about Johnny. Price, $1 a year. Boston: D. Lothrop & Co.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an old East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Complaints, after having tested its curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y. j a10-19t-eow

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conference.	Place.	Time.	Bishop.
N Dakota mis Fa go, Dakot		Oct 2	Fowler
N W Georgia	Charles City, Ia	Oct 2	Hinde
Cent Tenn	Dickson, Tenn	Oct 8	Bowman
Black Hills	Deadwood City, Dak	Oct 8	Andrews
Central New York	Elmira, N Y	Oct 8	Harris
Erie	Erie, Pa	Oct 8	Warren
Genesee	Medina, N Y	Oct 8	Merrill
Minnesota	Duluth, Minn	Oct 8	Fowler
Georgia	Mount Zion, Ga	Oct 8	Warren
Arizona Mission	Phoenix, Arizona	Oct 9	Foss
New Mex Mis Society	New Mex	Oct 15	Foss
Tennessee	Memphis, Tenn	Oct 16	Bowman
Holston	Greeneville, Tenn	Oct 16	Warren
Alabama	Birmingham, Ala	Oct 16	Walden
Central Alabama	Goldendale, Ala	Oct 23	Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov 27	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec 3	Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec 4	Harris
S German	New Orleans, La	Dec 24	Harris

Okolona District—Mississippi Conference.

Fourth Round.

Greensboro	Oct.	11-12
Double Springs	"	13 14
Crawford	"	18 19
West Point circuit	"	23-24
Columbus	"	28 29
Union Grove	Nov.	1 2
Aberdeen circuit	"	6
Aberdeen at Bethesda, morning	"	8- 9
Aberdeen charge, night	"	9-10
Bethel Visit	"	16 17
Okolona	"	18 19
Okolona circuit	"	19 20
Hamilton	"	22-23
Corinth	"	25
Corinth circuit	"	26
Corinth station	"	27
New Albany	"	29 30
Ripley	Nov. 30 and Dec	1
Bonsylvania	"	3- 4
Pontotoc	"	6- 7
Tupelo	"	7- 8
Wiltford	"	10 11
Okolona circuit	"	13 14
Pamplin	"	13-14
Starkville charge	"	14-15
Columbus circuit	"	16

West Point charge at 10 o'clock a. m. December 13. District Conference at 12 m., December 13, 1884.

Dear Brethren, we have the largest district in the state; shall we not have the largest reports in the State or shall we second none. Come, brethren, what say you about this. Shall we look for every brother to bring up a good report, or let the several benevolences of our Zion be carefully provided for. Will the pastors see that the committees appointed by the several quarterly conferences do their duties. Please don't forget our district centennial educational subscription books. We shall have the programmes out by Nov. 1, if not sooner.

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Notice.

To the Members of the Tennessee Conference:

Dear Brethren—Round trip tickets at four cents per mile will be sold by the railroads as follows: On the Memphis branch of the Louisville and Great Southern Railroad, from all stations between McKenzie and Memphis, and from Paris, Tennessee River, Clarksville and Guthrie to Memphis and return; and on the Louisville, Nashville and Decatur branch, from Mitchellsville, Gallatin, Franklin, Tennessee, Ewells and Columbia to Nashville and return; and on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad round trip tickets from Doyle, McMinnville, Tullahoma, Shelbyville, Murfreesboro, Lebanon, Nashville, Dickson, Johnsonville, Huntingdon, Martin, Gardner, Union City to McKenzie.

Brethren, please buy the round trip tickets, unless you are supplied with clergyman's reduced permits.

The examining committees will meet in the church in Columbia at 10 o'clock, on Wednesday, Oct. 15. Let all members of the different classes be present for examination in the conference studies. Candidates for admission should be present by Thursday, Oct. 16th. Brethren will try to have their statistics ready to hand in the first day of the conference session.

J. BRADEN, Secretary.

Jackson Dist.—Mississippi Con.

Centennial programme to convene in Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 24 25 and 26, 1884:
The Organization of the M. E. Church—Rev J. M. Shumpert, P. E.
The Freedmen's Aid Society—Rev. J. W. Parks.
The Work of Asbury—Rev. A. Davis.
What Has the M. E. Church Done for the Colored People before the War—Rev. A. K. Davis
The Emancipation of the Slave, and His Progress—Rev. J. L. Garrett.
The Mississippi Conference—Rev. A. Handy.
Rust University and Its Needs—Rev. C. P. Hood.
The Missionary Society—Rev. B. Stuart.
Church Extension Society—Rev. R. McAlpine.
The Relation that Sunday-school Has to the Benevolence of the Church—Rev. H. W. Wallace.
Why all Members Should Have a Centennial Medal of the M. E. Church—Rev. P. H. Davis.
The Work of the Late General Conference—Hon. S. W. Lewis.
The Disciplines of the M. E. Church—Rev. E. Graves.

Miss Maggie Davis and Z. Davis of Canton, Miss., and Miss Nellie Carter, of Jackson, Miss., Miss Carrie Miller, Vicksburg, are expected to call essays to the Sunday-school. All local preachers and members and friends are earnestly requested to be there. The editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is most cordially invited to be present.

J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.
J. L. GARRETT, Secretary.

Shreveport District—La. Conf.

Fourth Round.

Columbia	Oct.	4 5
Rayneline	"	8 9
Natchitoches and Campte	Oct.	10 11-12
Arlen	Oct.	18-19
Cotile	"	25 26
Marshall and Pleasant Hill	Nov.	1 2
Coushatta	"	8 9
Grand Cane	"	15 16
Bastrop	"	21 23
Quachita City	"	29 30
Mourn	Dec.	6 7
Second and James	"	13 14
St. Paul and Fairfield	"	20 21
Dixon's Creek Rod	"	27-28

Brethren will all take notice and be ready.

S. DUNCAN, P. E.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE,
September 25, 1884.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8 7 16; Middling 9¾: Good Middling, 10 1-16; Middling fair, 10 3 16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5½; White clarified, 6@—; Common 3@4¼.

MOLASSES, in hhds, ℔ gallon—Common, 11@13; fair, 18@25; choice, 40@—c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4½@4¾; fair, 5@5¼; choice, 5¼@5½.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western, 20@25.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 9½; prime, 11¾.

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory 9

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $2.25@2.40

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4 15; Choice, 3 90; Family, 4.00.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 7¾@8¾

SALT, ℔ sack—Coarse, 75; Fine, $.95.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl, $1 60@1.70; sweet potatoes, ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl $1.50@1.75; apples, ℔ bbl. $1.00@$3.00; cabbages, $1.25@1.50 per crate; sour kraut, $4.00@4 50 per barrel

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl 13@—; linseed, raw, 62@63; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50

PROVISIONS

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $16 50

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 13; shoulders, 7@7¾; sides, short rib, 11@11½; sides, long clear 11½@11¾ hams, sugar-cured, 15@.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 10; clear sides, 10; shoulders, 6

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.25@8.50; young $2.00@$2 50; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.00@; turkeys $9.00@12.00.

Western Eggs 18@22 per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 24@26c per dozen.

Feathers—Best, live geese feathers 50@75c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Western Poultry—Grown chickens $5.00@$5 50 ℔ dozen; young do. $2.00@4.00; ducks $3.50@4.00—; geese $4.00@5.00; turkeys $12.00@15.00.

GRAIN AND FEED.

CORN, in sacks, ℔ bushel—Yellow, —; white, 66; mixed, 65.

OATS, ℔ bushel—Western, 38

BRAN, ℔ 100 lbs—Choice, 72½@75.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Bradstock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh.

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Step in, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6 50. Circulars free. se18 13t

M. E. Church Directory.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor. Services—Public worship 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class-meeting Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5.30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Prieur, two blocks above the last station. Rev. M. C. B. Mason Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday-school about 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m. and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

QUIET NIGHTS and joyous days! If the ordinary appetite of your growing child is restlessness at night, check it to Ridge's Food. It will fully nourish, regulate and prevent acidity or wind, and will bring quiet and rest to the little one, as it does not tax the digestive organs. Happy, joyous children are made ready by the use of Ridge's Food. Four sizes—35c., 65c., $1 25 and $3 65, sold by all druggists and many grocers. Send to WOOLRICH & CO., Palmer, Mass., for pamphlet.

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE for every form of SKIN & BLOOD DISEASE, from PIMPLES to SCROFULA

ITCHING, Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous, Inherited, Contagious, and Copper Colored Diseases of the Blood, Skin and Scalp, with loss of Hair, are positively cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements and removes the cause.

CUTICURA the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair.

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite, prepared from CUTICURA, is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

Sold everywhere. Price Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 25 cents; Resolvent, $1. Prepared by POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL Co., Boston, Mass.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

292.....Rampart Street.....292

(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.

All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.

sept2-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

MILLERS and FARMERS Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Cheapest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro. Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga. may22-1y

CHILDREN'S GLEE BOOK

Is a collection of new and original songs by the authors, Palmer Hartsough, J. H. Fillmore, and contributors, and is the most unique little book for children ever published. It is a book of songs arranged in a musically-progressive order, thus being equally adapted to the school-room or singing-class as well as the concert-room or home. Teachers, examine it! Children, send for a copy! Price, 30c. per copy; $3.00 per doz. Address FILLMORE BROS., 185 Race St., Cincinnati, O.

sept18 4t

AYER'S

Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists.

sep125 o nov27

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19—NO 41. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, OCTOBER 9, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 780.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,
22 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Travelling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as ordered.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter, Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES.

(For Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Veterans and chiefs in armor have we not sinned?
Shall old successes plead for peace in vain?
Behold your ranks, by annual thousands thinned,
Yourselves divided, and your children slain!
Indulgent Heaven, efface the crimson stain!
Conservation's glowing Moloch fires remove;
Our inveterate zeal, our wrath restrain;
And o'er us hovering, let the holy Dove
Bring back the olive branch, the type of peace and love.

Reader of the ADVOCATE, your letter concerning L. N. Taylor and his society can't be printed until you send us your name.

Our Little Ones and the Nursery, an illustrated magazine for little people. Published every month in the year, at $1.50 a year, by the Russell Publishing Company, 36 Bromfield street, Boston, Mass.

"Inclosed find postal order for your paper. Your paper I am a lover of good newspapers, and have a special admiration for those conducted by colored men." H. C. Weems, letter carrier 36, Louisville, Kentucky.

The October number of the Pulpit Treasury is on our table. It is a superb number both in matter and in appearance. Yearly, $2.50. Clergymen, $2.00. Single copies, 25cts. E. B. Treat, publisher, 757 Broadway, New York.

Beyond our church, as well as in all parts of it, the opinion is crystalising and gaining expression, that the SOUTHWESTERN rightly presents the cause of the interest it represents; and that it is doing good as a mediator between the races. Amen.

The new Discipline is in hand. It is a marvel of convenience and mechanical beauty. The index is full, and the references therefore made exceedingly easy. It is sold at 25 cents per copy, and ought to be in the hands of every member, officers and ministers in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

On October 2, Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D. D., preached a very interesting sermon at First Street Church. It was full of logic and eloquence, and the congregation was well pleased with his sermon, and want him to come again.—T. G. Montgomery.

Shall we raise a centennial offering of $100,000 for educational work in the South, while our friends outside of the South make it a [illegible]? Let us press the [illegible] vigorously. It can be [illegible] in grace, liberality and [illegible]. Let the work [illegible] year demonstrate [illegible].

The Journal of Civilization sends out a circular filled with Mr. Blaine's private correspondence, and the Indianapolis Sentinel sends another devoted to the publication of his family relations. In view of all of which we are led to conclude that the semi-civilization of the freedmen, so often referred to, is not so bad comparatively, after all.

The New Orleans Sugar Bowl, lately published in New Iberia, Louisiana, has taken on city airs since it came to the Metropolis. It has a handsome head and a new dress throughout. We hope it will be hereafter a more liberal and successful journal than when in its old "pent up Utica." Let its principles hereafter be as broad as the great city in which it is printed, and as the prosperity we wish it.

The tip top of hypocrisy is reached when certain colored men cry out against the deprivation of their wives and daughters of the rights enjoyed by others on public high-ways and in places of public resort, while they, themselves deny colored men the privilege of having in their barber-shops or of eating at their lunch stands, and saloons. Away with such insincerity. Let colored business men learn to treat their own race with respect, before they demand it of others.

Mr. Conkling thinks the general tendency is in the direction of the breaking up of the two leading party organizations. — Correspondent N. Y. Sun.

Mr. Conkling, whatever else he is or isn't, is generally recognized as one of the most sagacious of politicians. The stampede has begun in earnest.—The Voice.

He stands without a superior. Whether considered for his ability or his integrity, his record has not a single kink in it upon the Negro question. The magic touch of his word in New York at present would greatly clear the track.

The Central Tennessee College Singers are going to sing in the Great Southern Exposition at Louisville, Kentucky. Major Burke of the World's Exposition, at New Orleans, will have to keep an eye on Col. Young, or he will see his Bruce, and go him a Pickett better. Our judgment is that Pickett, the Negro chorister, will make equally as good a show and create quite as much of a sensation, and draw as many country colored people to the Louisville Exposition, as Bruce, the Negro register of the treasury, will bring to New Orleans. Go on with your circus, gentlemen.

The Woman at Work, published at Brattleboro, Vermont, begins its eighth volume with September as the Woman's Century. It is a name fully in harmony with the character of the magazine, which is devoted to art, literature, biography, home science, and woman's work in industries, missions, charities and reforms. Miss Frances E. Willard contributes to the number a sketch of Mary Allen West, and Kate Sanborn is announced for forthcoming papers. A beautiful engraving, "Genevieve of Brabant," with descriptive article by Fred Myron Colby, gives the magazine a fine literary stamp. 10 cents a copy. Frank E. Hosh, publisher.

The Delaware Republican State convention advanced the cause of St. John, by refusing to place a local option plank in their platform.

For the SOUTHWESTERN

The Greatness of Christ.

BY REV. P. M. CARMICHAEL.

Text—"He shall be great." Luke i. 32

He does not wear an office whose duty is neglected; but his name is faithful and true. He is no holder of a sinecure; he claims to have finished the work which his father gave him to do. He has undertaken great things, and achieved them. His people's sins were laid upon him, and he bore them up to the cross, and on the cross he made an end of them, so that they will never be mentioned against them any more forever. Then he went down into the grave and slept there for a little season; but he tore away the bars of the sepulchre and left death dead at his feet, bringing life and morality to light by the Gospel. This was his high calling, and he has fulfilled it. His victory is complete; the defeat of the foe is perfect. "O death, where is thy sting O grave, where is thy victory?" Springing up from the tomb when the appointed days were come, he opened heaven's gates to all believers according to the word. "The breakers is come up before them and their king shall pass before them, and the Lord on the head of them." As he opened the golden gates he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. He cast down a royal largess among the poores of his people that they might be enriched thereby. This was his object, and the design has been carried out without flaw or failure. Within the veil he went, our representative, to take possession of our crowns and thrones, which he holds for us to this day by the tenure of his own cross. Having made the purchase of our inheritance and paid off the heavy mortgage that lay upon it, he has taken possession of the Canaan wherein our soul shall dwell at the end of the days when we shall stand in our lot. Is it not proven that he is great? He shall be great again in the purchase of his merits. Never being had such merits as Christ. His life and death covers all his believers with a perfect obedience to the law. With royal vesture are they clad: "Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these." His blood has washed believers white as the driven snow, and his righteousness has made them to be accepted in the beloved. In infinite power to remove sin, to perfume with acceptance, to clothe with righteousness, to win blessings, to preserve saints, and to save to the uttermost, the Lord Jesus is great beyond all greatness. My theme will never be exhausted though I may be. Let me not delay to add that our Lord Jesus Christ is great in the nature of his saved ones. I do not believe in a little Christ, or a little heaven, or a little company before the throne, or a few that shall be saved. Hear you this, for I would fain reply to a misstatement that is often made, and is the last resort of those who assail the doctrines of grace. They say that we believe that God has left the great mass of his people to perish, and has arbitrarily chosen a few elect. Says Mr. Spurgeon, this is a good saying of the Baptist for we have never thought such a thing. These are the words of Mr. Spurgeon: "Oh, they say, you think that the little few who go to your little Bethel or Salem are the elect of God. That, sirs, you have invented for your own purpose, but we have never said anything of the kind." Thank God for these denials, for we rejoice to believe that as many as the stars of heaven shall the redeemed of Christ be; that as many as the sands that are upon the sea shore, even an innumerable company, are those for whom Christ has purchased, and shed his blood, that he might effectually redeem them. In all things our Lord will have pre-eminence, and this shall be in the number in the case of his followers: He shall therein vanquish his great enemy. Multitudes on earth are now pursuing their road to heaven, and greater hosts are yet to follow them. A day shall be when the people of God shall be increased exceedingly above anything that we have seen or see at the present. The seed of the Lord Jesus shall be multiplied till arithmetic shall be utterly baffled, and numeration shall fail. Brethren and sisters, the Lord Jesus shall be great, in the estimation of his people. I am sure that none of his people would give away to others in a humble sense of supreme indebtedness; but each one would say, "there is something which he has done for me which he has never done for you. There is some point of view in which he is greater to me than he is to you. I admit that there are many points in which he is greater to you than he is to me; but yet I would make winds and waves my orators, and use the whole universe to become one open mouth with which to tell out the praises of Emanuel. If all eternity would speak as though it, too, were but one tongue, yet it could not tell the charms of his love and sureness of his faithfulness and his truth. We must leave off somewhere, but truly if it be a point of our estimation of him we never can express our overwhelming sense of his honor, his excellence, his sweetness. Can you conceive the unutterable joys of the glorified? Every felicity of eternity is a song to his honor. Heaven and earth shall yet be full of the outshinings of his glory. Truly he is great, and shall be great eternally, great in heaven. But O, brethren, how great Christ will be in the glory of heaven. We have never seen that. Some of us shall see it full soon.

For we are in the border land,
The heavenly country's near at hand;
A step is all 'twixt us and rest,
E'en now we converse with the blest.

But the greatness of Christ in heaven, surely this is the grand sight for which we long to go to heaven; that we may behold his glory, "The glory which he had with the Father before the world was," and the glory that he has gained by his service of the father here below. Has he not said, "Father, I will that they, also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory." What honor and majesty surround our Prince in the metropolis of his empire! But I must not, dare not try to touch upon the glory of Christ upon the throne of his Father. Certain great divines have written upon the glory of Christ, but I will warrant you that when they died and went to heaven they half wished that they could come back again to amend their most glowing pages. Ah, me! what can ignorance say of the all-wise? The heavens are now telling the glory of our Lord, but the half of it will never be told throughout ages of ages. Assuredly, concerning our adorable Lord Jesus, it is true "He shall be great."

Now, by your leave, I will turn the subject around a little. Look at it in another light. "He shall be great," and he is so, for he deals with great things. He is a Savior, and a great one. As I have already said, it was a great ruin which he came to restore. The wind came from the abyss and smote the four corners of the house of mankind or of manhood, and it fell and lay long. Devils laughed and triumphed as they saw God's handiwork despoiled; human nature sank into shame; paradise was blasted, sin was triumphant, and the fiery sword was set at Eden's gate to exclude us. It was a hideous ruin; but oh, when Christ came he brought a great salvation. He came to prepare a better paradise, and to plant in it a better tree of life, and give us possession of it upon a better tenure than before. Oh, he is a great Savior; he wrought among the chaos of the fall, and restored what Adam had destroyed. And, beloved, we were covered with great sin. Some of us especially so. But "he shall be great," and therefore he makes short work of our great sins. Great sinners, what a joy it ought to be to you to think that he is great, therefore has come to rescue such as you are, and deal with such difficulties as beset and surround you; for what if sin be great, his arrangement for its removal is great too. Look there at Calvary, and if you can see through your blinding tears behold the sacrifice he offered once for "to put away sin." We have none of us due conception of the grandeur of that vicarious offering which at once and forever made an end of sin. Think of it carefully and in detail. Count it no light thing that he was the Father's equal, that he was pure and perfect in both natures, and became a cure for us, and was made sin for us, and presented himself as a victim to justice on our behalf. This is a wonder among wonders, as much exceeding miracle as miracle exceeds the most common-place facts; it overtops the highest Alps of thought, that he who was offended should expiate the offence; he who was perfect should suffer punishment; he who was all goodness should "be made sin;" and he who was all love should be forsaken for the God of love. What merit and majesty are found in his glorious oblation! Great is the sin, but greater the sacrifice. The atonement has covered the guilt of the world and left a margin of abounding righteousness. Great pardon is to be had, so great that it utterly annihilates the sin. Pardon so great that the sin is cast behind Jehovah's back while the pardon rings perpetual notes of joy and peace in the soul.

"His the pardon, ours the sin,
Great the sin, the pardon great;
Great His good which healed our ill,
Great His love which killed our hate."

He shall be great indeed who has wrought so great a salvation for us.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Waiting.

BY MRS. MAMIE BALTIMORE.

There are many indefatigable workers in this world, but comparatively few that understand the philosophy of waiting. To wait patiently, seems antagonistic to our very natures. We enter the world impatiently crying, and often leave it as foolishly; while all through life we are no sooner furnished with one toy than we clamor for another. Grown people smile complacently at the little child, planting with tiny hand his little garden, and running back and forth each moment to see if the posies are up. They forget they too have planted and are anxiously and prematurely waiting for bloom and fruitage.

Many of the evils peculiar to the present age are the outgrowth of an increasing impatience for results. What is spiritualism, but an impatient desire to penetrate into the mysteries of the beyond? What are many of the giant speculations in which fortunes are made and lost in a day, but the inability to wait for the accumulation of small gains, derived from legitimate business? What is the reason that time, health, and culture, are sacrificed by many upon the altar of fashion, but that it seems a short cut to the society of the wealthy and influential? Why, too, once more we ask, is every department of life filled with incompetency and pretension, only that it is easier to seem than to wait, taking time, trouble and means to be in reality what we profess? "'Tis strange, 'tis passing strange;" that with countless illustrations, written by the hand of God in the Book of Nature and Revelation, we not only fail to learn the lesson, but find it more difficult of apprehension with increasing light. It is true, there have been notable exceptions to this rule from the time of Noah to the present age; but the most of us pluck hastily and unwisely, like our mother Eve before us. It is also true that the grandest and most useful discoveries and invention, the noblest works of art, the deepest researches of science and philosophy, have been wrung from the secret laboratory of Nature by those who could wait as well as work. We as a prosperous people of the New World, ought certainly to feel thankful that our illustrious discover could wait through weary years until an appropriate moment arrived for action.

Most people would have given the project up long before the "waiting time" was over and, turned their attention to something that promised speedier results. In that case our fair land, teeming with an enlightened, enterprising people, employing gigantic schemes of progress, might still be buried in oblivion, while the old world jogged on as heedless of the prize beyond the waters, as she had already been for more than five thousand years. Aside from the loss we sustained in not being able to wait as well as work for the prize of life, many are the evils we call down upon ourselves by our impatient spirit.

Insanity, a disease almost unknown to the ancients, is increasing with fearful rapidity among all civilized nations. Many causes no doubt contribute to its development, but they usually take their rise from the impatient, grasping spirit of the age.

Suicide, too, stalks through the land cutting off those who cannot wait the coming morrow of sunlight, but rashly follow the wretched advice of Job's wife "to curse God and die." As for murder, that universal fiend of all climes and times, too well we know your greedy thirst for gold, for power, for vengeance. The smile of the infant, the prayer of the maiden, the pleading of the feeble, together with the sweet ties of kinship and friendship, all, all are alike unavailing to stay your ruthless hand.

In conclusion we would observe, that since it is evidently a part of the Divine plan that we should wait as well as work, let us endeavor to wait patiently as becometh finite beings, dependent upon Infinity; thereupon making that promise ours which says that such "shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint."

Lexington, Kentucky.

From the Districts.

Seed sown by the water, and bread gathered after many days.

Jeffersonville, Indiana: Dr. Tayler, Rev. Dear Brother—In the last sermon that I heard you preach, you said, so brotherly and Christlike: "Brothers, save souls for Christ." I knew it was my duty to do so, but I was never so impressed as I was on that morning. These words ring in my ear day and night—save souls for Christ. When you gave me your last brotherly greetings at the wharf in Jeffersonville, as you gave me your hand, it seemed to me as if your hand shook the sentiments of your heart. Brother, save souls for Christ. I returned to my home, and the next week I left for my district, carrying your words "Brothers, save souls for Christ." Now for the result. Since you said those words up to date, Sept. 20, 1884, this is the number that have been brought to CHRIST AND HIS SAVIOR: Hartford, 35; Lisbon, 24; Auburn, 1. I am trying to save souls for Christ in all my quarterly meetings.

ABRAHAM BOOKER.

Franklin, Tennessee, Aug. 10, 1884: Our third quarterly meeting was held June 21-22. Presiding Elder James Pickett was at his post, full of sunshine. All leaders were present with good reports. Collection $18.25. We have just closed a meeting with six converts. Seven joined the church. We have a very good Sunday-school.

H. PRIMM.

Palestine, Texas, Sept. 18, 1884: Brethren, are you pushing the benevolent collections? Remember, I have been bringing this subject up in all the quarters from the first until the present. The reason I write is that the Annual Conference meets Nov. 20th. I know, brethren, times are hard and money scarce on account of the drouth. In some of the farms the farmers have to pick over six and eight acres of land for one bale of cotton. But that is no reason why some benevolent money should not be brought up to conference. Bring the subject up before the people in the quarterly conference. Brethren, think of the benevolent collections, and come up to conference like ministers of Christ, with missionary money in your pocket books.

GEO. W. SMITH, P. E.

Columbus, Texas, Aug. 28, 1884: Mr. Editor—I wish to say a few words more about the work on my district. At Columbus there have been 28 conversions. On the Caney work there have been 4 conversions and about 16 added to the church. On the Boxville and Wellersburg work there have been 25 conversions, and about the same added to the church, notwithstanding all that our African brethren could say against us down there. On the Pistonia and Schulenburg work there is being done some good; there have been added to the Church at these two places recently seven souls, and on Buckner's Circuit, about 13 miles north of Pistonia, there have been 11 conversions, and a society of about 25 organized. At Industry we have had 7 conversions and more accessions to the church. On the Lulling work there have been 102 conversions together with back-sliders, and there 112 added to the church. Lockhart has not been taken up. About 45 souls have been brought into the fold by our ministry. The Oakland and Brown's Chapel circuit have been moving on toward the Kingdom, also; there have been about 73 souls converted on this work and added to the church. Columbus circuit is alive with about 23 converts to swell the number. Weimar has had 6 conversions, and about 10 additions. So we have on our district 260 conversions and backsliders besides those that joined the other churches, and nearly all of the remains with us. Thus we see that we are not dead spiritually, neither are we financially. Almost every preacher has raised all the benevolent money, although times are hard. Now, may God bless the dear preachers and people on the Columbus district, and may they raise all they were asked to raise. The district conference convenes on the 18th prox; be on hand. Remember there is to be added to the present assessment for bishops 15 per cent. more for the two additional bishops, whose expenses will be $2,000 the remainder of the year from June. Please raise it with the rest and bring it with you.

P. M. CARMICHAEL.

The Palestine district, Texas conference, met in their house of worship in Palestine August 14th 1884, at 9 a. m., Elder G. W. Smith in the chair. After the usual devotional exercises by the elder, the conference proceeded to business. A Taylor was elected secretary; R. K. Whiting assistant. The appointment of committees and other preliminary matters were attended to. There was a good literary programme well executed.

Conference appointed a commissioner to look after deeds of church property. The presiding elders' and pastors' reports show that the district was in a prosperous condition, both spiritual and temporal. The reports of local preachers are very encouraging; exhorters also show by their reports that they are determined to be men of God. J. H. Stephens, of Wiley University, was introduced and by request of the president, delivered an excellent address on the rise of Methodism. The following resolutions were offered by R. K. Whiting.

Resolved, That we will build in the city of Tyler a home for the presiding elder of the district.

Resolved, That it be deeded to the church as a home of the presiding elder of this district from this time to him.

F. M. Fayal of the Congregational Church was introduced and gave a talk on the spiritual growth of colored churches since the war.

Resolved, That each preacher in charge of the Palestine district have the power, with the concurrence of any preacher of said district, to place and lay out the work of local preachers; and that each local preacher be required to comply with the appointments.

Resolved, That the exhorters of the Palestine district only be required to conduct prayer meeting at the beginning of public worship.

THE CHARACTERS OF LOCAL PREACHERS.

Jewett circuit.—Characters passed: J. B. Biggers, P. Warmarck, A. McDaniel, J. Gubels. On motion J. Gubels and his four years study passed and is exempt from further examination. A. Albert, W. Henry and J. Allen, characters passed.

Fairfield.—N. Blam, character passed; R. Thurman, character passed but left without license; J. Averyhart, character passed; W. Armstrong, character passed but left without license; L. Johns, character; B. Turner, character passed but left without license; J. Jones, character passed.

Cotton Gin circuit—H. Thomas, and W. Gull, characters passed. The case, of D. Syus was referred to, also S. Gambels, the preacher in charge. The renewal of S. Tinsley's license was put off until he quits getting drunk. D. Johnson, character passed but left without license; S. Gambel, character passed and on motion was exempted from further examination.

Jacksonville circuit—R. Patterson and R. Franklin, characters passed.

Mineola—J. Lucy and R. Walton, character passed.

Palestine Station—G. Godd and B. Davis, characters passed.

Crockett Station—M. Gerry and J. Bailey, characters passed.

Madison circuit—Henry Polk and M. J. Jackson, characters passed.

Leona circuit—F. R. Morton, character passed; G. Lanygrum, character passed; J. Holy, character passed; S. Middleton, character passed; L. Hunter, character passed; A. Arnold, character passed; A. Draden, character passed; Wm. Bartley, character passed; J. Washington, character passed; A. Harris, character passed; F. Johnson, character passed.

Those who are recommended for the traveling connection:

On motion, William Bartley, J. W. Washington, R. Patterson, A. Draden, T. Wamnrck, A. Arnold, were recommended to the traveling connection. The next district meeting will be at Butler.

Rev. W. B. Pullam, presiding elder writes: "District conference was opened by the Rev. W. B. Pullam, presiding elder at Hearn, Texas, September 10th, '84. The usual religious services were held. The writer was elected secretary with the following assistants, Revs. J. E. Shackelford, Thomas Cole and B. M. Taylor. The roll was called and the larger part of the pastors were present, also local preachers, exhorters, Sunday-school superintendents, district stewards and class leaders. The first session was taken up in appointing a committee and hearing reports first from the presiding elder and pastors.

The presiding elder's report was a grand one. He reported the district in a growing condition, both spiritually and temperately; in said report of presiding elder showing improvments on the district, such as church building at Plantersville, Caldwell, Hearn, Franklin, Brenham circuit, Patterson, Seally, Millican, and Prairie Plains. He also reports the spiritual condition good. Over the districts, more than one hundred conversions during the year and more than one and fifty probationers received during the year; outside of the full members received. Notwithstanding some difficulties have occurred on the charges, and charges had to be abanoon holding meeting for more than three weeks, such as Hempstead and Patterson and other places, more than four men were killed at the former place in 24 hours.

The pastor's reports were next called for, all pastors present except Revs. F. D. Bookman and S. Allen. Those presented good reports, considering the hardness of times.

The evening was devoted to conference business. The committee on literary exercises did not send to the press the exercises in time enough for publication, and the notice from the editor, concerning their lateness, was read before the conference.

Second day, was devoted to hearing reports from local preachers. We have to say that some of these men have done good work in their Master's vineyard during the year. We are convinced to know, that God has called some of these brothers, from the fact of the work of progress made by them and sustained by the pastors of the several charges.

Then followed the reports from the exhorters. They also, in some cases, have done good work, while some of them have done nothing and have gone and hid the Lord's money, and charging Him with being an unjust man, reaping where He has not sown, like many unfaithful Christians, charging our God with slothful ways; but others came forward and answered by saying here is me, send me, send me.

Then comes the reports from class leaders, stewards and superintendents. Then came the reports from district stewards; their reports were favorably good, with all the hardness of times.

The Rev. C. W. Campbell, of the Honston Seminary, was introduced into the conference and he addressed the company in the interest of the Seminary, showing its great need of a larger house for students, and the amount needed for said purpose; and we are sorry to say that the district is so impoverished by the dronth that she cannot do much in any way this time, but great many brethren promised to raise 25 cents from each member on their charges, by the Annual Conference for said building. Bro. Campbell was wisled in his mind concerning the district conference, thinking said conference was in session at Navasota instead of Hearn. We can always welcome such Christians as C. W. Campbell, he is doing good work at the Seminary, and may the spirit of peace follow him.

Next comes the reports from the Sunday-school superintendent. The reports concerning Sunday schools shows growth in Sunday-schools with children and teachers. The most favorable that was ever listened to was that of Brenham, Hearn and Navasota. Miss Branch, of Brenham, has the best Sunday school on the district, and Navasota second; while Navasota has not forgotten the children, Hearn walks away with the prize. Hempstead don't murmur nor complain beneath the framers of satan's arts, while Millican is looking about, amidst the forest. Bryan carried the Sunday-school convention there to let people of other denominations know that the Methodist Episcopal Church is not dead as supposed.

Rev. B. P. Toley, of Missiouri conference, was introduced to the conference. Class leaders' reports were next called for and they reported classes over there prospering; who are requiring temporarily, and want to be helped. Rev. O. W. Campbell, not having enough means to take him home, the secretary addressed the conference in behalf of Bro. Campbell, and the conference donated $3 for this Christian minister of God.

4th question.—The following brethren were recommended for orders: W. B. Jackson, J. H. Hollins, Dewitt Frierson, L. Snell and J. A. Tillery.

6th question.—The following persons were recommended to traveling connection: Mark Muldrew, E. D. Blackwell, S. Bolden, S. J. Hogan, J. H. Tillery.

Charges were brought against the secretary for expelling a member from the church for dishonesty, a committee found the secretary not guilty and the charges were sustained. Now Bro. pay for the SOUTHWESTERN you have taken all the year. God helps us to do when we are right, as David Crockett said: "know you are right, then go ahead."

Resolution was offered in behalf of a Sunday-school convention, on Navasota district for said convention to meet at Bryant, October 24-26th. Bryant was nominated by acclamation for Sunday school convention; said convention is proving great good for the Navasota district. Sister I. Howells was present at the conference, and she is looking as promising in health as ever. Many hearts were made glad by the lecture she gave in the interest of the Woman's Home Mission Work. The presiding elder, responded in behalf of Christian women throughout the district.

Resolutions were offered by the secretary as follows:

Whereas, The Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D. D. has been elected editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, at the General Conference; be it

Resolved, That every local preacher and exhorter in Navasota district, shall take the SOUTHWESTERN and assist his pastor in getting subscribers for for said paper for the ensuing year.

Rev. B. P. Toley, of Missouri, was given Saturday evening session of the conference, to lecture on the interest of the Preachers Aid Society. A large number gathered to witness his lecture. It was given up that said Society would do the colored people more good than any other of its kind in the United States.

Huntsville, Central Alabama Conference, August 30th, 1884—This district conference met in the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Huntsville, August 28 30, Rev. A. S. Lakin, presiding elder in chair, by whom a fervent religious service was conducted.

Rev. M. M. McKinney called the roll and 38 members responded. He was afterwards elected secretary with G. W. Allen, assistant.

The presiding elder reported his district by circuits, each in a good spiritual condition but financially depressed.

Rev. John Kemp, of the C. M. E. Church, and others were introduced. Some names were not received by the secretary.

The district stewards reported $103 92 as paid to the presiding elder.

The superintendents made their reports showing 450 children in the Sunday-schools of the district. It was resolved that local preachers, who fail to pass their studies, be continued in the same books for future examination before the district conference.

Rev. J. C. Simmons, was recommended for admission, on trial, in the traveling connection. The following local preachers were discontinued—Isaiah Jones, Egbert Wiggins, Frank King, Carry Batts, James Gray, James Neal, Spot Lumpkins, Peter Armstorng, John Wright, Pascal Dunnegan, Andrew Jackson and George Washington. Exhorters—Bentley Dunnegan and Emannel McDonald.

M. M. MCKINNEY, Sec.

Argenta District, Little Rock Conference, Sept. 5, 1884—Rev. G. W. Sams, presiding elder, writes: Notwithstanding I have been sick all of this year so as to not be able to do near as much work as heretofore, and having to go to the General Conference, I have been able to hold and caused to be held two full rounds of quarterly conference meetings, though I have made a little over one round myself. Our work in the district is doing well under the circumstances. The brethren went to work just after the conference was over, and raised their part of the General Conference expense except $2. We commenced in the early part of the year to raise our benevolent monies, so we hope to be able to raise every dollar that we are assessed. We resolved to try to raise at least 50 cents from each member of our church throughout our conference to institute a scholarship fund in Philander Smith College. So we are holding centennial meetings all over the district as far as possible, and are taking the subscription, in view of collecting every cent by the 24th of December next. There have been revival meetings held in most all of the charges, and quite a good number have been converted and added to the church. We are trying to do our duty as far as we know it. The Argenta circuit is in better condition at this time, spiritually, than it has been for some time.

Alma is a new field, comparatively speaking. We have no church property at this place. We are raising money to buy ground on which to build a church, and have succeeded in raising quite enough to pay for a church lot. The membership here is small, but they are courageous, and are doing their utmost to succeed. Bro. U. S. Kitchens is pastor at this place, and he is ably looking after the interests of the church.

Batesville—Bro. G. W. Taylor, pastor. This charge is doing very well under the circumstances. It is a very large circuit and is inconvenient to travel, but Bro. Taylor is manning it very well.

Conway and Morrilton—This circuit is destined to be one of the best fields in our conference, after awhile, if it is properly cared for. The people in the bounds of this work are, as a general thing, newcomers to this State. They have come to the State for the purpose of getting homes. So they are obtaining homes, and when they get them paid for and improved, then they will be able, and not only so, but will take care of the church and preachers. Bro. A. L. Richardson, the faithful pastor, is a young man, and has acquired education enough to enable him to secure a first grade certificate, and is teaching the public school in his community. He does this and keeps up a circuit of seven preaching places. There have been quite a lot of conversions and accessions to the church on this work this year.

The Fayetteville station is next in order. This charge is in an excellent fix, both spiritually and financially. Bro. A. J. Phillips, who is pastor, has been faithful. Quite a number have been converted and joined the church. They have completed and paid out of debt the new church which was only commenced one year ago last March. This is one of the best stations in the conference.

The Fayetteville circuit, Bro. R. Boone pastor, is enjoying abundance of success this year. Bro. Boone is a torment to sinners. He seldom lets one pass without a word as to how the case stands with him and his God.

Fort Smith—This place is well fortified by A. M. E.'s and Baptists. They have tried to keep us out all the while, and have succeeded, because we have had no place in which to hold service. Bro. F. Wallace, the pastor there, is trying to obviate this difficulty by raising money to buy a lot of ground, on which to build a church. Bro. Wallace is preaching three miles in the country, and has a few members. We hope to be able to advance on this place soon.

The Little Rock circuit—Under the faithful pastorate of Bro. J. D. Johnson is enjoying a gracious revival spirit, and has been all the spring and summer season. The Baptists have been made to quake and tremble, and in spite of all they could do Bro. Johnson has taken in some of their ducks and chickenized them.

Jacksonport and Newport—Bro. W. H. Higgins, pastor, has had many disadvantages to labor against, but he has and is succeeding some. He is, at this writing, in the midst of a revival which is resulting to much good.

Russellville—This is a new field, and is the centre of a very long stretch between Morrilton and Alma, on the L. R. & F. S. R. R. The prospects for our church are good. This work was left to be supplied. I supplied it with Bro. H. McDonald, who went at once and took charge soon after conference. He has succeeded in gathering up about 25 members in the bounds of this work.

Sweet Home—Under the pastorate of Bro. B. McCain is doing well. Bro. McCain has held revival meetings at nearly all of his preaching places, each of which resulted in much good. Bro. McCain, like all of the other brethren, is beloved by his people. He is building up the work.

Van Buren—Under the pastorate of Bro. W. H. Crawford, is doing very well this year. He is hard at work raising money to build a parsonage by the time our next conference meets.

West Tennessee District Conference, Aug. 26, 1884—The conference convened in Paris, Tenn., Aug. 26, 1884, in Union Chapel, M. E. Church. The opening sermon was preached by E. M. Manson, showing the mission of the Church. The first day the conference was organized, with J. P. Price, P. E., in the chair, and E. M. Manson Secretary. The regular committees were appointed, and the business of the conference was carried on with accuracy. On making out the roll all the pastors were present but two. J. P. Price, P. E., read his report, and stated the condition of the work under his charge good, spiritually, but dull financially. The report also showed that he had to travel night and day to meet the demands of the church, and at a great sacrifice of time and money. Nevertheless, counting not his life dear unto himself, he rejoiced that God had given him the strength to accomplish the work. The pastors reported the religious condition of the various charges medium; the most of them have had revivals, with moderate success. The following is the amount collected for the benevolences of the Church: Missionary, $93 05; Church Extension, $64 70; Freedmen's Aid, $6.90; Sunday-school Union, $12.15; Education, $28 55; Tract, $2.20; Bible Cause, $1.60. The district steward's reports showed that the temporal condition of their charges was in a prospering condition. Paid Bishop $10; presiding elder, $206.85; pastor, $1474.55; on building and improving churches, $—. Our Church periodicals were not forgotten. The local preachers and exhorters were looked after, both as to their gifts and usefulness. There were no charges presented. A few complaints were made against some of the local preachers for the non-payment of debts. They not being present, their cases were referred to the next quarterly conference in that charge. The licenses of local preachers were renewed conditionally, that is if they bring up the prescribed course of study. Thomas White, Gibson Fitz and James Price were licensed to preach. Also Payton Burckle and Andrew Porter were recommended for admission into the traveling connection and ordination; John Gaston for the recognition of orders. The appointments of the local preachers and exhorters were left in the hands of their pastors. All the preachers of the conference responded to their subject. The different pulpits were supplied with our ministers on the Sabbath. The following is a resolution offered on the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE:

We, the members of the West Tennessee District Conference, now assembled, concur in the wisdom of the last General Conference in electing M. W. Taylor as editor of the SOUTHWESTERN; therefore be it

Resolved, That we give him our best wishes for success, and pledge ourselves to do all in our power to make it a grand success to church and people.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the General Conference in its wisdom for letting the name of Freedmen's Aid [illegible] remain.

A resolution on education:

Whereas, The M. E. Church has always fostered education, and has done this for all her people through her Freedmen's Aid Society; she has established scores of high [illegible], colleges and [illegible] for the colored people; and thousands of students have been educated at these schools, and hundreds of thousands of our people have been benefited by them. We rejoice in the fact that we have in our midst the [illegible] Tennessee College, which has educated thousands of our people, scores of our ministers and teachers and physicians who have blessed the people where they have labored.

The school at Athens has been doing a good work, and we rejoice in its continued prosperity under Prof. [illegible] Alexander. We are glad that our school at Lawrenceburg has, although young, a vigorous growth, and is doing good in the work of educating the people. We [illegible] our people to [illegible] schools, and to educate their young in our own schools. We [illegible] young men who are looking forward to the ministry to go to school and get at least a fair English education, and as far as possible to attend the Theological Department of the Central Tennessee College, and we, as a district conference, urge the people in our bounds and living near to the Mason and Lawrenceburg schools to sustain these schools, and help to build up and strengthen them.

Our Sunday-school Institute was held in connection with the conference. Dr. J. Braden, President of the Central Tennessee College, was with us and gave several profitable and interesting lectures. He also preached the Missionary sermon on Saturday night to a crowded house and well behaved audience. The Institute was well attended by the people of Paris and vicinity, all of whom seemed to be interested in the topics discussed. We wound up on Sabbath with the lesson, and Dr. Braden gave a short exhortation on the same. The conference love feast was one that will never be forgotten by all who were present to witness it, for there were so many that expressed their love for Christ and the Church, until it seemed nothing less than the house of God and the gate of heaven to our souls. One sister said that she was trying to find Christ for 18 years, and did think there was no religion for her, and the thought came to her if she could not get religion she would build a house for the Lord, and now, thank God, I am a child of God. We had eight to profess faith in Christ during the [illegible], and 14 joined the [illegible] all of the ministers [illegible] for the Master. [illegible] The people of [illegible] in their power to make us happy, and we did all we could to make them happy.

E. M. MASSON, Secretary.

Natchitoches, La.—S. Duncan, presiding elder, writes: "The condition of the district is fair. At Cotile Bro. Patterson continues to hold the fort, though this has been an unfavorable year. He has completed the church and parsonage. Sunday-school is in a thriving condition.

Robelene—Bro. Wallace is moving on slowly, but we trust he will succeed. He has been fortunate enough to have received a lot for the church and parsonage, given by Mr. James McCook. The people are very poor in this vicinity. If we could get some aid from the Church Extension we are conscious we would soon be able to erect a building. He has been successful in adding some souls to the church this year.

Columbia—Bro. Butler, a young embassador of the Lord, is doing a grand work in this place. He has had about thirty or more converts this year, and also he has completed his church, and is building up the people in general. He is beloved by all of his congregation.

Allenville—Bro. Hason, though he has had a pretty hard time in regard to finances this year, the Lord has blessed him with ten converts, and he is moving along pretty well. He is making preparations to build a church at Marthaville.

Natchitoches—H. J. Wright is doing a grand work. He is one of the most successful laborers on the district. He has painted his church both within and without, and also the fence and parsonage. The Lord is blessing him wonderfully, and he has completed the church at New Town.

Campte—S. S. Wright. He is in the line of progress, and doing a good work for the Master. He has had some converts and some accessions to the church this year.

Coushatta—D. Shelby we are glad to say is in the line of triumph. He has had 25 conversions, and the church is spiritually Alive. The Sunday-school is doing very well.

Mansfield—One of our popular appointments. Rev. Frank Walker is moving along slowly under some disadvantages. He is struggling to get his salary, and says then he will work on the church.

Grand Cane—C. Crockett. He is having a glorious time this year. He has finished the church and built a nice pulpit. He is now in debt about $60, owing to the hard year. We would be glad if we could find some of our Northern friends to donate the amount and rid Bro. Crockett of his burden.

Pleasant Hill—A. J. Pickett, pastor, is closing his third year with grand success. I was in a camp meeting with him the 21st inst., commencing the 17th inst. The first sermon was preached by Rev. Parvin, of the O. M. E. Church. We had a mixed congregation—between 75 and 90 whites. The meeting was closed with a grand love feast, and the whites participated. Among the number of whites who participated were: Mr. H. J. Davis and family. Mrs. Davis presented a handsome pound cake to the ministers. Mr. Davis gave 49 pounds of flour, etc., for the support of the meeting.

Fairfield—F. Harvey, pastor, is closing up his year with success. He has repaired one of his churches, and many souls have been converted through his instrumentality.

St. James, Shreveport—C. Thompson, pastor. He is having a progressive year financially. He has paid an old debt on the parsonage to the amount of $150, and he has furnished the parsonage with good furniture. He is beloved by his congregation.

St. Paul is one of our first class appointments. We are glad to say Bro. R. Thompson is closing up his third year with very good success. He has had five or six conversions.

Dixon Cross Road—John Fopp, pastor. He is having a favorable year. He received ten on probation and four converts when I was with him. We hope the conference will appoint Bro. Fopp as a missionary from Minden to Monroe, to establish our work along the new road.

St. James, Monroe—V. Chapman, pastor. He has done a grand work this year. He has raised about $180 for the repair of his church. Twelve or thirteen converts and a splendid Sunday-school. He will begin to repair next month. We trust that he will be able to entertain the Annual Conference next year.

Bastrop—Rev. P. B. McDonald, pastor, one of our young men, is quite successful. He has had 25 converts and 50 added to the church. We administered the Lord's supper to about 196 at the second quarter. He is making preparations to build a church at Bichelle. We hope he will accomplish it this year. He has $38 on hand.

Scott Circuit—Rev. A. Spears, pastor. He has had quite a drawback this year. Owing to the overflow his members had to receive support from the Government. But the Lord has blessed him. He has built a new church, and is now raising a subscription to erect one of his churches that was blown down by a storm. He has had some converts also.

Ouachita City—George Washington, pastor. He is now closing up his third year, holding his own.

Letters from the Pastors.

Pleasant Hill, La.—Rev. A. J. Pickett writes: "A camp meeting commenced on the 7th inst. The introductory sermon was delivered by the Rev. Parvin, of the M. E. Church South. We were assisted by the following ministers: Revs. Edward Powell, of Alexandria; Frank Walker, of Mansfield; David Shelby, of Coushatta; S. R. Hasting, of Allen; S. Duncan, presiding elder of Shreveport District. Out of 25 mourners 16 were converted and added to the church. Many members of the Southern M. E. Church participated in the love feast on Sunday. Mr. H. J. Davis and family contributed toward the support of the ministers during the meeting. Mrs. Davis kindly presented us a pound cake. About 75 persons from Mansfield were in attendance, among whom was sister M. J. Wilson, of the Home Missionary Society."

Houston, Tex., Sept. 4, 1884—R. R. Roberts writes: "We commenced a protracted meeting a few weeks since, assisted by the following brethren: Revs. W. H. Logan, of Trinity Church; M. Reddick, of St. James; P. H. Phenix, of St. Paul A. M. Church; Rev. Williard, of the New Mission A. M. E; A. Harris, of Sloan Street Church; and of course the members of our own church. The result is that 40 souls have been converted to the Lord, while 60 have been added to the church; so that we now have a total membership of 200 persons, with a Sunday school of 40 scholars and ten teachers. The presiding elder will hold his fourth quarterly conference on Sept. 19 20."

Bro. Hilton writes from White Hall: "We have built a nice parsonage notwithstanding the hard times. Enclosed find $4.25 for subscribers to the SOUTHWESTERN."

Lockhart, Texas—Rev. H. Harris writes: "We have just closed our third quarterly meeting, and had a nice time spiritually. Our Children's Day collection was not very good; only $4.55."

Millican, Texas—Rev. J. L. Smith writes: We had a camp meeting numerously attended by ministers and members of our own and other churches. They passed resolutions in favor of general education, instructing the church officers to lay this action before the members; endorsing the SOUTHWESTERN; thanking the General Conference for its action with reference to it, and endorsing the editor; favoring Houston Texas Seminary, and thanking the pastor for his manly efforts in conducting the meeting; also to the ministers who assisted him in the pulpit and otherwise."

Kilmichael, Miss.—W. P. Armistead writes: "We had a good time in our protracted meeting. Rev. J. C. Hunster, of Winona, was with us three days. Ten conversions. We need your paper in our midst, and we want your paper in behalf of our church and Sunday-school. Collection $1.10."

Meridian, Miss.—J. D. Walden writes: "Our Children's Day was a success. We had several friends with us, and there was a large attendance. Every one seemed to enjoy it both spiritually and financially. Collection for the day $16.30."

Anderson, Texas—Rev. D. Frierson writes: "My protracted meeting closed on the 16th of August with four conversions and 26 additions. I have received ten in full membership. Rev. W. B. Pullam, the presiding elder, was with us, and held our third quarterly conference Aug. 5th. Seventy four received the communion. Paid presiding elder $10; pastor, $52."

Holly Springs Circuit, Miss.—Rev. H. Williams writes: "Contains three churches on this work, all spiritually and financially prosperous. We expect to build at two points. We have material to strengthen Calvin chapel. A parsonage was been secured, and the Sunday Schools are all lively. Our children's day exercises resulted in a collection of $2 05; most of our benevolent money is raised, and we are aiming by a Centenary Concert to assist in raising an endowment for Rust University. We have had twenty accessions. Our protracted meeting at Zion Church has just been closed, the Lord met and blessed us there in the conversion of fourteen souls; I have never witnessed a better time in a revival. Pray for us."

Ashville, Ala.—B. G. Williams, Esq., superintendent of the Sunday School, writes: "We have been for the last three years under Rev. J. S. Todd. We are very anxious to erect a church here in town, they are now quite far apart, with small membership and congregation. He has been faithfully at work in the midst of many opposers. We have been in revival for a week and are greatly blessed, thirty-five have been added to the church—our membership is 110."

Rockport, Ind.—William Jamison writes: "We have a grand revival going on. Four conversions, five additions, and ten seekers at the altar. Collections $350 since conference."

Dekalb, Miss.—William Grady writes: "We are gathered in love, and are moving in the Spirit. We have two churches building. Our Sunday School is prosperous. On Childrens' Day we met and had a nice time."

Tampico Circuit, Miss.—Rev. B. H. F. Ferguson writes: "We have just closed our protracted meetings at four points. Our meeting has been a great success. There were sixty six conversions and seventy-eight added to the Church. Bro. I. B. Griffin assisted on several occassions preaching some fine and effective sermons. Our work is prospering and promises to do much for the cause of Christ and Methodism. We are poor people and have been in bad circumstances, yet God is with us and His name is ever to be praised. Our meetings have done good among both sinners and Christians."

Rev. H. Harris, Lockhart, Tex., writes: "My camp meeting closed on the 28th proximo. I was taken sick on the 20th and unable to fill my appointments. We have had a good time all the year. The people here, white and colored, love our new presiding elder of the Columbus district. He does a great deal of good by his visits to us. Pray that I by the help of God may gather strength to finish my work."

The Chinese have closed the Canton river to steamers.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

Trade Mark. QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath $3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition 1 one volume.) Net 60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net 5
History of Methodism.—Stevens 3 0
(Abridged edition.) 3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884 ..... 1 50
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter 1 50

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett 5 00

Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography 2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs 2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters I-XXX—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett 7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley 30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net 1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net 1 00
Written Sermons.

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.) .....
Christian Purity—Foster 1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast 1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris 3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid 3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope 1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net 40

To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher 5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged. Stevens 3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory 85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II.—Reid 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: chapters I-XIII.—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III. 7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley 1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn 2 5
Intellectual Science.—Porter 3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder 1 50
Written sermon .....

To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology. —Crooks and Hurst 3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIII-XLIV Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson 6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology. —Butler 1 50
Written sermons .....

To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition) 1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry .....
History of Rationalism.—Hurst 3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst ..... $ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) 05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield 2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884 .....
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker 1 25

To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter 1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson 1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher 75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines .....
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield 2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill 1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst 50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer .....

To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath 3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition). —Stevens 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments .....
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield 2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley 30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill.. 1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven 90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 60

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction 5 00 to the Gospel Records.—Nast 1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm. 75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield 2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.). 40
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter.. 2 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years .....

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher 5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher 2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb .. 1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT
32 Natchez St. New Orleans.

[illegible] Address Stamp & Stencil Works, [illegible] sailed by

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Picture Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made seperate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884, at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women.

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D D., Editor.

THURSDAY, OCTCER 9, 1884.

Messrs. James R. Osgood & Co., of Boston, publish in neat and convenient form the address of Mr. Robert P. Porter to the Arkwright Club, of New England, on "Protection and Free Trade To day." He takes decided protective grounds. Price 10 cents.

The Paris Informer says the majority of the Republican voters favor a straight ticket. The compromises of office-seeking politicians never lead to any practical advancement of the general welfare, and lower the party standard with reference to sound principles of public policy.

Brief Comment.

I have had men over me as presiding elders, whom I licensed and passed into conference, and had ordained deacons and elders, and would not give out a notice when they were present holding quarterly meetings, without asking permission. Nor will a white minister in the M. E. Church, or M. E. Church, South, in the land do it. If the presiding elder says to the pastor go on, do whatever you think best, then go on; otherwise manners, outside of law, would dictate the propriety of waiting for direction.—H. M. Turner.

It is astonishing how unguardedly these colored Bishops talk. We believe there is not one pastor in the Methodist Episcopal Church, either white or colored, who would do as the Bishop says. Our pastors have a fixed authority, and exercise it no matter who is present. They are responsible for the government of their charge, and can not relinquish it to any one.

Amanda Smith.

Mrs. Smith has had a wonderful career. Of her work in India, Miss Thoburn told us that of our missionaries none was more successful. In this country we all know how her simple power and great faith moved God and the people toward each other in all her meetings. Her early work in Africa was no less signally favored by heaven, and furnished to the people. The cause of temperance has greatly [illegible] and a revival spirit borne [illegible] into the closing of our Liberal Conferences. But we have it [illegible] reliable letters that the Rhl[illegible] climate in her case, as in that of many another missionary, is getting the better of her. A general [illegible] seems now to pervade the [illegible] and fetter her action. She is no longer distinguished for [illegible] and tireless energy which has hitherto characterized her movements.

The Concordia Eagle, a Democratic journal, publishes some statements concerning the [illegible] election in Tensas parish, which deserve a [illegible]. It relates how a skiff, containing three commissioners of election and two skiffmen, went to a designated spot in the forest, opened a poll, but received no votes; they conveyed the box to the parish seat, and out of it were taken 150 Democratic votes. At another place "two score and one votes" were cast, and over [illegible] returned. There were [illegible] examples of this kind, on Wednesday, the day [illegible] the election, a printing [illegible] in Natchez, Miss., was engaged in printing election tickets [illegible] in Tensas parish. The Democratic papers now denounce [illegible] election as a fraud, and the [illegible] of Catahoula officially certified that the vote of his parish was [illegible]. The SOUTHWESTERN has repeatedly said that Democratic supremacy in Louisiana rests [illegible] upon infamous practices as [illegible] recorded. The present administration is fraudulent from top [illegible].

[illegible] that the officials in the [illegible] States service in Louisiana, [illegible] called upon for a heavy [illegible] and other campaign [illegible] for their service re-

The New Discipline.

The Doctrines and Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 1884, with an appendix. Edited by Bishop Harris. New York, Phillips & Hunt; Cincinnati, Cranston & Stowe. Price twenty five cents.

The Discipline of 1884 is a 24mo. book, making a size larger volume than that of 1880, cloth covers, toned paper, large plain type, easy for old people to read, containing seven chapters besides the address and appendix. There are seven parts to the new against six in the old edition. The boundaries are removed from Temporal Economy and forms the new seventh division. The old contained 417 pages and the new 424, or seven pages difference. The new contains the following paragraphs not in the old edition: Part I, chapter 1.—On Divorce; chapter II—Dismissing in addition to receiving members. Part II contains two new paragraphs, viz: On the Leaders and Stewards' meeting, and on the Official Board. Part II, chapter 2, has a seperate paragraph to each, the supernumerary and the superannuate preachers, and on locating unacceptable, inefficient or secular preachers. Part III, chapter 2, has a paragraph on the appeals of Bishops. Part III, chapter 3—One on credentials of preachers who withdraw from the Conference in good standing. Part IV has three new paragraphs, viz: On Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society, and Central Mission Conferences. Part V, chapter 1, has a new paragraph on the support of Ministers and Preachers; chapter IV of Temporal Economy in the old is part VII in the new edition, as above stated. Paragraphs 526 and 529 to 533 in the appendix are new. There are altogether nineteen new paragraphs and one new chapter. Though larger and every way better, the book is 10 cents cheaper. The General Conference and the editor have left nothing undone on their part, the publishers have vied with both in the manner of getting out the book. It remains for preachers and people to do their duty by buying and reading it. No Pastor or other officer in the Church can do without it.

Words! Words! Words!

"Not even the Methodist Episcopal Church had the courage to send a fraternal messenger to us."—Bishop J. W. Hood, of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, in the Independent, Sept. 18, 1884.

Yes, she had the courage, and performed the deed by sending fraternal messengers, both white and and colored, to your church on several occasions. Among the white our honored friend Dr. Sherman, and of the colored the gifted E. W. S. Peck. Having thus settled the question as to her fraternal feeling and equal recognition of yours with all the churches, then it was entirely consistent with fraternal courtesy for our church to determine whether to greet you by her envoys or her letters, or both. Bishops should be blameless in words. The Methodist Episcopal Church has had the conrage to invest more than two million of dollars in the cause of the Freedmen for school teachers, churches and preachers since the war. No other single organization has done as much. Is it not true that the Zion Church made overtures to the Methodist Episcopal Church South for nominal and subordinate affiliation with that body, in consideration of getting its colored members and churches? Do not your ministers in certain localities call it a Southern church, and ours a Northern one, for the purpose of getting on their side the benefit of that prejudice, which ostracises everything Northern in the South?

Do you wish for an instance of this kind? Your Church has been favored by Methodists, Congregationalists, Presbyterians, Baptists, Catholics, Unitarians, Jews, Liberals, and in fact by every Northern institution, or every class of liberty-loving people in the country North and South. This was not because you were separate as Methodists, but because you were Negroes, and the spirit of these people was to make an example of Negro ability by helping you. If you have not come up to their just expectation or to your own in the efforts made, it will not mitigate the failure to abuse the Methodist Episcopal Church. If there were some things grievous in her attitude toward her colored children in the past—they are of the past. She has listened to their cry and has righted their wrongs. They have remained in her and of her. For all her kindness and love to them they cherish and revere her.

Christ's Preparation for the Public Ministry.

In which the following particulars are most remarkable:

First—His public baptism by John in the Jordan.

Second—The testimony of His Father from Heaven: "This is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased," which was afterward reiterated to the three Apostles on the Mount of Transfiguration, with the addition of the words, "Hear ye Him."

Third—The descending of the Holy Ghost like a dove, and abiding upon Him, who thereupon led him into the wilderness.

Fourth—His fasting there forty days and forty nights.

Fifth—His three temptations offered him by the devil, whom he vanquished.

Sixth—His return to Galilee and gathering of disciples, where we have the distinct calling of Andrew, Peter, James and John, and afterward of Matthew from receipt of custom, to be his followers.

Seventh—His ordination of twelve to be with him, and of seventy to go forth two by two before Him.

A Cheerful Outlook

Rev. A. E. P. Albert was recently at home, resting a little, preparatory to a renewal of the campaign on his district. He looks well, though he has had a severe conflict with malaria, out of which his very vigorous constitution has safely lifted him. He had just returned from a visit to Natchitoches, on the Shreveport District, and reports that the district conference was a grand success, under the management of elders Duncan and Wright.

The white citizens, many of them Roman Catholics, evinced the most friendly spirit toward the meeting. They bought 500 feet of lumber, had additional seats erected, so as not to intrude upon the sittings already too limited, and then attended the meetings, not only men, but women and children as well.

There is a strong temperance element in this section. Local option has given the anti-liquor party control in several parishes around that place. Every sentiment favorable to prohibition was favorably applauded, and the sentiment freely indulged and loudly expressed that there were those who would sacrifice every party to secure the prohibition of the terrible agent of destruction.

Our Sunday-school Periodicals.

A man was in the habit of going daily to a neighbor's and sitting for hours together there. "Well, John," said his friend one day, "why do you prefer to sit here rather than at home most of your time?" "Aint your home pleasant, and your wife a kind-hearted woman and a nice housekeeper?" "Oh, yes, Bettie is the best wife and housekeeper in the village; but when I am at home she wants me to give her money for market, and sing to the baby while she is marketing. When I am not at home it don't take so much money, and I get entirely rid of the singing."

Now, this is a good illustration of the practice of those members of the Methodist Episcopal Church who go to other denominational publishing houses for their Sunday-school literature, on the plea that ours is too costly. There is a class of Sunday-school periodicals, vended chiefly by private individuals for personal gain, that may be had for less dollars and cents, if only the money which leaves our hands is considered, and no reference is had to the quality of the goods. But when we consider:

1. That the Methodist Episcopal Church publishes everything required for the perfect equipment of a model Sunday-school.

2. That to our own schools purchasing and paying cash, liberal reductions are made.

3. That our schools, when unable to purchase, and giving evidence of it, and also raising anything they can in the course of the year for the Sunday school Union, have their supplies donated to them.

4. That our own Sunday-school literature is so constructed as to be in harmony with our idea of the genius and purpose of the Church, as well as the doctrines of Christianity; hence insuring us a race of Methodists when we have put their contents in the minds of our pupils.

5. That the proceeds from sales to schools able to buy, goes to the relief of those which are not able and must be maintained by charitable donations. If there is a surplus, it goes into our common connectional treasury, and helps to expand and increase the usefulness of our Church.

In view of all these considerations, we conclude that he is a mighty unpatriotic Methodist who would fail to contribute every possible assistance toward these ends. All our Sunday-schools should be supplied with our own periodicals. It is worth something, and stimulates our pride to be in a church that is able to make what it uses, and supply its poor with what they are in need of, but unable to buy.

We are led to these reflections by the beautiful appearance of the Senior Leaf, Berean Leaf, Sunday-school Journal and Picture Lesson Paper, published by Phillips & Hunt, Cranston & Stowe, New York and Cincinnati, for the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Picture Lesson Paper is adapted to the wants of little children in the primary grade. Berean Leaf comes between this and the more advanced grade. Next comes the Senior Leaf for the graduating grade, and finally the Journal for teachers; or primary, intermediate, senior and normal departments. These periodicals are so bright and handsome, that we felt like we would, if possible, lay one in the hand of every child and youth in the world. Our pastors, presiding elders, superintendents and committees surely have not seriously considered this matter fully, or our circulation would be greater.

The New Orleans Methodist Episcopal Preacher's Meeting.

There are about 24 members of this body, three of whom are white, viz.: the presiding elder of the New Orleans District, the President of the New Orleans University, and the pastor of Ames Methodist Episcopal Church for white people. It is rather an imposing and decidedly intelligent looking body of men.

They do not admit laymen to membership, which is a mistake that they probably soon will correct. If they reject the men they are more considerate with the lay women, for one of them, Mrs. Rev. Marcus Dale, was present at the session, Thursday, Oct. 2d, and delivered a most interesting address in behalf of the New Orleans District of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Mrs. Dale is the efficient manager of the New Orleans District of this society, in which sphere she has given evidence of great usefulness. It is a source of genuine regret that she cannot be regularly employed at a salary, and given a broader sphere of usefulness in a field for which she exhibits such marks of adaptation and success. The work of this society languishes in this region, for want of a degree of management, which she is well and peculialy adapted to give, but which no lady of limited means can fill gratuitously. If any lady in any field has a salary, it ought to be Mrs. Dale, in the New Orleans District; for there is a work among the colored people of vast importance to be performed. Even in this city there is neither that active work or success so desirable in the lines of its work, because no well defined and unquestioned local head to its movements is authoritatively declared. She announces the meeting of a district conference in Wesley Chapel, New Orleans, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 22, 23, when it is hoped there will be a large representation of ladies who are members, and of those connected with adjoining districts. This and the meeting of one week previous had under discussion the question of reviving and perpetuating the local circulation and support of the SOUTHWESTERN. It was finally decided to employ all superannuate ministers and a few ladies as special agents for the paper, and not to entangle the present administration with the collection of pending, but disputed liabilities from other years. The editor submited a full statement of the condition of its affairs, as he found them. There is a purpose to secure the Concern against losses by some not yet defined plan of taxation upon the various churches.

An invitation to visit a meeting of colored men, for the purpose of discussing the expediency and feasibility of organizing an association, denominated the Colored Brotherhood of Lonisiana, was laid over for one week. The meeting resolved to make the 46th paragraph of the Discipline of 1884 the subject of discussion at next meeting, after the usual review of the Sunday-school lesson; thence each week they will discuss one, until each of the 19 new paragraphs have been considered. This meeting has inaugurated a weekly temperance mass meeting, itinerating from one church to another in succession. The present officers are: Rev. Stephen Priestly, pastor of Union Chapel, President; and the Rev. J. W. Hudson, of Mt. Zion, Secretary; both of them colored, and very efficient. Finding a moment to slip away from two pretty sick fever patients, and a little release from office duties, the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN was permitted to take the oath of allegiance, and become a member. Upon the whole, this is a little better than the Cleveland, equal to Ohio Falls City or Indianapolis, and not quite so good as the Cincinnati preachers' meeting. When we have our resident Bishop, then, with his guidance, we shall be as good as any. After he comes, when we report him, not as our Chattanooga confrere, we hope to say: "The Bishop preached at the Methodist Episcopal churches of New Orleans."

There is some talk of his going to Austin to reside instead of coming here, but this surely cannot be. The Negroes at the General Conference accepted Mallalieu as a compromise for a Negro Bishop.

There are about 3,000 Negro Methodists of our Church in this city, and about 12,000 followers out of a total population of 60,000, or members and followers equal to one-fourth of the entire population. There are about 35 white members of our Church here, so that it is easy to see that our resident Bishop will be largely the property of the Negroes when he is at home. Like Drs. Newman and Hartzell and their wives, the Negroes of New Orleans will expect Gilbert Haven's successor to receive them openly at his home and board. Nor will they be disappointed. Of course they would not expect this from others, but they do from Williard F. Mallalieu, because he is a self-confessed believer in the righteousness, propriety and expediency of such a course.

It is for this reason that we do not expect him to go to Austin, even if the climate should be more to his liking. There he would be in the midst of a white work, as is Bishop Walden at Chattanooga, leaving our commanding position at Atlanta without the presence of a great commander. We expected Bishop Warren to go to Colorado if he could, and we thought that the golden-mouthed Radical, Charlie Fowler, would come here; but he went instead to the Golden Shore.

Now, if Mallalieu should switch off to Austin, Texas, leaving the Negroes without a single resident Bishop in any of their great centers, though there are four of them residing on Southern or old slave soil, viz.: Bowman, at St. Louis, Mo.; Andrews, Washington, D. C.; Walden, Chattanooga, Tenn.; and Mallalieu somewhere in the South, then, indeed, will be the time to draw the color line, and elect not a radical compromise, but a sure enough Negro for the colored side of it. There are interests to be conserved by the presence of a resident Bishop in this city. If the color line is not blotted out, it should run straight.

For our part, we never were anxions to run away from the Negro race, and we should live and move and have our being just as contentedly, with a straight line dividing our schools, teachers, churches, preachers, and everything up to Bishops, as we should, it we faithfully mixed them everywhere, which would be right.

In addition to all we have said upon this line, it may be said that New Orleans is the great commercial center of the South—just to this country what New York is to that in which it is situated. We abound in railroad facilities, and the health of the city compares favorably with any of the great cities in the country. We would not antagonize our brethren in Texas; many of them whom we revere live in Austin. They would doubtless make an Episcopal residence agreeable to the Bishop, and pleasant in every way. But we believe, for reasons pertaining to the good of Methodism in the South, that he should reside in New Orleans.

Personal.

—Bishop Halsey is now holding district conferences in Georgia.

—Prof. I. N. Cardoza, after a short vacation, is at his post again in Haven Normal School.

—Bishop Beebe passed through Jackson, Tennessee, a few days ago on his way to Mississippi.

—Sir George Taylor, of Louisville, Kentucky, is now in the East attending the Masonic Centennial Celebration in Philadelphia.

—Bishop Walden opened his first conference at Catlettsburg, Ky., on last Wednesday. He took hold like a "master of assemblies."

—Miss Alice Burns, a young colored woman of Indianapolis, has taken the position of book-keeper in the establishment of a plumber and gas and steam fitter.

—Bishop Lane is still working in the interest of Lane's Institute, and expects for the next session to be well attended, as no pains will be spared to have a first-class school.

—Rev. A. F. Hoyt, a conference class mate of ours, and a thoroughly cultured young minister, has just been placed in charge of the New Orleans University.—Lamp of Life.

—At this writing the venerable Rev. Dr. Whedon still lingers at the point of death. It is more than likely that before this paper reaches the subscriber's hands, he will have passed from labor to eternal reward.—Lamp of Life.

—Rev. James Bowen, says that a preacher needs a good wife and a good church paper. So having lately taken the wife, he has now sent his subscription to the SOUTHWESTERN without any one coming to solicit it.

—Dr. R. F. Boyd, of Central Tennessee College, has been visiting and lecturing at Hot Springs. There is talk of him locating to follow his profession there, which would be both acceptable and profitable to the citizens.

—Bishop W. H. Miles preached in Sherman, Texas, lately to a large congregation. The Bishop seems to be in fine spirits and anticipates a good time in the territory. He is the great organizer, and amidst all the storms of the past has stood in defense of his church.

—Bishop Brown preached at the A. M. E. Church, Wyandotte, last Sunday. He was heartily received here in his new field of labor. The A. M. E. Church, in charge of Rev. J. Gray, is holding a protracted effort.—Farmer's Journal.

—We are glad to learn that Prof. W. I. Bulkley, who has so efficiently filled the position of Adjunct Professor of Latin and Greek at Claflin University, has gone to the Wesleyan University at Middletown, Conn., to pursue further studies, and thus qualify himself for yet better work for his people.

—The funeral of ex-policeman Phil Thompson took place from Asbury M. E. Church, of which he was a member last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The church was well filled with members of the church and friends of the deceased, including J. F. Cook Lodge of which he was an active member. Rev. R. A. Reid, pastor in charge, officiated.

—The death of Mrs. Rev. E. T. Curnick, in Denver, Colorado, September 23, ends a period of trying affliction, of long standing. We were at dinner with Bro. Curnick, in Newport, last winter, the day before he started to Florida, in response to a call to her bedside. As the season changed they went to Colorado were she died. She was an exemplary Christian, and will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

—Dr. De Griez Von Ronse, in The Current of September 27, tells of Maurus Jokai, the Hungarian novelist, editor and patriot, conspicuous alike in literature and in the service of his country. The relation of his devoted wife to Jokai's success is happily presented and the student of the world's best men will find in Dr. De Gries's sketch a most attractive subject for contemplation.

—Mr. Julian B. Arnold, son of Edwin Arnold, is now in this country, superintending the publication of The Arnold Birthday Book, edited by his sister, Miss Constance, and composed of selections from the works of their illustrious father. Mr. Arnold has transferred to his son his literary rights in the matter need, some of which is new and expressly prepared, and the latter has made arrangements for publication with D. Lothrop & Co.

—Dr. F. S. Hoyt, for twelve years editor of the Western Christian Advocate, who was appointed presiding elder of the Cleveland district, at the session of the North Ohio conference in Cincinnati last Wednesday for his new field of labor. Mrs. Hoyt accompanied him, they having sent forward their household goods and library. They will occupy the house No. 70 Birch street, West Side, Cleveland. His first quarterly conference was held on Friday. Dr. and Mrs. Hoyt leave many personal friends in this city. —Western.

—We are sorry to announce to our readers the death of a prominent and cultured musician, Madame Annie M. Dunn the highly cultured prima donna, of Baltimore, Md. Madame Dunn was born in Trenton, N. J., May 26, 1846. At an early age she became a great lover of music and literature, and before her death she became a mistress of both vocal and instrumental music. At the time of her death she was organist for John Wesley M. E. Church. She was widely known throughout the country. The funeral took place from John Wesley Church, Thursday 4th inst. Rev. W. P. Rider, pastor in charge, officiated assisted by Revs. E. W. S. Peck, P. G. Walker, and J. W. Dansbury. About 1000 persons were present.—Baltimore Vindicator.

—Rev. S. F. [illegible] as

Church Polity.

If a vacancy occurs on the Trustee Board, should the following quarterly conference fill it, or would it be in harmony with the object of the law for it to continue till annual election?

Yes and no. The Discipline, 1880, says—p. 221, par. 374: "The trustees shall be elected annually by the fourth quarterly conference, upon the nomination of the preacher in charge or the presiding elder of the district." Here, as we understand it, the presiding elder and preacher in charge are given co ordinate power in the nomination of trustees, where the law of the community does not prescribe a particular mode of election. For where it does, the church must follow that mode. If there is a failure to elect at the proper time, a subsequent quarterly conference may elect, or fill a vacancy for either church or parsonage. But where there is no vacancy, it is not clear from this paragraph that the pastor or any one else can make one and then fill it. The negative side of your question is better for successful and practical administration. There might arise, extreme contingencies to justify affirmative action, but a charge of maladministration could be brought in such a case. Should a vacancy occur by the resignation, death, removal, or other disqualification of a trustee, for which no responsibility could be placed upon either pastor, presiding elder, or quarterly conference, then it is our judgment that the next succeeding quarterly conference would be in harmony with both letter and spirit of the law if it filled the vacancy, without waiting for the fourth quarterly conference of the year.

A preacher, on arriving at his charge, finds the parsonage not at all convenient and adequate for the accommodation of his family. He informs the trustees of it, and a majority of them promise to have the needed work done. Months pass and nothing yet done, and the preacher is informed by some of the trustees who are busy in secular affairs, that they felt more obliged to work where they were than to look after the church. Seeing that nothing would be done, the pastor took the lead, followed by members and friends of the church, in raising money and superintending the work. After all was done in a public meeting, two of the stewards and several opponent members abruptly told the pastor that he was too fast and wrong in what he did, and in it they did not recognize him as pastor. Considering circumstances as stated above, who was wrong or right, the pastor, or stewards and rebellious members?

When the pastor undertook the work of the trustees, he undertook to do that for which he could legally be held to account. That the pastor in the case referred to regarded the work to be done as work belonging to the trustees, is clear. That it was so, is also clear from the law in the case. The trustees are liable for debts on the property over which they accept the trust. Now it cannot be legal for any one but themselves to make obligations for which they can be legally held responsible, or their trust imperiled. If the pastor leads in such matters, he can only do so as the representative of the Board of Trustees, not ex-officio, but by their request. Even the trustees cannot proceed to the raising of money, contracting or meeting liabilities without a majority of the whole board has agreed to it in meeting or otherwise first.—Discipline 80, p. 222, par. 376. If they fail to discharge their duty, it is not the duty of the pastor aided by members and friends to do it, but it is the pastor's duty to do the best he can, and report the matter fully to the quarterly conference, where the trustees are amenable.—Discipline 80, p. 223, par. 329. A pastor or preacher in charge, has the oversight of the other preachers in his circuit or station, and of the class leaders.—Discipline 80, p. 115, par. 178, § 1 to 3. It is imprudent for stewards and members to do as you say. Where parsonages are owned by the church, they are held by trustees, not by the stewards. The stewards and all Methodists ought to recognize the pastor assigned by the Bishop or presiding elder to them. He represents the Church and the authority of the Church should be recognized even if it is by invoking the removal of a pastor who is generally unacceptable. Perhaps all meant right. There was zeal, but probably not according to knowledge. Sometimes a good class meeting is a cure for such cases; try one.

General Church News.

Over five hundred Mormons and twenty missionaries arrived last week, in New York city by the steamer Arizona from Liverpool. They were on their way to Salt Lake city.

Aquilla Pickering, at the New England Yearly Meeting of Friends, encouragingly referred to the fact that there were about 75,000 Friends in the United States and 17,000 in the old country, and that the increase to the society for the year had been 13,000.

A dispatch received by the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions, dated Hong Kong, announces the total loss of the missionary brig Morning Star, at Kusaie. All on board were saved, and are en-route to San Francisco.

The Queen of Sweden has sent a donation to the fund of £2,000 for translating, printing, and distributing gospel tracts among the children of different lands, and has accepted 10,000 Swedish leaflets for distribution among the children of Stockholm.

Though the Baptists and Methodists labor under great disadvantages in Sweden, 40 new Baptist churches were formed last year, and 3,623 converts were baptized. There are now in Sweden 16 associations, 371 churches, 402 preachers, 25,777 Baptists and 23,310 children in their Sunday-school.

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE—BALTIMORE ITEMS.

Rev. W. C. Cooper is succeeding well at Asbury Church.

Revival services are in progress at the Metropolitan M. E. Church.

Sharp Street M. E. Church is enjoying a revival. Several have professed conversion.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Baker, took place from Sharp Street M. E. Church, on Wednesday; the Revs. J. W. Dansbury and P. G. Walker officiated. The deceased was 70 years of age, and was well known for her generous and charitable disposition. She has been a member of Sharp Street, for 50 years.

An extra effort was made at St. Paul's M. E. Church, on last Sunday, to raise money to pay on the church debt. Services were held during the day as follows: At 11 a. m., preaching by Rev. A. B. Wilson, of the Congregational Church; at 3 p. m., by Rev. W. T. Harris; at 8 p. m., by Rev. Dr. Frysinger. Rev. R. Hawkins, the pastor, is succeeding well.

Ames M. E. Church is succeeding admirably under the pastorate of Rev. W. H. Draper, one of the most eloquent speakers and ardent workers in this city. Since his appointment to Ames in last March, he has increased the attendance so much that the church is now too small to accommodate the congregation. An old debt has been paid, and the church thoroughly renovated, a new organ placed in it and only a debt of a few dollars remains unpaid.—Vindicator.

Schools and Colleges.

Dr. Braden writes from Nashville: "School is opening with the largest enrollment we have ever had in September. Our lack of teachers has not been supplied yet, but the prospects are brightening for an excellent corps of instructors, although a little tardy.

The Central Tennesse College Singers are meeting with great favor. They have given concerts in the principal towns in Middle Tennessee, and have received the highest commendations from the leading citizens and from the press. Hope to see you at our conference."

Africa—School Work in Liberia.

Some of the results of efforts put forth in Mount Olive station, Liberia, are stated in a recent letter from the Rev. James H. Deputie. He says:

"Up to the time of my leaving the Mission House (which was destroyed by white ants), thirty boys and four girls had been trained in my family as boarding scholars, and gone out into the world to make a living for themselves. Twenty-four of these were members of the church, and to-day some of them are doing well. Over two hundred native children have learned to read the Word of God in our day schools and Sabbath-school in Mount Olive station. I have taken into church 139 members, and have preached to thousands whose hearts have not yet been brought under the influence of the Holy Spirit. The field around us is now ripe for the harvest, but we have not the ability to advance. We need a manual labor school here to train our young men for the work, and keep them among us. We have raised up on this station one native ordained deacon, three local preachers and five exhorters. We have native class leaders, stewards, trustees and Sunday-school superintendents. We have here a church membership of 70, who a few years ago were bowing down to wood and stone. Many saved souls have gone up from this place to join the church triumphant. We have an interesting Sabbath-school, numbering 45 scholars. We are in need of books suitable for the school, such as primers, catechisms and hymn books, suitable for young children. Books are very hard to get in this country, even if we had money to buy."

The want expressed by Mr. Deputie is one easy to supply from America. Will not some one collect and send to the mission rooms such books as are suitable, directed to Rev. J. H. Deputie, Mount Olive, Liberia, in care of Mission Rooms, 805 Broadway? Any such boxes will be forwarded from here to Liberia.

Opening of Rust University.

BY REV. J. C. ECKLES.

The University opened on the 18th inst., with a full corps of teachers, and about fifty students present. The number of students in attendance was not so large as expected, owing to a report that Holly Springs was afflicted with the small pox. This is a mistake. There has been a few cases, two or three miles from the city, but there has been no danger from small-pox in Holly Springs.

I take this opportunity of quoting from a circular, sent out from the college, "giving general information," and vouch for the truthfulness of the statement. "Holly Springs is located on the highest point in Mississippi, and is remarkable for its natural beauty and healthfulness. The University occupies the finest site in town, overlooking it, and the surrounding country." It is quite probable that those who attend school here, will find it more healthful than at their own homes.

It will be remembered that at last commencement, Prof. Hooper, resigned the presidency of the University, but he was prevailed upon by those in authority to continue with the school; so, contrary to his own expectations, and agreeable to the wish of every one, he occupies his former position as president of the University. This is a guarantee of a successful year in the college. The tact, energy, and indefatigable labor of Prof. Hooper has contributed largely to the success of the school; causing it to take rank with the best institutions of learning in the South.

After a few words of welcome and advice to the students, Prof. Hooper introduced the new teachers, Professors Hatfield and McDonald. Prof. Hatfield is a son of the Rev. R. M. Hatfield, D D., one of the leading ministess of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Chicago. The Prof. is a graduate of the Northwestern University, at Evanston, Ill. He is well received by all, and will doubtless fill the position assigned him acceptably.

Prof. McDonald is a son of Rev. A. C. McDonald, D. D., of sacred memory, the founder of the University. Those who knew the father will hope that his mantle may fall upon the son, A. C. McDonald, Jr. The Prof. is to have charge of the Model School Department.

Preceptress, Miss Theda Parker, M. E. L., enters upon the second year's work in Rust University. She is deservedly popular with the other members of the faculty and with the students.

Prof. R. Greene, A. M., is at his post ready for another year's work. He is a graduate of Rust University. His ability as a teacher seems to have rendered him a fixture in his Alma Mater.

Miss A. L. Talbot, A. M., is also a graduate of Rust University. She has been in bad health for several weeks past, but has so far recovered as to resume her work in the College. She ranks high as a teacher, and is a most excellent lady. Many who attended school here last year will miss Prof. and Mrs. Clifford from the corps of teachers. The Prof. having received the appointment as president of Wiley University, at Marshall, Texas, he and his excellent wife, have gone to take upon themselves the greater responsibilities that their new field of labor imposes. We believe them to be equal to the work. Many kind wishes follow them from Rust University.

Mrs. M. L. Weir will also be missed from the Model School Department, where she faithfully labored last year. She is kindly remembered by all who knew her here.

I wish I could impress the many readers of the Southwestern with the privileges that this institution of learning brings to the people of the State of Mississippi, and adjoining States. Here is a school with its Primary Department, where pupils may learn to read and write; with its Academic Department, where pupils from the common schools may enter and pursue their studies; a school with its Collegiate Department, where the higher branches are to be mastered; a Musical Department, furnishing opportunity for learning both instrumental and vocal music, and in addition to all this the Ladies Industrial Department, where young ladies learn dress making, millinery, cooking, house-keeping, and every thing that a lady should know to become competent to preside over household affairs. All this can be obtained at the small expense of from ten to twelve dollars per month, board, and room rent included.

When I think of the fifty or sixty thousands of dollars that have been expended in grounds and buildings, and the five thousand dollars paid to teachers annually; and when I think of the thousands of young men and women within a short distance, who ought to avail themselves of the benefits of the school, I am surprised that so few take advantage of these opportunities. I can scarcely refrain from saying that there appears to be a disposition of ingratitude on the part of those for whom such great expenditure is made. There ought to be five hundred pupils in Rust University this year, and yet, probably not more than one half that number will be in attendance at one time. Since provisions are made for double the number of students that attend, it must be apparent that there has been a needless expenditure of money, all because the people do not patronize the school as they were expected, when the money was expended. Is it an extravagant assertion that from the near thirty thousand Methodists in the State of Mississippi, that one thousand students should be forthcoming? Is it too great a reflection, to say that if the ministers and patrons would all do their duty, that that number of students could be secured?

Centennial Endowment.

BY REV. L. M. HAGOOD.

The Central Tennessee College Endowment Association has a great work before it.

The managers have prepared a fine illustrated certificate, showing the amount given by each contributor. Let all of us secure and distribute these in our churches, supported by a sound lecture on self reliance. By such a course we certainly will be able to report $5 000 collected from the Lexington, Tennessee and East Tennessee Conferences.

Now, brethren, suffer me to remind you that the eyes of the world are upon the Negro race. Philanthropists who have heretofore and remain willing to aid us, will begin eventually to inquire whether we are never to commence helping ourselves.

During this centennial year we ought to show them, by our collection for this fund, that we are worthy of all that has been done for us. It is not the design to confine these certificates to members of our own Church. There are many members of the African Methodist Episcopal and other churches, whose children were or are being educated in this institution. There would feel ashamed not to give something toward its endowment. It would be an imposition to prevent them. The College calls upon all its friends for aid. Shall we have $5,000? Why not? Let us put this institution at once into position to do the greatest good to the greatest number.

Who knows but that God has already laid his hand on some philanthropist, and pointed toward Central Tennessee College with, "go into my vineyard and work," has touched the heart of some man until he has arisen from his lethargy, thrown open his coffers, turned his face toward the South, and now cries: "What wilt thou have me to do?" We certainly do not think He will answer such a prayer in our favor until He hears from us.

God holds us responsible not so much for what we do as what we might have done. He looks not with approbation on how much we do, but He does look with approval when we do all we can with willingness. The Lord help us do our whole duty in this matter, that our enterprise may not fail.

Nashville, Tennessee.

For the Southwestern.

DEAR EDITOR—Your paper is sprightly and good reading. We always take it up with expectant interest, and we are not disappointed. The paper whose coming is awaited with glad interest is a paper that succeeds. We have been gladdened of late by a brief visit from Drs Hartzell and Cushman, and President A. F. Hoyt, of the New Orleans University; good men and true; they brought a blessing with their presence, and returned to New Orleans all too soon. Dr Hartzell came in the interests of Gilbert Seminary, formerly La Teche Seminary. At the last winter and spring terms the roll of the Seminary numbered 223. That was, perhaps, the best and most satisfactory session we have ever had. Dr. H. expects the work on the new buildings to commence soon, so that we hope to re open in the winter in enlarged quarters. The scholars are inquiring anxiously, already, about re opening. The Rev Ernest Lyon, our pastor, is rejoicing in the prosperity of his work. The Rev. W. S Fitch, A. M., President of Baldwin Seminary, has just returned with his family. When the Lord shall send rain there will be many glad hearts in this part of his heritage. May we hope to see an editor among us? Truly,

W. D. GODMAN.

LaTeche, Sept. 24, 1884.

Domestic Hygiene.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Sleep and Its Power for Good.

BY GEORGE L. CURTISS, M. D.

The man who in the delight of his soul said—"Blessings on the man who invented sleep"—had a realising sense of the enjoyment to be found in sleep. But there is a benefit, as well as enjoyment to the whole man, body, mind and soul, received in sleep. It is "nature's sweet restorer."

Sleep is a state or condition of the nervous and mental system, in which conscious acts cease, while the involuntary and unconscious acts continue. Breathing, digestion, circulation of the blood, secretions and all life's functions continue during profound sleep as well as during waking hours. A sense of drowsiness usually precedes sleep. We feel as if we must sleep. To know wake requires an effort.

When one has come to a condition of absolute unconsciousness of all external impressions he is said to be dead with sleep. Then all powers of thought, will and sense are locked up. Such is profound, dreamless sleep.

The best sleep, and most refreshing, is at night. Nature's Creator seems to have so designed our physical necessities as to require sleep at night. At that time there is general stillness. The want of light prevents opportunity to most ordinary occupations. The atmosphere is more laden with moisture at night than in day time. The air of the day is better adapted to work and endurance than the night air. For these and many other reasons, night is the time for sleep.

Sleep is designed to recuperate wasted, exhausted nature. Mind and body become exhausted by constant and continuous work. Sleep restores the exhausted powers. Physiologists have not settled but that it does do a good deal more than this. The amount of sleep required by each person, to meet his wants, must be determined by himself. Some require more than others. Growing children require more than grown persons

General News Items.

Colonel Dudley, Commissioner of Pensions, tendered his resignation to Secretary Teller, to take effect Oct. 1.

The Panama Canal Company has signed a contract with the New York Dredging Company for the cutting of the last section of the canal. The contract provides that the work shall be finished in 1887.

The National Temperance Society managers, at a meeting in New York, adopted resolutions congratulating Maine for the adoption of the prohibitory constitutional amendment.

The Catholic missionary authorities in Paris have received advices from Hong Kong stating the Chinese have destroyed the Catholic chapels in the Province of Canton and that six thousand Christians in that province are homeless.

To a delegation who visited him at Bloomington, Ill., Judge David Davis said that he was out of politics, but he would vote for Blaine and Logan, and believed that it is necessary for this government that the Republican ticket be elected this year.

John B. Gough is of the opinion that the way to cure sleeplessness is to pitch in and work it off. He says that Lyman Beecher (father of the Brooklyn orator) had a load of sand in his cellar, and after evening service he would shovel it from one side to the other, and by this exercise he would tone down the fever of the brain. Then the old man would get out his violin and soothe himself to sleep with amateur fiddling.

The cashier of the Las Vegas (N. M.) National Bank discovered Monday morning that the vault of the bank was being tunneled from the outside, and guards were placed. The robbery was noticed to be making, and a volunteer who intended to search the cellar, met a man on the stairs whom he shot dead. He proved to be the mason who built the bank vault. The robbers fled after a time, and the tunnel, well constructed and provisioned, and must have taken months to build.

Why a Centennial Jubilee in the South!

There are special reasons why our people in the South ought to heartily enter into the Centennial Celebration. In each the Church should make 1884 a Centennial Jubilee year, when not only God's blessings upon our world-wide Methodism should be remembered, but when his marvelous dealings with our people in every part in the South, during and since the war, should be devoutly and thankfully remembered.

As Methodists, they should rejoice that the old Mother Church of Methodism in America, is now firmly planted in every part of our nation, and is saving people of every race and condition.

As patriots, loving their country, they can praise God that secession and rebellion were failures, and that the nation is now one in territory, and will soon be one in sentiment.

As philanthropists loving their fellow men, they can rejoice that slavery is destroyed, never again to curse our land.

The two million of colored people in our Church and congregations in the South can make this a Jubilee year, in which to praise God for [illegible] and its blessings.

It will be a proper time for our people in the South to recall what has been done for them by the Church, and to plan for yet greater growth and self-helpfulness in the future.

The great need of our Church in the South is a large increase in the number of Christian ministers and [illegible] to instruct and lead our people. This Centennial Jubilee year will give all a chance for a thank-offering to [illegible] Education.

Africa.

W. R. SUMMERS, M. D.

Africa has been well named "The Dark Continent:" dark in the mystery for the most part still shrouding its countries; dark its peoples, both physically and morally; dark its customs, superstitions, and rites; and dark in that the Gospel of Christ has made but little inroad among its 250,000,000 people. Yet, this year the land that gave birth to an educated Moses, and that gave refuge to the child Jesus. This was the land that gave the Church a Cyprian, a Tertullian, and a St. Augustine. But the day-dawn is breaking, the Sun of Righteousness is arising with healing in His wings. Projects of all kinds are being pushed rapidly forward, all of them "preparing the way of the Lord," though they may not recognize the fact. Scientific and geographical societies are pushing [illegible] in all directions. The great International African Association has established eleven stations on the Livingstone or Congo River, extending from its mouth to the Stanley Falls, nearly 1,500 miles; and at these stations missionaries are being established, on the south bank by the English Baptists; on the north, by Grattan Guinness (now taken up by the American Baptists); and the English Wesleyans are working in the same direction. In the lake region the Anglican Church has a station on the Victoria Nyanza; the London Missionary Society on the Tanganyika, and the Scotch Missions on the Nyassa. From the South, the devoted Frenchman, M. Coillard, and the noble young Scotchman, Mr. Arnot, the "Son of Livingstone," are pushing their way among the Barotse people. On the west the A. B. C. F. M. have planted its missions at Bailunda and Bihe, 250 miles inland. But what are these among so many? Mr. Stanley has estimated that the region of the Congo contains fifty-five people to the square mile; that gives to the Congo Valley alone 49,000,000 people.—Africa Its People and Prospects; a series of 5 articles. By W. R. Summers, M. D. First published in the New York Witness.

At New Orleans State Register of Voters Brewster was arrested on complaint of the United States Supervisors of Elections, for refusing them permission to copy certain rolls, and was bailed in $10,000. Brewster then went before the Grand Jury, and charged the Supervisors with false imprisonment.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

It cures Biliousness, Headache, Jaundice, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles.

IT WORKS PROMPTLY

and cures Intemperance, Nervous Diseases, General Debility, Excesses and Female Weakness.

USE IT AT ONCE.

It restores the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, to a healthy action and CURES when all other medicines fail. Hundreds have been saved who have been given up to die by friends and physicians.

Price $1.25. Send for Illustrated Pamphlet to

HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

sept-1 1y

PILES "Anakesis" gives instant relief, and is an infallible cure for Piles. Price $1, at druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of small sample. Free. Add. "ANAKESIS" Makers, Box 2416 New York. oct4-1y

Good Pay for Agents, $100 to $250 per mo., made selling our fine Books and Bibles. Write to J. C. McCURDY & CO St. Louis, Mo. sept18-1y

E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 North Carondelet street.

UNION CHAPEL, M. E. Church, South—Services: Sunday, preaching 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.; Sunday-school at 1:30 p. m.; Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer meeting Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 62 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev. Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday at 9 a. m. prayer meeting, preaching 11 a. m.; 3 and 7 p. m.; Communion and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve. 7:30; Class Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. P. Talbert, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting 9 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath-school at 1 p. m. Class-meeting Thursday evening.

HEAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Opium two blocks above the last station on the M. & O. R. R. Rev. M. D. Mason, Pastor. Services—Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday-school at 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m. and Communion at 7. Prayer-meeting Thursday evening.

New Orleans University—A. Mellen, A. M., acting President 1428 St. Charles street.

First Street—Rev. C. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades streets. Services: Sabbath—9 a. m., Prayer-meeting 11, and 7 public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class-meeting each Tuesday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching every Thursday night.

EDUCATIONAL.

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for postage. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. jy17 1y

WILEY UNIVERSITY.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

Academic Year opened Sept. 22

No School Does More for its Pupils.

College Preparatory Course.
Normal Course.
Theological Course.
College of Liberal Arts.

Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.

Competent and Experienced Faculty.

Expenses Very Low.

For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't.
to Marshall, Texas.

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER.
28-3m Holly Springs, Miss

BOARDING HOUSES.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,
100 .....Franklin Street.....100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.
sept2 6m

Furnished Rooms to Rent
By the Month, Week or Day,
At No. 227 Customhouse Street
Corner Treme street, New Orleans, La.
Mrs. C. ROBERTSON, Proprietor
s 32

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr. C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to '72, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. E. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

IT PAYS to sell our Rubber Stamps. Free catalogue to agents. Faught & Co., Cleveland O. e25 4teow

STANDARD Biographies Just Ready.
BLAINE and LOGAN.
712 royal octavo pages; 67 full page Illustrations
Tilden, Cleveland & Hendricks.
774 Royal octavo pages; 35 full page Illustrations
Best Terms ever offered to Agents.
OUTFIT FREE, and ALL FREIGHT PAID.
Address, H. S. GOODSPEED, oct2 1yn New York or Chicago.

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Biboiet, Manager,)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20.....Tonlouse Street.....20
P. O. Box 3240. NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns made either in cash or approved paper. Liberal advances made on consignments to hand received. Correspondence solicited.
No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf

AGENTS WANTED
To Sell the only authentic Life of
Gen. JOHN A. LOGAN.
The most virile political writing of the year, selling by thousands, while all other Lives of Logan are dull. Agents report [illegible] Logan Memorial Edition, facsimile in colors, Pictures of Log Cabin, Home, etc. Sent by mail on receipt of One Dollar. Address
THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE,
sept25-2t Washington, D. C.

HEADQUARTERS
FOR
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without notes.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Tex Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2.65 to $25.00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94.....Camp Street,.....94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.
232.....Maupart Street.....232
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.
apr26-1y A. LANDRY, Asst Manager.

MILLERS and FARMERS
Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Also for prices before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro., Atlanta, Ga.
may22-1y

CHILDREN'S GLEE BOOK
Is a collection of new and original songs by the authors, Palmer Hartsough, J. H. Fillmore, and others. It is the best unique little book for children ever published. It is a book of songs arranged in a musically progressive order, thus being equally adapted to the school-room or singing class as well as the concert-room or home. Teachers, examine it! Children, send for a copy! Price, 30c. per copy; $3.00 per doz. Address FILLMORE BROS., 126 Race St., Cincinnati, O. sept18 4t contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as if was before the attack.

AYER'S
Ague Cure

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE
to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.
sept25 to nov27

The Ministers' and Teachers' Bible.

$2.00
This magnificent Parlor Bible is imported from London and is indorsed as [illegible] The Best by the leading Bishops of England. In addition to the Old and New Testaments it contains a Concordance of Bible Words; 40,000 References with Context; An Encyclopedia, A Dictionary of Proper Names, with Pronunciation, 12 full page colored Maps, Poetry, Music, Etymology, Plants, Animals, and Jewish Insects of the Bible, etc. "Superior to all others."—N. Y. Times. "A complete Biblical Encyclopædia."—Boston Times. This Bible is bound in French morocco, gilt edges, with silk book-mark, and has copious references. Rev. Ell Morton, Norwalk, O., writes "The Bibles received to-day I am more than pleased." A special Offer! To rapidly introduce this Bible in America we will, for a limited time only, send one copy, postpaid, to any address on receipt of only $3.00; two copies and one copy of Revised New Testament for $4.00. Other Bibles, with less matter, sell for $15. Send for extra terms. AGENTS WANTED. Circulars FREE.
C. H. MAYO & CO., 160 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.
jy31 26teow

LIAR
Lying Agents can't SELL and tell the truth about JONES. Put your lies on paper and sign if you dare. J. S. STANDARD.
$60.5 TON
WAGON SCALES.
Beam Box, Tare Beam, Freight Paid. Free Price List. Every Machine warranted. Address JONES OF BINGHAMTON, BINGHAMTON, N. Y.
jn 7 y 31 8teow

CHILDS' CATARRH
Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS. Can be taken at home. No unfavorable when our treatment are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. P. CHILDS, Utica, N. Y.
feb7-1y

Central Tennessee College,
Nashville, Tennessee.
This College begins its nineteenth year on
Monday, September 8, 1884.
Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.
Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.
The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.
For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY,
Atlanta, Georgia,
Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.
A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty.
A Large and Well Selected Library.
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President [oct18-1y

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.
CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
20 inches	175 lbs	325 lbs	$45 00
28 "	285 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	550 lbs	800 lbs	120 00
40 "	750 lbs	1050 lbs	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1800 lbs	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$15 00
20 inches	130 lbs	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.
The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.
On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY,
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov23-1yr

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin.) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
feb1-26t-eow

BLYMYER MFG. CO.
BELLS
Church, School, Fire-alarm, Tower Clocks, Chimes and Peals. Illustrated Catalogue and Price-list sent free. Address Blymyer Manufacturing Co., Cincinnati, O.
July3 26teow

OUR
SONG WORLD
A New Book for Singing Classes, Institutes and Conventions.
By Geo. F. Root & C. C. Case.
CONTAINS
The finest Elementary Lessons, both in quality and grading, that have ever appeared in any book.
The Best of simple Part Songs, Tunes and Anthems with beautiful Glees and Secular Choruses, crowned by the brilliant "Italia."
Effective Music for Class and Concert Work, from that which "sings itself," up to Gounod's "Unfold Ye Portals."
Take the book all in all and it is one that will make class teaching a pleasure and delight to Teachers and Pupils.
Price, 60cts. each by mail, postpaid; $6.00 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen Pages Free.
PUBLISHED BY
JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

"THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST."
SAW MILLS ENGINES THRESHERS, Horse Powers
For all stations and purposes. Write for Free Pamphlet and Prices. The Aultman & Taylor Co., Mansfield, Ohio. [oct 4 1y

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. Hallett & Co., Portland, Me. dec31-1y

THE WORLD'S EXPOSITION
New Orleans.
Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.
UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE
United States Government.
$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.
Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.
The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.
APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.
The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.
For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. L. & C. C. E.
New Orleans, La.

PATENTS
MUNN & CO., of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, for the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany, etc. Hand Book about Patents sent free. Thirty-seven years' experience. Patents obtained through MUNN & CO. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, the largest, best, and most widely circulated scientific paper. $3.20 a year. Weekly. Splendid engravings and interesting information. Specimen copy of the Scientific American sent free. Address MUNN & CO., SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN Office, 261 Broadway, New York.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

Sunday School and Children

FOURTH QUARTER, LESSON II. 1 Chron. 22, 6-19. DAVID'S CHARGE TO SOLOMON. 1 Chron. 28, XRII, 6-19.

Very soon after David was established in his kingdom, he desired to build a house for the ark of the Lord, but God, through his prophet Nathan, forbade him because he had been a man of war. His son Solomon, or the peaceful, was the one chosen to do this work. The Lord promised to give him rest from the heathen enemies of Israel. War is very expensive, using and wasting a great deal of money and labor, so there is little left for other public enterprises. It is some of all quarrels, even those of children, that they take the time and attention which might be spent very usefully in study or work, or very pleasantly in play. [illegible] or one who is "mad about something" most of the time will be apt to stand at the head of the class or be the most loved at home. David had not been fighting for his own pleasure, but yet was not allowed the honor of building the temple because he had shed blood. He [illegible] gold and silver, brass and timber and stone in quantities [illegible]

[illegible] Lord's [illegible]

[illegible] Whose prayer?

[illegible] What was it a proof?

[illegible] What striking answer was [illegible] day!

[illegible] What similar answer was given [illegible]

[illegible] What public prayer on Car[illegible] was answered by fire, what [illegible] gave to private prayer [illegible] on this mountain?

Answer as explained as:

Master W. H. Crawford, Van [illegible] age 13: 1. Christ's resort was Bethany. 2. In [illegible] seeing a flourishing [illegible] thinking it had figs on it, [illegible] not, he rebuked it, and it [illegible] Rouge, La.—Sir Walter [illegible], age 12 years, writes answer to questions [illegible] tains for Sept. 11: [illegible] is the place where [illegible] ected. Ref. Gen. viii, 7. [illegible] writers say it is situated [illegible] in part of Turkey, and [illegible] for its snowy caps and is [illegible] veneration by Chris[illegible] and Mohammedans [illegible] has obtained [illegible] any other on the [illegible] its very name is [illegible] with the history [illegible] a [illegible] standing [illegible] might geographers differ, but in mine its height is 17,210 feet. 5. The rain-bow. 6. That the world shall never be destroyed any more by water. Excuse me, dear editor, as this is my first attempt.

We are glad to hear from you, Walter, but you are a little behind. Willie Crawford answered these questions in our issue of Sept. 25. Read it. Do you take the SOUTHWESTERN?—EDITOR.

[illegible], Texas—Hattie McDaniel aged 10 years, writes: "I thought I would write to you after reading a piece in the SOUTHWESTERN, as you wish to know how the colored people are progressing. I am studying arithmetic, spelling, reading, grammar and geography. This is the second letter I ever wrote. We have a very good Sunday-school."

Does the SOUTHWESTERN come to the house of many of your school [illegible], and to your own home?

Marriages.

In Goliad, Texas, Rev. J. T Gibbons, of Florence, to Miss R E. Johnson, of Goliad, August 23, 1884, Rev. C. P. Westbrooks officiating. Miss Johnson is a graduate of Jones Male and Female Institute, while Rev. Gibbons, one of Texas noble sons, is a self-made man.

Mr. C. E. Foley to Mrs. Carrie Chatman, of Columbus, Miss., Sept. 30, 1884, by Rev W. H. Davis.

Obituary.

A. D. McColquit died July 20th, 1884 Born May 8, 1883, aged 1 year, 2 months and 12 days. B. N.

Okolona, Miss.

Mrs. Elizabeth Woods departed this life Aug. 22, 1884, in the full triumph of faith leaving a husband and children to mourn her loss, aged 49 years. N. B.

Shady Lee, only son of M. and Dosbey House, died Aug. 10, 1884, at Franklin, Tennessee. Come home to Heaven.

H. PRIMM

C. D. [illegible] was a brother and [illegible] departed this life [illegible] on August 27, [illegible] A few [illegible] his loss.

BIRDEN GRAY.

Monroe Station, La.

Oakland, Texas, Sept 4, 1884, John Wesley Eason, infant son of Sister Winnie and Bro. Jordan Eason, died Aug. 25, 1884. May the Lord in his goodness console the bereaved parents

E. E. COOPER.

Little James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson, was born July 4, 1872, and died Sept 25, 1884. He had been taught, and died in the full triumph of faith. He lived 12 years, 2 months and 21 days. His last words were "Jesus is sweet." While passing away he desired that they sing his favorite hymn. He sleeps in peace. "The angel of the Lord encampeth around about them that fear him." E. M. CARTER.

New Orleans, La.

In Memoriam.

Hall Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst by death our kind, devoted and beloved sister Eulalie Sams.

Resolved, That while we bow with all meekness and humility to the decree of the Almighty, still we cannot but deplore the loss of one whose life has been devoted to ministering to the sick, and who has practiced all the virtues that go toward making women admired and esteemed.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the family and relations of the deceased in their sad bereavement, and tender them this as an expression of our heart felt sympathies.

Resolved, That as a testimonial of respect to our deceased sister, the members of this society wear the usual badge of mourning for [illegible] days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

IDA V. ROGERS,
ELIZA WALKER,
ELLEN S. BIBBS, Com.

Simply Wonderful!

The cures that are being made in nearly all chronic diseases, by a new Vitalising Treatment, which is taken by inhalation and which acts directly on the weakened nerve centres and vital organs, restoring them to the normal activities which had been lost are simply wonderful. If you are in need of such a treatment, write to Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1109 Girard street, Philadelphia, for such documents and reports of cases as will enable you to judge for yourself whether it will be of any use in your particular case.

It is estimated 34,000 persons have been converted in England since last fall through Moody's efforts.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

"We believe that the Methodist Church and its ministry constitute in this country the chief power of the temperance movement."—Baltimore Methodist.

"The Holy Father grants on the day of the festival, Oct. 5th, or on any day during the Octave, a plenary indulgence to be gained by those who have worthily received the sacraments of penance and communion, and have prayed in the church, according to the mind of his Holiness."—Morning Star (Rom. Catholic.) By what authority?

With reference to the murder of Henry Clay's grandson, in Louisville, the Ohio Falls Herald says: "Perhaps when the mayor of Louisville and a few more judges fail to satisfy personal passion, some jury will be found to sentence a "white" man to be hung in Kentucky."

The Omniscient has not gone into exile from this world, nor has He withdrawn His hand from its affairs.—Western.

The Christian must have constant work, for grace feels a vacuum as well as nature.—Zion's Watchman.

Now the Negro's wisdom is to take gratefully the place, large or small, that God assigns, and stick in it, and by it make the most of himself, and get out of it all the benefits of which it is capable of yielding.—Baptist Advocate.

It is becoming more and more the custom to prelude the social services of prayer with an exercise of praise.—Zion's Herald.

"That Mr. Gay is capable of something more than strict justice, and is a kind and benevolent old gentleman, the following from our influential contemporary, the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, amply testifies.—Louisiana Standard.

The Negro does not go [illegible] Prohibition party rapidly [illegible] same reason that the [illegible] does not.—Christian Recorder.

Every man in the world is a Christian or he is not a Christian. —Methodist Recorder.

[illegible] of getting [illegible] is to [illegible] pensions and other [illegible] of the kind in them.—Birmingham, Ala., Review.

The connectional theory of our Church looks to a regular system of transfers.—Nashville Christian Advocate.

Select Proverbs.

Better bend than break.

All's well that ends well.

A stumble may prevent a fall.

A hasty man never wants woe.

All men are not men—Italian.

Bold and shameless men are masters of the world.

Consider not pleasures as they come but to go.

A man in distress or despair does as much as ten.

Deep rivers move in silence; shallow brooks are noisy.—Roscoe Conkling.

Fortune sometimes favors those whom she afterwards destroys.—Ital.

A man is little the better for liking himself if nobody else likes him.

Consider well who you are, what you do, whence you come, and whither you go.

A fool may ask more questions in an hour than a wise man can answer in seven years.

He who loses money loses much; he who loses friends loses more; but he who loses his spirits loses all.

The Salvation Army of England, recently raised $50,000 at Exeter Hall, London. After raising the money the "General" stated they had determined upon starting a Salvation Navy, that a steamer would be employed and they would sail round the coast of the Mediterranean, bombarding places and looking after Egypt!

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conference.	Place.	Time.	Bishop.
N Dakota and the Fargo, Dakota	Oct	2	Fowler
N.W. German Charles City, Ia	Oct	2	Ninde
Cent Tenn	Dickson, Tenn	Oct	8 Bowman
Black Hills Ia	Sturgis City, Dak	Oct	8 Andrews
Cent. N. York	Elmira, N. Y	Oct	8 Harris
Erie	Erie Pa	Oct	8 Warren
Genesee	Medina, N. Y	Oct	8 Merrill
Minnesota	Duluth Minn	Oct	8 Fowler
Georgia	Mount Zion, Ga	Oct	9 Warren
Arizona Mission	Phœnix Arizona	Oct	9 Foss
New Mex Mis	Socorro, New Mex	Oct	15 Foss
Tennessee	Memphis, Tenn	Oct	16 Bowman
Holston	Greenville, Tenn	Oct	16 Warren
Alabama	Birmingham Ala	Oct	16 Walden
Central China Mis	Kin Kiang China	Oct	16 Wiley
West Tenne see	Kingston, Tenn	Oct	23 Warren
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov	19 Wilson
South India	Bangalore, India	Nov	20 Burt
Texas	Navasota, Texas	Nov	20 Hargis
Cent'l Alabama	Gadsden, Ala	Nov	26 Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov	27 Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec	3 Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec	4 Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La	Dec	24 Haddix

Okolona District—Mississippi Conference.

Fourth Round.

Grove shore	Oct.	11-12
Double Springs	"	13 14
Crawford	"	18 19
West Point circuit	"	23-24
Columbus	"	28 29
Union Grove	Nov.	1 2
Aberdeen circuit	"	6
Athens at Tabernacle, morning	"	8-9
Aberdeen charge, night	"	9-10
Buena Vista	"	16 17
Okolona	"	18-19
Okolona circuit	"	19-20
Houston	"	22-23
Corinth	"	25
Corinth circuit	"	26
Corinth mission	"	27
New Albany	"	29-30
Ripley	Nov. 30 and Dec.	1
Bonesville	"	3- 4
Pontotoc	"	6 7
Tupelo	"	7- 8
Whitefield	"	10 11
Starkville circuit	"	13-14
Tampico	"	13-14
Starkville charge	"	14-15
Columbus circuit	"	16

West Point charge at 10 o'clock a. m., December 18. District Conference at 12 a. m., December 18, 1884.

Dear brethren, we have the largest district in the State; shall we not have the largest reports in the State, or shall we second none. Come, brethren, what say you about this. Shall we look for every brother to bring up a good report, or let the several benevolences of our Zion be carefully provided for. Will the pastors see that the committees appointed by the several quarterly conferences do their duties. Please don't forget our district centennial educational subscription books. We shall have the programmes out by Nov. 1, if not sooner.

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Notice.

To the Members of the Tennessee Conference:

Dear Brethren—Round trip tickets at four cents per mile will be sold by the railroads as follows; On the Memphis branch of the Louisville and Great Southern Railroad, from all stations, between McKenzie and Memphis, and from Paris Tennessee River, Clarksville and Guthrie to Memphis and return; and on the Louisville and Nashville and Decatur branch, from Mitchellsville, Gallatin, Franklin, Tennessee, Ewells and Columbia to Nashville and Athens and up the Nashville Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad round trip tickets from Doyle, McMinnville, Tullahoma, Shelbyville, Murfreesboro, Lebanon, Nashville, Decatur, Johnsonville, Huntington, Martin, Gardner Union City to McKenzie.

Brethren, please buy the round trip tickets, unless you are supplied with clergyman's reduced permits.

Greek in English. College Greek Course in English. By William Clever Wilkinson. Seventh Thousand.

The examining committees will meet in the church in Memphis at 10 o'clock, on Wednesday, Oct. 15. Let all members of the different classes be present for examinations in the conference studies. Candidates for admission should be present by Thursday, Oct. 16th. Brethren will try to have their statistics ready to hand in the first day of the conference session.

J. BRADEN, Secretary.

Jackson Dist.—Mississippi Con.

Centennial programme to convene in Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 24, 25 and 26, 1884:

The Organization of the M. E Church—Rev. J. M. Shumpert, P. E.

The Freedmen's Aid Society—Rev. J. W. Parks.

The Work of Asbury—Rev. A. Davis.

What Has the M. E. Church Done for the Colored People before the War—Rev. A K Davis.

The Emancipation of the Slave, and His Progress—Rev. J. I. Garrett.

The Mississippi Conference—Rev. A. Handy.

Rust University, and Its Needs—Rev. C. P Head.

The Missionary Society—Rev. B Stuart.

Church Extension Society—Rev. R. McAlpine.

The Relation that Sunday-school Has to the Benevolence of the Church—Rev. H. W Wallace.

Why all Members Should Have a Centennial Medal of the M. E. Church—Rev. P. H Davis.

The Work of the Late General Conference—Hon. S W. Lewis

The Discipline of the M. E Church—Rev. E Graves.

Miss Maggie Davis and Z Davis, of Canton, Miss., and Miss Nellie Carter, of Jackson, Miss., Miss Carrie Miller, Vicksburg, are expected to read essays to the Sunday-school. All local preachers and members and friends are earnestly requested to be there. The editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is most cordially invited to be present.

J M. SHUMPERT, P. E.
J. I. GARRETT, Secretary.

For All Brain-workers.

Mr. J. R. Francis, of the Religio Philosophical Journal, Chicago, says: "Parker's Tonic is the specific for all the ills that literary flesh are heir to. I have used it for digestive disorders, and for coughs, colds and pains generally. Workers on the Press, in the Law, the School and the pulpit will find it the right thing.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.

CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849 Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. E. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolson, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.

DIRECTORS.

Joseph Sterling, W. A. Lyman, S. C. Conlon, Lucien Deley, E. F. W. Bachman, Chas E Rice, Sam H. Kennedy, U Marioni, Harry L Walsh, Charles Newman, O. K. David, Joseph Kohn, Geo. W. Sentell, Chas. H. Dolson, Wm. A. Phelps, N D. Wallace Wm. Garig, Chas M. Whitney, Alfred Moulton, John Walker, J. J Reiss, Sigmund Katz, A. Rosenfeld, James T. Rodd, W R Conger, A H. Stewart, Louis Prados, M. Gillis, John D. Fisher.

See our Agents throughout the South. oct9 1y

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,

Cocoa and Canton Matting, Floor Oilcloths, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain goods, Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Wire Screens, Etc.

75 Camp Street..... New Orleans.

Liberal discount to the trade. Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct9 6m

Books and Current Literature.

The Probationer's Catechism and Compendium. Religious, Historical, Doctrinal, Disciplinary and Practical. By S. Olin Garrison, with an introduction by Rev. J. O. Peck. New York: Phillips & Hunt. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe.

This is a useful text book for new beginners in Methodist Christian ity. It is a small tract in paper covers. As to matter, it is multum in parvo. The author is a successful pastor, who has felt the need and supplied the want of a guide book for those who are preparing for a life in the Christian church. The book is cheap, and every pastor can afford to supply his probationers with a copy.

Our Missionary Heroes and Heroines; or Heroic Deeds Done in Methodist Missionary Fields. By Daniel Wise, D. D.

Next to Stephens, in the volume of his writings among Methodists stands Dr. Wise. The literary taste displayed in his works is second to none. The book before us tells the story of missionary sacrifices and Christian heroism, unexcelled by that of any age. Giving the church who sent them forth a right to peerage with the church of all the ages, because of its willingness to suffer all things for the cross. Beginning with Nynee Tal as a frontispiece, it contains five illustrations. There are 275 pages, cloth cover, and 16 chapters, thoroughly indexed. Price $1 per copy. Published by Phillips & Hunt, New York; Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati.

The New Testament of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. The text in the authorized translation, with a commentary and critical notes by Adam Clarke, LL. D., F. S. A., etc. A new and brief edition, condensed and supplemented from the best modern authorities. By Daniel Curry, LL. D.—Vol. 2. The Epistles and Revelation. Price per volume: Cloth, $3; sheep, $4: Phillips & Hunt, New York; Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati.

The first volume contains the Gospels and the acts of the Apostles. The work has always occupied a high place in the estimation of Bible students, and under the revision of Dr. Curry, we do not hesitate to say it has been greatly improved. Material was accessible to him through recent discoveries in the scientific and Biblical world, which have been greatly conducive to success in his work. His own qualifications for the work need not be pointed out to any of our readers, so well are they known throughout our church. Ministers who want a commentary at once, reliable in its doctrines, abreast of the times in manner and matter of statement, concise and pungent in all its expressions, should get this work. We can only wish that it was in size like those of Dr. Whedon, as many of our preachers still carry their library in their saddle bags or great coat pocket.

There can be no doubt that the coinage of the silver dollar of the present standard of fineness can be carried much too far, and will reach a point where a limit should be put to it.—The Current.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting called to meet in the Baptist Church, corner of Howard and Cypress streets, at 12 o'clock m.,

October 11, 1884.

The object of the meeting is to consider the expediency and practicability of forming an organization for the elevation of the Negro Race in Louisiana, without reference to denominations.

J. F. WINSTON. U. G. N. D.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6 50 Circulars free. se18 13t

Nursing mothers are reduced by overtaxing of the nerve power before or right after drain upon the system induced by [illegible] and at once commence using [illegible] and a daily bath it will give strength to the mother, and improve the supply of the little one. Remember, Ridge's Food has been in use for thirty years in England and America, therefore is no an untried preparation. In cans, four sizes—35c 65c., $ 35 and $1.75 Sold by Druggists. WOOLRICH & CO., on label.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE, September 25, 1884.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8 7-16; Middling 9¼; Good Middling, 10 1-16; Middling fair, 10 8-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¼@5½; White clarified, 6@—; Common 3@4¼c.

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 11@13; fair, 18@25; choice, 40@—c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4½@4¾; fair, 5@5¼; choice, 5¼@5¾.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4½.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western, 20@25.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 9½; prime, 11½.

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory 12.

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $2.25@2.40.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4.15; Choice, 3.90; Family, 4.00.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 7½@8½.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 75; Fine, 1.35.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $1 60@1.70; sweet potatoes, ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $1.50@1.75; apples, ℔ bbl. $1.00@3.00; cabbages, $1.25@1.50 per crate; sour kront, $4.00@4 50 per barrel.

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 62@63; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $16.50.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 13; shoulders, 7@7½; sides, short rib, 11@11½; sides, long clear, 11½@11½; hams, sugar-cured, 15c.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 10; clear sides, 10; shoulders, 6.

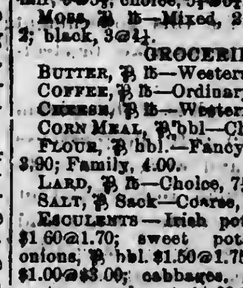
POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.25@3.50; young $2 00@2 50; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.00@; turkeys $9.00@12.00.

Western Eggs 18@22c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 24@26c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 50@75c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.



Western Poultry—Grown chickens $5.00@$5.50 ℔ dozen; young do. $2.00@4.00; ducks $3.50@4.00—; geese $4.00@5.00; turkeys $12.00@15.00.

GRAIN AND FEED.

CORN, in sacks, ℔ bushel—Yellow, —; white, 66; mixed, 65.

OATS, ℔ bushel—Western, 38

BRAN, ℔ 100 lbs—Choice, 72½@75.

I owe my Restoration to Health and Beauty to the CUTICURA REMEDIES."

Testimonial of a Boston lady.

DISFIGURING Humors, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching Tortures, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and Infantile Humors cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, expels the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the cause.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair.

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite, prepared from CUTICURA is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure, and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 25 cents; Resolvent, $1. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON, MASS.

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. sept6

WE WOULD LIKE TO PUT INTO THE hands of every sunday-school worker in the land a copy of "Letters from Sunday-school Singers and Workers." These "Letters" are enthusiastic commendations of our new Sunday-school book.

GRATEFUL PRAISE,

By J. H. FILLMORE.

And represents the opinions of Ministers, Superintendents, Choristers, Teachers and Scholars who are using the book. We send the "Letters" FREE to any address

Sample copy of GRATEFUL PRAISE mailed for 25 cents. Price, per dozen, by express, $3 60. per dozen, by mail $4 Address FILLMORE BROS., 185 Race street, Cincinnati Ohio.

N. B.—This book is printed in patent figure notes for those who prefer that notation. oct9 4t

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof. C. T. SIMPSON, B. A. Dean of College of Liberal Arts.

A. P. HOYT, A. M., S. L. B. Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, La. sept4-3m

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 42. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, OCTOBER 16, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 781.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

12 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cas

Editorial Notes.

Oh, Thou the Author and the Prince of peace,
Head of the Church and ruler of the nations!
Both Church and State abundantly increase;
And their chief governmental convocations
Replenish with great wisdom and great patience;
Supreme! within their halls thyself preside,
And 'mid the storm of passions and temptations,
The vessels safely o'er the billows guide,
In fellowship, distinct, defying wind and tide.

The SOUTHWESTERN has become very popular among the people of this place.—Rev. E. Collins.

We have an article from M. M. H. at Holly Grove, Mississippi, which we are holding and cannot print until we have the name of the writer in full.

A well written communication entitled "Helping an Appointment" cannot be printed, because it has neither name, place or date attached.

Wealthy colored men, while they live are too stingy to give, and when they die to either their equals or superiors, whites, their riches do fly.—Clement Kimbrough.

It is marvelous to consider how many special providences are narrated in 136 Psalm, and with what indifference Christians consider them. Truly God is good to Israel and his mercies endureth forever.

In three weeks, or rather two weeks and three Sabbaths, we have visited six churches and preached or delivered adresses in them, and the district conferences and Sunday schools which come in our way.

I like the SOUTHWESTERN and so long as the present manly, upright course is pursued, you may count on our doing all we can to get subscribers and to have them read and heed its teachings.—C. W. Campbell.

The history of Daniel James, has not been sent to our office. Neither have we ever received a cent for publishing it. We would be glad to always accommodate our patrons, but we cannot control matters in transit. Find some way to reach and we will give you satisfaction.

Home and Herd for October comes to our sanctum, bearing its usual burden of elevating and instructive matter, and as usual profusely, [illegible] illustrated. [illegible] from Burma, an article on "Samuel Godon: West [illegible] Missionary Academy," with a portrait of [illegible] Rob[illegible] and a large number of [illegible] incidental connection with Whitaker institution at West Point some years ago. It concludes with a free and easy talk by the learned editor, whose facile pen does not falter when uplifted against the pernicious, or in favor of the proprieties of life—Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati.

I am delighted with the SOUTHWESTERN. You are doing grandly as I knew you would. God bless you.—A. H. Gillett.

Shall our mechanics compete with the panper product, or with the pauper in person.—National Free Press.

Under the free trade, free liquor, convict labor regime you would inaugurate, he must contend with both.

Four assessments already sent in for the wages of poor men who are working in the United States Service, with a hope of honestly supporting themselves and those dependent upon them. There are possibly six more to follow. Resistance to such procedure would be a virtue. Civil Service Reform lingers in the East, but it will reach this region by spring.

Rev. W. W. Heston, Troy, Ohio, furnishes us the following sketch of a sermon delivered there by Rev. Joseph Courtney, the presiding elder, Sept. 28. Sermon—Text: John 3-16. 1. God's love gives precious things. 2. God's love overcomes great difficulties. 3. God's love makes great sacrifices. 4. God's love contemplates lasting benefits.

Can it be true that a large number of the Protestant Episcopal Church are indolent, immoral and tending to degradation? We had heard it stated and began in part to believe that it was the church of the elite of the South. Is there not some mistake? We should be pleased to hear from Rev. J. T. Hargrove upon this subject, as we believe he is a member of that church, and possessing unusual sources of information on this subject.

Centennial Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore city, Washington Conference, in connection with other charges of the district, holds a centennial service in Centennial Church, from Nov. 12-15, for the purpose of raising means to free that charge of debt, and of diffusing denominational information among the people. Our old friend, Rev. W. T. Harris, the pastor, has fought faithfully for the cancellation of this debt, and deserves to succeed.

W. H. Dickerson, Esq., Shelbyville, Ky., writes: "I have been taking the SOUTHWESTERN since July 1st, and am highly pleased with it. I think it a first class paper. The day it is due I hasten to get and read it over and over and over and over; I then wish for the next week to come. Reading it has awakened my thoughts. I want to do all I can for my Lord and my race."

We hope that we shall soon be able to chronicle great progress in co operative industry among us —Illustrated Christian Weekly.

Yes, instead of keeping constantly in debt at the order store, cotton, sugar farm hands and laborers generally should unite, both for production as well as consumption. Co operative stores, farms, mills, etc., are in order. Who will lead off in this line among the Negroes? Here is the starting point for real prosperity.

Education for the Masses and the Ministry.

An Appeal to Laymen.

BY REV. H. GRAHAM, D. D.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has been an especial champion of the education of the masses. In the field of higher education she has done grandly, but in diffusing knowledge among the people our Church stands without a rival. Our immense Book Concern has sent out periodicals and books by the million to reach the people and elevate them; and our conference academies have been centers of learning in all parts of the land. No sooner does the Church spread over new territory in the South or West than a school is established or a college founded, which becomes a center of both piety and learning. The policy of our Church has been to both Christianize and educate the people.

And this fact has called for and made necessary the education of the ministry of the Church. If the people are educated the ministry must be. We must either cease educating the people or we must educate their ministers. The pulpit can never lift the people higher than itself. They may climb higher by other instrumentalities, but such a process can only bring the pulpit into contempt. If the pews are superior to the pulpit, the pews will soon be in revolt against the pulpit.

Ministers recognize this, and where they have been denied the advantages of early literary training many of them are suspending their ministry for a few years that they may attend the college or the theological school and supply the deficiency. Others are pursuing courses of study in connection with their ministerial duties, and are passing examinations for graduation under a system that many colleges have adopted.

Our Church has always recognized the need of ministerial education, and has provided for it as Providence has opened the way. And the time has come when, to a great extent, the demand for ministerial education can be met.

And now we must look at some of the practical questions that arise in connection with this subject. Our theory is that God calls men into the ministry. Infinite wisdom chooses the men who are to stand in Methodist pulpits. If men made the selection, if the Church had the choice in this matter, there is little doubt that a different result would be reached; but God calls men to this work, and, for some reason, he almost invariably calls young men from the ranks of poverty. It is the poor boys of our land, with few exceptions, who find their way into Methodist pulpits. And competent authority declares that the same is true of other Churches. Now, here is a significant fact at the very outset. Infinite wisdom surveys the field, and, for some reason, almost always chooses poor young men for the Gospel ministry. It may be presumed that God acts with wisdom in this respect, although his decisions may be a matter of surprise to us. It has been one of the standing wonders of my life why Christian young men of wealth do not consider it a privilege to go to mission fields, and, at their own expense, preach Christ to the heathen. But it is not so. It is the poor boys, with a few noble exceptions, who hear the voice of God calling them to His work.

And the puzzling question is upon us—"How shall these poor young men be educated for the work of God?" The question mainly affects the Church, for her standing and influence in the world must depend on the character of the men she places in her pulpits. The ranks of about 11,000 ministers must be kept full; how shall these poor young men be educated for their work?

Two answers have been given. The first is, Let these young men educate themselves as best they can. The Church can accept them only when they are trained for their work; she can assume no responsibility for their training. The very opposite would seem to be the rational opinion. The Church knows best what kind of training her servants need, and she should regulate training, and insist on it. But the responsibility referred to in this answer is generally interpreted to mean financial responsibility. Let these young men meet the expense of their own education.

If poor young men must wholly educate themselves for the ministry, one of these results must follow:

First, they must abandon the idea of entering the ministry. And it may be feared that many do this. Baffled by obstacles on the right hand and on the left, harassed by poverty and misfortune, after a struggle of longer or shorter duration, they turn aside to some calling that exacts less literary training, and spend the balance of life with bowed heads and crushed spirits, weighed down by the consciousness that they did not measure up to the lofty ideal that God pointed out to them. But it may be said that such a process is admirable for sifting out the weaker and poorer material, and insuring "the survival of the fittest" for our pulpits. It is sufficient answer to such a claim that there would not be enough of the "fittest" to fill all our pulpits. For some reason God calls a great many ordinary men to his work, and the methods of the Church ought not to exclude them from the work, but fit them for it. It may be said, also, that if God calls a man to the ministry He will somehow enable him to get the training necessary for his work. In spite of such a dictum, it is yet true that much time and much money are necessary to acquire this training, and there is no proof that God will work miracles to furnish a young man with money when he has a wealthy Church in the earth that refuses to see or accept its responsibility.

In the second place, if poor young men are not entirely prevented from entering the ministry by lack of assistance, many of them will be forced to enter it without sufficient preparation. Many set out with the purpose to pursue a full course of study, but find it an undertaking beset with great difficulties and harassing delays, and after many thwartings and misgivings, conclude to enter the ministry with only a partial preparation. Here is a door through which multitudes pass, not because they desire to do so, but because they feel they can not do otherwise. Years are wasted in the slow process of earning money, by the humblest employments, to push themselves through a course of study until they reach an age which, they think, forbids them to go further. Some of our Conferences have passed resolutions advising young men to take a course in our schools before entering the ministry, but, in spite of resolutions, some knock at the doors almost every session with the plea that they have done the best they could, and are too old to complete a full course of study. And Conference committees admit the plea, as they are compelled to do under present arrangements, and recommend their reception on trial. Some of those who thus enter, when their finances improve, suspend their ministry for a time, and return to schools to make their outfit more complete. A much greater number continue to struggle on, hampered and limited by lack of preparation, and regretting to their latest days that they felt compelled to undertake the mighty work of the Gospel ministry without a thorough training. It is an occasion of profound regret that any man should feel obliged to enter on this ministry without having had opportunity to make the most of himself for God and humanity. But there can be no doubt that multitudes do enter it with what they recognize to be only a partial and inadequate preparation simply for want of means to take a full course of study.

Still, again, if poor young men escape the temptation to abandon the ministry or enter unprepared, and insist on going through a complete course of study, they will be obliged, in spite of their most heroic efforts, to postpone their entrance on this work until some of the best years of their lives are past. If a young man must earn the money necessary to take a complete course of study by working in the hay-field, and chopping wood, and sawing timber, and teaching school, canvassing for books, it is morally certain that several years of valuable time will be consumed, and he can get to the work to which God has called him only by his thirtieth year or later. In such an event, at least five of the best years of life are gone—years richest in hope and enthusiasm, and generally real success. And the terrible struggle to complete a course of study under such circumstances, while having great value in many respects, yet tends to take the hope and life and enthusiasm out of a young man, and fill him with doubt and misanthropy, and turn the keen edge of his love for the Church; so that, when at last he is ready, he enters on his work stripped, to an extent, of those very qualities that would insure success. And to all this is generally added a crushing debt, which worries and humbles him for years after he has commenced his ministry. Who that has served on Conference committees has not passed judgment on such men—men thoroughly trained for their work, yet lacking the life and enthusiasm necessary for large success? It is not wise that men who have pluck and perseverance to push through a full course of study should be subjected to this often disastrous ordeal.

When it is asked, How shall these poor young men be educated for the ministry? the best answer is not, Let them educate themselves as best they can.

A much wiser answer is, Let the Church help them to an education. And the Church is trying to give this answer to the question. She has deliberately recognized and assumed a responsibility in this matter. And by the answer, Let the Church help them to education, is not meant that the young men are to do nothing, and wait for the Church to furnish the entire means for their training. Rather, the plan is to let the young men do their utmost, and then the Church will so supplement their best endeavors as to prevent a cruel waste of time and temper.

We have literary institutions that desire to furnish free tuition and further aid to young men preparing for the ministry; and we have a general Educational Society whose main purpose is to assist them. Is not this Centennial year a time to thoroughly endow our literary institutions, and put the Educational Society officially denominated the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church on a firm basis, so that the Church can offer to its ministers and its members the broadest Christian culture? And if that work is not fully accomplished during this Centennial year of our Church organization, should it not be kept prominently before the minds of our people until it is done?—The Christian Advocate.

Woman's Home Missionary Work.

Letter From Sister Howells.

DEAR EDITOR—I have spent a few days on Bro. T. Cole's work; took several names for membership and received a few subscriptions for Woman's Home Missions; total $2.05. On Bro. W. Hamilton's work I met with small success, and left the work in the hands of two good sisters who will, I doubt not, soon be ready to organize an auxilary; two subscribers; cash 70 cts. I am now at Bryan trying to persuade parents to make some provision for their children by becoming members the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Please let the preachers on the Huntsville district know I hope to visit as many points as possible this year, if health permits. Bryan $1.85.

ISABELLA HOWELLS.

New Orleans, La.—Mrs. M. L. Dale writes: "Dear Editor—On Sunday, October 6, 1884, I left here for Camp Parapet. On my arrival at the Carrollton car station I found a wagon in readiness to take me the remainder of my journey. I reached the church, where Bro. Johnson was to be seen at his post of duty, while many friends and members of the church were awaiting my arrival, and, indeed a very cordial reception was tendered me. I organized a society here of twenty-five persons. Crossing the Mississippi river at 4 o'clock the same evening, I reached St. Mathews M. E. Church, at Algiers, where I also organized an association with a membership of 20 persons, all ladies. I was led to conclude that Bro. R. C. Barrow is the proper person in the right place. I begin to believe that God is blessing this work. I have just received news from our Society in Thibodaux, apprising me of the fact that the destitute persons among the white people have called on the Home Missionary Society of that place for assistance, and were accordingly relieved."

The movement of Methodism in this country has been prodigiously accelerated in the last few years. It is estimated that more than twelve hundred new church-buildings are erected every year by all the bodies of Methodism in United States. This rapid rate of building churches is only the beginning of an era which is to astonish the world.

From the Districts.

Ohio District Conference—Lexington Conference.

BY JOSEPH COURTNEY, P. E.

The twenty-fourth session of is conference convened in McKeag venne M. E. Church, Troy, Ohio, hursday, Sept. 25, 1884.

Troy is a cosy little village, with a genius population of about 5,000, located in the Miami Valley, 80 miles North of Cincinnati. As usnal, quite a number of the members were present, together with Joseph Courtney, presiding elder, in the chair. In the organization of the conference, committees were constituted to consider all the important connectional interests of the Church. The business sessions resembled very much those of an annual conference. The presiding elder's report gave a clear, concise elucidation of the district, both temporally and spiritually, as progressing in both spheres, despite the hard times and extreme closeness in money matters. The reports of the pastors had a better ring, and more interesting than formerly, they clearly indicated that thorough work was being done throughout the district. The reports showed also, that the benevolent causes had received more attention than at any time heretofore, this early in the conference year, and a considerable increase in collections may be expected. Visible signs of mental and moral growth were characteristic of the pastors, which is essential to succeed in this district. The characters of local preachers and exhorters were carefully examined, one exhorter was licensed to preach. The local preachers were subjected to a critical examination in the course of studies, as prescribed by the bishops; none were advanced in their studies.

Another interesting feature of the session was the literary exercises, which were highly spoken of by the audience as being superb. Also several inspiring sermons were preached, which left their impression upon the people. Appropriate memorial services were held in memory of our much lamented Bishop Simpson, in which several short, creditable addresses were made.

In consideration of what the presiding elder suggested in regard to the SOUTHWESTERN, a resolution was unanimously adopted requesting and urging each pastor to make herculaneous efforts, to greatly increase the circulation of that publication among his parishioners. Upon the whole it was quite a profitable and harmonious session.

New Orleans District.

The New Orleans District Conference convened in session at the Clinton Street M. E. Church, September 11, 1884, L. P. Cushman, presiding elder, presiding. J. W. Hudson was elected Secretary, and A. J. Ford and J. F. Hamilton, assistant secretaries. The roll call showed quite a full attendance of the clerical members. Elijah Clark and Alexander Connerly were both absent, and engaged in revival work.

The business of the conference was conducted through. The reports from the several charges showed that there was on the district 34 Sunday-schools, with 2,648 scholars enrolled, making an increase of over 600 since the last session of the Annual Conference. Gracious revivals of religion were reported from nearly all the charges, and over 450 had been received on probation since conference.

The reports of the class leaders were generally full of promise, and indicated faithfulness on their part. The 14 leaders at Union Chapel had made in six months 2,096 visits, and their class collections were $432.30.

While all the churches are feeling the pressure of the hard times, the financial condition of most of the charges was represented as encouraging. Over $2,200 has been [illegible] expended in repairs and [illegible] of old debts. The [illegible] of the conference were a success. The papers read and the questions discussed showed that the writers had been both reading and thinking, and where all did so well it would seem out of place to bestow special commendation upon any one. And yet it is safe to say that no session was more interesting or gave greater satisfaction than the one given to the Woman's Home Missionary Society. The speeches and talks of the ladies were all instructive and appropriate. Sister Dale presided with the greatest ease and becoming dignity. This meeting was counted by all a grand success, and elicited the most commendable remarks from all.

During the conference, Marshall W. Taylor, D. D., editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, gave us a short call, was introduced, and spoke on the relation of the SOUTHWESTERN to our church work in the South. The conference gave Dr. Taylor a hearty welcome, and pledged him their individual support and co-operation. Prof. A. F. Hoyt, A. M., President of the New Orleans University, and Gilbert Haven School of Theology, was introduced, and spoke of the magnitude and importance of our educational work in the South, and his present relation to it.

Few men in the Methodist Episcopal Church are more highly esteemed by the members of the Louisiana Annual Conference than J. C. Hartzell, D. D. The duties of his office brought him to New Orleans while the conference was in session. He gave us a call and a talk upon what the Church proposes to do for the cause of Christian education in the South this centennial year. Sabbath night he preached to a crowded house a sermon abounding with Gospel truth, and free from all sensational exhibits.

The appointments for the local preachers were read, and the conference adjourned, some of us never to meet again till we cross over Jordan. L. P. C.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. G. W. Townsend, Goliad, West Texas Conference, writes: "The district conference and Sunday school convention was held here. We had a grand time. It was good to be here. Our hearts were inspired to do more in the Sunday-school cause than ever before. On Sunday we had a Sunday-school love feast, with the little folks. At night Rev. G. O. Richardson preached a very interesting sermon. Several came forward to the altar, and desired to be prayed for. Three of them were converted to God. On the next evening, while Rev. W. H. Stephens was preaching, another one was converted."

Rev. Wm. Perry, Old Town, writes: "We have had a very prosperous time. The presiding elder was with us at our first quarterly conference. We have received 24 members this year. The people are poor and unable to pay me anything for my labors, but I am trusting in God."

Rev. A. Lemons, Picken, Miss. writes: "I am glad to say that my charge is in a prosperous condition. The Rev. Dr. Revels, our presiding elder, was with us and held our quarterly conference. The reports showed that we were in a progressive condition. The elder preached two grand sermons, 69 communed, and we certainly had a grand time."

Rev. G. W. Smith, South end of Augusta circuit, writes from Americus, Miss.: "I came to this place on February 11, 1883; I found the people in a state of desperation. A good many of them had been persuaded into the Zion Church by misrepresentation of our church by their preachers. But I left the ninety and nine, like the good shepard of old, and went after them that had gone astray, and I have been successful in overtaking and bringing them home with rejoicing. At one point I found no house of worship, at another the brethren had been for seven years trying to build one but had made a failure. The logs had lain in the woods and rotted. But Sister Ma. Fewilla, a widow, came to me for a paper and went forth to beg money to build the Lord a house. She has raised almost enough to build a nice frame church, and it will be completed in a few days."

Dennis Edmonds, Pleasanton, Texas, writes: "I have just closed a three days' meeting. We are now making preparations for a camp meeting on the 27th. Four new members this year. I am thankful, after going to the Sunday-school convention, that I am prepared to do more and better work for the Lord."

J. W. Cook, Little Rock, writes: "Our protracted meeting has just closed. We received in all fifty three members, baptized thirty, and as we received their hands our Savior received their hearts."

Wm. Campbell, Dear Hill, Miss., writes: "We are having a grand time. Our second quarterly conference was held on the 9th and and 10th of August. Rev. D. D. Goodwin was with us, and preached a splendid sermon. Forty-four received the sacrament. Total collection since the first quarterly conference $79.30."

Spencer Kelly, Wallisville Circuit, writes: "Our work is prosperous. The people here seem to take great interest in the SOUTHWESTERN. My third quarterly conference was held Aug. 23, 1884; Elder Lee was with us and preached a wonderful sermon. Thirty communed. Collection $17.15. Seven received into membership this year."

D. F. Dudley, Augusta, Miss., writes: "We were very successful in a basket meeting on the 24th. A great many were present. Rev. Peoples, from the M. E. Church South, was with us and preached a noble sermon; also Rev. Jno. Walker and Rev. James of the A. M. E. Church. Collection $20.65."

H. W. Wilson, Beanmont, Texas, writes: "Our second quarterly conference was held May 22; all members were present with good reports; also the third quarterly conference was held Aug. 16th and 17th; the reports were grand. The church is steadily increasing in membership. The Sunday-school is prosperous. The presiding elder was with us. He preached an excellent sermon, and administered the Lord's Supper to a great many. Collection $10.79."

Rev. J. W. Robinson, Lampasas, Texas, writes: "At Gatesville we have taken in a few members and organized quite a flourishing Sunday-school of thirty odd scholars. At Lampasas we are gliding on smoothly; our camp meeting resulted in quite a number of bright converts, mostly young men, the hope of our church. I have raised nearly all of my assessments, $14 20. I feel determined from this time forward to raise all of the church assessments, and not come dragging up to conference any more with the bell off. If the claim is presented in the proper time the last cent can be raised. A failure on the part of the minister to bring up these requirements is bad two ways: 1st, he feels bad; 2nd, he looks mighty bad. A flourishing Sunday-school of 30 scholars exists here. Our people out here are very much like they are in most other parts of our frontier work in this Southern country. Ignorance is the main garment. Ignorance, then, is quite an open door for missionary Baptist preachers to enter. The more ignorant the individual, the stronger Baptist and the better member he makes, and the easier he is converted to to that particular faith. The leading Baptist spirits here preach nothing under the shining sun but watery grave and John the Baptist. The 3d chapter of St. Mathew, or some place in the Book of St. John, is their favorite; and all you can hear is John and water. Oh, let me appeal to the King of kings, and call on the Lord of lords, and ask Israel's God what use has humanity for the shed blood of the Prschal Lamb, if salvation is in John and the watery grave. These poor unlearned Baptist preachers teach their congregations nothing but selfishness and close communion; whiskey is freely used and eagerly sought; a man is turned out of the Baptist Church for immorality and other dirt (not for whiskey drinking and getting drunk) on Saturday night, and brought back on Sunday following just as sure as you are born. You don't find many comfortable Baptist churches and high schools built in this country for Christian culture and mental training among the Baptist communicants. So in conclusion I will say that four-fifths of the nearly or quite seven millions of the poor, down-cast and degraded colored people must depend alone upon the M. E. Church to raise them into the high scales of intelligence and Christian culture. Yea, her schools, her teachers, her churches, her preachers, her money, her influence, her prayers and her tears alone can and must be depended upon to raise us to that rock that is higher than I, and to the M. E. Church, that was the stepping stone to the emancipation of four millions of slaves."

Rev. I. B. Griffin, Starkville, Miss., writes: "We have just about finished our new church, 38x60, and 16 feet high between floor and ceiling, with circular doors and one circular window in front; eight windows in the sides, eight feet high, built in the Gothic style. It is actually the finest in the city, white or colored. I have one of the best congregations and Sunday-schools in Conference. My congregation has raised $700 since I came here, which was in February. Let all come and see the second best church in the conference, next in beauty to the Aberdeen church, worth $2,000. I am now traveling with a musical concert for the purpose of raising the other."

J. A. W. Moore, Memphis circuit, Tennessee Conference writes: "My work is in a prosperous condition. St. John Chapel, twelve miles from this city, has a Sunday-school that numbers over one hundred pupils, with Bro. G. J. Wilcox as its leader, a young man who has his heart in the work. Our protracted meeting at this point was a success. We had nine conversions. On the 22st inst. I baptized seven infants, and you can see that these members believe in giving their children to Christ in their infancy. Bro. Chesterfield Sanders and Bro. Thos. Nelson, who have assisted me in gaining souls for Christ, are men who never get tired of working for our master. Roger's Chapel is my next point. I started protracted meeting before I left for the district conference which convened at Paris, Aug. 26th; I left the church and meeting in the hands of my local brethren, with Bro. Richard Rogers as leader. On my return I was met by some whom God had sent his spirit upon, telling me that they had found Christ. God gave us seven before I returned, and since then we have had eleven more, making eighteen in all at this point. We have four local ministers, viz. R. Rogers, L. A. Parker, W. Lobbins and J. Harris, whom God has set apart for his ministry. This church is composed of working Christians who have labored for five weeks and are still working for souls. Bro. Jordan Farrow, Wm. Bunton, Thomas Rogers and Bro. Edward Rogers, trustees, have succeeded in getting a church lot, and intend to build just as soon as possible. Our Sunday school at this point is in a growing condition; Bro. L. A. Parker is its leader. I never saw any one who took any more interest in the Sunday school. G. J. Wilcox and L. A. Parker are employed in our public school, and both are at home. Brethren, pray for me."

The paster of Roseneath Miss, writes: "I am glad to say that my work is in a prosperous condition. We have two appointments and a membership of 225 and 2 Sunday-schools containing an aggregate of 100 pupils. The Methodist doctrine is a grand thing. Our people know the law of the Methodist Episcopal Church and are doing much for its cause. We have raised $180, and will soon repair one of our churches on this circuit. When we took this charge everything seemed dark and and gloomy, but thank God the light is now come and the Son of God is shouting for joy. I am now preparing for the centennial collection. The Rev. L. N. Taylor lectured and preached here lately."

Rev. Nelson Thompson, Hopefield, Ark., writes: "I arrived here the first Sunday in July. My wife at first was very sick but through the assistance of God is now perfectly well. Though in the backwoods I am preaching the Gospel of Jesus, and the Lord is with us."

Rev. J. Burton, Double Springs, Miss., writes: "I have four appointments on my work. At Aberdeen have we just bought and paid for a lot on which we hope soon to build. Some white friends are helping us. Pray for our success."

Rev. A. Williams, Cold Springs, Texas, writes. "The church at Camillia Hill is growing. In a protracted meetidg which closed August 7, we had 14 conversions, 4 backsliders reclaimed, and received 20 on probation. When I came here there was but 58 members. We now have 163.

P. R. Crump, Lauderdale, Miss., writes: 'Children's day was observed here both with success and profit. Many verses were repeated from the Bible by the pupils. Collections $5.20. Our centennial will be duly observed."

Rev. A. S. Williams of Green Hill P. O., Miss., writes: "I came to my work on the 24th of January. I found 27 members and a good old soldier deacon, H. C. Crayton, who held them together. Next met another church 8 miles up the creek. Here I found 35 members; some were glad I came, and some said I had better go back, that they were unable to support a minister. I found in all five preaching places with 127 members, and 2 meeting houses; the circuit is 60 miles in circumference. The appearance of the flood soon put them in peril. They asked me to fly for refuge and this I did by making a brief visit to my mother. Then I heard of the death of Elder Barney, but at this time the whole land was under water. We went over the work in boats, and made our rounds. The first quarter we had no elder, but the second we heard the old veteran, Dr. Revels, was coming. Receipts, P. C., $36.60; P. E. $6.55; other causes, $20. And the water was up yet; and I had a hard time in June and July wading in mud and water to get to my appointed places to preach; sometimes up, and sometimes down—sometimes up on the water, and sometimes down in the mud. Out of all this I worked and prayed, and at the third quarter, which convened on Sept. 6, we reported four nices churches, one parsonage, and paid presiding elder, $11; pastor, $13, for building and repairing and other expenses, about $200. On Sunday we baptized 5 adults, and the presiding elder preached a wonderful sermon and administered the sacrament to 73; the collections were $9.65, and, up to Sept. 21, God has blessed the work with 20 conversions."

Rev. G. C. Harden, Lawreneeburg, Tenn., writes: "The following young ladies and gentlemen gave an entertainment for the purpose of buying the pastor a new suit of clothes for conference: Miss Sallie Esters, Miss Mattie Kandy, Miss Florence Collier, Mr. Chas. Smith, Mr. Jno. Esters and Mr. Wilcoxon. They raised $14 92, for which we are very thankful. Our church is doing well.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Sept. 18, 1884—C. G. Brooks writes: "We have just closed a revival on Pine Bluff circuit, at 'Algo Chapel,' which resulted in five conversions and 14 accessions to the church. Some among these came from the A. M. E Church, and others from the Baptist Church."

Hartford charge, Bowling Green District, Lexington Conference—James Bowren writes: "The third quarterly meeting was held here September 13th and 14th. The quarterly report is: One convert, two received on probation, benevolent collection, $17; Sunday-school, 90 scholars."

Rev. R. J. Campbell, Belleville, Texas, writes: "My work is in a prosperous condition. When I came here I found 70 members; now we have 90. Six have been converted and 14 reclaimed. One adult and two children have been baptized. Four were admitted into full membership."

Rev. A. Phillips, Murfreesboro, Tenn., writes: "Rev. Wesley Lillard is having grand success on the Stone River circuit. He has had a hundred converts. He is a grand worker in revivals. The Lord give us a general awakening in all our circuits and stations this year."

Rev. S. A. Allen, Waelder, Tex., writes: "On the 16th and 17th of August Elder Carmichael held quarterly meeting at Waelder and Peach Creek circuit. His coming was a blessing; he gave us new ideas about a good many things. On Sunday he preached two glorious sermons, and at night we had general class. Collections were $8.15. We are young, but determined to come to the front."

Rev. W. H. Brown, Twelfth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Portsmouth, Ohio, writes: "This church was organized four years ago. The membership is mainly converted sinners, who, from leaders in vice, have become exemplary Christians and citizens. We are at present without a place of our own in which to worship. The house we now use was formerly a Christian church, and we have it by consent of their pastor, Rev. Jordan Carter. We have used it from the beginning, but they now demand pay for it, and we have not the means. Now we need help. If 100 friends will send us $1 each we can overcome the trouble, and get on a permanent basis. We have a membership of 50, a good congregation, but the people were greatly damaged by the floods, and can do but little."

Rev. M. Fairfax, Gretna, La., writes: "I was recently in a basket meeting, where, among the refreshments, there was one bottle of wine, and another of whiskey. This was at a Baptist church in Gretna, Aug. 31."

Rev. Simon Evans, Centreville, La., writes: "Our three days' revival is just closed, with 16 converts and 26 probationers. Our second quarterly love feast passed off nicely. The church is in a good spiritual condition. Pray for us."

Rev. J. W. Davis, Trenton, Miss., writes: "Elder Shumpert held our third quarter Sept. 23, and preached for us a most impressive sermon. Fifty persons received the Lord's supper, and seven adults were baptized. We are now in our fourth protracted meeting; result: 38 conversions. We have had 51 additions in members, completed our church, except finishing doors, windows, etc. Paid presiding elder $5, and pastor $22.30. Pray for us."

Brenham circuit—Mrs. E. A. Roberts writes: "Our fourth quarterly conference was held Aug. 28, 29. It was the largest ever witnessed on this circuit. The class leaders, stewards and trustees were all on hand with written reports, showing a grand success, as well as much increase of membership. Rev. W. H. Jackson's report showed that at a protracted meeting 17 persons had been converted, while 28 had been received on probation; three by letters, and 26 into full membership. The pastor has received $106.50; presiding elder $26 65. There were 79 persons at the communion table. A petition, asking that the Bishop send the present pastor back to this charge, was received by the elder."

Rev. I. B. Scott, pastor at Galveston, writes: "Dear Editor—On the day appointed we opened the new St. Paul M. E. Church. At 3 o'clock p. m. the church was crowded, and the opening sermon was preached by the pastor. At 8 p. m., Rev. P. Morgan, pastor of our second church, preached to a large and appreciative congregation. The people seemed delighted, both with the services and the building. This and the Trinity, which we completed during our stay at Houston, are the finest buildings of our conference. We collected $305. We have a grand people."

Ninth Street Church, Covington, Ky.—Rev. A. MacDade reports the following return from a punch card campaign for the benefit of the church: Henry Cain, $ 35; James Conner, $4; Joseph Gray, $4 80; Martha Lewis, $.70; Lucia Neal, $2 70; Thomas Robbins, $1 10; G. Winn, $2.80; Thomas Martin, $1 30; Harriet Williams, $2.20; Ollie Winn, $11 50; Maggie Hill, $.60; Nancy Martin, $4 01; Emma Jones, $4; Joseph Howard, $19 40; Katie Poyntz, $.10; Florence McAfee, $1.05; Amanda Cox, $.50; Jane Conner, $45.19. Total collected, $116.

Rev. J. C. Mays, Victoria, Texas, writes: "We held our third quarterly meeting Sept. 13-14. Quarterly conference met at its eregnla. time. Rev. George W. Richardson presided. The attendance was poor, and the transaction of business [illegible] attendance. But good impressions were made upon the church. The presiding elder was received with true Christian heartiness. We are blessed with a working spirit here. Our Sunday-school is progressing nicely, except in finances. Our protracted meeting has been in progress a few days, and we have two converts and three restored."

Rev. J. J. Brar Henderson, Tennessee, writes: "Our fourth quarterly meeting was held September 13-14, and our beloved elder was on time. At 11 a. m. he attended the funeral of sister Emma Atkinson to a crowd of both races. At night 130 communed, 21 asked for prayers, and seven joined the church. Collections for the presiding elder, $10.65; for the pastor, $7.72."

Central Ala.—N. H. Speight writes: "The second and third conference were held at Oak Grove, Aug. 9-10. Elder E. B. McCauly, presiding in both instances. The Lord's supper was administered to 70 persons at Clinton Church, and 40 at Mount Moriah. Elder McCauley preached upon several occasions in these two churches. The spirit of God was vividly manifested with the Christians. One soul was converted during this meeting. The quarterly collection is $10.60."

Rev. J. B. Smith, Ocean Springs, Miss., writes: "Our camp meeting began Aug. 27, and closed Sept. 3. Bro. W. McDonald, our beloved presiding elder, led the meeting, and was assisted by the following ministers: Revs. George Smith and Nathaniel Cannon, of Pass Christian; H. Green, T. G. Montgomery and Stephen Priestley, of New Orleans, La. The sermons were all good, and made a lasting impression on the minds of the people. There were two conversions and one backslider reclaimed. The trustees were successful in raising means to pay the last dollar of debt on the camp grounds. Here are the names and amounts of subscribers who paid: George Hams, $1; Mrs. Hams, $.50; Isabella Gray, $.50; Benjamin Bardwell, $1; Mrs. P. Palmer, $.50. Sister C. L. Thomas, well known in mission work, has joined our church, and is doing good work. The lectures are attended with marked attention of [illegible] and black. Sister [illegible] has just organized a Woman's Home Missionary Society, which promises good things in the near future."

E. Collins, Roseneath, Miss., writes: "My second quarterly conference was held Sept. 6 7. The presiding elder being sick, conference was held by the pastor. The reports from pastor and other members of the conference were good. Paid the presiding elder this quarter $7; pastor, $45; for missions, $4; the religious condition of my charge is prosperous; 4 weeks' protracted meeting closed with an accession of 25, probationers 40, and backsliders 6. Children baptized, 18; adults, 10. In the meeting 108 communed with us. We expect to bring up a good collection to conference. Pray for us."

H. H. York, Batesville, Miss., writes: "Our third quarterly conference was held by our presiding elder, J. C. Eckles. He preached a sermon on prayer, which will long be remembered. On June 8 Children's Day was nicely observed. The programme was conducted by Geo. W. Baker. Collection $5.90. The circuit is in a prosperous condition."

Rev. G. C. Harden, Lawrenceburg, Tenn., writes: "My fourth quarterly conference was held on the 19th inst. by Elder J. P. Price. It was a pleasant one as all of the brethren were present with written reports. One convert during the quarter, and three joined the church. The elder preached an excellent sermon. We had an old Methodist shout, and several came forward to be prayed for. We administered sacrament to forty-three. Forty-one paid their quarterage. We paid the elder all we owed him. Rev. E. M. Manson, of Brownville circuit, was with us in Sunday school and preached for us at 11 o'clock. The sermon was a very interesting one, "Surely truth and righteousness shall follow me all the days of my life." We presented to him two dollars and seventy-five cents. He also visited our high school during his stay, and found Miss Emma Hopkins at her post as teacher. She is a student of the Central Tennessee College, and is giving great satisfaction in our school. This school is to assist the Central Tennessee College, and the Mason Preparatory School in preparing young men for the ministry, and young ladies for teachers. And as president of this school, I would say to both male and female, that they would gain great information by attending this school. She being a person qualified to give satisfaction. It commenced the 1st of September and will continue until May 1st 1885. Any one wishing to attend can notify the writer, or J. A. Simonton. We have had eight to join the church this year; six in full membership; paid to the pastor, $149 50. The following pastoral labor has been bestowed, three hundred and ten prayers and visits. Benevolent collections $15.20."

Rev. F. Harvey, Shreveport, La., writes: "We have just closed our protracted meeting, which has been going on for four weeks. The Holy Ghost came upon us; 72 were converted; 26 were received on probation. It has been a glorious time. Pray for us more and more."

Rev. J. L. Massey, Martin, Tenn., writes: "I have just returned from our district conference, where we had a good and lovely time. The next Sunday after I returned, had been set apart as the day on which our new church was to be dedicated. on that day Bro. Braden, of Central Tennessee College, was with us and preached a sermon long to be remembered. Presiding elder Jesse Price in his grand old style gave us a good sermon also. We are doing all in our power to complete this church before winter. Pray for us."

Rev. Calvin Vaughan, Vaiden Station, Miss., writes: "I began a revival on the 17th of August and closed on the 31st. At first the way seemed dark and gloomy, but the Lord was with us and we are able to report thirteen conversions and four accessions. Rev. J. C. Cain was with us from the beginning to the end and rendered effective service. The fire is still burning and we expect more sinners converted. Pray for us."

Rev. R. Anderson, Mt. Salem, Miss., writes: "On account of sickness in my family children's day was postponed until September 6. Rev. C. H. Jones, our faithful superintendent, had everything in order. There were several addresses and speeches by the children. The singing was very good. The pastor gave a history of the great work in the Sabbath-school inaugurated by, Robert Raikes. Presiding elder J. M. Shumpert was with us recently and preached an impressive sermon. Paid pastor $23.50elder; $6.50."

Rev C. Neal, Courtland, Ala., writes: "Liquor is among us and doing much harm. Our district conference at Huntsville took a firm stand against the evil and refused to license any brother who used it."

R. Weaver, Jacksonville, Texas, writes, "That at a protracted 33 were converted, and 11 from other churches joined the M. E. Church. Our third quarterly conference was held Sept. 13 14 by presiding elder G. W. Smith, who was faithful to his duty."

Comite, La.—Rev. C. A. Taylor writes:—"On the 14th day of last month I was called to witness the sad misfortune of Dorsey Cain and his wife, Mary Cain. About 2 o'clock Monday, Mr. Cain's house was burned with all he had in it, and his three poor little children were burned to death. Nothing but the heart of each child was found. Neither Mr. Cain nor his wife were members of the Church. The children's ages were ten months, three and five years respectively. Pray for us in this great bereavement."

Rev. J. J. Barr, Spain, Tenn., writes: "Rev. Jesse P. Price, held our last quarterly conference on time September 13. Everything was satisfactory and we paid his claim in full; they all desire the return of Elder Price."

Rev. L. M. Moores, presiding elder, Cleveland, Tenn, writes: "My fourth quarterly conference convened in this place September 26th. Rev. E. Provine, our worthy presiding elder was promptly on hand, also Rev. P. P. Brooks, of Goshen. The lectures and sermons, with which they entertained us were of a high and instructive order. We will not soon forget the season of joy they occasioned us. Our reports show a moderate increase all along the line. Collection for the presiding elder, $13.75; missions, $9; Bible Society, $1; Episcopal Fund, 50cts.; Educational Society, 45cts.; Sunday-school Union, 15cts.; and conference claimants 20cts. We have one of the best Sunday-schools that can be found on the district. It is attended by old and young. The Lord blesses us with good health. Pray for us."

Letters From the Laity.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

A Layman's Criticisms.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I have just spent one hour and forty-five minutes reading the forty-eight columns of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. I can say truthfully that I have never read any paper that gave me as much satisfaction as it does. I prize it for the full account it always brings of the doings of the colored race. Also its national and denominational intelligence, especially of our work in the South. But why do we not hear of the grand church work being done in old Asbury, our children's day, Missionary rally, and our grand Sunday-school Exhibition. Why don't you give the public a chance at us? I intend to get up a club here for the SOUTHWESTERN and to renew my own subscription of course. There ought to be an hour on Sunday in Sabbath-school and church, devoted to the interest of the paper. It is so plain that the oldest person can read it.

LOCAL MATTERS.

We have no children's prayer meeting; no children are converted. Our singing and singers are few and poor. Our superintendents are unqualified for their task, and what caps the climax our ministers as intelligent men have, for the past four years, failed to do their duty to the Sunday school work in Asbury Chapel. We have no Sunday-school Board; when we meet to organize, the legally constituted chairman fails to be present. Sometimes our pastors are pleased, in some instances to tell us teachers, that we are not doing the best way, or teaching after the the most improved plan, but they could not show us how to do in these better ways, the work that we as anxiously desire to do as they.

WHAT TO TEACH THE CHILDREN.

Truth ought to be taught and instilled into the minds of children. They are to succeed our present church members in the duties of the sanctuary, and we ought to prepare them for this high calling The teacher who fails to convert a child in Sabbath-school fails to do his duty, and misses the aim of his profession. We must teach them that Jesus is divine and that it is proven by His power to pardon sinners. That He puts forth His power and the soul is healed. Let ministers be fully and earnestly engaged in doing this work, and aiding their Sunday-school teachers to do it. Then will the people feel that they are a blessing to them. Then will every interest of the church prosper as young people crowd the churches for religions and moral culture.

CLEMENT KIMBROUGH.

Lexington Ky.

New Iberia, La., Mrs. Susan Baxter, president of the Woman's Home Missionary Work, LaTeche district, writes: "I have appointed Mrs. L. J. Shallowhorn to take charge of the lower end of the district. I have been around and the condition of the work is very good."

Clinton, La., L. Williams, Esq., superintendent of Mt. Zion M. E. Sunday-school, writes. "We have a fine Sunday school here and in fine condition. Our preacher is well beloved here."

Shuqualak circuit, Miss., J. W. Longstreet, Esq., writes: "There are only three churches as yet on this work. Rev. L. C. Clayton is pastor, and is succeeding though he has had to meet considerable opposition in his efforts to do so. There was very little being done on this work until lately, There is now a new church being erected at Shuqualak. You know the result, a good church, a good minister, then the people will follow; hence it can no longer be said that the Shuqualak circuit is a hard charge. The people manifest a deep interest in taking care of their minister, and their property. The church at Scooba is also doing a great deal of good for their Master. St. Peter never fails to do its duty. Bro. Clayton is greatly loved by the people, both saints sinners. We witnessed an outpouring of the Holy Ghost at Shuqualak, the 2d Sunday in this month. Collection for pastor $15. Accessions 6, five of whom were from the Baptist church. We are preparing to pitch a battle with satan; after its close, we shall inform you of the number of souls captured for the Master."

What Do the Druggists Say?

They know what the people call for, and they hear what their patrons say as to whether the medicine they buy work well or not. Martell & Johnson, Rush City, Minn., say, "Brown's Iron Bitters gives entire satisfaction to our customers." Klinkhammer & Co, Jordan, Minn., say, "All our customers speak highly of Brown's Iron Bitters" A C Whitman, Jackson, Minn., says, "Brown's Iron Bitters is giving good satisfaction to purchasers." These are only a few. We have hundreds more just as good.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle. Trade Mark

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church—Blackburn	2 5
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures New Testament: Chapters XIX XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology Theological Institutes Part II—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry	3 00
History of Rationalism—Hurst

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Horst	50
Ancient History—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfectt on—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution—Seebohm.	1 25
	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 0
Protestant Foreign Missions—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

32 Natchez St New Orleans.

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year:

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884, at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women,

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1884.

New Subscribers.

A Liberal Proposition.

The numbers of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE for the remainder of 1884 will be supplied free to all NEW SUBSCRIBERS who will send us Two Dollars cash with their names. No name entered under this proposition until the money is received by us. This will allow subscribers to receive the paper fourteen months for the price of one year's subscription. The subscriptions under this proposition will expire January 1, 1886 Let pastors, church members and readers of the paper generally tell this to their friends. We feel sure that if this is done a large addition will be made to the subscription list. We will send out specimen copies on application. Address

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez Street, New Orleans.

The New Testament in Fiji.—During the late session of the Wesleyan Missionary Committee, the fact came to light that more than two editions of the New Testament, of 5,000 each, have been exhausted, and that a revised edition, prepared by Rev. James Calvert, is now ready. Many thousand copies of Hunt's System of Theology have been bought by Fiji local preachers, and the Methodist Recorder calls upon the Methodist Sunday schools of England to take notice that more than 9,000 copies of the Conference Catechism have been sold. This is in the land a short time ago peopled by the lowest savages.

After reading two shocking crimes against the church and the law of the land, which were as usual charged upon Negroes, who were denied the opportunity of defending themselves before a court, but as cruelly murdered as the crimes of which they were accused, the Texas Christian Advocate says: "The frequent occurrence of these outrages, and the readiness with which men take the law into their hands, reveals the amount of lawlessness that prevails in our land." Make violence a punishable crime whether against white women or black, put the strong hand of law, public sentiment on all classes of murderers, and there will be a sudden change for the better.

Long, a Democrat on the Florida Electoral Ticket for Cleveland and Hendricks, has been making speeches lately, by the assignment of their campaign committee. Here is an extract from one printed in the Mobile Gazette, Sept. 28:

"I desire to say to you black men that the white people of this State have tolerated your foolishness just about long enough. 'Then we had barbecued nigger.' I dont want to see a recurrence of this, but don't you forget that we are not going to see this government go into the hands of anybody who promises you half of the offices."

Mr. Long, we suppose, meant to say that Mr. Cleveland must be elected, if it required barbecued Negroes to do it.

During the session of the last General Conference, in response to a request from the Japan Mission, that mission was authorized to become an annual conference. Bishop Wiley, in pursuance of this authorization, on August 18th added one name to the rapidly lengthening list of conferences in our church. It was a stirring time to the missionaries and native Christians of Japan, and Dr. Maclay reports the members as comprising 12 Americans and five Japanese elders; one American, and three Japanese deacons, and eight Japanese on trial; [illegible]. The number will probably be increased before adjournment. God bless the Japanese conference.

The Typal American.

Who is he? Certain types of character and physiognomy as surely follow, distinguish and identify one certain species of the human race from another, as does a given cause invariably produce the same effect. The coalition of several will inevitably form a new species.

The truth of both these principles has been amply demonstrated by the logic of nature. We find the inhabitant of mountainous land is tall, muscular and phlegmatic. The native of the low country is thin visaged and choleric. The city man is small of stature, æsthetic by nature, and lives and moves at high pressure. His labored movement and languid expression tell of carbonized air, soft diet, and nights turned into day.

The farm-born and cultured man is robust and broad shouldered, retires early, and eats and digests well.

The Frigid and Torrid zones may respectively destroy or change color, but it will not be claimed that either make, though they do influence character already made. The admission that character is not caused by color or the want of it will also be general.

Character is natural; it is born; it is susceptible of education, cultivation and development, of course. But it cannot escape the most superficial observation that with certain characters universally go certain complexions. So universal and so well established is this rule, that with certain colors we expect certain habits of life. In every race there are natural peculiarities as well as natural commonalities. The commonalities are advertised by the anatomical and physiological, and the peculiarities by the complexional configuration.

These peculiarities, except color, can never be entirely obliterated. The same types have been reappearing in fathers and sons through thousands of years. Types are eternal, so that when the various nationalities who inhabit our country, Aboriginal and foreign born, European, Asian, African and American shall be blended into one race. We shall not have an African, or a European, or an Asiatic, but some sort of a mongrel race; a conglomorate tribe; an amalgam man; a typal American. Will he be stronger and better for his composite, rather than his abstract raceality? As to his color, he cannot be black, and he will not be white. Certain prevailing circumstances point to a kind of miasmatic swarthiness, as the complexion of the typal American. As to character, it is a law of vegetable and animal nature, that a hybrid is never equal to either of the species blended into it. An apricot is equal to neither pear, peach nor apple; a mule to neither horse nor ass.

There are different views of this element of the subject, but it is not material which class is better. The Negro and the white in their purity are mighty races. We can explain their being in matter and manner as they are, through providential and legitimate, circumstantial causes. But the coming typal American, what must cause him?

Catholicism.

The Electra, a monthly magazine of Literature, published at Room 3, Courier Journal Building, Louisville, Ky., elegantly edited by Annie E. Wilson and Isabella M. Leyburn, has the following narrative in an article by a tourist just back from the "Old World":

"The most appalling feature of the South of Ireland is its begging. This is the outcome of their religious system, as, indeed, the present poverty and agitation is due to the same cause. Even its beautiful lakes, its fair and fertile lands, are robbed of their attraction by this begging nuisance. The contrast between the North and South of Ireland on this account alone, and due to the fact that the South is Roman Catholic, while the North is Protestant, is as great as if they were different countries."

Stand Up for the Right.

The Christian citizen of this country cannot afford to do evil hoping that good may come from it. When Satan invited Jesus to view the world from the mountain top, and offered him dominion in return for allegiance, the response of our Lord was decisive. As the adviser of people struggling against many obstacles for the full recognition of manhood, we took occasion in the SOUTHWESTERN, of Oct. 2, to say that we could not advise our readers in the Third Congressional District of Louisiana to vote for Mr. Kellogg. We gave as the chief reason that Mr. Kellogg had involved himself in a disreputable scheme to defraud the treasury of the United States, and that Negro voters especially could not afford to uphold him longer, and carry the responsibility to the bar of public opinion. We are pleased to learn, from many sources, that in urging the people to give expression to convictions of right, and to turn a deaf ear to special pleadings of expediency, our course is approved. We therefore reiterate every word, line and sentence of the previous article, and say that it was a mature and deliberate expression, and exactly accords with the public record of Mr. Kellogg. No tribunal has ever tried or acquitted him on the charge of being bribed as a Senator of the United States to expedite a Star route. Witnesses have testified against him in the courts, the press has teemed with criticisms; Republicans have urged him to press an investigation on its merits; and it long ago became manifest that he was apparently not anxious for such an investigation, and the government was compelled to drop the case against him because of the statute of limitations. The evidence against him was both circumstantial and direct, and from the standpoint of political expediency even, his candidacy should not be forced by his instrumentalities, by assessment of government employes holding commissions under his control, upon a district within which he has never had an actual residence. What was true of his first election to Congress is also true of this campaign, viz: A large number of Republicans of the district are opposed to him because of his record and methods. A large amount of money is being expended in the district, which possesses a heavy Republican majority, and mainly to unite the party in support of its most unpopular candidate. Since last election, when many might have felt justified in voting for Mr. Kellogg as a "regular" party candidate, the Star route trials have placed on open record matter which they cannot ignore. Stand up for the right! The party of Abraham Lincoln and General Grant does not depend for existence upon the election of Mr. Kellogg to Congress from the Third District. All its victories have been won by men who were ever ready to refuse their votes to corrupt leaders. The next Republican President will place the patronage of the government at the disposal of a Republican at the head of the New Orleans Customhouse. The distribution of small offices does not entirely depend upon Mr. Kellogg. And there are higher interests for our people to consider. If they will vote only for clean men they will disarm their enemies, and avoid the weak points upon which assaults will be pressed.

"SUCCESS TO THE SOUTHWESTERN."—Goliad, Texas, Sept. 4, 1884—Dear Doctor: Allow me to state that I feel confident I am right in my views relative to our Church paper. I know it stands high in the estimation of our churches. I pray God that you may have great success in your efforts, and may the SOUTHWESTERN be better now than ever. I shall give you my hearty support. Be of good cheer, Bro Taylor.

C. P. WESTBROOKS.

Thank you, Bro. Westbrooks, for these words of encouragement. We entertain the highest appreciation for the good feeling and interest expressed for the success of the SOUTHWESTERN.—ED.

The New Orleans Preacher's Meeting.

After the Sunday-school lesson last Thursday discussed the 46 par. Discipline '84, and resolved to read and impress its meaning, and the importance of a faithful observance thereof upon their congregations from the pulpit, and in their pastoral visitation. They decided to consider the 48th par., on receiving and dismissing members, next Thursday.

An invitation to visit the Mission School of Mr. Charles Dale, son of Rev. Marcus Dale, of Wesley Chapel, was received and accepted. The preachers visited the school in a body; appropriate exercises were had, followed by neat speeches by Rev. L. P. Cushman, presiding elder of New Orleans district; Rev. S. Priestley, P. C. of Union Chapel; Rev. T. G. Montgomery, P. C. of First Street Church, and others. There are about 80 pupils enrolled, 71 were in attendance, and we are informed that the attendance will average this. It is under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the management of Sister Dale, the efficient manager of the late North New Orleans District of the Louisiana Conference. The children seem to be well handled, the teacher gives evidence of a high order of competency, interest, and fitness for his work, and is worthy of the confidence and respect, as well as the hearty co-operation and assistance of all those who are interested in the education of our children. The Dales are certainly doing a good work for the up-building of our people and church here; father, mother and son at work here in the city, two daughters in the University, and another son entering the ministry in Mississippi, all respectable and trying to make themselves useful. It will not be unusual if they should meet here and there an impediment, but they can afford to be magnanimous and go on in their good work. There are said to be several, and we know of two more of these schools here. One of these is taught at the First Street Church by Mrs. Joan Bentley; it is well managed, and because of the excellence of the teacher and neatness of the school to our residence, we send our boy to this one. The rooms in which both of these schools are kept are ill adapted, and very unfit for the purpose, but are a great deal better than none or those which are without God or morality in the teachers and teaching. Another one is taught by Miss. V. M. Riche, a graduate of the New Orleans University, in the University inclosure, though, as we understand it, it forms no part of the University proper. Our judgment is that it would be a wise and proper arrangement to have it do so, and to recognize Miss Riche as part of the University faculty. Color ought not to be a prerequisite qualification for teachers in our schools for the freed people, but wherever other things are equal it ought not to be a bar. And our administration of all these schools should be kept free from the very appearance that it will be so. We are happy to find that the administration gives promise that our view is to be realized, and that our knowledge of the motives and sentiments of Drs. Rust and Hartzell makes the assurance doubly sure. These schools are a power for good, and will become increasingly so, as they shall open the way for their own graduates to places of honorable usefulness within them.

Sunday Bells in New Orleans.

October 5 was a great day in Wesley Chapel—it was the regular monthly communion. A dense audience were present. Two hundred persons received the communion. Thirty-six subscribers to the SOUTHWESTERN were taken. The church is undergoing repairs that will greatly enhance its beauty. The facing to the gallery is being lowered, and things generally brightened up. Rev. Marcus Dale is pastor, and is doing well.

Rev. Stephen Priestly, at Union Chapel, made an earnest effort before a great audience. He is a good preacher and worker. Twenty subscribers were obtained since Sept. 1st in the church.

At Sixth Street Rev. M. Dyer had a fine congregation. At night the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN preached, and his inimitable choir rendered the "Song of the Hills," from Taylor's Plantation Melodies, as a post lude. It was a grand service. There is no debt, and they will soon build a new church there.

Camp Parapet—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, pastor. The editor was to preach at 11 a. m., and a great congregation was there to greet him. Things are moving along gracefully at the Camp.

Attention.

Members of the Tenth Missionary District will observe below a number of very direct and searching questions put to them. To some they may appear too leading and capricious, but their importance is a sufficient excuse for any such appearance. They merit careful consideration and a prompt reply from those to whom they have been addressed. Answers should be sent before the 1st of November to Rev. T. B. Ford, at Siloam Springs, Ark., after that to him at 805 Broadway, New York. If any of the presiding elders have matters they wish presented to the General Missionary Committee, they ought to write to the committee for their district fully setting forth the case at once. They ought to write also to the Missionary Secretaries.

THE CIRCULAR BLANK.

Siloam Springs, Ark., ... 1884.

Rev.....

P. E of the.....District,
.....Conference.

Dear Bro—As your representative on the General Missionary and Church Extension Committee, I desire your answers to the following questions in connection with the general statement:

1 Do you insist that the pastors and local committees carry out the disciplinary provisions for raising funds for the Missionary and Church Extension Societies? Ans.....

2. Do you impress upon your people the importance of ministerial support, and of becoming self supporting as rapidly as possible? Ans.....

3. Do you insist that all charges that ought to be self supporting be stricken from the list of Domestic Missions? Answer.....

4. Would not a general Missionary and Church Extension campaign on your district result in raising the entire amounts asked for these societies and the establishment of your people in the habit of systematic benevolence? Ans.....

5. Will you arrange for such a campaign next year, if not this? Ans.....

.....1884.

Rev. T. B. Ford—

Dear Bro: As P. E of the.....District, ...Conference, I submit the following statement of the condition of my work.

I. Pastoral Charges.

1. No. at last session of Conference....
2. No. receiving Missionary appropriations.....
3. Average amount appropriated to the charge $.....
4. No. of new charges to be formed at the next session of Conference ....
5. No. that must receive missionary appropriations next year .....

II. Pastors Salaries

1. Average amounts estimated, not including Missionary appropriations $.....
2. Average amounts paid by the people $.....
3. Average increase this year $.....

III. New Churches.

1. No built during the year.....
2. Probable cost of same $.....
3. Amount received from the Board of Church Extension $.....
   1. By donation $.... 2 By loan $..
4. No. of new churches expected to be built next year ..... and their probable cost $.....
5. What amount of this do you propose to raise among your people? $.....

IV. Benevolent Collections.

I. Mission—

1. Whole amount apportioned to the District $.....
2. Amounts raised: 1 In cash..... 2. In reliable subscription $.....
   3. Additional amounts that can be raised $..... Total $.....

2. Church Extension—

1. Whole amount apportioned to the district $.....
2. Amounts raised. 1 In cash $.... 2. In reliable subscriptions $..... 3 Additional amounts that can be raised $..... Total $.....

V. No. of Conversions....and accessions....

Yours truly,
.....P. E.

Crystal or China.

Mrs. Susan and the Rev. Edward Waters Savage Hammond, of the Lexington Conference, Indiana District, M. E. Church, will, in their home 642 Mississippi street, Indianapolis, celebrate the 17th anniversary of their marriage from 2 to 11 o'clock p. m., October 22, 1884. An elegant card is out, and the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN has been kindly remembered by a polite invitation to be present. Bro. Hammond will be remembered as the gifted orator who electrified the General Conference of 1880 by his eloquent and imperishable address to that body at Cincinnati on the subject of a colored Bishop. The 17th is not a wedding celebration year, those closest to it being the 15th or crystal and the 20th or china wedding. As the year they have selected comes nearly midway between these two, it will be proper to present gifts of either crystal or china. Bro. Hammond has served that district with much success and acceptability the past four years, and we trust his legions of friends in and out of the church will see to it that his closing year be made signally memorable for their generous presence and presentations. The union of Mrs. and Mr. Hammond has been most pleasant in all things, and we wish them many happy recurrences of its anniversary.

Personal.

—Chaplain M'Cabe returned recently from Europe. He is much improved in health.—Kansas Methodist.

—Rev. Pierre Landry is making a vigorous voyage over his work, and in his efforts to increase its power and limits.

—The young people of First Street Church are making preparation for a concert in the interest of that church, in the near future.

—The Rev. H. Parks, of St. James A. M. E. Church, called at our office when we were out. We were pleased to have him call; regret our absence, and hope he will call again.

—The SOUTHWESTERN is under obligations to Bros. Panalle and Priestly for presentations of choice samples of tropical and domestic fruit, left in the office lately. Come again, brethren, and do the same way. The more frequent such calls, the better.

—The Rev. Dr. W. D. Godman came into our office this week. He is here waiting for Mrs. Godman, who is on her way here from the East. He reports the work prosperous at La Teche, and their new building greatly in demand.

—We had it "E S," when it should have been P. S. Burton, in a personal note of this worthy gentlemen in a late number of the SOUTHWESTERN. He is an influential local preacher, a painter by trade, and of considerable means.

—We are informed by Rev. A. E. P. Albert that we were mistaken in our report of the names of the trustees of New Orleans University. Instead of Dr. Godman we should have said Rev. J. F. Marshall. With this exception the report was correct.

—We hear that the learned Pandita Ramabai, who recently announced her conversion to Christianity, has been appointed teacher of Oriental languages to the Ladies' College, Chiltenham, England. The lady is an accomplished Sanskrit scholar.

—Brownsville, Tennessee, October 3d, 1884.—Dear Bro. Taylor: Will you announce in your paper, to my correspondents that after the 9th of October to 24th my address will be No 176 South street, Centenary M. E. Church, Memphis, Tenn.

—Father Taylor, the pioneer who used to preach at "Long Wharf," in this city, and now Bishop Taylor, was present at the recent conference at Pacific Grove. His son, Ross, was admitted to the conference, and elected to deacon's and elder's orders. He will go with his father to interior Africa.—Pacific Advocate.

—Rev. W. W. Locke, of the Louisville District, Lexington Conference, reports the storms are over, skies are clear, and the voyage toward conference pleasant and agreable. Bro. Locke has issued an unique, but very useful and instructive circular to his ministers, concerning the election of the quarterly conference officers and committees. Every presiding elder should have a copy of it.

Secor, Illinois, October 4th, 1884—Editor of the SOUTHWESTERN: I have been transfered from Little Rock conference to Central Illinois conference. Rev. G. B. Donnelly succeeds me in the presiding eldership of Hot Springs district. I am stationed at Roanoke, and never was better pleased with my appointment. I know I leave many true friends among the laity and ministers of the Little Rock conference, and especially in Hot Springs district. To whom I say God bless you, I will never more see you on earth, but I will meet you in heaven. "When the general roll is called I'll be there."—L. W. Elkins.

—Rev. A. E. P. Albert comes home upon a call to the bedside of a very sick child. He spent Sabbath, Oct. 5, in Eola, Louisiana, where he laid the corner stone of a new church. They realized on the occasion a collection of $122. The crowd was far beyond their seating capacity. The Masonic fraternity of Alexandria lent eclat to the occasion and a number of visiting pastors were present. Revs. J. Spark, S. Green, C. Munro, and Albert, delivered addresses, all of which were most favorably received by the people. It was a grand time which all enjoyed.

—Rev. George L. Curtiss, medical doctor and presiding elder of the Jeffersonville District, Southeast Indiana conference, besides his ministerial and professional duties, has kindly consented (without pay, for we have no gold), to keep up one department for 12 months in the SOUTHWESTERN. Now if there is another white man in the United States, who feels that way for the cause of the SOUTHWESTERN, which is the cause of Negro elevation and home education, let him write to our office apprising us of the fact, and he can be employed at once. Our people and the church at large will yet hear more of Dr. Curtiss. He is a good writer and a fine executive, and there is need of a good deal of that sort of timber among us. Keep an eye on him.

Church Polity.

Are quarterly conference minutes legally binding, until read and adopted?

Discipline, 1880, par. 97, p. 69, says: "The quarterly conference should appoint a Secretary to take minutes of the proceedings thereof, and transmit them to the Recording Steward." Dicipline, p. 78, par. 101: "The Committee on Church Records must see that the records of the quarterly conference are properly kept, and that books which are filled are delivered to the custody of the Recording Steward." Now, in answer to your question, our opinion is; that a minute kept by the Secretary of a quarterly conference, transferred to the Recording Steward, and by him placed upon record, is binding; for a quarterly conference has no power by not doing some things, to nullify others that it has done thereby. The Committee on Church Records ought to report the neglect to sign the Journal, and the offenders might be reproved; but the record is binding in law.

1. What is the rule for opening public service in the Methodist Episcopal Church, with reference to singing?

2. Should a preacher read his hymn over, and then repeat the first verse afterward, allowing the choir to sing without reading the other verses?

4. Does the rule of reading every verse after the first reading prevail in the North?

1. Sing only such songs as tend to the knowledge and love of God.—Discipline, p. 30, par. 32, sec. 1, edition of 1880. Sing a doxology at the close of each service.—Discipline, p. 43, par. 55, sec. 4. To guard against formality in singing:

1. Choose such hymns as are proper for the occasion, and do not sing too much at once; seldom more than four or five verses.

2. Let the tune be suited to the sentiment, and do not suffer the people to sing too slowly.

3. In every society let due attention be given to the cultivation of sacred music.

4. [illegible] preacher in charge [illegible] the quarterly conference a point, usually a committee [illegible] the co-operating with him, shall regulate all matters relating to this part of Divine worship.

5. As singing is a part of Divine worship in which all ought to unite; therefore exhort every person in the congregation to sing, not one in ten only.—Discipline, pages 43-44, par. 56, sec. 5.

In answer to your first question, we would say: 1st. It is governed by sec. 4, of par. 56. The pastor may determine the whole matter of singing for himself, or if he desires it, the quarterly conference may appoint annually a committee of three or more, who are known in the North as the Committee on Music, and who, concurrently with the pastor, have charge of all that pertains to this part of the services. But 2. It is the spirit of paragraph 5, as well as the letter, that all the people should sing with the choir, if there is one, for many churches do not have them; so that where the whole congregation do not have the books, which the pastor ought to look after, it is needful to read all or a part of each verse, so that they can keep the words as well as the tune in mind. There is no rule in the North or anywhere else other than those we have cited above, for singing in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

General Church News.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church raised during the past year over $100,000.

The Protestant bible society of France gives the New Testament to every new Protestant communicant and a bible to every new married couple.

The largest yearly income of the British and Foreign bible society was the last, when it reached $1,166,545, it being $113,543 more than the year before.

In India the increase in Christian adherents in the last decade, 1871–'81, was eighty six per cent. There are over 80,000 children in the Sunday-schools.

The Chinese in California last year gave $303.75 to the mission of the American Board at Hong Kong, besides $690 for the sufferers by the floods in North China.

Centennial Church, Baltimore, Washington Conference, Rev. W. T. Harris, writes: "We have received 18 probationers into full membership on the 18th inst. It is hoped to free the church of debt this year.

The main body or audience chamber of Asbury M. E. Church, Washington, D. C., including windows, is being repainted and frescoed, varnished, and generally brightened up.

Rev. A. Rodemeyer, presiding elder of the Switzerland district, sends a full and encouraging report of the work under his care. The struggles of these brave but poor churches towards self support, their evident spirituality, and the continual additions made to the membership, constrains Bro. Rodemeyer to say "God is with us! God has blessed us!"

A dispatch from St. John's, N. F., September 2d, says: Orange and Roman Catholic collisions on a large scale are reported from Chateau and Henly Harbor on the Labrador coast. Fire arms were freely used, and some deaths and many wounded are reported. A British war ship has been dispatched by the Newfoundland Government to the scene of the tumult.

Schools and Colleges.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

The fall term in this Institution opened on the 17th ult., most auspiciously with a large attendance. At the first chapel service President Payne extended a cordial welcome to the crowd of students, old and new, and gave them words of advice as to a right beginning of the new collegiate year.

Over two hundred new students were present on the first day and some fifty others have since entered and still they continue to come. The financial pressure compells quite a number of the old students to remain out of college awhile and earn means with which to continue their collegiate course. The new students present an unusually fine appearance; a larger number than usual enter the advanced classes.

The term begins with a full tide of religious zeal and fervor, with penitent seekers at the first religions meetings. It would excite tears of joy and shouts of praise in the whole Church, to look in upon these hundreds of young people in their prayer meetings and hear their fervent prayers and glowing testimonies and soulful songs. The Lord is with them. Let the entire Church pray for this great centre of religious, as well as intellectual power.

Wiley University at Marshall, Texas, opened September 22d, with a fine attendance. Prof. N. D. Clifford, late of Rust University, and a graduate of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., the newly appointed president, with his excellent wife are putting things in shape. They are young, full of energy, and both fine musicians. Miss Greenman, the new preceptress, is a graduate of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., also a good musician. Prof. Coleman, of last year's faculty remains. H. Webb, the presiding elder, was elected agent by the trustees, at the last meeting, and we are resolved to put Wiley University in the front rank. We have plans to carry out for the Centennial Jubilee, and hope for large things.

Let every reader of the SOUTHWESTERN send in one student; let every church on Marshall and Palestine districts unite and send one of their most promising young men or women, to Wiley University, and thus help to supply our pulpits and schools with the very best material well improved, and religions. Let every member and friend of the Church resolve to give at least one dollar as a thank offering to God, for His freedom and love for the Church, to aid in building up Wiley University.

REV. H. WEBB,
President trustees.

The Camden Memorial School is unusually prosperous. Mr. Foote gives the number of scholars as 77, more than have been in the school for three years. This school deserves success, and is for usefulness, necessity and favorable position, worthy of the conscientious work which is expended upon it.

Hardinsburg, Kentucky, October 2d, 1884 Rev. M. W. Taylor: Dear Sir—You will notice from the heading of this, that I have decided to take the school. I came here last Friday, September 26th, and began my work the following Monday. I find the people very kind and sociable here, and think I shall be pleased with the charge. With many thanks for your assistance to me, I am very kindly yours,

MAMIE COWARD.

This lady wanted a school to teach, and the school she now has, then wanted a teacher, both applied to the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN and the quick result is seen in her letter of acknowledgment. It will be well for good young men and women of color to file their applications with and advertise in the SOUTHWESTERN.—[ED.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

It is never prudent in an heir apparent to the bishopric, prospective secretary of a board, a delegate with an eye on the loose shoes of a wornout book agent, to see "a rising scab or a scald" on any magnate.—Richmond Christian Advocate.

The maritime nations have agreed after centuries of long and costly experience, on a code of rules which covers all possible situations in which vessels under way can find themselves, and yet collesions happen at sea among ships just as they do on shore among vehicles and pedestrians.—Harper's Weekly.

While we believe the next Congress will render the necessary assistance in protecting our rich lands from annual overflow, for it is their plain duty so to do, yet it stands us in hand to do all we can ad interim.—St. Mary Herald.

There are ever two ways of striving to fill one's place in the world; one is by seeking to prove oneself useful; the other by striving to render oneself useless.—Sunday-school Times.

Why must the preacher deliver his sermon? Why must other earnest workers labor so constantly in every meeting, while you never move an inch, never ruffle a dress, never incommode yourself in the least, and never put forth one effort to save a soul?—Christian Standard.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Grass of the Field.

BY REV. W. S. LANKFORD.

The grass of the field is well fitted to teach us the most practical lessons of lowliness of mind.

The divine teacher said: "Come and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly." The humble grass which we tread beneath our feet takes up the ord of Jesus, and says: "Learn of me, for I am lowly." It will occupy the meanest place, and it grows in the poorest soil. We may tread and crop it down, but still it grows and spreads its even and beautiful carpet beneath our feet. Mow it with a scythe, and it sends up two stocks instead of one. Let it be trampled upon by grazing herds and crushed into the earth by laden wheels, let it lie all winter beneath the drifted snow, let it be cut down to the roots every week in summer, and it will be more compact and even and beautiful the more it is mown and trampled and rolled and shorn. It grows where nothing else can live. It cometh forth again with the first shower, when it seems as if the hot summer had burnt out its life. It is the first green thing to welcome the spring, and the last to wither in autumn. It carpets the lawn of the lordly mansion, and it sends a smile of joyous sunlight into the open door of the humble cottage. It comes up laughingly, to be sprinkled by the spray of the marble fountain, and it goes down to drink by the banks of the babbling brook. It welcomes the young and the gay to its smooth, enameled floor, and it slides a soft cushion beneath the trembling steps of the aged and the feeble. It borders the lonely walks with banks of green, and it beautifies the groves with the hues of paradise and the promise of resurrection. Everywhere the lowly grass offers its kindly ministration to clothe everything with beauty, to make everybody happy. And this is the form of vegetation which our Lord bids us consider, that we may learn the graces of a lowly and trustful life.—Matt. 6 30.

The happiest are those who are willing to take the lowest place. Self-conceit makes the misery of multitudes who might be cheerful and contented all the day long if they would learn to think less of themselves, and more of making others happy.

A man can afford to spend a long winter of years under the chilling snow of neglect and abuse, if only he can come out bright and cheery and full of hope, like the grass in the spring. He can afford to be trodden under foot and have the ploughers make long furrows upon his back, if affliction and trouble shall only give him simplicity of character and lowliness of heart.

In our ignorance and pride we are constantly forgetting that lowly things are mighty. God has given the grass strength to curb the sea and chain the avalanche and set bounds to the desert. It is by gentleness that God makes his children great.

The silent sunshine is mightier than the roaring storm. The Divine conqueror, who has overcome the world, made himself the servant of every man's needs. Pride is indeed strong, and it makes men do and suffer a thousand things which they would never attempt without it; but compared with humility, pride is weak, and all the virtues and enterprises to which it gives rise end in disappointment and sorrow. Pride draws its strength from principles that are false, and from sources that must fail. Pride pulls down where it cannot build, spoils others, without enriching itself, makes great sacrifices, and gains nothing by suffering.

The grand discovery of Christian faith is to suffer and be strong, to submit and conquer, to be killed all the day long and yet live, to wear the cross and win the crown.

Our true greatness begins, not when we think more of ourselves, but when we think more of God, more of duty, more of making others happy, and the world better for us having lived in it.

If I were called upon to go out into the streets and highways, to stand in the crowded market place, to enter the saloons of fashion and the mansions of wealth, and teach men—as I might find them in either place—the first lessons of human happiness in the fewest words, I would say: "Love thyself least; praise thyself least, and fret thyself never." Try more to interest thyself in others, than others in you. Envy nobody; despise nobody; deceive nobody; be willing to take the lowest place, and then strive to make it the highest by filling it well.

When disposed to repine at your lot, and to grow weary in well doing, think of the manger in Bethlehem, and who was laid there; think of the cross of Calvary, and who was nailed thereon; think of the crown of heaven, and who wears it.

To be happy, be humble; to learn how little reason you have to be proud, look down upon the lowly flower and the perishing grass, and see what beauty, what glory God confers upon things that you tread beneath your feet.

Hear the voice which says: "Learn of me, for I am lowly."

Cincinnati, Ohio, September, 1884

For the SOUTHWESTERN

The Habit of Transferring.

BY S. P. BELL

That part of the Methodist Discipline which gives the itinerant minister the right to transfer from one conference to another is simply an exhibition of the broad and liberal spirit upon which Methodism is founded. But that liberality has been and is now being abused. In fact so plainly is it to be seen that there are men in the itinerant ministry who seldom, if ever, appear upon any of the conference journals otherwise than as transfers either to or from some conference that the conferences are beginning to ask what is their object. The necessary condition which seems always to govern their motives in transferring is to get a "fat place." Now, the seekers after the so-called fat places are getting so numerous that I think they might very easily be classified with the numerous companies of Pharisees whom the Savior addressed in Luke vi, 25. We would not be understood to oppose any one in the exercise of rights granted to him by the Discipline of our Church; but we do want it understood that the conditions of transferring should be restricted to three things as follows: 1. The good of the Church. 2. The preacher's physical condition. 3. The condition of his family. When transfers are secured for any other reason than these we believe it is contrary to the spirit of Methodism and Christianity. We regard it as one of the smallest things a Methodist preacher can do, to be standing always on the alert listening for a call to a fat place either in his own or some other conference. Some ministers have an extensive acquaintance with presiding elders, and when they fail to get the place of ease wanted in one conference they begin to write to another. I knew a brother who, failing to get the desired appointment, wrote to six presiding elders asking for a situation. In each letter he was careful to refer to the big places which he had formerly pastored, as evidence of his qualification. Now, this, to our mind, is wrong. We find that, as a class, these men who are forever ready to transfer are not the men who build congregations and churches. They may be eloquent speakers, but are they earnest co-workers with God. They occupy their time in preparing "big sermons," visiting from conference to conference and in getting up their salaries. When the time for their removal from any place comes then they aim to impress the people with an idea of their superior importance. O for more preaching to the hearts and conscience of the people! When a man does any real substantial good work in a church he does not desire to leave it. He is proud of that charge and conference. He does not want to transfer. And when he is forced by either the good of the Church, the condition of his family, or his own health to do so, he obeys with the greatest reluctance.

Brethren, large salaries are very tempting, and there is quite a contrast and a demand for sacrifice, when we begin to compare the well furnished parsonage, the velvet slippers, the silken morning robe, the frescoed church with its cushioned seats and chairs, and then look around and see and listen to the coming of the street car-bell, a convenience which takes us to the home of the wealthy where we are to sup of the greatest luxuries. I say there is quite a contrast when we begin to compare these dainties with the cow-hide boots, the mud roads, the log cabins and churches, with their hard seats (and sometimes no seat at all), exhibiting not the least mechanical skill in their make up. Quite naturally when we look at these things human nature gives way and cries for the "flesh pots" of Egypt are heard. But your Master said "go," not into the easy churches, not transfer from conference to conference seeking ease and comfort, but into the "hedges and highways," "into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

Some of us, no doubt, are having a hard time this year, and perhaps have made up in our mind for this cause to transfer. Let us consider, is it not ease which we are seeking? Is it not with the hope of getting into a "fat place," or is it the good of the church? Have we calmly and prayerfully considered our intention to transfer? Do we feel that God is calling us to do this for the good of his church? Is it because we can give or get more, which?

Nashville, Tenn.

Christian Liberality.

The late Hon. Stephen Salisbury, of Worcester, Mass., bequeathed $10,00 to the Free Institute of Industrial Science.

Jacob Tome, a rich banker of Port Deposit, Pa., has given $25,000 to build a scientific building at Dickinson College, and is expected to found a scientific department.

Mr. Frederick Layton, of Milwaukee, is about to erect an art museum for that city at a cost of $100,000.

Hon. John Patton, of Curwensville, Pa., who gave $10,000 to erect a public school in Curwensville, has given $1,000 towards the endowment of Dickinson Seminary, in Williamsport, Pa.

Mr. Hiram Sibley, of Rochester, N. Y., has authorized the expenditure of $35,000 for the Sibley College of Mechanical Engineering, Cornell University. Mr. Sibley has also given $8,000 to duplicate the set of models in machine construction executed under the orders of the German Government at Berlin, and has announced his intention of adding $50,000 to the endowment of a department of mechanical arts, thus making his gifts considerably over $150,000.

Statisticians state that illiterates commit ten times their pro rata of crime, and that the mass of crime keeps exact proportion to population, unless moral conditions are changed. Endowment and others supports for institutions like those of the A. M. A. will do more to change the moral condition of the people when the greatest illiteracy prevails than any existing method of help.—American Missionary.

Domestic Hygiene.

Wherever milk is used plentifully, there the children grow into robust men and women. Wherever the place is usurped by tea, we have degeneracy swift and sure.

To wash silk neckties: to one pint of rain water add a teaspoonful of white honey and one of hartshorn. After washing the ties do not squeze, but let them drip, and and when nearly dry press between the folds of a cloth.—Ex.

APPLE TEA.—Peel some sound apples, cut them into very thin slices, place them in a jug, cover with white sugar, and fill the jug with boiling water; leave it stand until cold, draw off and drink; for fevers.

FRIED TOMATOES.—Peel the tomatoes, cut in slices about half an inch thick, dip each slice into white flour, and into beaten eggs, sprinkle pepper and salt over each slice and fry in hot lard. These make a good garnish.

SPICED BERRIES.—Five quarts of berries, one quart of vinegar, three pounds of sugar, one tablespoonful of cloves, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of cinnamon, one tablespoonful of allspice; put the spices in a bag and boil the berries down pretty thick.

POTATO PANCAKES.—Pare and grate six large potatoes. Chop fine one small onion and mix with the potatoes; add two beated eggs, a pinch of salt; one pint of milk, flour enough to make a batter, and one and one half tablespoonful of baking powder.

For the filling for an orange short cake, take two large oranges, peel them, chop them fine, remove the seeds, add half a peeled lemon, add one cup of sugar. Spread between the layers of short cake while it is hot. This may be used for layer cake filling also, but in that case add the well-beaten white of one egg.

When grapes are closely packed in boxes, and a number of these boxes are closed and packed in other and larger boxes, and these are put away in a dry cold place, the fruit will keep for months and peaches nearly as long.

My First Visit to a Camp Meeting.

BY E. CORDELIA PRICE.

MR. EDITOR — At Pleasant Grove, I was much pleased to meet on my arrival, our much beloved elder, D. A. Williams, Rev. James Trice, Rev. L. L. Shumpert, and old Father Yeats.

The tents were, of course, something new to me as I had never before been to a camp meeting.

All visitors, and especially preachers, were well cared for. Sunday morning at 8 o'clock we had a nice prayer meeting; at nine o'clock we had a grand time in the love feast, which was conducted by Father Yeats. At 11 o'clock we had a very interesting sermon, by the presiding elder, D. A. Williams, which was highly appreciated by all present. His text was John vi. 58. We also received the sacrament of the Lord's supper. At 3 o'clock we had a lovely sermon by Rev. James Trice, pastor of Tupelo church, who is much loved by the entire community. At early candle light Sunday night Rev. L. L. Shumpert, pastor of the Columbus church, preached a very instructive sermon. The meeting lasted only five days, number of converts 16. On the following week I had four converts in my school, which made me feel that the blessed Savior was with me and my dear pupils.

15 Pounds Gained in Three Weeks, and CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

Messrs. Craddock & Co., 1038 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—Please send me two vebottles of DR H JAMES CANNABIS INDICA, ... each of Pills and Ointment, for a friend of mine who is not expected to ... send us your medicine cured me of Consumption some three years ago. I ... to try them. I gained fifteen ... while taking the first three bot... and I know it is just the thing for ... Respectfully,

J. V. HULL,
Lawrenceburg, Anderson Co., Ky.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

MARSDEN.

"Post after post, fnll many a letter speeds,
Remonstrance to petition, fast succeeds;
Circuits obscure, unpopular, remote,
But little noticed and of little note,
May ask—perhaps their purposes are good,
For Benson, Newton, Watson or for Wood;
All spare your postage, brethren, and "be still,"
There is a niche, each laborer may fill;
For every place God has a pastor fit;
Leigh needs no orator, nor Brough a wit;
Send Reese to Brigg! 'tis quite beside the mark,
And who would think of Bamff—for Adam Clarke!
Your brethren, led by this unerring clue,
Will doubtless send the fittest men to you;
Or, if you relish not a poet's plan,
Rely on Providence, and "cease from man;"
God is the Sun, the centre He presides;
All men he governs, and all council guides;
Surveys all nature with a parent's eye,
The plants that blossom, and the birds that fly;
Your bark is safe, a Father rules the helm;
No rocks can hilge, no hurricans o'erwhelm;
To Him commend your circuit and affairs,
A cheerful faith is worth a world of cares;
What you request, Almighty love will do—
Appoint a pastor—send a blessing, too."

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Ministerial Hindrances.

A writer who would succeed in enumerating them all might well be called a prodigy. I shall attempt to offer some thoughts on a few only, which have their source among preachers themselves, and for which they are to be held accountable. Perhaps there are none more glaring and mischievous than those questionable tricks which some have been known to employ for the purpose of detracting from the merits of others. Many times has it happened that one preacher has taken advantage of a favorable occasion to secretly undermine the standing of a brother preacher, whom he fancied to be a rival. The disposition of a great number of people to catch at disparaging remarks directed against a religious teacher by one of his own profession, made his work comparatively easy. He had but to point out some weakness, or blemish not generally known, and paint to suit the prejudices of the hour, or to repeat some groundless rumor of a damaging character and it was done. By such means not a few worthy men have been greatly hindered in their work. They have been suspected without a cause, and denied the sympathy to which they where justly entitled, only because a brother, strange to say, has been recreant to his trust. The evil has too long received license and I hope it may be speedily brought to an end. Ministers of the Gospel, whose mission is at once so momentous and in opposition to whom the world marshals its combined and powerful forces, can not afford to so far lose sight of their real aim, as to set themselves about, curtailing each other's influence for good, and thus obstructing their own way to success. They must, on the other hand, love as brethren and strive to show in their treatment of each other's reputation, an integrity, at such a distant remove from unfairness that must command respect from all. War must be made on sin with unyielding firmness at all times, but against a brother's good name, let no brother's hand ever be uplifted. The preacher who whispers, slanders and stabs in the dark; who lives by pirating and plunder, where the prize is nothing more nor less than men's honor and reputation, should be treated as a wolf in sheep's clothing. Beware of the preacher who speaks lighty of his bishops, presiding elders, and his colleagues. In his sight hardly anything is sacred, which seems to stand in the way of his vain ambition. For those who will lend their help toward the gratification of his desires he has unmeasured praise, but for those who, from a sense of duty, refuse to truckle to his whims, he has vials of wrath. Shun him! I have written plainly but have tried to avoid harshness. There are other features of the subject which remain to be handled.

D. W. HAYS.

The Republicans fairly hold their own in Connecticut town elections.

"I have been dreadfully troubled with disease of the kidneys and liver during the past six months. HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY has made me a new man." Isaac W. Fairbrother, Providence, Rhode Island.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my absent parents. My father was Tom Brown, and belonged to Mr. Fossey. My mother was Patience Brown, and belonged to Edward Harrison. Mother's sons were Kitt Brown, Bob Brown, Monroe Brown, Graham Brown. Her daughters were Mary Brown, and Lydia Brown. Monroe Brown was sold from them in Mealey county, Virginia, when very young to a Sandy Archer, in Richmond, Virginia. Address Monroe Brown, Marshall, Texas. 3t

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

What Next.

BY REV. H. J. WRIGHT.

There are many things that occur in the course of our lives, and we become astonished, and we some times say wonders will cease to be wonders. We hear of many poor Negroes paying the highest penalty of the law upon the scaffold and still the news came that these must die. The Governor has signed the death warrant of Josh Berryman, a young man who is to be hung on Friday, August 29th. In seclusion, the young man in a bad passion, in heated blood shot and killed a fellow man of his, while eating at a table in his own house, When he fell from his place Berryman procured a sack, tied him up in it, while his wife was at the cow pen, and pulled him to Red river, tied some weights to the sack, no one to tell the sad fate of the young man, but the circumstances led all to suspicion Berryman, he was arrested, upon close inquiry he broke down, being so guilty, the deed so dastardly and inhuman, and upon his own acknowledgment and the circumstances, he was found guilty, and now the hammer must ring the sad news in his hearing. Bad whiskey, of which all is bad, and an ill temper works ruinous to any man. Josh feeling the necessity of being baptized and that by the Baptists excitement ran high, people come in from all parts to see Josh Berryman go down, not in Jordan, but a deep hole sufficient to baptize him in, and lo, to their surprise, this could not be done. Now what must be done. Josh Berryman wants to be baptized and he can't be brought out nor can a crowd go in. A mathematical problem stood before the Baptist divine and the only solution was a bathing tub of water in his cell. What will our Baptist brethren introduce next or what mode will they next introduce to us? What an idea, to baptize a man in a tub. I hear them say immersion is essential, all right. I see them baptize this way. I heard one of our Mississippi brothers say one Baptist brother was baptised by sprinkling and ask "what next?" I saw some good Baptist brothers, not over three years a go, bury a Baptist brother's wife, she never proclaimed or professed, never had water applied to her or her to it and they preached her away into heaven; they seemed to have forgotten about the water in this case.

Natchitoches, La., Aug. 12th, 1884.

From Stanley Pool, at the head of Livingstone Falls, a navigable water way of nearly 5,000 miles is open by the Congo and its branches a territory larger, and a population equal to that of the United States.

There is a friend who sticks to you and smiles upon you with great fondness, but only so long as you flatter him or worship him, or by personal attentions to him, give him personal pleasure.—Religious Telescope.

Done in Six Months.

That coat of hair on the back of your head, dear lady. It is better than nothing and deceives nobody. In six months or less from to-day you may dispense with it if you are inclined to give Parker's Hair Balsam a fair trial. Cleanses the scalp, restores color, a delicious dressing. Not a dye, not oily, elegantly perfumed.

A SURE THING.

Baldness is only incurable when the hair roots are dead and absorbed, which is a rare condition. In nearly all cases they are simply torpid, and can be stimulated to put forth a new growth of hair by the use of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, the only preparation that cures baldness and restores youthful color to gray hair.

Baldness Cured and Age Rejuvenated.

J. W. HAMMONDS, Lake Preston, D.T., when he was but 40 years old found his hair growing gray. At 50, his hair and whiskers were entirely white. So they continued until he reached 60 years of age, when he began using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, three bottles of which sufficed to restore their original rich, dark brown color.

MRS. AUGUST VALENTINE, of Buffalo, N. Y., had become nearly bald, and though she made use of many of the so-called hair restorers, none had any effect. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR did what nothing else could do, and now the lady again has a fine head of hair, thanks entirely to it.

GEO. MAYER, Flatonia, Texas, presented an apparently hopeless case. Baldness was hereditary in his family. By the time he was 23 years old he had scarcely any hair left. One bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR started a soft, downy growth all over his scalp, and in a few months his head was covered with soft, dark and abundant hair.

MRS. O. DAVENPORT, Williamstown, Vt., became entirely bald at the age of 20 and remained so 38 years, during which time she tried many hair "restorers" without success. Eventually she used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, four bottles of which covered her head with a fine growth of silky brown hair, twelve inches long.

MRS. O. O. PRESCOTT, Charlestown, Mass., had lost two-thirds of her hair, by its falling out, when she applied AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and one bottle of it caused her hair to grow out even more handsome than before it began to fall.

MRS. D. N. PARKS, Clio, Michigan, is 57 years of age, and her hair was quite gray, but one bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR restored the color it bore in youth, and she now has "as fine a head of hair as when she was but 16."

VINCENT JONES, Richmond, Ind., lost all his hair in consequence of a severe attack of brain fever. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR brought out a new growth in a few weeks, and it speedily grew long and thick.

Medicinal Virtues.

The rare medicinal powers, emollient, stimulative and tonic, possessed by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR enable it to cure speedily Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Tetter-sores, Dandruff, Humors of various kinds, and other diseases of the scalp liable to cause baldness. It is not a dye, contains no coloring matter, and effects its rejuvenation of faded or gray hair simply by bringing back the vigor of youth to the roots and color glands of the hair.

The wife of DR. V. S. LOVELACE, Lovelace, Ky., had very bad Tetter Sores on her head. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR cured them.

The son of JAMES N. CARTER, Occoquan, Va., was cured of Scald-Head by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR.

HERBERT BOYD, Minneapolis, Minn., was cured by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR of intolerable Itching of the Scalp.

A Toilet Luxury.

Where the hair is brittle, dry, harsh, weak, or thin, the use of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR speedily renders it pliant, soft, glossy, and stimulates it to a rich and luxurious growth; it also keeps the scalp free from dandruff, and affords a perfect assurance against the hair falling out or turning gray. No other dressing is so clean or has such a delicate and delightful perfume. Without it the toilet cannot be complete.

Ladies who have once made trial of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR never after prefer any other hair-dressing, and many of them voluntarily offer such testimonials as the following, from MISS KATE ROSE, Ingersoll, Ont., who writes:

"While keeping my head clear of Dandruff, and preventing Scald Head, it has also caused my hair to grow luxuriantly, resulting in my now possessing hair forty-two inches long, and as thick as any one could wish it."

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

Sold by all Druggists.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

Our Books for Sale,

—AT—

Southwestern Office,

32 Natchez Street.

Wakefield's Theology	$2 50
Methodism In The Field	1 00
Class Leaders Work and How to Do It	1 25
History of the M. E. Church, 4 volumes	6 00
Wesley's Sermons, 2 volumes	5 00
Whedon's Commentary on the New Testament	7 50
Life of John Wesley	1 00
Hand Book of Bible Geography	2 50
Bible Stories	1 00
Hints to Self Educated Ministers	1 25
Christianity Demonstrated by Experience	1 50
Baker on the Discipline	1 00
Binney's Theological Compend	75
Pope's Theology, 3 volumes	7 50
Outlines of Bible History	50
Outlines of Church History	50
CATECHISMS—
No. 1, Per Dozen	36
No. 2 Per Dozen	45
No. 3, Per Dozen	60
American Primers, per dozen	50
Spelling and Reading Book, per dozen	1 50
Sunday-School Minute Book	40
Sunday-School Register and Receiving Book	40
Sunday-School Class Book	10
Church Record	2 50
Church Class Book	20
Hymnal 24 mo	50
" 16 mo, with Ritual	75
" 16 mo, "	1 00
" 12 mo, "	1 50
" 16 mo, with Tunes	1 00

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr. C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to '72, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
38-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

IT PAYS to sell our Rubber Stamps. Free catalogue to Agents. Fulcombe & Co, Cleveland O. a25-4teow

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The New England Journal of Education speaking of the National Education Assembly, for 1883, says: "It was the most remarkable gathering ever held in our country in matters connected with the schooling of the people. The volume of addresses is the most interesting collection of popular educational document ever given to our people, and should be in the hands of every educator, legislator and intelligent citizen in the land."

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incident. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

A special feature of the book is a series of ten tables, compiled by the Hon. H. H. Waite, Special Statistician U. S. Census and the Hon. John Eaton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, giving complete data upon the Illiterate and educational status of the United States, each State and also of the South as a section.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.

32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists.

sept25 to nov27

"THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST."

SAW MILLS ENGINES THRASHERS, Horse Powers

(For all sections and purposes.) Write for Free Pamphlet and Prices to The Aultman & Taylor Co., Mansfield, Ohio. [oo 4-1y

MILLERS and FARMERS

Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro., Atlanta, Ga. Mention this paper.

may22-1y

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

'Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave
New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carondelet "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N O R. R will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W B SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. j 31tf

BIG GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..0:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3. 10:45 a. m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a.m	Sunday Excu'n 8:20 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common,

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leave.	Arrive.
Express	8:20 a. m.	9:50 p. m.
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p. m.	9:05 a. m.
Fast Mail	6:25 p. m.	9:45 a.m.

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Knisken, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O, and M. Division. a25-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE
TO
Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn, and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City, For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or
H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

4 % LONG LOANS.

PRINCIPAL need never be REPAID

so long as interest is kept up. Personal security only for interest. Honest poor or men of moderate means can send 6 cents for particulars, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

sept18 2 t

BOARDING HOUSES.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,

100.....Franklin Street.....100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.

sept25-6m

General News Items.

The cholera in France is subsiding.

The French consul at Khartoum was massacred by Arabs.

The camel corps to relieve Gen. Gordon has landed at Alexandria.

The majority of the British cabinet opposes a campaign against the Boers of South Africa.

The Spanish royal decree abolishes the duties on Cuban and Porto Rican sugar, October 15, and increased duties on foreign sugars January 1.

The number of Masonic lodges in the world is stated at 138,065, and the membership is 14,160,543. It will be a long time before the Pope vanquishes so large a host.

The treasury will pay out $17,500,000 the first of October; a bond call of another ten millions is daily expected; $7,000,000 of silver will be coined, and whether or not the silver leave the vaults the bullion will be paid for; there will be some increase of national banking currency, and there will be a probable continuance of the influx of gold.

The Fish Commission of Missouri has just published a small book of 64 pages on Carp Culture, with an appendix on Native Fish. It will be sent to residents of Missouri free of charge on application and enclosure of three cents in postage stamps. Apply to Phil. Kopplin, Jr., Forest Park, St. Louis.

The orchard is no place for cattle, or horses. If your trees need trimming—the branches hanging too low, for instance—go at it with saw and pruning shears, unless you are satisfied that you do not know any more about trimming than your cattle. The orchard is the very best imaginable place for sheep, hogs and poultry.

Recent rains have been very beneficial to late corn, and it is now quite certain that the yield will be from 25 to 50 bushels per acre. We are confident, at least, that the short crops of the three preceding years will be excelled. Notwithstaning the good crop prospects, a large number of our farmers are disposing of their lands this fall and seeking homes further West. Improved frams, not near large towns, are selling at $50 to $75 per acre, and our lands are as fertile as any in the State.

SANITARIUM, Riverside, Cal The dry climate cures. Nose, Throat, Lungs, full idea. 36p, route cost free.
Mar. 27 26teow

Why a Centennial Jubilee in the South?

There are special reasons why our people in the South ought to heartily enter into this Centennial Celebration. In fact the South should make 1884 a Centennial Jubilee year, when not only God's blessings upon our world-wide Methodism should be remembered, but when his marvelous dealings with our people in every part in the South, during and since the war, should be devoutly and thankfully recounted.

As Methodists, they should rejoice that the old Mother Church of Methodism in America, is now firmly planted in every part of our nation, and is saving people of every race and condition.

As patriots, loving their county, they can praise God that secession and rebellion were failures, and that the nation is now one in territory, and will soon be one in sentiment.

As philanthropists loving their fellow men, they can rejoice that slavery is destroyed, never again to curse our land.

The one million of colored people in our Church and congregations in the South can make this a Jubilee year, in which to praise God for freedom and its blessings.

It will be a proper time for our people in the South to recall what has been done for them by the whole Church, and to plan for yet greater growth and self-helpfulness [illegible]

[illegible] of our Church in the South is a large increase in the number of [illegible] ministers and teachers competent to instruct and build up the people. This Centennial Jubilee year will give all a chance to make a thank-offering to God for Christian education.

Kentucky Conference.

BISHOP WALDEN PRESIDING.

ASHLAND DISTRICT, E. L Shepard, P. E—Ashland, J R Eads. Blaine, A R Crislip. Catlettsburg, T Hanford. Coalton, to be supplied. Eden, C Riffle. Greenup, G R Frenger. Lawrence, W B Snead. Louisa, C H Williamson. Olive Hill, to be supplied. Paintsville, T B Stratton. Pikeville, to be supplied. Prestonburg, to be supplied. Russell, R D Lashbrook. Salyersville, J K Creighton. Shelby, to be supplied.

BARBOURSVILLE DISTRICT. W. H. Childers, P. E.—Bangor, W C S Ingram. Barboursville, J Halpenny. Booneville, S K Rainey. Campton, W C Neal. Harlan, to be supplied. Irvine, T W Williamson. Jeffersonville, H Newman. London, D M'Daniel. M'Kee, to be supplied. Pineville, to be supplied. Watts Creek, T M'Namara. Williamsburg, to be supplied.

COVINGTON DISTRICT, O. J. Howes, P. E—Asbury and Alexandria, H J Rainey. Augusta, H C Northcott. Bellevue, E L Sanders. Concord, to be supplied. Covington: Main St, J D Walsh; Shinkle Chapel, A Boreing; Union Church, B Lane. Crittenden, to be supplied. Dayton, S G Pollard. Flemming, to be supplied. Foster, V T Willis. Fox Springs, to be supplied. Germantown, E C Pollard. Harrison and Nicholas, to be supplied Ludlow, J H Herron. Maysville, G S Easton. Mt Olivet, P H Ebright. Newport, Grace Church, A U Beall. Sardis, T F Garrett. Tolesboro, J S Marriott. Vanceburg, W F Maltbie. West Covington, to be supplied.

D Stevenson, President of Augusta Collegiate Institute.

GREENVILLE DISTRICT, J. H. Lennin, P.E.—Bremen, E D Elliott. Cold Spring, to be supplied. Earlington, W E Cook. Elmwood; E A Davis. Greenville, to be supplied. Hopkinsville, to be supplied. Marion, to be supplied. Mayfield, to be supplied. Milburn, W Powis. No Creek, J H Ford. Owensboro, J H Gardner. Paducah and Birmingham, M L Centers.

LEXINGTON DISTRICT, J. S. Taylor, P.E—Bethel, B F Whitman. Buena Vista, to be supplied. College Hill, W B Barnett. Columbia, to be supplied, Cumberland City, S W Shelton. Danville, J G Bruce. Harrodsburg, to be supplied. Highland, A C Gentle. Lexington, W Macafee. Middleburg, to be supplied. Nicholasville, T G Bosley. Somerset, E B Hill.

LOUISVILLE DISTRICT, F. Gridir, P.E—Bowling Green, J M Oliver. Caneyville, J M Cook. Hardinsburg, G N Jolley. Litchfield, J L Hawk. Louisville: Trinity, I A Pearce: Wesley, H W Bailey. Oldham, to be supplied. Scottsville, D F Kerr. Shelbyville, W G Bradford. Tompkinsville, to be supplied. Union Star, G O Jeffries. Vine Grove, to be supplied. Woodsonville, to be supplied.

W Q Taylor, to attend the Garrett Biblical Institute.

Old Beeswax.—"No, sir, never contradict a lady. It's a waste of effort. Just give her time and she will do it herself."

IT CURES WHEN ALL OTHER MEDICINES FAIL, as it acts DIRECTLY and AT ONCE on the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, restoring them to a healthy action. It is a safe, sure and speedy cure and hundreds have been cured by it when physicians and friends had given them up to die.

IT IS BOTH A "SAFE CURE" and a "SPECIFIC."

It CURES all Diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Urinary Organs; Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Nervous Diseases, Excesses, Female Weaknesses, Jaundice, Biliousness, Headache, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Piles, Pains in the Back, Loins, or Side, Retention or Non-Retention of Urine.

$1.25 AT DRUGGISTS.

TAKE NO OTHER.

Send for Illustrated Pamphlet of Solid Testimonials of Absolute Cures.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

sept11-1y

M .E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez street.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m. 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 32 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Hale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7 0 p m; Gene al Class and Love Feast monthly; Preaching Thursday eve 7:30; Class, Monday eve

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m Communion every second Sunday at 7 p m. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening Prayer-meeting Friday evening Gen al Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5.30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a m, Preaching at 11 a m, 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Prytania, two blocks above the last station. Rev. M C B. Mason, Pastor Services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m Sunday Sunday-school 9 a m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m, and communion at 7 Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A F. Hoyt, M. A., acting President 1428 St Charles street.

First Street—Rev. J. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m, prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

STANDARD Biographies { Just Ready.
BLAINE and LOGAN.
712 royal octavo pages; 67 full illustrations
Tilden, Cleveland & Hendricks.
774 Royal octavo page; 35 full-page illustrations.
Best Terms ever offered to Agents.
OUTFIT FREE, and ALL FREIGHT PAID.
Address, H. S. GOODSPEED, New York or Chicago.
oct2 1yn

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Bibolet, Manager.)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20.....Toulouse Street,.....20
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, La.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly fills at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a largeassortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

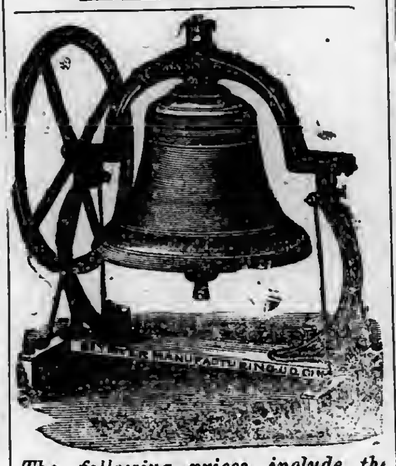
GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.
292.....Rampart Street..... ... 292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine.
sept6

OUR SONG WORLD
A New Book for Singing Classes, Institutes and Conventions.
By GEO. F. ROOT & C. C. CASE.
CONTAINS
The finest Elementary Lessons, both in quality and grading, that have ever appeared in any book.
The Best of simple Part Songs, Tunes and Anthems with beautiful Glees and Secular Choruses, crowned by the brilliant "Italia."
Effective Music for Class and Concert Work, from that which "sings itself," up to Gounod's "Unfold Ye Portals."
Take the book all in all and it is one that will make class teaching a pleasure and delight to Teachers and Pupils.
Price, 60cts. each by mail, postpaid; $6.00 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen Pages Free.
PUBLISHED BY
JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Good Pay for Agents. $100 to $200 per mo., made selling our fine Books and Bibles. Write to J. C. McCURDY & CO St. Louis, Mo.
sept13-1y



EDUCATIONAL.

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for postage. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. Mention this journal. jy17 1y.

WILEY UNIVERSITY.
MARSHALL, TEXAS.
Academic Year opened Sept. 22
No School Does More for its Pupils.
College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.
Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.
Competent and Experienced Faculty.
Expenses Very Low.
For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't,
oct9 Marshall, Texas.

Rust University,
Holly Springs, Miss.
LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.
BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.
FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.
"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.
Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

New Orleans University.
Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,
September 29 and 30, 1884.
The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.
Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.
Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts,
A. F. HOYT, A. M, S. L B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.
Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue,
sept4-3m New Orleans, La.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.
CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches....	175 lbs.	325 lbs.	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs.	375 lbs.	55 00
32 "	350 lbs.	550 lbs.	80 00
36 "	550 lbs.	800 lbs.	120 00
40 "	750 lbs.	1050 lbs.	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs.	1350 lbs.	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs.	1800 lbs.	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs.	2900 lbs.	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches.....	100 lbs.....	$13 00
20 inches.....	130 lbs.....	18 00
24 inches.....	190 lbs.....	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.
The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.
On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

PATENTS
MUNN & CO., of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, Caveats, Trade Marks, Copyrights, for the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany, etc. Hand Book about Patents sent free. Thirty-seven years' experience Patents obtained through MUNN & CO. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, the largest, best, and most widely circulated scientific paper. $3.20 a year. Weekly. Splendid engravings and interesting information. Specimen copy of the Scientific American sent free. Address MUNN & CO., SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN Office, 261 Broadway, New York.
dec6-tf

Central Tennessee College,
Nashville, Tennessee.
This College begins its nineteenth year on
Monday, September 8, 1884.
Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.
Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.
The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.
For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,
Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.
A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oc18-tf

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,
Cocoa and Canton Matting, Floor Oilcloths, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain goods, Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Wire Screens, Etc.
75 Camp Street ..... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct9-6m

Crescent Insurance Company.
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.
CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849 Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.
W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.
TRUSTEES.

Joseph Rowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Sentell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Conger
W. R. Lyman,	U. Marinoni,	Chas. H. Dolsen,	John Calder,	A. H. Steward
S. C. Coulon,	Harry L. Flash.,	Wm. A. Phelps.	J. J Reiss,	Louis Prados
Lucien Delery,	Charles Newman,	N. D. Wallace	Sigmund Katz,	M. G Ellis
R. F. W. Bachman.	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig.	A. Rosenfield.	John D. Fisher
Chas. E. Rios,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd

See our Agents throughout the South. oc 9 1y

CHILDS' CATARRH
Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS! Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our questions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc., REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio.
feb7-1y

The Great Church LIGHT.
FRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, N. Y.

THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL AND COTTON CENTENNIAL
EXPOSITION
New Orleans.
Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.
—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—
United States Government.
$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.
Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.
The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.
APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED OVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.
The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.
For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. I. & C. C. E.,
New Orleans, La.

PILES "Anakesis" gives instant relief, and is an infallible cure for Piles. Price $1, at druggists, or sent prepaid by mail. Sample free. Ad. "ANAKESIS," Makers, Box 2416 New York
oct4-1y

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free.
B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.
mar20-52t

HARTER'S IRON TONIC
THE ONLY TRUE
Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power.
LADIES Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST.
Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co. St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK." Full of strange and useful information, free.
may8-1y

CATARRH
AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Cough, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured, by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the bones of the nose have become affected. No douches, snuffs, washes, inhalers, or atomizers. The medicines are so pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Brockington has had fifteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and Fifty (50) cents (mere cost), for a trial package [by mail], to last fifteen days, with full instructions for treatment.
Address, DR. C. N. BROCKINGTON, 309 FOURTH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, KY.
oc 2-1yr

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER," FOR PRESERVING, RESTORING AND Beautifying the Complexion For Removing Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Sallowness, Blotches, &c. OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES.
LOTTA—It is the best preparation for the face that I ever used. I now use no other CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG—I gave me pleasure to add my name to the list of those who recommend your "Liquid Pearl," and express the satisfaction it afforded me.
The LIQUID PEARL has been received by the ladies of all countries with the highest marks of appreciation. Only 50 cents a bottle, sold by all Druggists & Perfumers.
CHAMPLIN & CO., Props., BUFFALO, N.Y.
dec28-26teo m

AUTOMATIC
OR "NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.
BEST AND STRONGEST SEAMS.
UNEQUALLED LIGHTNESS OF RUNNING.
AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.
Full investigation afforded to all.
Willcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.
nov15-16teow

PAYSON'S INDELIBLE INK
Is the BEST. No preparation. Used with any clean pen for marking any fabric. Popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial MEDAL & Diploma. Established 50 years. Sold by all Druggists, Stationers & News Agt's
may22-11t eow

EMPLOYMENT—LOCAL or Traveling. State which preferred. Also SALARY per month. All EXPENSES advanced. WAGES promptly paid. SLOAN & CO., 294 George St., Cincinnati, O.
sept25-2t

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address TRUE & Co., Augusta, Me.
jan1

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. aug28-1y 106 Wall Street N Y

Sunday School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER LESSON III Oct. 19.
SOLOMON'S CHOICE. 1 Kings iii 5 15.

The wisdom of a man or child is shown in his choices. Soon after Solomon was made king, and after David his father was dead, he went to a place called Gibeon, where he had a strange dream, more like a vision. He had gone there to worship the Lord; probably there was a great gathering of the people, like a camp meeting. We judge this because it is said that he offered a thousand sacrifices, which of itself would require the presence of a great many priests and Levites. The young king, seeing so many of his subjects, probably felt more than ever he had done the great importance of his new position. In those days before all the Bible had been given to men, the Lord sometimes spoke to his people in dreams. This night he appeared to Solomon, and said, "Ask what I shall give thee." Solomon made the wisest choice choice possible by asking God to give him wisdom to govern "this great people." The Lord was pleased with him that he had asked this rather than riches or long life or the life of his enemies, which would seem desirable in the eyes of the world. So God gave him good judgment to decide the hard questions that would be brought to him as a king, and besides gave him riches and honor, and promised him long life if he would serve him as faithfully as his father David had done. The "beginning of wisdom is the fear of the Lord," is what this wise Solomon says in his proverbs. One wise choice will lead to another, as one friend of the right kind will bring us into society that will be good for us; so the opposite is true. If we choose Jesus for our best friend and heaven for our home, then the way that we shall walk in and the company we shall have is decided. That will be the "wise choice." Have you made it?—Western.

Children's Work—Bible Mountains—VII.

1. What prophets dwelt under a palm trees?

2. What special honor was put upon the palm tree?

3. Of whom does David make it a type?

4 To what custom does he allude?

5. For what did the Jews use palm branches?

6. In what triumphal entry were they used?

Answers for September 25.

By Master W. H. Crawford, Van Baren, Ark., aged 13: 1. The war between Gideon and the Midianites. 2. Body of the mount consists of the peculiar limestone of the country.

J. W. B. Matthews, Capleville, Tenn., writes: "We had a grand Sunday-school celebration on August 22. It consisted of a public parade, led by Messrs. White and Cyrus, members of the school. Then we had songs, prayer and [illegible] in concert, conducted by [illegible] and Mr. Wilcox, [illegible] The Ten Commandments were recited, and after [illegible] interesting the writer addressed the school, and several able essays were read also. Miss Rose Johnson, Mrs. Phillips and Mr. Joseph Dillard recited selections from the New Testament. Misses Louisa Brown, Maggie Johnson, Ida B. Wells and Mrs. Adeline Thompson delivered addresses, and directed the singing. It was a pleasant and successful affair."

Marriages.

In Conshatta, Sept. 5, by Rev. D Shelby, Mr. N. C. Avery to Mrs Ann L. Blening. May they live in peace and harmony.

At the home of the bride, in Midway, Texas, Mr. David Bird to Miss Emeline Green, Sept. 25, 1884, at 11 a. m., by the Rev. Aaron Taylor.

At the home of the bride in Madison, Texas, Mr. James Bird to Miss Bettie Glover, by Rev. A. Taylor.

At the Home of the bride, Madison, Texas, Mr. Davy Shannon to Polly Ceaphus, by Rev. A Taylor.

At the church, Madison, Texas, Mr. Robt. Burns to Miss Mary Lewis, by Rev: A. Taylor.

At the Church, Madison, Texas, Mr Jerry Ceaphus to Miss Catherine Glover, by Rev. A. Taylor.

At the church, Madison, Texas, Mr. Parish Blaken to Miss Huldia Volts, by Rev. A. Taylor.

At the church, in Madison, Texas, Mr. Ashley Bartley to Miss Ella Malone, by Rev. A. Taylor.

At the residence of the bride, in Tennessee, Mr. Wm. Allen to Miss Belle Turner, Sept. 14, 1884, by Rev. P. R. Woodson.

In Carrollton, La., Tuesday evening. Sept. 30, at the bride's residence, Mr. Wm. Ligon to Miss Virginia Sampson, Rev. M. C. B. Mason officiating. Mr. Ligon, is a native of Alabama, while Miss Sampson is one of our own girls, and a faithful worker in both church and Sabbath-school. God bless the happy pair.

By Rev. C. H. Claiborne, Dulac, La., Wilson Green and Mrs. Susan Jones. Elcok Woodson and Miss Betty Falls, Aug. 23, 1884. David Johnson and Miss Eliza Hulls, Sept. 20, 1884, all of Terrebonne parish.

Obituary.

Bro. Edward Baley, aged 55 years, died Sept 26 in Shreveport, La. Funeral by Rev. F. Harvey.

Sister Olivia Mack, died at Shreveport La., Sept. 26, in full faith. The little three year old daughter of Sister Rose Maston died in Shreveport, Sept. 22.

REV. F. HARVEY.

Sister Martha Land died at Anderson, Texas, Sept. 29, 1884. She was a highly respected member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 15 years, and was 45 years of age. She died in the full triumph of faith in Christ.

REV. DEWITT FRIERSON.

Friday, Oct. 3, in Alexandria, La., Gilbert Haven, infant son of Rev. J. F. and Sister Alice Marshall, died of typhoid fever, aged 20 months and 26 days.

Burelle Ewell died January, 1884, aged 8 years, 2 months and 21 days. Little Borrell was a member of the Sunday school. Also Cheetham died August 7 1885, aged 45 years. She leaves a life of sorrow and trouble to enter one of joy and happiness Sister Cheetham leaves a devoted husband and ten children to mourn her death.

A. R. JORDAN.

On September 25, 1884, departed this life Sister Lucy Kelly, one of the oldest members of this charge. She was a faithful mother in Israel, also a good friend to the preacher. After the burning of her three grandchildren she took her bed. She said to me there were no clouds between her and God and she was ready to go. I sang for her while she crossed over, and we bid her good bye as she shooted. She is missed by the church and pastor. C. A. TAYLOR.

Comite, La.

Sister Jennie Perkins died Sept. 23, 1884, in full triumph of faith. She was 69 years old when she died, was the mother of 20 children and 42 grandchildren. She has been a member of the church 41 years, and was beloved by all who knew her. She leaves a husband and 7 children and a host of friends to mourn her death.

Sister Aria Brown, a faithful member, died Sept. 8th in full triumph of faith. She leaves two sons and three grandchildren to mourn her loss. She was 56 years of age C. KING.

Georgetown, Texas

Sister Ellen Grimage, aged 34 years, died at Millington, Kent county, Mo After suffering at her home in Philadelphia she came to Millington with her sister. Six weeks of suffering and she fell asleep in Christ. She was a member of Zoar Church, Philadelphia, of which her husband is a trustee Her last words were, "My way is clear; I am going to live with God." C. H. HUTCHINGS.

Books and Current Literature.

Mr. George Ticknor Curtis contributes to the November Century a paper on "How Shall we Elect our Presidents?"

The Christmas Wide Awake will have a superb frontispiece in eighteen colors, reproduced from a water color by F. H. Lungren, by Louis Prang & Co., the famous Christmas card makers, and the foremost Fine Art Publishers of America. Nothing so beautiful has ever before been attempted in magazine publishing.

With its issue of October 11, The Current will appear in its new cover and will be cut and pasted. The improvement will be a marked one, and the cover design itself is said to be a noble art study.

The Methodist Review for 1885, will be a sextennary publication. The General Conference at its late session formally recognized the demand of the Church for more frequent issues of the Review, and also for additional matter by which it might be made more popular, without at all abating its scholarly character, and committed the carrying out of the needed modifications to the editor and publishers. After a careful consideration of the subject, the following scheme for the periodical has been adopted, as embodying the suggestions of that body 1. The Methodist Review shall hereafter be issued bimonthly—six numbers each year; to bear date severally on the first day of January, March, May, July, September and November. 2. Each number shall consist of 160 pages, making for the year 960 pages, instead of 768, as heretofore, of about the same size and appearance as those of the present number. 3. The editor, with the approval of the publishers, will arrange to considerably extend the Editorial Departments, so as to include discussions of current topics within the proper scope of the Review; and also Religions, Missionary and Literary Intelligence, and Notices of New Publications. 4. Notwithstanding this large increase of matter, and although the price of the Review has hitherto been less than that of almost any similar publication, it has been determined that there shall be no increase of the subscription price. Daniel Curry, Editor. Phillips & Hunt, Publishers. Subscription price $2.50. Single copies 50 cents.

The English Illustrated Magazine for October is now before us. New York: MacMillan & Co. Annual subscription $1.75.

The Guide to Holiness and Revival Miscellany for October, Palmers & Hughes, editors and publishers, 62, 64 Bible House, New York, is replete with counsel and godliness.

The October Golden Days, for boys and girls, is very attractive. Philadelphia: James Elverson, publisher.

Opening Exercises of the New Orleans Sugar Exchange contains a full account of the ceremonies and addresses of that occasion, published by order of the Board.

Minutes of the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Spring Conferences of 1884 now ready. Price $1. Phillips & Hunt, New York; Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati.

The African Repository for October is at hand. It contains an article on "Cape Palmas." "The Inaugural Address of President Johnson, of Liberia," "The Congo Question," "African Correspondence," and shows that for June, July and August the receipts of the Society have been $847 98. Their cause and the faithful manner in which the Society is doing its work, call for a much more liberal response from the people. It is quite time that the colored people began to give of their little, systematically and constantly, for African colonization, which is but another name for the perpetuation of Negro domination in Africa. Published by the American Colonization Company, 450 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

The American Missionary for October. Contents—Editorial: Financial—Annual Meeting; Voting Members—Great Assemblies; Paragraph—Indian Legislation; Mendi Mission Affairs—John Brown Steamer; Benefactions; General Notes; Egyptian Family (cut). New York: Published by the American Missionary Association, Rooms 56 Reade Street. Price 50 cents a year, in advance. Our Congregational brethren are about a great work, and a place not only in the heart of Africa, but also in the heart of the African.

Proceedings of the Most Worthy Grand Lodge of the State of Kentucky. Seventeenth Annual Communication, held at Henderson, Ky., June 23, 1884. Charles Steele, Most Worthy Grand Master; W. Pratt Annis, Grand Secretary; also a synopsis of the transactions of the First Independent Grand Commandery of Knights Templar and Appendant Orders, for the State of Kentucky, at its 3rd annual conclave, with knightly greetings of Sir George Taylor, Grand Commander.

A new book about China.—Our interest has been deeply engaged while reading a recent publication called Pagoda Shadows; or Studies from Life in China, written by Miss A. M. Fielde, of Swatow, China. There is a freshness in the treatment of the subject that is very attractive. The book was published by the advice of Joseph Cook, who has written the introduction. The clear, straight-forward style of the author, the many new lights penetrating the old shadows, the vivid rendering and literal translation of the stories told by the Chinese women themselves, combine to make a record of Chinese ideas and life, which must be very useful to every one who will read the book, a company, which, for their sakes, we hope will be large. W. G. Cottrell, Tremont Temple, Boston, publisher.

My Missionary Apprenticeship. By Rev. J. M. Thoburn, D D. New York: Phillips & Hunt; Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe. 1884. Price $1.50.

Since 1859 Dr. Thoburn has been actively engaged in Methodist Missionary labor. If any one understands the ins and outs of missionary life and the difficult details of the work, he ought to be the man. The Church is anxious to know a great deal more than it does about our missionary work—domestic and foreign—and for this reason will give a cordial reception to every new work which enters the market. Dr. Thoburn has worked with his eyes open, and has written with his mind clear, and ample dates before him. The publishers have sustained their reputation, and justified their unequaled facilities in the mechanical work of the book. Had a Bishop been chosen for India, it would doubtless have been Dr. Thoburn. This also gives additional importance to his book.

Tribute of Respect.

Resolutions adopted by the Methodist Sunday-school of Mount Zion Church, on Jackson street near Locust, New Orleans, September 20, 1884:

Whereas, It has pleased God, whose ways are mysterious but ever just, to remove from her loving home circle, and from her Sunday-school, where she was dearly loved, Parphenia Joseph, aged 6 years; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we lay our finers upon our lips and bow ourselves in the dust, recognizing the hand of God, and submissively pass under the rod.

Resolved, That in this we be warned, seeing that God is no respecter of persons, that He spareth not tender years, but taketh the young and the beautiful ere the touch of time is traced upon the brow. Even so! Parphenia was a shining mark. Friends and schoolmates were led to admire and praise her mental and moral superiority.

Resolved, That we, as a Sunday school, bind ourselves closer together in love; that we do good to unto one another, and strengthen the tie that will unite us in one unbroken band in the eternal Sabbath above.

Resolved, That we tender our sympathies to the bereaved parents, and tell them of the many kind demonstrations upon the part of pastor, superintendent, teachers and all the Sunday-schools, in making and adopting these resolutions.

JAS. A. BURNS,
JULIA CHAPMAN,
ALICE BELL,
THOS. NEWMAN,
LOVEY BATTISE,
Committee.

The North Ohio Conference reports a net gain in membership of 1,102. This encouraging showing is hardly confirmed in the benevolences. Though Rev. Elisha Savage, of Berea, made a special gift of $1,000 for missions this year, the aggregate is but $200 in advance of last year. The Church Extension Society reports a decline of $600, which added to the $200 decline of last year, reduce the collections $900 below those of 1882. The Freedmen's Aid Society also reports a decline of $300 this year, a falling off of $1,000 from the reports of 1882.—Michigan Christian Advocate.

The Assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York has made a proposition that clergymen receiving a large salary should contribute towards the support of their brethren who are trying to live on a small salary.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conference.	Place.	Time.	Bishop.
Holston	Greenville, Tenn.	Oct 16..	Warren
Alabama	Birmingham Ala.	Oct 16..	Walden
Cent China Mis.	Kin Kiang China.	Oct 16..	Wiley
East Tenne see	Kingston. Tenn..	Oct 23..	Warren
Foochow	Foochow, China..	Nov 19..	Wiley
South India	Hyderabad, In ia	Nov 20..	Hurst
Texas	Navasota, Texas..	Nov 20..	Harris
Cent'l Alabama	Gadsden, Ala.	Nov 26..	Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov 27 ..	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga..	Dec 3..	Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec 4..	Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La.	Dec 24..	Harris

Special Notice.

A Sunday school convention for Navasota District will be held at Bryan, Texas, October 24, 1884, at 2 o'clock p. m. All Sunday-school superintendents, teachers, pastors and members are expected to be present.

REV. W. B. PULLAM, Pres't.
B. M. TAYLOR, Sec'y.

Okolona Centennial Meeting.

To meet at Okolona, Miss., Oct. 12, 1884, and at Prairie Mount M. E. Church, Oct. 26, 1884:

The Discipline of the M. E. Church, and how we shall be governed by it—Jas. Cherrey.
The Missionary Society and its object—H. B. Gladney.
The Freedmen's Aid Society—L. Malrice.
The Church Extension Society—A. D. Bean.
Our Conference school and our relation to it—D L. Tubbs.
The Tract Society and its object—L. Gill.
The Board of Education and its object—E. Dunnigan.

Yours in Christ, B. L NEVILS.

Notice.

To the Brothers of the LaTeche District—Mrs. L. J. Shallowhorne has been appointed to take charge of one cent of the district to attend the Woman's Home Missionary Work, hoping to make this district come up in the annual conference second to no other. While Mrs. Shallowhorne will bring the sheaves from one end I will, with the Lord's help, bring the other end.

SUSAN BARKSDALE,
Pres't Woman's Home Missionary Work,
LaTeche District.
Alexandria, La., Sept. 8, 1884.

Ashville District.

Fourth Round.

Ashville	Sept.	20-21
Macedonia	"	27 28
Birmingham	Oct.	11 12
Eaon	"	13-14
Village Springs	"	18 19
Blount Springs	"	21-22
Blountsville	"	25 26
Centre	"	31
Howell's Cross Roads	Nov.	8-
Wedowee	"	8- 9
Lionsville	"	15-16
Oxford	"	22-23
Gadsden	"	24-

O. NELSON, P. E.

Texas Conference Notice.

Navasota, Texas—Mr. Editor: Please insert the following notice to the deacons of the third class of the Texas Conference and others:

You are hereby notified to appear in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Navasota, on the 19th day of November, to be examined, it being one day before the setting of the Conference. All who fail to be here on that day are likely to give trouble to the examiners. According to the present railroad schedule there can be no difficulty in all brethren getting here in the day from both ways. All from the South can arrive here at 11:4 a. m., from the North at 2:17 p. m. Those who come by those trains will arrive here as follows: South, 10:10 p. m.; North, 3;30 p. m., as this will greatly inconvenience the conference committees on entertainment we hope all will try to come in the day time. Nevertheless, we are aiming to make all happy who may attend the annual conference, especially the members and colleagues thereof. It will be well for the parties and an accommodation to me for any member of the Conference expecting to bring his wife or daughter to give ample notice of the desire to do so.

Rev. B. P. Foley is making a march through this country organizing societies relative to the aid of superannuated preachers, etc. It is hoped that he will make good the way for our Methodist people especially. What our people need is waking up. Then, if they are waked up it must be done by some one that is already up. Those among us who have gone to some of our schools and had themselves lifted up from a state of ignorance are the proper ones to labor and toil with the unlearned to bring them up from a dark state of affairs to a state of light. This colored race needs the perpetual care of the strong and product Christian—such strength as has been given to us for 20 years by the M E Church. At the Conference I will pay all for the SOUTHWESTERN J. E SHACKLEFORD.

A Wonderful Substance.

The results which are attending the administration by Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1009 Girard street, Philadelphia, of their Vitalizing Remedy for Chronic diseases, give new surprises to both patients and physicians every day. Nothing like these results has heretofore been known in the treatment of disease. if you have any ailment about which you are concerned, write to them for information about their new Treatment and it will be promptly furnished

The union between the A. M. E. and B. M. E. Churches has been effected and the A. M. E. Church has opened to it a vast mission field. The accessions are 2,000 members, one Bishop, one school, one monthly paper and four annual conferences.

Change of Schedule.

Louisville and Nashville

Has Changed Their Schedule,

As Follows:

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9.10 a m
Fast Mail	8 20 p m	7:3[illegible] p m

O. H. DUNN, Supt. JOHN KILKENY, A. G. P. A.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE, September 25, 1884.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8 7-16; Middling 9¼; Good Middling, 10 1-16; Middling fair, 10 3-16.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow clarified, 5¾@5¾; White clarified, 6@—; Common 3@4¼c.

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 11@13; fair, 18@25; choice, 40@—c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4¼ fair, 5@5¼; choice, 5¼@5¾.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2¾; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4¼.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western. 20@25.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 9¾; prime, 11¼.

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory 9.

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $2.25@2.40.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4.15; Choice, 3.90; Family, 4.00.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 7¾@8¾.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, 75; Fine, $.95.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $1 60@1.70; sweet potatoes, ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl $1.50@1.75; apples, ℔ bbl. $1.00@$3 00; cabbages. $1.25@1.50 per crate; sour kront, $4.00@4 50 per barrel.

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl 13@—; linseed, raw, 62@63; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $16.50.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast. 13; shoulders, 7@7¾; sides, short rib, 11@11½; sides, long clear. 11½@11¾. hams, sugar-cured, 15c,

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 10; clear sides, 10; shoulders, 6.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.25@3.50; young $2 00@$2 50; ducks, $2.00 @2.50; geese $4.00@; turkeys $9.00@12.00.

Western Eggs 18@22c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 24@26c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 50@75c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Western Poultry—Grown chickens $5.00 @5.50 ℔ dozen; young do. $2.00@4.00; ducks $3.50@4.00—; geese $4.00@5.00; turkeys $12.00@15.00.

GRAIN AND FEED.

CORN, in sacks, ℔ bushel—Yellow, —; white, 66; mixed, 65.

OATS, ℔ bushel—Western, 38

BRAN, ℔ 100 lbs—Choice, 72½@75.

For All Brain-workers.

Mr J. R. Francis, of the Religio Philosophical Journal, Chicago, says: "Parker's Tonic is the specific for all the ills that literary flesh are heir to. I have used it for digestive disorders, and for coughs, colds and pains generally. Workers on the Press, in the Law, the School and the pulpit will find it the right thing.

The Missionary Outlook says that three fourths of the Bibles shipped from New York to foreign mission stations go to Mexico and South America. After the Bible has been so long prohibited in these nominally Christian lands, this is a great triumph.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. July 17-1y.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours: Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6 50 Circulars free. se18 13t

"See What Cuticura Does for Me!"

INFANTILE and Birth Humors, Milk Crust, Scalled Head, Eczemas, and every form of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous and Inherited Diseases of the Blood, Skin and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Absolutely pure and safe. Cuticura, the great Skin Cure, 50 cts; Cuticura soap exquisite Skin Beautifier and only Medicinal Baby Soap, 25 cts, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, $1, are sold by druggists. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

☞ Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."
April-10

WE WOULD LIKE TO PUT INTO THE hands of every Sunday-school worker in the land a copy of "Letters from Sunday-school Singers and Workers." These "Letters" are enthusiastic commendations of our new Sunday-school book.

GRATEFUL PRAISE,

By J. H. FILLMORE.

And represents the opinions of Ministers, Superintendents, Chorister, Teachers and Schools who are using the book. We send the "Letters" FREE to any address

Single copy of GRATEFUL PRAISE mailed for 25 cents. Price per dozen, by express, $3 60. Per dozen, by mail $4 Address FILLMORE BROS., 183 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio

N. B.—This book is printed in patent figure notes for those who prefer that notation. oct9 4t

For Family Use.

The No. 4 size of Ridge's Food is specially designed for family use It makes the cheapest article of Blanc Mange, etc; and nothing for babies is more strengthening, or as safe in its action upon the system. Dyspepsia and other sickness ing to be in bed, on just that one will whose thing can be fully enjoyed, should adopt Ridge's Food as a daily diet Sold by Druggists. In cans, 35c and up. WOOLRICH & CO. on label.

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 43. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, OCTOBER 23, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 782.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

52 Natchez Street New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents,
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cas

Editorial Notes.

Along those coasts, both far and near, behold
The sturdy woodman's weapon, stroke on stroke,
Humbling the giants of the forest old—
The lofty, resinous fir and sacred oak;
The earth, divested of her woody cloak,
Throws wide her virgin bosom to the skies;
While countless curls of life, betokening smoke,
Up from the recent forest openings rise,
And myriad rural homes and hamlets greet our eyes.

"I like your paper. It is a good paper."—Geo. L. Curtis.

The price of the Discipline of 1884 is, 25 cents net; sent by mail 30 cents.

Hon. Carleton Hunt, M. C., has our thanks for a valuable public document, U. S. Consular Reports.

From Postmaster Merchant we received Bulletin No. 1, a copy of the official time of arrivals and departures of mails.

"Wisdom is the only safeguard against evil company." "Discretion shall preserve thee; understanding shall keep thee."

We do not remain long in this world; life is short and uncertain; we all must die. Let us, then, live for life and be prepared for death.

True Christians do not fear death; to all others, it is a fearful thing to die. To them the sting of death is removed, and they know that they shall go to heaven.

"I thank you greatly for answers given to questions in the SOUTHWESTERN, under 'Church Polity.' I profit myself greatly from them."—Subscriber.

Celestial creatures are those which inhabit the skies. Terrestial are those which live upon our earth. Rational creatures are such as can reason. Wherever they exist, they should each praise the Lord, for his mercies endureth forever.

If there is to be death, there is also to be resurrection of the dead at the last day. Christ will rise and judge both the just and unjust. "We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."—2 Cor. 5 10.

How can the word of the Lord be a lamp unto the feet and a light unto the path of those who neither read or have it read to them, nor in any way study it? Traveling through the thick darkness of a world largely contaminated with sin, we need God's word as the night traveler needs his lantern when the way is dark and narrow, and dangerous forests and jungles all around him.

The election in Ohio, on Tuesday, October 14th, resulted in the choice of the Republican State ticket by a plurality of 12,000 to 15,000, and 11 Republican to 10 Democratic Congressmen a gain of three Congressmen. West Virginia elected the Democratic State ticket over the Republican and Greenback fusion ticket by a majority of about 3,000. There were Republican gains for county officers.

We notice several errors in our articles of two weeks ago, grammatical, typographical, etc. We were more than five hundred miles away from the proof reading, and had to be satisfied with our interpreter at the office.—Christian Recorder."

An editor who gets 500 miles away from his official seat ought to feel very kindly and speak very charitably of those who remain at the post of duty in his stead.

"Most surely we cannot till it shall plaese our Lord to speak to our hearts again; to speak the second time 'Be clean,' and then only the leprosy is cleansed. Then only the evil root, the carnal mind, is destroyed, and inbred sin subsists no longer.—Christian Witness."

Doesn't it please our Lord to do all this when we ask Him for it, and does not truly an obedient child of God ask all this, when He asks to be saved from his sins?

Speaking of Riddle University at Charlotte, North Carolina. The Africo-American Presbyterian, says:

"The Board earnestly commends this college to colored brethren, and trusts that you will give your sympathy and co operation in our endeavors to build it up. It stands in the midst of your people, was reared solely for the benefit of your race, and possesses especial advantages in regard to cheapness and accessibility."

Hi! thought you Presbyterians had all things common, that looks like a caste school. Are you following the Methodist or the inevitable in thus drawing the color line? Which?

Some seven years ago the Wesleyans of England determiued to raise a thanksgiving fund, in view of the blessing diviue grace had sent on their work. A report of this fund shows that upwards of $1,500,000 have been raised. It is proposed to give the Foreign Missionary Society $300.000 to clear off its debt, and to enable it to open new fields. The extension of Methodism in Great Britain will receive $225,000, and $400,000 be devoted to education. The Home Mission fund will receive about $100,000, and among other good works a movement for the sailors and soldiers will be projected. It is to be hoped the centenary of American Methodism will yield equal results in our Southern branch of Methodism.—Texas Christian Advocate.

The Methodist Episcopal Church of this country has determined to do something for the evangelization of Corea, and Dr. Maclay has gone thither to survey the ground, accompanied by his wife, and by Pokwi Peang, a convert to Christianity, who will act as his interpreter.—Bible Society Record.

The Kentucky Conference raised for missions in 1883 just $4,525.89. In 1884 the collection was $5.000.31, an increase of $474.42. In the fund for superannuates and widows the increase was $105 02. Infant baptisms increased only 88. Adult baptisms decreased 227. The decrease in actual membership is reported to be 893.—Central Methodist.

Address

Delivered at the Memorial Services of Bishop Simpson, Held in Union Chapel Cincinnati, Sept. 14, 1884.

BY REV. JOSEPH COURTNEY.

Bishop Matthew Simpson triumphed over death and went home to heaven from his late residence, Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., June 18, 1884. He was born in Cadiz, Ohio, June 20, 1811. From the beginning of life he was a child of progress and of hope. In his native town he received an academic education, and attended Madison College, Pennsylvania, afterwards merged into Alleghany College, where he was also elected tutor in his eighteenth year. He devoted some time to teaching and studying medicine, and in 1833 practicing the same. About the same time a divine impression was made upon him that it was his duty to enter the work of the ministry; the church also having become convinced of his call to that high office, licensed him to preach, and he was received on trial in the Pittsburg Conference. In 1837 he was elected Vice President of Alleghany College and Professor of natural Sciences, and in 1839 became the honored President of Indiana Asbury University. For nine consecutive years, under his discreet administration, that University prospered as it never had before, and he and his great abilities became more widely known. He was a member of the memorable General Conference of 1844, and manifested unusual interest in the great struggle over the question of slavery, as was presented before that body in the case of Bishop Andrews, a struggle which resulted in the separation of the Southern section of the Church from the Northern. Bishop Matthew Simpson put himself square before the world and on the record, at that early period, by sustaiuing with his vote Mr. Finley's righteous resolution, that in view of the fact that Bishop Andrew "has become connected with slavery by marriage and otherwise, it is the sense of this General Conference that he desist from the exercise of this office," the general superintendency, "so long as this impediment remains." The position taken by him so early upon the greatest question which at that time moved the Church, and, indeed the nation, he fearlessly maintained to the last. The tenderness of his sanctified nature brought him into profound sympathy with those who suffered the cruel barbarism of slavery; his pure moral proclivities and Christian culture fully enabled him to see and aid the righteousness of the then growing anti slavery cause. It is not a phenomena that, with the paramount record of these years he was elected in 1848 for the second time as a delegate to the General Conference; nor that he was by that body elected editor of the Western Christian Advocate. He took charge of that paper in August following his election. We give a brief quotation from his salutatory, which shows culture, loyalty to the church and the call of the Master to the work which the church had chosen him to do: "In the performance of this work, a spirit of kindness and of universal charity ought to be cultivated. Christianity is a system of purity and love. And while, as denominations of professing Christians, we may differ in name and in organization, we may, nevertheless, be, one in Jesus Christ—one in spirit—one in benevolent effort—we may be called upon to 'conteud earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints'—to support with such arguments as we may be able our distinctive peculiarities; but we trust it shall ever be in the spirit of Him of whom the prophet said: 'He shall not strive, neither shall his voice be heard in the streets.'" His holy fame grew and greatly magnified while editor of the Western. In 1852 he was again a member of the General Conference which that year met in Boston. He made a profound impression upon the conference, and was honored by being elected a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in connection with Levi Scott, Edward R Ames and Osmon C. Baker. Thus as an agent under God he steadily moved upward, step by step, until he took a foremost place in the religious world. He was sent as delegate to represent the Methodist Episcopal Church to the various Methodist bodies in forign lands; thus enabling him to extend his travels through Turkey, Palestine, Egypt, and Greece, which added invaluable mental wealth to his treasury of knowledge. And yet his time was so well occupied in episcopal labors that his opportunities for producing literary works were limited for a man like he was, whose fame as a religions orator was as wide as the Christian world. He, however, found time to be the author of a few books that are in estimable in value. He was a living cyclopedia of Methodism. In his great nature, he was tender as a woman and as innocent as a child. His preaching was more on the apostolic order, so much so that he completely captivated the multitudes, and the people honored him and praised God for the gift of such a living preacher. His intellectual forehead, pleasant countenance, and firm lips seemed to wear the impress of the heavenly Master. When he would be preaching he looked as though he was holding communication with divine unseen realities. His inspired soul seemed to go forth and grasp the very ends of the Christian world, so wide was his intense interest for the salvation of all men. Surely the image of God was in his soul, as was fully demonstrated in his whole Christian life. Bishop Simpson lives in our midst no more in human form, but he lives with God. Our gifted orator, who did so much to lift Methodism up to a pre-eminent and glorious height in the eyes of the world, and to exalt the kingdom of the Son of God, is not here; he lived gloriously here once, has died triumphantly, and the open heavens amid the shouts of angels and glorified spirits have received him from us.

Rest thou from all earthly cares,
Where toil and cares come nor;
Rest thou in thy Redeemer's love,
Thy soul has gained its lot.

What more can we say of our beloved, sainted Bishop Simpson? He has left the Church the rich heritage of his sanctified life, noble deeds and Christ like career. He was instrumental in a great measure in quickening and inspiring all denominations more or less to active Christian work. And though he is dead he yet lives in the hearts of the people, and we may truthfully say that he is the Christian world's dead. May we ever emulate his virtues and hold sacred his precious memory.

According to the latest statistics the Irish Presbyterian Church has 620 ministers, 553 congregations, 40 licentiates and 101,452 communicants.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

What Some Prominent Negroes in Louisville, Ky., Are Doing.

BY WINGATE.

Mr. W. H. Gibson, who was the first colored man appointed in the Revenue Service, was appointed mail agent, running from Cincinnati to Louisville, Ky. This position he was forced to resign from cruelties practiced by parties along the route.

Mr. Gibson is guager. The colored storekeepers are Q B. Jones, Jesse Merriweather, John Q. Adams, Alexander Morris, Henry Harris, Austin Hubbard, Wm. Rankin, E. W. Marshall, D. D. Sebree, Horace Morris, Dr. Henry Fitzbutler, H. H. Jones (Lebanon, Ky)

The postoffice here is one of the best managed offices of its class. There is nearly or quite 80 employes, including clerks and carriers.

Mr. James Harris was at one time porter, but is now one of the best hopper clerks. Mr. Thomas McEwen was messenger, but has been promoted to hopper clerk. Mr. Geo. W. Evans served as porter, then as hopper clerk, and then as carrier. Mr. Geo. Knight was promoted from messenger to a carrier. Mr. Wm. H. Steward was the first letter carrier. He taught in the public schools at their establishment. He gave up that position to accept a position as mail agent for the L. & N. R. R., an honorable position. His appointment as letter carrier some seven or eight years ago caused quite a stir, but our city finally got over it. He is a very influential colored man, a Baptist, and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Kentucky Theological and Normal Institute, located here.

Mr Geo. Shaefer was at one time clerk in the Freedmen's Bank (Branch) here. He was the second colored carrier appointed. Mr. Felix G. Fowler was the third colored carrier. He is well thought of, and resigned the position as porter and messenger at the Merchant's National Bank. He is a stannch Methodist. Following his appointment was that of Geo. W. Evans, a Methodist inclined. Then came the appointment of Geo. Knight, promoted from the messengership. A Baptist is he. H. C. Weeden is the sixth colored letter carrier appointed, and is an influential member of Jacob Street Tabernacle, A M E. Zion Church.

Mr. James Holmes Moody has the honor of being the first colored Deputy United States Marshal in the State of Kentucky. He was quite a while crier of the U. S. Court, and was well acquainted with the officers of the office.

We believe the world will become so Christianized and civilized that you can't discover that one race was the ruler over the other. There is no true Christian but desires to see the colored races enlightened.

Mr. John W. Branch is the very pleasing messenger at the postoffice, and is another Methodist. Messrs. William A. Bullitt and Isaiah Young are the porters, good and well thought of by all.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

By Their Truth.

REV. J. BRADEN, D. D.

Christianity must take the world. It must be aggressive. Preachers spend too much time trying to prove that Christianity is true. This is not the work of the pulpit. Preach the Word, not prove the Word, is the commission. Too much attention is given to answering objections to Christianity, rather than seeking the demonstration which Christ points out: "By their fruits ye shall know them." This is the the test of the Author of Christianity, and the world has a right to put Christians to this test. Are the fruits in accord with the teaching of Jesus. Men do not care so much for demonstration of theories as for practical results.

The wheat harvest has been abundant. Farmers want threshing machines. A seller drives up to a farm house and makes known his wish to sell a thresher. The farmer wishes to buy. The seller begins to tell about the machine; its careful scientific manufacture; describes how every part is fitted together; how the bearings are regulated; the gearings arranged on the latest plans, and wearies the farmer with his description, till the farmer cries out: "Will it thresh?" "Has it done any work?" "Put it up, and let us see what it will do." Five minutes of threshing will do more to prove the worth of the machine to the farmer, than hours of talk.

Does Christianity make men better citizens, better husbands, fathers and friends? Does it make them more honest, so that they will pay their debts promptly, cheerfully, and a hundred cents on the dollar? Does it make them kind and considerate of the wants and interests of others? Does it keep men from drunkenness, and from seeking happiness in that which is merely sensual? Does it ennoble their pleasures, so that the Christian does not need the dance, the circus, the theater, the gaming table, the race track to minister to his enjoyment? His joy is full in his Savior.

Does this Christianity make its possessor active in self denying work for the happiness of others, and does he really live in such a state of mind that his life tells to all—

"None but Jesus will I know,
And Jesus crucified."

If it does this, not only for one but for all Christians, there will be little need for answering objections, for: "By their fruits shall ye know them."

Aug. 29, 1884.

For the SOUTHWESTERN

Sunday Excursions.

BY S. MITCHELL.

MR. EDITOR—I have often told my classes that these excursions were sinful and ruining the Redeemer's church. It is a great shame for men to spend their time gathering people and teaching them to waste their money in excursions whether on Sunday or Monday. Our ministers can and ought to find more profitable business. I endorse and thank you for your words against them. Men whose wives and children are in need of bread often spend their money for these excursions. I go to church on Sunday, and the preacher ought to be there to preach. I am an old time Methodist, and these look wrong to me. The SOUTHWESTERN is doing a great deal of good. Don't be discouraged, but go right ahead.

Bay St. Louis, Miss.

The Pope has created the Archbishop of Sens and Rheims cardinals.

From the Districts.

Chattanooga District Conference.

The Chattanooga district, East Tennessee conference, met in the second M. E. Church, in Cleveland on the 23d of September, 1884. The session was opened with religious services by the presiding elder, Rev. E. Provine. Most of the pastors were present. The presiding elder read his report, showing that he had traveled over 3,000 miles since the last district conference, preached and lectured somewhere every week, and is now enjoying better health than ever; and his report showed that his district was in a prosperous condition in every respect. Reports were heard from nine pastors, showing that they had labored hard in this mission district, and were thankful to know that they had accomplished some good in saving souls. Seven district stewards, nine class-leaders, fourteen local preachers, eight exhorters, and Sunday school superintendents made good reports showing a large increase along the line. The report of the presiding elder showed that he had done more hard work this year than ever before. The reports of all the preachers shows a large increase in everything. Bro. J. Yarnell excelled himself on the opening sermon; Rev. T. C. Carter, M. A., editor of the Methodist Advocate, published at Chattanooga, was present and spoke good words for his paper and received some new subscribers to his paper. He and Bro. J. P. R. Marshall, pastor of our white church in this place, were with us in our district Sunday-school institute Thursday, and made good speeches on the subjects as follows: 1. What kind of teachers should teach Sunday-schools? 2. What kinds of books and papers should we use in our Sunday schools? 3. Who should attend Sunday-school? 4. How can we secure a good attendance in our Sunday-schools during the winter season. The members of the conference made good talks on the matters, and the discussions were lively all the time, and seem to be well pleased with our kind presiding elder and treated all kindly. On Thursday night Bro. T. C. Carter delivered his great and grand lecture on China, showing his six china idol gods. The lecture was the grandest we ever heard on the manners and costumes of the Chinese. He had their garments both of male and female, pipes and shoes. All were delighted, and desire him to come again. All of the usual committees made their reports showing that they had done their work well. The memoirs of Bishop M. Simpson was read by L. M. Moores, Secretary of the committee on memoirs The elder gave a talk on it. The memoirs of Bro. John K. Mahoney, one of our good local preachers who died on the Cleveland circuit, July 27, 1884, aged 66 years. It made a sad impression on all. Resolutions were offered on the following, Church Extension, Freedmen's Aid, Bible, Tract, Sunday-school Union, Mission, Education, Temperance and Home Mission. All of the local preachers were put back in the first year's course of study to study and make themselves men. One was recommended to the annual conference to enter into the travelling connection. Resolutions were passed thanking Rev. T. C. Carter and Bro. J. P. K Marshall for their kind words; also thanking the E. T. G. & V. R. R. for their kindness in allowing all reduced rates in coming and going to the conference; to the presiding elder for his wise counsel to the members; to the citizens for their kind treatment in taking care of them so well, and to the Secretary for his faithful labors. Bros. A. J. Fletcher, P. P. Brooks, J. Yarnell, D. W. Hays and L. M. Moores were appointed a committee to draw up a resolution on the Methodist Preachers' Home and to present them to the next annual conference at Kingston for action. The conference adjourned on Friday to meet in Dayton for its next session, and all left feeling that it was the best session they ever attended, and all felt benefited by the district conference. Mr. Editor, this is nothing but a mission field, and if you could have heard the reports of these men I think that you would agree with the writer. L. M. MOORES, Sec'y.

The Okolona District.

Rev. D. A. Williams, presiding elder, writes: "We are thankful to be able to say relative to the spiritual condition of the district that it is perfectly good. Most every charge has been blessed with the outpouring of the Spirit of God to that effect that many souls have been converted. Doubtless each brother would like the public to know of his work. Bro. P. Jamesson, at Aberdeen, is doing a grand work. Fifty or sixty souls are at the altar daily entreating for forgiveness, more than a score have been happily converted and added to the church. He has also added two fine rooms to the parsonage Aberdeen is making grand preparations to entertain the conference.

Bro. R. Suell, at Athens, reports his work in a very flourishing condition. Having held several successful revivals, many are being converted to Christ.

Bro. Gilford Barr, at Aberdeen circuit, is doing a glorious work for Christ in the conversion of souls and the upbuilding of our Zion. The Little Mission, Bro. R. D. Rose, is doing better here than we expected. Please pray for him.

Booneville—Bro. G. Shannon is is doing a grand work for the Master at this place. He commenced the work with seven members and added twenty-three to the church up to date. Had it not been for the small pox in that town he would have had a glorious success.

Buena Vista—Bro. Miles Proctor, one of the oldest ministers in our conference, has this charge. He is doing a good work for Jesus. His entire circuit is alive.

Columbus and mission is in a flourishing condition. Bro. L. L. Shumpert is now in his second revival for this year; in the first of these revivals nearly a score of souls were happily converted and more than that number added to the church. A large number of mourners are still coming to the altar earnestly groaning for redemption. Several have already been converted.

Columbus circuit, in charge of Bro. Isaac Moseley, has been blessed with a grand outpouring of the Spirit of God upon the people. Many precious souls were converted and added to the church. The work is in a good condition.

At Corinth—Bro. Brooks begun the first of the year with a good outlook, and we are thankful to say that he has held his own up to date. We are pleased to say things are working satisfactorily now as far as we are able to ascertain. He has been blessed with a glorious revival. Several souls converted and added to the church. We look for great things from Corinth.

Corinth Circuit—Bro. T. W. Davis is one of our good young men but unfortunately has a poor charge and therefore very little support. He is standing at his post doing a good work for the Lord.

A W. Wright, at Crawford, has just closed a grand revival in which over 40 souls have been converted and added to the church.

Greensborough—At this charge Bro. Wm Gatewood has built three churches since he has been on that work, and had lumber on the ground to build another one when I was there. His reports show grand revivals.

At Houston, J. W. Davis is doing a good work and is trying to build a church in Houston. The outlook is fair.

New Albany has Bro. L. J. Terrill. Bro. Terrill is doing well on New Albany circuit. A revival at each point resulting in many conversions.

Okolona, Bro. D. W. Calvert. Glorious results have attended Bro. Calvert; many precious souls have been adopted in the family of God. He has built a neat parsonage well suited to the comfort of the minister. He is also making preparations to repair the church.

Okolona circuit, where Bro. B. L. Nevils has charge, is prosperous.

At Pontotoc, Bro. J. J. Harris has had a grand revival. Many were added to the church. The churches are being improved and the outlook is good.

Ripley—Bro B. J. Griffin, at Ripley, reported at the third quarterly conference forty-four conversions. and that the meeting was still going on. Bro. Griffin is doing a good work at Ripley sure enough.

Starkville, Bro. I. B. Griffin has just begun a revival. He has torn down the old church and erected a new one on the same spot. fronting Main street. This church is second to none in the city, but rather in advance of all both in its inward and outward appearance. It is built according to the plans laid down in our Church Extension book, at a cost of eight hundred or a thousand dollars. Congregation raised up to date seven hundred and fifty-three dollars. Bro. Griffin sacrificed his own living to accomplish this great work for the Master. Reports of the quarterly conference showed that great interest had been manifested in the administration of church affairs.

Bro. L. F. White, at Starkville circuit, has just closed one of the most wonderful revivals ever witnessed in this county. Fifty-seven souls were converted at one point in two weeks. The entire number of conversions on the circuit are one hundred, while forty were baptized. Bro. White is doing a great work for the Lord. The entire circuit is alive to the interest of Christianity, and we feel safe in saying the influence of our beloved Zion will never die while we have such young men to represent the cause of Christ. May God help him and his people.

At Tampico, Bro. B. H. S. Ferguson. The reports for the last six years from this church have not shown any progress whatever. Bro. Ferguson has worked well in this circuit, and the results are surprising. He has had seventy five conversions and more than that number have been added to the church. The church has been repaired also.

Bro. J. Trice, at Tupelo, deserves praise for his labors. Over fifty souls have been converted, while a revival is still in progress. This place is the seat of the last district conference, the influence of which, we hope, will live until the entire community be swallowed up in Methodism. The church has been so well improved that it does not look like the same one any more.

Union Grove—Bro. Wesley Jones reports from this charge shows eighty seven conversions and the meeting still continues. He has built one of the neatest country churches in this part of the State, which was dedicated on the second Sunday, July 18th upon which occasion not less than 1000 persons were present.

West Point, where Bro. J. L. Pratt is stationed is a first class charge. He has a good membership and a lively Sabbath school. At a revival a few persons were converted.

West Point circuit, in charge of Bro. A. Boyd, is in about the same condition as the station.

At Whitefield, where Bro. J. M. Lampkin has charge, a great number have been converted and added to the church, and still the good work goes on. I predict a bright future for him in his new field of labor. He is on a large circuit where our churches have long been neglected; but we thank God for the development of Methodism at this place now taken place.

At Double Springs, Bro. J. J. Burton. Our knowledge is limited relative to this charge. There have been several conversions, however, and some additions to the church have been made, while preparations to build another church are going on. The Sunday-schools through the entire district have been well attended. Children's day was observed, money collected, and forwarded to the proper officers.

Benevolent causes have been provided for throughout the entire district. The brethren warrant that no pains will be spared to make the district a financial success. Brethren, let us have a grand rally on the fourth Sunday in December, the 28th day, which I have appointed to solicit subscribers to the SOUTHWESTERN. Send to the editor for extra copies for free distribution on that day.

Columbus, Miss., Sept. 29, 1884.

East Tennessee Conference.

Rev. E. Province, presiding elder, Chattanooga district, writes: "I have just completed my 4th round on the district. I have traveled 3,000 miles in prosecuting the work on the district and tried to preach 125 sermons, and addresses to the Sabbath-schools in the interest of holy religion and education, pointing out our young institutions of learning to our young men and women. to prepare themselves for the battle of this life and to reap a reward in the world to come for their faithfulness to their God and their fellow man. The privations and sufferings of most of the preachers and their families on the district will not be known until we are all called to appear before the Judge of all the world, and yet they endured all to the end, with only one two or exceptions. The excessive rains, high water and cold weather were a great drawback to the interior of the district during this conference year. Several of the charges were visited with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and about 200 souls were brought to the blessed Savior, and most of them added to our connection.

There is a great deal of missionary work to be done in the bounds of this district. The people are poor and the pastors cannot reach them unless they could get more aid. A church building is very much needed within the limits of our district. Rev. D. W. Hays has made a good commencement in preparing for the foundation of a new church. I think others will follow soon. The temperance cause has been mentioned to our people and some have seen the evils of intemperance and turned therefrom. Our church paper has been the traveling preacher's companion in all his church work.

Chattanooga, Tenn., October 11, 1884

Rev. O. Nelson, presiding elder—Central Ala. conference, Asheville district, writes: "The district is in a growing state, and is on the gaining side in favor of the old Methodist Episcopal Church. We are now organized in three different places where we have not been before, thank God, and there to stay until the last battle is fought. It is plainly seen that the world cannot do without the Methodist Episcopal Church. There has been one hundred and thirty brought to Christ on the Asheville district alone in the last three months, and the revival is still going on in the hearts of the people and in building new churches. We have finished three buildings that was started a year ago or more and have three more on foot which will be second to none for the money. On one we paid $650, and $450 for the other one, and we are going on to perfection, for my preachers are working like men of God for the salvation of souls. I sincerely hope that every district is doing the same good. A word to the brethren of the Ashville district. Dear brothers, exert yourselves like men of God and hold to what you have and work for more. For the time is not far when we shall meet in the Annual Conference and report to our new and beloved Bishop Walden, whom we shall welcome in our midst Nov. 26th, '84, at Gadsden, Alabama, a beautiful little town.

S. Duncan, presiding elder—Shreveport district, writes; "I have always been a friend to the SOUTHWESTERN and will do all in my power to help both people and preacher. It has spoken for us where we could not speak for ourselves. Now Dr. in behalf of the Shreveport district, let me welcome you in our midst. May you and your family have good health, and may God bless you to do much good for the church and race. I am closing up my fourth year with quite a success. Pray for us.

October, 1884.

Summit, Mississippi, Dear Brother—Please allow me to correct a mistake in regard to the money having been raised on the Gulf district. It is the apportionment that is to be raised on the Gulf district, Mississippi conference." H. L. KENNEDY.

San Antonio District.

Rev. George W. Richardson, West Texas Conference, writes: "Dear Editor—I have been working since General Conference without saying much about it. I have not had time to write up my work, and can hardly spare time to write now. Only for this reason, some of my preachers, who are doing excellent work begin to feel neglected. I finished my third round three weeks ago, and took one Sabbath at home in Austin, before starting out on the fourth round. I had my wife with me on the third round, who is doing Home Missionary Work, and part of the time my son, who was sent by the agent of the Sunday-school Union, to hold Sunday school conventions in Texas, during his summer vacation. I had two regular Sunday-school conventions on my district, and another partial convention at Hallettsville. This Sunday school work has helped the schools all over the district.

The camp meetings and protracted meetings over the district have yielded fair harvests. Nothing remarkable at any of these meetings except at the camp meeting in Cotton Wood colony, where Rev. S. W. Harvey is pastor, and at the protracted meeting on Belmont circuit, where Rev. E. Duncans is the supply. We are having some thing of a financial pressure in the portion of Texas covered by San Antonio district, still the preachers are receiving about the usual support. The cotton crop is very light, and on that account two or three church building enterprises are laid over till another year. But on the whole we have a feeling of satisfaction that the work has not gone back.

Twelve days ago we left Austin with a two horse hack, tent, bed, provisions and cooking utensils to make the fourth round. One hundred miles of hard traveling through mud, over rocks and mountains, brought us to Elm Pass on the Hondo and Fredericksburg circuit At 3 o'clock Sunday, September 28th, I preached to a medium sized congregation that had gathered from the valleys among the mountains for many miles around. The meeting was in a picket house with board roof and clay floor, built for school purposes. Mrs. Richardson lectured at 8 p. m. to an audience that gave the most earnest attention. These lectures on home purity and temperance are greatly needed among the frontier settlers of Texas, and the people listen as though they were anxious to learn and improve.

Tuesday we drove 15 miles and at night Mrs. Richardson lectured at Bandera. This was the most exhilarating mountain drive I ever made in Texas. We went through the Elm Pass for several miles, where the mountains rose 300 or 400 feet on each side. This narrow pass gradually opened into broad basins with mountain rims scalapped in the most grotesque shapes. It is said that one of these spurs near Elm Pass is the highest point of land in Texas.

From Bandera, we drove to Boern, 28 miles, where Mrs. Richardson had an engagement to lecture Tuesday night. A heavy rain prevented the congregation from turning out. A few came and I preached to them as best I could. That wet night I preferred to have my wife stay in camp.

Friday and Saturday we drove 35 miles to San Antonio over roads made soft by recent heavy rains, and cut up to enormous depths by the heavy freight wagons. Saturday evening at 6:30 Mrs. Richardson took the train from San Antonio to Houdo City where she had an engagement to lecture twice on Sunday. At 8 o'clock Saturday night I held the quarterly conference at San Antonio. At 9 o'clock Sunday I visited the Sunday-shool, and at 8 o'clock p. m. preached to a large congregation and administered the sacrament to 129 persons. Bro. Henson's administration has been eminently successful this year in arranging the finances, and all other church work. He will report his work more fully than I can here.

San Antonio, Oct, 6. 1884

Letters from the Pastors.

Yazoo circuit, Mississippi Conference—A. R. Jordan writes: "Our second quarterly conference convened August 23, 1884, with Dr. H. R. Revel's, presiding elder of this district, officiating. Nearly all the members of the conference were present with written reports. The steward's reports showed that $90 25 had been raised for building purposes; $25 for other expenses; $44 80 for pastor; $4.50 for educational purposes on Children's Day, and $4.45 for sexton. The love feast was administered on Sunday morning at ten o'clock, and at 3 o'clock 47 persons partook of the Lord's supper. At night the elder preached and administered the sacrament to 64 persons at "Rocky Zion." The elder received $8.75, his fee for this quarter. Twenty-one persons have been added to the church, among whom were 17 apostates."

Forest, Miss.—J. I. Garret writes: "Elder J. M. Shumpert held our third quarterly conference Sept. 25, 1884, which was well attended. The report shows that 25 souls have been reclaimed and added to the church during this quarter. I have built two nice churches; one 30x35, and the other 25x30. The latter will be painted and named "Green Grove." The steward's reports are as follows: Paid pastor $49.20; presiding elder $7. We have just closed a seven days' meeting at Green Grove, during which 18 souls were converted. I shall collect the money due the SOUTHWESTERN and send it in in a few days."

Walter Duncan, Arkansas, writes, that his presiding elder held his third quarterly conference in August. The sacrament was administered to 26 persons. The presiding elder preached at 3 and 7 p. m. Collection $6.15.

Aaron Taylor, Madison circuit, writes: "We have had a very hard time—almost a famine, but, nevertheless, we have built a parsonage, which is now occupied by the pastor. We have paid $17 on improvements, and secured a lot on which to build a church."

A. P. Ross, West Baton Rouge, writes: "A new church was organized at Brusle Landing by Elder Hannibal Williams."

C. H. Hutchings, Millington, Maryland, writes: "I came to my charge in June, and was kindly received. I found, as one of the great needs of the church, that of a parsonage. We have now a parsonage 20x41 feet and 17 feet high, nearly completed. We have paid on the repair of Davis Hill church $51, and an old debt of Oliver chapel of $38. We are progressing nicely. Pray that the Lord may bless us."

Henry McDaniels, Russellville, Ark., writes: "When he arrived on this circuit he found no place of worship, and a very few members; but since, 32 have joined, and the church is rapidly progressing. This is the first time that a preacher has been appointed on this circuit. I have awakened an interest for the Freedman's Aid and Church Extension societies. Last Sunday I collected $4 for Freedmen's Aid Society."

Rev. S. W. Dunckin, Catahoula

parish, writes: "I have been teaching school in Catahoula parish since I came, and preaching as much as I can. I have had six persons to join the church, and have one Sunday school in full operation. The prospect for doing good, I think is very good here. We have no church house to preach in yet, owing to the overflow in this country; but I think if we make a good crop this season, I shall be able to do something in the way of church building this winter. I remain yours in Christ."

Rev. J. C. Rucker, pastor at Fayette, Mississippi, writes: "The Lord has been pleased to favor Zion in this place, by reviving his work among us. On the 1st of August our camp meeting commenced in this place, and closed on the 10th. This was the first camp meeting that has ever been held in this part of the work. It gave rise to gracious revivals in Fayette. Every circumstance of the meeting bespoke the approbation of a superintending Providence. There were present Revs R. McKelpin, E. Graves, H. L. Kennedy and others. On Sunday we had a glorious meeting. Rev. H. L. Kennedy preached at 11 o'clock; Rev. R. McKelpin at 3 o'clock, and at night Rev. H. Henderson, pastor in charge, preached. Pray for us."

Litchfield, Ky., Lexington Conference, Rev. Ezra Miller writes: "Our third quarterly meeting was held Sept. 6 and 7. Presiding Elder A. Booker remained with us one week, preaching every night, resulting as follows: 14 conversions, nine received on probation, eight received from other churches. The most striking feature of our meeting was that a man who had lived a member of the Roman Catholic Church 43 years, professed faith in Christ, and united with the M. E. Church. We also purchased a new bell for the church."

E. E. Cooper, Oakland, Texas, writes: "Enclosed please find postal order for $30, collected for the SOUTHWESTERN. I am collecting as fast as I can. All are well pleased with the paper. During camp meeting 55 were converted. During the year 71 were converted, and 68 joined the church."

Rev. Cyrus H. Claiborne, Jr., Dulac, La., writes: "Although the times are very indifferent on Dulac and all along the Grand Caillou bayou, and our people greatly discouraged because of the reduction of wages by the planters, yet our work is moving onward. I have no doubt of being able this year to fulfill each promise I made, especially the one to bring to the conference at least $1 per member, as centennial offering. We expect to square every dollar for the SOUTHWESTERN during this rolling. Though the money is not in hand, yet we have every reason to believe that it will soon come to hands. We are just now hard at work saving souls for Christ. Several are converted, and a large number of seekers are at the mercy seat. Our finances are somewhat better than those of last year. A company of men have come together with their money, and have erected for themselves a fine hall, which is said to be the finest in the parish of Terrebonne, owned by Negroes. It is 23½x35, and 18 feet story. The building is divided into two stories. This is intended for an order of the G. U. O. of O. F. Already great changes have been made among the people, by passing laws among themselves, prohibiting gambling, profane swearing, drunkenness and stealing; the young men have come out nicely, and the festering evils have taken their departure; now peace and harmony reigns among the people. If you remember, last spring I wrote that 25 parties could be found on this plantation living together, not lawfully married. We have taught them and persuaded several to do better; many more, I think, will follow the good example. We have joined five this year in holy wedlock, and have in hands now licenses for two more."

Rev. C. H. Bullington, Finger's Chapel, Tenn., writes: "I have three appointments on my circuit—McMinnville, Bolden Green and Finger's Chapel. A revival lasting one week at each appointment has just closed with 18 converts. We had a good Sunday-school and also a day school at each appointment. At Finger's Chapel on Children's Day $2 was raised for education, and $10 for missions. The teachers are all faithful and earnest in their work. The fourth quarter has just been held, and I start for conference with the assurance that I have done something to build up the Master's kingdom. I take great delight in attending all of my meetings, and the officers and teachers take great interest in in meeting them. My little corps of workers are very faithful to their work, and much good has been wrought by them during the past year. Though my little churches are out in the quiet woods, and are far apart, I must confess I am very proud of this year's work. The children who have always lived in large cities and towns have so much to attract their attention, it is utterly impossible for them to appreciate Sabbath schools as much as MY children, who have always resided in the rural districts. At Finger's Chapel the children gave a concert for the benefit of the Church Extension—$2.45, and Freedmen's Aid, and raised $4 55 We had a real nice time, although it was an agreeable surprise. It took me unawares. When I came in everything was ready, and they invited me to "come and see." On Children's Day Finger's Chapel raised $2; missions, $10; Sunday-school Union, $1; Bishops, $3; centennial, $3. Fourth quarterly conference was held Sept. 27, by W. C. Miller, in place of H. W. Key. We had a good time; 54 participated in the Lord's supper. Brother, you surely can see that God has ever been with us in all of our undertakings. Says one teacher: "In my school, success depends on prayer. The more earnest my prayer is when I open school in the morning, the less trouble I have through the day." And this saying is more truth than poetry. The way I keep my church moving is I keep moving myself. I never have an idle moment; no, not since I have been in the ministry. I can always find something to do, and more than I can accomplish, yet I can try to do my duty, and He who cares for and aids us all, will certainly do the rest; for—

I hope to build as I would live;
This shall be my endeavor;
For what is wrought must not appear
To live and stand forever.

If I have trespassed too far, I humbly beg pardon. My conclusion is: Thank God I go to conference with a light heart, from the thought I have done my best, leaving all business straight, and should I die before reaching my destination, I can close my eyes and quietly say, 'All is well.'"

Rev. A. J. Pickett, Pleasant Hill, writes: "I just closed a protracted meeting at Pleasant Valley. We had 39 mourners at the altar. Sixteen were converted, received four from the Baptist Church, and six on probation; total added to the church 26. Pray for us; we are yet alive. About 12 miles from Pleasant Hill there was no church. In the midst of the hard times we struggled and built a new church, and paid for it, at a place called Prairie Bayou. At that place we had a protracted meeting. The result was, three converted and seven probationers; total added to that church ten. Four years ago that church was burned down by some unknown person, but thank God his sin will find him out. Prairie Bayou church is up again and paid for, so you can see that we are moving on slowly, in the midst of hard times. Pray for us."

Hearn, Texas—Wade Hamilton, writes: "When the corner stone of this church was laid, we had a membership of seven persons, whereas now, it has increased to eighty-nine all of whom were lately converted, except seventeen from the Baptist Church and six from the A. M. E. Church. We have found it necessary to add 24 feet to the length of our church, making it now 24 by 54 feet, seats and windows have also been placed in the building. Besides all this, this congregation has built a parsonage and neatly finished furnishing it for the pastor, so that the value of the church property has been augmented $700. The good impression made by the district conference held here a few days since will not be soon forgotten. We return thanks to all friends for favors extended during the district conference."

Bryan, Texas—L. Felder, writes: "Elder Pullam has just held my fourth quarterly conference, and preached us a wonderful sermon. The elder is very highly regarded by all classes of people in and out of the church. We are having a hard time financially but look for a better day to come. Out of an estimation of $250 we have received up to date less than $70. Just as I write you I start for the cotton patch to earn a little support. Pray for us."

Cincinnati, Ohio—Rev. W. S. Lankford, writes: "Union Chapel is coming to the front gradually, financially and spiritually. The Tennessee College singers gave a thrilling concert at the church on the evening of the 8th inst., with the best of consequences. The SOUTHWESTERN has the right ring. We regard the paper an ADVOCATE indeed, and feel that the cause of the church, and especially the colored membership, may be safely trusted in its hands."

Manchester, Tennessee—Rev. J. Kenser, writes: "This closes three years for me on this circuit. My fourth quarterly conference was held by Rev. C. H. Bullington. We raised $9.75 of the elder's claim. Elder Keyes is greatly beloved in this region. It is with regret that we think of the close of his term. He was a fine adviser, and counsellor. We have been donated a lot with perfect title, by Mr. James G. Aydelott, a prominent citizen here. Two other citizens gave $10 and $15 severally. We have received 11 members who are ready to take hold. Help and we will make this a grand charge."

Comite, La—C. H. Taylor, writes: "The dark clouds which have been hanging over us are just breaking. Up to date we have 9 converts. 40 on probation, and 16 still crying for mercy. Rev. G. J. Rogers, of Mt. Carmel, and Rev. Nettles, of the Baptist Church, are assisting us. The Sunday-school is in a flourishing condition. Pray for our continued prosperity."

Kingston, Tenn.—J. T. Henry writes: "We have just closed a revival with 16 converts. Some of the worst men in town have professed Christ, and, so far, are standing firmly against sin. Recently we baptized 21, and received 15 in full membership."

Touching the prohibitory law, Judge Hayes instructed the Grand Jury at Muscatine, Iowa, that the buyer of liquor should be indicted as well as the seller, which will result in making the law inoperative, as no witness can be compelled to criminate himself by giving evidence against a saloon man. He also instructed that any person who, at the instigation of an organization, purchased for the purpose of criminating the seller, should be indicted, and that a true bill should be returned against the society for conspiracy. The latter ruling is supposed to be aimed at the Temperance Alliance.

Done in Six Months.

That coil of hair on the back of your head, dear lady. It is better than nothing and deceives nobody. In six months or less from to-day you may dispense with it if you are inclined to give Parker's Hair Balsam a fair trial. Cleanses the scalp, restores color, and dictionous dressing. Not a dye, not oily, elegantly perfumed.

Letters From the Laity.

Bro. B. J. Adams, Bethlehem, writes: "We are moving along slowly. Rev. A. Lockant, our pastor, is highly esteemed by all the members of the church. We had a protracted meeting during the month of August, and were blessed with good results. Sixteen souls were converted during this meeting. Elder S. Gates was with us on the 27th ult., and preached for us. He also administered the Lord's supper. Our church is in dispute, but we are praying to the Lord, that he may curtail the power of Satan, and that God's children may achieve the victory. Our church will not be finished until this pending trouble shall have been settled. We have a fine Sunday-school. Our superintendent, R. W. Moss, is doing his best for the little ones. I am praying for the uprising of the dark sons and daughters of Adam. Pray, brethren, that the Lord may help us."

Galveston, Texas—G. H. Richards, writes: "I have been a subscriber for the SOUTHWESTERN for three years and have always admired its manner and way of dealing with public questions. In Galvestou there are school districts supported by taxes collected from all the people irrespective of race, etc. In our district a splendid building has just been erected for school purposes but no colored child is allowed to enter it. Now sir, this is wrong; if the colored pay taxes for a certain purpose, they in my opinion should have the benefit of what the money goes for. This wrong should be attacked immediately and the rights of the people vindicated. I pay 25cts taxes to this fund but receive no benefit from it. Let our brethren all over the South speak out boldly and fearlessly against these wrongs."

San Antonio, Texas,—Alfred Smith writes: "I have wondered how the Rev. J. T. Hargrave can so boldly misrepresent our people when he speaks of them as beggars and paupers, Taking the highest figures I give below the assessment of ton white and the same number of colored tax payers in our county. The following is the list: White—G. C. & S. F. R R, $333 145; G & H. B. R., $20,358; Morris & Cooner, $10,000; Kaufman & Cringe $20,525; Geo. Williams, $28.945; M. Parker, $18,660; G. Randle, $18,105; M. Proudy, $13.280; G. Giddings, $11 83; M. Sims $11,397. Colored: Bell Christmas, $7,555; Wash Hoskins, $2,165; B. Benson, $1,145; B Franklin, $1,760; Simon Gregg, $1.430; Tony Gardner, $1,090; Joe Jones, $2,130: Thomas Jones, $2,132; Missouri Jackson, $2,330; Let Bro. Hargrave examine the assessment roll and he will find out that we are moving onward. 28 colored taxpayers pay on $50,799 worth of property. What will it be in twenty years to come?"

Henry M. Stanley was given a banquet by the Chamber of Commerce of Wolverhampton. In response to a toast, Stanley referred to the trade of the Congo country, and said in cloths alone, at two-pence per yard, the manufactnrers of Manchester might realize £26,000,000 sterling annually. He said the way to secure this advantage was to urge upon the British Government the necessity of sending two cruisers to the mouth of the Congo River, pending decision by the European powers of the Congo question.

Among the recent gifts to the General Theological Library, Boston, are donations of $500 each from Mr. W. O. Grover and Mr. H. H. Hunnewell.

The acting Secretary of the Treasury on the afternoon of September 26th, issued a call for the redemption of $10,000,000 in bonds of the 3 per per cent. loan of 1882. Principal and accrued interest to be paid the 1st of November.

For Sufferers Chronic Diseases, 36 pp symptoms, remedies, helps, advice. Send stamp—Dr Whittier, St. Louis, Mo. (old est office.) State case your way.
sept20.26teow

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.
Trade Mark
PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.
THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	05
History of Methodism.—Stevens (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. Chapters I-XXX—Hagenbach	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LIII—Isaiah	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged. Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science. Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology Theological Institutes Par II—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics—Terry
History of Rationalism—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church (Edition of 1884
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fitchs	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Editions.—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution—Seebohm.	1 25 75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons (Science Primer Edition.)	40
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the succeeding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 00
Protestant Reformation—Schaff	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT
32 Natchez St New Orleans

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expres for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its bab stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1884.

New Subscribers.

A Liberal Proposition.

The numbers of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE for the remainder of 1884 will be supplied free to all NEW SUBSCRIBERS who will send us Two Dollars cash with their names. No name entered under this proposition until the money is received by us. This will allow subscribers to receive the paper fourteen months for the price of one year's subscription. The subscriptions under this proposition will expire January 1, 1886 Let pastors, church members and readers of the paper generally tell this to their friends. We feel sure that if this is done a large addition will be made to the subscription list. We will send out specimen copies on application. Address

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez Street, New Orleans.

Christ's Sermons.

Of which the following are the most prominent:

First. His catechetical, declaring the necessary qualifications of of those who aim at blessedness, and the means that lead to it.

Second. His concio ad clerum, or sermon to the clergy, instructing them what to do, how to teach, and what to expect.

Third. His concio proclero, or sermon in behalf of the clergy, where he justifies John the Baptist and his doctrine, reproves perverse and censorious readers, and invites the meek and lowly in heart to come to him and bear the Gospel yoke.

Fourth. His popular sermon to the promiscuous multitude, concerning the various effects produced by the preaching of the word and the necessity for embracing it.

Fifth. His irenicon, or sermon for composing differences, wherein the authority of the church is asserted, and a heavy doom denounced against those who will not for the sake of forgiveness, which God extends towards their trespasses, forgive those who trespass against them.

Sixth. His elenchical, or sermon of reproof against the hypocrisy of the scribes and Pharisees, in which he enjoins his hearers to follow their precepts, but not their practice.

Seventh. His prophetical, or discourse on the destruction of Jerusalem, and his own second coming.

Eighth. Final Discourse with his disciples in the supper chamber.

The Free States of the Congo.

Stanley and De Brazza, having demonstrated the accessibility and salubrity of the climate of interior Africa, Europe now travails with anxiety to possess itself of the vast cultivatable soil and inexhaustible resources which abound there. The first move in this direction is the projected formation of an international alliance in which the prime mover is the King of the Belgians. The plan is to colonize the country as the American States were originally colonized, and the outcome will doubtless be the same.

No part of the original intent of American colonization was the establishment of human slavery. On the contrary, it was for the purpose of perpetuating and extending liberty. But the result is not forgotten or unknown. The Dutch in South Africa have, in the face of England and all Europe, with its love of liberty, enslaved what Negroes near Boerland they have desired and been able to conquer. General Gordon in the Soudan, [illegible] himself authorized to recognize and promise immunity to the slave trade. So that notwithstanding [illegible] positions to occupy the [illegible] carries with [illegible] to treat the na[illegible] means, we presume, the same as a promise to buy their land and then employ them to till it, if we would find how far they are likely to keep any contract concerning the acquirement of titles to the land, we need only to examine the process of securing titles from the American Indians. As to the employment of natives to till soil of which they have in some way been deprived, we, here in the South, are in a position to know that this always results in making something out of the native, which might as well be called a slave.

A landless class cannot be free. If the Africans on the Congo are not in a condition of mind which will make them passive spectators, while the alliance occupies their country for the benefit of European commerce—better called European avarice—then the Congo African will have to fight. In this he will be finally overcome, and then he will have to go, as have all Aboriginees which have gone this way before him.

In view of all these things, we are constrained to ask: Is there no remedy? And is there nothing the American and European African, with his money, his civilization, his religion and his military skill can do? We answer our own interrogation, that there is a remedy. The American Negro can do something; but he won't. He will stay here and crowd the cities; work for almost nothing; submit to nameless and innumerable impositions, talk like a lion and fight like a lamb; die for white men to get office; take the offal; do the national scavenging, and gab about assimilation as the cure for his wounds; but he won't go to Africa. What could he do if he would? He could organize such men as would go, buy ploughs and guns; get the doctors we are making; take Lieutenant Flipper and Cadet Whittaker, gather up our veteran soldiers—10, 20 or 50 thousand of these and go. How? Go as sailors; work their way as servants; spend their money and go as passengers, in steerage, in the cabin, outside or inside, no matter for that, so they go. Go in groups in every vessel. Wait not for great crowds, but go. Let there be a steady flow outward and a steady effort inward to organize more men and get more money. What! organize an Exodus to Africa? No, simply reinforce Africa. Make a stand against even fate, if you choose to call European occupation of Africa by that name, as some people do.

There are plenty of men in Africa, and they can fight, but they don't know how to do it scientifically. Our Negro soldiers in Europe and America do. Go lead them in the battle for their country—our country—and guide them in diplomacy.

Is this an outburst of ignorance, you say. No, it is the wild roar of an uncontrollable flame of patriotic enthusiasm of a Negro patriot for his Fatherland. What is the use of asking some one else to go and save Africa for us? We must strike for its salvation from ignorance, idolatry and slavery ourselves. Our own stroke, and that alone, will change the feelings of the patrons around us. Africa's resources must be open to the world. That much is fate. But it is not fate that Black men shall, though it may be that they will not develop them.

Laugh at us, frown on us, tell us to be still; all this we expect. But in our silence what will the objector be doing for Africa? "Who would be free themselves must strike the blow." What is our civilization, our education, our political, military, social, commercial or professional acquirement ordained to do, if not to aid in the redemption of Africa? Aid in this redemption we will, either as servants of white colonists or leaders of black patriots. Which shall it be?

Colored Organs.

The unanimity of the newspapers edited by colored men in the the State of Louisiana, generally termed "Colored Organs," in their support of Hon. E J. Gay for Congressman from the Third District, is, to say the least, significant. Every paper in Louisiana edited and controlled by colored Republicans is advocating in a lively manner the election of Mr. Gay. There is the Louisiana Standard, that Ajax Maximus of colored Southern journalism, the New Orleans Citizen, the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE and the St. Mary Herald, all strenuously striving to conclusively show the colored man that to vote for any candidate for Congress other than Mr. Gay is to vote directly in opposition to his real interests. Surely no sensible man will imagine that motives other than solicitude for the future of our brothers could so unify the entire colored press of the State in the interest of a candidate. And when we go beyond the confines of Louisiana and read such exceptionally ably edited colored papers as the New York Globe, the Detroit Plaindealer etc., what do we see? We see that each and every one is advising the colored voters of the Third Congressional District not to further disgrace themselves by returning Star Route Kellogg to Congress.—St. Mary Herarld.

The SOUTHWESTERN does not advocate the election of Mr. Gay, but it certainly does oppose the the return of Mr. Kellogg to Congress. It involves the preservation of the purity of the public service, which we hold to be greater than the mere election of any man to office. The colored journals of the country are looking to the best interests thereof, and to the interests of the colored people therein. The day will yet come wherein the wisdom of their action will be demonstrated.

The Methodist Preachers.

It is required that the miuister of the Methodist Church, should be a man of learning. A man who is willing to sacrifice his personal interest whenever the salvation of one soul will make it necessary, much more so when the welfare of the church demands it. Should he be avaricious, he will hardly appreciate the particular position of each individual constituting the membership of his church, and the fatherly care that should characterize the true pastor will be wanting in him. He will indeed be an eater, but not a feeder. If besides this he is illiterate, then he becomes what Milton calls the pope and priest: "Blind mouth." The first, blind because ignorant of those important facts, have a knowledge of the latter; a mouth, because his desire for personal gain is like a greedy mouth, always ready to be the recipient of food. "The hungry sheep look up but are not fed," besides what the grim wolf, with privy paw daily devours apace, and nothing said." A pre-requisite for the successful minister of God, is that he should have the spirit of the Master abiding in his heart. The preacher who starts without this gift has either, failed to tarry at Jerusalem, or he has climbed over the wall. He is in truth, "a sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal." The preacher is not to preach from the pulpit only, he is expected to practice just exactly what he preaches. This done his preaching is performed in a two-fold manner, that is, theoretically and practically. It is also expected that they will manifest a serious interest in the Sunday-school. Not with a "send your children to Sunday-school," just before dismissing service, but by preaching such sermons as would convince parents of the absolute necessity of having their children attend Sunday-school in order that they may be properly trained. He should assist in the up building of this work. The pastor besides these things, should make himself agent of the SOUTHWESTERN inasmuch as this is our church paper, the one which proclaims the work of God as his religious faith teaches it. Now then, should not the preacher see that it be properly supported at his charge? This is our opinion of a Methodist preacher. Ah, yes, says the reader, those are just our sentiments of a Methodist preacher also; but now gentle reader do we also express just your "sentiments" when we assert that such a preacher should be fairly compensated for his services. He has had, no doubt, to study very diligently to acquire that knowledge necessary to make him the preacher here described. He has given his time, money and energy to equip himself for the task. He does more good for the community than any officer of the country, whatever be his position. Then should we not pay such a servant, from whom we expect so much?

Battles and Leaders of the Civil War.

Under this title The Century will begin with the November number of the present year, and continue without intermission (if possible), a series of separate papers, the object of which is to set forth, in clear and graphic manner, the life and spirit of the most important of modern military conflicts—the War for the Union. The main portion of the scheme will be papers of a popular character on the great engagements of the war, by general officers high in command at the time, either upon the Union or the Confederate side. In many instances the contributor will be the officer of first command, and in every instance a participant in the engagements under consideration. For instance, the battles of Shiloh and Vicksburg will be decribed by General U. S. Grant, who will contribute four papers to the series; General Beauregard will write of the first Bull Run; General McClellan, of Antietam; General Rosecrans, of Stone River, etc., etc. The Passage of the Forts below New Orleans will be described by Admiral Porter, and the Western Gunboat Service by Rear-Admiral Walke, and the fight between the Monitor and the Merrimac by Colonel John Taylor Wood, the senior surviving officer of the latter vessel. Other prominent Confederate generals have engaged to contribute, and some of these contributions will be hardly less notable than those above mentioned. In several instances briefer supplementary papers will chronicle special incidents or consider special phases of an engagement. Personal reminiscences of several of the most prominent military leaders, now dead, will also give variety to the scheme. The foregoing contributions will all be by general officers, or, in three or four instances, by staff officers, and will represent war as it appeared from head-quarters. In conjunction with them will appear from time to time a number of briefer sketches, entitled "Recollections of a Private," reflecting, with interesting and life like details, the experiences of the common soldier from the time of enlistment to the muster out; the drill, the march, the bivouac, the skirmish, the charge, the pursuit, the retreat, etc., etc. Auxiliary branches of the service will also be treated in this supplementary way.

Editorial Perambulations.

We rolled out and away from the L. and N. depot foot of Canal street, New Orleans, by the fast express for Memphis, at 8 o'clock, a. m., Tuesday October 14th. We were soon at Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, and Bay Biloxi. What an expanse of water is here! We push on to Mobile and Montgomery at each point to observe the same profusion of natural waterways. Mobile Bay and the Alabama river are fit companions for those which we have previously passed. Nor must we omit to mention our own Lake Ponchartrain and Bayou Tensas. The whole country was no doubt once covered by the Gulf, and probably will in time be so again, unless the annual deposits of soil from the upper regions preserve, as they originally formed it. Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis and Bay Biloxi, have capacities for summering that will one day make them as desirable for this purpose as Long Branch, Atlanta City, or Cape May now are. Why not? There is only needed enterprise in the use of money to develop them. Rev. Marcus Dale has already a neat summer house at Pass Christian where his family spend the hot term as successfully as anywhere in the North, and where a daughter almost a confined asthmatic has been entirely cured by the climatic conditions to which she was subject. Mobile is a great cotton mart. This is easily ascertained by the abundant appearance of cotton presses which meet your gaze in all directions as you pass along Commerce street. We noticed on the Bay at the wharf two steamers, the George W. Childs and Robert E. Lee, the names of which indicate that commercial relations are drawing the two sections nearer to each other for business purposes, but that the veneration of the people of the South for their military chieftains has not been therefore forgotten. While George W. Childs, the friend of Gen. Grant, can have his name made familiar to Southern eyes by the steamer which bears it plying Mobile Bay. The name of Gen. Lee will always appear there as one not only familiar, but dear to the people. The consistent faithfulness, and gratitude of the South to its unsuccessful leaders is as admirable, as is its persistence in clinging to customs which have only the merit of prevalence in that section deplorable.

We run along side the Montgomery depot on time at 8:15, having 20 minutes for supper and pull out again at 8:35, making an average of about 25 miles an hour, and stopping at all stations. Pretty good time, but this is a good road, well stocked, well officered, and conducted. Bro. Dale put us into the ladies coach without the least objection being offered. The conductor, brakesmen and train boys on to Nashville treated us with the utmost civility, our bed and breakfast aboard the train was first class. The old proscription against colored people on this road seems to be of the past. Of course they have not yet gone far enough yet to invite colored passengers to the rear coaches, but no serious objection is offered to clean, neatly dressed and well behaved colored people entering them. The city of Montgomery presents many historical reminiscences of interest to us, growing out of the late Southern Confederacy as its first capital. Had that confederacy succeeded with human slavery as its corner stone, the direct slave trade with Africa would have been reopened, and the dial of Christian civilization been consequently set a thousand years backward.

There is from New Orleans to Montgomery pine timber enough to build a dozen cities equal to New Orleans, and prairie grass and young cane sufficient, growing wild, to keep enough cattle, to feed the inhabitants of these cities upon. We did not see 20 head of cattle in the whole route nor a single corn field, until we were well on to the Eastern Alabama line. We heard a lady on the train say that the land from Bay St. Louis to Mobile and beyond it, was useless, that it would require more fertilizing than its products would be worth. That is a mistake which time will develop. This land lies in the most favorable shape for improvement and cultivation. It needs work truly. Sell it in small lots to the freedmen, give them a fair chance to pay for it, treat them kindly, so they will be contented, encourage school building, and school going, when the crops will allow it, and it will be found that this land is as productive as any in the South. Towns will grow up, mills and stores will be multiplied and the people secure the best results by such a course. There is a slight disposition to wool culture here, and it should be encouraged.

We run into Nashville just too late to join Bishop Bowman, Dr. Braden, Bro. Hagood and others en route to the seat of conference, but in good time to learn that Ohio had gone 12,000 Republican, to take a good look into the college, talk to the students, look a little over the city and to write this letter before leaving for Memphis.

A good attendance in the college this season, the discipline is correct and well enforced. The propriety of every rule appears without the least explanation, and could not be different if the faculty and pupils were all of the same race. So far as we could learn, in a stay of one day, and you can learn a good deal in a day if you keep your eyes and ears open, and month shut, things are in real good shape here. The Rev. Dr. R. W. Keeler is this year in charge of the Theological Department. He comes from upper Iowa, is a preacher of forty years experience, and for the reason that he combines practice with theory, promises much to the benefit of our students. Prof. Thomas M. Dart, of Ohio, is also an addition to the faculty. Miss Braden is at her post with her usual efficiency. We were cordially invited by her to make our home with theirs, and it would be superfluous to say that we appreciated the invitation highly, for the sake of those who gave it, but all the more because it was consistent with both their professions and work. We however in a polite way generally avoid accepting these courtesies, because we know some things may be lawful and yet not expedient.

The African Methodist Episcopal Church Review.

A quarterly magazine in its first volume, second number, October, 1884; Rev. B. T. Tanner, editor; published at the Denominational Book Concern, 631 Pine street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price $1.50 per annum; single copy 40 cents.

CONTENTS:

1. The Divine Plan of Human Redemption in its Ethnological Development; by Rev. James Theodore Holly, D. D., L. L D., Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Haiti. He labors to show that in the divine plan of redemption Ham holds an equal part with Shem and Japheth, and concludes as follows: "Hence it may appear the Semitic race has given us the written thought of God's divine plan; the Japhetic race has openly proclaimed this thought in the printed and preached word; but both alike await the forthcoming ministry of the Hamitic race to reduce to practical action that spoken word, that written thought."

2 A paper on the powers of the General Conference; by Rev. R. H. Cain, D. D., Bishop, etc. This is a terse strong argument in opposition to the absolute authority of the General Conference. He holds that the five restrictive rules of his church restrain the General Conference at certain points. So they do, but it is only a restraint, and through them the General Conference can find its way to action when the emergency arises. He claims too much for the fathers of American African Methodism, when he credits them with the authorship or origination of these rules. They originated in the Methodist Episcopal General Conference of 1792, with the exception of such alteration as would adapt them to the circumstances of the African Methodist Episcopal Church when it adopted them. The declaration introducing them is in the same words in both our Discipline and theirs. The first rule is identical in both, the second rule in our Discipline relates to the basis of representation, and this subject is not treated in their rules. But in their Discipline the second rule is identical with our third rule except the reference to a missionary Bishop. Our fifth rule and their third is the same, and in the same words; both Churches have the same words in the fourth rule; their fifth rule agrees with our sixth, except they include the bishops and itinerant preachers as claimants upon the funds of the Book Concern and we do not. They have nothing equal to our third rule, hence we have six rules against their five as above shown. If their church has been organized since ours, and since the formation of our rules which are just as theirs with the exceptions noted, then it follows that not their fathers, as the Bishop claim-, but our fathers originated, and his fathers copied them.

3. Is four verses in poetry by Prof. W. H. Crogman, A. M., member of the faculty in Clark University of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Atlanta, Georgia. The title of the poem, "A Friend in Need is a Friend Indeed," as well as the tone, shows that the Professor is reaping the common experience of colored men who aim to rise in the world, envy and ingratitude, not so much from white men as from Negro go-betweens who belong to them.

4. J. W. Cromwell, Esq., writes a good paper, full of inaccuracies, on "Our Colored Churches." He has gathered up a number of usefnl statistics which will be of service in the future.

5. T. Thomas Fortune, Esq., Nat Turner in verse. 6. Female preachers, by J. A. Johnson. 7. Classical Absurdities, by H. J. P. Green. 8. The Episcopacy of today, by Benj. T. Tanner, D. D. 9. The Anatomy, Structure and Functions of the Skin; by Rev. G. W. Bryant, M. D. 10. An Efficient Ministry, by Rev. H. T. Johnson, A. B. 11. Wesley and Swedenborg, their Lives and Work Compared, by Parker T. Smith. 12. Proverbial Philosophy of the Colored Race, by Prof. J. A. M. Johns. 13. Home Rule and its influence, by Rev. J. T. Jenifer, D. D. 14. Colored ministers of the South, their Preaching and peculiarities, by Prof. H. T. Keating. 15. The Government of the future, by R. Henri Herbert, Esq. 16. A Bunch of Pansies, by Mrs. M. E. Lambert. 17. The African-American force in America, by Geo. T. Downing, Esq. 18. The Christian Church in General, and Colored Baptist in Particular, by Rev. Rufus L. Perry. 19. Education and Experience versus Intelligence, by Prof. J. P. Sampson. 20. Editorial Notes. 21. Book Table. 22. Quarterlies. 23. Our Monthlies.

The Review is a success in editorial management; it will, we have no doubt it needs money now. Colored men cannot afford to either let it die or be tightly squeezed. It opens a way for counsel among the leading Negroes of the country. Outside of church matters there is a good deal to do, and the Review can help to do it. Of Dr. Tanner we have said so many good things that there is great danger of repetition if we undertake to say anything more. The Review ought to go to the home of every respectable Negro in the country. It would be a good way to invest money and be sure of its object if some philanthropist would settle the perpetual interest of $100,000 upon it. Long live the Church Review.

Personal.

—Rev. Henry Ware, of the Liberia Conference, a member of the late General Conference, returns to Africa in November.

—Muley Hassan, the Emperor of Morocco, can read and write, and is the only subscriber to a newspaper in the empire.

—Bishop W. F. Mallalieu's postoffice address will be Austin, Texas, from Nov. 1 to Dec 10. After Dec. 10, New Orleans, La., until further notice.

—Bertha, the youngest daughter of Dr. Tanner, a fortnight since met with a very severe accident, injuring the "cap" of her knee. At one time it was feared she might be a cripple. She is now convalescent.

—Bishop Ninde has been tendered a reception by the Central Church, Detroit, Michigan, and Dr. Searey, one among the grandest of Methodists, was selected to speak the words of welcome on the occasion.

—Mr. John Evans, converted about the year 1763, is said to have been the first person who joined the Methodist Society in America. He was awakened by a conversation at the table about experimental religion with Mrs. Strawbridge.

—[illegible] later, from Jean[illegible] SOUTHWESTERN [illegible]day. He is [illegible] on his work, and planning everything, expects to have full reports at conference. He has lately experienced something like a stroke of paralysis, but is on the fair way to complete recovery.

—Dr. N. Hill Middleton, of Claflin University, S. C., and an alumnus of Meharry Medical Department at Nashville, is doing good work at Oakland, Texas. He delivered before the district conference of the West Texas Conference a very forcible lecture on "The Condition of the Negro in America," and "The Duty of the Pulpit."

—Jerry McAnley, one of the most successful of city missionaries, died a few days ago. He was a converted river thief and general rough, and since his conversion has led thousands of his class and associates to Christ, established missions in the very worst spots of New York, and completely changed the surroundings in some quarters of the city. He was aided in his good work by many of the New York capitalists. He leaves a wife, but no children.

Rev. T. P. Childs, of Troy, Ohio, the well-known originator of Childs' Catarrh Specific and Inhaling Balm, has purchased a neat brick church property for the use of the colored Baptists of that village, which he gratuitously pastors, furnishing all needed supplies for their use, and zealously working in their interest. It is an act of distinguished Christian generosity which prompts Mr. Childs to his action, and it is calculated to do a great deal of good for the colored people, who, in that community desire to be Baptists. But they do not seem to appreciate this kindness of Mr. Childs as they ought to. Our people are prone to exhibit more or less discontent under such circumstances. And true to this characteristic, those of Troy are doing the best they can to get rid of Mr. Childs, but we regard such a step as at present inimical to their best interests.

Church Polity.

Is it the intent of the law that the specified numbers, three, five, seven or nine should constitute the boards of trustees and stewards?

Yes. Not less than three or more than nine for any one charge. Not less than two out of every three must be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church—not probationers—and each must be at least 21 years of age, for the Board of Trustees.

J. W. Lewis, Bertie: "A young Baptist was admitted to our pulpit, and he described a war going on in Heaven, in which the devil was about to get the best of the angels. Then God picked up the moon and pitched it at the devil, who was smart enough to dodge it; and then a star was used in the same manner; then God got mad and picked up the sun, and knocked him over the walls of heaven. The devil was nine days falling through the dark. Mr. Editor, do you think this man was called to preach?"

Yes, but we do not think he is ready yet. Suppose after you had retired for the night, a loud rap would bring you out of bed, and upon inquiry, information should be given that a dying friend wanted to see you. What would you do? Would you doubt the call? You would, doubtless admit the call, and construe it: 1. As a call to prepare. 2. To go. Such is every man's call to the ministry. 1. Tarry at Jerusalem, for the endowment of power. 2. Go preach! Tarry and go. Our friend has omitted the first, and hence succeeds poorly at the last.

General Church News.

There are 20 ministers' sons among the members of the Cincinnati Conference.

During the last six years there have been added to the Methodist Church in England 131 new members every day, and every day 105 have left.

The Swedish Methodists of New York give an average of $20 a member, although it is said not one of them is worth $2,000, and not one receives as much as $1,000 salary.

The managers of the Methodist Episcopal Church Home, New York, have purchased eight lots on Tenth avenue between Ninety second and Ninety third streets, for building a new home.

There is in India 124,000,000 women, who are truthfully described as "unwelcome at their birth, untaught in their childhood, enslaved in their marriage, accursed as widows, and unlamented when they die."

The late M. E. conference at Oshkosh had in it many things to encourage the brethren, and perhaps nothing to discourage. Several entire churches and pastors from other denominations joined, as well as numerous recruits from the schools and other conferences. —Christian Statesman.

At the last session of our conference a resolution was passed requesting the presiding elders to send for six or more men for our English work at once, in order that other men might be freed to move forward for native work.—India Methodist Watchman.

Schools and Colleges.

Notice.

We wish at once the full name, course of study taken, sex, time of graduation and present occupation of all the graduates of New Orleans University. Will each of our graduates write at once and answer the above questions? Address 1428 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, La. A. F. HOYT.

New Orleans University.

BY A. F. HOYT.

The following is a synopsis of the studies for the junior year in the School of Theology, showing the number of recitations weekly in each study:

Hebrew, 3 hours; Elocution, 1 hour; Church History, 3 hours; Greek, 2 hours; Practical Theology, 1 hour; Biblical Theology, 1 hour; Introduction to Didatic Theology, 2 hours; Vocal Music, 1 hour.

To enter the Greek class, students should have read at least two books of Xenophon's Anabasis. Those not prepared to take Hebrew or Greek may enter the other classes. For the present year only the junior studies will be pursued. Next year we expect to pursue the studies of the junior and middle classes. The full course will cover three years.

Those who have taken their B. A. degree and completed this full course, will be graduated in the degree of Bachelor of Sacred Theology (S. T. B.) Those who have not taken the B. A. degree, on completing our Theological course, will receive the diploma of the School of Theology, and certifying that they have completed the full Theological course.

The tuition is free. An incidental fee of $1 per month will be charged students in the School of Theology. Already quite a number have entered in this department, and we invite all pastors and local preachers who can find it convenient, to avail themselves of these advantages.

It is said that since 1861 there has gone into Southern education through the Freedmen's Bureau, $5,250,000; through the American Missionary Association, $6,000,000; and through other agencies enough to make a total of more than $25,000,000.

The late Senator Anthony bequeathed $25,000 to Brown University, besides some residuary legacies and his great collection of American poetry. To the Rhode Island Hospital he gives an equal amount, and several smaller sums to educational uses.

In answering the question, "Where shall he go?" two weeks since, we by no means exhausted the list of reasons why Methodist young men should go to Methodist colleges. It was not from bigotry, but from conviction, that the declaration was made of belief that the moral atmosphere of our colleges is, as a rule, better than that of the most of the larger and more widely known institutions. One fact alone will illustrate what is meant. The Methodist Episcopal Church is a temperance, yea, a total abstinence Church. Not that all its members abstain, but that the Church, by her highest authorities, proclaims that doctrine as a Christian necessity for the times. It is not uncharitable to say that the temperance atmosphere of Methodist colleges is decidedly more pronounced than that of several other denominations. The occasions when young men meet for various purposes connected with social or college life, where wine is an element of attraction, are greatly fewer in our institutions. If there were no other reasons, this would be ample for giving preference to our own institutions.—Christian Advocate.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

The one hundredth anniversary of the settlement of this peninsula, the foundation of a Christian settlement here of rescued Africans, will occur in 1887, three years hence. It is fitting that the occsion should be suitably commemorated. — The Methodist Herald and West African Educational Times, of Sierra Leone, W.A.

Fasting represents the highest, more heroic and aggressive phases of piety.—St. Louis Church Advocate.

May we not hope that much of the fruit which our faith is realizing and claiming in the revivals, which we hear of in all sections of our Church, in this Centenary year, will be in the call of many a young man into the work of the ministry. —Southern Christian Advocate.

There are inconveniences and privations attendant upon residence remote from other men, but the family under such circumstances can wisely make itself its own centre, and not add the evil of discontent to other and necessary inconveniences. —Illustrated Church Weekly.

Let the Republican Party be fired again with a great principle, fused by a grand reform, linked by its deepest moral instincts; let it present an issue that will appeal to its furthest voter, that will come to the home and enlist a mother's prayers and it will win.—Rev. J. Faville in the Independent, Oct. 9, 1884.

Those who do not have well-established principles imbibe error much more easily than they do truth; also, a class of persons who are given to seeking after 'some new thing,' easily become unsettled when foundation truths are disturbed, and Satan makes use of his opportunity to lead them into skepticism, or some other form of spiritual decay.—Zion's Watchman.

The minister should feel and act as though he had a mission for the hour, important enough to bring angels from heaven with trumpets to arouse and rescue perishing men.—Golden Censer.

As never before, the question of personal moral character has been brought into the canvass. It could not be kept out. There was no great national peril that overpowered all personal, or minor, questions and absorbed the interests of the whole land as the election preceding and during the war and the reconstruction of the States.—Zion's Herald.

If the friends of the Sunday do rally, for a definite struggle, the agitation will be increased in the ratio of their earnestness. Whatever results may follow, the question can never go back to its former status of quiet, and comparative unimportance. The "Sunday Question," like the "Temperance Question," has come to stay.—The Outlook.

But says one, "We have no colored bishop." Wait, friend, till the timber is sufficiently grown. Young men capable from an educational stand point, we have, but that experience necessary which comes alone with age, is lacking. We want no novice on the Board of Bishops and no man for the reason he is black. If color is the only qualification then we can find plenty. — J. Wofford White, in Methodist Messenger.

There are many who talk much, and but few who talk well. Slang words and phrases have become so universal that one is really startled at hearing any refined conversation nowadays.—S. S. Classmate.

Sunday is worth more than Sunday journalism. What Sunday journals displace is worth more than what they supply. They displace the mood of religious thoughtfulness and worship, without which no civilization can be maintained at a high-level.—Iowa Methodist.

1784 1884—Centennial Year.

The Centennial Year, Ministerial Association and Centennial Celebration of the Baltimore District, Washington Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, to be held in Centennial M. E. Church, Baltimore, Md., November 12 15, 1884.

PROGRAMME.

Wednesday, first day, 10 a. m., sermon by Rev. T O Carroll; alternate, Rev. M McPherson.

ORGANIZATION.

1. Address of welcome, Rev. W T Harris; 2 Responsive address, Rev. Alfred Yonng; 3. Exposition of the Apostles' Creed, Rev. W H Brooks; 4. Subject: "The fullness of Christ, to what extent have we received," Rev. P H Matthews.

Afternoon, 2:30 p m—1. Treatise: "Nature and Character of God's general providence, Rev. P G Walker. 2. Subject: "The offices of the Redeemer," Rev. W H Cook. 3. Exposition of Romans, 8-12-13, Rev. T H Dansbury.

Thursday, second day, 10 a m—1. "Is the Sunday school prospective of the future Church?" Rev. Alfred Yonng. 2. "How ought a pastor to adapt himself to the young, so as to win them to Christ?" Rev. L J Valentine. 3. Subject: "What methods may we employ whereby the officers and teachers of the Sunday-school may be encouraged in their work?" Rev. W C Cooper.

Afternoon, 2:30 p m—Centennial Services. — 1. Salutation: "The church, the glory and joy of its ministry," Rev. W H Draper. 2 Sermon, Rev. W P Ryder. 3 Address: "The Centennial of the Methodist Episcopal Church," Rev J W Dansbury.

Evening, 7:30 p m—Educational Meeting.—Rev. T B Knowden, B D. Professor in Centenary Biblical Institute, will conduct the exercises. Eminent speakers will address the meeting, and the choir of the church will render choice and select music.

Friday, third day, 10 a m—1 special: "The finished atonement, what is its meaning?" Rev Robert Hawkins. 2. Suggestive: Is Christian Baptism essential to salvation? Rev I L Thomas. 3. "What is Christian Perfection?" Rev. James Thomas. 4. Subject: "The hope of believers," Rev. Washington Langford.

Afternoon, 2:30 p m—1. Subject: "The cause, agent and purpose of Regeneration," Rev A D Valentine. 2. Suggestive: "Is there an intermediate state of the soul?" Rev. Samuel Brown. 3. Subject: "The second coming of Christ, the resurrection and judgment," Rev R E J Warner.

Saturday, fourth day, 10 a m—1. "Required decision in religion," Rev. Washington Murray. 2. "Faith leading to action," Rev P McPherson. 3. Subject: "The perfection of Christ's atonement," Rev. Benjamin Brown. 4 "Exposition of 2nd Timothy, 3 7, Rev. Richard Adams.

Note—Members of the Association will please notify Rev. W T Harris, without fail, not later than November 1st, positively of their coming, in order that entertainment may be provided. In connection with the centennial exercises, it is proposed to hold a union meeting of the official members of the churches of the city, in special behalf of Centennial Church.

E W S Peck, P E,
W T Harris,
P H Mathews,
W P Ryder,
Committee.

Five years of faith work in India, or a brief history of the Telugu faith Mission, Nizam's Dominion, India, by C. B. Ward, Bombay, Anglo vernacular press. Two tanks, Giant Road, 1884. In these times of monetary stringency a work like this is opportune. The history of God's work in foreign lands will stimulate Christian liberality to the development of greater self-denial.

She Had Confidence.

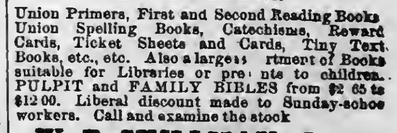
Mrs. H. C. Harshbarger, Manor Hill, Huntingdon County, Pa., writes: "Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Columbus, O.: I have been afflicted for three years, caused by over-work too soon after confinement. My kidneys became seriously affected; could not retain my urine day nor night. It was high colored, thick and bloody. My monthlies had left altogether for fourteen months, during which time I was confined to my bed with a beating in right ovaries. The discharge from the womb was so offensive no one could stay in the room. The urine continued bloody, with pain in voiding it, and when in bed would pass from me in my sleep. I have had three doctors attending me regularly, one for four months, one of the others one whole summer, and the third all winter. We had two others in consultation with them, and used twenty bottles of different kinds of patent medicines, all to no good. I then got a bottle of Peruna, and before I had three-fourths of the bottle taken I quit wetting the bed and could retain the urine sufficient to attend church, which I had not done for three years, and my monthlies came back as natural as ever; indeed, I considered myself a well woman again. Since that time I have had pneumonia. My confidence in Peruna was so great that I did not send for a doctor. I followed the directions in your "Ills of Life" and am over it, as well as can be expected of one so delicate as I have been. Others in my neighborhood had the same disease, and among them were strong men, and had the best physicians, and yet died, while I sailed through in safety on Peruna and Manalin. I sincerely believe, and would say to all the afflicted in the wide world, that Peruna and Manalin are the only two medicines that any one needs in any disease, if used as directed in your book entitled "The Ills of Life."

J. E. Fleming, publisher of the New Dominion, Morgantown, W.Va. writes: "Some months since, I received some of your medicine in exchange for advertising. My wife has taken five bottles of it, and has derived great benefit from it."

Mr. M. C. Pershing, Bradenville, Pa., writes: "My wife has been using Peruna for some time for weak lungs and liver and kidney complaint, and thinks it is doing her great good. Has used only one bottle as yet. Please send your book on the 'Ills of Life,' as we can't get any from our druggist."

Mr. John Denny, Mt. Vernon, O., writes: "We have a large sale in Peruna. It gives satisfaction."

McShane Bell Foundry



Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. A dress HENRY McSHANE & CO. Baltimore, Md.
oct23-1y

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a largeas rtment of Books suitable for Libraries or pre nts to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street,.....94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, True & Co., Augusta, Maine.
sept6

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.
292.....Rampart Street..... 292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices
sept27-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

SWEET GUM & MULLEIN

The sweet gum taken from the tree of the Southern swamps contains a stimulating expectorant principle which loosens the phlegm, and cuts the false membrane, relieving the early morning cough in Consumption, curing Coughs, Croup, and Whooping Cough. This, combined with the mucilaginous healing and flesh producing principle in the Mullein Plant of the old field, presents in Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein, the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Colds, and Consumption. For full information send 2ct. stamp for "Taylor's Riddle Book" for the welfare of home and amusement of the little ones
WALTER A. TAYLOR, Atlanta Ga.
sept25-26eow

Conference Met—E Pluribus Unum.

MARSDEN.

The morning comes and lo! at early dawn,
While dewy lustres sparkle o'er the lawn.
The band of brothers kneel with heart sincere,
Join the war hymn, or pour the vital prayer;
And ask, without hypocrisy or pride,
That he who planned the system would preside:
"Till eye to eye the faithful watchmen see,"
Meet in one point, and in one cause agree;
For vain the counsel and the cares of men,
Gifts of the tongue and labors of the pen;
Unless the blessing power ize the deed,
So what we please no harvest will succeed.
But he has oft their annual meeting cheered;
When much was felt, and more, alas, was feared:
They silent the chapel threshold with a sigh,
Before they parted, sorrow bloomed with joy!
And he will bless them, he will own them still,
In spite of every prophesy of ill;
Their bands shall spread at his divine command,
O'er all the limits of "Immanuel's land,"
While colors decorate you showery bow,
Stars twinkle, planets roll and Phoebus glow;
While summer, winter, seed-time, harvest stand,
Attest God's truth, and show his mighty hand
While balmy peace, shall weeping sinners cheer.
And virtue smile at piety's career;
While truth shall triumph, man his God adore,
The Wesleyan cause shall flourish more and more.

Domestic Hygiene.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Health and Disease and Hygienic Rules.

REV. GEO. L. CURTIS, M. D.

Few things are more desirable than good health, and a plenty of it. Let a person have a sound body and energy of character, and there is ability to do and accomplish far more in the world, than with a weakly, unsound body and deficiency of energy. Disease is the condition of the system under the influence of noxious things, which to a greater or less extent injure or completely destroy the tissues of the body.

Disease may be general or local, of long or short duration, of happy or fatal termination. Its approach may be either sudden, as with a shock, or slow of invasion; or it may not be known the exact time when it comes; but it is present, and gives strong evidence of the fact.

Health is the opposite of disease, and is by all odds the only desirable condition. It is a condition "in which all the functions are exerted with regularity and harmony." It includes a good condition of body, mind and soul. To a large extent, the conditions of health are under our control.

Hygiene is the science of retaining and maintaining health, so as not to become diseased. It is the careful observance of laws of life, adapted to health. In its practice we refrain from all those things which are injurious or deleterious to health. It practices cleanliness, sobriety, abstinence and purity of life, because they are right, and conduce to health and happiness. Hygienic laws and rules of conduct cannot be violated with impunity. These laws are consistent with our surroundings, and in harmony with honest employment. We need to know these laws and carefully observe them, if we would reach the highest plane of civilization and Christianity.

Dr. Parkes says: "The body is affected by every mental and moral action; the mind is profoundly influenced by bodily conditions. For a perfect system of hygiene, we must combine the knowledge of the physician, the schoolmaster and the priest, and must train the body, the intellect and the moral soul in a perfect balanced order."

The study of hygiene is one of great importance. It concerns every rank and condition of society. It may make otherwise unhealthy occupations comparatively healthy. It may render unhealthy regions and localities tolerable, and even pleasant. It will add years of precious time to our lives, in which to enjoy life, do good to our fellows, and bring the race to a nearer perfection. The day has come when a sickly delicacy is the fashionable condition, and may it pass away. Now we want good, sound minds in healthy bodies.

The possession of good physical and mental conditions are, to eat well, think well, sleep well and work well.

We give some rules to be observed to preserve health and prevent disease:

1. Avoid sitting or standing in a draft, for the passing wind will too suddenly cool the surface, close up the pores of the body, and arrest insensible perspiration, by which the body is relieved of waste and worn out tissues of the body. During this time much blood is at or near the surface of the body. But when the body or any portion of it is suddenly cooled, the blood is driven from the surface and is thrown back upon the internal organs, and congestion follows. If at any time you must be exposed to a draft, turn the face toward it rather than the back. The liability to take cold with the draft on the back is greater by one half than to have it blowing on the face.

2. Avoid unnatural stimulation of the salivary glands. Tobacco, chewing gum, spices and flag root and such needless articles are stimulants to these glands. The natural secretion of saliva is about three pounds every 24 hours. A person, by constant stimulation of these glands, may increase the secretion to 12 or more pounds each 24 hours.

3. Avoid eating food when very tired. The stomach requires strength to do its work of digestion. It cannot have it when the body is wearied. Always rest a little before eating. The process of digestion is not completed as soon as one has concluded a meal, but sometimes varying with the kind of food eaten. Nor should we eat too rapidly. Take time to chew the food properly before it is swallowed. Work which ought to be done in the month, but is not, must be completed in the stomach.

4. Avoid excesses of every kind and character, for excesses use up the vital force within us. In our birth there is given to us vital force enough to carry us on to 70 years of age. When this force is once squandered it can never be replaced. One of the objects of hygiene is to preserve the vital force as long as possible.

JAVELLE WATER FOR BLEACHING AND REMOVING STAINS.—Dissolve one pound of sal soda in a tin vessel on the stove. Put one-half a pound of chloride of lime in a wooden pail and pour on enough cold water to dissolve it. Pour the soda in the pail and then fill it with boiling water. When it has settled, strain through a cloth and bottle for use. This will remove mildew or any stain except iron rust. Let the garment lie in the javelle water until the stain disappears.

To remove iron rust from white goods.—Cover the spots with fine salt; squeeze lemon juice over it and lay it in the sun. If the first application does not remove the iron rust, repeat it until it does, as it will not injure the fabric.

To bleach lace.—Dip it in strong soap suds, lay it on a platter and set it in the sun; keep a little water in the platter so the lace will be moist. This is an excellent method of bleaching antique lace tidies or lace that has been used on curtains and become very yellow; they will be equal to new in two or three days.

To wash a linen crumb-cloth.—Lay as much of it as you can singly on the kitchen table; take a scrubbing-brush and soap and clean all the spots; then lay another portion on the table, and so on till all are cleaned. If you have no washing machine put it into a tub of warm suds, and rub lightly on a rubbing board. Put no more soap on the cloth, but use as many waters as are needed to cleanse it. It must not be scalded or washed in hot water or it will bleach.

"The best is the cheapest." This is an old adage and the essence of wisdom. The best blood purifier, and the only sure cure for diseases of the liver, kidneys and bladder is the old and reliable HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY. Physicians endorse it highly and prescribe it in their practice.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire about my sister's father, Jim Rice. I received a letter from him about seven years ago, and have not heard from him since. He was living in Boston, Missouri, on Col. McCleran's place. Sister was Mollice Rice, but since her marriage is Mollie Dickson. Address me at The Oaks, Miss. M. C. KIDD.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my brothers, Henry Perkins and George Washington. When last heard from they were in St. Louis, Mo., three years ago. We belonged to Perkins, and in 1843 were sold to the speculator Matlock and brought to Texas. Father was Harrison Perkins, mother Caroline, and we lived near Springfield. My name was then Ellen Perkins, but is now Ellen Blackburn. Address me at Belton, Texas.

The M. E. Church.

To All Pastors and Members of Committees on the Centenary Celebrations of 1884.

The Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church having been designated by the Bishops and the General Conference as the first Connectional object in behalf of which pecuniary offerings should be solicited during the Centenary celebration of the present year, an eight page circular has been prepared to furnish information as its peculiar object and claims. The circular referred to will be sent freely and in any reasonable quantity to individuals or committees that may apply for it for perusal or judicious distribution in advance of the autumn Centenary meetings. No pledge is required as to any collection or share of collection in return. The desire is to supply the facts which many desire to understand, leaving all to determine for themselves their duty in the premises. Address,

D. P KIDDER, Cor. Sec.,
805 Broadway, New York.

The Centenary Medal.

We are informed that the Historic Centenary medal, in its original form, in which it was delivered at all post offices for $1, is still in active demand. But medals in pure silver, framed and cased in an elegant manner, are now being struck to supply a limited number of orders. These will be delivered by mail to all applicants for them at $4 each. The gilded medals are similarly framed and delivered for $2 each. In its new setting the medal is fitted in the center of a velvet frame, about three inches square, so that the two faces are open to view, one on each side of the frame; and over each side folds a morocco cover, giving the whole a neat book-like appearance. By this arrangement the medal can be viewed on either side without handling, and is guarded from undue exposure. This style of setting leaves nothing to be desired in the way of simplicity, neatness and convenience, and greatly enhances the value of the medal to those who may desire, as thousands will, that it shall be preserved as an heirloom in their families by their descendants.—Northern.

A Mean Old General Routed.

Old "General Debility," has been put to flight in Arkansas, with happy results. From Brinkley, from Webb City, and from Walnut Ridge, Messrs. P. R. Anderson, E. M. Taylor and F. S. Pichbeck respectively, write that they were all afflicted with general debility, and received solid benefit from Brown's Iron Bitters. This is pleasant to know, not only for Arkansas people, but for all sections of the country where General Debility has counted victims by the thousand. For sale everywhere.

In experimenting with cotton seed meal at the Mississippi Agricultural College a steer, fed for beef, gained 200 pounds in fifty six days, or an average of about four pounds per day, consuming an average of about fourteen and two fifths pounds of seed and eleven pounds of hay and straw. The cost of food per day was not quite 10 cents, or about $5.50 for 200 pounds of beef.

GOLDEN PRAISE

VOLUNTARILY ACCORDED TO

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

By People who Have Proven its Benign Effects.

WARREN LELAND, New York: "There is no medicine in the world equal to AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Rheumatism.]

REV. W. E. PENNINGTON, Central South Hampton, N. B.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has made a new man of me." [Cured by it of General Debility.]

JOHN J. RYAN, Athletic B. B. C., Philadelphia, Pa.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cured me." [Cured by it of Rheumatism.]

ORLANDO SNELL, Lowell, Mass.: "I enjoy better health than ever before, due solely to the use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Carbuncles and Debility.]

NATHAN S. CLEAVELAND, Boston, Mass.: "A most valuable remedy for the lassitude and debility incident to the spring season." [His daughter cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Headaches, Dizziness, Indigestion, and General Debility.]

MILTON FOX, Dracut, Mass.: "The one I would recommend above all others as a blood purifier." [Cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Scrofulous Humor and Dyspepsia.]

SELBY CARTER, Nashville, Tenn.: "My system seemed saturated with Scrofula, but AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cured me."

HON. FRANCIS JEWETT, Lowell, Mass.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the only preparation that seems to do me any real, lasting good." [Cured by it of Blood Impurities.]

MRS. E. B. TOMPKINS, Brooklyn, N. Y.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has done me untold good. Nothing else has been so efficacious." [Cured by it of Feminine Ailments.]

FRANK M. GRIFFIN, Long Point, Texas: "Has worked like a charm; no medicine could have accomplished more." [His child cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Scrofulous Sores.]

MRS. H. MCKAY, Lowell, Mass.: "I can recommend AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to all afflicted." [Her son cured by it of Scrofulous Swellings, Dizziness, and Internal Fever.]

GEO. ANDREWS, Lowell, Mass.: "No doubt whatever that I owe my recovery to AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Salt Rheum.]

HENRY J. CHAPMAN, Nashua, N. H.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a perfect blood purifier." [Cured by it of long standing and severe Scrofulous Humors.]

MRS. LORENZO S. RUGGLES, Auburn, Me.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has proved its superiority to all others." [Cured by it of Feminine Weaknesses.]

Almost "all the ills that flesh is heir to" spring from, or are intensified by, impurities in the blood, the result of hereditary taint or of a wrong manner of living. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA thoroughly purifies the blood, gives tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and imparts new vitality to the nervous system. The only preparation of this class for which these claims can be truthfully made, and the only one that does "real, lasting good," is

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

Sold by all druggists; price $1; six bottles for $5.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

Our Books for Sale,
—AT—
Southwestern Office,
32 Natchez Street.

Wakefield's Theology	$2 50
Methodism In The Field	1 00
Class Leaders Work and How to Do It	1 25
History of the M. E. Church, 4 volumes	6 00
Wesley's Sermons, 2 volumes	5 00
Whedon's Commentary on the New Testament	7 50
Life of John Wesley	1 00
Hand Book of Bible Geography	2 50
Bible Stories	1 00
Hints to Self Educated Ministers	1 25
Christianity Demonstrated by Experience	1 50
Baker on the Discipline	1 00
Binney's Theological Compend	75
Pope's Theology, 3 volumes	7 50
Outlines of Bible History	50
Outlines of Church History	50
CATECHISMS—
No. 1, Per Dozen	36
No. 2 Per Dozen	45
No. 3, Per Dozen	60
American Primers, per dozen	50
Spelling and Reading Book, per dozen	1 50
Sunday-School Minute Book	40
Sunday-School Register and Receiving Book	40
Sunday-School Class Book	10
Church Record	2 50
Church Class Book	20
Hymnal 24 mo.	50
" 16 mo, with Ritual	75
" 16 mo, "	1 00
" 12 mo, "	1 50
" 16 mo. with Tunes	1 00

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balances; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to '72, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
Frooch's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

IT PAYS to sell our Rubber Stamps. Catalogue to agents Free. Johnson & Co., Cleveland, O. s23-4 cow

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE

to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.

ser125 to nov27

"THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST."
SAW MILLS ENGINES THRESHERS, Horse Powers
(For all sections and purposes.) Write for Free Pamphlet and Prices to The Ellman & Tay or Co., Mansfield, Ohio. jan 4-1y

MILLERS and FARMERS
Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro., Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.
may22-1y

Lying Agents can't SELL and tell the truth about JONES. Put your lies on paper and sign if you dare. U. S. STANDARD
$60.5 TON
WAGON SCALES.
Beam Box. Tare Beam. Freight Paid. Free Price List. Every Size. address JONES OF BINGHAMTON, BINGHAMTON, N. Y.
jy31 8t-new

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.
mar20-52t

$72 a week. $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address True & Co., Augusta, Me. jan1

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale " "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin " "	7:45 p m
Ashley " "	8:28 p m
Centralia " "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N O R R will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the O. & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3..10:45 a m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a.m.	Sunday Excur'n 8:20 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT. KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Cincinnati Accommodation	3:30 p m	9 10 a m
Fast Mail	8 20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. au25-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE
TO
Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn, and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City, For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or
H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

4% LONG LOANS.
PRINCIPAL need never be REPAID
so long as interest is kept up. Personal security only for interest. Honest poor or men of moderate means can send 6 cents for particulars, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.
sep18 2 1

BOARDING HOUSES.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100

Lodging,
With or Without Board.
sept2-6m

General News Items.

The Arkansas Republican committee nominated M. W. Benjamin for Chief Justice.

The new State Department at Washington has 150 rooms, and cost $5,000,000.

The leading merchants of Jamaica, Central America and Mexico, are pure Jamaica Negroes.

It is said that the distillers pay $50,000,000 into the Treasury annually, and the dealers as much more.

The total receipts for August were $46,079 95. The issues of the Scriptures from the Bible House were 70,702 volumes.

The Columbus, Ga., cotton mills use three million dollars of capital and give work to over three thousand persons.

Queen Victoria has found a follower in the person of the Marchioness of Westminster, who has forbidden the eating of lamb at her table.

Out of $600,000 given for the conversion of the world last year by Christian women, those of the Metho list Episcopal Church gave $108,000.

The Marquis de Serpa and Admiral Pinto are about to lead a Portuguese expedition to explore the country between Mozambique and Lake Nayssa, Southeast Africa. The expedition will be accompanied by 100 Zulus and 250 carriers.

All postoffices of the first class and their stations or branches will be kept open to the public for the issue and payment of money orders and for the receipt of matters intended for registration, and the delivery of registered matter, until 6 o'clock p. m. every day, Sundays and legal holidays excepted.

In 1840 the consumption of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors was equal to 71,000,000 gallons; in 1850 the figures reached 94,000,000; 1860, 202,000,000; 1870, 393,000,000; 1880, 506,000,000; while in 1883 the enormous number of 655,000,000 gallons were consumed by the people of the United States.

The following are the principal statistics of the Illinois Conference: Members, 39,158; probationers, 2,863; total membership, 43,021; Sunday schools, 490; scholars, 41,634; officers and teachers, 4,606; churches, 487; probable value, $2,294,050; parsonages, 161; probable value, $182,115.—Northwestern.

A wealthy lady in New York City is to pay the expenses of several gentlemen, on a trip of exploration along the valley of the Euphrates for the purpose of discovering traces of old civilization, thought to be contemporary with Abraham. Dr. Ward, of the Independent, will lead the party, which will take its departure at an early day.

The Scramble for Africa.

The European Governments in their efforts to enlarge their interests in western Africa, have left in native hands only about 850 miles of seabord between the desert of Sahara and the Cape of Good Hope. Within four months England and Germany have taken possession of over 1,000 miles of the unappropriated coasts. Consul Hewett, by agreement with native chiefs in the Niger delta, which embraces 350 miles of coast line, has placed them under British authority. Dr. Nachtigali has planted the German standard at Cameroons and several other points just below the British Gold Coast. The Germans have also raised their flag at five places South of the Cunene River; and if the reports are true, they practically claim the entire coast between the Portuguese possessions and Cape Colony, except Walfish Bay.

South of the Sahara desert, France now claims jurisdiction over 700 miles of coast line, Great Britain over 1,300 miles, Portugal over 800 miles, and Germany over 750 miles. The Republic of Liberia has 300 miles of seabord. Spain has contented herself with a slender foothold on the mainland and a few islands north of Sahara. Portugal's claim to the mouth of the Congo is not admitted; and the lower part of that river will be included among the unpartitioned parts of the coast until it is finally decided how it can best be opened to the whole world.

Many trading posts have suddenly found themselves under the jurisdiction of a foreign flag, and the fear that duties discriminating against them may some day be levied has led to the present movement in England and Germany for an international commission to secure protection for their merchants against differential taxation.

The most of these coast lands are malarious and useless except as a means of access to the interior. But the interior is the objective point that commerce wishes to reach; and the hope that Africa may be a source of great wealth to Europe is impelling the leading nations to an emulous contest for the acquirement of territory and commercial advantages in the dark continent.—N. Y. Sun.

No Color Line in the Army.

Washington, Sept. 27.—An apparent attempt by Chief Signal Officer Hazen to bar out colored men from the Signal Corps has been frustrated by Secretary Lincoln. Sometime ago W. Hallett Green, a colored man, passed an excellent examination preliminary to enlisting in the Signal Corps. When Mr. Green presented himself for enlistment he was told that he could not join. General Hazen gave as his reason for refusing the colored man that, in his opinion, the only place for the applicant was in one of the four Negro regiments of the army authorized by law. Mr. Green was a graduate of a college, and had proved his ability to become a Signal Observer, but he was not white, and Gen. Hazen would not have him. Recently the case was called to the attention of the Secretary of war. It did not take Mr. Lincoln long to decide that no color line should be recognized in the War Department, and he made a ruling to that effect. Yesterday Mr. Green enlisted in the Signal Corps, an today he was on duty at Fort Myer.

Private Green has the honor of being the first colored man regularly enlisted in the corps of which Gen. Hazen is the head. In speaking of the matter to day, Secretary Lincoln said that, so far as any appointments he had to make were concerned, no man able to pass the necessary physical and mental examinations would ever be rejected because of color. He added that among the men recommended for promotion to the newly created rank of Post Quartermaster Sergeant there was at least one member of a colored regiment, and this man would probably be given the place.

Thirty Years Record. Endorsed by Physicians.

HUNT'S KIDNEY & LIVER REMEDY NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS LIVER BLADDER AND URINARY ORGANS DROPSY GRAVEL DIABETES BRIGHT'S DISEASE PAINS IN THE BACK LOINS OR SIDE NERVOUS DISEASES RETENTION OR NON-RETENTION OF URINE.

By the use of this REMEDY, the Stomach and Bowels speedily regain their strength, and the blood is purified.

It is pronounced by hundreds of the best doctors to be the ONLY CURE for all kinds of Kidney Diseases.

It is purely vegetable, and cures when other medicines fail.

It is prepared expressly for these diseases, and has never been known to fail. One trial will convince you. For sale by all druggists.

PRICE $1.25.

Send for Pamphlet of Testimonials.

HUNT'S REMEDY Co., Providence, R. I.

sept-11-1.

Good Pay for Agents. $100 to $200 per mo. made selling our fine Books and Bibles. Write to J. C. McCURDY & CO. St. Louis, Mo.

septl2-1y

A Beautiful Medal Beautifully Encased.

The Rev. Dr. Kidder, Secretary of the Board of Education, is a gentleman of marvelous inventive instincts. He has devised many happy plans during his long career of public service, all of which have been of advantage to the Church he serves. The Centennial medal, which was designed under his supervision in the early part of this year, and which was widely circulated through the Church during month of June, has brought delight to many homes and a considerable income to the Board of Education. It is of permanent historic value. The Board has now issued a medal of the same design, but of pure silver and, in place of being punctured so as to be suspended by a ribbon, like the former issues, this is set in a beautiful morocco case of a kind used for the display of such articles. The case opens like the covers of a book, and in the central portion, which is covered with silken velvet, the medal is so fixed that both its sides are exposed to view when the case is opened. The glossy golden and silver disks stand out in beautiful contrast to the purple velvet framework. The medals as originally issued were supplied, and may still be had, at $1 each. They can now be had unpierced and encased as we have described for $2 apiece. Those of pure silver can be had thus encased for $4 each, delivered by mail. A great demand should immediately arise for these beautiful memorials of this Centennial year. They are especially appropriate as prizes for individual efforts in behalf of local education funds. Let no issue by irresponsible parties come into competition with the authorized medal of the Church.—Christian Advocate.

M .E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez street.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sunday s, preaching 11 a m 3p.m 7½ p. m. Sunday s hol at 1o' lock. Class estin Tuesday nights Preaching th rsday nights. Prayer meetings Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 32 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydr s; Rev Marcus Cole, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6. m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7 0 p m; General Class and Love Feast m n; reaching Tuesday eve 7:30; Class Monday eve

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-s hool 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening Prayer-meeting Friday evening General class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5 30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a m Preaching 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m Sabbath-school at 1 p m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HEVENLY ARBEL—Jefferson street, corner of Prieur, two blocks above the last station Rev. M. B. Mason, Pastor services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m Sunday Sunday-school 9 a m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a m, and communion at 7 Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F. Hoyt, A. M., acting President 1428 St Charles street.

First Street—Rev. G Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades streets services: Sabbat—5 a m, prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7 public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights

STANDARD Biographies { Just Ready.
BLAINE and LOGAN. {
712 octavo pages; 67 fine steel engravings.
Tilden, Cleveland & Hendricks.
774 Royal octavo pages; 35 full-page illustrations
Best Terms ever offered to Agents.
OUTFIT FREE, and All FREIGHT PAID.
Address, H. S. GOODSPEED, oct2 1y New York or Chicago.

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Biholet, Manager.)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20.....Toulouse Street,.....20
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, La.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce consigned to my care, and prompt returns made of the same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
Strictly attended to on Sundays. sept25-tf

OUR SONG WORLD
A New Book for Singing Classes, Institutes and Conventions.
By GEO. F. ROOT & C. C. CASE.
CONTAINS
The finest Elementary Lessons, both in quality and grading, that have ever appeared in any book.
The Best of simple Part Songs, Tunes and Anthems with beautiful Glees and Secular Choruses, crowned by the brilliant "Italia."
Effective Music for Class and Concert Work, from that which "sings itself," up to Gounod's "Unfold Ye Portals."
Take the book all in all and it is one that will make class teaching a pleasure and delight to Teachers and Pupils.
Price, 60cts. each by mail, postpaid; $6.00 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen Pages Free.
PUBLISHED BY
JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

EDUCATIONAL.

TEACHERS WANTED—10 PRINCIPALS, 12 Assistants and a number for Music, Art, and Specialties. Application form mailed for p stage. SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU, Chicago, Ill. Mention this journal. jy17 1y.

WILEY UNIVERSITY.
MARSHALL, TEXAS.
Academic Year opened Sept. 22
No School Does More for its Pupils.
College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.
Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.
Competent and Experienced Faculty.
Expenses Very Low.
For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't,
oct9 Marshall, Texas.

Rust University,
Holly Springs, Miss.
LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.
BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.
FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.
"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.
Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

New Orleans University.
Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,
September 29 and 30, 1884.
The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.
Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.
Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts.
A. F. HOYT, A. M, S. T. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.
Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue,
sept4-3m New Orleans, La.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.
CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches	175 lbs	325 lbs	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	550 lbs	800 lbs	120 00
40 "	750 lbs	1050 lbs	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1800 lbs	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$13 00
20 inches	130 lbs	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.
The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.
On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal. (Copper and Tin.) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
feb1-26t-eow

BLYMYER M'F'G CO. BELLS.
Church School Fire alarm Fine toned low-priced warranted Catalogue with 1500 testimonials, prices etc sent free
Blymyer Manufacturing Co., Cincinnati, O.
july3 26teow

Central Tennessee College,
Nashville, Tennessee.
This College begins its nineteenth year on
Monday, September 8, 1884.
Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.
Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.
The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.
For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,
Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.
A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oc18 tf

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,
Cocoa and Canton Matting, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain Goods,
Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Plates, Wire Screens, Etc.
75 Camp Street ..... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct9-3m

Crescent Insurance Company.
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.
CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849 Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.
W. B. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.
TRUSTEES—
Joseph Poelling, Sam. H. Kennedy, Geo W Sentell, Alfred Moulton, W B. Conger
W. B. Lyman, U Marinoni, Chas. H. Dolsen, John Miller, A H. Howard
S. C. Coulon, Harry L. Black, Wm. A Poelps, J. J Reiss, Louis Prados
Lucien Delery, Charles Newman, N D. Wallace. Sigmund Katz, M Gillis
E. F W Buchman, C. K. David, Wm. Garig, A. Rosenfield, John O. Fiske
Chas E Rice, Joseph Kohn, Chas M. Whitney, James T. Rodd.
☞ See our Agents throughout the South. oc 9 1y.

CHILDS' CATARRH
Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS!
Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our questions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. F. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio
feb7-1y

THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL AND COTTON CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION
New Orleans.
Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.
—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—
United States Government.
$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.
Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.
The Biggest Exhibition, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.
APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.
The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.
For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. I. & C. C. E.,
New Orleans, La.

PILES "Anakesis" gives instant relief, and is an infallible cure for Piles. Price $1, at druggists, or sent prepaid by mail Sample free. Ad. "ANAKESIS" Makers, Box 2416 New York
oct4-1y

Established 1857.
The GREAT CHURCH LIGHT

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors for Gas or Oil, give the most powerful, softest & cheapest & Best light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Banks, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A Liberal discount to churches and the trade. Don't be deceived by cheap imitations.
I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl St., N. Y.
aug28-20t eow

HARTER'S THE ONLY TRUE IRON TONIC
Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power.
LADIES Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion.
Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST.
Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co. St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK." Full of strange and useful information, free.
may8-1y

CATARRH
AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Cough, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured, by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the bones of the nose have become affected. No douches, snuffs, washes, inhalers, or atomizers. The medicine are as pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Brockington has had fifteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and Fifty (50) cents (mere cost), for a trial package [by mail], to last fifteen days, with full instructions for treatment.
Address, Dr. C. N. BROCKINGTON,
309 FOURTH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, KY.
oc 21 1y

The Ministers' and Teachers' Bible.

This magnificent Teacher Bible is universally conceded by London and by Indorsed and Recommended by over 1000 leading Bishops of England, Ireland and Canada, and by Clergymen of the Church of New Testaments is Complete in all its Appendages of Bible Words: 40,000 References with Context; An Unequaled Concordance; A Dictionary of Proper Names, with Pronunciation, Etymology, etc.; Fourteen Colored Maps, Poetry, Music, Classical Engravings, Arms and Jewel Insignia of Orders, etc. Superior to all others. "A complete Biblical Encyclopedia." This Bible is printed in French morocco, gilt edges, with silk book-mark, and is the cheapest Bible ever published. Rev. Eli Mason, New York, writes "The Bibles received to-day are more than pleased." A Special Offer! To rapidly introduce this Bible in America we will, for a limited time, send one copy, postpaid, to any address on receipt of $2.00! Regular price of this Bible is $3.00! Send for terms and one copy of Revised New Testament or $4.00 Other Bibles, with less matter, sell for $15. Extraordinary inducements. AGENTS WANTED! Circulars FREE.
J. S. MAYO & CO., 160 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.
jan31-26teow

Sawing Made Easy.
MONARCH LIGHTNING SAWING MACHINE

SENT ON 30 DAYS' TEST TRIAL.
For logging camps, wood-yards, farmers getting out stove wood, and all sorts of log-cutting—it is unrivaled. Thousands sold yearly. A boy of 16 can saw logs fast and easy. Immense saving of labor and money. Write for elegantly illustrated catalogue in 6 brilliant colors, also brilliantly illuminated poster in 5 colors. All free. Agents Wanted. Buy money-made quickly.
MONARCH MFG CO., (A) 206 State St., Chicago, Ill.
septl8-13.eow

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Po ony in cans ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co aug28-1y 106 Wall Street, N Y

Sunday School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER LESSON IV. Oct. 26. THE TEMPLE BUILT. Kings vi, 1-14.

In the fourth year after Solomon became king he began the building of the first temple at Jerusalem known as Solomon's temple. His father, David, had prepared a great deal of material for it, and the son now made arrangements with Hiram king of Tyre, to furnish cedar and fur trees from Lebanon. He also drafted thirty thousand men, and sent them to the woods and quarries, a thousand at a time, to cut wood and stone. The plan of the temple was so perfect, that every block of stone or piece of timber, could be made all ready to put in its place before it was brought to Jerusalem. "So there was neither hammer or ax, nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was in building." There must have been something very strange and solemn in seeing this great and beautiful building going up silently as a vision, and yet remaining firm and strong. So the character of a Christian child is built up often quietly without any thing to attract attention, yet in a few years will be seen a man or woman well established in the right way and ready for the service of God. There were many different rooms and courts in this grand and elegant church. The most sacred was the Holy of Holies, in which was the ark with the golden mercy-seat. On the outside were plates of gold, which made it glisten so in the sunlight that the eye could not bear to look at it, and the stone was so white that at a distance it looked like a mountain of snow. While the work was going on, the Lord appeared to Solomon and renewed the promise he had made to his father, that if he would keep His commandments, God would be with him and his people Israel. If the young king had become discouraged in his great undertaking, these words from his divine Master cheered him to go forward until in seven years he had finished it. This was a very short time for that age of the world. The cathedral of Cologne was two hundred years in building. There is no better use for work and money than to put them into churches, where the Gospel will be preached and God be worshiped. It is a privilege to help even a little, as a child may do. Our Church Extension Society builds churches in new towns where the people are able to do it for themselves. If you put a nickel or a dime into that collection it will help make the dollars to send to some such place in the South or West. See if you can not save one.

Children's Work—Bible Mountains—VIII

1. In what final triumph will they be borne?
2. What is the most memorable climbing of a tree on record?
3. What made it an era in the climber's spiritual life?
4. With what aim had he climbed the mount?
5. With [illegible] feelings did he [illegible]
6. [illegible] words testified to [illegible]

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Centreville Sunday-school Convention.

BY REVS. J. M BUTLER AND J. H. REDDICK.

The Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's Sunday school Convention met at Charles Wesley M. E. Church, Centreville, Md, on Thursday morning, Oct. 2, 1884.

The only work done at this session was the appointing of a Committee on Nominations. The committee nominated as officers for the ensuing year and they were elected the following: President, Rev. C. H. Hutchins; Vice-President, Rev. J. A. Jones; Treasurer, Mrs. Catherine Scott. The meeting then adjourned, to meet at 3 p. m. Benediction by Rev. A. W. Hamilton.

Thursday afternoon the convention met, pursuant to adjournment, the President in the chair. Devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. J. A. Jones. Minutes of the previous session read and approved. The question, "What duties do parents and members owe to the Sunday-school?" was opened by the Rev. J. A. Jones, and discussed by Revs. J. H. Reddick and A. W. Hamilton, Bro. C. W. Jones and Mr. J. P. Forrester. Miss Alberta Bateman having prepared an essay upon the subject, she was allowed to present it, and it was ordered to be published in the minutes. On motion, it was ordered that each Sunday-school send a written report to Mr. Baker, and that each pastor see that said report is properly arranged. Notices were given, and the convention adjourned, with the benediction by Rev. J. H. Reddick.

Thursday evening quite a large audience greeted the convention at its session. Devotional exercises were conducted by Bro. C. W. Jones. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved. Mr. J. P. Forrester in a few well chosen words welcomed the delegates to Centreville and its hospitalities. The President responded. The question, "What relations Sunday-schools bear to the church?" was opened by Rev. A. W. Hamilton. The discussion was participated in by the Rev. J. H. Reddick and Bro. Adams. The question, "Ought Sunday-school teachers to be church members?" was opened by Rev. J. H. Mason. The discussion was participated in by Revs. Hamilton, Hutchins, Reddick and J. M. Butler. The prevailing opinion was, that membership in the church was not a necessary qualification for teaching. The question box was opened, and the questions were answered by Rev. Reddick in a humorous style. The session then adjourned, with the benediction by the Rev. C. H. Hutchins. All then repaired to the vestry, where a bountiful supper was prepared, to which all did ample justice.

Friday morning the convention opened in usual form. Minutes of the previous session read and approved. On motion, it was ordered that the President appoint a committee of three on resolutions, to take into consideration the reception of members, kindness of the citizens, conducting a convention, etc. Rev. J. H. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Forrester and Rev. A. W. Hamilton were appointed. Mrs A. J. Landman and Miss K. Elias were added to this committee. The question, "Have Sunday-school conventions been favorable to the cause?" was opened by Mr. Charles Hemsley. The discussion which was in favor of the holding of conventions was participated in by Revs. J. H. Reddick and Hamilton. Rev. J. H Reddick, Miss Kate D. Smith and Mr. J. P. Forrester were appointed a Committee on Constitution and By-laws. It was determined to hold the next convention at Millington, the second Friday and Saturday in September, 1885. Adjourned, with the benediction by the Rev. J. H. Johnson.

Friday afternoon meeting opened with singing and prayer, led by Rev. J. H. Johnson. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The Committee on Resolutions reported. See report. Reports from the schools were next heard. The 15 schools represented reported 1,196 scholars. The schools all organized into missionary societies, and are doing a grand work for the moral and spiritual welfare of the young. The question, "Does the present method of instruction tend to the spiritual advancement of the children?" was opened by the Rev. J. H. Reddick. The discussion was participated in by Revs. Reddick, Hamilton, Jones, Hutchins and J. M. Butler. The prevailing argument was not in favor of the present system. Convention adjourned, with the benediction by Rev. J. H. Johnson.

Friday evening the Rev. J. H. Reddick preached an eloquent sermon from Job. 38:7—"When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy," after which a collection was taken, amounting to $10.40. On motion, it was ordered the proceedings be published in the Baltimore Vindicator, SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE and the Delaware Conference Standard. The question box was opened by the Secretary, and the Rev. J. H. Reddick answered the questions. The convention adjourned sine die, with the benediction by the President.

Marriages.

At the home of the bride, Morgan City, La., Mr Henry Peoples to Widow Minnie Burke, Oct. 15, 1884, by Rev, H. C. Armston.

On Wednesday night, Oct. 15, a large audience assembled at Central Congregational Church, corner of Liberty and Gasquet streets, to witness the marriage of Rev. Frank Walker and Miss Delphine Green, daughter of widow Eliza Green The ceremony was performed in a very impressive manner, by Rev. I H. Hall, of Morris Brown Chapel. Miss Green leaves a large circle of warm friends to go to her husband's home in Mansfield, where the Rev. gentleman is at present stationed. Her education and musical talents, which are of no mean order, admirably fit her for the station of a minister's wife. She was elegantly attired in a princess dress of cream silk, en train, with the indispensable accompaniment of veil and orange blossoms. After the ceremony a large number of friends assembled at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 22 Ann street, where a pleasant reception was held. Many valuable presents were bestowed on the happy couple, and kind wishes will follow them.

An Irishman was asked for his marriage certificate. He slowly lifted his hat, revealing a large scar on the head, evidently done by a flat iron. This evidence was to the point. Our certificates are the praises of those who have experienced wonderful cures by the use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Books and Current Literature.

One thousand popular quotations, comprising the thoughts and sayings of eminent writers of all ages, together with nearly three hundred original and choice selections suitable for writing in autograph albums, compiled by J. S. Ogilvie. New York: Ogilvie & Co, 31 Rose street. Price 25 cents, paper.

Hinduism and the Hindu people, being the extempore addresses delivered by Ram Chandra Bose. Boston, by R. J. Long & Co.

What Fide Remembers, by Fay Huntington, New York. Thomas Y. Crowell & Co., 13 Astor Place; 21 chapters, 220 pages. It is a beautiful story, beautifully told, and it may with perfect safety be introduced into any home. No price stated.

From the publishers comes Red Letter Poems, by English men and women. The compiler has included only the best work of the authors, and the authors are the best to be selected. It is just what he claims for it, a Hand book of English poetry from the time of Chaucer to the present day. He has not feared to lay under tribute that which others had prepared to his hand, and by so doing given the readers not only the benefit of his own excellent attainments, but also of theirs. It is just such a work as one who loves the poets will want to refer to very frequently. Price not stated.

The Chautauquan, a monthly magazine devoted to the promotion of true culture, organ of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific circle. Theodore L. Flood, editor. Price $1 per year, Meadville, Pa The October number is at hand full of good things.

The Bible Society Record is at hand. It should receive a careful perusal.

The Times of Refreshing, a monthly record of Christian life and Christian Testimony. The October number is at hand, and it contains many blessed saving truths. Willard Tract Repository: New York, 239 Fouoth Avenue.

Established 1839. The Southern Cultivator and Dixie Farmer. The Georgia Grange, of Atlanta, Ga. The Rural Sun, of Tennessee. The Plantation, of Alabama. The Southern Farmer's Monthly, of Savannah, Ga. October, 1884.

The Outlook and Sabbath Quarterly, Alfred Centre, N. Y., October, 1884. Published quarterly by the American Sabbath Tract Society. Single copies, per year, 25 cents; ten or more, to one address, 15 cents. Address all communications to The Outlook, Alfred Centre, N. Y.

The Season, the ladies illustrated magazine, published at No. 3 Beekman street, New York; contains the newest Paris fashions and the most elegant designs in fancy work, needle work, embroidery, crochet, etc. The cuts exhibiting the different styles of dress are variegated and executed with much taste from steel plates.

The numbers of The Living Age for Oct 4th and 11th contain, the Liberal Movement in English Literature, and the Burning of Bristol, National Review; Concerning Chili, Fortnightly; The Dawn of the New Italy, Nineteenth Century; Science and Religion, and the Purgatorio of Dante, Contemporary; Pictures from an Island; or a Summer in the Baltic, and Life in St. Petersburg, Temple Bar; Mount Carmel, Sunday Magazine; Byron's Newstead, Athenæum; Landscape Gardening in the Parks, St James's Gazette; Migration of Fish, Daily Telegraph; The Finest City in the World, Spectator; with installments of "Beauty and the Beast," "Mitchelhurst Place," and "Abdoolah," and poetry. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

Miss Grace Denio Litchfied contributes a short story, "The Price I Paid for a Set of Ruskin," to the October Century. A three part novelette, "The Knight of the Black Forest," by Miss Litchfield, will begin in December, which, it is announced, Mrs. Mary Hallock Foote will illustrate.

Do not for a moment let your confidence betray you into supposing yourself incapable of mistake. It is indeed a serious blunder to refuse to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup when you even suspect you have taken cold.

The Methodist Church membership, of all kinds, in the United States, is 3,993,820, and the estimated number of people thus represented is about 20,000,000, or one-third of the entire population.

Some years since the Mason & Hamlin Company became interested in a plan for the improvement of upright pianos, which commended itself to their large experience as musical instrument makers, as promising to be of very great practical value. Realizing the fact that such an improvement rarely comes into existence part of the start, they have been for several years experimenting with, perfecting, and testing it. At last they announce complete success, and claim that the pianos with this improvement, which they have commenced to manufacture and sell, produce more pure, musical tones and are more desirable that those without it. They are more durable, and more easily tuned than other pianos, and will stand much better in tune.—Boston Journal.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conference.	Place.	Time.	Bishop
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	Wiley
South India	Hyderabad, in la	Nov 20	Hurst
Texas	Navasota, Texas	Nov 20	Hurst
Cent'l Alabama	Gadsden, Ala	Nov 26	Walden
Austin	Austin Texas	Nov 27	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec 3	Walden
West Texas	Waco Texas	Dec 4	Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La.	Dec 24	Harris

Jackson Dist.—Mississippi Conf.

Fourth Round.

Rolling Fork	Nov.	1- 2
Jackson	"	8- 9
Mt. Sarepta	"	8- 9
Canton	"	15 16
Madison	"	15 16
Bolton	"	22 23
Clinton	"	23 24
Edwards	"	27-
Vicksburg Circuit	"	29 30
Vicksburg station	Nov 30, Dec.	1-
Simpson	"	4-
Brandon	"	6- 7
Pelahatchie	"	12-
Trenton	"	13 14
Lake	"	16-
Hickory	"	17-
Forest	"	20 21

Let each pas or be ready to report a good benevolent collection. All of the committees are expected to be ready to make their reports. Dear Brethren, you will also see that a programme has been arranged for the centennial meeting to be held in Vicksburg commencing on the 24th inst. It is earnestly hoped that every minister in the district will be present, and as many friends within and without the district as possible can will be there. The pastor and members are making the greatest preparation to entertain all that may attend the meeting.

Yours fraternally,

J. M. SHUMFERT, P. E.

Columbus, Oct. 11, 1884.

Louisville District—Lexington Conference.

Fourth Round.

Chaplain	Nov.	1- 2
Fairfield	"	3 4
Wakefield	"	5- 6
Fincastle	"	8- 9
Frankfort	"	11 12
Loyd Street	"	15-16
Mt. Washington	"	22 23
West Circuit	"	26 27
Jeffersontown	"	29 30
East Circuit	Dec.	2- 3
New Haven circuit	"	6- 7
Samuel Station	"	9-10
Anchorage	"	13-14
Coke Chapel	"	20 21
Pewee Valley	"	27-28
Sulphur and Patton Creek	Jan.	3 4
Jericho	"	10-11
Jackson Street	"	17 18
Lagrange	"	25 25
Bedford	Jan. 1, Feb.	1-
Floyd Fork	"	7 8
Strawberry circuit	"	14 15
Simpsonville	"	21-22
Shelbyville	Feb. 28, Mar.	1-
Frankfort	"	7- 8

Be ye also ready.

W. W. LOCKE, P. E.

19.4 Shelby St., Louisville, Ky.

Special Notice.

A Sunday school convention for Navasota District will be held at Bryan, Texas, October 24 1884, at 2 o'clock p. m. All Sunday-school superintendents, teachers, pastors and members are expected to be present.

REV. W. B. PULLAM, Pres't.

B. M. TAYLOR, Sec'y.

Okolona Centennial Meeting.

To meet at Okolona, Miss., Oct. 12, 1884, and at Prairie Mount M. E. Church, Oct. 26, 1884:

The Discipline of the M. E. Church, and how we shall be governed by it—Jas. Cherrey.

The Missionary Society and its object—H. B. Gladney.

The Freedmen's Aid Society—L. Mallice.

The Church Extension Society—A. D. Bean.

Our Conference school and our relation to it—D. L. Tubbs.

The Tract Society and its object—L. Gill.

The Board of Education and its object—E. Dunnigan.

Yours in Christ, B. L NEVILS.

Notice.

To the Brethren of the LaTeche District—Mrs. L. J. Shallowhorne has been appointed to take charge of one end of the district to attend the Woman's Home Missionary Work, hoping to make this district come up in the annual conference second to no other. While Mrs. Shallowhorne will bring the sheaves from one end I will, with the Lord's help, bring the other end.

SUSAN BARKSDALE,

Pres't Woman's Home Missionary Work, LaTeche District.

Alexandria, La., Sept. 8, 1884.

Ashville District.

Fourth Round

Asbville	Sept.	20-21
Macedonia	"	27 28
Birmingham	Oct.	11 12
Enon	"	13-14
Village Springs	"	18 19
Blunt Springs	"	21 22
Blountsville	"	25 26
Centre	"	31
Howell's Cross Roads	Nov.	8-
Wedowee	"	8- 9
Lionsville	"	15-16
Oxford	"	22-23
Gadsden	"	24-

O. NELSON, P. E.

Texas Conference Notice.

Navasota, Texas—MR. EDITOR: Please insert the following notice to the deacons of the third class of the Texas Conference and others:

You are hereby notified to appear in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Navasota, on the 19th day of November, to be examined, it being one day before the setting of the Conference. All who fail to be here on that day are likely to give trouble to the examiners. According to the present railroad schedule there can be no difficulty in all brethren getting here in the day from both ways. All from the South can arrive here at 11:4 a. m., from the North at 2:17 p. m. Those who come by those trains will arrive here as follows: South, 10:10 p. m.; North, 3;30 p. m., as this will greatly inconvenience the conference committees on entertainment we hope all will try to come in the day time Nevertheless, we are aiming to make all happy who may attend the annual conference, especially the members and colleagues thereof. It will be well for the parties and accommodation to be for any member of the Conference expecting to bring his wife or daughter to give ample notice of the desertion.

J. E SHACKLEFORD.

For All Brain-workers.

Mr J. R. Francis, of the Religio Philosophical Journal, Chicago, says: "Parker's Tonic is the specific for all the ills that literary flesh are heir to. I have used it for digestive disorders, and for coughs, colds and pains generally. Workers on the Press, in the Law, the School and the pulpit will find it the right thing.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; put but [illegible] only; price, $2 50, or three bottles $6 50 Circulars free oct18 13t

If a child is properly nourished quiet nights and a joyous, happy childhood are the results Thousands of infants are previous and fretful because hear being starved owing to the inability of mothers to supply the proper nourishment. Ridge's Food will supply the deficiency better than any other article used, thousands have been successfully reared on Ridge's Food alone. Ridge's Food is put up in cans, four sizes at 35c and up wards. Sold by Druggists. WOOLRICH & CO., on label.

YOU CAN MAKE MONEY Fast in a pleasant business, address FIELDS, GRANT & CO., New Orleans, La.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

SOUTHWESTERN OFFICE, October 20, 1884.

LEADING STAPLES.

Readers will remember that the quotations given are for round lots, and higher prices must be paid for small orders.

COTTON, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 8¼; Middling 9 11 16; Good Middling, 10¼; Middling fair, 10¼.

SUGAR, ℔ lb—Yellow olarified, 5@5½; White clarified, 5¼@—; Common 3@4¼c.

MOLASSES, in bbls, ℔ gallon—Common, 11@13; fair, 14@18; choice, 40@—c.

RICE, Louisiana, ℔ lb—Common, 4¼@4¾ fair, 5@5¼; choice, 5¼@5¾.

MOSS, ℔ lb—Mixed, 2@2½; gray, 1@2; black, 3@4¼.

GROCERIES.

BUTTER, ℔ lb—Western, 20@25.

COFFEE, ℔ lb—Ordinary, 9¼; prime, 11¼.

CHEESE, ℔ lb—Western factory 9.

CORN MEAL, ℔ bbl—Choice, $2.75.

FLOUR, ℔ bbl.—Fancy, 4.10; Choice, 3.85; Family, 4.00.

LARD, ℔ lb—Choice, 7¼.

SALT, ℔ Sack—Coarse, .82½; Fine, $1.02½.

ESCULENTS—Irish potatoes, ℔ bbl., $1.80@2.00; sweet potatoes, ℔ bbl. onions, ℔ bbl. $1.75@1.80; apples, ℔ bbl $2 50@$3.50; cabbages, $1.25@1.50 per crate; sour kront, $4.00@4 50 per barrel.

OILS, ℔ gallon—Coal, in cases, 18@—; coal, in bbl. 13@—; linseed, raw, 62@63; boiled, 63@65; cotton seed, 28@50.

PROVISIONS.

MESS PORK, ℔ bbl—Choice, $16 55.

BACON, ℔ lb—Breakfast, 12; shoulders, 7½; sides, short rib, 11; sides, long clear, 11¾; hams, sugar-cured, 14c.

DRY SALT MEAT, ℔ lb—Clear rib sides, 10½; clear sides, 10½; shoulders, 6.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Louisiana Poultry—Grown chickens 3.50@3.75; young $2,00@$2 50; ducks, $2.00@2.50; geese $4.00@; turkeys $9.00@12.00.

Western Eggs 17@19c per dozen

Louisiana Eggs 20c per dozen.

Feathers—Best live geese feathers 50@75c. ℔ lb. second grades 15@25c.

Western Poultry—Grown chickens $5.50@$6.00 ℔ dozen; young do., $2.00@4.50; ducks $3.50@4.00—; geese $4.50@5.50; turkeys $12.00@15.00.

GRAIN AND FEED.

CORN, in sacks, ℔ bushel—Yellow, 65; white, 65; mixed, 65.

OATS, ℔ bushel—Western, 36

BRAN, ℔ 100 lbs—Choice, 75@77½.

15 Pounds Gained in Three Weeks, and CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

Messrs. Craddock & Co, 1032 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—Please send me twelve bottles of DR H JAMES CANNABIS INDICA, one each of Pills and Ointment, for a friend of mine who is not expected to live; and as your medicine cured me of Consumption some three years ago, I want him to try them. I gained fifteen pounds while taking the first three bottles, and I know it is just the thing for him. Respectfully,

J. V. HULL,

Lawrenceburg, Anderson Co., Ky.

THE Great American TEA COMPANY.

GOOD NEWS To LADIES!

Greatest inducements ever offered. Now is our time to set up clubs for our celebrated Teas and Coffees, and secure a beautiful Gold Band or Moss Rose China Tea Set, or Handsome Decorated Gold Band Moss Rose Dinner Set, or Gold Band Moss Decorated Toilet Set. For full particulars address THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA CO., P. O Box 289 31 and 33 Vesey st., New York oct23-13t

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE for every form of SKIN & BLOOD DISEASE, FROM PIMPLES to SCROFULA

ITCHING Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous, Inherited, Contagious, and Copper Colored Diseases of the Blood Skin and Scalp, with loss of Hair, are positively cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT the new blood purifier, cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements and removes the cause.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite prepared from CUTICURA, is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 25 cents; Resolvent $1 Prepared by POTTER AND CHEMICAL Co., BOSTON, MASS.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."

LADIES Gentlemen, Boys and Girls are making money rapidly with our Holiday Book for children. BRIGHT JEWELS Special premium offer. 318 Family Bibles, elegant Silk Plush Albums, GIVEN AWAY Union Publishing House, New York, N. Y.—Cincinnati, Ohio,—Atlanta, Georgia. oct23 4

WE WOULD LIKE TO PUT into the hands of every Sunday-school worker in the land a copy of "Letters from Sunday-school Singers and Workers." These "Letters" are enthusiastic commendations of our new Sunday-school book.

GRATEFUL PRAISE,

By J. H. FILLMORE.

And represents the opinions of Ministers, Superintendents, Chorister's, Teachers and School who are using the book. We send the "Letters" free to any address

Sample copy of GRATEFUL PRAISE mailed for 25 cents. Price per dozen, by express, $3 60; per dozen, by mail $4 Address FILLMORE BROS, 185 Race street, Cincinnati Ohio

N. B—This book is printed in patent figure notes for those who prefer that notation. oct9 4t

MASON & HAMLIN

Exhibited at ALL the important WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL COMPETITIVE EXHIBITIONS FOR SEVENTEEN YEARS, Mason & Hamlin Organs have, after most rigid examinations and comparisons, been ALWAYS FOUND BEST, and AWARDED HIGHEST HONORS; not even in one such important comparison American has any other Organ been found equal to them. One HUNDRED STYLES, adapted to all uses, from the smallest size, yet having the characteristic Mason & Hamlin excellence, at $22, to the best instrument which it is possible to construct from reeds, at $900 or more. Illustrated catalogues, 46 pp 4to, and price lists, free.

ORGANS

The Mason & Hamlin Company manufactures UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, adding to all the improvements which have been found valuable in such instruments, one of peculiar practical value, tending to greatest purity and refinement in quality of tone and durability, especially diminished liability to get out of tune. Pronounced the greatest improvement made in upright pianos for half a century. The MASON & HAMLIN CO., pledge themselves that every piano of their make shall illustrate that VERY HIGHEST EXCELLENCE which has always characterized their organs. Send for circular with illustrations, full description and explanation.

PIANOS

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO CO.,

BOSTON, 154 Tremont St. CHICAGO, 149 Wabash Ave NEW YORK, 46 East 14th St. (Union Square.) oct23-26t

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19--NO 44. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, OCTOBER 30, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 733.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

33 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

"From Erie's billow to remotest South;
From sands Atlantic to the Rocky Height,
And o'er its turrets to Columbia's mouth,
All yield to their indomitable might:
Their stateless territorial appetite,
Nor brooks restraint, nor honors mete or bound:
Where blooming vales, where fertile soils invite
The new born race, America is found,
Proving by potent deeds their title to the ground."

"Taylor, you are going along nicely. I am proud to see it."—J. C. Hartzell.

"You are doing well. God bless you in your responsible difficulty."—R. S. Rust.

The family of Rev. W. S. Lankford, of Cincinnati, it is said, will hereafter reside in Evansville.

Mrs. Areon Berry, daughter of Rev. Dr. Carey, of Cincinnati, is convalescing from a spell of serious illness.

"I like the SOUTHWESTERN, because it is brainy."—Rev. R. T. Huffman, pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Louisville, Ky.

Rev. W. C. Echols some time ago established a flourishing lodge of Masons at Maysville, Ky., of which he has been chosen Master.

"Marshall, I want your paper for your sake; be sure to send it."—Rev. W. R. Davis, pastor of Second Baptist Church, Paris, Ky.

"Send me the SOUTHWESTERN, it is a first rate paper."—Rev. M. Bell, pastor of one of the largest Baptist churches in Lexington, Ky.

We must ask our readers to read without fail our Domestic Hygiene; it will always be of use especially to housekeepers and heads of families.

The Greenbackers have just named Hon. Josiah Bagole for Governor of Michigan. Their rallying cry hereafter is to (be gold) Bagole.

So much greater is our cause of ... in the help of the Lord, ... enables us to overcome that ... is consistent with our Christ... to repine because of the ... of Satan.

Rev. W. W. Heston, of Troy, ... has been recently favored, ... church greatly edified by a ... stirring sermons, such ... of the Rev. E. ... presiding elder ... District.

... apply this ... warmth than Chris... ploughed ... long ... to right.

"I congratulate you on your election to an official editorship of your Church."—B. F. Tanner, Editor African Methodist Episcopal Church Review.

Five members of the Ninth Street Church choir, Covington, Ky., now take the SOUTHWESTERN. This is indeed a quick and favorable response to our recent hint.

The SOUTHWESTERN has to say to all God's people: "We bless you in the name of the Lord," and to wonder why they that go by do not say to us: "The blessing of the Lord be upon you."

The Psalms seem to be divided into three parts for devotional purposes: 1. Relating to individual experience and duty. 2. To family relations, privileges and duties. 3 To nations; their history and providential direction, illustrated under types of the career of the Israelites. They should be constantly read in Christian families.

Col. W. W. Peabody and Gen. W. B. Shattuck, of the Ohio and Mississippi Valley Railway, are large hearted, liberal gentlemen. Both of them have their names down for generous aid in the removal of Madisonville, Ohio, Methodist Episcopal Church to a more eligible site than it at present occupies.

It is wise to be godly. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all they that do his commandments." Where there is no fear of God there is folly, and the foolish reject his commandments, sometimes preferring to incline to their own understanding; as others, vainly serving God by teaching for doctrines the commandments of men, and holding the traditions of the elders in equal esteem with the word of the Lord.

Mr. Henderson Hill and Mrs. Sallie Washington were married at the residence of the bride, at 6 o'clock a. m., Saturday, Aug. 16, in Troy, Ohio. He has been twice and she once married before, her husband being the Rev. C. W. Washington, late of the Lexington Conference. Mr. Hill is a highly respectable and quite well to do gentleman. The parties had both been divorced by death, and though there is some dissimilarity in their ages, and only a few months since the death of the late husband of the bride, the wedding commends itself to the favorable judgment of the community.

Select Proverbs.

All are not saints that go to the Church.

Every man bows to the bush he gets shelter of.

Fair words and foul play cheat both the young and old.

Bells call others to church, but enter not in themselves.

Counsel is to be given by the wise, the remedy by the rich.

Better one's house too little one day than too big all the year.

A man knows his companions in a long journey and a small inn.

Before you make a friend, eat a peck of salt with him.—Scotch.

A man may live upon little, but he cannot live upon nothing at all.

Bishop Mallalieu will visit Texas, en route to New Orleans, and is not certain whether he will reside in New Orleans or at Austin.—Texas Methodist Advocate.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Women As Class Leaders.

REV. A. J. FORD.

Let us consider the propriety of appointing women as class leaders. Since the days of Moses women have had a very conspicuous place in the Church. Miriam, the sister of Aaron, prophesied, and all the women went after her and taught the people. Deborah, a prophetess, judged Israel in her day. At one time Moses said: "I would God that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them." There is no doubt that the manner and effect of these women acting in official capacities, brought such words from the great leader of Israel. Down the line of the old dispensation we can see that there was never was a time when women did not have something to do.

A woman secreted the two spies that Joshua sent from Shittim to view the land of Jericho. If the King had found those men, he would have killed them, but the hand of God was with them in that. He sent that Harlot to their rescue. She told the king: "There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were; and it came to pass about the time of shutting the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out; whither the men went I know not." She then advised him to pursue them quickly, saying: "For ye shall overtake them." She knew where they were; she had taken them and hid them among the stalks of flax, possibly in the garret. That act was a great help to Joshua.

We take now the Christian era, and we still see the women active in Christian work. There is Mary Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils; see her following the Son of God and annointing him with precious ointment, wiping his feet with her hair. The Disciples regarded this as quite a waste; they thought it might be sold, and the proceeds given to the poor. But Christ said: "Let her alone." Yes, and we say to-day, let the women in our churches have an equal chance, and they will make the men turn about. See Mary at the cross, while some of the Disciples were standing afar off, seemingly afraid to approach that dreadful scene. This woman, with others, stands near by almost exhausted, but they are still there to witness the last of their Redeemer. Judas has killed himself. Peter stands afar off, trembling. Thomas is gone. Look! yonder they are looking from afar; poor, trembling, discouraged and faltering men. He dies; they falter. He is taken down and entombed; they leave him, thinking possibly they have made a great blunder in following him. During the whole scene the women are there with aching hearts and straining eyes. Darkness appears, they are there. He cries: "It is finished;" they are there. The soldier pierces his side. These women see it all. They follow him to the tomb. They are the first to visit the tomb of the Master, and the first to witness His resurrection. They carry the news to the fearful-hearted Disciples. Then Peter and John go, but not until the Lord had sent for them. After the resurrection and ascension we still see the women aiding the Christian movement. Paul is arrested on his way to Damascus by Jehovah, and, realizing his conversion, begins to preach Jesus; is attacked, and is rescued by a woman. She lets him down out of a window in a basket, and saves his life. His first discourse was at a meeting of women; his first convert was a woman. Priscilla, the wife of Aquilla, rendered valuable service to Paul at Corinth, while preaching there. Then, when Apollos, an unconverted man, went to Ephesus, and there expounded the Scriptures mightily from Genesis even to the baptism of St. John, she heard him; and perceiving that he lacked something (that is the knowledge of Jesus Christ), she took him to her house, and there taught him more fully. He afterwards became a man of great usefulness, and was recommended by that church to the one at Achaia. Phœbe was a deacon of the church. She not only ministered to the sick and needy, but preached and performed other spiritual duties under the elders. From this we learn that the women taught Christian truths by personal application to the work.

We often find men in this, our day, who say that the office of class leader is too hard for a woman. I do not think that is so. If a woman can be a prophetess, she can be a class leader. If she can be a judge of such a people as Israel was, she can be a class leader. If she could confront such dreadful scenes as exhibited at the cross, she can be a class leader.

I have known ministers to object to women holding positions in the church, and they try to sustain their objection with Scripture, where Paul said: "Let your women keep silence in the church, for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the Law. If they would learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home, for it is a shame for women to speak in the church." Now, if the objectors would read a few more verses, they will be thoroughly convinced that Paul only referred to those that prayed or prophesied unveiled. I have known certain men who had such objections to be so convinced as to desire no other than women as class leaders.

A little more than two years ago a certain presiding elder was holding a quarterly conference in one of our churches. The class leaders were reporting the state of their several classes. After they were through the elder gave them some very plain talk on the dullness of their reports, when one of the leaders tendered his resignation. It was accepted, and a woman appointed in his stead. There were several brethren that were members of the class. They arose immediately and objected, saying they did not want to be led by a woman. The elder persuaded; finally they consented to try her. The result was grand. The condition of that class at the time of her appointment was very low; there were 19 members in it, and they gave only about 16 cents per member per quarter to the support of the Church. The male leader had reported a disturbance nearly every week. She had only been leader about 18 months, when the membership was increased to 27, and they 45 cents per member a month to the support of the Church. To my knowledge this sister only reported her class in a bad state four times during two years. I do not say that they obeyed her any better than they did the man, but this is true: she could quell a difficulty easier than he could. I have known this sister to work hard all the week at washing and ironing, and Saturday morning she would have her horse saddled and ride nine miles out in the country visiting her members; while the male leaders could scarcely find time to see their members, and they living in town.

It is often said that women are too timid for class leaders. If they could gather enough strength to stand around the cross in such perilous hours, they can stand before a class. If they are so valuable at home in giving counsel, they are valuable in the church as leaders. They are very often the best counselors a poor minister has.

Sometimes the male members think they are doing too much for the Church. The sisters scarcely ever entertain such an idea. There is Mrs. Wesley on her knees, giving John and Charles to the service of God. Mrs. Simpson, with her hand on Matthew's head, beseeching God to take him and make him a minister. Thank God their requests were granted, and to day they are saints go up through great tribulations, with robes washed in the blood of the Lamb. There is an influence that always accompanies a woman in the faithful discharge of her duties.

Take a woman of integrity and honesty of character, give her a class, and the results will be glorious. Oh, Lord, send on the day when every one of our churches will have women as class leaders! Oh, that some sister is this assembly may say: "Here am I; send me."

New Orleans.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

History of Union Chapel, New Orleans.

BY ANATOLE PANALLE.

Union Chapel is the largest Methodist Episcopal church in the State, and one of the largest in the South. It required many an earnest and determined effort on the part of its membership—all of whom are, as a general thing, a hard working class of people—to complete so extensive an enterprise. This work has recently been finished, however, and the building now bespeaks a credit to the Methodist community. It is void of superfluous ornaments, like all temples dedicated to the service of the Lord should be, and yet its 11 milky-white walls are agreeable to the sight. Its form is such, that the spectator knows he sees a church. The congregation of this church trace their origin back to the dark days of slavery, and, like the Methodists in America, or rather like all great and good causes, it found its commencement in a small beginning, with a few but true Christians, who had their meeting place in a small house on Gravier street in this city, and there they assembled as often as permitted to do so by their owners.

When Sunday morning came, and the sun would send forth its effulgent beams upon the inhabitants of this beautiful sunny South, proclaiming to all the people that the Christian's Sabbath had again come, no, not to all the people, for these old fathers and mothers in Israel must often steal their way to their meeting place, and at the risk of being placed in prison and punished besides. Here they met and mingled their voices in praise to God. We can easily conceive with what earnestness and eagerness these souls prayed to their Master. Who would not have listened, with profound interest at the simple and frank story of these few aged warriors on this eventful Sunday evening! A few soldiers only remaining, like the remnant that is left of a regiment, after having fought all the battles during a siege of many years. With what reverence we gazed upon those tried old Christian warriors, whose very countenance bears the impress made by the hardships incurred by their long pilgrimage, while the very love of God beams forth from their eyes. John Louis, George Washington, B. Gross, Julian Sparrow, Mary March, Rose Hays, Betsey Paul and Fannie Paterson were the only ones left, and present to tell us of this earlier history of Methodism in New Orleans.

Mr. Editor, we shall have to ask your indulgence in this instance for taking up so much space in your paper. Just this once, however, for we shall have gone hence ere the next Methodist Centenary, and these old fathers and mothers we write you of, like each petals are borne off from the stem, one by one by the evening zephyr, so shall they have passed away on time's fast fleeting pinions; but the Methodist Church, built on the Rock Christ Jesus, will last through all ages.

On the occasion here referred to, the pulpit and altar were beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens. The services were commenced at 6 o'clock in the morning, with prayer meeting, conducted by Revs. R. C. Barrow and Z. T. Gayden, and from that until 10 o'clock p. m., with the following ministers preaching very appropriate sermons in their turns: Revs. Stephen Priestly, J. Qualls, T. Jackson; elders L. P. Cushman and A. E. P. Albert. All these workers in the Lord's vineyard filled their appointments with much credit to themselves. The closing sermon, by Rev. Mr. Albert, upon Methodism, delivered at night, was a master-piece. Miss Josephine Coleman sang a sacred song, after which Miss Sophie Wilson recited an appropriate address, and now the people that had crowded the church all day, no doubt due to the well arranged plans of Mr. Stephney Priestly, the pastor of this church, and to whom much credit is due for his efficient management at this church during the last three years, were dismissed. Collection $65.

Never has the South made such rapid headway in educational and industrial pursuits as during the last several years. The issues which brought on the war, and those which arose out of it, are settled, or are safely on the road to settlement. No power on earth can re-enslave the Negro. Let a truly national party be organized and the attempts at disenfranchisement of the black man would come to an end as a matter of course. The temptation to "bulldoze" the Negro, grows out of the political necessity for a solid South. With the coming of a national party this necessity (or seeming necessity) would disappear.—The Voice.

Of course religion is always first and last with the colored man whether or not he especially controlled by the principles of Christianity.—Africo-American Presbyterian.

From the Districts.

Columbus District Conference.

REV. P. M. CARMICHAEL, P. E.

The third session of the Columbus district conference convened here September 18th, 1884, the presiding elder in the chair; session opened with the usual religious exercises. W. H. Davis, was chosen secretary; A. F. Kinnison, assistant. The presiding elder then addressed the conference, which will not soon be forgotten by those who heard it.

The preachers then began to bring up their sheaves, one by one, as the appointments are arranged. The reports of the preachers were encouraging, both spiritually and financially. Every department of the work has been looked after. The local preachers have been very faithful in helping their pastors when they had the opportunity.

There were no complaints by any of the preachers against the local preachers, with the exception of one and that was referred to the fourth quarterly conference.. Some complained on account of unacceptability but, Mr. Editor, you know how that is, the people as a general thing, they want the preacher in charge to preach all the time, though the local preacher may be as good and sometimes better than the preacher in charge, but they want the preacher in charge, just because he is the preacher.

The exhorters have been very busy visiting and praying with families, holding prayer meetings, attending revival meetings, etc.

The class leaders have been very dutiful holding class meetings and visiting, etc. The Sabbath school superintendents reports show that the Sabbath-schools are not all supplied with the right kind of literature yet. They were instructed to get the lesson helps and tract from our publishing house; which they agreed to do, and to make the Sunday-schools better all over the district. The district stewards reports were good, showing that the people were doing very well all over the district.

The presiding elder's report indicated that he had not eaten any idle bread. He had visited all his points with the exception of one, in which instance he was unavoidably prevented. His report further indicated that he and the preachers have been in perfect harmony all the year. Elder Carmichael is indeed a noble minister. His equals are few, while his superiors are hard to find. In accordance with the programme, spiritual attention was given to the Sunday-school work. N. H. Middleton, M. D., of the Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tennessee, conducted the Model Sunday school in an admirable manner. This was done at the opening of each evening session, during the first hour and a half.

SERMONS AND LECTURES.

The opening sermon was preached by Rev. M. O. Cavanas, on Wednesday night. Thursday night, Rev. L. Carper, the oldest member of the West Texas Annual Conference, preached. Bro. Carper is near eighty years of age, but, at times, his voice is nearly as strong as ever. His sermon was felt by all. May God bless those dear old fathers. Friday night, Rev. P. Gates preached the subject assigned him in the programme, showing the difference between the Methodist Episcopal Church and the other Methodist Churches.

At half past nine o'clock on Sunday the Sabbath school met. The session was conducted by Dr. N. H. Middleton. There were twelve classes; one hundred and seventy-three scholars, and thirty-eight verses were recited. Collection amounted to $6. The Dr. gave a good model as to how to conduct a Sabbath-school. The Centenary sermon was delivered at [illegible] o'clock p. m., by the presiding elder. The sermon showed that he had given it careful thought. The collection collected at this service and [illegible] amounted to $30 35. [illegible] Rev. Lee Reed preached an instrumental sermon, well directed and did the people the good desired. The sacrament was administered to two hundred and nine persons. Monday morning the conference met to transact the unfinished business. Several essays were read and criticized. Some of the brethren had taken books and copied from them, all such were not credited. The brethren were severe in their criticism, but perfect order prevailed throughout the meeting We all could say: "It is well to be here." The conference adjourned.

W. H. DAVIS, sec'y.

Columbus, Texas, September 30th, '84.

Letters from the Pastors.

Tenola Edwards, Leona, Leon county, Texas, writes: "We held our fourth quarterly conference October 4th. A quorum of the official brethren were in attendance. Our newly appointed presiding elder conducted the business of the conference very creditably, giving general satisfaction. The sermon delivered by him, Sunday, was very interesting. The congregation numbered about four hundred persons; the Lord's supper was administered to one hundred and three persons. We have built a fine church at Leona, 20 by 38, our quarterly conference was held in it. The presiding elder's collection amounted to $14.15. The Rev. Sanders, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and Mr. D. M. Carleton, a steward of the same church, attended service during the same Sunday evening, and witnessed the elder's discourse. The Rev. Taylor, of Madison circuit, preached at night. Our opponents, out here, say we have white bishops over us. Yes, this is true and we love them too, furthermore we intend to wait until the Lord sees fit to send a colored bishop."

H. May, Pine Ridge, Miss., writes: "This is my first year on the New Hope circuit. I took charge of this work the fourth Sunday in January and found it in a very good condition, all things considered. We held our fourth quarterly conference on the sixth inst., in the Gallatin Methodist Episcopal Church. W. McDonald, our beloved presiding elder, occupying the chair with a full conference. Twenty one class leaders' reports were received, which indicated a general improvement, both spiritually and temporally. We have had many conversions this year and 205 added to the Church. I have had four appointments, and was nine years at three, and if I can stay here two more years it will be twelve years at four circuits. I shall have the best benevolent collection this year of any before. I expect to bring up all of our assessments. We have three good Sunday-schools on this circuit, with a large average attendance. Pray for us. Paid the presiding elder to date $34, pastor $274.95."

Rev. W. H. H. Gallion, Macon, Miss., writes: "I was appointed here by bishop I. W. Wiley, LL. D.D., at our annual conference. I have found the people of this place, a benevolent people. They have paid the pastor's salary up to the date of this writing. Now we have before us the benevolent enterprises of the church, and our aim is to be second to none; we want to be a part and parcel of those who will adhere to the grand Centennial Jubilee in the South, in raising the amount asked for, and I, for one, expect to be heard from at our next annual conference in regard to this very important call, and I hope the whole Mississippi conference will fall in line, and do likewise. If we will but remember what our old mother has done for us, in days gone by, and what she is still doing, we will be aroused from our slothfulness and answer her call with $500, the amount asked for."

M. Brown, Meridian, Mississippi, writes: "Matilda Bird, a little girl, only seven years old, at a Sunday school session, recited thirty-two verses, for which she was given a prize valued at $17.50."

H. T. Rich, Pocomoke, Md, writes: "We held our quarterly conference October 6th. Our presiding elder, W. C. Coffee, was present, and we had a real pleasant time. Pocomoke is getting on nobly. We are now protracting a mourner's meeting from which we hope for good results."

Frank Walker, Mansfield, La., writes: "Mr. Editor—God has blessed us here this year. At a protracted meeting just closed sixteen souls were converted at Mansfield; seven at Shady Grove. I feel that God is leading us to victory."

Jas. W. Lewis, Woodlawn, La., writes: "I thought I would let you know what we are doing. We are thankful to say, that, we are moving along grandly; the heavy debt which has hung like a cloud over our heads for sometime, is being paid very fast, and our people are getting encouraged to do more for the Master. We have preached on our mission causes and my people say I shall have the money. The sugar crops are in a grand condition and the farmers are now busy in repairing their mills for work. A few have all ready begun work. Our Woman's Home Missionary Society is second to none on the Lafourche district. At their regular monthly meeting, a few days ago an election for officers was held and the following persons were elected: Mrs Judy Parker, president; Mrs. J. W. Lewis, vice-president; Miss Elmira Francis, second vice-president; Miss Carrie Tunsan, secretary; Mr. Dennis King, assistant; Mrs. Monette Brown, receiving secretary; Mr. Randall Harris, treasurer; Alex. Legar, marshal; Andrew Morris, assistant. The following are the committees: Mrs. M. Amos, Josephine Hill, Jenny Blackell, Lutache Francis, Fanny James, Mary E. Amos, Miss Cemore. The Sabbath school gave an exhibition October 4th, the church was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreen. Among others the following pieces were spoken: Opening pieces by Miss Eliza Pugh; Independence Bell, by Hattie R. Thompson; "We are seven," V. Riley; "O my offended God," L Brown; "White plarau's grave," Vnnie Hoddson. There were about 60 others who spoke. The singing was excellent."

Rev. T. G. Montgomery, writes: "First Street reports that they have commenced a protracted meeting and have received three on probation, one convert and four in full membership. There seems to be a good spirit in the church, sinners at the altar for prayer, and we are having a good time. Pray for the sinners that may be converted to God."

The many friends and members of Bro. J. Massey, at Martin, Tenn., celebrated his birth-day on October 4th. Those here named were active movers in this pleasing enterprise: Bro. Ben. Ridley, of the Baptist Church; Prof. A. A. Clemmens made a speech and presented a present; Miss Belle Silverloot, Miss Mollie Woods, Miss McNealy, Mrs. Jane Yeats, Mrs. Jane Shepard, Mrs. Rose Adams, Miss Leana Martin and Miss Ida Branch.

W. M. Parks writes from Bernando: "Our third quarterly conference convened on the 27th of September, with Elder J. C. Eckles presiding. After scripture reading and prayer by the elder, Solomon Newsom was appointed Secretary pro tem, J. L. Wilson, permanent Secretary being absent. Reports were then called and the brethren responded with written reports, showing good success in their work. Four additions were made to the church previous to our conference meeting. Six others were added to the Church during Conference. On the 28th the Elder preached from 1 Timothy, 2d chapter and 8th verse, which reads as follows: "I will, therefore, that men pray everywhere." The sermon was very interesting and instructive. Collection was then taken and the amount of $11.15 was collected. After a short intermission the services were again opened at 2:30 p m. We Then had an old-fashioned Methodist love feast; seventy-four communing; during which time there seemed to be an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. At 8:30 p. m, we had another interesting sermon from the Elder, text will be found in some portion of St. Luke. Collections were again called, and $5 10 received. Total amount collected in all was $16 90. Amount paid to the elder $10; to the pastor, $45.90. Our Sunday school is also doing well. On the 5th inst Sister Nellie Bell departed this life in full triumph of faith, leaving a husband and family to mourn her loss. Sister Mollie Hawkins departed this life on the 13th of October, 1883; she too, died in full faith, and requested the following song be sung at her funeral: "And must I be to judgment brought, to answer in that day." After conference adjourned we carried on a protracted effort, which resulted in much good. Things look very promising at present."

J. L. Sissell, writes: "The Methodist Episcopal Church at Sharpsburg, Lexington District, Lexington Conference, was dedicated, free of debt, Aug. 12, 1884. The time of dedication proved to be a great day in Zion. The services were as follows: At 11 a.m., Rev. H. A. Southgate preached to a good audience; at 2 p. m. the presiding elder, Rev. H. W. White, preached an able sermon in which God was pleased to make his presence manifest among the people. Afterwards the dedicatory services were conducted by the elder, pastor and visiting ministers. At 8 p. m. Rev. S. Buckner, a local preacher of great power, occupied the pulpit and discoursed beautifully to a very large congregation. The building is frame, neatly built, 32x40 feet, belfrey and bell, at a total cost of $1500, of which the last $158 was raised on the day of dedication."

The M. E. Church.

Whispers from the Mission Rooms.

The Mission Rooms were greatly rejoiced to receive, jointly with the American Board, a cablegram from Foochow, on Wednesday, the 5th of September, announcing the safety of our friends at that station. Our property is also considered safe. God be praised.

Missionary collection in Norway and Sweden, as usual, a habit worthy of emulation. We hear of an increase in nearly every department of this work. The missionary collection reported is 3,014 26 crowns for 1884, an increase over last year of 237 57 crowns. The past year has been crowned with success. Bishop Hurst won all hearts by his kind and careful way of managing the work. Success is to be expected whenever conscientious patient labor is the characteristic of the church.

To the Presiding Elders of the Tenth General Conference District:

I have prepared printed blanks covering the points upon which I desire information from your respective Districts. The points are: The number of domestic missions, collections for Missions and Church Extension, average amount of claims and receipts for ministerial support, not including the missionary appropriation; number of new churches and the amount received from Board of Church Extension; number of conversions and accessions, and the advantages of a general missionary and church extension compaign. Please collect the facts, and be prepared to fill blanks; and in case any of you fail to receive blanks write me fully upon the points above alluded to.

Yours truly,

T. B. FORD,

Representative Tenth General Conference District.

Siloam Springs, Ark.

GREENVILLE, CT., May 8, 1883.

"Was attacked with severe kidney disease. HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY was advised, and one bottle completely cured me."—Chas H Alexander, Foreman Dye House, Shawsheen Mills.

"I will certify to the truth of the above."—John A. Morgan, Druggist, Greenville, Ohio.

Tennessee Conference.

The nineteenth annual session of the Tennessee Conference met in Memphis, Oct. 16, at 9 o'clock, Bishop Bowman presiding. O. O. Knight, of the Central Tennessee Conference, conducted the opening religious exercises. The roll of conference was called by J. Braden, the former Secretary, and forty-three of the fifty-six members answered the call. On motion of J. Braden, L. M. Hagood was unanimously elected Secretary, S. P. Bell was elected assistant, and E. M. Manson, M. Williams and H. W. Simmons Statistical Secretaries. The following letter on fraternal relation, from the Central Tennessee conference, was presented by Thomas Cotton, of that Conference:

To the Bishop and Members of the Tennessee Conference, to meet in Memphis, October 16, 1884:

Dear Fathers and Brethren—We avail ourselves of this opportunity of expressing to you our profoundest sympathy and Christian affection. God has most signally blessed you in your educational work and in your Sunday-schools; and through these agencies and the preaching of the Word, great revivals have visited you and blessed you with a growing spirituality, increasing numbers, and the erection of new and neat places of worship. That you have met with much opposition in this good work we are fully aware, for such is our own experience in this land, where old Methodism is repeating its history. But when the world opposes God blesses, and while you have as tokens of your devotion to humanity and to Christ, privations, ostracism, persecutions and martyrdom, yet you have stronger tokens of God's favor, and we earnestly pray a continuation of his blessing upon you.

L. W. CHANDLER.
Sec'y C. T. Conf.

The letter was received, and J. A. W. Moore, J. Braden and B. B. Manson were appointed a committee to draw up a suitable response to this letter of sympathy. The usual routine business of fixing the bar, the time of meeting and adjourning, and the appointing of the standing committees was speedily dispatched. The examination of character was taken up and the presiding elders made their reports and the entire list of elders were called. The questions relating to supernumerary and superannuated members of the conference were all disposed of before the hour of adjourning arrived. Rev. John Seay, the oldest member of the conference, and a superannuate, is over 90 years of age, and is full of interest in the success of the work of the conference, and, having disposed of his earthly affairs, is waiting patiently for the coming of the summons to call him home from labor to reward. The statistical session of the conference was held in the afternoon, and at night a rousing temperance meeting was addressed by Rev. O. Knight, of the Central Tennessee conference; J. Braden, L. M. Hagood, A. Phillips, of the Tennessee Conference; Rev. A. M. Trotter and Rev. J. O. Eckles, presiding elder of Holly Springs District, both of the Mississippi Conference. This is the first session of this Conference ever held in Memphis. Our Church is not very strong, and it is to be regretted that our larger church is so often nearly empty. The city is dusty and the weather warm. The hospitality of the colored people meets the requirements of the occasion fully, and the Conference is well entertained.

Dr. M. W. Taylor, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, is the only General Conference member present thus far at this session.

Second Day.—The business of the Conference on the second day included the classes of examination, which were passed on or graduated without exception. S. P. Bell, Beauford F. Whitley, Henry Dunlap were graduated in the full course of study and elected to elder's orders. Julius S. Sinclair, a probationer, had died during the year. John W. Hall, Albert P. Blakemore, George C. Harden and Charles L. Fields were called forward and addressed most pointedly yet with the utmost kindness on the duties of a Methodist preacher. The classes having answered all the questions, including the tobacco test, satisfactorily, and having been reported by the examining committee as fair on the course of study, were admitted into full connection. Dr. Taylor spoke in the interest of the SOUTHWESTERN, and told of the pressing need of promptness on the part of the members of the conference in paying their bills. The preachers find themselves unable to meet all their debts because, in numerous cases, the members who subscribed, and took and read the SOUTHWESTERN did not pay for it. I hear of several brethren who will lose many dollars in the aggregate because these subscribers are dishonest, and they profess to be followers of Wesley whose rules forbid Methodists of to day taking up goods without a probability of paying for them.

The anniversary of the Missionary Society is to be held to night, and the centenary meeting of the Conference to-morrow night.

J. BRADEN.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct 17.

Baptism.

P. H. WADE.

What is Baptism, and what is it for? If a man is not baptized and loves the Lord, and keep His commandments; if he loves his neighbor as himself, is it possible that doing all these and failing to be baptized, that he will be condemned in the judgment.

John III. 5: "Except a man be born of water and of the spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of heaven." I am a Methodist but I am inclined to the Baptist belief on baptism. I don't believe a man is baptized right unless he is buried under the water. Matt. III. 16. "And Jesus, when He was baptized, went up straightway out of the water." Now it is a dead moral certainty that he could not come out of the water, if he had not went in it. Paul says: "One baptism," and in another place he says: "buried in baptism." I have seen a manuscript that was said to have been written during the time of Ezekiel, and translated into English. It had the Greek word Baptizo for immerse. It said the words in the old Testament, "I pour clean water on you," was not meant for baptism. I am tangled a little and don't know how to fully express my meaning. Please explain this for me. Sometimes I think I am an orator. I can almost see thoughts floating in the air, but cannot reach up and get them. So I have to give it up. I wish some good writer would take up this subject for me.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Result of Gambling.

G. A. PAYNE.

If not an intrusion, please allow me space to say a word about the shameful conduct of young men in this place. Our neighborhood seems to be headquarters for the young gamblers of the country round about here. On the twenty-third of September, two of them got to fighting over their games and one was killed dead. This was in St. John the Baptist parish. Then, on September twenty fourth, a young man from Hahnville, St. Charles parish, was shot dead on account of gambling and the murderer has not been seen since. We hope he may soon be caught and punished as his deed deserves. I write with the hope that the publication of these shocking occurrences may favorably affect the citizens of this community, and by their help and the help of God we may be able to stay this avalanche of deathly immorality and bloodshed. Pray earnestly for us, that the law may be justly enforced, the guilty punished and the innocent protected.

Hahnville, La.

Thousands of people attended the funeral of A. M. Sullivan, in Dublin, on the 20th.

Old Deacon Dobson boasted that he was always "prepared for the worst;" and so he was, for he always kept Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in the house, regarding it the only safe remedy for coughs and colds.

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 44. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, OCTOBER 30, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 733.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

33 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

Terms: $2 per Year, Cash in Advance.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cas

Editorial Notes.

"From Erie's billow to remotest South;
From sands Atlantic to the Rocky Height,
And o'er its turrets to Columbia's mouth,
All yield to their indomitable might:
Their stateless territorial appetite,
Nor brooks restraint, nor honors mete or bound:
Where blooming vales, where fertile soils invite
The new born race, America is found,
Proving by potent deeds their title to the ground."

"Taylor, you are going along nicely. I am proud to see it."—J. C. Hartzell.

"You are doing well. God bless you in your responsible difficulty."—R. S. Rust.

The family of Rev. W. S. Lankford, of Cincinnati, it is said, will hereafter reside in Evansville.

Mrs. Areen Berry, daughter of Rev. Dr. Carey, of Cincinnati, is convalescing from a spell of serious illness.

"I like the SOUTHWESTERN, because it is brainy."—Rev. R. T. Huffman, pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Louisville, Ky.

Rev. W. C. Echols some time ago established a flourishing lodge of Masons at Maysville, Ky., of which he has been chosen Master.

"Marshall, I want your paper for your sake; be sure to send it."—Rev. W. B. Davis, pastor of Second Baptist Church, Paris, Ky.

"Send me the SOUTHWESTERN, it is a first rate paper."—Rev. M. [illegible] Bell, pastor of one of the largest Baptist churches in Lexington, Ky.

We must ask our readers to read [illegible] Domestic Hygiene; it will always be of use especially to housekeepers and heads of families.

The Greenbackers have just [illegible] Josiah Begole for Governor of Michigan. Their ratification hereafter is to (be gold)

[illegible] greater is our cause of [illegible] in the help of the Lord, [illegible] enabled us to overcome that [illegible] is consistent with our Christianity, to replace because of the [illegible] of Satan.

W. W. Heston, of Troy, [illegible] has been recently favored, greatly edified by a [illegible] sermons, such [illegible] of the Rev. E. W. [illegible] presiding elder [illegible]

[illegible] apply this [illegible] with than [illegible] Christ [illegible] ploughed [illegible]

"I congratulate you on your election to an official editorship of your Church."—B. F. Tanner, Editor African Methodist Episcopal Church Review.

Five members of the Ninth Street Church choir, Covington, Ky., now take the SOUTHWESTERN. This is indeed a quick and favorable response to our recent hint.

The SOUTHWESTERN has to say to all God's people: "We bless you in the name of the Lord," and to wonder why they that go by do not say to us: "The blessing of the Lord be upon you."

The Psalms seem to be divided into three parts for devotional purposes: 1. Relating to individnal experience and dnty. 2. To family relations, privileges and duties. 3 To nations; their history and providential direction, illnstrated nnder types of the career of the Israelites. They should be constantly read in Christian families.

Col. W. W. Peabody and Gen. W. B. Shattuck, of the Ohio and Mississippi Valley Railway, are large hearted, liberal gentlemen. Both of them have their names down for generons aid in the removal of Madisonville, Ohio, Methodist Episcopal Church to a more eligible site than it at present occupies.

It is wise to be godly. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all they that do his commandments." Where there is no fear of God there is folly, and the foolish reject his commandments, sometimes preferring to incline to their own understanding; as others, vainly serving God by teaching for doctrines the commandments of men, and holding the traditions of the elders in eqnal esteem with the word of the Lord.

Mr. Henderson Hill and Mrs. Sallie Washington were married at the residence of the bride, at 6 o'clock a. m., Saturday, Aug. 16, in Troy, Ohio. He has been twice and she once married before, her husband being the Rev. C. W. Washington, late of the Lexington Conference. Mr. Hill is a highly respectable and quite well to do gentleman. The parties had both been divorced by death, and though there is some dissimilarity in their ages, and only a few months since the death of the late husband of the bride, the wedding commends itself to the favorable judgment of the community.

Select Proverbs.

All are not saints that go to the Church.

Every man bows to the bnsh he gets shelter of.

Fair words and foul play cheat both the young and old.

Bells call others to church, bnt enter not in themselves.

Counsel is to be given by the wise, the remedy by the rich.

Better one's house too little one day than too big all the year.

A man knows his companions in a long journey and a small inn.

Before you make a friend, eat a peck of salt with him.—Scotch.

A man may live upon little, but he cannot live upon nothing at all.

Bishop Mallalieu will visit Texas, en route to New Orleans, and is not certain whether he will reside [illegible] Orleans or at Austin.—Methodist Advocate.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Women As Class Leaders.

REV. A. J. FORD.

Let ns consider the propriety of appointing women as class leaders. Since the days of Moses women have had a very conspicuons place in the Church. Miriam, the sister of Aaron, proshesied, and all the women went after her and tanght the people. Deborah, a prophetess, jndged Israel in her day. At one time Moses said: "I would God that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would pnt his spirit npon them." There is no donbt that the manner and effect of these women acting in official capacities, bronght snch words from the great leader of Israel. Down the line of the old dispensation we can see that there was never was a time when women did not have something to do.

A woman secreted the two spies that Joshna sent from Shittim to view the land of Jericho. If the King had fonnd those men, he would have killed them, bnt the hand of God was with them in that. He sent that Harlot to their rescue. She told the king: "There came men unto me, bnt I wist not whence they were; and it came to pass about the time of shutting the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out; whither the men went I know not." She then advised him to pnrsne them qnickly, saying: "For ye shall overtake them." She knew where they were; she had taken them and hid them among the stalks of flax, possibly in the garret. That act was a great help to Joshua.

We take now the Christian era, and we still see the women active in Christian work. There is Mary Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils; see her following the Son of God and annointing him with precions ointment, wiping his feet with her hair. The Disciples regarded this as quite a waste; they thought it might be sold, and the proceeds given to the poor. But Christ said: "Let her alone." Yes, and we say to-day, let the women in our churches have an eqnal chance, and they will make the men turn abont. See Mary at the cross, while some of the Disciples were standing afar off, seemingly afraid to approach that dreadful scene. This woman, with others, stands near by almost exhansted, but they are still there to witness the last of their Redeemer. Jndas has killed himself. Peter stands afar off, trembling. Thomas is gone. Look! yonder they are looking from afar; poor, trembling, discouraged and faltering men. He dies; they falter. He is taken down and entombed; they leave him, thinking possibly they have made a great blunder in following him. Dnring the whole scene the women are there with aching hearts and straining eyes. Darkness appears, they are there. He cries: "It is finished;" they are there. The soldier pierces his side. These women see it all. They follow him to the tomb. They are the first to visit the tomb of the Master, and the first to witness His resurrection. They carry the news to the tearful-hearted Disciples. Then Peter and John go, but not until the Lord had sent for them. After the resurrection and ascension we still see the women aiding the Christian movement. Paul is arrested on his way to Damascus by Jehovah, and, realizing his conversion, begins to preach Jesus; is attacked, and is rescned by a woman. She lets him down ont of a window in a basket, and saves his life. His first discourse was at a meeting of women; his first convert was a woman. Priscilla, the wife of Aqnilla, rendered valuable service to Paul at Corinth, while preaching there. Then, when Apollos, an unconverted man, went to Ephesns, and there expounded the Scriptures mightily from Genesis even to the baptism of St. John, she heard him; and perceiving that he lacked something (that is the knowledge of Jesus Christ), she took him to her house, and there taught him more fully. He afterwards became a man of great nsefnlness, and was recommended by that church to the one at Achaia. Phœbe was a deacon of the church. She not only ministered to the sick and needy, bnt preached and performed other spiritnal dnties nnder the elders. From this we learn that the women tanght Christian trnths by personal application to the work.

We often find men in this, our day, who say that the office of class leader is too hard for a woman. I do not think that is so. If a woman can be a prophetess, she can be a class leader. If she can be a judge of snch a people as Israel was, she can be a class leader. If she could confront such dreadfnl scenes as exhibited at the cross, she can be a class leader.

I have known ministers to object to women holding positions in the church, and they try to snstain their objection with Scripture, where Paul said: "Let your women keep silence in the church, for it is not permitted unto them to speak; bnt they are commanded to be nnder obedience, as also saith the Law. If they would learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home, for it is a shame for women to speak in the church." Now, if the objectors would read a few more verses, they will be thoroughly convinced that Paul only referred to those that prayed or prophesied unveiled. I have known certain men who had such objections to be so convinced as to desire no other than women as class leaders.

A little more than two years ago a certain presiding elder was holding a quarterly conference in one of our churches. The class leaders were reporting the state of their several classes. After they were through the elder gave them some very plain talk on the dullness of their reports, when one of the leaders tendered his resignation. It was accepted, and a woman appointed in his stead. There were several brethren that were members of the class. They arose immediately and objected, saying they did not want to be led by a woman. The elder persnaded; finally they consented to try her. The result was grand. The condition of that class at the time of her appointment was very low; there were 19 members in it, and they gave only about 16 cents per member per quarter to the support of the Church. The male leader had reported a distnrbance nearly every week. She had only been leader abont 18 months, when the membership was increased to 27, and they 45 cents per member a month to the support of the Church. To my knowledge this sister only reported her class in a bad state four times during two years. I do not say that they obeyed her any better than they did the man, bnt this is true: she could quell a difficulty easier than he could. I have known this sister to work hard all the week at washing and ironing, and Saturday morning she would have her horse saddled and ride nine miles ont in the country visiting her members; while the male leaders could scarcely find time to see their members, and they living in town.

It is often said that women are too timid for class leaders. If they could gather enough strength to stand aronnd the cross in snch perilons hours, they can stand before a class. If they are so valnable at home in giving counsel, they are valnable in the church as leaders. They are very often the best counselors a poor minister has.

Sometimes the male members think they are doing too much for the Church. The sisters scarcely ever entertain snch an idea. There is Mrs. Wesley on her knees, giving John and Charles to the service of God. Mrs. Simpson, with her hand on Matthew's head, beseeching God to take him and make him a minister. Thank God their requests were granted, and to day they are saints go[illegible] np through great tribulations, with robes washed in the blood of the Lamb. There is an influence that always accompanies a woman in the faithful discharge of her dnties.

Take a woman of integrity and honesty of character, give her a class, and the results will be glorions. Oh, Lord, send on the day when every one of our churches will have women as class leaders! Oh, that some sister is this assembly may say: "Here am I; send me."

New Orleans.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

History of Union Chapel, New Orleans.

BY ANATOLE PANALLE.

Union Chapel is the largest Methodist Episcopal church in the State, and one of the largest in the South. It required many an earnest and determined effort on the part of its membership—all of whom are, as a general thing, a hard working class of people—to complete so extensive an enterprise. This work has recently been finished, however, and the building now bespeaks a credit to the Methodist community. It is void of superfinous ornaments, like all temples dedicated to the service of the Lord should be, and yet its 11 milky-white walls are agreeable to the sight. Its form is such, that the spectator knows he sees a church. The congregation of this church trace their origin back to the dark days of slavery, and, like the Methodists in America, or rather like all great and good causes, it found its commencement in a small beginning, with a few but true Christians, who had their meeting place in a small house on Gravier street in this city, and there they assembled as often as permitted to do so by their owners.

When Sunday morning came, and the sun would send forth its effulgent beams upon the inhabitants of this beautiful sunny South, proclaiming to all the people that the Christian's Sabbath had again come, no, not to all the people, for these old fathers and mothers in Israel must often steal their way to their meeting place, and at the risk of being placed in prison and punished besides. Here they met and mingled their voices in praise to God. We can easily conceive with what earnestness and eagerness these souls prayed to their Master. Who would not have listened, with profound interest at the simple and frank story of these few aged warriors on this eventful Sunday evening? A few soldiers only remaining, like the remnant that is left of a regiment, after having fought all the battles during a siege of many years. With what reverence we gazed upon those tried old Christian warriors, whose very countenance bears the impress made by the hardships incurred by their long pilgrimage, while the very love of God beams forth from their eyes. John Louis, George Washington, B. Gross, Julian Sparrow, Mary March, Rose Hays, Betsey Paul and Fannie Paterson were the only ones left, and present to tell us of this earlier history of Methodism in New Orleans.

Mr. Editor, we shall have to ask your indulgence in this instance for taking up so much space in your paper. Just this once, however, for we shall have gone hence ere the next Methodist Centenary, and these old fathers and mothers we write you of, like each petals are borne off from the stem, one by one by the evening zephyr, so shall they have passed away on time's fast fleeting pinions; bnt the Methodist Church, built on the Rock Christ Jesus, will last through all ages.

On the occasion here referred to, the pulpit and altar were beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens. The services were commenced at 6 o'clock in the morning, with prayer meeting, conducted by Revs. R. C. Barrow and Z. T. Gayden, and from that until 10 o'clock p. m., with the following ministers preaching very appropriate sermons in their turns: Revs. Stephen Priestly, J. Qualls, T. Jackson; elders L. P. Onshman and A. E. P. Albert. All these workers in the Lord's vineyard filled their appointments with much credit to themselves. The closing sermon, by Rev. Mr. Albert, upon Methodism, delivered at night, was a master-piece. Miss Josephine Coleman sang a sacred song, after which Miss Sophie Wilson recited an appropriate address, and now the people that had crowded the church all day, no doubt due to the well arranged plans of Mr. Stephney Priestly, the pastor of this church, and to whom much credit is due for his efficient management at this church during the last three years, were dismissed. Collection $65.

Never has the South made such rapid headway in educational and industrial pursuits as during the last several years. The issues which brought on the war, and those which arose out of it, are settled, or are safely on the road to settlement. No power on earth can re-enslave the Negro. Let a truly national party be organized and the attempts at disenfranchisement of the black man would come to an end as a matter of course. The temptation to "bulldoze" the Negro, grows out of the political necessity for a solid South. With the coming of a national party this necessity (or seeming necessity) would disappear.—The Voice.

Of course religion is always first and last with the colored man whether or not he especially controlled by the principles of Christianity.—Africo-American Presbyterian.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Hoyt, Shumpert, Davis and the Baby.

PROF. S. W. LEWIS.

We have had in our midst for the past several weeks, the great evangelist, Hoyt, who has done a great work in the harvest field of our dear Master. Though his labor has been confined chiefly among the whites, he exemplified his Master's doctrine of being "no respector of persons," and we were not neglected. He preached with much zeal, force and power that the church, gathering fresh energy and determination, dedicated itself anew to the work of evangelization. Just on the eve of his departure from our midst, Elder Shumpert, dropped in on us to hold his third quarter. Finding the church aglow with zeal and flames of sacred love that were kindled by communion with the Holy Spirit, he caught inspiration from this and preached with impassioned ardor and wonderful impressiveness of manner, his theme of the Cross. With a love for his work Elder Shumpert, combines the happy faculty of knowing what to say, how to say it, and when to say it. He is always full of his subject, but never exhausts himself. Like a safe banking establishment that honors its drafts at sight, keeping always the necessary reserve funds; he meets his obligations to edity with the word, both in season and out of season. His reasoning power is deep without being obscure. I never hear him, but Denham's lines in his Cooper's Hill is recalled:

"Though deep, yet clear, though gentle, yet not dull; Strong, without rage; without o'erflowing, full."

With remarkable intuitiveness he perceives at once the character and temperament of his audience, and with the old fashioned Methodist characteristic of adoptability to all circumstances, he blends himself with their sympathies and endears himself in their hearts.

Our present minister in charge, Gov. A. K. Davis, has ably and acceptably filled our pulpit for the past two years. Like Lynch and Revels, he has had all fame save of political honors and with them has abandoned the political field, the State for the Church, the crown of political honors for the cross of Christ. His health, which has not been good for years, has greatly retarded the success that might otherwise have attended his labors.

Intense bodily suffering not unfrequently prevents him attempting pulpit duty, and when less aggravated, this work is necessarily confined to short periods of time. Familiarity with sufferings excites wonder at his accomplishing as much as he does; but zealous for the prosperity of the Church, he cheerfully sacrifices personal considerations, therefore, and very often, it is thought in obedience to his own rigid notions of personal responsibility under the most trying circumstances. He reminds you of Cowper's description of the pastor who "conscious of his awful charge, exhorts that the flock he feeds shall feel it too."

In the pulpit he never fails to fix attention upon him. Like Elder Shumpert, he too is full of his subject. There is a peculiar freshness and vigor about his sermons that like fruits just issued from the orchard and please on account of their newness and brightness. Without using notes, his efforts betray careful preparation; himself the connecting link between the study and the pulpit, his discourses give you an insight of the hard labor of the one and the rigid faithfulness of the other. In his domestic and public life, his actions, conversation, manner and deportment meet the popular idea of what a clergyman should be. To all these and conditions he counsels an onward and upward march.

The [illegible] of this quite recently bereaved little infant daughter, [illegible] too sweet for [illegible] the society of [illegible] While minister (Bro. Davis) with his sublime utterance greatly mitigated her grief. God sometimes steps down into His garden and plants a flower, or often takes from the fold an innocent lamb and shelters it in His bosom, to tempt the old ones to follow. Such is His life among us, a guide post pointing heavenward. He:

Like a bird each fond endearment tries.
To tempt his new-fledged off pring to the skies,
He tries each art, reproves each dull delay,
Allures to brighten worlds and leads the way.

Canton, Miss., September 26th, 1884.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Before and After the Saloons.

BY ANDREW J. HOWARD, ESQ.

We once had two saloons at this place. The saloon keepers said that they made their money principally off the Negro. During their stay we were in a sad state as a community; very little could or would be done for God. Many members frequented the saloons. The church, as is generally the case, was in a dilapidated condition. The Lord sent some prohibitionists here and they got into our hearts, and of course we can not have saloon keepers; so the saloon keepers were routed. Since then we have a good church and bell, a good school room, a grand Sunday-school, and a public school numbering more than two hundred. We are more united as a neighborhood, as a people, as a body of Christians; and now nearly everything seems to be on the road to prosperity. All this was the result of God's presence and the absence of saloons. The SOUTHWESTERN has a good chance at the saloon keeper; smite him whenever and wherever you can. Our beloved pastor, A. Lemons, is now carrying on a protracted meeting, and there are many penitents. Pray for us.

Ebenezer, Miss., Oct 2, 1884.

Africa.

The treaty recently negotiated with King John of Abyssinia has been officially published. In this King John binds himself to abolish slavery and the slave trade within his dominions.

The German African Society has organized a new expedition to explore the southern basin of the Congo. It will be directed by Lieutenant Schultze, accompanied by two other lieutenants and two physicians.

The Portuguese government has concluded with the company of the submarine cable from Cadiz to the Canaries, and from the Canaries to Senegal, a contract for the establishment of a cable from Senegal to Bolama, Saint Thomas and Loanda. The Portuguese possessions of the western side of Africa will thus be united with Europe.

According to the Moniteur des Consulats, the Sultan of Anfali has written a letter to the President of the French Republic offering him his friendship and the passage over his territory of the caravans from Obock to the Choa. In exchange he solicits the protection of France against the invasions of the Egyptians.

An agricultural and industrial society having its seat at Batna has been established to give an impulse to the colonization of the south of Algeria. Its property is situated in the region of the Oued Rir', whose oases have become very prosperous owing to the abundant irrigation furnished by the artesian wells sunk under the direction of M. Jue.

The Cape Times announces that Dr. Holub has started on his exploration, with three wagons, one of them containing merchandise which they will not need before reaching Zambeze, the second provisions for the journey to the river, the third scientific apparatus. At Colesberg he will remain some time to study the fossil formation of the neighborhood. During his sojourn at the Cape, he will make collections of insects, fish and birds, to fill eighteen cases which will be sent to Europe.

Dr. Hopfner, who last year made an exploration of the basin of Ombire and Damaraland in reference to mining interests, proposes to visit, in company with a young German naturalist, Ovampo, and to penetrate from thence into equatorial Africa. A member of the society of geography of Bremen has given him good astronomical instruments. In return he will give this society the reports and maps which he will prepare.

Georgia Conference.

Bremen, Ga., October 15.—Bremen enjoyed a sermon by Bishop Walden on last night, giving much encouragement to the work of church building, and co operating in the grand work of the world's redemption. His theme was on the revelation of God, as the Christian's Father by the Son, the great teacher and mediator—the revealer. It was the first time we have had a bishop to preach for us. He left to day for Birmingham, where he is to hold the Alabama conference. Rev. Dr. J. Mitchel remains over to day to finish for the time his work of providing Monnt Zion Seminary with seats and desks. He goes to Sonth Georgia as presiding elder.

APPOINTSMENTS.

Atlanta district—W E Tarpley, P. E. Atlanta, Marietta street, J A Thurman; Carroll, R H Waters; Cherokee, to be supplied by J C Sorrow; Dawson, J J Donahoe; Haralson, R P Lumpsden; Jasper, to be supplied by W J Westbrook; Joneboro, E F Dean; Mossy Creek and Mt. Zion, J B Wilkins; Pike and Upson, to be supplied by S T Robinson; Rocky Spring and Walton, W H Sullivan; Simpson, A F Ellington: S M Merrill, chaplain, United States army; J L Fowler, Sunday-school agent.

Dalton district—H Boyd, P E. Blairsville, D A Sullivan; Cassandra, D W Cook; Dalton, to be supplied by R H Robb; Hiawassee, to be supplied by C B Corn; LaFayette, to be supplied by A H Mitchell; Morgantown, B M Hipp; Mountain-town, T G Chase; Resaca, J H Dunn; Spring Place, J J Hurley; Toccoa, P P Carroll; R H Robb, president Ellijay Seminary.

Sonth Georgia district—James Mitchell, P E. Burnt Fort and Charlton, to be supplied; Clinch and Downs, to be supplied; Decatur, to be supplied; Glynn and Wayne, to be supplied; Mt. Zion and Tatnell, A H Bazemore; Thomas and Brooks, to be supplied.—Atlanta Constitution.

Church Extension.

The work of the Church-Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the last four years has been mighty. The following is from the Secretary, Dr. Kynett:

General funds, for donations, etc.	$184,074 59
Loan fund, for loans to churches	180,990 35
Given from use during the quadrennium	818,227 71

With these receipts, churches have been aided as follows:

By donations only	1,085 churches.
By loans only	185 "
By donations and loans	400 "
Total	1 671 "

The amount received for special frontier churches, included in above receipts, is $45,750, which has secured the erection of 182 churches on the original plan of 400 new churches on the frontier, worth at least $1,250 each, secured by special gifts of $240.

From the organization of Church-Extension work, to October 31, 1884, the close of the last fiscal year, the receipts have been:

On general fund	$1,513,670.24
On loan fund	507,605.89
Loans returned	302,817 83
Total	$2,324 093.96

With the loan fund loans have been made to the amount of $650,572 90, aiding 1.198 churches, worth about $5,175,000, containing 350,000 sittings.

The total number of churches aided from the beginning is 4,354.

America has accepted the invitation to take part in the African conference. Bismarck will probably preside.

SANITARIUM, Riverside, Cal The dry climate cures. Nose, Throat, Lungs, full idea. 36p, route cost free.
Mar. 27 26teow

Christmas and New Year.

To Pastors, Sunday-school Workers, Committees on Education, and Friends of the Methodist Episcopal Church: In many places, owing to the newness of the medal idea in June, 1884, and also to the urgency of preparation for Children's Day, no steps were taken to secure the Centenary Historic Medals. Indeed, we are informed that some purposely deferred efforts to circulate the medals till the time of the fall and Christmas Centenary meetings, while some are in donbt whether they can or cannot still be procured. In these circumstances it seems important to be made known that the opportunity is still open. For the information of all inquirers, circulars have been printed descriptive of two new styles of issue, and containing specimens of notices from the press, showing with what favor the medals have been received in all parts of the country. These circulars, together with other valuable reading matter, will be promptly sent to all applicants.

No pledges will be required of any who receive the documents referred to, but if any, on reading them, see occasion for action in behalf of the great and good cause in the interest of which the medals are issued and Centennial liberality invoked, their patronage and cooperation will be highly appreciated. Pastors and Sunday-school superintendents who have not seen the medal, but will agree to use diligent efforts for its circulation, can have a specimen in the original style of issue (in paper box, $1) sent free. Medals in cases will only be delivered on receipt of $2 for the gilt and $4 for the solid silver, or a responsible order for the same.

Note the following extract of an article which will appear in the editorial colnms of the Sunday School Journal for December:

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

Just at this time everybody is thinking about Christmas presents, and looking for something appropriate as a gift at the joyful Christmas tide. We would recommend to teachers and superintendents in Methodist Episcopal Sunday-schools the elegant Centenary Medal, prepared by the Board of Education as a memorial of the hundred years of organized Methodism in our land. It has recently been issued in a new style of frame and casing worthy of the Church and the cause which it represents.

These medals will be appropriate as presents to Sunday-school superintendents and other officers, and will not only aid one of the noblest of our Church enterprises, but also serve as valuable heirlooms for generations to come.

For circulars or medals, address the Educational Secretary, 805 Broadway, New York.

Have You Nasal Catarrh?

Use DR JAMES the preparation of EAST INDIA HEMP; they will prevent the Catarrh entering the Bronchial tubes or lungs, thereby warding off Consumption, and keep the disease locat d until positively cured. Put yourself fully under the influence of these remedies, and as sure as the sun rises upon you a complete cure will be made of that loathsome disease.

N B—This remedy speaks for itself. A single bottle will satisfy the most skeptical and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours.

Ask your druggist for DR. JAMES' CANNABIS INDICA, and if they fail you, send to us direct. Price, $2 50 per bottle, or three bottles for $6 50. Pills and Ointment, $1.25 each. Address Craddock & Co., 1032 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

In Ohio 11 Democrats and 10 Republicans were elected to Congress.

"I owe my Restoration to Health and Beauty to the CUTICURA REMEDIES."

Testimonial of a Boston lady.

DISFIGURING Humors, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching Tortures, Scrofula, Salt Rheum and Infantile Humors cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the cause.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair.

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite, prepared from CUTICURA is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure, and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 25 cents; Resolvent, $1. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON, MASS.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle

Trade Mark

THE BEST TONIC.

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol 1) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rescue of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 5
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homilectics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures New Testament: Chapters XIX XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry	3 00
History of Rationalism.—Hurst

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism.—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition.—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00 1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	40
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course of the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Whitelieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT.
32 Natchez St New Orleans.

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.
aug14-1y

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Express for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its bab stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day an Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1884.

New Subscribers.

A Liberal Proposition.

The numbers of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE for the remainder of 1884 will be supplied free to all NEW SUBSCRIBERS who will send us Two Dollars cash with their names. No name entered under this proposition until the money is received bv us. This will allow subscribers to receive the paper fourteen months for the price of one year's subscription. The subscriptions under this proposition will expire January 1, 1886. Let pastors, church members and readers of the paper generally tell this to their friends. We feel sure that if this is done a large addition will be made to the subscription list. We will send out specimen copies on application. Address

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez Street, New Orleans.

Keep, and Demand the Keeping of Contracts.

Whatever you do, do it well. After it is done see that you are paid according to contraot, and see that there is a legal contract made before you begin. In trade see that yon have what you want, buy what suits you, and pay promptly for what you get. If change is made see that you have to a cent what is due you. We saw a lady hand a ferry collector a quarter from which to take twenty cents the round trip fare for herself and another. He gave her no change, and she seemed to be too timid to demand the five cents which was coming to her. We called on the gentleman and he paid it. In this way no doubt much money is lost. See that you get the right change before you leave the person and spot where your business is transacted.

Societies and the Church.

The colored are as a rule, an impulsive, emotional people, incapable until well disciplined of accurately discriminating between the olaims of interests which they espouse. Hence the arising difficulty or conflict of interest between the duty they owe the Church and the amount of time devoted to their numerous and ever increasing benevolent or other associations. With the white people there is an equitable division of duties, and therefore no friotion. There must be an adjustment of these difficulties sooner or later, by a more or less energetic process. Since the societies lay their members under penalties for non-attendance at meetings, and many institutions include a juvenile department, it is all the more essential that the agreement to regard the Christian conscience of their members be observed. The societies may be good and useful, but no other society is as good as the Church of Christ.

Help Them.

We know a dozen young ladies who are graduates, who are pure as angels in morals, whose parents have spent all their living to keep them pure and make them useful. Under the circumstances which ever attend good looking colored girls, they have had a hard time, but have succeeded in carrying out their intention. These girls do not want to teach. There is a very discouraging element in public school teaching, where the School Boards are made up of a certain class of city politicians. As young ladies have to be brought in contact with them in order to secure employment. This difficulty will be obviated when women are elected to School Boards, as they should be now and when to be married will be no longer a disqualification for teaching. These girls are at the head of a long list of young ladies in want of an honorable work of any kind. Who will help them?

The Moralizing Tendency of Proper Church Locations.

Our observations of the character of churches in different localities for a number of years leads us to the conclusion that the location of a church has very much to do with deciding the olass and character of its attendants. We think it may be set down as a law of society, that certain people will visit a church in one locality, who will not do so if it is in another, even though the distance from their starting point should be equal, or even in favor of the one they do not attend.

There is frequently something in the locality, per se, which either impels or expels the people, and acting conversely if the classes of people be reversed. When the locality has nothing objectionable in itself or denizens, there may be such liability to the congregation of hard people, because of its isolation from the centres of population, absence of light and pavement, and police regulation as tend to to repel a more orderly, and attract persons of the opposite type.

Isolated localities are, as a general thing, noted for the noisy and ludicrous character of the services held in them. When the condition of the locality is unobjectionable and of the right character, and the adjacent population are quiet and orderly, the worship and worshippers will gradually partake of this character, superinduced by the presence of these quiet people, either at or in hearing of the services. If people whose conduct is generally bad attend a church located in this way, they are speedily improved in manners, if not in morals, also by this congregatiqual contact with a people of more refinement, and power to enforce upon others conformity to their rules. This applies with the greatest force to colored congregations, and reveals the impolicy of forcing them to congregate in isolated and out of the way localities. The tendency is always downward; they are never improved to any great degree in such places.

To force a colored congregation, for either poverty or prejudice, to locate in suburban, swampy or disreputable localities, is to invite immorality, and indirectly encourage manifold vices, while to aid them in coming right into the heart of the best population is to moralize and uplift them. Many of the good effects of the large-hearted benevolences bestowed upon the freedmen have been as good as thrown away, because of forces which conspired to cast them in such localities.

They must be under restraints, or they will not keep order. These restraints must at first be the demands of surrounding society, succeeded by a growing love of the worshippers for order.

If it is agreed that all communities desire improvement of all their citizens, then must it be also agreed that those communities which force their colored citizens to such localities are unwise to the extent of defeating their own desires for the freedmen's betterment. Will our white people think of this in relation to the elevation of the Negroes?

Dwelling Together in Unity.

We have not, in a good while, enjoyed a more agreeable call than one which was recently paid us by the Rev. Dr. S. W. Speer, of the Kentucky Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Dr. Speer is a son of the royal line. He is straight as an arrow, nearly six feet high, hair and beard as white as snow. He is as active and earnestly at work for the Master as ever. He will present three new churches on his circuit at Conference. He has secured the passage of prohibitory liquor law for his county, and is decidedly interested in the welfare of the colored people. He raised the first subscription for the mission to China before the separation, and recommended the policy now in vogue of teaching in both the English and Chinese languages. In 1865 he was stationed at Hopkinsville, Ky. At that time there was great unrest among the colored people, many of whom were fleeing for freedom to the North. He had charge of a congregation composed of both races, and earnestly advised the colored people to remain and wait at home, that their freedom would come to them in due season. His advice was taken, not another one left; and in due time freedom did come. He organized thirteen circuits of colored members in that vicinity, and this was the nucleus around which the colored Methodist Church in America subsequently formed. Mrs. Dr. Wm. F. Warren, of Boston University, is the niece of Mrs. Dr. Speer. He believes in real Christian fraternity, and thinks that the counsel of the preachers of his Church ought always to be available for the help of our colored ministers in those sections where they are thrown together in labor and alone represent Methodism. He is well known in and around New Orleans to both colored and white people. He was pleased to give us kind references to Bishops Keener and Parker and the New Orleans Advocate. We shall probably be favored with something from his pen in the future. How refreshing it is to be permitted occasionally to meet these venerable and blessed heroes whom Methodism has developed, and who have made Methodism what it is under God. He is not the first of the preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church South who have made us to rejoice in their friendship and acquaintance. So mote it be ever. He taught a number of his colored members to read.

Christ's Conferences.

Which may be arranged according to the parties with whom he conferred, who were as follows:

First. Nicodemus, with whom he discoursed on the new birth, and the necessity for believing in him.

Second. The woman of Samaria, with whom he discussed on living water and spiritual worship.

Third. The Pharisees, whom he reproved for setting aside God's commands by their traditions.

Fourth. The Sadducees, with whom he discoursed concerning the resurrection.

Fifth. The lawyers, whom he told which was the first and greatest commandment, and who was our neighbor.

Sixth. The people with whom he spoke concerning the bread of life and the spiritual manna, and their senselessness in not acknowledging him to be the Messiah.

Seventh. His disciples, whom he reproved for struggling for supremacy.

A Service in Winan's Chapel New Orleans.

First Street Church, Winan's Chapel, Montgomery, pastor—Snuday, September 7th, general class opened by M. W. Taylor reading hymn and prayer. Just seventy-five persons present when the meeting opened. Bro. Montgomery is a full blood African, seems to be intelligent and worthily situated at one of the better Churches in the Metropolitan city of his conference. The house is a fair one, of wood, somewhat antique in all its surroundings. The high close fence and strong gate reminds one of the feudal ages. The people are whole souled and full of the old time Methodist fire; thank God for Methodism and its sameness wherever the Gospel and the Discipline is rightly used.

Bro. Charlie Bnokner, formerly a slave of Gen. Leslie Combs and a native of Lexington, Kentuoky, was our first acquantance. He laid hold on us because we were both corn-crackers; perhaps some of his friends of thirty-four years ago may see this and remember and be glad to learn of his where abouts. Father Green, of Maryland, is white and noble, he spoke most fatherly of his semi-blindness and its usefulness to him in helping his reliance upon Him who leadeth the blind in their blindness, or giveth them sight, as He pleaseth. The feature of greatest promise was the freedom and earnestness with which the Sisters laid hold on the worship of the hour. One of them prefaced her story of experience by that grand old hymn.

Guide me, oh thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land.

Let the women be true and come boldly forward in the Lord's work. said one: "When I was converted, I was not a sleep. I am a Christian nine years ago I was a wanderer."

One brother said "he met the editor at the African Methodist Episcopal General Conference, in St. Louis. So many true, real hearty, and generous things were said of the SOUTHWESTERN and its editor that we must confess our heart was warmed as it has not been in a good while. "I owe the paper fifty cents and I mean to pay," said one. "I am going to take the paper said another," and all of this right along mixed in with a blessed olass of religious experiences, just as we have written it. An old man with gray hairs, said: "He was new in the cause but he meant to staud." If yon want to learn of God live for Him. Some people do not seem to remember that "low is the way to the highway of holiness." "If I fail I will get up again and tell the devil it was not a fair fall. If you have not plenty of the Holy Ghost in you as you go down to Jordan, the devil will get there first." If you want the patience of Job, you must expect to use it as Job did, so you must ask for Job's trials with his patience. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

Our first Sunday in New Orleans.

Editorial Perambulations.

Our misconnection gives a better chance for observation in Nashville. Riding ont Broadway you come to Vanderbilt University, with Roger Williams just beyond it; while towering up from a prominent elevation in the distance to your right is in plain view the handsome buildings of Fisk University. The two latter accessible to all, bnt mainly used for the education of colored, and the former exclusively devoted to the training of white students. Our own Central Tennessee College loses nothing by contrast with either of these institntions except as to location. It is situated in a low place, and the nearest point to a street oar is two sqnares away. In point of efficiency along its lines of work it rather gains than loses by contrast with the others. The faculty has been reinforced of late by the addition of several new members, viz: Rev. Thomas M. Dart, Teacher of Languages and Literature; Prof. H. B. Frey, colored, Assistant in Mathematics and Laugnages; Miss Mary E. Greenly, teacher in the normal department; Mrs. Lizzie Saunders, matron; Mr. Belden, snperintendent of the industrial department; and Dr. R. W. Keeler, Dean of Theology. This latter gentleman is an acquisition to the teaching force of the institution whose valne can scarcely be estimated. He is well prepared for his work by education, and has the other indispensable qnality of a ripe experience in the things he is to teach. He has been forty years a preacher, three times sent to General Conference, and twice appointed presiding elder, besides being entrusted with the performance of many other important services to the Upper Iowa Conference, of which he is a highly esteemed member. Upon his departure for entrance npon his dnties in the college his conference was pleased to give expression to the following sentiments of brotherly regard for him, viz:

RESOLUTIONS RESPECTING REV. R. W. KEELER, D.D.

Whereas, We learn that Rev. R. W. Keeler, D. D., has been elected Dean of the Theological School in the Central Tennessee University, and that he has accepted the position; therefore, be it Resolved, That we hereby record our high appreciation of the scholarship, energy of pnrpose, and thoroughly religious character of our dear Bro. Keeler.

Resolved, That as preacher, counselor, administrator, student and pastor he has always ranked high.

Resolved, That in breadth of mind, catholicity of spirit, wealth of heart, loftiness of endeavor and faithfulness to duty he has but few equals.

Resolved, That we heartily assure him that we shall pray that the blessings of Almighty God may rest npon him and his family, and upon his new field of labor.

Resolved, That we bid him God speed on his mission, and shall welcome him on his return.

Signed, E. L. Tharpe, Wm. F. King, Horace E. Warner, J. T. Crippin. Adopted by the Conference October 8, 1884, and approved by Samuel W. Heald, Secretary.

Dr. Keeler meets a cordial reception from the students and the SOUTHWESTERN. He enters the work with a courage and determination that gives reason to hope for both suitable buildings and an endowment of the theological department there. We hinted in our last that we evaded accepting an invitation for dinner at the College, but we were not so successful about supper. The Braden home is a beautiful model of consistency to principles, highly cultivated; their theories are correspondingly high and widely divergent from the prevalent theories around them, but heedless of this isolation they bring reals fully up to the high measure of their ideals. It was as beautiful as it is rare to behold the table in their home surrounded by the Bradens, the Keelers and the writer in aristocratic Nashville, with never an expression to indicate the uniqueness of the situation. We do not press for these things. In fact we do not think, under all circumstances, it is better to do it too much, but we greatly honor people who practice what they preach, and carry their convictions into action, no matter what the cost may be.

Under the efficient management of Dr. Hubbard the Meharry Medical school is having an era of great prosperity. Ont of 41 graduates from this department all of them are in active and snocessful practice but 8. We shall yet hear more in detail of these, as we have the promise of Mrs. Hubbard to furnish our patrons with this desirable information. The great and pressing need of the College at this time is suitable furniture for the sleeping departments of the girls, and we are sure that the liberality of the ladies of our Methodism will, in this, as in every case of want in any department of our Church work, prove fully able and willing to meet and supply this demand. If some friend would write to Mrs. Barnes, the preceptress, they could find a way to employ five or ten dollars so that the Lord would very greatly bless both gift and giver.

——

Leaving Nashville by the C. & K. line, at 7.45 p. m., we ran into Memphis at 5 a. m. Bro. Samnel Body and daughter, bound for the conference, here are with us, and we stop with their relatives, who reside in this place, for breaktast. While waiting, a good sister, who was herself visiting, like Bro. Body, in the hnut of relatives sold from them before the war, said to us: "Ain't this nice, sitting here after six o'clock in the morning, and no horn blowed yet. I never will forget how the white folks done me in Paul's time." She said, as the tears began to run down her rugged black but handsome face, "When I go up to heaven I'll carry the marks on me. Why, it makes me cry for joy to think about all these preachers come here to 'tend to business on Thursday, in the middle of the week. Why, ain't it a change!" she continued. And then, inquiring whether we were ever a slave and felt the rod, she said, "Brother, you don't look like you felt slavery like I did; you ain't got the mark." We made the best reply we could, for it won't do to at all to times confess that yon were so unfortunate as to be born not a slave.

At 7 o'clock we strated for the seat of conference. We inquired of twenty persons where the church was but no one could tell us; the last was a woman with a long stick in her mouth and a bottle with brown dust in her hand. Upon inquiry she informed us, what we previously suspected, that she seldom ever went to church. We found the place at last and had a full compensation in the hearty welcome, so cordially extended to us by the brethren. We found our home with Rev. Mr. Ashley, of the St. Andrews African Methodist Episcopal Church, and had Dr. Braden for our room mate two nights; the third night he left us, and spent the remainder of the time with an excellent white family in the city, who desired to share in his entertainment and society. There are about 60 members of the conference, mostly youngish men and rather bright looking, but it is clear they have improved as rapidly as some others, whose chances have not been as good theirs to learn.

Calvin Pickett, Hilliary W. Key, and James Pickett are the leaders of the old class; Jesse P. Price, James Primm, and C. H. Bullington may be set down as leaders among the middle aged men; and Lewis M. Hagood, John W. Pickett, Charles Marbrey, E. M. Manson and A. Phillips, lead among the young men. Dr. Braden, Dr. W. Patterson and Prof. Thomas M. Dart are also members and occupy the place of teachers, both in the conference and the College. It is quit a hopeful body, and they were pleased to pledge themselves to renewed exertion in behalf of the SOUTHWESTERN. Rev. O. O. Knight, one of the first workers since and the last before the war, for the education of the colored people, being the original founder of their educational work in Nashville, was cordially received in company with Rev. C. Cotton. They were bearers of fraternal greetings from the Central Tennessee Conference. The occasion was one befitting the unity, and indicative of the vigorous development of our Church, on both extreme. These white people will accomplish a great deal more for the advancement of our cause, and the cause of the colored members of our Church, with all that depends thereon in the South, by their influence, than they can by contact, at least for many years to come. Memphis has seldom ever been so shaken up as on the occasion of this conference and especially by the addresses and sermon of Bishop Bowman; his holy, clear and deep knowledge and experience in the things of God, give him wonderful power over the people. Pleasant, affable, cool and patient, he discharged his difficult tast in such a manner as to advance every interest of the Church, and greatly endear himself to every member of the conference.

There are about 20,000 colored people in Memphis and these are represented in branches of industry, but the cotton handling predominates. As to churches, the Baptists lead with 12, the greatest of which is the Beale Street, which is estimated when complete to cost $100,000. Rev Mr. Nightengale, late of Meharry Medical College, is pastor. He is a young man, full of energy and if a membership of 1,500, and such a church as is the Beale Street, does not overwork or inflate his opinion of himself in too great a degree, he will yet come forth as one of the great among the preachers of his denomination. The next Baptist church of note here, is a split off from the Beale Street. It is clear that our Baptist friends are going to pieces in all the great cities since the war, for want of stronger government. The nearer they follow the Methodist disciplinary pattern the better it will be for them on this line.

The African Methodist Church has five good houses and congregations; the greatest of which is Avery Chapel, where the Rev. Stratford Straws is pastor, and how he built it is a great affair and that which adds immensely to its greatness, is that with his own hands he drew the plans, and personally superintended the erection of this building. We have known him since early youth and can testify to his general good qualities as a man and minister. The St. Andrews is next best, it has an excellent pastor, and is prosperous. Taylor Cowan, another good friend of ours from Louisville, has Collins Chapel, Colored Methodist Church in America, and our Zion friends have also a nice church here, which they had the misfortune to have damaged a few weeks since. These churches are all too fine when compared with the circumstances of the people, and some day it will be admitted that our plan of building neat but cheap churches, which the people by a little aid can pay for without oppression or resorting to questionable, if not immoral means of making money is best. This same difference occurs when our school buildings are constrasted with others. We have a great work to do for the colored people, and simple justice demands that our buildings be centrally situated, and there by gain more of them and of course less expensive. Though in the aggregate our outlay in this way is greater in that way than any other church. Proving that the simplicity of our edifices is the result of neither stinginess or poverty.

Leaving Memphis, we also took leave of the brethren, and did not forget the cooling drives about town with Straws in his fine buggy, the hospitable treatment in his home; also the homes of Bros. Ashley and Fields. By the way Bro. Fields is a little slow but withal a model man in all other respects. Down the railroad 57 miles we came to Brownsville, here we spent an evening with Bro. Jesse P. Price; he has a fine home, and for good order and Christian sweetness we have not anywhere been permitted to see its superior. His little daughter Martha is a gem of a girl and as smart as plenty of brains and a bright intellect well cultivated can make her. We had a good ride over town with him in his buggy; called upon the Hon. Samuel A. Macaway, who is the able colored representative of this this county in the present Legislature, and a candidate with splendid chances of election to the next, because this county has a colored vote of about 2,300 against about 2,000 white, divided between Democrats and Republicans. We took a cash subscriber for the SOUTHWESTERN, and drove on to the nice church our people have here, by the help of God, the Church Extension Society, Bros. Key and Price. Here we talked to a good crowd, took several more subscribers and left for Bowling Green, where we found Bro. W. E. Wilson, with a well filled table awaiting us. He is a worker and his work is telling much in our favor. We learn here that Rev. J. A. D. Payne, late of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, who has spent sometime in ours, has now returned once more to his first and early love. We have a good sized bundle of writings which he calls thunderbolts of facts against the bishops of the African Church, perhaps he is now in a good situation, and a favorable turn of mind to let these thunders "utter their voices," and these bolts "strike something." We shall talk here to night for the paper and then see you anon.

TAYLOR.

Personal.

—Bishop Wiley reached Shanghai, on the 16th of September, and expected to start for Tientsin after resting a day or two.

—Rev. Z. T. Gayden, pastor of Thomson Chapel, New Orleans, has occasion to rejoice in the advent of a new boy, born in Clinton on the 20th inst.

—Mr. Moody will preach in Boston [illegible] under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. He is expected, also, at Richmond, Va.

—Bishop W. F. Mallalieu's present address will be Austin, Texas, from Nov. 1 to Dec. 10. After that date New Orleans, La., until [illegible] dence being one of the inducements offered.

—Rev. Messrs. Smith, Denney and Babe, were met by the missionaries in Japan, about September 25, and after receiving a hearty welcome were sent on their way to their destination, China.

—Bishop Mallalieu seems to possess the true apostolic spirit. He went to Nebraska two weeks before the opening of his Conference, and traveled nearly a thousand miles through the State in the interests of our educational work.—Iowa Methodist.

—Mrs. Polk, who is living in Tennessee, Mrs. Tyler, who is at Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Garfield, who lives at Mentor, Ohio, three Presidents' widows, are among the United Ssates pensioners. Each receive $5,000 a year, according to act of Congress.

—Rev. George W. Wells, of the Louisiana conference, Rosedale circuit, was in at our office last Thursday, and seems to be in a pleasant and hopeful feeling. His work is prosperons and promises to be more so.

—It is reported that Rev. B. W. Timothy of the St. Louis conference, lately of Wesley Chapel, St. Louis, has now united with the Episcopal Church. We believe Bro. Timothy was originally of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and we hope he now has a permanent and contented situation.

—Hon. L. A. Martinet, editor of the Lonisiana Standard, and Hon. H. C. C. Astwood, U. S. Consul at San Domingo, favored the SOUTHWESTERN with a call recently. They are exact antipodes in State politics, but withal most agreable and genial gentlemen. Our readers may expect an occasional letter from the latter.

—The Rev. A. J. Ford received a most agreable and valuable surprise from the members and friends of his charge, the Clinton street Church, New Orleans, on Tuesday eve, October 12th. It was a most enjoyable occasion singing and social pleasantries abounded no less than the good cheer they presented.

Boston will be sorry to lose Bishop Mallalieu. His presence would be a blessing to any city, and New Orleans is to congratulated over his removal thither. He will find plenty to do, and will do it enthusiastically and well. Perfunctoriness is a word not found in his vocabulary It is proposed to carry the good Bishop's name to India—to endow a "Bishop Mallalieu scholarship" in the Centennial School at Lucknow.—Rev. B. H. Bodley in Zion's Herald.

—Bishop Walden was a member of the Cincinnati Conference, and at the recent session of that body at Hillsboro, Ohio, his name was called as an effective elder, and his character was passed, and the secretary was instructed to enter "elected to the Episcopacy" opposite his name. Bishop Merrill then called Bishop Walden to the chair, the duties of which he performed with ease for sometime. We believe he presided on this occasion for the first time at an Annual Conference; his first conference on the Episcopal plan is Kentucky Conference, which met September 10.—Pacific Christian Advocate.

—Touching Dr. Bayliss' silver wedding the Cincinnati Enquirer says: In their brief residence here Dr. Bayliss and family have won the esteem and friendship of all their own church fellowship with whom they have come in contact, and their circle of friendship includes also scores of the ministers and members of other denominations. The congratulatory gathering was therefore a representative one from all churches, and was in itself a flattering evidence of the high esteem in which Dr. Bayliss and his wife are held. Time has dealt very kindly with both husband and wife since, twenty-five years ago, a young Methodist itinerant, just beginning his life work [illegible] nee Sarah D. Britton, the daughter of a thorough-going Baptist deacon of Boston Corners, Erie County, N. Y., pledged their mutual love. During these years of his ministry Dr. Bayliss has happily filled the pastorates of several of the leading churches of Methodism in Chicago, Indianapolis, Detroit, and Cincinnati. He could have asked for no better evidence of the success of his work than in the congratulations and testimonials received on this occasion from his former churches.

Church Polity.

Centennial Catechism of Methodism Among the Negroes.

Ques.—What is meant by the term Methodist?

Ans.—It has three meanings. 1. One who lives according to strict method. 2. One of an ancient school of physicians. 3. One of a sect of Christians founded by John Wesley and his brother Charles, and so called from the exact regularity of their lives, and the strictness of their principles and rules.

Ques.—Is this term ever applied to any one else?

Ans.—Yes, the name is also given to the followers of Mr. George Whitfield, or the Calvinistic Methodists.

Ques.—What is the theological meaning of the term?

Ans.—A person of strict piety; one who lives in the exact observance of religious duties.

Ques.—How did the followers of Mr. Wesley happen to be called by this name?

Ans.—Out of contempt and ridicule.

Ques.—By what name did they call themselves?

Ans.—They called themselves the Holy Club.

Ques.—Who first called them Methodists?

Ans.—A young man who belonged to Christ's Church at Oxford, who characterized them as "a new set of Methodists."

Ques.—When was this?

Ans.—In 1764.

Ques.—What did he mean by a new set of Methodists?

Ans.—He allnded to a school of ancient doctors who lived about one hundred years before their time, and rejected observation, and fonnded their doctrine exclusively on reason and theory, and called themselves the Methodists.

Ques.—Was the first organization of Methodists a church?

Ans.—No, it was a society in the Church of England.

Qnes.—Have they a scriptnral foundation?

Ans.—Yes, if the Bible is trne, for they authorize their ministers to preach only what is written in the Bible, or may be proved by it. "The Bible is the only rule and the sufficient rule, both for their faith and practice."

Ques.—When and where was this society first organized?

Ans.—Mr. Wesley gives three periods, and places: 1st. In "November, 1729, when four persons met together at Oxford." 2nd. "Was at Savannah, Georgia, in April, 1736, when 20 or 30 persons met at his house." 3d. Was at London, May 1, 1738, when 40 or 50 persons agreed to meet together every Wednesday evening.

Ques.—What was the object of this meeting?

Ans.—Mr. Wesley says: "It was in order to hold free conversation."

Ques.—How were the meetings conducted?

Ans.—"They had wriiten rules to which they all agreed, and their meetings were begun and ended with singing and prayer." (See Potter's Comp Methodism, pages 53-54.)

Qnes.—Why did they not go to church and meet?

Ans.—Because the churches, under the control of a cold and formal clergy, were shut against them.

Ques.—When and where was the first meeting house erected?

Ans.—By the society, in Bristol, England, on the 12th of May, 1739.

Ques.—When was the first conference held?

Ans.—June 25, 1744, at the Foundry in London, Mr. Wesley, six traveling and four local preachers attending.

Rev. H. W. Tate is having substantial prosperity on his work at Springfield Ohio.

Schools and Colleges.

There has recenely been placed in the library of the Gammon School of Theology, Clark University, a very fine copy of Raphael's celebrated painting of the Transfiguration of Christ. It is done in oil by one of the finest copyists of Rome, and the painting measnres 3½x6 feet. It is the gift of Rev. E. H. Gammon, the generons patrot of the school, who purchased it while in Rome some months ago. It is a splendid work of art, and shows his deep interest in the school that bears his name. He has also given $300 for the purchase of books for the theological library. On the occasion of the formal opening exercises of the theological school for the year, on the 6th inst., the main address was given by Bishop Dickerson, of the A. M. E. Church. It was a thonghtful and earnest setting forth of the dangers and dnties of ministers. He was followed in appropriate addresses by Profs. Thayer and Crogman, after which Dean Thirkield outlined the broad and practical course of stndy for the coming year. There is an increase in attendance, and the applications of candidates and ministers from eight states show the growing interest in thorongh theological training for ministerial workers in the South.

The girls' school started by the Presbyterian Mission in the capital of Guatemala, has more applicants than it can accommodate, and will probably be self-supporting. Five daughters of President Barrios are in the school. It is bnt a short time since there was no Protestant service in the whole republic.

When the missionaries first opened their schools in Syria they had to beg parents to send their danghters, and to indnce them to do it, board and teach them free; now parents come with money in their hands and beg them to take their danghters, perfectly willing to pay for both board and tnition. There are now 7,500 girls in the mission schools in Syria.

General Church News.

Rev. George D. Matthews, D.D., formerly of New York, now of Montreal, Canada, on the sixth day of the late meeting of the Grand Council of the Alliance of the Reformed churches, presented a valuable statistical report from which the following figures are gathered. In connection with the Reformed churches on the European Continent there are 275 Presbyteries, 40 Synods, 4,774 pastoral charges, 3472 separate congregations, 225 mission stations, 5,242 ministers on the roll, 4,795 ministers in service, 22,734 elders, 6,120 deacons, 462 licentiates, 2,352,421 communicants, 3,097,190 adherents, 2,322 Sabbath-schools, 380 Bible classes, 4,863 Sabbath-school teachers, and an attendance of 105,159 at Sabbath-schools. In the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland there are 279 Presbyteries, 44 Synods, 4,797 pastoral charges, 4,961 separate congregations, 264 mission stations, 4,651 ministers on the roll, 2,504 ministers in service, 32,430 elders, 22,473 deacons, 734 licentiates, 2,999,038 communicants, 4,110,380 adherents, 7,789 Sabbath-school teachers, and the attendance at Sabbath-schools is 441,383. In the United States there are 556 Presbyteries, 92 Synods, 12,812 pastoral charges, 2,820 separate congregations, 206 mission stations, 10,110 ministers on the roll, 2,053 ministers in service, 44,545 elders, 10,098 deacons, 894 licentiates, 1,231,377 communicants, 2,972,500 adherents, 9,725 Sabbath-schools, 50 Bible classes, 119,097 Sabbath-school teachers, and an attendance of 1,007,378 at Sabbath-schools. In the British colonies there are 97 Presbyteries, 10 Synods, 1438 pastoral charges, 2,131 separete congregations, 867 mission stations, 1,148 ministers on the roll, 1,237 ministers in service, 1,421 elders, 10,916 deacons, 83 licentiates, 167,624 communicants, 698,725 adherents, 1,831 Sabbath-schools, 272 Bible classes, 12,776 Sabbath-school teachers, and an attendance of 91,257 at Sabbath-schools.—Central Methodist.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

Governor Cleveland denies explicitly that he sought the defeat of the Freedom of Worship bill; that he intrigued against it, or that he was in any manner opposed to the principle involved in the measure. And we believe him.—Catholic Examiner.

Let every girl suspect and smother likings which cannot be snbmitted to the knowledge of the family. —Christian Herald and Advocate.

All South Africa is agitated with the project of an independent Christian republic. The mission boards and churches of all Christendom are stirred as never before. Evidently "the morning cometh." Earth's long night is giving place to day. — Heathen Women's Friend.

As to the silver dollar, the picture of the United States Government getting in line before the New York Clearing House and receiving the treatment accorded by a cross teller to a newly employed messenger boy, is very tiresome to the whole people of the country.—The Current.

The people are becoming tired of bossism, and will endeavor to overthrow it at the first opportunity.—Va. Critic.

N. W. Ayer & Son's Newspaper Annual for 1884. 994 pages. Contains a careuflly prepared list of all newspapers and periodicals in the United States and Canada, by states, counties, and towns. Of the newspapers and periodicals, it gives the name, description, age, circnlation and advertising rates. They are also classified as religious, agricnltural, medical, commercial, scientific, edncational, etc. Of the states, cities, connties, and towns, it gives the capitals, conn'y seats, population, races of inhabitants, nature of soil, agricnltural staples, political votes, and has a list of towns of over 5000 inhabitants. It is nneqnalled for fullness, correctness, compactness of statement, variety and valne of contents, and freedom from favoritism or prejudice. Price, $3.00, carriage prepaid. Philadelphia, Pa.

With trembling awe the dark transmontane woods
Bend to the earth their leafy summits tall;
And giants of the ancient solitudes,
Before the omnipresent conquerors fall.
New miracles shall we these doings call?
In every valley, upland dell and plain,
Waxes the city vast or village small;
And cottages, like flowers, spring up amain,
'Mid velvet lawns of grass and fields of golden grain.

Tennessee Conference Appointments.

NASHVILLE DISTRICT.

James Pickett, Presiding Elder.

Brentwood	S P Bell
Cumberland	Payne Gregg
Dickson	S T Hickerson
Dover	Geo Sanford
Franklin	Henry Primm
Gallatin	Miles Williams
Gallatin Circuit	W B Denny
Hartsville	To be supplied
Lonisburg and Lillards	H Robinson
Mitchellsville	W Bryant
Nashville, Braden Chapel	J F Moreland
" Clarke Chapel	A Phillips
" Seay's Chapel	J W Pickett
" Mission	H W Key
Nolensville	Peter Martin
Poplar Ridge	To be supplied
Springfield	A P Blakemore
Spring Hill and Columbia	Thos Ward
White Bluff	To be supplied

J Braden, President; W Patterson and Thomas M Dart, instructors Central Tennessee College, members of Brentwood Quarterly Conference. H W Key, Financial Agent.

MURFREESBORO DISTRICT.

Charles H Bullington, Presiding Elder.

Alexandria	B B Manson
Caney Fork and Carthage	B F Whitley
Cookeville	Jacob Wade
Hillsboro and Manchester	Geo W House
Lebanon, Seay's Chapel	L M Hagood
Liberty	Perry Woodson
Martin's Creek	Osborn Green
McMinnville, Seay's Chapel	W C Miller
Murfreesboro	C S Seward
Murfreesboro Circuit	Henry W Simmons
North Lebanon	Benj Anderson
Petersburg and Fayetteville	F Yeargin
Seays and Leeville	To be supplied
Shelbyville and Gill's Chanel	J B Mabry
Sparta	Samuel Knight
Spencer and Eagleville	Thornton Woods
Stone River	to be supplied by Wesley Lillard
Tullahoma	to be supplied by J Kencer
Van Buren	to be supplied by A Martin
Woodbury	B James

WEST TENNESSEE DISTRICT.

Jesse P. Price, Presiding Elder.

Bell Circuit	J W Hall
Brownsville	E M Manson
Clarkesburg	to be supplied by A Swift
Clifton	J B Bradford
Dyer Circuit	Alex Porter
Friendship	John A W Moore
Henderson	To be supplied
Lawrenceburg	G C Harden
Linden	to be supplied by A F Lane
Mansfield and Mannersville	J F Summerhill
Martin	S B Danley
Mason and Fayette	J L Massey
Memphis Centenary	Charles L Fields
Memphis Circuit	S Burdette
Paris	to be supplied by B Palmer
Pleasant Grove	H Dunlap
Purdy Circuit	To be supplied
Waynesboro	Daniel Collin

Pictorial NEW TESTAMENT
New Revision—WITH NOTES BY Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D. LL.D. Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D.D. Rev. LYMAN ABBOTT, D.D.

Illustrated New Testament,
King James' Version—with Notes by Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D., LL.D. Rev. LYMAN ABBOTT, D.D.

Agents Wanted—Outfits Free and all Freights Paid. Address H. S. GOODSPEED & CO., New York or Chicago.
oct2-1ynr

"THE BATTLE OF BULL RUN,"
—BY—
GEN. G. T. BEAUREGARD,

Graphically illustrated, with more than twenty pictures, is a leading feature of the November number of The Century Magazine. This article is the beginning of a series of separate papers, to appear in The Century on the great battles of the war for the Union, written by general officers high in command on both sides, including Generals Grant, Longstreet, McClellan, Beauregard, Hill, Pope, Rosecrans, Admiral Porter and others. The aim is to present interesting personal experiences—the officers' own stories of their plans and operations. The illustrations will be full and accurate; and accompanying papers on "Recollections of a Private," also begun in November, will add value to a series which the conductors of The Century believe to be the most important ever undertaken by them. The November Century also contains first chapters of a new novel, the story of an American business man, by W. D. Howells; a timely paper on "How Shall we Elect our Presidents?" short stories by "Uncle Remus" and others, and a number of striking illustrations. This issue begins a new volume Yearly subscriptions $4; single numbers, 35 cents. All booksellers and news-dealers keep it. The Century Co., New York, publishers. Ask for the NOVEMBER CENTURY.

WE WOULD LIKE TO PUT INTO THE hands of every Sunday-school worker in the land a copy of "Letters from Sunday-school Singers and Workers." These "Letters" are enthusiastic commendations of our new Sunday-school book.

GRATEFUL PRAISE,
By J. H. FILLMORE.

And represents the opinions of Ministers, Superintendents, Choristers, Teachers and Schools who are using the book. We send the "Letters" FREE to any address
Sample copy of GRATEFUL PRAISE mailed for 25 cents. Price, per dozen, by express, $3 60. Per dozen, by mail $4. Address FILLMORE BROS., 185 Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio.
N. B.—This book is printed in patent figure notes for those who prefer that notation.
oct9-4t

THE Great American T E A COMPANY.
GOOD NEWS To LADIES!
Greatest inducements ever offered. Now's your time to get up orders for our celebrated Teas and Coffees, and secure a beautiful Gold Band or Moss Rose China Tea Set; or Handsome Decorated Gold Band Moss Rose Dinner Set, or Gold Band Moss Decorated Toilet Set. For full particulars address
THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA CO.,
P. O. Box 289 31 and 31 Vesey St., New York
oct23-13t

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Bibolet, Manager,)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20.....Toulouse Street,.....20
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
☞ No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a largest assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 25 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine.
sept6

LADIES Gentlemen, Boys and Girls are making money rapidly with our Holiday Book for children BRIGHT JEWELS Special premium offer. All Family Bibles, elegant Silk Plush Albums GIVEN AWAY Union Publishing House, New York, N. Y.—Cincinnati, Ohio,—Atlanta, Georgia.
oct23-4t

MILLERS and FARMERS
Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro. ☞ Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.
may22-1y

AGENTS make over 100 per cent. selling new CORRUGATED Reflecting Safety Lamp which can be sold in every family. Gives more light than three ordinary lamps. [illegible] Our Perfect Coffee Pot [illegible] all others. Circulars sent free. FORBES & McMAKIN, Cincinnati, O.
oct30-4tcow

The Beloved John.

MARSDEN.

Near those bright names record another saint,
Of might I copy him, as well as paint;
Fletcher, the man of flaming faith and love,
The fearless lion and the gentle dove,
Adorned with heaven-born gifts of eloquence,
The richest fancy and the ripest sense;
Learning, the fairest flower that booms on earth,
Enchanting nymph, of Castalian birth,
(Though oft, alas, the insuspicious bride,
Of pendant ails or ostentatious prid)
O'er his rich mind its sevenfold lustre shed;
Yet he was lowly; here no pride it bred;
It was a loveliness that gaily shone
In each admiring eye, except his own.
But learning with its mild, luminous rays,
Was only God like Fletcher's second praise;
His holy deeds a mystic light displayed
Which not the veil of modesty could shade:
The "pitcher" failed the brilliant lamp to screen,
And through the "earthen vase" the gold was seen;
A twin, a transcript of "beloved John,"
In softness, sweetness, mildness, meekness one;
Here piety unveiled her shadeless white
His heart her throne, his life her mirror bright:
His heart from each unlovely temper freed,
His life a living comment on his creed.
Inspired into the mystic life he saw
The bright unfolding of Jehovah's law:
He longed the depths to fathom, breadths t' explore,
To run the lengths and to the summit soar
Of love divine—th sever' burning coal,"
This "living lamp" was lighted in his soul;
On love's angelic ear he sweetly rode,
The "Mount of God," was his divine abode.
Accept this tribute from a muse unpaid,
O "saint in light!" O ever honored shade!
'Tis only just to venerate the dead,
When glory beams around the dying bed;
Crowns with a lovely radiance poor clay
And wafts in gales of bliss the soul away.

Domestic Hygiene.

OF THE SOUTHWESTERN.

Rules of Hygiene—Sleep, Clothing.

BY REV. GEO. L. CURTIS, M. D.

In continuing the subject of Health and Disease, there are laws of health and rules of conduct to be carefully observed.

5. There are wholesome hygienic rules in regard to sleeping. Sleeping is an unintelligent rest of body and mind. It needs to be taken under circumstances most advantageous.

Avoid sleeping in a room without some ventilation, for good, fresh air is a requisite to healthy sleep The air of a room poisoned by noxious vapors will cause unpleasant dreams, and lead to the nightmare. The body when asleep seems less prepared to resist the attacks of disease than when awake. The pores of the skin seem more open, the muscles more relaxed, and noxious things can more easily reach the internal parts of the body.

Avoid sleeping in too cold a room, or in a draft, lest the body become suddenly chilled. The bed will obtain its heat from the body. Should the amount of animal heat required be too great, the body will become exhausted, and a chill, with serious consequences, follow. It is not necessary to have a fire in the sleeping room in order that it should be comfortable, but in an adjoining room with the doors left open, so as to equalize the temperature.

Avoid sleeping with the arms over the head, for thereby a healthy circulation of the blood is prevented, besides, with some people it causes great distress.

Avoid sleeping with the mouth open. An open mouth is a gaping invitation for disease. "Shut Your Mouth" is the title of a readable book on the ill effects of breathing through the mouth, and sleeping with it open. Sleeping with the mouth open disfigures beauty, also makes the throat and mouth to become dry and uncomfortable, besides, prevents the atmosphere being equalized in temperature as it passes the nostrils and passages to the lungs. There seems to be much attention given to ventilation in which children sleep. If the bed and pillows are changed frequently, they will never get the habit of the gaping

Avoid sleeping in a damp bed, or in one that has not been used for some time, without it has been aired and warmed. Sleeping in a damp bed when the feet are chilled, is sure to be followed by disease. A spare bed is often a breeder of disease, and a harbinger of death.

Avoid sleeping in a bed where the bed-linen has not been changed, especially at hotels. Diseases are sometimes communicated under circumstances of foul beds and soiled napkins and towels. Cleanliness in the sleeping apartment and bed is indispensable to health and comfort.

Avoid sleeping in a room where there is decaying fruit, or a prevalence of yeast, mildew or any other fungus growth to poison the air We well remember a sad experience when put to sleep in a room where about two bushels of decaying, fermenting apples were stored. It was a night of suffering, rather than of rest. We were once at conference put to sleep in an elegant room, where was a foul spittoon that had not been cleaned for some time. It required two days' search to trace the bad odor, sickening and painful, to the true source. When it was removed and the room well aired, sleep was as refreshing as need be desired.

6. Clothing, as to character and quantity, is the subject of hygienic laws.

Avoid too sudden change of clothing in the spring from heavy to light. It is far better to endure some inconvenience from heat than to become chilled and contract disease. When the summer constitution is established, heavy clothing may be laid aside without danger. At all times the limbs ought to be well protected; especially is this true of the feet and legs.

Avoid going with wet feet. Nothing will help to perpetuate disease more than constant wet feet. Warm, dry stockings in good leather shoes or boots, are the wholesome conditions. Foot coverings should not be tight, so as to cramp or pinch the foot, or bend the toes out of shape. Nor should the heels be so high as to require the principal weight to fall on the ball of the toes. The foot should rest nearly flat, as nature designed.

Avoid suspending the clothing from the hips or waist, but suspend from the shoulders. Heavy clothing suspended on the waist or hips interferes with breathing. We need to breathe in part by the muscles of the abdomen. We ought to employ them somewhat in talking. This cannot be done when a heavy weight of clothing is hanging upon these muscles and impeding their free action. Heavy clothing hanging to the hips tends to contract the pelvis and infringe upon the pelvic organs.

Refrain from tight lacing or wearing clothes strapped tightly around the body. Breathing, free circulation of the blood and personal comfort are interfered with by tight lacing. If you must wear something tight around you, better put it up under the arms, or, better still, above the arms and around the neck.

HOME GINGERBREAD.—Take seven teacupfuls of flour, one pint of molasses, one cup of sour cream, one cup of butter, one tablespoonful of ginger, one tablespoonful of soda, dissolved in part of the cream or a little milk; add three quarters of a pound of light brown sugar, also other spices if you like a higher flavoring.

LADY CAKE.—One pound of flour, one pound of butter, whites of 11 eggs, a teaspoonful of soda, two of cream of tartar, nearly half a pint of sweet milk; cream the butter and add the sugar to it, beating diligently; sift the cream of tartar into the flour, so that it will diffuse itself throughout the mass; add the soda to the milk last of all; season with a teaspoonful of extract of bitter almonds, and put to bake without delay.

PARSNIPS.—Wash, scrape, cut into halves or slice lengthwise into several pieces if the roots are very large, and put on in a kettle of boiling water. You may expect them to be boiled in an hour. Serve with a little sugar and melted butter poured over them; or they may be baked as with sweet potatoes; or mash them up fine, when boiled tender, and form into little cakes with a batter made of a tablespoonful of flour, an egg, a small piece of butter and a gill of milk.

BLACKBERRY JELLY.—Crush in a mortar three pounds of blackberries; place them in a basin, and this in another of hot water to extract the juice, standing them in the oven the while. Boil two ounces of isinglass in rather less than a pint of water, with a pound of loaf sugar, until all are melted. Strain the juice, mix with it the juice of a lemon; let it stand to cool, and when the isinglass syrup is also cool (not cold), mix the juice and syrup in equal quantities, fill the mold or molds, and let them stand on ice till set.

WATERMELON-RIND PICKLE, No. 1.—Of late years this has become a favorite on the tables of many, and is certainly convenient to resort to in seasons when fruit is scarce and dear. Pare the outer rind off watermelons that are brought from the dinner table; cut them simply into strips or leaves, stars, any shape, in short, that you fancy; take ten pounds of this rind and boil it in clear water until tender; make a syrup of two pounds of sugar, one quart of vinegar, half an ounce of cloves and half an ounce of cinnamon; the syrup to be boiled, and poured over the rinds boiling hot; drain the syrup off, and let it come to a boil, and pour over the rinds three days in succession. It will keep for years.

TOTAL SUGAR CROP OF LOUISIANA.— We have often been asked for our estimate of the probable sugar crop of our State, this year, and have uniformly stated it would be from 25 to 30 per cent. less than last season. The present outlook gives us no room for an increase of our figures, and if it nets 150,000 hogsheads, it will be as much as we have a right to expect after such a widespread overflow and such damage by drouth.

The fair corn crop, in some localities, is indeed a source of congratulation, and most of it has been housed in good condition.

The amount of hay cut this season has been larger than usual, for two reasons—the favorable weather and the necessity for it, owing to the shortness of the corn crop.

Rice planters are finishing their work of threshing, and the crop is yielding fairly.

Cotton planters have been making good use of the time, and a large portion of the crop is picked out. It may be put down as a short crop, so far as Louisiana is concerned.

The root crop—such as sweet and Irish potatoes, cabbage, etc.—has been larger than usual, and this will be a great help to poor people.

As a whole, while crops are mostly short, we have an abundance to eat, and by proper economy, all who are not deeply in debt will get along.—Sugar Bowl.

A minister in the Central Illinois Conference has a membership in his church of 106. In 1883 they contributed for missions on an average of 24 cents per member. Having made diligent use of means furnished to extend missionary intelligence, the aim now is to raise the average to $1 per member. On this brother's last charge, where he received $600 salary, his missionary collection averaged $1.25 per member. A colored brother in the Florida conference was stationed at a weak charge and raised $21.50 for missions, while he only received $20 30 for his support from his people. These results depend not upon the amount of wealth in the charges, but upon the faithfulness of the pastor and the interest and intelligence of the people.

To Get Rid of Misery.

What is the use of suffering from dyspepsia, nervous prostration or debility, when Brown's Iron Bitters will tone you up and cast these horrors out? There is joy in every bottle of this valuable tonic. It makes bad blood good, and bids dismal people be cheerful. It brings good cheer to the dinner table, and makes the family happy. It drives away the blues, and helps you to enjoy a hearty laugh. And all the respectable druggists keep it.

Better than Gold.

So easily is a cold taken that not infrequently one is at a loss to tell when or how it has originated, and is prone to expect it will go as lightly as it came. Perhaps it may go easily, if helped a little; but every cold that comes is liable to stay. It may happen just at a time when, from other causes, the normal strength of resistance in the system has been lowered. A little inattention or delay may give it a dangerous hold. Let it once become firmly seated, and the work of dislodgment will be very difficult. The simple Coryza, or cold in the head, may develop into a Catarrh, and is indeed exceedingly likely so to do. That such is the case is evidenced by the fact that seven persons out of every nine, in the Atlantic and Middle States, have catarrh in a severe form. Or, if it does not take that turn, the little cough that is at first but an annoyance, is almost certain to become dry, hard, racking and constantly recurrent, worrying in waking hours, banishing sleep, and momentarily weakening the patient. The larynx, vocal cords, and tonsils, become inflamed. The inflammation extends into the bronchial tubes. "Laryngitis" and "Bronchitis" are the easiest words that the doctor, called in about that time, will use. The trouble goes on working down the bronchial tubes to the lungs, ultimately threatening Pulmonary Consumption. Or, perhaps, the malady assumes the quickly fatal phase of Pneumonia. Just about as unwise a thing as an ordinarily sensible person can do, is to neglect a "little" cold or cough and give it a chance to develop in any of these ways. And when it comes to the treatment of children, neglect is criminality. All the dangers to be feared from colds and coughs may be averted, in the very outset, by the administration of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a medicine ineffably beneficent, which allays the coughing, soothes to refreshing rest, and brings back health.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

Is the only medicine that can be relied upon to break up a cold and cure a cough, and is invaluable in the treatment of all affections of the throat and lungs.

The following are samples of what people say who know it:

"Medical science has produced no other anodyne expectorant so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."—PROF. F. SWEETZER, (Maine Medical School) Brunswick, Me.

"AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL affords more relief in cases of Whooping Cough than any other medicine."—DR. ARTHUR Y. COX, St. Louis, Mo.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for 20 years. It is a wonderful remedy for Throat and Lung Diseases."—L. GARRETT, Texana, Tex.

"My children have taken AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for Coughs and Croup, and have found it give immediate relief, followed by cure."—MRS. J. GREGG, Lowell, Mass.

"I find nothing else so efficacious as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in the treatment of Colds and Coughs, and have used it in Croup, Asthma, and incipient Consumption, with great success."—DR. J. H. WILSON, Centerville, Iowa.

"My wife, troubled with violent coughing, hard and dry, for 30 years, got so low I thought it would kill her. She took AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and is entirely cured.—G. M. CARR, French Camp, Miss.

"Several members of my family suffered severely with Influenza. All were cured by AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in a few days."—HENRY RUSSELL, Somerset, N. J.

"The best remedy that can be had for Coughs and Colds is AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."—E. M. SARGENT, Lowell, Mass.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

For sale by all Druggists.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I desire to find my mother, three sisters and brother. I left all in Alabama on Widow Malone's farm, on the wire road. Mother was Maria Watson, brother Henry Watson and sisters Lottie, Hester and Mary Watson. I last saw them seven years ago. Address me at Fairfield, Texas.

WM. WATSON.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my wife. Her name was Annie; mine is Buck Sterling. She belonged to a man in Georgia by the name of Whit Sterling. She had a daughter Francis. She left her in LaGrange, Georgia. Wife was sold to Mr. Barley, who lived in Lafonrche in war times. The last I heard of her she was married again to Benjamin Shankins, who lived in town. Bunk Sterling was a one handed man. She was traded for horses and mules. Address me at Hackberry, Texas. My name is now Bunk Hilliard.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my grandmother and her three children. She was brought from southwest Georgia to middle Georgia by Guarson Tucker, and taken from middle Georgia by some white people by the name of Starr. She had five children, three girls and two boys. Her childrens' names were Millegan and Andrew Tucker; the name of one of the girls I do not know, those in Georgia are Amanda Moss and Caroline Minor; grandmother's name was Milsey Tucker and the last account we had of them they were in Claiborne parish, Lonisian. She had two husbands, one in South Carolina and one in Georgia. The one in South Carolina was James Moss and the one in Georgia was Billy Minor. She is now a widow; I am her grandson and the son of her daughter Caroline Minor, and am preacher in charge of the Methodist Episcopal Church at McDonough, Ga. My aunt, Amanda Moss, lives very close to me in Georgia. Please address me at McDonough, Ga.

A. B. ALLEN.

Done in Six Months.

That coil of hair on the back of your head, dear lady. It is better than nothing and deceives nobody. In six months or less from to-day you may dispense with it if you are inclined to give Parker's Hair Balsam a fair trial. Cleanses the scalp, restores color, and lictions dressing. Not a dye, not oily, elegantly perfumed.

There are 30,000 pledged children in the juvenile temperance schools of Massachusetts.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

Our Books for Sale,
—AT—
Southwestern Office,
32 Natchez Street.

Wakefield's Theology	$2 50
Methodism In The Field	1 00
Class Leaders Work and How to Do It	1 25
History of the M. E. Church, 4 volumes	6 00
Wesley's Sermons, 2 volumes	5 00
Whedoo's Commentary on the New Testament	7 50
Life of John Wesley	1 00
Hand Book of Bible Geography	2 50
Bible Stories	1 00
Hints to Self Educated Ministers	1 25
Christianity Demonstrated by Experience	1 50
Baker on the Discipline	1 00
Binney's Theological Compend	75
Pope's Theology, 3 volumes	7 50
Outlines of Bible History	50
Outlines of Church History	50
CATECHISMS—
No. 1, Per Dozen	30
No. 2 Per Dozen	45
No. 3, Per Dozen	60
American Primers, per dozen	50
Spelling and Reading Book, per dozen	1 50
Sunday-School Minute Book	40
Sunday-School Register and Receiving Book	40
Sunday-School Class Book	10
Church Record	2 50
Church Class Book	20
Hymnal 24 mo	50
" 18 mo, with Ritual	75
" 18 mo, "	1 00
" 12 mo, "	1 50
" 16 mo. with Tunes	1 00

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to '72, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

IT PAYS to sell our Rubber Stamps. Free catalogue to agents. Faull rubber & Co., Cleveland, O. 2514 cow

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. Hallett & Co., Portland, Me.

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME.

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale " Junc	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the O. St. L. & N O R R will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W B SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio.
j 31tf

BIG / GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2...9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3. 10:45 a. m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a.m.	Sunday Excur'n 8:20 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY.
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Cincinnati & Atlantic Express	2:35 p m	2:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:30 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division.
au5-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE
TO
Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn, and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into closer relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City, For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

4% LONG LOANS.

PRINCIPAL need never be REPAID

so long as interest is kept up. Personal security only for interest. Honest poor or men of moderate means can send 6 cents for particulars, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

sept18 1

BOARDING HOUSES.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.
sept25-6m

General News Items.

France blockaded the Formosa coast.

The Egyptian army will be reduced to 3,000 men.

The Tichborne claimant has been discharged from custody.

Both parties are prosecuting the national campaign with vigor.

The Democratic majority in West Virginia is between 5,000 and 6,000

At a citizens' meeting of New York, Wm. R. Grace was nominated for Mayor.

John Evans, M. C., of South Carolina, died at Spartansburg on the 20th.

The Republican electors of the Fifth district repudiate the nomination of Frank Morey for Congress.

Henry Ward Beecher is reported to be doing Cleveland great service by his speeches at Democratic meetings.

Gen. De Lisle advises the French government that an effective force of 20,000 men is necessary to continue offensive operations and repel the invasion in Tonquin.

The Liberals met with success in Belgian municipal elections, but the Clericals claim that no considerable change has been made in the relative position of the parties.

How They Die.

Collections of quaint epitaphs very often find their way into print; but how apparently rich our language is in aphorisms of death of all styles, serious, slangy and ghastly humorous. Indeed, every deceased person may be united with an appropriate one, indicative of his profession, character or manner of death. Thus the polite man bids farewell to the world; the merchant closes his earthly accounts; the little child is received among the angels; the lamp-lighter has had his lamp of life extinguished; the wearied go to rest; the eight watchman's hour of relief strikes; the sailor runs into harbor; the ferryman pays his fare to Charon, the reaper bites the grass; the gossip goes to the silent tomb; the grave-digger sinks into the pit; the tippler's last draught is drawn; the watchmaker runs down; the unhappy breathe out their last sighs; the wanderer has gone to his home; the weaver's life thread is cut by the fates; the boot-black goes to the shining land; the musician's wind has given out; or his string has snapped; the dentist is filled in; the flutist pipes his last hole; the smoker's pipe is out; the sluggard goes to the land that knows no waking; the commission merchant is consigned to the dust; the nobleman is gathered to his fathers; the eyes of the inquisitor are closed by death; the scene-shifter "shoves cloud;" the learned give up the ghost; the jockey has run his last race; the washer woman has wrung out her spirit; the atheist has had to believe in it; the general has been transferred to the great army; the servant goes to meet his master; the Indian brave goes to the happy hunting grounds; the hero has fought his last battle; the soldier has stacked his arms; the glutton rests at the dust; the butchers of the city of flesh; the ticket agent passes in his checks; the preacher resigns goes to the dead letter office; the bloated bond holder is called in; the banker is drawn on by death, and without recourse is honored; the jig-dancer shuffles off this mortal coil; the linguist is translated to a better land; the dietician goes to a land of spirits; the [illegible] makes his exit from the stage of life; the body snatcher [illegible] the resurrection; the angler [illegible] has become food for the worms that [illegible] skips the gutter;" [illegible] where the woodbine [illegible] the man stiffens up; [illegible] man's vase is shattered [illegible] is non-suited at [illegible] man lays his [illegible] road carrier goes [illegible] throttle [illegible] lady loses [illegible] the [illegible] ballest makes a home run; the Mormons go up the celestial Salt creek; the farmer is "planted;" the lynched borderman walks off a barrel, climbs a sapling, dances on air, or becomes cotton wood fruit, or is left kicking at the United States;" and lastly the confidence operator—well, he leaves for "parts unknown," but in the end they are all dead, just the same.

One of the executors of the late Frederick Marquand has placed at the disposal of the Presbyterian board $5,000, with which to start a Corean mission; a lady in Cleveland has contributed $2,000, and a pastor in New Jersey $200 for the same object. List of all a young physician, of excellent training and devoted spirit, has said to the board, "Here am I; send me." The name of the young man is Dr. J. H. Heron, of Jonesboro, Tenn. He will proceed to Japan to study the language of Corea, and at the first opportunity he will enter Corea and establish a hospital.—Evan. Messenger.

There are, we are informed, 489 Churches in New York City, with accommodations for 75,000 persons. The amount expended for ministers' salaries and other congregational expenses is in round numbers $3,000,000. In the same city there are 9,772 licensed drinking houses and it is supposed that there are about 3,000 unlicensed—say, 12,000 in all. The money spent in these drinking houses is set down at $60,000,000 annually. These places pay into the public treasury $500,000 a year, while the cost of the police, the courts and the charities, chargeable to the liquor traffic, reaches $9,000,000. The state of things in other cities is probably about the same, and yet apparently a majority of the people do not want prohibition. When will our people become wise in relation to this matter?

When the Mason & Hamlin Company announced the accomplishment of a great improvement in Upright Pianos, which they would soon give to the public, much was expected, because of the vast improvements which have been effected by them in reed instruments, and the acknowledged superexcellence of their organs. These expectations are fully justified by the pianos which they are producing, which have extraordinary purity and refinement of tone. Every mechanic will see that the peculiarities of their construction must add greatly to their durability, and especially their capacity to keep in good tune.

This company have as great a future in their pianos as they are already realizing in their organs, which are confessedly unequaled among such instruments.—Boston Traveller.

Baron Seydewitz has taken possession in behalf of the Emperor of all the feudal and allodial property of the late Duke of Brunswick. It is stated the Duke left a will disposing of his private property, which amounted to 50,000,000 marks.

Gratefulness.

Mr. H. Sampsel, Ottawa, Kansas, writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.—Gentlemen: I have suffered for seven years; have tried every thing and many physicians, and all have failed. I went to Pittsburgh, and while there fell on the street, my breath seemed to leave my lungs, and numbness overpower me. I determined to give PERUNA and MANALIN a fair trial. I used four bottles of each, and my trouble left, never, I hope, to return. I left Pittsburgh three weeks ago for Kansas, and thought, as I was going to a new country, I had better take a bottle of MANALIN with me, on account of bad water, etc. I arrived here with one-half bottle. I found one of my friends in a pretty bad condition. The doctors were treating her for chills and fever. I did not know what her trouble was, though I persuaded her to use the MANALIN. She did so, and the first day she was up doing her work. Now this seems strange, but it is, nevertheless, a candid truth. She used it all, and has never had cause to lie down during the day since she took the first three doses."

A Case that was Pronounced Incurable.

Miss C. C. Peck, 714 Jackson street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co.—Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in stating to you the benefit I received from your valuable PERUNA. I have been suffering for about fifteen years with a severe cough and bronchitis (so the doctors call it). I was treated by different physicians, and spent considerable money for different kinds of patent medicines, but received no benefit whatever. Dr. Fox, of this city, claimed I had consumption, and there was no hope for me ever getting better. I was so bad that I coughed almost continually. Mrs. Henry Ellis, a friend of mine, induced me to try your PERUNA. I am happy to say I began to notice a change after I had taken my second bottle. I took eight bottles in all, and now I feel like a new woman. If it hadn't been for PERUNA I think I would be in my grave now. It is a wonderful remedy, and I recommend it to all my friends."

Messrs. Baker Bros., Mt. Vernon, O., write: "Your PERUNA sells well. Customers speak of it as being a good medicine."

Mr. Daniel R. Spry, Portsmouth, O., writes: "I have a good trade in PERUNA. It sells well and gives satisfaction."

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez street

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Service: Sunday a, preaching 11 a m 8 p m 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer meeting Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 12 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Hale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7 0 p m; Sunday school and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve 7:30; Class. Monday eve

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor. services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m, 3 and 7 p m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p m. Sunday school 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5.30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a m Preaching at 11 a m, 3 and 7 p. m Sabbath at 1 p m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Prieur, two blocks above the last station Rev. M O B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m Sunday Sunday-school about 9 a m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a m, and communion at 7 Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F. Hoyt, M. A., acting President 1423 St Charles street.

First Street—Rev. G Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets Services: Sabbath—5 a m, prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7 public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

AUTOMATIC
OR "NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.
BEST AND STRONGEST SEAMS.
UNEQUALLED LIGHTNESS OF RUNNING.
AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.
Full investigation afforded to all.
Wilcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N.Y.
nov15-16teow

PAYSON'S INK
Is also BEST. No preparation. Used with any clean pen for marking any fabric. Popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial MEDAL & Diploma. Established 50 years. Sold by all Druggists, Stationers & News Agt's may22-11t eow

EDUCATIONAL.

WILEY UNIVERSITY.
MARSHALL, TEXAS.
Academic Year opened Sept. 22
No School Does More for its Pupils.
College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.
Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.
Competent and Experienced Faculty.
Expenses Very Low.
For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't,
o 19 Marshall, Texas.

Rust University,
Holly Springs, Miss.
LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.
BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.
FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.
"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.
Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

New Orleans University.
Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,
September 29 and 30, 1884.
The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.
Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.
Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts.
A. F. HOYT, A. M, S. L. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.
Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue, sep14-3m New Orleans, La.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.
CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Belt & Mounting.	Price
26 inches....	175 lbs.....	325 lbs.....	$450 00
28 "	225 lbs.....	375 lbs.....	55 00
32 "	350 lbs.....	550 lbs.....	86 00
36 "	550 lbs.....	800 lbs.....	120 00
40 "	750 lbs.....	1050 lbs.....	160 00
44 " ....1000 lbs.....		1350 lbs.....	200 00
48 " ....1300 lbs.....		1800 lbs.....	260 00
54 " ....2100 lbs.....		2900 lbs.....	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches.....	100 lbs.....	$13 00
20 inches.....	130 lbs.....	18 00
24 inches.....	190 lbs.....	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.
The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.
On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry

Manufacture the celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23 1y Baltimore, Md.

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER." FOR PRESERVING, RESTORING AND Beautifying the Complexion
For Removing Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Eruptions, Redness, &c.
OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES.
LOTTA—It is the best preparation for the face that I ever used. You can put me down CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG—I gives me pleasure to add my name to the list of those who recommend your "Liquid Pearl," and express the satisfaction it afforded me.
The LIQUID PEARL has been received by the ladies of all countries with the highest marks of appreciation. Only 50 cents a bottle, sold by all Druggists & Perfumers
CHAMPLIN & CO., Prop's, Boston, Mass.
dec24-26teo w

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free.
B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga
mar20-52t

Central Tennessee College,
Nashville, Tennessee.
This College begins its nineteenth year on
Monday, September 8, 1884.
Enrolled last year, 364. English, Normal, Academic, Collegiate, Theological, Medical and Law Departments organized.
Entire Expenses from $8 to $10 per School Month of Four Weeks.
The Medical and Law Departments open Monday, October 6. Tuition in these departments $30 for whole term.
For catalogues or further information address the President,
REV. J. BRADEN,
jy31-3m Nashville, Tenn.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,
Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.
A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oc18-tf

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,
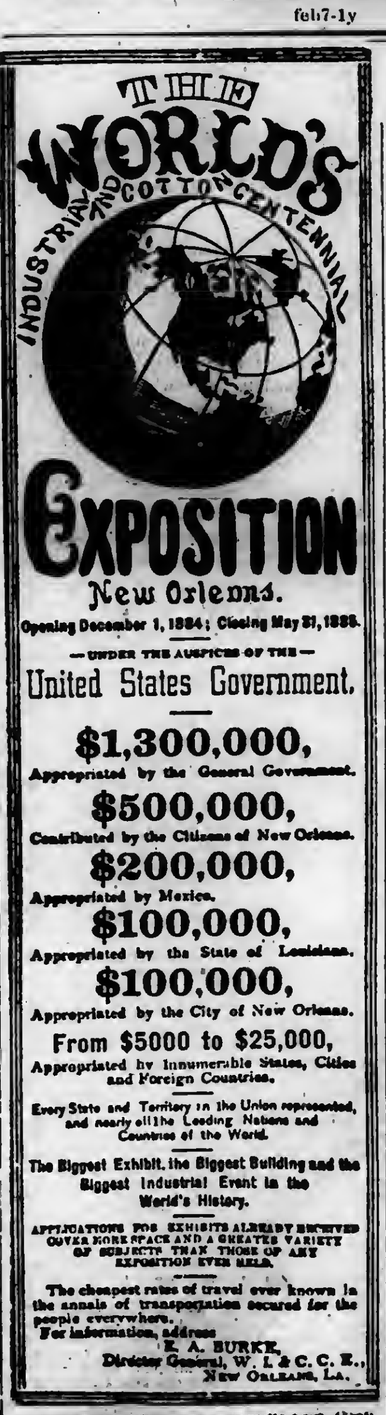
Cocoa and Canton Matting, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain Goods,
Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Plates, Wire Screens, Etc.
75 Camp Street ..... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct9-3m

Crescent Insurance Company.
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.
CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849 Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Risks.
W. B. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.
TRUSTEES.

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo W Scantell,	Alfred Moulton,	W B. Conger
W. H. Lyman,	U Mahistal,	Chas. H. Dolsen,	John Walker,	A H. Howard
S. O. Coulon,	Harry L Walsh.	Wm. A Priela,	J. J Reiss,	Louis Prados
Lucien Delery,	Charles Newman,	N D. Wallace.	Sigmund Katz,	M Gillis
E. F W. Bachman,	C. K. Davis,	Wm. Garig	A. Rosenfield,	John D. Fiske
Chas E Rice.	Joseph Kohn,	Chas M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.



See our Agents throughout the South. oc 9 1y

The Great Church LIGHT.

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, N. Y.

ACENTS WANTED FOR THE PICTORIAL COMPLETE STOCK-DOCTOR
Embracing Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Bees and Dogs. By Hon. J. Periam, Editor "Prairie Farmer" and Dr. A. H. Baker, V. S. Covers every subject pertaining to stock both in Health and Disease. Two charts for telling ages of Horses and Cattle; 720 Engravings and 14 Colored Plates. Farmers clear $100 a month. ACT NOW! Exclusive Territory. For Confidential Terms, Testimonials and "Extracts from Agents' Reports," etc., address N. D. Thompson & Co., Pubs. St. Louis, Mo. or, New York.
Oct30-4t 480w

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS
Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our questions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio
feb7-1y

$12 Outfit free. Address True & Co., Augusta, Me.

HARTER'S IRON TONIC
THE ONLY TRUE
Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST.
Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK." Full of strange and useful information, free.
may8-1y

CATARRH
And Diseases of the Throat, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Cough, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured, by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the bones of the nose have become affected. No douches, snuffs, washes, inhalers, or atomizers. The medicines are so pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Brockington has had fifteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and Fifty (50) cents (money order), for a trial package [by mail], to last fifteen days, with full instructions for treatment.
Address, DR. C. N. BROCKINGTON,
320 Fourth Avenue, Louisville, Ky.
oct2-1.r

AYER'S Ague Cure
contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.
WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE
to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after one trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.
Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.
sept25 to nov27

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall Street, N. Y

se28-1y

Sunday School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER. LESSON V. Nov. 2. THE TEMPLE DEDICATED. I Kings viii. 22-36.

Church dedications are special services by which the building is set apart as a place in which to hold religious meetings, preaching, prayer meeting, or Sunday-school. Our lesson is the prayer of Solomon during the ceremonies by which the beautiful temple built by him was consecrated as the "House of God." When we remember that this was the place of worship for the nation, it is not strange to read that "all the men of Israel" had assembled with Solomon. So many sheep and oxen had been slain in sacrifice that they could not be counted. Then the ark was brought and put in its place by the Levites, when the glory of the Lord, in the form of a cloud, filled the house so that the priests could not continue their work because of it. It is called the and not a cloud, as it was probably, by its appearance and influence, recognized as the same that had guided the children of Israel during their journey through the wilderness. This was a sign that the Lord accepted the offering of the king, and would make it His dwelling place. Then follows the prayer which commences by giving honor to the God of Israel for the fulfillment of his promises to David, and an expression of wonder that He whom the heaven of heavens could not contain would indeed [illegible] on earth and the house that had been built for His worship. The presence of the cloud had shown that he would, and we know, what is more important to us, that the Lord "dwelleth with him who is of an humble and contrite spirit," Solomon then pleads very earnestly that the eyes of the Lord may be open toward the temple day and night. The Jews, when in any part of the world, prayed with their faces toward Jerusalem, and the prayer asks that when any of the people of Israel shall have sinned and are seeking forgiveness, or are in trouble from being wonderfully afflicted with, or from defeat in war, they shall look toward the temple and pray, that God will hear them. Or if the nation had sinned and there was no rain for a long time as a punishment, Solomon asks that if the people repent and turn toward God's house, ask forgiveness, He will hear and forgive. Christians do not turn toward any place when they pray, but their thoughts go to the cross of Christ, in whose name we ask all things.—Western.

Words: Trees of the Bible.

1. Is the first mention of [illegible]
2. Is a remarkable tradition [illegible] the Greeks respecting it?
3. What is said about the flower [illegible] tree in Job?
4. What is meant by this?
5. For what purpose does the [illegible] employ this figure?
6. What prophet speaks of the [illegible] of this tree?

Teachers.

Who [illegible] of a better training for their work, and superintendents who desire to organize classes of young people for preparation as teachers, are invited to communicate with Rev. J. S. Hurlburt, D. D., at the office of the Sunday-school Department, 805 Broadway, New York, (enclosing stamp) and apply for the circulars explanatory of the Assembly Normal Union, which provides a plan and course of study in the Bible and in Sunday-school work, with special Normal lesson leaves, questions, examinations, and a diploma on the completion of the course.

Marriages.

In New Orleans, La., Oct. 16, 1884, by Rev. T. G. Montgomery, Mr. Victor Jones and Miss Henrietta Oden, at the residence of Mr. Claiborne.

On the 2d of October, 1884, at the residence of the bride, No. 90 Gasquet street, Mr. P. H. Hudson to Miss Mary E. White; M. Dale officiating.

On the evening of Oct. 13, 1884, at No. 45 North Villere street, Mr. Remie Metoyer to Mrs. Francis Smith. Rev. M. Dale officiating.

In New Orleans, La., by Rev. G. T. Montgomery, Mr. Jacob Montgomery to Miss Jennie Ellis.

Mr. Merity Tanner to Miss Mary Omar, at Dulac, La., Oct. 11, 1884, by Rev. C. H. Claiborne, in St. Paul M. E. Church. Both are residents of the parish, and natives of Louisiana.

In M. E. Church, Houma, La., Thursday night, October 16, 1884, the pastor officiating, Mr. Thomas J. Jackson and Miss Addie Sims were united in holy wedlock. The pair presented a most dignified appearance, and had the many good wishes of a host of friends.

A. N. JACKSON.

Society is in a pucker over the question, "Shall our girls whistle?" Of course they may, if they strengthen their lungs by using the great Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Obituary.

Sister Virgin a Gibson departed this life in full triumph of faith. Just before leaving she said, "Come, Lord, don't come without the chariot; come on Jesus; Lord if it is thy will it is my pleasure; come, Jesus, this is your will. Lord help me; have mercy. O Lord; help, O Jesus. have mercy! Lord have mercy; mercy Lord, mercy." Then she said to parents and friends, "Don't grieve, but meet me," A little while again she said: "I can't go before the Lord sends Elijah with the chariot." Again she said, "The misery is great, but the love is so sweet." Again she said, "Come on, chariot, come on, sweet chariot; come on, come on chariot. We have had good times here and bad ones, too, but meet me on Jordan, I say." Her last words were: "Lord stand by me." She was aged 17 years, 2 months and 17 days. CYRUS H. CLAIBORNE, Jr.

Dulac, La.

Rodney Maryland Thomas, Oct. 7, 1884, infant son of Roma and Rebecca Thomas, aged about 12 months.

H. J. W.

Natchitoches, La., Oct. 8, 1884.

Mrs. Sallie Blythe Manson, on Tuesday, Sept. 23, died at the age of 88 years, at the residence of her son, Rev. B. B. Manson. She has lived a member of the M. E. Church for 65 years. Her descendants number 139. She was a native of Virginia, and was well known to the older residents of this community, and was kind to every one.

B. B. MANSON.

Bro. Jack Rhodes, a member of Winan's Chapel, departed this life Sept. 3, 1884. He had been a consistent member and class leader for near 20 years. He died full of faith and the love of God. He was 69 years, 9 months and 15 days old. He was beloved by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

T. G. MONTGOMERY.

For All Brain-workers.

Mr. J. R. Francis, of the Religio Philosophical Journal, Chicago, says: "Parker's Tonic is the specific for all the ills that literary flesh are heir to. I have used it for digestive disorders, and for coughs, colds and pains generally. Workers on the Press, in the Law, the School and the pulpit will find it the right thing.

15 Pounds Gained in Three Weeks, and CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

Messrs. Craddock & Co., 1032 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—Please send me twelve bottles of DR. H JAMES CANNABIS INDICA, one each of Pills and Ointment, for a friend of mine who is not expected to live; and as your medicine cured me of Consumption some three years ago, I want him to try them. I gained fifteen pounds while taking the first three bottles, and I know it is just the thing for him. Respectfully,

J. V. HULL,
Lawrenceburg, Anderson Co., Ky.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once. It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

Books and Current Literature.

The prolific pen of Dr. Wise has given us a book exclusively upon a subject interesting to Methodists, Our Missionary Heroes or Heroines, or Heroic Deeds Done in Methodist Mission Fields, is called by the author a series of "etchings," and is designed to attract and interest the youth of our church. It will find a hearty welcome in the Sunday-school libraries, where there has been a dearth of missionary biography and history. Many names familiar to us all, are found in these pages. Africa, India, Ceylon, China, Japan, Italy and the Islands of the South Seas furnish incidents which, interwoven, bind the whole world together with a chord of Christian heroism.

Illustrations from History; or Historical facts suitable for illustrations either in speaking, writing or conversation. It also supplies a fund of historical instruction for parents and teachers; distributed under topics which are alphabetically arranged, and furnished with a very full index, drawn from Gibbon's History of the Roman Empire, by Rev. James A. Dean, A. M., D. D., late President of the New Orleans University. Price $1.50, published by James A. Dean & Co., Mystic, Conn. 12 mo. cloth, 355 pages, neatly gotten up, and conveniently arranged; a very useful book, and deserves a large sale. Copies at this office.

Vacation Day at Foxwood—By Elizabeth P. Allan. American Tract Society, 150 Nassau street New York. Price $1. It is a lively book of 212 pages, 21 chapters, plain type, nicely finished, pleasing in manner and matter. Dedicated to the McDonogh Boys. 12 mo. cloth gilt. Young people can find no bad results after reading this book, and their advisers can do good by putting such works within their reach.

"An Original Belle," written exclusively for The Current by E. P. Roe and the masterpiece of this greatest American novelist, will begin in The Current in November. Mr. Roe himself pronounces it the most powerful and dramatic work he has ever done. All admirers of The Current should call the attention of every one of their friends to this great work, as well as the high merits of The Current fifty-two weeks in the year.

The Song Friend.—The September number of this popular monthly is before us. It is filled with matter of the greatest interest to all lovers of music. "Hints on Singing" by James Gill, and "Does it Pay," by W. F. Werschkul, are among the numerous able articles contributed. "Be not Deceived" is an editorial of special importance to those who are expecting to engage singing class teachers and convention conductors. There are eleven pages of fine vocal and instrumental music, including "We'll be each other's joy and pride." A beautiful new duet for a lady and a gentleman, by S. W. Straub. Now is the time to subscribe for this splendid music journal, as those who subscribe now will get three months free. Only $1 a year, 10 cents for sample copy. Address S. W. Straub; 336 State street, Chicago, Ill.

Brahmoism or History of Reformed Hindnism from its origin in 1880, under Rajah Mohun Roy to the present time, with a particular account of Babu Keshub Chunder Sen's connection with the movement, by Ram Chandra Bose, of Lucknow, India. New York: Funk and Wagnals, 10 and 12 Dey street. This work contains the substance, of lectures in Hindu and English, and their publication and sale here and in India is designed to dispel the misapprehension which stands in the way of genuine Christian progress. The writer is well qualified for his task, handles his subject with ability, and the book has a just claim to liberal patronage. The author with great cleverness compares the three great modern innovations upon religion, Mormonism, Comptism and Brahmoism, and this is of itself worth the price of the book.

Miscellaneous Essays. By Richard A. Proctor. J. Fitzgerald, Publisher, 20 Lafayette Place, New York. Sent anywhere for 15 cents in postage stamps.

Mr. Proctor is unquestionably the most versatile of modern scientists, and the present work shows him at his best in many diversified branches of knowledge. The subjects treated are "Strange Coincidences;" "Coincidences and Superstitions;" Gambling Superstitions;" "Strange Sea Creatures;" "The Origin of Whales;" "Prayer and Weather." Finally there is a highly suggestive and practical essay on Learning Languages. For sale by Ellis, New Orleans.

The title "Babyland" was brought into use by D. Lothrop & Co. for their charming magazine Babyland, the bound volume of which is each year a delight in many thousand of homes. Its great reputation has been won by intrinsic merit of exquisite adaptation, by the purity and delicate humor of the text, and the charm of its beautiful and amusing pictures. It has been edited during the eight years of its publication by the editor of Wide Awake. Its great and well-earned reputation has induced certain publishers to attempt imitations. It becomes necessary, therefore, to warn the public against these inferior books issued under similar titles, and to state that there is but one genuine Babyland, and this always has the imprint of D. Lothrop & Co., Boston.

Thoughts on Holiness.—The great number of books which are issuing for and against the doctrine and experience of entire sanctification within late years makes it a subject of unusual interest, and gives notability to every succeeding production on that subject. The latest in this line is Thoughts on Holiness, by Mark Guy Pearse, with an introduction by W. McDonald, published and for sale by McDonald & Gill, office of the Christian Witness, 36 Bromfield Street, Boston; price not stated. It merits a good sale and close reading.

The American Antiquarian is a journal which is devoted mainly to American archaeology, although it treats of other subjects. One object is to collect material on the antiquities of this country, and to put it into such shape that it may be useful for reference at some future time. Its opportunities for doing this are great. Nearly all the Archaeologists of the country are interested in the journal and ready to furnish information to it. The magazine is taken by nearly all the prominent libraries in the world. It represent the best scholarship of of the country, and deserves support on this account. It endeavors to keep pace with the progress of discovery and exploration in all parts the world. It has correspondents in France, England, Syria, India, China and Japan, and is prepared to furnish information from all parts of the world. The magazine is a valuable one and deserves support. The publishers issue but a limited edition, and it is probable that the journal will be difficult to get after a few years. S. D. Peet, editor; F. H. Revell, publisher.

Fenno's Favorites No. 2 is a neat paper-bound volume of 264 pages containing One Hundred Choice Pieces for Reading and Speaking. The editor, Prof. F. H. Fenno, author of the well-known text-book. "The Science and Art of Elocution" has introduced a preliminary essay on "How to Impersonate," which supplements that in Fenno's Favorites No 1 on "The Principles of Gesture." A trained judgment is shown in the selections; they are fresh and well suited to elocutionary purposes. The print and paper are excellent.

Although The Popular Science Monthly has now been running a dozen years, it has issued no number in more perfect accordance with its ideal purpose than that for October, now before us. The object of the magazine is to bring forward distinctively and prominently the higher human aspects of scientific inquiry, and every one of the fifteen articles of the present number sustains this character. The first paper, by Dr. F. J. Shepherd on "The Significance of Human Anomalies," is an illustrated and very timely exposition of those aberrations of structure in the human system, which for centuries were the puzzle of anatomists, but which are now completely cleared up by the doctrine of descent and evolution. Francis Galton's paper on the "Measurement of Character" is a skillful and most suggestive attempt to bring the higher human characteristics within the pale of quantitative science. Lord Rayleigh's survey of "The Recent Progress of Physical Science," which was his presidential address before the Montreal meeting of the British Association, is given in full, as it deserves to be, though we observe that elsewhere it appears only in abstracts. Being of great interest in itself, and the most striking production of a memorable occasion, readers will especially value it for its completeness. A biographical sketch and a fine portrait of Lord Rayleigh are also given. "Diet for the Gouty," in Professor Williams's series on "The Chemistry of Cookery," "Wages, Capital and Rich Men," "The Physiological Aspect of Mesmerism," "The Morality of Happiness" (conclusion), "Protection against Lightning," "The Cholera Germ," and "The Origin of Cultivated Plants," are all fresh, readable, and meaty papers. Professor J. P. Cooke contributes "Further Remarks on the Greek Question," and the editor keeps up his lively fight with the classicists for more room and higher consideration for science in education. New York: D. Appleton & Company. Fifty cents a number, $5 a year.

THE publishers of OCEAN to OCEAN desire to secure the names of one million subscribers. With that number to go before advertisers, who are willing to pay one cent per line per thousand of circulation, or $10 a line for a million, the profits of the paper will approximate as follows:—RECEIPTS: 1,000,000 subscribers, at $2, $2,000,000; 500 inches advertising space, at $10 a line or $140 an inch, 52 issues, $3,640,000—total, $5,640,000. EXPENSES: for paper and press work, 1,000,000 copies, 52 issues, $600,000; editorial work, office, repairs, etc., $50,000; premium engravings, $1,000,000; incidentals, commissions, etc., $100,000;—total $1,750,000; leaving a net profit of $3,890,000. This enormous profit from sale of advertising space, Ocean to Ocean will owe directly to its subscribers, for advertisers will pay $10 a line simply because the paper will have 1,000,000 circulation. In order to secure such a circulation and such profits, the publishers will loan back to subscribers in $100 to $500 amounts, the profits thus secured, and also furnish the most attractive and valuable Premium ever offered.

The GRANDEST PREMIUM and a Long Loan AT 4 per cent

"Waiting for the Verdict."—This grand engraving was never sold for less than $12 a copy. We will pay $1,000 for any copy purchased at retail for a less amount. Our order is for 1,000,000 copies, we paying cost of American plate.

Every future subscriber to Ocean to Ocean can secure a copy of this, the most valuable work of art ever issued in the form of an engraving, by sending 42c. in addition to the subscription price, to prepay cost, express and properly packing, or postage, if sent by mail. Also, any subscriber who desires to borrow from $100 to $500 at 4 per cent., the principal to stand if desired as long as borrower remains a subscriber, should so state when he orders the premium. In such case—

The Subscription Price, $2.00, need not be sent, as it can be deducted when Loan is made

And subscription begins. Your individual note is all the security asked: provided you will send the names of several of your neighbors to whom we can refer, not as to the amount of property you are worth, but as to good character. First year's interest at 4 per cent., and subscription price will be deducted from amount borrowed.

CONDITIONS.

Loans made pro rata; not less than $100 nor more than $500. First year's interest at 4 per cent., and the subscription price to be deducted from amount loaned. If the subscriber does not apply for a loan, the subscription price must be sent in advance. If a loan is desired, no money need be sent for subscription, the charges for the Premium, 42c., only being required, as the subscription and first year's interest can be deducted from the loan. Every subscriber must accept as a condition of receiving the Premium, that he will display it in a conspicuous place in his house or office, and inform those who call how and where he secured it. Positively this must be done. Every Premium sent out secures additional subscribers, and no application will be entered unless the charges on the Premium are sent. These charges, 42c., have nothing to do with the subscription price, and barely cover cost, delivery, and properly packing so large an engraving, and the delivery charges must be prepaid. The subscription price, $2 (which represents a profit and yet a direct expense) can remain unpaid until loan is made and subscription begins. Postage stamps will not be received for Premium charges except from places where a postal note can not be obtained. When a loan is made the adjoining form of note will be sent, with the money, to the subscriber's nearest bank or express office, and no note need be signed until the money is paid over. Send the names of several references, and immediate inquiry will be made. If no loan is desired, no references need be sent. The Premium will be sent at once. Address, Ocean to Ocean, 16 Bradford Block, CINCINNATI, O.

One year after date, for value received, I promise to pay to the order of the publishers of OCEAN TO OCEAN the sum of . . . . . Dollars, with interest at 4 per cent. per annum after maturity. It is understood and agreed that no part of the principal of this note will be demanded or become payable, (except at my pleasure,) as long as I remain a paid-up subscriber to the above named paper.

(Signed,) . . . . . .

Honest Willie, by Lydia L. House, American Tract Society, 150 Nassau street New York. There are three parts to the work, 1. "Honest Willie;" 2. "Effie Patterson's Story" and 3. "A Sequel," by Christie Somerville. The work is well illustrated, in fine, clear type. Price not stated.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conference.	Place.	Time.	Bishop.
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	Wiley
South India	Hyderabad, India	Nov 20	Hurst
Texas	Navasota, Texas	Nov 20	Harris
Cent'l Alabama	Gadsden, Ala	Nov 26	Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov 27	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec 3	Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec 4	Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La.	Dec 24	Harris

Information Wanted.

At the session of the Ohio Conference, held at Chillicothe, Ohio, Sept. 26, 1877, Rev. John Osgood was received upon a certificate of location from the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and appointed by Bishop Gilbert Haven missionary to Africa. Some time after this Bro. Osgood returned to this country, since which time his conference has known nothing concerning him. Should this notice come to the attention of any person who knows the whereabouts of this brother, he will confer a favor by communicating the same to the undersigned at Belpre, Washington county, Ohio.

D. Y. MURDOCK,
Secretary Ohio Conference.

Greenwood District.

Last Round.

Winona and Vaiden	Nov.	1-2- 3
Lexington	"	4
Goodman	"	6
Durant	"	8- 9
Attala	"	11
Louisville	"	14
French Camp	"	15 16
Kosciosko	"	19
Carthage	"	22-23
Pickens	"	26
Rosebud and Minter City	"	29 30
Greenwood	Dec.	6- 7
Roseneath	"	13 14
Yazoo City	"	20-21
Green Hill	"	23
Benton	"	27-28
Yazoo City circuit	"	27-28
Deasonville	"	13 14

H. R REVELS.

Holly Springs, Oct. 17, 1884.

P. S.—The second district conference of Greenwood District cannot be held till near the time of meeting of the Annual Conference, and when the preachers are on the way to said Annual Conference, and hence the time of the meeting of the district conference cannot be given till our next Bishop publishes the date of the meeting of our next Annual Conference. The above statement is fully supported by the fact that Greenwood District is so formed, that most of the charges which compose it are so far from any point at which a district conference could be held, that it would consume too much of the preachers' time, to say nothing of heavy traveling expenses, so near the close of the conference year, to go to a district conference and return to their charges before starting to the Annual Conference. The above explanation shows why our district conferences are not in some respects held as they are in other districts. H. R. REVELS.

Louisville District—Lexington Conference.

Fourth Round.

Chaplain	Nov.	1- 2
Fairfield	"	3 4
Wakefield	"	5- 6
Finchville	"	8- 9
Frankfort	"	11-12
Loyd Street	"	15-16
Mt. Washington	"	22-23
West Cironit	"	26 27
Jeffersontown	"	29-30
East Circuit	Dec.	2- 3
New Haven circuit	"	6- 7
Samuel Station	"	9-10
Anchorage	"	13-14
Coke Chapel	"	20 21
Pewee Valley	"	27-28
Sulphur and Patton Creek	Jan.	3- 4
Jeriobo	"	10-11
Jackson Street	"	17 18
Lagrange	"	25 25
Bedford	Jan. 1, Feb.	1-
Floyd Fork	"	7- 8
Strawberry circuit	"	14 15
Simpsonville	"	21-22
Shelbyville	Feb. 28, Mar.	1-
Frankfort	"	7- 8

Be ye also ready.

W. W. LOCKE, P. E.
19.4 Shelby St., Louisville, Ky.

Volume 11, No. 12, St. Nicholas, an illustrated magazine for young folks, contains Science, Art, Sport, Adventure, Ye Nursery, Jack in the Pulpit, Poetry, Travel. Conducted by Mary Mapes Dodge. The Century Co., New York.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2 50, or three bottles, $6 50 Circulars free. se18-13t

Children like it. One pleasing thing in the use of Ridge's Food as a daily diet is that it is gratifying to the taste. Furthermore, it combines all the elements for bone, muscle and sinew as in no other preparation. Thousands of children have been reared upon it. The use of Ridge's Food is invaluable as an alternate meal for the child, and the mother can often raise the standard by adopting it as directed for invalids. In cans, 35c., 65c., $1 25 and $1.75 WOOLRICH & CO., on label.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

292 .....Rampart Street..... 292

(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.

All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.

sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

Good Pay for Agents. $100 to $200 per mo., made selling our fine Books and Bibles. Write to J. C. McCURDY & CO. sept13-1y St. Louis, Mo.

MASON & HAMLIN

Exhibited at ALL the important WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL COMPETITIVE EXHIBITIONS FOR SEVENTEEN YEARS, Mason & Hamlin Organs have, after most rigid examinations and comparisons, been ALWAYS FOUND BEST, and AWARDED HIGHEST HONORS; not even in one such important comparison ORGANS has any other American Organ been found equal to them. Our HUNDRED STYLES, adapted to all uses, from the smallest size, yet having the characteristic Mason & Hamlin excellence, at $22, to the best instrument which it is possible to construct from reeds, at $900 or more, illustrated catalogues, 46 pp. 4to, and price lists, free.

The Mason & Hamlin Company manufacture UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, adding to all the improvements which have been found valuable in such instruments, PIANOS one of peculiar practical value, tending to greatest purity and refinement in quality of tone and durability, especially diminished liability to get out of tune. Pronounced the greatest improvement made in upright pianos for half a century. The MASON & HAMLIN CO., pledge themselves that every piano of their make shall illustrate that VERY HIGHEST EXCELLENCE which has always characterized their organs. Send for circular with illustrations, full description and explanation.

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO CO.,

BOSTON, 154 Tremont St. CHICAGO, 149 Wabash Ave
NEW YORK, 46 East 14th St. (Union Square.)

oct23-26t

OUR SONG WORLD

A New Book for Singing Classes, Institutes and Conventions.

By GEO. F. ROOT & C. C. CASE.

CONTAINS

The finest Elementary Lessons, both in quality and grading, that have ever appeared in any book.

The Best of simple Part Songs, Tunes and Anthems with beautiful Glees and Secular Choruses, crowned by the brilliant "Italia."

Effective Music for Class and Concert Work, from that which "sings itself," up to Gounod's "Unfold Ye Portals."

Take the book all in all and it is one that will make class teaching a pleasure and delight to Teachers and Pupils.

Price, 60cts. each by mail, postpaid; $6.00 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Specimen Pages Free.

PUBLISHED BY

JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 45. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, NOVEMBER 6. 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 784.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

32 Natchez Street New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more	8 cents.
One month (4 times)	7 "
Three months (13 times)	6 "
Six months (26 times)	5 "
One year (52 times)	4 "
Marriage Notices	25 "
Special Notices	8 cents, net cas

Editorial Notes.

"Aloft thou eagle, with a piercing eye;
Wide spread thy golden wings upon the gale;
Up, mounting proudly to the glorious sky,
Oh, never let thy sight or pinion fail;
Up, up, brave eagle; boldly heavenward sail
And cast thy telescopic eye abroad
O'er mountain, prairie, river, lake and vale,
And sketch the wide inheritance bestowed,
Fresh in its beauty's bloom as Eden newly trod."

Confide in every one and remember those who disappoint you.

Push the canvass now. Do not wait for or after Conference, pastors.

The prohibition people do not want liquor taxed, because they no not want it made.

Some folks can only learn the thickness of their skull by butting it against a stone wall.

A smile does not always mean a friend. The Lord was betrayed by a kiss, and the kisser was not an enemy, but a professed friend.

Remember that the subscription price of the SOUTHWESTERN is $1.50, if paid cash in advance; otherwise it is $2 per year as heretofore.

It is a good thing to find wisdom, and you may not find it exclusively in schools, but where and whoso findeth it, findeth life, and shall obtain favor of the Lord.

The Evangelical Trumpet is a new paper, printed in French, by reformed Roman Catholics, for circulation among French speaking people. It has a wide field and will doubtless do good.

The SOUTHWESTERN returns thanks for official documents of great value from, the Commission of Education including his report for 1882-3, and circulars for 1884.

We must make this Centennial year memorable in the annals of our Church, on account of the magnificent offering we lay upon its altar. The colored members of the Methodist Episcopal Church are abundantly able to raise $50,000 of the $100,000 asked of the South by the Freedmen's Aid Society.

If all the Methodists in our territory should resolve to concentrate their patronage upon one paper, there is about enough of it to support a first class paper. The SOUTHWESTERN is the oldest, the best equipped, the only official journal of the General Conference. There is room enough in its columns to represent every interest of the Church, and it is published in the commercial metropolis of the South.

For the SOUTHWESTERN

Woman's Home Mission Work in Louisiana.

MISS JOSEPHINE COWGILL.

The object of our Society is to do what we can to better the condition of the souls and bodies of the many poor and needy ones about us. Especially to better the homes of the poor, and in kind conversation try to teach them how, as far as possible, to make their dwelling places fill ont the true meaning of that sweet word home; to make them nurseries of virtue and piety for the young. We read to them the Bible, talk and pray with them, and try, God helping us, to teach them the beauty and blessedness of a heart and life consecrated to God; and the great need of virtue, refinement and the showing of piety at home. Some of the poor afflicted ones we visit, would never hear the precious message of salvation if it was not taken to their homes and to their bed-sides.

As far as means will permit, we furnish a little clothing or food to very destitute ones. We gather children into Sabbath schools and into our day Mission Schools, where they are taught not only the common branches of study, but also moral and religious instruction is given, with Bible and Catechism lessons; sewing schools and prayer meetings are connected with these schools. Our work in this city, as is well known, originated in the mind and heart, and with the helping hand of dear Sister Hartzell, who for several years, from her own means and some solicitated from friends, supported several Missionaries, superintending the work herself. But three years ago, sad for our work, our dear Sister Hartzell's health failed and she was oblige to leave us and go North. How we missed her efficient management of our work, her sweet loving spirit and heart that had room in it for every-body; how we missed her words cannot tell.

At her departure from this city, I was put in charge of her work. Since then, how poorly her work has been attended to and how much it has suffered for want of an efficient head, no one could be more painfully conscious of than myself. My time here has principally been given to the poor; my places of work have been in homes of the poor, in our schools and some churches, in the hospital, among the prisoners, in dens of vice and infamy and on the streets.

In seven months of last year I made 2,726 religious visits among the poor, both white and colored, held 224 meetings, and 100 Bible readings, gave 1034 garments to the poor, and 263 books; distributed 4,818 tracts and papers, and wrote 337 letters for our work, many of these letters were for public reading and contained 2 and 3 sheets, full of incidents and matters of interest connected with our work. I also had charge of a sewing school and prayer meeting in Ames Mission, among the white children. Sometimes 60 or 70 would be in attendance, some of them very rude.

I look over these fields with regret, that so little of the great work needed to be done, has been accomplished. Would that I could give a lifetime of work to each of these very needy fields.

From our Missionary Society at Cincinnati, I receive a good and comfortable support, while in the field, and this is all I want or ought to have. Each summer I return North, where I am offered a good and easy position, where I could clear several hundred dollors per year, if only I will give up this work in the South, but such offers are no temptation to me while I feel that God appoints my work here. I do not remember at the close of any year of my missionary work here that I have cleared more than $2 or $3. Yet, to be a co-worker with God in seeking and saving the lost, and to have His approbation is better than thousands of gold and silver. Surely there can be no better, no happier and better paying work this side of heaven, than the work for which our dear Lord gave His life, and in which He permits us to engage. May the Lord of this great harvest, send more laborers into this needy but blessed work.

New Orleans, Louisiana.

Divinity of Christ.

A Sermon by Rev. Anatole Pannalle

"And Simon Peter answered and said: 'Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.'" Matt. 16. 16.

The reply of the apostle to the question proponnded by our Lord, relative to their idea of personage, indicated that they had a very correct knowledge of the Savior. It is plainly implied in the succeeding verse, however, that a proper conception of the Redeemer was not to be ascribed to human understanding independently, but to a revelation from God, Himself, to man. "Flesh and blood had not revealed unto thee but my Father, who is in heaven," (Matt. 16 17) added the Savior when commending St. Peter for his correct reply.

The language of the Lord, upon several occasions, plainly indicated that He claimed to be the promised Messiah, and as such the Son of God; there are instances, however, in which He assents His divinity and Messiahship in unmistakable terms, to which, I would especially invite your attention. The first of the passages referred to will be found in the present text, and the second is that noticed at the trial of the Lord before the Sanhedrim, when Jesus is asked by the high priest: "Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?" In the first case, the correctness of St. Peter's reply to the Lord's inquiry is implied from the fact that the Lord says, "His Father had revealed this great truth to the apostle." In the last instance, the Lord's reply to Caiphas' question: "Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?" is "I am." Mark 14. 62. The answer is unequivocating and emphatic.

Now, let us consider the force in the claim to the Messiahship, made by Jesus Christ in the passages referred to. In order to do this, we shall refer to prophecies, for this is our earliest means of knowledge, except one other instance, relative to the coming of a Savior. That a Messiah was expected by the Jewish people no one will deny, inasmuch as He is still anticipated by them. Their belief, that a Savior was coming upon earth is indeed derived from direct promise of God, Gen. 3-15. There are many prophecies respecting the appearance of a Savior in the world to which we could refer you, we will only notice two. We refer first to that found in the 2d Psalm 17 verse. This prophecy foretells the coming of Jesus Christ 1040 years previous to His advent into the world.

Our second reference is to Daniel 2 36. This is the concluding verse of King Nebuchadnezzar's dream, which he could not recall to memory, but was afterward shown to Daniel by the Lord. The only comment I desire to make upon this verse is to show you, that it referred to Jesus, and to the nature of His kingdom, is that made by the prophet, himself, in the interpretation of the King's dream which is found in the 44th verse of the same chapter. The prophet closes this verse in these words: "The dream is certain and the interpretation sure."

It is also plainly implied as you must have observed, that in St. Peter's answer: "Thou art the Christ," as well as in Caiphas' question: "Art thou the Christ," that a Savior was expected.

Now it sometimes occurs in our proceedings with a cause at court, that the veracity of a person who is testifying is questioned. It is the custom, according to jurisprudence, when this is so, to inquire into the general reputation sustained by such a person in the community, and their evidence is accordingly admitted or rejected. The veracity of Jesus Christ, however, could not be successfully impeached by those who persecuted Him, while He was upon earth. It is a fact that many denied the truthfulness of His claim to the Messiahship, without ever producing a tangible reason, however, while it is equally true that many accepted Him as the Messiah, and to prove this truth, submit a history of facts which came under their observation.

Furthermore, those who are unwilling to admit the divinity of Jesus Christ at the present time, allow that he was in all respects an extraordinary good and virtuous person, that His teachings are highly commendable, and that His "sermons on the mount," are unequaled for eloquence, hence we conclude, going upon this hypothises at least, that Jesus Christ is entitled to credit, for how can we conceive that He should be an extraordinarily good and virtuous person, and still be a liar, and an impostor, such as the world never witnessed, except in this instance? Such He must be, if He was the Son of God, for this He claimeth to be. Not in the sense as explained by some persons who deny the divinity of Jesus Christ, but as such a God, acting in union with His Father: "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father," (John 14 9) says the Savior when one of His disciples would see God.

The union of God and man, which makes our Lord so wonderful a personage in the Trinity, certainly involves a mystery surpassing the understanding of a finite mind, therefore, it would be absolutely foolish to attempt the solution of a matter entirely beyond human comprehension, but is it reasonable to conclude, for this cause, that the union of these persons does not exist in the Lord? Are there not many phenomena, equally as incomprehensible to us? Who can conceive the idea that space is endless? Yet we know it cannot have bounds, or that eternity is time without end, still we are sure that it does last always.

Now, of all these great myteries we shall content ourselves, if we know something of only man for instance; for it would seem proper that we should have some knowledge of ourselves. Who will explain the union between mind and matter, known to exist in soul and body? If such a person can be found, we shall conclude that their knowledge of psychology will entitle them to the first place in the rank of the wisest. But because we have not the ability, in our present existence, to understand question involvings such mysteries, are we to conclude that such of those as would awaken distress in our minds, are untrue and cannot be. On the other hand, readily accede to those from which nothing alarming results to the soul, as we enter into an investigation of these question?

While many prophesies, as stated, predicted the coming of the Messiah, and that He should be the Son of God, the fact that Jesus Christ was this predicted Messiah is proven by the Lord himself in the performance of miracles. A miracle is the occurrence of an event contrary to the established course of things, hence those wrought by our Lord were intended to enforce the reception of a spiritual truth; means to a higher end, therefore credentials upon which the truthfulness of his divinity is established. Among the many miracles that were performed by Jesus Christ, I conceive some to be pre-eminent in proof of the divinity of the Lord. Not because in performing these miracles a greater display of power is conceived to be exercised by Him, neither is it to be attributed to a greater manifestation of the benevolence of the Lord extended to those in whose behalf they are performed, but because in the operation of these miracles a suspension of the laws of nature actually take place. It is a fundamental principle among all civilized nations of the world that the same power only which gave a law of existence, can annul or suspend it, but how much is this true of those laws governing every part of creation? Would any person contend that a power less in its prerogative than that exercised by the Supreme Being can cause any interruption in our earth's journey in its course around the sun? All the objects upon the face of the earth are held there by a principle called the law of gravitation, as you know. Now, conceive this law to be suspended but for an instant only, and every object upon earth would be swept into space. Suppose the occurence of the event here conjectured, to be effected by the order, or under the direction of a Being, and not happening in the regular course of things, nor resulting from some natural cause, which we can hardly believe to be possible, we should at once necessarily conclude that this Being must be the some person who ordained these laws at the beginning; and that Christ is an active person in the work of creation, the Scriptures certainly affirm in John 1,6 3. The terrific disaster that must occur upon earth resulting from these supposed interruptions, must be appalling, hence differing from the miracles wrought by the Lord, in this respect, since in performing them nothing resulted but good, and not anything new issued from the operation of these miracles; nevertheless it will be noticed that the very same principles are involved, that is, an interruption in the regularly established laws of nature actually takes place.

In the first of these miracles water is converted into wine. We know positively that water is formed by the union of two gases, oxygen and hydrogen, and that these gases unite with mathematical precision in forming this liquid, that is, two parts of oxygen and sixteen of hydrogen, and we know further that these gases, thus united, can not possibly form anything but water. We are also aware, by an analysis of wine, that it is composed of alcohol, sugar, bitartrate of potassa, lime, gum and several other chemicals. Now these, as we have noticed, from an analysis of water, do not enter into its composition at all. Therefore we conclude that converting water into wine is indeed an extraordinary occurrence in which the regular laws of nature have been suspended. In the account of the next miracle we are informed that a man dies when having attained the age of 30 years. Physically speaking, a person dies because he is possessed of some disease which is incompatible with the further continuance of life. I hardly think it necessary to use any argument to convince you that "to die" is our inevitable end. You could hope, with as much propriety, that a watch should continue its motions when its main-spring is broken, as to entertain the thought that man should live, having come to the position here depicted. In the instance here cited not only was the man dead, but decomposition had actually taken place in the body. We are informed that the Lord called him, telling him to come forth, and in obedience to his command Lazarus rose from the dead. Could it have been a Being less in the exercise of its prerogatives than He who blew into the nostrils of man's body, at creation, the breath of life? "All things were made by Him....In Him was life." John 1, 3-4. Hence, in restoring Lazarus to life Jesus Christ only performs the same act done by Him, when our first progenitors were given existence. Oxygen, the great scavenger of nature, is arrested in its progress upon this body, and whatever decomposition it had effected is healed, because the Lord wills that it should be so. The miracle performed upon the sea of Galilee, in which the tempest is caused to subside, is of equal importance in proof of the divinity of Christ. Winds and storms are currents of heavier air, making their way to some place where the air has become lighter, and therefore less dense from the effect of heat, this, of course is in accordance with the laws of nature. It must thus be in obedience to the law of gravitation that the heavier winds should rush to fill the space thus made in the atmosphere. It is, indeed, as natural for these storms to occur as it is for a stone to fall back to the earth, when thrown up, and it would be equally as impossible for a finite being to attempt to arrest these winds as it would be to stop the earth in its journey around the sun. Can you conceive a more sublime spectacle than that seen in the exercise of the power of the Lord upon this occasion? "The darkness, the dashing waves, the howling winds, the heaving and tossing ship, the fears and cries of the seamen, are all hushed into a calm repose" at the gentle command. "Peace, be still." Do you wonder at these men being struck with wild astonishment, that they exclaim, "What manner of man is this, that even the winds obey!" It has been illustrated that, in the operation of these miracles, the regular laws of nature established in the beginning have been suspended. Let us suppose, for in-

(Continued on Eighth page.)

From the Districts.

New Orleans District.

Of the several charges and circuits on this district I have said so much that there is danger of repetition if I attempt to say much more. And yet, each time I pass over the work I see something new and interesting. At the recent session of the New Orleans District Conference Bro. John Smith, a local elder, was appointed to Slidell, a new town on the line of the North-eastern road, just across Lake Ponchartrain. Bro. Smith went immediately to his work and has thus far had a good measure of success. He has received five into the church, two on probation, and organized a Sunday school of nearly thirty scholars, bought a lot 100x160 feet for a church, and has the money pledged to pay for it as soon as the papers are executed. Bro. Smith has sounded a bugle note at Slidell which, I hope, will be taken up and sounded loud and long by every local preacher on the district.

Bro. Hardy, at Pearl River, had secured a team from Mr. Raymo Crawford, a well-to do farmer on his charge, and a great friend of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and sent the District Steward, who is a lady, to take me to his work. Bro. Hardy is standing at his post, and doing a good work for the Lord.

It is well to keep in mind a few fundamental facts. Men are not proprietors, but stewards. God makes no mistakes, and he will surely settle with every delinquent steward. He does not always wait till judgment to balance accounts, and while he is never in a hurry to collect his dues men in the church never get away without payment. Somehow, in some way, at some time, God will deduct from the purse of every stingy steward who is croaking about frequent collections and the cost of religion. "He proclaims his hot displeasure against" those who rob him in "tithes and offerings." He "involves the heavens in tempests, puts his grasp upon the winds and gives them their fury;" He sends the freshet and the drouth, the hog and chicken cholera, the weevil and the palmer worm; "He will have his own to the last farthing." The shrewd sons of men may overreach each other, but cursed be that man who withholds from God that which is His due. To every person He says, "Pay what thou owest." He wants His own. It is adding sin to sin when we talk of our poverty. The money paid for tobacco and whiskey would build a church in every neighborhood and handsomely support a preacher.

At Shady Grove Bro. Clark is abundant in labors, his arduous toil and self-sacrificing spirit reminds one of the old pioneer preachers. The reports of the stewards showed that he had received from the membership during the quarter just $9.25, and most of this was contributed by a few. But God is marking in clear lines the delinquent ones, and turning them over to the court of equity where some of his claims are settled in this world. Some have lost their horses and some their cattle and hogs. Men may rob God but they must settle with him. We had a pleasant home with Mrs. Harriet Abraham. Sister Abraham has one of the most pleasant homes on the circuit, and, with her children, has raised this season two large bales of cotton. She is a liberal supporter of the church, and the Lord blesses the work of her hands. During the quarter Bro. Clark has received 10 on probation and 12 into the church.

On Spring Chapel circuit Bro. Nelson is "holding the fort."

There is a vast amount of work to be done all through this Southern country which the Methodist Episcopal Church alone can do, and if not done the sin is at her door. [illegible] can do more to back the tide of [illegible] superstition and vice [illegible] any other of the great American churches. In her pulpits, at the head of her institutions of [illegible], and among her communicants are some of the noblest men and women of America. She subscribes to the doctrine that Jesus Christ is the brother of every man and woman and child in the world, loving every one alike, and every one perfectly. The great Head of the Church, the Lord God Almighty, the Father of us all, has given her a work that angels would be glad to do, and where the Church now sends individuals to do this work she should send scores who will work till Jesus comes.

L. P. CUSHMAN.

Rev. H. W. White, P. E., writes: "The Lexington District still moves along. I desire to announce through your columns that the Rev W. H. Evans is moving the work on the new Asbury, they will move this fall; they are now about through roofing. Rev. W. W. Hopewell has built a beautiful little church at Boyd's Station. Rev. F. Ross has built a neat frame chapel at Greenrick. Rev. Tice Buckner has built at Tolesboro. H. C. Buckner is building at Leesburg. Bro. G. W. Thomas says there must be a new Gunn's chapel, and they have secured the plan and raised several hundred dollars for it. Bro. S. G. Turner has raised and paid most of the debt in Versailles that W. M. Jameson left; and now proposes to complete it. The other brethren are doing well, beautifying their edifices and paying old debts. Bro. S. R. Cottrell, finding Georgetown a little too much for him, he resigned. Rev. J. F. Lindsey, formerly of the A. M. E. Church, united with the M. E. Church, and is now stationed at Georgetown, and says send the SOUTHWESTERN to him. His reason for joining us, he says, was a matter of choice, and he is a one-sided man. He wants to live and die with us. May God send more such."

Hot Springs District, Little Rock Conference—Rev. G. B. Donnelly, presiding elder: "I was asked by the presiding elder of the Hot Springs District to hold his third quarterly conferences, or a part of them, commencing at Louisville I complied with said request, and completed the round at New Edinburgh Oct. 11-12. On arriving at Little Rock Oct. 17, I saw a publication in the SOUTHWESTERN by said presiding elder, namely, Rev. L. W. Elkins, stating that he was transfered, and that I, Rev. G. B. Donnelly, succeeded him as presiding elder of Hot Springs District. I also received other information of the same nature. I simply write, as I think it is expected of me to report the condition of said district. If so, my answer is this, as I traveled over the work, not thinking of having to make a report, only to the presiding elder, I did not give the work the attention I ought to have given. So I here say to the brethren of the Hot Springs District: I have one more quarterly conference to hold on the Centre Point work, which will finally complete the third round, after which I will publish the fourth round, as usual; in the SOUTHWESTERN. I hope every Bro. will try to make his work a success. We can if we will. Also remember this is our centennial jubilee. Get every lover of Methodism to give liberally this year. Dr. Rust says $100,000. Let us do our part. The Lord will give it; ask him for it."

Letters From the Laity.

Bennett H. Forrest, Simpson's Chapel, New Orleans—Our pastor, Bro. Jackson, preached a good sermon on Sunday night, Sept. 21st; subject: "The Year of Jubilee Has Come," which seemed to be appreciated by all present. And on the following Monday night our quarterly love feast was another grand occasion, and the church was filled to its utmost capacity, and several spoke of their love to God and man.

"'When we two parted,' after lingering late at the garden gate, I felt that I had taken cold," said Thomas Takeintime, "and next morning I was hoarse indeed. But a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup fixed me up, and there's enough left for next time."

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. A. N. Jackson, Houma, La., writes: "I found the affairs of this church in a deplorable condition, and that such was the condition for months after I cannot deny, but I would not compromise the right and law of the Church for the worry, simply for a present big bluster and success, and finally my course has been accepted and announced as right. Accessions have been made and the church revived. Three rooms have been added to the parsonage, and repairs made in the church and last year's indebtedness paid. This year we pay as we go. The brethren are becoming united, which insures success. I found no financial record here, but from what little information I get from the quarterly conference record, the church is doing better financially than it has for several years. At first quarter, class No. three made highest report, $4.55; at second No. two, $6.55; at third, No. one, will report highest, $15.35. During a class contest, on the 7th inst., No. four was ahead for that day, $1064, 30 ahead of No. one; and for the quarter, No. one is $1.40 in advance of No. four. We have here six classes with William Cashaw, Zack Smith, Charlotte Williams, Edward Lacy, Charles Land, Bella Roberson, leaders respectively. Bro. Claiborne, of Dulac, has been a great help to us by visits, which I have returned. His work at Dulac, for good is marvelous to all, white and colored. Bro. Cushman, there and here is remembered for good. He is often referred to as being a whole souled minister for the right. Things which have seemed hopeless, it is said of him "he ploughed them up"

William Payne, Elliott, Miss., writes: "Our revival is going on with much success. So far we have had 23 conversions, and 72 accessions. We are helping the SOUTHWESTERN and will do more than ever.

C. W. Ivy—Mashulaville, Miss., writes: "Dear Editor, the Lord has blessed my labor this year, and I am determined to settle with the SOUTHWESTERN before conference. I have a very large crop of cotton this year.

C. W. Ivy, Mashulaville, Miss., writes: "We have just closed a revival of eight weeks with 54 converts and 3 from other churches. During the year we have baptized six children and received 49 into full connection. Total, counting those recently converted and joined the church, 106. The Lord has blessed us and we are thankful.

J. D. Walden, Meridian, Miss, writes: "Our church is moving on grandly. Recently, at our quarterly conference we had a grand time. Paid pastor up to date, $386; presiding elder, $70. Received into the church up to date 51, twenty-six of whom are converts.

Rev. H. Cawthron, Greenwood, Miss., writes: "During our protracted meeting the Lord was with us and abundantly blessed us with the outpouring of His spirit. 46 souls was happily converted and with the backsliders who were reclaimed and others who joined, 75 were added to the church. Rev. J. W. Dunn was with us during our meeting and preached for us. Dr. H. R. Revels was with us September 20-21st, he was ill but held our conference and preached a good able sermon, and 40 persons communed. The elder's collection was $15."

Rev. D. J. Price, Allen, La., writes: "Please allow me space for a report of our fourth quarterly conference, held at Allen in Hason Church, October 20th, 1884. Elder S. Duncan was on time, and in the chair; and sang an appropriate hymn and offered a lovely prayer; after which D. J. Price was elected secretary and P. C. Colton assisted. The roll was called, brethren present answered. S. R. Hason, pastor in charge. Robert Emmette, D. J. Price, P. C. Colton, D. Lewis, Charles Mack, H. Brown, Ed Carr, H. Davis, A. Henry, J. Grant, Abb McGough, Landon Burrill and Alex Johnson. Then the order of business was taken up and everything was carried out properly. The elder was eloquent, lively and active. On the 19th, he preached his farewell sermon which was a burning thread that run through each heart of the members, and a deadshot to sinners. It will be long remembered here. We long to see our dear elder, after being with us for four years finish up his work like a man of God and pleased Almighty God as seemingly to man. We would be glad to have Elder S. Duncan with us again if possible, for four more years. He has brought about and caused to be brought about, many good and reliable societies, and made bad people better, and whiskey drinkers temperate and sober men. Yes we need him, we want him back again."

Rev. P. Blue, Enterprise, Miss., writes: "We have just closed our revival, which resulted in 34 conversions, and 41 accessions to the church. Bro. Cooper assisted us in the meeting and rendered valuable assistance."

W. A. Footson, San Antonio, Texas, writes: "The San Antonio district conference and Sunday school Convention convened at Mount Pleasant Church, Goliad, Texas, August 20th, 1884, Elder G. W. Richardson, presiding. The introductory sermon was delivered by A. M. Mason. During the morning session the time was consumed with the Model Sunday school. The reports of the presiding elder and pastors indicate some progress in our work. One of the pastors reported 81 conversions on his charge. On Thursday night, W. H. Stephens peeached to a crowded church. At night the committee on temperance, reported and Mrs. C. A. Richardson delivered a lecture on this subject. Mrs. Richardson also delivered a lecture on Woman's Home Missionary work. The Lord's supper was administered to 111 persons on Sunday. The conference was well attended each day. The amount of $28.65 was collected for general expenses; and $18.15 for the pastor's."

A. Phillips, Murfreesboro, Tenn., writes: "Our Centennial meeting at McMinnville, Tennessee, August 12-14th was quite interesting. The topics were ably handled by both the brothers and sisters. The members are well pleased with the new church. Elder Key secured them from the Church Extension Society. It is a very fine house."

Rev. C. L. Crump writes: "Dear Editor—This is to inform the many readers of the SOUTHWESTERN that the dead have come to life again, and the dark cloud that hung over this circuit has moved off a little to one side, and God shouted through the dark cloud with his Holy Spirit while I was holding a protracted meeting in Koscinsko. The good Lord made himself known, and the people commenced to say that Mr. Crump is not as crabbed as we heard he was; we believe the Lord is with the man. I held meeting in Kosciusko every night for two weeks, which resulted in 22 converts, 5 reclaimed, 14 on probation and 4 added to the church (two from the Baptist church, one of whom was a Baptist preacher, a man that everybody loves to hear preach. I think that he is a Christian; he is from Kentucky; he desired to unite with all Christians and this the Baptist could not stand. He sent for his recommendation from Kentucky and they received it, and he carried it before the deacons of the Baptist Church and they received him and said it was all right. He came over to our church once or twice, and some of the Baptists said "this thing of Baptists and Methodists being mixed up together would have to be stopped;" so it was not long before a flaw was picked in his recommendation. It was said that the pastor of the Baptist Church gave an order that said Baptist preacher that joined our church should not enter the stand or pulpit again, but when the pastor came back the said preacher asked him about it, and he denied ever giving such an order as above mentioned; but the pastor would not call the deacons together to give said preacher any satisfaction, so he came over to us and explained himself, and I received him as a Christian; there were not a few who witnessed his testimony. The said Baptist pastor, Mr. Young, said, on last Sunday night, that no church was right but the Baptist Church; he also said that the Methodists offered to educate him once but he would not accept of it on the ground that he did not want any book religion; his Church was from God, the Methodist Church was from John Wesley. At Mount Vernon we had 18 additions, at Kosciusko 43, at Soule Chapel 17, making a total up to date of 78. At Soule Chapel we intend to erect a new church this fall, and at Mount Vernon we also expect to build a new church. It will require 18,992 feet of lumber for both churches; we have 9,496 feet. This is my second year at this place, and have just commenced to see the light. I am trusting in the Lord, and hope before conference there will be another shining light like God gave us a few days ago burning here when I leave for conference."

Rev. Chas. T. Jones, pastor at Hawesville Ky, writes: "Our three weeks protracted meeting has just closed with the third quarterly meeting, which resulted as follows: 78 conversions, 71 received on probation; from other churches, 1; the quarterly collection, $26.40; benevolent collection, $18,50. Our Sunday-school numbers 80; it has purchased an organ worth $110. The whole district is moving onward and upward to a better and brighter future. Every man is standing at his post. Rev. A. Booker, presiding elder, is present; his health is improving."

Rev. S. S. Wright, pastor at Campte, La., writes: "Our fourth quarterly conference was held Oct. 11 by presiding elder Duncan. Everything was in good order. We received 9 in full membership and 25 on probation. We paid for building of church $35, on furniture $27; on other indebtedness $45; on benevolences $2; for elder $13, and and for pastor $51.05. I am glad to say we esteem Elder Duncan as a man of God. On Sunday we had about 400 people on the ground and 85 partook of the Lord's Supper."

Rev. Austin Logan, pastor, Livingston, Texas, writes: "My work is 16 miles from this city, at Tigerville. I have a good congregation to whom I preach in an old building that a white gentleman kindly allowed us to use. The same gentleman has donated us a lot of ground upon which we hope soon to build a church. All classes of people love our church and attend our meetings in this place. We have from 50 to 100 in our congregations. Our white friends promise to aid us in building."

Rev. M. Walton, pastor, Shelbyville, Ky., writes: "A protracted meeting is going on in St. John Chapel, M. E. Church, and the Lord is reviving his work. The members have received a high degree of spiritual power, and the result has been up to this time eight converts, 20 additions—all adults but one. The first one who professed a hope in Christ was 78 years of age, two persons 50 years of age. My first assistance was by Rev. P. Fisher, of Bedford, Ky. The second was Rev. Wm. Johnson, of Simpsonville, Ky. Rev. W. W. Locke, presiding elder, and the champion preacher of the district preached two noble sermons on the 12th inst., his quarterly meeting day. The receipts of the day were $29.20. Our Sabbath-school is in a flourishing state. St. John's Chapel is a living church; she is flourishing. To my sorrow, Mrs. Walton is becoming an invalid. She has been in bad health all summer. We also had four noble sermons from the African Methodist Conference which met here recently."

Rev. James Martin, pastor, Lounds county, Texas, writes: "We have had a dreadful time here. On the 8th of October a young man was shot out on the poor farm; his name is Thomas Dangerfield. In the first place, he was accused of shooting a dog. The dog was tied when he came along, so it was said before the court. He was conveyed to jail, and from jail to the poor farm. He killed the dog, so it was said, and a white man killed him. From all I can learn, that boy was all in fault; he was the cause of his own death. I am yet alive and yet looking up. The Lord is on my side."

Rev. H. Swann, Austin, Texas, writes: "Our fourth quarterly conference convened on Saturday before the third Sunday in last month; the presiding elder, Rev. C. L. Madison presiding. The business was transacted with much interest; the reports of the trustees showed that we had collected for building purposes the rise of $1600, and since then we have raised enough to make it nearly $2,000. The elder preached on the duty of Christians. His text was "God loveth the cheerful giver," the sermon was one of great avail, after which over 200 persons communed at the Lord's table. The elder's collection was $46. I must not fail to mention the leap year entertainment, given by the ladies of Wesley Chapel, Methodist Episcopal Church, namely: Mrs. J. W. Alexander, Mrs. E. Sodemyer, Mrs. M. T. Pitman, Mrs. Sarah Wilson and Miss Irene Fullylove assisted. Mr. Robert Jones, Mr. Lashwah and J. W. Alexander, as committe of arrangements; the proceeds from which were $155, for the benefit of the church. I am also pleased to mention the name of Dr. R. F. Boyd, who has visited our city, in the interest of the Meharry Medical College, at Nashville, Tendessee. The Dr. lectured in my church to quite a crowd, and was listened to with marked attention and we feel that the Dr's visit has greatly benefited us, we would be glad to have him visit us at any time."

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Church Dedication.

At New Richmond, Ohio, on the 10th inst., the beautiful little brick chapel, finished in first-class style, with modern pews, pulpit, etc, was solemnly dedicated to the service of Almighty God, by Rev. W. S. Lankford, elder in charge of Union Chapel, Cincinnati, Ohio, assisted by the pastor, W. S. Rollins, and other local brethren. The day was beautiful, and early in the afternoon the people gathered from all the surrounding country to witness the solemn services. Elder Lankford preached from Neh. 10 39. The discourse was well received, and many repaired to their homes adopting the language of Nehemiah, "We will not forsake the house of our God." The pastor deserves great credit for the good work accomplished at New Richmond and Batavia, having purchased the ground and completed two church buildings in less than two years, both being good respectable churches and very nearly out of debt. A good collection, everything considered was lifted, and both pastor and people seemed delighted with the results of their labors.

A Fasting Girl.

In Cincinnati a sixteen-year-old girl recently died after a fast of 52 days. She had been attacked with something like paralysis, which rendered it impossible for her to take nourishment. The human system cannot thrive without good food and good ability to digest it. Weak and impaired digestion is rectified by Brown's Iron Bitters—better than any other tonic in the world. Mr. J. E. Freeberg, Pomeroy, Iowa, says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and poor appetite; completely cured me." It will cure you.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Pittsburgh Correspondence.

BY CELES.

Methodism in our city has made rapid strides forward during the past four or five years. At the beginning of that period, there were several of our prominent churches so encumbered with debt that a year or two more would have placed some of them, at least in the hands of the sheriff. Matters were in a very serious aspect until an effort was made to aid the struggling congregations.

A church union was organized, composed of ministers and prominent laymen of the other churches, and through its efforts five valuable charges have been saved and some missions organized. Having watched the workings of this plan during the past five years, I can confidently recommend it to the notice of other cities, containing some heavily burdened churches. The effect of good work will be felt for long years.

The Pittsburg conference, has just closed its annual sessesion at Washington, Pa. Bishop Harris presided, and performed his duties with his accustomed affability and grace. The session was one of the most pleasant held for years.

Very interesting and impressive memorial services were held in memory of the late Senior Bishop, Matthew Simpson, who entered this conference in 1833. There were several points of co-incidence in the lives of the two lately deceased Senior Bishops, as shown by the following, clipped from the Pittsburg Christian Advocate:

"Both were born in 1811, the former (Simpson) on June 11th, and the latter (Pierce) Feb. 3d. Bishop Pierce entered the Georgia conference in 1830, and Bishop Simpson, the Pittsburgh in 1833. They were both pastors, editors and college presidents. Bishop Simpson was elected to the Episcopacy in 1852, and Bishop Pierce in 1854; Bishop Simpson died June 18th, and Bishop Pierce September 3th, of the same year, and each was the Senior Bishop of his church at the time of his death." They fell at their posts, fighting manfully for their Lord and Master, and others have come forward to occupy their places and strive for the same rewards they are now eujoying.

One of the best organizations in connection with our Church in this region, is the Ministerial Relief Association, of the Pittsburgh and East Ohio conferences. Each member pays the sum of $10 into the treasury at conference each year for every death presented during the year. $500 out of this are paid to the family of the deceased member, and the rest is put out at interest. This sum has now reached almost $15,000, the limit, and when that is reached no more assessments will be made, but all the interest that is left annually after meeting all death claims, will be divided among the members, in proportion to the amounts they have paid in. Thus in the earlier part of a minister's life, when he can spare the means, he pays in, and in after years, when worn out in the service, he receives a comfortable yearly income and provides for his family's support after his death. Considered in all its phrases, this association is undoubtedly one of best and most appropriate of its kind, of which I have had any knowledge.

The Methodist Episcopal Church is well represented in our smoky city, by twenty-seven flourishing churches, the city itself being a district in the Pittsburgh conference.

Dr. J. C. Hartzell, so well known to readers of the SOUTHWESTERN, was at the recent conference session and was seen by the writer (not in our Book Rooms here in Pittsburgh. The Dr. was in an exceedingly trim and looked as if he was just ready to roll up his sleeves and go into some great educational work.

The new Discipline, which will shortly be issued, is quite an improvement over the old. Important changes have been made in size of page, type and arrangement of contents, which will add much, both in appearance and convenience to the book. Bishop Harris is to be commended.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Mississippi Conference

BY REV. M. ADAMS.

The Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in Canton, Mississippi, Jan. 7, 1864, Revs. James Lynch and A. C. McDonald representing the M. E. Church. The conference was very small, there being only two full members at this time. The beloved and sainted Bishop M. Simpson was to have presided at this confereuce. On account of misconnection of the trains at Humboldt, Tenn., he was delayed. He dispatched to Rev. Jas. Lynch, authorizing him to organize the conference. Rev. J. P. Newman, D. D., a member of the Louisiana Conference, was present, and conducted the religious services; afterwards called the roll. On motion, Rev. Jas. Lynch was unanimously elected Chairman. On motion, A. C. McDonald was elected Secretary. The presiding officer and the Secretary were the only and all members of the conference. The probationers were: M. Proctor, A. Handy, W. Jones, L. Butler, G. Dopson, A. Wilson, L. Baker and T. Gibbs.

At the organization of this conference the membership was about 7,000. In 15 years the membership has increased to 30,000. We think this is evidence that the ministers have earnestly waged war against satan's kingdom in Mississippi, and God has wonderfully blessed their labors; and now from portions of the State not yet occupied by our church, comes the Macedonian cry: "Come and help us, and we will go." This conference has sent out 150 ministers, thousands have been converted and added to the church, some of which have been added to the church triumphant; and still the work goes on. And I pray God that this work shall still spread until we shall have taken Mississippi for Christ. When the conference was organized we had 12 houses of worship at Jackson, Vicksburg, Yazoo City, Canton, Grenada, Holly Springs, Corinth, Aberdeen, Columbus, Macon, Enterprise, Meridian; but now, thanks be to our Lord, we are proud to say that we have a church planted in every village and city. We had only two districts; now we have six. Many places in this work that used to receive missionary money are now self-supporting.

The first 12 church houses were bought by the Church Extension Society, and worth about twenty-five thousand dollars. We now have 322 churches, worth about $184,621. In 1869 we had two parsonages, worth about $400. We now have 40 parsonages, worth about $14,000. Great progress has been made in educational work. We have now one of the finest college buildings in the State, costing about $25,000, for which we feel thankful to our Northern friends. This college is doing a grand work, second to none. We have three high schools that are doing noble work. This tells well for the Northern Church, which proves to be the good Samaritan to our race.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Lights and Shadows in Ministerial Life.

BY REV. W. H. BROWN.

DEAR EDITOR—Your last visit here is held by us in precious memory. Though at present denied the great privilege of personal association with you, we enjoy your society through your editorials in the SOUTHWESTERN. It is therefore always a welcome visitor to our home. My dear afflicted wife and I find great comfort in reading the SOUTHWESTERN. It is among the best religious papers, I do not think it too much to say, that I regard it as one of the best edited and published, in the interest of our people; but sir, the SOUTHWESTERN is just what we expected it to be under the editorship of Dr. Marshall W. Taylor. The SOUTHWESTERN is instructive in matter and pleasant in appearance; coming up fully to the needs and demands of to-day. I read sometime ago, a gentle hint dropped from your instructive pen, and no one knew for whom it was intended, better than I; but however, yours was the second, not the first hand to point out to me the errors. My watchful and loving wife had already pointed them out to me, and I am greatly benefited by it. The SOUTHWESTERN ought to have a place in every family. Believing this, I work earnestly to have all my members take it.

In our Church work the way is at present somewhat dark and gloomy but now and then the light breaks forth. We have the promise of Church Extension aid for the last half of our debt here, our task is to raise the first half, and we have only partially done this. But we shall yet pull through under God's guidance. My wife is in very poor health and has gone to Oberlin, under the advice of our physician. She has been a faithful helper, pray with and for me, that she may be spared to aid me still. I know the Judge of all the earth will do right.

Portsmouth, Ohio.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Odds and Ends From Navasota

BY J. E. SHACKELFORD.

Put the SOUTHWESTERN by the side of any other paper, but none excell it. Her business is to look out for the Southwestern States, and she is doing it well. It does what many of its patrons cannot do, advocate their cause. The files of the SOUTHWESTERN have vanquished many a foe. It contains useful information with reference to the theory of our Church. Its editor is able and is supporting it with such matter as is most useful to us. God bless the editor and spread the paper, until every Methodist family should take and read it.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Everything was conducted according to the plan and it was a great day. The addresses were able and finely delivered. The children made impressions here that will not soon be forgotten. Prof. J. C. Williams, our organist deserves especial praise for the excellent service he rendered on the occasion. The Rev. E. Lee also visited and aided us. Our collection was $20.

THIRD QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

Rev. W. B. Pullam has been with us three times this year, each of which was very pleasantly spent.

SECOND DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

In the district conference at Hearn, Texas, on the 15th of this month, we met a large number of our conference brethren and friends. At Hearn, our church has, for years, been on the dark side of the people's apprehensions. Our enemies had said that there were but few of us and that few were servants of the white people, but I am greatly inclined to believe that the moon has turned her light side towards our church, and of course this leaves the dark side that was once toward ours, towards that other church. They know which one it is. We were glad to have Bro. C. W. Campell, principal of our seminary at Honston, Texas, with us, who gave us hopeful word relative to our institution of learning there. According to his sayings, what we need in that Institution is more room so as to accommodate the students that attend it from time to time.

The order of the day with us then, should be to enlarge and welcome our young men and women to her for safety.

Navasota, Texas.

The municipal authorities of Limerick, by a vote of 27 to 5, have decided to persist in their refusal to pay the tax assessed by the government for extra police service. Considerable excitement prevails there, and it is expected certain members of the corporation will be arrested.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Running Uncalled.

BY WALTER DUNCAN.

There is much danger of one running uncalled. One who claims that God calls no man to the Gospel more than to mechanical work, declares thereby that at least he himself has had no divine call. It is noticeable among all such there is no evangelism. They went of their own accord and had no divine message to deliver. When the battle in Gilead ended with the death of Absalom Joab, the commander-in-chief, wanted a messenger to run to David, and Shimaaz he sought the honor, saying, "Let me run and bear thy kind tidings." But Joab said, "Thou shalt not bear tidings this day." Shimaaz persisted, saying, "Let me run," and Joab said "run." The man was swift of foot, and taking an easier route, outran the appointed messenger. He was first on the spot, as many a man is who has nothing to say, and when asked for his message he said, "I saw a great tumult, but I know not what it was." The uncalled messenger stood where he had need for a message, but had it not. That is about the result when men run uncalled to carry the Gospel to waiting multitudes. About all they can say is "there was a tumult, but they know not what it is." Cushi, who was called and sent with a message, ran straight over the hill and mountain, and, waiting for no introduction, cried, as soon as he came within hearing, "Tidings, my lord!" He was slower footed, but he had something to tell. The uncalled found his way first to the waiting ear, but he had nothing to say. The sons of Shimaaz are many. To this day they run, but they have no tidings of peace. They know what a tumult is when they see it, and they can make one when they do not see it. But their's is not the "beautiful feet of him upon the mountains that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation, that saith unto Zion thy God reigneth."

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

A Little Thought.

BY REV. STEPHEN PRIESTLY.

To the Friends of the Mother Church in the South, and Especially to My Race.

Little children, let no man deceive you by telling you that your children are kept back in the old Mother Church. They will tell you that your privileges in the churches, colleges and congregations are cut off from the whites, and many other things that are not true; but stand still and behold the salvation of God. Do not deceive yourselves.

Before the late war the devil kicked against the old Mother Church, and since the war he has been kicking at every new movement the old Church makes toward building up my race in the South. Now, let us be careful and watch the devil a little. Sometimes he stirs the people upon a Bishop, and then again on some white man, and again on some particular church, school or college. Now, all this is nonsense. We have done nothing for ourselves; no more than a sinner has done to save his soul, so to speak; for illustration take trees.

Apples, peaches and oranges do not grow and get ripe in one or two weeks. If you pull the trees to make them grow faster, you will injure the roots. The same will be true if you pull or force a race faster than they can bear or be able to stand, it will injure them the same. Threats, oppositions and separations are common in the old Mother Church. We may ever be on our guard for the following spirits; they will ever be in that Church: such as Whitefield, Andrews and the A. M. E. Church; these are they that were great stars once, but have moved or revolved in their courses. And now, Mr. Editor, let me say to all dissatisfied persons with the Mother Church, that if a little dog barks up at the sun, that it does not hurt or change the sun, and it still gives light and heat. So with the old Mother Church.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.

Trade Mark

THE BEST TONIC.

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of refereoce:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures Chapters 1-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol 1) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III.	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Par. II—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson. Abridged Edition	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics—Terry
History of Rationalism—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition). —Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast.	5 00 1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Checks to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans.

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me. sm11-1y

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day as Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1884.

Announcement for 1885

Reduction in Price to ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CTS. When Paid in Advance, or Within Three Months.

From this time subscriptions for The Southwestern Christian Advocate will be received for the year 1885 at $1.50 a year, payable in advance or within three months. No other paper published under authority of the General Conference is furnished at this figure. It is the cheapest paper in the whole list. New subscribers for the next year will receive their papers up to January 1st free.

Let us have 2000 new subscribers within the next sixty days.

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

The National Election.

The present issue of this paper was delayed that we might be able to give our readers earlier news of the national election. At this writing (Wednesday, 8 a. m.) there is a strong belief that Stephen Glover Cleveland has been elected President, and Thomas A. Hendricks, Vice-President of the United States, they having received 222 electoral votes, or 11 more than a majority of the electoral college, from the following States: Alabama, 10; Connecticut, 6; Florida, 4; Indiana, 15; Louisiana, 8; Mississippi, 9; New Jersey, 9; New York, 36; South Carolina, 9; Texas, 13; West Virginia, 6; Arkansas, 7; Delaware, 3; Georgia, 12; Kentucky, 13; Maryland, 8; Missouri, 16; Nevada, 3; North Carolina, 11; Tennessee, 12; Virginia, 12.

The Butler and St. John vote was light, and Tammany gave Cleveland its full support in New York city, and he carries the State by from 7000 to 10,000 majority.

The returns from several States indicate a close contest. There may be hope for Blaine as fuller returns are received, but the present outlook is not assuring.

New Orleans gave Cleveland 4000, a reduced majority. Republicans claim that Kellogg and Hahn have been elected to Congress from the second and third districts, but there are no definite figures at hand.

LATER—4 p. m.—Dispatches indicate that Blaine has carried New York and Indiana; Cleveland Michigan, Connecticut, New Jersey and Wisconsin. The contest is a close one.

The SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE is as sprightly and ably under Dr. Marshall W. Taylor as any paper we see.

The Northern can afford to generously compliment the SOUTHWESTERN, because in all our exchange list it has no superior for bold, and upright expressions. Dr. O. H. Warren says things that ought to and will find a wide and interesting circle of hearers.

Our contemporaries will please take notice that when we war, we war only with men who have the courage of their convictions, and the grit to write their names beneath them. The most disagreable animal with whom one can come in contact, is nameless but not odorless. The odor both identifies and locates the animal, so that there can be no mistake as to what, and where it is. It never fights with the face to the foe, and it requires a high degree of self denial to [illegible] war with its posterior arrangements. We give it both sides of the road and take to the woods when a skunk would be otherwise [illegible]

Political Uprightness.

To cast one vote at the proper place at every popular election is the duty of each qualified American voter, whether he be home or foreign born, black or white. And he ought to feel perfectly safe in person and property to cast his vote for that candidate whose idea of public economy corresponds with his own. Unless our government can assure all this to every citizen, it cannot very long perpetuate its own existence. It would hardly be worth preserving if it were so imbecile as to leave the least shadow of a doubt of its entire willingness to do all this. But the government derives its power from the consent of the governed. This consent in our country is expressed by the ballot. The nation acquieces in the verdict of the people, expressed at the polls, because it believes that verdict represents the best and maturest judgment of a majority of the citizens. But, if that majority should be secured by the suppression of votes, the false counting of votes, or the securement of votes by intimidation, menaces, threats, or money, then the real sentiments of their will are unknown; the true judgment of the majority is not expressed, a righteous verdict of the people has not been recorded, and the election is a sham, a mockery, a fraud. The candidates declared elected under such circumstances are not elected. Their elevation to power is a usurpation of official place, and the advent of such to the duties of governmental authority, marks the downfall of law and order, and the elevation of political confusion, not a government by its chosen representatives. Where this can happen without proper punishment, from righteous and heavy-handed justice, both the usefulness and dignity of the government must, out of necessity, be of short duration. A man who goes to the polls, stands there all day, waits until he receives a dime, a quarter, a dollar, five, ten, twenty, a hundred dollars, or the promise of some trivial or other office, is a traitor to his country, and should be punished. A man who could for any consideration except an honest change of conviction, secured by argument and reason, be induced to change his vote, is incapable of an intelligent comprehension of the duties which devolve upon an American freeman and if left to himself would soon lose the rights of such. Let a man vote as he pleases, and protect him in it, since he votes only his honest sentiments for the good of the country, in his opinion. In the election just past the country has spoken, let us hope its true verdict has been recorded, and its choice for a National ruler thus elected. We were interested deeply, to the extent of securing purity in the person of our ruler and in the administration of the country. We have tried to state the news fairly and have spoken freely at times, some of our expressions have been regretted by brethren whom we honor; but they were honest convictions, and we could not recall them. We honor the brethren all the more for their faithfulness to us. The SOUTHWESTERN has lost only a single subscriber and we greatly regret that loss but could have made no change, though it had been multiplied a thousand fold Our personal political views are our own, we have neither officially thrust them upon others, or tried especially to conceal them. Those who know us well, and ought to know our political views, do know them. We have never voted for any man who did not profess to be a Republican, and was at the time we did so, running on the regular Republican ticket. We have done this of choice, and may or may not do so in the future, just as we choose. Free to follow the dictates of our own conscience, we cheerfully accord this same freedom to others. As an Official Editor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, we shall officially support the party to which the Church belongs, as soon as we find out what party that is. Personally we have neither lost or gained a penny by this campaign, and election, either State or national. We forfeited no man's respect by accepting anything for doing our duty. We have our own self respect and the respect of the candidates whom we have felt called upon to oppose because our opposition has been open handed, hono able and above board. Since the election has decided the question, we have nothing to ask, because we want nothing. Our business is legitimate, we are devoted to it, and wish no other employment. Our salary is not large but we are satisfied with it. We want only a faithful, righteous, and vigons euforcement of the laws everywhere, and the affairs of the government justly admiuistered. We stand by the government now as ever.

If each pastor who reads this paper will send us one new subscriber this week, over 500 names can be enrolled on our b oks. Try to do it, brother.

Christ's Miracles.

Of which we here reckon 36, exclusive of those not particularized, and we have arranged them according to the places in which they were performed:

First—In Cana of Galilee. The water made wine, and the healing of the nobleman's son.

Second—On the sea of Galilee. The first draught of fishes; the stilling of the tempest; the walking on the sea; the fish with the tribute money, and the second draught of fishes.

Third—In Capernaum. The raising of Jairus' daughter; the stopping of the issue of blood; the healing of the two blind men, of the dumb demoniac, the paralytic, the leper, the centurion's servant, the man with an unclean spirit, the mother of Peter's wife, and the blind and dumb demoniac.

Fourth—In Galilee. The raising of the son of the widow of Nain; the healing of the woman with an 18 years' infirmity; of the man with the dropsy; of the lunatic child at the foot of the Mount of Transfiguration, and of the daughter of the Syro Phœnician woman.

Fifth—Beyond Jordan. The dispossession of the Gadarene or Gergesene demoniacs; the feeding of five thousand at Decapolis; the deaf and dumb healed, and the four thousand fed there; and the healing of the blind man at Bethsaida.

Sixth—In Samaria. The cleansing of the ten lepers.

Seventh—In Jerusalem. The giving sight to the man who was born blind; the healing of the ear of Malchus in Gethsemane, and the fig tree withered on Olivet.

Eight—In Judea. The withered hand restored; the healing of the impotent man at Bethesda, and the raising of Lazarus at Bethany.

Ninth—In Jericho. The healing of the one blind man, and of the two blind men.

Read This, and Pray and Act.

If there should be a failure of the SOUTHWESTERN to meet reasonable expectations and largely increase its paying subscription list, it could not be narrowed down to any one, it would mean a failure of the whole Negro membership of our Church; at least it would be so used, and be capable of that application. On the other hand, its success will be such in a measure of the whole race, it cannot be narrowed down to one man in any case. The subscription price has been placed at $1.50 per year; it is the cheapest paper in the country. With this reduction in price and the generally admitted excellence of the paper, is it not reasonable for us to expect that our subscription list shall be at least doubled within the next 90 days?

Gen. Fisk says: "I rejoice in your good work and prosperity."

Dr. Hartzell says: "You are making an excellent paper, and I wish you the greatest success. Our people, especially the preachers, ought to rally grandly to your support, and give you 10,000 subscribers"

Dr. Braden says: "It is really better than ever before."

Rev. Jesse Price: "It never was as good as now."

Rev. A. E. P. Albert: "I think the paper is really excellent."

Rev. L. P. Cushman: "Our people all love the SOUTHWESTERN as well as ever."

James Wormley.

The most conspicuous thing about the career of the late James Wormley with which we are concerned, was his success as a business man. In his line first as a caterer, then as hotel keeper, he rose not only to distinction, but won the reputation of conducting the very best hotel in this city. He did not mingle much in the social gatherings of his people or appear to be concerned in those things in which they were most interested, yet whenever he saw them earnestly engaged in any laudable effort his pocket book was open to render them needful assistance.

When the Whittaker affair at West Point occurred, it was at his suggestion and in part by his assistance that Prof. Greener went to West Point in behalf of his protege. When a few years ago the advantages of Hampton and Fortress Monroe as a summer resort were, for the first time since the war, once more generally recognized, it was he who, recognizing the needs of the better class of colored people, endeavored to induce such gentleman as John F. Cook, Frederick Douglas and B. K. Bruce to join him in an enterprise to secure eligible properties, volunteering to invest a thousand dollars in the scheme. It was he who only last summer, during the presence in this country of the Minister to Liberia, signified his desire to invest largely in a scheme for the opening up of trade between this country and Africa.

We mention these facts to show that Mr. Wormley, while he may have had contempt for the indifference of representative men in enterprises looking to material development, was ever ready to co operate upon a business basis in an intelligent scheme to give the race with which he was identified a better business status.

There may be a diversity of opinion as to whether colored men of means do their whole duty in the present state of our development in shutting themselves off from individual identification with us in our popular struggles for self elevation as a race. We strongly incline to the belief that the greater the ability, the greater is the responsibility of the individual in this stage of our development. But whenever a man like Mr. Wormley has risen to the topmost round in his calling, thoroughly establishes a legitimate business, and time and time again anticipates the needs of our people, and is ready with his means to promote their welfare, we should forget the seeming indifference and not censure him as those who put themselves completely out the pale of our sympathy.

It must be admitted, however reluctantly, that had Mr. Wormley more openly shown his sympathy, the outpouring and mourning at his demise would have been as general as is the case of the late John H. Brooks.—People's Advocate.

We had intended to make no reference to the death of Mr. Wormley, because we had concluded that any reference we should make to him as a Negro, would be such as we should not like to make. Touching his interest in and personal social identity with his race, Mr. Cromwell says, better than we could, just what we should have said if we could, and had have spoken at all on the subject.—[ED.

The Negro Has a Remedy for His Wrongs.

As long as the Negro is esteemed as a machine to grind out sugar, cotton, rice, hemp, corn, tobacco, and to perform the meanest services, so long will those for whom he performs this service, half by consent and half for the fear of his employer which is upon him, regard him as a drudge and an inferior.

The Negro has a remedy for these wrongs, a redress for these grievances; let him use them. He can refuse to remain where he is not protected in law, paid his wages when he works, or is refused an opportunity to purchase land. All can not go, but let those do so who can, and it will be better for those who remain. Where shall they go? Anywhere for relief.

Living Sunbeams

Faithful, prayerful, working Christians can, must and will be cheerful, happy and enthusiastic. Why not?

The bells of joy are ringing, and the harps of gladness are sounding in them. Their hand is in the hand that moves the throne and controls the universe. Is such a relation to the King of kings and the Lord of lords, a subject for sorrow.

Let the children of the King shout and clap their hands and make a joyful noise unto Him.

Some of our readers, favored with the Lord's blessings, and who love the weekly visits of their church paper, could make a gift of a year's subscription to poorer church members or relatives. For $1.50 cash with the name, the SOUTHWESTERN will be sent to any part of the United States; and for $2, to any part of the world to which mails are carried.

East Tennessee Conference.

The East Tennessee Methodist Episcopal Conference met in Kingston Oct. 22d, Bishop Warren presiding. The usual religious services were held and the conference, after roll was called, elected Rev. A. J. Fletcher, secretary; Rev. D. W. Hays and J. S. Hill, statistical secretaries, and B. H. Johnson treasurer. The conference work was done with promptness and efficiency. Its members are all colored, and the conference is small but it has the advantage of possessing some of the best drilled ministers anywhere in our colored work. There is a growing state of fraternity between our colored and white conferences in the South, and this spirit we learn was clearly visible in the association of our colored and white brethren who were thrown together incidentally or otherwise at this session. Dr. Carter, of the Methodist Advocate, was present, and makes a most felicitious statement of the prospect there.

Bros. Provine, Boyd, Moore, Jordan, Hays, Hill, Johnson, and Harris made lasting impressions upon the vast audience in the various churches of the city, several of which were opened to them by sermons and addresses. The anniversaries were interesting and well attended.

This conference has a fine field, active ministers, and may be expected to make, for itself a first place among our conferences. They will not despise the day of small things; they will be patient in the midst of a semi-isolation, and by and by all will be seen in the clear light of God's providence to work out His glory. The following are the appointments:

Chattanooga District—E. Provine, P. E.
Big Spring	A J Fletcher
Chattanooga	B H Johnson
Chattanooga Ct.	supplied by J Crawford
Cleveland	L M Moores
Ebenezer	Jas Yarnell
Georgetown	to be supplied
Jasper	to be supplied
Kingston	J T Henry
Riceville	supplied by R Masoner
Robertsville	supplied by S W Burnett
Soddy	to be supplied
Sweetwater	Alex Roach
Washington	P P Brooks
Morristown District—S J. Harris, P. E.
Arcadia	to be supplied
Clinton and Coal Creek	F L Donohoo
Dandridge	Owen Hypshire
Greenville	supplied by A Gillespie
Johnson City	to be supplied
Knoxville	D W Hays and D B Lawton
Knoxville Ct.	supplied by A Linsey
Morristown	W T Marley
Mossy Creek	Chas Boyd
Newport	supplied by James Guthrie
Tazewell	supplied by G P Moore
Warrenburg	C K Mays

To preach the missionary sermon, F. L. Donohoo; alternate, L. M. Moores.

The SOUTHWESTERN was never more highly appreciated by its patrons; its resources are improving; and our aim now is to increase its circulation, and with the increase of means to do more than ever for the good of the church.

Personal.

—Rev. Geo. W. Bryant A. M. E. Church, returns to Frankfort.

—Dr. Rust has returned to Cincinnati from the South looking well.

—George W. Brown, the famous Louisville caterer, has his eye on New Orleans.

—Mrs. Areen Berry, of Cincinnati, is so far convalescent as to be about again.

—James Taylor, Esq., of Cincinnati, has been confined to his bed for the last month or so.

—Correspondents of Rev. J. C. Hartzell may address him at 190 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

—Bishop H. M. Turner held the Kentucky Annual African Methodist Episcopal Conference at Cynthiana, Oct. 1

—Joshua Tevis the baggage man at the Louisville station of the Louisville and Nashville railway, is growing rotund.

—Rev. James Morton is at Gibson, Texas. He occasionally writes to us, and we are always glad to hear from him.

—Rev. Daniel Jones is down for an address to the Golden Crown Lodge, of Samaritans, in Covington, Kentucky, soon.

"Going to put my foot in the rough rock road;
Going to fight until I die,
If crosses and trials don't bear me down,
Going to fight until I die."
—Sung by Rev. A. W. Hall.

—Rev. W. H. Evans is pushing on the building of New Asbury, in Lexington, Kentucky, and he has a lively membership to back him.

—Rev. C. Pickett has taken a supernumerary relation to the Tennessee conference, and it is supposed that he will travel in the interest of the Meharry Medical College.

—Messrs George W. Brown and George Taylor gave us a breakfast in the Chivala lunch rooms at the great Southern Exposition in Louisville, last Wednesday.

—Rev. W. E. Wilson has nearly freed his charge, at Bowling Greene, Kentucky, of debt. His congregations are good and the work in a promising state.

—Mrs. Albert informs us that Bro. A. E. P. Albert is at home confined to his bed by an attack of malarial fever, and is therefore unable to attend to any business.

—Mrs. W. S. Lankford will soon return to Cincinnati, for the winter from her summer residence in Evansville, Indiana. The baby Lankford has been quite sick, but is now convalescent.

This is the cheapest official paper of the M. E. Church in the United States. Price $1.50 per year, cash in advance; when paid three months after name is given to your pastor, $2 will be charged.

—Rev. S. R. Cottrell, pastor in charge of Georgetown, Lexington district, Lexington conference, has gone visiting in Pennsylvania. Bro. White is looking after the charge meanwhile.

—Mrs. Anna Hubbard will soon write, for our readers, a brief sketch of the whereabouts and doings of the medical students who have graduated from the Meharry Medical College.

—Rev. Alfred Mason has, it is said, joined the African Methodist Episcopal Church. We wish him well, and we could recommend a few more in the Lexington conference to follow his example, as we believe they are better adapted to that than our Church.

—For many things that are genial, generous, manly, womanly and godly, commend us to Rev. Jesse P. Price and his wife and daughter. Their home, table, library, horse and buggy, and attention are ever present with us.

—We recently met Rev. O. O. Knight on the train. He is presiding elder of the Huntingdon district, Central Tennessee conference. He was originally from New York, once belonged to the Church South, and he taught school in Nashville, for the Negroes, before the war. He originated Central Tennessee College.

—Rev. C. H. Bullington, the new presiding elder of the Murfreesboro district, Tennessee conference, is of a dark complexion, stoutly built, and not quite forty. His school attainments have been somewhat limited, but he is a man of strong native ability, with love to the Church and an earnest desire to do good.

—Rev. Geo. W. Hatton is sent

[illegible] and Rev. John W. As[illegible] been appointed presiding elder of the Lexington District, Kentucky Conference, A. M. E. Church. The latter was formerly pastor at Frankfort, which place he resigned to be [illegible] United States store keeper; and now he resigns this, and has become presiding elder.

THE EDITOR TRANSFERRED.—Should no word of explanation be given, our readers would be puzzled this week at finding the editor's name in the list of appointments of two Annual Conferences—the Holston and Central Tennessee. The following resolution, adopted last week by the Holston Conference, will throw light upon the subject:

"Whereas, the Methodist Advocate is published within the bounds of the Holston Conference and receives its largest patronage from this territory; and

Whereas, It would be both pleasant and desirable to have the editor associated with us in conference relations; therefore

Resolved, That we would be delighted to have Rev. T. O. Carter, transferred to our Conference, at the present session, and thereby request Bishop Warren to make said transfer, should the same be found agreeable with Dr. Carter."

Following this resolution the transfer was made. It changes the editor's Conference relations without changing his appointment. He will continue to devote his entire energies to the Methodist Advocate, and will be able to do as much service in the bounds of his former Conference as if this change had not been made.—Methodist Advocate.

Only $1.50 per year for a good family newspaper, places it within reach of every reading Methodist; and the brethren of other denominations can avail themselves of this privilege with profit. Ask [illegible] of every kind, Baptists, Congregationalists and Presbyterians, all Christians, and sinners, too, to take the SOUTHWESTERN.

Church Polity.

Constitutional Catechism of Methodism Among the Negroes.

CHAPTER II.

Question—What are the qualifications for membership in these societies?

Answer—An earnest desire to flee the wrath to come, and to be [illegible] from sin.

Ques—What are the qualifications prescribed for ministers?

Ans—Good understanding, good deliverance, good health, good religion, and faithfulness.

Ques—Is there not special provision made for the reception of colored persons as members and ministers?

Ans—No, and never have been.

Ques—Who were the first colored persons who [illegible] to the Societies?

Ans—Two sisters.

Ques—What were their names?

Ans—Mary [illegible] years ago.

Ques—Where did they live?

Ans—In the West India planter's.

Ques—What was his name?

Ans—Hon. Nathaniel Gilbert.

Ques—Why do you call him honorable?

Ans—Because he was the speaker of the House in Antigua, one of the [illegible] colonies.

Ques—Who was this?

Ans—[illegible], Ireland.

Ques—What became of these sisters?

Ans—One, a woman, remained a slave because the [illegible] and colored [illegible] as to the [illegible] they admitted [illegible] under the [illegible] all [illegible] for baptism.

Ques—Who was the first [illegible] of Mr. Gilbert?

Ans—[illegible]

Ques—Was this colored woman, his slave.

Ans—Yes, Mr. John Baxter, from Chatham, England, went there as a government shipright, and at his leisure preached to them, and on the arrival of Bishop Coke Mr. Baxter and Mr. Warrener were appointed to that work.

Ques—What was their success?

Ans—Such that in 1811, 67 years ago, they had 22 white and 2385 black and colored members there.

Ques—Were they separate from the white?

Ans—No; it was a mixed society, having a white Bishop and preachers, possibly meeting in separate places.

The Methodist Episcopal Church expects every member to fulfill his or her obligation to the church paper of the South. The SOUTHWESTERN ought to be placed in every Methodist household, where either a child or a grown person can read.

General Church News.

According to the carefully prepared figures of Dr. Dorchester, our country expended for the objects mentioned in the year 1883 as follows:

For foreign and home missions	$5,500,000
For public education	91,000,000
For meat	308,000,000
For bread	505,000,000
For intoxicating liquors	900,000,000

—Liquor Problem.

Not for twenty years past has such a storm passed over Japan as visited that country in September last. Serious injury was done to mission property in Yokohama, Nagasaki and Tokio. Where the houses have been built more recently the disaster is not so serious. Walls have been blown in and roofs have been, at least partially, torn to pieces. The property of the W. F. M. S. has also suffered much damage.

At L'Anse, in the upper peninsula of Michigan, near one of the deep bays of Lake Superior, a dot on the map is marked "Methodist Mission." Across the narrow Kewaunah Bay lies another—"Catholic Mission." Our society own a a small church, a mission house and forty acres of farm land. The Mission is reported as being in quite a prosperous condition, with Rev. S. W. Ladu in charge. Bro. Ladu is not only preaching to the Indians the Word of Life, but is also trying to teach them how to become successful farmers, thus becoming independent of government aid. At present this mission receives but $50 a year from the Missionary Secretary, and looks forward soon to self support. A new house is sorely needed for the missionary.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Sermon Sketches.

BY DR. W. D. GODMAN.

In the selection of texts for sermons the guiding principle is this: The purpose of a sermon is to unfold and express the thought of God, and to [illegible] it upon the hearer. The [illegible] is therefore to contain a divine thought, and is the seed or kernel out of which a sermon grows. It is not a mere catch word to a hearer's fancy. It is not a mere suggestion, on which we may proceed to the expanding of our opinions and speculations. In the light of this guiding principle, the propriety of the following rules will be evident:

1. Let the text be brief, so as to be remembered.

2. Let it be clear, so as to be understood in its general announcement. It should convey a thought to the hearer before its exposition

3. Let it be simple; not comprising many principles or propositions.

4. It should be either doctrinal, hortatory or didactic: setting forth a Gospel truth, or urging a duty, or conveying practical information.

5. It should generally be taken from the New Testament, which contains the Christian revelation. The Gospel is in the Old Testament, but veiled. The young minister especially should confine himself mainly to the New Testament.

La Teobe, La.

1. Outline by Rev. L. P. Cushman. Theme: Parable of Dives and Lazarus.—Text, Luke 16, 19-31.

1. Souls do not die with bodies.

2. Souls of the just do not go to the same place with those of the unjust.

3. They do not lose their interest in the affairs of the world.

4. The importance of improving present opportunities.

"He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psalms cxxvi., 6.

I. The Seed.
II. The Sower.
III. The Difficulties.
IV. The Result.

"He that winneth souls is wise."—Prov. xi., 30.

In what way may the wisdom of soul-winning be seen?

1. In the blessings which come to those who are won. (Jas. v., 20.)

2. In the blessings which come to the winner. (Daniel xii., 3.)

How may souls be won?

(1) By the charm of a good example. (2) By prayer. (3) By loving, earnest persuasion.

This will require of us (1) a personal religious experience; (2) an appreciation of an individual responsibility; (3) enthusiasm.—Lamp of Life.

If each pastor who reads this paper will send us two new subscribers this week over 1,000 names can be enrolled on our books. Nine-tenths of them could do so with little effort, and others could send ten or fifteen to supply the deficiency of the other tenth.

Schools and Colleges.

Good News For Mississippi.

Dr. Hartzell writes us as follows: "I am authorized to say that Rev. Dr. R. S. Rust, will pay one dollar for every three dollars raised by the Mississippi conference during this year, towards an endowment for Rust University at Holly Springs, Mississippi. He means that for every three dollars raised by the whole conference during this Centennial year, the Dr. will add one. If Mississippi raises $3,000 the Dr. will give $1,000, and so on in proportion. Here is a chance for the Mississippi conference to lay the foundation of a grand advancement for the University. All our pastors in that State should tell their people of this generous offer and urge them to be liberal."

Cooksville School Exhibition.

REV. MOSES ADAMS.

I in company with other friends of Macon, visited Cooksville, Oct. 17th, for the purpose of witnessing the examination and exhibition of Cooksville school, taught by Prof. J. H. Brooks, A. B., late of Rust University, at Holly Springs, Mississippi. We, of Macon were not alone in attendance upon the closing exercises of said school; but the white citizens of Cooksville turned out in large numbers; among these, were the leading physicians of Cooksville namely, Messrs. T. B. Swift, N. Hill, and Straight, M. D., etc. These expressed themselves, by open surprise at the acts, behavior, examination, and exhibition. They said openly: "This is the best school examination and exhibition I ever witnessed, white not excepted." There is no doubt Prof. Brooks is highly esteemed and beloved by the people of Cooksville, white and colored. The whites proposed to the colored people to aid them in hiring and keeping J. H. Brooks, to teach their school, but he was called to another field of labor. The good people of Meridian was waiting for him and had been since the 1st of September, to take charge of the Meridian Academy; he has a good school, and still it increases. The Meridian Academy, being a branch of the Rust University, at Holly Springs, Mississippi, young men and women, who are not able to attend immediately Rust University, or any other institution of learning, would do well to attend the Meridian Academy, where they can receive good religious and moral training, that would prepare them for thorough college work.

Macon, Mississippi.

Meridian Academy.

PROF. J. H. BROOKS, PRINCIPAL.

We wish to say through your valuable paper that our school at the Meridian Academy opened Oct. 20, with a fair number. Her doors are open awide to all young men and women who desire a religious and moral instruction in education. As yet, the school is not prepared to care for those who may want board, but board can be had in private families at from $8 to $10 per month.

Meridian, Miss.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

In many conferences and charges and societies the emblem of real love and peace is driven away. Hot plowshares of death follow tongues of evil and words of wrath. Burning dearth that destroys the heritage of God falls where there is no love.—Religious Telescope.

Surely we do not intend to let the centenary year of the Methodist Episcopal Church pass without some worthy recognition.—Central.

Religion is the supporting staff of human frailty.—Hebrew Standard.

Look these figures in the face. Four gallons of liquor to each person in 1840, and ten gallons to each in 1880. Ten gallons to each inhabitant means twenty or thirty, or forty gallons to each drinker!—Christian Observer.

Whether the International African Association succeed or fail in their plan for founding a republic on the Congo, the interesting character of the field there, as a missionary one, remains the same; while it is scarcely possible that Romanist intrigue will ever succeed in so influencing events as to interpose any serious obstacles.—The Standard.

To a freeman the ballot should represent something positive. It is the solemn declaration of principle which he cherishes, and which he believes to be essential to the safety and welfare of the nation of which he is a component part.—Rochester Democrat and News.

We are obliged to Rev. D. W. Hays for his aid in collecting for and corresponding with this paper from the East Tennessee Conference.

There is room in our columns to publish all the local church news of every Conference in the South; and if more should be required than is used at present, it will be provided when the demand becomes evident. Therefore, pay no heed to contrary statements, but concentrate Methodist patronage upon the official paper, until its subscribers shall number at least 10,000. That number is required for the maintenance of a first-class paper, free of all church subsidies.

Books and Current Literature.

The Illustrated Family Christian Almanac for 1885 is before us. Compiled by Prof. George W. Coakely, University of New York. Published by the American Tract Society, 150 Nassau street.

The International Sunday-school Calendar, a very neat and useful arrangement, with new thoughts upon the Lesson Subjects for every day in the year, has been received at our office. It ought to be sold in large quantities. For sale by James Arnold, book binder, 531 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Poems by Craik. Two more new poetic works, published by Thomas Y. Crowell & Co., 13 Astor Place, New York. The first is poems by Dinah Maria Mulock, author of "John Halifax, Gentlemen," etc., and dedicated to her husband in these lines:

"This under voice, for twenty years
Still running on a brook unheard,
With sound half laughter and half tears,
Is hushed at last, like autumn bird;
Carol or quiet, which is best?
The singer, or the song preferred
In sacred silence unconfessed.
Take both, and not another word."

It does not aim to be stilted, but is just that kind of a collection of original poems which will be wanted by all on all occasions. It is a gem of a work. Her devotion to her husband is itself a poem, which can be read between the lines. Swinburne, the second, is a selection from the poetical works of A. C. Swinburne, from the latest English edition of his works, edited by R. H. Stoddard. "One of the defects of this poet is the brilliancy and force of his vocabulary." No poet ever excelled him in the profusion with which he throws off rich and picturesque and spirited words; but his meaning is not so easily discovered. His music, nevertheless, is often more than his sense. He is a wonderful musician, if nothing else. All is imagination. He dwells in a region of imaginary reality, but his style did not originate with him; it belongs to the poetic history of the period. We find it with Victor Hugo, in an English form. It is found in the early verse of William Morris and Dante Gabriel Rossetti. Too much Romanticism was their bane. They protest against the intelligibility of Shakespeare and Milton, and no less against Byron and Scott. These faults attach more especially to Swinburne's early writings, such as "Tristiam of Lyonesse." This, however, has not been given place in the collection. We may say with the compiler, he has selected the best in Swinburne's poetry for this volume. These two works with Red Letter Poems, noticed above, are 12 mo., gilt edges, red line borders, illustrated and elegantly bound in new and beautiful designs. Paper, press-work and every feature has been arranged with an eye to both beauty and utility. Price of each book, $1 25.

When the tide is at the full, it turns. Our educational methods have been growing in system and severity, if not in perfection, for many years; and the demands upon the pupil have constantly increased, until the necessities for grading have become imperative, and the peculiarities of the individual are almost entirely ignored. It would seem impossible to carry this further, and any change now must be in some other direction. At this crisis, one of the brightest and most fearless of American writers comes forward with a stong argument against the whole system, a protest against the grading and cramming that take so much of the vitality out of the education we are giving to the rising generation. Edward Everett Hale, in the November number of the North American Review, makes a plea for "Half-Time in Schools," which every parent and every school board ought to consider seriously. The old questions, "Where are we, and where drifting?" was never more forcibly suggested than by another article in the same number, that in which Prof. Gilliam discusses "The African Problem." The facts that he gives as to the increase of the negroes in the United States, their peculiar situation and disposition, and the problem they will force upon us in the near furture, call for the gravest consideration. The other articles in this number are: "Woman as a Political Factor," by Judge Robert C. Pitman; "Progress in Naval Armament," by Hobart Pasha, who thinks the United States Government has been wise in not constructing a costly navy; "Friendship in Ancient Poetry," by Principal J. C. Shairp; "Herbert Spencer's Latest Critic," by Prof. E. L. Youmans; "Over-Illustration," by Charles T. Congdon; and "Restriction of the Suffrage," by William L. Scruggs.

Jean Robie is unquestionably one of the foremost living flower painters. His pictures excel in their fidelity to nature, the warmth and richness of their coloring, and his subtle rendering of the spirit of the flower. His Roses are unrivalled. Like every artist of genius, Robie has been very unwilling to permit the publication of copies of his most cherished works. It is a matter for just congratulation to Americans that he has, at last, accorded this privilege to one of the most famous Art publishers. Mr. Louis Prang has undertaken to reproduce one of the artist's masterpieces as a satin print. The picture selected is of medium size and includes roses of various kinds, intermixed with spiræa, and arranged in a deep blue vase, which contrasts charmingly with a crystal bowl in the foreground, which reflects, as it seems, every ray of light. The copy is absolutely faithful to the original, and is the most ambitious publication of the kind ever attempted.

Mrs. Elia W. Peattie, wife of Robert B. Peattie, a well known Chicago journalist, has a short story in The Current of October 18, entitled "Major Weatherbeam's Discomforture," which has a deliciously humorous flavor

So Dry and Brittle.

"What do you suppose makes my hair so dry and brittle?" We suppose that the glands which supply moisture to it need a stimulous. A bottle of Parker's Hair Balsam will do the business, and leave your hair soft and shining. There is no mistake about this. No oil, no dye. Restores original color, removes dandruff

If you wish to subscribe for the SOUTHWESTERN, and the pastor does not call upon you, do not wait. Send your money ($1.50) to this office by express, registered letter, postal order or postal note.

15 Pounds Gained in Three Weeks, and CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

Messrs. Craddock & Co., 1032 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—Please send me two more bottles of DR H JAMES CANNABIS INDICA, one each of Pills and Ointment, for a friend of mine who is not expected to live; and as your medicine cured me of Consumption some three years ago, I want him to try them. I gained fifteen pounds while taking the first three bottles, and I know it is just the thing for him. Respectfully,

J. V. HULL,
Lawrenceburg, Anderson Co., Ky.

Always wielding large influence, the attitude of the clergy on political questions has been ever a source of concern to politicians and party leaders.—The American Reformer.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
July 17-1y.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC.

Santa Claus and Family, a Cantata by J. H. Rosecrans. Fine music, beautiful scenes and tableaux. Price, 20. Per dozen by express, $2. Per dozen by mail, $2.25.

Jesus of Nazareth in Prophecy and Fulfillment.—Responsive Scripture readings with original music to the Scripture texts. A small oratorio. Price 5c. Per dozen by mail 50c.

Christmas Selections for 1884, by J. H. Fillmore. Price, 4c. Per dozen by mail, 40c.

Christmas Songs from "Grateful Praise." Price 3c. Per dozen by mail, 30c.

Christmas Songs from "Joy and Gladness." Price 4c. Per dozen by mail, 40c.

A sample of all the above list sent for 30c. A sample of each with out the Cantata, sent for 10c. Address

FILLMORE BROS.,
185 Race St., Cincinnati, Ohio.
nov6 4t

AGENTS wanted for the History of Christianity, by Abbott. A grand chance. A $4 book at the popular price of $1.75. Liberal terms. The religious papers mention it as one of the few great religious works of the world. Greater success never known by agents. Terms free. STINSON & Co., Publishers, Portland, Maine. Mar27-eom

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with and without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 00 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock.
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
sep25-3m

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit Address True & Co., Augusta, Maine Report at Parting.

MARSDEN.

Some noble chronicles love their preachers so,
Out how it is to them a time of woe;
Pastors and flock so happily sorjoin
In union—civil, social and divine—
And flow along like mixing
Stream—one course.
'Tis half a death to suffer a divorce;
So, when a pair, by soft affection joined,
This which alone the good and gentle bind,
Are severed by an unexpected stroke,
The feeling heart is agonized and broke.
In Christian breasts soft sympathies reside;
These gentle streams of love and sorrow slide;
More bright, more pure, more apt to move and melt,
Than ever player feigned or poet felt.
Ah! may my lot be never cast with such,
Who fear a preacher may be prized too much.
What! prized too much in these unoivil days,
When even those who profit seldom praise!
When many, with a supercilious eye,
Treat every pastor as a moral spy;
Address him with a sour or surly tone,
And pick his conduct as they pick a bone;
Thwart his every measure—wrong or right—
When absent pelt him, and when present fight,
Preserve me, Savior, from so foul a shock,
As frigid pastures and a thankless flock!

Domestic Hygiene.

MUFFINS—This is what the Queenslander says will make nice and healthy muffins: A pound of flour, with an egg, an ounce of butter melted in a half pint of milk, and two tablespoonsful of yeast beaten well together. Set two or three hours to rise, and bake in the usual way. Make crumpets of a thin batter of flour, milk and water, and a small quantity of yeast only; then bake them in a similar way to muffins. They are seen cooked on one side, and must be carefully turned in time.

JELLY CAKE—The Farming World gives us this recipe: A good large cake is made of one cup of sugar, two eggs, half cup butter, one and a half cups flour, half cup milk, two teaspoonsful of baking powder. If you have no jelly, frosting flavored with lemon juice is nice. Use the grated rind for flavoring the cake.

RUSK—The Tribune-Farmer of fers its readers the following: [illegible] enough mixed with half a cup of yeast to make a pint; make a sponge and rise; then add one and a half cups of white sugar, three eggs, a half cup butter; spice to taste, scald, then put in pan to rise; when baked, cover the tops with sugar dissolved in milk.

VIRGINIA ROLLS—This is Mrs. L. A. Sheridan's recipe: One quart sifted flour, two teaspoonsful baking powder, one or two tablespoonsful butter, and milk enough to make it quite stiff for biscuit; roll out half inch thick, cut out with biscuit cutter, wet with milk and fold over, then wet with milk and bake; this quantity is in the form of a cake.

PLAIN CAKE—Take any bits of bread you may have left after meals, soak them in milk or milk and water, until perfectly soft; mash fine, add two eggs, a pinch of salt, sugar to taste, and enough flour to make a stiff batter; drop the batter or lard. This is inexpensive and good, and a better way to use dry bread than by pudding.

Numerical Statistics of the M. E. Church for 1883.

	1883	Increase.	Decrease.
No. of annual conferences	99
No of Mission Districts	14
Total No. of conferences and Mission Districts	113
No. of Bishops	10		1
No. Presiding Elders	477	31
Itinerant Preachers who located during the year	193	3
Itinerant Preachers who died during the year	172	1
Itinerant Preachers reported withdrawn	35		6
Itinerant Preachers reported expelled	5		15
Present No. of Itinerant Preachers, Jan. 1, 1884	12,628	321
Local Preachers now employed as pastors	1,673		16
Present number of Local Preachers	12,026	59
Present number Itinerant and Local Preachers	24,654	298
Lay Members in full connection	1,601,672	28,895
Members on Probation	168,464		7,328
No. of deaths in membership during year	22,668	291
Present No. of Lay Members and Probationers	1,769,090	21,513
Total number in Lay membership and ministry	1,782,090	32,582
No. of children baptized during year	55,876		920
No of adults baptized during year	61,862	4	621
Total baptisms during year	117,738	3,692
No. of churches [houses of worship]	18,741	589
Number of Parsonages	6 607	383
Value of churches	$69,422,276	$3,995,194
Value of parsonages	9,815,899	555,521
Total value of churches and parsonages	$79,238,085	$4,560,715
No. of Sunday-schools	22,503	1,602
No. of officers and teachers	241,861	17 194
No. of Sunday-school scholars	1,691,065	61,707
Total No. of officers, teachers and scholars	1,932,926	78,901
No. of scholars 15 years old and over	567,852	17,076
No. of scholars under 15 years except in infant classes	520,793	14,518
No. of scholars in infant classes	361,176	33,214
Average attendance of teachers and scholars	1,057,554	7,801
Officers and teachers who are church members or probationers	185,178	781
Scholars who are church members or probationers	319,656	30,323
No. of Sunday-school conversions during year	80,333	4,512
Total expenses of Sunday-schools this year	$670 865	$52,203
No. of Sunday-school library books	1,948,992	151,214
Paid for new buildings and improvements during the year	$3,994,307	$689,066
Paid on old debts on church property	$1,484,217		$322,610
Total reported as paid on the property during the year	$5,478,524	$367,046
Present indebtedness on church property	$5,669,891	$277,646
Amount paid pastors, presiding elders and bishops	7,267,360	271,500
Collections in churches for conference claimants	170,942	3,249
Total for ministerial support during year	7,338 302	274,749
Paid by churches and Sunday schools for incidental expenses	2,028,195	180,599
Collections in congregations for missions	419,994	4,867
Collections in Sunday-schools	225,932	16,873
Collections of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society	119,241	11,568
Total collections for general missionary work	765,167	33,380
Collections for Church Extension Board	120,402	9,503
Collections for Tract Society	15 280		40
Collections for Sunday-school Union	16,232		759
Collections for Education Board	84 900	15,861
Collections for American Bible Society	27.260		1,949

Statistics of Christendom.

A German statistician of considerable note, G. E. Kolb, has recently published some carefully collected statistics of the religious status of the world. According to these there are 425,000,000 Christians on the globe, who are divided into 215,000,000 Roman Catholics, 122,000,000 Protestants, 80,000,000 adherents of the Greek Church, and 8,000,000 of other churches.

In the German empire there were on December 1st, 1880, (the time taken), that general statistics were 28,318,592 Evangelical Christians, 16,229,290 Roman Catholics, 93,834 other Christians, 561,612 Jews, and 30,675 adherents of other religions.

The other Protestant countries of Europe are England, the low countries, Sweden and Norway, Denmark and Switzerland. In Austria-Hungry there are 28,500,000 Catholics, and a little over 3,500,000 Protestants; in France, 37,000,000 Catholics and 600,000 Protestants; in Russia, 8,000,000 Catholics, 4,000,000 Protestants, 63,000,000 Greek Christians, 2,500,000 Jews, and 2,000,000 Mohammedans. In Italy there are 28,500,000 Catholics and only 60,090 Protestants; in Sweden, over 4,500,000 Protestants, but only 600 Catholics; in Denmark, 1,953,000 Protestants and 3,000 Catholics; in Switzerland, 1,670,000 Protestants and 1,160,000 Catholics; in Belgium, 5,500,000 Catholics and 15,000 Protestants; in the Netherlands, 2,500,000 Protestants and 1,450,000 Catholics.

For England the following figures are given: 18,537,000 members of the State Church, 1,473,000 of the Scotch Church, 6,639,000 Dissenters, 5,520,000 Catholics, and 76,000 Israelites.

From a New Jersey Pastor.

"I have tried Parker's Tonic and believe in it. It goes at once to the root of all digestive and nervous derangements, so common among ministers. For weaken and chronic invalids it is a perfect invigorant. A single dose pervades the whole system and gives a new sense of life." Rev. F. E. Osborne, West Hoboken, N. J.

The Colportage of the American Bible Society.

Since the American Bible Society entered upon the General Supply of the United States and Territories with the Scriptures two years ago, 557 counties have been completely canvassed, and 564 counties still remain to be supplied by colporteurs where the auxiliary Bible societies cannot undertake the work.

A considerable part of the work accomplished has been in the Territories where the canvass was very expensive. Utah, Montana, Idaho, and Wyoming are reported as completely canvassed, and Colorado is also nearly completed. The more thickly settled portions of Nevada will be canvassed by a colporteur who is working in that new State with great success. The pastors and missionaries will supply the more sparsely settled portions of that field. The States and Territories which are yet to be canvassed by colporteurs are probably more than half completed.

It seems probable that besides the books now in the hands of colporteurs, valued at $56,000, about $100,000 will be required to complete the canvass. The following summary is presented:

	Copies.	Value.
Books sent from Bible House to Colporteurs	776,131		$569,141 75
Sold by Colporteurs	529,476	$207,295 80
Donated by Colporteurs	142,037	34,985 02
			$242 280 82

CASH ACCOUNT.

Sales by Colporteurs	$207,295 00
Individual donations and church collections	20 494 65
		$227,790 45
Salaries and expenses of Colporteurs, including freight on books		$187,508 46
Net returns from sales and collections		$40,281 99

LABOR PERFORMED.

Families visited, 1,284,628; found destitute 171,882; supplied, 141,813.

Bible Distribution in Texas.

In September, 1884, by 13 Colporteurs of the American Bible Society. Days 321; miles traveled, 4,830; families visited, 3,656; families found without a Bible, 399; families supplied by gift and sale, 273; destitute individuals supplied in addition, 204; Number of books sold 1,368, value $672.73; number or books distributed by gift 360, value $84.57; contributions received from churches and individuals $44.74. Returns were received from six Auxiliary Societies; two Mission Churches were given pulpit Bibles. The fourth general supply is being vigorously carried on. Help is greatly needed. Contributions may be sent to A. L. Taylor, assistant treasurer, Bible House, New York; or to W. B. Rankin, district superintendent, Austin, Texas.

The Name for a Girl.

If we granted the following request, which comes to us from Kentucky, we should do the baby referred to a poor service:

"Please send me some pretty names for a girl baby—something novel and uncommon—and you will much oblige a reader of The Sun."

Novel and uncommon or merely pretty and fanciful names are the ones of all others for to you to avoid. You may make your girl an object of ridicule, and cause her mortification which will do serious injury to her disposition, if you give her some odd and romantic name.

The old and simple and homely names are the best for girls—the names which have been borne by women for thousands of years, and which are both beautiful in themselves and sweet in their associations. There is a dignity about them which befits womanhood, while a great part of the fanciful names which have of late come into fashion are inappropriate, except in the nursery as the pet appellations of babies.

There are a score of common names which are far better than any of those manufactured by romancers. They are good and all suitable, and because thousands and millions of women have been known by them they are none the less attractive. Those which are most commonly used are, indeed, the most agreeable to the ear—like Mary and Margaret, Catharine and Harriet, Jane and Lucy, and Elizabeth. They are dignified, and their homeliness makes them all the more charming. Affection will never get tired of them. They will be as common a thousand years from now as they were a thousand years ago and as they are to-day.

We therefore advise our friend to give up his plan for distinguishing his girl by burdening her with some "novel and uncommon" name, and if she grows to be a sensible woman she will thank us for our refusal to assist him in finding such an appellation.—New York Sun.

Doctors are getting more and more into the habit of prescribing proprietary medicines in their practice, especially that known as HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY for diseases of the kidneys liver and bladder. They know from experience that it is of more value than any prescription they can write.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my children. I was sold from them in Virginia by a man by the name of Cread Webb to a man named Wadkins, and he brought me to Franklin, La. I have four children which I left in Virginia, the oldest is named Simon, he used to belong to Thomas Joplan; my next oldest were Emma and Ann, one of whom I left at the old home, and Emma belonged to a man by the name of Noel. Jennie, my youngest, I left with my old owners. I now have two of them, Emma and Annie, but Simon and Jimmie I have not found. Address me at Franklin, La., care of our pastor, Rev. J. W. Hilton. My name is now Martha Vagner, but I used to be called Martha Webb.

For Sufferers Chronic Diseases, 36 pp symptoms, remedies, helps, advice. Send stamp—Dr Whittler, St. Louis, Mo. (old est office.) State case your way.
sept20.26tcow

"See What Cuticura Does for Me!"

INFANTILE and Birth Humors, Milk Crust, Scalled Head, Eczemas, and every form of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous and Inherited Diseases of the Blood, Skin and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Absolutely pure and safe. Cuticura, the great Skin Cure, 50 cts.; Cuticura an soap exquisite Skin Beautifier and only Medicinal Baby Soap, 25 cts., and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, $1, are sold by druggists. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."
April-10

Facts and Reasons.

Effects Produced by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA and by Nothing Else so Perfectly.

It strengthens and invigorates sufferers from enervation, languor, weakness, and mental depression.

It has an almost magical effect in curing eruptive and cutaneous disorders.

It eradicates from the blood the taint of that terribly destructive disease, Hereditary Scrofula.

It expels from the system the baneful poison of Mercury, which is as serious as that of Scrofula.

It purifies and regenerates the life current polluted by the corruption of contagious disease.

It stimulates the secretory organs, effects the removal of all impurities from the blood and makes it new, rich, and pure.

It restores health to sufferers from thin blood and impaired vitality.

It saves, by its thorough purification of the blood, from Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and Tubercular Consumption.

It cures Scrofulous affections of the Liver and Kidneys, and their symptoms, Jaundice and Dropsy.

It cures Scrofulous Catarrh, Itching Humors, and the purulent Sores caused by Scrofula.

It clears and improves the complexion.

It neutralizes the poisons left in the system by Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever, and restores the debilitated patient to perfect health and vigor.

It is, in short, an unfailing remedy for all disorders arising from impurity of the blood, where such disorders have not become so deeply seated as to be beyond all human aid.

Advantages that AYER'S SARSAPARILLA Possesses over all Others.

It is composed of the most efficacious alterative, diuretic, and tonic drugs known in pharmacy, among which are the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Stillingia, and the Iodides of Potassium and Iron.

It is a highly concentrated medicine, scientifically and honestly compounded so as to secure to it the highest degree of activity and perfect uniformity.

It has received the hearty endorsement of the leading men in the medical profession, who recognize it as a standard pharmaceutical preparation, and prescribe it in their practice.

It contains no poisonous minerals or other dangerous drugs, the use of which for temporary effect in the many crude and cheap mixtures sold as alteratives, produces effects on the system often worse than the diseases they are offered to cure.

It costs no more than any other, but would still be the cheapest blood-purifying medicine in the world, even were its price three times greater, since it is the only one that does "real, lasting good."

It has been before the public for nearly forty years, and has constantly grown in popular favor, both at home and abroad, until there is hardly a place in the civilized world where it has not a host of friends, made so by its marvellous cures.

It has been used in, and approved by, at least 4,000,000 families in the United States, and 7,000,000 throughout the world. Women have especial reasons for commending it.

It has proven its potency in curing obstinate, deeply-seated, and long-standing diseases caused by vitiation of the blood. It must not, however, be expected and is not claimed that a single bottle will cure such cases; but patients should persevere in the use of this remedy until a radical cure is effected.

It is the only blood-purifier that has won and retained the confidence of the people of all tropical countries, where such medicines are much required.

It is the only medicine of its class that sailors, as a rule, have any faith in—and they are right.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

Sold by all Druggists: Price $1.00, six bottles for $5.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

Our Books for Sale,
—AT—
Southwestern Office,
32 Natchez Street.

Wakefield's Theology	$2 50
Methodism In The Field	1 00
Class Leaders Work and How to Do It	1 25
History of the M. E. Church, 4 volumes	5 00
Wesley's Sermons, 2 volumes	5 00
Whedon's Commentary on the New Testament	7 50
Life of John Wesley	1 00
Hand Book of Bible Geography	2 50
Bible Stories	1 00
Hints to Self Educated Ministers	1 25
Christianity Demonstrated by Experience	1 50
Baker on the Discipline	1 00
Blaney's Theological Compend	75
Pope's Theology, 3 volumes	7 50
Outlines of Bible History	50
Outlines of Church History	50
CATECHISMS—
No. 1, Per Dozen	35
No. 2 Per Dozen	45
No. 3, Per Dozen	60
American Primers, per dozen	50
Spelling and Reading Book, per dozen	1 50
Sunday-School Minute Book	40
Sunday-School Register and Receiving Book	40
Sunday-School Class Book	10
Church Record	2 50
Church Class Book	30
Hymnal 24 mo	50
" 16 mo, with Ritual	75
" 16 mo, "	1 00
" 12 mo, "	1 50
" 16 mo, with Tunes	1 00

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr. C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to 1872, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	80
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Cargall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
38-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

IT PAYS to sell our Rubber Stamps. Fancy catalogue to Agents. Polambo & Co., Cleveland O. a25-4teow $66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. Hallett & Co., Portland, Maine.

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Leave	Daily
New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.		5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.		12:38 a m
Cantoo		1:30 a m
Durant		2:52 p m
Grenada		4:50 a m
Coffeeville		5:25 a m
Water Valley		6:00 a m
Oxford		6:43 a m
Holly Springs		7:54 a m
Grand Junction		9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L & N. O.		11:05 a m
Milan " " "		12:20 p m
Martin " " "		1:32 p m
Fulton " " "		2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois		4:30 p m
Carbondale " "		6:58 p m
DuQuoin "		7:45 p m
Ashley "		8:28 p m
Centralia "		9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at		9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.		9:29 p m
" Louisville, "		6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "		7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3. 10:45 a m
Sunday Exc'n 7:30 a.m	Sunday Exc'n 8:20 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	6:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9 10 a m
Fast Mail	8:30 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division.
a28-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE
TO
Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn., and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City. For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

CATARRH

AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Cough, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the bones of the nose have become affected. No douches, snuffs, washes, inhalers, or atomizers. The medicines are so pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Bramhall has had fifteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and Fifty ($0) cents (more cost), for a trial package by mail, to use three days, with full instructions for treatment.

Address, Dr. C. H. BRAMHALL,
oct2-1yr

STEAM ENGINES Portable and Agricultural. Send for circular. Wood, Tiffany & Co., Eaton, N. Y. may8-6t 1tam

General News Items.

Diplomatic relations between Belgium and the Vatican will be resumed in November.

The Parnell members of the House of Commons resolved to vote against the government on the franchise bill.

There was a violent northwest storm throughout the British isles and neighboring seas on the 28th, demolishing houses and vessels.

The Nelch Albanians, in the district of Veles, revolted and attacked and plundered three villages, murdering the inhabitants.

The President appointed ex-Secretary Hugh McCullough to be secretary of the treasury, and Secretary Walter G. Gresham to be circuit judge of the seventh circuit, to succeed Judge Thomas Drummond, resigned.

At a meeting of the Diet of Brunswick the President read a letter from the Emperor of Germany expressing anxiety to solve the constitutionality of the succession difficulty. The Diet unanimously passed a resolution declaring that the country expects the necessary steps to be taken legally for a settlement of the difficulty in connection with the Imperial letter, at the same time expecting that the constitutional rights of the Duchy will be preserved equally with those pertaining to the empire.

In the House of Commons Mr. Thomas one spoke in strong disapprobation of the Irish members for their strictures on Earl Spencer, late Lieutenant of Ireland. If the charges they make could be proved, Mr. Gladstone said that nothing less than impeachment of his infidelity was necessary. Irish members interrupted Mr. Gladstone repeatedly during his speech, and he expressed his regret that they did not conduct their operations with more prudence and right feeling.

The Commissioner of Indian affairs in his annual report says: The progress of the Indians toward civilization is most encouraging, and it is fair to presume that in the future they will be no longer a burden but a help to the country. He states that the present appropriation is too small to meet the necessity of passing an allotment bill early in the session. Congress is urged to pass a stringent law prohibiting the sale of arms and ammunition to Indians and to enforce the law forbidding the sale of liquor to them.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church met in the M. E. Church, Cleveland, O., on the 28th. One hundred delegates were present, representing Mrs. Hayes, ex-President, occupied the platform with her in connection are Mrs. chairman of the ; Mrs. R. S. Rust, secretary, and Miss recording secretary. Addresses were uttered by Mrs. and Mrs. Davis, of Mrs. J. B. Corey, corof Ohio, welcoming Mrs. Rust and Mrs. Mrs. After reading reports, addi[illegible] appointed Commissioner of Pensions, has refused to accept the office. He says he has no other reason, but a desire to remain in private life.

Many arrests of Nihilists are being made daily, among them officers of the Russian army.

HUNT'S KIDNEY & LIVER REMEDY NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

IT CURES WHERE ALL OTHERS REMEDIES CURE FAIL, as it acts and AT ONCE on the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, restoring them to a healthy action. It is a safe, sure and speedy cure and hundreds have been cured by it when physicians and friends had given them up to die.

IT IS BOTH A "SAFE CURE" and a "SPECIFIC."

It CURES [illegible] of the Kidneys, Liver, Urinary Organs, Bladder, Blood Diseases, Dropsy, Retention of Urine, Excessive or Scanty Urine, Diabetes, Gravel, Pain in the Back, Kidneys and Loins, Female Complaints, and all Pains and Weaknesses.

IT CLEANSES THE SYSTEM OF THE POISONOUS HUMORS that develop in Kidney and Urinary Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Nervous Prostration, Headache, Piles, Constipation, Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Skin Diseases, Boils, Blotches, Eruptions, Fever, Ague, Chills, and Malarial Diseases.

IT ACTS PROMPTLY AND AT THE SAME TIME HARMONIOUSLY on all the organs of the system, and is the best Blood Purifier and Life and Health Restorer ever known.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE, and contains the best curative properties of all the vegetable remedies of the world.

IT IS CONCENTRATED, and one bottle will do more good than any other medicine in the market.

IT IS PUT UP IN DRY VEGETABLE FORM, in tin cans, one package of which makes six quarts of medicine, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country.

IT IS THE CHEAPEST MEDICINE TO BUY, because you get more for your money than in any other.

IT IS THE BEST MEDICINE TO TAKE, because it will cure you.

IT IS THE MEDICINE YOU OUGHT TO TAKE, because it will make you well, strong and happy.

IT IS THE MEDICINE YOU WILL HAVE TO TAKE sooner or later, if you would be cured of your disease, pain or sickness.

IT IS THE MEDICINE YOU SHOULD TAKE NOW, and not wait and suffer any longer stance, the process necessary for producing wine: first, we plant the vine, it grows up, bears grapes, these are now gathered and the juice pressed out, placed into barrels, where fomentation is produced, and finally we have the wine as served at the marriage, not produced in an instant, however, like Jesus Christ did at this feast, but consuming, as we know, quite a period of time.

(Continued from First page.)

The soul of the dead man Lazarus had gone hence. At the command of Jesus Christ it returns to earth and again enters into the body it had abandoned four days previous.

The agitated waters that still lashed to and fro in conformity to the law of inertia, are made to settle down, and the ship once more glides upon the placid waters of Galilee.

The validity of some of these events will depend with those who are not regenerated, entirely upon the authenticity of history written over 1800 years ago, while others are further proven by the agreement they bear to prophesies foretelling their occurence; therefore, let us see the circumstances surrounding those who wrote these accounts. Are they written by one individual, whose chief motive was to gain the applause of men? Certainly not, but written by several men. Is it an account of their own actions that they would commend to the world to gain the praise of rising generations? Not at all, they are relating an account of another person, who is gone from the world, and can therefore do them no earthly good. Were they all in one place at the time of writing in order that they should meet and compare every passage of this history, to secure the agreement of these several books? No, they were written at different places, as well as at different dates. All relating these events in their style of language, and yet all the books agreeing in the main. Were these books written in that age when authors mingled fiction with facts in their writings? No, quite the contrary; at a time when this had long since ceased to be the case. Written by people who could expect censure much rather that praise for what they wrote: What, then, could prompt them to write this history? A conviction that they were right, and a love for the truth. It may be asked how can it possibly be that a person could should ever err in a doctrine plainly authenticated by such glorious truths? But the Scriptures decide this question. He was prompted by the desire to know the truth, but whose duty is to search the Scriptures for the purpose of disproving the doctrines of their doctrine, and [illegible] this great work, its truths so easily understood by the Christian, become an incomprehensible parable, which, in the language of the Savior, they "hearing hear not, seeing, see not; nor understand lest they should convert and their truths and be converted, Matt. 13, 13-14. Does this apply to you? Why, the Bible is only maintaining that very different, indeed to him who is moved to search the Scriptures with a desire to find out its truths, whose soul thirsts after righteousness, for he is he, for he shall be filled. Matt. 5, 6.

The proofs upon which the Christian faith is based does not admit of doubt, why, how firm should we be in our belief, especially those whom God has particularly admitted to his kingdom, whose soul the very Spirit of our Father flows like a river in a desert country. Those who will remember what is said in Scripture, in regard to [illegible], will hardly doubt their religious faith. Therefore the Lord would have us found a people, in which we were to live, when the [illegible] the principles of truth, were not to be found, in his

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
106 Wall Street, N Y
ag28-1y

Sunday School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER. LESSON VI. Nov 9. THE WISDOM OF SOLOMON. I Kings x, 1-13.

Solomon became so rich and great, that the queen of Sheba, who lived a thousand or twelve hundred miles away, heard how great he was and came to see him, taking with her a great many very costly presents, loaded upon camels. When she saw how rich and beautiful his home was, and how many servants he had, and all his glory, she could hardly speak because it was more glorious than she had expected to find it. The queen had a long talk with the king, and gave him the presents which she had brought, large and costly. And all this was because Solomon asked God for wisdom and tried to serve the Lord in all things. The knowledge of God gives men honor in the sight of the world. Every body respects a man who always tries to do right. And then a man who knows the law of God and obeys it can instruct other people in right ways.

This queen of Sheba learned wisdom from Solomon. We can not all be as great and glorious as Solomon was, but we can all be good and useful, and although we may not have kings and queens to call on us, we may have the Lord Jesus in our hearts every day, and he is greater than Solomon himself. And let us not think that in order to get to Jesus we must bring costly gifts. Poor children may come to him. This queen was very rich, and it was quite proper for her to take presents to Solomon, but we can come to Jesus with nothing but our poor selves, and he will take us just as we are, and give us his love, and a hope of heaven. Let us give him our hearts to-day.—Western.

Children's Work—Trees of the Bible.

1. Who was a gatherer of the fruit of the tree that Zacheus climbed?

2. What did this imply?

3. Why did he make this statement?

4. What did our Lord illustrate by this tree?

5. Why is it a striking illustration?

Answers for October 9.

By Master W. H. Crawford, Van Buren, Ark., age 13 years. 1. When a king commanded to gather a whole nation, the question asked them was: "How long halt ye between two opinions?" 2. Not a word, 3. It is well spoken. 4. The Lord; he is the God. 5. Unto Elijah. 6. The proof of God's power. 7. Rain was the answer to private prayer.

Sleepy Congregations.

Sometimes clergymen unjustly blame themselves for the drowsiness that pervades their congregation at the evening services, and the congregations, with seeming justice, are often of the opinion that their pastors deserve all the blame they get. The true case, not infrequently, is the improper position of the lamps or gas jets, which throw the light into the eyes in such a way as to make closing the lids involuntary. The best reflectors of which we have personal knowledge are manufactured by I. P. Frink, 551 Pearl street, New York. They increase the light about fourfold, and we have yet to hear of an instance of dissatisfaction where they have been used.—Christian Union.

Marriages.

At the residence of the bride, Liberty street, New Orleans, La., by Rev. M. Dale, Oct. 24, Mr. Gustave Ellis to Mrs. Jane Fowler.

June 14, 1884, Mr. Luther Freeman to Miss Susan Mathews, at the residence of the bride, in Brookhaven, Miss. Also Mr. Phillip Rembert and Miss Sallie Massia, at the church in Hazlehurst, Miss., Rev. S. H. Nevils officiating.

At the M. E. Church, Cuero, Texas, on Sept. 25th, Prof. A. H Huff, formerly of Luling, now of Cuero, Texas, to Miss Jessie Wilson, formerly of Mt Pleasant. Rev. G W. Townsend officiating. Many costly presents were presented to them at the marriage. Miss Jessie's aunt gave them a nice supper. The table was laden with all kinds of edibles, which the large number of guests seemed to enjoy. Prof. Huff is a first-class teacher, and is doing a great deal of good here. May they live in peace, and when their work is finished here on earth may the great Supreme Architect of the universe receive them.

At the residence of the bride, on First street, New Orleans, La., Mr. George Kellar and Miss Rosa Rollins, Rev. T. G. Montgomery officiating.

Some one has declared conceit worse than consumption, and the comparison is a true one. Many are the "conceited" who cry down legitimate remedies, and who delude suffering humanity, whose only salvation is the immediate use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Obituary.

Melinda R., infant daughter of Mrs and Mr. Rebecca and R. T. Thomas, died Oct. 6th, at Natchitoches, La., aged 11 months and 26 days. It slept away to Jesus. Funeral by Rev. H. J. Wright.

Wm. Butler, a member of First Street Church, died Oct. 27, 1884, at 9 o'clock p m., of consumption; aged about 50 years

Sister Margaret Woodward died April 20, 1884 in full triumph of faith. R Woodward died Aug 16, 1884, trusting in the Lord. She leaves two children to mourn her loss.

Sister Charlotte Barnes died at Hazlehurst, Miss., May, 1884, after an illness of 19 months. There remains her husband, four children and many friends to mourn her loss. She fell asleep in Jesus. She was a consistent member of the Hazlehurst, M. E. Church. Sister Anna Jones died in Hazlehurst, Miss., July 10, 1884. She lived and died a Christian. Her venerable father lingers near the shore waiting 'til he can join her "over there."

S. H. NEVILS.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conferences.	Place.	Time.	Bishop.
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	Wiley
South India	Hyderabad, India	Nov 20	Hurst
Texas	Navasota, Texas	Nov 20	Harris
Cent'l Alabama	Gadsden, Ala	Nov 26	Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov 27	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec 3	Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec 4	Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La	Dec 24	Harris

Notice.

A centenary meeting, will be held in Starkeville, Miss., Dec. 12, 13 and 14, 1884. On the 12th, the origin of Methodism and its progress under Rev. John Wesley—Rev. I L Pratt.

On the 13th, at 11 a. m., the beginning of Methodism in America, and its first Bishop and Conference—L F White.

At 3 p. m., Methodist preachers during the various wars, and especially during the revellion—Rev B H S Ferguson.

At 7:30 p. m., The religion of the Methodist Church, and what she believes concerning the true religion—Rev. P Jamison

Sunday service, at 11 a. m., The beginning of the three Methodist Churches, the A M E Church, the M E Church and M E Church South—Rev D A Williams.

At 3 p. m., Tue Church after emancipation coming South—L L Shumpert.

At night, Why we baptize children—the pastor.

I B GRIFFIN.

Chattanooga Dist—East Tennessee District.

First Round.

Robertsville	Nov.	1- 2
Kingston	"	8- 9
Chattanooga	"	15-16
Jasper	"	22-23
Washington	"	29 30
Chattanooga station	Dec.	6- 7
Soddy	"	13-14
Cleveland	"	20-21
Sweetwater	Jan.	3- 4
Ebenezer	"	10-11
Riceville	"	17-18
Big Spring	"	24 25
Georgetown	Jan. 31, Feb.	1

The district conference will convene Nov. 27th, at 9 o'clock a. m., in Dayton, Tenn. The pastors will please come prepared to stay until Monday. Also notify the district stewards to be present in the discharge of their duty.

E. PROVINE, P. E.

Kingston, Tenn., Oct. 28, 1884.

La Fourche District—Louisiana Conference.

Whitehall	Nov.	8
Bayon Goula	"	13
Donaldsonville	"	15
Darrowville	"	16
Napoleonville	"	20
Woodlawn	"	23
Thibodaux	"	28
Terrebonne	"	30
Houma	Dec.	5
Dulac	"	7
Morgan City	"	11
Bayon Sale	"	13
Centerville	"	14
Franklin	"	17
LaTeche	"	20
St. Charles and St. John	"	25

EMPEROR WILLIAMS, P. E.

Baptising.

The Rev. John H. Smith will have a public baptising on the third Sunday in November, at 10 o'clock, in Slidell, La. New Orleans people can come by the Northeastern Railroad. Fare, round trip, 80 cents.

Murfreesboro District—Tennessee Conference.

First Round.

Lebanon	Nov.	1- 2
North Lebanon circuit	"	1- 2
Alexandria	"	8- 9
Cane Fork	"	15 16
Martin Creek	"	22-23
Liberty	"	29 30
Cookesville	Dec.	6- 7
Sparta	"	13-14
Shelbyville	"	20-21
Petersburg	"	27-28
Tullahoma	Jan.	3- 4
Hillsboro	"	3 4
Spencer	"	10-11
Murfreesboro circuit	"	10 11
Murfreesboro station	"	17 18
Stone River	"	17-18
Woodbury	"	20-21
McMinnville	"	25 27
McMinnville circuit	"	25 28

Dear brethren, push your work ahead. District conference will be held Dec. 18, 1884, at Shelbyville, Tenn. Take notice of the time and come on the 18th at 11 a m, and bring your Sunday-school superintendents, district stewards and brethren with you. McMinnville Tenn., is my post office. Yours,

C H BULLINGTON, P. E.

Nashville Dist. Tennessee Conf.

First Round.

Franklin	Nov.	1 2
Springhill	"	9-10
Lonisburg	"	15-16
Poplar Ridge	"	15 16
Nolensville	"	22 23
Brentwood	"	29-30
Gallatin	Dec.	6- 7
Gallatin circuit	"	13-14
Hartsville	"	20 21
Mitchellville	"	27 28
Springfield	Jan.	3 4
Dickson	"	10 11
White Bluff	"	10-11
Cumberland	"	17 18
Dover	"	24-25
Braden	Jan 31, Feb.	1
Clark Chapel	" 31 "	1
Seay Chapel	"	7- 8
Nashville, City Mission	"	7- 8

JAMES PICKETT, P. E.

Starkville Circuit.

There will be a centennial meeting held at Zion Franklin M. E. Church, near the old pike, on Nov. 29th and 30th, 1884. Programme—On Saturday, 29th at 10 a. m., sermon by I B Griffin; alternate, J M Lamkin. On Sunday-school, J M Franklin. On Freedmen's Aid Society, W E Logan. On Mission, E S Rice. On tobacco, B M Mason. On Church Extension, G W Bardwell. Sunday, 30th, at 11 a. m., sermon by D W Calvert; alternate, B H S Ferguson. 2:30 p. m., J Burton; 7:30 p. m., pastor.

L F WHITE.

Okolona District Conference.

The Okolona District Conference will convene in West Point, Miss., Dec. 18, 1884.

PROGRAMME.

To preach the opening sermon, P Jamison; alternate, G Brooks.
Infant baptism—L F White.
The right to excommunicate members—D W Calvert.
Missionary Society and its work—G Carr.
The most successful way to travel a circuit—R Snell.
The most effective way of conducting revivals—A Boyd
The true import of the word religion—Wesley Jones.
Freedmen's Aid Society—I B Griffin.
Church Extension Society—I L Pratt.
Good of camp meetings—J Trice.
Sunday-school Union—J J Harris.
How to organize Sunday-schools into Missionary societies—L L Shumpert.
On Christian perfection—A W Wright.
The good of newspapers—T W Davis.
Falling from grace—J W Davis.
The good of class meetings—J M Lamkin.
Whiskey and its evils—Miles Proctor.
The need of a district school—L G F Murry.
How long should a minister stay away from a charge after having been removed by a Bishop—G Brooks.
Love feast—Wm Gatewood.
Mode of baptism—I B Griffin.

D A WILLIAMS, P. E.

West Tennessee District—Tennessee Conference.

First Round.

Brownsville	Nov.	5- 6
Bells	"	8 9
Friendship	"	15-16
Dyer	"	17-18
Lawrenceburg	"	22-23
Waynesboro	"	29-30
Clifton	Dec.	2- 3
Lindon	"	6- 7
Cairksburg	"	10-11
Henderson	"	13-14
Martin	"	20-21
Paris	"	27-28
Mansfield	Jan.	1- 2
Purdy	"	7- 8

Will the pastors please see that each committee on the various benevolent causes are present with written reports? Our first district conference will meet at Martin Station, Tenn., on Wednesday, December 17, at 7½ o'clock, p. m. The district stewards will meet me on Friday, the 19th, promptly.

JESSE P. PRICE, P. E.

Programme

Of the Okolona District Centennial meeting to be held at West Point, Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 20 and 21, beginning 10:30 a. m.

Class-meetings; and how they are to be conducted—Wm Gatewood.
Is the pastor responsible for all the collections to be raised for the benevolent causes, or should he leave it to a committee—Wesley Jones.
Is an educated ministry needed—G Shannon.
Are the periodicals of our church a blessing to the members and leaders, and, if so, is it not right for us to support them—Isaac Mosley.
Sunday-schools and the way they should be conducted—L F G Murray.
The organization of the M. E. Church in America—Jas Trice.
The Church Extension Society—G Carr.
The Sunday-school Union—R Snell.
The Freedmen's Aid Society—G Brooks.
The Missionary Society and its work—L F White.
Temperance as it is set forth in our Discipline—T W Davis.

The Sunday-school will have a centennial concert at 9 a. m. Sunday, conducted by the school. A love feast at 11 a m; the sacrament at 3 p m, by the presiding elder, and centennial meeting by D W Calvert and others, at 7:30 p m.

Notice—The Committees on the examination of local preachers in each of the four years of the course of study, and candidates for license to preach, and orders and admission will meet at 10 a m, Dec 18. All persons interested must be in time, as that is the only meeting of the committee. Dear brethren, do not forget the Rust University. The doors are open to all. Tell the people about it, and take up a good collection for it. We shall wait to hear your report at the District conference.

Yours, truly,

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Programme

The following is the programme of the Gulf District, Mississippi Conference:

Education—N Cannon.
Missions—J H Cook.
Eternal punishment of man—Jas Ford.
Sunday-school Union—R Roundtree.
Circulation of books, and what kind should be used among our people—H May
The first twelve articles of religion—J K Comfort.
The difference between the M E Church and other Methodist churches—H L Kennedy.
Power of prayer—Jas Drayden.
Freedmen's Aid Society—J B Smith.
Necessity of union among ourselves—S H Nevils.
Duty of leaders and stewards—W A Dawson.
How revivals should be conducted—H Hendersen.
Call to the ministry—E Harris.
On church building—F Gatlen.
Observance of the Sabbath—W H Mims.

J B SMITH,
J H COOK,
R ROUNDTREE,
Committee.

Morristown District—East Tennessee Conference.

First Round.

Clinton and Coal Creek Ct	Nov.	8- 9
Knoxville Ct	"	15-16
Johnson City Ct	"	22-23
Arcadia Ct	"	22-23
Greenville Ct	"	29-30
Warrenburg Ct	Dec.	6- 7
Tazewell Ct	"	13-14
Morristown charge	"	20 21
Knoxville charge	"	27-28
Russellville Ct	Jan.	3- 4
Newport Ct	"	10 11
Dandridge Ct	"	17 18
Mossy Creek Ct	"	24-25

The district conference will be held at Greenville, Nov. 27, 1884, and I hope that all of the pastors and district stewards will be present on the first day of the session.

S. J. HARRIS, P. E.

Jackson Dist.—Mississippi Conf.

Fourth Round.

Rolling Fork	Nov.	1- 2
Jackson	"	8- 9
Mt. Salem	"	8- 9
Canton	"	15-16
Madison	"	15 16
Bolton	"	22 23
Clinton	"	23 24
Edwards	"	27-
Vicksburg Circuit	"	29 30
Vicksburg station	Nov. 30, Dec.	1-
Simpson	"	4-
Brandon	"	6- 7
Pelahatchie	"	12.
Trenton	"	13-14
Lake	"	16-
Hickory	"	17.
Forest	"	20 21

Let each pastor be ready to report a good benevolent collection. All of the committees are expected to be ready to make their reports. Dear Brethren, you will also see that a programme has been arranged for the centennial meeting to be held in Vicksburg commencing on the 24th inst. It is earnestly hoped that every minister in the district will be present, and as many friends within and without the district as possibly can will be there. The pastor and members are making the greatest preparation to entertain all that may attend the meeting.

Yours fraternally,

J. M. SHUMFERT, P. E.

Columbus, Oct. 11, 1884.

Greenwood District.

Last Round.

Winona and Vaiden	Nov.	1-2- 3
Lexington	"	4
Goodman	"	6
Durant	"	8- 9
Attala	"	11
Lonisville	"	14
French Camp	"	15 16
Kosciusko	"	19
Carthage	"	22-23
Pickens	"	26
Roebuck and Minter City	"	29 30
Greenwood	Dec.	6 7
Rosseneath	"	13 14
Yazoo City	"	20-21
Green Hill	"	23
Benton	"	27-28
Yazoo City circuit	"	27-28
Deasonville	"	13 14

H. R REVELS.

Holly Springs, Oct. 17, 1884.

P S.—The second district conference of Greenwood District cannot be held till near the time of meeting of the Annual Conference, and when the preachers are on the way to said Annual Conference, and hence the time of the meeting of the district conference cannot be given till our next Bishop publishes the date of the meeting of our next Annual Conference. The above statement is fully supported by the fact that Greenwood District is so formed, that most of the charges which compose it are so far from any point at which a district conference could be held, that it would consume too much of the preachers' time, to say nothing of heavy traveling expenses, so near the close of the conference year, to go to a district conference and return to their charges before starting to the Annual Conference. The above explanation shows why our district conferences are not in some respects held as they are in other districts.

H. R. REVELS.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6.50. Circulars free. se18-13t

The publisher of GOLDEN THOUGHTS ON MOTHER, HOME AND HEAVEN—Introduction by THEO. L. CUYLER, D. D.—Announce the 100th thousand of that work, and assures agents that have been selling it through bankrupt General Agents, they can be supplied direct from the Publisher, E. B. TREAT, New York. 1t

Pictorial NEW TESTAMENT

New Revision—WITH NOTES BY ov. JOHN S C. ABBOTT, D.D. L.L.D. Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D. D Rev. LYMAN ABBOTT, D.D.

Illustrated New Testament,

King James' Version—with Notes by Rev. JOHN S C. ABBOTT, D.D., L.L.D. Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D.D.

Agents Wanted—Outfits Free and all Freights Paid. Address H. S. GOODSPEED & CO., New York or Chicago. oct2-1yr

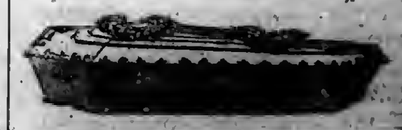
Do not wait till you are forced upon the bed of suffering and languishing. If you are feeling weak or distressed, try for little time the use of Ridge's Food, and see if your headache and at much trouble do disappear. Full directions for Cuticura, Pudding's Grue, etc., accompany each can. Ridge's Food does not tax the digestive organs. In cans, 35c., 60c., $1.25 $1.75. Sold by druggists everywhere. Send to WOOLRICH & CO., Palmer Mass. for pamphlet.

P. P. ALBERT,

(Successor to L. Bibolet, Manager.)

Produce Merchant,

And Dealer in Groceries,



20.....Toulouse Street,.....20

P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns made of same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.

No transaction on Sundays. sept25-tf

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

292 .....Rampart Street..... 292

(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.

All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices

sept25-tf A. LABAT, Asst Manager.

Good Pay for Agents. $100 to $200 per mo., made selling our fine Books and Bibles. Write to J. C. McCURDY & CO sept13-1y St. Louis, Mo.

MASON & HAMLIN

Exhibited at ALL the important WORLDS INDUSTRIAL COMPETITIVE EXHIBITIONS FOR SEVENTEEN YEARS, Mason & Hamlin Organs have, after most rigid examinations and comparisons, been ALWAYS FOUND BEST, and AWARDED HIGHEST HONORS; not even in one such important comparison have any other American Organs been found equal to them. Our

ORGANS

HUNDRED STYLES, adapted to all uses, from the smallest size, yet having the characteristic Mason & Hamlin excellence, at $22, to the best instrument which it is possible to construct from reeds, at $900 or more. Illustrated catalogues, 48 pp. 4to, and price lists, free.

The Mason & Hamlin Company manufactures UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, adding to all the improvements which have been found valuable in such instruments, one of peculiar practical value, tending to greatest purity and refinement in quality of tone and durability, especially diminished liability to get out of tune. Pronounced the greatest improvement made in upright pianos for half a century. The MASON & HAMLIN CO. pledge themselves that every piano of their make shall illustrate that VERY HIGHEST EXCELLENCE which has always characterized their Organs. Send for circular with illustrations, full description and explanation.

PIANOS

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO CO.,
BOSTON, 154 Tremont St. CHICAGO, 149 Wabash Ave.
NEW YORK, 46 East 14th St. (Union Square.)
oct23-26t

X-MAS MUSIC

Carols, Cantatas, Services, Anthems.

OUR CHRISTMAS CAROLS FOR 1884

Contain unusually fine contributions from Geo. F. Root, J. R. Murray, W. F. Sherwin, H. P. Danks, T. P. Westendorf and John R. Sweney, together with a

BEAUTIFUL SERVICE

Prepared by Miss Netta A. Wellman; the whole furnishing ample material for a complete

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

16 pages, elegantly printed in colors, on fine, tinted paper. Price 5cts. each, or 50 cts. a dozen by mail, post-paid. $4 a hundred by express, not prepaid.

Send for complete list of Cantatas, Services, Anthems, and Christmas Solos.

Published by

JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

TEA

GOOD NEWS TO LADIES!

Greatest inducements ever offered. Now's your time to get up orders for our celebrated Teas and Coffees, and secure a beautiful Gold Band or Moss Rose China Tea Set, or Handsome Decorated Gold Band or Moss Rose Chamber Set, or Gold Band Moss Decorated Toilet Set. For full particulars address THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA CO., P. O. Box 289. 31 and 33 Vesey St., New York

oct23-3t.

Send for Price List and Circular!

AUTOMATIC

"NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.
NOISELESS—LIGHTEST RUNNING.
Most Beautiful and Durable Work.
AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.
Willcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.

nov6 16t eow

LADIES Gentlemen, Boys and Girls are making money rapidly with our Holiday Book for children BRIGHT JEWELS Special premium offer. $10 Family Bibles, elegant Silk Plush Albums Union Publishing House, GIVEN AWAY New York, N. Y.—Cincinnati, Ohio,—Atlanta, Georgia.

oct23-4t

AGENTS Send for E. B. TREAT'S list of books, including MOTHER, HOME, and HEAVEN, 100,000 sold. Sent by mail. Agents that have sold it for bankrupt Gen. Agents—Send direct to the publisher. Also 1,000 Curiosities of the Bible. 1,000 sold. E. B. TREAT, Pub. 757 Broadway, N.Y.

nov6-4t

MILLERS and FARMERS Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Cheapest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro. Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.

may22-1y

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 45. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, NOVEMBER 13, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 784.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

30 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

Terms $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Preachers, $1.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episco[pal Church] are authorized Agents.

[Subscriptions] may begin at any time and the [paper] will be sent as long as paid for.

[Remittances] must be made by Registered Letter [or] Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

[1 week]..... 9 cents,
[2 weeks]..... 7 "
[3 months]..... 6 "
[6 months]..... 5 "
[12 months]..... 4 "
[Obituaries]..... 25 "
..... 5 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

[A] favored realm by providence ordained
[To excel] in arts, in all things to excel;
[Whose] thy stature scarcely half attained,
[The] ing world affords no parallel;
[Whose] thy sails of commerce swells;
[Whose] and fame abound in all the [Whose] childhoods more than decent well,
[Whose] heroic from thy birth,
[Whose] thy manhood's age, shall celebrate thy worth!

[Honest] praise requires as its [basis] an honest life.

[The] SOUTHWESTERN improves [every week]—Rev. L. N. Taylor, Evansville, Ill.

[The] best critic of the conduct of [a man] is the person who can fairly [criticise] his own conduct.

[We are making the] SOUTHWESTERN [much more readable]—Prof. [J. W. Lewis], Canton Miss.

[Miss] Anna Howard, of Grenada, [Missis]sippi, says the SOUTHWESTERN [ought] to be and that it ought to be and [that] all people ought to take it.

[At the convention held at Princeton], New Jersey, there were represented [seven] denominations, [forty-six] ministers and four hundred and twenty-eight students.

[Send us] two more names. The [SOUTHWESTERN] is grand, may [it] live long to edit it. It [goes] the round, it brings [cheer] to the family circle—

[Time] flies faster in straight [lines] than it does in curves. We [are] not good for ourself [when] we finally get to heaven [by] going in such lines. It is [best] to avoid the curves.

[The] semi-annual celebration next December [and] the notice of [Rev.] L. V. Widerman, [of] Baltimore, Md.,

[Two] grateful things [which] are kind [and] the contents of [which] repay [the] reading, [Dr.] Lexington, [Indian] corn, the [only] blessing of him [who] [has] [the] [use] of it.

[Nothing] faster in straight [lines] than it does in curves. We [are] not good for ourself [when] we finally get to heaven [by] going in such lines. It is [best] to avoid the curves.

[The] semi-annual celebration next December [and] the notice of [Rev.] L. V. Widerman, [of] Baltimore, Md.,

We know a presiding elder who, on one Sunday, preached three sermons, tanght a Sunday-school class, lectured a Sunday-school, held quarterly conference, walked five miles and administered the Lord's supper. Whoever can make a better exhibit of the real old pioneer stuff, let him hold up his hand.

A friend writes "please correct mistakes and send it through, do not cast it off." That is just what we do. We never cast off any article on account of mistakes, bad writing or anything of that sort. Send anything you want, but always sign your name to it. Can't you get some new subscribers? We want 10,000 new names and must have them.

A noble young friend of ours in Tennessee writes: "It would surprise you to see me and my wife working side by side, both plowing. What I don't know she shows me. I teach school in the dull season." That sounds right to us, there is something grand in the idea of a man and his wife linked together and cheerfully toiling, that both may rise together and be happy.

"Faithful minister" your letter has gone to the waste basket. We can not publish letters unless the name of the writer is signed to them. We sometimes print a letter and withhold the writer's name but, it is an unchangable rule we cannot print until we have it, especially when the letter is designed to reflect upon others, either personally or administratively.

Rev. George O. Wilding, secretary, sends us a copy of the minutes of the last session of the West Virginia conference held at Buckhannon, West Virginia, October 15th, 1884, by Bishop Walden. The secretaries and Bishop ably seconded by the printer and binder, have sent out a book which is in matter of permanent value. We shall refer to it again.

Dr. Mendenhall, the secretary, has our thanks for a copy of North Ohio Conference Minutes. The conference convened at Tiffin, Ohio, September 10 15, Bowman president. Cranston & Stowe published the minutes in their usual good style and nothing is wanting in their literary work, the contents have already and recently been printed. From this conference Rev. T. C. Warner has been transfered to the Holston, conference, and B. A. Disney to the St. Louis conference.

Shoppell's Building Plans for modern low cost houses, price 50cts published by the Co-operative building Plan Association, 24 Beekman Street, New York. It is a very useful book containing specimens at a cost of from four to sixty hundred dollars, with a supplement for churches. But our Church Extension plans for parsonages with contract and specifications, can not be improved upon easily. Builders generally, and our pastors in particular, should use them.

Clark University is not sectarian. It is established for the colored people especially, and all earnest students of any denomination are heartily welcomed.—The Elevator.

That is honest, manly and square; besides, it is exactly the truth in all its parts, and will therefore commend itself to the best judgment of the very best people it is intended to benefit. Well, now, after all, come to think of it, we reckon that it is the least little bit tainted with "sectarianism." Ain't it Dean?

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Character.

BY REV. GEORGE W. WELLS.

Good name in man and woman—dear my Lord,
Is the immediate jewel of their souls:
Who steals my purse steals trash—
'Tis something, nothing—
'Twas mine, 'tis his, and has been slave to thousands:
But he that filches from me my good name
Robs me of that which not enriches him,
And makes me poor indeed.
—Shakespeare.

Man has a triune nature, physical, mental and moral. The development of his physical only, makes him a giant, but mentally a dwarf; so he may develop his mental faculties to the neglect of other powers and thus become like a partially cultivated garden. The difference between men, as seen in practical life, is owing largely to this diversity of development, which in turn influences character. This is the sum total of the qualities which not only distinguish one man from another, but represents him to the world as he really is.

Reputation is what men and women think of us; character is what God and angels know of us. It is the man himself, and it determines his position and influence among his fellow men. It is the surest source of all moral power with men, and gives cast to ontward life.

The giant oak which stands on the mountain side, and has defied a thousand storms, is but the natural growth of an acorn, and its hidden elements have given form to every branch and leaf of the tree. So it is with man. Whatever may be the qualities of the inner life, such will be the outward manifestations. The chief causes that unite to give men the stamp which the world calls character are natural forces; parental and family influence; early adventures and associates; school training. The place of education has much to do with the formation of character. In some measure the soul's grasp of life, narrow or great, is determined by the spot of earth where the school building is located. There are laws of mental and spiritul influence that pervade destination. So it is with a school, the visable training place; but an invisable school is built within, sometimes infinitely larger than the four wal's; sometimes infinitely less. Some shools have a funeral, and others a love-feast atmosphere. So imbeded in brick and mortar, and hedged in by windows and doors, are the principles that molded men and women into great thinkers and great doers, or contract them into mere units for the census takers. Hence the power of Oxford and Cambridge, Yale and Harvard colleges.

Above all religions impressions; the last none can ever trace except the individuals themselves. These modify the other constitnents of character with a force limited only by their own intensity.

In youth we commence the formation of character; every thought, word, and act is the life-giving element in the immortal germ which will determine every phrase and shape of character. These neglected are like the grape vine running wild upon the ground, or clinging to the stubbles and shrubs which are not able to lift it from the earth, where it might mature its delicions fruit. Many people seem to forget that character grows, that it is not something to put on ready made with womanhood or manhood, but day by day, here a little and there a little, grows with the growth, and stengthens with the strength, until, good or bad, it becomes almost a coat of mail.

[To be continued.]

The Norway Conference.

BY BISHOP J. F. HURST.

The Norway conference reports this year a great advance over all former years. The work has magnified in every direction. The increase of railroads has opened new doors for work and everywhere our preachers have been welcomed most heartily. The conference has been held in Bergen, well up the the coast. It required four days by steamer from Christiania to reach the place. The steamer had on board every member of the conference except two, taking some on board at each stopping place. We utilized the haltings, at the large towns, to hold special services. The congregations accompanied us back to the boat, with flowers and songs, as we left the dock. The interest in Bergen was very great during the entire session of the conference. On Sunday the Methodist services were held simultaniously in various places, within the city limits. At our service, at the close of the conference, about 75 persons rose for prayers.

The great immediate need of our Norwegian conference, is a theological school. It is precisely the same supreme want as in Sweden. Each language and land must build up its own ministry. Norway must have its own school for training its preachers. The churches are going to bestow their gifts this year upon this great work alone. Rev. J. H. Johnson, in addition to his duties as presiding elder of the coast district, (Bergen) has special charge of this interest. Help will be needed from your side of the Atlantic. You have begun, you must help establish. It is greatly to be hoped that our American friends will remember this cause. Let the centennial year not close without seeing two theological schools in Scandinavia. One in Stockholm and the other in Christiania. Not until we have made full provision for the permanence of a Mission, can we declare it a permanent thing. All Scandinavia is ready to give us a hearty welcome. All doors are open. Let us enter them.

The Denmark Mission.

BY BISHOP J. F. HURST.

We have concluded our annual session of this mission, and the preachers have gone to their work. The misfortunes and oppositions of this mission have been severe and numerous enough to kill a half dozen ordinary missions, and yet it is still alive and hopeful and determined to win. The congregations in Fredericksbown, where the Misssion held its session, have been very large. The people came from all directions, in town and country. Bro. Schow, the superintendent, has been wise and earnest in his administration. In one case he has been compelled to assume pastoral charge of a church, in an emergency, and yet this has not interfered with his general work. The preachers were unanimous in their wish to remain a Mission. Here is a field which needs a strong re-enforcement of ministerial strength from America. Not less than five preachers are immediately needed in this Mission. Where are they? Who will be the first to say he is willing to give his life for the Gospel in Denmark?

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Sermon Sketches.

BY DR. W. D. GODMAN.

THEME. FAITH.—Rom. 5: 3—"Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Introduction.—The argument of the previous portion of the epistle is, (1) that all men are in a state of condemnation before God; (2) that they cannot be brought out of condemnation by works of law; (3) that Abraham was justified by faith, and that his justification is the pattern of ours; therefore the text.

Now, what is the faith that justifies?

1. It is not the so called historical faith, which is a belief of a statement or narration. This is a prerequisite, and is enjoined. Vide Mark 1: 15; Acts, 8: 37.

2. It is not what may be called logical faith or belief; being the acceptance of a proposition on conviction of the understanding. As when the Samaritans believed that Jesus was the Messiah, because of the works which he wrought.

3. It is not a traditional faith or belief of facts or doctrines, because received from the past, on authority. This kind of faith is likely to mislead, and is rejected by our Lord in the sermon on the mount.

4. It is trust or confidence in God, a person; and particularly in Christ, a person. Compare the cases of the leper, Matt. 8, 2 3; the two blind men, Matt., 9, 27-30; and the woman having an issue of blood, Luke 8, 43-48. These, as all other test cases, show the absorbing trust of the soul in Christ as (1) able and (2) willing to do the thing required. The soul begging pardon of God trusts in His ability and His willingness to grant it.

5. The desire to be forgiven and the consequent committing of the soul to Christ for justification, implies in us the desire and purpose, with divine help, to be neighbors. For this reason faith is imputed for righteousness. Roman 4, 22, and thus it is with the heart, man believeth unto righteousness, Roman 10, 10.

Protestantism Aggressive in South America.

We have received copies of the daily papers of Buenos Ayres, S. A., containing several notices of a series of popular lectures on Evangelical Christianity, by the Rev. J. F. Thomson, the eloquent pastor of the Spanish M. E. Church of that city. After giving brief reports of the lectures, the following comment, which is a straw showing which way the wind blows: "The truth is—if many Thomsons should travel through the cities of this republic, giving lectures demonstrating the beauties of the Evangelical religion, and the Catholics do not adopt the same means in order to combat these apostles, Catholicism is in danger." These lectures attracted large audiences, and the people showed themselves in sympathy with the speaker by their applause. Mr. Thomson occupies—and fills—a very important place in the evangelization of our Romanist sister continent.

It would be well for Christians generally to renew the vow which David made when he said he would take heed unto his ways, that he should not sin with his tongue.—Christian Herald.

Young men must remember that the harlot seeks the precious life, and that the way of vile women leads to death.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Suppression of Vice.

Extracts from a sermon at St. Paul Methodist Episcopal Church, Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 26th, by Rev. J. J. Reed, D. D.

Text, Acts XIX 18 20. And many that believed came, and confessed, and showed their deeds.

Many also of them which used curious arts brought their books together and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

So mighty grew the word of God and prevailed."

1. What is this stupendous evil? An epidemic of crime is upon us. According to reliable statistics, while in England the proportion of deaths by violence is 7 in 10,000, and in Leladd and France 8 in 10,000, at present in our own country the figure is raised to 21 in 10,000. Among the causes assigned for this state of affairs is the demoralizing literature of the day. In the face of this fact the public conscience must be quickened, the public sentiment must be aroused. It is easy to play the ostrich and bury one's head over head and eyes in merely selfish pursuits, and say, "We do not see this evil." Still it exists. Its enormity is so great that it more than threatens the purity of our children and our homes.

The kind of literature that I refer to has been exactly named "perdition literature." The French novelists of the realistic school—the Eugene Sues, the George Sands, the Ouidas, and the even worse who must be nameless—are doing as much to really deprave the tastes and debauch the morals of their million readers as the most pronounced panderers to vice in the bawdiest theater, the lowest concert saloon, the vilest dive in Cincinnati to-day. A disease is as real and deadly when it has poisoned the blood or fastened on the vitals as when it shows its corrupting presence on the skin. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." The "Boys' and Girls' papers," sold on almost every news-stand, read so ravenously by many a child, are, with rare exceptions, most polluting in their effect upon the morals of the rising generation. The dagger, the slugshot, the skeleton in the hands of thousands of mere children. Concealed from the too confiding ones at home, they are shown in the school-room or on the play-ground. The large percentage of youthful criminals in our courts—baby felons, as they have frequently and fittingly been called—are the proof in part of the direful work accomplished by much of the juvenile literature of the day. The dime novel has spoiled many a home of its innocence and happiness and sent not a few to the prison and the gallows. The literature of the news-stands—much of it—is a nursery of depravity. The object teaching of our city walls and fences is a school of shameless vice. The daily newspaper—even the most widely circulated and "most respectable," so-called—is too often so full in its account, so minute in its descriptions of crime, so demoralizing in its reports of prize fights, dog fights and lotteries, and so utterly corrupting in its medical advertisements and "personals," that a father would be wise, after the necessary reading of its business or political news, to deliberately put it in the fire. The newspaper of to-day has to choose between being a contributor to virtue or a purveyor of vice. The owner of one of the worst of weekly publications has said that nearly everything in his paper is "culled verbatim from the daily press." Our newspapers are too often concerned to secure their advertisers' money than to protect their readers' morals. Deeds most diabolical and damning are suggested and encouraged by doctors the most degraded. Their advertisements, well paid for, are flaunted in the very face of innocence and virtue every day. The facilities afforded by these minions of the devil for prenatal or postnatal murder is one of the greatest encouragements to the grossest forms of licentiousness and sin. An evil book read, a vile picture seen in childhood or in youth, by boy or by, girl will leave its impress so black, its influence so blighting as to be ineffaceable ever in possible Christian life even down to latest years. The same may be said of the detailed criminal literature of the period. Yet what are the facts?

(Continued on Second page.)

(Continued from First page.)

The Examiner says "that the result of carefully examining the contents of a single day's issue of the morning papers of New York" is:

"To accounts of murders, suicides and crimes of every grade, dressed up in all the circumstantial details possible to be obtained, the Tribune gave 8 of its wide columns; the Times, 5½; the World, 3½; the Herald, 7½, and the Sun, 5. In that day's issue the papers gave up their news space to details of crime in the following proportions: The Times, 18 per cent.; the Herald, 27 per cent.; the Sun, 30 per cent.; the World, 36 per cent.; the Tribune, nearly 40 per cent. These proportions would doubtless vary from day to day, and are not to be accepted as a fair relative test of the general characters of the papers in question; but the average space given by these papers to this kind of reading matter was 30 per cent., and we have no idea that this would very much from day to day. A careful reading of these accounts of crime warrants the statement that all that is of interest to decent people might have been given in one third of the space they occupy."

What is the situation in Cincinnati? The firm and fearless protest of Archbishop Elder last year, as he counseled his people publicly not to read or to suffer a certain daily paper published here to come into their homes is, at least, in part a sufficient answer.

I have spoken of the worse than doubtful, the devilish influence of most of the juvenile papers that are issued. A young man was arrested in South Framingham, Mass., for selling out the most infamous kind of literature. Pointing to a pile of boys' and girl's papers in his stand he said: "That's what brought me to this." The Chaplain of the Indiana State Prison testifies to the fact that of 120 prisoners lately under his care, convicted of crime before they became of age, more than two-thirds of them attributed their downfall to the fact of their minds having been corrupted and poisoned by the vile and pernicious literature of the day." A statement was made by St. Thomas Chambers at a meeting in England that no boy or girl is brought before the courts whose fall is not traceable to reading. Through the influence of the "dead sea literature," of indecent pictures, of obscene posters which meet the face with almost every step we walk, a swift processession is being formed, yea is moving on to destruction, of outcast and criminals, of guilty and degraded.

Where are the recruiting officers of this great army of murderers, gamblers, libertines, etc.? Against their pernicious influence I warn you. Their enticements are strong while you are in your youth. Put not the books in the hands of the boy or girl that you would not have read at home. The corrupting influence of this traffic has, we fear, long since ensured the ruin of the indulgent parent. The readers of these papers is their own class among the sons and daughters of the respectable and religious. Men trade on the morbid curiosity of youth. Even the sun's pure rays are debased to the vilest uses. The photograph—one of the glories of modern discovery and art—is grossly perverted to picture and preserve all that is indecent, bestial and obscene. I repeat it, there are men who deliberately plan to debauch the children of our homes. With them it is a matter of business enterprise. Fortunes are being acquired by these destroyers of all that is pure and sacred in the minds and characters of our youth. Yet the approaches made by these designing men are so adroit and sly that children and youth are being corrupted through the catalogues of our boarding schools, by obscene circulars sent through the postoffice or given on the streets, and by publications handed them with the injunction not to read until they are alone in their rooms.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean, commenting on the recent acts of some of our Legislatures for the suppression of this evil, says: "At the book stalls, beside the works of Paine and Ingersoll, that are placed squarely at the front, will be found these licentious publications, than which nothing can be more debasing to manhood. At the depots of small country towns the papers that confine their attention to police news may be heard publicly cried by the carriers, with no attempt at disguising the traffic, and on the cars we have seen them pressed upon country lads. Barber shops are almost sure to have their tables covered with these illustrated syrens of literature for the seduction of the youth, of whose exposure to such temptation parents are not aware. The public display in shop windows of certain gross pictures, under the feeble disguise of the encouragement of art, is a rapid and serious source of the deterioration of public morals. No Christian eye can rest upon these half clad figures without a moral shock. We fear that the public sense is growing hardened when, as now, not even our mothers or sisters can walk on the public streets without having prints or papers, painful to their modest womanhood, paraded before their faces and staring out at them from the show windows. It is false modesty to remain longer silent and shut our eyes, since we must be both dumb and blind not to be aware of the rapid encroachment of this printed and pictured corruption upon the safety and purity of our hearthstones. There should be raised a public outcry of indignation against this evil, that would at least drive it to hide in its den."

And now, my friends, do you ask "What have we to do with such gross forms of sin as these? We are not guilty." No: but both you and yours are by more than possibility being secretly harmed. This evil, in some of its forms, is so insidious and, in fact, so general, that few can say, "We have thus far entirely escaped its influence and effects. But even if you have, it indeed all of you have, the evil is growing. As a faithful pastor, for the sake of your children, I put you on your guard. And, in any event, the glory of this St. Paul pulpit, as of every pulpit in the land, should be that it, is not only a defender of the Christian faith, but a conservator of the public morals; earnest in its advocacy of the right, and fearless in its reprobation of the wrong. Having thus noticed the evil, let us now note

II. Its proposed abatement and possible cure. To eradicate such an evil, a moral sentiment, I repeat, must be encouraged or created which shall be not only abhorrent, but even utterly intolerant of these evils. It must be more than a sentiment, too. It must be a conviction of the grossness and enormity of this covert crime, which shall rouse a spirit of indignation; a willingness to sacrifice comfort and means in order to secure its removal from our midst. The burglar who enters your house at the midnight hour ought not to be dealt with more summarily than you should deal with the wretch detected in putting an obscene, a bad circular, paper, picture or book in the hands of your child. Stolen property may be restored or its loss may be endured. Stolen purity is the greatest loss a mortal can sustain. As well restore the delicate bloom to grape, or plum, or peach.

The traffic in obscene publications or photographs and in other damning productions in this country is great beyond even the dreams of many who have not given due consideration to this growing evil. The State of Ohio, by an act of Legislature, April 8, 1876, recognized the danger which threatens us from this quarter, and provides for the arrest and punishment of offenders, but the scoundrels who are engaged in this traffic are so sly or their victims are so secretive that it is most difficult to procure testimony that will convict in any of our courts of law. Agents are, therefore, needed who will pry out this iniquity, unearth these diabolical seductions to sin, and unrelentingly pursue, under their numerous aliases—one man had seventeen—the secret authors of this hideous crime against personal innocence and public morals. The seal of the Western Society for the Suppression of Vice pictures on one half of its face the condemned felon, being thrust into his cell in the penitentiary and on the other side the destruction in the flames of those vile books which are the stock in trade of too many miscreants whom the arm of the law fails to reach. Infidelity has raised the cry of opposition to the work of this society. It claims the liberty of the press to publish what it may in the interest of impurity and vice. It opposes all postal regulations which seem to interdict the circulation of immoral literature. But the moral sense of our legislators, as well as of our practical philanthropists and reformers, distinguishes between liberty and license on the one hand and on the other refuses to allow our great postal system to become a system of literary sewerage carrying by a moral backwater, a blackened stream of nastiness and filth from these great centres of corruption into the hallowed seclusion of our homes. The Legislature of New York lately forbade, by its enactments, the sale to minors of the Police Gazette the Days Doings and other like vehicles of crime. Kentucky has passed a law excluding from her borders such papers as we have named with their salacious details of vice and sin. The Government of Canada has entered its solemn protest to our Government against our sending over the line this class of publications. A Philadelphia newsvendor has been held in $2,500 bail for selling indecent pictorial papers. Indeed, news dealers generally have found themselves so irresponsible that for the purity and good order of our homes, it is suggested as a possible solution of a difficult problem, a system of licensing news-stands should be adopted. Some years ago the Cincinnati Gazette was very outspoken in its support of the law which, in our State, punishes with heavy fines or imprisonment the publisher of any newspaper in the State who shall print or publish any advertisement of any drug or nostrum helpful to the commission of crime. It strongly denounced those papers which lent their columns to aid in the work of death. A fine of not less than $100, nor more than $500, or imprisonment at hard labor of not less than one year, nor more than ten years, is the penalty to be visited upon those who use the U. S. mail for obscene purposes. Thus the law has proposed the abatement of this stupendous evil. Is there anything further we can do to encourage the hope of a possible cure? Let us see:

1. As parents, let us secure the confidence of our children with all that that implies. Let us cultivate in our homes a lofty standard of purity and taste. Let us instil a hatred of evil in this and in every form. I hold that no pure-hearted man, no really Christian man will tell an obscene joke or story. I hold, also, that no Christian man can have a clean conscience and laugh at or even consent to listen to an obscene story. And I thank God that this is fast coming to be the sentiment of the ministry and the Church. To laugh at a lewd story, to look at an indecent print without loathing, is to be, in some sense, accessory to these insidious forms of the lasciviousness and sin. To say nothing of the pictorial posters on our fences, staring us unblushingly in the face as we look from window or door, the character of much of modern art is more than doubtful. Statuary and pictures are to-day exhibited—perhaps in your very parlors—certainly in our academies of art, which are a disgrace to our boasted refinement, and a contradiction to our claim to a religion "pure and undefiled." Some one has said, "Genius has no more right to be nasty than the common mind." And I affirm that Powers' "Greek Slave" as really as Page's "Venus" is to be regarded as a proof of moral degeneracy in the sphere of art. The admiration excited by displays of this kind is prophetic, not of a people's culture so much as of that people's corruption. The robed statuary of the Christian sculptor, Thorwaldsen, appeals to a real refinement and ministers often to the demands of religion. The rude statuary of to-day may be preservative of a gifted period in Grecian art. Unhappily it also suggests the period either of mythologic idolatry or of Grecian irreligion and indecency. "The human form divine"—the language, by the way, of a false culture and not of stern, truth telling Christianity—is scarcely the model to be kept before religious eyes on side wall or mantel. Even the first pair had the decency to cover the nudity of forms doubtless more perfect than Grecian art has ever perpetuated. He that knows the deceitfulness of sin and hates it with a holy hatred, will soon seek to surround himself with specimens of art which shall point forward toward heaven rather than backward to—heathenism. There will be loud outcries of "purist" and "Puritan;" but if conscientious and consistent, we may well covet such words of reproach and feel honored by their bestowal.

2. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." It is the price of purity as well. Watch your door steps. The place for such papers as the Fireside Companion is in the fire. Watch the postman's delivery of letters or circulars to your child. Know the books your son or daughter gets at the circulating library or borrows of a friend. Not every book in a Sunday-school library is exempt from criticism or reproach. Be watchful of the company kept by your children, whether it be the company of books or boys. One vile book or paper, one vile picture, will do more evil than a dozen pulpits can correct. Associations with a vile man or woman has before this wrought more corruption in the heart of a mere boy or girl than all the parental care or pulpit instruction of after years has been sufficient to displace.

3. Let us seek out good company for our children, make home the most attractive place on earth, and personally supply for them a good literature and a pure art. With such papers as The Youth's Companion for your boy or girl, they need not lack for an interesting and elevating weekly. There is a niggardliness in the matter of subscription for our church periodicals that is a disgrace to the average member of the church. If I would judge of a church's loyalty to its great denominational interests, if I would judge of its refinement, its religion—yes, and the grade of its intelligence—I would inquire: "What are the papers that are taken in its families? and how many subscribers are there to our church periodicals in that church?" Then let us at once banish offending papers from our homes; burn doubtful books in our homes, and bring only the purest literature to our homes.

There are those in this Nation who are daily risking their lives in the interest of youthful purity. Shall we longer be blind to an evil they so plainly see? Shall we longer be indifferent to the existence of vices that are working such appalling consequences on every hand? Shall we fail to express our sympathies for the heroic men, the noble societies that are engaged in so noble and so needed a reform? It was my privilege several years ago to hear Anthony Comstock in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association of New York. His lecture was on "The Corrupters of Our Youth." I was then—am now—convinced that the rising generation of this country, and certainly its parentage, owe a debt of gratitude to this scarred soldier of a forlorn hope which will never in this world be adequately discharged. In ten years he seized and destroyed of books and sheet stock 27,584 pounds, and of obscene pictures and photographs 203,238 pounds. In that time he caused the arrest of nearly six hundred persons engaged in this hellish work. "Let every man," says the Christian Intelligencer, "be an Anthony Comstock over his own house, to spy and guard his treasures, and not less to smite the vulture and the snake that would intrude into his doves' nest."

A society in this city—as I suppose in every principal city in the land—known as "The Society for the Suppression of Vice," has its claims upon the countenance and cooperation of every Christian and of every church. Its objects and agencies I need not explain. You may correctly infer them from what has already been said. The work of the agent of the society—a heroic defender of our homes—for a single year reveals the magnitude of this foul evil in our midst. I quote from a report:

"Mr. McAfee, during 1883, secured the arrest of fifteen dealers in obscenity, and conviction or pleas of guilty from thirteen. Sentence has been passed upon twelve, aggregating six years and six months' imprisonment, and fines and costs amounting to $1,697.75 One of the worst of the number convicted is not yet sentenced, while the remaining ones are held in bonds aggregating $12,000 to appear for trial. He has seized 44,061 obscene circulars, 3,866 obscene pamphlets, 100 pounds of copper plates for printing the same, 96 obscene photographs, cabinet size, and 62 negative plates, cabinet size, for printing obscene pictures."

With such a work being done, this society needs the recognition, the sympathy, confidence and cooperation of every Christian parent and every Christian church. Two ways are evident, I am reminded, in which to help this society. First, contribute, as you may be able, to express your sympathy with the heroic few who are attempting to exterminate or, at any rate, to lessen the great evil in our land. Second, report at once to the agent of the society any one whom you may find tampering with or seeking to undermine the morals of any young person in our midst.

If all the Methodists in our territory should resolve to concentrate their patronage upon one paper, there is about enough of it to support a first class paper. The SOUTHWESTERN is the oldest, the best equipped, the only official journal of the General Conference. There is room enough in its columns to represent every interest of the Church, and it is published in the commercial metropolis of the South.

Caught by an Octopus.

A diver who was trying to find pearls off the Alaska coast, found none, but found himself, all of a sudden, in the grasp of an ugly octopus with arms twenty-seven feet long. Such an experience is rare; but they are thousands of people who are caught by dyspepsia, which is quite as bad. An octopus hates to let go. So does dyspepsia. Brown's Iron Bitters settles dyspepsia, and makes it loose its cruel grip. Mrs. Smith and her daughter, of 136 Conway street, Baltimore, were both cured of dyspepsia by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.

From the Districts.

New Orleans District Conference—Woman's Home Missionary Society.

The New Orleans District Conference of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met in Wesley Chapel, New Orleans, La., Wednesday, Oct. 22; at 9:30 a. m., and continued its session until Friday the 24th. Mrs. M. Dale, District manager, called the conference to order. Rev. M. Dale conducted the religious services. The roll was called, and the following were present: Sisters B. Molare, C. Howard, C. Macon, N. Cooper, D. Green, L. Wright, M. Thomas, V. Bonnette, C. Hyman, A. L Thomas, Mrs. Ferres, A. L. Rosemond, R. Gidrey, A. Smoots, H. Patterson, M. Dale, M. M. Hall, S. Wilson, Rev. M. Dale, Rev. B. Forest, Sisters Davis, C. Hughes, F. Burton, H. Dutch, H. Brown, C. Matthews, R. Fisher. After which Sister M. M. Hall was elected Secretary, and Miss C. Hayman, assistant secretary.

First Day—Mrs. M. L. Dale, district manager, reported the work on the New Orleans and LaFourche districts: 15 societies have been organized, 760 members are enrolled, 689 children are enrolled in the mission schools. The Lord is blessing our work. Reports come in from most of the Societies. The presidents of some of the societies were present, some of whom spoke words of encouragement.

The second day's meeting opened by singing and prayer by Mrs. A. Rosamore, after which a letter from Mrs. R. S. Rust to Mrs. M. L. Dale was read giving notice of the annual meeting of missionary women to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 28 and 29, 1884. Upon motion it was resolved to send two delegates to the convention to meet in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. M. Dale and Mrs. A. Rosamore were chosen. A committee was appointed on Woman's Home Mission work, as follows: Sisters A. L. Rosamore, A. Washington, R. Gidrey, A. King, F. Patterson. A committee on public exercises was appointed, as follows: Mrs. M. M. Hall, Mrs. C. Hughes Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Brooks, and Mrs. Haven. This committee reported a meeting to be held Friday night. Reports from several societies came in.

Third Day—Meeting opened with prayer, after which several sisters spoke words of encouragement to the societies. Five committees appointed on second day to visit as many societies, on Thursday night reported. The Committee on Missions reported favorably on having missionary meetings as often as practable. Mrs. M. L. Dale proposed that a woman's missionary love-feast be held Sunday morning in Wesley Chapel M. E. Church at 11 o'clock, and all agreed to the same. Several reports came in. A consolidated report was read by the secretary.

The following societies donated toward defraying the expenses of delegates to the convention to be held in Cleveland: Thibodauxville society, $5, Union Chapel $5, Wesley Chapel, $19.20; P. Plains, $5; Clinton Street, $3.10; First Street $5; Algiers, $3.10; total, $45.40. On motion adjourned.

Sunday, Oct. 26—The Woman's Missionary Love Feast was opened by reading the 35th Chapter of Isaiah, singing and prayer. The love feast was conducted by the mission women. Father Green and Rev. W. P. Forrest were present and spoke words of encouragement. The pastor Rev. M. Dale was with us and spoke of the great work being done by the women. It was a season of great spiritual power.

MRS. M. DALE, Manager.
MRS. M. M. HALL, Sec'y.

Rev. Edward Lee, P. E., Huntsville district, Texas, writes: "It has been said time and again that the members of our church in this part of the work care little or nothing for the missionary or Church Extension causes. In order to satisfy myself on this question I made, on my second round, a special appeal for contributions and subscriptions for these causes, and was more than ...ssed that the people will give, ... give liberally, if the matter is ... before them and properly ...ained. At several points the ...scription was fifty dollars or ..., and I have been informed by ... pastors of some of these points ... over two-thirds of the amounts ... been paid. Now, brethren, ... make a grand rally. Bring the ...ter before the people and urge ... to subscribe, Let it be known ... those who give fifty cents or ... will have their names and ... published either in the ...UTHWESTERN or conference minutes. Stir up the people and the collections will be correspondingly increased."

Mississippi Missions.

F. A. Tillery and others, Bryan ..., Oct. 22, write "The first ...bath-school convention of the ... District, Texas Conference, ... was held in the M. E. Church ...yan. The first session was ... Friday evening, Oct. 24, and ... over by Rev. J. L. Smith, ... J. A. Tillery was elected Secretary, after which the convention ... the different committees, ... Committee on Constitution, ...mittee on Resolutions, Committee on Temperance, Committee ... and Literature, Committee ... Sunday-school and Missions. ... the importance of the ... the attendance was not what ... wished. The hour having arrived for adjournment the announcement was made. To preside ... to-morrow morning, Rev. R. ... Day—Morning Session—... Oct. 25. The convention ... with Rev. B. Jefferson in ... The minutes of yesterday's session were read and ... There were a good many ... offered and referred to ... Some of the resolutions ... quite original, showing ... in the work of saving ... people; in fact, there ... for each to do, and ... to do their part well ... and to a great extent ... A few addresses ... by Rev. A. Thompson, of the Baptist Church, and it ... encouraging and to the ... which the Committee ... made their report, ... received and approved. ... having arrived for adjournment the announcement was made. To preside this evening, ... Session—The meeting ... Rev. W. Hamilton in the ... The minutes of the ... were read and approved. The officers of the conference were, for Presiding Elder of ... Vice President, ... President, ... Treasurer, ... H. G. Williams, ... The convention left in ... visible proof of ... of a change ... On the Sabbath ... at the ... in the evening ... The next session ... Hempstead ... To represent the ... Conference, and ... All ... were re-..."

The M. E. Church.

Grand Centennial Jubilee.

According to the appointment of the special committee of the Mississippi Annual Conference, the Centennial Jubilee meeting convened at Granada, Mississippi, October 7th, '84. Rev. J. C. Eckles, presiding elder of Holly Spring district, was called to the chair and A. M. Trotter was elected secretary. Rev. J. W. Dunn led the religious services.

The young ladies of the church had neatly and elegantly decorated the church with flowers, which presented a beautiful appearance. The first speaker was Rev. J. M. Shumpert, subject, the Methodist Episcopal Church, its origin and growth in England, and origin in America. Bro. Shumpert handled his subject well, and here began a spirit of religious fervor and interest which lasted during the sitting of the meeting. The impression Bro. Shumpert, left on his hearers cannot soon be erased.

Addresses were than delivered by Rev. L. J. S. Bell, S. A. Cowan, D. A. Williams and others. At 10:30 p. m. the meeting adjourned, benediction by Rev. J. W. Dunn.

Second day, Oct. 8th, 11 a. m., Rev. J. C. Eckles presiding. Opening services by Rev. L. J. S. Bell. Rev. Joseph Campbell was then introduced, who spoke on Methodism from Asbury to Simpson, which was carefully prepared and well delivered. Rev. P. Blue then spoke on the history of the Church from 1816 to 1856, which was eloquently delivered, and highly appreciated. At 12:15 the meeting adjourned. Benediction by Rev. D. A. Williams. At 3 p. m. the meeting reassembled, Rev. J. C. Eckles in the chair. Devotional services by Rev. W. McDonald. The history of the Church from Simpson to the present time, occupied the attention of the meeting during this sitting, Shumpert, Campbell and others speaking. Miss Annie Harwood was also called upon and pleasingly responded, to the joy of all present. At 5:30 a recess was taken until 8 p. m. when Bros. S. A. Cowan and H. R. Revels spoke on the second century of Methodism and Rust University respectively. Both of these addresses were grand and very much enjoyed by the large audience. It had been announced that Dr. Revels was not very well but after the addresses a good brother remarked that if the Dr. had been well we could not have stood his eloquence. At 10:30 p. m. the large audience was dismissed.

At 11 a. m. on the 9th the meeting was again called together. Rev. J. C. Eckles by his own request was relieved and Dr. Revels called to the chair. This was the ... Freedmen's Aid Society ... although the speakers ... announced, were ... by no means ... society and its ... gress of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Mississippi. Revs. Blue and Walden on the Discipline and how to use it, Rev. Bell on the Freedmen's Aid Society, Rev. C. W. Ivy on Church Extension, Rev. N. Toole on the Missionary Society, and Rev. W. H. H. Gallion on visiting from house to house, which were all well received and applauded. Plans were perfected for carrying out the hints and suggestions of the Centennial circulars and for increasing all the benevolent collections. The following resolutions were adopted: By Rev. Bell, looking to the better support of Rust University, and by Rev. Blue, endorsing the action of the last General Conference in the election of Dr. M. W. Taylor as editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, approving the course and sentiment of the paper under his editorship, and pledging it our undivided support. A vote of thanks to the presiding elder for his impartiality in presiding, to the citizens of Meridian, for their hospitality, and the meeting adjourned, pledged to raise handsome Centennial collections on the 16th of November.

P. BLUE, Sec'y.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Masonic Centennial.

BY OUTSIDER.

My trip to the city of brotherly love, to attend this celebration, was as pleasant and enjoyable as one could well desire. The only regret I felt was caused by a lack of time to stay, until I could extend my trip to other cities which I have long wished to visit.

The celebration was a grand success at Philadelphia—simply a three days' jubilee. I never saw a handsomer turnout than the Symbolic parade, under the auspices of the United Grand Lodge of Philadelphia, on the 29th, and the parade of Knights Templar on Oct. 1st, under the auspices of the United Grand Commandery of Philadelphia. Our friend, J. W. Ellis, of Lexington, and I participated in all the festivities, as the representatives of Kentucky Freemasons.

S. W. Clark, Grand Master, of Ohio, delivered a very able and instructive address at the conclusion of the Grand Lodge parade at Industrial Hall. After which, by an unanimous vote of all the thousands present, a wreath of flowers was ordered to be laid upon the grave of our ancient friend and brother, Prince Hall, as a token of the kind remembrance of his Masonic descendants. A shake hands all around concluded the exercises of the day.

The beautiful centennial K. T. band was captured by St. John's Commandery of Maryland, under that Gallant and knightly gentleman, R. E. Sir Hiram Watty. The Maryland Knights Templar made as handsome a display in the parade as one could wish to see, with the grand and subordinate commanderies.

I left Philadelphia Saturday morning, spent the day in Lexington, and visited the cemetery there for the first time since Henry Clay was interred in it. Many of the friends of my boyhood's days are still there. The old walnut trees from which I gathered nuts many times over, when the now beautiful city of the dead was only known as Boswell's woods. I looked in the tomb of Henry Clay, and then looked up at the monument erected to his memory for the first time, and felt as I did when I stood by the side of the Washington monument, a few days thereafter, that every American citizen ought to wish to see the Washington monument, and every Kentuckian that of Clay. Standing by the workman who was finishing the capstone of the Washington monument, an old man at my side told me that he saw the foundation laid; and had been there ever since; and that he hoped to live to see that capstone elevated to its grand and lofty place, and then he would be content. I told him to that end he should have the benefit of my prayers.

Of course I cannot tell of all the points of interest that I visited in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington; so I will stop now. We went by way of the C. & O. R. R., and I really think that all pleasure seekers should view the scenery along the Kanawha and New rivers, among the Alleghanies, at least, before they go to Europe hunting the beautiful in nature.

As to politics, you know I am not much in that, but I intend if I live, to vote for Mr. Wilson for Congress, as well as, of course, Blaine and Logan. Since the days of those grand old Republican warriors, Bristow, Harlan and Murray, no one has taken as much pains and performed as much labor to forward the cause hereabouts as Mr. Wilson; and while it is hardly worth while to vote Republican outside of Hon. J. D. White's district, yet Mr. Wilson deserves the encouragement of all the faithful, and will get it. What little is said in your paper in regard to the Republican party is very good and to the point. I hope you will stand up to it.

The SOUTHWESTERN is a very interesting and welcome visitor—the bureau of information for our people. I hope you will keep up; it will grow and benefit all; and I would call everything the Methodist does their work, and by their name. I don't think they ought to do so much great, good work, and then not want to own it. "Let every workman make a mark upon his work."

This scrap is in point well taken, cut from the American Baptist. This from the Ohio Falls Express shows that the society that you organized a score of years ago—U. B. F.—has been added to, degree on degree, until they now have the degree of National Prevaricator, with our old friend Lawson holding the position. Now, how is that for PEDDLING.

Louisville, Ky.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

DEAR EDITOR: I had your paper. I have found my sister, and was glad to hear from her.

A. JOHNSON.

T. G. Montgomery, pastor of First Street Church, wishes to inform the son of William Butler that his father is dead. He died Oct. 27, and his place will be sold if he cannot be found.

MR. EDITOR—I desire to inquire for my kindred. My father belonged to Alexander Ule. I have not heard from them since the war. The last time I heard from him he was in Memphis, Tenn. And my father was named Sidney Lacey, and my uncles, one was named Jake Davis, and the other was named Partees. My uncle Jake went to Virginia, and uncle Partees went to Louisiana. Address me, Yazoo City, Miss.

WASH. LACEY.

The gospel sword is as sharp as any—"sharper than any—two edged sword," as we are told on the highest authority. The best preachers and the best teachers are those who are most familiar with the Bible, and who use it most freely and most vigorously. Yet when a preacher or a teacher fails of a hearing, he is very likely to complain that "the people don't like the Gospel." The trouble is not with the pure Gospel, but with the poor mixture he passes off for Gospel. The gospel sword is sharp enough, but its edge is covered by his bandages. The ministers who wear longest, and who are surest of a hearing year after year, are the ministers who wield the gospel sword with its naked edge flashing at every wave. To those who really want religious instruction, there is nothing more attractive than the Bible.—Sunday School Times.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.

Trade Mark

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Hoary and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic,—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introdnction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast.	5 00 1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohn.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. books to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,

PHILLIPS & HUNT.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans.

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expres for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, NOV. 13, 1884.

Announcement for 1885

Reduction in Price to ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CTS. When Paid in Advance, or Within Three Months.

From this time subscriptions for The Southwestern Christian Advocate will be received for the year 1885 at $1.50 a year, payable in advance or within three months. No other paper published under authority of the General Conference is furnished at this figure. It is the cheapest paper in the whole list. New subscribers for the next year will receive their papers up to January 1st free.

Let us have 2000 new subscribers within the next sixty days.

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

The Baptist have always been true to the flag of liberty; they have been true to their section of the Union and staunch supporters of all that was best, most noble and chivalrous in Southern sentiment.—Wesleyan Christian Advocate.

You do not mean to call the Southern Baptist rebels, do you?

MANY WORDS, BLIND FAITH.—"All things work together for good to them that love God." Brother, if you are the man to whom this sentence is made, do not trouble yourself about your "appointment." Bishop cannot defeat the counsel of God. — Southwestern Christian Advocate. This sounds a good deal like resignation from a well-fed divine in an easy and fat station to a brother sent to a "short-appointment. — Christian Advocate.

Nevertheless it is the word of God, and His word is sure. Trust in Him, brother.

I have been more than pleased with your work on the SOUTHWESTERN. I am very glad the General Conference sent you to your very profitable work. It is time to see the millions of the South lifted into a higher manhood. God bless you. Such words as these help largely in Ohio does not Florida would be to you and your Rev. John Pearson. noble Roman- are not fancy sentiments of the him and them. ED.

I stated that convent at Bal- founded when of the one of the tions of Amer- although it had by mobs or in- legislation. It is Frances, un- of the Oblate It was James Redpath have power as- interfere with Did Ro with or in any power in this ment of the Christian Associa- 1874, makes the of visitors to evenings atten- prayer meet- held at parish held at 6 meet- 16; 4 at Hos- Par- writ-by the Oblate Fathers and Brothers, and sent to a "short-appointment. — Christian Advocate.

Nevertheless it is the word of God, and His word is sure. Trust in Him, brother.

I have been more than pleased with your work on the SOUTHWESTERN. I am very glad the General Conference sent you to your very profitable work. It is time to see the millions of the South lifted into a higher manhood. God bless you. Such words as these help largely in Ohio does not Florida would be to you and your Rev. John Pearson. noble Roman- are not fancy sentiments of the him and them. ED.

I stated that convent at Baltimore was founded when of the one of the tions of America although it had by mobs or in- legislation. It is Frances, under the Oblate It was James Redpath have power as- interfere with Did Rome with or in any power in this ment of the Christian Associa- 1874, makes the of visitors to evenings attended prayer meetings held at parish halls, 6 meetings, 16; 4 at Hospitals. Par- writing them a call. New York: Phillips & Hunt. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe.

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS.

An Experiment in Church Music, with some thoughts thereupon; by John S. Matthias, A. M. Tells how the people in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, New Haven, Conn., have been encouraged to sing in the past ten years. Price, 25 cents, for sale by the writer.

"Minutes of the Southwest Indiana Conference," Methodist Episcopal Church, for the year 1884, held in Seymour, Indiana. Published and sent to this office by the courtesy of Rev. Dr. George L. Curtiss, Secretary. It is a neat volume, in every way worthy of the conference and the secretary.

"Manual of the Methodist Episcopal Church," a quarterly magazine of information concerning the benevolent and publishing interests of the church. Price, 40 cents per annum. New York: Phillips & Hunt. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe. Pastors and officers can not find elsewhere so much useful matter of the kind ready to their hand as there. It speaks of everything but the SOUTHWESTERN. Send for it.

Denominational Literature.

The first duty of a Methodist Episcopal preacher is to make himself thoroughly acquainted with the doctrines of our own Church. The next is to become so fully in sympathy with them as that they shall really represent his unreserved sentiments. We hear a great deal said about the catholicity of Christianity, but this, according to the practice of the very best interpreters, means only that one should advocate Christian principles by strict adherance to the doctrines of his own church, and build up Christianity by the upbuilding of his own particular religious denomination. The Methodist Episcopal Church, by its doctrines and polity, because these are in harmony with the wants and needs of mankind in general, has gained a wider limit and more diversified membership than any other evangelical church in the world. This entails upon it the greater necessity of bringing its ideals to the people in the "tongue wherein they were born," and in the common but not the vulgar vernacular of the masses. This is to be done not upon a business so much as upon a philanthropic line. Yet care is to be taken of the true Wesleyan style to save as much as we can from sales and give the proceeds to the poor. From this source and on this well devised principle the church, in the last three years past, has been able not only to meet the deficit of $3,063.32 in expense of delegates, and make occasional loans to the Episcopal fund, but besides this to pay out $50,000 in dividends to the annual conferences. All this, and yet our system has not seen a hundred years since its birth. It is yet in its infancy. God has blessed us hitherto with a devoted ministry, and an incorruptible episcopacy, a heroic presiding eldership and faithful officials. In a century we have no suspension in any of our great connectional enterprises. Our Missionary, Church Extension, Freedmen's Aid, Educational and Sunday-school societies, with our great book concern, have carried on their vast business from their very organization to the present without loss of business standing, with never a single suspension, with credit good and their paper eagerly bought up in every market. This fact tells its own story and pleads the cause of their efficiency and usefulness as nothing else can. But good as they are they are being strengthened at their weak points, perfected where time and use has developed their imperfection, and the one great aim of those who are charged with this duty is to make them so exactly fit the demands of the period and the wants of the people of our Church that the ministers shall esteem, use and recommend them as their very best helpers.

Not the least of the auxilliary forces to ministerial efficiency is our publishing house, which is now doing its work to this end in a manner certainly never exceeded, and modesty alone prevents us saying never before equaled in this direction. Its latest publication which has come to us in the New Series of International or Berean Sunday-school Lesson Helps. The first of the series before us is the Senior Lesson Book; 2. Is the Berean Question Book; 3. The Beginners Book, and 4. The Lesson Commentary. Here we have a graded series suitable for ministers, teachers, advanced scholars, intermediate and primary scholars. The first three are of suitable size, and made to easily carry in the pocket; the last has its place at home or in the office, and must be consulted there. It is, as a book of reference, invaluable, as it is also inseperable from the others. The first three are bound in boards, in bright, clear type, and marked 15 cents each. The last is an octavo volume, bound in cloth and gilt, and sold for $1.25. They leave nothing to be desired in their line, and take away the last excuse for going anywhere else than to our publishers to purchase. New York: Phillips & Hunt. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe.

The National Election.

The great political contest is decided, and it seems that Mr. Stephen Grover Cleveland has been elected President of the United States. For a quarter of a century the Democratic party has been asking permission to govern the country, and it now appears that the people have granted their request. Undoubtedly the personal, without reference to the moral, character of the two principal candidates had a great deal to do with the result. We clearly foreshadowed such an outcome some time ago, as our readers will possibly remember. It is now as apparent to all as it was to us before that a very noisy convention is not equal to an election. Edmunds or Arthur being the Republican candidate would have been elected. The people who vote propose to have a voice in the nomination of the Presidential tickets hereafter. That is the first lesson of this decision.

What will the Democrats do with their victory?

It comes straight, on seemingly good authority, that four Northern and sixteen Southern States have chosen the Cleveland and Hendrick's electors. These States cast 219 electoral votes, and hence elect the Democratic candidates with 18 votes to spare, as the following list of States claimed for Mr. Cleveland will show:

Alabama	10
Arkansas	7
Connecticut	6
Delaware	3
Florida	4
Georgia	12
Indiana	15
Kentucky	13
Louisiana	8
Maryland	8
Mississippi	9
Missouri	16
New Jersey	9
New York	36
North Carolina	11
South Carolina	9
Tennessee	12
Texas	13
Virginia	12
West Virginia	6
Total	219

Connecticut, New York, Indiana and New Jersey have decided the contest. But it was chiefly the influence of the Independent voter in those States, coupled with an unyielding determination of the St. John Prohibitionists to be counted, which made the Democratic triumph at all possible. But this possibility has been apparent from the outset. Conscientious men and women cannot be overawed, they must be heard. The colored vote was not able to render much service to the Republican party in the South, of course, and it was to a greater or less degree divided in the North. This vote is also a necessary factor to Republican or any other parties success. So it may be set down that the Democratic party has come into power by the aid of Republican votes cast directly for its standard bearers, or at least, not cast for Blaine and Logan. This is the second lesson.

Now, what will the Democrats do with this victory that they have thus achieved? They will use it soberly, DISCREETLY, WISELY, and with reference to a continuance in power. They will, of course, make a clean sweep of the Civil Service; they are in no mood to be trifled with when it comes to the the offices. Everyone has understood from the first that one of the things contingent upon this election was, who should fill the offices. Under Republican rule they were, or should have been, filled by Republicans, and the same rule applies to the Democrats. We expect the Republican office-holders to be treated just as the white ones are, that is, not reappointed. But we feel sure that colored men of Democratic ideas will be called to official place pretty much as hereto fore. Peter H. Clarke, Herbert Clarke, J. Allen Ross and a number of other colored men of learning, patriotism and political ability will be appointed to office. Mr. Peter H. Clarke will probably go to Liberia or Hayti, and so there will still be colored politicians in office.

The responsibility of government will be transferred from Republicans to Democrats, and the country will hold that party strictly accountable for the manner in which they discharge or fail to discharge their sacred trust. The Lower House of Congress will be Democratic by 35 majority, and the Senate Republican by from two to six majority, which gives a Democratic majority on a joint ballot. This will give the new party administration a fair chance to show its faith in its works. No attempt to annul war statutes will be made in the next four years. Why should there be? they are practically dead letters already in the South, and there was no need of them in the North. Messrs. Davis and Toombs will probably have their political disabilities removed in the way that is most preferable to themselves, when this is practicable. Why not? What is the use of letting them alone, of all men, bear the ONUS of the great rebellion? They are either worthy of death, prison, the asylum or freedom politically; so that we meet nothing even at this point which disturbs us by its possibility. There will be nothing revolutionary or extraordinary in the new regime as we foresee it at present. If vacancies occur and new Supreme Judges are appointed they will probably be Democrats, but their interpretations on great legal questions will likely be conservative and about in the same line with the decisions already delivered by the Supreme Court touching the freedmen. Will they try to enslave the Negroes again? No! Why not? Because first, God reigns. Second, He will not again permit it. Third, He will use enlightened public sentiment and the Christian conscience of civilized mankind to prevent it.

What will the Republicans do with their defeat?

They will consider its causes and profit by it. They will probably reorganize the party and relieve it from the objectional features which attach to a party long in power. They will look to reform, make alliances with the temperance people and all other elements of the people who stand for the integrity of the nation, secured by the moral betterment of the people. On these principles it will again present itself, ask the suffrage of the people, obtain it, and win. This is the third lesson.

What should the Negroes in the South do? Take heed to themselves, be careful in word and deed, listen to the advice of cool men who have never deceived or led them into error. God's hand is more clearly visible to us now than ever before, in the selection of a colored man to come South and edit the SOUTHWESTERN ADVOCATE. No white man can as well meet the emergency of guiding the Negroes now as can an honest, fearless and righteous Negro. God seen this hour when He guided the General Conference of our Church in its duty last May. The Negro must refuse to be guided by hot-headed counsellors, colored or white. He must listen to reasonable advice, and think some for himself. He must be temperate, industrious, pure, and peaceable in his habits if he intends to live in the South. If he pursues this course he will realize no disadvantages from the change at Washington. This is the fourth lesson.

The Recorder's Defense of Reckless Talking.

Commenting upon our remarks touching Bishop H. M. Turner's view of the presiding eldership, the Christian Recorder, Oct. 30, speaks thus: "These colored Bishops." "Which colored Bishops?" You object to our using the personal pronoun plural "THESE," rather than the personal pronoun singular THIS. Well, we meant more than one. In the same number of the SOUTHWESTERN you refer to, we had, besides our comment on Bishop Turner's ideas, also one on an article of Bishop Hood, of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. Bishops Turner and Hood are both colored men, and since two are more than one, we were compelled to say "these," etc.

Our neighbor further inquires: "Does the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE understand Bishop Turner to so speak that it is impossible for any Bishop being a colored man to dissent from him?"

This question is explicit, and we reply as explicitly NO. But we are not advised of any Bishop who, "being a colored man," has "dissented from him." Will you tell us the name of one, and when and where he so "dissented?"

Our esteemed contemporary again inquires: "Does the SOUTHWESTERN speak for the whole circle of ADVOCATES, so that we might retort (but we won't.) How unreasonably 'these' ADVOCATES talk." There are two circles of ADVOCATES; one of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and the other of our church. We might ask which of the two you refer to, "but we won't." We do not speak for them, but we have not the least doubt but that they would substantially agree with our observation on the point in question. One of them, the Pittsburg Advocate, with reference to Bishop Hood, has already done so. Then the Recorder becomes somewhat aggressive, and says: "One colored Bishop, colored white, talked about as foreign to the faith fundamental of his church, at one time, as did (these) this colored Bishop to one of the conventionalities of the polity of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; but no one would have been unreasonable enough to have placed Bishops Simpson, Bowman, Foss, Hurst and all the others in the same line as that taken by Bishop Foster, in reference to the resurrection, and so unkindly said: 'Behold those Bishops! white Bishops.'"

This charge upon our columns is somewhat adroitly planned, and bravely executed. But we are invincible. If a WATERLOO was intended for us, we will prove it to be our GIBRALTAR instead. We are enjoying sensations of undisturbed—security.

We rather admire the dashing charge of a courageous opponent, in a clear field.

> 'Before my body I throw my war-like shield: lay on MacDuff;
> And blessed be he who first cries, hold! enough!"

As to Bishop Foster's color, Webster's second definition of white makes it the destitution of color. Touching his speculations about the resurrection, we have to say, that when you shall have as definitely stated the language wherein he, "at one time," or at any time "talked about as foreign to the faith fundamental of his church, as did Bishop Turner to one of the conventionalities of the polity of the African Methodist Episcopal Church;" and when you shall have designated exactly what article of "faith fundamental of" Bishop Foster's "church" it is that you refer to; then we shall probably have something more to say on that point. We did not intend to be either unreasonable or unkind in our statement, and after a careful reading of the paragraph you quote from us, if it is still your opinion that we have said anything either "unreasonable" or "unkindly," then we will agree to withdraw the words you understand to be unreasonable and unkind, and insert others in their place. Now, if Bishops "Bowman, Foss, Hurst" and others should talk as you understand Bishop Foster to have done about the "resurrection," then it would not be unreasonable or unkind for you to say as we said: "It is astonishing how unguardedly these white Bishops talk." Bishop Turner does not stand alone under this charge of unguarded speaking; it applies, or we now apply it, to Bishop Payne, Bishop Wayman, Bishop Shorter, Bishop Brown, Bishop Hood, Bishop Hillery and others. All of these are alive; all but one are active Bishops, and all of them are colored men.

Once more the Christian Recorder observes that, "It is not colored Bishops, nor colored men, but men making MISTAKES." Exactly. But you must admit that in the cases of Bishops Turner, Hood and Hillery, we have not only men, but colored men.

Our worthy contemporary finally remarks that, "Bishop Turner's color had nothing to do with his opinions, nor with his ideas of church economy." What was it, then? You cannot say it was his stupidity, and you must not say it was his perversity. Bishop Turner (we say it upon our own full responsibility) is neither an ignorant nor a mean man. We know him well, and we know him to be quite the contrary of these. What was it then, we repeat, that inspired these "ideas" of his, which you admit to be "mistakes:" Was it simply an overflow of official spirit, or a colossal mental elevation of his magisterial personalism—which?

Support the Presiding Elder Also.

It is the proper thing to make all previous arrangements to receive the new pastor. But it ought not to be allowed to in any way interfere with a prompt payment of claims due the presiding elder. Sometimes we hear that a grand rally has been made in some church, and that great financial success attended it. Then we rejoice. But by and by some preacher reports that he was not paid comfortably in that charge. Then we do not rejoice, for somehow we get the idea that the preacher was squeezed to pay the church debt. Methodist pastors and presiding elders do not own the churches in which they preach; the people own them, and the people should not compel their ministers to pay for their churches. Pay all.

Church Property in the South.

During the war the Missionary Board purchased various pieces of church property in the South, and set them apart for the use of our people in that section of the country. The purpose of the purchasers was to transfer their properties to local organizations, just as soon as the same could be done safely and to advantage. Such transfers have been made from time to time, and just now the society has deeded two elegant properties, one in Charleston, South Carolina, and one in Vicksburg, Miss., to the local boards. This course on the part of the Missionary Society, has brought to it large numbers of friends who are determined to aid to the extent of their ability a society that can plan with such wisdom, and execute with such fidelity.

The Conference Collections.

No minister can give to his conference a good reason for waiting a year before he begins to attend to the claims of the General Conference upon his charge. The benevolent collections ought to be taken in the first half of the year. They are always larger when so taken. The money is worth more if the boards of the church can have the use of it, and not be compelled to borrow. The people will like it better, because they will not be strained for their benevolent contributions at the end of the year, when they are trying to fix the pastor and his family up for conference. Attend to this early in the year, brethren. Attend to it now.

Our Sermon Frames.

Some ministers have not been so fortunate as to attend a theological school, and learn the art of sermon building. We do not design to flatter them with the idea that they are as efficient without as with this training. But we mean to as far as possible aid them in supplying this lack of homelitical training. With this intention we have arranged to print one or more skeleton sermons each week. They are better adapted to the purpose we have in view, than any book of plans can be. They will be prepared with particular reference to the wants of the men who may use them. They will always be fresh, original and orthodox. We shall have a care as to doctrine; and really expect by means of these sketches to do our brethren a service of value. If it is not so we can easily discontinue them. The local preachers will we believe find this of use to them. Though unable to attend school, they can have the aid of the teachers, and we hope in this way, steadily learn to Methodize. We would like to have the the view of our local preachers, as to the usefulness of these sketches to them.

Methodism and Its Discipline in Finland.

An interesting experience is related in a recent letter from Rev. B. A. Carlson, the delegate to the late General Conference from Sweden. In establishing work among their neighbors in Finland, our Swedish brethren, as is usual in countries where the ecclesiastical system is interwoven with the State, have met with encouragement from the people, and official restrictions from the government. Bro. Carlson was obliged to give an account of himself and his intentions before the police court of Helsingfors. No attention was paid to his certificate of ordination or his missionary letters. The master of police, an officer in the Russian army, and a man of culture, treated Bro. Carlson with consideration, but positively prohibited his further public religious teaching, or, as he expressed it, the prohibited propagandism. After explaining that the Gospel he preached was one of love, peace and concord everywhere, Bro. Carlson produced a copy of the Discipline and pointed out the paragraph concerning obedience to the authority. The master of police read the paragraph aloud, and said he might himself agree in many views but for his position, and further said to Bro. Carlson: "You have perfect liberty to worship God according to the dictates of your own conscience, only see that no disorder arises." The interview ended by signing the official [illegible], which was returned with thanks. An invitation to Bro. Carlson to preach in college, and [illegible] twice every Sunday, new preaching every Wednesday at the [illegible] constantly in request for preachers [illegible] over the country, the labors of the [illegible] preachers, Rev. C. Wigerson, [illegible] measures [illegible] miles from [illegible]

[illegible] Rev. John [illegible] eighteen [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] was in Cleveland, another district [illegible] vannah conference, and Dr. J. M. Walden elected Bishop.

We had a brief visit to the sanctum of Dr. Fitzgerald, while in Nashville recently. We were received with marked cordiality, found the good editor surrounded by work, and with urgent calls to substitutionary pastoral labor pressing heavily upon him. He fully favors the educational work being done by the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South among the Freedmen, and believes the time will come when these educated and Christianized Freedmen will be needed to aid the North in defending itself against European heterodoxy, communism and Mormonism. We think very much as Dr. Fitzgerald does in this, and we therefore think that both his paper and his church, with all of its papers, should be earnestly aiding in this good work; for what endangers the North at present, will, in the course of time, likewise imperil the South.

Same Old Trick.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 21, '84.—In response to a call issued by the Wilmington Clerical Association several hundred colored people assembled in E. Zion A. M. E. Church, October 15.—E. H. in Baltimore Vindicator.

Now, gentlemen, you all know that your meeting was in no other than a Methodist Episcopal church. E. Zion is the oldest Methodist and most influential colored church in Wilmington. There could scarcely be a colored man found who knows enough to write for a newspaper that does not know it is not an African Methodist Church.

The doctrine of the New Testament seems not to moralize the people in many Southern States but their wickedness calls for what hath been said by them of old times, "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth."—Ohio Falls Express.

What do you there, Dr. Fitzbutler? Don't you know that the Negroes in the South ought not to appeal to mob law and violence even though they should be shamfully abused as they have been. The Gospel you quote is obsolete. Here is the Gospel for the Southern Negroes: "But I say unto you, that ye resist not evil; but whosoever shall smite thee on the right cheek turn to him the other also." God in His good time will take vengeance on violent men.

In regard to baptism, we have to say that a church admitting three modes to be correct cannot with consistency assail either of the three. We shall never convince those who believe in but one mode that they ought to abandon it. What if we do not? It is one of our own modes.—Christian Recorder

Yes: but we must continue the struggle to convince them that no one of these modes of baptism is more essential to baptism than the others are.

The annual meeting of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at 72 Gold St., New York, on the 12th of November at 10 a. m. The financial year of the Board will close Oct. 31. Collections not yet paid in are urgently invited before that date at 805 Broadway, New York.

Personal.

—We learn from Rev. Emperor William that Dr. Martin R. Delaney is here in New Orleans quite sick.

—The postoffice address of Rev. J. L. Massey will be hereafter at Mason, Tipton county, Tenn., P. O. Box 19.

—Rev. A. E. P. Albert is still quite sick, and not able to leave his room. He does not seem to be gaining strength.

—Rev. D. W. Hays has been removed to Knoxville, Tennessee, and is busy preparing to move thence to Chattanooga.

—Bro. W. H. Davis is now at Kwanssa, Kansas. He will be remembered as a former president of Wiley University, Marshall, Texas.

in the Woman's Home Missionary Society Conference, which met there Oct. 28.

—Rev. A. W. Hall, of the Tennessee Conference, has our sincere thanks for a new list of ten subscribers.

—Bro. Cushman is at home. He is full of energy, and in good health. His work prospers, and he is in great favor with the preachers all over his work.

—Mrs. Josephine Cowgill was pleased to call at the office of the SOUTHWESTERN last week, and we were greatly pleased to meet Sister Cowgill.

—Mrs. Mary Walton, wife of Rev. M. Walton, of Lexington Conference, has been sick for several week, and is not now tending to convalescence.

—Mrs. Dora, wife of Rev. W. H. Brown, of Portsmouth, Ohio, has been compelled to return to her home at Oberlin, Ohio, on account of poor health.

—It is now decided that Mrs. W. S. Lankford will spend the winter at Port Gibson, Miss., instead of in Cincinnati, as at first determined upon.

—Bishop Alexander W. Wayman, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, was announced to visit New Orleans and preach in St. James Chapel, the principal church of his denomination in this city, last Wednesday.

—Dr. C. K. Marshall and S. A. Ingraham, Esq., are both deeply interested in the African question, as it relates to our own American Africans. There is a movement on foot that will probably have much to do with this matter in the future.

—Rev. Addison Moore was in the city recently visiting his children, and gave the SOUTHWESTERN a call. He thinks the $1.50 plan is the best thing that could be done, and that he can make an effectual campaign with it.

—Rev. David Shelby, of Coushatta, La., was recently united in wedlock to Mrs. Rebecca Smith, at her home near Mansfield, in the same State. She is regarded as an excellent Christian lady, and Bro. Shelby is an honored member of the Louisiana Conference. We wish them a pleasant journey on the voyage of life.

—Rev. W. P. Forrest, of Pleasant Plains Methodist Episcopal Church, was in at our office this week. He says he doesn't hurry to take hold of a man, and he seldom lets one go. We think he has fairly taken hold of the SOUTHWESTERN, and we want him to hold on. The editor is to visit his church and preach there Nov. 9th, at night.

—Rev. Warren McDonald, presiding elder of the Gulf District, Mississippi, Conference, closing up his fourth round of visit, being in New Orleans, called upon us last Monday. He reports a pleasant trip, encouraging prospects for all church interests, and a purpose to push forward the claims of the SOUTHWESTERN.

—We are in receipt of a letter from the Rev. L. N. Taylor, wherein he lays us under a large debt of gratitude to him for many kind expressions of ourself, and a manly pledge of his valuable help to the SOUTHWESTERN. Bro. Taylor understands how to do the polite. He is every inch a gentleman, and he is honestly trying to do a work to be useful to his people and his church. We love him for his own and for his very work's sake.

—Rev. Alfred H. Redford, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, entered upon his reward recently. We knew him in our early youth. He has been an earnest worker in the church. It may be that his labors have not been always apparently successful, but his trust and confidence in the Lord evidenced his knowledge of God, and that the love of God was shed abroad in his heart.

—Another large company left New York on Saturday, Nov. 1, by the City of Rome, en route for India. Rev. and Mrs. L. N. Rockey expect to join the North India Conference. The following named persons reinforce South India Conference: Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Thoburn, Rev. and Mrs. D. L. Thompkins, Rev. J. H. Garden, Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Rudisille, and Miss Hillis and Miss James.

—M. H. Jenkins, of Grenada, Miss., on his way to Houma, La., passed through New Orleans on Monday last, and called at our office. He was born in Lexington, Ky., where he has many relatives residing whom he has not seen since childhood. He belonged to Mr. Alex. Moore, a book binder, and at one time Sheriff of Fayette county, Ky. He has also relatives in Cincinnati. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. We cordially commend him to Bro. Jackson, our pastor at Houma.

Church Polity.

Are the Church Records Properly Kept?

The question is asked in every quarterly conference and too often answered by the pastor, or no report is the answer! A committee is appointed by the last quarterly conference each year whose duty it is to answer this question after a careful examination of said records. But what records are refered to? We answer, the pastor's record of members, probationers, classes, marriages, baptisms, renewals and deaths. The quarterly conference records kept by the recording steward, and the trustee's records kept by the secretary of the Board of Trustees. The importance of having all the records properly kept has not always been considered.

1. The pastors' record. This shows the condition of the charge. Membership in the Church is too important a matter to be endangered by a carelessly and slovenly kept record. Each member of the Church has too much at stake, to have his membership invalidated by errors and mistakes, made by careless hands. Baptisms have no other record than such as the pastors make, also with marriages in States that do not require a certificate of marriage, solemnized to be returned to civil officers. Errors and mistakes in any of the records in the hands of pastors may involve serious consequences.

2. Quarterly conference records. The recording steward is to keep a faithful record of the doings of the quarterly conference. The splendid set of blanks now furnished by the Book Concern, helps very much in keeping these records correctly. Every quarterly conference should provide this book of blanks, as stewards, trustees, committees, and local preachers are elected by the quarterly conference, the record of the election should be faithfully kept. The custom of saying the usual questions were asked and answered in the negative, should be abandoned. Take time enough to write out every question, word for word, and record the full answer in each case and have complete records.

3. Trustees' records. These records are very important. The trustees hold the property of the Church. The minutes of every meeting of the Board should be faithfully recorded by the steward in a book kept for that purpose. When the new Board of Trustees are appointed at the last quarterly conference of the year, the pastor should call them together for the purpose of organizing the board, should preside in the first meeting until the officers (president and secretary) are elected. A full record should be kept of the organization of the Board and of every subsequent meeting. The acts of the trustees may be called in question. It may become necessary to prove that the trustees authorized any given act. It may be that they may be called into court, as in case of contested insurance, where the company refuses to pay the insurance in case of fire. The records of the quarterly conference and of the trustees meeting should be so kept, that a court of justice will accept them as testimony. Much, therefore, may depend on the fullness and correctness of these records.

It is possible that some may not know when these records are properly kept. To avoid any great errors it might be well for the presiding elder to ask that these records be brought to the quarterly conference and there have them examined. We should bear in mind that every time a Board of Trustees is elected they must be subsequently organized. The members of the old board may constitute the new board. They are a new board, nevertheless, and must be organized every time they are elected. The fact of such organization should be a matter of permanent record.

Schools and Colleges.

Central Tennessee College Singers.

The Central Tennessee College Singers, from Nashville, Tenn., and who have been in Cincinnati for the past three weeks, have been giving some of their select concerts at several of the churches, namely: St. Paul's, Trinity, McKendree Chapel etc.; also at the Mission on West Sixth street, and upon each occasion have met with a perfect ovation; their success being such as to warrent them of repeating the concerts—several requests having been made for them to return. They have several engagements on hand, nevertheless will be pleased to fill any engagements that may be offering. Those wishing to hear a good concert would do well to give this organization a date. Any communications addressed to the following will receive prompt attention: Rev. H. W. Key, Henrie House; Dr. Rust, Freedmen's Aid Society; Lee Moses, Advance Agent, Henrie House, Cincinnati Ohio; Rev. Braden, Nashville, Tenn.

H. W. KEY.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

How often is this compliment given at the conclusion of a sermon (?) May be for two and a half long hours, the man for whom it is inteded has been standing between dead and dry bones, and the life given God, reaching (?), and the only comment is, "I tell you Bro. ——— has a noble voice."—Baptist Advocate.

We are aware of the incredulity with which the idea will be received that the Indians can be converted into farmers or ranchers. All the same it can be done.—The Interior.

We belive that the present liquor traffic is, as it is often called, a crime against humanity and a sin against God.—Christian Nation.

In veiw of the larg amounts of money paid out as regular stipends by the Government to chiefs in the neighbourhood, from which there are no adequate returns in the pacification of the country and in the regularity and steadness of trade, these frequent wars must be taken in the estimate as a regular and unavoidable part of the average financial burden of the colony; and measures should be sought and adopted by which these burdens may be lessened or cease to be of the nature of unproductive or exhaustive expenditure.—The Methodist Herald & West African Educational Times, Freetown, Sierra Leone.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
sept25-6m

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Bibolet, Manager.)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20.....Toulouse Street,.....20
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, La.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
☞ No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf

KNABE
PIANOFORTES.
UNEQUALLED IN
Tone, Touch, Workmanship and Durability.
WILLIAM KNABE & CO.
Nos. 204 and 206 West Baltimore Street, Baltimore. No. 112 Fifth Avenue, N. Y.
nov13-tf

Pictorial NEW TESTAMENT
New Revision—with NOTES BY
Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D. L.L.D.
Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D.D.
Rev. LYMAN ABBOTT, D.D.

Illustrated New Testament,
King James' Version—with Notes by
Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D. LL.D.
Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D.D.
Agents Wanted—Outfits Free and all Freights Paid. Address
H. S. GOODSPEED & CO.,
oct2-1ynr New York or Chicago.

Old People
And Dyspeptics! By so much of the meal as Ridge's Food enters in, in that degree will the digestive organs be free from excessive work. The reason is that it is so thoroughly steam-cooked in its manufacture.
If the stomach has become irritated through too high living, follow the example of those who have ordered Ridge's Food Blanc Mange. Sold by druggists 4 sizes 35 cents to $1.75. WOOKMOH & CO., Palmer, Mass.

Grand Christmas Offer.
You can have a Family Bible, an elegant Album, or a choice Book absolutely Free of Charge, by addressing UNION PUBLISHING HOUSE, 122 Chambers St. New York; or Constitution Building, Atlanta, Ga. oct23-4t

CHRISTMAS MUSIC.
Santa Claus and Family, a Cantata by J. H. Rosecrans. Fine music, beautiful scenes, and tableaux. Price, 30 Per dozen by express, $2. Per dozen by mail, $3.25
Jesus of Nazareth in Prophecy and Fulfillment—Responsive Scripture readings, with original music set to Scripture texts. A small oratorio. Price, 5c. Per dozen by mail 60c.
Christmas Selections for 1884, by J. H. Fillmore. Price, 4c. Per dozen by mail, 40c.
Carlstmas Songs from "Grateful Praise." Price 2c. Per dozen by mail, 20c.
Christmas Songs from "Joy and Gladness." Price 4c. Per dozen by mail, 40c.
A sample of all the above list sent for 30c. A sample of each with out the Cantata, sent for 10c. Address
FILLMORE BROS.,
185 Race St., Cincinnati, Ohio.
nov6 4t

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with or without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94.....Camp Street,.....94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.
By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.
WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.
Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.
Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.
Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.
292.....Rampart Street.....292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.
sept23-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

X-MAS MUSIC
Carols, Cantatas, Services, Anthems.
OUR CHRISTMAS CAROLS FOR 1884
Contain unusually fine contributions from GEO. F. ROOT, J. R. MURRAY, W. F. SHERWIN, H. P. DANKS, T. P. WESTENDORF and JOHN R. SWAREY, together with a
BEAUTIFUL SERVICE
Prepared by MISS NETTA A. WELLMAN; the whole furnishing ample material for a complete
CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT.
16 pages, elegantly printed in colors, on fine, tinted paper. Price 5cts. each, or 50 cts. a dozen by mail, post-paid. $4 a hundred by express, not prepaid.
Send for complete list of Cantatas, Services, Anthems, and Christmas solos.
Published by
JOHN CHURCH & CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

dec26-26teo m

Domestic Hygiene.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.
Hygiene of Bathing—Anxiety and Food.

BY REV. DR. GEO. L. CURTISS.

Bathing the body in water is a healthful and invigorating act; still there exist some sensible hygienic laws that are well to be observed for the comfort and health of the bather.

1. Avoid too much or too little bathing; enough to obtain perfect cleanliness is advantageous, but bathing may be used to excess. It will, in excess, enfeeble instead of strengthen. If extreme lassitude, relaxation of the system, and a sense of weariness follow bathing it ought to be suspended, and only a small portion of the body be bathed at one time. In some instances following a bath with a short, quick walk will restore the equilibrium and quicken the circulation. Occasionally a sleep following a bath will relieve immediate ill effects. Bathing, to be really beneficial, ought to be followed by a sense of glow and warmth on the surface of the body.

2. If one bathes in cold water it must not be too cold, and the bath ought not to continue over five minutes. The body should be quickly wiped dry and rubbed vigorously with a rough crash towel.

3. If a warm bath is taken the heat should not exceed 95 degrees of heat. The bath should not be continued over fifteen minutes. Dry wiping and hard rubbing with towels must follow. Better still, if, as you come out of the hot bath, you sponge with cold water so as to close up the sweat pores opened and gaping from the warm bath. After a warm bath you ought to remain indoors some minutes, and in no case be exposed to a draft of cold air.

4. The shower bath for some constitutions is a delightfully refreshing bath. In all these cases the dry sponge and hard rubbing must follow to bring about the proper reaction.

5. The sun bath is unquestionably a highly enjoyable and a remarkably beneficial hygienic resort. All that is required is a sheltered nook with a south exposure through which the sun can shine in a cheering manner. Remove all clothing, lie down on a rug, and let the sunshine fall, occasionally, on all parts of the body in due proportion. The sun bath should not, for a half hour, but may be repeated for two or three days in succession.

6. Anxiety and worry as common as they are painful. Worry kills. Many a life has been cut short or destroyed by the worry of discontent and envy. Indulged habitually, they undermine the health and destroy the tired nature's sweet restorer, sleep. Many a tired seeker after rest has increased the tired feeling with consequent exertion in vain. Before has ingathered all that can at night as the result of the day of toil.

7. Food is to be eaten, but food, as a means of living, time has laws which must be observed in order to secure health and happiness.

1. The stomach is kept in a state of constant activity.

2. Food needs to be thoroughly cooked. So far as frying, broiling, and boiling are concerned, there is but little difference in health character, though there is a preference as to taste. Food should not be overdone or cooked until the juices are expelled; Nor should food be burned. Burnt food is invariably indigestible, and acts as an irritant in the stomach. Some foods ought to be eaten when warm, as most meats and vegetables, but others ought to be eaten when cold, as pastries and bread. So far as observation and reason can discover, vegetable food is no more healthful than animal. The difference between vegetable oil and animal fat is so slight that it is not observable. One seems to possess as many good food qualities as the other.

3. Nature evidences that animal and vegetable food should be taken together, with a preponderance of the vegetable in the warmer climates and of animal in colder. Animal food is a great concentrative of nourishing material, and requires some rougher and more bulky food to aid in its proper digestion, which it finds in vegetable food.

The laws of physical life cannot be ignored or violated without disease and sickness following. Many have tried to fight against them and disregard their demands, but in all cases they have paid the penalty in pain, sickness, and a shortening of life.

People ought not to commit the error of eating too much. The stomach gorged with food beyond its power to digest becomes inflamed, and as sore as the eye. Two hours after eating the stomach ought to be nearly or quite empty of food. Then it can settle down to rest until the time for the next meal; but if there has been thrown into it too much food it will digest the amount the system needs and leave the remainder to sour and become a source of annoyance. It is better to eat not quite enough food at a meal than to eat too much.

LEMON SHORT CAKE.—The New York Evening Post is responsible for this recipe: "If you have never made an old New England lemon shortcake," said my neighbor, "you have something still to learn." If your family likes a good strong lemon flavor, it will be a delicious dish. Make a shortcake dough exactly like a strawberry shortcake. While that is baking, grate the peel of a lemon and squeeze every drop of juice from it into a bowl; then take half a cup of sugar and half a cup of molasses, a teacupful of water, a little lump of butter and a tablespoonful of flour. Let this boil until it is just about as thick as a boiled custard. When the shortcake is baked, cut it in two parts and pour the mixture over the lower one; then lay the upper part on this, bottom side up, and cover that also with the custard.

GRAHAM CUSTARD PIE.—Jennie D. sends the following to the Home-Farm of Augusta, Me.: Take one cup of milk, two eggs, half a cup of sugar, half a cup of graham flour. Beat the eggs and stir all together. The graham sinks to the bottom of the pie dish as the custard bakes, and forms a good crust. It dissolves easily in the mouth and is entirely digestible. A pleasant cream pie is made from the same recipe, leaving out the eggs and using creamy milk or thin cream. Salt and spice to taste.

TO BLANCH ALMONDS.—Shell them, and pour boiling water over them in the proportion of a quart of water to a quarter of a pound of almonds. When the skins soften, rub them off with a clean towel.

TO MAKE ALMONDS FINE.—Let them get thoroughly cool and dry after rubbing off the skins, then pound them in a mortar. It is best to put in only three or four at a time, and to add a few drops of milk while they are being pounded to prevent their oiling. A tablespoonful of milk will be sufficient for a quarter of a pound of almonds.

ALMOND LAYER CAKE.—Whites of six eggs, two cups of powdered sugar, three-fourths of cup of butter, one cup of milk, two and a half cups of flour, one even teaspoon of soda and three scant teaspoons of cream tartar. Bake in four jelly tins and put together with soft frosting, adding blanched split almonds about an inch apart on each layer.

GOLD CAKE.—One and one-half cup of sugar, two-thirds of a cup of butter, one cup of sweet milk, three cups of sifted flour, yolks of six eggs, one even teaspoon soda, and three scant teaspoons of cream tartar. Stir the sugar and butter to a cream, add the yolks after beating them thoroughly, then the cup of sweet milk, and the flour though which the soda and cream tartar should previously have been sifted.

Thousands die annually from lack of attention to home surroundings.

From careless personal habits.

By not securing pure air, pure water and pure soil.

By living in damp rooms.

By irrational eating.

By foolish drinking.

By absorbing foul air.

By shutting out the sunlight.

By neglecting cleanliness.

By not taking proper exercise.

By not changing damp for dry clothes.

By not wearing apparel suited to the season.

By hasty eating.

By too much use of the frying-pan in cooking.—Hearthstone.

New Catalogue of Organs.

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO COMPANY have just issued their new Catalogue for the season of 1884-5. It forms a handsome 4to pamphlet of 46 pages, and contains illustrations accurately showing the appearance of all the styles of organs regularly made by them, with detailed descriptions of the capacity of each; together with quite full mention of the general mode of construction employed and the great favor with which their organs have been received all over the world; with accounts of their triumphs at all the great comparisons of such instruments at World's Industrial Exhibitions for many years; with pictures of medals, declarations and diplomas of honor obtained.

In looking over such a catalogue one is forcibly reminded of the magnitude which the business of reed instruments has attained. Twenty-five years since only a few were made, under the name "Melodeon," which had not and did not deserve much favor with musicians, enjoying very limited sale at prices varying from $40 to $125. Now 80,000 organs are made yearly in the United States, which are sold in all civilized countries at prices from $22 to $1,000 or more.

The great success achieved by this Company, pecuniary and even more material, is the result of a principle which they deliberately adopted in the beginning and have never lost sight of. This was always to make the very best; never to sacrifice excellence to economy. Doubtless their main object was to make money, as is is with manufacturers generally, but they had firm faith that the best way to do this was not by cheapening their productions so that they might be sold at low prices, but by giving to them such superlative excellence that they would command the necessarily high prices; and they have succeeded on this plan so that the market for the sale of their organs may now be said to be the whole world. Royal courts of foreign nations are furnished with the more expensive American organs made by the Mason & Hamlin Company, and there is hardly a cottage on our Western frontier that is so poor that it cannot afford to have one of their smallest.

This at least may be said to any purchaser of a Mason & Hamlin organ; he will unquestionably get the very best instrument of its class which can be made. Thirty years' experience is a guarantee of what this company can do and will do. They cannot afford to send out poor organs.

The present catalogue shows an increased and very complete assortment, both as to cases and capacities. It will be sent free to any one desiring to see it, on application to the MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO COMPANY, Boston, New York or Chicago.—Boston Traveller.

The SOUTHWESTERN was never more highly appreciated by its patrons; its resources are improving; and our aim now is to increase its circulation, and with the increase of means to do more than ever for the good of the church.

Cholera is subsiding in Europe.

Important to You.

EVERY PERSON IS INTERESTED IN KNOWING THAT

Ayer's Pills Cure

Acidity of the stomach and Flatulence,
Yellow jaundiced skin,
Enervation and Languor,
Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains,
Sick Headaches and Nausea,

Chronic disposition to Costiveness;
Anæmia caused by Dyspepsia,
Torpidity of the obstructed liver,
Heart disease induced by Constipation,
Apoplectic tendencies similarly originated,
Relaxation of the nervous system,
Torturing sleeplessness from Indigestion,
Inflammation of the costive bowels,
Clogging and deterioration of the kidneys,

Pain in shoulders and back,
Indigestion and Constipation,
Liver Complaint and Biliousness,
Low vitality and Nervousness,
Skin Eruptions caused by Constipation,

Costiveness and Pain in the bowels,
Uric acid poison in the blood,
Rashes and Boils caused by Constipation,
Enfeebled sight and Nervous Tremors,

Mental and physical depression,
Agueish symptoms from Indigestion,
Nausea, Dizziness, and Foul Breath,
Youth and age troubles of women,

Inaction of the secretory organs,
Looseness of the bowels,
Loss of appetite and furred tongue,
Swellings symptomatic of Dropsy.

There is no form of disease, caused by Indigestion and Constipation, that does not yield to their beneficent power. They stimulate the digestive and assimilatory organs, strengthen the machinery of life, and have no drastic or weakening effects. Any one who chooses to enquire will find in his own community abundant willing witnesses to assure him that the best pills in the world for cure of the many ailments consequent upon derangement of the digestive functions are

Physicians and Patients say

"Ayer's Pills are one of the best remedies for billious derangements that we possess." DR. WM. PRESCOTT, Concord, N. H.

"Ayer's Pills are active, searching and effectual, but not griping or drastic." PROF. J. M. LOCKE, Cincinnati, O.

"Ayer's Pills are far superior to any which have fallen under my notice." DR. J. R. CHILTON, New York.

"Ayer's Pills are adapted to all the disorders which can be cured by the judicious use of a physic." DR. SAMUEL MCCONNELL, Montpelier, Vt.

"Ayer's Pills I am using in my practice and find them excellent." DR. J. W. BROWN, Oceana, W. Va.

"Ayer's Pills have entirely corrected the costive habit and vastly improved my general health." REV. F. B. HARLOWE, Atlanta, Ga.

"Ayer's Pills have cured Rheumatism and Kidney troubles among my crew, and they did away with my Dyspepsia." CAPT. C. MUELLER, Str. "Felicia."

"Ayer's Pills invariably cure me of headache." JOHN STELL, Germantown, Pa.

"Ayer's Pills have cured me of Constipation of long standing." EDWARD O. EASTERLY, Rockford, Ill.

"Ayer's Pills gave me new life and vigor, and restored my health." JOHN LAZARUS, St. Johns, N. B.

Ayer's Pills cured of Indigestion, Constipation and Headaches, M. V. WATSON, 152 State St., Chicago, Ill.

Ayer's Pills cured of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and Neuralgia. P. H. ROGERS, Needmore, Brown Co., Ind.

"Ayer's Pills have cured me entirely." MRS. MARY A. SCOTT, Portland, Me.

Ayer's Pills cured of Rheumatism, S. M. SPENCER, Syracuse, N. Y.

AYER'S PILLS,

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

Sold by all Druggists.

13 21e

It is not given to any man always to walk in the sunshine of prosperity, or health, or gladness; but it is given to every man who will, in all the vicissitudes of life, to preserve unruffled in his heart of hearts the peace of God which passeth all understanding. Happy he who, in his seasons of sickness, adversity, and discouragement, no less than in his seasons of exuberant happiness, keeps his lamp of faith burning, with a steady and undimmed light.—Sunday School Times.

From a New Jersey Pastor.

"I have tried Parker's Tonic and believe in it. It goes at once to the root of all digestive and nervous derangements, so common among ministers. For women and chronic invalids it is a perfect invigorant. A single dose pervades the system and gives a new sense of life."—Rev. F. E. Osborne, West Hoboken, N. J.

Dog Mimics.

Dogs, as well as monkeys, are sometimes good mimics. A writer in a London paper tells of a very amusing case in which a terrier figured as an imitator of a man. The incident occurred at a country house, to which an old gentleman who was lame, was paying a visit. The dog watched the gentleman's movements with great interest. When the gentleman started to go down stairs, the terrier stood at the top of the staircase, his ears erect and his tail gently wagging. The gentleman limped down from one step to the other. As soon as he had reached the bottom, the dog prepared to make the descent. He held up one foot and slid his hind legs around, going down, as it appeared, with great labor, one step at a time. The members of the household, who were chatting in the hall, saw the antics of the terrier, and so amusing were they that the lame man had to join in the general laughter.—Nashville Advocate.

If you wish to subscribe for the SOUTHWESTERN, and the pastor does not call upon you, do not wait. Send your money ($1.50) to this office by express, registered letter, postal order or postal note.

To make children healthy use plenty of air, plenty of milk, plenty of sleep, and always have a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in case of croup.

Our Books for Sale,

—AT—

Southwestern Office,

32 Natchez Street.

Wakefield's Theology	$2 50
Methodism In The Field	1 00
Class Leaders Work and How to Do It	1 25
History of the M. E. Church, 4 volumes	6 00
Wesley's Sermons, 2 volumes	5 00
Whedon's Commentary on the New Testament	7 50
Life of John Wesley	1 00
Hand Book of Bible Geography	2 50
Bible Stories	1 00
Hints to Self Educated Ministers	1 25
Christianity Demonstrated by Experience	1 50
Baker on the Discipline	1 00
Binney's Theological Compend	75
Pope's Theology, 3 volumes	7 50
Outlines of Bible History	50
Outlines of Church History	50
CATECHISMS—
No. 1, Per Dozen	36
No. 2 Per Dozen	45
No. 3, Per Dozen	60
American Primers, per dozen	50
Spelling and Reading Book, per dozen	1 50
Sunday-School Minute Book	40
Sunday-School Register and Receiving Book	40
Sunday-School Class Book	10
Church Record	2 50
Church Class Book	20
Hymnal 24 mo.	50
" 16 mo, with Ritual	75
" 16 mo, "	1 00
" 12 mo, "	1 50
" 16 mo, with Tunes	1 00

Books, Pictures, Etc

The following is a list of miscellaneous articles that may be had at this office on receipt of the prices annexed. They will be sent, post-paid, to any address desired:

What They Say; or Echoes from Birmingham	10
Is there to be a War of Races in America, by Rev. A. E. P. Albert	10
The Colored Race Weighed in the Balance; Reply to Dr. Tucker by Rev. Dr C. K. Marshall	25
Lithographs Methodist Bishops, in group, up to 1872, each	10
Historic Picture, "Garfield and his Family," steel engraving	2 00
Wentworth's Arithmetical Problems	30
Mitchell's New School Geography (1875)	50
Independent Youth's Speller	30
Gems of Praise	20
French's Mental Arithmetic	30
Black Horse and Carryall. By Rev. J. H. McCarty	70
Notes on Baptism, by Rev. R. Gregg	60
Temperance Reform and its Great Reformers, By Rev. W. H. Daniels	1 00
"Missed It," wood engraving	35
"A Nibble at Last," engraving	25
"Romeo and Juliet," engraving	1 00
"The Huguenot," engraving	1 00
"The Golden Age," engraving	1 00
Lithographs of John Wesley, each	20

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

38-tf 32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

PAYSONS INDELIBLE INK

Is the BEST. No preparation. Used with any clean pen for marking any fabric. Popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial MEDAL & Diploma. Established 50 years. Sold by all Druggists, Stationers & News Art's

may22-11t eow

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME.

STATIONS. Leave	Daily
New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3..10:45 a. m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a.m	Sunday Excu'n 8:20 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Commos.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. O. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. a26-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE TO

Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn, and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City, For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Genl Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

CATARRH

AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Cough, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured, by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the bones of the nose have become affected. No douches, snuffs, washes, inhalers, or atomizers. The medicines are so pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Brockington has had fifteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and Fifty ($50) cents (more cost), for a trial package [by mail], to last fifteen days, with full instructions for treatment.

Address, DR. C. R. BROCKINGTON,
809 FOURTH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, KY.

oct2-1yr

AGENTS wanted for the History of Christianity, by Abbott. A grand chance. A $4 book at the popular price of $1.75. Liberal terms. The religious papers mention it as one of the few great religious works of the world. Greater success never known by agents. Terms free. STINSON & Co., Publishers, Portland, Maine. Mar27-eom

General News Items.

Prof Huxley, at Venice, is rapidly improving in health.

The French Senate has abolished life senatorships.

The Khedive has given General Wolseley an official mandate, conferring upon him full power in the Soudan, in place of Gen. Gordon.

If each pastor who reads this paper will send us one new subscriber this week, over 500 names can be enrolled on our books. Try to do it, brother.

France offered to reduce the indemnity to $40,000,000 if China will accept mediation without further delay or increasing expense by military operations.

The American Baptist Home Mission Society have spent $70,000 in Georgia since the war in establishing and supporting two schools for the colored people in Georgia.

A deputation of South African merchants were informed by Earl Derby, secretary of State for the colonies, the English government would neither abandon its possessions or at present extend its territory in South Africa.

Miss Carrie Welton, the lady whose sad death upon Long's Peak attracted so much attention recently, has left her fortune, amounting to between $200,000 and $250,000, to the New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Englishmen have proposed to raise $100,000 in America for the restoration of Shakespeare's burial place, the New York Mail makes a suggestion that England should be asked to contribute $100,000 to finish the Bartholdi pedestal.

The latest advices from the Sea Island Cotton Belt, from South Carolina to Florida, as to the condition of cotton, are unfavorable. A protracted drouth has increased the damage and has reduced materially the promised yield of six weeks ago.

At Salt Lake City, Nov. 4, Judge Zane sentenced Rudger Clawson, convicted of polygamy, to four years' imprisonment in the penitentiary and $800 fine. An appeal was taken, pending which his counsel moved he be released on bail, which was refused. Clawson was remanded to the custody of the United States marshal.

While the past few years—mainly within the past five years—have given us constitutional prohibition in three States, Maine, Kansas and Iowa; local option, prohibition in another form, in Maryland, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Kansas, Louisiana, South Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi; something about as good in Tennessee, in prohibiting [illegible] within four miles of a [illegible] high license in Nebraska, Missouri, Illinois and Minnesota; opportunity for constitutional prohibition in Ohio had a majority favored it, and a majority in the Legislatures of four other States would have done the same thing if it had required two thirds; and all this in the teeth and against the most powerful opposition of the whisky [illegible] interest.—Washingtonian.

If each pastor who reads this paper will send us two new subscribers this week over 1,000 names can be enrolled on our books. Nine-tenths of those could do so with [illegible] and a dozen could send the definite [illegible].

[illegible] was troubled with [illegible]; physicians [illegible] but she received [illegible] treatment. [illegible] Wood Tonic Bitters has [illegible] O. M. Hobbs, Buffalo, N. Y.,

[illegible] for a good [illegible] will in [illegible] Sallowest; [illegible] Liver [illegible].

Important and Ringing Words From Dr Hartzell.

Dr. Hartzell writes from the office of the Freedmen's Aid Society as follows:

MR. EDITOR—Have our pastors and people who read the SOUTHWESTERN become as enthusiastic as they ought over the approaching Centennial Jubilee of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South?

I am afraid they have not. The whole Church is looking on with intense interest, and is waiting to see what our people in the South are going to do to help themselves in the work of Christian education.

Every dollor raised by each conference will go to the school or schools in that conference. Louisiana Conference will help build the new building at New Orleans; Mississippi Conference will aid in an endowment fund for Rust University; Texas Conference will divide what it raises between Wiley University and Houston Seminary; West Texas Conference will raise money for the school at Austin. Austin Conference will help Texas Wesleyan College at Fort Worth. The Southern German Conference will raise money for Ruter College in Texas. Little Rock Conference will help Philander Smith College, and Arkansas Conference, Little Rock University, and so on all over the South. What a great sight to see during this Centennial year. All our pastors and people in the South uniting in a splendid effort to help their own schools!!

THE WORK PLANNED.

The General Conference directed the Freedmen's Aid Society to organize and prosecute this Centennial effort. This the Society is doing, but success depends upon the pastors and people themselves.

The Jubilee begins November 16th and continues till December 21, 1884, and the plan is to secure something large or small, from every member or friend of our Church in the South for Christian Education.

CENTENNIAL SUBSCRIPTION BOOK.

A neat Centennial subscription book has been prepared, and a specimen copy is now being mailed to every pastor in the South, with a request to ask for as many as he can use wisely.

CENTENNIAL COLLECTION BOX.

A beautiful Centennial collection box, done in blue and gold, has also been prepared and a specimen sent to each pastor. Should any pastor fail to receive a book or box notify us at once, and they will be sent.

Let there be no dead heads among our pastors in this movement. Special instructions are found in the circulars already sent out to all the preachers.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 25, 1881.

Remember that the subscription price of the SOUTHWESTERN is $1.50 if paid cash in advance; otherwise it is $2 per year as heretofore.

Thirty Years Record. Endorsed by Physicians.

HUNT'S KIDNEY & LIVER REMEDY NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS LIVER BLADDER AND URINARY ORGANS DROPSY GRAVEL DIABETES BRIGHT'S DISEASE PAIN IN THE BACK LOSS OF SEMEN

By the use of this REMEDY, the Stomach and Bowels speedily regain their strength, and the blood is purified.

It is pronounced by hundreds of the best doctors to be the ONLY CURE for all kinds of Kidney Diseases.

It is purely vegetable, and cures when other medicines fail.

It is prepared expressly for these diseases, and has never been known to fail. One trial will convince you. For sale by all druggists.

PRICE $1.25.

Send for Pamphlet of Testimonials.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO., [illegible], N. J.

Miss Nellie Kent,

Wellington, Lorain county, O., writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O., Gentlemen: I have been a great sufferer from chronic catarrh, bronchitis and neuralgia of the face. I have been taking your PERUNA for one month. The neuralgia and catarrh is almost well, and the cough is much better. I like your PERUNA very much."

C. E. Dupler, aged thirty-four years, of Equality, Illinois, had been affected with a chronic catarrh which he first discovered six years ago. In succession he lost his smell, taste and hearing. The disease was so malignant that it not only attacked the softer parts, but destroyed the bony partition of the nose and seriously affected the external parts. He could only hear a watch ticking by holding it close to his ear. He suffered intense pain in the nose, from which green, dry clots of offensive odor fell. In this condition he presented himself to Dr. Hartman several months ago. He can now hear a watch eight inches from his right and six inches from his left ear. His taste and smell are again returning, and the external part of the nose is quite well. Few more grateful patients ever left a physician's office than Mr. Dupler. He said, "Why in the world was PERUNA not prescribed for me long ago?"

Cramps of the Stomach.

We have the privilege of reporting the following case. Those similarly affected can get the name and address of Dr. Hartman. The lady does not want her name in the papers. For a year, or years, (the writer does not remember the length of time,) this lady had cramps, the most fearful, of the stomach, every day and night, "which would be followed by that terrible weakness, which was something wonderful." The suffering and distress of this lady was indescribable and almost unendurable. After all the physicians and medicines had failed, and all hope had almost fled, Dr. Hartman was consulted, and from the first day of taking his PERUNA, the cramps and all bad feeling left her, and now for over a month has been entirely free from every symptom. A more thankful patient no doctor ever had.

Mr. Boggs, druggist, Charlestown, Kanawha Co., W. Va., writes: "PERUNA sells well here and gives good satisfaction. Customers speak well of it."

Dr. J. Anderson, Coshocton, Ohio, writes: "Your PERUNA sells well and gives good satisfaction. I consider it a splendid medicine."

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez street.

ST. MATTHEW M. E. CHURCH—Cor. Varner Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7 30 at night. Prayer meeting 6 30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Sunday-school at 1:30. E. C. Ramster, pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services at Canada s, preaching 11 a. m. 3p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 9 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer meeting Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev. Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a. m. prayer meeting, preaching 11 a. m. 3 and 7 30 p. m. General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Tuesday eve 7:30; Class Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a. m. 3 and 7 p. m. Communion on every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Penn, two blocks above the last station. Rev. M. C. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship 11 a. m. 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday Sunday-school 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m. and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St Charles street.

First Street—Rev. [illegible]. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades streets services: Sabbath—5 a. m. prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7 public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

LADIES Gentlemen, Boys and Girls are making money rapidly with our Holiday Book for children BRIGHT JEWELS Special premium offer. $18 Family Bibles, elegant Silk Plush Albums GIVEN AWAY Union Publishing House, New York, N. Y.—Cincinnati, Ohio,—Atlanta, Georgia. 6oct28-4t

IT PAYS to sell our Rubber Stamps. FREE catalogue to Agents. Foljambe & Co., Cleveland O. a28-4.eow

EDUCATIONAL.

WILEY UNIVERSITY.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

Academic Year opened Sept. 22

No School Does More for its Pupils.

College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.

Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.

Competent and Experienced Faculty.

Expenses Very Low.

For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't,
o t9 Marshall, Texas.

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts.

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. L. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue,
sept4-3m New Orleans, La.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches....	175 lbs.	325 lbs.	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs.	375 lbs.	55 00
32 "	350 lbs.	550 lbs.	80 00
36 "	550 lbs.	800 lbs.	120 00
40 "	750 lbs.	1050 lbs.	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs.	1350 lbs.	200 00
48 "	1400 lbs.	1800 lbs.	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs.	2900 lbs.	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches.....	100 lbs.....	$13 00
20 inches.....	130 lbs.....	18 00
24 inches.....	190 lbs.....	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McSHANE BELL FOUNDRY

Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
[illegible] Md. U.S.A.

AGENTS Send for

E. B. TREAT'S of new books, including MOTHER, HOME, and HEAVEN, 160,000 sold. $2.75 by mail. Agents that have sold it for bankrupt Gen. Agents—Send direct to the publisher. Also 5,000 Curiosities of the Bible, $1.75. 40,000 sold. E. B. TREAT, Pub. 757 Broadway, N. Y.
nov6-4t

MILLERS and FARMERS
Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro., Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.
may22-1y

Only 15 Cts for 3 French Dolls
WITH AN ELEGANT WARDROBE OF 32 PIECES.

These Three Little Friends are going Travelling, and they want to visit all the Good Little Boys and Girls in America. Won't you Let us Come to Your Home? We will Start as Soon as you Send 15 Cents to pay our way. Our Elegant Wardrobe consists of 32 Pieces. Our Garments are of Every Fashion and Style. If you send for us we will go where you live, and amuse you all the year. Ask Mamma and Papa to send for us, and we will wear our Reception Dresses.

Consisting of Reception, Evening and Morning Dresses, Bonnets, Street Costumes, Cloaks, Hats, Hand Satchels, Sun Umbrellas, Music Portfolios, Overcoats, Sailor Suits, Military Suits, Drums, Street Jackets, Watering Place Suits, Travelling Costumes, Dress Suits, &c. These Dresses and Suits in this Elegant Wardrobe represent Nine Different Colors, and they are lovely beyond description, several being from Designs by Worth, of Paris. There is One Little Boy and Two Girl Dolls in Each Set, with Pretty Faces and Life-like Beautiful Features, and their Wardrobe is so extensive that it takes hours to dress and undress them in their Different Suits. Every Child and every Mother that has seen them go in ecstacy over them. Children will get more real enjoyment out of a Set of these French Dolls than out of articles that cost $10. Every person that buys them sends immediately for more. A lady writes us that her Little Boy and Girl played for five long hours with a Set of these French Dolls, and they felt very sorry indeed to think that they must stop and eat their supper, and if mothers only knew how much amusement there is in these Dolls they would willingly pay double the price asked for them. Sample Set, consisting of Three Dolls with their Wardrobe of 32 Pieces, by mail for 15 Cts., TWO Sets, $1; Dolls 6½ Inches Long 25 Cts., TEN Sets for $1 you get $1.50, and sets for less you get $3.75 for them. Fifty Sets for $4.50, you get $7.50; 100 Sets by express $7.00 you get $15 for them. Any Little Boy or Girl or any Agent, male or female, can sell 100 Sets every day. If you do that you make over $60 a week. If you send for one or two Sets we will send our Secret Method and Full Directions how you can make more than One Hundred Dollars a month out of these Dolls. You have not one day to lose, as each day's delay is so many dollars lost to you. This is an opportunity valuable for you to Use. These Dolls are Gems of Beauty. ADDRESS H. LOUIS, 173 GREENWICH STREET, NEW YORK.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia.

Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry

A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oct18-tf

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,

Cocoa and Canton Matting, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain Goods,

Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Plates, Wire Screens, Etc.

75 Camp Street ..... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade. Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct9-3m

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1869.

CASH CAPITAL..... $600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Dwellings, Stores and Business Property.

W. B. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Deiser, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.

TRUSTEES.

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo W Soulell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Conger,
W. B. Lyman,	U. M. Bloomi,	Chas. H. Deiser,	John Gabler,	A. H. Stewart,
S. C. Cuning,	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Prodea,	J. J. Reiss,	Louis Prados
Lucien Delery,	Charles Newman,	N. D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M. Gillis,
E. F. W. Bachman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig,	A. Rosenfield,	John D. Fiske,
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

See our Agents throughout the South. 6oct9 1y

The Great Church LIGHT.

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, N. Y.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE PICTORIAL COMPLETE STOCK-DOCTOR

Embracing Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Bees and Dogs. By Hon. J. Periam, Editor "Prairie Farmer" and Dr. A. H. Baker, V. S. Covers every subject pertaining to stock both in Health and Disease. Two Giants for Diseases of Horses and Cattle; 720 Engravings and 14 Colored Plates. Farmers clear $100 a month. AGT SECURES Exclusive Territory. For Confidential Terms, Testimonials and "Extracts from Agents' Reports," etc., address H. D. Thompson & Co., Pubs., St. Louis, Mo., or, New York. 30-4t

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For

And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS. Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our treatment are properly enforced. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. F. CHILDS, Dunn, [illegible]
feb7-1y

THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL AND COTTON CENTENNIAL

EXPOSITION
New Orleans.

Opening December 1, 1884. Closing May 31, 1885.

—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—

United States Government.

$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.

$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.

$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.

$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.

$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.

From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.

Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.

The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.

The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.

For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. I. & C. C. E.,
New Orleans, La.

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

HARTER'S THE ONLY TRUE IRON TONIC

Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia. Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST. Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co. St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK." Full of strange and useful information, free.

LADIES
may8-1y

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.
oct25 to nov27

4% LONG LOANS.

PRINCIPAL need never be REPAID

so long as interest is kept up. Personal security only for interest. Honest poor or men of moderate means can send 6 cents for particulars, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.
sept18-1y

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address TRUE & Co., Augusta, Me.
jan1

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

[illegible] leaves. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical [illegible] and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER. LESSON VII. Nov. 16. SOLOMON'S SIN. 1 Kings xi., 4-13.

It is not often that one who serves the Lord when young becomes a [illegible] in old age, yet this happens [illegible] enough to show that as long [illegible] live in this world of temptation [illegible] are in danger, and [illegible] continue to watch and [illegible] we would keep them in [illegible] eternal life. Solomon's [illegible] of disobedience in marrying [illegible] wives, contrary to the [illegible] of the Lord, led him into [illegible] of idolatry. He even built [illegible] of worship for the gods [illegible] those wives had worshiped [illegible] native countries, in sight [illegible] he had built for the [illegible] God in heaven. The doing [illegible] makes it more [illegible] that we will do a second, not [illegible] every time we yield [illegible] strength to resist [illegible], but is our con- [illegible] less tender. Then [illegible], as in the case of Solo- [illegible] itself brings us into [illegible] of those who are sin- [illegible] who try to take us with [illegible]

[illegible] especially [illegible] the Lord, who had ap- [illegible] twice, and had [illegible] his wisdom, power, and [illegible] all others of his time, [illegible] of all time. [illegible] a greater sin for him to [illegible] than for one [illegible] had not been so blessed. It [illegible] the Lord was angry [illegible] The fiercest anger is the [illegible] with sin, [illegible] in it, like [illegible]

[illegible] Moses [illegible] and [illegible] tive tree [illegible] to respect the peo- [illegible]

[illegible] any of it? [illegible] this? [illegible] fer to the [illegible] language of [illegible] itself [illegible] divine law re- [illegible]

[illegible] my hair [illegible] suppose that [illegible] to it [illegible] and [illegible] There [illegible] dye [illegible]

Marriages.

Rev. D. Shelby to Mrs. Rebecca Smith, at the residence of the bride's mother, four miles from Mansfield, Rev. Stephen Duncan, officiating.

Mr. Willis Cook and Miss Lieta Medlock, at the residence of the bride, in Horn Hill, Limestone county, Tenn., Oct. 23; Rev. J. Burrell officiating.

For the first time in the history of our church in St. Charles a marriage was celebrated between persons of the Roman Catholic faith. On the 20th of Oct. 1881, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mr. Joseph Comb was married to Miss Mary Brown, by Rev. George A. Payne. Quite a large audience, colored and white, witnessed the ceremony. Miss Polly Mitchell and Mr. Louis Harris acted as best lady and gentleman to the bride and groome.

In the M. E Church, Oct. 27, Mr. Alexander K. Davis and Miss Ida Jarrett, Rev. A. M. Trotter officiating.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Sept. 16, 1884, Mr. John Gray Webb and Miss Catherine Williams were united in holy matrimony by A. M. Trotter. Both are members of our church. Miss Catharine is also a student of Rust University.

On Thursday night, Oct. 22, 1884, in the M. E. Church, Mr. Wm. Henry Golden and Belle Ross, both of this place. Bro. Golden is a leading young man of our town, and was well favored in securing the hand of Miss Belle. Rev. A. M. Trotter, officiated.

Mr. Fillmore Smith and Miss Henrietta Stepney, October, 1884, by Rev. A. M. Trotter.

Some fashionable ladies are not satisfied with ready-made fans, but must have them made to order; they are, however, satisfied with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and take it regularly.

Obituary.

October 13, Emanual Edwards, a faithful member of Union Chapel, departed this life and leaves many to mourn his loss in Class No. 2. October 28, Benjamin Davis died in the faith. He has gone to meet his wife, who died a little over two months previous. He was a member of Class No. 11. STEPHEN PRIESTLEY.

Bro. Mason Claypool died at Dallas, Texas, Oct. 23, 1884. He was converted on his deathbed; he sent for me and was baptized. He said it was all right, and slept away in the arms of Jesus. He leaves a wife and 6 children as mourners. Little Robert, son of Bro. J. and Sister Teasly, died in Dallas, Texas, Oct 26, 1884. REV. C. YOUNG.

Miss Louisa Cartwright, one of the members of the Sunday-school of Clark Chapel, Nashville, Tenn., departed this life Oct. 23, 1884. Mr. King Boone died in Nashville, Oct. 27, 1884. He was a prominent citizen of this place.

A. PHILLIPS.

Hemorrhage and Asthma.

Extracts from letters of persons who were CURED with East India Hemp, and now order for their friends.

"I known all about the Cannabis Indica. Fifteen years ago it cured my daughter of the Asthma; she had it for several years, but was perfectly cured. Please send me a $9 box of your medicine."

JACOB TROTT,
Deep River, Poweshiek county, Iowa.

"I fear cousin is in a decline, and as the medicine cured my only brother of a Hemorrhage of the Lungs about a year ago, I wish cousin to take them."

Thy true friend, HANNAH MICKLE,
Near Woodbury, N. J.

None but pint bottles. $2.50 per bottle, or three bottles for $6.50. Address CRADDOCK & CO., Sole Proprietors, 1032 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Musical.

THE KNABE PIANO, which has such a wide popularity, is considered by many experts to be superior in every way to any piano in the world. The success of this Piano has only been attained by years of careful study, and the Knabe, with its excellent singing qualities, its great power, the elasticity of touch, and superior workmanship, is justly the favorite. Herr Faelten's piano solos at the recent Worcester festival, the Schumann's concerto, in A minor, op. 54, and Liszt's Rhapsodie No. 4, which were so highly praised, were both performed upon a Knabe Piano. Herr Faelten pronouncing it to be the best Piano he had ever seen.

NOTICE.

To all Subordinate Lodges working under the Fidelity Dual Grand Lodge of Mississippi Independent Order of Good Templars:

Notice is hereby given that the Fidelity Dual Grand Lodge I. O. G. T., will meet in the city of Forest on Wednesday, the 26th day of October, 1884, at 10 o'clock a. m. All subordinate lodges are entitled to a delegate for every twenty-five members in good standing.

All lodge deputies are requested to forward their capitation tax for quarter ending October 30, 1884, by their delegate to Grand Lodge. Brethren, take fresh courage and come up to the Grand Lodge with a determination to spread the cause of temperance through the entire State that the enemy of our homes may be banished from our land and country.

By order of
REV. D. A. WILLIAMS, G W C T
P W BALDWIN, G W S.

Adversity makes a man wise, not rich.

SANITARIUM, Ca [illegible] verside, the dry climate cures. Nose, Throat, Lungs, full idea. 36p, route cost free.

Mar. 27 26teow

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conference.	Place.	Time.	Bishop.
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	Wiley
South India	Hyderabad, India	Nov 20	Hurst
Texas	Navasota, Texas	Nov 20	Harris
Cent'l Alabama	Gadsden, Ala	Nov 26	Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov 27	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec 3	Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec 4	Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La	Dec 24	Harris

Spring Conferences of 1885.

Conferences.	Place.	Time.	Bishop
North India	Bareily, India	Jan. 8	Hurst
Mexico	Mexico City, Mex	" 15	Harris
Florida	Jacksonville, Fla	" 22	Ninde
South Carolina	Cheraw, S. C.	" 29	Ninde
Louisiana	Baton Rouge, La	" 29	Mallalieu
Liberia	Monrovia, Lib	" 29	Taylor
North Carolina	Lumberton, N. C.	Feb. 5	Ninde
Mississippi	Aberdeen, Miss	" 5	Mallalieu
Blue Ridge	Pigeon Valley, N. C	" 12	Ninde
South America	Buenos Ayres, Arg	" 12
Little Rock	Van Buren, Ark	" 19	Mallalieu
Virginia	Roanoke, Va	" 26	Foster
Arkansas	Rogers, Ark	" 26	Mallalieu
Baltimore	Baltimore, Md	Mar. 5	Foster
Washington	Washington, D. C	" 5	Merrill
Wilmington	Snow Hill, Md	" 12	Merrill
South Kansas	Independence, Kan	" 12	Andrews
C. Pennsylvania	Huntingdon, Pa	" 12	Foss
Kansas	Clay Center	" 12	Fowler
N. W. Kansas	Eldorado Kan	" 19	Andrews
New Jersey	N. Brunswick, N. J	" 19	Warren
Philadelphia	Chester, Pa	" 19	Foss
East German	Rochester N. Y.	" 19	Walden
Missouri	Macon City, Mo	" 19	Fowler
N. W. Kansas	Clyde, Kan	" 26	Andrews
Newark		" 26	Walden
Saint Louis	Lebanon, Mo	" 26	Fowler
Lexington	Springfield, Ohio	April 2	Wiley
New York East	Hartford, Conn	" 2	Merrill
New York	Poughkeepsie, N Y	" 2	Warren
Wyoming	Owego	" 9	Foster
N. New York	Ogdensburg, N. Y.	" 9	Warren
New England	Springfield, Mass.	" 9	Foss
Italy	Venice, Italy	" 9	Hurst
North Indiana	New Castle, Ind	" 9	Walden
N. E. southern	Rockville Conn	" 16	Harris
New Hampshire	Littleton, N. H	" 16	Foss
Troy	Saratoga, N. Y	" 23	Bowman
Maine	Biddeford, Me	" 23	Harris
Vermont	Bellows Falls, Vt	" 30	Bowman
East Maine	Ellsworth, Me	May 7	Bowman
Delaware	Salisbury, Md	" 7	Wiley
Sweden	Motala, Sweden	" 14	Hurst
Norway	Trondhjem, Nor.	" 28	Hurst
Denmark		June 11	Hurst
Ger. & Switz'd.	Stuttgart, Ger.	" 18	Hurst

By order of the Board of Bishops.
WILLIAM L. HARRIS, Secretary.
New York, Nov. 4, 1884.

Special Notice.

Delegates to the Centennial Conference to be held in Baltimore in December next, who have special arrangements for their entertainment, will greatly oblige the committee by sending notice thereof at once to L T WEDERMAN,
143 E Monument St, Baltimore, Md.

Ashville Dist—Central Alabama Conference.

I have written and made arrangements with the North & South Railroad between Mobile and Decatur for all delegates coming to the Central Alabama Conference at Gadsden, and also on the Alabama Great Southern, between Meridian and Birmingham. All delegates coming to the Central Alabama Conference will call for return tickets, good from Nov. 24 to Dec. 2. Respectfully,

O. NELSON.

West Texas Conf. Notice.

Dear Brethren—As it has fell to my lot to entertain you again in annual session, I feel it my duty to speak a few plain words to you concerning this anticipated and important meeting. (All of our sessions are important.) We are to meet on the 4th of December, to render our reports etc., in the eyes of a gazing public, who will watch with eagle eyes to find fault with you as ministers of the M. E. Church. Be valient, quit yourselves like men, etc. Six years ago you met in this city; the water was at low ebb. Now the tide is something higher. Students of the Paul Quinn Institute will no doubt meet you here, also teachers of the public schools of this city. The last conference held here by the A. M. E. Church, it is said, was one of much confusion. Brethren, let it not be the case in our session. I know I am but a child, and need that one teach me, but I appeal to you as fathers and brothers, let not this be the case with us. Of course I was not able to be with you in your last session, and He who knows the thoughts of all hearts can tell whether I will live to be with you in your next session or not. I hope you will remember when you are coming, and what is what! Many of you know whereof I speak. You shall be tried five days. Many things I could say, but a hint, a word to the wise is sufficient. I shall do all I can to arrange for your comfort. If I have done anything since I have been a member of this conference worthy of note ye yourselves are the judges, for you were the recipients of my labors in preparing for you. I hope to meet you, Brethren, at conference. My trials this year have been many; my grief inexpressible. This is probably my last year in Texas. Yours, in Christ,

JAMES R. CARNES.

Programme

Of the Argenta District, Little Rock Conference: We, the Committee appointed by the First District Conference held for Argenta District, Little Rock Conference, Van Buren, Ark., July 10, 1884, to draft a programme of literary exercises for the next district conference, to be held at Fort Smith, Ark., submit the following as subjects to be written upon and to be read in the conference:

The necessity of an educated ministry—Presiding Elder.
Repentance, and what it is—U S Kitchens
Conversion, and what it is—P Markns.
How to conduct a revival—G W Taylor.
Education, and how to obtain it—A L Richardson.
The Scriptural mode of baptism—A J Phillips.
The Lord's Supper, and why it should be continued in the church—R Boone.
How to succeed on a new work—F Wallace.
How to conduct prayer-meetings to make them profitable—W H Higgins.
What is implied in the word Temperance—J D Johnson.
The duty of a class-leader—H McDonald.
The duty of stewards—B McCain.
How to raise money for building churches—W H Crawford.
The qualification necessary for a Sunday-school teacher—S Marrs.
The sin of intemperance—J P Mack.
How preachers should depart themselves among the people—H Moore.
The duty of a local preacher—R Bean.
The qualifications a Sunday-school superintendent should have—I Scott.
How Christians should observe the Sabboth—S M Stokes.

All local preachers or exhorters whose names do not appear in the foregoing programme will please take notice that they are requested by the committee to write on some subject of their own selection and bring or send it to the district conference.

W H CRAWFORD,
F WALLACE,
S MARRS,
Committee.

Hot Springs District Conf.

Fourth Round.

Fulton Mission	Nov.	15-16
Texarkana Station	"	29-30
Louisville circuit	Dec.	6 7
Pa noli a cir	"	13-14
Washington cir	"	20-21
Hot Springs sta	"	27-28
Pine Bluff sta	Jan.	3 4

I will publish the others at another time. Dear Brethren, remember this is our great centennial jubilee year, and all should try to do something for the Lord. As we have not had our centennial jubilee district conference yet, I think it wise to take the 22d and 23d days of November to hold our centennial jubilee district conference at Hot Springs, at 10 o'clock a. m. Preachers and exhorters will please turn out and let us make a grand rally, as we will never have the chance again. Let each brother go to work at once and try to get each member and friend of our Methodism to give one dollar or as much as they will give, and bring it to the district conference. Doing this will enable us to make a good report. Try it, and the Lord will help us to get our salary the remainder of the year. Let no Brother cry out "hard times." David said he "never saw the righteous forsaken, or their seed begging bread." May God help us to do the work assigned us, each with an honest heart, for it is the only way to true success. I am your co-laborer and brother in the fruition and kingdom of Christ

G B DONNELLY
P. E. Hot Springs District.

Philadelphia District,

I H White, P E, 1773 Alder St., Phila Pa

Merchantsville	Nov.	15 16
Camden, Scott's	"	16-17
Germantown	"	23-24
Frankfort	"	23 25
Port Deposit	"	29-30
Wilmington	Nov 30,	Dec. 1
Zoar	"	7- 8
Chester	"	7- 9
Wilmington cir	"	13-14
Newark, N J	"	14-15

Full reports this quarter will be a great advantage to the church; will explain to you at the preacher's meeting, where I hope to meet the pastors, D. V. One charge has complied with my letter to pastors and officials, in full collections up to date. May others do likewise, which will be right. I H WHITE, P E.

Dover District.

Geo H Washington, P E.; Thurlow, Pa

Second Quarter.

Vienna	Nov.	15-16
Church Creek	"	22 23
Cambridge	"	23-24
Madison	"	29 30

Now, Brethren, we hope to have a faithful performance of all duties pertaining to this quarter, and let us do our best, that the Lord may bless our efforts.

G H WASHINGTON, P E.

Easton District.

L Y Cox, P E., Box 242, Milford, Del.

Easton	Nov.	15-16
Talbot	"	15-16
Trappe	"	22 23

All the members of the quarterly conference will please meet promptly with accurate reports. L Y COX, P E.

Salisbury District.

W H Coffey, P E, Salisbury, Md.

Quantico	Nov.	15-16
Salisbury Station	"	23-24
Salisbury Circuit	"	29-30

Dear Brethren—We have laid a good foundation and let us build accordingly. Leave not a stone unturned. Have your reports full and correct. Fairmount stood at the head of the list in benevolent collections ($56) last year—who will be first this year? Do not be satisfied to be last, there is no need for it. Do not forget the papers. Show yourselves to be good workmen for God's cause. Push the battle to the gates. Re-read my letter to the pastors. I congratulate you on your success so far, and may God bless you abundantly. Every hour, day, week and month calls for work. W H COFFEY, P E.

Notice.

A centenary meeting, will be held in Starksville, Miss., Dec. 12, 13 and 14, 1884.

On the 12th, the origin of Methodism and its progress under Rev. John Wesley—Rev. I L Pratt.

On the 13th, at 11 a. m., the beginning of Methodism in America, and its first Bishop and Conference—L F White.

At 3 p. m, Methodist preachers during the various wars, and especially during the rebellion—Rev B H S Ferguson.

At 7:30 p. m., The religion of the Methodist Church, and what she believes concerning the true religion—Rev. P Jamieson

Sunday service, at 11 a. m., The beginning of the three Methodist churches, the A M E Church, the M E Church and M E Church South—Rev D A Williams.

At 3 p. m., The Church after emancipation coming South—L L Shumbori.

At night, Why we baptize children—the pastor

I B GRIFFIN.

Chattanooga Dist.—East Tennessee District.

First Round.

Robertsville	Nov.	1- 2
Kingston	"	8- 9
Chattanooga	"	15-16
Jasper	"	22-23
Washington	"	29-30
Chattanooga Station	Dec.	6- 7
Soddy	"	13-14
Cleveland	"	20-21
Sweetwater	Jan.	3- 4
Ebenezer	"	10-11
Riceville	"	17-18
Big Spring	"	24-25
Georgetown	Jan. 31,	Feb. 1

The district conference will convene Nov. 27th, at 9 o'clock a. m., in Dayton, Tenn. The pastors will please come prepared to stay until Monday. Also notify the district stewards to be present in the discharge of their duty.

E. PROVINE, P. E.
Kingston, Tenn, Oct. 28, 1884.

La Fourche District—Louisiana Conference.

Whitehall	Nov.	8
Bayou Gonla	"	13
Donaldsonville	"	15
Darrowville	"	16
Napoleonville	"	20
Woodlawn	"	23
Thibodaux	"	28
Terrebonne	"	30
Houma	Dec.	5
Dulac	"	7
Morgan City	"	11
Bayou Sale	"	13
Centerville	"	14
Franklin	"	17
LaTeche	"	20
St. Charles and St. John	"	25

EMPEROR WILLIAMS, P. E.

Baptising.

The Rev John H. Smith will have a public baptising on the third Sunday in November, at 10 o'clock, in Sidell, La. New Orleans people can come by the Northeastern Railroad. Fare, round trip, 80 cents.

Murfreesboro District—Tennessee Conference.

First Round.

Lebanon	Nov.	1- 2
North Lebanon circuit	"	1- 2
Alexandria	"	8- 9
Cana Fork	"	15 16
Martin Creek	"	22-23
Liberty	"	29-30
Cooksville	Dec.	6- 7
Sparta	"	13-14
Shelbyville	"	20-21
Petersburg	"	27-28
Tullahoma	Jan.	3- 4
Hillsboro	"	3- 4
Spencer	"	10-11
Murfreesboro circuit	"	10-11
Murfreesboro station	"	17 18
Stone River	"	17-18
Woodbury	"	20-21
McMinnville	"	25 27
McMinnville circuit	"	25 28

Dear brethren, push your work ahead. District conference will be held Dec. 18, 1884, at Shelbyville, Tenn. Take notice of the time and come on the 18th at 11 a m, and bring your Sunday-school superintendents, district stewards and brethren with you. McMinnville Tenn., is my post office. Yours,

C H BULLINGTON, P. E.

Nashville Dist. Tennessee Conf.

First Round.

Franklin	Nov.	1- 2
Springhill	"	9-10
Lunisburg	"	15-16
Poplar Ridge	"	15 16
Nolensville	"	22 23
Brentwood	"	29-30
Gallatin	Dec.	6- 7
Gallatin circuit	"	13-14
Harrisville	"	20 21
Mitchellville	"	27-28
Springfield	Jan.	3 4
Dickson	"	10 11
White Bluff	"	10-11
Cumberland	"	17 18
Dover	"	24-25
Braden	Jan 31,	Feb. 1
Clark Chapel	" 31	" 1
Selv Chapel	"	7- 8
Nashville, City Mission	"	7- 8

JAMES PICKETT, P. E.

Starkville Circuit.

There will be a centennial meeting held at Zion Franklin M. E. Church, near the old pike, on Nov. 29th and 30th, 1884. Programme—On Saturday, 29th at 10 a. m., sermon by I B Griffin; alternate, J M Lamkin. On Sunday-school, J M Franklin. On Freedmen's Aid Society, W E Logan. On Missions, E S Rice. On tobacco, B M Mason. On Church Extension, G W Bardwell. Sunday, 30th, at 11 a. m., sermon by D W Calvert; alternate, B H S Ferguson. 2:30 p. m., J Burton; 7:30 p. m., pastor.

L F WHITE.

Okolona District Conference.

The Okolona District Conference will convene in West Point, Miss., Dec. 18, 1884.

PROGRAMME.

To preach the opening sermon, P Jamison; alternate, G Brooks
Infant baptism—L F White.
The right to excommunicate members—D W Calvert.
Missionary Society and its work—G Carr.
The most successful way to travel a circuit—R Snell.
The most effective way of conducting revivals—A Boyd.
The true import of the word religion—Wesley Jones.
Freedmen's Aid Society—I B Griffin.
Church Extension Society—I L Pratt.
Good of camp meetings—J Trice.
Sunday school Union—J J Harris.
How to organize Sunday-schools into Missionary societies—L L Shumpert.
On Christian perfection—A W Wright.
The good of newspapers—T W Davis
Falling from grace—J W Davis.
The good of class meetings—J M Lamkin
Whiskey and its evils—Miles Prewlor.
The need of a district school—L G F Murry.
How long should a minister stay away from a charge after having been removed by a Bishop—G Brooks.
Love feast—Wm Gatewood.
Mode of baptism—I B Griffin.

D A WILLIAMS, P. E.

West Tennessee District—Tennessee Conference.

First Round.

Brownsville	Nov.	5- 6
Bells	"	8 9
Friendship	"	15 16
Dyer	"	17-18
Lawrenceburg	"	22 23
Waynesboro	"	29 30
Clifton	Dec.	2 3
Liudon	"	6- 7
Carksburg	"	10-11
Henderson	"	13-14
Martin	"	20-21
Paris	"	27-28
Mansfield	Jan.	1- 2
Pordy	"	7- 8

Will the pastors please see that each committee on the various benevolent causes are present with written reports? Our first district conference will meet at Martin Station, Tenn., on Wednesday, December 17, at 7½ o'clock p. m. The district stewards will meet me on Friday, the 19th, promptly.

JESSE P. PRICE, P. E.

Programme

Of the Okolona District Centennial meeting to be held at West Point, Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 20 and 21, beginning 10:30 a. m.

Class-meetings; and how they are to be conducted—Wm Gatewood.
Is the pastor responsible for all the collections to be raised for the benevolent causes or should he leave it to a committee—Wesley Jones.
Is an educated ministry needed—G Shannon.
Are the periodicals of our church a blessing to the members and leaders, and, if so, is it not right for us to support them—Isaac Mosley.
Sunday-schools and the way they should be conducted—L F G Murray.
The organization of the M. E. Church in America—Jas Trice.
The Church Extension Society—G Carr.
The Sunday-school Union—R Snell.
The Freedmen's Aid Society—G Brooks.
The Missionary Society and its work—L F White.
Temperance as it is set forth in our Discipline—T W Davis.

The Sunday-school will have a centennial concert at 9 a. m Sunday, conducted by the school. A love feast at 11 a m; the sacrament at 3 p m, by the presiding elder, and centennial meeting by D W Calvert and others, at 7:30 p m.

Notice—The Committees on the examination of local preachers in each of the four years of the course of study, and candidates for license to preach, and orders and admission will meet at 10 a m, Dec. 18. All persons interested must be in time, as that is the only meeting of the committee. Dear brethren, do not forget the Rust University. The doors are open to all. Tell the people about it, and take up a good collection for it. We shall wait to hear your report at the District conference. Yours, truly,

D. A. WILLIAMS, P. E.

Programme

The following is the programme of the Gulf District, Mississippi Conference:

Education—N Cannon.
Missions—J H Cook.
Eternal punishment of man—Jas Ford.
Sunday-school Union—R Roundtree.
Circulation of books, and what kind should be used among our people—H May
The first twelve articles of religion—J K Comfort.
The difference between the M. E Church and other Methodist churches—H L Kennedy.
Power of prayer—Jas Drayden.
Freedmen's Aid Society—J B Smith.
Necessity of union among ourselves—S H Nevils.
Duty of leaders and stewards—W A Dawson.
How revivals should be conducted—H Henderson.
Call to the ministry—E Harris
On church building—F Garlen.
Observance of the Sabbath—W H Mims.

J B SMITH,
J H COOK,
R ROUNDTREE,
Committee.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6.50. Circulars free sel8 13t

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment,"

"Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.

nov13-1yeow

Cuticura

A POSITIVE CURE for every form of SKIN & BLOOD DISEASE, from PIMPLES to SCROFULA

ITCHING, Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous, Inherited, Contagious, and Copper Colored Diseases of the Blood Skin and Scalp, with loss of Hair, are positively cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements and removes the cause.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair.

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite, prepared from CUTICURA, is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 25 cents; Resolvent, $1. Prepared by POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL Co., BOSTON, MASS.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."

BARNES'

Patent Foot and Steam Power Machinery. Complete outfits for Actual Workshop Business, Lathes for Wood or Metal, Circular Saws, Scroll Saws, Formers, Mortisers, Tenoners, etc., etc. Machines on trial if desired. Descriptive Catalogue and Price List Free.

No. 187 Ruby St. W. F. & JOHN BARNES, Rockford, Ill.

nov13-6m

MASON & HAMLIN

Exhibited at ALL the important WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL COMPETITIVE EXHIBITIONS FOR SEVENTEEN YEARS, Mason & Hamlin Organs have, after most rigid examinations and comparisons, been ALWAYS FOUND BEST, and AWARDED HIGHEST HONORS; not even in one such important comparison has any other American Organ been found equal to them. Our

ORGANS

HUNDRED STYLES, adapted to all uses, from the smallest size, yet having the characteristic Mason & Hamlin excellence, at $22, to the best instrument which it is possible to construct from reeds, at $900 or more. Illustrated catalogues, 40 pp. 4to, and price lists, free.

The Mason & Hamlin Company manufacture UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, adding to all the improvements which have been found valuable in such instruments, one of peculiar practical value, tending to greatest purity and refinement in quality of tone and durability, especially diminished liability to get out of tune. Pronounced the greatest improvement made in upright pianos for half a century. The MASON & HAMLIN CO. pledge themselves that every piano of their make shall illustrate that VERY HIGHEST EXCELLENCE which has always characterized their organs. Send for circular with illustrations, full description and explanation.

PIANOS

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO CO.,
BOSTON, 154 Tremont St. CHICAGO, 149 Wabash Ave.
NEW YORK, 46 East 14th St. (Union Square.)

nov13 26t

Send for Price List and Circular!

AUTOMATIC

"NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.
NOISELESS—LIGHTEST RUNNING.
Most Beautiful and Durable Work.
AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.
Willcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.

nov6 16t eow

AGENTS make over 100 per cent. selling new CORRUGATED Reflecting Safety Lamp which can be sold in every family. Gives more light than three ordinary lamps. Complete lamp sent for 50 cts. in stamps. Our Perfect Coffee Pot beats all others. Circulars sent free.

FORSEE & McMAKIN, Cincinnati, O.

oct30 4teow

GOOD NEWS TO LADIES!

Greatest inducements ever offered. Now's your time to get up orders for our celebrated Teas and Coffees, and secure a beautiful Gold Band or Moss Rose China Tea Set, or Handsome Decorated Gold Band Moss Rose Dinner Set, or Gold Band Moss Decorated Toilet Set. For full particulars address

THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA CO.
P. O. Box 289. 31 and 33 Vesey St., New York

oct23-13t

SOUTHWESTERN

Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 47. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, NOVEMBER 20, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 786.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; Four Months, 50; to Pastors, $1.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

Travelling Preachers of the Methodist Episco[pal Church] are authorized Agents.

[Subscriptions] may begin at any time and the [paper] will be sent as long as paid for.

[Remittances] must be made by Registered Letter, Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

[All] matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES.

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

[1 time]..... 8 cents.

[2 times]..... 7 "

[13 times]..... 6 "

[26 times]..... 5 "

[52 times]..... 4 "

Notices..... 15 "

Obituaries..... 8 cents, net cash.

Editorial Notes.

[The] God of harmony and peace an[d] love,
[An]other trembling shepherd boy
[Ne]ed
[Th]y aid to the evil spirit to remove,
[An]d chase the clouds of anger from the [sk]y;
[Th]e softest whisper might avow
[Th]y presence in the former day,
[Ev]en still as all voice of harp-strings
[be]
[Sw]eet the footsteps of thy majesty!
[Ea]rthquake, fire and storm speed
[Be]fore thy path away."

The "battle of the ballots" is [over], now "let us have peace."

The hoary head is a crown of glory [if] found in the way of righteous[ness].

Chasten thy son while there is [hope], but let not thy soul spare for [his] crying.

Ointments are prepared for [sores], and stripes for the backs [of fools].

Children's children are the crown [of old men]; the glory of children [are] their fathers.

[Who] hath joy by the answer [of] his mouth; and a word spoken in [due season], how good it is."

How much better it is to get [wisdom] than gold, and to get [understanding] rather to be chosen [than] silver.

SOUTHWESTERN has in [two] months reached a moral and [influence] not before reached [by any] paper edited by a colored [man]. L. N. Taylor.

Moses Adams, writes to cor[rect] a blunder he made last week. [The] Mississippi Con[ference] was organized January [1]. Whereas, he said it was [in] [De]cember.

[Knowledge] spareth [words], and a man of an ex[cellent] spirit, when [he] understandeth [it].

The General Missionary Committee.

The General Missionary Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church met at 805 Broadway, New York, at 2 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, November 6th. Bishop Bowman presided, and religious services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Trimble, D. D. Rev. James N. Fitzgerald, D. D., was elected secretary, and John M. Phillips, Esq., was elected financial secretary. The bishops were all present except Bishop Wiley, who is in China, and Bishop Hurst, who is in India. The secretaries, Drs. Reid and McCabe, were both present, as were also nearly all members of the committee. The committee is composed of the bishops, secretaries, treasurers, and the following representatives of districts: I, W. P. Morrison; II, A. Craig; III, I S Bingham; IV, J H McGarrah; V, J M Trimble; VI, J A Price; VII, J W Gue; VIII, R M Hatfield; IX, H H O'Neil; X, T B Ford; XI, A B Rice; XII, J A Reitz; XIII, J H Wilbor.

The representatives of the board of managers in the committee are designated from year to year. These are for this year: Ministers—J F Goucher, D Curry, M D'C Crawford, A L Brice, J M Buckley, J Miley, C S Rogers; Laymen—J B Cornell, J H Taft, Alden Speare, O B Fisk, Oliver Hoyt, E B Tuttle.

The committees were appointed, and the treasurer made his report, which we will publish hereafter. This report showed for the first time in five years a decrease in the aggregate receipts of the society. The conference collections are a little in advance of last year, but receipts for legacies and sundries are less than for many years, so that there is a decrease in the aggregate receipts.

Bishop Harris moved that appropriations for the next year be made on the basis of $775,000. A motion by Dr. Miley to substitute $750,0000 was lost, and Bishop Harris's motion was adopted.

At this point Bishop Foss called attention to the death of the president of the Missionary Society, and Bishop Bowman was requested to prepare a minute in reference to the sad event.

AFRICA—LIBERIA.

Dr. Reid presented the recommendation that $4,000 be appropriated to the Liberia Conference. He read from the minutes of the conference facts which indicated that the year had been marked in this mission by more than average prosperity. Amanda Smith had been very useful in this field, and the conference had formerly approved her work. He said a large number of preachers in Liberia locate, and so we have there a secular ministry. There are 80,000 heathens within the proper bounds of the conference, and he thought we ought to have a number of transfers to that field. He was glad Bishop Taylor was going to Liberia, as it would greatly aid the secretaries in their administration.

Bishop Taylor said he knew nothing about Liberia, not having been there as yet, and hence he had asked Dr. Reid to make up the [estimates] for Liberia as usual. He approved the appropriation of [$4,000] asked for.

Dr. Curry said the want of Li[beria] for 50 years past has been a [school] for ministers, and [there] is much in that [idea] of evangelization goes out from the Liberia Conference. White men cannot live there, but colored men can go from here and live to an old age in that country. He favored the transfer of some good colored man from this country to take charge of a school at Monrovia. We have large properties in the Liberia Conference, which should be put in good order and used. The appropriation of $4,000 was put at the disposal of the board for Liberia.

INTERIOR AFRICA.

Bishop Merrill moved that Interior Africa be put upon the list of regular missions. He thought Africa must be put upon the list in order to carry out the aim of the General Conference, and make it possible to administer the mission work in that country. Dr. Miley thought Bishop Merrill's argument unanswerable. Dr. asked to whom is Bishop Taylor responsible, and held that he is responsible to the Liberia Conference.

Bishop Taylor asked whether the General Conference or the General Missionary Committee has power to organize new missions. Bishop Merrill answered that it is the function of the General Missionary Committee. Bishop Harris said that by the constitution of the Missionary Society the General Missionary Committee has this power, but as the power is given by the General Conference, it can be withdrawn by the same body. If the General Conference did, by electing Bishop Taylor, virtually constitute a new mission in Africa, it had power to do so. Dr. Reid said the General Conference cannot elect a bishop to a limited jurisdiction, except in the case of foreign missions. The General Conference did elect William Taylor, under the Discipline, to be bishop of Africa, and hence he inferred that Liberia must be understood as covering Africa. Bishop Taylor has jurisdiction throughout Africa, but the core of it is the Liberia Conference. Bishop Walden held that William Taylor was elected a missionary bishop for Africa, and the General Conference did constitute Africa a mission before it elected Bishop Taylor. Bishop Andrews thought they were discussing questions of law which it was not necessary to consider. Bishop Taylor said we were considering large matters, Africa is "considerable of a place." He had a right to preside over the Liberia Conference. He can preside in Africa without joining a conference. The other bishops cannot preside in Africa except by his (Taylor's) courtesy and consent. He believes in Methodism. He has two methods of propagation: one by the original method of self-support, and the other by missionary societies, etc. He wishes to try both methods in Africa. There are millions who are too poor to pay for the Gospel. The Church must give money to carry the Gospel to these people. There is the largest field for liberality. Let the Church give more freely than ever. But where we can tap sources of self-support we ought to do it. Bishop Taylor claimed that he had full power to establish Methodist Episcopal Churches anywhere. The Missionary Society has jurisdiction where it appropriates funds. In other fields entanglements are to be avoided. He asked for not one dollar for the self-supporting work. All he desired was "hands off." He meant no disrespect, but he wished to try his principle without any interference. The General Conference had given him the right to do so, and he meant to use his right.

BISHOP TAYLOR'S JURISDICTION AND SUPPORT.

Dr. Buckley said the General Conference did not make Wm. Taylor Bishop of Liberia. He did not agree that the other bishops cannot under any circumstances go to Africa to preside over conferences, but Bishop Taylor is bishop in that country. If the committee makes an appropriation to the interior of Africa, this money must be administered as such funds have been heretofore. As to the self-supporting work, this committee has nothing to do with it. He thought there should be an available appropriation to help the missionaries in the self supporting work, in case anything shou'd happen to Bishop Taylor, and the missionaries should find themselves embarrassed.

Bishop Merrill said no self-supporting church has ever been organized among heathen people upon the principles stated by Bishop Taylor. He referred to India and South America in connection with this remark. No church has been established among natives in South America or India on this plan. There is no probability of success in it. Bishop Taylor's plan to take men, women and children into Africa upon this mission is a wild experiment. He wished the Church to put her hand under these people who have been induced to enter upon this doubtful experiment. We must not come down to the level of heathen people. We cannot raise them to a higher level by descending to their own.

Dr. Hatfield said Bishop Taylor does not disparage the general missionary work of the Church. The General Conference understood what it was doing when it elected William Taylor. The speaker wanted the Bishop's plan to have a chance. He had not faith enough himself to undertake it, but Bishop Taylor has, and perhaps God will honor a man of uncommon faith.

Bishop Bowman said he had never met a case in which converts had made their profession of faith a mercenary matter. He had not as much faith in Bishop Taylor's plan as Taylor himself has. We may sometimes have too much faith. The Church is blessed by her own benevolence. The self supporting method is not the only method, and Bishop Taylor does not say that it is.

Dr. Curry made some extended remarks, and explained his views of the powers of Bishop Taylor. He is no more a general superintendent in the sense the other bishops are, than the speaker himself. For his moral conduct he is responsible to the Liberia Conference. He is a "missionary superintendent with Episcopal powers."

Bishop Foss gave an account of the ordination of Bishop Taylor's son, who, with his wife and two children, is going to Africa with his father. Bishop Foss said there is a decay of the heroic missionary spirit, and he thought perhaps Bishop Taylor had been raised up to rekindle the old fire. He wished to do in the matter just what Bishop Taylor desired, and so give this heroic man a chance to carry out his plans.

Dr. Crawford favored allowing Bishop Taylor to have his own way as to the matters now under consideration. His ideas seem strange, but they may be God's ideas, and it will be well to let them have an open way. Bishop Andrews agreed substantially with what Bishop Foss and Dr. Crawford had just said, but he thought for purposes of administration it would be well, with Bishop Taylor's consent, to have the interior of Africa put up on the list of missions. Bishop Taylor in reply made a speech in a heroic spirit, and asked that no appropriation be made. "Though I die on the way the thing will be done."

AN ERRONEOUS PRINCIPLE.

Bishop Foster now felt called upon to speak. He said it is now proposed to settle the principle that the work of saving Africa is to be committed to Wm. Taylor; that this board shall not make any appropriations because Wm. Taylor objects to it. The Church cannot do this. Its responsibility cannot be transferred to Wm. Taylor. The Church has a work to do there which cannot be turned over to any one else.

Bishop Taylor said he did not take the position which was ascribed to him. Dr. Buckley offered an amendment to the effect that the money to be appropriated be used only for missions established by this committee. He gave up all idea of having any appropriation made for Bishop Taylor's work, as it would embarrass him in it.

Bishop Merrill agreed with Dr. Buckley that Bishop Taylor's ideas have much sympathy in the church, but that sympathy has been evoked by false information; not intentionally so, but so in effect. The movement is a declaration of independence of the Liberia Conference, and of the church at home. He was opposed to letting these laborers go out into Central Africa without an appropriation that may be used if needed. He had not much faith in the self-supporting plan among heathen people, though he thought Bishop Taylor entirely sincere in his proposal to go upon this plan. Bishop Walden offered a resolution to the effect that the appropriation to be made is not designed to be used for the assistance of the self-supporting churches which may be organized by Bishop Taylor.

Bishop Fowler said that the church is inclined to favor the work of Bishop Taylor, and harm will come if we oppose it. He also believed that the prevalence of the idea of self-support is to some extent hindering the work of the missionary society. But he was in favor of letting the idea have its way, and thus demonstrate whether it is a true theory or a false one. He was opposed to both amendments and to the original resolution. Bishop Harris opposed both resolution and amendments, and moved to lay all of them upon the table, and his motion prevailed.

CHINA.

After some discussion the appropriations asked by the committee for Foo Chow and Central China were approved. It was moved that $20,292 be appropriated to North China. Dr. Curry called attention to the fact that there must be a reduction at some point, or the aggregate of appropriations will be in excess of the $775,000 agreed upon by the committee. Bishop Fowler moved to appropriate to North China $21,000, the increase to be at the disposal of the board. Dr. Hatfield said he happened to know that the salaries paid in the mision are so small that the most rigid economy is necessary to enable our missionaries to live. It was ordered that in voting on different sums asked for the several missions the vote be first taken on the highest sum named. Dr. Morrison asked where the reductions are to be made. Dr. Reid explained how the secretaries and sub committees of the board had been over the ground, and had made recommendations upon the basis of the fullest knowledge they possess. He said that reduction beyond a certain point would necessitate the reduction of the number of laborers in the field. Dr. Cranston emphasized the importance of keeping the home work in mind while making appropriations for the foreign fields. Several persons insisted on keeping below the appropriations of last year. Bishop Merrill thought the reduction as to North China is already as great as that mission can endure. Bishop Walden explained that the sum asked this year for foreign missions is about $12,000 less than for last year. Dr. Fowler said that the salaries of missionaries in North China should be increased a little to enable them to live more comfortably. Two more missionaries are to go into that field. The sum appropriated was $20,292.

An appropriation of $13,357.80 was asked for West China. Dr. Reid explained the needs of the field. He said the war in China has not greatly disturbed our work. The missionary families had been sent away from Foo Chow, but the men remained on the field. Dr. Curry asked for information, and Dr. Reid said that no mission ever opened by us in China has been so fruitful in such a short time. Dr. Buckley thought the appropriation for a hospital lot in West China should be put at the disposal of the board, and not be appropriated absolutely. Dr. Fowler said if we have ever been providentially called to any field, we have been so called into West China. He did not believe the Methodist Episcopal Church is at the limit of its ability in giving. Gen. Fisk echoed this sentiment and insisted that the church will give all we ask. Dr. Hatfield said the board is inclined to over-caution, and he thought it would be wholly safe to put the sum for the purchase of a lot at the disposal of the board. The appropriation asked for was made.

DENMARK.

Dr. McCabe presented the report asking for $10,327 for Denmark, and urged that the sum be granted, which Bishop Harris also favored, and without much discussion $10,000 were appropriated.

GERMANY.

Dr. McCabe presented the report of the sub committees, asking for an appropriation of $25,000 for this work. Drs. Trimble and Curry thought the appropriation should be less, and Dr. Curry gave his reasons for his opinion. He said that as converts multiply in Germany increased appropriations are asked for every year. He wanted it understood that one man in the church thinks there should be a new order of distribution of missionary funds. Rev. C. Blinn said he thought Dr. Curry was not informed as to Methodism in Germany, which numbers 13,000 members. The King of Bavaria has now given liberty to our people to worship as they please. The helpers who are unmarried get $120 a year; married men get $207 a year; a married man on probation gets $260 per year, and married men in conference $312 per year. A man with a wife and four children gets $600 per year and a house, which is not a large sum. German Methodism last year gave more than $1,000 for missions, and made large contributions to other church interests. The large German army must be maintained, and some who would support the church are forced into the army. German Methodists are poor. We ought to remember these things.

(Continued Next Week.)

From the Districts.

[For the SOUTHWESTERN.
Centennial Celebration of Methodism.
Jackson District—Vicksburg, Miss.

Friduday, First Day, 11 a. m.—Devotional exercises conducted by Elder Shumpert, 55 Isaiah, 2nd hymn, prayer. S. W. Lewis elected Secretary. Present: J. M. Shumpert, presiding elder; Revs. A. Davis, J W Parks, J I Garrett, C P Head, [illegible] McAlpine, —— McBeth, S Jones, and Bros. Henry Garrett, A B Anderson, E P Grigger, A H Holland, Levi Walker, J Platt, A Cannidal, W M Smith, Samuel Swells, Geo Hall, Robt Brown, Nathan Oliver, S W Lewis. Time for holding sessions were fixed at 10 to 12:30, 3 to 4:30, 7:30 to 10 o'clock, daily. Committee on Resolutions ordered appointed by the chair. Order of exercises adopted as published programme in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Afternoon Session—Devotional exercises, Rev. McAlpine, 6 Matt.; hymn 466. J W Parks, J I Garrett, A Davis, C P Head and S W Lewis committee on resolutions. Topic: The Freedmen's Aid Society, Rev J W Parks. Rev. Mr. Harris, of the Presbyterian Church, by invitation, addressed the meeting.

Night Session—Devotional exercises: 90th Psalm, 720th Hymn; Rev. J I Garrett. Topic: The Organization of the M. E. Church, Elder J M Shumpert.

Saturday, Second Day; Morning Session—Devotional exercises, 5 Matt., 23rd Hymn, Rev Samuel Willis. Topic: The worth of Asbury, Rev. A Davis. The emancipation of the slave and his progress, Rev. J I Garrett.

Afternoon Session—Devotional exercises, Rev. J W Parks. Rev. [illegible] Carolina, of the A M E Church, by invitation addressed to the meeting. Topic: Rust University, Rev C P Head.

Night Session—Devotional exercises by Rev. McBeth. Topic: The work of the late General Conference, S W Lewis. Assignments for service on the Lord's Day: Conducting Sunday-school, S W Lewis; morning service, Rev. McBeth; afternoon service, Rev. J I Garrett; evening service, Rev. J W Parks. The Committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

Whereas, In this the closing year of the Centennial existence of Methodism in America, we recogoize its widespread and universal character manifested in this, the first one hundredth year of its existence; and

Whereas, The early fathers in establishing Methodism have made [illegible] under the Providence of God, [illegible] effective agency for disseminating the Gospel and the [illegible] instrumentality for the salvation of the souls of men. Therefore,

Resolved, That we, the delegates to this Centennial Meeting, offer to Almighty God, from whom all blessings flow, the gratitude of our hearts for His goodness, and, in consequence of the same, to make these acknowledgments of His mercy and Divine favor on our efforts to perpetuate and hand down to our posterity the blessings transmitted to us by the example of piety, zeal and [illegible] labor in the cause of our Divine Master.

Resolved, That we ask the M. E. Church, South, in the United States of America for the centennial gift of one thousand dollars for building a new church in the city of Vicksburg.

Resolved, That we ask the brethren of the Jackson district to aid in this same enterprise, and state that one hundred dollars is now in the hands of the trustees for the same.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are due to the citizens of Vicksburg for the generous hospitality displayed during our stay among them.

Resolved, That the SOUTHWESTERN be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting, and that we furnish it with a copy.

J M Shumpert, J W Parks, J I Garrett, A Davis, C P Head, S W Lewis.

Third Day—Sunday-school conducted by S W Lewis and Miss Miller. The [illegible] by the brethren at night was characterized by [illegible] and enthusiasm. The [illegible] with power and effect. Collection for the new church, $28.33. S. W. LEWIS, Sec'y.

Vicksburg, Oct. 27, 1884.

Waco District, W. J. Michell, writes: "The district conference, of the Waco District, of the West Texas conference, convened in St. James Chapel, Bremond, Texas, September 10th, 1884. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. C. Young. The first day the conference was organized with Rev. S. Gates, presiding elder in the chair. The writer was elected secretary. The regular committee was appointed, and the business of conference was carried on with accurracy. In making out the roll all the pastors were present except four. Rev. S. Gates, presiding elder, read his report and stated the condition of the district as being in a better state than it has for four years, spiritually but not financially, and his report shows that he had to travel night and day to meet the demand of the Church; neverless counting not his life dear unto himself, he rejoiced that God had given him the strength to accomplish his work. The pastors reported the conditions of their various charges, and each report showed that they had a grand gathering of souls for the Lord. Some reported as high as 40 souls converted to God. In this district the brethren are trying to raise the standard of Methodism. The brethren have paided some of their benevolent collections. The report of local preachers show that they have been at work; and the recommendation of the pastors show that they are worthy of being locals, and a great help to the pastors in their charge. Reports of the district steward show that the temporal condition of the general charge they represent are in a prospering condition, and have raised a great deal money, for building and for the support of their general pastors. The Church periodicals were not forgotten. The local and exhorters were looked after, both as to their gift and usefulness. All the local preachers passed a splendid examination. Charges were made against one local preacher, and he was found guilty and deprived of his license. It is required of local preachers, as a condition to a renewal of license that they bring up their studies, Discipline, and take the official Church paper, John Bigham and Jarril Steward were licensed to preach on condition that they would stop using tobacco. Gus Pinkard and D. C. Lacy were recommended for admission on trial, in the traveling connection, and for ordination. The appointment of local preachers was left to the pastors.

Sunday-school convention was held in connection with the conference, by Prof. G. O. Richardson, and the lessons each day were well discussed. "Temperance, model of Sunday-school teaching," the lecture which Prof. G. O. Richardson gave during the conference and the Sunday-school convention will long be remembered. On Sunday our beloved presiding elder, S. Gates could not be with us, on account of being confined to his bed. Rev. W. J. Mitchell preached at 11 a. m., and administered the Lord's supper to 125. The Holy Spirit was felt by everyone present. The presiding elder is closing up his fourth year's work on the district and the ministers of his district therefore prepare a statement of the affectionate esteem in which he is held, which is on record, signed by, Rev. W. J. Mitchell, J. A. Hall, B. J. Henry, Albert Brown, B. Goff, D. Hunhries, P. O. Lacy, A. Jackson. It was a pleasant conference, the work was effectual, and we believe the result will be permanently good.

Daderille District Central Alabama Conference.

Rev. G. W. Mann, writes: "Our district conference which convened on the 8th of Oct., 1884, in the M. E. Church, in the town of LaFayette, Alabama, was opened at 9, a. m., by the presiding elder, who read second chapter of Roman and Rev. G. W. Mann read the 91st Psalm, followed singing hymn, 587. W. F. Smith led in prayers. The roll was called by G. W. Mann the recording secretary of the district conference, and the members present answered to their names. G. W. Mann was elected Secretary, and P. E. Louis Assistant Secretary. The presiding elder made some appropriate remarks and announced the conference opened and ready for business. The routine business of the conference was taken up in due form; all pastors present except one, and he was reported sick. All the pastors reported encouraging prospects in their charges; nearly all of them had revivals and held protracted meetings, and there has been a large number hopefully converted and added to the church this year. The work of the conference closed on Saturday night with much apparent satisfaction to its members and the many visitors who attended the conference. There were no applications for license to preach, and several failed to get their license renewed. Two were recommended for deacon's orders and to join the traveling connection. Three preachers came over and joined our church from other denominations and were received upon their papers according to our Disciplinary rules; one a local deacon from the C M E Church, the other two from the Missionary Baptist Church. Our educational meeting and centennial celebration were held together on Saturday night. N S Sterling was called to the chair, and D R Matthews acted as Secretary. Several able and interesting speeches were listened to by a large and appreciative audience. The speakers were limited to 15 minutes each The speakers were Revs. G W Mann, O R Franklin, H Matthews, P C Louis and Prof S S Hannon. Several important resolutions were discussed, and passed in the conference, touching Sunday-school and church work; among them was a resolution requesting our next annual conference to arrange with our Freedmen's Aid Board to apply the centennial collections raised this year within the bounds of the Central Alabama Conference in aiding our school at Huntsville, Ala., and district conference school at Dadeville, Ala. Sunday morning at 11 a m, Rev. S J Robinson preached at the M E Church; H Matthews, at the same hour, preached in the Presbyterian church (white). At 3 p m, a funeral service by Rev. P C Louis, the pastor. At night, Dr. R Franklin, presiding elder, preached and administered the Lord's supper to quite a large number of communicants. The Christian hospitality of the people of Lafayette in entertaining the members and visitors is but seldom equaled anywhere. We trust that a great deal of good may result from our work for the cause of Christ's kingdom. Alexander City was chosen as the next place of holding our district conference."

Houston District Conference, Texas Conference—Rev. I. B. Scott writes: "Our district conference met in St. Paul M. E. Church, Galveston, Oct. 8, 1884. The conference organized by electing Rev R R Roberts, of Houston, secretary, and G H Richards, of Galveston, assistant. The usual committees were appointed, bar of the conference and time of meeting and adjourning fixed, and the brethren went to their assigned homes to refresh themselves by the next session. The pastors all seemed to be in fine spirits, and looking forward with much pleasure to the assembling of the annual conference, so soon to take place. During the progress of the session the presiding elder reported the district in fair condition, notwithstanding a portion of it has for a part of the year been under water. Among other things, he said two years ago when he took charge of the district, every church on it except Mt. Vernon, Houston, was embarrassed with debt. Now most of them are clear. This year he has purchased a district camp ground of 16 acres; also 51 acres for an orphan's home, both near Harrisburg, between this city and Houston. On the Brazoria circuit two years ago the church did not own a foot of ground nor a building, although we have been working there for years. But he and Bro. H Dixon, presiding elder, have not alone secured ground, but gone into the swamps, cut the timber and succeeded in having churches erected. At the same time, both he and Bro Dixon succeeded in having the malaria. He reported also that he had found most of the deeds to church property defective, and had found it necessary to have a general overhauling on this line. It might be well to state just here that the Texas Conference has had considerable trouble in the past on account of deeds being improperly made. I learn that more than one piece of property has been lost in this way, and the title to some of our most valuable property questioned. Our deeds are sometimes made to the "Colored M E Church," (this was done just after the war) and there is a set of ecclesiastical thieves prowling in these parts—I speak of the guilty ones—who invariably understand "Colored" and "African" to be synonymous terms. Presiding elders and pastors need to see after these points. From the presiding elder's report it was evident to the conference that he had been digging deeper than his long line of able predecessors had ever gone. He is certainly a worker. All of the 12 pastors of the district were present, save one. Their reports showed they had worked hard, but in the face of many hardships and privations. I shall not undertake to give you all the statistics, but such as I consider the most important: Local preachers, 39, exhorters, 37; members received by letter and from probation, 443, and probationers received, 391. Money collected for missions $90 50, and something for other causes was reported also. Reports from local preachers and exhorters, many of whom were present, showed that they are actively engaged in the Master's cause. Most of them have at least a part of the course of study; none known were advanced in the four years' course, because they had neglected to study. One local preacher, M M Terry, was expelled from the church. Bro Hiram Walters was received from the Baptist Church. Several local preachers and exhorters were dropped for various causes. Class leaders', district stewards' and Sunday-school superintendents' reports respectively showed their departments to be in successful operation. There were several interesting discussions from time to time by topics assigned on literary programmes. Since the conference last met two of its members had died. Rev S Hardwell, pastor at Richmond, and Rev William Burley, superannuate at Harrisburg. The Committee on Memorials presented the following, regarding Rev S Hardwell:

Whereas, The hand of Divine Providence has removed from our midst Rev Spencer Hardwell, one of the oldest, ablest and most beloved members of this district conference; we who have so often been charmed with his singing, edified by his preaching and profitted by his words of wisdom in counsel, do hereby testify as to our respect for his memory and sympathy for his loved ones left behind; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we tenderly condole with the family of our deceased brother in their great bereavement and severe affliction, and commend them to the protecting care of our gracious heavenly Father.

Resolved, That in our natural sorrow for a faithful and beloved brother, we are consoled with the thonght that "it is well with his soul;" that he died at his post, and we rejoice in the glorious hope that we shall meet him again.

Resolved, That in his death we recognize the loss of a faithful pastor, an able preacher—one truly called of God to preach the word to dying men and women.

The writer espoused the cause of the SOUTHWESTERN, and the conference adopted strong resolutions endorsing it, and pledging every member not only to subscribe and pay for the paper himself, but to use his influence to have others do the same. The resolutions were unanimously adopted by a standing vote. Rev C W Campbell, of Houston Seminary, was present and spoke, representing his school. The various committees reported, and conference adopted resolutions of thanks to presiding elder, secretaries and members and friends of St. Paul M E Church. Our district at present holds only one district conference per annum, but the conference voted in favor of taking proper steps toward returning to the old rule. Father Elias Dibble, of Houston, was present and preached; also took part in the proceedings of the conference. He is much loved and honored by the brethren. Richmond was selected as the next place of holding conference.

Galveston, Texas.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. W. Cole, Paris Tex., writes: "Dear Editor—Our church was burned down on August 2. The members and friends gave money and did what they could in order to rebuild the church, and about two months after that time we were within the walls of the new church. That day we raised $113 75. The people here have done a good work, and when their church is completed they will have one of the best in Texas. The spiritual condition of the church is good. The Lord has been with us and blessed us in our work."

J. F. R. W. Summerhill, Springville, Tenn., writes: "We had our Centennial Aug. 9th, and the following children were awarded a gold medal: James Prince William A. F. Summerhill, Mary L. Brooks, Betty Hampton, Victoria Stockdale and Mary Parker, Springville, Tenn.; Sissie Patterson, Mary E. Patterson, Mary Russell, Polly Russell and Martha Patterson, Manlyville, Tenn. Centenhial collection, $12.60. We ask the prayers of the church. We have 15 subscribers to the SOUTHWESTERN, and hope to get more this conference year."

Rev. J. C. Read writes: Dear Editor—We are doing a grand work here. When I first came to my appointment I found the members scattered, but by the help of God we are together again. I have received in full connection 145 members, and we have purchased a bell. Some of the members are taking the SOUTHWESTERN. We are getting along grandly, and I am doing all I can for the missionary collections."

Rev. C. Young, Dallas, Texas, writes: "I have just closed a protracted meeting, with 13 conversions, 9 joiners, and 6 baptized. My Sunday-school is in good condition, and the church is greatly revived. I am glad to say that God has blessed me and my people so far. Times have been hard, but we are moving on by the help of the Lord. We hope to raise our assessment in full. Where there is a will there is a way. Pray for us."

Rev. H. W. Tate, Wiley M. E. parsonage, Springfield, O., writes: "My charge is progressing spiritually and financially. Our recent quarterly meeting was a season of much profit to the church, 117 communed. The presiding elder, Rev. J. Courtney, seemed to be much encouraged, and preached with power. The collections were $40. Our rally system works well in raising money on the church debt, which is observed the second Sunday in each month. We have 11 cash subscribers to the SOUTHWESTERN, and 4 to the Western. Our own Sunday-school periodicals are invariably used in our Sunday-school. My wife and little boy, Bertie, are convalescent from a spell of malaria. We hope to soon open up our protracted meeting. A revival is much needed here."

B. Bailes, French Camp circuit, writes: "Dear Editor—This is my first year on this circuit, and I must say that so far the relation between myself and the people has been pleasant. Six revivals have been held, adding 148 to the church. One new church 20x30 has been built, and one Baptist church, with 13 members, which has since increased to 30, and an elder from the A. M. E. Church, are among our accessions. A debt of $60 has also been paid. The people are full of courage, and the heart of the pastor is full of praise. I like the SOUTHWESTERN, and think you are the right man in the right place, and will do all I can for it."

Rev. DeWitt Frierson, Anderson, Grimes county, Texas, writes: "Rev. W. R Pullam, the presiding elder, held my fourth quarterly conference on the 11th of October. All the brethren were present and everything passed off pleasantly. The elder preached a good sermon at 11 o'clock Sunday, and administered the communion to 54 persons. We raised and paid the elder $7. We are building a new church six miles from Anderson which we hope to finish by Nov. 15. We desire the prayers of the conference for our success in advancing the Redeemer's kingdom."

Rev. J. Evans, Gainesville, Ga., writes: "Dear Editor—This is my first attempt to write for the press. I hope to be more dutiful hereafter. I have had great success this year at Gainesville, have had 55 converts and 45 added to our church. I desire to ask you to please publish this in your next issue."

Rev. S. H. Nevils, Hazlehurst, Miss., writes: "When the Bishop read out "S. H. Nevils to Brookhaven and Hazlehurst," I felt a little sad; but I am thankful that great good has been done for the Master at this place. The Baptist had their protracted meeting, and took in and baptized 13 persons. They said that they had got all the sinners that were in Hazlehurst, but we started and the Lord started with us, and we added to the church 24 and baptized 12 persons. I went from here to Brookhaven, a place where they say a revival has not been held for 10 years, and there I had the devil and the Baptists to fight. They told the mourners that if they joined the Methodist Episcopal Church they would be lost, but through God I took in 17. Brethren, pray for Hazlehurst and Brookhaven, and their pastor, for I do not feel like I did when I heard my appointment."

Rev. John Qualls writes: "Allow me space in your winning and beloved paper to say that I was up home in the month of September, 1884, as the preachers and friends wrote for me to come. So I arrived at Clinton, and found Rev. P. King in the midst of a protracted meeting. The Lord is surely in that place. Many have been converted, backsliders reclaimed, probationers enrolled, and the debt on the church paid. Rev. J. Rogers immediately sent for me at Mt. Carmel M. E. Church. At a grand basket meeting on the fourth Sunday in September, we had a grand time. Rev. C. A. Taylor sent for me at Comite. Here we had a blessed time; he had finished his protracted meeting with nine converts, backsliders seven, probationers 37. As a young man, he is making rapid progress. Others sent for me, but, dear brethren, opportunity would not permit. I notice this district, under Rev. P. Landry, presiding elder, is doing a grand work. He is surely in the hearts of the preachers and people of his district. To know him is only to love him. To the young he is a father; to the old he is a son."

Rev. J. Snell, Courney, Texas writes: "The presiding elder, W. B. Pullam, has held his fourth quarterly conference, and had a good time. The roll was called and a good many members were present, and a good many from the Baptist church. The elder preached a powerful sermon, which made all the people glad. We had just repaired the church, and we had a new bell to ring. Some of the people could not see how we could afford to have a new bell so soon after we broke the old one, when one of the white men told them they were foolish; the Methodist Episcopal Church was

...of the grandest and most inde... churches on God's green ..., and had the finest looking ...achers, who all seem to be good, ... men. One man asked the ... of them learning so much faster than the Baptists, when another said: "O, it's them white men they have got at the head of them."

Rev. A. Parker, Jefferson, Texas, writes: "My charge is in a very good condition, spiritually. We held a camp meeting at Wallack's Church, Texas, August, for about 15 days. Two were converted, three backsliders were reclaimed, and two funerals were preached by Revs. S. Conly, D. Benjamin and the writer. The reappointment of Rev. R. Webb, presiding elder, to the Marshall District, Texas Conference, as presiding elder, would be a popular act on the part of the Bishop, so far as our people are concerned. He is greatly beloved by all his people. He is the best preacher I have ever heard preach. His centennial sermon was a masterpiece, full of historic facts concerning our church. A subscription was called for by a standing vote, and 140 stood for $30, three for $1.50, and three for 75c, making a total of $42.25. Baptized six—one infant—and collection for ...ding elder $8; making a total ... of $31.20 paid in all, this year. The fourth quarterly conference passed over all well this year. Pray for us and for presiding elder Webb, that the Lord may send him to us again at next conference."

Rev. L. W. Miles, of Chaplain, Ky., writes: "We held our fourth quarterly meeting on Nov. 12. Rev. W. W. Locke was present, and presided in his usual able manner. The pastor reports the work in good condition, spiritually and temporally. The following committees were appointed: On Missions—Mamie Tilford, Mollie Duncan, Lucy Tilford, Fannie Tilford, Geo. Simms, Mary Morris; on Sunday-school Committee on Temperance—Stepney Rudd, James Dover, Viney Tyler; Committee on Trusts—Bettie Beachem, Priscilla Tilford, Martha McCoomer; Committee on Education—Mary Rudd, ... Simpson, Diana Marshall; on Church Extension—Emily Mattox, Julia Irvin, Mary Jordon; on Church Records—Lucy Duncan, Viney Duncan, Katie Young; on Parsonages and Furniture—Lucy Morris, Lizzie Jordon, Lizzie Wi...; on Music—Mary Tilford, Hat... Sloan, Lucy Harrison; on Esti...ting Pastors' Salary—Nace ...mpson, Benjamin Duncan, Hen... Duncan; Freemen's Society—Henry Ingram, Vincent Mattox, ...ry Stout; W. T. M. S.—Mary ...rter, Kittie Hays; Sunday-...l Union—Caroline Grundy, ... Skinner, Millie Stewart; ...wards—Chas. McCoomer, Lloyd ...ilford, Walter Allen, Louis Beach... Armstead Jordon; Trustees—... Simpson, Geo. Harrison, Ben... Duncan, Fielding Carpenter, ... Duncan. On Sunday we ... a soul-reviving time. The el... preached an eloquent sermon at ... a. m. and at 8 p. m. Three were ... to the church."

...ford Carr, Rosedale, La., ... pleased with what I ... year by taking the ... I am bound to ... it. I am a member ... Methodist Episcopal ... Rev. W. Wells is ...

..., Handsboro, ...: "Dear Editor—I was ... evening (Sunday, Oct. ... B. Simms. He stopped ... and ... and ... I ... I ... I

...STERN.

...W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

...er of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

THURSDAY, NOV. 20, 1884.

Announcement for 1885

Reduction in Price to

ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CTS.

When Paid in Advance, or Within Three Months.

From this time subscriptions for The Southwestern Christian Advocate will be received for the year 1885 at $1.50 a year, payable in advance or within three months. No other paper published under authority of the General Conference is furnished at this figure. It is the cheapest paper in the whole list. New subscribers for the next year will receive their papers up to January 1st free.

Let us have 2000 new subscribers within the next sixty days.

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

If a Bishop is to reside in New Orleans there must be an Episcopal parsonage here; and as the Bishop is expected here within a month, it strikes us that the parties concerned should at once come together and arrange for this.

GRANT'S HAND.—It is clear that the influence of Roscoe Conkling is not without weight in New York politics.—People's Advocate.

That is what we have been trying to get the politician to acknowledge all this while. It is quite natural, but hardly probable that Mr. Conkling took much of a hand in Mr. Blaine's defeat. Conkling is too great for that. But we must have a scape goat, and he will do as well as any.

St. John, the Republican traitor, who ran on the Prohibition ticket, was badly snowed under, especially in Kansas, where he hoped to get Republicans on old grudge for nominating him for Governor.—American Baptist.

How you really did not know that Hon. J. P. St. John was a Christian gentleman, or that he, as an American citizen, had a perfect right to run for President of the United States if he wanted to, are you? The election is over and we have yet five months till harvest. Let us have peace.

Bishop Mallalieu is expected in New Orleans on the 10th of December. He is to make his home in the city, we suppose; and we, would doubtless be glad to see the people who are to be our neighbors and fellow townsmen. The SOUTHWESTERN there refers to the proper authorities, the presiding elders and pastors of the New Orleans district; they call a meeting of the members and ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church in New Orleans at one of the city churches and arrange for such a reception of our resident bishop as will become the man, the occasion and the city.

Dr. Taylor, the very able editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, ADVOCATE, and a prominent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Bro. Lawson's charge, has enlisted in the army, the oldest U. B. F. that lives. May he live and witness the complete administration of his friend, which will be successful. Banner. Episcopal. "South."

Law, Not Muskets.

While we believe that the official canvass of the vote of New York, to be begun to-morrow by the county Boards, will show that Mr. Cleveland is elected, it is nevertheless true that the fact of his election is not to be established.

The laws of New York provide a plain and straightforward method for ascertaining the truth. Everything is done in the daylight. There will be no Louisiana business here, no Florida business, no infamous intrigues of the sort that Mr. Carl Schurz so properly denounced in the Academy of Music on Saturday night.

There is not the slightest evidence of any intention on the part of either Republicans or Democrats to attempt to give the electoral votes of New York to the candidate who is not entitled to those votes.

If the official canvass proves that Mr. Cleveland has by honest arithmetic a plurality of a thousand, or of ten, or of one vote in New York State, the fact of his election will be established, and he will be inaugurated.

If the official count should reverse the now generally accepted understanding of the result, nobody will be cheated or counted out. The office will go to the man who has been elected. Why, then, in advance of the legal determination of the result, should we hear such wild and unpatriotic talk of muskets and gunpowder as is uttered here and there by Democratic newspapers? The Washington Organ speaking of Mr. Cleveland said on Saturday: "Grover Cleveland will be inaugurated, peaceably if possible, but forcibly if necessary." The Albany Argus of the same day remarked: "If law is sufficient, law will be availed of. If fighting is required, fighting will be availed of. And in either case the business might as well begin as soon as the necessity is plain or the enemies of true election choose."

Do these newspapers mean that whatever may be the result of the official canvass the claims of Mr. Cleveland's supporters must be maintained?

Surely not. Then why talk of force and fighting while the lawful determination of the results is still a matter of the future?

Let the canvass be made thorough. Let every mistake in the unofficial computations, if mistakes there are, be corrected. Let every local fraud, if there has been fraud anywhere, be detected and exposed.

No matter who may be elected, let the truth be established by the methods provided by law.—New York Sun.

We were in the act of writing a calm statement on this subject, when upon opening the New York Sun, for Nov. 10th, we found the above, which struck us with such great force as being a sound common-sense way to talk, that we concluded to give it all the publicity we could. The Sun is a Democratic paper, let the others do like it all over the land, and we shall have peace, and have it more abundantly.

Kind Words.

It is the words we speak that give evidence of what is within. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." If the heart is right, kind and loving words will flow from it.

It is a privilege to be able to speak kindly always. "Give, and it shall be given unto you." Not necessarily great gifts, for some of us are in sorrow, and are poor in this world's goods; but we all may speak words of sympathy and encouragement, and in so doing, we ourselves may be strengthened and blessed.

It is our duty to speak kind words. We are all dependent upon each other. No one has a right to say, "I am going to take care of myself, and let others do the same." It has not been so arranged. "No man liveth unto himself." Those cannot prosper, in a true sense, who have no tender greetings for others. We must "lift up the hands that hang down, and the feeble knees."

It is our duty to speak kindly, because God wills it. "Be ye kindly affectioned, one to another," is a positive command. God, our great example, is ever saying kind words to us. We read them in the Bible, and He speaks to us in many ways, if we will only listen, and he wishes kind words from us—words of love and praise and thanksgiving.

Kind words are a mighty force. "A soft answer turneth away wrath." It is the spirit in one that influences. Love begets love, and love begets unselfishness; and unselfishness always yields to the right. He who can overcome self so as to speak kindly under all circumstances will conquer where physical force or money can have no influence.

I have known persons who, to ease the conscience, make large gifts to the poor, and to other benevolent purposes, and withhold kind words. I once saw a woman give money to a beggar, with these words, "There, take that, and clear out." I wondered if she thought of the words of the Savior: "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, ye did it unto me." I know many who think it not wrong to speak unkindly to those whom they deem beneath them in social position. "O, how hard the heart may grow, and how insignificant the purpose for which we live," if we close our hearts to any of God's creatures!

To speak kindly is never amiss. Even beggars may need kind words more than money—indeed, sometimes what they ask of us when they come to our doors is a word of encouragement. Are we not all beggars in this sense? Is there ever a time when we do not need kindly words and smiles to lighten our burdens and strengthen our purposes to do right?

The wonderful Bible has in it many directions to guide us in our treatment of each other, which, if followed, will lead us into plain paths, ways into which we can hardly go, unless we take others by the hand, and gently lead them with us.

I have read somewhere, that whatever causes cheerfulness and hopefulness gives physical strength and health. Of course whatever depresses detracts from the strength and shortens life. It is a fact that has been clearly proved. What a startling thought! Are not some of us shortening the lives of dear ones by our irritability and fault finding? God forbid that we should ever look upon the inanimate form of some loved one who might have journeyed longer with us but for our thoughtlessness and heartlessness.

Let us all go to Him who can fill our hearts with what will gush out in kind words to all around us—to the brutes, to the poor and unfortunate, to those whom we love, and to God, who has done so much for us, and we will hear echoes that will brighten our own lives and raise us above all envyings and strife and bitterness, and make our lives a blessing to the world, and secure for us a home where kind words are ever spoken.

What the Girls Have and what They Need at the Central Tennessee College.

Editors, being of the plural number, (notice editorial "we") are, by virtue of that fortunate fact, privileged to be in two places or more at once, hence the editor of this sheet while enjoying the hospitalities of the President of Central Tennessee College, the courteous attentions of the Professors' thereof, the genial conversation of the Dean of the Meharry Medical College, was also priviledged to penetrate, in a quiet way, into that department of the C. T. C. not usually brought prominently into notice. We found a work going on quietly and unobtrusively which we hope and firmly believe will contribute not a little to the future well being of the students, both male and female, of that institution. We refer to that department of the industrial work known among the young ladies as the "Sewing Circle." We were not introduced to "table-scarfs," "Japanese work," "crewels," "Kensington" or "arrasene"—we are assured that these are all to come in good time—but we found, in happy accord with some impromptu remarks made by ourself before the students in chapel morning devotions that some of the practical every-day matters of ordinary and domestic life were attended to first; and that the homely details of patching, darning, mending and making those minor but not unimportant matters which must come up in the lives of ordinary mortals, were thoroughly and diligently taught. We found that the girls attending Central Tennessee College are taught that the art of "making auld claes look amaist as weel's the new" is no less necessary to them than it was to to the lassies of auld Scoties, and the thrift and economy are as needful to the building of a race in the new world as in the old.

Many of our girls attending college now come from homes where the mother's incessant toil with household work precludes the possibility of teaching her daughters the simplest elements of needle work. Many mothers, though now in better circumstances, have not themselves learned to handle the needle; therefore the very rudiments have to be mastered by these young would-be seamstresses. Ladies familiar with this kind of work know that this elementary practice implies many failures, much "ripping out" and much destruction of material, and the girl cannot be trusted to try her "'prentice hand" on her own garments at first lest the "rents be made worse." Therefore material is needed, and to the friends of industrial education must the hand be stretched out for help. A more advanced class, having become somewhat proficient in handling the needle, are now looking forward with longing eyes to the coveted possession of a sewing machine. Who will endow a "Professorship" that this earnest and ambitious class of young ladies may have thorough instruction in this profitable branch of industry? We believe "a word to the wise is sufficient," and we hope that at our next visit to the classic halls of old Central, with the cheerful sounds of the hammer, saw and ax, which arise from the "carpenter department" may be heard the busy hum of "The bright little needle,

The swift little needle,
The needle directed by beauty and art."

Donations of material and implements for sewing, or of money to purchase these, or to assist in the furtherance of our project of "expert" instruction in machine work, may be left with us, and we shall take great delight in forwarding them to the Ladies Sewing Circle of Central Tennessee College.

An Indian Christian on the Needs of Missionaries.

The Indian Christian Herald, publishes the following words of a native Christian gentleman, on the relative status of European and native mission workers: "The wants of the denizens of the temperate zone must necessarily be greater on the tropical zone than the wants of those born in it. We think this is just the same with regard to the natives of the country when they live in England. In the Home for Asiatics in London the Sarangs and Malims are provided with comforts which an English laborer might envy. We have moved much in missionary circles, and we can safely say that, so far as our knowledge goes, the style of a missionary's living, in comparison with other Europeans of similar standing, is very much lower. We fail to see, then, any just complaint in this. We should think missionary laborers in this country ought to consider themselves as a garrison in a beleagnered town where there is not sufficient food, so that from the necessity of the case they are bound to divide it as it may last the longest, and keep the combatants in a fighting condition." Dr. Thoburn says the writer has proven himself the peer of his European brethren, and is worthy to speak upon this vexed subject.

Now the election is over, we shall hear of the Independent colored Republican frequently. Once and a while these perfectly independent after-and-a-long-time-before the-next-election-Republicans will call their usual post pre-election convention and demand something. Verily the independent colored Republican was not dead, he only slept during the late campaign. He is now fully resuscitated.

Sunday Papers.

These should have no place in Christian homes. Some of the best commercial papers in the country publish Sunday editions. Christian business men, however, cannot afford to pay the price of a Sunday paper. It cheats them out of much of the social value of the Sabbath. He has but little time to see his family during the week. Sunday should be given to the wife, the children, the home, the Sunday-school, the church, the Bible and its cognate literature. But the Sunday paper comes, and it has special attraction in advertisements, editorials on live questions in politics, commerce, morals or even religion. There are some rich selections which are very entertaining, and the man who only took up the paper just to look at it, has spent the morning, and the vigor of his mind for the day, in a hurried perusal of six or eight pages of a large newspaper. He goes to church, but his thoughts are on what he has read. He has no taste now for spiritual things. To him the sermon is long and dry, and he is glad when the benediction releases him from a place in which he takes no delight. His conversation in his family is on the subjects that have filled his mind from the paper. He only mentions the church services as dry and uninteresting, and wonders why the preacher has become so prosaic. He can not feel much interest in the Sunday school lesson, because he has no time to study it. His class in the school have no more interest than the teacher, and relieve him of work, after a few weeks, by staying away. People wonder what is the matter with this brother, who used to be active in church matters, and ask "what can have caused such a change in him?" The Sunday paper. May not the large non-attendance at church in our large cities, of the better and middle classes, be traced to a considerable extent to the large circulation of Sunday papers? If Christians are to enjoy the highest social and religious benefits of the Lord's Day they must let these papers alone on that day. Undoubtedly the press is a power for good, there are noble men in the editorial chair, and men who feel the need of rest, but the public—and that a Christian public, too—cries out for the Sunday paper, and as there is money in it for the proprietors, it must be issued. Christian homes should not be disturbed on Sundays by the visits of the daily paper.

Thanksgivings Proclamation.

President Arthur has issued the following proclamation:

The season is nigh when it is the yearly wont of this people to observe a day appointed for that purpose by the President as an especial occasion for thanksgiving unto God.

Now, therefore, in recognition of that hallowed custom, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do hereby designate as such day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 27th day of this present November.

And I do recommend that throughout the land the people ceasing from their accustomed occupations, do then keep holiday at their several homes and their several places of worship, and with heart and voice pay reverent acknowledgement to the Giver of all good for the countless blessings wherewith He hath visited this nation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and of the independence of the United States the one hundredth and ninth.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President.

FRED'K T. FRELINGHUYSEN,
Secretary of State.

In his proclamation above the President calls upon the people of the United States: 1. To cease from their accustomed occupations. 2. To keep holiday at their several homes. 3. To repair to their several places of worship and reverently acknowledge the Providence of God in our national prosperity. We have no doubt that this proclamation will be generally observed and its recommendations largely carried out. Gathering about their home and church alters the people who have the comforts of life should remember and provide for those who have them not.

Bishop Wiley.

Perhaps there is no Bishop in the Methodist Episcopal Church to-day who is so thoroughly posted in regard to the needs and wants of our colored work, or of the character, competency and adaptability of our colored preachers and teachers to supply the demands of that work as Bishop Wiley. He has gone into the homes of the colored people, been the guest of their best families and of their ministry. He has studied the Negro character from the Negroe's side, in the Negroes' home, and with the Negroes' full confidence. He is no radical in pretensions; but is sincere, just and conscientious in his deeds. The present very efficient corps of presiding elders in the Washington Conference was studied out by him while he was the guest of an eminent Negro family in Baltimore, Md. His assignment to the Delaware and Lexington Conferences for their ensuing sessions, is a matter upon which we feel like congratulating them. He has already presided at three sessions of the Lexington Conference. He knows both the work and the preachers. He will require very little advice, and generally the Bishop who has the least need of advice succeeds the best. Welcome home, welcome to our homes and to these colored conferences, Bishop Wiley.

Atlanta University.

Let the heartiest support be given the school, because the University has no powerful church in the South at its back, because its only and truest merits are a good Christian education, a high moral standard, thorough scholarship, and the very best discipline.—Pere, in the Savannah Weekly Echo.

Well, you now begin to acknowledge the utility of powerful backing, and the faithfulness of our Church in the appointment of colored professors, etc. There is room over in Clark University for your students, and both colored and white teachers to look after them. We are cosmopolitan, sir.

The editor has been and is now suffering from the effects of malaria and over work which will account for any seeming delay or short-coming for the several weeks past. Our physician recommends entire cessation from work for a while, but we are trusting in God and keeping at it, at least in part, and we hope soon to be all right. Brethren pray for us, and send in your subscriptions to the Herald, and we will give value received.—Christian Herald.

This is sad news to us, and we sincerely regret to hear it. We have the highest regard for Dr. Fisher and sincerely hope he may speedily recover.

Personal.

—Rev. A. E. P. Albert is slowly recovering from his severe prostration by malarial fever.

—Rev. Wm. Davis, of Glencoe circuit, with his little son, called in at our office Tuesday. He is in good health and prosperous.

—Bishop Wiley reached Shanghai on the 6th of September, and expected to start for Tientsin after resting a day or two.

—Our old and valued friend, Rev. Pierre Landry, has been spending the last few days in our city. We are always glad to see Bro. Landry.

—Among the remarkable men in this country, of this age, is the Rev. Wm. Taylor, D. D., the M. E. Bishop for Africa.—Christian Recorder.

—Bishop Hurst is on his way to India. His address will be Bombay, care of Rev. James S. Stone, until Feb. 1. After that date it will be Georgestrasse 59, Bremen, Germany.

—Dr. Buckley, editor of the Christian Advocate, has returned to New York. Thousands have enjoyed his vacation with him. He has pleased and instructed all the read-

Christian Advocate. We welcome him home.

—Bishop Wiley writes from Boston, Ohio, Sept. 22, in good health, intending to leave for Peking the following day.

—Rev. E. O. Beebe, M. D., sends a letter written in good health and spirits, from Yokohoma, Japan. Oct. 6 is the date of his departure for Shanghai, China.

—Mr. Emerson Bently, agent for Phillips & Hunt in our office, has been quite sick and unable to leave his bed since Nov. 9. He is slightly better as we go to press.

—Rev. E. W. Parker writes, on board ship, Oct. 15, "Nearing Port Said, after a pleasant and uneventful voyage." The party expected to be in Bombey Oct. 28.

—Hon. R. T. Greener has favored us with an excellent likeness of his self in steel, large size suitable for framing. We shall now take down the old, and when he shall be in New Orleans he will find the new one suspended in our parlor.

—Bishop Fowler, in his first round of Conference, has won universal respect and has managed the great affairs committed to him with consummate ability. We hope he may soon be among us to help in our Centennial work.

—Bishop Ninde's reception at Topeka, Kansas, his future home, was a royal welcome. Representatives of the Kansas Conferences were present to greet him, and also those of other bodies.

—Bishop Mallalieu has made a wide mark by his work in the West this autumn. Nebraska, Wisconsin, and other States have received a mighty push onward and upward by Bishop Mallalieu's strong words.—Northwestern Christian Advocate.

—We learn that Miss Clara M. Cushman has written a book, but it has not yet made its appearance in New Orleans. Her missionary letters and addresses have been received with great favor in the East, where she is now visiting.

—Mrs. M. L. Dale has returned from her visit to Cleveland and reports an exceedingly pleasant trip and agreeable session. She feels under especial obligations for personal kindness displayed to her by Dr. and Mrs. Rust in their home at Cincinnati.

—The Rev. Thomas Stalker, the new pastor of Ames Methodist Episcopal Church, has arrived in New Orleans and occupied the pulpit of that church on last Sabbath. He was a member of the Detroit Conference, and has been transferred to the Louisiana Conference.

—Dr. Maclay, Oct. 9th, writes that he has received through Gen. Foote, U. S. Consul in Korea, official assurances from the King that entirely no obstructions will be in the way of our missionaries, but that we will be greatly encouraged in founding a school and hospital in the capital city, Seoul.

—Rev. A. H. Gillett, agent of the Sunday-school Union, South and West, passed through New Orleans, en route to Springfield, Mo., where he will hold a Sunday-school Institute from the 16 to 20th. He will hold Institutes in the month of December in Louisiana and Texas in connection with Bishop Mallalieu and Dr. B. Wood and her husband left New York, the 15th inst., via Montreal, Boston, and went to Northfield, Mass., to attend the Moody Bible Institute. Mrs. Wood goes to America on account of her health, and her husband, Rev. Dr. Wood, of the Methodist Book Concern office in New York, will remain with her. We greatly regret the loss to the Publishing House of Dr. Wood's valuable services, but feel that his wife's health is the first consideration, and we hope that a sea voyage and change of climate will restore her to health and strength.

—Rev. Dr. Mallalieu, of Boston, Mass., has been in the city for a few days, the guest of Rev. Dr. Rust. He preached in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday morning last to a large congregation, and in the evening addressed a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association. He left for Shreveport on Monday morning, where he will preside over the Louisiana Conference, which convenes on Wednesday next.

—Rev. Dr. Rust has returned from his visit to Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida, and reports a very pleasant trip. He found the brethren in all the States visited in good health and spirits, and the prospects for the Church very encouraging. He preached in Jackson, Miss., Montgomery, Ala., Atlanta, Ga., Jacksonville, Fla., and Savannah, Ga., and was everywhere received with marked cordiality. He left Savannah on Monday morning last, and reached New Orleans on Tuesday evening, in time to preside over the Louisiana Conference, which convened on Wednesday morning.

—Rev. Dr. Rust, in his visit to Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida, found the brethren

THE EAST.

The holy morn, to earth's remotest shores
Wherever the sunbeams play or ocean roars;
Through every oriental clime proclaim,
In majestic speech, Immanuel's saving name.
The mighty task of love and labor plan.
Till God the gordian knot of caste untie.
Soon plains real shall countless millions teach
The purest morals in the strongest speech.
Unwearied, raise aloft your noble aims,
And give the pledge a world in ruin claims;
Think what almighty love for you has done,
And think what crowns of bliss th' Apostles won.
Truth leads the van, the beaten paths pursue;
What men hath done—despair no—ye can do.
Be great be good, be zealous, still aspire,
Let noble men and noble motives fire;
Let Rutherford's zeal and Xavier's ardor glow;
Let Brainerd's zimalahs and Martin's warm;
May Cooke's example diligence suggest,
And Clough's patience fortify each breast,
Elliot and Swartz a living text supply;
Like Whitfield labor and like Wesley die
The time is come when Juggernaut must fall,
And Hindoo pagan triumph through Bengal;
Each crafty Brahmin's artifice shall cease,
Mohammed's shores shall hail the Prince of Peace;
Over all the rest God bids the day-star rise,
To dash the lured crescent to the skies;
"The Word of Christ" shall swift and sweetly run,
Through all the regions of the setting sun;
And every Asiatic people known
Pay grateful homage to Immanuel's throne.

Domestic Hygiene.

For the Southwestern.

Principles of Accidents.

BY DR. GEO. L. CURTISS.

Accidents will occur, they can not always be prevented. When they occur there are some whole some rules to be observed by both men and women. There is always something to be done. The first thing to be done on the occurence of an accident is to do a sensible thing. Wringing of the hands, tearing of the hair, beating the breast with fearful ejaculations of pain and sorrow neither saves life nor stops flowing blood, nor relieves pain. Some of the sensible things to be done I enumerate:

1. If a wound occurs in a limb, bind it above the wound quite tightly, thus preventing the loss of blood from severed arteries through which the life currents flow from the heart towards the extremities. A bleeding vein is not dangerous when the corresponding artery is bound above.

2. If the wound is in the body lay the person down with the head up. Use cold water applied freely by a cloth or sponge. Should the would be in the axilla or groin, with a towel seek to plug the wound, and hold it tightly, and in all cases send for a physician. I know a boy accidently shot in the arm pit. A lady school-teacher was standing a few rods away just inside the door. Quick as thought she pulled down a lace curtain hanging at the window, and rushed to the boy, plunged it into the gaping wound, and held it there for two hours until the physician came. By this means the boy's life was saved.

3. If an artery was severed it is prompt to grasp the end between the heart and compress it between the thumb and finger. A severed artery may be known by blood going out at spurts and not a steady stream.

4. To give a wounded person restoratives. You may dash cold water, or place a lump of ice on the head. Lose of blood causes great thirst, but in all inflammatory action injuries. Besides, in such wounds, what is wanted is perfect quiet, and as little motion as possible. Stimulating drinks make the blood flow more rapidly.

5. In case of a simple cut, wash the parts clean, and bring the lips of the wound together, and hold them in place by plaster or bandage. Sometimes even the wound a stitch or two to bring with advantage. In most cases the best results are obtained by first intention necessary, and is liable to cause a bad sore. In case of an old sore which stubbornly resists healing a salve may be very efficient for cleansing the sore, and for the time being acting as a scab to protect the sore place.

6. It is unwise to remove a scab that has formed on a sore until the wound beneath is quite healed. A scab is nature's means for protection from the atmosphere, and accidential bruises and changes of atmosphere. While the scab remains nature is at work beneath in a silent manner repairing the injury. When the right time comes the scab will come off of itself.

7. Every man and woman ought to learn very early how to apply a bandage, a poultice and wet cloths to a wounded or diseased part. Too many grow up in utter ignorance of such things, and when in after years are compelled to attend to such matters, are utterly unable to do so intelligently, and their awkward movements are painful to the sick and wounded.

Seymour, Indiana.

Margie Willie sends The Cultivator this recipe for Croton Sponge Cake: Take six eggs, three quarterg of a pound of butter, one pound of sugar, one pound of flour, one spoonful soda, two of cream of tartar, one cup of sweet milk; dissolve the soda in the milk, which must be added last; mix the cream of tartar with flour; rub the butter and sugar; beat the eggs separately.

To lengthen out a chicken for dinner, make a coffeecupful of prepared flour into stiff dough wet up with an egg as for noodles, roll very thin and about ten minutes before you dish the chicken cut the dough into narrow strips and drop into boiling broth which has not been thickened into soup. It will add greatly to the dish and make more of it.

To make an excellent sweet potato pone, wash well six good sized sweet potatoes, scrape the skins off and grate on a potato grater, mix in one tablespoonful of butter, one cup of molasses, one of sugar three eggs, pinch of salt, pounded orange peel, nutmeg and ginger to suit the taste; put in a pan, sprinkle sugar over the top, and bake.

Stations of Wesleyan Ministers in West Africa for 1885, as Appointed by the last British Conference.

SIERRA LEONE AND GAMBIA DISTRICT.

1.—The Sierra Leone Section.

Free Town (First), Zion, &c., William H. Maude, Edward W. Adcock; Alexander T George, Native Minister; Emmence George Granville Sutton, Samuel Theophilus Peacock, Native Assistant Ministers; Joseph May, Minister, Supernumerary; a Catechist.

Free Town (Second), Ebenezer &c., Charles Mark, Adam P. Woode, Native Ministers; a Catechist; an Agent.

High School, Joseph Clandius May, Native Minster, Head Master.

Wellington, Kissy &c., David A. John, Native Minister.

Hastings, William George Mark, Native Minister.

Waterloo and Timmanee Mission, a Catechist (Prince Alfred's Town) an Agent.

York, Goderich, &c., Daniel W. Thorpe, Native Minister.

Wilberforce, &c., Samuel W. Davis, Native Minister.

N. B.—This Circuit is under the direction of the General Superintendent.

Sherbro Mission (Bonthe), Joseph C. Thomas, Native Assistant Minister; a Catechist wanted.

Limbah Mission—

Fouricarriah, James Booth.

Kapoto, a Catechist.

Timbo, a Catechist.

Kambia, a Catechist.

Mokelleh, vacant.

Mabang Mission, John E. Williams Native Assistant Minister.

N. B.—This Station is under the direction of the Superintendent of Waterloo.

2.—The Gambia Section.

St. Mary's William T. Pullen; John S. Joiner, Native Assistant Missionary.

Educational Department, an agent.

Barra Point W. T. Cole, Native Assistant Missionary.

British Combo, Sabbijee, a Catechist.

N. B.—The above are under the direction of the Superintendent of St. Mary's Circuit.

Albreda, J. B. Johnson, Native Assistant Missionary.

McCarthy's Island, C. J. P. Johnson, Native Assistant Missionary.

N. B.—Albreda and M'Carthy's Island are under the Superintendence of the District Missionary.

District Missionary, one to be sent who shall act under the direction of the Chairman of the District.

WILLIAM H. MAUDE,
Chairman of the District and General Superintendent.

THE GOLD COAST, POPO YORUBA, AND NUPE DISTKICT.

1.—The Gold Coast Section.

Cape Coast W. Terry Coppin; William M. Cannell B. A. (Educational Department); Andrew W. Parker, Isaac Hayforb, Native Ministers; James A. Solomon, Edward J. Fynn, Native Ministers, Supernumeraries.

Elmina, Edward P. Dontoh, Native Minister.

Commendah, Chamah, Mampon; Agents.

Sekundi, Asaka, mamful, Adjud; Agents.

N. B.—E. P. Dontoh acts under the direction of the Superintendent of the Cape Coast Circuit.

Dix Dove, Thomas Penny, Native Minister.

Axim Princes, Attoabœ, Bayin, Essiamah; Agent.

Takwa, Appollonia; Agents.

Anamabu, Joseph D. Hayford, Native Minister.

Satt Pond, Frederick J. Loo, Native Assistant Minister.

Anishau, Great Kormantine, Abonku, Kuntu, Amissanu and Asafa; Agents.

Mankessim, Isaac A. Graham, Native Assistant Minister.

Ayan Main, Abassa, Nkojo, Denkira, Amia., &c.; Agents.

Adausi Maim, Girankuma. Brofu; Agents.

Narkwa, Tantum, Largo, &c.; Agents.

Winnibah, John Plange, Native Minister; Isaac Anaman, Native Assistant Minister.

Appam, Breku, Odumtu, Swedur, Eryeme, Dontoh-proom, Dewurabu, Kwakwatsia, &c.; Agents.

N. B.—Winnibah is under the direction of T. B. Freeman (A).

Accra, Thomas B. Freeman (A); (James Town); Frederick France, (Ussher Town) T. B. Freeman (B), Native Ministers.

Prampram, Bawalashi; Agents.

Abnri, Obusmasi, Larteh, Ewukngua, Agomada; Agents.

N. B.—T. B. Freeman (B) is to give special attention to the hill stations.

Abnrah, Assin and Ashantee mission, Robert J. Hayfron, Native Minister (Donkwa).

Ekroful, Domouasi; Agents.

Assin, Robert M. Acquaah, Native Assistant Minister.

Kumasi, Robert G. Jones, Native Assistant Minister.

Bekwa, Kokofu, Amuaful, Mampon; Agents.

2.—The Popo (Dahomey) Section.

Little Popo, Frederick J. Martin, Native Assistant Minister.

Grifi, an Agent.

Aghwey, Aron E. Franklin, Native Minister.

Whydah, to be re-occupied.

Port Novo, Thomas J. Marshall, Native Minister; a Catechist; two Evangelists.

Badagry (Tonon), a Catechist.

Owo, an Agent.

N. B.—Thomas J. Marshall superintends the Popo Section.

One European wanted for training work in this section.

3.—The Yoruba Section.

Lagos, Edmund Tomlin, Educational Department; James B. Thomas, Native Minister; Simeon P. Johnson, Native Assistant Minister; a Catechist.

Yaba, Wm. B. George, Native Minister.

Mofoluku, an Evangelist.

Mushin, an Agent.

Woronshoki and Lower River Ogun, an Evangelist.

Worth Thinking Of.

What Ayer's Cherry Pectoral does:—

It prevents the growth, to serious illness, of a dangerous class of diseases that begin as mere trivial ailments, and are too apt to be neglected as such.
It alleviates even the most desperate cases of pulmonary diseases, and affords to the patient a last and the only chance for restoration to health.
It breaks up a cold, and stops a cough more speedily, certainly, and thoroughly than any other medicine.
It spares mothers much painful anxiety about their children, and saves the little ones' lives.
It cures all lung and throat diseases that can be reached by human aid.

How Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Does Such Good.

It expels the mucus from the throat and the air passages of the head, and cleanses the mucous membrane.
It allays inflammation, puts a stop to tickling in the throat and coughing, and enables the patient to rest.
It heals sore throat, reduces the swollen tonsils, and restores natural tone to the affected vocal cords.
It soothes to natural and refreshing slumber, during which Nature regains strength to combat disease.
It clears out and heals diseased air cells in the lungs, and helps Nature to repair the waste made by the corrosion of pulmonary disease.
It puts a stop to the cankerous decay of Catarrh.

Why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so Perfect a Medicine.

Because it is a scientifically ordered compound, of great potency, the product of years of study, observation, and experience in the treatment of throat and lung diseases.
Because it is prepared from the purest forms of the drugs employed in it, chemically combined by a process of such perfection and accuracy as would be unattainable, even by the most skillful pharmacist, dealing with small quantities.
Because it is not only the most effective medicine for the uses to which it is designed, but, owing to the enormous quantities in which it is made, is sold at so low a price that it is placed within the reach of every household.
Because it is an active curative agent, that must be taken by drops, as prescribed in the directions accompanying each bottle, and not a mere palliative syrup that may be swallowed by mouthfuls.

Where Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Stands Before the World.

It is popularly known to be a medicine that has cured laryngeal, bronchial, and pulmonary affections where all others had failed.
It is a favorite household remedy to-day with people whose lives were saved by it, when they were young, a generation ago.
It has held the first place in popular estimation for nearly half a century in this country, and is more and more highly appreciated, year after year, both at home and abroad.
It evokes daily, from all over the world, expressions of gratitude for lives saved by its use.
It is everywhere recommended by reputable druggists, who know, from conversations with their patrons, and from their own experience, how almost magical are its effects for good.
It is regularly prescribed by many physicians of the best standing, and is recommended by Professors of Medical Colleges, to their students, as invaluable for all diseases of the throat and lungs.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., [Analytical Chemists] Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists: Price $1, six bottles for $5.

Abbeokuta, Alfred T. E. Bartrop (Ogbe). Training Institution and Pioneer Work; Charles B. Macaulay (Itesi), Native Assistant Minister; a Catechist.

N. B.—Edmund Tomlin superintends the Yoruba Section.

4.—The Nupe Section.

Bida (Wunangi), M. James Elliott.

Ago, an Agent.

Egga, a Catechist and an Evangelist.

Pada, one European to be sent, Training Institution and Pioneer Work; Thomas E. Williams, Native Minister.

N. B.—Michael James Elliott superintends the Nupe Section

W. TERRY COPPIN.
Acting Chairman of the District and General Superintendent.
—The Methodist Herald and West African Educational Times, Freetown, Sierra Leone, W. A., Sept. 24, 1884.

Among the chief troubles of Mr. Gladstone's four year's of recent Premiership have been this differences with Lord Derby, with John Bright, and the question of the occupancy of the chief offices at Dublin Castle.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

Trade Mark. QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

—THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 00
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. Matthew I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	60
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism (Unabridged. Stevens	3 00
Defence of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theologies Instituties. Part II—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conyeare and Howson. Abridged Edition	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics—Terry	3 00
History of Rationalism—Hurst

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St Paul.—Fetcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition.—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	1 25
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm.	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	40
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Books to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT.
33 Natchez St New Orleans.

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

'Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME.

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:48 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:26 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi.	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m
Mail No. 4....5:00 p. m.	Express No. 3..10:45 a. m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a m	Sunday Excur'n 8:30 p m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Commes.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Knickern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division a23-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE TO Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn. and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City. For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or H. D. BURNS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNE,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

CATARRH

AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Cough, Hay Fever, Bronchitis and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured, by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the bones of the nose have become affected. No douches, snuffs, washes, inhalers, or atomizers. The medicines are so pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Brockington has had sixteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and Fifty Dollars (cash preferred), for a trial package (by mail), to last fifteen days, with full instructions for treatment.

Address, Dr. C. H. BROCKINGTON
[illegible] Avenue,
[illegible]

oct2-1yr

AGENTS wanted for the History of Christianity, by Abbott. A grand chance. A fast book at the popular price of $1.75. Liberal terms. The religious papers mention it as one of the few great religious works of the world. Greater success never known to agents. Terms free. STINSON & Co., Publishers, Portland, Maine. Mar27-eom

General News Item.

The pyramidal capstone of the Washington monument is completed and stand in the sheds of the monument grounds.

In the United States we have 164,832 schools, against 176,627 saloons. The schools cost $211,311,530. The saloons cost $872,610,000.

Goldsmith's Plays.—Goldsmith received £1,300 for the only two plays he ever wrote; viz. £500 for the "Good Natured Man," and £800 for "She Stoops to Conquer."

Great Britian has at last decided to establish its protectorate over the southern coasts of New Guinea and the adjacent islands, the decision being hastend by the increase of the slave trade there.

Mr. Adolph Sutro, who designed and executed the great Sutro tunnel to drain the Comstock mine in Nevada, proposes to give San Francisco a public library, to cost several hundred thousand dollars.

The 15th of October, 1684, was the date of that session of the General Court which gave to the plantation on Lake Quinsigamond the name of Worcester. The two hundredth anniversary of this date was celebrated by the city with much enthusiasm.

Kuichi Kuki, an educate Japanese, and the author of the present school system of Japan, arrived in Washington last week as the new ambassador from Japan. He is but 33 years old, and so is the youngest foreign Minister at the national capital.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any [illegible] Friends are brought together by means of the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—Please help me to find my father. His name is Alfred Gunter. My name is Thomas [illegible]lor, my mother is dead, but she used to belong to J. Batchelor. I was about one month old when she died. She died in North Carolina, near Enfield, her name was Caroline Batchelor. She was married twice, first to Henry; and after went to Alford Batchelor. I had a brother Edward, any one who can tell me anything about them will please write to me in care of Thomas McAfee, Spinks, P. O. Kemper County, Miss.

THOMAS GUNTER.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my father Abraham Beard. My mother, also belong to Mr. Bythe Beard, and a sister by the name of Millie Crawford. I had a brother by the name of Charles Mallie. My sister Millie was sold at sale in Woodville, North Carolina. I then went by the name of Mary Beards, but I now go by the name of Lucy Powell. Any information concerning them will be gladly received. Address me at [illegible] Texas, care of Rev. E. [illegible], Lock box 165.

ARTY POWELL.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my mother and one sister. My mother's name is Harriet [illegible] sister's name is [illegible] mother's first husband's name was William Nash. [illegible] with me. I left [illegible] and have not [illegible] I came to [illegible] Dr. [illegible] La. Telling [illegible] concerning them [illegible] received by [illegible] [illegible] of Henry [illegible], Washington county [illegible]

[illegible] will write to [illegible] Rock, Pontotoc, Miss. [illegible] they will please [illegible] [illegible] of her people. [illegible]

[illegible] wish to locate [illegible] I have not [illegible] they were [illegible] Dunn, of [illegible]

The M. E. Church.

Dedication.

The Gilbert Haven, Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, in Sperry Street, New Haven, Conn., was dedicated Oct. 26th, at 3 p. m. A good audience participated in the exercises. The little church was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. A heavy cluster of autumn leaves was fastened to the pillars in front of the pulpit. In gilt letters upon the white walls were the Bible sentence:

We shall see Him as He is:
We shall be like Him.

The inscription in evergreen letters,
In memory of Gilbert Haven,
Was in position on the wall in rear of the pulpit.

Bishop William L. Harris, D. D., L.L. D., of New York, conducted the exercises and delivered an address after the opening services.

Rev. Dr. Goodsell said that he wished the white churches of the city would give as the people of this church had given. This church had made great sacrifices.

Rev. Mr. Johnson, the pastor, then called upon members of his congregation to come forward and pay their subscription, and the response was liberal. After $105 in cash had been placed upon the altar, and Dr. Goodsell had announced that Rev. Dr. Vincent would add $25, members of the church passed around in the isles and took collections. Dr. Goodsell said that the conditions under which the church had been built retarded its prosperity in the past but the future of the society was likely to be successful.

Dr. Goodsell said. "Well, here is $25 from Bro. William O. Armstrong, and a like amount from a brother in my church who did not wish his name mentioned. Now we are going to have a five and ten cent collection from the people in the pews. You see they didn't understand it before. We have $250 collected already.' During the afternoon nearly $300 was raised. The debt upon the church is $678

The collection and donation during the time it has been a Methodist Episcopal Church is $655.

After the collections the church was then dedicated according to the ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Bishop Harris read the service, and the response by the congregation was led by Rev. Dr. Goodsell. Seated upon the platform were Bishop Harris, Rev. Dr Goodsell, Rev Mr Johnson, Rev Mr Cunningham, of the East Pearl street, M. E Church, Rev. Mr. Ford, of the George street Church, Rev W W Bridge; also Rev Mr Chipp, of Hudson, N Y. The trustees, John Norcom, Steven Beatie, James Austin, John Williams, George Boater, Daniel Counter and H H Phillips presented the church for dedication to the Bishop, repeating these words: "We present unto you this building, to dedicate as a church for the service and worship of Almighty God." The services were concluded with the doxology, sung by the choirs choir and congregation, followed by the benediction.

The Methodist Episcopal Church expects every member to fulfill his or her obligation to the church paper of the South. The SOUTHWESTERN ought to be placed in every Methodist household, where either a child or a grown person can read.

Nervousness.

The moment there is danger of impairment of the mind from excessive nervous exhaustion, or where there exists forebodings of evil, a desire for solitude, shunning and avoiding company, vertigo and nervous debility, or when insanity has already taken place, PERUNA and MANALIN should be implicitly relied on. But it is never well to wait so long before treatment is commenced. The early symptoms are loss of strength, softness of the muscles, dim or weak sight, peculiar expression of the face and eyes, coated tongue, with impaired digestion; or in others, certain powers only are lost while they are otherwise enjoying comparatively good health. In all these PERUNA and MANALIN should at once be taken.

Mrs. S. Smith, Hillsville, Lawrence County, Pa., writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.: I have been a great sufferer for ten years. It seemed as though every organ in my body was diseased at one time or another. I had about given up all hopes, when I commenced taking PERUNA and MANALIN. I immediately began to improve, the soreness and pain disappeared, strength gradually returned, and now I am as well as ever in my life, and I owe it all to your PERUNA and MANALIN. I recommended it to my friends and it gives better satisfaction than any other medicine I ever heard of."

Miss Maria Roderick, Warren, Ohio, writes: "It is with pleasure and many thanks that I write to you to tell you of the great benefit I have derived from the use of the PERUNA. I have used several bottles of your PERUNA, and can safely say it has done me a great deal of good. I have improved ever since I commenced its use."

Mr. T. J. Webber, Plymouth, O., writes: "I am selling your PERUNA, and having a good trade on it. It gives excellent satisfaction."

Mr. Thomas Acton, Brooklyn Village, Cleveland, Ohio, says: "I received a severe wound in my foot by tramping on a spike. It inflamed and was painful and swollen. I had every reason to fear lockjaw. Your simple suggestions as to local applications and the taking of your PERUNA and MANALIN were followed to the letter, and, thanks to you, my foot is entirely well, and I am happy."

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez street.

ST. MATTHEW M. E CHURCH—On Varnet Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30. E O. Barrow, Pastor

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 9 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 p m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7:0 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve 7:30; Class, Monday eve

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a m., 3 and 7 p m Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class-meeting Monday evening Preaching Wednesday evening Prayer-meeting Friday evening General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a m Preaching at 11 a. m, 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p m Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Prieur, two blocks above the last station. Rev M. O. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m, 3 an 7 p. m Sunday. Sunday-school 9 a m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a m, and communion at 7 Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F. Hoyt, M. A., acting President 1428 St Charles Street.

First Street—Rev T. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p m. Class meeting Monday evening General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 372 pp. Price, stiff paper, .$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.
mar20-52t

YOU CAN MAKE MONEY Fast in a pleasant business, address FINLEY, GRANT & Co., New Orleans, La.
oct2-4teow

IT PAYS to sell our Rubber Stamps. FREE catalogue to agents. Folsombe & Co. Cleveland O. a25-4teow

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

EDUCATIONAL.

WILEY UNIVERSITY.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

Academic Year opened Sept. 22

No School Does More for its Pupils.

College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.

Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.

Competent and Experienced Faculty.

Expenses Very Low.

For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't,
o t3 Marshall, Texas.

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts,

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. L. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue,
sept4-3m New Orleans, La.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
28 inches....	175 lbs.....	325 lbs.....	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs.....	375 lbs.....	55 00
32 "	350 lbs.....	550 lbs.....	80 00
36 "	550 lbs.....	800 lbs.....	120 00
40 "	750 lbs.....	1050 lbs.....	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs.....	1350 lbs.....	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs.....	1800 lbs.....	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs.....	2900 lbs.....	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

12 inches.....	100 lbs.....	$13 00
20 inches.....	130 lbs.....	18 00
24 inches.....	190 lbs.....	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry
Manufacture those celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
feb1-26t-eow

ELLYMYER MF'G CO. BELLS.
Church, School, Fire-alarm, Fine-toned, low-priced, warranted. Catalogue with 1500 testimonials, prices, etc., sent free
Ellymyer Manufacturing Co., Cincinnati, O.
july3 26teow

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,

Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.

A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.

VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.

For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oct18-1y

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,

Cocoa and Canton Matting, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain Goods,

Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Plates, Wire Screens, Etc.

75 Camp Street ..... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade. Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct2-4m

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1869.

CASH CAPITAL..... $600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849 Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.

W. E. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Secty.

TRUSTEES

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo W Sentell,	Alfred Moulton,	W B. Conger
W. E. Lyman,	U. Marioni,	Chas H. Dolsen,	John Calder,	A H. Brevard
S. C. Coulon.	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Peoples,	J. V Reiss.	Louis Prados
Lucien Delery,	Charles Newman,	N. J. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M Gillis
R. F W. Rochman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig,	A. Rosenfeld,	John D. Fisher
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn.	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

☞ See our Agents throughout the South. oc'9 1y

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For

And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our questions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio

feb7-1y

THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL AND COTTON CENTENNIAL

EXPOSITION

New Orleans.

Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.

—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—

United States Government.

$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.

Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.

The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.

The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.

For information, address
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. L. & C. C. E.,
New Orleans, La.

HARTER'S THE ONLY TRUE IRON TONIC

Will purify the BLOOD, vitalize the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST. Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK." Full of strange and useful information, free.
may8-1y

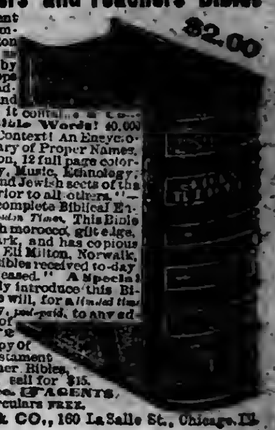
AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.

sept25 to nov27



4% LONG LOANS.

PRINCIPAL need never be REPAID

so long as interest is kept up. Personal security only for interest. Honest poor or men of moderate means can send 6 cents for particulars, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

sept13-1 t

The Ministers' and Teachers' Bible.

This magnificent Parlor Bible is imported from London and is indorsed as The Best by the leading Bishops of England. In addition to the Old and New Testaments it contains a Concordance of Bible Words! 40,000 References with Context! An Encyclopedia. A Dictionary of Proper Names, with Pronunciation, 12 full page colored Maps. Poetry, Music, Echnology, Plants, Animals, and Jewish sects of the Bible, etc. "superior to all others."—N. Y. Times. "A complete Biblical Encyclopædia."—London Times. This Bible is bound in French morocco, gilt edge, with silk book-mark, and has copious references. Rev. Eli Milton, Norwalk, O., writes "The Bibles received to-day I am more than pleased." A Special Offer! To rapidly introduce this Bible in America we will, for a limited time only, send one copy, post-paid, to any address on receipt of only $2.00! In clubs of 5 copies and one copy of Revised New Testament for $11.00! Other Bibles, with less matter, sell for $15. Orders at once. AGENTS WANTED! Circulars FREE.

C. S. MAYO & CO., 160 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.
jan31-26teow

SWEET GUM & MULLEIN

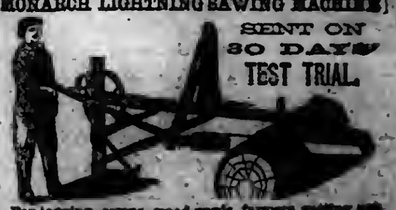
The sweet gum taken from the tree of the Southern Swamps contains a stimulating expectorant principle which loosens the phlegm, and cuts the false membrane, relieving the early morning cough in Consumption, curing Coughs, Croup, and Whooping Cough. This, combined with the mucilaginous healing and flesh producing principle in the Mullein Plant of the old field, presents in Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein, the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Colds, and Consumption. For full information send 2 ct. stamp for "Taylor's Riddle Book" for the wellfare of home and amusement of the little ones.

WALTER A. TAYLOR, Atlanta, Ga.
sept25-26:eow

AGENTS Send for A-LOG. E. B. TREAT'S new books, including MOTHER, HOME, and HEAVEN, 160,000 sold. 8cts by mail. Agents that have sold it for bankrupt Gen. Agents—Send direct to the publisher. Also 5000 Curiosities of the Bible, 5cts. 40,000 sold. E. B. TREAT, Pub. 757 Broadway, N. Y.
nov6-4t

MILLERS and FARMERS Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro. Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.
may22-1y

Established 1857.



The GREAT CHURCH LIGHT

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors for Gas or Oil, give the most powerful, softest cheapest & Best light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Banks, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A Liberal discount to churches and the trade. Don't be deceived by cheap imitations.
I. P. FRINK, 451 Pearl St., N. Y.
aug2-20t eow

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address True & Co., Augusta, Me.

Sawing Made Easy.

MONARCH LIGHTNING SAWING MACHINES

For logging camps, wood-yards, farmers cutting stove wood, and all sorts of log-cutting—it is the most rapid. Thousands sold yearly. A boy of 16 can saw logs handy and easy. Immense [illegible] of lumber and money. [illegible] for elegantly [illegible] also brilliantly [illegible] Co., (A) 202 State St., Chicago, Ill.
sept18-13teow

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
A marvel of purity, ... economical. ... not be sold in ... of low test short ... powder. Sold only ... POWDER CO. ... 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER. LESSON VIII. Nov. 23. Prov. 1, 1-16.

It is very sad, to know that if a man has been a sinner in his youth, ... repents and is saved, ... effects of his ... to be felt. ... that will ... not recall. It is a comfort, ... to know that if a man has ... or written ... blessed to the ... A proverb is an ... truth stated in a few ... proverbs of Sol ... in the Bible, ... rule to all who will ... Solomon himself ... them fell into sin ... the boy of our time ... himself really wiser ... King of Israel notwithstanding. Wisdom is not shown ... by knowing what is best ... as by doing it. The ... beginning of knowledge, ... come before wisdom, is ... the Lord. If we have ... fear of offending the Lord, ... obey his commands, which ... highest wisdom. It is said ... fifth verse, as we see every ... that the wise men are willing to ... it, and therefore know more ... all the time, but fools for- ... n, and those who teach ... continue to be foolish. ... advises children to do ... parents have told them, ... their mothers. Such ... and obedience will be as ... jewels worn on the head ... which were as much ... these days. An obedi- ... to put on himself an or- ... can not buy, ... the poorest and ... himself. The ... to his own son, ... "If wicked ... do ... make ... with ... has become a ... man; because ... the company ... than the ser- ... Only by the ... we follow the ... but it will ... child who ... truth.—Wes.

Marriages.

On Tuesday night, at the Augusta place, the home of the bride, many friends and well-wishers assembled to witness the marriage of Mr. Marshall Johnson to Miss Catherine Averate, both of Rosedale.

GEO. W. WELLS.

At Mason, Tenn., Nov. 2, 1884, at the residence of Prof. C. E Alexander, Mr. Armstead Steward to Miss Alida H. Cage, by the writer, assisted by Rev. J. L. Massey. The wedding was a grand occasion. Mr. Steward is a blacksmith by trade and probably worth $3000 in property, in Mason. He built a nice house at a cost of $1000, and furnished it comfortably. His bride is the daughter of Prof. C. E. Alexander's wife's sister, and a scholar in Mason Preparatory School; and a member of our church in Mason. She has taught school with credit to herself and school, and has made a wise choice for her future life. JESSE P. PRICE.

At the parsonage, in Morgan City, La., Nov. 6, 1884, Mr. John H. Harrison to Mrs. Rebecca Morris, by Rev. H. C. Armston.

So Dry and Brittle.

"What do you suppose makes my hair so dry and brittle?" We suppose that the glands which supply moisture to it need a stimulous. A bottle of Parker's Hair Balsam will do the business, and save your hair soft and shining. There is no mistake about this. No oil, no dye. Restores original color, removes dandruff

Obituary.

Lula Hall, daughter of Rev. J. W. Hall, of the Alamo circuit, Tennessee Conference, died Nov. 10, 1884 Lula was born at Paris, Tenn., Sept. 17, 1883. She died of brain fever during the first quarterly conference. JESSE P. PRICE, P. E.

Bro. Geo. Dunlap, of Woodlawn, La., for many years a member of the M. E. Church, died at 2 o'clock p. m. Saturday, full of the triumph of faith. He lingered in his afflictions for five months. Bro. Dunlap was a native of Virginia, and came South some time before the war. He claimed to have been whipped for serving God, but for all that he stood a soldier for Jesus. Before he died he sent for me, and told me to preach his funeral and tell everybody that a hero is about to leave this smoking field of battle. All is well. Many friends mourn his departure. J. W. LEWIS

Bro. John Morse, a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Horn Hill, Limestone county, Texas, died Oct. 18, 1884, in the 27th year of his age. He was converted, and joined the church in August, 1884. He died full of faith in Christ, leaving a bereaved church and three little children, with a loving wife, to mourn his loss. J. BUELL, Pastor.

Died; Nov. 8, 1884, Mrs. Charlotte Pendeton, mother-in-law of Hon. William Harris, of Musson station. Sister Pendeton was an old resident of Grosse Tete, loved and respected by all who knew her. White and colored followed her remains to the White Oak Cemetery, where it was interred by the side of her husband, Rev. James Pendeton, who founded the Shiloh Mission. Three living daughters, a host of grandchildren and many friends mourn her loss to the community.

GEO. W. WELLS.

Rosedale, La.

Andrew Derrickson, late of 316 Terpsichore St., New Orleans, La., died Nov. 2nd, and was buried on the 3d. His widow wishes to inform his brother, William Derrickson, late of the Philadelphia Enquirer, and a number of others, and his relatives in that city, of his death, and divide with them his effects.

MRS SARAH DERRICKSON,
316 Terpsichore St., N. O., La.

Philadelphia Enquirer and other papers please copy.

Rev. G. Harden died at his home in Natchez, Miss., June 21, aged 76 years He has been preaching 40 years. He joined the conference in 1869, and was ordained deacon at Canton, Miss., Jan. 10, 1869, by Bishop Simpson. We learn from his dear companions that he died in full triumph of his faith. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss. W. MCDONALD.

Miss Larah Adeline, oldest daughter of Rev. Bro. and Sister A. W. Parker, of Jefferson, Texas, died on the camp ground during camp meeting, at Wallack's Church, Texas, in August last. Her father, mother, three daughters and brother remain to mourn her loss. She was born Dec. 15, 1867, and died August 17, 1884. She repeated the Lord's prayer just before death. Her passage was a triumph over the green monster.

HER FATHER.

J. E. OGILVIE—Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music. Also tunes and repairs pianos and organs at reasonable rates. Residence, 39 South Johnson Street.

Counterfeiting a Valuable Article.

The publisher of the Madison County Record writes from Huntsville, Ark., as to the effect of Brown's Iron Bitters on his wife. Mr. Dougherty says: "My wife has been using the Bitters for some months; the effect in her case is remarkable." He also writes that owing to counterfeits and imitations, it was difficult to get the genuine article. That difficulty has now been remedied; imitations have been exposed and put to flight. There, as elsewhere, Brown's Iron Bitters can be had of all the respectable druggists at a dollar a bottle.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Sermon Sketches.

BY DR. W. D GODMAN.

Theme—"Conditions of Discipleship" Matt. xvi, 24: "If any man will come after me let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me"

Introductory.—These words are fundamental, furnishing the test marks of Christian character. The question "Christian or non-Christian" is herein answered.

1. The relation of disciple is voluntary. The members of God's household are such because they choose to be; may cease to be disciples if they choose. "If any man will come after me;" compare Rev. 22, 17. The same is implied and assumed in every command, such as "repent," Matt. 4:17; "believe," John, 14, 1.

2. The second condition is self renunciation. The word self-denial would not adequately represent the Savior's meaning. Men often deny one propensity for the sake of another and are said then to practice "self-denial." For example, a man wears poor clothes and eats cheap food in order to gain and save money. But that which Christ enjoins and sets forth as an essential Christian character is the renouncing of all propensities for his sake. Compare Phil. 3: 7-8.

3. "And take up his cross." The second condition is in conception and statement negative. This third imposes a positive course of action which is against nature; (a) our own; (b) other men's; and involves a sacrifice not only of gratification of propensities, but also of (c) interests of business; (d) reputation among men; (e) friendship; (f) life itself. The assumption made here, and which Christ makes everywhere, is that both our individual nature, and the world of men are against Him.

4. The fourth condition is perseverance. Compare Matt. 10, 22, John 15, 4.

L T cbe, La.

The Judgment Day.

Theme—"For the great day of His wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?"—Rev. vi., 17.

This will be a day of

I. Surprising revelations.
II. Final account.
III. Separation.
IV. Irrevocable Decisions.

Who shall be able to stand? Shall the half-hearted, indifferent Christian? Shall the backslider? Shall the impertinent sinner? Alas! Alas! None of these shall be able to stand before the penetrating gaze of the great Judge. Only those who are united to Christ by living faith, who have been washed in the blood of the Lamb, and who are thus prepared to enter into life.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conference.	Place.	Time.	Bishop.
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	Wiley
South India	Hyderabad, India	Nov 20	Hurst
Texas	Navasota, Texas	Nov 20	Harris
Cent'l Alabama	Gadsden, Ala	Nov 26	Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov 27	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec 3	Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec 4	Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La.	Dec 24	Harris

Spring Conferences of 1885.

Conferences.	Place.	Time.	Bishop
North India	Bareilly, India	Jan. 8	Hurst
Mexico	Mexico City, Mex	" 15	Harris
Florida	Jacksonville, Fla	" 22	Ninde
South Carolina	Cheraw, S. C.	" 29	Ninde
Louisiana	Baton Rouge, La	" 29	Mallalieu
Liberia	Monrovia, Lib	" 29	Taylor
North Carolina	Lumberton, N. C.	Feb. 5	Ninde
Mississippi	Aberdeen, Miss	" 5	Mallalieu
Blue Ridge	Pigeon Valley, N. C	" 12	Ninde
South America	Buenos Ayres, Arg	" 12
Little Rock	Van Buren, Ark	" 18	Mallalieu
Virginia	Lynchburg, Va	" 26	Foster
Arkansas	Rogers, Ark	" 26	Mallalieu
Baltimore	Baltimore, Md.	Mar. 5	Foster
Washington	Washington, D C	" 5	Merrill
Wilmington	Snow Hill, Md.	" 12	Merrill
South Kansas	Independence, Kan	" 12	Andrews
C. Pennsylvania	Huntingdon, Pa	" 12	Foss
Kansas	Clay Center	" 12	Fowler
S. W. Kansas	Caldwell, Kan	" 19	Andrews
New Jersey	Brunswick, N. J	" 19	Warren
Philadelphia	Chester, Pa	" 19	Foss
East German	Rochester, N. Y.	" 19	Walden
Missouri	Macon City, Mo.	" 19	Fowler
N. W. Kansas	Clyde, Kan	" 26	Andrews
Newark		" 26	Walden
Saint Louis	Lebanon, Mo	" 26	Fowler
Lexington	Springfield, Ohio	April 2	Wiley
New York East	Hartford, Conn	" 2	Merrill
New York	Poughkeepsie, N. Y	" 2	Warren
Wyoming	Owego	" 9	Foster
N. New York	Ogdensburg, N. Y	" 9	Warren
New England	Springfield, Mass.	" 9	Foss
Italy	Venice, Italy	" 9	Hurst
North Indiana	New Castle, Ind	" 9	Walden
N. E. Southern	Hookville, Conn	" 16	Harris
New Hampshire	Littleton, N. H	" 16	Foss
Troy	Saratoga, N. Y	" 23	Bowman
Maine	Biddeford, Me	" 23	Harris
Vermont	Bellows Falls, Vt	" 30	Bowman
East Maine	Ellsworth, Me	May 7	Bowman
Delaware	Salisbury, Md	" 7	Wiley
Sweden	Motala, Sweden	" 14	Hurst
Norway	Trondhjem, Nor.	" 28	Hurst
Denmark	Jonell		Hurst
Ger. & Swed'sh	Stuttgart, Ger	" 18	Hurst

By order of the Board of Bishops.
WILLIAM L. HARRIS, Secretary.
New York, Nov. 4, 1884.

Special Notice.

Delegates to the Centennial Conference to be held in Baltimore in December next, who have special arrangements for their entertainment, will greatly oblige the committee by sending notice thereof at once to L T WEDERMAN, 143 E Monument St, Baltimore, Md.

West Texas Conf. Notice.

Dear Brethren—As it has fell to my lot to entertain you again in annual session, I feel it my duty to speak a few plain words to you concerning this anticipated and important meeting. (All of our sessions are important.) We are to meet on the 4 th of December, to be decon rep r es ete, a t e e s of a g zing public, who will watch with eagle eyes to find fault with you as ministers of the M. E. Church. Be valient, quit yourselves like men, etc Six years ago you met in this city; the water was at low-ebb Now the tide is some hing h gher. Students of the Paul Quinn Institute will no doubt meet you here, also teachers of the public schools of this city. The last conf rence held here by the A. M. E. Church, it is said, was the of much confusion. Brethren, let it not be the case in our session. I know I am but a child, and need that one teach me, but I appeal to you as fathers and brothers let not this be the case with us. Of course I was not able to be with you in your last session, and He who knows the thoughts of all hearts can tell whether I will live to be with you in your next session or not. I hope you will remember when you are coming, and what is what! Many of you know whereof I speak. You shall be tried five days. Many things I could say, but a hint, a word to the wise is sufficient. I shall do all I can to arrange for your comfort. If I have done anything since I have been a member of this conference worthy of note ye yourselves are the judges, for you were the recipients of my labors in preparing for you. I hope to meet you, Brethren, at conference. My trials this year have been many; my grief inexpressible. This is probably my last year in Texas. Yours, in Christ,

JAMES R. CARNES.

Programme

Of the Argenta District, Little Rock Conference: We, the Committee appointed by the First District Conference held for Argenta District, Little Rock Conference, Van Buren, Ark., July 10, 1884, to draft a programme of literary exercises for the next district conference, to be held at Fort Smith, Ark., submit the following as subjects to be written upon and to be read in the conference:

The necessity of an educated ministry—Presiding Elder.
Repentance, and what it is—U S Kitchens.
Conversion, and what it is—P Markns.
How to conduct a revival—G W Taylor.
Education, and how to obtain it—A L Richardson.
The Scriptural mode of baptism—A J Phillips.
The Lord's Supper, and why it should be continued in the church—R Boone.
How to succeed on a new work—F Wallace.
How to conduct prayer-meetings to make them profitable—W H Higgins.
What is implied in the word Temperance—J D Johnson
The duty of a class-leader—H McDonald.
The duty of stewards—B McCain.
How to raise money for building churches—W H Crawford.
The qualification necessary for a Sunday-school teacher—S Marrs
The sin of intemperance—J P Mack.
How preachers should deport themselves among the people—H Moore.
The duty of a local preacher—R Bean.
The qualifications a Sunday-school superintendent should have—I Scott.
How Christians should observe the Sabbath—S M Stokes.

All local preachers or exhorters whose names do not appear in the foregoing programme will please take notice that they are requested by the committee to write on some subject of their own selection and bring or send it to the district conference.

W H CRAWFORD,
F WALLACE,
S MARRS,
Committee.

HOW THE FARM PAYS By William Crozier and Peter Henderson. Just issued. A new work of 400 pages, containing 225 illustrations. Sent post-paid for $2.50. Table of Contents mailed free. AGENTS WANTED. PETER HENDERSON & CO., 35 & 37 Cortlandt Street, New York.

Hot Springs District Conf.

Fourth Round.

Fulton Mission	Nov. 15-16
Texarkana Station	" 29-30
Louisville circuit	Dec. 6-7
Pacific a cir	" 13-14
Washington cir	" 20-21
Hot Springs sta	" 27-28
Pine Bluff sta	Jan. 3-4

I will publish the others at another time. Dear Brethren, remember this is our great centennial jubilee year, and all should try to do something for the Lord. As we have not had our centennial jubilee district conference yet, I think it wise to take the 22d and 23d days of November to hold our centennial jubilee district conference at Hot Springs, at 10 o'clock a. m. Preachers and exhorters will please turn out and let us make a grand rally, as we will never have the chance again. Let each brother go to work at once and try to get each member and friend of our Methodism to give one dollar or as much as they will give, and bring it to the district conference. Doing this will enable us to make a good report. Try it, and the Lord will help us to get our salary the remainder of the year. Let no Brother cry out "hard times." David said he "never saw the righteous forsaken, or their seed begging bread." May God help us to do the work assigned us, each with an honest heart, for it is the only way to true success. I am your co-laborer and brother in the fruition and kingdom of Christ.

G B DONNELLY
P. E. Hot Springs District.

Philadelphia District,

I H White, P.E, 1773 Alder St., Phila, Pa

Merchantsville	Nov. 15-16
Camden, Scott's	" 16-17
Germantown	" 23-24
Frankfort	" 23-25
Port Deposit	" 29-30
Wilmington	Nov 30, Dec. 1
Zoar	" 7-8
Chester	" 7-9
Wilmington cir	" 13-14
Newark, N J	" 14-15

Full reports this quarter will be a great advantage to the church; will explain to you at the preacher's meeting, where I hope to meet the pastors, D. V. Our charge has complied with my letter to pastors and officials, in full collections up to date. May others do likewise, which will be right. I H WHITE, P E.

Dover District

Geo H Washington, P.E., Thurlow, Pa
Second Quarter

Vienna	Nov. 15-16
Church Creek	" 22-23
Cambridge	" 23-24
Madison	" 29 30

Now, Brethren, we hope to have a faithful performance of all duties pertaining to this quarter, and let us do our best, that the Lord may bless our efforts.

G H WASHINGTON, P E.

Easton District.

L Y Cox, P E., Box 242, Milford, Del.

Easton	Nov. 15-16
Talbot	" 15-16
Trappe	" 22 23

All the members of the quarterly conference will please meet promptly with accurate reports. L Y COX, P E.

Salisbury District.

W H Coffey, P E, Salisbury, Md.

Quantico	Nov. 15-16
Salisbury Station	" 23-24
Salisbury Circuit	" 29-30

Dear Brethren—We have laid a good foundation and let us build accordingly. Leave not a stone unturned. Have your reports full and correct Fairmount stood at the head of the list in benevolent collections ($56) last year—who will be first this year? Do not be satisfied to be last, there is no need for it. Do not forget the papers. Show yourselves to be good workmen for God's cause. Push the battle to the gates. Re-read my letter to the pastors. I congratulate you on your success so far, and may God bless you abundantly. Every hour, day, week and month calls for work. W H COFFEY, P E.

Hemorrhage and Asthma.

Extracts from letters of persons who were CURED with East India Hemp, and now order for their friends.

"I known all about the Cannabis Indica. Fifteen years ago it cured my daughter of the Asthma; she had it for several years, but was perfectly cured. Please send me a $9 box of your medicine."

JACOB TROTT,
Deep River, Poweshiek county, Iowa.

"I fear consin is in a decline, and as the medicine cured my only brother of a Hemorrhage of the Lungs about a year ago, I wish consin to take them."

Thy true friend, HANNAH MICKLE,
Near Woodbury, N. J.

None but pint bottles. $2.50 per bottle, or three bottles for $6.50. Address CRADDOCK & CO., Sole Proprietors, 1032 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6 50 Circulars free. se18 13t

Closer still: What, O brother, sister, would work such a blessed change in your Christian life as for you to begin now the habit of regular private devotion? Will you do it?—Nashville Christian Advocate.

For Sufferers Chronic Diseases, 36 pp symptoms, remedies, helps, advice. Send stamp—Dr. Whittier, St. Louis, Mo. (oldest office.) State case your way. sept20.26teow

"Itching Piles."—Symptoms: Moisture.

Like perspiration, intense itching, worse by scratching, most at night, seems if pin-worms were crawling. "Swayne's Ointment" is a pleasant, sure cure. ner13-1yr-eow

Thousands of infants are slowly starving, because mothers cannot provide the proper nourishment. Alternate nursing, and Ridge's Food will often supply all the luck, and quiet nights and happy, joyous days will be the result. Try it, mothers, if your child is not in perfect health and see if you cannot join in testimony with the thousands who have been blessed by its use. Sold by druggists. In cans, 4 sizes, retailing 25c., 50c., $1.25 and $1.75. WOOLRICH & CO., on every label.

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Biboleni, Manager)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20 ..... Toulouse Street, ... 20
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Person I at ention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rende ed for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates, for each liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.

No trains on Sundays sept25-tf

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
100 ..... Franklin Street 100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
sept25-6m

Cuticura
A POSITIVE CURE for every form of SKIN & BLOOD DISEASE. from
PIMPLES to SCROFULA

ITCHING Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous, Inherited, Contagious, and Copper Colored Diseases of the Blood Skin and Scalp, with loss of Hair, are positively cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements and removes the cause.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair.

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite, prepared from CUTICURA, is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

All everywhere. Price Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 25 cents; Resolvent, $1 Prepared by POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL Co., BOSTON, Mass

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."

BARNES'
Patent Foot and Steam Power Machinery. Complete outfits for Actual Workshop Business, Lathes for Wood or Metal, Circular Saws, Scroll Saws, Formers, Mortisers, Tenoners, etc., etc. Machines on trial if desired. Descriptive Catalogue and Price List Free.
No. 187 Ruby St. W. F. & JOHN BARNES, Rockford, Ill.
nov13-6m

MASON & HAMLIN

Exhibited at ALL the important WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL COMPETITIVE EXHIBITIONS FOR SEVENTEEN YEARS, Mason & Hamlin Organs have after most rigid examinations and comparisons been ALWAYS FOUND BEST, and AWARDED HIGHEST HONORS; not even in one such important comparison has any other American Organ been found equal to them. ONE ORGANS HUNDRED STYLES, adapted to all uses, from the smallest size, yet having the characteristic Mason & Hamlin excellence, at $22, to the best instrument which it is possible to construct from reeds, at $900 or more. Illustrated catalogues, 64 pp. etc., and price lists, free.

The Mason & Hamlin Company manufacture UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, adding to all the improvements been found valuable in such instruments, PIANOS one of peculiar practical value, tending to greatest purity and refinement in quality of tone and durability, especially diminished liability to get out of tune. Pronounced the greatest improvement made in upright pianos for half a century. The MASON & HAMLIN CO. pledge themselves that every piano of their make shall illustrate that VERY HIGHEST EXCELLENCE which has always characterized their organs. Send for circular with illustrations, full description and explanation.

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO CO.,
BOSTON, 154 Tremont St. CHICAGO, 149 Wabash Ave.
NEW YORK, 46 East 14th St. (Union Square.)
oct23-26t

AGENTS make over 100 per cent. selling new CORRUGATED
Reflecting Safety Lamp which can be sold in every family. Gives more light than three ordinary lamps. Complete lamps sent for 50 cts. in stamps. Our Perfect Coffee Pot beats all others. Circulars sent free.
FORSEE & McMAKIN, Cincinnati, O.
oct30 4 eow

GOOD NEWS TO LADIES!
Greatest Inducements ever offered. Now is your time to get up orders for our Unadulterated Teas and Coffees, and secure a beautiful Gold Band or Moss Rose China Tea Set, or Handsome Decorated Gold Band Moss Rose Dinner Set, or Gold Band Moss Decorated Toilet Set. For full particulars address
THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA CO.,
P. O. Box 289. 31 and 33 Vesey St., New York
oct23-13t

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19---NO 48. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, NOVEMBER 27, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 787.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

63 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; Six Months, 75c; to Pastors, $1.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the PAPER will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter, Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES.

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more..... 9 cents,
One month (4 times)..... 7 "
Two months (13 times)..... 6 "
Six months (26 times)..... 5 "
One year (52 times)..... 4 "
Marriage Notices..... 25
Special Notices..... 8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

In fellowship, alone,
To God, with faith, draw near,
Approach His courts, besiege His throne
With all the powers of prayer.
Go to His temple, go;
Nor from His altar move;
Let every heart His worship know,
And every heart His love.

A number of prominent people are visiting the Conference.

"I will do all for the SOUTHWESTERN possible." Mrs. Mary E. Johnson, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Bishop Harris being invited once, declined to preach where the members of his conference were not invited.

Presiding Elder Edward Lee is a black prince. He is entertaining Bishop Harris and onrself in princely style.

The General expression all over Navasota—in which we heartily join—is that the Texas Conference is a fine body of men.

Dr. R. F. Boyd, of Meharry Medical College, is in Texas in the interest of the school. He has been quite sick, up and out again.

Without the best men North and South alike take hold of control and shape its conduct in moderation this victory will destroy the Democratic party.

Will some brother tell those brethren at the door that religious service is over, they can come in now." — Bishop Harris at Texas Conference, at the close of 8:30 worship.

Presiding Elder Smith is the popular leader in the Texas Conference. I. B. Scott and C. Mingus are close to him. Presiding Elder Webb leads the whites.

Bishop Harris is gentle, but thoroughly commanding; facile, yet firm in presiding all with dignity and official dignity. He is a business man.

Mr. Cleveland has directed his attorney to have all applications for pardon received, and to present them to him. He will act upon them in an orderly way for office-seekers.

Among the many remarkable things in the fifty-first Psalm, is the fact that David alludes to himself thirty-five times, and to God thirty-five times.

Go to the orphan asylums, the homes of the poor, the aged, the infirm, and the prisons, and leave there a thank offering this day. God is looking, waiting and ready to see you do it and to bless you for it.

Rev. Mr. Norwood, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, prayed at the conclusion of the evening service in the the Texas Conference, at Navasota: "Lord hasten the time when men shall be no longer respecters of persons."

Among the prominent ladies in attendance at the Texas Conference, with many others, were the following: Mrs. M. Benner, of Bryan, Brazos county, and Mrs. Sallie Reeves, of Clarksville, Red River county, Texas.

Idle Hours is the latest venture in weekly journalism. It is a neat little folio and proposes to elevate the character of weekly newspapers in America, by its own example. We bid it a cordial welcome, and wish it great success.

One of the rules for a preacher was stricken out by the last General Conference; so that ministers would do well to get the new Discipline and consider them as they now stand. The price is 25 cents in our book store, or 30 cents by mail.

One of the most pleasing objects we have met in Navasota was a handsome, jet-black lady, nicely dressed in a tastily made plaid linsey frock. Oh! how we gazed after this fine specimen of common sense womanbood, and thonght of mother in the happy days long gone by.

Rev. Temola Edwards, of Texas Conference, is a Negro of unmixed blood. His father, 112 years old, now residing in Houston, was captured in an African war and sold into slavery. Bro. Edwards, the younger, is a fine specimen of well-formed and intelligent manhood. It is a relief to the eyes to look upon him.

The Southern German Conference, unable to obtain any rebate from either of the railroads running into New Orleans, declined to hold their session in New Orleans, and changed to Waco, Texas. This is a clear loss to the railroads, but they are probably not careful as to losses of this nature.

Pray for the suffering souls in Purgatory.—N. O. Morning Star, Roman Catholic.

Our habit has been to "pray for suffering souls" before they get so far as "Purgatory." We do not remember just now that we ever heard of any souls being aided after they once reached a condition unearthly and immaterial. Prayer's best use is to keep us out, not get us out of all bad places.

One of the pastors, who had charge of one of the leading congregations of the Methodist Episcopal Church, while in a protracted meeting said "I am so full of the election that I cannot preach, and if Cleveland is elected I will not be your pastor any longer."

Where is his hope, in Mr. Blaine, or in Christ?—Subscriber, Louisville.

He believes in Christ, with Blaine to fall back on.—[ED.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Sermon Sketches.

BY DR. W. D. GODMAN.

THEME—THE NEW BIRTH. John 3, 5: "Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

Introduction.—Nicodemus admits Jesus to be the Messiah, by reason or his miracles, and wishes to learn the requirements of his kingdom. He is taught the necessity of a new birth and of a public profession. Some understand Jesus to say—v. 3: "born again," as in the received version; some, "born anew," revised version; some, "born from above"—Lightfoot and others. The result is the same with them all.

I. The necessity of the New Birth implies and assumes that man's soul is spiritually "dead."—John V: 24. Rom. 8: 6. Eph. 2: 6.

II. The New Birth is a quickening, vitalizing, of the dead soul, by the Holy Spirit.—John 6: 63, do. 7: 38, 39, Rom. 8: 2, 13, 1 Cor. 12: 13, Eph. 2: 5, Col. 2: 13. It is represented as a passing (a) from death to life—1 John, 3: 14; (b) from darkness into light—1 Peter, 2: 9; (c) from the power of Satan unto God—Acts 26: 18; (d) from the power of darkness into the kingdom of God's Son—Col. 1: 13.

III. The new life thus received must be openly confessed, and by a symbol expressive of its true nature.

This symbol is baptism with water. This indicates—

1. Cleansing of guilt.—Acts 2: 38, 3: 19, 1 Peter, 3: 21.

2. Renovation of Spirit.—Matt. 3: 11, 12, John 3: 6, Titus 3: 5.

Application—The essential thing is the quickening of the Spirit, without which all else is "dead works."

THEME—THE HEAVENLY MIND

"Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus."—Phil. ii. 5.

Jesus is the model of all true Christians. We are exhorted to copy after Him, to possess the same mind. In what sense are we to be like-minded with Christ?

I. In our aims.

II. In our spirit.

III. In our consecration.

The mass meeting called at Central church, this city, on Monday night, 17th, for the purpose of arousing an interest in the erection of an institution in the South for the industrial education of the colored people, was quite a success. Rev. Marcus Dale, of Wesley chapel M. E. Church, was called to the chair, and L. A. Martinet, secretary. Stirring addresses were delivered by H. E. Brown, secretary International Committee Y. M. C. A., Revs. D. L. Mitchell and M. Dale, of this city. The following, a committee of three, to confer with the managers of the World's Industrial Exposition, for the purpose of setting apart a day to hold a convention on this important subject, were appointed: Dr. J. T. Newman, Col. James Lewis and Hon. Hy. Demas. The following committee on permanent organization was also appointed: M. Dale, chairman, Rev. John Marks, Col. James Lewis, L. A. Martinet, Prof. R. C. Hitchcock, M. C. B. Mason and C. F. Ladd. The meeting adjourned, to meet at Wesley chapel, Dec. 1, 1884.

David Livingstone said, "I am a missionary, heart and soul. God had only one son, and He was a missionary."

General Missionary Committee

[Concluded from last week.]

Dr. Trimble said that more money is asked for Germany each year, but Dr. Crawford pointed out the error in this statement. At one time the appropriation for Germany was $53. He also asserted that so far as he knows Dr. Curry is alone in the views which he holds upon this subject.

Bishop Fowler admired the way in which the Germans have done their work, but he also thought that too much money has been given to the German work. Men visit Germany and see the work, and are impressed by it, and hence the German missions have advantage over some others, as that in Italy also has for the same reason.

Bishop Bowman showed how German Methodism constantly contributes to American Methodism, and also opens new work in Germany. The German ministers are as careful and economical as they can be. They ought to have the $25,000 asked for. Bishop Walden said our German ministers are heroes. They ride in third and fourth class cars in order to save money, and in every possible way economize for the benefit of the treasury. Money should be appropriated for opening new work.

Dr. McCabe said he thought it strange that it was so easy to make appropriations for South America, and so difficult to make the appropriation asked for Germany, when the fruits in the latter country are so much larger than in the former. We must stand by Germany. Dr. Reid did not think it just to consider the secretaries as specially pledged to the foreign work. He was quite as much interested at home as in foreign lands. The debts on the churches in Germany will be paid after a little. He would not do anything to paralyze the efforts of the Germans to pay their depts. Dr. Hatfield said we must look the fact in the face, and we could not afford to give more this year than last. Dr. Buckley had been in Germany, and thonght the committee should give to our work there the sum asked. He thought that though some of our bishops do not speak German they have not been misled as to the condition of things in our Church in that country. We should encourage our German brethren. Bishop Foss moved the previous question, but it did not prevail. Dr. Miley favored an appropriation of $24,000. Mr. Cornell favored $20,000. Various sums were named, and $22,000 were appropriated for the work; $400 to pay the interest on the Berlin Church debt; and $2,000 to pay on the principal of the German Church debts in general, provided the people in Germany raise a like amount.

NORWAY

Dr. McCabe presented the report of the sub committees, asking for $13,785.92 for Norway. This does not include any thing for the superannuated ministers and the widows and orphans of deceased ministers. The sum was allowed.

SWEDEN.

Dr. McCabe presented the report asking for $23,048 for Sweden. The work in the mission has been remarkably successful, as shown by Dr. Craig and others. Dr. Craig urged that these facts should be considered in making the appropriation for Sweden. Dr. Buckley said that Finland offers one of the finest fields for missionary work ever opened to us. He favored the appropriation desired, and Dr. McCabe urged it in his usual enthusiastic way. He believed that the talk about cutting down appropriations discourages our people, and tends to reduce their contributions (Cries, "That's so") Dr. Curry had a good opinion of our Swedish mission, but said that another denomination done better than our own, and on less money. Dr. Buckley called attention to the fact that the people of the denomination referred to have never severed their connection with the state Church, and also that any attempt at parallelism between these people and our own is misleading—not intentionally so on Dr. Curry's part, but really so. Our work was favored of the government. The work in Sweden has been of a most extraordinary kind, and is progressing remarkably. Our people there are old fashioned Methodists. More of them attend class than in any Church the speaker knew of. At this point the discussions were interrupted by adjournment to Monday morning.

SOUTH AMERICA

Bishop Fowler moved that $28,500 be appropriated to the mission in South America.

Bishop Fowler advocated a forward movement among the Spanish-speaking people. A man offers a lot in Assumption, if the society will build a church on it. Bishop Walden moved to appropriate $20,500 for the mission work proper, leaving the question of appropriations for buildings to be considered later. Dr. Curry inquired how this $20,500 is to be used, and lists of the names of laborers and of salaries paid to them were read, and Dr. Curry declared himself wholly satisfied with the answers given to his inquiries. Dr. Walden's motion prevailed. Bishop Fowler represented the condition of the work in South America. He used a map of Montevideo, and showed the advantages of the locations of our proposed new churches. Dr. Trimble asked whether it is wise to put money into vacant lots. Bishop Fowler advocated the investment, and showed how we did wisely in a similar investment already made. Five thousand dollars were appropriated for the erection of a house of worship at Assumption, and $3,000 were placed at the disposal of the board, for the purchase of lots in Montevideo.

General Missionary Committee, 1884.

	Appropriations For 1885.	Collections	Aver. per Amt.	Mem.	Appointments For 1885
I. FOREIGN MISSIONS.
1. AFRICA:
1 Liberia: at the disposal of the Board for work	$2,500	.....	....		$100
2 At the disposal of the Board	1,500	.....	....
	$4 000
2. SOUTH AMERICA	$20,500	.....	....		125
3. CHINA. In general	2 182
1 Foochow	15,804	$153 00	.059		....
2 Central China, Kiukiang	21,588	.....	....		100
At disposal of the Board	1,080
3 North China, Peking	20,292	.....	....		150
4 West China	8,857	.....	....		25
	$69,803
4. GERMANY AND SWITZERLAND	.....	.....	....		2,000
For the work	$22 000	1,532 00	.11 9		....
For interest on the Berlin debt	600
To be administered by the Board for debts (conditioned)	2,000
	$24,600
5. SCANDINAVIA:
1 Denmark	$10,000	150 00	.14 0		500
2 Norway	13 785	807 82	.20 8		1,250
3 Sweden	23,048	2,875 65	.24 0		2,500
	$46,833
6. INDIA:
1 North India	$64,671	282 30	.00 4		600
2 South India: to be administered by the Board for outgoing	2,500	.....	....		50
	$67 171
7. BULGARIA AND TURKEY:					50
For the work	$12,076	.....	....		....
To be administered by the Board for repairs	800	.....	....		....
	$2 876
8. ITALY	$28,378	.....	....		250
9. MEXICO, at disposal of Board	34 782	.....	....		250
10. JAPAN	31,036	.....	....		150
11. COREA, at disposal of Board	8,100	.....	....		....
Total for Foreign Missions	$351,070
Conditional for Tokio University	$12,000
II. MISSIONS IN THE UNITED STATES NOT IN ANNUAL CONFERENCES TO BE ADMINISTERED AS FOREIGN MISSIONS:
1 Arizona	$7,500	$450 00	$2 66 3		$500
2 Black Hills	3,960	72 10	.41 2		150
3 Dakota	13,500	517 50	.18·2		750
4 Indian Territory, at the disposal of the Board	900	.....	....		25
5 Montana	10,000	428 49	.09 6		750
6 Nevada	3,000	.....	....		300
7 New Mexico	5,600	42 00	.00·6		50
" " Spanish	9 000	.....	....		25
New Mexico, at the disposal of Board	1,000	.....	....		....
8 North Dakota	6,000	.....	....		750
9 Utah	5,250	128 44	53·5		250
" For schools	5,050	.....	....		....
" Scandinavian work	2,800	.....	....		....
" Scandinavian work for schools	1,400	.....	....		....
10 West Nebraska	7,100	478 06	.19·7		200
Total	$82.100
III. DOMESTIC MISSIONS:
1 Northern New York [Welsh Mission	$200	.....	....		....
2 SCANDINAVIAN MISSIONS:
Austin [$500 for new work]	$1,600	.....	....		....
California [$200 for transfers. Scandinavian]	2,000	.....	....		....
Colorado {Norwegian	500	.....	....		....
Colorado {Swedish	500	.....	....		....
N Y East [Swedish]	1 000	.....	....		....
N York [Norwegian]	2 100	.....	....		....
N England [Swedish]	2 500	.....	....		....
" Southern	800	.....	....		....
Norwegian & Danish	6 500	1,808 25	67 0	2,000
Northwest Swedish	7,500	3,171 12	.51·4	7,000
Oregon [Scandinavian]	1,200	.....	....		....
Puget Sound	1 500	.....	....		....
Troy [Swedish]	200	.....	....		....
Wilmington, Swedish	300	.....	....		....
Total	$8 703
3. GERMAN MISSIONS:
California German	$2 800	.....	....		....
Central German	4,500	$7,371 72	.51 9		....
Chicago German	5,000	3,569 85	.51 2		....
Columbia River German	1,000	.....	....		....
East German	9,000	4,907 05	.16 9		....
Northwest German	5,500	3,935 90	.22 0		....
Oregon German—$100 for new work	1,200	.....	....		....
Puget Sound	1 000	.....	....		....
Southern German	7,000	1,337 50	.51 1		....
St. Louis German	4,000	4,835 26	.52 1		....
South'n California	1,000	1,189 40	.61 5		....
Western German	6 000	2,925 13	.71 1		....
Total	$48,600
4. FRENCH MISSIONS:
Central Illinois	1,000	.....	....		....
5. PORTUGUESE MISSIONS:
California	500	.....	....		....
6. CHINESE MISSIONS:
California	9 000	.....	....		....
New York East	500	.....	....		....
Oregon	1,000	.....	....		....
Puget Sound	1 200	.....	....		....
Total	$11 900
7. AMERICAN INDIAN:
Central New York	700	.....	....		....
Columbia River	500	.....	....		....
Detroit	700	.....	....		....
Genesee	500	.....	....		....
Michigan	800	.....	....		....
Montana	1,000	.....	....		....
Northern New York $300 for repairs	600	.....	....		....
Puget Sound	900	.....	....		....
Wisconsin	700	.....	....		....
Total	$5,100
8. ENGLISH SPEAKING:
Alabama	$2 250	174 61	.03 0		350
Arkansas	4,500	383 89	.06 7		500
Austin	6 500	621 42	.07 7		750
Baltimore	.....	27,816 67	.75 5	35,000
Blue Ridge	3,000	231 96	.05 1		350
California of which $500 shall be for new work	3 500	5 437 80	.54 0	6,000
Central Alabama	2 500	71 18	.00 9		300
Central Illinois	.....	10 993 45	.46 9	15,000
Central New York	.....	12 907 91	.41 1	20,000
Central Ohio	.....	12 341 52	.43 1	14,000
Central Pennsylvania	.....	27,968 63	.84 9	25,000
Central Tennessee	3,500	643 49	.05 5	1,000
Cincinnati	.....	13 664 42	.46 8	24,000
Colorado, $800 for new work	6,000	2,253 75	.53 9	3 7 0
Columbia River $500 for new work	4 250	873 10	.20 1	1,800
Delaware	1 200	1 215 00	.08 4	1,500
Des Moines	.....	7,479 16	.09 7	10,000
Detroit, for outer work	3 500	9 278 33	.32 8	12 000
East Maine	1,000	1 595 20	.14 2	2 500
East Ohio	.....	16 0 8 64	.24 8	21 0 0
East Tennessee	2 000	163 75	.03 9	2 0
Erie	.....	8 703 66	.22 3	12 000
Florida	3 500	496 66	.16 1	700
Genesee	.....	11 049 85	.38 3	17,000
Georgia, $800 for new work	4,000	241 07	.07 7	3 0
Houston, $8 0 for new work in Chattanooga	3 000	593 00	.05 6	2,000
Illinois	.....	16 893 31	.13 3	22,000
Idaho	3 250	.....	....		....
Indiana	.....	0 319 13	.19 2	13 000
Iowa	.....	6 065 13	.25 2	9 000
Kansas	2 000	3 214 77	20 9	4,000
Kansas, for local work	500	.....	....		....
Kentucky	5 0 0	2 145 6	.24 1	3 000
Lexington	2 700	220 2	.05 6	400
Little Rock	3 000	112 39	.03 8	250
Louisiana	5 500	621 70	.05 0	1 000
Maine	4	3 6 4 71	.30 3	5,000
Michigan, for frontier work	3 000	9,320 66	.27 4	12 000
Minnesota	6 0 0	.....	....	7,000
Mississippi	5 700	310 60	.01 3	1 000
Missouri	3 0 0	2 467 63	.13 7	2 000
Nebraska	3 000	2,99 51	.28 3	2,500
Nevada	.....	2 0 61	.02 0	.....
Newark	.....	23 283 03	.17 0	24 000
New England	.....	16 283 37	.41 5	22,000
New England Southern	.....	9 3 3 23	.08 1	12 000
New Hampshire	.....	3 204 55	.37 4	1 000
New Jersey	.....	2 191 83	.53 3	2 000
New York	.....	35 366 36	.7 0	50 000
New York East	.....	34,170 27	.08 8	5,000
North Carolina, $300 new work	3 000	100 00	.02 2	300
North Indiana	.....	7 736 99	.22 0	12 000
North Nebraska	4 200	650 04	.24 4	1 000
North New York	.....	9,089 01	.38 5	16 000
North Ohio	.....	7 500 62	.24 2	13 000
Northwest Indiana	.....	5,747 77	.32 4	10 000
Northwest Iowa	3,000	1 9 3 16	.25 6	2,000
Northwest Kansas $200 for colored work	4,500	1,083 28	.15 9	1 700
Ohio	.....	15,287 90	.33 0	27,000
Oregon	1 7 0	1,115 80	.16 7	2,000
Philadelphia	.....	51 005 60	.98 07	70 000
Pittsburg	.....	12 320 00	.25 3	15 000
Puget Sound	4,000	4 8 60	.03 4	700
Rock River	.....	18 379 73	.70 4	21 000
St. Louis	4,000	4,740 36	.23 5	5,000
Savannah	3 1 0	818 61	.03 4	700
South Carolina	6,000	3,247 61	.03 4	3,000
Southeast Indiana	.....	4,769 63	.7 1	10 000
South California	4 000	1 589 40	.02 1	1 000
Southern Illinois	.....	7,7 6 86	.29 1	9,000
South Kansas $400 of which $ is for colored work	2 400	2 887 14	.17 8	3,000
Southwest Kansas	3 500	1,774 80	.18 1	2,500
Tennessee	2 700	1 040 10	.13 6	1
Texas	4 000	417 15	.04 0	1
Troy	.....	13 676 97	.40 4	19
Upper Iowa	.....	9 353 03	.46 5	12
Vermont	1 2 0	5,321 39	.30 6	7
Virginia	5,3 0	.791 17	.10 4	1
Washington	2,200	2,1 6 22	.07 1	2
West Texas	4,000	637 85	.09 8	1
West Virginia	3,000	3,332 57	.09 8
West Wisconsin	3,000	2,044 27	.27 3
Wilmington	.....	16,0 4 84	.47 0	17
Wisconsin	2,000	5, 13 68	.12 3
Wyoming	.....	13,193 41	.42 0
Total for American Domestic Missions	$167,600
IV. MISCELLANEOUS:
1 Conference Fund	$25,000	.....	....		....
2 Incidental Expenses	32,5 0	.....	....		....
3 Office Expenses	2 ,000	.....	....		....
4 For Disseminating Missionary information	10,500	.....	....		....
Total	$89,000
RECAPITULATION:
I. Foreign Missions	351 979	.....	....		....
II. Missions in the United States, etc	82,100	.....	....		....
III. Domestic Missions:
Welsh Missions	200	.....	....		....
Scandinavian Missions	28 703	.....	....		....
German Missions	43,500	.....	....		....
French Missions	1,000	.....	....		....
Portuguese	500	.....	....		....
Chinese Missions	11,900	.....	....		....
American Indian	5 800	.....	....		....
English-Speaking	167,000	.....	....		....
IV. Miscellaneous	89,000	.....	....		....
Liquidation of debt	67,721	.....	....		....
Grand Total	$850,000

...ters from the Pastors.

Rev. W. C. Echols, Springfield, Ohio, writes: "We have succeeded in purchasing a good property in Delaware, Ohio, for divine worship. We are in possession, and our meetings are being held in it. This society has been organized only a short time, but the prospects are good for a permanent work. Our number is small, but the hope for increase is strong and encouraging. Rev. A. Austin, formerly of the Colored M. E. Church of America, and editor of its church paper, is a member of my charge. Much credit is due him for his aid in carrying out these plans for securing this very desirable property for the use of our society."

Rev. Aaron Taylor, Midway, Texas, writes: "Our beloved presiding elder, G. W. Smith, was with us on the 27th and 28th of September, according to his appointment. Although it was raining he was found at his post, and very nearly all the brethren met him with favorable reports. On Sunday rain continued, still he was there, and preached a sermon that will be remembered by those people. There are many who regret that they were unable to hear him. After the sermon 22 communicants partook of the Lord's supper. Collection for the elder amounted to $4. Our people are poor, but they have a will, and are willing to do all they can for the Lord and the upbuilding of His temple. You will notice the stewards' reports from the different churches: 1st, T—— church, 45 members, paid pastor $16.25; 2nd, Midway chapel, 42 members, $14.75; 3d, Madisonville church, 18 members, paid pastor $31; 4th, South Bethel, 26 members, paid pastor $16.55, which makes a grand total of $81.55. The apportionment for this year was $250; but we have a good many five-cent Christians in this part of the country. There are many who say, I will; but few that will."

Henry Taylor, superintendent Sunday-school, Waxia, La., writes: "At the last session of the La Teche District Conference it was urged, that where practicable no unconverted person should be employed as superintendent or teacher in our Sabbath-schools. A resolution was also passed that no local preachers' license should be renewed who failed to attend Sabbath-school. We have been obliged to use unconverted persons as teachers in our school here. The local preachers not only failed to attend themselves, but kept their children away. Now that the next quarterly conference is near at hand, which is the one for renewing licenses, the local preachers come in a little now and then, so that they can get their licenses renewed. Now, brethren, this will not do. It is a shame that you, the servants of the Lord, should stay behind and allow unconverted men to do the work which you ought to do. Come out and work for the Master to day."

O. L. Pratt, West Point, ... "As this is the seat of the District Conference, probably the brethren would like to hear from us. We are alive and ... to have a good time, and ... good work done for the Master, expecting a full conference. Our church has been thoroughly prepared, and put in readiness for the occasion. We now have the best colored church in the city, and a lively membership. Those coming in to conference ... will be met at the ... Taylor, we are expecting you. Come over, you will enjoy yourself and do good for the ..."

M. C. B. Mason, Haven ... New Orleans, writes: "A ... has been on the Carrollton ... purchased for ... organized some ... There have been sent $100, ... of Presbyterian, who is also ... Board, ... that we will begin the work without debt. The following ladies have been organized, and are at work for the purpose of procuring the lumber for building: Mrs. F. Johnson has organized a committee on shingles; Mrs. C. Bates, on flooring; Mrs. Julia Brooks, on weatherboarding; Mrs. A. Morse, windows and doors; Mrs. Jefferson, on pillars and sills. Too much praise cannot be given these sisters for their start to build up this work. The other members of our church and those connected with the Mission are doing what they can to help. The organization of this work is largely due to the faithfulness and energy of Bro. Norwood, our Sunday-school superintendent. May the Lord send us more such workers.

Rev. Peter Morgan, Galveston, Texas, writes: "Great excitement still prevails in this city over the election. The minds of the generality of both men and women here are greatly irritated, so that church work for the present, runs very slow, but the Lord knows the way of the righteous. The people seem to be deeply, sincerely interested about their future welfare round about here. May the Lord protect and defend us, until we are all called home. In regard to the Tabernacle, Rev. F. C. Moore held his last quarterly conference for 1884, at this place on the 12th of Oct. At the same time we had the presence of most all the preachers of the Houston district. We all having just closed up a lively district conference, which convened here on the 8th, and all had not left for their district homes yet, so all along together we had a good time. May the Holy Father bless the days that saw us here, and bless us too. I want to state that we are not asleep on the Houston district. We are wide awake. There are some important facts to be known of this district; for instance, Elder Moore has an eye of an eagle, so as to see all the good bargains in favor of the Church, both under his supervision, and the Church at large, O, how he seizes every good opportunity for contracting for, and purchasing property for the church, and the preachers are standing at his back, even though we have already saved 30 acres for a camp ground, and 50 acres for an orphan's home. Had one camp meeting on the ground. Final contents of which you will note hereafter. All beautifully situated on the G. H. and H. R. R. five mile from Houston and one mile from Harrisburg, Texas. All seem to be satisfied at the year's work. The Lord's table was set on Sunday night and 137 came to their places, and 5 joined the church. Elder's collection $26.40, the most we have done for the year's work, is paying off several old debts, building a parsonage, and keeping up the main necessary current funds of the church. Up to this time 89 souls have been received. Now, Mr. Editor, I am striving to get to conference alright in head, heart and pocket, but when the whole is considered, I have had for my part a hard time all the year. The church itself claims that I have had a harder time then my predecessors, but thank God for what we have done. Still we tried hard to do more, but could not; our hopes are good for the future, and now Bro. Taylor, you have my best wishes and prayers for life in your honorable position, as the editor of the noble SOUTHWESTERN. In conclusion, as you have already done untold good, I trust that the rest of your acts and services will speak credit to the Church, which has called you to fill the place of editorship, and that your ashes will preach sermons to the generations yet to come. Let us still persevere until victory is won."

Rev. John H. Smith, Slidell, La., writes: "Please say in your next issue that our baptism takes place at 1 p. m. instead of 11 a. m. as published in your last issue. We are struggling here and want all the help we can get from your city and elsewhere. Pray for us."

Rev. Thomas McAfee, Dadeville circuit, Ebenezer church, Meridian district, Mississippi conference, writes: "We had a school examination, and it proved that Mr. Mosby had been faithfully instructing our children. Mr. S. Trawick addressed the school on the benefit of education and the address found many admirers among the hearers."

Rev. T. G. Montgomery, First Street Church, New Orleans, writes: "We have put a new fence in front of our church and it is complete with everything that belongs to a first class fence, and every dollar paid for it. The Sunday-school scholars have bought a new organ, price $115, and they have paid some on it, and the school is going to give a grand concert and exhibition, which will be the 25th of Nov. 1884. I must not forget to mention our fine school at First Street Church, which is second to none in the State. We also have a band called the Young Christian Workers. I was talking to one of the young sisters about lacking somethings in the church and the next thing I heard that same sister had got up a little band and they are hard at work and say they are going to carpet First Street church. May God bless the Young Christian Workers. Name of officers, Mrs. A. Warner, president, Mrs. V. Batrone vice president, Miss T. Joseph secretary, Miss L. Hastian, assistant secretary, Mrs. L. Penn, treasurer; Bro. Savage is their chaplain. Brother you must get young converts and your church will prosper. The souls that get converted under your preaching are your friends."

Rev. J. L. Perrin, Lloyd Street, Louisville, Ky. writes: "Three weeks have passed during our meeting, we are able to say that we have had 33 converts, 31 of which united with our church. We also reclaimed 12 backsliders, and four of them from the Baptist Church. We have baptized 9 children, and are still moving on. It is said there never was such a time in Lloyd Street Church before as there is now. We are now satisfied that this is the right appointment for me, though we did say it was the wrong one."

Henry Taylor, Sunday-school superintendent at Waxia, La., writes: "On the first Sunday in Nov., we held a grand missionary meeting here. Addresses were delivered by J. W. Pierce, Robert Trent, Mrs. Adeline Trent, Rev. B. Bolden, pastor in charge, and the writer; all were well received. We thank the Lord for the Missionary Society of our Church, which has accomplished so much good for our people. Collection $2.05, we hope to do better."

Rev. G. W. Shelby, Coushatta, La., writes: "Our presiding elder, S. Duncan, is finishing a successful work, and I am able to say he is leaving many friends in this district, even among the sinners who will mourn his loss. Many prayers are offered to God in his behalf."

Rev. R. Weaver, writes: "I have been one year in the ministry. When I set out, I did not know one letter from another, but I am trying to learn to read and write. I never had a chance in school, but ever since I have been in the traveling connection I have felt it my duty to work for the press. I am willing to do all I can, for the SOUTHWESTERN, though my people are poor."

Rev. W. H. Dickerson, Finchville, Ky., writes: "Our dear presiding elder, was with us on the 8 9 and held our fourth quarterly conference. We had a pleasant and harmonious session. The elder preached two grand sermons which will be long remembered. The Lord's supper was administered to 20 communicants. The church is in a good spiritual condition and moving on grandly."

ATHOL, MASS., May 23, 1883.

"One bottle of HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY helped, and two completely cured me of kidney disease and pains in back and sides."—James Cheney, with J. W. Goodman, Billiard Table Manufacturer.

Letters From the Laity.

Sister T. C. Phillips, Murfreesboro, writes: "My husband, Rev. A. Phillips, has gone to conference, so I thought I would take a moment and write a few lines to your paper, Mr. Editor. I am glad to say this has been a year of success, though my husband has had many hard battles to fight and high mountains to move. I think he can realize that he has gained the victory. He has been very successful this year, spiritually and financially, in church and Sabbath-school work; and he ought to be happy when has a nice suit of clothes to rejoice in, that the dear sisters were so kind as to present to him. Our district conference was held here. The presiding elder, H. W. Key, was absent. Mr. Phillips presided. We had quite a pleasant conference. There was quite a number of the brethren present. Dr. J. Braden, of the Central Tennessee College, was with us one day. The most of the brethren had good reports. There was one resolution passed at the close of the session that I liked very much if they stick to it—to renew no brother's license who will not attend Sabbath school. I do not think a man fit to preach who does not attend Sunday school. If I had my way they would either attend Sunday school or give up their license. Our quarterly meeting was held last Saturday and Sunday. Elder H. W. Key was with us, looking well. He seemed to enjoy the meeting very much. We had love feast Sunday evening. It was indeed a love feast long to be remembered. Quite a number spoke for Jesus. The elder preached at night to a crowded house. All seemed to enjoy the sermon. The sacrament was then administered to 150. The collection was $27. If you do not throw this in your waste basket I may write again after I get my appointment."

It did not go in the waste basket, and the preacher who has such a wife, other things accordingly, ought to have a first-class appointment. Now, write again.—[EDITOR.

Rev. Tolbert Smith, near Gonzales, writes: "I am in the suburbs of Mt. Union circuit. I have been engaged in the service of our Lord this year as I never was before, and I have had nothing to say. I will write now, as I am a local preacher and a Sunday-school superintendent. I have had a hard time trying to hold up Methodism. I live in a community about 13 miles from Gonzales town. The people here are nearly all Baptists. We have a Sunday school with 25 scholars. I have met the school 31 times this year. I preach very often. I have a right to feel that the Lord hath been with me."

Sister Emma Reed, Memphis, Tenn., writes: "Dear Editor—Allow me to say through your valuable paper that the presence of our conference here in Memphis has done our church a great good. The people say it was the best conference ever met in Memphis; and the lectures and sermon of Bishop Bowman and yourself have been the great topic of the day, and the people have been revived ever since conference, and the return of our preacher and elder was much desired by all. Our first quarterly conference on the 25th and 26th was a grand occasion. Elder Price preached with great acceptability. Three joined our church. If we had our leading brethren to visit us more, it would prove a blessing to our cause."

J. C. Houston, Winona, Miss., writes: "Dear Editor—The Lord has blessed us. In a revival 26 souls were converted to God, and 11 backsliders reclaimed. Revs. B. Baily and C. L. Crump were with us; their sermons will long be remembered. We commenced our new church at this place about three months ago, and it presents a beautiful appearance. The people are encouraged to have it completed. We are still trusting in the Lord. May the SOUTHWESTERN live long to bless our church and people."

The M. E. Church.

The Centennial Conference.

The Executive Committee is pushing as rapidly as possible the preparations for the Centennial Conference, which is to assemble in Baltimore Dec. 10, a welcome and communion service preceding the regular organization on the night of the 9th. The papers all have been assigned, and are in most competent hands. There are to be twenty-three carefully prepared essays on historical and doctrinal topics, as follows:

FIRST DAY.

1. Work of the Christmas Conference ..... 1 hour
2. Personnel of the Christmas Conference ..... 1 "

SECOND DAY:

3. The Superintendency of Asbury and What It Did for Methodism ..... ½ "
4. The Relations of John Wesley to American Methodism .... ½ "
   General discussion ..... ½ "
5. Statistical Results—Membership, etc ..... ½ "
6. Statistical Results—Educational and Financial ..... ½ "
   General discussion ..... 1 "

THIRD DAY.

7. Methodism in 1784 and its Outlook ..... ½ "
8. Methodism in 1884 and its Outlook ..... ½ "
   General discussion ..... ½ "
9. Causes of the Success of Methodism ..... ½ "
10. Possible Dangers to Future Methodism ..... ½ "
    General discussion ..... 1 "

FOURTH DAY.

11. Rise and Progress of Methodism in Canada ..... ½ "
12. Methodist Pioneers and Their Work ..... ½ "
    General discussion ..... ½ "
13. Is Methodism Losing its Power over the Masses? ..... ½ "
    General discussion ..... 1½ "

FIFTH DAY.

14. The Aim and Character of Methodist Preaching ..... ½ "
15. Methodist Means of Grace .... ½ "
    General discussion ..... ½ "
16. The Doctrinal Unity of Methodism ..... ½ "
17. Guards to the Purity of Our Doctrinal Teaching ..... ½ "
    General discussion ..... ½ "

SIXTH DAY.

18. The Four Points of Methodism —Heart Conversion, Assurance, Christian Experience and Sanctification ..... ½ "
19. The Influence of Methodism on Other Denominations ... ½ "
    General discussion ..... ½ "
20. Value of the Press to Methodism ..... ½ "
21. Value of the Periodical Press to Methodism ..... ½ "
    General discussion ..... ½ "

SEVENTH DAY.

22. Place and Power of the Lay Element in Methodism .... ½ "
23. What Methodism Owes to Women ..... ½ "
    General discussion ..... ½ "

It will be seen that ample time is given to each topic. The names of the essayists will be shortly announced.

The evening meetings will be a great feature of the Conference. One evening will be given to a regular session of the Conference fraternal delegates will be received. The other evenings, namely, Wednesday, Friday, Monday and Tuesday, will be devoted to platform meetings. Large preparations have been made for these gathering, which will undoubtedly be very interesting and popular. Eleven churches, in different parts of the city, will be open Wednesday Thursday, and Tuesday evening. For Friday evening, when the general topic will be the "Educational work and Spirit of Methodism," five churches will be open. Wednesday evening will be given to Missions, Monday evening to the Sunday-school, and Tuesday evening to the mission of Methodism to the extremes of society. In each church there will be two speakers. The committee have exercised great care in selecting these speakers. When their names are announced shortly they will be recognized as among the ablest American Methodism affords.

Among the most impressive features of this grand celebration will be the special Sunday-school services arranged for Sunday afternoon. The Methodist Sunday school of Baltimore will be united and gathered into twenty churches, and able speakers will address each. A sub-committee is also charged with the preparation of a plan of service for all the Methodist Sunday-schools in the country on that day, and they will be urged to follow it.

The local committee are as busy as possible preparing for the entertainment of the delegates who will number about 600, representing the following Churches: Methodist Episcopal; Methodist Episcopal, South; African Methodist Episcopal; African Methodist Episcopal Zion; Colored Methodist Episcopal; Canada Methodist; Primitive Methodist; Independent Methodist. These branches represent almost four million of members. The following are the members of the Executive Committee: Bishop Andrews, President; S. Rodgers, D. D., Vice President; H. K. Carroll, Secretary; T. J. Magruder, Treasurer; D. A. Goodsell, D. D., the Rev. J. F. Goucher, the Rev. W. B. Derrick, the Rev. J. C. Price, the Rev. G. W. Usher.

Wesly Chapel, St. Louis, Rev. F. H. Small, pastor, which was bought from our German Methodist brethren some years ago was never formally opened until last Sunday. Recently the church has been put in the best order and greatly improved in the internal appearence. Bishop Bowman preached a delightful sermon in the morning which was highly appreciated. The sermon in the afternoon was by Rev. Dr Fry, of the Central, and at night Rev. E. W. S. Peck, one of the early pastors of the church, now presiding elder of the Baltimore district, Washington Con., preached to the great satisfaction of the large congregation. Collections were taken up at each service.

The Ninth Street M. E. Church, Louisiana, Mo., was dedicated Oct. 12. Rev. F. H. Small, of St. Louis, preached in the morning. Rev. E. W. S. Peck, of Baltimore, Md. preached the dedication sermon at 2:30 p. m. Rev. J. W. Hughs, of St. Louis, dedicated the church, assisted by the pastor and Revs. Burton, A. Hubbard and E. W. S. Peck. The amount raised to pay off the indebtedness was $369.55. The church is said to be the best finished church in the city and is in a prosperous condition. Rev. J. Wright is the pastor.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Woman's Home Work.

MRS. M. L. DALE.

About October 18 I received a letter from Mrs. Dr. Rust, giving me notice that the W. H. Mission Conference would meet in Cleveland, Ohio, on the 28th of October, and asking me to get reports of the work in Louisiana, superintended by myself, ready, and if possible to attend the conference in person, and represent my work. I laid the matter of sending a delegate, or, rather two delegates to the conference, as each conference was entitled to send two. I had not learned to lay the matter before the country auxilliaries, only by letter. Ladies of the society in New Orleans took hold of the matter. Owing to the short notice, they failed to raise sufficient means to pay the expenses of two delegates—Mrs. Dale and Mrs. Rosamond, the ones chosen. With a great effort $47 or $48 was raised. The round trip at full rates would cost $51 railroad fare. The amount raised was not sufficient to pay the expenses of one. However, the ladies resolved to send one delegate. Hoping to get a reduction of fare, on Monday, 27th, Mrs. M. L. Dale was told to pack up. An effort was made to secure reduced fare. The best that could be done was done, which was to pay full fare from here to Cleveland, Ohio, —$25.25—with a promise by the company to give reduced fare coming back.

At 10 a. m., Oct. 27, I left New Orleans on the Northeastern Railroad. I arrived in Cleveland at 6 o'clock a. m. About 9 o'clock a. m. I found my way to the M. E. Church. I found the convention in session, with about 500 ladies and 200 or 300 gentlemen in attendance. I was received very kindly. Mrs. Dr. Rust took me by the hand after receiving an introduction to several ladies in the alter—Mrs. Davis, Mrs. ex-President Hayes and Mrs. Clark. I was introduced to the convention. I was the only colored lady in attendance. I am happy to say there was no color line visible in that convention. My report was read. Lunch

...hot in the basement of the ... In common with other ..., I lunched. At the end of Wednesday's session I was assigned to Mrs. Ingraham. After ...ching the hands of many, I went to Mrs. Ingraham's, where I was well entertained.

Thursday morning, in company with my host, I went to the convention. The attendance was large. I was invited to speak afterwards to the convention. This was a task for me, but having about concluded that we were all white, my embarrassment soon left me, and I did the best I could in the way of a little talk. After my remarks many greeted me with a hearty shake of the hand, and said, "May God bless you in your work." Many ladies said to me: "Your presence here will do more to impress us favorably with your work than twenty letters sent publicly or privately." I told them of the suffering condition of many of the ... people of our churches and congregations. Also that many children are not in Sunday school, because they have not clothing. I received promises of some help for such persons, which I feel satisfied are reliable. These ladies whom I speak of assisted me in getting a reduction of fare on my return home.

Leaving Cincinnati, I had first-... fare until I arrived in Alabama. There I was compelled to ... the sleeper or go in the smoking car. I took the sleeper, which ... considerable more expense; but I arrived home safe, after all.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Methodist Men and Women's Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Society.

BY REV. L. N. TAYLOR.

Objections to Methodist Preacher's Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Society of the United States of America.

Though this Society is growing very rapidly, and is destined to do much good in the Church, yet it ... with some opposition from good meaning brothers; and believing that this opposition will give way and that those who oppose it now will become its supporters when they know more about the organization, the intention of its founders, and as I have quit the field and am back to my studies in Garrett Biblical Institute, and know the objections against the Society and knowing they are founded on a misapprehension of the facts, and knowing the will and intention of the founders; being the president of the organization, and therefore have as good a chance to know the object of its founders as anyone else, I feel it to be my duty to ... to the several thousands who have their names on our ... and to all whom it may concern just what the Society is, and how it expects to accomplish it.

The first objection is that it is a close corporation. Let us see if it is a close corporation. And we must find out what is meant by the words close corporation. The objection means that a ... Methodist preachers ..., not less than 5 nor ... applied for a charter ... Legislature, through ... necessary to go ... said State, and ... being granted, ... the charter, ... and that the ... chosen from ... this is the leg... board of the ... are so ..., and ... That ... by which we ... delay the ropes ... which will let ... this or ... is no way ... to the votes ... be elected ... If ... then I must admit that the above named Society is a close corporation.

But if second, the objector means that a company of Methodist preachers and laymen, not less than 5 nor more than 15 applied to the Missouri Legislature for a charter and that their request being granted, that they did become and are the charter head and sole rulers of the Society. And that there is no way by which anyone not being one of the original chartered members can or may reasonably expect to hold any position in the Society. If this is what those who object mean by the term close corporation, then it does not apply to our organization. For there is no position in the gift of the Society, but that each and every policy holder is eligible to it. But how, is the question, can any one not of the original chartered members attain to any position in the Society? The local aids cannot vote in the general Society, and there are no general conventions etc., etc. We reply that these are the questions which have puzzled a great many. Again the objections so far urged against the Society are the strongest possible arguments in in its favor. It clearly demonstrates the wisdom and forethought of its founders in organizating a society which if rightly governed, will answer all the practical purposes of a benevolent society, in burying the dead, caring for the sick, and giving the broken down, retiring ministers something with which to take care of themselves and their dependents, and not turn our faithful fathers in Christ out to suffer in their old age; and all at less than half what it costs to run any other society in the United States, of its size, right in the Church, for the Church; in the hands of the pastor, and his church officers. It is a blessing to the laity, as it gives them a society in the Church without hall rents, grand taxations, annual dues, uniform, and a great many other things attached to societies to take the people's money. It is a moral help to our Methodist ladies, as it gives them a society without mixing them up with all classes of women, as is the case in most all societies which take any one who can pay the membership fee, and yet it is so guarded that sharpers can't turn it into a money making machine, for there is no way for him to get into the councils of the society. He may gain a local aid, but the local aids do not send delegates to the general Society. Yet every policy holder is eligible to any station in the Society, but they cannot work their way directly to a position. The Board of Directors can choose or elect the members to fill the several positions on the several boards from among the policy holders, and at the rate our Society is growing in the South at this time, and if it continues, that section will come in for half of the officers next year. For in Mississippi we have more than three thousand names, several hundred fully paid up members; and we have thirty-six active agents in that State. When the Society is better known and the different States have their leading men on these several boards, and the people are satisfied that it is not a money machine; then the Society will take on new life and outlive all of her present opponents. When each presiding elder will see it to be to the interest of his people for him to defend and represent it on his district, and each pastor doing the same in his charge. Then hundreds of thousands of dollars will be saved to the people and the Church, which is now spent for that which enriches not, in the way of uniform, which ought to go for houses and land. Yes, but you can't succeed say those who object. Well we reply that we would rather go down to posterity all bruised and bleeding, covered with scars from head to foot, on account of mistakes, and blunders, while trying to do something to relieve the burdens of the people, than to drift passively down the stream of ... can't! Can't! Success will ... own a continued effort.

Books and Current Literature.

Instrumental music. "The Flowers of St. Petersburg," by Waldenfel, and "Dolores," by Resch, are very popular among other waltzes. Price, 75 cents. "The Forsaken" is one of the Standard Vocal Gems; a simple and beautiful piece of music, words by H. Nide, and music by Virginia Gabriel. Price, 30 cents. "A Bird in Hand" is a beautiful little song. Words by Fred. E. Weatherly; music by Joseph L. Roeckel, publishers. W. A. Evans, 50 Bromfield St., Boston, Mass., sheet music. Price, 30 cents.

The numbers of The Living Age for Oct. 18th and 25th contain, The Younger Pitt as an Orator, National Review; The Philosophy of John Inglesant, Modern Review; Lord Lyndhurst, London Quarterly Review; Sport and Travel in Norway, Fortnightly Review; The Darwinian Theory of Instinct, Nineteenth Century; Ralph Bernal Osborne, and On the Reading of Books, Temple Bar; The Sanitorium of the Southern Ocean, Cornhill; Modern Cathedrals, A Small-pox Camp, and Gambling on Atlantic Boats, St. James's Gazette; Book selling in Russia, Spectator, Raphael as an Architect, Academy; Moorish Ambassador in Spain, Athenæum; Curious Newspapers, Chamber's Journal; with "Mr. Pudster's Return," "The Hermit of Saint Eugene" and instalments of "At Any Cost" and poetry. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

Announcements for the coming year of St. Nicholas include serial stories by J. T. Trowbridge and E. P. Roe; a series of papers on places of interest in Europe, by Frank R. Stockton, entitled "Personally Conducted;" "Talks for Young Folk," by H. H.; "Art-Work for Young Folk," by Charles G. Leland; papers on "Choosing an Occupation," based on personal interviews with prominent representatives of various trades and professions, more short stories by Miss Alcott; a series called "Among the Law-makers," and embodying the recollections of a page in the United States Senate; papers on "The Progress of Invention;" a story of Texas, by the late Rev. William M. Baker—and a great many other good thing besides. The first number of the new (November) will have a colored frontispiece, from a design by A. M. Turner, printed in fifteen colors. The December number will have for a frontispiece a reproduction, in color, of the picture, "Alice in Wonderland," by the same artist, which attracted so much attention at the last Academy exhibition.

A Centennial Retrospect of Methodism in Natchez, Miss., from 1799, 1884, by Rev. W. C. Black. This is a neat little 24 mo. book in paper cover, 108 pages. By one whose opportunities to know the history of the Church around, and in the distance before him, has not been neglected. It abounds in that which belongs to the heroic period of the Methodist history, and ought to be well read, especially in the South. It is also put in cloth. Price in paper 25 cts., and cloth 50 cts. Carver & Jameson, New Orleans, La.

Helps for Christian Workers, a quarterly magazine by H. E. Brown, Oberlin, Ohio, 15 cts. per year. Three numbers are before us; viz., Bible Reading, Training Class and the Preparation and use of Bible Readings. The subjects themselves are a sufficient review, as everyone who wishes to understand or teach the Scriptures can appreciate the value of such a production. The author has been faithful to his work, and to find an appreciative public at his back.

German, French, Italian or Spanish at a glance. A new system on the most simple principles for universal self tuition, with complete English pronunciation of every word; revised edition. These are a series of works 16 mo., paper covers, which will prove a valuable auxiliary to any one who desires to acquire either of these languages, but cannot attend school or employ a teacher, price 25 cts., New York: Excelsior Binding Co.

My Aunt Jeanette, by Mrs. S. M. Kimball. Cloth and gilt, 296 pages, 18mo, three illustrations. New York: Phillips & Hunt; Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe. This is a well told story in Mrs. Kimball's best style, with a temperance moral. It is in full harmony with the revolutionary thought of the period on the liquor question. It will carry the ideas of parents to their childhood in words adapted to youth and childhood, and with such illustrations they can fully understand. Price $1.

Mr. Curtis, in the Easy Chair of the November Harper's, suggests pleasantly, by the return to old time subjects, that the excitements and turmoil of a Presidential campaign come, after a while, to an end. He discourses delightfully of foreign travel and Italian opera, and other dolce far niente topics, in agreeable contrast with the political heat of "chill October" days.

Three Visits to America. By Emily Faithfull. 12mo. pp xii, 400. Cloth, price $1.50. Published by Fowler & Wells Co., 753 Broadway, New York.

The author of this volume needs no introduction to an American public; her work in behalf of struggling women during the past twenty years has been attended with so much success that she acquired wide spread celebrity in spite of herself. Her three visits in this country were made for the purpose of studying our society, our industrial methods and organizations in behalf of poor and unfortunate English women, and the record of these three visits is not a rush into print to gratify personal motives merely, or to let the world know "my impressions of America," after the style of so many foreign tourists, but the notes of a warm-hearted, practical observer who is in earnest for the improvement of the condition of her fellow-women, and gives her best experience in the tracings of her pen.

The "Corruptions of the New Testament," by H. L. Hastings, editor of the Christian Witness, 47 Cornward street, Boston, is undoubtedly a useful little book, well written, and deals with its subject in a learned manner. Price not given.

Our Little Ones is now added to the list of American Magazines reprinted in Great Britain. Thus one more triumph is gained for American artists and wood engravers. It is admitted by every one that Our Little Ones is as far superior to the European Juvenile Magazines as are The Century and Harper's Magazine to their respective rivals. The English edition of Our Little Ones will be issued by the house of Messrs. T. Nelson & Sons, and negotiations are pending for the publication of editions in both France and Germany.

Among the specialties of Wide Awake the coming year is a familiar and historical series relative to Westminster Abbey, by Rose Kingsley, a daughter of Canon Kingsley. Than Miss Kingsley no English woman knows better the great Abbey, and the greatest of its Deans, Dean Stanley.

Teaching and Teachers two volumes in one, on the Sunday-school Teachers, Teaching work, and the other work of the Sunday-school Teacher, by Rev. H. Clay Trumbull D. D., the editor of the Sunday-school Times, formally normal secretary of the American Sunday-school Union, Philadelphia; John D Wattles, publisher, 1884, 377 pages, copious index, large type, wide margin with full marginal references. 12 mo. cloth and gilt. Indespensible to Sunday-school workers; $1 50 per copy. It should be in the hands of every Sunday-school teacher in the land.

Wedding Feast, In the Temple, Hidden Talent, and Lost Lamb, are the titles to four books published by the American Tract Society, New York. They contain pictures and stories of long ago, or illustrations of Bible truths in a manner and style simple, attractive, and tasteful. They are in highly illustrated, board covers. Amid opening flowers and land-scape beauty, a shepherd guides his flock bearing a lamb in his arms, while through an open window two lovely children read the blessed Bible together, and in the distance will be seen the palace, whither these little books aim to guide their readers in the end. They make a neat Christmas present for children. For price or supplies write to W. D. Skillman, 94 Camp street, New Orleans, La.

Monthlies for November.

The American Missionary, by the American Missionary Association, N. Y., 50 Reade St.

Harper's New Monthly Magazine, by Harper & Bros., New York.

The Musical Herald, by the Herald Company, Franklin Square, Boston.

The English Illustrated Magazine, by McMillan & Co., New York, 112 4th Avenue.

Outing, a monthly magazine of recreation, by the Wheelman Company, Boston, 175 Tremont St.

North American Review, monthly, No. 30 Lafayette Place, New York.

Southern Cultivator, Atlanta, Georgia.

The Chatauqua Monthly, Meadville, Pa.

The Pulpit Treasury, by E. B. Treat, New York, 757 Broadway.

The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine. The Century Company, Union Square, New York.

Haus und Herd, a monthly magazine in German. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe.

Bi-Monthlies.

The Missionary Review, November and December, Princeton, N. J.

Annuals.

The Illustrated Family Christian Almanac for the year 1885. American Tract Society.

United States Consular Reports, from the Consuls of the United States, on the commerce of their consular districts, State Department, Washington, D. C. Government print.

Books.

Hymns of Inquiry. By Geo. P. Houston, Cincinnati, O., 103 Longworth St. Designed to be used specially as an awakening tract. Price, $1 per hundred. Sixteen pages, paper, 48 mo., last cover blank, enabling pastors to put their church card there. Good to use as a visiting card.

We have just received from John Church & Co, of Cincinnati, O., a sample copy of their "Christmas Selections for 1884."

The Dual Biography.

For reasons that are controlling and that make the work to me a sacred duty, I have undertaken the preparation of a volume commemorative of Dr. Lovick Pierce and of his son, Bishop George F. Pierce. I do this because the dead wished it, and their families desire it.

The material for the work is rich and varied, but it is widely scattered. To be useful to any, it must be brought together. There are thousands of letters preserved in desks and hundreds of illustrative incidents held in the memory of friends, that would be invaluable to me. I ask earnestly for both the letters and incidents. I will be thankful for any letters from either the "Doctor" or the "Bishop"—they both had a trick of saying the best things in the most unexpected way. Many of their brightest and wisest sentences occur in short private letters.

If any friend will lend me a copy of Bishop Pierce's "Bible Sketch," delived in New York in 1844, I will be grateful.

The work will not "appear at once;" it will take time; a biographer should at least have opportunity to do his work well. Atticus G. Haygood, Emory College, Oxford, Ga., Oct. 27, 1884.

"The Book-Worm." A unique, handsome, and delightfully readable little Monthly Magazine, containing for the year over 300 pages and many fine pictures, all for 25 cents a year, is a recent characteristic product of The Literary Revolution. Each number contains attractive selections from some noted book,—the last presents Prescott's famous chapter on the "Spanish Inquisition." What will interest a vast number of book-buyers will be the regular monthly news of the Revolution's progess, an enterprise that has wrought wonders in the book world. A specimen copy of The Book-Worm will be sent free to any address. John B. Alden, Publisher, 393 Pearl Street, New York.

Among those who will contribute to combinations of newspapers during the coming year are W. D. Howells, Julian Hawthorn, Harriet Prescott Spofford, J. S., of Dale, Brander Mathews, J. Esten Cooke, Mrs. Louis Chandler Moulton, W. H. Bishop, Noah Brooks, H. H., E. P. Roe, J. T. Trowbridge, and H. H. Boyesen.

Mr. W. D. Howells's new novel, begun in the November Century, "The Rise of Silas Lapham," will discuss some questions of business morals with the same clear insight shown in "A Modern Instance."

California assesses her railroads this year at $51,438,500, an increase of over $11,000,000 as compared with last year's figures. This gives some idea of the power exercised under the new constitution by the State Board of Equalization. Illinois assesses her 7,972 miles of railway this year at a valuation of $60,267,186.

The chief advantage secured in the new upright piano-fortes which the Mason & Hamlin Company are now introducing, is, undoubtedly, in their quality of tone, which in, of course, the fundamental excellence in any piano. By their new arrangement, the strings are accurately and securely held; being subject to little or no variation from changes of temperature, humidity of the atmosphere, etc. More perfect and accurate vibrations of the strings are thus secured, which are essential to tones all musical, and free from mere noise. The greater durability and freedom from liability of the Mason & Hamlin piano to get out of tune comes from the same cause. This improvement in these pianos is added to the best modes of construction heretofore employed.—Boston Traveller.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Berean Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expres for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its bab stories, and its large, beautiful pictnre

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day or Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, NOV. 27, 1884.

Announcement for 1885

Reduction in Price to ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CTS. When Paid in Advance, or Within Three Months.

From this time subscriptions for The Southwestern Christian Advocate will be received for the year 1885 at $1.50 a year, payable in advance or within three months. No other paper published under authority of the General Conference is furnished at this figure. It is the cheapest paper in the whole list. New subscribers for the next year will receive their papers up to January 1st free.

Let us have 2000 new subscribers within the next sixty days.

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

Death of Bishop Wiley.

Sunday morning the press of the city published the following:

Cincinnati, Nov. 22. A cablgram received at the Methodist Book Concern late this afternoon announces the death of Bishop I. W. Wiley, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now engaged in Church work in China. He died at the residence of N. J. Plumb, missionary at Foo Chow.

Bishop Wiley was appointed missionary at Foo Chow in 1851. His first wife died there in 1853, a martyr to the work. The Bishop left in 1854 and never fully recovered from the inroads upon his health made there. It is a sad coincidence that the Bishop should give up his useful Christian life on his early field of labor. Foo Chow conference was called for Nov. 19th. An appreciative sketch of the Bishop's life will be published.

Bishop Harris has been requested to deliver an address on Dec. 6, in Waco, Texas. No conclusion has as yet been reached. The Bishop's time will be well occupied while in Texas, with Texas, Austin, West Texas and Southern German Conference to hold.

Let this Centennial Thanksgiving day be remembered for the increased liberality of the people, and the noble response they give to the appeals of the Church. We [illegible] doubtless will raise the [illegible] asked for the Freedmen's Aid Society in the South, and $50,000 this by the colored people.

The dinner is fine, the turkey [illegible] the cranberries nuex[illegible] pudding delicious, the [illegible] unrivaled, but the cry of [illegible] is on the air, the orphan [illegible] in the street, the voice of [illegible] is all abroad. Let them [illegible] delights of your bounty, [illegible] will be the feast that [illegible] has chosen.

The leading press of the South, [illegible] Independent Republican [illegible] North that supported [illegible] for the Presidency, [illegible] ned to observe, counsel [illegible] protection of Negro citi[illegible] hope it will be product[illegible] fruit. Dispatches indi[illegible] great uneasiness prevails [illegible] South, with reference [illegible] under a Democratic [illegible] In Georgia and [illegible] there is a marked [illegible] This is a [illegible] leadership and [illegible] Anchor your [illegible] and the school [illegible] with all [illegible] Christian manhood, [illegible] the wisdom of Provi-

Thanksgiving.

We thank Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because Thou hast heard, and we know that Thou hearest us always. The four living creatures in heaven give glory, and honor, and thanks unto Thee, as Thou sittest on Thy throne. All the angels stand around about Thy throne, and about the elders and four living creatures, and fall before the throne on their faces and worship Thee, saying, amen: Blessing and glory, and wisdom and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, unto our God forever and ever. The four and twenty elders which sit before God on their seats, fall upon their faces and worship him, saying, "We give Thee thanks, oh Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because Thou hast taken to Thee Thy great power and hast reigned." Therefore, offer unto God thy thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the most high; for it is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto his name. We should thank the Christ Jesus, our Lord, who hath enabled us, because he counted us faithful, putting us into the ministry. We must thank God, through Jesus Christ, that the Christian faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. Whatsoever we do in the affairs of the church or of State, in word or deed, we should do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Our conversation must be without covetousness, and we should be content with such things as we have; for God hath said: "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." By him, therefore, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually; that is the fruit of our lips' —giving thanks to his name. Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. We should make our thanksgiving a time for the removal from us of all contention, if any exists. Laboring together in prayer for our ministry, and for the purity of our ordination vows upon us, which we acknowledged in the presence of many persons. Like Daniel though, we know that the hand-writing of opposition, privation and trial is signed. We must still go into our closets, and with the windows of the soul and chamber of the house open toward Jerusalem, we must kneel upon our knees daily and often in the days, and pray unto God just as if no persecution or opposition prevailed. But this thanksgiving must also extend to the great congregation, and the praise of the Lord among much people. We must in everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning us.

Editorial Perambulations.

Wednesday morning, Nov. 19, finds us again on the wing. We leave the Morgan depot for a trip over the Star and Crescent line to Navasota, Texas, at 7:45 a. m. This road has an air of solidity about it. Substantial transfer boats convey you to the train that awaits your coming in the Algiers depot. The good boat Enterprise left her slip on time, and soon we were rolling rapidly, but smoothly, along over soil entirely new to us. The treatment is not alike to all travelers here, so far as we experienced it; the difference is in what you pay. You get what you pay for, or we did.

It is 431 miles to the end of our journey, or about 2,000 miles from Cincinnati, and an equal distance from San Francisco, Cal. Well, were now under full headway, sweeping in through the great sugar district. We stop at New Iberia and think of the shock and strain of excitement through which they have just passed. The Teche, Berwick's Bay, Bayou Boeuf, Spanish Lake and Lake Charles, are either crossed or skirted as we push along. Now a boundless prairie, then a dense pine forest or cypress swamp is passed. There is plenty of grass, and they know its value, for the praries are well filled with cattle. There are some thrifty towns on the road, and about half of the people you see are colored. There is very little excitement over the political situation. What the American Baptist newspaper calls the "cowardly Negroes" are not in the parts of Louisiana and Texas through which we have already come. There is a feeling that the solid laboring people have lost nothing. As for the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, it must move on with increased rather than diminished velocity all over the South. Surrender never! To what, and why should we? If we should, we wouldn't. Go on with your church building and parsonage building; with your preaching, and teaching, and reviving the Lord's work by word and deed in the South and in the ends of the earth.

TEXAS.

We cross the Sabine River and stand on Texas soil; pass Orange, Houston, Hempstead, and at 2:15 disembark at Navasota. We spend a pleasant night's rest, and rise in fine trim for the CONFERENCE.

The Texas Conference opened its nineteenth session at 8:30, with religious services, and concluded by the Lord's supper. Bishop Harris was present at the beginning, in vigorous health and form. The roll of last conference was called by Rev. C. C. Minegan, secretary of the last session. All the members answered to their names but Bro. Oliver Waters, deceased, after which the following were elected: C. C. Minegan, secretary; statistical secretary, R. H. Harbert; assistant secretary, Freeman Parker; statistical secretary, J. L. Smith and W. H. Logan.

CONGRATULATION.

Bishop Harris congratulated them on the improved weather since he met with the conference at Brenham. It is near ten years since we were there; a good many are on high now. Bro. Waters has gone on, and some others have crossed the flood. We have only one church in heaven and on earth.

One family, we dwell in Him,
One church above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream—
The narrow stream of death.

So the Bishop exhorted the conference to continued faithfulness and usefulness. Nine o'clock was fixed for business; religious exercises at 8:30. Adjournment was fixed for 12 o'clock.

Bros. I. B. Scott and J. E. Shackleford were nominated for conference treasurer. The second named was withdrawn, and the first elected. R. R. Roberts to collect the book accounts.

CONFERENCE TREASURER

was carefully instructed to credit all monies to the causes for which they were intended, and that all conference funds be reported and paid to him. The usual committees were appointed. A scheme prepared for tallying financial returns made by pastors was presented, approved, and expense of preparation assumed.

The Bishop explained that returns of benevolent money must be in even dollars, carrying always fractions of less than 50 cents to the cause having a fraction over 50 cents, so as to make even dollars.

The conference ordered at its last session that the Freedmen's Aid collections be paid to Wiley and Houston Seminaries. The Bishop directed that all such collections be paid in to the treasurer, subject to conference order.

The conference bar was arranged, and the secretary and statistical secretary were appointed to edit and print the conference minutes.

THE CONFERENCE.

This is a large conference, having five districts, and about 120 preachers. It covers one-half of the great State of Texas, and requires a travel of about 500 or 600 miles of territory. They have heretofore done little organizing, but a great deal of promiscuous preaching. The result was, little fruit saved to us; most of the converts going to the Baptist and others. Little church building was also a consequence of this order; but a better condition of things, a more practical and useful class of ideas now prevail, and quite a vigorous effort is now being made to increase both members and churches, with a good degree of success. There are some first-class men here.

The missionary appropriations were as usual discussed, but the usual arrangement of appointing the presiding elders prevailed of necessity. Yet there ought to be a great deal of care used in the distribution of these funds, and in order to do this the Bishop should use his revisory judgement freely.

ON TRANSFERS.

The Bishop decided that the act of transferring a preacher was completed when the conference meets from which the transfer was made, except it is otherwise stipulated in the act of transferring. The same applies to the transfer of conference territory, from one to another conference, and quoted precedents in support of his decision. The Bishop was ready on all occasions to sweeten the waters of Marah with a pleasantry at every little turn in matters.

Bishop Harris was requested to transfer Rev. Paul Douglass from Little Rock to Texas Conference, which action is subject to the concurrence of the Bishop of the Little Rock Conference.

A draft was ordered on the chartered fund for $30. Correspondence from Boston University, secretary of the Episcopal fund. Those matters were all referred to the appropriate committees. The editor of the SOUTHWESTERN was introduced to the conference, and addressed it. Bishop Harris followed in words that will still more greatly endear him to the members of our church. His history is the history of a succession of great movements in behalf of humanity. He is on his way to the City of Mexico, and will possibly get home by the 1st of March. Once he has gone around the world, once he has made a semi-circuit of the world, and now he is on his second trip to Mexico in ten years. Thus has Bishop Harris literally executed what Mr. Wesley did theoretically; that is, Mr. Wesley said: "The world is my parish." Bishop Harris went over this parish in person. This is his semi centennial of religious life. He was converted Nov. 10, 1834, at 5 p. m., which he will never forget, either in time or eternity. He became a minister in 1837, and hasn't got any less religion now than then.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The Bishop called the attention of the conference to the fact that at their option conferences might adopt the course of study laid down for local preachers, which is neither so difficult or expensive as as that provided for traveling preachers. There has been added to this course one book for each year, making a very good course.

Money for medals it was decided could only be applied to education, and must be sent Dr. Kidder, in behalf of the Educational Society. Notices were given. I. B. Scott was appointed to open the conference. Dr. Taylor was appointed to preach this evening, and the conference adjourned; benediction by Dr. Taylor.

SECOND DAY.

Friday, 8:30 a. m., Nov. 21, after religious services, Bishop Harris presiding, the roll was called and perfected. A draft for $109 was drawn on the Book Concern, as the pro rata share of this conference from the profit of our publishing interest.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

This conference was quite tardy in attendance on religious service, and the Bishop pressed upon them the importance of an earnest engagement in religious services. He thought as this is not a general conference year, there was no possible excuse for such gatherings at the door; and he was sure that brethren who could not attend the services ought not to come so near as the door. He emphasized the duty of punctuality. He reminded them of the rule for exactness.

Prof. N. D. Clifford, of Wiley University, was present this session, and introduced to the conference. Prof. C. W. Campbell is a member of this conference; and the former was transferred from the Mississippi to Texas Conference. Considerable perplexity arose out of the discussion of the management of Houston Seminary, and it is quite evident that these schools, just as Bishop Harris said "ought to be under the local direction of responsible trustees," not "figure heads," as we once heard a brother say.

The presiding elders represented their districts as having experienced a year of solid growth. The conference hitherto failed to hold the usual conference anniversaries, but they are now to fall in line also. The former custom has been to have preaching each evening of the conference.

THIRD DAY.

The Conference got together a little later in consequence of sharp and driving rain.

After the usual religious exercises the examination of character was resumed, and concluded.

Presiding Elder George W. Smith said that some of the churches on his district were so open that you could throw a young dog through the cracks, and that the preachers scold the people for not attending them. The Bishop said that that did not do any harm as the people were not there to hear it.

Rev. W. L. Molloy, was permitted to withdraw under charges.

Rev. James Smith was placed on the supernumerary list; also Henry Smith and B. M. Taylor. The former was requested to ask for a location. With reference to ministers leavin or refusing to go to the work assigned them, the Bishop said that the General Conference regarded this as so serious a matter that it had directed the presiding elder to so proceed against it as in cases of gross immorality.

After a most earnest and impressive address, in which the Bishop emphasized the nature, object and end of our ministry; explained the intent of our probationary system, charged them with the solemnity of obligations they were about to take; illustrated the doctrine of Christian perfection, then the candidate like all the thousands of Methodist preachers who have gone this way before them said, "I expect to be made perfect in this life, I am going on to it, I am groping after it." They were charged to preach and defend our doctrines. The Bishop said "We want no half-hearted men here. We want only, men who believe in the doctrine, and polity of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It may be that a man will change his doctrine, but as soon as such change occurs it is his duty to withdraw. He should not stay to create a schism in the church with which he disagrees." He said a preacher should be faithful in the discharge of his duties, and related how a minister's wife raised about three times as much money for the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society as he had for the General Missionary cause. Then said the Bishop, we found out that we had made the mistake in not appointing her instead of him to that charge. Some ministers' wives are a great deal more useful than their husbands, and some husbands are a great deal more useful because of the usefulness of their wives. He pressed them to redeem the time, and illustrated his view of the value of ministerial dilligence by this story of himself, which we would not print only it is too useful to be lost. At one time he was sent a serial publication of 12 volumes for review. He read the first 11 of these at times when he would be going to and from his home and office in the street cars, while others were idle and doing nothing. As to punctuality he declared that a punctual preacher made a punctual congregation and vice-versa; obedience to the rules of the Church of which we are members he urged as one of the first Christian duties. He narrated a circumstance of a minister whose practice in a ministry of 30 years duration had been to read our rules for a preacher once each week upon his knees, but that he never did so, except it caused him to think of the judgment day. The manner and meaning of pastorial visitation as well as the duty of it was clearly stated. They were calls for religious counsel, advice, and direction, they must rise incalculably higher in usefulness, than any merely social visits could. He said, the class was admonished to avoid embarrassing debts, and each for himself, took the iron clad tobacco pledge.

The Bishop said we should soon have a clean Methodist ministry, the General Conference had not required the elder brethren to abstain from tobacco, Ephraim was joined to his idol so they said let him alone. But they will soon be gone. "The Lord hasten it in His day".

He told the story of a minister who could not have the entertainment he desired at the General Conference, because he used tobacco. The depressing effect of tobacco upon the mind was pointed out, and the difficulty with which confirmed users abandoned it, given as a reason why men should not cultivate the dangerous practice. Our Church, he said, does not patiently tolerate ministers who use tobacco.

When the Bishop concluded his remarkable address, which cannot fail to accomplish continuous good for the cause in this country the following were admitted to full connection, being deacons: Alexander W. Parker, Isom Snell, Richard J. Campbell. Willis H. Jackson and Rufus K. Whiting, were admitted to full connection and elected to deacons order. Geo. Davis and Geo. W. Norris were continued on trial. John Bailey was continued a deacon of class second.

Henry W. Wilson, Aaron Taylor, Tenola Edwards, Robert H. Harbert and Isaiah B. Scott, were elected and ordained to elder's orders. Charles W. Campbell, Nathaniel D. Clifford, John A. Tilloty, John H. Holland, Dewit Frierson. N. D. Clifford was transfered as a probationer of the 1st year from Mississippi conference, and Rev. Paul Douglass, retransfered from Little Rock conference, to the Texas conference. Dr. W. B. Rankin of the American Bible Society and Dr. R. F. Boyd of Meharry Medical College, Nashville, both gentlemen addressed the conference touching the interests they severally represented. Dr. Boyd is doubtless doing a good work in the South, both for his school profession and race. Several questions looking to a more thorough distribution of Bibles among the destitute colored people of the State, were asked and satisfactorily answered by Dr. Rankin.

APPOINTMENTS.

Houston District—F. Carson Moore, P. E.
(Postoffice, Austin.)

Brazoria and West Columbia
Columbia and Oyster..Fletcher Norwood
Galveston, St. Paul.....Mason Reddick
" Tabernacle.....Peter Morgan
Hamburg.....Oliver Warrens
Hockley.....Lewis Burton
Houston, Mt. Vernon.....Isam Snell
" St. James
" Sloan Street
" Trinity.....W H Logan
Oak Hill
Pittsville.....Henry Dickson
Richmond.....Geo Davis
Spring Creek.....Allen Harris
C W Campbell, Principal of Houston Seminary; member of St. James, Houston quarterly, conference.

Huntsville District—Edward Lee, P. E.
(Postoffice, Navasota)

Beaumont
Bevelport.....Benj. Fisher
Cold Spring & Shepherd..Wm McKenzie
Danville and Dunnan.....Alfred Britton
Groveton Circuit
Harden Circuit
Huntsville.....H W Wilson
Huntsville Circuit.....A C Culbreath
Liberty Circuit.....Davie Adkin
Livingston and Moscow.....Aaron Adair
Lovelady.....Richard Williams
Montgomery Circuit.....John Guess
Orange & Donoanwood.Andrew Williams
Town Bluff.....Toby Ward
Walker Circuit.....Calvin Moore
Wallisville.....Spencer Kelley
Willis Circuit.....Jeremiah Smith

Marshall District—Harvey Webb, P. E.
(Postoffice, Marshall.)

Bonham.....Taylor Moore
Blossom Prairie.....Lewis Woodward
Clarksville.....Paul Douglass
Cypress.....Daniel Battle
DeKalb
Hughes Springs.....A W Parker
Jefferson and Plain Valley..Wm Wesley
Kildare.....DeWitt Frierson
Marshall, Ebenezer and Centenery
R H Harbert
Marshall Circuit
Paris.....V M Cole

[illegible]	Henry Johns
[illegible]	John Jackson
[illegible]	Geo W Norris
[illegible]	Freeman Parker
Mineral Springs
New Orleans, President of Wesley University
City Missionaries of Ebenezer Church
Quarterly Conferences.
Natchez District—W. H. Pullam, P. E.
[Postoffice, Natchez.]
Anderson	Aaron Alexander
Bellefille	R J Campbell
Brazos	Mark Calnew
Brushan	W H Jackson
Bogue	James K Loggins
Bryan Circuit	Linus Felder
Burleson	Rina Golden
Caldwell	Abner Thomas
Courtney	J A Tillory
Franklin	J L Smith
Hearne	Wade Hampton
Hempstead	Enoch Jefferson
Iola Circuit	F D Bookman
Millican	Thos Cole
Navasota	J E Shackelford
Patterson	Frank Gilmore
Planterville	W W Brown
Prairie Plain	Louis Horne
San Felipe and Sealy	J H Hollins
Palestine District—G. W. Smith, P. E.
[Postoffice, Palestine]
Butler	Mason Wilson
Clarkson Mill	R K Whiting
Crockett and Alinwell
Fairfield	P G Brown
Hawkins and Center	Robt Weaver
Jacksonville	Robt Williams
Leona	Wm Allen
Madison Circuit
Mineola and Quitman
Palestine	Aaron Taylor
" Circuit	C C Minegan
Rocky Mound
San Augustine	Samuel Horn
Shelby and Sabine
Shiloh and Hopewell	Tenola Edwards

The friends of Hon. W. P. Kellogg claim that his defeat was caused by outrageous bulldozing and ballot box manipulation, mainly in the parish of Iberia. With fraud or the advocates of terrorism we have no sort of sympathy, and we hope that Mr. Kellogg will contest, for the purpose of bringing down upon them an intelligent public opinion, which can only follow an impartial investigation. The result, however, vindicates the course of this paper, which pointed out that Mr. Kellogg's methods, candidacy and record were such as to bring into active play the very elements which combined for his defeat, and produced the unfortunate bloodshed in Terrebonne and Iberia parishes.

Gov. Cleveland and Hon. Thomas Hendricks, in recent speeches expressed surprise that the result of the national election should create uneasiness among the colored people of the South, with reference to their rights and liberties. They both promise that these privileges, guaranteed by the constitution, shall be held sacred. So many promises have been made, and so many broken by Democracy, to the Negro, that like a burned child, he dreads the fire. But this condition of affairs can be speedily changed, by wise and conservative people of the South taking the lead and protecting the Negro from lawlessness and all manner of oppression.

The election last Tuesday resulted in the triumph of Blaine and Logan, who received a majority of the votes in every Northern State but Connecticut and New Jersey, and in these they carried Tennessee, West Virginia and Virginia.—Mobile Register.

The Gazette is now pressing a list for canvass for new subscribers on the ground that it is a reliable Democratic paper. Comment is unnecessary. The SOUTHWESTERN does not pay with the confidence of its patrons.

The People's Sunday-school is an [illegible] national enterprise under the [illegible] of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in New Orleans. Its object is to gather up and aid in the Christian culture of children. Rev. D. L. Mitchell is the [illegible] of the enterprise. Miss [illegible] has been solicited and will [illegible] give a day's service to it

Personal.

[illegible] will that the estate of the [illegible] Simpson is valued at [illegible] McCabe returned re[illegible] Europe. He is much [illegible]

[illegible] the Evangelist, [illegible] of the conver[illegible]

[illegible] Walker began a se[illegible] at Washington, [illegible] of October.

[illegible] D. Fields, son [illegible] Bishop Fields, [illegible] a fine[illegible]

—Rev. Dr. Dixon reduced the fracture of his left arm, near the wrist. Dr. Dixon reduced the fracture, and he is now doing well.

—Rev. Dr. W. P. Stowe, book agent, will this month remove his residence from Chicago to Cincinnati.

—Jas. T. Hatfield, son of Rev. Dr. R. M. Hatfield, has been elected professor of ancient and modern languages in Rust University.

—Bishop Walden, after a few days rest at his home in Covington, has gone East to sit with the Missionary Committee.

—The West Virginia Conference unanimously recommended Rev. G. C. Winding for the position of assistant secretary of the Church Extension Society.

—Mrs. Willing, sister of Bishop Fowler, has been appointed corresponding secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and it is expected she will take the field.

—Now let the people who read, believe in and wish the SOUTHWESTERN a prosperous career, rise to work and aid in increasing its subscription list by securing new subscribers.

—Rev. D. L. Mitchell, religious editor of the New Orleans Times-Democrat says, that the SOUTHWESTERN is becoming a very good paper. We were permitted to make him welcome in our office a few days since.

—Rev. C. B. Thompson, rector of the St. Phillips Episcopal Church in New Orleans, it is rumored, will soon sever that relation with his present and assume it with the church of his denomination in Alexandria.

—Rev. John Butler writes of the safe arrival in Mexico City, of himself and party, on the 24th of September. The journey was made in seven days by rail, an improvement over the long sea voyage of former years.

—Mrs. Leroy M. Vernon, with her children, expects to sail from New York, Nov. 5th, by the Servia, returning to Italy to join Dr. Vernon. She will probably be accompanied by Miss Hall, a lady sent out by the W. T. M. S. recently appointed to Italy.

—Rev. J. G. Vaughn, of Springboro, Ohio, late of Ames Church, New Orleans, has left many pleasant memories behind him here, with those who knew him. He is making headway in his new field, and gaining the love and confidence of the people. Viva la Vaughn.

—Rev. I. F. Lindsey, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, a delegate to the Baltimore General Conference, has been taken in to the Methodist Episcopal Church and stationed at Georgetown, Ky., vice Rev. S. R. Cottrell removed by Rev. H. W. White, Lexington district conference.

—Rev. T. Constantine writes on board the Westphilia, Oct. 24th, of the usual discomforts of a sea voyage, but of a safe passage and prospect of reaching Hamburg on the 28th. These new missionaries are anticipating their work in Bulgaria with anxiety and great hope for the brighter future of that mission.

—Wilbnforce did a handsome thing and worthily bestowed the title of D. D. upon Rev. Sylvester Weeks, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. We have known Dr. Weeks a long time, and have never known a more lofty, pure spirited, and unpretentious gentleman. Now let some of our schools pay a little tribute to the merit of that worthy man Rev. Stratford Straws, of the African Church, in return.

—A very sad accident occurred recently at Jewett, Texas. Bro. Andy McDaniels and wife left home for church, and left their 5 months old baby at home. During their absence the house caught fire and was totally destroyed, the little babe burning into acrisp.

Church Polity.

The Amenability of Local Elders, Deacons and Preachers.

As some of our local elders and deacons seem to think that they are not amenable either to the district or quarterly conference for their Christian character or ministerial conduct, but to the annual conference, for the benefit of all such, and the unordained local preachers, will you give the 190th paragraph of the new Discipline space in the columns of the SOUTHWESTERN?—A Presiding Elder.

ANS.—Yes, it is as follows:

"Every local elder, deacon or preacher shall be amenable to the district or quarterly conference where he resides for his Christian character, and the faithful performance of the duties of his ministerial office. He shall have his name recorded on the journal of said conference, and also enrolled on a class paper, and shall meet the class and shall make to each district or quarterly conference to which he is amenable a report of his labors as follows: 1. Number of sermons preached; 2. number of prayer meetings attended; 3. Number of class meetings attended; 4. Number of Sunday schools attended; 5. Marriages solemnized and the names of the parties married, that they may be entered by the preacher in charge upon the church records; 6. Number of Baptisms administered; 7. number of funerals conducted; 8. Miscellaneous items. If a local preacher be found neglectful of any of the above duties, or unacceptable in his ministerial office after due trial, the district or quarterly conference if it judges it proper may deprive him of his ministerial office."

Here we have a plain and explicit statement of the law of the Church as it relates to this question. Elders and deacons are truly amenable to the district or quarterly conference as are the unordained local preachers.

General Church News.

SOUTH AMERICA.—The Rev. J. P. Thomson, D. A., continues to arouse interest, thought and comment by his bold and eloquent lectures on Popery. The newspapers of the country publish notices and letters concerning his efforts. In a communication to The Standard, of Buenos Ayres, we find him compared to the great religious reformers of modern times in all countries. Dr. Thomson is a worthy and able advocate of the cause of Evangelical Christianity.

JAPAN.—Rev. H. Loomis says that the priests of the Hongangi Temple in Kioto have become very much alarmed by the spread of the Christian religion, and recently sent a delegation of 28 of their number to Tokio, to petition the government to suppress the hated doctrine. They have tried abuse and argument, and now, as a last resort, they wish to have it suppressed by law. Their action affords a contrast to the recent bold utterances upon Christianity of Mr. Fukuzawa, which have been widely noticed in this country.

The Mission Church in Prague (American Board) has some sixty resident members, and have kept up twenty prayer meetings a week in and around the city, and contributed year before last to missions in heathen lands about $1.80 for every member. Success has certainly attended American Missionary effort in Papal Europe. A suggestive paper upon this subject, by Rev. H. A. Shauffler, appears in the last Foreign Missionary.

Schools and Colleges.

New Orleans University, Musical Department.—Miss Ella Stalker, has been appointed Instructor in instrumental music. All who wish to take lessons on the piano or organ can begin at once. Classes are being formed. For terms and any other information wanted, inquire at or address 1428 St. Charles Ave., New Orleans, La., A. F. Hoyt.

The girls at Central Tennessee College have their sewing machine; now they want to learn how to use it, and something to use on it. $25 will pay the teacher, and $75 will purchase goods enough to do a great deal of sewing, and the clothes so made up can be at once applied to the use of the makers, some of whom are objects meriting charity. Who will be one of 10 persons at $5 each, to raise $95 of this amount. $5 is already pledged. We will agree to receive all sums and pay it over to the preceptress, take her receipt, and publish names of givers, receipts, and the whole transaction when finished. We will thankfully accept the smallest possible sums. Start it, who will?

Tribute of Respect—To the Memory of George W. McKinney,

By His Brother, A. W. McKinney.

George W. McKinney, M. D., was born in Franklin county, Alabama, June 11, 1848.

In those days when men held property in human souls, he was claimed by one Philip Carpenter. But it was said to the credit of that good old man, that he practiced none of the cruelties of the slave master of his day. His servants were as his children, and we never learned from his treatment that we were slaves.

When, in 1855, or thereabouts, the old man died, our family, then nine persons, were divided among his heirs. The heir to whom George fell, Royal Pierce, lived in Texas. Thither he was carried, and there remained until the close of the war.

Finding himself free, he sought the objects most dear to him—his home and kindred. Two years more passed, and footsore and weary he rested in the bosom of that family from which slavery had dragged him.

He determined to educate, and during 1872-73 he attended school at Holly Springs, Miss. During his connection with this school he was converted, and joined the Methodist Church.

In 1875 he went to Ohio, and attended school at Oberlin. In 1876 he entered the Central Tennessee College at Nasaville, and in 1880 he graduated as Medical Doctor from the Meharry Medical Department of that school. The same year he went to Kansas, where he met and wedded Miss Sadie Martin, the most accomplished and lovely companion of his future life.

He soon after left Kansas, and turned his face Southward, and for three years made his home in Chattanooga, Tenn. Here his health began to fail, and he thought it prudent to travel. He stopped at Grenada, Miss., and there on the 15th of April was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs. He was able to go out to mother's home, a few miles in the country, but was only relieved by the friendly hand of Death, July 23, 1884.

He was conscious to the last, spoke of dying with cheerfulness, and gave directions concerning his burial. He requested that the following line should be inscribed on his tomb—

"Sweet is his rest, whose work is done."

So sweet be thy rest, my brother! My brother is gone, but I mourn him not as dead. He has only crossed that silent river, along whose banks I myself have often lingered, listening to the footsteps of friends invisible. His voice and form will be missed. He is no more among us; but he lives still. Twilight here is somewhere else a dawn.

Many are the friends who will drop a sympathizing tear. When, after years of usefulness, man resigns his trust and is gathered home, we feel inclined to say, well done. But when in manhood's middle day he halts feebly at the tomb, we must say, Alas! my brother. Two things give us consolation—First, he was willing to die; second, he still lives, and we shall see him.

And you, weeping Rachel, we commend to the God of all comfort, who dries the mourner's tear, gives beauty for ashes, and the oil of joy for the spirit of heaviness. Truly, the world may seem cold and dark; but you can think of that land where the mourner looks up and is glad.

"O how sweet it will be
In that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain;
With songs on our lips,
And with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again."

A Good Investment.

MESSRS. CRADDOCK & Co.:

Please send another $12 box of CANNIBIS INDICA. This remedy has entirely cured me of Bronchitis and Catarrh. I gained nine pounds in two weeks. The $36 spent with you has done more good than $200 paid to doctors.

BEN. F. JONES,
No. 820 Garrison Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

This remedy speaks for itself. One bottle will satisfy the most skeptical. There is not a single symptom of Catarrh or Consumption that it does not dissipate at once, and it will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. $2.50 per pint bottle, or three bottles, $6 50.

Address, Craddock & Co.,
1032 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Winona, Miss., Nov. 13th, '84
Editor SOUTHWESTERN: "Please send me one or two more copies of the SOUTHWESTERN, this week's issue, as I had to give mine away. I cannot afford to lose a link in a chain so important." J. C. Houston.

THE ENTERPRISE MEAT CHOPPER has been tested and endorsed by over one hundred Agricultural Journals. The Farm & Fireside says: "After testing, each Editor immediately ordered an Enterprise Meat Chopper for his family use." The American Agriculturist says: These Choppers excel anything of the kind made in either Hemisphere. See large advertisement in another column only 17-1y.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

NEW HUBLICATIONS.

"THE CIVIL WAR," IN THE CENTURY.

A series of graphically illustrated papers on the great battles of the Civil War, written by generals high in command upon both sides (including Generals Grant, Longstreet, McClellan, Beauregard, Hill, Pope, Rosecrans, Admiral Porter, and many others), is begun in the November number of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE with an article on

"BULL RUN"
By Gen. G. T. BEAUREGARD.

The aim is to present interesting personal experiences, with full and accurate illustrations. Accompanying papers on "Recollections of a Private" will add value to a series which the conductors of THE CENTURY believe to be the most important ever undertaken by them. In the December number is a fine portrait of General Grant, and an article on FORT DONELSON, by Gen. WALLACE.

This number also contains a capital short story by Mark Twain, and many other features. In an early issue will appear the paper on "SHILOH," by Gen. GRANT.

Begin subscriptions with November, and get first chapters of Howells's new novel of an American business man. Price $4.00 a year, 35 cents a number. THE CENTURY CO. N. Y.

The contrast between a healthy, laughing, chirping child and one that has all the movements of pain is painful to the student of nature. If your child is lacking some elements of perfect childhood, try Ridge's Food. It is perfectly safe. More children have been successfully reared upon Ridge's Food than upon all the other foods combined. Do not let your children grow up weak and puny when Ridge's Food can be had so small cost—35c. up. WOOLRICH & CO., on label.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF
PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

Cod-Liver Oil and Lime.—That Pleasant and active agent in the cure of all consumptive symptoms, "Wilbor's Compound of Pure Cod-Liver Oil and Lime," is being universally adopted in medical practice. Sold by the proprietor, A. B. WILBOR, Chemist, Boston, and all druggists.

Satan Is Coming

FOR SALE—THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE—contents: Millenium 1890; a rival of the long anticipated Jewish Messiah; great financial crisis, 1886; great war throughout the entire world 1880; Satan the chief Anti-Christ, time of his birth, incidents connected with Satan's birth, powers and advance skirmishing. Satan's Temple Ten Commandments, Satan's Ensign and Insignia, what Satan says regarding his mission to all nations, etc. Price, 25 cents; stamps. Address it AUGUST ROHE, St. Paul, Minn.

BEACON LIGHTS,
The Most Beautiful
SOUVENIR
Ever Published
Square 16mo. In neat box. Price, $1.50.
For sale by all Booksellers, or mailed on receipt of price by
S. E. CASSINO & CO., Publishers,
BOSTON, MASS. nov27 3t

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov23-1y

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
sept25 6m

GOOD NEWS TO LADIES!
Greatest inducements ever offered. Now's your time to get up orders for our celebrated Teas and Coffees, and secure a beautiful Gold Band or Moss Rose China Tea Set, or Handsome Decorated Dinner Set, or Gold Band Moss Decorated Toilet Set. For full particulars address
THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA CO.,
P. O. Box 289. 31 and 33 Vesey St., New York
oct23-13t

Pictorial NEW TESTAMENT
New Revision—WITH NOTES BY
Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D. LL.D.
Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D. D.
Rev. LYMAN ABBOTT, D.D.

Illustrated New Testament,
King James' Version—with Notes by
Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D., LL.D.
Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D.D.

Agents Wanted—Outfits Free and all Freights Paid. Address
H. S. GOODSPEED & CO.,
oct2-1ynr New York or Chicago.

"I owe my Restoration to Health and Beauty to the CUTICURA REMEDIES."
Testimonial of a Boston lady.

DISFIGURING Humors, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching Tortures, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and Infantile Humors cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the cause.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair.

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite, prepared from CUTICURA is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure, and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50 cents; Soap, 25 cents; Resolvent, $1. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON, MASS.

Grand Christmas Offer.

You can have a Family Bible, an elegant Album, or a choice Book absolutely Free of Charge, by addressing UNION PUBLISHING HOUSE, 13 Chambers St., New York; or Constitution Building, Atlanta, Ga. oct23-4t

CHRISTMAS MUSIC.

Santa Claus and Family, a Cantata by J. H. Rosecrans. Fine music, beautiful scenes and tableaux. Price, 30 Per dozen by express, $3. Per dozen by mail, $3.25

Jesus of Nazareth in Prophecy and Fulfillment—Responsive Scripture readings, with original music set to Scripture texts. A small oratorio. Price, 5c. Per dozen by mail, 60c.

Christmas Selections for 1884, by J. H. Fillmore. Price, 40c. Per dozen by mail, 40c.

Christmas Songs from "Grateful Praise." Price 2c. Per dozen by mail, 20c.

Christmas Songs from "Joy and Gladness." Price 4c. Per dozen by mail, 40c

A sample of all the above list sent for 30c. A sample of each with out the Cantata, sent for 10c. Address

FILLMORE BROS.,
185 Race St., Cincinnati, Ohio.
nov6 4t

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Labatt, Manager.)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20.....Toulouse Street,.....20
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, La.

Personal attention given to the sale of all produce consigned to my care, and prompt returns made of the same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates for cash. Liberal advances in all on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.

No transactions on Sundays. sept24-tf

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with or without music.

Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.

Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 25 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock

W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94.....Camp Street,.....94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

292.....Rampart Street.....292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.

All orders promptly and carefully executed a moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

KNABE
PIANOFORTES.
UNEQUALLED IN
Tone, Touch, Workmanship and Durability.
WILLIAM KNABE & CO.
Nos. 204 and 206 West Baltimore Street, Baltimore. No. 112 Fifth Avenue, N. Y.
nov13-tf

4 % LONG LOANS.
PRINCIPAL need never be [illegible]
So long as interest is kept up. Personal security only for interest. Honest poor or men of moderate means can send 6 cents for particulars, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.
no 9 13t $61.

A Pentagon Thanksgiving Ode.

PROF. S. W. LEWIS.

"He maketh peace within thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of wheat."—Psalms.

In peace, with plenty, thy Omnipotence
Hath restored, blest with great exuberance,
Thou hast thou granted a success from toil,
Crown'd our laborial efforts from the soil
Abundantly; our garners now o'erflow,
And all is joy and gladness here below.
So lately we in carnage did employ
Ourselves; but restored peace we now enjoy.
So lately we our Corea blooming fields
Behold, and stored their rich productive yields.
Our garners fraught with a successful store,
We'll meet th' advances of the needy poor
Abundantly, stand ready to relieve;
'Tis better far to give than to receive.'
With the blest consciousness of succ'ring man
In his mistress, like the Samaritan,
Enjoy the sweets succeeding grateful deeds;
When urged and acted by the heart that bleeds
O'er human suffering, for naught can be-stow
Such sweet contentment to the mind to know
That in accordance with the Holy Word,
Our discharged duties are. Thou wilt reward.
To our rich glebe, succeeding years increase
Its products, and infuse in every breast
Deep gratitude, for thy munificent hand
Hath bounteous been here, and throughout the land.
Grant universal peace we may enjoy,
And towards all men good will our thoughts employ.
Guard this great republic, to this free
And glorious land, sacred to liberty,
A station 'mongst the governments of earth
Exalted; may its people at their birth
Imbibe a love of liberty, and share
The virtues of ancestors; dread war
Avert; let assailed honor ever seek
Th' courts of peaceful arbiters and make
Th' awards decisive; let our leaders be Free from corruption, their integrity
Unimpeached; in their councils may they have Discerning wisdom such as thou didst give
The Hebrew monarch; like him may they share
Thy bounteous favor, thy peculiar care.
May every mind and heart this day suppress,
(On sea-Atlantic shore, from east to West,
Within the North to the far-rescuing south)
Unseemly thoughts, and with continuous mouth
Offer sincere devotion with voice free
In joyous acclamations unto Thee.
With holy exultation now and hence,
Proclaim thy glorious ways, thy excellence.

Canton, Miss. Nov 15. 1884.

Domestic Hygiene.

Health and Disease—Hygiene of Some Nervous Affections.

REV. DR. GEORGE L. CURTISS.

In cases of a nervous and mental character there is need for the use of common sense. All people have a sufficient number of nerves for all necessary uses, but some people seem to be unusually developed in their nerves, and so become irritated, excited, alarmed and overcome by what would not affect another in any degree. There are some exceedingly susceptible persons, who faint at the sight of blood, suffering, or a slight hurt. These persons need to be kindly treated. In a case of fainting, lay the person down on the back and sprinkle or dash cold water in the face, open the collar, and unloose the waist. If the person is a lady and she is tightly laced, loose the clothing. If you can't loose it with the fingers, cut it, for it is better to save life and lose a corset-string than to save a corset-string and lose life. When the syncope is extreme, press on the abdomen and on the lungs, and produce pressure. This, by pressure, will start respiration, and circulation, unless asphyxia is complete. In that case life cannot be restored.

In case of a fit or epilepsy, treat as a case of fainting, laying the person on the back. Should they show signs of violence, and are likely to injure themselves, hold them with gentle restraint. A little salt is good for a person in fits. I have never known a case that resisted the treatment I am satisfied I can cure. Epilepsy is a nervous condition, and can be cured with any of the good methods of treatment. I believe in the sufferer's ability to cure himself. You can do more than any physician can do for you. You make the difference between a cure and a failure by exercising the eye. On raising the eyelid, if the pupil is found uncontracted, and generally sensitive to the light, it is hysterica. If the pupil of one or both eyes is either contracted, or unusually dilated it is probably a fit of some kind, and may be appoplexy, and the physician needs to be called as soon as soon as posible.

It is asked, what produces a fit? The answer to this would be unsatisfactory even were I to try to give one. But something may be said of value concerning the public. The cause of epilepsy is not in all cases known. Sometimes it results from self abuse; sometimes from exposure to cold; sometimes from fright, and often from undue nervous stimulation. Some fits in children are caused by eating unripe fruit, filling the stomach with a mass of material that is indigestible, and sometimes by the presence of worms. As soon as the stomach is unloaded of this indigestible mass of unhealthy material, the fit subsides. The administration of worm medicine, and a good cathartic will will cure fits caused by these troublesome inhabitants of human beings and no evil results will follow.

Blows on the head, injuries from a kick of a horse or mule, or from a severe fall by which the head comes in contact with a hard log, producing concussion of the brain, will be followed by many serious consequences. Fits, loss of menory, aberation of intellect, are greater or less evidence of insanity, gradual softening of the brain and final death often follow these injuries. There are cases well authenticated of over study producing slowly what a quick sharp blow produces suddenly. In such cases the first indication of injury is seen in loss of memory, and failure to speak the words designed. In such instances if the person desires to say "fire" he will say "water" or "cold," if "hard," he says "soft," if 'high' he will say 'low.' The intellect knows what is desired to be said, but the organs of speech speak the opposite. In most of these cases there are fits more or less frequent, and in all they have been produced by a fit. Sun-stroke which has not been followed by death is liable to produce attacks resembling fits. I have known several cases of this kind. The attacks could be prevented by keeping cool and refraining from going into the sunshine between nine o'clock in the morning and sundown. In the the case of a very estimable gentleman of large business relations, who lived fifteen years after the sun-stroke, in the summer time he learned to avoid going out of the house during the greater part of the day. If he was exposed to the sunshine he was overcome by a fainting attack, sometimes resembling a real fit, which was followed by days of serious illness, and nervous prostration.

The only sure cure for fits is to avoid the causes producing them.

Mrs. B. B., of Columbus, Ohio, said to be a remarkably good housekeeper, offers the Tribune this recipe for custard for cake: Put into one large coffeecup of boiling milk the yolks of six eggs, four tablespoonsful of white sugar, one tablespoonful of cornstarch, one of flour. Flavor with vanilla. Boil well. When just done, stir in a piece of butter big as a walnut. Cool slightly and spread on the cake.

Aunt Helen, of Pellville, Ill., recommends this as a nice "Breakfast Dish." Pour one pint of sweet milk in your spider, break in three eggs, let them cook slowly—not boil. While cooking, toast two or three slices of bread about the size of your hand, butter nicely and break into a deep dish. Then, with a spoon, before the yolks are hard, cut up the eggs which are in the milk, salt and pepper to taste, adding butter the size of an egg—less will do—and pour over the toast. If you get it just right you will pronounce it excellent.

HEALTH HINTS.—Don't lie on your left side too much.

Don't inhale hot air or fumes of any acid.

Don't lie on your back to keep from snoring.

Don't eat in less than two hours after bathing.

Don't eat the smallest morsel unless hungry, if well.

Don't start a day's work without eating a good breakfast.

Don't take long walks when the stomach is entirely empty.

Don't forget to take a drink of pure water before breakfast.

Don't jump out of bed immediately on awakening in the moruing.

Don't strain your eyes by reading on an empty stomach or when ill.

Don't fill the gash with soot, sugar, or anything else to arrest the hemorrhage when you cut yourself, but bring the parts together with strips of adhesive plaster. —Washington Monthly.

WALL POCKET FOR DUST CLOTH.—A fan pocket for a dust-cloth holder is a useful thing, and can be made quite an ornament as well. A large palm leaf fan, a yard of cretonne of pretty design, and three or four yards of satin ribbon matching, or contrasting with the cretonne. Cover both sides of the fan plainly with the materia, and wrap the handle with a piece of the same. A pocket, either fulled or plain, is placed across the front of the fan, and trimmed with bows of the ribbon. A loop of the same with bow and ends is also fastened at the top of the handle, and by this means hung against the wall. The dust cloth is to be kept in the pocket, which will be found very convenint.—M. E. Whittemore.

Centennial Jubilee in the South.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 20th, 1884.

To our Pastors in the South: As promised in our Centennial Jubilee Circular, mailed to you some time since, we are now sending you a specimen Centennial Subscription Book and Collection Box.

Please notify us at once how many of each you think you can use with advantage in your congregation and Sunday-school, and we will, as far as practicable, comply with your request.

Read carefully again the Centennial Circular sent you some weeks ago.

Sunday, November 16th, 1884, our Centennial Jubilee in the South begins. Each pastor and Sunday-school Superintendent will arrange such services as they think best for that day. We will not send a formal programme for that day, but will very soon send a specimen programme for Centennial Jubilee Sunday, which is December 21st.

From November 16th to December 21st let the canvass go forward, so that every member and friend of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South shall be asked to make a thank offering to the Lord in money, this Centennial Year for Christian Education.

Remember to let all understand that every dollar raised in each conference goes to the school or schools supported by that conference.

HOW TO USE THE BOOKS.

1. Read carefully every word of the "Canvasser's Certificate," the "Word to Canvassers," and the "Subscriber's Pledge," and see just what blanks need to be filled up. We have filled all we can.

2. Use a book yourself, and then select two or three of your best and most active people to help you. Do not have too many canvassers or too many books. One book can be used by two or more canvssers, either one at a time, or together.

3. Have your canvassers report to you often the names and money. Presevre the books, so they can be taken to conference or returned to this office.

HOW TO USE THE BOXES.

Give them to the Sunday-schools or Sunday-school classes with the understanding, that each Sunday, up to December 21st, every officer and scholar will be expected to put in something as a Centennial offering. Let the boxes be carefully kept during the week by the proper officer. On the Grand Centennial Jubilee Sunday, December 21st, let the boxes be opened before the whole school, and the money counted.

Do not spoil the boxes. Open them by cutting the paper pasted over the hole in the bottom. They can be used again by pasting paper over the hole.

Let us hear from you at once how much you think you can raise among your people, to help give Christian Education to their own young men and women, and how many boxes and bookes you think you must have. Your Brethren in Christ.

R. S. RUST,
J. C. HARTZELL.

When Noah was in the Ark young Ham was always playing tricks on the old gentleman. One day he told his sea-faring father that there was water in the cellar and that they had all caught cold! Then it dawned upon Noah that he had omitted to secure a supply of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which he always used.

No man is safe unless he is close to Jesus. No man is happy unless he is close to Jesus. No man is filling his mission unless he is close to Jesus—close to Jesus as a friend, close to Jesus as a guide, close to Jesus as a shelter from every storm. Every man has a case in the court of high heaven. Let every man sit close to his Advocate. If he would win his case his advocate expects him to be there.—Telescope.

From a New Jersey Pastor.

"I have tried Parker's Tonic and believe in it. It goes at once to the root of all digestive and nervous derangements, so common among ministers. For women and chronic invalids it is a perfect invigorant. A single dose pervades the system and gives a new sense of life." —Rev. F. E. Osborne, West Hobokon, N. J.

The plan for General Wolseley's expedition to Khartoum, as finally settled, furnishes him a total force of 8,500 English troops. He will take 5,000 of those troops to Dongola, leaving a reserve corps of 3,500 at Wady Halfa. The Mudir of Dongola has promised to furnish a contingent of 3,000 men, to be composed of members of mercenary tribes, which he will have recruited from the vicinity of Dongola, and be armed with Remington rifles. If an advance in force be deemed necessary beyond Dongola, the reserve will be pushed on from Wady Halfa.

SANITARIUM, Ca[illegible]verside, The dry climate cures. Nose, Throat, Lungs, full idea. 36p, route cost free.
Mar. 27 26teow

Skin Diseases.—"Swayne's Ointment," "Swayne's Ointment" cures Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.
nov13-1ycow

The True Elixir of Life

Is AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, a highly concentrated Medicine, scientifically compounded of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Stillingia, Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other ingredients of great strength and curative virtue.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
Has been tested by and has received the unqualified commendation of 4,000,000 families in the United States, and 7,000,000 families throughout the world.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
Is the only Blood Purifier that has gained and retained the confidence of the people of tropical countries, where such medicines are in great demand.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
Is the most popular Blood Purifier among sailors, and is in nine-tenths of the medicine-chests of the best class of American, English, German, and Danish vessels.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
Contains no Arsenic and Aloes, as do many falsely called Alteratives foisted upon the credulity of the public.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
Has been for many years recognized as the best Alterative and Tonic Medicine in all civilized countries.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
Promptly relieves from General Debility, Nervous Prostration, and Derangement of the Vital Organs.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
Effects radical cures of all maladies arising from the taint of Scrofulous or Contagious Diseases, or the corruption of Mercury in the system.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA
Is endorsed by the medical profession and regularly prescribed by many leading practitioners.

HON. F. JEWETT, ex-Mayor of Lowell, and ex-State Senator, says that the only preparation of Sarsaparilla that seems to do "real, lasting good" in cleansing the blood and expelling poisonous matter from the system, is

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

MILTON FOX, the largest land-owner and farmer of Middlesex Co., Mass., credits his cure of Scrofulous Humor and Dyspepsia to the thorough purification of his blood by

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

WARREN LELAND, the famous New York landlord, testifies, from his own knowledge, that for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, Salt Rheum, and various results of high living, there is no medicine equal to

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

HIRAM PHILLIPS, Glover, Vt., attests the cure of Hereditary Scrofula, in three generations of his family, by

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

THOS. N. COOK, West Somerville, Mass., was cured of severe Eczema, and rescued from a rapid decline, by

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY, Dorchester, Mass., vouch for the Alterative and Curative virtues of

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

JOHN J. RYAN, Philadelphia, Pa., professional base-ball player, was cured of Rheumatism by

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

D. B. KERR, Big Springs, Ohio, testifies that his son, fifteen years old, was cured of Catarrh in its worst form, by

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

AMHERST WHITMORE, Brunswick, Me., retired sea-captain, was cured of a Cancer by

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

The attestations of a myriad of unimpeachable witnesses might be cited, were it necessary, to prove the almost miraculous cures effected by this only really Blood Purifying Medicine.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

Sold by all druggists; price $1; six bottles for $5.

"A children which one chooses is not felt."

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle. Trade Mark

—THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

THE WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL AND COTTON CENTENNIAL

EXPOSITION

New Orleans.

Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.

—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—

United States Government.

$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.

$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.

$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.

$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.

$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.

From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.

Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.

The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF SUBJECTS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.

The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.

For information, address

E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. I. & C. C. E.,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave
New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale " Joint	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O. & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2...9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3. 10:45 a. m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a.m	Sunday Excur'n 8:20 p. m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.]

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 p m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. a25-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE
TO
Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn, and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practial route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City, For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or
H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

CATARRH

AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Cough, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured, by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the bones of the nose have become affected. No douches, snuffs, washes, inhalers, or atomizers. The medicines are so pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Brockington has had fifteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and Fifty (50) cents (mere cost), for a trial package (by mail), to last fifteen days, with full instructions for treatment.

Address, DR. C. N. BROCKINGTON,
309 FOURTH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, KY.

oct2-1yr

AGENTS wanted for the History of Christianity, by Abbott. A grand chance. A 64 book at the popular price of $1.75. Liberal terms. The religious papers mention it as one of the few great religious works of the world. Greater success never known by agents Terms free. STINSON & Co., Publishers, Portland, Maine. Mar27-eom

General News Items

Foreigners own 21,000,000 acres in the United States.

El Mahdi has occupied the heights north of Khartoum.

The strike among the Colorado coal miners is becoming general.

Three inches of snow fell on the mountains below Ashland and Linkville, Or., last week.

The Philadelphia papers announce the most successful exhibition of the Keely motor yet given.

Two cuneiform inscriptions of Nebuchadnezzar have been discovered near the northern end of the east range of Mount Lebonon, two hours distant from Hermel.

Whiskey has gained another transient victory in Ohio. The Supreme Court, by a vote of three to two, has pronounced the Scott Liquor Law unconstitutional and void.

Sunday theatricals are tolerated by law in five of the principal cities of the United States. They are San Francisco, Cincinnati, St. Louis, New Orleans and Chicago.

On the first of December, 1884, will be begun the publication of a monthly magazine of 32 pages, to be devoted exclusively to the care of infants and young children, and the general interests of the nursery. It will be known as Babyhood.

The chief of the Swiss Federal Bureau of Statistics estimates that in the year 2000 the United States will contain a population of 300,000,000. He can not get trustworthy returns from Russia, Spain, Portugal and Turkey; but leaving those countries out, he estimates that the rest of Europe at the same time will contain a population of 865,601,141.

Do You Know a Man

Whose wife is troubled with debility, nervousness, liver complaint or rheumatism? Just tell him it is a pity to let the lady suffer that way when Brown's Iron Bitters will relieve her. Mrs. L. B. Edgerly, Dexter, Me., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of debility and palpitation of the heart." Mrs. H. S. McLaughlin, of Scarborough, Me., says the [illegible] cured her of debility. Mrs. Hardy, of Windham Center, in the same [illegible] says it cured her of dizziness in the head. So it has cured thousands of other ladies.

The New Preacher.

Of course you like him. You cannot very well help it. He is just the identical man you have been longing and praying for. He has preached his first sermon, has been subjected to the usual amount of criticism, his personal appearance, the matter of his sermons, and the manner of their delivery have all been duly weighed, and you have made up your mind that once for once has appointing power has appreciated your needs, and sent along just the right man. [illegible] too, is fully up to the mark, and his children seem gentle and well-behaved, and everything is so satisfactory that you are almost tempted to acknowledge that if the whole matter had been left in your own hands, you could not have done better. Well, we are glad that you are so fully suited, and hope that you will esteem and [illegible] and his family as highly.

But this is not all that is [illegible] the new preacher. He is a stranger, and [illegible] social embarrassment, and [illegible] to see new order [illegible] and see him. [illegible] into a [illegible] to call [illegible] his so [illegible] role [illegible] will [illegible], and [illegible] you [illegible] class meeting, the prayer meeting, the Sunday-school and the public services of the church be regular filled. Let the new pastor feel that he can depend on you, "though but an armor bearer" you may assume to be. Pray for him. Ask God to greatly bless his sermons and labors to the edification of believers and the salvation of souls. Invite strangers and disinterested person to hear him preach. Speak a helpful word to him when occasion permits. If he says or does a good thing, don't be afraid to tell him about it. Be not afraid of spoiling him by a few words of appreciation and praise. Many ministers are spoiled by never hearing such words. Don't let anyone speak disrespectfully of your pastor in your presence. Put the very best construction on everything he does. If things don't go to suit you, don't go around grumbling and finding fault. Look, act, and talk cheerfully. Pay your share. More too. Let your pastor feel every time he shakes your hand or looks into your eye that you are his friend, and ate in the most hearty sympathy with him and his work.

If you cannot be a watchman.
Standing high on Zion's wall,
Pointing out the path to Heaven,
Offering life and peace to all;
By your prayers and by your bounties,
You can do what Heaven demands,
You can be like faithful Aaron,
Holding up the prophet's hands.

—Lamp of Life.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my uncle. I haven't heard from him in about five years. His name is Calvin Stewart. He was down in Mississippi to see his Bro. Jerry Jackson. He lived in Arkansas during the war. His owner was a widow lady; Widow Cook. He has relatives John Stewart, Justin Stewart, Bof. Stewart and he may know the others by the names I have given. His father was named Jack Stewart, and mother's name is Marie Onnie Stewart. Her name is Sopha Patience Prescilla. She has changed her name. When he visited Grenada last my name was Emma Furstlue, but now is Emma Reed.

Will any one be kind enough to inform me of the whereabouts of Mr. William Page. He was formerly of Louisville, Kentucky. His mother was named Maria Page, and his father named Peter Page. His parents, if I mistake not, was the property of Major Throckmorton. Any one giving the desired information, will greatly oblige his aunt, Mary Jackson. Address all communication to Mrs. Maria P. McSpadden, 323 North Warren St., East Saginaw, Michigan.

IT CURES WHERE ALL OTHER MEDICINES FAIL, as it acts directly on the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, restoring them to a healthy action. It is a safe, sure and speedy cure for [illegible] and hundreds DIE DAILY who might have been cured by it when physicians and friends had given them up to die.

"HUNT'S REMEDY" ("SAFE CURE") "SPECIFIC."

For [illegible] Kidneys, [illegible] Liver, [illegible] Excessive [illegible] Retention or Non-Retention of Urine, [illegible]

TAKE NO OTHER.

Sold by Druggists. Pamphlet of Solid Testimonials sent free. HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

oct30-1y

A Lady's Opinion.

Mrs. Geo. Gilbert, Bryan, Ohio, writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, Ohio: I commenced on the fifth bottle of your PERUNA this morning, and should just as soon think of doing without my meals as without my medicine. I have been doctoring for about four years, and kept getting worse all the time and was just giving up in despair when I got one of your books, "The Ills of Life." I was in bed at the time. I read and re-read your book and felt like trying your medicine. My folks thought there was no use in trying anything more, I was too far gone, and might as well make up my mind to die. I told them PERUNA was the medicine I needed, and I intended to try a bottle. It proved a success in breaking the chills, and if it had not done one thing more, I would have been satisfied. But it has done more, and I feel like another person. Everybody that sees me is surprised to see me looking so well, as they all thought I was dying with consumption, and now my own folks have as much to say for the PERUNA as I. I recommend it to everybody I see. There were two of our neighbors in yesterday inquiring about the PERUNA. I gave the one my book to read; told her to bring it back, as I prized it very highly. The other got the name of the PERUNA to send to his son in Chicago. He is a telegraph operator. My disease is something similar to Mrs. Milo Ingram's, though nothing compared to being so bad. There was a lump raised on my collar bone, and it was a long time before it looked like opening. The doctor said he would have to lance it in a few days, but I thought I would attend to that myself, so I put a little fly blister on it and it opened; then I put a poultice on and then salve, and kept the salve on all the time. It got so bad and spread upon my left shoulder, and one place under my left breast. Then there were two places on my head, one near the temple and one back of my ear that was just dreadful. No tongue can tell what I suffered. My head felt so strange sometimes, I thought I was going crazy. Since I have used the PERUNA (I don't use the salve any more) my sores healed up right away. And oh, what a relief it is to get around without chilling and having to suffer with my sores. I feel like letting everybody know all about it."

John Ferguson, Gallitzin, Pa., writes: "Your PERUNA is a good medicine, and we sell lots of it. Will you please send us some more 'Ills of Life,' with a few German."

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

ST. MATTHEW M. E. CHURCH—On Valence Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 8; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Sunday-school at 1:30. R. C. Barrow, pastor.

UNION CHAPEL, [illegible] CHURCH—Sundays, preaching 11 a. m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 52 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev. Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 9 a. m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a. m; 3 and 7:30 p. m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings, Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Prieur, two blocks above the last station. Rev. M. C. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday. Sunday-school 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m., and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

NEW ORLEANS UNIVERSITY. A. F. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President. 1428 St. Charles Street.

FIRST STREET—Rev. T. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

J. E. OGILVIE—Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music. Also tunes and repairs pianos and organs at reasonable rates. Residence, 39 North Johnson street.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators.

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo, 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.

32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

MILLERS and FARMERS

Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro. Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.

may22-1y

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.

may15-1y

EDUCATIONAL.

WILEY UNIVERSITY.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

Academic Year opened Sept. 22

No School Does More for its Pupils.

College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.

Located on easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.

Competent and Experienced Faculty.

Expenses Very Low.

For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't,
Marshall, Texas.

oct9

Rust University,

Holly Springs, Miss.

LOCATION:
Beautiful and healthful.

BUILDINGS:
Large and well furnished.

FACULTY:
Full and thoroughly competent.

"No better school in the whole South," is the verdict of the well informed and unbiased visitors.

Fall term opens
Thursday, September 18, 1884.
For further information address
W. W. HOOPER,
a28-3m Holly Springs, Miss.

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts,

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. L. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue,
sept4-3m New Orleans, La.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches....	175 lbs.....	325 lbs.....	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs.....	375 lbs.....	55 00
32 "	350 lbs.....	550 lbs.....	80 00
36 "	550 lbs.....	800 lbs.....	120 00
40 "	750 lbs.....	1050 lbs.....	160 00
44 " ....1000 lbs.....		1350 lbs.....	200 00
48 " ....1300 lbs.....		1800 lbs.....	260 00
54 " ....2100 lbs.....		2900 lbs.....	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches.....	100 lbs.....	$13 00
20 inches.....	130 lbs.....	18 00
24 inches.....	190 lbs.....	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.

Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.

VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.

mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.

The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.

Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McShaneBellFoundry

Manufacture these celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

PAYSONS INDELIBLE INK

In the NEXT. No preparation. Used with any clean pen for marking any fabric. Popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial MEDAL & Diploma. Established 50 years. Sold by all Druggists, Stationers & News Ag'ts

may22-11t eow

PRESERVING, RESTORING AND Beautifying the Complexion

OPINIONS OF NOTED LADIES.

LOVELAND, Ia., Jan. 1, 1883.
Dr. Sem: Sir—I consider the Queen Toilet Preparations the best I have ever used. Please send me your Catalogue. Yours truly, CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG.

LIQUID PEARL has been used by all leaders of all nations with the highest success of any preparation. Only 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Pamphlet free.

LIQUID PEARL CO., Fulton, Syracuse, N. Y.

dec7-26teo s

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,

Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.

A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.

VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.

For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [illegible]

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,

Cocoa and Canton Matting, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain Goods,

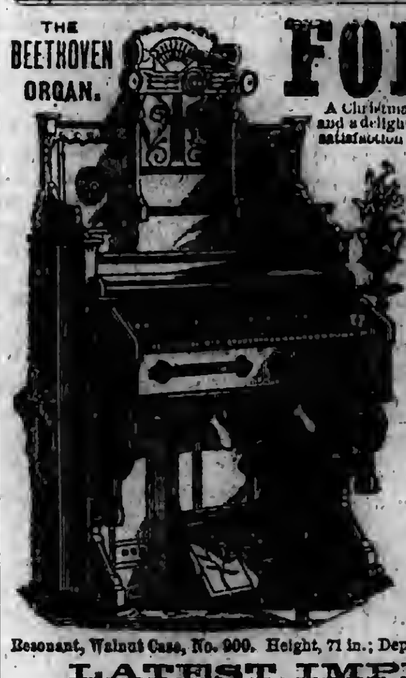
Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Plates, Wire Screens, Etc.
75 Camp Street ..... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade. Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct9-6m

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1869.

CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.

Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.



W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolson, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.

TRUSTEES

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Santell,	Alfred Moulton,	W. B. Cottey
W. R. Lyman,	U. Marioni,	Chas. H. Dolson,	John Calder,	A. H. Steward
S. O. Conlon,	Harry L. Flash,	Wm. A. Poolpe,	J. J. Reiss,	Louis Prados
Lucien Dalcy,	Charles Newman,	N. D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M. Guth
H. F. W. Beckman,	C. K. David,	Wm. Garig,	A. Rosenfeld,	John D. Rahe
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd.

☞ See our Agents throughout the South. oct9 3m

THE BEETHOVEN ORGAN.

FOR X-MAS.

A Christmas present for mother, wife, sister or daughter, and a delight to the whole family, an ornament to the parlor, and a satisfaction to yourself, can be obtained by sending IMMEDIATELY for one of the justly celebrated Beatty Beethoven Organs. These instruments, of which we have made and sold many thousands, contain more musical combinations and excellencies than other organs of several times the price of our offer for the Christmas season.

WE will ship immediately, on receipt of to your address, one of these magnificent instruments, as per illustration, together with a Revolving Piano Stool and large Book of Music. $75.

BEATTY'S CELEBRATED
20-STOP BEETHOVEN ORGAN.

This is the only organ in the world that contains 20 Stops, 9 Sets (14 octaves), GOLDEN TONGUE REEDS. Hence, this instrument is so superior for grand and beautiful musical combinations, as shown by the following Stop specifications of the FAMOUS BEETHOVEN ORGANS:

1. Celle.	12. Dulciana.
2. Manual Sub-Bass.	13. Clarionet.
3. Bourdon.	14. Vox Celestis.
4. Saxophone.	15. Violina.
5. Viol di Gamba.	16. Vox Jubilate.
6. Diapason.	17. Piccolo.
7. Viola Dolci.	18. Cooper Harmonique.
8. Grand Expression.	19. Orchestral Forte.
9. French Horn.	Grand Organ Knee Stop.
10. Harp Aeolian.	Beatty's Accordion Expression Regulator.
11. Vox Humana.	Automatic Valve Stop.
12. Echo.

Resonant, Walnut Case, No. 900. Height, 71 in.; Depth, 24 in.; Length, 48 in.; Weight, boxed, about 600 lbs.

LATEST IMPROVEMENTS.

Mezzo Knee Swell; also Messioso Percussion Patent Combination Swell.

To which is added the AEROSTATIC EXPRESSION INDICATOR, or REGULATOR, which shows at a glance the amount of pressure upon the Bellows; like a compass to the ship is this new improvement to the organ.

The great popularity of "The Beethoven Organ" makes its sale exceed by many thousands that of any other style made by us. As shown in the picture, it is a beautiful piece of furniture, and an ornament to any parlor. It is made of selected material, Heavy Black Walnut Case, with Raised Panels, highly polished, Scroll and Carved Work used freely in the ornamentation, thus making it a model instrument.

The great variety of Patents owned by the Beatty Organ and Piano Co., and used in this instrument, together with the immense variety and beautiful, but simple combination of Stops, and the great care given to its construction in both the Musical and Mechanical effects, make it combine more excellences than instruments that are sold through dealers for several hundred dollars.

A MOMENT'S CONSIDERATION will show you the certainty of securing a superior instrument by ordering from us. Dealers can trust to their own shrewdness and the ignorance of the purchaser to conceal defects in the instruments they sell. We cannot know who will test ours, and must send instruments of a quality so superior that their merits are apparent; therefore you take no risk, so order direct from this advertisement, and REMEMBER the Organ will be shipped immediately on receipt of the money and order. If you find on fair trial the instrument is not equal to guarantee, it may be returned at our expense, and the purchase money will be promptly refunded. Address,

W. P. HADWEN, Manager, Daniel F. Beatty Organ & Piano Co., WASHINGTON, NEW JERSEY, U. S. A.

HOW THE FARM PAYS By William Crozier and Peter Henderson. Just issued. A new work of 400 pages, containing 235 Illustrations. Sent postpaid for $2.50. Table of Contents mailed free. AGENTS WANTED. PETER HENDERSON & CO., 35 & 37 Cortlandt Street, New York.

nov20-2

FAIR AND HONEST.

If you are sick or ailing no matter what your complaint, write to us and we will send you On Trial one of our large Electric Medicated Appliances to suit your case, provided you agree to pay for it, if it cures you in one month. If it does not cure you it costs you nothing to try it. Different Appliances to cure Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Piles, Lung Diseases, Asthma, Catarrh, Lame Back, Ague, Debility, and many other diseases. Remember we do not ask you to buy them blindly but merely to try them at our risk. 75,000 Cures made during 1883 in cases where all other treatments had failed. Price very low. Illustrated book giving full particulars and blank for statement of your case sent free. Address at once. ELECTRIC M'F'G CO., 504 STATE ST., BROOKLYN, N.Y.

nov13 2[illegible]

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE PICTORIAL COMPLETE STOCK-DOCTOR

Embracing Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Bees and Dogs. By Hon. J. Periam, Editor "Prairie Farmer," and Dr. A. H. Baker, V. S. Covers every subject pertaining to stock both in Health and Disease. Two charts for telling ages of Horses and Cattle; 720 Engravings and 14 Colored Plates. Farmers clear $100 a month. ACT NOW! Exclusive Territory. For Confidential Terms, Testimonials and "Extracts from Agents' Reports," etc., address N. D. Thompson & Co., Pubs. St. Louis, Mo. or, New York.

oct30-4t 4eow

The Great Church LIGHT.

FRINK'S Patent Reflectors give the Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Best Light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Parlors, Banks, Offices, Picture Galleries, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A liberal discount to churches and the trade. I. P. FRINK, 551 Pearl Street, N. Y.

CHILDS' CATARRH

Treatment For

And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS. Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our questions are properly answered. Send for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, O.N.

feb7-1y

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE

to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists.

sept25 to nov27

$72 a WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address TRUE & Co., Augusta, Me. jan1

HARTER'S THRONLY TRUE IRON TONIC

Will positively cure [illegible] and Diseases of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys, such as Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Intermittent Fever, Chills and Fever, Malaria, Debility, Want of Appetite, Lack of Energy, Nervousness, Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, and all Diseases requiring a TONIC. Purifies the Blood, Strengthens the Muscles and Nerves, Builds up the whole system, Enriches the Blood, Cures Dyspepsia, Stimulates the Liver and Kidneys to healthy action, Relieves the mind and body from depression, Aids digestion, Regulates the Bowels, Prevents Fevers, Ague, etc. Is a perfect Blood Purifier, and will drive all impurities from the system. Is a splendid Appetizer, and will cure Dyspepsia and Indigestion. Is a sure cure for

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER. LESSON IX. Nov. 30. TRUE WISDOM. Prov. viii, 1-17.

Wisdom is spoken of as a person. In the chapters between some of the temptations to sin which stand in the path of the young are described, and the evil that is sure to follow is shown. But all the voices that call to our souls are not urging us to walk in the wrong way. True religion, which is the chief part of the wisdom of which Solomon speaks so often, also calls to the young and to all telling of the preciousness of this jewel which is "better than rubies." It is impossible for one who has always been blind to know of how much use are a pair of strong perfect eyes, and how much pleasure they are able to give. So one who has not the love of God in his heart can not understand how that love is more than every thing else to those who possess it. But the child of God knows that this wisdom is like the sun which makes light and warms a world that would be cold and dark without it. The favor of our Heavenly Father will make men happy when all besides combines to make them miserable, as has been proved times almost without number. It is also just as certain that if a man has every thing else in the world to make life pleasant, but has not the peace of God in his heart, he is not satisfied. Yet a little child can have this priceless jewel by asking for it with sincerity and faith. They that seek it will find it, but it seems almost as if the Lord, like a kind mother, hears the cry of all his children, but answers first the voice of the youngest. This wisdom hates sin and wickedness, and of course keeps away from all that would lead to wrong doing. It seeks the society of the good and pure. This is better for this life, as well as the eternal life beyond the grave. Indeed, as it is only for life, what is best for one will always be best for the other. [illegible] in this Christian land [illegible] so many to teach them the right way in the home, the Sunday-school, the Church, and [illegible] good books and papers, [illegible] and their sin will [illegible] if they do not listen [illegible] ways of life and salvation.

—Exam.

Work—Little Garments.

[illegible] garments were sent as [illegible] what was the arrangement?

[illegible] garments worn to [illegible] did the deception? [illegible] contest does this illus[illegible] [illegible] was a token of [illegible] the clothes

[illegible], Parsons.

[illegible] the SOUTHwishes to [illegible] your face, [illegible] cloth, shine your [illegible]. If you have more [illegible] this [illegible], ask [illegible]' consent to take part of it to your little acquaintance who have not on this day as much dinner as he needs. May be doesn't have a good fire to sit by, nor enough bed clothes to sleep warm, nor any money to get them. Don't forget these little sufferers.

Master G. W. Porter, Paulding, Jasper county, Miss., writes: "I think I deserve a prize for finding one of your questions—the question "Grandmother." I found it in the second epistle of Paul, the apostle, to Timothy; first chapter, fifth verse. I found it on Wednesday night, Oct. 29th, 1884."

No; you must answer two each week for four weeks to gain our prize.—[EDITOR.

The Monthly Letters.

A friend who prizes the missionary letters sent out month by month from the Mission Rooms, suggests that they would do still greater good if, after being read to the Sunday-school, they were made over for publication to the leading newspaper in the town or county. They would thus reach thousands of other children.

So Dry and Brittle.

"What do you suppose makes my hair so dry and brittle?" We suppose the glands which supply moisture to it needs a stimulous. A bottle of Parker's Hair Balsam will do the business, and leave your hair soft and shining. There is no mistake about this. No oil, no dye. Restores original color, removes dandruff.

Marriages.

Feb. 20, 1884, Mr. Pat. Gordon to Miss Fannie Pope. May the blessings of the best Providence be with them.
D. D. GOODWIN.

In Goliad, Texas, Nov. 12, 1884, Miss Eliza Andrews and Mr. Richard Shackelford were united in holy matrimony, at the M. E. Church; C. P. Westbrooks officiating.

Chaucer says: "For gold in phisike is a cordial." For all that suffer from hoarseness, cold in the chest, lung trouble, or bronchitis, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is golden "phisike." Though worth its weight in gold, a quarter will buy a bottle.

Obituary.

Sister Ozeai Augustine died at Whitehall, La., Nov. 5. She lived a faithful member of the M. E. Church, and died in the triumph of faith.

Hon. J. A. Bourgeois, postmaster of Whitehall, La., died Nov. 6, leaving a widow, nine children and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. May the God of all grace bless the bereaved family.
A. HILTON.

Sister Rachel Cannon, wife of Rev. Jacob Cannon, departed this life Aug. 17, 1884, in full triumph of faith. She was in her 80th year, and had been a member of the church 54 years. The faithful couple had lived together 52 years. Sister Leathie Barney was a faithful member of the church 50 years, and departed this life on the 28th of June, 1884, in the full triumph of faith. Sister Fannie Kyles died Sept. 8, 1884. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."
D. D. GOODWIN.

Sister Virginia Bornet, a member of St Mathew M. E. Church in Algiers, died in full triumph of faith. She leaves a husband and many friends to mourn her loss.
R. C. BARROW.

Algiers, La., Nov. 5, 1884.

Sister Cinda Love, a devoted member of the M. E. Church, died Nov. 11, 1884, in full triumph of faith. We hope our loss is her gain. She leaves a husband and four children.
J. FULLILOVE.

Durant, Miss., Nov. 11, 1884.

Rev. Jacob Cannon was born in Dewberry county, S. C., in the year 1812. He joined the M. E. Church and continued a member of it until the separation of 1844, when he became a member of the M. E. Church South, and after the war returned to the M. E. Church again. In 1869 he entered the traveling connection at the conference held at Canton, Miss. He was a faithful minister of the Gospel for 49 years. At the last session of the Mississippi Conference, held at Jackson, he was granted a superannuate relation. Although in his 72od year of life, he felt that he must work until death, and, being located near the Benton Circuit, he assisted, and was ready to go wherever requested. Having had quite a severe attack of bilious fever in August, and losing his wife at the same time, he continued somewhat feeble up to his death. On the 19th of October he was at church and seemed to be in good cheer all day; at night I asked him to preach, he said he felt somewhat unwell, but would do the best he could. He selected for his text John 17, 1st verse or part of the first verse: "Father, the hour has come." This was the most beautiful and interesting sermon I ever heard him preach. Church closed at 9:30 p. m., and just about half an hour after reaching home he was bidding this world a final farewell. As he labored many years, I can only say with the poet:

"Rest from thy labor, rest; soul of the just set free;
Blest be thy memory, and blest thy bright example be.
Now toil and conflict o'er go, take with saints thy place,
But go as each has gone before, a sinner saved by grace."

D. D. GOODWIN.

Father John Cephas.

The subject of this brief sketch, Father John Cephas, died of old age Nov. 11, 1884, in the 84th year of his age. He was a native of Maryland, was converted at the early age of 10 years, and has been a devoted, faithful and exemplary member of the M. E. Church at this place for years. His last hours were calm and peaceful; his faith never wavered. Not long before he died he gave many evidences of his perfect reconciliation to the Master's will, and told of his joyous anticipation of the rest and reward that awaited him. He was the pioneer Methodist at this place, and well has he done his work. Faithful to duty, cheerful with hope, a counselor to the young, a pattern to all was he. Some of his last words were, "I am going down to dust," "He told me if I would live as I would wish to die I should be saved;" "my work is done."
REV. J. MARSHALL.

Alexandria, La.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Fall Conferences of 1884.

Conferences.	Place.	Time.	Bishop.
Foochow	Foochow, China	Nov 19	Wiley
South India	Hyderabad, India	Nov 20	Burst
Texas	Navasota, Texas	Nov 20	Hurst
Cent'l Alabama	Gadsden, Ala	Nov 26	Walden
Austin	Austin, Texas	Nov 27	Harris
Savannah	La Grange, Ga	Dec 3	Walden
West Texas	Waco, Texas	Dec 4	Harris
S. German	New Orleans, La	Dec 24	Harris

Spring Conferences of 1885.

Conferences.	Place.	Time.	Bishop
North India	Bareilly, India	Jan. 8	Hurst
Mexico	Mexico City, Mex	" 15	Harris
Florida	Jacksonville, Fla.	" 22	Ninde
South Carolina	Cheraw, S. C.	" 29	Ninde
Louisiana	Baton Rouge, La.	" 29	Mallalieu
Liberia	Monrovia, Lib.	" 29	Taylor
North Carolina	Lumberton, N. C.	Feb. 5	Ninde
Mississippi	Aberdeen, Miss.	" 5	Mallalieu
Blue Ridge	Pigeon Valley, N. C	" 12	Ninde
South America	Buenos Ayres, Arg	" 12
Little Rock	Van Buren, Ark.	" 19	Mallalieu
Virginia	Roanoke, Va.	" 26	Foster
Arkansas	Rogers, Ark.	" 26	Mallalieu
Baltimore	Baltimore, Md.	Mar. 5	Foster
Washington	Washington, D. C	" 5	Merrill
Wilmington	Snow Hill, Md.	" 12	Merrill
South Kansas	Independence, Kan	" 12	Andrews
C. Pennsylvania	Huntingdon, Pa.	" 12	Foss
Kansas	Clay Center	" 12	Fowler
S. W. Kansas	Eldorado, Kan.	" 19	Andrews
New Jersey	S. Brunswick, N. J	" 19	Foss
Philadelphia	Chester, Pa.	" 19	Walden
East German	Rochester, N. Y.	" 19	Fowler
Missouri	Macon City, Mo.	" 19	Fowler
N. W. Kansas	Clyde, Kan.	" 26	Andrews
Newark		" 26	Walden
Saint Louis	Lebanon, Mo.	" 26	Fowler
Lexington	Springfield, Ohio.	April 2	Wiley
New York East	Hartford, Conn.	" 2	Merrill
New York	Poughkeepsie, N. Y	" 2	Warren
Wyoming	Owego	" 9	Foster
N. New York	Ogdensburg, N. Y.	" 9	Warren
New England	Springfield, Mass.	" 9	Foss
Italy	Venice, Italy	" 9	Hurst
North Indiana	New Castle, Ind.	" 9	Walden
N. E. Southern	Rockville, Conn.	" 16	Harris
New Hampshire	Littleton, N. H.	" 16	Foss
Troy	Saratoga, N. Y.	" 23	Bowman
Maine	Biddeford, Me.	" 23	Harris
Vermont	Bellows Falls, Vt	" 30	Bowman
East Maine	Ellsworth, Me.	May 7	Bowman
Delaware	Salisbury, Md.	" 7	Wiley
Sweden	Motala, Sweden	" 14	Hurst
Norway	Trondhjem, Nor.	" 28	Hurst
Denmark		June 11	Hurst
Ger. & Switz'd	Stuttgart, Ger.	" 18	Hurst

By order of the Board of Bishops.
WILLIAM L. HARRIS, Secretary.

New York, Nov. 4, 1884.

At the Preacher's meeting held in Wesley Chapel, M. E. Church, Nov. 20, 1884, the following committee was appointed to welcome Bishop W. F. Mallalieu, who will arrive here on the 10th of December: James W. Hudson, Chairman; L. P. Cushman, E. Williams, A. E. P. Albert, S. Priestley, M. Dale, T. G. Montgomery.

Notice.

To the Brethren of the Gulf District, Mississippi Conference—All who expect to attend the second session of the Gulf District Conference, which will convene Nov. 27, 1884, at Crystal Springs, in case the committee fail to meet you at the depot, the church is one mile south of the depot, on the the railroad, where you will find the preacher in charge.
J. H. COOK.

Tennessee Conference Minutes.

Dear Brethren—The Assistant Secretary and the undersigned had the conference minutes ready for the printer the first week after Conference. The Conference, for some cause, forgot all about subscriptions and money for minutes, but they had spent their means otherwise, and then put only $7.50 in the Secretary's hands to pay for same. Only 319 minutes were subscribed for at conference including above cash. To print the minutes and leave out table No. 3, as last year, will cost not less than $40. The Secretary now notifies all persons who are interested enough in the Conference to desire minutes printed to raise money for same and forward at once. The minutes can only be printed by paying for same, and if the brethren want them printed the money must be forwarded to me at once. If enough to make up $35 is not sent then the amounts already paid and that which may be sent will be refunded you and the minutes not printed. Some of the brethren paid their old accounts for minutes at conference, but nothing to print the minutes this year. I wait your pleasure.

L. M. HAGOOD,
Sec'y Tenn. Annual Conf.

Notice,

To my brethren on the LaTeche District—All correspondents to Rev. A. E. P. Albert for purchasing and commissions, will please address direct to my brother, P. P. Albert, produce merchant, No. 20 Toulouse street, P. O. box 3249, New Orleans, La.

La Teche District—Louisiana Conference.

Fourth Round.

Alexandria	Dec.	7- 9
Pineville	"	7
Avoca	"	9
Stuart Chapel	"	11-12
Cheneyville	"	13-14
Booneville	"	14-15
Marksville	"	16
Cotton Port	"	17
Eola	"	20-21
Waxia	"	23
Flat Town	"	26
Washington	"	27-28
Opelousas	"	28
Vermillionville	"	29
St. Martinsville	"	31
New Iberia and Avery	Jan.	2- 4
Jeannerette	"	4- 5
St. Peter	"	7-11
Glenoce	"	10-21
Cote Blanche	"	9

A. E P. ALBERT, P. E.

Argenta District—Little Rock Conference.

Fourth Round.

Sweet Home	Dec.	6- 9
Jacksonport	"	13-14
Batesville	"	20 21
Little Rock Circuit	"	27-28
Argenta	Jan.	11-12
Alma	"	18-19
Van Buren	"	25-26
Fayetteville circuit	Feb.	1- 2
Fayetteville	"	7- 8
Fort Smith	"	14-15

Dear Brethren—We are within six weeks of the end of this centennial year, and we promised at last conference to raise at least fifty cents, if possible, from each member of our church in the bounds of our several charges, for a scholarship fund in Philander Smith College. Let each of us do our utmost to raise this amount. I trust we may have every cent of it collected by the 24th of December. Brethren, push this matter with all your might. Do not neglect your other benevolent collections.
G. W. SAMS, P. E.

Notice.

To the members of the East Tennessee Conference—Dear Brethren: The manuscript of our minutes are now in the hands of the printer. I succeeded in getting some advertisements, but not enough with what subscriptions secured, to pay the publishers; therefore I take this opportunity to ask you to help me out. Would it not be a good way, as our district conference will soon meet, to take up a public collection at some hour among the members and friends for this special object? I trust the presiding elders will see to this matter and forward the money to me at once, as the minutes will be out by the 10th of December.
A. J. FLETCHER, Sec'y.

Big Spring, Nov. 15, 1884.

Cannabis Indica.

THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.

Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure

Consumption Bronchitis Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,

And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6 50 Circulars free. se18-13t

BARNES'

Patent Foot and Steam Power Machinery. Complete outfits for Actual Workshop Business. Lathes for Wood or Metal, Circular Saws, Scroll Saws, Formers, Mortisers, Tenoners, etc., etc. Machines on trial if desired. Descriptive Catalogue and Price List Free. Address W. F. & JOHN BARNES, No. 187 Ruby St. Rockford, Ill. nov13-6m

Send for Price List and Circular!

AUTOMATIC

"NO TENSION" SEWING MACHINE.
NOISELESS—LIGHTEST RUNNING.
Most Beautiful and Durable Work,
AND DOES NOT INJURE HEALTH.
Willcox & Gibbs S. M. Co., 658 Broadway, N. Y.

AGENTS Send for E. B. TREAT'S of new book, including MOTHER, HOME, and HEAVEN, 250,000 sold. $2.75 by mail. (37 Agents that have sold it for bankrupt Geo. Agents. Send direct to the publisher. Also 5000 Curiosities of the Bible. $2.75. 40,000 sold. E. B. TREAT, Pub. 757 Broadway, N.Y. nov6-4t

ENTERPRISE MANUFACTURING CO.,
Third and Dauphin Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

READ THIS

Send for Catalogue. Sold by all Hardware Dealers.
MENTION THIS PAPER.

Tested and Endorsed by 100 Agricultural Journals.

Farm and Fireside says: "After testing, each editor immediately ordered an Enterprise Meat Chopper for his family use."

American Agriculturist says: "These Choppers excel anything of the kind made in either Hemisphere."

We prefer you buy from your Dealer. If he is out of them, send money to us. We will ship by next fast train.

nov27-2t

MASON & HAMLIN

Exhibited at ALL the important WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL COMPETITIVE EXHIBITIONS for SEVENTEEN YEARS, Mason & Hamlin Organs have, after most rigid examination and comparison, been ALWAYS FOUND to possess the HIGHEST HONORS; not even in one such competition has any other American Organ been found equal to them.

ORGANS

HUNDRED STYLES, adapted to all uses, from the smallest size, yet having the characteristic Mason & Hamlin excellence, at $22, to the best instrument which it is possible to construct, from reeds, at $500 or more. Illustrated catalogues, 48 pp. 4to, and price lists, free.

The Mason & Hamlin Company manufacture UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, adding to all the improvements which have been found valuable in such instruments, one of peculiar practical value, tending to greatest purity and refinement in quality of tone and durability, especially diminished liability to get out of tune. Pronounced the greatest improvement made in upright pianos in half a century. The MASON & HAMLIN CO. pledge themselves that every piano of their make shall illustrate that VERY HIGHEST EXCELLENCE which has always characterized their organs. Send for circular with illustrations, full description and explanation.

PIANOS

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO CO.
BOSTON, 154 Tremont St. CHICAGO, 149 Wabash Ave.
NEW YORK, 46 East 14th St. (Union Square.)

oct23-26t

X-MAS MUSIC

OUR CHRISTMAS CAROLS FOR [illegible]

Contain unusually fine contributions from Geo. F. Root, J. E. Murray, W. F. Sherwin, H. P. Hoor, T. P. Westendorf and John R. Sweney, together with a Beautiful Service prepared by Miss Mary E. Wellman, the whole furnishing ample [illegible]

CHRISTMAS-ENTERTAINMENT

16 pages, elegantly printed in colors, on fine [illegible] paper. Price 6 cts. each, or 50 cts. a dozen by mail, post-paid. $4 a hundred by express, not prepaid.

CATCHING KRISS KRINGLE

REVISED AND ENLARGED. By Butterworth and [illegible]

A Bright and Amusing Christmas Cantata.

Price, $3 a dozen by express, not prepaid. Single specimen copy, 25 cts. by mail.

Send for complete list of Cantatas, Services, Anthems, and Christmas solos.

Published by
JOHN CHURCH & CO.
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

OPIUM and WHISKY HABITS cured at home without pain. Book of particulars sent Free. B. M. WOOLLEY, M. D., Atlanta, Ga. jan20-52t

PROSPECTUS

YOUTH'S COMPANION

1885

THE COMPANION has now attained a weekly circulation larger than that of any other literary paper in the world. Its steadily increasing success imposes an additional responsibility upon its conductors to deserve the appreciation and encouragement of American parents. It will use all its abilities, and all its resources, to make the young people of America manly men and womanly women.

Illustrated Serial Stories

A SERIAL STORY for Boys, by J. T. TROWBRIDGE.
MY BROTHER FRANK. A Serial Story for the Household, by Mrs. OLIPHANT.
SERIAL STORY for Boys and Girls, by ALPHONSE DAUDET.
A COUNTRY COUSIN. A Story for Girls, by EDGAR FAWCETT.
SUSPECTED. A Serial Story, by FRANK R. STOCKTON.
SERIAL STORY for Bad Boys, by C. A. STEPHENS.

Travel and Biography

LETTERS FROM SPAIN, by LOUISE CHANDLER MOULTON.
BUSH LIFE in Australia, by ARCHIBALD FORBES.
LETTERS FROM PERSIA, by S. G. W. BENJAMIN.
IN THE FORESTS OF VENEZUELA, by W. T. HORNADAY.
FAMOUS AMBASSADORS and Their Triumphs, by JAMES PARTON.
IN THE HEART of the Sahara. Adventures during a tour in the great African desert, by H. H. WEBER.

Tales of Adventure

THE LIGHTHOUSE Keeper's Stories, by JUSTIN CARRICK.
HUNTERS' TALES of the Red River Country, by F. W. CALKINS.
A YOUNG IMMIGRANT'S Journey to Colorado, by D. L. CHAMBERS.
UP THE TRAIL. Cattle-Driving on "the breaks" of the Llano Estacado, Kansas, by AMOS M. NEVIN.
MY ENCOUNTER with the Black Flags. An incident of the French conquest of Tonkin, HENRI MEUNIER.

$3,000. Prize Stories

Nearly seven thousand manuscripts were sent in competition for the COMPANION prizes of $3,000 offered for the best Short Stories, many of them by eminent writers in both Europe and America. For eight of these, Prizes have been awarded. They are delightful stories. These stories, with others selected from the seven thousand sent, will be a feature of the coming volume of the COMPANION.

Science and Education

A remarkable series of articles by Eminent Writers will be given as follows:

JAMES ANTHONY FROUDE, on The Study of History.
PROF. TYNDALL, on Popular Science for Young People.
PROF. MAX MULLER, on The Cultivation of the Memory.
CANON FARRAR, on The Study of English Literature.
PROF. T. STERRY HUNT, on The Chemistry of Sea and Land.
RICHARD A. PROCTOR, on Star Clouds, and Other Articles.
E. P. WHIPPLE, on Precocious Boys in History.
E. A. FREEMAN, on Children a Thousand Years Ago.

Instructive and Entertaining

AN EXILE'S Escape from Siberia, COL. THOS. W. KNOX.
STORIES OF MILL GIRLS, by An "OLD OPERATIVE."
THOSE TERRIBLE PARISIANS, or the Dangerous Classes of Paris, by JUNIUS H. BROWNE.
THREE SHARP FELLOWS. The career of three boys who thought themselves "smart," and who made three "sharp" ventures, and are now living with other "sharp fellows" in three large stone buildings, by WM. M. ACTON.

The Children's Page filled with charming pictures, poems and stories, adapted to very young readers, has always been an attractive feature of the COMPANION. The Editorials will continue to give clear views of current events at home and abroad.

Subscription Price, $1.75 a Year.
Announcement and Specimen Copies Free.

SPECIAL OFFER To any one who subscribes now, and sends us $1.75, we will send the Companion FREE to January 1st, 1885, and a full year's subscription from that date.

Please mention this Paper. Address PERRY MASON & CO., Publishers, 41 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.

COMES EVERY WEEK ELEGANTLY ILLUSTRATED $1.75 A YEAR SPECIMEN COPY FREE

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19—NO 49. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, DECEMBER 4, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 788.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

38 Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

Terms: $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; after Three Months, $2; to Pastors, $1.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Subscriptions may begin at any time and the paper will be sent as long as paid for.

Remittances must be made by Registered Letter, Money Order, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

One time or more..... 8 cents,
Two months (4 times)..... 7 "
Three months (13 times)..... 6 "
Six months (26 times)..... 5 "
One year (52 times)..... 4 "
Marriage Notices..... 25 "
Special Notices..... 8 cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Thus, enriching in the greatness of your strength,
Ye added to your gath'ring train each year,
Crowds of rejoicing captives, 'till at length,
A million strong ye stood, and knew no fear.
Alas, that comrades, then, and brethren dear,
Who in the common triumph bore their parts,
Together toiled, and shed the soul-wrung tear,
Should madly at their fellow-soldiers' hearts
Brandish their glitt'ring swords, and hurl their fiery darts.

—Rev. Dr. Taylor—Allow me to congratulate you on your success. The SOUTHWESTERN grows better with each issue."—J. G. Vaughan.

—Sixteen new names from Murfreesboro, Tennessee, five from Evanston, Illinois, and four from Winona, Miss., in one day. That looks well; much obliged. Next.

—"You have manifested wisdom in the reduction of subscription of the SOUTHWESTERN; the list, I think, can be doubled from here, and all paid in advance.—G. W. Wells."

We knew this reduction would be a popular thing, not because of any cheapness, but because of the ability of our patrons to pay the old rate promptly.—ED.

—We now have colored teachers educated at Clark University, Atlanta; Fisk University, Nashville; Meharry Biblical Institute, Nashville; New Orleans University, and Gammon Theological Seminary. We trust that the Messrs. Rust and Haygood will see and do all they can, as they can, on this line for the advancement of our colored people.

—Bishop Bowman found it necessary to create appointments to suit the tastes of sixty or seventy preachers, but he must not be blamed, for the Savior could not come no nearer to the people, if He were personally present to make the appointments. To preach is not to be a call to preach, but to be a call to preach, if needs be, for the kingdom's sake.

—Prohibition in Georgia.

—Ten new subscribers received from Napoleonville. Bro. T. McCarty has taken hold and is pushing us.

The Congo conference at Berlin is one of the most important events of modern times. The powers of Europe are consulting to secure the freedom of the Nile and Congo rivers to all nations, to define the boundaries of their acquired territory. America is represented by John A. Kasson, minister to Germany, and Henry M. Stanley, the celebrated explorer. It is hoped the conference may advance the interests of civilization and of Christianity.

Calendar of Dates in Methodist History—December.

1. Revs. V. C. Hart and E. S. Todd began occupancy of Kiukiang, 1867.

2. Charles Wesley arrived on English coast, after visiting America, 1736.

3. Welcome meeting to Bishop Foss and family at Minneapolis, 1880.

4. Dr. Charles F. Deems, editor, author and pastor, born, 1820.

5. Bishop Burns born, 1809. Bishop Granberry born, 1829.

6. Bishop Wiley arrives at Foochow, China, 1877.

7. Dr. H. A. Buttz elected president of Drew Theological Seminary, 1880.

8. Rev. G. Pickering died, 1843. India Conference organized by Bishop Thomson, 1864.

9. First Methodist sermon preached in Hartford, Conn., by Jesse Lee, 1789.

10. Rev. B. Dunn, East Maine Conference, born, 1815.

11. Bishop Andrews attended village meeting in Rohilcund, 57 persons baptized, 1876.

12. First number of Africa's Luminary issued, 1838.

13. Rev. John Mann, Ex-President U. M. Free Churches, died, 1872. Dr. R. Nelson born, 1818.

14. Rev. M. C. Harris and wife, missionaries, arrived at Yokohama, Japan, 1873.

15. Jesse Lee preached the first Methodist sermon in Lynn, Mass., 1790.

16. Bishop Emory died, 1835.

17. Charles Wesley born, 1708.

18. Bishop Harris preached and ordained eleven elders in Santiago, Chili, 1881.

19. Rev. Thomas Ware, member of Christmas Conference, born, 1758.

20. Captain Thomas Webb, one of the first local preachers, died, 1796.

21. Bishop Thomson embarked at Calcutta for Hong Kong, 1864.

22. Ocean Grove M. E. Association organized, 1869.

23. First sermon by Dr. Jacoby in Bremen, 1849.

24. First Conference of M. E. Church in Baltimore, 1784.

25. St. Paul's M. E. Church in Rome dedicated, 1785. Dr. B. F. Tanner born, 1835.

26. Francis Asbury ordained elder, 1784.

27. Francis Asbury ordained Bishop, 1784.

28. Rev. Philip Gatch, pioneer Western preacher, died, 1835.

29. Rev. Henry Boehm died, 1875; aged 100 years, 6 months and 22 days.

30. First Fellowship Band formed by W. Taylor, at Bombay, 1871.

31. First watch night in London, 1742-3. Dr. A. Winchell born, 1824.

Ten new subscribers received from Napoleonville. Bro. T. McCarty has taken hold and is pushing us.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Good Looks.

BY MRS. L. C. BRADEN.

People naturally desire to look well. Good looks, no doubt, give one influence for the world; for the world attaches much importance to a fair exterior. Various are the devices to which many resort to enhance their personal charms. Much money is often spent upon the body. Elaborate dressing and the wearing of jewels is supposed to be a help in making one beautiful. Some paint themselves, and by various arts try to conceal defects, and supply what nature has failed to give. Though personal adornment is not unworthy of one's attention, to give it undue importance is sure to meet with indifferent success; for it is so arranged that beauty fades; youth passes away with its freshness; the eye grows dull; the skin loses its bloom; the hair turns gray, and the form bent. But is there no way to satisfy the desire for personal beauty, that is so generally felt?

I have read of a beautiful woman, who, in her youth, was very unlovely. Her own mother once said to her: "My child, you are so ugly looking, that no one can ever love you." She determined to be loved, and so she began by saying kind words. She was kind even to the little birds and everything around her. The poor and unfortunate were especially objects of her consideration. She grew more and more sweet in spirit, until she became one of the most attractive women of her time.

I read of another woman who was reputed to be very beautiful; but she really had a dumpy figure, a freckled skin, red hair and a pug nose. Her beauty was of a kind that was felt, rather than seen.

I once heard of an old lady who had a sallow skin, and gray hair, but who was a special object of attention wherever she went, on account of some invisible charm, no one could describe.

We may conclude that beauty is not always in form and feature, or in personal adornment.

I once heard a young colored girl say, that if she could be as pretty as a certain white girl whom she mentioned, she could be good. I knew that that same white girl thought that if she could only be as pretty as some one else, she, too, could be good.

In order to get these things properly adjusted, one needs to go to God and get made in His image. Being good looking, like being good, comes "without money and without price."

Are not all true Christians beautiful? Those who decide otherwise, are they sure that they do not see through an imperfect medium?

In proportion as people have the spirit of the Savior—that of unselfishness—will they be good looking. There is nothing like forgetfulness of self to give grace to the manners, and sweetness to the face.

In heaven we shall all look beautiful to each other; for sin, the source of all ugliness, will be overcome, and our eyes will be open to see things as they are.

However American citizens may differ upon cardinal principles of public policy, it is monstrous that half of the people of the country should be regarded as dangerous enemies of the government.—Harper's Weekly.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Glimmers Through the Clouds

REV. J. F. MARSHALL.

How varied is the Christian life! The experience of a child of God is checkered beyond description. But there is a kind Providence shaping all things for our ultimate good and eternal bliss. Truly there is no rose without its thorn. Our cup here is mingled with both bitter and sweet; but when we get through this land of "pits and snares" and reach the "ever green shore," then we will drink the unalloyed cup of everlasting joy. Since turning our faces Zion-ward it can be said some days have been dark and stormy, while, thank God, more have been calm and bright, indicative of the placid and resplendent world beyond. Sometimes it is fully realized:

"'Tis a heaven below
My Redeemer to know."

But it is not the Divine plan that our lives should flow ceaselessly on without any interruption—

"Through much distress and pain,
Through many a conflict here," is the actual experience of the followers of Christ. Yet through it all we can cheerfully sing:

"Let worldly minds the world pursue,
It has no charms for me,
Once I admired its trifles too,
But grace has set me free."

And after our best endeavors how many imperfections and short comings we can recall. Stopping a moment in meditative silence, there seems to come a soft, sweet voice saying, "I am thy Righteousness, follow me." Then a light flashes upon us, and we feel like Peter did following Him wherever He leads. And, O, the joy to know that He has traveled all the length of the road of our human sufferings! "For we have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feelings of infirmities, but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin." "Christ leads us through no darker rooms than He went through before." The cloud that has been cast over our domestic circle of late has not been without its silver lining. Though the interposition of God's hand has brought sorrow, submission to His will brought light and peace. There is no panacea for the broken heart like that brought in the hour of affliction by the great Physician. Through the clouds the bright rays are glimmering, and we have no reason to doubt but that they will shine brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

Alexandria, La.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Is It the Best Way?

My eye rested this morning on this notice in the SOUTHWESTERN of the 6th inst.:

BAPTIZING.

The Rev. John H. Smith will have a public baptizing on the third Sunday, in Nov. at 10 o'clock, in Slidell, La. New Orleans people can come by the Northeastern railroad. Fare, round trip 80cts.

I suppose this advertisement is from a good Methodist preacher, as the editor would hardly be favored with such notices by preachers of other denominations. It is a remarkable notice, first that the baptizing is to be "public." I did not know that Methodists really had any other, as the ritual implies that baptism is to take place in the presence of the congregation? That it is to be of such rare importance that the people of New Orleans can reach the place by railroad. The fare is only 80 cts for the round trip. This is a Methodist baptizing, on Sunday, which seems certainly appropriate. The only thing which is at all worthy of notice, is the New Orleans people are invited to be present and to come by railroad. These people are supposed to be Christian people, who ought to attend their own places of worship, more worldly folks have no special interest in seeing the sacrament of baptism, more than in that of the Lord's supper. Is it right for Christians, who profess to be striving to save men from sin, to violate God's law, for the purpose of seeing one of the forms of worship, while grieving the Spirit by a wicked conformity to the notions of the ungodly? Christians have no right to patronize Sunday excursions. Christian ministers, especially Methodist ministers, should avoid encouraging these excursions, either to baptisms, conferences, camp meetings or funerals. Starting off on a business tour on Sunday night, or arranging to get into a place on a Sunday morning train, is not conducive to the sanctity of the Sabbath. Christians should avoid sanctioning in any way the iniquitous system of railroad traveling on Sunday. It is an enemy to the Christian religion, it is a powerful agent in the hands of Satan to destroy the blessings of a day of rest. It is an enemy to the highest interests of man, and an insult to God. These Sunday trains rob thousands of a day of rest, enticing tens of thousands from the house of God to spend the day in sinful amusements, which tend to diminish reverence for God and His law, to debauch the bodies and ruin the souls of men, all this, that those who own the railroads may make money. When God judges the managers of these Sunday trains, what will He do with the passengers?

J. BRADEN.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notes from Kansas.

BY REV. L. A. RUDISILL.

Some years ago, in "Exodus" times the State of Kansas threw open its doors and welcomed the colored people to enter and become citizens. Then the writer was a resident of Tennessee, and watched with much interest the movement, which took from Tennessee, Georgia and Mississippi, many of their colored people. Predictions were made by rebels and "white liners," "that the Negro could not live—would not prosper any where but South of Mason and Dixon's line." Murdered had been many of their people; robbed, kuklucked, and deprived of education were they; citizens, yet denied often the privilege of the ballot. They were a separate and peculiar people, and a class of whites determined to keep them seperate and if possible degraded. Many said, we will seek a land where we will be respected, and where our rights will be respected, hence the exodus.

Predictions have been proven false, and to-day the colored people enjoy all the rights and privileges of American citizenship in Kansas—the former home of John Brown. Have the hopes of the "emigrants" been realized? Has the welcome lasted? Is the colored man improving? Is he respected? We answer yes.

To-day, by the vote of a majority of the electors of Kansas a colored man, E. P. McCabe, occupies the office of audiror of the State. He has filled the office acceptably for the past term, and was renominated by the Republican convention for the same place. Mr. Winn, a former Mississippian, is book-keeper in the banking house of John D. Knox & Co., Topeka. In our stores, schools, in official possitions you see the colored man. The superintendent of the carrier's department of the city post-office is a colored man. On the police force, in the fire department you find them. Not a few own good homes, have farms in a state of good cultivation. You find them in every walk of life, as preacher, teacher, solicitor, real-estate and loan agents, etc., all doing well, by all I mean those who have an ambition to do something.

They have good churches, good schools. There is no caste, such as they formerly experienced in the slave states. Among the graduates in our high schools have been those of a darker hue than the majority of the schools, others are following in their footsteps. They are accumulating wealth as well as position. In Kansas they are free men, enjoying their freedom; they are respected as they make themselves respected. In our conferences the white and black stand side by side; at our ministerial associations their names appear in the same programme, one of the vice presidents of the State Sunday-school assembly is a colored divine; they have their own churches, where sufficient to maintain services, yet the doors of all churches stand open for them. Race distinctions are unknown. An industrious, upright man wins in this wide awake State. The door still stands wide open and a "welcome" will greet every true man or woman, be he white or black.

With much pleasure I read in the SOUTHWESTERN of the growth and success of the Central Tennessee College. I have met several of its students in this Western land.

Topeka, Kansas, Oct. 26th, '84.

—Letters from China are continually arriving at the mission rooms filled with accounts of the state of the country. From Kiukiang Rev. V. C. Hart, writes that they go about their mission work at all stations much as usual, without any particular annoyance. He says we are hopeful for the future, I doubt not it will open China still more to the Gospel. Anything that tends to humble her inflated pride and flaunted arrogance, will do her good. The rulers and literati must come to see that a good civilization must have a good basis, that moral worth, honesty and purity are of more value to a country than forts, navy and armies. (There may be an honest difference of opinion as to which of the opposing nations in this war, the above applies to). All the members of the mission are well and the work is reported as prosperous.

After a residence of seven years in China, and distinguished services as a medical missionary of the W. T. M. S. Miss Leonora M. Howard, M. D. was married to the Rev. A. King of the London mission, in Tientsin, Aug 21st. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Lowry, of our North China mission.

—Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson left New York, Oct. 25th, returning to Norway, after a short visit in this country. They sailed by a Danish line of steamers, direct to Christiana. Bro. Johnson has accomplished much enduring work as presiding elder of Christiana district of the Norway conference.

Texas Conference.

LAST DAY.

After religious service, Bishop Harris in the chair, the journal of Saturday was read, corrected and approved. Peter Thompson was located, at his own request. Isaiah B. Scott was granted a supernumerary relation. Dr. Morris was granted the same relation. Lonis Burton, Abner Thomas, Henry Dickson, Linus Felder and DeWitt Frier on were continued on trial, subject to the first year's course of study. Charles W. Campbell and Thomas Cole were continued on trial, and advanced to the second year's studies. Samuel Gaines was reported withdrawn.

The Bishop explained the fact that it was optional with the Conference to select between the course of study for local preachers and that for travelling preachers. And the Conference, resolved by a rising an almost unanimous vote, to adopt the local preachers' course—and the Bishop concurred—until otherwise ordered. This is evidently a step backward. That it is less difficult and cheaper is true, but not in its favor.

Supernumeraries Wesley Harris, Turner Jackson, Willis Coleman, Henry Patterson, John Sessum, Cosum Luster, Willis Vanhook, John Baily, Samuel Allen, Wesley Fletcher, John Brown, G. Todd, Wesley Riptoe, relation continued. Superannuates Washington Thomas (Elijah Blair absent, William Burly dead), Alexander Gillum, Elias Dibble, Charles Gordon (P. Watrons, deceased), Larkin Ecfort, relation continued.

The committees made their several reports, which, with more or less debate, were adopted. To preach the missionary sermon—Wade H. Logan; alternate, H. W. Wilson. The same examiners and triers of appeals as last year were continued.

The bishops must nominate the Conference Board of Church Extension; and in accordance therewith he nominated the same officers and members of the Board as last year, except as to secretary: Bro. W. Wesley was changed, and Bro. Freeman Parker was appointed.

Bro. P. R. Williams' credentials being lost, the Conference authorized the secretary to certify the fact in the case.

Rev. Samuel A. Thompson, of the Austin Conference, was introduced. Resolutions of sympathy with and respect for Bros. I. B. Scott and B. M. Taylor, who had just received a supernumerary relation, were adopted. Resolutions of thankfulness to the citizens of [illegible], for their entertainment during Conference.

Wade H. Logan having lost his credentials, the Conference ordered a new one to be issued to him a certificate to this effect.

The next conference was located at [illegible] Church, in Houston.

The following were admitted on trial: Benjamin Fisher, Carroll Moore, John A. Tillory, Mark [illegible], John Hollins, Silas Bolton, Pullam and Lee seemed [illegible] through which the [illegible] passed.

The credentials of Rev. Edward [illegible], a deacon of the Colored Episcopal Church [illegible] was called forward, and by the Bishop, and his [illegible] read. In fact Bro. [illegible] formerly a member of the Episcopal Church, [illegible] Wesley Church, [illegible] Missionary [illegible] reports of [illegible] society—[illegible] to address the [illegible] as [illegible] of a general institution [illegible] Texas. [illegible] Bishop, and [illegible] Bro. [illegible] Texas [illegible] Bro. [illegible] Texas [illegible] Bro. [illegible] Texas ye have done it unto me." He also said: "Suffer little children, and forbid them not to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

On Saturday night, Nov. 22d, '84, a meeting was held in Navasota Methodist Episcopal Church, several sisters told out of a full heart, their interest in, and intention to labor, and give for the Women's Home Missionary cause, and a collection of $8 taken. The following amounts have been received: Calvert, 35cts; Franklin, $2.80; Hearn, 70cts; Bryan, $4; Bryan circuit, $17.90; Caldwell, $2 70; Burleson circuit, $1.65; Paris, $10; Clarksville, $10; Navasota, $8; total, $58.15. ISABELLA HOWELLS, Cor. Sec. and Treas. W. H. M Society, M. E. Church.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Gossip from Bryan.

REV. B. M. TAYLOR.

Mr. Editor, I wish to congratulate you on your election. The race feels proud of it. It will bring subscribers to the SOUTHWESTERN. We are encouraged to write, trusting you will find room in the columns of the SOUTHWESTERN for a few words. My idea is that a Sunday excursion is breaking the Sabbath day. God said: "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy." It is giving Satan a day's work, for which you expect God to pay you.

Liquor drinking and Sabbath breaking are two great evils that we must overcome. Well, how is Bryan? I am sorry to say that Bryan is about the same now as it was when I came to it. As I have said, Bryan is low in spirit, low in faith, and almost dead toward the benevolent interests of the Church. I came to Bryan with a glad heart, a big mind and a strong resolution to do a grand work for God. I found the church in a poor condition in every respect. I thought then was the time to prove myself a man. I was only here three weeks, when strong opposition set in; first, by sowing dissension against the pastor and Church; second, by withdrawal of support to the pastor, causing him to have to leave off part of his church work and engage in secular work for a living. But we know that God will remove all these difficulties and give us true men and women that will help us. Our benevolent collections up to date since the annual conference is $32.50 and $58.80, for the support of the pastor. An average of $7 per month out of which he is to buy his own supplies. Oh! well, says one, that shows a shabby preacher, one without influence and one without a will to go ahead. Well perhaps that is so, but you exchange places with me, and other poor brethren, that are laboring in these destitute charges, and raise it as we have been taking it, and then how you estimate it then. It is an easy thing for brothers in the pleasant country field, to say to a poor man in a poor and country field, stay and starve. A poor cow will fight in the manger, because she is not able to run. Some would say, perhaps Bryan is a good charge. Yes; from what I learn it has been a first class appointment, but at present it is not of much good, it has seen its best days. I fear our Church is in a bad condition. The African Methodist Episcopal Church was compelled to withdraw for want of support. The Presiding Elder of the district gives a grand report of the work in this district. We think it can be had.

Bryan, Texas.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Prayer in Family and Private.

BY REV. J. C. READ.

There is a dignity in prayer—in prayer of the heart to promote the happiness of each individual in this or the life to come; to provide for the spiritual and bodily wants. Prayer intercessory and family prayer, when from the heart, tends to supply man's wants, to increase man's happiness, to elevate man's nature; in a word, all prayer from the heart that is right is humble. Christ set an example of prayer: Luke 22, 32, "but I have prayed for thee." Christ commands all the world to pray and in everything give thanks. Prayer should be offered up for all in authority, for ministers, the church sick and poor, the widows and orphans, and the many heathens who have not the proper instruction and fear of God. Dear brethren, please allow me to pause for awhile on prayer. We are commanded in the above to pray; and we are also commanded to watch. I am in hopes that each brother of the Central Alabama Conference will watch for the missionary collection, and will not only watch, but will carry more money this year than ever. I have done more for this great work than ever before. When I came here I found my people scattered, but by the help of God we are together now. We have received in full 145 members. We are also taking the ADVOCATE and have bought a church bell. We are watching and praying.

Together let us sweetly live,
Together let us die,
And each a starry crown receive,
And reign above the sky.

Wedowee, Ala.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Alcohol—Its Effects on Body and Mind.

The fluid commonly known as alcohol is produced by the fermentation of sugar. Sugar is a vegetable product, so, also is starch; since starch can be converted into sugar, these two substances may be viewed together as the usual sources from which alcohol is produced. The starch and sugar used for this purpose are derived from various fruits, grains, and tubers, such as the apple, and grape, corn, rye, potato and beet. Vast quantities of these articles, so commonly used for food, are employed each year in the making of alcohol.

Fermentation—The process by which alcohol is made from sugar is called fermentation. Sugar is decomposed, so that it ceases to be sugar, and becomes two substances. (1.) A volatile fluid called alcohol; (2.) A gaseous fluid called carbonic acid. Sugar does not of itself really decompose, but when certain substances are put with the sugar, it speedily undergoes a change. The juice of apples is sweet when first made into cider. It is sweet because of the sugar in it. If the cider is kept in a summer temperature, it rapidly undergoes a change by which bubbles of gas arise from it, and it loses its sweetness and acquires a very different taste and odor. The sugar in the cider changes to carbonic acid, which forms the bubbles of gas, and to alcohol, which gives the new taste and order. If we take a few drops of ordinary molasses and mix with it some warm water and a few grains of common baker's yeast, the sugar of the molasses will turn to carbonic acid and alcohol. If such grains as wheat, barley and corn, are kept moist and warm, they will begin to grow. If we chew these growing grains, we shall find them to be sweet. Their starch has partly turned to sugar. Now if they were fermented while in this condition, their sugar would produce alcohol. Almost all the alcohol that is produced by man is made in ways like these we have just described, only on a very large scale. It is in such ways that the alcoholic beverages, in numerous ways are made.

O. KIMBROUGH.

perhaps that was why she failed to get to our church. A temperance lecture would do good here. We have some people who do nothing but sow dissension against the progress of the church; this condition of things locks the wheel of the whole church.

Oh! well brother, says one in a fat field, you must not complain, for we all went through the same. Yes with some exceptions you did, some of you refused to stay. Others of you that would give this advice were never in a poor and country field, and if you were put in one you would never go to it; others would, perhaps, and keep on by it. In such a place the preacher is expected to be an honest man and pay his honest debts, whether he has anything to pay with or not. If he don't, there is a complaint against him in conference. Oh! may we cry as those under the altar, "How long shall these things be?" Christ said to his apostles, "whosoever will not receive you, when we go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them." Luke ix 4 5. Well when this is done, in most cases, there is some sainted brother ready with sword in hand to cut him down. I have never left an appointment assigned to me by the Bishop, and if God will keep me as strong as in the past I will never leave one until I leave for heaven. But somebody must go to these poor country charges, why not you as well as any one of God's men? Yes, that is so, but let the dish go around. Now remember brethren, the annual conference is at hand. Preachers in poor charges will be expected at conference with their benevolent collections, out of debt, looking neat and clean, with good clothes on. If not they are dishonest men and unprofitable servants, and it just takes some of our big preachers to tell them so. Brethren how can these things be? We have some preachers that can not fill our best appointments, but there are charges where such men can do good work. The church can't do without them. Well if that is so, give them credit for staying in such a place, and don't be so ready to cut them down at conference, in case they are deficient, when you know too well the causes. I know some of our brethren who have gone in debt this year, to live on the work assigned at conference, in order that their families might not suffer. If they come up to conference all right, they will have to lay aside the Bible and go into the cotton fields and other places of business and work for the money to do it.

Now, as I say of Bryan, a preacher can stay here and do a good work, if he can live with $75 per year. We have no missionary money here. The third quarter has passed. The presiding elder being sick, he had Rev. L. Fielding, to hold the conference, which was done with satisfaction to all.

Some advised me not to administer the Lord's supper, as no one would be prepared to take it. But not so. Sodom would have been saved for the sake of ten righteous persons; and we can find that number in Bryan, counting some old widows.

The pastor's report was poor: showing thirteen probationers, one by certificate, and one from the Baptist Church. The class leaders, no reports.

We believed at the first of the year that the dark clouds were moving away, but they are still heavy. The trustees are encouraged and are striving to raise money to pay off that heavy Church Extension debt, or at least a part of it will fall. We can rejoice that the Sunday-school had a grand time on Children's Day. The collection was small—only $2. Here again we were pleased with the presence of Rev. L. Fielding, and extend our thanks to Rev. P. Morgan and others of Tabernacle M. E. Church, Galveston, for the loan of their [illegible] banners, used on [illegible]. We believe a Sunday-school convention would be a great help to the Sunday-school work in this district. We think it can be had.

Bryan, Texas.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Prayer in Family and Private.

BY REV. J. C. READ.

There is a dignity in prayer—in prayer of the heart to promote the happiness of each individual in this or the life to come; to provide for the spiritual and bodily wants. Prayer intercessory and family prayer, when from the heart, tends to supply man's wants, to increase man's happiness, to elevate man's nature; in a word, all prayer from the heart that is right is humble. Christ set an example of prayer: Luke 22, 32, "but I have prayed for thee." Christ commands all the world to pray and in everything give thanks. Prayer should be offered up for all in authority, for ministers, the church sick and poor, the widows and orphans, and the many heathens who have not the proper instruction and fear of God. Dear brethren, please allow me to pause for awhile on prayer. We are commanded in the above to pray; and we are also commanded to watch. I am in hopes that each brother of the Central Alabama Conference will watch for the missionary collection, and will not only watch, but will carry more money this year than ever. I have done more for this great work than ever before. When I came here I found my people scattered, but by the help of God we are together now. We have received in full 145 members. We are also taking the ADVOCATE and have bought a church bell. We are watching and praying.

Together let us sweetly live,
Together let us die,
And each a starry crown receive,
And reign above the sky.

Wedowee, Ala.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Alcohol—Its Effects on Body and Mind.

The fluid commonly known as alcohol is produced by the fermentation of sugar. Sugar is a vegetable product, so, also is starch; since starch can be converted into sugar, these two substances may be viewed together as the usual sources from which alcohol is produced. The starch and sugar used for this purpose are derived from various fruits, grains, and tubers, such as the apple, and grape, corn, rye, potato and beet. Vast quantities of these articles, so commonly used for food, are employed each year in the making of alcohol.

Fermentation—The process by which alcohol is made from sugar is called fermentation. Sugar is decomposed, so that it ceases to be sugar, and becomes two substances. (1.) A volatile fluid called alcohol; (2.) A gaseous fluid called carbonic acid. Sugar does not of itself really decompose, but when certain substances are put with the sugar, it speedily undergoes a change. The juice of apples is sweet when first made into cider. It is sweet because of the sugar in it. If the cider is kept in a summer temperature, it rapidly undergoes a change by which bubbles of gas arise from it, and it loses its sweetness and acquires a very different taste and odor. The sugar in the cider changes to carbonic acid, which forms the bubbles of gas, and to alcohol, which gives the new taste and order. If we take a few drops of ordinary molasses and mix with it some warm water and a few grains of common baker's yeast, the sugar of the molasses will turn to carbonic acid and alcohol. If such grains as wheat, barley and corn, are kept moist and warm, they will begin to grow. If we chew these growing grains, we shall find them to be sweet. Their starch has partly turned to sugar. Now if they were fermented while in this condition, their sugar would produce alcohol. Almost all the alcohol that is produced by man is made in ways like these we have just described, only on a very large scale. It is in such ways that the alcoholic beverages, in numerous ways are made.

O. KIMBROUGH.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Letter from Waco, Texas.

BY REV. JAS. R. CARNE.

Mr. Editor—This conference year has been one of trial, trouble and sorrow with us. Still we mean to go ahead with the Lord's work. Since our assignment, my wife, mother and child have departed this life. The death of those near and dear to us make us sorrowful and cheerless for some time thereafter, even when there is a desire on our part to submissively resign to our Father's will, who doeth all things for our good. The circumstances attending the death of our little James are especially sad: Mistaking a can of concentrated lye for condensed milk, he drank the fatal draught.

Dr. G. J. Starnes, a graduate of Central Tennessee College, now a successful physician at San Antonio, rendered us untold service. It is gratifying to know that the Doctor is receiving the patronage of both classes of people at San Antonio, some of whom are among the most respectable white families of the town. I begin to think that Ethiopia is commencing to stretch her hand, and that true wisdom will be appreciated by our white brethren, though it be found under a black skin; for color, like beauty, is but skin deep.

Our rights as American citizens are respected in many instances, even in those places where heretofore the most stern opposition was offered to every privilege accorded the Negro by the laws of the country.

We have good schools at Meharry and the result is telling for itself. The church is doing well. We have had two protracted meetings, during which forty-four souls were converted and all but four were added to our church. I have received but little pay for ministerial services thus far, still I have kept watch over the fold of the Lord. The promise of the Lord, that He will be with us, to all the ends of the earth, has always supported me when I should have otherwise been discouraged. I believe we should also have implicit faith in the providence of God, whenever it is necessary to perform some important duty which we conceive to be right, regardless of the consequences, and at the risk of any personal sacrifice. Some of our most serious troubles were provoked by officials of my church. It occurs, sometimes, that the conduct of these officers does not merit the confidence of the people, when this is so, why a change in the officers of the church, in my opinion, is imperatively necessary. I entertain a like opinion relative to those violating the laws and rules of our church as laid down in the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. I believe the spirit of these regulations are to be observed regradless of the social standing of the individual offending or violating them; for it is too often true, that many persons disgrace the society they move in. I have been told by stewards of my church that it was no business of mine how they raised my salary. All I was expected to do, was to preach! Now, need I tell you how much harm must result from such a procedure? A few words from you Mr. Editor, upon this subject, under your "Church Polity," will do much good in such cases.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Baptism.

REV. R. WEAVER.

I saw a letter in the SOUTHWESTERN, asking: "What is baptism and what is it for?"

If a man is not baptized, but he loves the Lord and keeps his commandments, loves his neighbor as himself, is it possible, after doing all of this and failing to be baptized, he is to be condemned in the judgment?

I am a Methodist, but I am inclined toward the Baptist belief. I thought when I began to write I would tell him what baptism was, but on finding what he said he was, I saw at once he had no reason to know. I learn from his letter that he is neither a Baptist nor a Methodist. He says he is inclined to be a Baptist. That is not so, for they are not inclined, but are. He can't be a Methodist, for they do not think that a man must be dragged up and down the river in order to go to heaven. I would advise that if the writer can't find any other method of knowing, let him go out and ask the Lord to teach him what real baptism means.

It is a bold statement to say that any medicine is "never known to fail," but it is stated emphatically by the proprietors of HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY. This medicine is a specific for diseases of the kidneys, liver and bladder, and has a reputation of 30 years' standing.

The North Georgia Conference, M. E. Church South, Bishop Granberry presiding, met in Trinity church, Atlanta, on the 16th. The North Mississippi conference, Bishop Keener presiding, 180 members, convened at Aberdeen on the same day.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3.) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture (chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	40
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	35
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church Vol. II.—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Alley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science—Porter	2 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast.	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm.	1 25
	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Books to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 50
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans.

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expressly for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY,

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day or Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, DEC. 4, 1884.

Announcement for 1885

Reduction in Price to ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CTS. When Paid in Advance, or Within Three Months.

From this time subscriptions for The Southwestern Christian Advocate will be received for the year 1885 at $1.50 a year, payable in advance or within three months. No other paper published under authority of the General Conference is furnished at this figure. It is the cheapest paper in the whole list. New subscribers for the next year will receive their papers up to January 1st free.

Let us have 2000 new subscribers within the next sixty days.

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

Don't Believe Him.

Be it known to all concerned, that Mr. B. P. Toley, who has been in Texas recently, and is supposed to be now in Arkansas working up the Methodist Men and Women's Mutual Aid and Beneficiary Association, has no authority of any sort from me to use my name in any way in connection with himself, his association or his methods. And to the extent that he does this, he is imposing upon the confidence of the people. I long [illegible] Rev. J. W. Hughes [illegible] standing was not such as to warrant a commission of the kind he is supposed to bear in said [illegible].

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR.

The Centennial Boxes.

The way to raise $100,000 of the centennial offering of $500,000 to the Missionary Aid Society in the shortest time is for each pastor to engage to write Dr. Rust for one of the Centennial Gift Boxes. Then let each pastor keep one on his pulpit table, in his home, and then get out put one in his church. Let this be used to get the names of each regular collector, and for the special and voluntary offerings of any who may desire to contribute to this object. Let every pastor and member's family look at home for children to [illegible] something in; and see that at least a penny a day goes into the box from Dec. 24. Then [illegible] a centennial Christmas gift to the Missionary and Methodism.

[illegible] Wedding.

The [illegible] is that the [illegible] anniversary of Rev. E. W. [illegible] presiding elder of the [illegible] Lexington conference, Episcopal Church, in [illegible] Indianapolis, Indiana, deserves to rank [illegible] affairs of the [illegible] in that city. [illegible] tastefully and [illegible] by the ladies [illegible] Chapel. [illegible] overwhelm- [illegible] in which our [illegible] who was present, nearly 200 [illegible] of [illegible] presents [illegible] china, [illegible] and valuable [illegible] came [illegible]

See That Nothing Be Lost.

We have no fears for our work in the South. The work of education and moral development must go on with increased vigor. We have no time to entertain the blues or anticipate failure. We must make the centennial year all glorious, on account of the success it shall witness in all our denominational enterprises.

Some heedless people will be violent now as before, but they will find so little encouragement (and we trust such firm determination on the part of individuals), that they will soon give it up.

Let us raise every cent of our benevolent collections, plan our school work, look after our home and personal property, and leave the rest to God. Americans can live anywhere in America. And they will do so.

Texas Notes.

There are three colored and two white presiding elders, and two white ministers in the conference connected with educational work.

The ladies came right up within the bar and found seats.

The tone of the reports was sound, with a slight tendency to more advanced ideas and earnest efforts.

Navasota has a fine church, good and well behaved audiences, and they gave the conference a royal reception and entertainment.

Several sisters set their tables together in the church yard and supplied all those whose homes were so far away that they could not reach them in time to be at the several Sabbath services. The editor found it convenient to have his supper with these ladies on Sunday afternoon.

The Committee on Periodicals said: We are satisfied that the SOUTHWESTERN is the best of all the papers of our Church for the growing demands of our people. Said the Texas Conference: Each member ought to take one of the Eastern papers, and also the Methodist Review.

Bishop Harris decided that the district conference cannot act on applicants for admission on trial who have not been previously recommended to it by the quarterly conference or leaders or stewards meeting of their circuit.

The gentlemen and ladies returned from the conference in a first-class coach. Well done for the Star & Crescent.

Methodism and Negro Race.

CHAPT. 1.

Methodism may be as justly termed an anti slavery, as a Temperance Society, for both the slavery to drink and to men have found in this system an implacable foe. It is nothing short of Christianity in earnest, which would be better defined as the Golden Rule in practice. Its founders set out with the purpose to search for, and accept the teaching of the Scriptures rather than to found a new school of theology. The system centers upon, and unfolds from the great foundation truth, God is man's father, and man, man's brother. To the true Wesleyan no country, color, or condition in the least, alters or disturbs this righteous and Biblical conclusion. If in its onward and glorious passage through a hundred and fifty years it has attracted those who could not fully allow its claims, devotion to her principles has soon expelled them. Thus unfettered she has increased her pace and advanced more rapidly to the fulfillment of her original purpose. Vox dei, vox ecclesia, has been her watchword, and Posse non peccare, her rallying cry. The voice of God must ever be the voice of the Church, for whose that voice is heard and reverenced as the only law there is a possibility of not sinning. Methodism proper [illegible] the voice of God as made known in His Revealed Word, and interpreted by the Orthodox fathers. From such a system born at such a time, we expect nothing but the [illegible] success to follow, and in this [illegible] observant have been in no wise disappointed. Hers has been a grand march to a bloodless victory. She has invited all and repulsed none that would follow her on to the higher, purer and better walks of earth and heaven.

England's gilded nobility, side by side with the penitent prisoners of New Gate and Tyburn, have met in holy joy about her common alters. Thrust out to raise a holy people, her founders had to do, not with forms and courtly fashions, but with souls. Wherever these were found there was also found a fit subject for Methodist effort; nor was these efforts to be relaxed until that soul made free by the Son of God stood with its body likewise manumitted from the thraldom of demons and men. Crowned heads, statesmen and princely prelates, had all sanctioned the enslavement of men, and all held the slave by an alleged divine right.

Death of Rev. A. K. Davis.

With sorrow we read the telegraphic announcement of the death of Rev. A. K. Davis, a noble, grand man, whose words of cheer and active efforts were always welcome at this office. He loved his church paper, and worked for it as a means of elevating his people. For years he has suffered from ill health, but kept on at his post as best he could, full of faith and hope. Truly, he has received his reward by welcome in realm of the Blessed. Of this member of the Mississippi Conference, M. E. Church, the New York Times said:

The Hon. A. K. Davis, colored, died at Canton, Miss., Thursday night, of heart disease. He was an ex slave, a native of Mississippi, and a self-made man of more than ordinary intellect. He had figured prominently in Republican politics, was at one time a member of the Legislature, and was Lieutenant-Governor of the State under Ames, and resigned to avoid impeachment. He abandoned politics in 1876 and entered the ministry, and was the pastor of the Colored Methodist Church in Canton. He was highly respected by both races. He was the reputed son of the late Col. A. C. McClurg, of Mississippi.

From Evanston, Illinois, Rev. L. N. Taylor, write us, Nov. 21:

"This letter will inform you of the death of ex-Lieutenant Governor A. K. Davis, pastor of our church at Canton, Miss., at 5 a. m. this morning. His daughter is living with us, and is a class mate of Mrs. Taylor; also Miss Dora Revels, one of Dr. R. H. Revels' daughters, is with us and attending one branch of the Northwestern University, one of the leading institution of learning in the Northwest. The school in all of its departments accomodates about 1,000 students. Of this number 8 are colored—5 in the preparatory, one in the University proper, and an African preacher and myself in Garrest Biblical Institute. This school is open to all, regardless of color."

Strong and True.

Sir John Lawrence, when Chief Commissioner of the Panjaub, India, made the following statement in the State paper issued after the meeting; that, "All measures which are really and truly Christian can be carried out in India, not only without danger to British rule, but on the contrary with every advantage to its stability, Christian things done in a Christian way will never alienate the heathen. About such things, there are qualities which do not provoke, nor excite distrust, nor harden to resistance. It is when un-Christian things are done in the name of Christianity, or when Christian things are done in an unchristian way, that mischief and danger are occasioned. Measures of Christian duty will arouse no danger; will conciliate, instead of provoking; and will subserve the ultimate diffusion of the truth among the people."

The Impending Question.

What is it the South, aye and the whole country needs to ensure peace, good order, and consequent prosperity? It is chiefly, if not completely the total prohibition of the liquor traffic. The Republican party was chastened because it lacked the courage to face this wide spread evil prolific of all the criminal, immoral abominations that abound in our great country. We now serve notice on the jubilant and victorious Democracy that its lease on official life will be brief, except it take warning and submit to the votes of this country through Congress and the Legislatures a prohibitory amendment to our National Constitution. Whosoever stands in the way of this will be politically slain. The people are aroused, they are terribly in earnest on this question. Theirs is the power, and they understand the use of it. Both parties are in power in Congress. Let the Senate and House pass a Prohibition Bill this winter, and let it come to the people, and let the Legislatures be chosen upon that issue. Be warned. Oh ye politicians, be warned!

A Phonetic New Testament.

Bishop Taylor will undertake to teach English in his African work by the Phonetic method. For that purpose he will prepare a series of Phonetic text books. The lessons will be drawn from the Bible and it is thus intended to stamp upon the heathen, in its very first conception of letters, a knowledge of Scripture truth. The series begins with a Phonetic New Testament, which will be printed by Cranston & Stowe; and to St. Paul Methodist Episcopal Church of that city belongs the credit of raising the first $150 of the cost, Dr. Reed, the pastor, giving the first $10 toward it. Messrs. Longly & Pittman have aided by furnishing plates gratuitously. The cost of printing 1,000 copies will be about $300 and the whole of this sum will probably be raised by the St Paul congregation. Bishop Taylor hopes by using Phonetics to proceed with greater rapidity in anglicising his people. The advantage of using Phonetics is that their work cannot be immediately nentralized by the introduction of infidel works which has been the case in India, where the common method of English teaching has been pursued.

A Miserable Affair.

From time to time there have been references in this paper complimentary to the St. Denis Hotel. There our Bishops, Missionary and Book committees, and many of our leading laymen from all parts of this city and the country doing business at the various Connectional offices, and hundreds of ministers, have, for many years, been in the habit of dining. What we characterize as a misdrable affair occurred there last week. One of our most respected ministers, a man of fine presence and faultless attire, occupying an important position in a neighboring city, was refused admission to the dining room, or rather, after being seated there, was ignominiously sent out. What was the reason? Simply this: Like the French author, Alexandre Dumas, and the American orator, Frederick Douglas, he has African blood in his veins.

This in the nineteenth century and the United States! In any hotel in London, in any salon in Paris, he would be welcome. In the Mansion House, in London, at the invitation of the Lord Mayor, in company with the late Bishop Simpson and others, including distinguished ministers and laymen from the South, the writer has sat at dinner with several colored men from different countries. In the United States Senate we have seen them sit among their peers, and heard them addressed by the Vice-President as the "Senator from Mississippi." But even at a separate table in this restaurant they cannot sit.

The last General Conference elected two members of the Book Committee who are colored men. After the above occurrence, the Book Agents sent a communication to the proprietor, asking him if he would entertain the committee at its next session, at the same time informing him that two were men of color, and that he could not entertain the sixteen white men unless he would entertain their two colored equals in character and official position. After taking time to deliberate he refused the proposition.

We feel pity—not for the brother sent out, or the brethren refused, but for a management which could be guilty of such an inhospitable and inhuman act, and one so unnecessary, as there were private rooms sufficient for the accommodation of the committee without offending the prejudices of others. We are ashamed also to have to admit that such an act is still possible where complex social questions and protracted struggles have not obscured the subject.

We know not what course our readers may take, but we find our instruction is in these words:

"Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these my brethren, ye did it unto me."

Hence, after a patronage of many years, we must take leave of an establishment where the food may be sweet, but the milk of human kindness in this case is curdled and sour. Is it not a miserable affair!—Christian Advocate.

The above words and expressed purpose of the writer leaves nothing to be added. Well done, and said Dr. Buckley. You have taken upon your own broad shoulders the burden of the Lord's poor. Money and monied society will be largely against you. But what is mightier than they: the prayers of God's millions of black Americans will be with you. This will not be forgotten, the Negroes do not forget their friends.

Church Missionary Society (English)

The Rev. W. H. Barlow gave the following facts at the Carlisle Church Congress on Foreign Missions in regard to the above society: "In 1872 it was assumed that if the missions were to be kept up on their then existing scale, a permanent income of £150,000 would be required. The income is now over £200,000 (excluding special gifts), and is found to be all too small. In the matter of men the supply of fresh candidates was great, so much so that in 1879 the number of those who were taken up for training (this Society has a foreign college for missionaries) had to be limited. The embargo was for some three or four years retained, though now happily it is being removed. In the matter of progress abroad, in Northwest America, since 1872, five Bishoprics have been established and developed, and a largely increased expenditure has been incurred on these missions in consequence. Since 1872, besides the maintainance of the older missions in India, China, Ceylon, West Africa, the Mauritius and New Zealand, there has been marked progress in Japan, in Palestine, in Persia, in East Africa, in Equatorial Africa and in Egypt.

Make a Good Start for the Presiding Elder.

A word for the presiding elder in this connection: Make a good start with him and for him. If you all intend to stand by him in his work and support him, show it at once. Come at his official call. Let the first quarterly-meeting assure him that he has a faithful officiary and a willing people. Enter into his plans, and work together with him in carrying them into execution. And be not delinquent or dilatory in providing for his temporal wants. His "perquisites" amount to little or nothing. The salary promised him, if paid, will barely support him. If withheld or delayed, he is embarrassed, and the Church sustains a loss in the deteriorated quality of his work; no man can do his best work if his mind is perplexed and depressed by petty anxieties, cares and humiliations. Make a good start with your presiding elder.—Nashville Christian Advocate.

We say amen.

Personal.

—A poem full of grace and tenderdess, entitled, "My Country," by Joaquin Miller, is printed in The Current of November 1.

—At a festival given recently by Mr. Lee Irvine, of Mexia, Texas, for the benefit of Rev. W. Medlock the pastor, $7.90 was collected and all parties are happy.

—Mrs. Lizzie Poyntz still retains the freshness and Christian generosity of other years. We spent a most agreable evening at her home in Covington, Ky., lately.

—On the night of the 13th, the members and friends of the Lloyd Street Church, presented their pastor and his family with a handsome surprise, and this is not the first time, but the fifth time.

—Rev. A. W. Pinckney, of the Congregation Church, in Wisconsin, has united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and will take work either in the pastoral or literary field of our Church. He is said to be quite black but every inch a scholar and a gentleman.

—John R. McLean, the editor and proprietor of The Cincinnati Enquirer, and Miss Emily T. Beale, daughter of General Edward F. Beale, were married on October 7, at Washington city.

—Thank the Lord! The sisters have become interested enough to write and work for the SOUTHWESTERN, together with the brothers and children. Thus we are bound to succeed, the Lord helping, and there is no doubt about His help if we work on.

—Mrs. Rust will soon visit New Orleans, looking after the interest of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, of which she is the efficient secretary. We shall be glad to welcome her here. Mrs. Dr. Rust is a prime favorite in Cincinnati among the colored people.

—The members and friends of Ninth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Covington, Ky., gathered at the parsonage on the evening of Oct. 17th, and after singing, praying and social pleasantries, left substantial evidences of their good will in the shape of provisions, clothes and other things. Elder McDade still still feels happy.

—The Rev. Dr. J. M. Stevenson, senior secretary of the Tract Society, and wife recently celebrated the 47th anniversary of their marriage. In all this period death has not entered their dwelling. We fervently join with the Illustrated Christian Weekly with which they are connected, that this venerated and venerable pair may yet live to celebrate their golden age, and their diamond wedding.

—"Jefferson Davis is the last of his line," says the Atlanta Constitution. "He has been married twice and has no male descendant who bears his name. Not long since he lost his only son, and recently the death of the son of General Joseph R. Davis, of Biloxi, Miss., took away the last hope of perpetuating by male descendants the name of Jefferson Davis."

—Sir Moses Montefiore is an English baronet and philanthropist. He was born at Leghorn, Oct. 24th, 1784, and was therefore one hundred years old on Friday, Oct. 24th. He has been abundant in his efforts to mitigate the persecution of the Jews in Europe. He has given his means away with a princely prodigality for the betterment of the condition of the unfortunate, and in official life has proven to be a benediction to all in need of his friendship. His unusual longevity is doubtless as much the result of humane labors which beget a good conscience as to any other cause.

—Rev. Dennis Osborne, a native of India, and delegate to the late General Conference from South India, spent one day and a night in Boston. He delivered a most instructive and thrilling lecture on India, on the night of the 11 instant, at Bromfield Street Church, and preached a most eloquent sermon on the evening of the 12th, at the People's Church, before leaving for New York at 10.30 P.M. He was accompanied by Mrs. Osborne, and their son Ernest, who greatly delighted the people with his beautiful songs in Hindustani and English. Bro. Osborne has done a good work in America. He has raised $4000 to build a church in Mussoorie, one of the most popular hillside resorts in India; and 20,000 rupees—nearly $10,000,—given by a lady in Chicago, to build a Boys' School in the same town. It seemed to many that he should have remained longer in this country, but he leaves for his home to-day, with the prayers of many for his safe arrival. We were glad of the opportunity of entertaining our much esteemed brother and his family at our home, as he did us in his far-off India home.—Christian Witness

—Hon. Joseph Livesey—If Sir Moses Montefiore by his marital connection, was able to inspire the Rothschilds with patriotic purposes concerning the elevation of e Jewish people, Mr. Livesey was eminently the apostle of teetoliam. He was born on the 2d of arch, at Walton Cop, near Preson, 1794, and died at Preston ancashire, September 2d, 1884 e was left an orphan at 7 years age. He learned the weaving siness and followed it until he as 20. This weaving cellar was a college, the breast beam of his om his desk, and he was his own tor, for at this time there was no tional school, no Sunday-school, d no mechanics' institute of any nd, yet, under these difficulties learned to read and write. At he joined the Baptist Church d was baptized. At 21 he marid Miss Fannie Williams, the ughter of a master ship rigger Liverpool. He early formed a ired to the use of intoxicating quors, and in 1844 began the publication of the Preston Guardian, a per which was devoted to teetoism and reached a circulation of ,000 copies. The pledge took, obrved and urged others to take, was follows: "We agree to abstain om all liquors of an intoxicating ality, whether ale, porter, wine, or dent spirits except as a medicine. was signed by himself and six hers, and thus began the temperce reform.

Church Polity.

Must a presiding elder report his ork to the missionary committee a general meeting?

Yes. 1. It is the duty of very presiding elder "to furnish e members of the General Missary Committee for his mission istrict, prior to the annual meetg of that committee, a written tement of the condition of the lasions under his care, and pecunary wants."—Discipline, 84, ¶ 171, 5, p. 103. This applies to those istricts where the elder is partial missionary, holding official reation to both an annual conference nd the Missionary Society. When is work is entirely missionary k then he must report as folviz.

3. When a mission is established a foreign country, or in the United States and Territories outside of annual conferences, the [illegible] having episcopal supervision of the same, shall appoint a [illegible] as superintendent, be the pre- [illegible] District. It shall be the duty of the superintendent, [illegible] of the Bishop, at the [illegible] of the mission, to [illegible] the work and take general [illegible] of the entire mission, present the state of the [illegible] and its needs to the Bishop [illegible] and to the Corresponding Secretaries. Discipline '84, [illegible]. In the first case as [illegible] elder re- [illegible] committee [illegible] of his [illegible] in the second [illegible] the Bishop and [illegible].

General Church News.

[illegible] Conference of Methodism.

[illegible] on Transportation [illegible] Delegates and [illegible] that the [illegible] railroad, [illegible] Columbia and [illegible] D., and At- [illegible] will [illegible] conse- [illegible] PAY- [illegible] per- [illegible] in the city by applying to the Chairman on Homes,

L. T. WIDERMAN,
168 W. Baltimore Street.

The following is the Bible distribution in Texas: In October, 1884, by 14 Colporteurs of the American Bible Society, days of service, 285; miles travelled, 3,286; families visited by them, 2,903; families found without a Bible, 396; families supplied by gift or sale, 320; destitute individuals supplied in addition, 148; number of books sold, 1397; value, $623.92; number of books distributed by gift, 320; value $70.76; contributions received from churches and individuals, $8.40.

Returns were received from four Auxiliary Societies.

The fourth general supply is being vigorously carried on. Help is greatly needed. Contributions may be sent to A. L. Taylor, assistant treasurer, Bible House, New York; or to W. B. Rankin, district superintendent, Austin, Texas.

Schools and Colleges.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Rust University.

BY REV. H. R. REVELS.

Rust University, as has repeatedly been told, is located at Holly Springs, Mississippi, which lies on the Illinois Central railroad, over which four passenger trains run daily, two going North and two going South, affording an opportunity to all who may wisely chose to attend upon instruction at Rust University, of doing so at any time. And on their arrival here they will find ready to accommodate them, an omnibus, which for a small pittance conveys students to the University buildings. On their arrival there, they will see in Rust Hall the finest building of the kind in Mississippi. On entering this building, the attraction is increased as they pass through it, and examine its beautiful halls, recitation rooms, offices, College chapel and students parlor, dining hall, etc., all of which, in their structure combine beauty and comfort. The large and beautiful campus, which, could it speak, would complain of the weight of the sturdy oaks, (under whose shady boughs, both students and visitors are most delightfully sheltered from the burning rays of the summer's sun), overlooks the beautiful city of Holly Springs, which is not merely noted for its beauty and healthfulness, but as a seat of learning, intelligence and refinement as well. The cost of building Rust Hall, and its furniture was $30,000, and is sufficiently spacious to afford most comfortably and pleasantly, instruction to 400 pupils, and to accommodate with rooms and board a large number. Rev. W. W. Hooper, president, who had signified his intention to retire, at least from the Presidency, in order to enjoy the pleasant benefits of a little rest from the responsibilities of that position which he had so long faithfully and successfully filled, has, in compliance with the earnest request of all the friends of the school, and especially of all the students, consented to remain President of the old Rust University. And we may hail that noble, Christian act of President Hooper with pleasure, encouragement and appreciation. For those who know him will say, that no one that is now or ever has been connected with the M. E. Church and her schools in the South, has done more and worked harder to instruct and elevate the young colored woman and [illegible] of the South. Any one [illegible] University would be [illegible] how the students [illegible] a fatherly friend, [illegible] friendly manner [illegible] and them. Those [illegible] and parents of [illegible] visit his house, and [illegible], as well as in [illegible] ship, a hearty welcome [illegible] kindness of her willing [illegible] thing in her power [illegible] poor unfortunate [illegible] feel at home. [illegible] the preceptress, [illegible] the young ladies, [illegible] how she manages [illegible] for them, I do [illegible] and others as capable of judging as I am, and probably more so, affirm that nineteen out of every twenty of them are daily exhibiting in their lives and manners the the wholesome and elevating effects of the same.

The Professor of Mathematics, I. P. Hatfield, is the son of Dr. Hatfield, one of the most learned and able divines of the M. E. Church, and whose eloquent voice in support of measures looking to the welfare of the freedmen of the South, has been heard in many of our General Conferences. Suffice it to say, that the present corps of teachers of Rust University are able and earnest; their hands are in the work; they fully intend that the students of Rust University shall have the benefit of all that they can do in the way of earnest, literary and moral instruction.

At this institution parents and youths who have to provide for themselves can be entirely suited, that is, if the object is to give that amount of instruction that will qualify the student to competently transact business for himself, or for others on wages; or if it be to go through a collegiate course, they can be fully accommodated at Rust University.

There are but few who have even an idea of the number of young ladies and men who have been educated at this institution, and are now engaged in the various vocations of life; and that your readers may know what kind of scholars old Rust University turns out, it is only necessary to say that two of her former graduates are now members of her faculty, and able, accomplished and successful teachers. But it is a fact, that in order to be fully qualified to act well and successfully his or her part in the necessities and demands of life, students must have instruction in an industrial department. The building in which such instruction will be given here, is now in course of erection, and will be completed by January, 1885.

The lady who takes charge of what might be term the girls' industrial school, is Miss Sophia Johnson, of Mansfield, Ohio.

I can conceive of nothing that is more important or necessary than instructing girls in the true art of cooking, sewing, mending, so that they may be not merely good, but model housekeepers. Miss Johnson is now in one of the rooms of Rust Hall, instructing the girls in cutting, fitting and sewing; and here in Holly Springs mothers are delighted at seeing that their comparatively small daughters who have been instructed by Miss Johnson, can do that with the scissors and needle which otherwise they never would have known.

There will be no charge for their instruction in all kinds of home work. They will be charged board, but as soon as they are able to do good work without supervision, they will be allowed some recompense, which may be applied to the payment of their board.

I am confident that parents will avail themselves of this rare opportunity of sending their daughto Rust University, where they will receive instructions in books, morals and religion, and where also they will be instructed in some of the most important industries of life. Our preachers, members and friends are earnestly invited to go to work as they never have done before, in making known to parents and guardians the advantages they will reap from sending their sons and daughters to Rust University.

Holly Springs, Miss.

Books and Current Literature

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE FOR 1885. The Living Age will soon enter upon its forty-first year of successful publication. As it is the only satisfactorily complete and fresh compilation of an indispensable current literature, a literature which grows richer and more abundant every year in the work of the ablest writers of the time, it is invaluable to the American reader. Supplying the place of many reviews, magazines and papers, it enables him at small expense, considering the quantity and quality of the reading furnished, to keep pace with the best thought and well abreast of the literature of the day. The prospectus of this magazine for 1885, is worthy the attention of all who are selecting their reading-matter for the new year. Reduced clubbing rates with other periodicals are given, and to new subscribers remitting now for the year 1885 the intervening weekly numbers are sent gratis. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

The December Popular Science Monthly opens with an illustrated account, by W. F. Allen, of "The Reformation in Time-Keeping," which was accomplished in the United States and Canada a year ago. A sensible and practical paper on "School Culture of the Observing Faculties," is by J. C. Glashaw. Dr. T. D. Crothers describes, under "Alcoholic Trance," a state of unconsciousness of a person's own acts which sometimes follows the excessive use of liquors; and there is a discussion of "The Problem of Universal Suffrage," by Alfred Fouillee, who touches upon the rights of majorities and of minorities, plural suffrage and political education. Read Grant Allen's "Queer Flowers," "Oddities of Animal Character," and "Cannibalism as a Custom," by A. St. Johnston. The address of E. B. Tylor before the British Association, on "American Aspects of Anthropology," is given in full, and Dr. Tylor is also the subject of a portrait and biographical sketch. Mattien Williams has a chapter on tea and coffee. Bishop Temple, in considering "Religion and the Doctrine of Evolution," takes the ground that evolution concerns only the method of Nature, and does not conflict with an original creation or the existence of a Creator. "The Perils of Rapid Civilization" are illustrated by C. F. Withington, M. D., in the case of the American Indians, Maories, Hawaiians and other peoples. "Starvation: its Moral and Physical Effects," is considered by N. E. Davies. "The Oil Supply of the World" is concluded, and there is a short account by Jules Jamin of the means employed for the "Liquefaction of the Elementary Gases." In the editor's table we find "Science in School Management," "The Abuse of Political Power," and "A Jewish Explanation of Jewish Success;" and the "Correspondence," "Miscellany," and other departments are well filled. A subscription to this magazine is sure to bring a profitable return in information, guidance and entertainment. New York: D. Appleton & Company. Fifty cents a number, $5 a year.

The second paper of "The American Type" series, which will be for some time continued in The Current, and in which those qualities most distinctive and characteristic in the typical American will be presented with analytic particularity, will be from the pen of Horatio Nelson Powers, of Connecticut, and will appear in The Current of December 6.

The Century's War Series was begun by a Confederate contributor, General Beauregard. In the next number General Lew Wallace, of the Federal army, will write of Fort Donelson. In January, Rear-Admiral Walke will give his reminiscenses of the "Engagements of the Western Flotilla." Admiral Walke, it will be remembered, was Commander of the Carondelet, which fought at Belmont, Fort Henry, Fort Donelson, and elsewhere, and ran the batteries at Island Number Ten. Captain James B. Eads (who built the gun-boats) will contribute to the same number a paper on "Recollections of Foote and the Gun-boats." General Grant's "Shiloh" will appear in the February number, with a biographical sketch of General Albert Sidney Johnson, commander of the Confederate forces at Shiloh, who was killed in that engagement, written by his son, Colonel William Preston Johnson. This article includes an account of the battle from a Confederate point of view.

Outing for December brings the breath of summer and her out-of-door delights into the atmosphere of our artificially-warmed rooms and in-door occupations. The first of a series called "Tangle Leaf Papers," by Mr. Maurice Thompson, is so alive with the real spirit of nature that even the lay-reader catches the enthusiasm of her devotee. "A Canoe Camp 'mid Highland Highlands" is the leading article, from the pen of Mr. Kirk Munroe. It is profusely illustrated, and is a graphic account of the last annual meeting of Hudson river canoes, with descriptions of Hudson scenery and interesting bits of incident and anecdote. The editorial and record departments are strong and full, and make up a good number of this bright and growing magazine. The Wheelman Co., Publishers, Boston, Mass.

The Home Land of Sunshine and Flowers. Just the book for those seeking information about Southern California. Its statements reliable and different from other books on that country. Send 50cts. for it to Rev John M. Boal, Los Angeles, Cal.

The number of The Living Age for November 15th and 22d contain, Memoirs of the Earl of Malmesbury, Edinburgh; The Nature of Democracy, Quarterly; Pascal's "Pensees," British Quarterly; has the Newest World the Oldest Population? London Quarterly: Modern Quakerism, Modern Review; Coleridge's Intellectual Influence, Changes in Diet and Medicine, Carlyle on Religious Cant, and the Place of Art in History, Spectator; Queen Margerie, Chambers; Italian Summers—a Praise of Indolence, Saturday Review; Carlyle in London, Athenæun; Wolf-Hunting in England, Antiquary; with installments of "Beauty and the Beast," "At Any Cost," "Tommy" and Checco," and poetry. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

The November Century is again out of print, and a third edition will at be once put on the press, to be ready about Nov. 30th. The demand for this number has been a surprise to the publishers, the continued sale so long after issue being wholly without precedent. The edition of the December Century will be 100,000.

The Study, a quarterly magazine for Sunday-school superintendents, primary class teachers and Bible Normal class. J. H. Vincent, D. D., editor. Phillips & Hunt, New York; Cranston & Stowe, Cincinnati, publishers. For the fourth quarter now ready. It stands at the apex and completes our unexcelled series of Sunday-school lesson helps. We must call the attention of Sunday-school superintendents, teachers and advanced scholars to this work. It is so replete with needful instruction on the work and method of teaching, that none should be without it. And what is more, it is ours—we publish it and we originate it—and hence we ought above all others to use it.

Royal Words of Grace. A selection of Scripture texts, with appropriate hymns from Havergal and others, in style and material like the cards above mentioned. Opens like a book, and sells for 25 cents.

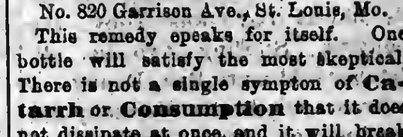
To change the address of your paper, give the name of the former as well as the present post office.

A Good Investment.

MESSRS. CRADDOCK & CO.:

Please send another $12 box of CANNIBIS INDICA. This remedy has entirely cured me of Bronchitis and Catarrh. I gained nine pounds in two weeks. The $36 spent with you has done more good than $200 paid to doctors.

BEN. F. JONES,
No. 820 Garrison Ave., St. Louis, Mo.



This remedy speaks for itself. One bottle will satisfy the most skeptical. There is not a single sympton of Catarrh or Consumption that it does not dissipate at once, and it will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. $2.50 per pint bottle, or three bottles, $6 50.

Address, Craddock & Co.,
1032 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

This paper will be sent to any post-office in the United States for the subscription price.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; It produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
July. 17-1y.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $3 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.
292.....Bampart Street.....292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.
sept15-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

Pictorial NEW TESTAMENT
New Revision—WITH NOTES BY
Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D. LL.D.
Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D. D.
Rev. LYMAN ABBOTT, D.D.

Illustrated New Testament,
King James' Version—with Notes by
Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D., LL.D.
Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D.D.
Agents Wanted—Outfits Free and all Freights Paid. Address
H. S. GOODSPEED & CO.,
oct2-1yar New York or Chicago.

"See What Cuticura Does for Me!"
INFANTILE and Birth Humors, Milk Crust, Scalled Head, Eczemas, and every form of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous and Inherited Diseases of the Blood, Skin and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Absolutely pure and safe. Cuticura, the great Skin Cure, 50 cts.; Cuticura an soap exquisite Skin Beautifier and only Medicinal Baby Soap, 25 cts., and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, $1, are sold by druggists. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.
Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."
April-10

The New York Times
FOR 1885!
An Honest and Fearless Republican Newspaper!
THE ABLEST, THE CHEAPEST, THE BEST.
Accurate in its News, Steadfast for the Right, Unsparing in the Exposure of Wrong.

THE NEW YORK TIMES gives its readers the news of the whole world every morning. It strives to cover every field and leave no hap or mishap unrecorded; so that whether it be the news of New York City the reader seeks or the news of San Francisco or Constantinople, he will find it accorded its due space and proportion in his morning's TIMES.
While it thus maintains its pre-eminence as a general newspaper, The TIMES collects, with special care all important news concerning railroads, insurance companies, banks and banking, the army and navy, educational progress, and the drift of social, religious and scientific thought and discussion. Book readers and book publishers will find in its columns early announcements of new publications and able and impartial reviews of all books worthy of the reviewer's time and labor.
The cable dispatches of the London correspondent of The TIMES keep its readers fully informed of what is going on in the political and social world of Europe.
In treating the public questions of the day editorially The TIMES gives honest opinions in plain language. It is a Republican newspaper, but it freely exercises the right of independent criticism, and when its party chooses unwise courses or makes unfit nominations it opposes them with earnestness and sincerity.
The Weekly and Semi-weekly editions of The TIMES contain all the current news condensed from the dispatches and reports of the daily edition, besides miscellaneous literary selections and a page of agricultural matter especially prepared for these editions.

To Mail Subscribers, Postpaid:

Daily, exclusive of Sunday, per year	$6 00
Daily, including Sunday, per year	7 50
Sunday only, per year	1 50
Daily, 6 months, with Sunday	3 00
Daily, 6 months without Sunday	3 00
Daily, 1 mo. with or without Sunday	75
The Semi-Weekly Times.
Single copies, one year	$2 50
Five copies, one year	12 00
Ten copies, and one free for club	20 00
The Weekly Times.
Single copies, one year	$1 00
Ten copies, and one free for club	10 00
Subscriptions for six months	60

TERMS CASH IN ADVANCE. These prices are invariable. WE HAVE NO TRAVELING AGENTS. Remit in drafts on New York, Postal Notes, or Post-office Money Orders; if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. Sample copies sent free. Address
THE NEW YORK TIMES
NEW YORK CITY.

For the Cheapest and Choicest
Family & Fancy Groceries,
SUGAR, LARD, FLOUR, COFFEE
Hams, Bacon, &c., &c.,
—GO TO—
N. E. Sullivan's GROCERY,
Corner of
Washington and Hampson Streets
CARROLLTON, LA.
nov22-1y

OLD ONE HUNDRED.
MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Street.....100
Lodging,
With or Without Board.
sept25-3m

KNABE
PIANO FORTES.
Tone, Touch, Workmanship and Durability.
WILLIAM KNABE & CO.
Nos. 204 and 206 West Baltimore Street, Baltimore. No. 112 Fifth Avenue, N. Y.
nov13-tf

Domestic Hygiene.

A GOOD WAY TO PREPARE CRANBERRIES.—Put three pints of washed cranberries in a granite stewpan. On top of them put three cups of granulated sugar and three gills of water. After they begin to boil cook them ten minutes, closely covered, and do not stir them. Remove the scum. They will jelly when cool, and the skins will be soft and tender.

QUINCE JELLY.—Wipe the fruit carefully and remove all the stems and parts not fair and sound. Use the best parts of the fruit for canning and preserving, and the skin, cores and hard parts for jelly. The seeds contain a large portion of gelatinous substance. Boil all together in enough water to cover till the pulp is soft. Mash and drain. Use the juice only, and when boiling add an equal weight of hot sugar and boil till it jellies in the spoon.

HORSE CAKES.—Many people have a peculiar fancy for these plain cakes, eaten first in early childhood; hence we are glad to give a tried recipe for them, such as can be made at home to please the children, old and young. Two quarts of flour, one quart of molasses (not syrup), one cupful of sugar, half a cupful of ginger, four teaspoonfuls of soda, a cupful of sour cream and a heaping tablespoonful of lard. Sift the flour first, and then sprinkle the ginger well through it; add the sugar and molasses, putting in lastly the soda dissolved in sour cream. Of course you must have from the tinner a cutter shaped like a horse, if you would have the delight of the children perfect.

GRAHAM GEMS.—One egg, one good handful of sugar, a pinch of salt, one-half cup of melted butter, one pint of buttermilk, and one teaspoonful of soda. Put in butter when half mixed up; when nearly mixed, add soda, and mix rather soft. Have gem irons hot and a good oven.

A housekeeper is careful when she buys her flour, for she knows it is more readily tainted than milk.

Boiled starch can be much improved by the addition of a little sugar, a little salt, or both, or a little dissolved gum arabic.

Remember that clear boiling water will remove tea stains and nearly every sort of fruit stains. Pour this simple cleanser of through the stain and so avoid its spreading over the cloth.

Did you know that milk which has turned or changed, can be sweetened and made fit for use by adding a little soda? Even though as an article to be a preventive for the most virulent contagious. But the privilege of this column is to show the following recipe, which has proved a household treasure: Cold boiled hominy can be made delicious breakfast dish by proper treatment. The easiest way to do it is to put the ancient bird in a frying pan with a little butter, and let it remain in the pan until it is heated through, and on the bottom has formed a crust like the usual fried cake. The "hominy and milk diddy" will be found as a dish grown delicious as a fish glown delicious on this plan on the "breakfast of champions."

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I am very anxious to hear from my sons, Reuben and Serrie Low. In 1877 Reuben was in the neighborhood of Society Hill, Lee county, Alabama; I heard he had moved to Benton, near Selma, Ala. Serrie, I heard, was living, in 1878, at Deer Creek, Greenwood county, Miss. Myself and their mother, Charity, are settled on a piece of land, and wish our sons to take an adjoining piece. Preachers will please try to find my sons. I heard the one at Greenwood was a deacon. Address me, William Low, care of M. E. preacher, Caldwell, Burleson county, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I would like very much to hear from my brother, John Hendricks. I was born in Virginia, and when four years old I was carried to Newbury, South Carolina. I had a brother, William. Our mother was Millie. When old master Tolen died I went to Joe Tolen and brother John to Dr. H. Tolen. I was carried to Mississippi and some years after brought to Texas, and have lived near Chapel Hill, Washington county, ever since. Brother John lived in Eufala, Barbour county, Ala. He talked of going to Atlanta, Ga.; he was a boot, shoe and harness maker; his wife's name was Jeannette. If any of your readers know of such a person I shall feel thankful for information, as through him I can find my only child, Betsy, wife of Tom Young, whose post-office was Chappell's, S. C., care of Colonel Renicks. My husband is dead. I live with my husband's niece, whose husband's name is Nelson Tolen. Please address me, Mandy Tolen, care of Mrs. I. Howells, Navasota, Grimes county, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I desire to make inquiry for my sister, Julia Pommer; the last I heard from her she was carried to Little Rock, Ark.; she had been living in Attala co., Miss. I had a brother named Adam Pommer; we were parted in Georgia; the last I heard of him he belonged to Dr. Harden. Please address Eda Pommer, in care of A. Lemons, Pickens, Miss.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to trace up my people. Father was Sterling Lee, and he lived in Carroll co., Tenn. Mother was Lucie Ellis, who belonged to Fletcher Ellis. Mother's oldest boy was Toby, the youngest, Sterling—two in all. Fletcher sold us to Ben Denny. I have an aunt, Bettie Dannah, and grandmother, Jesse Dannah. I think they lived near Danville. Address me at Hot Springs, Ark.

TOBE ELLIS.

MR. EDITOR—I have not found my aunt, Cosy Screen yet. The last heard from her she was staying at the Stirfield plantation, near Donaldsonville, the mother of eight children. We don't know her husband's name. She left us in Plaquemine, La. I went to New Orleans in 1866, and in 1881 we received an inquiring letter from her. Address me at Rosedale, La.

REV. BEDFORD CARR.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my husband. His name was Wm. Butler. We left Sumpterville, S. C., with a man by the name of Wm. Belcher; he took us to Charleston, and sold us to a man by the name of John Flennoid, and he brought us to Nashville, Tenn., and then he moved to Memphis, and there sold my husband to a man by the name of Mr. Isaac. After this Mr. Flennoid took me back to Nashville, and sold me to Mr. Geo. Hitchcock, and he brought me to Texas. Address me at Goliad, Texas, in care of Hon. C. P. Westbrook. CHARLOTTE BUTLER.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire [illegible] Easley's [illegible] Cheny, who belonged to [illegible], in Martin county, [illegible]. Mother was Chey[illegible]; Jim Bennett raised [illegible] sold by Jesse Jolley, [illegible] in-law, to Potter, a Negro trader; she had two children with her, Primus, a baby of five months; Alfred, two years old. My oldest brother, Allen, was a blacksmith and belonged to a Mr. Cox. I do not remember all of my sisters and brothers; I was so small, but there were 15 of us. Mother had sisters Rachel and Polly, both married in the Slade family; mother was sold and brought to Texas from Natchez, Miss., by old Judge Stamps. Brother Alfred was carried back to Mississippi by the widow of Cathmore Stamps. His wife was Rose Ann. Brother's oldest child was Simon, daughters were Hannah and Virginia. They were somewhere near Natchez. Address me at Prairie Plains, Texas. PRIMUS ROSS.

Books and Current Literature

The Health Miscellany. This is the title of an illustrated octavo pamphlet published at 25 cents by Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 753 Broadway, New York. It contains a series of papers devoted to important health topics, opening with an excellent article on the External Senses, with illustrations of the eye, ear, nose, tongue, and skin, giving important information in regard to the functions and also the care of these important organs of the body. The next is an illustrated article on the Cause and Cure of the Backache, especially found among so many women. An extended article on Chronic Catarrh points out its causes and the proper treatment. A chapter on Ethnology is illustrated with a number of portraits showing the races of men. A very important paper is one devoted to Bodily Positions and Dress in relation to health and form. The Teeth, their use and care, containing illustrations showing how the teeth are formed and grow, why and how they decay. The work also contains "Confessions and Observations of Sir Edward Bulwer-Lytton," originally published anonymously under the title "Confessions of a Water-cure Patient," written in his peculiarly attractive style; is most entertaining and profitable reading. The Cause of Malarial Diseases is one which may be read profitably in almost every community. Getting Used to It shows how the system appears to get used to unhealthful habits. Fat Folks and Lean Folks shows how to treat these two conditions. Rheumatism is the subject of another article. We also have Medical Electricity; Position on Horseback; Trichina Spiralis; Hygienic Dwellings; Wheat, and the true way to use it; The Bath in Small-pox; etc. The people need educating in this direction, and certainly no better use could be made of twenty-five cents than to send for this work.

The Man Wonderful in the House Beautiful. An Allegory. Teaching the Principles of Physiology and Hygiene, and the effects of Stimulants and Narcotics For Home Reading. Also adapted as a Reader for High schools, and as a Text-book for Grammar, Intermediate, and District Schools. By Chilion B. Allen, A. M., LL.B., M.D., and Mary A. Allen, A.B. M.D., Members of the Broome Co. (N. Y.) Medical Society. 370 pp., 12 mo, extra cloth, price $1.50. New York, Fowler & Wells Co., Publishers, 753 Broadway.

A book which is almost as wonderful as the subject of which it treats. The motive of the book is to teach that the most beautiful, and, at the same time, the most wonderful thing in nature is man; and no one can read these chapters without feeling that the authors have accomplished their task. The book is an allegory in which the body is the House Beautiful, and its inhabitant the Man Wonderful. The building of the house is shown from foundation to roof, and then we are taken though the different rooms, and their wonders and beauties displayed to us, and all this time we are being taught—almost without knowing it—Anatomy, Physiology, and Hygiene, with practical applications and suggestions. We are then introduced to the inhabitant of the house, "The Man Wonderful," and learn of his growth, development, and habits. We also become acquainted with the guests whom he entertains, and find that some of them are doubtful acquaintances, some bad, and some decidedly wicked, while others are very good, company. Under this form we learn of food, drink, and the effects of narcotics and stimulants. The illustrations are of the best, and these, together with the happy verbal illustrations, give the reader a clearer idea of the subject treated than any other work dealing with the same themes. To pick up the book and read a chapter at random is to excite an interest that can not be satisfied until every chapter has been read, and the critic will not then be content, for he will wish to re-read in order to admire the beauty and simplicity of the style, as well as the ingenuity with which the different subjects are handled, and the skill with which the important points are made prominent. The Table of Contents by chapters has these striking subjects: The "Foundations," which are the bones. The "Wall" are the muscles, while the skin and hair are called the "Siding and Shingles." The head is an "Observatory," in which are found a pair of "Telescopes," and radiating from it are the nerves compared to a "Telegraph" and "Phonograph." The communications are kept up with the "Kitchen," "Dining-room," "Butler's Pantry," "Laundry," and "Engine." The house is heated by a "Furnace," which is also a "Sugar Manufactory." Nor is the house without mystery, for it contains a number of "Mysterious Chambers." It is protected by a wonderful "Burglar Alarm," and watched over by various "Guardians." A pair of charming "Windows" adorn the "Facade," and a "Whispering Gallery" offers a delightful labyrinth for our wanderings. In fact, the book is more wonderful than a fairy tale, more intensely interesting than a romance, and more replete with valuable truths than any book of the present day. The authors—husband and wife—are both regular physicians, and besides graduating in the best schools of America, spent three years under the best instructors in Vienna, Paris, and London. The authors have been teachers and know what will aid both teacher and scholar, and they have kept in mind the fact that many teachers will be called upon to teach these subjects who will feel the need of aids, and they will find them in the questions, which are so arranged with exponents in the text that the lesson is are easily comprehended. George Ellis, Bookseller, Stationer News & Periodical Dealer, No. 11 De la ur St., opposite Postoffice, New Orleans.

Our Little Men and Women, Edited by Mrs. Frances A. Humphrey. This popular Little Folks' Monthly begins its sixth year with the January number of 1885. It is intended for the youngest readers, who are too old for Babyland and too young for Wide Awake, but who want a magazine for their very own.

The question now among fashionable people is who wrote the New Society Novel, entitled "Married Above Her," which T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, have in press, and to be published immediately. It is said to be a true story taken from life and by a lady moving in New York society.

Can Be Had if Wanted.

"Have you any malaria here?" asked a lady who was looking for a rural boarding-place for her family. "Well," said the landlady, "we haint got none just now; folks haven't asked for it; but we'll get it for your family if you want it." Most folks get malaria without wanting it. To get rid of its noxious effects, use Brown's Iron Bitters. Mrs. S. R. McDonald, New Haven, Conn., says: "I suffered from malaria for nearly six years. Brown's Iron Bitters cured me completely."

Gen. Von Manteuffel, Governor General of Alsace-Lorraine, has issued a rescript suppressing three anti-German newspapers in his province.

THE BEATTY ORGAN AND PIANO COMPANY.

A Wonderful Business Rejuvenated and Established.

From Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.

The name of Daniel F. Beatty, of Washington, New Jersey, is tolerably well known to the majority of the people of the United States in connection with the manufacture and sale of musical instruments. By liberal and widespread advertising, and by dealing direct with the purchaser, he built up a most extensive business in organs and pianos. It was his ambition to erect and own the largest organ factory in the world, and he succeeded in so doing. But the hindrances and losses incident to a disastrous fire in 1881, and the want of adequate capital, combined with a lack of business methods, led to a serious entanglement in his affairs. Although he made and sold over seventeen thousand (17,000) organs last year, his embarrassments, which dated their origin years before, became so serious that he finally sold his business to a corporation composed of his creditors. It is understood that this company, with ample capital, has undertaken to make good as far as possible, all the obligations of Mr. Beatty, giving preference to the purchasers of organs and pianos whose goods are still undelivered, and to whom it is shipping daily their instruments. The company is under the presidency of Mr. I. W. England, of New York, his manager being Mr. W. P. Hadwen, and the gentlemen composing the directors and stockholders are among the best known and most responsible business men in the country. All new orders, we are assured, are filled on receipt with instruments of the best quality; while arrearages are being manufactured and shipped at a rate of no less than 100 a week. On such a basis, supplying a superior article at a moderate price, free of agents' commissions, the new concern ought to achieve a great success.

HALL'S
Vegetable Sicilian
HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp.

HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe.

Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause; the entire fulfilment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.

Buckingham's Dye
FOR THE WHISKERS

Will change the beard to a natural brown, or black, as desired. It produces a permanent color that will not wash away. Consisting of a single preparation, it is applied without trouble.

PREPARED BY

R. P. HALL & CO., Nashua, N. H.

Sold by all Dealers in Medicines.

The Capital of Korea.

The city of Seoul looms up before you with high towers in Chinese style pierced for cannon, and the city is surrounded by a wall twenty-five feet in height and built of solid stone. You may think that you are about to enter some grand city with stately abodes, but in passing through the gate you find only thatched cottages, very wide streets and scarcely any trees—and you are surprised that so grand a wall should be necessary to protect so insignificant a town. But there are throngs of people there, and bullocks and ponies laden with merchandise are passing you constantly. In the broad, open spaces, called market places, are groups of donkeys laden with vegetables, and bulls almost covered out of sight with loads of brush wood, to be used as fuel. Along the little brooks, which run through the city are washermen with their clothes lines. The Koreans build their houses by erecting four pillars or posts at the corners, and filling in the walls with mud. The better houses of the wealthy are faced with stone, pointed with cement. Though these are better in quality than those of the poor, they are much the same style. You enter a house through a little sliding door or window about three feet high, consisting of a light wooden framework papered over to exclude the air and admit the light. There is, on good houses a veranda, upon which the shoes of the inmates and visitors are left while they enter. In this tidy custom the Koreans resemble the Japanese; but the hollow space under the floor of the house, which is filled in winter with warm air, reminds you of the Chinese.—The Foreign Missionary.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle. Trade Mark.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME:

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale " "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1.....7:00 a. m
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3.10:45 a.m
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a.m	Sunday Excu'n 8:20 p.m

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leave.	Arrive.
Express	8:00 a m	7:45 a m
Forest Accommodation	3:35 p m	9:10 a m
Fast Mail	8:20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. C. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M. Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. ap25:1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE
TO
Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn. and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City. For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City.
or
H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 26 Wall St. Atlanta Georgia.

CATARRH

AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Deafness, Coughs, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, and Incipient Consumption, permanently cured, by a treatment so effective that it cures the worst cases, though the best of physicians have become afflicted. No douches, snuffs, washes, inhalers, or specialties. The medicines are so pleasant that a child will take them. The only internal treatment offered to the public for these dangerous diseases. Dr. Sykes himself has had fifteen years experience in the treatment of this class of diseases, and a trial will convince the most incredulous of the efficacy of his treatment. The most obstinate cases cured at small expense. Send full description of case and FIVE (5c) cents (stamps sent), for a trial package (by mail), to test, which comes with full instructions for treatment.

Address, Dr. C. H. SYKES, [illegible]

oc12-1yr

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine. sept6

General News Items.

Friendly relations have been resumed between France and Morocco.

It is estimated that 1000,000 persons left Paris during the cholera epidemic.

A German admiral and other officers are employed in the Chinese northern fleet.

The French government have resolved to send two more cruisers to the west coast of Africa, in view of the possible results of the Congo Conference.

In Connecticut, at the New Haven primaries, Independent Republicans who voted for Cleveland, were unanimously ruled out of the party caucus by Republicans.

W. A. Pledger, chairman, calls a meeting of the Colored National Committee to meet at New Orleans, Dec. 17, to consider the situation of the colored people under the Democratic party.

The Vatican has requested the heads of mission stations in West Africa to furnish reports, to be used as a basis for negotiations with the powers at the Congo Conference for improving the position of missionaries in the Dark Continent.

The Reichstag by a vote of 180 against 90, adopted a resolution in favor of the payment of its members for their services as legislators. The resolution was strongly opposed by Bismarck. The result is considered a signal defeat of Bismarck.

The proprietors of two skating rinks in Reading, Pa., adopted a rule prohibiting the colored people admission to the floor of the rinks. Colored citizens threaten to test their rights in the courts under the civil rights bill.

The Georgia Senate agreed to a resolution condemning all efforts to excite the fears of the colored people of Georgia, and expressing the conviction that under the Democratic administration his legal rights will be preserved to him.

The superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway states that [illegible] got all its supplies, such as rails, fastening, etc., for the [illegible] north of Lake Superior [illegible] by Mountains. Twenty [illegible] be employed [illegible] winter, and the [illegible] of Lake Superior will be completed before the [illegible] April, and the Rocky Mountain [illegible] at of November.

Many professors of Madrid University, including Democrats, Conservatives and Conservatives, have signed a protest against [illegible] and [illegible] the troops toward [illegible] insurrection has [illegible] ment of [illegible] ets. the [illegible] Am [illegible] and others to join [illegible] Your [illegible] suggestion [illegible] urged to [illegible] com- [illegible] for [illegible] Chemicals.

Letters from the Pastors.

Rev. D. Shelby, Coushatta, La., writes: "I see in your paper that my presiding elder has paid us his last visit, his four years are complete. There is nothing like a good presiding elder. I feel the loss of him. He has done much good in our land, and worked a great many blessings with his eloquent and heart soothing sermons. The light that he has left the people will be with them many days hence. Pray that the Louisiana conference will send us another S. Duncan."

Rev. H. Harris, Lockhart, Caldwell county, Texas, writes: "My fourth quarter was one long to be remembered. Rev. P. M. Carmichael preached to a large and attentive congregation. His text was the 19 chapter of St. John, 3d verse, "It is finished." I think it was well finished. We had a nice time spiritually and also financially. We raised contributions as follows: For presiding elder, $16.10; missionary, $4; Church Extension $3; Freedmen's Aid $10.75; Tract Society, 65cts; Sunday-school Union, 65cts; for the Bishops, $1.65; conference, $1; Bible cause, 6cts.

Every glorious act of a great life starts forward an eloquent fact. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the glorious act of a life's study, and it is a positive fact that it stands without a rival!

The Colored Press on the Political Situation.

We find comfort in the truth that "God omnipotent reigneth," and we look to Him to overrule and cause all things to work together for the good of this. Let the whole people put trust in God!—Baptist Advocate.

A change of administration from Republican to Democratic seems to strike consternation to the hearts of cowardly colored people.—American Baptist.

The close political contest in the United States cannot result unhappily, nor retard the moral progress that has been going on for the last twenty-four years, under the political work of the country.—Ohio Falls Express.

The colored man has now to go to work as he has been doing, day by day, in God's sunshine, give out as little as posible, acquire and hold fast to that which is good.—Christian Recorder.

The frauds perpetrated in the recent election should be brought to light, and if need be cast the whole vote of the South out, for we doubt if the Democrats acted fair at any ten precincts, for they knew if they lost this time they would lose forever.—Virginia Critic.

The status of the colored man is fixed, and will remain so no matter what party comes into power.—Louisiana Standard.

Reporter's Letter.

[illegible]—Allow me to [illegible] at the [illegible] Am [illegible], and [illegible] others to join [illegible] Your [illegible] suggestion [illegible] urged to [illegible] com- [illegible] for [illegible]

No Wonder.

A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical ailment combine, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Geo. W. Frampton, of Huntingdon, W. Va., for eight years. He was a sufferer of necroses—that is, the leg bone at the ankle was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been doctoring. I had been under the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years, and a doctor here at Huntingdon worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying PERUNA, and now I am well. I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

Mr. Alf. Lusk, Wooster, Ohio, writes: "DR. HARTMAN, Columbus, O. I have been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease, chronic catarrh of the stomach. I have thoroughly tried your MANALIN, and it has done me more good ten-fold than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I have used legions of them.

Mr. Edgar Harte, Smeltzer P. O., Elk county, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PERUNA, and find it to be of great benefit. I also gave it to some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. L. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "I am taking PERUNA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied at the different drug stores for one of your books. They claim they have none on hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: I handle your medicine, PERUNA. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a staple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy."

Calista Fishel, Malvern, Ohio, writes: "I take pleasure in recommending the use of PERUNA and MANALIN to any one afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time afflicted with a very troublesome cough, but a few bottles of PERUNA entirely cured me."

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

ST. MATTHEW M. E CHURCH—On Verret Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7 30 at night. Prayer meeting 6.30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30. E. C. Harrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Peydras; Rev. Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7.30 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a. m. 3 and 7 p. m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school, 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Pinm, two blocks above the last station. Rev. M. C. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday, Sunday-school 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m., and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University. A. F. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President 1428 St. Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. T. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting, 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

J. E. OGILVIE—Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music. Also tunes and repairs pianos and organs at reasonable rates. Residence, 39 South Johnson street.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9–12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators.
Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1.25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index. Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

MILLERS and FARMERS

EDUCATIONAL.

WILEY UNIVERSITY.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

Academic Year opened Sept. 22

No School Does More for its Pupils.

College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.

Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.

Competent and Experienced Faculty.

Expenses Very Low.

For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't,
oct9 Marshall, Texas.

New Orleans University.

Examinations for admission will be held on Monday and Tuesday,

September 29 and 30, 1884.

The Exercises in the different Departments of the University will begin on Wednesday, October 1, 1884.

Preparatory College Course,
Normal School,
College of Liberal Arts,
and School of Theology.

Prof C. T. SIMPSON, B. A., Dean of College of Liberal Arts.

A. F. HOYT, A. M., S. L. B., Dean of School of Theology and President of the University.

Address: 1428 St. Charles Avenue,
sept4-3m New Orleans, La.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches....	175 lbs.....	325 lbs.....	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs.....	375 lbs.....	55 00
32 "	350 lbs.....	550 lbs.....	80 00
36 "	550 lbs.....	800 lbs.....	120 00
40 "	750 lbs.....	1050 lbs.....	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs.....	1350 lbs.....	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs.....	1800 lbs.....	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs.....	2900 lbs.....	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches.....	100 lbs.....	$13 00
20 inches.....	130 lbs.....	18 00
24 inches.....	190 lbs.....	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with those bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov23-1yr

McSHANE BELL FOUNDRY

Manufacture these celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin,) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c., address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
feb1-26t-eow

BLYMYER M'F'G CO.
BELLS.
Church, School, Fire-alarm, Plantation Bells; also Bell Metal Chimes, Tower Clocks, etc. Warranted. Catalogue with 1500 testimonials, prices, etc., sent free.
Blymyer Manufacturing Co., Cincinnati, O.
july1 26teow

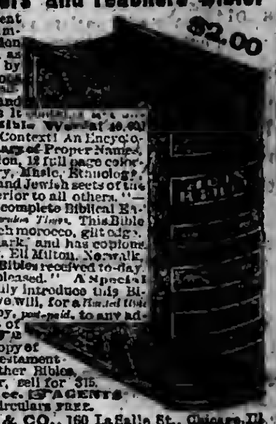
The GREAT CHURCH LIGHT
Established 1857.
FRINK'S Patent Reflectors for Gas or Oil, give the most powerful, softest, whitest & best light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Banks, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A Liberal discount to churches and the trade. Don't be deceived by cheap imitations.
I. P. FRINK, 55 Pearl St., N. Y.
aug28-26t-eow

GOOD NEWS TO LADIES!
over of Send... for... and Catalogue... sent free.
Rand McNally & Co., New York.
oct23-13t

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.
apl1-1y

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,
Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.
A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President.
[illegible]

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,
Cocoa and Canton Matting, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain Goods,
Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Plates, Wire Screens, Etc.
73 Camp Street..... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade. Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct9-6m



Crescent Insurance Company.
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.
CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.
W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dolsen, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.
TRUSTEES
Joseph Bowling, Sam. H. Kennedy, Geo. W. Bentell, Alfred Moulton, W. B. Cooper
W. R. Lyman, U. Maltaeni, Chas. H. Dolsen, John Calder, A. H. Steward
S. O. Coulon, Harry L. Flash, Wm. A. Phelps, J. J. Reiss, Louis Prados
Lucien Delery, Charles Neeman, N. D. Wallace, Sigmund Katz, M. Gillis
E. F. W. Beckman, O. K. David, Wm. Garig, A. Rosenfeld, John D. Fiske
Chas E. Rice, Joseph Kohn, Chas. M. Whitney, James T. Rodd.
See our Agents throughout the South. oct9 1y

Many Agents are Making $5 to $10 per Day "HOW THE FARM PAYS."
SELLING OUR NEW WORK ON FARMING.
Single Copies mailed for $2.50; Send for Table of Contents and Terms to Agents. PETER HENDERSON & CO., 35 & 37 Cortlandt Street, New York.
nov20-2t

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS!
Can be taken at home. No case incurable when our questions are properly answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc.
REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio.
feb7-1y

HARTER'S THE ONLY TRUE IRON TONIC
Will purify the BLOOD, regulate the LIVER and KIDNEYS, and RESTORE THE HEALTH and VIGOR of YOUTH. Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Lack of Strength, and Tired Feeling absolutely cured. Bones, muscles and nerves receive new force. Enlivens the mind and supplies Brain Power. Suffering from complaints peculiar to their sex will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST.
LADIES
(Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK." Full of strange and useful information, free.
may8-1y

AYER'S Ague Cure
contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.
WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.
Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists.
sept25 to nov25

The Ministers' and Teachers' Bible.

$2.00
This magnificent Parlor Bible is imported from London and is indorsed as "The Most [illegible] by the leading Bishops of England. In addition to the Old and New Testaments it contains [illegible] References with Context! An Encyclopedia, A Dictionary of Proper Names, with Pronunciation, 12 full page colored Maps, Poetry, Music, Rhinology, Plants, Animals, and Jewish sects of the Bible, etc. "Superior to all others."—N. Y. Times. "A complete Biblical Encyclopedia."—London Times. This Bible is bound in French morocco, gilt edge, with silk book-mark, and has copious references. Rev. Eli Milton, Norwalk, O., writes: "The Bible received to-day. I am more than pleased." A Special Offer! To rapidly introduce this Bible in America we will, for a limited time only, send one copy, post-paid, to any address on receipt of only $2.00! Both copies and one copy of Revised New Testament for $2.00! Other Bibles with less matter, sell for $15. Order at once. AGENTS WANTED! Circulars FREE.
O. S. MAYO & CO., 160 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.
jan31-26teow

SWEET GUM & MULLEIN
The sweet gum taken from the [illegible] Southern swamps contains a stimulating expectorant principle, [illegible] relieving the early morning cough in Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, [illegible] the Mullein Plant of [illegible] Lesh [illegible] are [illegible] known remedy for [illegible] Colds, and [illegible] stamp for "Testimonials" and [illegible] and a treatise on Consumption.
WALTER A. TAYLOR, Atlanta, Ga.
sept25-26teow

STEAM ENGINES Portable and Agricultural. Send for circulars.
Weed, Toker & Mann, Baton, N. Y.
may8-6t 1tmn

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address TRUE & Co., Augusta, Me.

THE GREAT WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL & CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION
New Orleans.
Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.
—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—
United States Government.
$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Innumerable States, Cities and Foreign Countries.
Every State and Territory in the Union represented, and nearly all the Leading Nations and Countries of the World.
The Biggest Exhibit, the Biggest Building and the Biggest Industrial Event in the World's History.
APPLICATIONS FOR EXHIBITS ALREADY RECEIVED COVER MORE SPACE AND A GREATER VARIETY OF EXHIBITS THAN THOSE OF ANY EXPOSITION EVER HELD.
The cheapest rates of travel ever known in the annals of transportation secured for the people everywhere.
For information, address,
E. A. BURKE,
Director General, W. I. & C. C. E.,
New Orleans, La.

Sawing Made Easy.
MONARCH LIGHTNING SAWING MACHINE

SENT ON 30 DAYS' TEST TRIAL.
AGENTS WANTED
YOU CAN MAKE MONEY Fun in a Minstrel, Address Fuller, Gilbert & Co., New Orleans, La.
oct23-6teow

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The authorization of Mr. F. H. Bunton to act as an agent of this paper is hereby revoked. PHILLIPS & HUNT.

New Orleans, Dec. 4.

Sunday-School and Children.

[illegible] Quarter. Lesson X. Dec. 7. [illegible] Prov. xxiii, 29-35.

The wise man asks six questions, which many a boy or girl would answer just as Solomon did, though none are so wise as was the great king of Israel. Solomon was not only a believer in total abstinence, but even says to the young, "Look not" at those drinks which make men drunk. Those boys who stand about the doors of saloons, watching the drinkers empty their [illegible] disobey this command of [illegible]. A brave man will try to avoid or destroy a poisonous [illegible], yet we are told here, and we can see every day, that it is [illegible] strong drink is as deadly [illegible] as these. Men are made [illegible] and crazy by its use. They are [illegible] overcome by its [illegible] that they take no more [illegible] than a little [illegible] to be watched over [illegible]. Drunk- [illegible] killed by railroad [illegible] asleep [illegible] may be [illegible] not [illegible] be born in [illegible] by the wayside. [illegible] it, that those who [illegible] of drinking [illegible] users seek it again [illegible] never satisfied, [illegible] appetite always [illegible] To hear the [illegible] of Golden [illegible] to be among [illegible] of drink- [illegible] as a [illegible] a sin, Metho- [illegible] should pray [illegible] for prohibition.—West- [illegible]

What do clothes mean? [illegible] we first hear of gar- [illegible] as marks of [illegible] in the East? [illegible] reference does [illegible] this custom? [illegible] borrowed [illegible] ing nation from their [illegible] were robes of office in- [illegible]

[illegible] Frank [illegible] by Lib- [illegible]

[illegible] members ex- [illegible] sed in fact [illegible] because [illegible] should [illegible] R. Sam- [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19—NO 50. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, DECEMBER 11, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 789.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

28 Baronne Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

Terms: $2.50 per Year, Paid in Advance; after Three Months, Price $3.00.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

All Traveling Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are authorized Agents.

Remittances may be made at our risk in any form and at any time they can procure it. Money can be sent by Registered Letter, Postal Note, or by Express, addressed to PHILLIPS & HUNT.

All matter not of a business nature must be addressed to the editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Per Nonpareil line, each insertion.)

[illegible] cents.

[illegible] "

[illegible] "

[illegible] "

[illegible] "

[illegible] "

[illegible] cents, net cash

Editorial Notes.

Thy Church, thy body up—thy faith and hope—

(The Head, the Spirit then—the life of love)

Pierced by the sword of angry strife it groans,

For every thrill is through the soul and Head above;

Thy suffering members prove [illegible] own; further act or vow with them,

One help doth the Head and members have

To render the members to the Head to cleave,

To injure them, and Him to injure, is the same.

"A school-house on every hill-top and no prisons in the valley!"

We congratulate you, Bro. Crist, [illegible] to the rank of presiding [illegible]

[illegible] religion and temperance should go together to make a people.

He that maketh an idol is like unto him. So is every one that [illegible]

[illegible] is jails, poor-houses, [illegible] and lunatic asylums, and [illegible] in every acre of land."

[illegible] the $250,000 [illegible] Freedmen's Aid Society should [illegible] in good earnest.

[illegible] Harris is a great disappointment to [illegible] had the Austin Convention ready to adjourn by Saturday.

[illegible] the mountains are round about [illegible] the Lord is round about his people from henceforth.

[illegible] Harbert, pastor at [illegible], exhibits his good [illegible] on a list of 38 new [illegible]

[illegible] quotes from Editor [illegible] has read this [illegible] and she shall [illegible] is a source

[illegible] of attendance at [illegible] by the editor [illegible] of this paper, greatly prevented his being [illegible] the Central Ala[illegible] [illegible] they will [illegible] [illegible] to this [illegible]

Mrs. Thomas Freeman and her husband stand among the first people of color at Austin. She is a first-class seamstress and gets more than she can do. As is usual there they own a very neat home piece of property.

Let the protracted meetings begin, let pastoral work of every kind proceed, and let the workers remember "They who sow in tears" (there must be interest enough to bring tears) "shall reap in joy." Tear first, then joy. No tears, no joy.

Compliments are lavished upon Bishop Harris in great profusion. After the recital by the Bishop of an instance of importance in Methodist history, a gentleman observed to us, "Why, he is the best read man I know of; he is a perfect encyclopedia of Methodism."

Rev. A. A. Johnson has resigned the editorship of the Texas Methodist Advocate in order to devote his time to the Texas Wesleyan College, at Fort Worth, as Financial Agent. Prof. P. M. White will assume the editorship on the 1st of January ensuing, when the resignation is to take place.

Whatever the Lord promises to a good man is also promised upon the same conditions to his children, the condition always being such as involve no impossibilities or contradictions. "He will bless them that fear the Lord both small and great." "The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children."

Bishop Mallalieu will spend a month in Texas, beginning with Nov. 25th. He will preside over three conferences, and in company with Rev. A. H. Gillett, will hold services in many places among Americans, Germans and negroes.—Christian Standard.

Why the Standard should write American and German with a capital letter in the beginning, and Negro with a small "n" we cannot understand. Will the Standard explain it? or, if too busy, refer it to our friend, Dr. Watson. We are tempted to say that any explanation he submits will be satisfactory.

The pastors should collect subscriptions due and close 1884 accounts this month. Then begin 1885 with a clear record, and able to push the canvass without embarrassment. Adhere to a cash basis in the main, and give credit only in exceptional instances, and where the agent can assume the entire responsibility.

Senator Henry Demas and Col. James Lewis are working actively in the interest of exhibits from colored people at the World's Exposition. Senator Demas says the Louisiana exhibit is assuming large proportions, and will be a fair representation of the progress of his people. By personal visitation of [illegible] he has aroused [illegible] on the subject.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Benevolent Causes of the M. E. Church.

HENRY W. TATE.

By benevolence we mean active goodness. We are not only to sustain our local church, but are to be gracious to our less favored neighbor. To be benevolent is to give unselfishly to the needy. It is being gracious without expecting compensation in return. Our beloved Methodism has its duty to "Cast thy bread upon the waters," organized into systematic benevolence. It is made obligatory to contribute to the following benevolent causes: missions, conference claimants, Sunday-school Union, Tracts, Church Extension, Freedmen's Aid, and education, in all seven recognized, regular benevolent enterprises of the Church. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is auxiliary to the Missionary Society. The American Bible Society is placed in, along with our benevolent list, but is not one of our benevolences, it is supported by various denominations besides ours. Every loyal Methodist remembers that pointed benevolent question propounded to you when are received into full membership:

"Will you contribute of your earthly substance, according to your ability, to the support of the Gospel and the various enterprises of the Church."

Answer, I will.

The Missionary Society was organized in 1819, has for its object to send the Gospel to the heathen of all lands. To execute this important command the living minister is sent out to preach the Word to them. The great work of spreading the Redeemer's kingdom over the world is promulgated by systematic giving — to sustain the workers in the fields—and the volunteering of the sacrificing missionary to go to the heathen lands and labor. Our Missionary Society through its faithful workers has established the Church in Africa, Scandinavia, Switzerland, India, South America, Mexico, China, Germany, Denmark, Bulgaria, Italy, Japan, making a total of 16 Foreign Missions and 8 Domestic Missions. Besides many annual conferences are partly sustained by missionary appropriations. The affairs of the society are conducted through four departments viz.: the officers, the board of managers, the General Missionary Committee, and the Bishops. There was $493,377.85 raised in 1880 for the society's use. Of the missionary appropriations four-sevenths is used in our domestic work, and the other three-sevenths is used in foreign missions. Ours is truly a missionary Church in its origin, and purpose. It was established in this country by missionaries. Now we sustain 24 missions, besides the mission conferences.

The conference claimant, or funds to aid "the worn out preachers" and "the widows and children of deceased preachers," commends itself to every conscientious and liberal Methodist, for or sustenance. The Methodist ministry is itinerant in appointments. No one is left in one charge long at a time, but is subject to be changed from place to place. We can endorse the saying that "a rolling stone does not gather much moss," and neither does a Methodist preacher gather much of this world's goods.

Another important consideration is that most of our preachers never receive any more than a "comfortable support" in their charge, and when they become worn out and ineffective in the conference, having consumed all their meager support as they traveled, the result is they retire, empty handed.

The great heart of the Church was touched with sympathy for these, and those of the widows and children of deceased preachers, with no one to look to for aid, and wisely established the conference claimant fund. No preacher who has faithfully spent his best days, given his best time and worn out in the ministry, should be superannuated when old and not assisted by the Church. The widows and children of deceased preachers should and must not be overlooked, and left to be cared for by friends or to the mercies of the world, but need all the support the Church can render through the conference claimant fund. You can help them by giving to this society. It is essential to the rising generation and for the building up of the church to establish where there are none—Sunday-schools, "for the promotion of Christian character, through the devout and diligent study of the word of God." The rising generation is the future hope of the Church. The Sunday-school is a great means of reaching and bringing the young into the Church. A good Sunday-school is essential to every individual church of our beloved Methodism. A good school is indicative of a growing and prosperous church. Many churches have the material for a school, and are lacking of means and requisites to carry it on; hence our Church seeing this need, and wishing to encourage good Sunday-schools, and place the best literature at their disposal, organized in 1827 the Sunday-school Union, which was reorganized in 1849, and has for its object, "the advancement of the interests, and the promotion of the cause of Sunday-schools in the Methodist Episcopal Church." I remember six schools in charges where I have pastored, that had no libraries, and were unable to purchase any, they were relieved of this lack by this benevolent enterprise, in the donation of a handsome library, each. These no doubt have benefited them greatly. In many cases money is donated to schools from this fund. Its claims are worthy. In most every place there are some persons unable to purchase suitable reading matter as they would like, and in other cases, people read a great deal but not the best and most useful class of reading. Previous, and during revival seasons, if good reading is distributed among the saved and unsaved, much good is often done in awakening and keeping up a religious interest in the community.

To meet this necessity we have "the Tract Society" whose purpose is "the publication and distribution of cheap religious literature in the form of tracts." Tracts are really short practical sermons. One of these little messengers of truth has saved many a soul from endless ruin. Every church that takes up "a collection for the Sunday-school Union, and the Tract Society, contributing an equal amount to each, and forwarding the same to the treasurer, at New York, is "entitled upon the order of the pastor to one-third of the whole amount of the two collections in tract publications for gratuitous distribution, provided that this order be sent within six months after the collection is taken." Every church and pastor should avail themselves of this liberal offer.

In order to successfully spread divine truth, gather and systematically train the Church for the Kingdom of Glory, three agencies are necessary, the preacher, the word, and the house of worship. In this great work the Lord has revealed his will to mankind, called his ministers to preach his Gospel and leaves the building of the houses of worship for us to do. In many places congregations are too feeble to build themselves houses of worship, while other congregations are both able to build an edifice for themselves and help others to erect a church. Contributions for this purpose are deposited in what we call the Church Extension Society, whose name is suggestive of its purpose. This society both donates and loans money to necessitous cases. Another important part of its work is to relieve embarrassed congregations in redeeming from debt houses already erected. Many congregations of ours build and fail to meet their obligations and the church is liable to be sold. They have the advantage of applying to this Society for assistance and they can save their church. Really we have no church that needs to be lost by debt. About two churches are erected each day by the Church Extension Society. A collection is taken up annually in each church for its support.

At the close of the war in 1865 a broad field of usefulness presented itself to our Church in the South in the form of four and one-half millions of freedmen, ignorant, abused and without schools. Yet, the ballot was thrust in their hands unable in many cases to read. Our Church in part has taken the responsibility to elevate, educate and Christianize the much abused colored man. Under many embarrassments the Freedman's Aid Society was born in 1866, whose chief object is the education of the colored people of the South. To accomplish this end it has established 24 institutions of learning, centrally located in various parts of the South. Thousands of our youth have been trained for usefulness in the many vocations of life, and are now actively engaged in elevating our race all over the land. This Society has exerted itself especially in behalf of the colored people up till recent date it assumed the responsibility to carry on the Southern work of our Church, not only among our race, but the whites also. Its influence among both races will be felt in futurity throughout this broad domain.

Our Church is an heir of providence and began in a college. Her founder was highly learned, and lived a century ahead of his generation. Our Church has always fostered schools. An educated ministry, and an intelligent membership are paramount in the Methodist Episcopal Church, in order to accomplish the great mission for which she was sent into the world.

He that does not believe in education is behind the times and has no place in this age of the world. A religious education is essential to all our constituents. There are in many cases young men called to the ministry that have zeal, but not knowledge for the work. Consequently a college training is very helpful in their ministry, because they can be of more use to the church, humanity, and for their Maker. In 1866 a Board of Education was erected, whose duty it was made to receive the funds raised for education, with all other money that might be raised for the same purpose, and to expend the interest of the same from year to year, in aiding young men in preparing for the ministry. In addition to what is raised in the public congregations, for this cause, collections are taken up in the Sunday-school on the second Sunday in June, in each year. The day thus set apart is called Children's Day.

1,006 students have been aided in 82 different institutions. In accomplishing this $87,411 has been loaned. This enterprise commends itself to all lovers of education for their hearty approval. The consecrated talent must be trained in our religious institutions, and these institutions must be sustained.

The Bishops, speaking for the General Conference, have said that during this Centennial year, "the chief object of Centennial offerings should be the cause of education." From what has been said, this brief article on so important enterprises it will be seen that each of these causes has its special mission in the Church to perform. Their objects are all excellent, and apparent, and furnish fields for great Christian activity. They have all been in use long enough to prove the good that they are doing, but are only fairly begun and there is still more to follow. The life of these causes depend on the liberality of the people. The machinery is all set, and the workmen are at their respective posts ready to push forward the great interests of these enterprise. Money is necessary to grease the wheels of the machinery, to make them run well, and continue their unabated activity. The more the respective treasuries are replenished the larger the activities can spread, and the greater the results. "He that soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully." Sow bountifully.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

New Orleans University.

The New Orleans University, which was formerly located at the corner of Camp and Race streets, at the head of the beautiful Coliseum Square, but on grounds far too small for college purposes, gives place to the more spacious grounds, and more commodious and better arranged building situated on one of the most beautiful avenues in the city. There is some fear of being again cramped. To put the new university building on the same grounds on which stands the unoccupied building will but cramp, pile up and huddle things together as before. This condition of things forced the trustees to flee here so that the teachers and students might be able to turn around with freedom. Cannot the ministers of New Orleans organize to purchase the vacant lot between Leontine and Valmont streets? This would greatly add to the facility of the educational efforts of Methodism organized in this city. There is a deal of education in the location and grounds on which a university stands. Let the ministers organize for the purchase of these lots, or square of ground. A knowledge of our effort will bring extraneous aid. Such an effort will command attention, and it will receive the consideration of friends North and South. The Louisiana Conference has an annual membership of 10,000, can each member give 50 cents. With some help this square of ground can be paid for without straining any one.

GEO. W. WILLS.

Editorial Perambulations in Texas.

Conference over we are off for a run of one hundred miles to Galveston, otherwise called the Island City. It is entirely surrounded by water. Approaching, you pass over two miles tiling, through Galveston Bay. It is a dangerous trip but you soon get used to it. The displacement of a single bolt in the rails, a forgetful watchman at the draw gate over the ship road might precipitate you into twelve or more feet of water. But the misplaced bolt or the forgetful watchman are not there. So you are as safe as one of the most carefully officered and managed roads in the South can make you. There are competing lines running through this Bay. That by which we traveled was the Colorado and Santa Fee line, the other was the International which penetrates Mexico. Returning we used the latter and were kindly treated on both.

GALVESTON

Has about 43,000 inhabitants, is well built, has some very fine business blocks, and a number of elegant ornamental dwellings, mostly of wood, because stone, brick or iron, would be both too hot, and damp for the climate. When an East wind blows in from the Gulf upon which it has an immediate and extensive frontage, then it is liable to an overflowing tide from 4 to [illegible] of water, and water usually stands about in ponds over the low part of the city. On this account that buildings are generally set upon high posts. There is a good [illegible] of colored people here, and they generally live in their own [illegible] but they lease the land upon which they build.

BUSINESS.

This is a great commercial centre. Ships come here from all parts of the world, a great deal of cotton, lumber and cattle are handled here. There are also a number of railroads entering the city, business is generally lively, and the colored people have a good share. They are prefered as sailors, and work hands here as [illegible] all over the South, both [illegible] on farms, and by reason [illegible] handle a good deal of money. There are numbers of [illegible] among them, and they get a fair price for their labor.

POLITICS.

[illegible] been neglected here by [illegible] citizen and a [illegible] are in good posi[illegible] several carpetbaggers formed the nucleus of Mr. Bowen, a [illegible] of St. Paul's Methodist [illegible] What is not [illegible] thing the most of [illegible] here are sober, [illegible] Christian young men, [illegible] of their prosperity [illegible] swung out or away [illegible] moral teaching of [illegible]

PROFESSIONAL.

[illegible] of Meharry Medical [illegible] Clarks University [illegible] here sick and in [illegible] money or acquaintance. He hung out his sign, was [illegible] kindly, but professionally [illegible] by the resident physicians, [illegible] him, that they would [illegible] out of practice if they [illegible] a ground hog [illegible] persisted, and [illegible] was the [illegible] has [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The M. E. Church.

Swedish Work in Texas.

Rev. P. A. Jublin, pastor of the Swedish M. E. Church, Austin, Texas, writes of unusual progress. Eighteen months ago there were but two churches, one parsonage and one preacher in the State, there are now five churches, five parsonages and four ministers, and the request comes for three more men. There is much encouragement in starting among this substantial class of emigrants to our country, and a strong church can be built especially in the West, of this material.

The Foochow conference opens in that city Nov. 20th. The college has been opened but few scholars are in attendance, the boys from the country being afraid to come on account of the excited state of the people. The attempt to block up the port of Shanghai, by the Chinese, caused great consternation among the merchants as the French have declared their intention to respect the neutrality of the port, if the Chinese would do the same. The French have carefully avoided interfering with the course of trade.

Our Conferences in Foreign Lands.

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has now organized ten annual conferences, which have developed from Foreign Missions, viz., Foochow, China, North India, South India, Germany and Switzerland, Norway, Sweden, Italy and Mexico. During the last General Conference acts were passed enabling Denmark to become a conference, and giving South India, Germany and Switzerland permission to divide, if it were thought wise, during the coming four years. Bishop Foss reports the brethren of Denmark unanimous in their desire to organize a mission at present. Germany and Switzerland did not divide this year and it remains to be seen what action will be taken at the coming session of the South India conference at which Bishop Foss expects to preside in December. There is much food for [illegible] the fact that the same [illegible] exists between the [illegible] Church and those far off [illegible] as binds our [illegible] together; the [illegible] pervaded by a [illegible] spirit [illegible] of sixteen [illegible] are working [illegible] stations, and [illegible] under superintendency [illegible] too add to [illegible] Korea, provision [illegible] freely been made for the [illegible] of a mission in that country.

[illegible], China, September [illegible], Dr. F. O. Hart, writes, [illegible] mixed, reports th[illegible] snow flakes. Warships [illegible] were all prepared for [illegible] and launchers [illegible] and small boats [illegible] families, to places [illegible] We hope the river [illegible] centre of action [illegible] it will. The [illegible] more exactly with [illegible] and [illegible] are [illegible] and [illegible] of [illegible]

The Executive Committee of the Centennial Conference has made arrangements for a Centennial Celebration of the Sunday-schools of the city of Baltimore, Sunday, December 14th, 1884, at 3 p. m.—the Sunday included in the time set apart for the December Conference. Twenty one churches will be opened for service. These twenty-one churches will be so many centers in which all the Sunday-schools of the respective districts will unite. The day on which the twenty-five thousand Sunday-school children of Baltimore Methodist are invited to meet for prayer and praise, promises to be one of peculiar impressiveness.

Further:—The Committee recommends that all Sunday-schools in the United States and Canada conduct a similar service at such hour, on the same day, as may be most convenient—that where practical, several schools unite in the service: that where this cannot be done, such meeting be held for the several schools.

If the recommendation of the Committee shall be observed, prayer and praise will ascend on that day from more than three millions identified with the Sunday-school work of American Methodism.

The Committee recommends the following order of services:

1. Doxology:—"Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

2. Prayer.

3. Singing:—"All hail! the power of Jesus Name."

4. Address. Topic—"The hand of God as seen in the Sunday-school work of the past Century."

5. Singing:—"All glory and praise to Jesus be given." (Gospel Hymns III).

6. Address. Topic.—"The promise of the Sunday school work for the incoming Century if God's people are faithful."

7. Prayer for the spirit of consecration to this work.

8. Singing:—"Walk in the Light." (Gem of Gems).

9. Benediction.

E. G. ANDREWS, Ch'n.
H. K. CARROLL, Sec'y
T. J. MAGRUDER.
SAM'L. ROGERS,
J. F. GOUCHER,
Committee.

Interesting Anniversary.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of our Church recently met in Cleveland. The officers of the Society are as follows: President, Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes; chairman of the executive sessions, Mrs. Jno. Davis, of Cincinnati; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. R. S. Rust, of Cincinnati; Recording Secretaries, Mrs. F. S. Hoyt, of Cleveland; Mrs. W. A. Ingham, of Cleveland; and Mrs. F. A. Aikin, of Cincinnati; Treasurer, Mrs. A. R. Clark, of Cincinnati.

The President delivered the following opening address:

"The women of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Cincinnati in 1880, formed a National Missionary Society whose work is to be done among the needy populations of the country. The last General Conference of our church after ample consideration gave it official recognition and adopted it as one of the trusted instrumentalities of the church under the name of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In this, the first meeting of the [illegible] this very important [illegible] action, we may well pause to express our gratitude to God that the good and wise men [illegible] legislate for the Methodist Church have with entire [illegible] and with the greatest [illegible] and adopted [illegible] we may now, during [illegible] responsible [illegible] to the [illegible] mid of this central continent which looks out from widely extended coasts and almost countless harbors upon the two oceans on which is carried the larger part of the commerce of the globe. By the agencies of our advancing civilization in the near future this people will surely wield a commanding influence in the affairs, in the education, and in the religion of all mankind. The inspiring and attractive field which invites our efforts is the home. First in importance and first in number are the homes of the uninformed, destitute and unfortunate of our own race—those of our own kith and kin. To these we must add the just claims of the lately emancipated people and their posterity, of the Indians, of the Mormons, of the Spanish-Americans, and of the Chinese within our borders, all of whom, it has been well said, have claims upon us for Christian civilization not to be surpassed by those of the heathen of foreign lands. We believe that the character of the people depends mostly on its homes. Our special aim, therefore, is to improve home environments, home education, home industries and home influences. We would cherish no unfriendly feeling of rivalry toward any other organization of this or any other Christian Church. We wish to strive for the attainment of these worthy ends by means upon which we can, with an assured hope, conscientiously invoke the divine blessing."

Mrs. Rev. J. B. Cary, of Cleveland, welcomed, in touching and appropriate words, the ladies of the convention.

A large number of delegates, representing the several conferences, were present, and the plans of work and the interests of the Society relating to its widespread field of operations were discussed by able speakers.

The report of the corresponding secretary, included a careful resume of the work of the year, and a statement of the obligations and responsibilities of the Society in view of its opportunities of usefulness. The treasurer presented the financial report. As the claims of the different fields came in view the audience manifested its interest by generous contributions of money to aid the work. In this way several thousands of dollars were pledged to the Society during the three days of the convention.

The work and plans of the Society have an important bearing upon the interests of the Louisiana Conference. It is the object of the Society to secure a conference organization in each conference as soon as practicable. When that is effected it is provided that the conference may have two delegates in the annual meeting of the General Society, one the corresponding Secretary, and one to be elected by the conference society at its annual meeting. Mrs. Marcus Dale, of New Orleans, who was present at Cleveland, there being no regular delegate, was welcomed as a visitor, given a seat in the part of the house assigned to the members of the convention and introduced, with the privilege of speaking five minutes. We desire here to assure our sisters of the Louisiana and other Southern Conferences of our cordial sympathy with them. Mrs. Hester Williams and others have sent reports of work done which are very encouraging.

The ladies of the Society feel a deep interest in the success of its work in New Orleans, and plans are under consideration for enlarging and developing it to bless the whole conference. The ladies of the Board have always recognized its devoted missionary, Miss Josephine Council, as a lady exceptionally qualified for the post. Her consecration and zeal in the Master's cause, her faithfulness, energy and perseverance in her work, and her Christian humility and integrity of character have won for her the full confidence of the Board. We take pleasure in giving this assurance to the [illegible] Miss Council will attend [illegible] Executive Board at Cincinnati, until a corresponding secretary for the Conference is appointed.

If space allowed we would gladly speak of other associated laborers in this field, but we must close our letter, we fear, already too long.

MRS. R. S. RUST,
Cor. Sec'y W. H. M. S.

A good key is necessary to enter into Paradise.

It is the old, old story; love at first sight. A walk in the beautiful moonlight night; both catch a dreadful cold and give up all hope, but finally find relief in a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, get married, and are at last happy.

The colored people of Hancock, Ga., own 5,664 acres of land, valued at $25,793, and $5,118 worth of household and kitchen furniture, $44,728 worth of horses and mules, $3,207 worth of plantation tools. The aggregate value of the whole property given in for taxes by the colored people is $86,245.

Alice E. Curtis, of Brunswick, Maine, writes, she has suffered very much with kidney disease. Using several bottles of HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY Miss C. pronounces it a real blessing to woman for all kidney diseases.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,
—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00

WILEY UNIVERSITY.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

Academic Year opened Sept. 22

No School Does More for its Pupils.

College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.

Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.

Competent and Experienced Faculty.

Expenses Very Low.

For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't,
o-19 Marshall, Texas.

THE GREAT WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL AND CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION
New Orleans.
Opening December 1, 1884; Closing May 31, 1885.
—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE—
United States Government.
$1,300,000,
Appropriated by the General Government.
$500,000,
Contributed by the Citizens of New Orleans.
$200,000,
Appropriated by Mexico.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the State of Louisiana.
$100,000,
Appropriated by the City of New Orleans.
From $5,000 to $25,000,
Appropriated by Responsible Persons, Cities and Business Companies.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
QUALITY PURITY STRENGTH
Trade Mark. On Every Bottle.
PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.
THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
Compendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture—chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	80
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 60
Rhetoric.—Hill. Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
Christian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LI)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 60
Lessons in Logic.—Jevons. Net	10
To be read:
Checks to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	85
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III.	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Hidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV. Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Pentateuch
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	3 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	80
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	1 00
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer	1 60
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast.	1 25
Era of the Protestant Reformation.—Seabury	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	1
Elements of Criticism.—Fisher	2
Review of the course for the three preceding years.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II.—Fletcher	5 00
[illegible]	[illegible]

PHILLIPS & HUNT,

Send with 10 cts. a pen for mailing

[illegible] New

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE,

The Great Pictorial Magazine,
$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Express for Babies.
Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

[illegible] Only $1.00 a Year.

[illegible] with [illegible] beginning [illegible] with [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, DEC. 11, 1884.

Announcement for 1885

Reduction in Price to ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CTS. When Paid in Advance, or Within Three Months.

From this time subscriptions for The Southwestern Christian Advocate will be received for the year 1885 at $1.50 a year, payable in advance or within three months. No other paper published under authority of the General Conference is furnished at this figure. It is the cheapest paper in the whole list. New subscribers for the next year will receive their papers up to January 1st free.

Let us have 2000 new subscribers within the next sixty days.

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

"A Double Minded Man is Unstable in all His Ways."

"I have a great mind to go and join the African Methodist Church." This is what we heard a preacher say a little time since, after receiving an appointment which he didn't like, and which he supposed to have been brought about by influences inimical to his interest. Well, if he followed his mind and did as his inclination dictated, what then? Would that in any way prove the truth of his suspicion that some one was using an influence adverse to him, or would he in this way prove his merit to a better appointment? We recall quite a number of brethren who, in a fit of foolish exuberance of passion, have pushed inconsiderately from one church to another until they were [illegible] unwelcome, and regarded with suspicion in all. If you have ability prove it; if you meet opposition where you ought to find assistance, resist it, stand up to it, and overcome it. Selfish men may wield power and exert an evil influence for a season, but it can not be permanent. Anybody can float with the current, but it takes a man to breast it. The Methodist failure in the Methodist Episcopal Church is a failure [illegible], and those who have left us have proven by their success elsewhere that in them, and not in the Church, were [illegible] the causes.

Broaken Citizens of Dodd.

It frequently happens that [illegible] and done in the political canvass, that deeds are repented of by the doers afterwards. Of such a character was a document sent from Dodd, Texas, to the Studebaker Bros., at South Bend, Ind. We deem it appropriate to publish this because Hon. [illegible], of the firm named, is a member of the Methodist Church, South, and a delegate to the General Conference which convened in Nashville, Tenn., May 1, 1882. The document reads as follows:

DODD, TEXAS, Oct. 25, 1884.

MESSRS. STUDEBAKER BROS.,

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned citizens of Dodd, Texas, have been informed that you have employed and discharged all the help of the firm who voted the Democratic ticket. We have also been informed that you have threatened to discharge all who do not vote the Republican ticket. We are Democrats, and have been employed by you for a number of years, and have always been allowed to vote as we pleased. We have been informed that you have threatened to discharge us if we [illegible] 58; two meetings for Bible study, average attendance, 16; four meetings held at Parish Prison, average attendance, 147; five meetings held at Boys House of Refuge, average attendance, 85; five meeting at Alms House, average attendance, 15; four meetings held at Police Jail, average attendance, 14; five meetings held at Charity Hospital, average attendance, 36; visits made by R. Parker to Hospital, 50; writing material supplied free to 170; one monthly sociable, number present, 250; employment found for 2; lists of boarding houses supplied to 26; supplied with clothing, 4; newspapers, tracts and magazines distributed, 2,856.

JAS. SHERRARD, Gen. Sec.

Schools and Colleges.

New Orleans University.

BY A. F. HOYT.

The fall term closes on Tuesday, Dec. 23, 1884. The winter term begins on Monday, January 5, 1885 Students should be present on the first day of the new term. Those wishing rooms and board in the University buildings must apply at once, as our rooms are few, and we can not hold rooms a day. Those wishing rooms and board in private families can secure good accommodations for about $10 per month by addressing me at 1428 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, La. The prospect is that we shall be full and overflowing, but we will do the best we can for all that come.

In a private note from Dr. Braden we learn that Central Tennessee College is having unexampled prosperity this season. The school is so full that there is only room for others in the boarding hall as students leave. Plenty of room in the school rooms, and students can find board in the city. We need our new building very much. The singers are received with favor, and are receiving high compliments from the press.

Bishop Wiley.

[Condensed from the Western Christian Advocate].

Bishop Isaac William Wiley, D. D., LL. D., died in Foochow, China, on Saturday, Nov. 22d, and we must again take up our lamentation and say, "How are the mighty fallen." Once more "the silver cord is loosed and the golden bowl is broken." The grass is hardly grown on our great Simpson's grave before we are called to mourn for another of the distinguished men who have stood at the head of our itinerancy, and marshaled with consummate skill the conquering hosts of put Zion.

Isaac W. Wiley was born March [illegible], in Lowistown, Penn., a little village lying on the blue Juniata. His parents belonged to the Episcopal Church, but [illegible] of vital religion, observed its forms. He was first brought to [illegible] the preaching of the Methodists, and with them she cast [illegible] and trained her children in the Methodist faith and [illegible] about a year before his conversion, in a protracted meeting held at the Methodist church. He experienced a change of heart, and he, too, became a member of the Methodist church. This was the triumph of faith of his sixth year. In his sixth [illegible] he attended the Sabbath-school, was converted, and full of the [illegible] and willing to be used of God in any way. He was [illegible]

THE CENTENNIAL.

REV. J. C. HOUSTON.

One hundred long years ago,
Christians hearts of glorious love,
Methodism struck the American shore
To do work for God above.

How her arms reach from ocean to ocean,
Counting Christian millions between,
America, too, is now her portion,
In this the finger of God is invisibly seen.

The next centennial will tell,
In figures plain as day,
Twice as many delivered from hell,
As this now passing away.

Yes, in nineteen hundred and eighty-four,
The Holy Spirit filling her heart,
Her feet will be on every shore,
Bidding sinners from evil depart.

Driving paganism from her borders,
With sword in hand for the right,
Acting under God's own orders,
She'll give the world Gospel light.

She gave a hundred thousand mighty men
To take slavery from the South;
She made the high and strong bend,
And conquored in every house.

The colored race will fall at her feet,
For her noble liberty to all,
And give reverence without deceit—
To refuse is a whole sea of gall.

Look over this broad Southern land,
At the many institutions of learning,
For in nearly every State they stand
To keep our hearts with education burning.

Here is our sympathetic Dr. Rust,
The Secretary of the Freedman's Aid Society,
In him we've greatly had our trust,
For intellectual knowledge and sobriety.

Think of our great and good Bishop Haver,
For freedom's cause he strongly stood;
It was his heart's continued craving
To make the vast world a brotherhood.

What will we do to show our affection
For efforts received in this benighted land?
We'll raise a hundred thousand dollar collection,
And for the Old Mother take our stand.

Vicksburg, Miss., Nov. 14, 1884.

Domestic Hygiene.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Rules to be Observed in Case of Poisoning.

BY DR. GEORGE L. CURTIS.

There is constant danger from some form of poisoning. Even good care will not always prevent it. Poisons are of two kinds—mineral and vegetable poisons. Usually the carelessness of people is the cause of the many sad cases of poisoning; however these are cases of intentional poisoning.

In all cases of poisoning of minerals or vegetables there are a few simple rules to be observed as soon as the fact of poisoning is suspected. These rules when observed may not invariably prevent disastrous consequences, but generally they will. They are simple, and the materials used to avoid disaster are readily obtained.

1. If corrosive sublimate has been swallowed, administer several whites of eggs as soon as possible.

2. If strychnine has been taken, give mustard and produce vomiting. There must be no delay in getting the poison from the stomach. This can be done before all danger is past. An excellent remedy to produce vomiting is a teaspoonful each of mustard and salt in a cup of warm water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

3. If opium has been taken, give mustard and produce copious vomiting. In all these cases send for a physician without delay, but do that in the meantime, since the stomach must reject all of its poisonous contents before the antidote can act.

4. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach. This can be done before all danger is past. An excellent remedy to produce vomiting is a teaspoonful each of mustard and salt in a cup of warm water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

5. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

6. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

7. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

8. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

9. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

10. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

11. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

12. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

13. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

14. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

15. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

16. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

17. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

18. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

19. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

20. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

21. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

22. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

23. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

24. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

25. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

26. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

27. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

28. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

29. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

30. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

31. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

32. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

33. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

34. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

35. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

36. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

37. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

38. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

39. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

40. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

41. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

42. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

43. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

44. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

45. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

46. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

47. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

48. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

49. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

50. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

51. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

52. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

53. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

54. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

55. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

56. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

57. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

58. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

59. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

60. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

61. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

62. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

63. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

64. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

65. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

66. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

67. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

68. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

69. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

70. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

71. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

72. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

73. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

74. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

75. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

76. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

77. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

78. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

79. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

80. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

81. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

82. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

83. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

84. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

85. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

86. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

87. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

88. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

89. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

90. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

91. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

92. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

93. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

94. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

95. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

96. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

97. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

98. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

99. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

100. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

101. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

102. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

103. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

104. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

105. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

106. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

107. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

108. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

109. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

110. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

111. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

112. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

113. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

114. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

115. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been removed from the stomach.

116. If carbolic acid, oxalic acid, or the mineral acids have been taken, the best antidote is magnesia, which is found in every household. Give a tablespoonful every few minutes in a little water. Soon after vomiting has followed a condition of stupor will supervene. Copious drafts of strong coffee should be taken so as to keep the patient awake until the poison has been

General News Items.

Hard drinking and hard swearing is said to be on the decline in England.

A census of Texas shows the present population to be 2,215,700, an increase of 624,000 in four years.

Hon. E. J. Gay presented the Iberville School Board with a lot for a school house in Rosedale, La.

Mr. George H. Clegget, a colored candidate for constable of Des Moines, Iowa, was elected by a flattering majority.

France has determined to prosecute the war with China with vigor, and troops and munitions of war are being hurried forward.

In his report, the chaplain of Madalen asylum of New York, says that of eighty-nine fallen women in the asylum at one time all but two had fallen from drink.

At Cleveland, Iowa, Mr. H. Bailey, candidate for justice of the peace, and Mr. James Shepperson for office of constable, were elected by a large majority. Both are leading colored men of that place.

A Mormon colony is forming in Baker county, Oregon, fifty families having gone direct to Salt Lake and settled there during the past few weeks. There is great indignation among the settlers of that region.

Rev. J. M. Townsend, the colored candidate of Wayne county, Indiana, was elected by a good majority. Mr. Townsend is a young man [illegible] thinker and [illegible] He will be [illegible] representative in the legislature.

The Utah commission reports that [illegible] has been a reveal, and the Federal government should take civil power in its own hands and enlarge the jurisdictions of the courts.

A newspaper is about to be established in Alaska. We don't know what long-felt want it can fill in that country unless the walrus has the same unquestioning and [illegible] news that is possessed by the goat of the temperance press.—Boston Times.

Mr. A. Miles formerly of Kansas City, is reported to be the wealthiest colored man in Minnesota, worth [illegible]. He has [illegible] of the finest [illegible] in 25x115 [illegible] stories, brown stone [illegible] at a cost of $30,000. Well [illegible] Mr. Miles! Would that [illegible] followed his example.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to find my father, mother and brother. I left them in York District, S. C. My father's name was Wilson Gordon, my mother Ann Gordon, and my brother Wilson Gordon, jr. I heard that they were in Mississippi. My name is Sallie Reeves. I was brought here by Isaac Tipping. My sister Charlotte is here with me. Any information will be gladly received. Address me in care of Rev. Henry Johns, Clarksville, Texas.

MR. EDITOR—I desire to make inquiry about my father's relatives. Mother was named Sarah and belonged to Joe Brown, and he sold her, but I don't know to whom, in Newburn, Alabama. My father's name was Augustus, belonged to Joe Brown, the same man my grand mother first belonged to. Her other sons were Nelson and Andrew, her daughters were Georgianna, Susan and others whose names I do not know. Father's mother was brought from Virginia when he was a baby in her arms. The last I heard from them was in 1869, and they were then living in Greene county, Ala., and we were living in Mobile, Ala. We left there in 1870 and came to Oktibbeha county, Miss.—father, mother, sister and myself. Father died Aug. 7, 1873, aged 44 years. At that time I was ten years old and my sister four. Any information concerning their whereabouts would be most thankfully received. My mother, sister and myself live together, about two miles north of the old turnpike. Address me at Oktoc, Miss.

ARTHUR S. GLOVER.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire about my old mother. I have not heard from her in 36 years; her name was Harriet Winn; her mother's name was Lucy Winn. The last I knew of her I belonged to Minor Winn, and she was sold, I do not know to whom. Any information will be thankfully received. Address me at Galveston, Texas. FRANCIS EVELINA WINN.

MR. EDITOR—I desire to inquire through the SOUTHWESTERN for my kin people. In the days when human beings were bought and sold in this chivalrous South my body belonged to Col. T. G. Johnson, of Memphis, Tenn. He kept a hotel and a number of race horses. My body was sold in New Orleans to a Mr. Absalom Gill, in 1843. I then went by the name of Pink Johnson. My present name is Mary Brown. I had three sisters, Sallie, Elizabeth and Louisa. Our mother died when we were so young that I cannot give her name. In August, 1878, I received a letter from my sister Sallie; she was then living in Memphis, Tenn. She was married and was the mother of six living children. Her husband's name was Bayby. At that time she said our sisters Elizabeth and Louisa were living in Water Valley, Miss. If any person who shall read this can give me any information as to my sisters or their children I shall esteem it a great favor. Address me in care of the pastor of the Clinton Street M. E. Church, Carrollton, Louisiana. MARY BROWN.

MR. EDITOR—I desire to find the whereabouts of the following named persons—father, mother, 6 brothers and 2 sisters. My father's name [illegible] Alexander, mother's [illegible] I left them in Smith [illegible] miles from Carth[illegible] J. Jimerson, and Dr. Ray, a trader, [illegible] to this country [illegible] were John, the oldest, [illegible] in Nashville, [illegible] went off with Caleb [illegible] Bill Crain. [illegible] Smith Family [illegible] Alston.

From the Bloody Ground.

TOLLESBORO, KY.

DR. S. B. HARTMAN & CO., Columbus, Ohio.—I keep the largest stock of medicines of any store in Lewis county with the exception of a drug store at Vanceburg, our county seat, and am selling a great deal of your PERUNA and MANALIN. It is giving the best satisfaction of any medicine that I ever handled. In one case the constable for the precinct, has been very sick and low spirited for a long time. For several years he has tried all the doctors here, and we have some good ones, and they did him no good. After much persuasion I sold him two bottles of PERUNA and MANALIN. He took half of the medicine. I could see a great change in him, and now he is as sound a man apparently as there is in this vicinity, and he says he is entirely well. He is a number one man and is highly respected. He is satisfied that your medicine saved his life, after all the doctors and all medicines had failed. Being unacquainted with you, I refer you to John Shillito & Co., Altor, Pinckard & Co., and other business houses of Cincinnati.

R. L. GILLESPIE, P. M.

Messrs. Adamson & Shipley, of Waynesburg, Pa., write: "Please send us some "Ills of Life" immediately. We are having a big run on your medicine, PERUNA. Instead of dying out, like most medicines, in course of time, it seems to be growing in favor. We sell lots of it. Please send the books soon."

Messrs. Wirthorn & Urban, of Allegheny City, Pa., write: "Having a large sale for your PERUNA and MANALIN, we have also many calls for your book, "Ills of Life." Please send us a supply of them, German and English, and oblige."

S. Wolf & Son, Wilmot, O., write: "Gentlemen: We handle your goods, and they give good satisfaction."

A. G. Sellards, Greenup, Ky., says: "Gentlemen: I am handling your medicines, and having a good trade on them."

J. C. Saunders, Martinsburg, W Va., writes: "Gentlemen: Your PERUNA sells fast and gives good satisfaction here. We sell more PERUNA than any other preparation we handle."

W. Bauer, St. Mary's, Pa., writes: "My son is still improving in health. Your PERUNA is just the thing for him."

H. L. Day & Co., New Vienna, Ohio, write: "S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, Ohio.—Gentlemen: Your PERUNA sells as well as any medicine with us. Quite a number have told us that PERUNA is the best thing they ever used."

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate—Office 82 Natchez Street.

ST. MATTHEW M. E. CHURCH—On Varset street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Sunday-school at 1:30. R. C. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer meetings Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 23 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev. Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sundays 6 a. m.; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a. m., 3 and 7:30 p. m. General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve 7:30; Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school, 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m., Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Pine, two blocks above the last station. Rev. M. O. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday. Sunday-school, 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m., and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University. A. F. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President, 1428 St. Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. T. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

J. E. OGILVIE—Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music. Also tunes and repairs pianos and organs at reasonable rates. Residence, 39 South Johnson Street.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators.

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1. 25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents to supplemented by a carefully prepared index. Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt,
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

[illegible]
may22-1y

The New York Times

FOR 1885.

An Honest and Fearless Republican Newspaper.

THE ABLEST, THE CHEAPEST, THE BEST.

Accurate in its News, Steadfast for the Right, Unsparing in the Exposure of Wrong.

THE NEW YORK TIMES gives its readers the news of the whole world every morning. It strives to cover every field and leave no hap or mishap unrecorded; so that whether it be the news of New York City the reader seeks or the news of San Francisco or Constantinople, he will find it accorded its due space and proportion in his morning's TIMES.

While it thus maintains its pre-eminence as a general newspaper, The TIMES collects with special care all important news concerning railroads, insurance companies, banks and banking, the army and navy, educational progress, and the drift of social, religious and scientific thought and discussion. Book readers and book publishers will find in its columns early announcements of new publications and able and impartial reviews of all books worthy of the reviewer's time and labor.

The cable dispatches of the London correspondent of The TIMES keep its readers fully informed of what is going on in the political and social world of Europe.

In treating the public questions of the day editorially The TIMES gives honest opinions in plain language. It is a Republican newspaper, but it freely exercises the right of independent criticism, and when its party chooses unwise courses or makes unfit nominations it opposes them with earnestness and sincerity.

The Weekly and Semi-weekly editions of The TIMES contain all the current news condensed from the dispatches and reports of the daily edition, besides miscellaneous literary selections and a page of agricultural matter especially prepared for these editions.

To Mail Subscribers, Postpaid:

Daily, exclusive of Sunday, per year	$6 00
Daily, including Sunday, per year	7 50
Sunday only, per year	1 50
Daily, 6 months, with Sunday	3 00
Daily, 6 months without Sunday	3 00
Daily, 1 mo. with or without Sunday	75

The Semi-Weekly Times.

Single copies, one year	$2 50
Five copies, one year	12 00
Ten copies, and one free for club	20 00

The Weekly Times.

Single copies, one year	$1 00
Ten copies, and one free for club	10 00
Subscriptions for six months	60

TERMS CASH IN ADVANCE. These prices are invariable. WE HAVE NO TRAVELING AGENTS. Remit in drafts on New York, Postal Notes, or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. Sample copies sent free. Address

THE NEW YORK TIMES
NEW YORK CITY.

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches	175 lbs	325 lbs	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs	375 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	82 00
36 "	550 lbs	800 lbs	120 00
40 "	750 lbs	1050 lbs	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1800 lbs	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$13 00
20 inches	130 lbs	18 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.

On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar20-1y

MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov29-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry
Manufacture these celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Town Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE
TO

Harper's Magazine

AND

Harper's Young People.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

"THE GIANT OF THE MONTHLIES."

Subscription per Year, $4 00.

The SEVENTIETH VOLUME will begin with the Number for December, 1884.

The Volume of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE beginning in December will conclude its thirty-fifth year. The oldest periodical of its type, it is yet, in each new volume, a new Magazine, not simply because it presents fresh subjects and new pictures, but also and chiefly because it steadily advances in the method itself of magazine-making.

It is the best Magazine for the home. Touching home taste and culture at every point, and bringing to every hearth-stone argosies of wealth from all lands, and the richest treasures of imagination and art, it never intrudes an element of disturbance or controversy.

The leading writers and artists in America and England contribute to the pages of HARPER'S MAGAZINE. Its illustrated descriptive articles cover every portion of the world, and every subject of social interest in the departments of industry, science, art, literature, and polity. The illustrations alone in HARPER'S MAGAZINE during the past year cost over eighty thousand dollars. They are the wonder of our time. Its serial novels are the best published, and its short stories are unsurpassed. While, in many ways, it takes the very color and superficial impress of its time, there is no periodical in which to so great an extent the newer, larger, and deeper currents of the world's life are represented.

In circulation, in America and abroad, it leads all other periodicals of its class.

Entering upon a new year, the publishers of HARPER'S MAGAZINE repeat the promise they have made at the beginning of every year—a promise which will surely be performed—of continued improvement in the future.

PRESS NOTICES.

A model of what a family periodical should be.—Daily Evening Traveller, Boston.

Of all the magazines, this maintains the highest standard of uniform excellence.—Examiner, N. Y.

As remarkable for its pictorial beauty as for the attractiveness of its literary contents.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE ranks first in the world in circulation. Its history is a large part of the literary history of the nineteenth century in America.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Its illustrations are as superb as its articles are varied, racy, and instructive.—Christian at Work, N. Y.

Its typography, its engravings, its reading, its general make-up, leave few things to be desired. The publishers are determined not to permit any to surpass them.—Southern Churchman, Richmond.

Brimful of seasonable and delightful reading.—N. Y. Observer.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE keeps up its reputation as a periodical fully abreast of the times, not only in the matter of seasonable topics, but in the newest inventions in art letter-press.—Cleveland Leader.

The Volumes of HARPER'S MAGAZINE, for three years back, in cloth binding, will be sent by mail, postage prepaid, on receipt of $3 00 each; or, in half-calf binding, on receipt of $5 25 each.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE.

An Illustrated Weekly for Boys and Girls.

Subscription per Year, $2 00.

The SIXTH VOLUME commenced with the Number issued November 4, 1884.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE is about to be published in London. Its subscribers are found wherever the English language is spoken, and the extraordinary rapidity with which this wide circulation has been gained is due to the obvious fact that its publishers have spared neither pains nor expense to secure for it the very best literary and artistic work.

Its serial and short stories have all the dramatic interest that juvenile fiction can possess, are of superior literary quality, and wholly free from all that is pernicious or vulgarly sensational. Pastors and teachers have united in commending it warmly to parents and guardians, as an invaluable means of informing the minds and elevating the tastes of the young people under their care. The humorous stories, articles, and pictures are full of innocent fun, without a trace of coarseness.

The papers on natural history and other scientific subjects, travel, and the facts of life, are by writers whose names give the best possible assurance of accuracy and value. The historical stories, biographical tales, and anecdotes are most attractively presented.

Papers on athletic sports, games, and pastimes give full instructions with respect to those subjects, and fine pictures, representing the work of the foremost artists and engravers on wood, lavishly illustrate its pages.

In all mechanical respects HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE is as attractive as fine paper, legible type, and skilful printing can make it. There is nothing cheap about it but its price.

A specimen copy will be sent on receipt of five-cent stamp.

PRESS NOTICES.

In purity of tone, beauty of illustration, and in variety of attractive, entertaining, and instructive contents of the highest literary merit, it is unexcelled, and deserves a place in every home blessed with children, whose lives it will make better and brighter with its weekly visits.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

This charming little paper is a weekly feast of good things to the boys and girls in every family which it visits.—Brooklyn Union.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE is the best weekly for children in America.—Southwestern Christian Advocate.

One of the most popular children's periodicals in the country.—San Francisco Argonaut.

It overflows with stories, poems, anecdotes, instructive articles, pictures, and everything else in its line that can be thought of to make children happy, merry, and wise; and it will bear reading over again many times without losing its freshness, vivacity, or power to charm.—Providence Journal.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE continues to lead the weekly publications for youth throughout the country, and probably throughout the world.—The Living Church, Chicago.

BOUND VOLUMES.

Volumes II., III., IV., and V., with Index to each volume. Price $3 50 each. Volume I out of print.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE	Per Year	$4 00
HARPER'S WEEKLY	"	4 00
HARPER'S BAZAR	"	4 00
HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE	"	2 00
HARPER'S FRANKLIN SQUARE LIBRARY (52 Numbers)	"	10 00

Postage Free to all Subscribers in the United States and Canada.

When no time is specified, subscriptions will be begun with the current Number.

HARPER'S CATALOGUE, comprising the titles of between three and four thousand volumes, will be sent by mail on receipt of Ten Cents.

HARPER & BROTHERS, Franklin Square, New York.

ORCHESTRAL PIANO-ORGAN.

A NEW INSTRUMENT.

SWEET AND POWERFUL.

SIX OCTAVES. Size: Height 4 feet 5 inches; Length, 4 feet 5 inches; Depth, 2 feet 3 inches.

THE CASE is a beautiful design of an upright Piano, exactly like illustration, manufactured of solid Cherry, highly polished to resemble Rosewood. THE MUSIC is produced upon TWELVE Octaves of Reeds, (added by a double Right and Left Coupler), so constructed, tuned, and voiced as to imitate as nearly as possible a stringed instrument, operated by a full Six Octave compass of Keys. This instrument excels all others in elasticity of touch, and the most rapid Music can be played to perfection. It responds at once to the touch, combining on every action with quickness of articulation. The tone is smooth, full and rich, not harsh nor cat-piercing. It is the best accompaniment for VOCAL Music, being subordinate to the voice, instead of covering it up, and the tone is pure and sweet. The instrument can be played with perfect ease by Music, as the pedals (a new invention which application for patent has been made) are operated without exertion, in a perfectly natural position. Additional pedals adaptable for orchestra, are used with every instrument. Knowing this Piano-Organ will please the public, we are determined to introduce it at once and make the [illegible]

If you will remit $95.00 within one month from the date of this paper, by Draft, Post Office Money Order, or by Express prepaid, we will ship you this instrument, with adjustable stool and book, IMMEDIATELY ON RECEIPT OF ORDER. Test trial given and money returned if instrument is not just as represented and perfectly satisfactory. The regular price of this instrument, as constructed with other manufacturers, could not be less than $125. Visit the Factory and select or order by mail and mention this paper. STOOL, BOOK AND MUSIC, INCLUDED, ONLY

$95.00

We recommend this instrument because we know its merits, but we keep in stock and SHIP PROMPTLY on receipt of order, all our different styles of Organs for the Parlor, the Chapel, the Church or the Lodge-Room. Pianos for $230 and upwards. Send for Illustrated Catalogue. Visitors are always welcome to the Factories. Address or Call upon,

Daniel F. Beatty Organ & Piano Co., Washington, New Jersey, U. S. A.
W. P. HADDEN, Manager.

[illegible] $10 per [illegible] NOW THE FARMERS [illegible]

CHILDS' CATARRH [illegible]
feb7-1y

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

...ers in various. A marvel of purity, ...olesomeness. More economical ...kinds, and can not be sold in ...the multitude of low test, short ...or phosphate powders. Sold only ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. 106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER LESSON XI. Dec. 14. VANITY OF WORLDLY PLEASURE. Ecclesiastes ii, 1-13.

Almost every child, and many that are not children, think if they had money to buy beautiful and convenient things, if they could live in a large, fine house, and have as much pleasant tasted food as they could eat all the time, with servants to wait on them, that they could be perfectly happy. Those who have a great love for music suppose if they could hear Christine Nilsson and the largest and most perfect instruments, they would not wish any other pleasure. Some imagine that if they had large and well kept farms, with orchards and vineyards, pasture and well watered fields, they would be content. Still others believe if they had power, such as kings and presidents posses, they would be entirely satisfied. If older and wiser people tell the young that none of these things of themselves can give the pleasure they promise, many will not believe. It seems as if most men must learn this truth from their own disappointments. In this lesson we find what a man who had tried all the ways of seeking happiness has to say about it. No other one ever had such a chance to find out for himself what could and could not bring real joy to men as Solomon. He tells us that things are all vanity, unsatisfying, which is the primary meaning of the word, though often used now to denote pride or pride about things. But he finds one thing that is worth seeking, wisdom, as we have learned, is the fear of the Lord. The small child knows how much better it is to have them darkness, although he can not tell all the ways in which it excels or is superior to darkness. This man who had tried all things wanted, so that there might be left for those that should come, to enjoy that he had not enjoyed, gives his conclusion. Next week we will show our wisdom by his experience, and by his teachings.—Wesleyan Visitor.

Work—Bible Garments.

...white robes of office ...ment?

...ment was annually ...of affection?

...the reading of a ...history of the dawn-

...by the reading of a ...Journal of the Ar-

...furnished ...

...ay, buy yet a farm, for

Marriages.

By Rev. J. J. Garrett, at Forest, Miss., Mr. Edward Ford to Miss Cornelius Chapman. Sept. 26, Mr. Randall Hall to Miss Francis Brurell. Nov. 18, John Heward to Miss Mary Patrick. Nov. 26, Mr Lee Gresham to Miss A. E. Carter. Nov. 27, Mr. Wyatt McKenzie to Miss Beartitie Crudnp.

It is painful and annoying to be disturbed in public assemblies by some one coughing or sneezing, especially when you know that there is a remedy like Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup easily to be obtained.

Obituary.

Sister Sarah Washington, one of the oldest and most worthy of our members, died Sunday, Nov. 23, at the advanced age of 82 years. Sister Washington was a native of Virginia, having come as a slave to this State many years before the war. She was for over 17 years a faithful member of this church. We can never forget her for her invaluable services to us during our pastorate here. "Kind words can never die," and certainly her's will not for they are engraved upon our heart. Haven Chapel has lost one of her most active and energetic members, but our loss is her gain. Thus, one by one the old veterans of the cross are leaving the smoky field of battle for a better home above, where the wicked cease from tronbling and the weary are at rest. Her last words were, "I am almost home. I soon will be there climbing up Zion's hill." M. C. B. MASON.

Conference Notices.

Plan of Episcopal Visitation for the Spring Conferences of 1885.

Conferences.	Place.	Time.	Bishop
North India	Bareilly, India	Jan. 8	Hurst
Mexico	Mexico City, Mex	" 15	Harris
Florida	Jacksonville, Fla.	" 22	Hinde
South Carolina	Cheraw, S. C.	" 29	Hinde
Louisiana	Baton Rouge, La.	" 29	Mallalieu
Liberia	Monrovia, Lib.	" 29	Taylor
North Carolina	Lumberton, N. C.	Feb. 5	Hinde
Mississippi	Aberdeen, Miss.	" 5	Mallalieu
Blue Ridge	Pigeon Valley, N. C	" 12	Hinde
South America	Buenos Ayres, Arg	" 12
Little Rock	Van Buren, Ark.	" 19	Mallalieu
Virginia	Manassas, Va.	" 26	Foster
Arkansas	Rogers, Ark.	" 26	Mallalieu
Baltimore	Baltimore, Md.	Mar. 5	Foster
Washington	Washington, D. C	" 5	Merrill
Wilmington	Snow Hill, Md.	" 12	Merrill
South Kansas	Independence, Kan	" 12	Andrews
Pennsylvania	Huntingdon, Pa.	" 12	Foss
Kansas	Clay Center	" 12	Fowler
W. Kansas	Eldorado, Kan.	" 19	Andrews
New Jersey	New Brunswick, N. J	" 19	Warren
Philadelphia	Chester, Pa.	" 19	Foss
East German	Rochester, N. Y.	" 19	Walden
Missouri	Mason City, Mo.	" 19	Fowler
N. W. Kansas	Clyde, Kan.	" 26	Andrews
Newark		" 26	Walden
Saint Louis	Lebanon, Mo.	" 26	Fowler
Lexington	Springfield, Ohio	April 2	Wiley
New York East	Hartford, Conn.	" 2	Merrill
New York	Poughkeepsie, N Y	" 2	Warren
Wyoming	Owego	" 9	Foster
N. New York	Ogdensburg, N. Y.	" 9	Warren
New England	Springfield, Mass.	" 9	Foss
Italy	Venice, Italy	" 9	Hurst
North Indiana	New Castle, Ind.	" 9	Walden
N. E. Southern	Rockville, Conn.	" 16	Harris
New Hampshire	Littleton, N. H.	" 16	Foss
Troy	Saratoga, N. Y.	" 23	Bowman
Maine	Biddeford, Me.	" 23	Harris
Vermont	Bellows Falls, Vt	" 30	Bowman
East Maine	Ellsworth, Me.	May 7	Bowman
Delaware	Salisbury, Md.	" 7	Wiley
Sweden	Motala, Sweden	" 14	Hurst
Norway	Troadhjem, Nor.	" 28	Hurst
Denmark		June 11	Hurst
Ger. & Switz'd	Stuttgart, Ger.	" 18	Hurst

By order of the Board of Bishops.
WILLIAM L. HARRIS, Secretary.
New York, Nov. 4, 1884.

Palestine District—Texas Conference.

First Round.

Palestine	Jan.	3- 4
Palestine circuit	"	7- 8
Butler	"	10-11
Fairfield	"	17-18
Cotton Gin	"	24-25
Shiloh and Hopewell	Jan. 31, Feb.	1
Leona circuit	"	7- 8
Madison circuit	"	14-15
Crockett and Aimwell	"	18-19
Jacksonville	"	21-22
Hawkins and Center	Feb. 28, Mar.	1
Mineola and Quitman	"	7- 8
Sabine and Shelby	"	14-15
San Augustine	"	17-18

The Rocky Mound Quarterly Conference will meet with the Butler quarter.
GEO. W. SMITH, P. E.

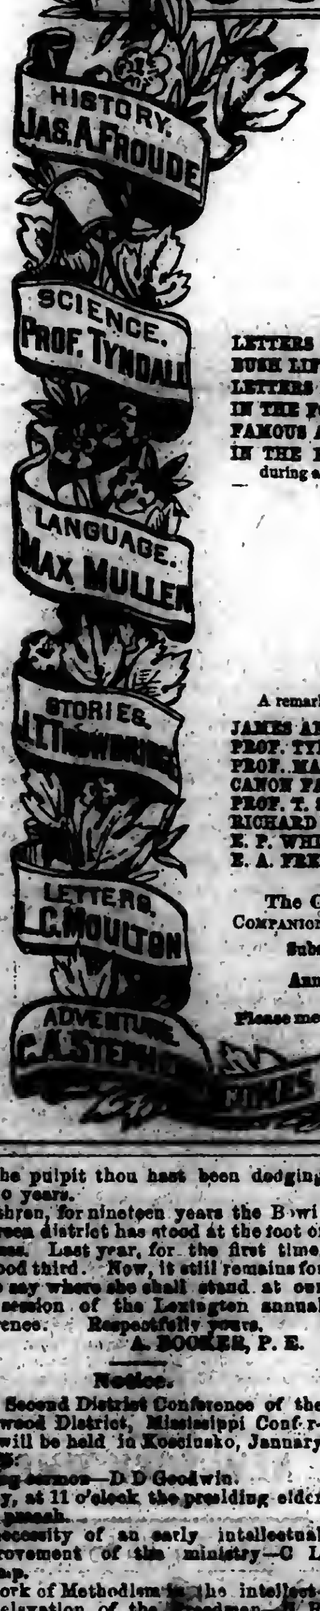
Huntsville District—Texas Conference.

First Round.

Montgomery	Dec.	13-14
Willis	"	20-21
Danville	"	20-21
Huntsville station	Jan.	3- 4
Walker circuit	"	10 11
Lowlady circuit	"	17-18
Livingston circuit	"	24-25
Swartout	"	26-27
Cold Springs Circuit	Jan. 31, Feb.	1
Orange circuit	"	7- 8
Beaumont	"	14-15
Wallisville	"	20-21
Liberty	Feb. 27, Mar.	1

I will notify the pastors of Bevalport, Groveton and Town Bluff by letter.
EDWARD LEE, P. E.

Notice.



The Second District Conference of the Bowling Green District, Lexington conference will be held at Litchfield, Grayson county, Kentucky, March 27, 28, 29 and 30, 1885. Ample arrangements will be made with the Chesapeake, Ohio & Southwestern Railroad Company for reduced rates. Members of the district are requested to be present. Pastors from home should give statistics for at least six months, and see that they are correctly made out. There can be no powerful excuse for not raising your assessments this

The pastors have been, so far, untiring and zealous in their charges this year. [illegible] all over the district [illegible] organized into missionary [illegible] Great care has been taken by [illegible] in forming classes for religious [illegible] of children. Each church has [illegible] and every [illegible] shall see [illegible] before [illegible] up to these, [illegible] glo-

PROSPECTUS

YOUTH'S COMPANION

1885

THE COMPANION has now attained a weekly circulation larger than that of any other literary paper in the world. Its steadily increasing success imposes an additional responsibility upon its conductors to deserve the appreciation and encouragement of American parents. It will use all its abilities, and all its resources, to make the young people of America manly men and womanly women.

Illustrated Serial Stories

A SERIAL STORY for Boys, by J. T. TROWBRIDGE.
MY BROTHER FRANK. A Serial Story for the Household, by Mrs. OLIPHANT.
SERIAL STORY for Boys and Girls, by ALPHONSE DAUDET.
A COUNTRY COUSIN. A Story for Girls, by EDGAR FAWCETT.
SUSPECTED. A Serial Story, by FRANK R. STOCKTON.
SERIAL STORY for Bad Boys, by C. A. STEPHENS.

Travel and Biography

LETTERS FROM SPAIN, by LOUISE CHANDLER MOULTON.
BUSH LIFE in Australia, by ARCHIBALD FORBES.
LETTERS FROM PERSIA, by S. G. W. BENJAMIN.
IN THE FORESTS OF VENEZUELA, by W. T. HORNADAY.
FAMOUS AMBASSADORS and Their Triumphs, by JAMES PARTON.
IN THE HEART of the Sahara. Adventures during a tour in the great African desert, by H. H. WEBER.

Tales of Adventure

THE LIGHTHOUSE Keeper's Stories, by JUSTIN CARRICK.
HUNTERS' TALES of the Red River Country, by F. W. CALKINS.
A YOUNG IMMIGRANT'S Journey to Colorado, by D. L. CHAMBERS.
UP THE TRAIL. Cattle-Driving on "the breaks" of the Llano Estacado, Kansas, by AMOS M. NEVIN.
MY ENCOUNTER with the Black Flags. An incident of the French conquest of Tonkin, HENRI MEUNIER.

$3,000. Prize Stories

Nearly seven thousand manuscripts were sent in competition for the COMPANION prizes of $3,000 offered for the best Short Stories, many of them by eminent writers in both Europe and America. For eight of these, Prizes have been awarded. They are delightful stories. These stories, with others selected from the seven thousand sent, will be a feature of the coming volume of the COMPANION.

Science and Education

A remarkable series of articles by Eminent Writers will be given as follows:

JAMES ANTHONY FROUDE, on The Study of History.
PROF. TYNDALL, on Popular Science for Young People.
PROF. MAX MULLER, on The Cultivation of the Memory.
CANON FARRAR, on The Study of English Literature.
PROF. T. STERRY HUNT, on The Chemistry of Sea and Land, Star Clouds, and Other Articles.
RICHARD A. PROCTOR, on Precocious Boys in History.
E. P. WHIPPLE, on Children a Thousand Years Ago.
E. A. FREEMAN, on

Instructive and Entertaining

AN EXILE'S Escape from Siberia, COL. THOS. W. KNOX.
STORIES OF MILL GIRLS, by An "OLD OPERATIVE."
THOSE TERRIBLE PARISIANS, or the Dangerous Classes of Paris, by JUNIUS H. BROWNE.
THREE SHARP FELLOWS. The career of three boys who thought themselves "smart," and who made three "sharp" vocations, and are now living with other "sharp fellows" in three large stone buildings, by WM. M. ACTON.

The Children's Page filled with charming pictures, poems and stories, adapted to very young readers, has always been an attractive feature of the COMPANION. The Editorials will continue to give clear views of current events at home and abroad.

Subscription Price, $1.75 a Year.
Announcement and Specimen Copies Free.

SPECIAL OFFER To any one who subscribes now, and sends us $1.75, we will send the Companion FREE to January 1st, 1885, and a full year's subscription from that date.

Please mention this Paper. Address PERRY MASON & CO., Publishers, 41 Temple Place, Boston, Mass.

TIMES EVERY WEEK ELEGANTLY ILLUSTRATED $1.75 A YEAR SPECIMEN COPY FREE that the pulpit thou hast been dodging for two years.

Brethren, for nineteen years the Bowling Green district has stood at the foot of the class. Last year, for the first time, she stood third. Now, it still remains for you to say where she shall stand at our next session of the Lexington annual conference. Respectfully yours,
A. BOOKER, P. E.

Notice.

The Second District Conference of the Greenwood District, Mississippi Conference, will be held in Kosciusko, January 31, 1885.

Opening sermon—D D Goodwin.
Sunday, at 11 o'clock the presiding elder will preach.
The necessity of an early intellectual improvement of the ministry—C L Crump.
The work of Methodism is the intellectual elevation of the Freedmen—H R Revels, D. D.
The work of Methodism against slavery—J C Houston.
Centennial [illegible] Monday night.
There will be a [illegible] discussion on Missions, Church [illegible] and Temperance. We [illegible] of the members of the [illegible] will suppose that their presence is [illegible]. Come with full reports and [illegible] the conference does what you have [illegible] for your Master and church.
D. D. GOODWIN,
J. M. NEVILS,
J. C. HOUSTON,
Committee.
Winona, Miss., Nov. 28, 1884.

Marshall District—Texas Conference.

First Round.

Paris circuit	Dec.	6- 7
Paris	"	10 11
Clarksville	"	13 14
Blossom Prairie	"	13 14
Queen City	"	20 21
Kildare	"	27-28
Jefferson	Dec. 31, Jan.	1
Hughes Springs	"	3- 4
Cypress	"	10 11
Marshall circuit	"	17-18
Marshall, Ebenezer	"	21-22
Pittsburgh	"	24-25
Red Oak and Zion	Jan. 31, Feb.	1

The last district conference for Marshall District Texas Conference held at Clarksville, Sept. 3 8, voted unanimously to discontinue the district conference. A majority of the quarterly conferences have concurred. Therefore, notice is hereby given that the Marshall district conference, of Texas Annual Conference is discontinued, and a ministerial association will be formed at Jefferson; notice will be given of time and programme.
H. WEBB, P. E.

Navasota District—Texas Conf.

First Round.

Patterson circuit	Dec.	6 7
Hempstead	"	13-14
Courtney	"	17-18
Plantersville circuit	"	20-21
San Felipe	Jan.	3- 4
Franklin	"	10-11
Hearne	"	11-12
Bryan	"	17-18
Wickson circuit	"	21-22
Bryan Circuit	"	24-25
Zion Hill, Caldwell cir.	Jan. 31, Feb.	1
Millican	"	7- 8
Anderson	"	14-15
Prairie Plaine circuit	"	21-22
Navasota	"	28
Brenham	"	7- 8
Brenham Circuit	"	11
Bellville circuit	"	21-22

W. B. PULLAM, P. E.

Programme

Of the Centennial meeting to be held at St. Zion, Philadelphia Circuit, Nov. 29-30, 1884:

29th, 11 a m, sermon by the pastor; 3 p m, Education, by E Pollard and [illegible]; 7 p m, Sunday-School Centennial; 8 p m, sermon by the pastor.

30th, 9 a m, prayer by the pastor; 9:30 a m, "Revivals," or the [illegible] in the Southern States since the war; [illegible]

Sunday, Nov. 30, 9 a m, Sunday-school lesson, True Wisdom; 10 a m, Centennial sermon by Rev. [illegible]; 2 p m, Sunday-school Centennial, by [illegible]; 3 p m, Sunday-school Centennial, by [illegible]; 7 p m, Centennial sermon by [illegible]; 8 p m, Centennial sermon by [illegible].

Monday, Dec. 1, 9 a m, Centennial sermons by Misses Marilla Ballard, Mary Ballard, Martha Ballard, Julia Lenn, Mary Lenn, Bettie Clemons, Susan Meredith, Adeline Greer, Mary F. Beckstrum, Emma Beckstrum, Cucherine Cole, Emma Tally, Delia Tally, Emma Clemons, and Ella White; Messrs. R H Edmonds, of Louisville, Miss., R L Jones, F L Lenn, Jeff May, W T Evans, S J Seals, J Pollock and G Adams. 11:30 a m, sermon by Rev W J Seals, of the M E Church South, subject, "Origin and progress of Methodism." 3 p m, sermon by Rev R M Evans, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, subject, "The spread of the Gospel." 8 p m love feast:
L. J. S. BELL.

Ohio District.

Fourth Round.

Batavia cir., at New Richmond	Dec.	16-17
Springfield	"	20 21
Middletown cir., at Milford	"	30
Cheviot cir., at Cheviot	Jan.	3- 4
Troy	"	10-11
Flushing cir., at Flushing, by J H Hargrave	"	10-11
Marion cir., at Rushsylvania	"	12-13
Dayton cir., Delaware	"	14-15
Otterbein	"	17-18
Cleveland circuit	"	20-22
Steubenville	"	24-27
Cadiz cir., Georgetown, Jan 31,	Feb.	1
Mt. Pleasant cir., Martin's Ferry	"	3- 5
Bellaire cir., at Bellaire	"	6- 8
Bayne	"	9
Ironton cir., at Ironton	"	11 13
Portsmouth	"	14-15
Covington	"	21-22
Maysville cir.	Feb. 28 and Mar.	1
Aberdeen cir., at Aberdeen	"	3- 5
Maysville	"	7- 8
Cincinnati	"	14-15
Augusta	"	21-22
Newport	"	28-20

Dear Brethren, have your benevolent collections all taken so as to make a full report to the conference. Also, the trustees will be required to make their annual report according to paragraph 302, new Discipline. Invite your members to attend the conference; it will benefit them. Yours ever,
JOS. COURTNEY, P. E.

Notice.

To the pastors and superintendents of the West Tennessee District, Tennessee Conference—Please arrange and carry out the plan for the Centennial Jubilee, for Christian education. Let the canvass go forward from the 16th of Nov. to the 21st of December. See that every member and friend of the Methodist Episcopal Church in your charges shall be asked to make a thank offering to the Lord in money for the occasion, as per circulars and books sent you by the Secretaries of the Freedmen's Aid Society.
JESSE P. PRICE.
Brownsville, Nov. 11, 1884.

Jackson District—Mississippi Conference.

The Jackson District Conference will convene in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Edwards, on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, Dec. 18, 1884. A large attendance is expected and earnestly desired. Rev. A. H. Gillett, General Sunday-school Agent for the West and South, has promised to be present and conduct a Sunday-school Congress.
J. M. SHUMPERT, P. E.

Programme

Of the West Tennessee District and Tennessee Conference, which will convene at Martin's Station, Tenn., Dec. 17, 1884, at 7:30 p. m.

To preach the centennial sermon—A Bardett; alternate, C L Fields.
Ministerial support—J L Mooney.
Shall we enforce the Thursday night class meetings?—C L Fields.
The best method of raising missionary money—S E Dunlap.
What is the need of the other benevolent societies of the church—E M Manson.
Temperance—J A W Moore.
Freedmen's Aid Society—J W Hall.
Sunday-schools—S Dunlap.
Shall we [illegible] our Sunday-schools in the [illegible]—A Foster.
[illegible]
[illegible]
A. 1[illegible]

P. P. ALBERT,
(Successor to L. Bloch, Manager,)
Produce Merchant,
And Dealer in Groceries,
20.....Toulouse Street,.....20
P. O. Box 3249. NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Personal attention given to the sale of all produce entrusted to my care, and prompt returns rendered for same. All orders promptly filled at lowest market rates for cash. Liberal advances made on consignments when received. Correspondence solicited.
☞ No transactions on Sundays. sept25-tf

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.
By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.
WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.
Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.
Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 65 cents.
Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans

BEACON LIGHTS,
The Most Beautiful
SOUVENIR
Ever Published.
Square 16mo. In neat box. Price, $1.50.
For sale by all Booksellers, or mailed on receipt of price by
S. E. CASSINO & CO., Publishers,
BOSTON, MASS. nov27-3t

MASON & HAMLIN

Exhibited at ALL the [illegible] WORLDS' INDUSTRIAL COMPETITIVE EXHIBITIONS FOR SEVENTEEN YEARS, Mason & Hamlin Organs have, after most rigid examinations and comparisons, been ALWAYS FOUND [illegible] and AWARDED HIGHEST HONORS; not once to any reed instrument [illegible] comparison. [illegible] has any other Organ been [illegible] to them. Our [illegible] Americas ORGANS [illegible] found equal [illegible]

HUNDRED STYLES, adapted to all uses, from the smallest size, yet having the characteristic Mason & Hamlin excellence, at [illegible] to the best instrument which it is possible to construct from reeds, at $600 or more. Illustrated catalogues, 48 pp. 4to, and price lists, free.

The Mason & Hamlin Company manufacture UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, adding to all the improvements which have been found valuable in such instruments, PIANOS of peculiar practical value, tending to greatest purity and refinement in quality of tone and durability, especially diminished liability to get out of tune. Pronounced the greatest improvement made in wright pianos for half a century. The MASON & HAMLIN CO. pledge themselves that every piano of their make shall illustrate that VERY HIGHEST EXCELLENCE which has always characterized their organs. Send for circular with illustrations, full description and explanation.

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO CO.,
BOSTON, 154 Tremont St. CHICAGO, 149 Wabash Ave
NEW YORK, 46 East 14th St. (Union Square.)

OPIUM—WHISKY HABITS cured [illegible] Book of particulars sent Free. [illegible]

4% LOANS [illegible]

[illegible]

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF
PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

To the Consumptives—Wilbor's Compound of Cod-Liver Oil and Lime, without possessing the very nauseating flavor of the cod-liver oil heretofore used, is endowed by the Phosphate of Lime with a healing property which renders the oil doubly efficacious. Remarkable testimonials of its efficacy can be shown. Sold by A. B. WILBOR, Chemist, Boston, and all druggists.

While in the summer months the greatest mortality exists among the young, the winter months are most disastrous for the old. Mellin's Food is probably the best assistant to nature to hold in feebleness, being easy of digestion, and possessing so much of carbon and albuminoids to sustain children have been successfully reared upon it all the other foods combined. Put up in tin cans, for 4 sizes, 35c 65c, $1.25 and $1.75. WOOLRICH & CO. Palmer, Mass. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Cannabis Indica.
THE GREAT EAST INDIA REMEDY.
Imported by Craddock & Co., 1,032 Race street, Philadelphia, Pa., is warranted to cure
Consumption Bronchitis Asthma and Nasal Catarrh,
And will break up a fresh cold in 24 hours. Skeptic, ask your Druggist for it, one bottle will satisfy you of its merits; pint bottles only; price, $2.50, or three bottles, $6 50. Circulars free. ae18 13t

"I owe my Restoration to Health and Beauty to the CUTICURA REMEDIES."
Testimonial of a Boston lady.

DISFIGURING Humors, Humiliating Eruptions, Itching Tortures, Scrofula, Salt Rheum and Infantile Humors cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, cleanses the blood and perspiration of impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the cause.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, instantly allays Itching and Inflammation, clears the Skin and Scalp, heals Ulcers and Sores, and restores the Hair.

CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier and Toilet Requisite, prepared from CUTICURA, is indispensable in treating Skin Diseases, Baby Humors, Skin Blemishes, Chapped and Oily Skin.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are absolutely pure, and the only infallible Blood Purifiers and Skin Beautifiers.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 50 cents; SOAP, 35 cents; RESOLVENT, $1. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON, MASS.

Skin Diseases.—"Everybody Sickened."

"Sanford's Ointment" cures Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sores, Pimples, Eruptions, all Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing.
se18 13t

SOUTHWESTERN

Christian Advocate

VOL. 19—NO 51. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, DECEMBER 18, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 790.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

Published for

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

[illegible] Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

[illegible] Cash in Advance

Entered at the Postoffice at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

[illegible] Money Orders, Drafts or Registered Letters at our risk. Postal Notes, or by Express, addressed as above.

[illegible] a business nature must be addressed to the Editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

(Each square of nine lines, each insertion.)

[illegible] 3 cents,
[illegible] 7 "
[illegible] 6 "
[illegible] 5 "
[illegible] 4 "
[illegible] 3 "
[illegible] 2 cents, net cash.

Editorial Notes.

A [illegible] of brothers, few but firm, ye rose, [illegible] the storm of earth and ire of men;

Type [illegible] was strength immortal and [illegible] love

[illegible] before your conquering pro[illegible] fall;

Each [illegible] woe; your triumph served

Himself a victor, waved the joyful palm,

Pleased with the easy yoke, charmed with the spell,

That quick transformed the lion to the lamb,

And for his fiendish strife bestowed a hallowed calm.

Henry Swann is the coming man among them.

Charles L. Madison excels as a [illegible] getter for the Lord.

Christian after the best type, which is we think the Methodist type.

J. R. Carnes is magnificent in personnel and as dignified as a Bishop.

[illegible] is the thank offerings to the [illegible] house, $50,000 brethren, and let us begin at once.

[illegible] is going to a church to send them a pastor when he can do them as good."—Bishop Harris.

We [illegible] Rev. W. B. Lambuth, of Union Chapel, Lexington [illegible], will be transferred to [illegible] Conference and stationed [illegible] Little Rock, to Wesley [illegible].

[illegible] 1884—$500, [illegible] Church, $100,000 from [illegible] from the colored [illegible] Louisiana Con[illegible]. What do you say brethren?

[illegible] W. Richardson and [illegible] to a class of heroic [illegible] such as God has [illegible] the church to [illegible]. They are the [illegible] Christian simplicity.

[illegible] overwhelmed [illegible] and news of [illegible] reached me [illegible] to be true [illegible] gain."—

[illegible] and [illegible] Richardson and [illegible] to a class of heroic [illegible] such as God has [illegible] the church to [illegible]. They are the [illegible] Christian simplicity.

both ministers and people will attend him. May his journey prove safe and prosperous, and his return sure.

Bishop Mallalieu looks the very image of perfect health. His address to the conference on Monday evening was notable for its clearness of thought, beauty of rhetoric and simplicity of style. It will not soon be forgotten.

Presiding Elder P. M. Carmichael is regarded as the preacher here. His manner is a little slow and diffident at the start but he soon warms up and as a sweeping cyclone takes all before him, never leaving but always lifting the people with him to the highest reaches of his glorious imagination.

The New Orleans World's Cotton Exposition will be in full operation this week. The opening on Tuesday and the progress thereafter will attract large numbers of visitors to this city. These visitors will want places for boarding, and it is important that they should have all needful information as to location and accommodation to be had. We offer space to proprietors in the city and will be glad to publish their cards.

"We like him; he is another Gilbert Haven. I tell you he is fine looking. He's an out-and-out Yankee, ain't he? He looks quite young. Oh, his address was fine. I am delighted with him and his talk. Such were some of many expressions occasioned by Bishop Mallalieu's visit to Texas. He divided time the first evening with the Germans, filling an appointment which already awaited him. The Bishop will find many in the South who regard him with sincere reverence.

West Texas Conference.

TWELFTH SESSION, FIRST DAY.

Waco, Texas, December 4th, 1884—9 o'clock a. m. The twelfth session of the West Texas conference met in St. James Methodist Episcopal Church as above, Bishop W. L. Harris presiding; who also led the devotional exercises, which consisted in reading two Scripture lessons singing and prayer. For want of preparation the sacrament was deferred until the following morning.

The roll was called by the secretary of last session; 35 members were present. Jackson Ceasar was reported dead, and several sick. B. F. Smith was elected secretary, and W. H. Davis assistant.

Bishop Harris explained the action of the General Conference of 1884 providing for statistical secretaries. Thereupon the following were elected Statistical secretaries, viz., Andrew Foster, assistants, C. P. Westbrooks and J. W. Robinson; H. Swann was elected treasurer, Mack Henson assistant; Rev. H. J. Crist, presiding elder of Austin district, Austin conference; [illegible] H. Deits, of the Southern German conference; Mrs. Geo. W. Richardson, J. R. Padgett colporteur, [illegible] B. Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and [illegible] were present and introduced.

The conference determined to meet [illegible] daily and adjourn at [illegible] noon. The secretaries [illegible] to call and publish [illegible].

[illegible] committees were appointed. The conference hour was [illegible] and the examination of character begun, each presiding elder representing his district, upon the passage of his own character. The districts seem to have passed a year of solid prosperity.

Draft for $30 was ordered on the chartered fund. The Bishop explained the plan of raising the support of the Bishops, presiding elders and pastors. The conference was permitted to draw on the Book Concern for $93. Correspondence from the various boards of the Church, and from other sources were referred to appropriate committees.

The Bishop after the introduction of the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN made a very lively, and rousing address touching his experiance and recollections of this conference ten years ago.

"I am a good deal older than ten years ago, but I do not see it." We might add that he does not appear to feel it either. All his religious life has been spent in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. Mack Henson was appointed to open religious services, and conference adjourned.

Benediction by J. R. Carnes.

SECOND DAY.

Waco, December 5th—Conference met promptly at the hour, Bishop Harris in the chair, and Rev. Mack Henson conducting the religious ceremonies.

Bishop Harris and the presiding elder then administered the Lord's supper to the ministers and a large number of visitors.

It was a season of apparent spiritual blessing and comfort to all whose privilege it was to participate in it. After roll call, the journal was corrected and approved.

Revs. A. H. Gillett, agent of the Sunpay-school Union for the South and West; Rev. W. B. Rankins, agent of the American Bible Society for Texas conference; William Massey, L. G. Jordan, of the Missionary Baptist Church; and H. L Trapp, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, were presented to the Bishop and by him introduced to the conference. M. V. B. Banks was granted a location at his own request. William H. Stephens, Jordan C. Mays and Moses Smith being already deacons were admitted to full connection. Dennis Edmunds was discontinued. George Pleasant was granted a supernumerary relation to, and requested by the conference to ask for a location.

The following traveling preachers were elected to orders: Elders, John T. Jacobs, and Andrew Foster. Deacons, James Browley and Edward Duncan. Charles Chase was granted a location at his own request. The conference ordered that in case of ministers locating who were delinquent in their accounts with the Book Concern, the same should be refered to the presiding elders interested for collection.

Samuel Gibbs was granted a location at his own request. J. A. Hall supernumerary was made affective. C. L. Madison was appointed to receive monies to defray the expenses of delegates to the Centennial conference in Baltimore, December 9th, and it was provided that all money contributed to that purpose should be devoted to West Texas Institute if not sufficient to send their delegate. Rev. Dr. Marshall W. Taylor, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, was requested to prepare and read an obituary on the life, work, and death of Bishop Isaac W. Wiley, lately deceased in China. The conference ordered 10:30 a. m. Saturday as the hour for memorial services. After an earnest and most impressive address to the class for admittance into full connection, and also one by Rev. W. B. Rankin in behalf of the Bible cause the conference adjourned. Benediction by George W. Richardson.

THIRD DAY.

The conference met on time, Bishop Harris presiding. The religious services were conducted by Harry Swann. Anthony August, Isaac Clayton, Charles Scruggs, Samuel Morgan, Peter Wilson, George Sawyer, L. A. Norris, Merrit Anderson, W. Graves, Charles Hart, David Harper, and Daniel Walker, had their relation changed from supernumerary to effective. Isaac Smith was continued in the supernumerary relation; Goerge O. Richardson was made effective, subject to a nominal appointment. The Bishop was requested to leave Jordan C. Mays, Alfred Brown, R. H. Ponton, and William Brown without appointments, or so appoint as to allow them to attend one of our theological schools. The supernumerary preachers returned this year are, A. J. Burns, Nathan Caswell and Charles King; the following were admitted on trial viz.: Wormly Johnson, Primus V. Crawford, Monroe C. Cavanas, William Reed, Charles P. Westbrooks and Edward Duncan.

Mrs. Geo. W. Richardson representing the Woman's Home Missionary Society was introduced, and briefly addressed the conference, followed by Bishop Harris in a stirring appeal for the missionary work of our Church, which fairly swept the audience into spasms of tears and laughter as he pressed home his ponderous logic in rugged eloquence to their hearts.

The 792d hymn was sung at 10:30 and Dr. Marshall W. Taylor paid a touching tribute to the memory of Bishop Wiley. After which the conference adjourned. Benediction by Bro. Deits, of the Southern German conference.

FOURTH DAY.

Waco, December 8th. The usual religious services were conducted by E. Henderson, Bishop Harris presiding. The secretary read and conference approved the journal of Saturday morning's session. Austin was fixed as the seat of the next conference session. The various committees made their reports, all of them exhibiting carefni thought upon the subjects over which they severally had jnrisdiction. The standing committees and conference Boards were appointed and confirmed. Granville Norman was granted a snpernumerary relation. Willis Graves and Solomon Morgan who were requested to ask the conference for a location, did not ask for such relation. The conference on motion withdrew as to Bro. Graves and he was continued in the surpernumerary relation, and in the case of Solomon Morgan, he therenpon asked for and was given a location. There was a slight increase in membership but owing to the inaccnracies in last year's report this increase does not appear in the statistics. There is also an increase in the benevolences. Aggregate collection was $1,208.25, of which $369 45 was from Austin; $356.75, Columbus; $295.40 San Antonio; Waco district, $197.65. This was distributed as follows: which is $300 above last report: Missions, $720.74; Church Extension, $129.38; Sunday school Union, $25.88; Tract Society, $25.09; Freedman's Aid, $123.20; Bible cause, $26.46; Episcopal Fund, $72.73; conference claimants, $47.62. The statistics foot np 217 probationers, 7,107 members. The report on education congratulated the General Conference on its educational legislation.

The conference unanimously resolved to ask the secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society to open a seminary at Austin for the West Texas conference on the 5th of January, 1885, or as soon thereafter as possible, and that said secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society appoint the Rev. Harvey Webb, of the Texas conference as principal of the school, and superintendent of the new school building in Austin. It was resolved to forward certified copies of the above action to Dr. Rust, and request such co operation of Bishop Harris as he would be pleased to give.

Resolutions of support to the SOUTHWESTERN, welcoming the editor and extending a fratenal helping hand to that enterprise; resolutions touching the decease of Bro. Jackson Ceasar were approved. Resolutions complimentary to the Bishop were also adopted. $4,000 were disbursed by the elders in behalf of the Missionary Society last, and same amount was placed at the disposal of the conference this year. Also letters and complimentary resolutions, touching Revs. A. H. Gillett, and George O. Richardson. The conference adopted the modified course of study, and the Bishop presiding, concurred in that action.

Strong action was taken in behalf of home missions, and a cordial welcome extended to Mrs. Richardson to visit the various charges. The four districts of this conference have been laid off so as to nearly, if not quite equalize their financial ability. Bishop Willard F. Mallalieu at this point made his appearance in the conference, having just arrived in the conference. He was introdnced, and the conference adjourned after the minutes were approved and the appointments were read. The doxology was sung and the benediction was pronounced.

NOTES

This conference has a rule, by which it is aimed to equalize the expense of members attending conference, the practical working of which will be tested at this session as it was adopted one year ago.

The personnel of this conference is excellent. Your band-box, kid glove sort of a minister is conspicuous by his absence. Sturdy black, broad shouldered men prevail here.

All it needs to dissipate the gush about the Negro race per se dying ont is to take a tour of these conferences, and visit the congregations they represent.

The black color predominates and prevails, and will predominate and prevail more and more, as the Negro race advances in learning, religion and self-respect.

The afterdoons and evenings were all fully occupied with religions or anniversary services, the sermons were grand, and the addresses useful.

THE NEW RECRUITS.

Eight men were called forward and carefully addressed by the Bishop, touching the rules, and relations for a Methodist preacher to himself, the Church, and to God, previous to admission into full connection. Have you faith in Christ? was asked and explained in that clear, lucid manner which distinguishes all the talks of Bishop Harris. Said he at one point, the work of the ministry is not a profession, but a calling, it is not optional with a man whether he will be a minister or not; the Church is permitted to have a voice in the decision of any mans call to this work. These questions were as clearly answered as asked. They each said he was going on to perfection. Perfection in love is attainable, to love God with all the heart, soul and mind is possible. Each preacher said he expected to attain it in this life.

All believed in our doctrines, Discipline and polity.

There was one vivacious little French trained man among them whose prompt responses often tested the power of the good Bishop to maintain the gravity of the occasion. Of the members of this class four were clear black, and the other four were from dark to light brown color. Two of them shave their heads, and six keep their hair close cut. Five of them wear a little gotee, six of them wear a moustache, two of them wear no monstache, and one of them is clean shaven. They are all small to medium sized men, none of them were above 35 apparently, and rather intelligent looking men.

Will you wholly abstain from the use of tobacco? Here the brethren all pledged themselves into abstainance on this line. The Bishop said that a man ought not have tobacco at the expense of the Missionary Society.

APPOINTMENTS.

Austin District—C L. Madison P. E.
(Post-office, Austin.)

Austin, Simpson Church....Seaborn Smith
Austin, Wesley Church.....Harry Swann
Austin Circuit.....Elijah Nesbit
Belton.....Richard Alonso
Bremond and Fish Creek...W J Mitchell
Calvert and Mt. Zion....Andrew Foster
Cedar Creek.....to be supplied
Cunningham and West Point....M Smith
Davilla and Temple....Johnson Wormly
Georgetown & R-und Rock..T Watkins
Giddings and McDade.....Morton Lott
Lampasas and Gatesville.....A Brack
Liberty Hill and Burnett..P V Crawford
Manor circuit.....to be supplied
Port Sullivan & Milan Grove..D Munker.

Columbus District—P. M Carmichael, P. E.
(Post-office, Columbus.)

Alleyton and Toland....Enoch Coggswell
Caney and Providence.....Emory Hall
Columbus.....Samuel Gates
Columbus circuit.....Primus Gates
Ellenger and Industry....James Jamison
Flaton a and Soulesburg..to be supplied
LaGrange.....Emanuel Henderson
LaGrange circuit.....W H Mosby
Lockhart.....Houston Harris
Luling.....Lee Reed
Oakland and Brown Chapel..E E Cooper
Weelder and Peach Creek...W H Stevens
Weimar Circuit.....W C Cavanas
Wellsburg.....to be supplied

San Antonio Dist.—G. W. Richardson, P. E.
(Post-office, Austin.)

Belmont circuit.....Edward Duncan
Cuero and Mission Valley..Ephraim Jones
Floresville and Riddleville....J R Carnes
Gonzales.....Washington Goodwin
Hallettsville.....G W Townsend
Hondo and Fredericksburg..Jno Brawley
Laverula and Mt. Pleasant..S W Harvey
Morales and Edna.....Robert Dukes
Mt. Vernon.....J T Gibbons
Pleasanton & Rossville..to be supplied
San Antonio.....Mack Henson
San Antonio Mission and San Marcos
A R Norris
Seguin and Marion.....Wm Reed
Victoria and Indianola.....A K Mason

Waco District—W. H. Davis, P. E.
(Post-office, Waco.)

Dallas and Fort Worth.....B F Smith
Dennison, Sherman and Pilot Point
Aitkin Jackson
East Waco.....J W Robinson
Groesbeck.....Jefferson Beall
Hubbard and Sulioch.....to be supplied
Kosse and Long Branch.....J A Hall
Majors and Rifle Point..Abraham Taylor
Marlin and Big Creek.....D Humphries
Marlin Circuit.....Christopher Young
Mexia Circuit.....Willis Medlock
Milford and Chambers Creek..A Lockhart
Spring Hill Circuit.....Green Bragner
Waco, St. James Church..C P Westbrooks
Waco Mission.....Gabriel Wilson

G O Richardson, J C Mays, Alfred Brown, William Brown and R H Ponton left without appointments that they may attend some one of our schools.

Mack Henson's Centennial sermon was an elaborate and exhaustive review of the growth and progress of Protestantism, and Methodism in the world.

Editorial Perambulations

HOUSTON CONTINUED.

Frank Vance, the well known Houston caterer, stands next to Baker in real estate, he is probably worth $20,000 in property, and has more cash possibly than any other colored man in the state. Baker and he at times have been able to buy up the entire debt of the city of Houston.

Vance is a red hot Methodist and so is his wife. He goes to conference like Jefferson Porter, of Paris, or [illegible] Mitchell, of Maysville, or Uncle Jim Buford, of Springfield, or Papa Geo. Green, of Troy, O., and generally brings home the preacher he goes for. Perhaps because they always go for the preacher that was going to be appointed any how. No matter why, they generally get the one they go for, and they always do so; because they know the sort of man it needs among them to succeed. To Vance belongs much of the praise due for the erection of the splendid church we have noticed above. We stopped with him principally, and can testify that we have never been permitted to sojourn in a home among any people better regulated, and more systematically furnished in the smallest and greatest detail than this; and we have stopped in a good many good homes in our time. Dr. Haygood, Dr. Hartsell, Elder Cushman, and several of the bishops we know have either been the guest or visitors to this home and in the face of their knowledge of the facts, we deliberately write this statement, meanwhile hoping that some one will mark and send it to Drs. Fowler and Hargrave, of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Mississippi.

Next to Vance is A. D. Osborne, of the blacksmith and wheelright firm of Osborne, Kyle & Co. He is worth $[illegible],000 in property besides the business which probably invests a capital of $2,000. Then comes Kyle who is making money and keeping it. He is a [illegible] has a model wife, and owns a nice home with other property.

Next is Dr. Ed. Ramsey, and his wife. The Doctor is worth $5,000, has a handsome home, a good practice, and has been in the business [illegible] years. There is a baby in this house, but we find that the children of colored folks have very little attention as a rule, and we intend to give this subject careful consideration, and our readers the result of our inquiry. Henrietta Ramsey [illegible] in the kitchen, but we suspect that some "old aunt Dinah" [illegible] away from us, made the dressing and the oyster stuffing for the Thanksgiving turkey. Our hostess invited her to have the christening, so did the Doctor, who called it "christening," for he don't christen anything with water," so the good Doctor who is a [illegible] to Trinity and [illegible] in Clark University. Mrs. Ramsey said no, she would not have the child baptized, but was pleased as the Baptists [illegible] that when it was grown it could decide if it want to be immersed or not. There would be no hinderance, but the Central Tennessee [illegible] an intelligent woman, did not require many words to convince her that the spirit of God contemplated the reception of children, so that they grow up in and to a holy life. We told her we would not hinder her child, but that we could not do so, Christ having said "suffer little children to come unto me and put His hands on them and bless them." [illegible] here [illegible] them to [illegible] we had [illegible] to our [illegible] and assented.

[illegible] Fred. [illegible] He [illegible] Central [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

...that they have done according to their ability.

Rev. W. M. Jamison, Rockport, ..., writes: "I received my appointment at Covington, Ky., last March, from Bishop Foss. At first I thought it would be hard to give up Kentucky for Indiana, because I had heard that the people did not take good care of the pastors there; but I find they take better care of them here than in Kentucky. But one preacher ever stayed his time out here, and it was hard for him to do it, but since I have been here I have done more work and had a better time than any place I was ever at before. We have reduced a debt of $600 to $325 15, ... $100 for church repairs. We have been holding revivals all over the circuit. At Rockport we held a revival which lasted four weeks and resulted in 14 conversions and 17 additions. At Number 12 we had 7 conversions and 7 additions, and the same number at Cannelton. Another revival has been started at Rockport. When I first came here I found 28 members, now we have 56 members and probationers. It is only a matter of time now until the Methodists will have control of the city. Give us another presiding elder like E. W. S. Hammond is all we ask."

Rev. F. D. Bowers, Darrowville, La., writes: "We held our fourth quarterly conference on the 16th inst. We had a good crowd to meet our beloved presiding elder, Emperor Williams. He was much pleased to find the church in such good condition. We have paid for two improvements, and more than half of the original debt. We have a new church now. We collected $145 25 this quarter, and received 15 in full membership. The Sunday-school is in a good condition. The elder preached a good sermon. We hope for his return soon."

Rev. R. H. Patton, Paulding, Miss., writes: "Our beloved presiding elder, J. Campbell, held our fourth quarterly conference Nov. 15th and preached a noble sermon. He also received much instruction concerning the centennial jubilee which made a great impression on the people, and they crowded themselves to that beautiful centennial home. My protracted meeting has commenced. We have received this year 30 members in the church. I am encouraged to make a benevolent people here. I have many friends here. Pray for me."

Rev. H. H. Higgins, Jackson, ... writes: "On account of the absence of Rev. G. W. Sams, pastor in charge, I held the Rev. G. W. Taylor's third quarterly conference for him at Batesville, Ark., on the 13th and 14th inst. Bro. Taylor has just closed a revival, in which he received 43 converts, 13 of which joined our church. There has been a great improvement since I was here before. They have greatly improved the house of the church, ... a good fence out well at night, ... and attend meeting ... it to be found ... congregation ... are going to build a ... as soon as they ... Bro. Taylor ... work here."

Rev. A. Frank, Hahnsville, ..., the teacher ... first ... by way of ... ministry ... Conference ... Bishop ... col...

Letters From the Laity.

C. P. Westbrooks, Secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, Goliad, Tex., writes: "Mrs. G. W. Richardson was with us on the 16th, and gave a grand lecture in the interest of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. The lecture was of intense interest to the congregation. After the lecture she succeeded in organizing an auxiliary society. Mrs. L. A. Westbrooks, President; Miss H. G. Hassell, Vice-President, Mrs. Esther Mitchell, Recording Secretary; Mr. Bettiece Lott, Treasurer. We are always glad to have our noble Christian women among us; also we are more than thankful for the speech of Dr. Crummell, speaking for the black women of the South. In all of my born days I never heard or saw anything equal to it. God bless the Doctor and all of his co-operators. Pray for us that we may be successful."

Bro. J. M. Wilson, Washington Circuit, Arkansas, writes: "Our church is in a growing condition, although times were dull at the beginning of the year. Bro. G. W. Baker held a ten days revival here which resulted in 13 converts. The people here like Bro. Baker and will do all they can for him; they have given him $20 in the last six months. I don't know what they would do if they were able. We would like to have him next year. I take the SOUTHWESTERN this year and like it very much."

The treaty between the United States and Hawaii, signed Saturday, merely provides for the extension of the present treaty for seven years from the date of ratification.

Both the Mason & Hamlin organs and pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unmusical tone cannot be a good musical instrument. Yet all are not good judges of such a matter. An inferior quality of tone will often please the uncultivated ear best. Use, though, time and use will show the superiority of really good instruments. In selecting an organ ... choose one from a ... reputation is ... established, and whose ... acknowledged to have ... excellence, especially ... thing.—Boston Journal.

"GOING DOWN HILL."

How a Venerable Iowan Evaded the Greatest Difficulty which Besetts the Aged.

Burlington, Ia, Hawkeye.

An account is going the rounds of the press of a woman who was so afflicted with the rheumatism for fifteen years that her entire muscular system became rigid, and for all that period she was kept alive by gruel forced between her teeth.

A prominent New York physician was once asked what rheumatism was. He replied, "God only knows." He was undoubtedly right, because rheumatism seems to spring from a different cause in every individual case. If its origin is a mystery, its effects are too well and too widely known, for there is scarcely any season of the year when some persons are not more or less affected by it. In general, however, it prevails mostly among the aged, making their last days hard to bear. A prominent physician once remarked in our hearing, "If the aged could escape the tortures of rheumatism, their last years as a rule would be quiet, peaceful and painless."

Apropos of the above, Mr. W. DeGens, of Pella, Ia., sends us a communication which ordinarily we would not publish except at so much a line. But his experience has been so remarkable that we think we are justified in giving place to it. He says:

"Dear Sir:—I am 78 years of age. My life has been active. I am well-known in this town, and what I say I do not think will be doubted by any one who knows me. Up to a year or two ago, I was the possessor of splendid health, and hoped I should wear out my life gradually and gracefully. Two years ago, however, I was overcome with that curse of old age, rheumatism. When it first prostrated me the pain was so acute I thought it was neuralgia, which medical authorities tell me indicates a low state of the system.

I fancied that this attack was the beginning of the end. I sent for a good doctor, who treated me with electrical and other agencies, but I grew worse. He finally said my case was a serious rheumatic one. For six months I could not use my limbs at all, and was handled by three strong persons, like a helpless child. Then came a period of better feelings, but re-action followed, and for six long months of pitiful suffering I was confined to the bed. For over a year I groaned in agony. I tried all reputable lotions, liniments, plasters, and preparations, in vain. At this stage, my friend Elder Overcamp came to see me, and upon his urgent recommendation I began to use Warner's safe rheumatic cure, a few bottles of which gave back to me the use of my limbs. I am now sleeping without pain, eating without distress, and feel as spry as I did when I was 60 years of age. I cordially recommend that preparation to all persons afflicted as I was, and especially to the thousands of aged men and women whose last days are embittered by this affliction."

Mr. DeGen's letter is endorsed by Elder Overcamp, who says he is a member of his church, and his case to him is surprising and marvelous. Mr. F. W. Brinkhoff also endorses the statement in similar terms.

There is no doubt that this is a true recital of the case, and Mr. DeGens' experience should be an encouragement to all others suffering as he did, to use the means he so successfully employed for nothing better, if indeed, as good, can be had in the market.

Good for the Child.

The ailments of childhood need careful attention and wise treatment. Some people think "anything is good enough for a child, and there isn't much the matter with it anyhow." But judicious mothers know better, and do as Mrs. H. W. Perry, of Richmond, Va., does. She says: "I take Brown's Iron Bitters and give it to my children with the most satisfactory results." Sold everywhere.

Statistics of Texas Conference

Showing increase and decrease for 1883 and 1884:

	1883.	1884.	Inc.	De.
Probationers	1470	1512	42
Full members	8713	9788	1075
Local preachers	169	172	3
Baptisms, children	671	825	154
Baptisms, adults	876	1019	144
Churches	119	145	26
Value	$85,184	$107,091	$21,869
Parsonages	32	34	2
Value	$8,500	$10,675	$2,175
Building and improving churches & parsonages	$12,113	11,717		$395
Paid on old indebtedness	$4 329	3,984		345
Present indebtedness	$6,816	7,326	510
Current expenses	2,815	2,178		637
Sunday-schools	151	161	10
Officers and teachers	632	781	151
Scholars of all ages	7362	7452	90
Missions—
From churches	$348	$353	$5
From Sunday-schools	196	177		19
Church extension	161	131		30
Sunday-school Union	41	43	2
Tract Society	33	15		18
Freedmen's Aid	256	234		22
Education	128	265	137
American Bible Society	20	16		4
Woman's F. M. S.	34	12		22
Woman's H. M. S.		59	59
Other Collections	120	269	149
Ministerial support	19,095	16,485		2610
Conference Claimants	34	128	85

The Missionary collections were considerably less this than last year. This conference last year (1883) only paid per member for missions four cents; this year only a small fraction of three and one-half cents per member. The Church (Missionary Committee) set apart for this conference as missionary money at its late meeting $4,000, and ask to it raise $1000. This is not 11 cents per member, and ought to be raised.

Charles Bradlaugh, who appealed against the verdict of the jury which found him guilty of a misdemeanor in voting in the House of Commons as member from Northampton after administering the oath to himself, has been refused a new trial.

M. E. Church Directory.

Southwestern Christian Advocate. Office 32 Natchez Street.

ST. MATTHEW M. E CHURCH—On Verret Street, Algiers, La. Sunday services: Preaching at 11 and 3; 7:30 at night. Prayer meeting 6:30 in the morning. Class meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p m Sunday-school at 1:30. M. C. Barrow, Pastor.

UNION CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH—Services: Sundays, preaching 11 a m., 3 p. m. 7½ p. m. Sunday school at 1 o'clock. Class meeting Tuesday nights. Preaching Thursday nights. Prayer-meetings Friday nights. Stephen Priestley, Pastor, 42 Robinson street.

WESLEY CHAPEL—Liberty street, between Perdido and Poydras; Rev. Marcus Dale, Pastor. Services: Sunday 6 a m; prayer meeting, preaching 11 a m; 3 and 7:30 p m; General Class and Love Feast monthly; preaching Thursday eve, 7:30, Class, Monday eve.

SIXTH STREET CHURCH—Between Laurel and Annunciation; Rev. M. J. Dyer, pastor. Services—Public worship Sabbath 11 a. m.; 3 and 7 p. m. Communion every second Sunday at 7 p. m. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class-meeting Monday evening. Preaching Wednesday evening. Prayer-meeting Friday evening. General Class first Monday night in every month. Prayer service at 5:30 a. m.

CAMP PARAPET CHURCH—Rev. Thomas J. Johnson, Pastor. Sunday services—Prayer-meeting 6 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., and 7 p. m. Sabbath at 1 p. m. Class-meetings. Thursday evening.

HAVEN CHAPEL—Jefferson street, corner of Plum, two blocks above the last station. Rev. M. C. B. Mason, Pastor. Services—Public worship at 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. Sunday. Sunday-school 9 a. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General Class, second Sunday at 11 a. m. and communion at 7. Preaching Thursday evening.

New Orleans University A. F. Hoyt, M. A., Acting President. 1423 St. Charles Street.

First Street—Rev. T. G. Montgomery, Pastor. Church corner First and Dryades Streets. Services: Sabbath—5 a. m., prayer meeting; 11, 3 and 7, public worship; communion monthly, on the first Sunday. Sunday-school 1 p. m. Class meeting Monday evening. General class every fourth Monday evening. Preaching Thursday nights.

J. E. OGILVIE—Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music. Also tunes and repairs pianos and organs at reasonable rates. Residence, 39 South Johnson Street.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.

Sixty Addresses by American Educators

Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.

8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1.25
Cloth..... 1 75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

MILLERS and FARMERS

Send for new catalogue of our Water Wheels and Milling Machinery. Simplest and cheapest in the market. Write us before buying. A. A. DeLoach & Bro., Atlanta, Ga. Mention this paper. Atlanta, Ga.

may22-1y

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Me.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY. On Every Bottle.

Trade Mark

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

—THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops, at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Ridpath	$3 00
Scripture History.—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net	60
atechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3) Net	5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.)	3 0
iscipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884
ompendium of Methodism.—Porter	1 50
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sett	5 00
Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography	2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and ustoms	2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scripture chapters I-XXX—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology—Compendium of hristian Theology.—Pope.) Vol I) sett	7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley	30
Ancient History.—Thalheimer. Net	1 00
Rhetoric.—Hill, Net	1 00
Written Sermons.
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.)
hristian Purity—Foster	1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records—Nast	1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Rules of Evidence—Henry and Harris	3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Reid	3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope	1 75
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 00
Lessons in Logic,— ...ons. Net	60
To be read:
...books to Antinomianism—Fletcher	5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged). Stevens	3 00
Defense of our Fathers—Emory	35
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal hurch Vol. II—Reid	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology.—...ompendium of Christian Theology.—Pope Vol. III.	7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley	1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn	2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder	1 50
Written Sermon
To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst	2 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman	4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II—Watson	6 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler	1 50
Written Exegesis
To be read:
Life and Epistles of St Paul.—Conybeare and Howson (Abridged Edition)	1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry
History of Rationalism.—Hurst	3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst	$ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 3)	05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield	2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884)
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker	1 25
To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter	1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism—Simpson	1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher	75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield	2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill	1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst	50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer
To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson	1 25
History of the United States.—Ridpath	3 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged Edition).—Stevens	3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield	2 50
Plain Account of hristian Perfect'on.—Wesley	30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill	1 00
Rhetoric.—Haven	90
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer.	1 00
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Nast	5 00
Era of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm.	1 25
	75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield	2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.)	40
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter	3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years
To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol. II. Introduction to Antinomianism.—Fletcher	5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher	2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb	1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans.

PAYSONS PENNANENT INK

Is the BEST. No preparation. Used with any clean pen for marking any fabric. Popular for decorative work on linen. Received Centennial MEDAL & Diploma. Established 50 years. Sold by all Stationers & News Agt's

may22-11t eow

Berean Lesson Helps.

Sunday-School Journal.

For Teachers and Young People.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 55 cents each. 65 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

50 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lesson-hints, Black-board Outlines, and a "Bureau of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf will contain more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

$4 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Pictures Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent delays in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1884 at the regular subscription price:

WIDE AWAKE.

The Great Pictorial Magazine,

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Expres for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful picture

Our Little Men and Women

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely true stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls.

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day and Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

THE SOUTHWESTERN.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

THURSDAY, DEC. 18, 1884.

Announcement for 1885

Reduction in Price to ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CTS. When Paid In Advance, or Within Three Months.

From this time subscriptions for The Southwestern Christian Advocate will be received for the year 1885 at $1.50 a year, payable in advance or within three months. No other paper published under authority of the General Conference is furnished at this figure. It is the cheapest paper in the whole list. New subscribers for the next year will receive their papers up to January 1st free.

Let us have 2000 new subscribers within the next sixty days.

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

A number of subscriptions for the year 1884 expire with the next issue of this paper. Let them renew at once, by getting the pastor to order, or sending direct to this office. Remember that if the cash is paid now the subscription price is $1.50; otherwise it will be $2 as heretofore.

Notice.

Special Programme for Bishop Mallalieu

After visiting Waco and the West Texas Conference, Bishop Mallalieu was to visit Austin, San Antonio, and Galveston, and there dedicate a church on Sunday, Dec. 14, then to Houston, thence on to New Orleans, which city he will probably reach by Wednesday or Thursday, Dec. 17 18.

Bishop Wiley.

Bishop Isaac William Wiley is dead. It is indeed with profound sorrow and pain at heart that we [illegible] our readers this sad intelligence. To many it will not be new, and to all, as to us, it is a [illegible] of touching importance. We [illegible] ourself be more deeply [illegible] if our own natural father [illegible] of his, just passed [illegible] and quiet of the grave. [illegible] hoping for his return [illegible] improved health, and a [illegible] since thought we had [illegible] of him as to up- [illegible] warrant this hope; when, suddenly, almost without [illegible], the terrible truth that he [illegible] not return to us again in this [illegible], we should no more look [illegible] mortal form as we had [illegible] buried through earth and [illegible] forced itself into our un- [illegible] ption.

[illegible] mit'd the decisions [illegible] the curious workman-hip, [illegible] with infirmities, [illegible] perfection with leisure de- [illegible] to the tyranny [illegible] and much misery." [illegible] prognostic of the [illegible] at was conveyed [illegible] following communica- [illegible] Mission Rooms:

[illegible] letters from China [illegible] Mission Rooms con- [illegible] and sad interest [illegible] Wiley. Oct. 15. [illegible] writes, from the [illegible]," on his way to [illegible] to the continued [illegible] Mr. Lowry ac- [illegible] final immer- [illegible] of the sea- [illegible] Annual [illegible]. A letter [illegible] from the [illegible] we give, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

September 1883, he should come [illegible] to rest amid those missionary [illegible] and beside that wife in November 1884. Truly

"God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform."

His next work was "The Religion of the Family," followed by another, his latest, on "China and Japan." We know that he contemplated writing for publication his views of the religious life, and future, of the American Negroes when he had leisure to do so.

BISHOP WILEY AMONG THE NEGROES.

In Galveston, Texas, with race prejudice abounding and imperious social customs exacting, Bishop Wiley declining invitations from those of social ranks and influence, made choice of a home among the Negroes.

In Baltimore, Maryland, the cradle of American Methodism, where the rillets of Perry Hall and the dust of Methodist pioneers had crystallized into the creme de la creme of elevated, social life, this brave man of mighty convictions of duty had taken his home among the Negroes with, and for whom he had come thither to labor.

In Louisville, Kentucky, he made the home of Rev. Monmouth Walton, and the ideas of home-life more exalted by his presence there for dinner, with several ministers including the writer.

In Jeffersonville, Indiana, Bishop Wiley being called to dedicate our colored church, its pastor together with the pastor of our First Street white congregation, awaited his arrival at the depot, both had made preparation and were ready to do him the honor of their best entertainment. It did not require a single second for him to determine upon his course, with the sweet courtesy which distinguished him, he informed the white pastor, Brother (Dolph) as we now remember, that he was there to dedicate Wesley Chapel and was already the guest of its pastor, Bro. Bryan.

In Connersville, Indiana, where he went at the instance of Bro. S. G. Turner, the pastor, to dedicate a colored church, he had his home with Mr. Turner, one of its officers, and pleased with the treatment he received was he that he after [illegible] public mention of the neatness and even elegance of that home, which we know to be one of the best in the land.

[illegible] around our church in Cincinnati, seemed to hang dark [illegible] lowering clouds, Bishop Wiley [illegible] to him and said, "We must not be despondent, the [illegible] people of Cincinnati will [illegible] have a good church in this city, the white folks will see to [illegible] you not long after [illegible] Dr. Best advanced [illegible] relieved the property [illegible] by which [illegible] and Dr. [illegible] the building [illegible] Street.

[illegible] books or study, [illegible] we learn more than [illegible] so that it might [illegible] that he was the fa[illegible] to improve [illegible] laid down for [illegible] by reading one [illegible] and then establish [illegible] preferences as might [illegible] and a simpler [illegible] of which has [illegible] tion is several con[illegible] intended this as a [illegible] to remove as [illegible] it does [illegible] be was [illegible] he [illegible] garded by the best rank of colored society, that he was selected by them in such a way.

We do not recall these incidents here because we would have others follow his example, every man must judge of the propriety of his own actions for himself, but when he has reached that judgment and made it historic by practice we may refer to it for the purpose of illustrating the philosophy of his life. Therefore we now introduce these actions of Bishop Wiley not as evidence of any peculiar or abnormal attachment for the Negro race, but rather as evidence of his ability to rise above the laws of society, and do what he conceived to be his duty. Let that pathway lead him whither soever it might.

SOMETIMES MISUNDERSTOOD.

If Bishop Wiley was true to the guiding of duty as it led to the Christian culture of the colored people, he was no less solicitous for the moral and mental betterment of the whites in the South, and in his zeal for this he was ready to do what he could even if that was not all he would. He distinguished between ideals and reals. He was not visionary, but practical. He would do now that which was possible and the rest when providence opened the way. Such were the views that actuated him in aiding the establishment of schools practically for whites and blacks where either or both classes preferred it, and conferences of the same kind. Many of his brethren differed with him, some even spoke harshly of him, especially concerning the school at Little Rock, but time has proven not only the sincerity of the man but the present wisdom of his action.

Bishop Wiley was not the agitator or the revolutionist that our beloved and sainted Gilbert Haven, whom the colored people almost idolized was. Haven in battle with dauntless courage led the host to victory. Wiley quiet, calm and no less courageous, bound up the wounded, and called the combatants once more to peace. Wiley had not the magisterial force of appearance, and almost dictatorial dignity of Foster, his was the quiet simplicity of a child, he firmly ruled by seeming not to rule.

Wiley loses nothing in comparison with Bishop Harris, that man of matchless business capacity, and exalted integrity. Harris is a thunder storm, with clouds and wind, vigorously attacking, routing, expelling and tearing away all impurities; Wiley was the shower of May cleansing the dusty air, kissing the flowers into bloom, and loading the breeze with ordors and life-inspiring fragrance. Each was useful in its line, and both are needful to the prosperity of the seasons.

PERSONAL RELATIONS.

Bishop Wiley ordained the writer to be an elder in the Church; he gave us authority to assume the office of presiding elder on our first district by the concurrence of Bishop Peck. He afterwards appointed us to that district himself, and in every way he could has been our constant personal friend. His kind words were always spoken for us. It was not for returns for we had nothing to return, it was not for office, he had the highest to which mortal man can come. It was to do good and aid us in being good. Peace to his ashes. A shadow has fallen upon his home, his church, his colleagues and his country. A prince and a great man has fallen this day. But the way is open to the haven where he is reposing, may the Lord increase the strength as he diminishes the number of his colleagues, and make the church a thousand fold more use-

[illegible] Course of Study.

[illegible] wider field for observa[illegible] and a better understanding of [illegible] it contemplates, we be[illegible] we are ready to revise our [illegible] but the modified course [illegible] by some of the [illegible] a step backward. [illegible] though we had [illegible] of study with [illegible] bed grac[illegible] standard of qualifica-

New Orleans University—Main Building.

Dr. Hartzell writes: "This is a picture of the new building for New Orleans University, on St. Charles Street New Orleans. We want to lay the corner-stone during the approaching session of the Louisiana Conference.

This magnificent structure will cost at least $40,000. The great question is: How can the money be received? One noble friend in Ohio has given $5000. About $4000 will come from the estate of Sarah Pierce, a colored Baptist lady of New York. Louisiana Conference has raised $3000. But this is only a begining.

Every dollar raised during this centennial jubilee year by our people and friends in Louisiana will go into this building. Let our pastors in the State each see that all our friends know of this noble undertaking and use it to make the Centennial Jubilee a great success. Every Sunday-school scholar in the State ought to put at least one brick in this splendid building."

This University is now in full operation. It has a good faculty commanding, healthy location, and is in every way adapted to the use intended.

We urge it upon young men and women, especially those in this region to give this school an examination before looking after others further from their home and climate. The same aid from the educational funds of the Church can be secured at either of our schools so that there is no advantage in this respect.

As to the appeal above we should say that it ought to stir the pride and swell the heart of every preacher in the Louisiana Conference. Dr. Hartzell is your own. He is true to your cause, as we have the best reason to know. He is full of its interest, has committed himself to its completion, and must be sustained.

"Rally round the flag, boys,
Rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.

Which is education. This month our Church is one hundred years old. Shall we not give $1,000 for each year of her most useful life? What say you? Every man to his post. Let no man falter now.

tion required in some of the conferences were good intentions and a good voice. But that period has given place to a more advantageous one, the conditions which surrounded the fathers in the first stages of our Church work in the South, have been partially, not entirely removed.

The men who are succeeding the first fathers in this work are so circumstanced that it is positively and absolutely needful that they have to some extent a sytematic preparation for their work. They cannot all take a course at college; some must remain in the field, and carry forward the Calvary standard, while these reserves for future service tarry at Jerusalem in preparation as it were.

If they cannot go to college, neither can they master the course prescribed by our Church for traveling preachers. First because the books are so high priced that they cannot get them. Second, because the studies are so difficult in some of them that it requires a good education before they can be successfully pursued, which few if any of this second line of fathers possesses; and if they did it would still require instructors and these it has heretofore been largely impossible to secure, especially has this been true of our colored preachers in the South. So viewing the matter from this standpoint we regard as vastly preferable that there should be such a modified course of study available to if not especially provided for them as meet these circumstances. Yet, it is our judgment, this should be well understood to be a provisional, and temporary arrangement designed to meet an emergency. We would hold young men now at the door of the conferences to a rigid examination in the regular course of study. We would do this even if it forced every one of them to enter conference through a theological school hereafter. For it must not be conceeded that with favorable circumstances, this course is too difficult for all concerned.

After the Sight What They Say.

Rev. R. H. Harbert, Marshall, Texas, writes: "I must say I never was more favorably impressed with anyone in my life than with yourself. I feel like saying amen! amen! Since my return though busy in the school room I've failed not to publish what our S. W. C. A. is doing. I shall be happy if I can send you 50 new subscribers which I believe I can easily do. Enclosed find 24; look out for more."

Prof. C. W. Campbell, Houston Seminary, Houston, Texas, writes. "We are thinking of using the SOUTHWESTERN in our reading exercises. It has many friends here."

Homes for Visitors.

The colored Department of information for the World's Exposition at New Orleans have registered the following places where colored visitors will be entertained. There are some excellent homes among them. Private information can be had as to what the special characteristics are in each case by application to us. The prices will range well up, as the cost of living in this city is always high, and the present crowded period is not likely to form an exception to the rule. Persons coming should bring money with them, or make sure of friends who have it.

HOMES.

W A Halston, Jena and Chestnut streets, can take 6.
Rachel Burke, 292 Gravier street, 19
Ann Jenkins, 74 Liberty, 16.
Charlotte Robertson, 266 Common, 6
Mrs. Perkins, 27 Villere, 15.
Mrs. Bernard, 268 Common, 4.
Eugene Lanes, 358 Fourth, 16.
Mrs. Gorum, 31 Franklin street Algiers, 2.
Mrs. Armstrong, cor. Market and Bone, Algiers, 2.
Mrs. E Sterling, Nashville ave, 2.
Mrs. Jane Tucker, Nashville ave, 6.
Mrs. C C Murrell, 86 Jefferson Carrollton, 6.
Mrs. M. Sauders, 18 Treme, 4.
Mrs. Tillman, 192 Burdette, 4.
Mrs. Parker, 155 Washington, 4.
Mrs. R. Hagans, 220 Adams, 2.
Mrs. T. Wilson, 225 Seventh, 2.
Mrs F Labranch, 11 Robertson, 15.
Mrs. Mary Hunt, 107 Everline, Algiers, 3.
Mrs. R A Grant, 18 Peters Algiers, 3
Mrs E Joseph, 27 Bonie, Algiers, 2.
Mrs. M Davis, 327 Fourth, 2.
Mrs. L Trist, 42 Zimple, 4.
Mrs. Bell, St. Dennis, 2.
Mrs. M English, 42 Zimple, 4.
Mrs A White, 42 Zimple, 4.
Mrs. M F Wicker, 35 Customhouse, 2
Geo F James, 34 N Roman, 2.
Geo H Fayerweather, Napoleon ave, cor. Dryades, 6.
Mrs. E. Lee, 54 Palmyra, 8.
Mrs. Ellis, Camp Parapet, 7.
Mrs. Emily Bell, 60 Madison, 2.
Mrs. Mary Reid, Camp Parapet, 4.
Wm Allen, 52 Burthe, 3.
Wm Henry, 52 Burthe, 4.
Mrs. M J Steele; 331 St. Louis, 5.
Mrs. M Jackson, 327 Howard, 2.
Mrs. Julia Burrell, 403 Thalia, 4.
Mrs. L A Wilson, 431 Thalia, 2.
Mrs. M Fielders, 453 Thalia, 2.
Mrs. Geo Jones, 72 Miro, 4.
Mrs. Parera, 124 Johnson, 4.
Mrs. J Mitchell, 106 Robertson, 2.
Mrs. Scott, 342½ Conti, 9.
Mrs. O Stevens, 238 Customhouse, 6
Mrs Cora Lee, 14 Magnolia, 2.
Mrs. Saminine, 40½ Villire, 4 gents.
Mrs. L Swan, Valence, bet. Chestnut and Camp, 2.
Mrs. M Elsey, 148 Valence, 2.
Mrs. Lightfoot, Defossett, bet Lyon and Jersey, 2.
Mrs. S Davis, 396 Customhouse, 8.
Mrs. C Scheval, 96 Burgundy, 2.
Mrs. Rev. M. Dale, 27 S. Roman, day board only, 3.
Mrs Tenna Burton, 100 Franklin, 12.

Prices will range from $1 to $3 per day. Street cars run from all depots in rapid succession. Hack fair is high. Railroads will make no discrimination, we ascertain upon inquiry at the offices, but we can say to colored persons who are expecting to come here that they may as well make up their minds to meet with some hindrances on the part of conductors and brakesmen at small local stations on some roads, but this will be remedied if complaint is promptly made to headquarters. All hotels will entertain white people at nearly their usual rates.

The plan for meeting the Central China mission in Kinkiang was not carried out, as Bishop Wiley was unable to proceed further. From other letters we learn that he stopped in Shanghai, and the brethren were collected there. The meetings were held in the house of Dr. Lambuth, of the Southern Methodist Mission. A letter dated Oct. 27th, says: "The Bishop is very feeble. He is at Dr. Lambuth's, and the meetings are held in his roooms. He reclines on a long chair. He says the Lord will give him strength to accomplish his work."

Since our writing which named the Freedmen's schools wherein colored teachers were employed, we have learned that in the omission of Rust University we did that which is one of our most useful institutions an unintentional injustice. It has, among other excellent members of the faculty, two colored teachers, namely, Mr. R. R. Green and Miss A. L. Talbot. We are glad to make even this partial amendment for that oversitght, and we intend, from personal observation, to write up this school hereafter.

That was a mighty prayer by Mack Henson in which, among many mighty thoughts he expressed the following: "Lord, we thank thee for what thou hast done for us. One hundred years ago slavery existed in this country. Now there is neither a master or a slave in this land. We thank thee, Lord, for what the Methodist Episcopal Church has been permitted to contribute toward this happy result."

"We feel intensely interested for the West Texas Conference school. My opinion is that the Freedmen's Aid Society will put up a large building there worth from $15,000 to $20,000, as soon as we shall have the money to do so."—Bishop Wiley to Rev. G. W. Richardson, in Philadelphia, May, 1881.

Personal.

—Rev. N. L Rockey sends a card from Liverpool saying their party expected to sail Nov. 22d, for Bombay, all are well.

—Miss Laura Scheuck, writes Nov. 10th, of her safe arrival in Loftcha, Bulgaria, in company with Rev. and Mrs. T. Constance.

—Rev. Joseph Courtney, of Ohio district, Lexington conference, is pushing things in his usual vigorous style on his district.

—Rev. B. H. Badley reached Queenstown, Nov. 24, en route for India.

—Mack Henson, C. L. Madison, Harry Swann, J. R. Carnes, and several others are very promising men in appearance and manner.

—We learn from Bro. H. J. Wright that Bro. Alto and Sister Mitchell, Alexandria, Louisiana, were presented with a fine daughter Sunday Dec. 6th, 1884.

—Rev. Emperor Williams is said to have subscribed the first dollar toward publishing the SOUTHWESTERN and that he folded the first paper of the first number ever sent out of the office. We believe Father Green, of New Orleans claims about the same things.

—Rev. S. R. Cottrel, of the Lexington conference, now visiting in Parkersburg, informs us that he was relieved from his appointment at Georgetown, Kentucky, by the Bishop and presiding elder. What we have said touching this case must be interpreted by the above statement which we accept as true.

—Rev. E. W. Parker and Dr. T. S. Johnson with their large company arrived in Bombay, Oct. 31st. They all expected to start up country the same day reaching Cownpore on Monday, Dec. 3. Mrs. Waugh and children, with Mrs. Baume who left England on another steamer, the "Speke Hall" about the same time, had not yet arrived.

—Rev. George W. Richardson, is the next oldest of the elders, in the West Texas Conference exact counterpart of Bro. Gates, one is jet black and the other clear white, one is heavy to corpulence, the other thin visaged, both are old men and will soon finish the work they have to do. He is a faithful zealous man, and his wife is no less an earnest, tireless Christian worker than himself. He has a son in Evanston University, who is also a member of the West Texas conference.

Pictorial NEW TESTAMENT
New Revision—WITH NOTES BY
Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D. LL.D.
Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D.D.
Rev. LYMAN ABBOTT, D.D.

Illustrated New Testament,
King James' Version—with Notes by
Rev. JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, D.D. LL.D.
Rev. JACOB ABBOTT, D.D.
Agents Wanted—Outfits Free and all Freights Paid. Address
H. S. GOODSPEED & CO.
oct2-1yr New York or Chicago.

Gossamer GARMENTS Free!
To any reader of this paper who will agree to show our goods and try to influence sales among friends we will send post-paid two full size Ladies' Gossamer Rubber Waterproof Wearing Apparel as samples, provided you cut this out and return with 25 cents to pay postage, etc.
WARREN MANUFACTURING CO.
dec11-2t 9 Warren St., N. Y.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.
By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D.
WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.
Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.
Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.
Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with or without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles, Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books, Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Sheets and Cards, Tiny Text Books, etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $2 65 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock
W. D. SKILLMAN, Agent
94..... Camp Street, ...94
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.
292 .....Rampart Street..... 292
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.
sept25-tf A. LABAT, Ass't Manager.

Domestic Hygiene.

Milk May Convey Disease Germs.

BY DR. GEO. L. CURTISS.

Milk, one of the most nourishing fluids, may become a means of "conveying the poison of enteric fever and of scarlet fever." In the case of typhoid fever, the milk has most likely obtained the disease germs from the water put in the milk, which had been poisoned by typhoid excreta. "Scarlet fever poison has appeared to get into milk from the onticle or throat discharges of persons affected with scarlet fever who were employed in the dairy while ill or convalescent." Two such cases are reported as having ocourred in Louisville, Ky.

The British Medical Journal, published the following on "milk as a vehiole of infection:"

At the late meeting of the Glasgow Philosophical Society an interesting paper was read by Dr. Dougal on milk pollution, describing some experiments with regard to the impregnation of milk with gases and vapors of an offensive nature. The experiments consisted in exposing uniform portions of milk in a glass jar to the emanations of coal-gas, paraffin oil, turpentine, onions, tobacco smoke, sulphuretted hydrogen, ammonium musk, asafetida, stale urine, creosote, stale cheese, chloroform, putrid fish, decayed cabbage, etc. In every instance the milk was found to have become more or less impregnated with the characteristic odors of these bodies. As the result of his investigations and his previous experience, the lecturer stated that it was his strong conviction that milk absorbed, and could communicate, infection. At the same time he was equally sure that the boiling of milk destroyed every organism and germ which it contained; and not only so, but he was certain, also, all infected particles, which he still believed was the form assumed by specific poison. Dr. Dougal's paper gave rise to considerable discussion, and a very hearty vote of thanks was awarded him for bringing the subject before the Society.

At Lawrenceburgh, Ind., some friends obtained from Cincinnati, O., a freezer of ice cream. There were several men and women who ate of the cream the same evening. Two of the party were attacked by diphtheria, one of them dying, and all but one person were sick with diphtheritic sore throat. When the case was traced up, it was found that the man who made the ice cream was just recovering from an attack of diphtheria. Undoubtedly, the germs of the disease were exhaled from his own diseased throat, and fell into the cream, and so the disease was communicated to innocent parties.

Very much of the milk sold in towns and cities is filthy and really unfit for family use. It becomes filthy by the foul materials allowed to enter the milk as it is being milked from the cow. The milkman or maid does not use care enough to clean the teats, udder and sides of the cow before proceeding to draw the milk. Bits of the droppings, dirt, hair, etc., fall into milk, and cannot be entirely removed by straining. The gratings of these permeate the milk, and render it filthy and repulsive.

A few years ago it was demonstrated in New York city that milk from stalled cows was impure, and lacked nearly every element of healthy food. The vessicles of fat which ought to be full and rich in oil were found to be shrunken and poor. Cows need to be well fed on rich and healthful food, if the milk obtained is desired to be rich in the elements of healthy food.

In London Capt. Dudly and mate, of the wrecked Mignonette, who were found guilty of murder in killing the boy Parker for food to keep themselves alive, were sentenced to death. It is believed they will certainly be pardoned.

The early bird catches the bronchitis, and lovers of early morning walks will find to their sorrow the truth of the old proverb. If we were permitted to make a suggestion, we should whisper, "Use Dr. Bull's cough Syrup."

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

MR. EDITOR—I saw in the list of preachers of the Vicksburg conference, a name which seemed familiar to me. The name was Nathan Oliver, my father had a brother by that name. My father's name was James Oliver, but was changed to James Townes, so my name was Maggie Townes, but by marriage is changed to Boyd. I also have a brother whom I believe to be in Vickburg or that part of the country, who I would be glad to hear from. My brother's name is Sandy Townes or Oliver, he will be known by either one. Maggie Boyd, 120 Pontotoc Street, Memphis, Tenn.

MR. EDITOR—I wish to inquire for my people whom I left in Maryland county, Virginia. Two brothers, the oldest one, Nicholas, the youngest one, Horace Fights. Mother's name was Sally Howard and father's Henry Howard, and sister's Susan Howard; and when I left them they were in Washington, Virginia, but I heard my two brothers were carried to New Orleans, Nicholas and Horace by the traders. The trader that I left them with was Tom Williams. I have not heard from them since; and my name was then Rachel Fights but my name is now Rachel Dollar. Address Rachel Dollar, Chunkey Station, Newton county, Mississippi, care of Henry Lacy.

MR. EDITOR—Please help me to find my father and kin people. My father's name is Thomas Jones and I also had three brothers, John, Harrison and Thomas Jones; my sisters were named Lucy, Susan Ann and Sally Jones; Mother's name is Hannah Jones. They used to belong to Col. Charles Todd, in Shelby county, Kentucky; my name was then Delphy Wilson, my young mistress' name was Letitia Todd, married a man named Dr. John Carter and brought me from Kentucky to New Orleans and sold me to Kendrick and Foster in the trade yard, and they sold me to Benjamine Barber and he lived on the Mississippi river at that time. Any information concerning them will be gladly received. Address Delphy Wilson, Hempstead, Texas, care Charles M. Singleton.

MR. EDITOR—I want to find my father, mother, sisters and brothers. They used to belong to Wm. Akers, near Paris, Tennessee. My father's name was Gilbert, my mother's name was Millie, my three sisters, Hannah, Lucy, and Pollie. My brothers' names were Peter, Martin, James, Jack and Riley. My name is Philis Ann Jackson. Address me in care Rev. J. E. Shackleford, Navasota, Tex.

IT CURES WHEN ALL OTHER MEDICINES FAIL, as it acts DIRECTLY and AT ONCE on the KIDNEYS, LIVER and BOWELS, restoring action. It is a safe, sure and speedy cure and hundreds have been cured by it when physicians and friends had given them up to die.

IT IS BOTH A "SAFE CURE" and a "SPECIFIC."

It CURES all Diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Urinary Organs; Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Nervous Diseases, Excesses, Female Weaknesses, Jaundice, Biliousness, Headache, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Piles, Pains in the Back, Loins, or Side, Retention or Non-Retention of Urine.

$1.25 AT DRUGGISTS.

TAKE NO OTHER.

Send for Illustrated Pamphlet of Solid Testimonials of Absolute Cures.

HUNT'S REMEDY CO., Providence, R. I.

s pt-1-1y

GOLDEN PRAISE

VOLUNTARILY ACCORDED TO

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

By People who Have Proven its Benign Effects.

WARREN LELAND, New York: "There is no medicine in the world equal to AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Rheumatism.]

REV. W. E. PENNINGTON, Central South Hampton, N. B.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has made a new man of me." [Cured by it of General Debility.]

JOHN J. RYAN, Athletic B. B. C., Philadelphia, Pa.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cured me." [Cured by it of Rheumatism.]

ORLANDO SNELL, Lowell, Mass.: "I enjoy better health than ever before, due solely to the use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Carbuncles and Debility.]

NATHAN S. CLEAVELAND, Boston, Mass.: "A most valuable remedy for the lassitude and debility incident to the spring season." [His daughter cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Headaches, Dizziness, Indigestion, and General Debility.]

MILTON FOX, Dracut, Mass.: "The one I would recommend above all others as a blood purifier." [Cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Scrofulous Humor and Dyspepsia.]

SELBY CARTER, Nashville, Tenn.: "My system seemed saturated with Scrofula, but AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cured me."

HON. FRANCIS JEWETT, Lowell, Mass.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the only preparation that seems to do me any real, lasting good." [Cured by it of Blood Impurities.]

MRS. E. B. TOMPKINS, Brooklyn, N. Y.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has done me untold good. Nothing else has been so efficacious." [Cured by it of Feminine Ailments.]

FRANK M. GRIFFIN, Long Point, Texas: "Has worked like a charm; no medicine could have accomplished more." [His child cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA of Scrofulous Sores.]

MRS. H. MCKAY, Lowell, Mass.: "I can recommend AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to all afflicted." [Her son cured by it of Scrofulous Swellings, Dizziness, and Internal Fever.]

GEO. ANDREWS, Lowell, Mass.: "No doubt whatever that I owe my recovery to AYER'S SARSAPARILLA." [Cured by it of Salt Rheum.]

HENRY J. CHAPMAN, Nashua, N. H.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a perfect blood purifier." [Cured by it of long standing and severe Scrofulous Humors.]

MRS. LORENZO S. RUGGLES, Auburn, Me.: "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has proved its superiority to all others." [Cured by it of Feminine Weaknesses.]

Almost "all the ills that flesh is heir to" spring from, or are intensified by, impurities in the blood, the result of hereditary taint or of a wrong manner of living. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA thoroughly purifies the blood, gives tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and imparts new vitality to the nervous system. The only preparation of this class for which these claims can be truthfully made, and the only one that does "real, lasting good," is

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.

Sold by all druggists; price $1; six bottles for $5.

Lord Rosebery presided over and Stanley delivered the inaugural address to the Scottish Geographical Society. Stanley dwelt upon the great importance of the Congo country to Great Britain as an outlet for her trade when most of the nations are adopting protective measures. He said her usefulness will be found in the Congo country, where the African International Association is promoting free trade and enterprise. A settlement of the disputed questions, irrespective of nationality, had also secured revenue to carry out the work.

Diseases of the kidneys and bladder are very prevalent among men past middle age, and those most difficult diseases to cure are on the increase. HUNT'S [Kidney and Liver] REMEDY has long been known to be most successful in the cure of these diseases. "Never known to fail."

All the cotton factories in the vicinity of Augusta, Ga., have advanced the price of goods a quarter of a cent a yard. The mills are running full time.

"See What Cuticura Does for Me!"

INFANTILE and Birth Humors, Milk Crust, Scalled Head, Eczemas, and every form of Itching, Scaly, Pimply, Scrofulous and Inherited Diseases of the Blood, Skin and Scalp, with Loss of Hair, cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Absolutely pure and safe. Cuticura the great Skin Cure, 50 cts.; Cuticura soap exquisite Skin Beautifier and only Medicinal Baby Soap, 25 cts., and Cuticura Resolvent, the new Blood Purifier, $1, are sold by druggists. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases."

April-10

WILEY UNIVERSITY.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

Academic Year opened Sept. 22

No School Does More for its Pupils.

College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.

Located on easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.

Competent and Experienced Faculty.

Expenses Very Low.

For Catalogue and particulars address:

Rev. N. D. CLIFFORD, Pres't.
oct9 Marshall, Texas.

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine.

OUR CLUBBING LIST,

—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$9 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,

100 ..... Franklin Street 100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.

sept2-6m

Opens Tuesday, December 16, 1884

In the presence of the Presidents of the American Republics, viz: Arthur, of the United States; Diaz, of Mexico; Barrios, of Guatemala; Bogran, of Honduras.

The Colossal Exhibit of all Time!

Sixteen (16) Immense Exhibition Buildings:

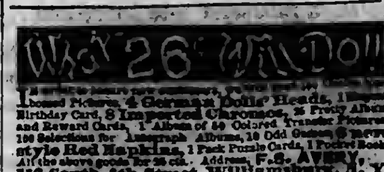
One—the largest building ever erected, another—the largest Conservatory in the World.

90 Acres of Space Under Cover!

Low Transportation Rates from all Points.

Ample Accommodations at Reasonable Rates for all Visitors.

During the period of the Exposition, from Dec. 16, 1884, to June 1, 1885 the temperature at New Orleans averages 65 Fahr. The lawn and shrubbery remain green, flowers bloom, fruits ripen, and all kinds of vegetables grow and mature.



All information promptly furnished. Address

L. A. SHORB, Director General,
New Orleans, La.

AGENTS make over 100 per cent. selling new CORRUGATED Reflecting Safety Lamp which can be sold in every family. Gives more light than three ordinary lamps. Complete lamp sent for 50 cts. Insurance. Our Perfect Coffee Pot beats all others. Circulars sent free. FORSEE & McMAKIN, Cincinnati, O.

oct30 1.eow

Send 26 cts. for postage, and receive free, 12 Beautiful Gold Edge Heads, 1 Beautiful Picture, 4 Germania Dolls' Heads, 1 Beautiful Birthday Card, 8 Imported Chromos, 5 Pretty Album and Reward Cards, 1 Album of 40 Colored Transfer Pictures, 100 Selections for Autograph Albums, 16 Odd Quaint Mottoes, 1 new style Red Napkins, 1 Pack Puzzle Cards, 1 Postage Book. All the above goods for 26 cts. Address, F. S. AVERY, 116 South 4th Street, Williamsburg, N. Y.

dec11-2t

4 % LONG LOANS.

PRINCIPAL need never be REPAID

so long as interest is kept up. Personal security only for interest. Honest poor or men of moderate means can send 6 cents for particulars, loan forms, etc. Address T. GARDNER, Manager, Palace Building, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

se p18 26tf

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R

In Connection with the

"Great Jackson Route,"

Makes the following

FAST TIME.

STATIONS.	Daily
Leave New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss.	12:38 a m
Canton	1:30 a m
Durant	2:52 p m
Grenada	4:50 a m
Coffeeville	5:25 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:43 a m
Holly Springs	7:54 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 a m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	11:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:58 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:28 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:26 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:29 p m
" Louisville, "	6:50 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:05 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car is run from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. jy31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m.
Mail No. 4....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3..12:05 a.m.
Sunday Excur'n 7:30 a.m.	Sunday Excur'n 5:30 p.m.

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Ass't Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MATT KENNEDY, Ticket Agent

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	3:00 a m	7:45 p m
Coast Accommodation	3:35 p m	2:10 A m
Fast Mail	8:10 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. O. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. B. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Harahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M. Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division.

se25-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE

TO

Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn. and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City. For emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Emigrants' Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri—mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City,
or H. D. ELLIS,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
C. N. WINNER,
Southern Pass. Agt 28 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

CATARRH

Send 50 cts. and symptoms for treatment, to last 30 days, by mail postpaid. Which will convince the most incredulous that Dr. Sanderson positively and permanently cures at small expense, by a pleasant treatment, the worst cases of Catarrh, though the bones of the nose have become affected, causing Loss of Smell, Offensive Breath, Sore Throat, Deafness, Hay Fever, Coughs, Bronchitis and Incipient Consumption. No fraud, quack, douches, inhalers or atomizers used. Over 3000 cases cured. The best internal treatment ever discovered for each distressing disease. Address Dr. C. N. SANDERSON, [Mention this paper.] 69 Vesper Avenue, Louisville, Ky.

oct2-1yr

A PRIZE Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine.

sept6

General News Items.

The South Carolina Legislature ... to the United States Senate.

Lord Dufferin, the new viceroy of India, was given a brilliant reception at ...

Prof. ... friends are pressing ... New York Senatorship.

Negotiations between Li Hung Chang ... Li and the ... Tsin Tsin have ... which the French ... Hanoi.

It is ... political ... has ... and Gen. Logan to maintain a ... will ... receive further orders.

Senator Miller, of California, will ... whether ... to regulate Chinese immigration, and with reference to the taking of ... The United States Supreme Court ... the act of July 7 ... legatory.

Representative Springer has decided to appoint Messrs. Vandeventer and Stewart members of the sub-committee to visit Ohio and investigate the conduct of United States Marshal Wright at the elec... by the House ... Secretary of the Treasury ... favorably reported from the Senate committee on finance, but Senator Ruddlebarger objected to ... consideration.

Joseph C. Mackin, secretary of the Cook County Democratic central committee, was arrested on the complaint of A. M. Day, secretary of the citizens' committee, which has undertaken to unearth the ... is to the sixth legislative district of Illinois. Henry W. Lehman and Rudolph Brand being Republicans and the Democratic candidates respectively. This is the case ... Federal grand jury has been investigating. The complaint charges Machin with aiding some ... or persons in sub...

The M. E. Church.

Board of Education—Annual Meeting for 1884.

The annual meeting of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church was held in New York on Nov. 12.

The following new members were in attendance, having been appointed by the General Conference and by action of the Board of Bishops, namely, Bishops Harris and Andrews, and the Rev. Drs. L. R. Fisk, of Albion, Mich.; W. M. Frysinger, of Baltimore, Md.; and A. S. Hunt, of New York.

After a temporary organization, resolutions were adopted expressive of the great loss the Board had sustained in the decease of its late and honored President, Bishop Simpson. The reports of the Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer presented a full exhibit of the affairs of the Board, from which the following items are condensed.

Outside of income from invested funds, the receipts of the Board, from Children's Day and other collections, legacies, special donations, the repayment of loans and the disposal of Centennary historic medals, had reached the sum of $56,181.65. The continued advance in the receipts of the Board was accepted as conclusive proof of the growing favor with which its objects and work are regard by the Church. Running through a period of five years, the aggregates of receipts from the sources named have been as follows, namely: 1880, $2,079.24; 1881, $9,256.86; 1882, $18,026.56; 1883, $32,718.42; 1884, $56,181.65. The year closing Nov. 1, had the advantage of sharing in part the extra efforts appropriate to the present Centennial period, which it is hoped have by no means ended.

Corresponding progress has been made in the system and efficiency with which the available funds of the Board are disbursed in aid of worthy and needy students throughout the whole extent of the Church. From among a few representative applications which were read, the following specimen is selected as representing an urgent class of wants which the Board is meeting through the institutions of the Church.

Texas, March 20, 1884.—To the Board of Education: I never went to school a month in my life. All the learning I have got I learned at home, at 12 o'clock when I quit plowing, and at night I was persuaded of my duty, and I sought every way that I could to get an education and sought with tears and prayers to God, and at last I heard the voice of my mother, saying, "I have prepared a way," and when I got this blank (form of application to the Board of Education for aid) my heart leaped for joy. And this is my spiritual mother, the Methodist Episcopal Church. I want to go school next Sept. 24.

I am, your brother in Christ.

Urgent applications were presented for aid in behalf of native candidates for the ministry in Norway and Japan. A teacher in the Anglo-Japanese College connected with our mission in Tokio says: "We have in our school now, and still coming to us every week, bright young men who are worthy, but poor. They are willing to do any work we may be able to give them to earn an education, but we can only employ three or four. Many of these are Christian young men fleeing from heathen homes, and hence cannot get support from those homes if they enter a Christian school. Others are the sons of very poor parents, who could not give their sons $5 a year. We are much troubled because we can do nothing for these really worthy cases. Sixty dollars will thoroughly school one of these young men for a year. A small amount thus expended now would bring quick and large returns. We greatly need well educated young men for the ministry."

It may be added that calls for the aid of students in our seminaries and colleges in all parts of the United States were never before so urgent. For all of the above objects donations were appropriated as follows:

W. L. Harris, ...
..., J. W. Lindsey, ...
..., D. P. Kidder.

CATARRH

CATARRH IS A DANGEROUS DISEASE, yet it can be cured by the use of our Catarrh Specific. Thousands suffer without knowing the nature of this almost universal complaint. It is an inflammation or ulceration of the lining membrane of the nasal passages. There are several varieties of Catarrh, with widely different symptoms. The most common kind is characterized by an excessive secretion of mucus or matter in the nasal passages, which most either be blown from the nose, or drop back behind the palate, or is hawked or snuffed backward to the throat.

Other indications are hawking, spitting, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat, often ringing or roaring or other noises in the ears, more or less impairing of the hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dullness and dizziness of the head, and dryness and heat of the nose.

All persons thus affected take cold easily. The breath sometimes reveals to all around the corruption within, while the patient often loses all sense of smell. The disease advances covertly, until pain in the chest, lungs or bowels, startles him; he hacks and coughs, has dyspepsia, liver complaint, and is urged by his doctors to take this or that; perhaps, cod liver oil is prescribed. Perfectly ridiculous! The foul ulcers in the head can not be reached by pouring such stuff into the poor, jaded stomach. The patient becomes nervous; the voice harsh and unnatural; he feels disheartened; memory loses its power; judgment her seat; gloomy forebodings hang overhead, hoodreds, yes thousands, in such circumstances, feel that to die would be a relief, and many even do cut the thread of life to end their sorrows.

THOUSANDS ARE DYING

In early life with consumption, who can look back a few years—perhaps only months when it was Catarrh. Neglected when cure is possible, very soon it will transform the features of health and youth into the dark, pallid appearance, while the hacking cough, the excess of blood coming from the lungs, or night sweats, all significantly proclaim it is too late; and thus a neglected Catarrh ends in the consumptive's grave.

NASAL CATARRH.

Sometimes the disease only affects the membranes lining the nasal passages, and they may be easily reached and cured by simple means. But when it is located in the "frontal sinus," or in the "posterior nares," or if it has entered the "Eustachian tubes," and is inflaming the ears, nothing but finely medicated vapor can effectually reach it and destroy it. And certainly after it has affected the throat and bronchial tubes, as all well read physicians will readily attest, nothing can be relied on to effect a permanent cure but the inhalation of properly medicated vapor. In the same manner that we breathe a common air we can inhale and breathe a medicated air, and it is perfectly simple, any one can see, thus to treat a disease of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. How much better this method by which remedies are conveyed directly to the seat of the disease, than to resort to the uncertain and too frequently mischievous action of medicines taken into the stomach.

THE COLD AIR INHALING BALM.

This part of my treatment I regard as very important, especially in warding off colds (which is half the battle), and in relieving the head and lungs while under their effects. The balm is composed of several kinds of gums, balsams, fats and essential oils which are separately used by the best physicians in treating throat, bronchial and lung diseases. These I have combined and concentrated their virtues, which, by the inhaling process, are drawn through the various passages of the head and respiratory organs, reaching and healing every irritated spot. If used when cold first makes its appearance—which usually begins by irritation of the mucous lining of the nose, and a sneeze, which is nature's emphatic warning—it will invariably check it; and by producing a quicker circulation, and by throwing the blood to the surface, the bad effects of a cold are warded off. It is pleasant to use and almost instant in its effect.

SOME BAD SYMPTOMS.

The long continued corruption of the air that is breathed passing over the foul matter in the nasal passages poisons the lungs and from thence the blood. The morbid matter that is swallowed during sleep passes into the stomach, enfeebles the digestion, vitiates the secretions and pollutes the very fountains of life. The patient becomes feverish occasionally, there is less buoyancy of spirits, the appetite is often fickle, the head less clear, it is difficult to keep the energies up to the old standard, and often, without knowing why, he is conscious that he is not as well all the time as he used to be. These symptoms indicate that the vital organs are becoming impaired so that they cannot perform their natural healthy functions. Our constitutional treatment is devised to assist nature in removing all poisonous material from the system and to neutralize and counteract its baleful effects on the vital organs and on the blood.

Among Women Catarrh is very common. The decrees of fashion compel women to go from the dry atmosphere of furnace-heated houses into the open air, with the head poorly protected. Many suffer keenly from bronchitis and difficulties of the throat and lungs.

Teachers in our Schools are greatly subjected to this fearful malady. Confinement in close, ill-ventilated school-rooms; the overheated atmosphere, charged with the steaming poison exuding from the bodies of the not always over-clean children, breed this disease with fearful rapidity.

Lawyers in the Court Room and Judges on the bench, from the same general cause, are too often affected in the same way.

Ministers of the Gospel, after leaving the pulpit over-heated with the strain of their mental and physical effort, neglect sufficient precaution and cold is the result. This result opens the way to Catarrh, and to a possible loss of voice. I have suffered so keenly myself that I can not urge upon public speakers too strongly the necessity of removing this disease while a cure is possible.

MY EXPERIENCE.

Eighteen Years of terrible headache, disgusting nasal discharges, dryness of the throat, acute bronchitis, coughing, soreness of the lungs, rising bloody mucus, and even night sweats, incapacitating me from my professional duties, and bringing me to the verge of the grave—all were caused by, and the result of nasal catarrh. After spending hundreds of dollars and obtaining no relief, I compounded my Catarrh Specific and Cold Air Inhaling Balm, and wrought upon myself a wonderful cure. Now I can speak for hours with no difficulty, and can breathe freely in any atmosphere. At the call of numerous friends, I have given my cure to the public, and have now thousands of patients in all parts of the country, and thousands of happy fellow-beings whose sufferings I have relieved. My cure is certain, thorough and perfect, and is endorsed by every physician who has examined it. If I can relieve my fellow-beings as I have been relieved of this loathsome disease, which makes the possessor at once disgusting to himself and other, I shall be satisfied and feel that I have done my little toward removing the ills of mankind.

T. P. CHILDS.

THE FOLLOWING FROM OTHER PUBLISHERS HAS GIVEN US EVERY CONFIDENCE IN RECOMMENDING MR. CHILDS TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS:

"The publishers and editors of the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, have known Rev. T. P. Childs for many years, and feel every confidence in any statements he may make. Our subscribers can feel every confidence in giving their cases into his hands for treatment." "While not supposing that all cases of Catarrh will be cured by the prescription advertised, the publishers of the Illustrated Christian Weekly, of New York after diligent inquiry, have reason to believe that it has, in many cases, proved effectual." The publishers of the Congregationalist, of Boston, with multitudes of other people, are somewhat suspicious of patent medicines as a rule, and when we received the advertisement of Mr. Childs, we at first declined its insertion; but on making inquiry, we received such satisfactory replies, and one especially from a well-known Congregational pastor not far from Rev. Mr. Childs, the proprietor of the medicine, that we withdrew our objections." "The publishers of the St. Louis Christian Advocate, after careful investigation, are satisfied that Rev. T. P. Child's treatment for the head, throat and lungs is all that it is represented to be."

THE EXPERIENCE OF OTHERS.

The record is a guarantee that Child's Treatment for Catarrh and all diseases of the Head, Throat and Lungs, is not new and untried, but a positive and certain remedy. We, above all things, desire to establish confidence in our treatment, so that every sufferer from Catarrh, Bronchitis and their effects on the Lungs and other Vital Organs may feel certain of success in its use.

Only Fair We deem it only fair that every one who wishes should have the opportunity to ascertain whether we are able to accomplish all that we claim; and for this purpose we add a few of the many thousands of unsolicited certificates which have been sent to us by grateful patients—almost any of whom will doubtless respond to any inquiry by letter if accompanied by a stamp to pay postage. Having been cured themselves, they will be willing to let the afflicted know where they can find certain relief. We have thousands of these certificates from all classes—physicians, clergymen, lawyers, judges, merchants, bankers, business men, farmers, young men and old, children and adults.

Mr. Z. Z. Lee, of Grangeville, St. Helena Par., La., writes: "I cannot speak too highly in praise of your valuable remedies which act like a charm in relieving the loathsome disease for which they are recommended.

I have been permanently cured of Catarrh in the head by the use of your Catarrh Specific. I will answer all letters addressed to me in regard to this subject.

E. POWELL,
Heath, Bark county, N. C.

No amount of money could induce me to be placed in the misery I was in when I commenced using your medicines. J. C. McILVAIN, Fulton, Mo.

I am so far recovered that I am able to attend church, can walk half a mile. Have a good appetite, am gaining all the time.

Mrs. A. N. MUNGER, Detroit, Mich.

Now I am cured: head free; air passage all open, and breathing natural. A thousand thanks to you for so sure a remedy.

JUDGE J. COLLETT, Lima, Ohio.

Your Cold Air Inhaling Balm, has proved a great benefit to Mrs. Marble as well as myself. I can heartily recommend it to others.

E. MARBLE, Concord, Mich.

Home Treatment Child's Treatment for Catarrh and all diseases of the Head, throat and Lungs, can be taken at home with perfect ease and safety by the patient. We especially desire to treat those who have tried other remedies without success. A full statement of method of home treatment and cost will be sent on application.

Address, REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, Ohio.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY.
Atlanta, Georgia,
Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry.
A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oct18-tf

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,
Cocoa and Canton Matting, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain Goods,
Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Plates, Fire Screens, Etc.
75 Camp Street, ... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade. Samples of WALL PAPER sent on application. oct9-6m

Crescent Insurance Company.
Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.
CASH CAPITAL ..... $600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.
W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Deiser, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Secty.
TRUSTEES
Joseph Rowling, Sam H. Kennedy, Geo. W. Scott, Alfred Moulton, W. R. Lyman, U. Marionni, Chas. H. Deiser, John Calder, A. H. Wright, S. O. Conlon, Harry L. Flash, Wm. A. Phelps, J. J. Reiss, Louis Prados, Ladies Delsry, Charles Heerman, N. D. Wallace, Sigmund Katz, M. Gillis, R. F. W. Beckman, O. K. David, Wm. Garig, A. Rosenfield, John D. Rickey, Chas. R. Rice, Joseph Kohn, Chas. M. Whitney, James T. Reed.
☞ See our Agents throughout the South. oct2 1y

CHILDS' CATARRH Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS. Feb7-1y

BELLS.

The following prices include the Mountings.

CHURCH BELLS.

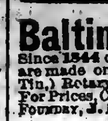
Diameter.	Weight.	Bell & Mounting.	Price
26 inches	175 lbs	225 lbs	$45 00
28 "	225 lbs	275 lbs	55 00
32 "	350 lbs	550 lbs	80 00
36 "	550 lbs	800 lbs	125 00
40 "	750 lbs	1050 lbs	160 00
44 "	1000 lbs	1350 lbs	200 00
48 "	1300 lbs	1800 lbs	260 00
54 "	2100 lbs	2900 lbs	400 00

SCHOOL BELLS.

18 inches	100 lbs	$12 00
20 inches	130 lbs	15 00
24 inches	190 lbs	25 00

We have arranged to furnish our churches and schools with these bells at the prices named, which is the same as they can be bought for in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they are made.

The bells are too well known to need any recommendation from us.



On receipt of the price we will at once order the bells shipped.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
tf 32 Natchez st., New Orleans, La.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY.
Bells of Pure Copper and Tin for Churches, Schools, Fire Alarms, Farms, etc. FULLY WARRANTED. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDUZEN & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.
mar20-1y

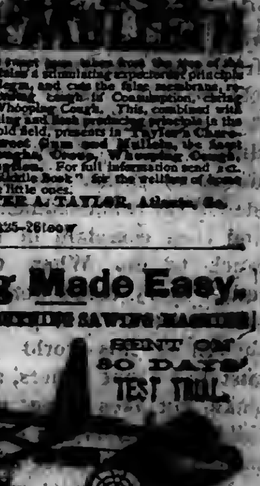
MENEELEY BELL COMPANY.
The Finest Grade of Church Bells
Greatest Experience. Largest Trade.
Illustrated Catalogue mailed free.
Clinton H. Meneeley Bell Co.,
TROY, N. Y.
nov26-1yr

McShane Bell Foundry
Manufacture these celebrated Bells and Chimes for Churches, Tower Clocks, &c., &c. Price-list and circulars sent free. Address
HENRY McSHANE & CO.
oct23-1y Baltimore, Md.

Baltimore Church Bells
Since 1844 celebrated for Superiority over others, are made only of Purest Bell Metal, (Copper and Tin.) Rotary Mountings, warranted satisfactory. For Prices, Circulars, &c. address BALTIMORE BELL FOUNDRY, J. REGESTER & SONS, Baltimore, Md.
feb1-26t-eow

BLYMYER M'F'G CO. BELLS.
Church, School, Fire-alarm, Plantation, low-priced, warranted. Catalogue with 1500 testimonials, prices, etc., sent free.
Blymyer Manufacturing Co., Cincinnati, O.
July3 26teow

GOOD NEWS TO LADIES!
Greatest inducements ever offered. Now's your time to get up orders for our celebrated Teas and Coffees, and secure a beautiful Gold Band or Moss Rose China Tea Set, or Handsome Decorated Gold Band Moss Rose Dinner Set, or Gold Band Moss Decorated Toilet Set. For full particulars address
THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA CO.,
P. O. Box 289. 31 and 33 Vesey St., New York.
oct23-13t



The Great Church Light
Established 1857.
PRINK'S Patent Reflectors for Gas or Oil, give the most powerful, softest, cheapest & best light known for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Banks, Theatres, Depots, etc. New and elegant designs. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. A Liberal discount to churches and the trade. Don't be deceived by cheap imitations.
I. P. PRINK, 551 Pearl St., N. Y.

YOU CAN MAKE MONEY Fast in a pleasant business. Address Fitzgerald, Graham & Co., New Orleans, La.
oct23-4teow

STEAM COOKED CEREALS.
Choicest Foods in the World, for Old and Young.
A. B. C. WHITE OATS. A. B. C. WHITE WHEAT.
A. B. C. Barley Food. A. B. C. Hominy.
American Breakfast Cereals.
Selected grain, all hulls, cockle, and impurities removed. Cleaned, Steam Cooked and Desiccated. Patented. Prepared, as wanted, for the table, in ten minutes. Saving money. Saving fuel. Saving time. Saving waste. Saving health. Easy to digest, being already thoroughly cooked and dried (desiccated.)
Ask for A. B. C. only. (Registered Trade-Mark.)
For sale by all Grocers. THE CEREALS M'f'g Co. Send for circulars. 32 BROADWAY ST., NEW YORK.
dec6-tfeow

The Ministers' and Teachers' Bible.
This magnificent Parlor Bible is imported from London and is indorsed as the first by the leading Bishops of England. In addition to the Old and New Testaments it contains a Concordance of Bible Words, 40,000 References with Contents, An Encyclopedia, A Dictionary of Proper Names, with Pronunciation, 36 full page colored Maps, Poetry, Music, Mythology, Plants, Animals, and 24 other books of the Bible, etc. "Superior to all others."—N. Y. Times. "A complete Biblical Encyclopedia."—Leslie's Times. This is bound in French morocco, gilt edge, with silk book-marks, and is a complete reference. Rev. Eli Thurston, Norwalk, O., writes: "The Bibles received to-day I like more than pleased." A Grand Offer! To rapidly introduce this Bible in America we will, for a few days, send one copy, postpaid, to any address on receipt of only $2.00. Send 25 cents for specimen pages and see copy of Revised New Testament for Children. Other Bibles, with less matter, sell for $5. Circulars free. AGENTS WANTED! Circulars free.
C. S. MAYO & CO., 169 La Salle st., Chicago, Ill.
jan31-26teow

SWEET GUM & MULLEIN
The great home remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Contains a stimulating expectorant principle which loosens the phlegm, and cures the most obstinate cough. Relieves the most severe Coughs in Consumption, Croup, Asthma, Croup, and Whooping Cough. This, combined with the mucilaginous healing and lung producing principle in the Mullein Plant of the old field, presents in Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein the most unequaled remedy for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Colds, and Consumption. For full information send 2c. stamp for "Taylor's Riddle Book" for the welfare of home and amusement of the little ones.
WALTER A. TAYLOR, Atlanta, Ga.
sept25-26teow

Sawing Made Easy.
MONARCH LIGHTNING SAWING MACHINE.

SENT ON 30 DAYS' TEST TRIAL.
For logging camps, wood-yards, farmers, quarries and stove wood, and all sorts of log-cutting. 44 is unrivaled. Thousands sold yearly. A boy of 16 can saw logs large and easy. Immense saving of labor and money. Write for elegantly illustrated catalogue to 6 factory prices, also brilliantly illuminated poster in 8 colors. All sizes. Agents Wanted. No money made quickly.
MONARCH M'F'G CO., (A) 288 State St., Chicago, Ill.
sept18-

HARTER'S IRON TONIC
THE ONLY TRUE
Will purify the blood, tone the LIVER and KIDNEYS and RESTORE THE APPETITE and VIGOR of YOUTH. Cures Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Indigestion, Loss of Flesh and Tired Feeling, Nervousness, Chills and Fever, Malaria, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Debility, Kidneys and Liver Complaint, Impure Blood, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Ulcers, Sores, Humors, Etc. Relieves the mind and supplies Brain Power. Suffering from exhaustion, debility or their peculiar weaknesses will find in DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC a safe and speedy cure. Gives a clear, healthy complexion. Frequent attempts at counterfeiting only add to the popularity of the original. Do not experiment—get the ORIGINAL AND BEST.
Send your address to The Dr. Harter Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo., for our "DREAM BOOK," full of strange and useful information, free.
may6-1y

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Me.
aug14-1y

Absolutely Pure.
This Powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
106 Wall Street, N. Y.

Sunday-School and Children.

FOURTH QUARTER. Lesson XII. Dec. 21. The Seven Deacons, Ecclesiastes xii, 1-14.

In this lesson we have what [illegible] premature, [illegible] of God. When a [illegible] his last words to his children, or a minister to his people, he will [illegible] is the very [illegible] So [illegible] to the young [illegible] thy Creator," "before [illegible] days." In the lives of the [illegible] there are days of so much [illegible] suffering, [illegible] evil days. The only way to be ready for these is to have remembered our Creator in the [illegible] days of youth. Solomon gives a beautiful description of old age, in which he speaks of the "[illegible] eyes," as "they that look out of the windows" being "darkened," the [illegible] lips, as "the keepers of the house shall tremble," gray hairs as "the white blossom of the almond tree," and death, as "the loosing of the "silver cord," and "the pitcher broken at the fountain," as man's "long home," [illegible] wonderful and poetical [illegible] the closing years of life. [illegible] that Solomon under, [illegible] soul of man is not of [illegible] as his body, as [illegible] to be very wise [illegible] He knew as [illegible] death of a good [illegible] the opening of a door [illegible] caged bird, for his spirit free [illegible] body goes to its native [illegible] home of God. [illegible] given as the [illegible] matter? [illegible] to learn [illegible] to himself and [illegible] Fear God and keep [illegible] is the whole [illegible] Many people make [illegible] themselves that are out [illegible] fundamentals of God, [illegible] sins of having too [illegible] Lord shall [illegible] evil, [illegible] world we make [illegible] others, and others [illegible] is old [illegible] his Creator [illegible] to his laws, [illegible] in his promises.—

General Alabama Conference.

[illegible] session of the [illegible] Conference con- [illegible] Alabama, Nov [illegible] J. M. Walden, [illegible] elected the open- [illegible] by reading the [illegible] and prayer. He [illegible] [illegible] felt [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

SOUTHWESTERN Christian Advocate

VOL. 19—NO 52. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, DECEMBER 25, 1884. WHOLE NUMBER 792.

THE SOUTHWESTERN

PUBLISHED BY

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN,

[illegible] Natchez Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

PHILLIPS & HUNT, Agents.

MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D.D., Editor.

[illegible] $1.50 per Year, Cash in Advance; [illegible] to Foreign, $1.

Entered at the Post-office at New Orleans, La., as Second Class Matter.

[illegible] Preachers of the Methodist Episco[illegible] authorized Agents. [illegible] may begin at any time and the [illegible] until paid for.

[illegible] made by Registered Letter [illegible] Order, Draft, Note, or by Express, at [illegible] Risk. [illegible] & Hunt.

[illegible] matter not of a business nature must be addressed [illegible] the Editor.

ADVERTISING RATES:

[illegible] Line, each insertion,) [illegible] 1 month, [illegible] 3 " [illegible] 6 " [illegible] 9 " [illegible] 12 " [illegible] Column, one year

Editorial Notes.

[illegible] upon this wise, [illegible] a night, [illegible] wealth of Pantheries, [illegible] Alps. [illegible] upon the East [illegible] dust swear, [illegible] to make him fewer, [illegible] for him to eat.

"On earth peace and good will to men."

"There was no room for them in the inn."

"Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord."

[illegible] brought forth her first born [illegible] and wrapped him in swaddling [illegible] and laid him in a manger."

[illegible] Bro. R. Lee, of this [illegible] year, not sent us [illegible] Home its failing by [illegible] Texas and Austin Con[illegible], when it should have been [illegible] them, was not our fault.

[illegible] teacher who is a member [illegible] Methodist Episcopal [illegible] Church, and is thoroughly com[illegible] for the [illegible] position, can secure a good [illegible] by corresponding with the [illegible] of the SOUTHWESTERN at [illegible]

WEST NEBRASKA MISSION.—[illegible] and spiritual success [illegible] this frontier work. [illegible] worthies have taken [illegible] Lake Park. Two churches [illegible] were to be dedi[illegible]. The superintend[illegible] of boys for these [illegible] ability and [illegible] talent in charge [illegible]

[illegible] learn the [illegible] by buying [illegible] —SOUTH[illegible] ADVOCATE. [illegible] the [illegible] Please, [illegible] years [illegible] ex[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [

...ry in Philadelphia. Societies were gathered in Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, and must have been very small. In 1771 Mr. Wesley sent out Francis Asbury and Richard Wright. The latter soon returned to England; but Mr. Asbury's heart yearned for America. He superintended the societies, and ... subsequently the pioneer Bishop of the church. Capt. Webb's visit to England in 1772 induced Mr. Wesley to send to America Thomas Rankin and George Shadford, with whom he returned in 1773. Mr. Rankin was appointed by Mr. Wesley General Superintendent of the preachers in conference. Mr. Rankin called the preachers together in Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, to hold their annual conference. The minutes showed ten preachers stationed, 1160 members. Capt. Webb earnestly labored until the breaking out of the Revolutionary War, but was never connected with the conference. The next conference met in Philadelphia in May, 1774; reported 17 preachers and 2073 members; and in 1775 19 preachers, with 3148 members. This growth is remarkable when we consider the time in which it occurred. The rise of Methodism was coequal with the revolutionary spirit. Methodism was cradled in the revolution, and it grew up in the midst of the storm of battle. Other denominations, at this time, were strong and prosperous, having the patronage of the general government, founding colleges and institutions of learning to meet the demands of their own denominations, at least in part. The close of 1775 began the centennial period. We find the Methodism of the world to be as follows: In England, Ireland and Scotland, 140 ministers and 34,097 members; in America, 19 ministers and 3148 members; a total membership of 38,145. Not yet organized into churches, they had but little religious literature, and without any school except the one at Kingswood. The membership was generally poor and without social influence. In the United States (or colonies) we had only one church edifice, St. George's, in Philadelphia, and it was without gallery, unplastered, unseated and but half floored. From such a beginning see the wonderful results! With gratitude to His great name we exclaim, What hath God wrought!

Two years after the Declaration of Independence all the ministers from England had returned except Mr. Asbury. Methodism experienced many hardships, scourgings, and imprisonment of its ministers. Asbury, Ezekiel Cooper, Jonathan Forrest, William Wren, Joseph Hartley and Freeborn Smith were among the sufferers for preaching redeeming love and saving grace through Christ. Mr. Asbury was regarded with much suspicion by the army officers, and forced to retire from public teaching until a private letter to a friend fell into their hands, and the calm address of Mr. Wesley to the American colonies had a very pleasing effect upon the public mind generally.

At the conference held in Virginia in 1779 preachers were ordained to administer the sacraments. The ministers of the Church of England had all fled, with few exceptions, and left whole parishes destitute, and the field was left open to Methodist preachers, and they were welcomed by the mass of the people. The Revolutionary War closed in 1782, but the definite treaty of peace was not signed until 1783. That year Mr. Asbury urged John Dickens to go to New York and reinstate the publishing interests of the church, which began before the revolution. Mr. Wesley was earnestly urged to ordain ministers for America, and he selected Dr. Coke as Superintendent, who organized the societies in ... a distinct church. Dr. Coke, being fully equipped for America, Richard Whatcoat and Thomas Vasey were selected to accompany him, both were experienced ... They met Mr. Wesley at Bristol and he ordained ... and elders, and Dr. Coke ... General superintendent. He also designated Francis Asbury to be associated with Dr. Coke, and in September, 1784, Dr. Coke and his companions left England and arrived in New York Nov. 3, where they were warmly received by Mr. Dickens who was in charge of the church in that city. Mr. Asbury, hearing of the arrival of Dr. Coke, invited a number of preachers to meet at Barrett's Chapel. Here Asbury and Coke met and embraced each other with brotherly love. The first sacramental season ever conducted by ordained Methodist ministers in America was held amid deep religious feelings. The plans for future labor were fully considered. Mr. Garretson was sent southward to summons the preachers to meet in General Conference, on Christmas Day, in Baltimore. At 10 o'clock on Christmas Day, 1784, the General Conference commenced in Lovely Lane Chapel, in Baltimore. There were then only eighty-three preachers occupying circuits, and about sixty of these assembled. A letter from Mr. Wesley was read stating the appointment of Dr. Coke and Mr. Asbury, and of the ordination of Whatcoat and Vasey to act as elders, advising them to be independent of the English hierachy, and follow the Scriptures and the primitive church. On motion of Mr. Dickens it was unanimously agreed to form an independent church, to be called the Methodist Episcopal Church, which name distinguishes it from all other church organizations and Methodist bodies. It is electrifying, Christianizing, and is filling the world with beatification and brotherly love. The general minutes of Mr. Wesley were accepted, and all the usages of the church remain intact. Never in all ecclesiastical history was such a change so unanimously adopted—without a dissenting vote in the organization of the Church as to its name or as to its outline of government. All was done in harmony and Christian fellowship. Subsequently all formality of ministerial superfluous dressing was laid aside. So Methodist Episcopal bishops, elders and deacons may stand in the pulpits of the churches, as little incumbered by long gowns as a merchant does behind his counter. Plainliness and cleanliness are distinguishing features among us, and in keeping with an utilitarian and progressive age of exalted civilization. We find the number of members were 14,983, and number of preachers increased from 19 to 83. Dr. Coke and Bishop Asbury traveled Southward and held their first annual conference for the South at the residence of Mr. Green Hill, in North Carolina; from thence they passed to the Virginia Conference, held at Mr. Mason's house, thence to the Baltimore conference. On their way from Virginia to Baltimore they called upon General Washington, dining with him at Mt. Vernon. He received them politely and conversed with them on the subject of slavery. They had prepared a petition asking for the emancipation of the Negroes. Gen. Washington agreed with them in sentiment, but did not deem it proper to sign it. At the adjournment of the Baltimore conference, on the 5th of June, 1785, Bishop Asbury laid the corner stone of Cokesbury College, at Abingdon, about 18 miles northeast of Baltimore. The increase in ministers and members from 1784 to 1792 was very large. The minutes show 83 ministers, and 14,988 members, but in 1792 we had 266 ministers, and 65,980 members. Between 1792 and 1796 the Church experienced much fighting without, and fear within, secession and falling of many who began and did run well for a season. But from every battle field Zion comes forth stronger and purer. The Gospel as preached by Methodist ministers had wonderful effect. Their influence, like long lines of lightning gleams, along the distant storm driven coast of New England, gathering into the folds of Zion thousands of precious souls to be garnered in the skies. Jesse Lee leads the host of God against Satan, and storms his dark formidable castle, along the rock bound Atlantic coast. The church advances with the spreading civilization southward, westward, and in 1800 the General Conference made arrangement to ordain colored men to preach the Gospel. There had been large increase among them. Richard Allen, of Philadelphia, was the first ordained deacon under this special rule, who become the leader in the secession, and first bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The colored membership numbered 13,452, 5,497 being in Maryland, the white membership in Maryland was 6,549. The heaviest white membership being in Virginia, was 10,859, the minutes showed the largest proportion of our membership was in the South. During the first quarter of our Centennial the increase of membership was very rapid; also many plainly constructed meeting houses were erected. Our Book Concern was established on a small capital, was conducted by Ezekiel Cooper in Philadelphia. We were without educational institutions, Cokesburg college being destroyed by fire. However, the Church is prepared for the glorious scene which follows: from 1800 to 1803 but little change was made in the condition of our Church. From 1808 to 1832 the Discipline had been revised and and restrictive rules adopted, and our standard of doctrine strenuously maintained, the ratio of representation in the General Conference, so changed as to rendered that body more wieldy. Between 1814 and 1816 the Church was called upon to mourn the death of Bishops Coke and Asbury; both fell in the discharge of official duty. One in the ship's cabin, the other, near Fredericksburg, Virginia. The following lines may well express their sentiments, "'Tis all my business here below, to cry behold the Lamb!" These good men devoted their precious souls to the cause of Christ and the spread of His kingdom among mankind. The work goes on! still, threading the isles, and crossing peninsulas, penetrating dark continents: "From Africa's sunny fountain, from India's coral strand, they call us to deliver, their land from error's chain, what though the spicy brezes blow soft o'er Ceylon's Isle; though every prospect pleases, and only man is vile." The work goes on, and "The Lord makes bare His arm in the eyes of the nations." The membership increases amid the agitations, and heart burnings of ambitious men, and from 1820 to 1824 there was 71,642 added to the Church, making a membership of 328,523. From 1824 to 1835, there were excitements and secession, which spread far and near, but the Lord was present with His people, and said to Satan and His agents, "do my people no harm." Reforms and the increase of educational institutions spring into existence, magazines, repositories, and Christian Advocates, white winged messengers spread the good news of "heavenly grace," but, alas! our ranks are thinned, some who fought in the far front have fallen. Dickens and Bishops George McKindree and Emory had all passed "beyond the river and we may sing 'part of the host has crossed the flood, and part are crossing now, and we are to the margin come, and we expect to die.'" The General Conference of 1836 is memorable for the heated discussions in reference to slavery, a number of petitions had been forwarded asking a change in the general rules, to make the Discipline more stringent. In our early history protests had been made against slavery, but it was impossible to execute those rules in the South, and they were soon suspended. The voice of the Church was ever strong against the great evil of slavery, many of our members became slave owners by marriage or inheritance, and as the laws of some of the Southern States forbade emancipation, both members and ministers were tolerated.

The influence of slavery extended its influence in church, and State. Rendition laws were enacted, abolition societies were organized at the North, and petition after petition secured the influence of the Church; while excitement at the South ran high, as they thought their lives and property were in jeopordy. This agitated excitement ran through to 1844 when it reached its climax. During the interval, the increase in membership was unprecedented, being in 1841, 57,473; in 1842, 60,363; in 1843, 154,624, and in 1844, 102,831—A total in four years of more than 375,000, due in part to the high excitement of the public mind. Many prepared to meet Jesus, as Mr. Miller had by a method of calculation, predicted the second advent and the destruction of the world, in 1843: "but of that day knoweth no man, not even the angels, but the Father only." The associated opposition to slavery in the Church, ultimately led to secession in 1842, of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, which organized under the leadership of Messrs. Scott, Horton, Sanderland, and others. They rejected both bishop and presiding elder, and made non slave holding a test of church membership. All the strong excitements heretofore were the mere breathings of the distant mutterings of the coming storm of overwhelming magnitude. Rev. F. A. Harding, of Baltimore conference, and Bishop Andrew refusing to manumit their slaves. The Bishop resided then in Georgia, by marriage himself became an owner of slaves. Their cases were brought before the General Conference, and in the session the Baltimore conference was sustained by the decisive vote of 117 to 56. The committee on Episcopacy, after several days' discussion, "declared it to be the sense of the conference that Bishop Andrew 'desist from the exercise of his office, so long as the impediment remained,'" was adopted by a vote of 110 to 68. In these acts, to my mind, slavery received a stunning blow, from which it can never, no never, recover.

Dr. Caper's resolution to form two General Conferences, drawing exact lines between slave territory, and free soil, each to have supreme jurisdiction within its own borders and to elect its own bishop. This plan did not meet with general favor. Subsequently, the Southern delegation declared it to be impossible for the ministry to be successful in the South while under the jurisdiction of the General Conference. A committee of 9 brought in their report near the close of the session "should the annual conferences in the slave holding States, find it necessary to unite in a distinct ecclesiastical connection," etc. Thank God, there is now no slave holding States, and glory and honor to God, there never will be; Proportionally the property was to be divided, should a separation take place. It was adopted by a vote of 153 to 13; but there were different views in reference to its meaning. The annual conference were requested by a vote of 99 to 38 to alter the restrictive rules, so as to restore Mr. Wesley's original rule on temperance, which forbade drunkenness, buying, selling spirituous liquors, or drinking them unless in cases of extreme necessity.

All these actions, and resolutions produced general excitement throughout the Church and the entire country.

Dr. Caper's personal correspondence with John C. Calhoun, was regarded as a prospective separation of the Church, as shadowing forth and anticipating a separation of the States. The first conference of the Church South was held in Louisville, Kentucky, the first day of May 1845, presided over by Bishops Soule, and Andrew. It declared they were an independent church, and thus organized the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

The decrease caused by the agitation of the Milleriites, and anti-slavery and secessions, in 1847 reduced the membership by 3,642 ministers, and 631,558 members. Those adhering to the old Church were ostracised, their business destroyed, some of them were put to death. However, an all wise Providence overruled the counsels of men in the midst of the commotion. "The Lord made bare His arm." It was His divine will that slavery should be destroyed, and stretching through periods of wild excitements He made "the wrath of man to praise Him, and the remainder of wrath" He has restrained; slavery is gone! and all talk of its ressurrection is the merest absurdity, and the voice of its votaries, are as little to be heeded or feared as the power of Ischabode ghost.

From 1824 to 1860 the Church had experienced many reverses, as well as sublime successes. The Church established fraternal relations between most of our Methodist bodies, as well as being kindly to all, condeming sin whether in high or low places, in church or State. Some of the children delight to cultivate the home manners, in that the words of Solomon are fulfilled; which says "train up a child in the way it should go, and when it is old, it will not depart from it." Nearly all the mission fields where our missionaries are now laboring so successfully, were established within the period above mentioned; most of our auxiliary societies were established. In 1861 the country was precipitated into a bloody strife, which lasted four years, and closing with that remarkable proclamation of emancipation by Father Abraham Lincoln. By it the shackles were struck from four millions of bond men.

During these dreadful years of bloody contests, large numbers of the members, and friends of the Church fell while supporting the banner of the country! Which opened up a new mission field for Christian evangelization. Four millions of human beings turned loose in a state of ignorance, that was alarming to the civilized world, were without means of supplying their own needs; and their friends were few in the South, and a new fountain of bitterness was opened against the Negro; and he found himself surrounded with difficulties formidable, without coping ability. The few educated colored men and women at the far North were too limited in resources to meet the emergencies of the hour.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, mighty in good works, and a wealth of talent, and a full purse came to our relief, and has fought and stands in the front battling to lift the freedmen from the depths of degredation to the elevated plains of Christian civilization. She continues to work, operating through the channels of her boundless resources, the agency and successful management of the Freedmen's Aid Society, by Dr. Rust and a conclave of earnest co-laborers, has been the means of blessing thousands of our race, giving us educated doctors, lawyers, ministers and distinguished professors. Many of them holding professorships in the very colleges and institutions where they graduated, thus giving the highest evidence of their peculiar fitness. Others have gone forth throughout the breadth and length of the land, thus reaching and benefiting more than two millions and a half of our people. Truly "the Lord has made bare His arm in the eyes of the nation." Anything requisite to substantiate and emphasize all that can be said, on the mission of a great church, may be uttered in the dying words of our friend and martyred hero, Abraham Lincoln, "Thank God for all the churches but the best of them all is the Methodist Episcopal Church." The Methodist Episcopal Church has been and is often abused by colored men, who ought to be loud in her praise for what she has done and is still doing for our oppressed and despised race. But such are entirely too stupid to appreciate what is done by the Church. If I was not a member of that church, and had the heart of appreciation, I would say, while pressing the pages containing the matchless record of this wonderful church, I would say from the very depths of my poor heart: God bless the old Methodist Episcopal Church! Many of those heroes who played a prominent part in the unparalelled drama have articles concerning it in our Church press, it will be a great gathering, the greatest perhaps, taking into account its historical significance, that our Church has ever seen. The delegates appointed to represented the thirty thousand members among whom we are counted, Revs. Charles W. Smith, [illegible] Boyle; and Messrs. [illegible] Bradley and William [illegible] Kennaid.

Correspondence.

CELMS.

Pittsburgh, Pa. Nov. 19, 1884.

Woman's Home Missionary Society Address.

BY MRS. CAROLINE A. RICHARDSON, COR. SECRETARY.

To the West Texas Annual Conference:

BRETHREN:—Many thanks for your kindness in permitting me to report the work done within the bounds of your conference for the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

It is not all that I could wish, and yet it is all that my time and strength, opportunity and means, permitted.

I remained at home in Austin, till the last of March, busying myself with preparations for the spring campaign, and the work that was nearest me.

Talked once at Simpson Mission, arranged at two different times for a Woman's Home Missionary meeting at Wesley Church, both were decided failures.

Visited some from house to house, assisted four sick, needy families. Taught regularly in the Sunday-schools, and assisted in monthly temperance work in both.

Two persons came regularly to read the Bible with me. One an intelligent middle aged woman, who would doubtless make a good Bible reader if we were prepared to employ her. The other a young man that believes he is called to the ministry and wants to read the Bible through before entering the work as a beginner.

Distributed a box of missionary supplies, mostly to preachers' families. Once gave fifty cents to procure wood for an immediate fire for a family in distress; three little ones, a mother in a helpless condition, the father dangerously ill with pneumonia.

Through the kindly Christian interest in my work of Mrs. Rev. Jeremiah Porter, a Congregational lady, I received a set of Dr. Kellogg's physiological charts, showing the effects of alcohol and to[illegible] on the human system; from Mrs. E. W. Porter, of Detroit, Michigan, which have been of great service to me.

WORK.

23 times have talked of the home and family relation; 14 times have talked temperance, using the charts; 7 times have held meetings for organizing Woman's Home Missionary Work. For the paper of our society, Woman's Home Mission, have secured the names that sent the money for fifty subscribers. I have also a receipt from Mrs. A. R. Clark, treasurer of W. H. M. Society for $3 collected for Utah.

Did not keep a record of my correspondence, but it has been considerable. Have given temperance tracts to over 100 persons. During the year have received [illegible] boxes and one barrel of mis[illegible] supplies. What still remains on hand will be mostly distributed at the ministers return[illegible]

TRAVEL.

During my work I have travelled [illegible] miles, 690 by rail, 1,310

[illegible]

[illegible] also informed that $150 was appropriated to me, six months later I was informed that it was expected I would collect quite a portion of my appropriation, by membership fees, and other collections in the bounds of my work. My collections have only been $13.77 falling seriously below the expectations of the directors of our Society. It is not possible for me to travel much except with my husband, and the collections at quarterly meetings are not minuted for my work. But I am satisfied that the failure of the cotton crop prevented many of them from paying their subscriptions. The expense of traveling by rail has hindered me from doing any work in Waco district.

In the summer when my son, George O. Richardson, was here to hold Sunday-school convention, he desired my help in his work. In order to assist him what I could, and secure more extended opportunities for my work, I attended five Sunday-school conventions. In all but one had an opportunity to present my work. At that we entertained ourselves, lived in our own tent, prepared our own meals. The presiding elder asked if I wished to talk to the preachers, or a congregation. I said I wished to represent the Woman's Home Missionary work before the preachers, but would prefer to talk to them and the congregation at the same time if it could be so arranged. The pastor promised his presiding elder to see me and appoint a time for me. He saw me after the 11 o'clock service Sunday and fixed upon an hour when no one would be present. I would not have spoken of this only there is a short resolution on the sixteenth page of last year's minutes.

With this exception I have received the most kindly consideration and help from my brethren.

My efforts to teach that the home and family was God's plan, and that His blessing rested upon those families who followed the Divine Model have been kindly received. When bad habits, vices, and crimes which not only injure but ruin homes have been discussed, some have said, "I wish you had come and told us these things ten years ago, it would have saved us heaps of trouble." Some have given up their drinking and tobacco habits. Others have got a new view of the meaning of religion, that it teaches patience, gentleness, and kindness in the home.

I am sometimes fearful that the pastors do not read and explain the Scripture lessons that teach the duties of every day home life, or we should hardly have found a "right good little class leader," who had just beaten his wife, and her neighbor said "she was a right good little woman." My work has been largely on the frontier, in out of the way places, long weary distances from one point to another, and yet these people have heard me gladly and asked me to come again.

At one point where I went a second time, a woman hastened to greet me warmly, "I didn't know you was coming this quarter, but one day this week I was alone and got to thinking what you told us last summer. I don't believe I have forgotten one word of it. I do wish the people would do as you want them." Just there a thought came to me, perhaps my mission is to turn the thoughts of these sisters into new channels.

May the day hasten when the homes of these now ignorant and degraded may be not only materially bettered but filled with sweet, pure intelligent thoughts.

Waco, Dec. 4th.

North China Mission.

APPOINTMENTS FOR 1884–1885.

Superintendent—H. H. Lowry.

Peking District.—J. H. Pyke, Presiding Elder.

Peking—Asbury Chapel, to be supplied.

Peking—Feng-chentang, Chen Ta-yung.

Peking—Southern City Circuit, W. F. Hobart and Wang Chiug-yun.

Chang-ping—Chan Circuit, to be supplied.

Boys Boarding School and Training School—J. H. Pyke and Shang Ching-yun.

Girls Boarding School and Woman's Work—Annie B. Sears and Mrs. C. M. Jewell.

Woman's Medical Work—to be supplied.

Tientsin District—G. R. Davis, Presiding Elder.

Tientsin—Wesley Chapel, W. F. Walker.

Tientsin—East Gate, Li Chao-win.

Tsangchow Circuit—To be supplied.

Nankung City Circuit—Yung Chun-ho.

Ching-ho Circuit—Wang Ching-yu.

An-chia Circuit—Wang Chih-ho.

Tsi-an Circuit—To be supplied.

Woman's Medical Work, Li Estelle Adams, M. D. Training School for Bible Women, H. N. Gates.

Taun-hua District—H. H. Lowry, Presiding Elder.

Tsunhua Circuit and Lamgtzuho Circuit, T. C. Jui.

Yu tien Circuit—Chan Yen-pang.

Feng-jun Circuit—To be supplied

Lan-chow Circuit—Wang Cheng-pei and Sung I.

Faning Circuit—To be supplied.

Medical Work, L. D. Denny, M. D. F. D. Gamewell transferred to West China; L. W. Pilcher absent in United States on leave.

RAILROADS.

Shortest, Quickest and Best.

—THE—

Vandalia Line

Pennsylvania Route.

—THE GREAT—

Through Line from St. Louis

—TO—

NEW YORK AND THE EAST.

E. A. FORD, Gen'l Pass'r Agent.
F. HILL, General Superintendent.
J. M. CHEESBROUGH, Ass't Gen. Pass'r Agt.
ST. LOUIS, MO.

VANDALIA LINE.

Trains Leave St. Louis.	Cincinnati Express, ex. Sun.	7.00 a m
	New York Day Exp. daily.	8 00	...
	Chicago Exp., except Sun.	8.00	...
	New York Night Exp. daily.	7.00 p m
	Cincinnati Express	7.00	...
	Chicago Express	7.00	...

Through Car Service.

8.00 a. m. DAILY.—Pullman Hotel Sleeping Car from St. Louis to Columbus, Pittsburg, Harrisburg, Philadelphia and New York without change—and regular Passenger Coaches through to Pittsburg without change.

7.00 p. m. DAILY.—Pullman Buffet and Drawing Room Sleeping Cars to Columbus, Pittsburgh, Parrisburg, Harrisburg, Philadelphia and New York without change. Pullman Palace Sleeping Car to Cincinnati. Pullman Palace Sleeping Car to Chicago. Pullman Drawing Room Sleeping Car to Indianapolis. Regular passenger coaches through to Pittsburgh without change.

For Sleeping Car accommodations, call on or address by telegraph or mail,

F. M. COLBURN, Ticket Agent,
100 N. 4th street, St. Louis, Mo.

Vandalia Line.

The Pullman Hotel Cars

Are provided with all the delicacies the best markets afford, the culinary department is in charge of experienced cooks, and meals are furnished on the restaurant plan.

The Pullman Buffet Cars.

Models of Beauty and Comfort.

BUFFET LUNCH.

MENU.

Fruit,
Raw Oysters, Pickles,
Sardines,
Ham Sandwiches, Tongue Sandwiches,
Boiled Eggs,
Cheese, Bread and Butter, Crackers,
Hot Tea, Ohocolate. Coffee,
Iced Tea,
Milk, Cream,
Lemonade,
Apollinaris Water, Hawthorne Water,
Cigars.

Meals on Hotel or Buffet Cars are on the restaurant plan—paying for what you order and no more. Passengers who prefer can take meals at regular eating houses.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL.

Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 9-12, 1883.
Sixty Addresses by American Educators.
Edited by REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D. D.
8vo. 272 pp. Price, stiff paper..$1.25
Cloth..... 1.75

The sixty addresses are arranged topically, as follows:

1. Education and Man's Improvement.
2. Illiteracy in the United States.
3. National Aid to Common Schools.
4. The Negro in America.
5. Illiteracy, Wealth, Pauperism, and Crime.
6. The American Indian Problem.
7. The American Mormon Problem.
8. Education in the South since the War.
9. Christ in American Education.
10. Tabulation of Illiteracy and Educational Facts from Census of 1880—ten tables.

It is a book for all who want information on any of these great practical questions. The addresses are carefully prepared and revised by the authors, and are filled with information and incidents. The authors are nearly all engaged in actual work in the fields of which they speak. The book should be in every public library. A full table of contents is supplemented by a carefully prepared index. Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

Phillips & Hunt.
32 Natchez St. New Orleans, La.

WILEY UNIVERSITY.

MARSHALL, TEXAS.

Academic Year opened Sept. 22

No School Does More for its Pupils.

College Preparatory Course,
Normal Course,
Theological Course,
College of Liberal Arts.

Location easy of approach and unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness.

Competent and Experienced Faculty.

Expenses Very Low.

For Catalogue and particulars address
Rev. N. B. CLINFORD, Pres't, and Supt. Marshall, Texas.

New Course of Study.

The Bishops at their meeting held immediately after the adjournment of the General Conference, arranged the following course of study to be pursued by candidates for the Methodist ministry. All examinations made after May 1, 1885, will be upon this new course of study:

For Traveling Preachers.

FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL.

Common English Branches.
History of the U. S.—Kidpath $3 00
Scripture History—Smith. (Abridged edition in one volume.) Net 60
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 2) Net 5
History of Methodism.—Stevens. (Abridged edition.) 3 0
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Edition of 1884 50
Expositions of Methodism.—Porter 1 50

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol. 1) sent 5 00

Books of reference:
Whitney's Hand-book of Bible Geography 2 25
Freeman's Hand-book of Bible Manners and Customs 2 25

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. Pentateuch.—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. II sent 7 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley 50
Church History.—Tholbuck. Net 1 00
Homiletics.—Bin. Net 1 00
Written Sermons.

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons (Vol II.) 5 00
Salvation Freely.—Foster 1 50
Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Row 1 75
Ecclesiastical Law and Judicial Evidence.—Hoyt and Hurlbut 3 00
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol I.—Hurd 3 00

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology.—Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. (Chapters XXI-LII)—Fisher 4 00
Systematic Theology.—Compendium of Christian Theology. Vol. II.—Pope 1 75
Historical and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 50
Lessons in Logic.—Grimes. Net 60

To be read:
Sermons to Artificial Men.—Fletcher 5 00
History of Methodism. (Abridged).—Stevens 3 00
Defence of our Fathers.—Emory 50
History of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Vol. II.—Hurd 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters I-XIII.—Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Compendium of Christian Theology.—Pope. Vol. III. 7 50
Atonement in Christ.—Miley 1 25
History of the Church.—Blackburn 2 50
Intellectual Science.—Porter 3 00
Homiletics.—Kidder 1 50
Written Sermon.

To be read:
Theological Encyclopedia and Methodology.—Crooks and Hurst 3 50
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Biblical Theology. Introduction to the Holy Scriptures. New Testament: Chapters XIX-XLIV Harman 4 00
Systematic Theology. Theological Institutes. Part II.—Watson 3 00
Analogy of Natural and Revealed Theology.—Butler 1 50
Written Exegesis.

To be read:
Life and Epistles of St. Paul.—Conybeare and Howson. (Abridged Edition) 1 00
Biblical Hermeneutics.—Terry 3 00
History of Rationalism.—Hurst 3 00

For Local Preachers.

FIRST YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: History. Outlines of Bible History.—Hurst ..... $ 50
Catechism of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (No. 2) 05
Christian Theology. Introduction and Book I.—Wakefield 2 50
Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Edition of 1884) .....
Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation.—Walker 1 25

To be read:
Hints to Self-educated Ministers.—Porter 1 25
A Hundred Years of Methodism.—Simpson 1 50
Portrait of St. Paul.—Fletcher 75

SECOND YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible: Doctrines .....
Christian Theology. Books II and III.—Wakefield 2 50
Christian Baptism.—Merrill 1 00
Church History: Outlines of Church History.—Hurst 50
Ancient History.—Thalheimer .....

To be read:
Lectures on Preaching.—Simpson 1 25
History of the United States.—Kidpath 3 00
History of Methodism. Abridged Edition.—Stevens 3 00

THIRD YEAR.

To be studied:
The Bible. Sacraments .....
Christian Theology. Books IV and V.—Wakefield 2 50
Plain Account of Christian Perfection.—Wesley 30
Aspects of Christian Experience.—Merrill.. 1 00
Eschatology.—Haven 80
Mediæval and Modern History.—Thalheimer. 1 50

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. (Vol I.) Introduction to the Gospel Records.—Row. 1 25
Rise of the Protestant Revolution.—Seebohm. 75

FOURTH YEAR.

To be studied:
Christian Theology. Books VI and VII.—Wakefield 2 50
Logic.—Jevons. (Science Primer Edition.). 45
Elements of Intellectual Science.—Porter.. 3 00
Review of the course for the three preceding years .....

To be read:
Wesley's Sermons. Vol II. Sermons to Artificial Men.—Fletcher 5 00
History of the Reformation.—Fisher 2 00
Protestant Foreign Missions.—Christlieb... 1 00

Terms, cash with order. Address,
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St. New Orleans.

OLD ONE HUNDRED.

MRS. TENA BURTON,
100.....Franklin Seminary.....100

Lodging,

With or Without Board.
sept18-3m

$72 A WEEK, $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address True & Co., Augusta, Maine.

Berean Leaf Publications.

Sunday-School Journals.

For Teachers and Young Readers.

To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each. 25 cents a year.

The best help for teachers and older scholars. The questions from all the Question-books will be published regularly in the JOURNAL.

The Study.

For Superintendents, Primary Teachers, and Advanced Workers.

40 Cents a Year.

It contains Plans and Lessons, Black-board Outlines, and a "Treasury of Information."

The Senior Leaf.

For Bible Classes and the Adult Department.

20 Cents a Year.

The Senior Leaf will contain each quarter the words and music of new songs, besides the words of Church Hymns, and responsive readings.

The Berean Leaf.

For Scholars from 10 to 16 Years of Age.

6 Cents a Year.

The Berean Leaf [illegible] more matter than ever before. The words and music of a new Song, and the words without music of the Songs (with music) in the Senior Leaf.

The Beginner's Leaf.

For the Younger Scholars.

6 Cents a Year.

The beginners will find in this Quarterly the same songs and Hymns as in the other Leaves, and questions adapted to their grade.

Leaf Cluster.

For the Little Folks.

24 a Year; $1 a Quarter.

The Leaf Cluster has been enlarged and made beautiful by a new process of engraving, and is a valuable help in the teaching of the lessons to the little ones.

Picture Lesson Paper.

For Infant Classes.

25 Cents a Year.

The Picture Lesson Paper is printed on tinted paper, with beautiful engravings, questions and stories for the little people. The most attractive little children's paper published.

Sunday-school Advocate.

For the Children.

Single copy, 35 Cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 Cents each. The freshest, finest and best paper for children.

Sunday-School Classmate.

For Scholars from 12 to 18 Years of Age.

Single copy, 35 cents a year. To clubs of six or more, one address, 25 cents each.

This beautifully illustrated paper contains the best reading for young people.

N. B.—All orders should be sent two weeks in advance to prevent disappointment in reprinting, and other unavoidable causes. Orders for periodicals and books should be made separate.

PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

Juvenile Periodicals.

We are now prepared to furnish the following Juvenile Periodicals for 1885 at the regular subscription prices:

WIDE AWAKE.

The Great Pictorial Magazine.

$3.00 a Year.

WIDE AWAKE, the best, the most entertaining, the most beautifully illustrated of all magazines for young people.

BABYLAND.

The Only Magazine in the World Especially for Babies.

Only 50 Cents a Year.

It will have its baby music, its baby stories, and its large, beautiful pictures.

Our Little Men and Women.

For Youngest Readers at Home and at School.

Only $1.00 a Year.

Little men and women just beginning to read, will find this monthly filled with charming stories and poems. It is the aim of the editor to give entirely new stories, or stories based on facts.

THE PANSY.

An Eight page Weekly, for Boys and Girls

Only 75 Cents a Year.

This illustrated paper, edited by "Pansy," is equally suited to week day or Sunday reading.

Subscriptions received by
PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez St., New Orleans.

...or Within Three ...Months.

From this time subscriptions for The Southwestern Christian Advocate will be received for the year 1885 at $1.50 a year, payable in advance or within three months. No other paper published under authority of the General Conference is furnished at this figure. It is the cheapest paper in the whole list. ...scribers for the next ...receive their papers ...uary 1st free.

...e have ... new subscribers within the next sixty ...

PHILLIPS & HUNT.

Exposition Visitors.

...prominent ... will be here ... The South... to do you any ... and our office, ... command. ... the desk of ... ...

...ce will ... Bowman, ... the ... were ... both ... ...

...this office ... price is ... will be $2 ...

... Bishop ... Methodist ... have ... Epis... conference ... HARRIS, ...

... the model, as it may

Christmas.

Christmas is a season of joy and merry-making. Its very origin is ...ple reason why it should be so. We do not stop to consider any learned disquisitions as to the precise hour, day, or month, upon which the world's saviour, Christ, was born, it is full enough for us to know of a very truth, that the world has a Saviour; and that, according to the scriptures, "He was born of a woman," "born in Bethlehem of Judea," about December 25, A. D. 1, as we reckon it; and that "He has brought life and immortality to light." There is no cause for Christians to doubt because Pagan heathens celebrate some period and some personage, whom, and which, unbelievers may claim to be the same as the Christian's Christ, and hence that Christ is not as Christians believe, the "Only, wise, invisible, immortal King eternal." We believe that he is, and so believing, come joyfully to this annual period upon which we celebrate his birth. But are there any good reasons to be given, why such use of the privileges which this Christmas season affords should be made as to cause no joy on account of its ending, equal to that occasioned by its beginning? When in the presence of Christ's glory Peter, James and John desired to build three tabernacles and remain, for they said it was good to be there. Is there not something abnormal in a joy that brings a greater joy, when the cause for the first joy ceases for the time being to exist?

We have for some years dreaded Christmas, because of the increased peril to human life, on account of the multiplied use of fire arms in public places for sport. We have dreaded its approach also, because of the increased danger from fright and teams occasioned by the almost ceaseless din and battle of exploding fire crackers, in many places, from Christmas Eve to New Year's end.

Then too, the incessant gourmandizing which signalizes the reign of the Christmas time is a severe strain upon the health of all, and the purse of most who by indulging their appetites until surfeited, gouty and financially bankrupt, are caused to rejoice that Christmas is gone.

Not the least of the evils which make the departure of Christmas time a joy to those who merrily welcomed its approach, is the custom of cramming children with all sorts of confections in unusual, and hence dangerous quantities. Christmas is regarded by many, otherwise exemplary people, as a time to set out the wine when it is red, to put the bottle to their neighbors lips, to bring forth rosy cordials, foaming egg nog, the steaming Tom and Jerry, or the flowing punch in the broad and well filled bowl. This custom, we know, is especially fashionable among the warm hearted people of Kentucky. It also prevails, more or less among churches, and to some extent people who belong to the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Christmas gift making is often a hardship to both giver and receiver, the one is strained to follow a custom, and the other, through the force of social conventionalism is compelled to violate ideas of propriety in accepting and reciprocating in kind for the gift received. The knowledge of this condition of things induces unscrupulous traders to prey upon their passive victims, ...helpless by this originally ... and beautiful, but now perverted, habit. Christmas is a time ... honesty, fair dealing ... simplicity should ... exhibit its most potent ... Assuming that ... are important to ... and government, the ... brings, as its ... an earnest plea ... and better home life ... all colors. If ... then ye are sure ... A Merry Christmas

Be the last Christmas of your life. Think of this, dear reader, and act at once; begin with a Christian service in your home on Christmas morning, continue it in the early service at the sanctuary of the Lord, later, let useful gifts for those at home be distributed, and in due season let your gift be placed in the hand of proper persons connected with your church or sabbath school, for the benefit of children whose parents are too poor, themselves, to present their little ones with the substantial compliments of the season. The Orphan Asylum demands your prayerful consideration at this season of the year. College students, whose means will not allow them to have a Christmas at home, should be remembered in their absence. The minister should be remembered, and his wife and children made as happy as any member of his parish; pay him first and donate afterward, justice comes before generosity. Pay in money, he can use it to better advantage than you can for him, and it is true, that most grown people like to spend their own money, or have a word in the selection of those who do so for them. Think of this and act, then the joy of Christmas will be useful and abiding.

Think of your presiding Elder and your Bishop, these are not so much in your sight as the Pastor, but like him they labor for your interest with prayers and tears, and sometimes in much heaviness, night and day. Remember them, to do what you can to lighten the burdens which they bear for you. The superannuated preacher used to be your joy, and some one of them brought you, by his labors, to Christ; does he still live? make yourself familiar with his circumstances, and by your own efforts know that he is happy in this world's goods as well as in heavenly grace.

Ponder the general work of your church at your heart, and contrive, by close economy, to do something for all of it. A Christian without the spirit of missions is without the spirit of Christ in him, for the spirit of Christ is the spirit of missions, and the life of both individual believers and the church itself.

Don't forget the SOUTHWESTERN, to you it is of the highest importance that this paper should succeed gloriously. It is the first great business enterprise the Church has ever committed wholly to you, if you will assume it. The path to future promotions, trusts, and honors, lies directly through it. Think then, what a mighty influence for good you are competent of exerting by each reader putting this paper into the home of at least one more.

We've Got Him.

MEANING BISHOP MALLALIEU.

Bishop Williard F. Mallalieu and his son, W. E. Mallalieu, who is traveling companion and private secretary for his father, the Bishop, are in New Orleans. They reached this city from Houston, Texas, on the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 16, after a brief tour in Texas, which has been already announced in this paper together with the time of his expected arrival here. The Rev. L. P. Cushman, presiding elder of the New Orleans district, Louisiana conference, who was awaiting the Bishop's arrival at the depot, escorted the distinguished visitor to his own residence, where he remained until Thursday, the 18th, when he took rooms, temporarily, at No. 227 Camp street, where his address will be for the present.

It is to be hoped that the Methodists of the several Conferences in this vicinity will, with becoming promptness, confer with the Bishop touching the matter, and secure such an Episcopal residence as will, in all repects, place our resident Bishop in a position exactly equal to all the other Bishops in this respect. This course is not only demanded on account of our duty to the Church, the Bishop, and the strong assurances of our delegates in the last General Conference that such action should be taken if an Episcopal residence was fixed at New Orleans, the commercial centre of the South, but also on our own account. We cannot afford for it to be true that by reason of his residing in our midst the Bishop shall be shorn of a single comfort which it is, by any possibility, within our power to supply him. When all is done which we can do there will probably still be self-denials laid upon him and his, in consequence of the social order of things here, which time and a wider and more powerful diffusion of God's free grace among the people alone can remedy.

RECEPTION.

In view of his expected arrival here, at an early date, upon the suggestion of the SOUTHWESTERN, the New Orleans Preachers Meeting took action looking toward arranging for the formal reception of the Bishop on Thursday, Dec. 18, at 8 P. M., in Union Chapel, of which Rev. Stephen Priestly is pastor, and to whom, with the several ladies who aided him, great credit is due for the complete execution of the programme laid down. Though the evening was quite raw and disagreeable a fair audience, with a good representation of each, the German, Negro and English American ministers, members and friends of the Methodist Episcopal Church, were in attendance. Looking on this mingled body of human kind, with the Bard of Avon we were wont to exclaim

"Strange is it, that our blood, of color,
Weight and heat, pour'd all together,
Would quite confound distinction, yet stand off
In differences so mighty.

The following were present: The distinguished guest, Bishop Mallalieu and son, Rev. Lewis P. Cushman, presiding elder, New Orleans district, Louisiana Conference; Phillip Phillips, the singing pilgrim; Miss Clara M. Cushman, late missionary to China; Rev. Thomas Stalker, and wife, of Ames Chapel; Rev. Marcus Dale, and wife, of St. Paul's Chapel; Rev. Daniel Matthaei, of Southern German Conference; Miss Josephine Cowgill; Dr. R. F. Boyd, of Meharry Medical College, Nashville; Profs. A. F. Hoyt and C. T. Simpson, of New Orleans University; Revs. J. Qualls, Jos. Gould, T. J. Johnson, A. J. Ford, J. W. Hudson, Z. T. Gayden, Washington Brooks, John Smith, M. C. B. Mason, T. G. Montgomery; Wm. F. Smith, of Rock River Conference; this editor and a number of others, whose names we did not learn, were present.

PROGRAMME.

Rev. J. W. Hudson read the 133d Psalm, after which there was singing by the Union Chapel choir and prayer, Bro. Qualls leading; more singing, and the Rev. C. B. Mason was introduced by the Rev. L. P. Cushman, who was ex officio master of ceremonies for the evening. Bro. Mason delivered, in well chosen phrases, a neat address of welcome to the bishop. After an intermission and music the Rev. Marcus Dale was introduced, and supplemented the address already delivered by a brief and manly declaration of welcome and esteem to, and for, the bishop; this was followed by more, and most excellent, singing, and then Bro. Cushman presented to the anxious audience Willard F. Mallalieu, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Bishop, being warmly greeted, delivered a pleasant little address, which proved, at least, his ability to joke with the sainted, and saintly Gilbert Haven, if not also his ability to rise to the same grand heights of human love. It was a sensible, discreet, non-committal, little speech, full of pith, humour, good counsel and seasoned with salt, meet to minister grace to the hearers; just such a speech as one knowing them would expect a Methodist Episcopal Bishop to make under the circumstances. At the conclusion of the Bishop's address there was general hand shaking, making acquaintances, and all retired to the rooms below, where they found the apartments tastefully decorated, the table spread and all seemed to discuss with enviable relish the various delicacies wich it contained. There was at least, for once, a fair and square Methodist gathering with all discriminations left at home, and a most agreeable and propitious evening was the result. Already a feeling of closer union is in the air.

What Methodism has wanted here has been an Episcopal head, now we have it we shall make better progress. We do not undertake to dictate where the Bishop shall live, and we do not know where he intends to reside, but we repeat that we hope he will and believe he should live here, for reasons given in former notes on that subject. Welcome! Welcome! Welcome!

Whereas, Bishop Willard F. Mallalieu, in consequence of his well known sentiments, frequently and publicly expressed, has come to be regarded as especially interested in the elevation of the colored people of the country, and particularly those of our church;

Therefore Resolved That we rejoice in the action of the Methodist Episcopal Conference of 1884, whereby, under God, it was guided in electing Bishops to the choice of Dr. W. F. Mallalieu to the Episcopal office.

Resolved That we, the members, ministers and friends of the Methodist Episcopal Church, hereby record our sincere gratification and great pleasure in meeting the distinguished Bishop, Williard F. Mallalieu, upon this the occasion of his first visit to New Orleans.

Resolved That hailing in him a gifted, loyal son of Methodism, the especial friend of the late loved and lamented Gilbert Haven, we tender to Bishop Mallalieu and his family the most cordial and hearty welcome to the whole South, the state of Louisiana, the city of New Orleans, to all our pulpits, to the sacred circle of our families, and the freedom of our several homes at all times, as a representative of the highest authority in our beloved church.

Resolved That we hereby tender to him this assurance of, and pledge to, Bishop Mallalieu, not only our sympathy, regard, esteem and confidence, but also our heartiest co-operation in all his plans and purposes as they shall be formulated, and from time made known to us; and shall ever pray for his safety and prosperity in the prosecution of his arduous Episcopal duties to every extent consistent with our Christian manhood.

A New Move.

Mrs. Jennie T. Willing has received the appointment of Secretary of the Bureau of Organization of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and has entered upon her work, which is to secure the establishment of the Society in the new or unorganized conferences, and to co-operate with the officers of the conference societies for its more thorough organization throughout the church. She spent last Sunday at South Bend, Indiana, with Mrs. Mathews, the recently appointed secretary of the Conference, and she will go east immediately at the request of the officers of the conference societies. The society has received new inspiration since the annual meeting in the line of organization. Officers of conference societies are, many of them, in the field establishing auxiliaries, and Mrs. Rust has received many letters asking her to intercede to secure the co-operation of Mrs. Willing in the conferences East and West for this object.

"And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him, and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh." In this centennial Christmas time let the friends of Jesus and his cause fling down their gold at his feet. $500,000 is not too much to ask for him who gave his life for us. Nor is $100,000 too much of this for the South to give in return for millions already expended by others in its behalf. Let the wise men of the colored race come once more with their gifts before the Lord, and of the gold let there be $50,000 at least for Christian education.

"Glory to God in the highest."

The Centennial Conference.

FIRST DAY.

Baltimore, Maryland, Dec. 9.

The opening meeting was held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church. This church is located at the corner of Charles and Fayette streets; it is said to be the very spot where the old lovely Lane meeting house once stood, and where the Christmas conference of 1784 was held. The present house is a large convenient structure, and will seat one thousand or more persons. It is a wide contrast between this and the old lovely Lane chapel.

Bishop E. G. Andrews, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, delivered the address of welcome, and at its close received the hearty applause and congratulation of the great assemblage. It was an able and fraternal effort. Dr. John B. McFerrin, of the Methodist Episcopal South, and the Rev. Joseph C. Price, of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, responded; both speeches were able and breathed the same fraternal spirit as that to which theirs was in replication. Bishop A. W. Wilson, of the Church South, though in feeble health assisted in celebrating the Lord's supper.

Dec. 10, 9:30 a. m., the conference came together in Mt. Vernon Place Church, which is the firmest Methodist Episcopal Church on the continent, after Arch Street, Philadelphia. Bishops Brown, Foster, Andrews, and Fowler, of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Bishops Campbell and Wayman, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; and Bishops Wilson and Granberry, of the M. E. Church South, were present. Bishop Granberry presided, Dr. John Martin, of the Church South was elected permanent secretary, and Dr. John, of the Methodist Episcopal Church assistant.

Dr. Cummings read the Scriptures and after some preliminary business Bishop Foster preached the opening sermon. At the afternoon session, Dr. James Gardner, of Canada presided, and Drs. John Miley and H. B. Ridgaway, read papers. At an evening platform meeting Dr. O. H. Tiffany and Bishop Fowler delivered addresses.

Dec. 11, 9:30,—the Centennial conference met with Bishop Wilson in the chair. Drs. J. Boring, of Georgia, and A. Wheeler, of Pennsylvania, read papers. Afternoon—Bishop Jabez P. Campbell, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church presided. Dr. D. Dorchester, of Massachusetts and Prof. J. H. Carlisle, LL.D., Dr. J. H. Gaines then led in the general discussion which followed. The sessions so far have been well attended and quite harmonious.

Noticable relics are Bibles once used by Messrs. Wesley and Asbury which are use here in all religious services. The black and white mingle in all services but separate at the hotels. The growth of a hundred years of American Methodist easily marked when the conferences of Dec. 1784 and 1884 are compared.

A Pleasant Coincidence.

The Executive Board of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, in Cincinnati, passed a resolution authorizing its legal incorporation under the laws of the State of Ohio. The act of incorporation arrived on the morning of Nov. 23rd, and almost at the same moment a dispatch was received by Mrs. Rust from a distant State saying: "Do not lose five minutes to inform me how to devise an estate to the W. H. M. S." Property can now be secured by bequest or devise directly to the Society. Information should be sent at once to the corresponding Secretary by the parties interested, when such action is taken.

"I congratulate you on the success you are achieving in the management of the SOUTHWESTERN. May the prospects grow better and brighter with the months.

Very sincerely, MRS. L. S. RUST."

With such words of encouragement from such a source we are content to toil on and hope on.—ED.

German Methodism in New Orleans.

There are three German Methodist Episcopal Churches in New Orleans. They constitute part of the Southern German conference, which convened this just concluded annual sitting in Waco, Texas, and the result of its deliberation will be the loss to this community of the former pastors in these churches. To the First Street church, Rev. John J. Kienle has been appointed vice Rev. Daniel Fleisher appointed to Seguin, where he was pastor in this and the last year will miss him. But we know that Bro. Kienle is a strong man and that he will succeed nicely here. Bro. Matthais will, we are sure, find a pleasant and successful field of labor in his new appointment. The Second church gains Rev. Charles Schaefer and leaves their pastor Rev. Andrew Trae-ger. The Third gets Rev. Henry Bickert, they were for some months without a pastor until now. Bro. Dietz is reappointed presiding elder.

The exhibits prepared by Miss O. V. Garrett and Miss Rosa A. Turner for the Colored Department of the Exposition are truly beautiful, and reflect much credit upon these young ladies. Miss Garrett's is a Turkish rug on which is a representation of a deer pausing for the first time after giving the dodge to its pursuers, its glaring eyes and beautiful horns are artistically worked. Miss Turner's consists of a bed spread and pillow shams. It has thousands of stitches and is one of the most beautiful articles we have ever seen. Miss Turner is a graduate of our New Orleans University, which may well be proud of her.

Rev. G. W. Sams, Argenta District, Little Rock Conference, says: "At Fort Smith our quarterly conference here because [illegible] to get and read the Southwestern Christian Advocate." The above because it tells at once [illegible] to preachers and churches [illegible] is a wide circulation and [illegible] reading of the Southwestern.

The Central Alabama Conference adopted the Southwestern Christian Advocate as its organ. Bishop Walden won our hearts, and fired our spirits with zeal for the Master's cause. Thus another one of the most successful conferences of any in the history of our Church prince.—A. W. McKinney, Sec.

Personal.

The many friends of Rev. [illegible] South is at Silvertin instead [illegible] as heretofore.

[illegible] Miss [illegible] have ar-

[illegible] Tilery was called [illegible] on the 12th inst. [illegible] of his little [illegible] agent [illegible] Publishing [illegible] Publishing [illegible] ex-

[illegible] Up [illegible]

The Board of Education of Philadelphia, wasteful of the best interests of the public school property [illegible] the Girls' High School building [illegible] the public [illegible] safe arrival within the bounds of the North India conference, of the entire party which left New York on the steamer Anstral, September 20; all reported well.

—We can recommend visitors to the ever courteous Dr. Fayerweather, at the Bureau of colored exhibits, for any information desired with assurance they will be accommodated in the most gentlemanly manner. Fayerweather is double leaded a No. 1, remember that.

—George W. Brown, of Louisville, Kentucky, the far famed caterer has taken the building No. 76 St. Charles street, New Orleans, and will open select accommodation in rooms, and meals for people visiting the city. His place is to be known as the Louisville restaurant and its bill of fare the finest in the city.

—Rev. W. O. Lynch, late of Kansas, has been transferred to the Savannah conference and stationed at Decatur near Atlanta. His address will be in Atlanta, and he will now complete his course in theology at Clark University. Bro. Lynch is an author of no mean pretensions, he is also an interesting lecturer. At this time it would be helpful to him if any would purchase his works, as he has a large family and small salary, but is determined to live on a little, preach the Gospel, and educate himself. His "Five Years in Kansas" and the "Negro in History," are very readable and creditable works.

—Mr. Editor, in your "Personal" column of the SOUTHWESTERN of November 20th, 1884, I read a paragraph over the signature of Bro. L. P. Cushman, touching my letter of November 6th, in same paper, apparently aggrieved at something I said in it. Now, I did not desire to say anything to be considered unkindly Bro. Ford or Bro. Cushman, nor did I say a word unkind about either. Did I say the "deplorable condition of things" touched either of them? I did not. As to a financial book not being here or I not finding any here, I don't think should offend. No one can have more sympathy for a brother minister than I, and I hope that Bros. Cushman and Ford will not think that I aimed to do either harm, as I did not. Bro. Ford is highly spoken of here and it has been said by some during the year that they wished he had been returned. He did a good work here which is here to show for itself. There are affairs of a church which may be "deplorable," and yet unconcealable by the pastor. I hope Bro. Cushman may consider and find out the intent of my remarks before giving rash judgment. A. N. Jackson.

Schools and Colleges.

Boys' High School, Foo Chow, China.

During the past year, the school being under the charge of Rev. M. C. Wilcox, the Chinese classics and the Catechism were studied. The boys attend daily chapel exercises, with all our other male students. They are also required to be present at the Sabbath services. The attendance up to the end of June averaged about twenty; the recent warlike events have reduced that number, temporarily we trust. Occupying a position midway between the numerous boy's schools on one hand, and the Anglo Chinese College and the Biblical Institute on the other, this institution deserves more attention than it has of late received. It ought to be sufficiently equipped to thoroughly prepare those who intend to enter the college or study theology, and also for [illegible] under Christian auspices, a fair education to such of our children, youth as cannot pursue a more extended course of study. The [illegible] need is more room. With several native teachers instead of one [illegible] native Christian family to [illegible] the most interests, this [illegible] would become a greater power for good than is possible [illegible]

The Board of Education of Philadelphia, wasteful of the best interests of the public school property [illegible] the Girls' High School building [illegible] the public [illegible]

The Gentile taxpayers of Salt Lake City have appealed to the law in defence of their resistance of the payment of a special school tax voted by the polygamists of the Seventh Ward. They contend that the tax is illegal, as the school teaching is entirely sectarian.

The University of Virginia has received in donations since the war the sum of $917,000.

Church Polity.

Please inform a subscriber what is the exact condition of the Loan Fund of the Church Extension Society, of the Methodist Episcopal Church? J. C.

J. C.—your question is answered in detail by the following questions put by Dr. R. M. Hatfield, and carefully answered by A. J. Kynett in the last annual meeting of the General Church Extension committee.

Question—How much does the Loan Fund of the society now amount to? Ans.—$515,850 in church property, and $6,500 in bonds. Q.—What amount of this is now loaned on interest? Ans.—To churches, $428,744, and to 1026 Arch street, $5,776. Q.—What of property? Ans.—$51,800. Q.—Marketable securities? Ans.—$70,000; in 5's bonds $45,000 and 6's $25,000. Q.—How much interest per cent? Ans.—$16,756.77. Q.—What amounts, if any, are now due on account of principal and interest? Ans.—Principal, $67,000, most of which is since October 1, 1884. Q.—What is the amount of the funds now held by the society in which annuities are held? Ans.—$277,389. Q.—How much has been paid during the past year on account of annuities? Ans.—$20,928 70

General Church News.

The former A. M. M. Church in New Haven has passed over to the M. E Church. Elder R. J. M. Long is still there with an A. M. E. Society, worshiping in a hall. There is nothing in this state of things complimentary to our government, yet we have the miserable satisfaction of knowing that such failures take place under other church governments. It is stated that the Unitarian Church has lost six churches in the State of New York in a year.—Christian Recorder.

For the sake of obstructing the work of Christian missionaries, and to prevent Moslem children from attending their schools, the Mohammedans have enacted a rule that no Moslem shall be considered his own master till he is twenty years of age.

The Belgian priests are greatly irritated at the distribution of religious tracts among their people. The little messengers of truth are denounced from the pulpit, and one priest near Dinant went from house to house offering Avi marts for each one left among his people. It is not the least of their objections that a tract often leads to the purchase of the New Testament.

For the Southwestern.

Centennial Conference.

BY J. BRADEN, D.D.

On Thursday evening, December 9th inst., the first Centennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Episcopal branches of Methodism convened in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Baltimore, and was called to order by Bishop E. G. Andrews, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who introduced E. F. Hunt, Esq. of Baltimore, the presiding officer for the evening, who after reading a short and appropriate paper, thanking the committee for the honor of the nomination to so prominent and responsible a position, he called on Rev. James Gardner, of Canada to conduct the opening religious services; after which Bishop Andrews delivered the address of welcome to the delegates, which was full of beautiful thoughts eloquently uttered and produced a profound and favorable impression. His address was responded to by Rev. Dr. J. B. McFerrin, of Nashville, Tennessee, and Rev. Dr. J. C. Price, of Salisbury, North Carolina. All the addresses were heard with deep interest and the audience which crowded the house was delighted at the conclusion of the addresses. Bishop Wilson, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, conducted the service of the sacrament of the Lord's supper which was administered to ministers and laity.

Wednesday morning the conference met in Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church, which will accommodate nearly two thousand people. The church cost over $350,000. It is a strange contrast in the circumstances of this, and the conference of 1784. The Lovely Lane church had no steeple, organ, stained glass windows, cushioned pews, naves, or sculptured portals, but was a plain rectangular building, seated with benches without backs, although to accommodate the conference, backs were placed to some of the benches. The contrast was not less in the church than in the congregation. The plain Quaker cut, homespun of the preachers then, with the broadcloth and fashionable clothing of the preachers of this conference. The Quaker bonnets of the women, with the kerchief plainly pinned about the neck, with the feathered hats, velvet and silken robes and jeweled apparel of the female part of the present congregation.

The opening services were conducted by Rev. D. Joseph M. Trimble, Ohio, Bishop Granberry, of the Church South, presiding. Bishop Foster preached the opening sermon, which for two hours held the closest attention of the large audience. The sermon will be read and will be profitable reading in the years to come. Bishop Foster was never more happy in his delivery of great, pungent thoughts, and practical suggestions as to the work and needs, as well as the dangers of Methodism. The sessions of the conference begin at 10 a. m. and close 12:30, and from 3 p. m. to 5 or later each day. Night meetings are held in about a dozen churches at which platform addresses are made, by some of the best men in the church. The discussions on topics presented so for have been spirited and in the best spirit. The colored members of the conference are quite conspicuous, they take their turn with others in presiding. Bishop Campbell, of the A. M. E., and Bishop Wood, of the A. M. E. Z. Churches, have presided very acceptably and no one would ever dream from the treatment of the colored members of the conference, their readiness to take part in the discussions, that there ever was any other than the relations of equality between the races. Whatever feelings may exist in the minds of any of the brethren present against their recognition of the "brother in black" there is not the slightest indication of it in any treatment which he receives at the hands of the members of the conference. The papers read have been of a high order and the doctrines, dangers, and duties of Methodists have been fully discussed. The result cannot but be favorable for the future of our Church.

On Saturday, the 13th inst., Rev. Dr. J. C. Harzell, of Cincinnati, Ohio, offered the following:

"Whereas the permanency of the civil and religious institutions, as well as the life of the nation, must always depend upon the intelligence as well as the morality of the people; and

"Whereas there are in the United States 6,250,000 people ten years of age and over who cannot read or write, and there are 2,000,000 of voters who cannot read the ballots they cast; and

"Whereas statesmen and Christian education, irrespective of party or section throughout the nation, have united to secure aid from the national treasury to supplement the expense of common school education for a few years in the several States, the distribution to be made on the basis of illiteracy, as shown by the census of 1880;

"Resolved, That this Centennial Conference of American Methodism representing a membership of fully 14,000,000 of people in the United States, heartily approves the movement and earnestly calls upon Congress, now in session, to consummate this proposed measure."

The paper was referred to the business committee.

Sermon Sketches.

The Witness of the Spirit.

BY W. D. GODMAN.

Text.—Rom. 8: 15-16. "For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye have received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God."

Introduction.—The testimony given is to the fact of our filiation—nothing more, nothing less. "Assurance," so named by some, is sometimes conceived precisely as the witness of the Spirit; sometimes, as a confidence simply of our spirit; and sometimes, as a divine persuasion of our perseverance. The first sense only corresponds with the text.

I.—The Holy Spirit testifies to our spirit, Gal. 4 6.

1. The subject matter of this testimony is a fact that we cannot learn from any other source. 1 Cor. 2, 11.

2. The manner of its giving we cannot understand or explain. 1 Cor. 2; 9, 14.

3. It is of the nature of a revelation, but conveyed through our own thoughts without accompanying sign or vision. 2 Cor. 3; 3, 17, 18.

II.—The testimony of the Holy Spirit is received by and responded to by our spirit. This is implied in the preposition "with," and is the witness of our own spirit.

III.—The fruit of the Spirit manifest in our interior and exterior life confirms the testimony. This is often called the "indirect witness."

IV.—The witness of the Spirit is a glorious gift.

1. It gives certainty to replace our doubt.

2. It drives away fear.

3. It is the "earnest of the inheritance."

Why She Didn't Marry Him.

"Yes, I live pleasantly enough with my husband," she said, "but I believe I should have married Augustus, if all the girls hadn't made fun of him, and said he'd be bald as a pumpkin in a year or two." Young men, take warning, and use Dr Parker's Hair Balsam. Cleanses the scalp, restores color, removes dandruff.

Books and Current Literature

The Religions of the Ancient World. By Prof. George Rawlinson. Price 30 cents. J. Fitzgerald, Publisher, 20 Lafayette Place, New York.

The study of the religious systems of antiquity, of the forms assumed by religious ideas in their development among the Egyptians, Babylonians, Chaldeans, Greeks, Romans and other ancient people; their mythologies, their curious rites and ceremonies, their beliefs as to a future state, etc., is one of the most important and interesting branches of historical research. No more competent guide in this fascinating study could be found than Mr. Rawlinson, the well known author and Camden Professor of Ancient History in the University of Oxford. For sale by Ellis, newsdealer.

Royal Promises. Twelve cards on stiff boards, containing God's promises, surrounded with beautiful flowers, gilded with gold, with a clear ocean and placid lake shown on covers. Verses of song are on the reverse side of each card. Nice for a gift to a child. Price, 25 cents.

From One Cured of Consumption

Thornton, Boone Co., Ind.

MESSRS. CRADDOCK & Co.

Please find enclosed $16 for CANNABIS INDICA, Pills and Ointment.

Mr. Findley Barker, who was so low with Consumption, and only weighed one hundred and twenty-five pounds when he commenced to take your medicine, now weighs one hundred and eighty-four pounds, and says he feels as well as he ever did in his life.

Yours truly, ROBERT COX.

N. B.—This remedy speaks for itself. A single bottle will satisfy the most skeptical, and it will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours.

$2.50 per bottle, or 3 bottles for $6.50. Pills and Ointment, $1.25 each.

CRADDOCK & CO., 1032 Race St., Sole Proprietors, Philadelphia, Pa.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

July 17-1y.

Symposium of the Weeklies.

It may be that the stalwarts did it, or the temperance set, or the Independents, but it looks to us as though it was the work of the Great Ruler of nations who has scourged us for the faithlessness of the party to its promises, concerning its high pretensions touching the colored people.—People's Advocate.

For this divene thing, conciliation, there is a foul counterfeit called compromise.—Pacific Methodist.

No one can complain if the honor of Louisville should be advanced by the recognition of the colored man on the police force.—Ohio Falls Express.

We have our own way to make, our own mission to fulfill; We must pursue the goal which God has set before us.—Hebrew Standard.

What harm will it do for women to speak "just a little" to lead in prayer when only a few praying men are present, etc?—Christian Observer.

The disposition to subject everything to the test of expediency puts a sad strain upon truth itself.—Religious Telescope.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

Trade Mark. QUALITY PURITY NOT QUANTITY. Our Every Bottle.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

☞ The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

NEW ORLEANS

Beautifully Illustrated and Graphically Described.

IN DEMOREST'S MONTHLY FOR JANUARY. NOW READY. EVERY RESIDENT OF THE CRESCENT CITY SHOULD PURCHASE THIS ATTRACTIVE NUMBER.

With each number will be given a full-size fashionable Pattern of any size or style selected, making 12 patterns during the year, or value of over three dollars besides the most popular, entertaining and useful magazine. Single copies 25c; yearly, $2. For sale at all booksellers. W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, Publisher, 17 East 14th street, New York. 18

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

$2.50 A Year FOR THE

Illustrated Christian Weekly.

The best and cheapest illustrated paper, and unsectarian religious weekly in the land.

Just the Paper for You.

$2.50 A YEAR

SAMPLE FREE.

Illustrated Christian Weekly, 150 Nassau Street, New York.

The Sun

An Independent Newspaper of Democratic Principles, but not Controlled by any Set of Politicians or Manipulators; Devoted to Collecting and Publishing all the News of the Day in the most Interesting Shape and with the greatest possible Promptness, Accuracy and Impartiality; and to the Promotion of Democratic Ideas and Policy in the affairs of Government, Society and Industry.

Rates, by Mail, Postpaid:

DAILY, per Year - - - - - - - - $6.00
DAILY, per Month - - - - - - - - .50
SUNDAY, per Year - - - - - - - - 1.00
DAILY and SUNDAY, per Year - - - - 7.00
WEEKLY, per Year - - - - - - - - 1.00

Address, THE SUN, New York City.

SCALDING.

In case of scalding with hot water, a handful of soda in the water to be used will make the pain cease immediately. Bicarbonate of soda, or what is better known as cooking soda. It may be necessary to apply the soda two or three times, but it will give relief. Should the scalding come from hot lye, the burn must be well washed with cold water to remove all the lye. If any of it remains on the flesh it will eat in and increase its danger. The application of linseed oil to deep burns is beneficial, as it excludes the air and forms a scab under which the parts can heal. In any case of injury, when a scab has formed it is very unwise to remove it before time, more has perfectly healed beneath, for if removed prematurely matter must suspend the process of healing until it has been able to form another scab.

VENTILATION.

Sleeping rooms, parlors, sitting and dining rooms, closets and garrette ought to be frequently ventilated to get rid of the foul and dangerous air. In dark, unventilated rooms, when the floors are covered with carpets and rugs, filth will collect, mold grow, fungoids abound, noisome smells pollute the air, and much injury be done to health. Could the impurities floating in the air of unventilated rooms be perceived by sight, those who manifest so much contempt at the bare mention of ventilation would grow pale with alarm. There is nothing like the hygienic power of fresh air and sunshine to cleanse a foul room.

West Tennessee Conference—African Methodist Episcopal Church.—Ninth Session

REV. P. W. WALLS.

The ninth session of the West Tennessee Conference convened in Memphis, Tenn., at St. Andrews Chapel, Nov. 12, 1884, at 11 a. m. Bishop H. M. Turner, D. D., L.L. D., presided. Devotional services were conducted by the Bishop, Revs. Geo. H. Jackson and D. E. Asbury were elected Secretaries. In his opening remarks the Bishop said: "Brethren of the West Tennessee Conference, I come, not as your master to preside over you tyrannically, but I come as a brother." After which the Bishop appointed the several necessary conference committees. The annual sermon was preached by the Rev. D. E. Asbury; text: Hosea vi, 3: "Then shall we know if we follow on to know the Lord."

On the second day of the Conference there were quite a number of young men recommended for admission in the traveling connection. They were referred to the Committee on Admission, were found to be deficient, hence they were not admitted. We are glad to know the West Tennessee Conference is determined not to admit any one in her ranks as a pastor who has failed to acquire a common English education and some knowledge of theology. The financial and statistical reports of the 41 charges of the conference were commendable, with a few exceptions. The financial reports were as follows: Dollar money, $828; contingent, $104.40; Home and foreign missionary money, $149.00. Woman's Mite Missionary Society, $15.25. Other collections we failed to obtain, hence we are not able to report them. The statistical reports show 3970 members of the Church and 4959 scholars in the Sabbath-schools. Church property valued at $——.

Dr. C. S. Smith, Corresponding Secretary of the Connectional Sunday school Union, arrived on the evening of the third day and was formally introduced to the conference by the Bishop. Dr. Smith acknowledged the introduction, and addressed the conference at some length. He informed the conference that his business among them was to present the claims of the Sabbath-school department. The Doctor is a fluent speaker and ready thinker, and we presume he is the right man in the right place. We were not visited by any other General officers. The claims of the Book Concern were presented by the committee on Publication Department and those of the missionary cause by the Committee on Missions. The committees reported the candidates pursuing the second and fourth years' studies as being unfit for ordination, hence there were no ordinations.

At 11 o'clock Sunday morning Bishop Turner preached a highly delightful and instructive sermon from 2 Chronicles xv, 7: "Be ye strong, therefore, and let not your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded."

Rev. Dr. C. S. Smith spoke at 3 o'clock, and Rev. George Dandia preached at 7:30 o'clock at night.

Bishop Turner, like all of his predecessors in the episcopacy in this diocese, has found a warm place in the hearts of the members of the West Tennessee Conference. The Conference Missionary Society met Wednesday night, Nov. 19th, and Bishop Turner became a member by the payment of $1. We raised for missions $52.25. The Conference is divided into four presiding elder districts. Elders Tyler, Jackson, Straws and Brown are the presiding elders. Rev. R. F. Hurley was transferred to the Louisiana Conference. Rev. A. A. W. Hill was transferred to the West Kentucky Conference, and Rev. J. F. Haymer to the Illinois Conference.

Woolfawn Mills, Tenn.

[Bishop Turner is worthy the warm esteem in which our correspondent thinks the people hold him. It was a judicious thing to make Stratford Straws a presiding elder. We predicted that it would be so, and we congratulate both him and the people to whose great profiting it has been done. He is an old-time friend of ours, and a worthy, able and capable minister of the Lord Jesus. He would do for Bishop.—ED.

Poor Fellows!

Prostrated, debilitated, enfeebled, they look as if they were hardly worth picking up. They would hardly give the toss of a bright penny for a chance of a choice between life and death. But even such forlorn people can be renewed by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters. It vitalizes the blood, tones the nerves, and renovates the system. Mr. Isaac C. Weed, Bur.'s Mills, O., says, "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for general weakness, and it helped me greatly."

Internal revenue recipts for 1884 were $2,000,000 larger from the manufacture of distilled spirits than from the same source in 1883. Last winter the whisky men were crying out that their business would be ruined unless the bonded-whisky bill were passed by Congress.

Diabetes Cured.

New Orleans Picayune, Jan. 20, 1884.

Mr. Mathias Doll, business place No. 23 North Peters street, residence Royal street, between Jeanne and Bartholomew, New Orleans, has been a most intense sufferer from kidney trouble (diabetes) for the last six long and weary years. He said to us: "Even earlier than that I frequently suffered from pain in the back, and frequent making of water, but gave it no thought until about the time stated, when the almost constant desire to make water became unendurable. The pain in the back, and sometimes in the legs, made me so lame at times that I could scarcely walk. I consulted one of the best doctors in this city, and was under his constant treatment for one entire year without deriving the least benefit. I then consulted from time to time, during the last five or six years, six other physicians, each one standing in the front rank of the medical profession in New Orleans, and though I sometimes was a little relieved of some excruciating suffering, yet upon the whole I was not only no better, but in many respects much worse. My limbs became so swollen and sore that I could not cross my legs when sitting on a chair—all of which, they said, was caused by diabetes. I then tried some highly lauded patent medicine. But they all turned out to be humbugs. I had given up all hopes of ever getting relief, much less being cured, when I noticed in the papers some wonderful cures that PERUNA had made in this city, as prescribed by Dr. Hartman, giving the name and address of each person treated. I called to see him; he at once prescribed his PERUNA, which is not over three weeks ago. I am so much better that if I would not improve any more, I would not for any amount that I had not placed myself under his treatment. All my pain and lameness is gone. The swelling and stiffness in my legs has disappeared, and instead of making water every fifteen minutes, I pass make it once in three hours during the day, and only twice in a whole night. I am, indeed, quite well again. Don't hesitate, don't any humbug, but get the PERUNA at once and take it as its printed label directs, or, if you think this is only a testimonial, and not strictly true, call and see me and see for yourself."

Mrs. Huldah Riple, Smethport, McKean county, Pa., writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.: I have used your PERUNA and find that it has done a great deal of good. I have recommended it to many of my friends, who have expressed themselves as wonderfully pleased with its virtues."

INDIGESTION AND CONSTIPATION ARE CURED BY AYER'S PILLS.

Dyspepsia

Is one of the most dangerous of the diseases caused by these complaints. Affecting as it does the centre of life—the stomach—it quickly deranges and imperils the whole system, physical and mental. Its symptoms are manifold, and many of them so serious that they are generally regarded and treated as special maladies.

The Only Cure

For the various forms of dyspeptic diseases, is in a medicine that will remove its primary cause, by restoring the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels to a healthful condition. Any other treatment is as useless as an effort would be to make a watch keep time by simply gilding its case, when it had a broken main-spring.

Ayer's Pills

Are the best medicine to accomplish the necessary work of cleansing, stimulating and restoring. They are more thorough in their purgative effect than any others, yet are not violent in their action, exercise a powerful influence for good upon the other vital organs as well as the bowels, and effectually

Banish Disease.

For Biliousness, Jaundice, and other evil consequences of hepatic disorders, there is no remedy so prompt and thorough as AYER'S PILLS. They are also, by their efficacy in regulating the digestive functions, of the greatest value to women in the most critical stages of existence.

He Who Lives Learns,

"I am using AYER'S PILLS in my practice, and find them excellent."—DR. J. W. BROWN, Oceana, W. Va.

"One of the best remedies for bilious derangements that we possess."—DR. WM. PRESCOTT, Concord, N. H.

"Active, searching, and effectual, but not griping or drastic."—PROF. J. M. LOCKE, Cincinnati, O.

"As a mild and thorough purgative they cannot be excelled."—J. O. THOMPSON, Mount Cross, Va.

Kidney Diseases

Also spring from disorders of the digestive functions, and are not only exceedingly painful in themselves, but have symptoms, such as Dropsy and Rheumatism, which are of the gravest character. The work of the kidneys is the purifying of the blood. When, through disease, they cease to do this,

Prompt Relief

Must be accorded to avert most serious consequences. Medicines that lull their pain by dulling their sensibility, or that stimulate them to unnatural activity, do infinitely more harm than good. To restore them to health, the kidneys must be cleansed, their inflammation allayed, and their strength restored.

Ayer's Pills

Do this more effectually than any other. Their diuretic effect is not less marked and beneficial than their purgative power. Not only do they, at once, by a moving dose, free the clogged, and rouse the torpid organs, but their continuous effect, when taken in small doses, is to regulate the machinery of life, and Restore Health and Vigor.

For all the several varieties of Piles, and for the many Cutaneous Disorders produced by Blood Impurities thrown into the circulation during attacks of constipation, no cure is so quick and easy as AYER'S PILLS, which free the bowels and aid nature.

and Who Learns Lives.

"Adapted to all the disorders which can be cured by the judicious use of a physic."—DR. SAM'L MCCONNELL, Montpelier, Vt.

"A safe and reliable Cathartic."—DR. W. C. KING, Spencer, Mich.

"They have entirely corrected the costive habit and vastly improved my general health."—REV. F. B. HARLOWE, Atlanta, Ga.

"Better than any other Cathartic."—M. P. SUMMEROW, Austin, Texas.

The Best Cathartic Medicine in the World.

Ayer's Pills.

PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO., [Analytical Chemists] LOWELL, MASS.
Sold by all Druggists.

CAMMON THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE,
THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF
CLARK UNIVERSITY,
Atlanta, Georgia,

Offers Superior Attractions to Young Men preparing for the Ministry,

A New and Elegant Building.
Two Professors Exclusively for this Department.
All the Advantages of a Large and Experienced University Faculty,
A Large and Well Selected Library,
A Location unsurpassed, 1000 feet above the sea. Healthful for students from mountains or low lands.
VERY LIGHT EXPENSES.
For full Information Address,
Rev. W. P. THIRKIELD, Dean,
or Rev. E. O. THAYER, President. [oc18-tf

Edw. Heath, DEALER IN Wall Paper,

Cocoa and Canton Matting, Rugs, Mats, Upholsterer's Materials, Window Shades, Cornices, and Curtain Goods,
Frames, Mouldings, Mirrors, Plates, Wire Screens, Etc.
75 Camp Street ..... New Orleans.
Liberal discount to the trade. Samples of WALL PAPER sent upon application. oct2-6m

Crescent Insurance Company.

Incorporated as a Mutual Company in 1849. Re-organized as a Stock Company in 1880.
CASH CAPITAL.....$600,000.
Has paid paid nearly TEN MILLIONS for losses since 1849. Annual and Term Policies issued on Desirable Fire Business.
W. R. Lyman, President, Chas. H. Dotson, Vice President, Chas. E. Rice, Sec'y.

TRUSTEES

Joseph Bowling,	Sam H. Kennedy,	Geo. W. Sentell,	Alfred Moulon,	W. B. Congur
W. R. Lyman,	C. Marimont,	Chas. H. Dotson,	John Calder,	A. H. Steward
R. C. Coulon,	Harry L. Nash,	Wm. A. Pueiga	J. J. Reiss,	Louis Prados
Ludger Delery,	Charles Newman,	N. D. Wallace,	Sigmund Katz,	M. Gillis
R. F. W. Bechman,	O. K. David,	Wm. Garig,	F. Rosenfeld,	John D. Fiche
Chas E. Rice,	Joseph Kohn,	Chas. M. Whitney,	James T. Rodd

See our Agents throughout the South. oc9 1y

The Great Church LIGHT.
[illegible] Most Powerful, the Softest, Cheapest and the Most Perfect Light for Churches, Stores, Show Windows, Depots, Halls, Dwellings, Parlors, Banquet Tables, Offices, Billiard and Pool Rooms, Hotels and Steamboats. Send size of room. Get circular and estimate. Liberal discount to churches and the trade. A. F. FRINK, 554 Pearl Street, N. Y.

CHILDS' CATARRH
Treatment For
And Diseases of the HEAD, THROAT & LUNGS. Can be taken at home. No one [illegible] answered. Write for circulars, testimonials, etc. REV. T. P. CHILDS, Troy, O.N.Y.
oct9-1y

OUR CLUBBING LIST,
—1885—

Persons sending us cash with their orders can have the SOUTHWESTERN one year together with any one of the following publications, for amount opposite each as named:

Littell's Living Age	$8 00
Outing	3 00
Wide Awake	4 25
Babyland	1 75
Our Little Men and Women	2 25
The Pansy	2 00
Our Little Ones and the Nursery	2 25
American Agriculturist	2 50
Southern Cultivator	2 75
Popular Science Monthly	6 00
New York Medical Journal	6 00
Illustrated Christian Weekly	3 25
Harper's Magazine	5 00
Harper's Weekly	5 00
Harper's Bazar	5 00
Harper's Young People	3 00

GEORGE LANDRY,

Undertaker.

222.....Bumpass Street.....222
(Between Hospital and Barracks streets)
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Entrepreneur de Pompes Funebres.
All orders promptly and carefully executed at moderate prices.
sep13-6t A. LANAT, Ass't Manager.

Plantation Melodies
—AND—
REVIVAL HYMNS.

By MARSHALL W. TAYLOR, D D.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION
By Rev. F. S. HOYT, D.D., Editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

Second Edition, Enlarged and Improved.

Bound in cloth, gilt, 272 pages, and portrait. Sent, post-paid, on receipt of price, 60 cents.

Address, PHILLIPS & HUNT,
32 Natchez street, New Orleans.

HEADQUARTERS
—FOR—
Sunday-school Supplies
Consisting of
GOSPEL HYMNS, single and combined with a without music.
Bibles and Testaments, Teachers' Bibles: Bible Dictionaries.
Union Primers, First and Second Reading Books Union Spelling Books, Catechisms, Reward Cards, Ticket Books and Cards, Tune Text Books etc., etc. Also a large assortment of Books suitable for Libraries or presents to children. PULPIT and FAMILY BIBLES from $3 to $12 00. Liberal discount made to Sunday-school workers. Call and examine the stock.
W. E. SKILLMAN, Agent
34.....Camp Street, ...34
25tf NEW ORLEANS.

[illegible] Preparation. Used with any class of [illegible] Sold by all Druggists & News Ag'ts.
may22-11t eow

RAILROADS.

Ohio & Mississippi R. R
In Connection with the
"Great Jackson Route,"
Makes the following
FAST TIME.

STATIONS. Leave	Daily
New Orleans, C. S. & L. & N. O.	5:30 p m
Jackson, Miss	12:26 a m
Canton	1:00 a m
Durant	2:02 p m
Grenada	4:20 a m
Coffeeville	5:26 a m
Water Valley	6:00 a m
Oxford	6:45 a m
Holly Springs	7:44 a m
Grand Junction	9:15 p m
Jackson, Tenn., C., St. L. & N. O.	1:05 a m
Milan " " "	12:20 p m
Martin " " "	1:32 p m
Fulton " " "	2:00 p m
Cairo, Central Illinois	4:30 p m
Carbondale "	6:56 p m
DuQuoin "	7:45 p m
Ashley "	8:30 p m
Centralia "	9:10 p m
Arrive at Odin at	9:30 p m
Leave Odin, Ohio & Mississippi	9:35 a m
" Louisville "	6:30 a m
" Cincinnati "	7:30 a m

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

Passengers living on the line of the C. St. L. & N. O. R. R. will please remember that a Through Sleeping Car runs from New Orleans to Cincinnati, via Odin and the O. & M. Railway. Berths can be secured by applying to any of the Agents of the Great Jackson Route.

The reputation of the Ohio & Mississippi for being "ON TIME" is unequaled. If you are pushed for time this is the Line to take.

W. W. PEABODY,
President and General Manager.
W. B. SHATTUC,
General Passenger Agent.
Cincinnati, Ohio. 1y31tf

BIG J GREAT JACKSON ROUTE.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R. CO.

Double Daily Passenger Trains.

LEAVE.	ARRIVE.
Express No. 2..9:15 a. m.	Mail No. 1....7:00 a. m.
Mail No. 4.....5:30 p. m.	Express No. 3..10:40 p. m.
Sunday Exc'n 7:30 a. m.	Sunday Exc'n 5:30 p. m.

The standard gauge, steel rail route to all points North, East and West, with Pullman Sleepers through WITHOUT CHANGE to Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Cincinnati, and BUT ONE CHANGE TO NEW YORK and other Eastern cities.]

Ticket Office, 22 Camp St., Cor. Common.

WM. MURRAY,
General Southern Passenger Agent.

J. W. COLEMAN, Asst. Gen'l Pass. Agt. | MACEE [illegible]DY, Agent.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The old reliable route to all Eastern cities. Through without change to Mobile, Montgomery, Pensacola, Nashville, Louisville, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Savannah, St. Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Lynchburg and Washington, D. C., in Pullman cars. Entire trains through from New Orleans to Louisville.

	Leaves.	Arrives.
Express	9:00 a m	7:45 a m
Coast Accommodation	5:30 p m	9 10 a m
Fast Mail	6 20 p m	7:30 p m

Only one change of cars to Northern and Eastern cities. Ticket office corner St. Charles and Common streets, where sleeping car accommodations can be secured. O. P. ATMORE, General Passenger Agent.

W. H. Kniskern, Ticket Agent; J. T. Hanahan, General Manager; John Kilkeny, Assistant General Passenger Agent, New Orleans; O. M. Dunn, Superintendent N. O. and M. Division. oct2-1y

THE NEW SHORT ROUTE
TO
Kansas and the West.

Attention is called to the new Kansas City railroad line now completed and in operation between Memphis, Tenn. and Kansas City, Mo. By this new route the south and west is brought into close relation. Saving several hundred miles and many hours travel between the two sections. It is in fact now the only practical route from the south to all points in Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and all western states. A through train with Pullman Palace Sleeping car and elegant day coaches leave Memphis daily, running through to Kansas City without change of cars, where it arrives in time to make connection in the Grand Union Depot with all trains leaving Kansas City, for emigrants to the Pacific coast and the Northwest, or for home seekers in Kansas and Missouri, time and money is saved by this short route as against the circuitous routes via St. Louis, heretofore the only outlet. Special low rates are made for this class of business and all are carried through to Kansas City in first class cars on first class trains. Round trip, Land Explorers' tickets on sale at low rates. Send for the Southwest Guide, an eight page paper, giving full and reliable information in regard to Kansas and Missouri, mailed Free.

J. E. LOCKWOOD,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Kansas City,
or H. D. BATES,
Tkt. Agt. 31 Madison St. Memphis, Tenn.
O. N. WILSON,
Southern Pass. Agt 32 Wall St. Atlanta, Georgia.

CATARRH

[illegible] 60 cts. and [illegible] Treatment, to last 30 days, by mail, prepaid. With each treatment we make [illegible] Inhaling Tube, and permanently cure all kinds of Catarrh, by a few applications, the worst cases of Catarrh, Hay Fever, Deafness, Bronchitis, Loss of Smell, Sore Throat, Coughs, Colds, Headache, Incipient Consumption, Scrofula, Chronic Nasal Troubles, Sores, Ulcers, Tumors, Cancers, Piles, Fistula, Diseases of the Rectum, Kidneys, Liver, Stomach, Blood, Nervous Prostration, Female Weaknesses, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Erysipelas, Eczema, Blood Poisons, Boils, Carbuncles, Scald Head, Ringworm, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scarlet Fever, Measles, Chicken Pox, Mumps, Whooping Cough, Croup, Diphtheria, Typhoid Fever, Malarial Fevers, Chills and Fever, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Biliousness, Jaundice, Dropsy, Gout

Pages 7 + 8

Issue #52

Missing

ATLA
No. 180

END

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

formerly: CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE SOUTHWESTERN EDITION
& NEW ORLEANS ADVOCATE

1884

NEW ORLEANS & NASHVILLE

Photographed for:
THE AMERICAN THEOLOGICAL LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
MICROTEXT PROJECT
by:
Commission on Archives & History, United Methodist Church
Lake Junaluska, N. C.

Reduction Ratio:

